Water Treatment Plant Survey Ordered

City To Initiate $870,000 Bond Issue

The City Commission in special session Wednesday night authorized Engineers Clark, Dailey and Dietz to survey some three acres by the Mayfair Golf Course for construction of a water treatment plant.

At the same time, the board authorized Fiscal Agent Loomis Leedy to come up with detail cost estimates for a $870,000 bond issue to finance a long range water improvement program.

Leedy indicated that a straight bond issue would amount to an increase of 76 cents per water user and also presented a plan for a combined issue which would mean a very small increase in rates.

The board also told Dr. Jess Dietz of the engineering firm to proceed with soil boring for the treatment plant as well as design and plans for the ground storage reservoir.

The complete water improvement program is expected to cost over $800,000 with the following breakdown:

New well field including three new wells, $50,400; Transmission lines, $279,100; Plant, $278,000 storage reservoir, $85,000.

Dr. Dietz presented three plans on water treatment to the board with the commission okaying the aeration-pretreatment plan whereby the water is treated to get rid of the sulphur, chlorinated for four hours before being pumped into the mains.

City Manager W. E. Knowles said this morning that it would take about five months before the ground storage would be ready for operation which would not relieve the worsening city water supply for this summer during the peak days.

Appreciation Week

Unusual Exhibits To Spark Industrial Show Here Tuesday

Many interesting and unusual exhibits will highlight the Seminole Industrial Show Tuesday evening at the Sanford Civic Center when 40 or more firms will join in the second annual observance of "Industry Appreciation Week" as proclaimed by Gov. Farris Bryant.

More than 200 communities throughout the state will hold special events Tuesday evening when Governor Bryant will speak over a closed television hookup between 8 and 8:15 p. m.

"Florida is constantly gaining new industries," the Governor has noted. "Existing plants are being expanded at a phenomenal rate. Manufacturers and their employees in Florida have made and are making great contributions to the economy of the state. They have contributed greatly in making the state a healthy and successful place in which to live and work and play."

Teacher List To Be Increased

Seminole County's teacher list will be increased 35 to 380 by the beginning of the 1963-64 school year, School Supt. R. T. Wilwee said this morning.

The School Board, in meeting this afternoon, was expected to reappoint most of the present 345 teachers. "We will lose about 10-12 for various reasons," Wilwee said, "and will begin employing new teachers next week."

Bids were to be opened for floor maintenance machinery and supplies.

Auto Industry Prices Steel

Detroit (UPI) — The auto industry, which hasn't raised car prices since 1958, adopted today a wait-and-see attitude over the latest price changes in the industry.

Automakers were studying the $6 per ton hike announced Wednesday by Wheeling Steel Corp. but seemed agreed the boost would have no bearing on 1963 car prices.

It appeared likely, however, that if there was an industry-wide steel price hike, cars would cost more next year.

Hotel Sale

ORLANDO (UPI) — The 225-room Cherry Plaza Hotel will be sold to Frank E. Flynn and Joel L. Moore for about $2 million, according to Cherry Broadcasting Co. officials.

Semi-Centennial Entry Blank

Organizations, clubs, schools and businesses of Seminole County are urged to enter the Semi-Centennial Parade. Fill out and mail the coupon below to Parade Chairman, P. O. Box 1543, Sanford, Fla. Deadline for entries is April 15, 1963.

Welding & Fabricating Co., Seminole High School Drafting and design technology class, Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., Southern Chemicals, Inc., Stine Machine & Supply, Wheeler Fertilizer Co., Winter Park Telephone Co., and York-Eger Mfg. Co.

Scott Burns, industrial committee chairman of the Chamber of Commerce said still other firms are expected to have exhibits on display Tuesday evening.

Following Governor Bryant's address there will be a "Fashions Show" at 8:15 p. m. and a snack bar. The show will be concluded with the naming of Seminole County's "Man of Industry."

Zoners Okay Shopping Center

Recommendation to the County Commission for a zoning change permitting construction of a shopping center at SR 436 and 14 was approved by the Zoning Commission Wednesday evening.

The recommendation was approved in spite of protests by a delegation of 40 residents of Dolray Manor.

Win-Mac Corporation, of Winter Park, which is planning the shopping center, requested the rezoning from residential and agriculture to commercial for the southeast corner of the intersection. The recommendation will be for all the area excepting the east 150 feet, which will serve as a buffer between the commercial and residential areas.

Mystery Clouds Steel Battle

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A residential emergency bill was scheduled to convene today in an effort to head off a nationwide rail-strike over work rules.

A special fact-finding bill was appointed by President Kennedy a week ago as the final step available under the National Railway Labor Act to prevent a walkout.

A president's action automatically barred both the unions and the railroads from changing the status quo for 60 days, or until June 2. The bill has until May 3 to study the problem and another 30 days to write a report. Its recommendations will not be binding on either party.

Mystery Clouds Steel Battle

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House clouded in mystery today developments that might, or might not, revive President Kennedy's 1962 price-rise battle with steelmakers.

Kennedy scheduled an afternoon departure from the White House for an Easter vacation at Palm Beach, Fla., after twice postponing it Wednesday with the alibi of explanations.

While steel shares yo-yoed up - down - and - up on Wall Street, Presidential Press Secretary Pierre Salinger led newsmen through a day-long chase.

Hope Abandoned For Missing Sub

WASHINGTON (UPI) — All hope was abandoned today for the nuclear-powered submarine USS Thresher, lost with 129 men aboard where the stormy North Atlantic is 8,400 feet deep.

The Thresher "has indeed been lost," Adm. George W. Anderson reported at a news conference in the late morning.

Anderson, chief of naval operations, made the announcement with deep regret in disclosing that a second oil slick and materials possibly from the interior of the submarine had been found in the area where it made a test dive Wednesday.

The materials were described as cork and plastic of types used "in the internal construction of submarines."

The second oil slick was found at 10:20 a. m. today, Anderson told a news conference. The first was spotted shortly before dark Wednesday.

Although Anderson wrote off any chance for recovery of the submarine or that any of the 129 men might be alive, he said search efforts would continue to fix the exact spot of the disaster and recover materials or bodies that might come to the surface.

The disaster is the U. S. Navy's worst submarine tragedy in peace or war. It is the worst single ship tragedy in peacetime for any kind of U. S. naval vessel.

Anderson said he had ordered the deep diving bathysphere Trieste, now at San Diego, Calif., brought across the country by rail to aid in the search.

The Trieste has gone as deep as seven miles, whereas the Thresher apparently went down in a mile and a half of water at a point about 220 miles east of Cape Cod.

Anderson said there was "absolutely no possibility" that a line could be attached for salvage from such a depth. He described as "very remote" the possibility that any bodies would float to the surface.

Anderson said he abandoned hope for two reasons. In addition to the fact that materials were recovered, he said he could see no possibility that all communications would have been blacked out if the vessel had not met disaster.

Anderson's desolate report that hope had been abandoned for the sub and the men was given to newsmen about 25 hours after the last contact with the vessel.

Aboard the 3,750-ton vessel were a crew of 112 and 19 civilians, the latter technicians who were checking out equipment installed during a recent overhaul job at Portsmouth, N. H.

Last word from the Thresher came shortly after 9 a. m. Wednesday as she began a maximum test dive in 8,400 feet of water.

Steps to get immediate police protection in North Orlando were taken Wednesday night by the Village Council when Councilman Bob Stephenson was authorized to organize a volunteer police department which will be headed by Dave Tison as chief of police.

Activities of the department will come under direct supervision of the council and volunteers, all to be qualified men, will be sought from each area including the Ranch Section.

A search also is on to find a qualified man to serve as judge. The Village charter specifies that he must be an attorney and a member of the Florida Bar.

Stephenson, pointing out that Justice of the Peace Elmer Ashley, contacted previously, had offered to accept the job, was asked to check with Ashley as to his qualifications as called for in the charter.

Needed charter revisions as reported by the committee included correction to a part of Article 3, Section 2, to read: "no person shall hold elective office if there is any conflict of interest between said person and the municipality." The phrase, "subject to approval of a majority of the voting freeholders" was added to the sections affecting bonded indebtedness and power to borrow money.

Approval of the last two proposals was withheld for the present (time upon objection from Councilman Art Ferrin who said he would like to look further into the legal aspects of the recommendations before submitting the change in wording to the Legislature.

In other business at the general discussion meeting W. L. Robinson was appointed as an assistant building inspector to be in charge of electrical work; the need for citizens to volunteer as members of a fact finding committee on raising revenue for the village was discussed and Councilman Mrs. Irene Van Espel and Bob Stephenson, along with Tony Kreck, citizen, were named to serve as a volunteer recreation committee to look into needed improvements, especially at the ball park, and to come up with some means of supervision at the lake.

Mock Attack Destroys Daytona

DAYTONA BEACH (UPI) — A nuclear missile fired without warning in a mock attack, theoretically destroyed this student-filled holiday resort today in Florida's first test of its blood mobilization resources.

The mock attack came at 1 p. m. (EST) from an "enemy" submarine off the coast. Almost immediately, a civilian force of about 300 persons across Florida sprang into action to provide blood for the injured.

Bottles of simulated blood were rushed to regional blood bank centers at Jacksonville, Miami, Tampa, Orlando and Pensacola.

In an actual attack by a hostile power, the blood would be routed to the disaster area by the Civil Defense.

Today's test was the pilot operation in a nation-wide alert program by the American Association of Blood Banks, which has about 600 bank members in all 50 states.

WE GIVE PLAID STAMPS

One of the largest land transactions of the year was closed at noon today in the law offices of Stenstrom, Davis and McIntosh for a sum in excess of $100,000.

Kingswood Builders, Inc., represented by President William Brumley Jr. and Secretary-Treasurer Byron Leach, signed papers with B. W. Martin and Al Wallace Jr. for a tract of land adjacent to the Mayfair Golf and Country Club as a site of a new subdivision to be known as "Greenblair of Loch Arbor." Jim Hunt Realty handled the transaction.

Hyams will be offered during the three-hour service of meditation and prayer by the congregation and special music will be provided by soloists and choirs of each church.

Other services for today and Good Friday are announced by individual churches in Seminole County will be found on inside pages of today's Herald.

SRD Approves Tentative Budget

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Board Board adopted a tentative construction and maintenance budget today totalling $512.1 million, but estimated it will have funds to carry out only $445.9 million of the work.

The budget covers anticipated construction for the coming fiscal year which starts July 1.

South Seminole Junior High Holds Science Fair

By Jane Casselberry
South Seminole Junior High School at Casselberry held its first Science Fair last Friday night and the large group classroom was packed with parents and students who turned out to view the endless variety of projects on display.

Judges were Sal Manfre of the Lyman High Science Dept.; Don Reynolds of the Seminole High Science Dept. and David Miller of South Seminole. Winners were chosen on grade levels in three classifications, biology, earth science and physical science. Overall director for the entire fair was Rupert Jenkins.

First and Dennis Hearn, son of a mine shaft. Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dygert of Maitland. Second place went to Chlek Blupwarth, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Blupworth Jr. for his project on oil and natural gases.

Ninth grade winners in physical science were, first place, Earl Hishell, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hishell, for his analog computer and second, John Stuart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stuart of Altamonte Springs, with his automobile project.

Eighth grade biology winners were Nancy Erickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Erickson of Longwood, first prize for her project on "plants and photo-tropism and their responses" and second, Betty Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Davis of Maitland for her project on lung cancer.

In physical science, Stewart Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Voliva of Fern Park, won first place with a project on light and beam and Dale Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tucker of Casselberry, took second with "penet rhythm."

Judged best in the earth science class in the eighth grade was Theodorito, an instrument constructed by Ben Price for locating positions of stars. Ben is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Price Sr. of Lake Brantley.

Second place went to Sue Selby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Butler of Maitland, for her hurricane project and honorable mention went to Joy Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bishop of Casselberry, for her rock collection.

In the seventh grade biology winners were Barbara Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Smith of Longwood, first, with a display on the urinary system and Hank Hanna was second with an experiment on the "effect of light on periwinkles." Hank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hanna Sr. of Maitland.

Steve Schiffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murry Schiffman of Eastbrook took first place in the physical science with a complicated electronic baseball game. Second place went to Sharon Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Miller of Altamonte Springs, for her battery operated electronic fish caller.

Becky Hugue, daughter of Mrs. Jane Hugue of Casselberry, won in the earth science category with her project on constellations.

WW Club Sets Hobo Party In Casselberry

By Jane Casselberry
The South Seminole Newcomers Welcome Wagon Club is planning a Hobo Party for members and their husbands or dates at the Country Club at Casselberry on Saturday, April 20, at 6:30 p. m.

A Potluck Supper will be held with members bringing their contribution in a pot. The meat course will be provided.

The individual wearing the best costume will be crowned king or queen of the hobos. Following the supper the group will enjoy playing cards and dancing to records.

Those planning to attend may contact the president, Mrs. Luther Miles, for further details or reservations. The newcomers are excited over plans to take part in the Semi-Centennial Parade in Sanford on April 27 along with the Sanford Welcome Wagon Club. They plan to show "Welcome Wagons — Then and Now" with some of the members to ride in a covered wagon in old-fashioned dresses.

Lawmakers Hold Poll-Tax Key

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Legislators in eight states apparently hold the key to whether the anti-poll tax amendment will be written into the Federal Constitution this year.

When the Nebraska unicameral legislature approved the proposed 24th amendment last week, it became the 30th to ratify. Approval by eight more states is needed.

Need PH.D.'s

Martin Threatens Move

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The state university is not established in the Cape Canaveral area.

"It's no plan as this," said vice president G. P. Willey. "If we can't get and keep Ph.D.'s here, we'll have to follow them to California."

The senate committee on higher education is studying a proposal to establish a state university in Florida's Central East Coast area geared to handle science and mathematics technicians.

The bill, which does not include immediate appropriations for building the school, was also backed by officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and General Electric, who attended the meeting.

The committee took no action. The space officials said the housing said that, in fact, a four year university would not be enough. "We need a graduate school—now," said H. G. McNaab of General Dynamics, which is working on the man-in-space program.

Willey said that last year, Martin hired 14 scientists with Doctor of Philosophy degrees, "and lost eight of them."

"They said they were going to California where Cal Tech and other graduate schools are available."

Court Asked To Suspend 3

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Florida Bar asked the State Supreme Court Tuesday to suspend and reprimand three Miami attorneys on charges of professional misconduct.

Charged were Claude A. Epperson, Tom H. Youngblood and Bernard Marcus. The Bar said Epperson conspired to illegally bring a woman into the United States from Jamaica and asked that he be suspended for two years.

The committee took no action.

Book Bazaar Is Successful

By Shirley Westworth
The Bargain Book Bazaar held last Tuesday at the Bear Lake Elementary School for benefit of the school library today was termed a successful project by Mrs. Fleur Van Peil, school secretary.

Due to the fact that more than 1,000 volumes were donated and a good selection still is available, the project will be continued through the May 7 meeting of the Bear Lake PTA with hours set from 1:30 through 9:30 p. m.

Offered are numbers of books in fiction, non-fiction, foreign languages, texts and physics and all persons in the area are invited to take advantage of this opportunity to pick up some very good material at extremely low prices.

Proceeds will be used to purchase additional books suitable for shelves of the school library in order that accreditation standards may be reached by the next school term.

House Moves To Protect Home Owners On 'Liens'

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The House, in a rough session that lasted nearly four hours, raised legislative pay Wednesday and passed a bill to protect home owners against loss of their property as a result of "hidden liens."

Both bills now go to the Senate for action.

There was little debate on the bill raising the daily allowance of legislators during each 60-day session from $15 to $25. This is in addition to their year-round monthly salaries of $100.

But it took close to three hours to beat down a dozen attempts to amend the legislative council-drawn bill to revise the controversial mechanics lien law.

It finally passed with only five dissenting votes.

Of two amendments adopted, the major one would remove portions some lawmakers said created a "presumption of guilt" on the part of contractors.

Pushed through by Rep. Julian Bennett of Bay, the amendment will relieve situations in which a building contractor, who used money from payments of one person on expenses of another, could be faced with charges of an intent to defraud.

The mechanics lien law was passed years ago to provide security for people who, by labor, skill and materials, add value to property. But critics said it has been operating to cause double-billing to home owners innocent of knowledge of the law and, in some cases, has caused owners to lose their homes as a result of "hidden liens."

Under the revision as passed today, owners would be protected against having to duplicate a payment already made in good faith for building construction or repairs.

The next dance will be on Saturday, April 29, from 8 to 11 p. m. Refreshments were served by the Committee.

DeBary Firemen Enjoy Dance

By Mrs. Adam Muller
The DeBary Volunteer Firemen sponsored a Dance last Saturday evening at the Recreation Hall, Harold Jenkins instructed the dancers in several new steps to the tune of White Sands, which everyone enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrington gave two specialty numbers of Panamanian dances they learned during the years they spent in Panama.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stripp gave an exhibition of the "Golden Gate Waltz."

The Anniversary Waltz was played and the group sang to the Stripp's on their Twentieth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Redman did a specialty number, "The Rooking Chair Rock." There was also community singing by the group to "Sing Along With Mitch," and a good time had by all.

The next dance will be on Saturday, April 29, from 8 to 11 p. m. Refreshments were served by the Committee.

Carrier Boss Visiting At NAS Sanford

Captain Dick H. (Tex) Guinn, who is slated to command the attack carrier Forrestal, today will arrive at NAS Sanford for a two-day indoctrination in the Heavy Attack aviation program.

He was greeted at 11 a.m. by Capt. Joseph M. Tully Jr., Commander Heavy Attack Wing One, and officers of his staff.

This afternoon Capt. Tully, Charles W. Meshier, the Wing's Chief Staff Officer, and Comdr. James A. de Gansh, Wing Training Officer, will brief Capt. Guinn on carrier operations and the Heavy Attack Training program.

He will also learn about the missions and capabilities of the A5A Vigilante and A3H Skywarrior attack bombers, which are flown by Sanford-based units, including VAH-5, which deploys aboard the Forrestal when operating at sea.

Guinn was recently relieved of command of the USS Itzet, an Aviation Store Ship operating with the Atlantic Fleet. He will report to the Forrestal later this spring.

His visit to Sanford will conclude Friday with a flight in the A5A Vigilante, at 9 a.m.

Bank Directors Attend Meet

Four members of the board of directors of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank recently attended a bank directors conference at the University of Florida, sponsored by the College of Business Administration's Department of Finance and Insurance.

The program included discussions of the responsibility for loan investment and personnel policy and the reports needed to enable a director to effectively perform his duties.

Those attending included Bank President Howard Hodges, and directors Bill Hemphill, G. A. Speer Jr. and Ira Southward.

The Right-To-Know

If the people of Florida are to have full and free access to all information about their state government they are going to have to help themselves.

The Herald which has fought time and time again to have all meetings of all commissions in the county, city and school board open heartily endorses similar legislation enacted on a statewide basis which has the backing of our legislative delegation.

As matters stand now, however, the bill faces a steeply uphill battle. Most of the politicians in the state of Florida find great comfort in the loophole of the present law which permits them to have closed "conferences."

While the existing statute requires all official meetings of all public bodies to be open to the press and public, a court interpretation of the law permits meetings to be closed as long as no formal, official action is taken.

The effect of this interpretation, of course, has been to turn many official meetings into rubber-stamp sessions to approve the decisions which have been hammered out in the closed conferences.

The measure would require that all meetings of both elective and appointive public bodies, at which public matters are discussed, be open to the press and public.

This proposal is the only adequate type of safeguard for the public's right-to-know.

But, as we noted, it's going to be up to the people to help themselves.

The first group on which this self-help responsibility falls is the newspapers of the state. They are going to have to marshal their forces behind this legislation without equivocation and see the fight through to a successful conclusion.

The newspapers are going to have to spell out for their readers the importance of the issues involved and they are going to have to urge the public to demand approval by the State Legislature.

Unfortunately, there are all-too-frequent occasions when newspapermen go along with requests to withhold information if the newsmen, themselves, are informed.

A newspaper's responsibility is not to gather news for its own satisfaction but to gather the news for dissemination to the public. Until the full and complete report has been given to the reader, the newspaper has not completed its obligation.

Obviously, however, this is not a "newspaper fight" and the newspapers alone cannot bring about approval of the needed legislation. The primary responsibility for seeing the matter through rests with the people of Florida — those who will be most directly benefited by a strong freedom-of-information law.

Florida residents — individually and through their various civic and service organizations — are going to have to make clear to representatives and senators who speak for them in the State Legislature that they want this bill approved without delay.

The politician's greatest shield is public apathy. He can stand fast against any sort of progressive proposal so long as it fails to generate strong public support. If the people don't care, the politician reasons, why should he?

Certainly, this is one piece of legislation which cannot be presented apathetically, because it is the sort of thing which can break up too many comfortable political situations. An unlimited right-to-know for the public would hit the politician where he lives, so to speak, and he's not about to give up his strength without a fight.

Moreover, if the public is not willing to work for its right to know, then perhaps it does not deserve to have this right continued. There is really no point in preserving a right which people do not use.

The challenge is being squarely put to the people of Florida. They have the chance now to achieve an adequate safeguard for one of their most basic and precious rights — provided they are willing to take advantage of the opportunity.

Lyle C. Wilson Says:

Dependent On Creditors

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Americans would be surprised and alarmed to learn that the solvency of the United States depends now — and has for some time — on the forbearance of foreigners who are this nation's short-term creditors.

Solvency means an ability to pay all legal debts. It is calculated by the American Institute for Economic Research that short-term claims against the United States now exceed the U. S. gold available to meet them. The institute calculated foreign short term claims at $20 billion. U. S. gold holdings have shrunk to less than $10 billion.

The Citizens Foreign Aid

Committee calculates the situation somewhat more ominously. CFAC fixes foreign short-term dollar credits at $24.08 billion, redeemable on demand in gold. CFAC estimates other claims on the U. S. gold reserve at about $15 billion.

These claims include $12.00 billion in federal reserve notes, deposit liabilities and U. S. notes outstanding which, by law, are partly backed by gold.

It follows that if all foreign creditors demanded gold today, there would not be enough gold to pay the legal bills. The United States would not be solvent. If that tends to give Americans an uneasy feeling, there is more.

"The U. S. gold stock," explains the institute, "can be likened to a $10,000 house that is subject to a $20,000 mortgage that becomes due and payable whenever the mortgage holder decides to demand payment."

The institute and CFAC agree on what hit the U. S. gold reserve: "The answer is simple," said the institute, "For many years the United States has disbursed abroad more U. S. currency and credits than it has received from abroad. Through its vast foreign aid program and through large military expenditures in other countries it has placed these claims in the hands of foreign governments, central banks and individuals."

What the institute was describing is the situation that produces annually a balance of international payments unfavorable to the United States. That is, the United States has been for some years spending or giving away abroad more than it gets in return.

The principal creditors on whose forbearance depends the solvency of the United States are central banks of Western Europe. As the years of unfavorable trade balances continue and U. S. gold reserves shrink, there inevitably comes speculation about the future of the U. S. dollar.

CFAC concludes that foreign aid spending should be halted to obtain a favorable trade balance. The institute demands reduced foreign aid and a balanced budget at home to protect the dollar.

'I KNOW YOU'RE NERVOUS AND UPSET—!'

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

CARE P-410: Gwen T., aged 29, illustrates a shocking tragedy.

For when she was 19 and a college sophomore, she met a city slicker in Chicago.

Gwen fell in love at first sight.

"Dr. Crane," she explained, "when I looked up and our eyes first met, I just melted. Although I had never set eyes on Jack before, I knew he was the only man in the world for me."

"My heart palpitated and I had butterflies in my stomach. When he asked me for a dance, I could only nod, for I felt so ecstatic that I actually couldn't speak."

"And his very touch just sent electrical shocks all over my body. I trembled so much he asked me if I was cold and offered to get me a drink of hot coffee."

"But it was simply the emotional reaction that gave me those goose pimples."

"Well, I was putty in his hands. My friends and my parents and my older brother all told me I was crazy in the head even to think of marrying Jack."

"But I was hypnotized. Whatever he said or did was perfect. Jack was a gambler, but I glossed over that fact, even though he bled me of over $5,000 in bonds that my grandmother had left me in her will."

"And though I knew he had run around with other women, I still couldn't believe he ever did any wrong."

"Yet after we were married, I learned that he had been married twice before and wasn't even legally divorced from the second wife when our ceremony took place, so he was a bigamist even then."

"Later I had to go to the doctor because I became pregnant and had a miscarriage. When I learned that I had syphilis, which he had passed on to me from his contacts with immoral women."

"Now I am sterile and can never have a baby. For 10 years he has beaten me and abused me and taken every penny my mother would furiously give to me."

"For my father disowned me entirely when I eloped with Jack. Both my father and my brother told me Jack was a rotter and totally unfit."

"But I wouldn't believe them for I thought he was a Prince Charming. Now he has deserted me entirely and I am a physical wreck."

"And only after these 10 years can I begin to look upon Jack the way outsiders have viewed him."

"Oh, why did I think he was so wonderful when I first met him? My love at first sight has cost me all future happiness."

"What made Gwen fall so completely in love with this rotter named Jack, was simply the fact that Gwen had built up a tremendous amount of affection for her father and her brother."

But the old incest taboo prevented her from ever regarding them as marriage prospects.

Jack looked somewhat like those two men who had "out-raced" her affection, so when she saw Jack, he simply released those pent-up happy emotions that actually belonged to her father and brother."

The reason I mention this tragedy is to warn you unmarried men and women about the terrific hazard in love at first sight, for you then fall in love before you know whether you are suited to each other."

Listen to your family and friends before you marry, especially if your romance is love at first sight.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 5 cent stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Socialist Front Seen

By K. C. Thaler

LONDON (UPI) — Recent shifts to the political left have conjured up the specter of a "Socialist front" in Western Europe that might act in solidarity, as did the Catholic Christian Democrats in the years after the war.

In Britain where the Conservative government of Prime Minister Harold Macmillan is hard pressed, the Laborites have been gaining ground steadily and are at present confident they can win the next general election.

In West Germany Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Christian Democrats have suffered losses to the Socialists in West Berlin and, more recently, in the Rhineland, one of their strongholds.

In Italy leftist advances are predicted in the forthcoming elections.

Nowhere in the major Western European countries have the Socialists so far taken over power, but political observers see an orientation of Europe towards the left in the near future.

This prospect has set off speculation that a Socialist front might be welded in Western Europe.

Such a front, it is said would align Labor in Britain with Socialists in Germany, Italy, the Scandinavian countries, Belgium and the Netherlands—comparable to the post-war alignment of Catholic leaders of Germany, France and Italy.

Past experience has shown, however, that labor leaders in Europe appear more closely in tune when out of power than when in government.

Ernest Bevin, Britain's one-time foreign secretary and a formidable figure in the Labor government of the 1950s, was reluctant to lead Britain into Europe when Socialists on the continent were clamoring for a united Europe.

Nevertheless, there are strong common factors which auger well for an alignment. On some major issues they agree, as on the important and currently highly controversial problem of defense.

Britain's Labor leader Harold Wilson is closer to Kennedy on nuclear strategy than is Macmillan. Wilson is advocating that Britain abandon an independent deterrent and leave the monopoly in the West to the United States.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — President Kennedy's foreign aid message to Congress would thus be excluded. The present idea is to grant this tax credit for a trial period of undecided length to see how it would work.

The message is three times as long as last year's. The first nine pages deal with what an insignificant thing the whole U. S. foreign aid program really is — only seven-tenths of one per cent of the gross national product — but look how much good it does.

There is extra emphasis on how much the President himself has cut back the program from his January estimates.

There is full endorsement of the recent report from the President's Committee to Strengthen the Security of the Free World, headed by Gen. Lucius D. Clay. It called for a cutback of foreign aid to more realistic levels that both giver and receivers could afford.

Then, like a night club check at the end of the party, you get the bad news. The foreign aid bill for the year beginning July 1—even after being cut $420 million by the President — still comes up $4.5 billion in new obligations.

This is still $600 million more than Congress appropriated for the current fiscal year.

If this amount is intended to be chicken fat which Congress can cut out of the new program, the President probably will be accommodated by the budget cutters.

Military assistance requests are for $80 million more than this year.

Economic assistance requests are for $516 million more, though $210 million of this is for increased loans which presumably will be paid back. And over 80 per cent of this money is spent in the United States.

The only really new initiative in the foreign aid program for the coming year is a double-barreled proposal to increase private investments in the developing countries. This is a perfectly laudable effort since the intent is to reduce the government's outlays for foreign aid.

The first part of the program calls for revising the existing government guaranty on private investments abroad.

More than $200 million in guaranties is now outstanding. The total grew by $300 million in fiscal 1962 and for the first half of the current year the amount issued is $160 million.

In spite of this commendable increase there is much concern that the program is not working as effectively as it should because foreign governments won't sign the necessary agreements to make the guaranties effective.

The second proposal calls for amendment of U. S. tax law to give American taxpayers a credit for new investments in developing countries. Europe and Japan would thus be excluded.

The present idea is to grant this tax credit for a trial period of undecided length to see how it would work.

It is still an extremely fuzzy thing because the Treasury Department, which is working out the details, hasn't come up with anything definite on how big the credits would be. Present thinking is that they would be larger than tax credits granted on new investments which promote domestic growth.

This is an extremely tricky proposal. If the foreign credit is bigger than the domestic credit, it might become an incentive to build plants abroad to employ cheaper foreign labor.

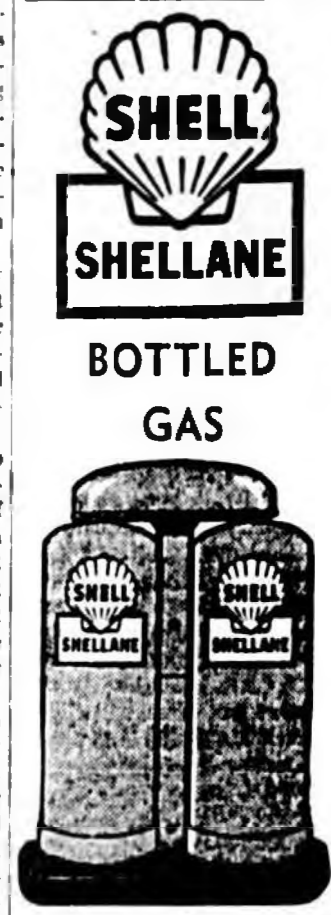

Such investments also might have a bad initial effect on America's balance of payments position, though this might be offset in part by the fact that equipment for any new investment abroad would have to be made and purchased in the United States.

The tax credit would be a one-time thing, applying only to the original investment. Foreign earnings from the original investment would not be eligible for the tax credit. A credit on reinvestment abroad of such earnings is being considered.

Net capital outflow from American investments in Latin America, Asia and Africa is reported by Department of Commerce at $395 million in 1961. Reinvested earnings in 1961 were $338 million for a total investment of $733 million. Figures for 1962 are not yet available.

In a speech in Mexico City last year, however, Treasury

Secretary Douglas Dillon declared that investments could be increased by $300 million to a $1 billion-a-year level. This would reduce government foreign aid somewhat. But the tax credit cost is unknown.

Altamonte Girl Scouts Make First Camping Trip

ALTAMONTE GIRL SCOUTS OF TROOP 628, organized just this year, made their first camping trip last weekend to Camp Ticochee. Pictured above are the 22 girls making the camp who enjoyed a weekend of hiking, cooking and playing games along with regular scout activities. Leader of the troop is Mrs. Gerald Connelly. Assistant leader is Mrs. John Stuart Jr. (Herald Photo)

Church Services Announced For Longwood

By Louise Simunek

Girl Scout Troop 628 of Altamonte Springs, organized this year, spent a long weekend at Camp Ticochee last week which was the first camping trip the troop has made.

The girls left Friday afternoon and returned home Sunday afternoon. They spent their time hiking, cooking, playing games and various other activities.

Patrons took turns in cooking the meals for the entire troop with help from the leaders. The adults took part in a short play depicting the story of light at the huge camping Saturday night. A long with the play the girls had a sing-along and made the last treat, "Sommers."

Of 29 registered members in the troop, 22 girls made the camping trip along with seven adults. Accompanying adults were Scout Leader, Mrs. Gerald Connelly, Assistant Leader Mrs. John Stuart Jr., Miss Lee Van Warner, Mrs. William Baker Jr., Mrs. Harlan Goplen, Mrs. Robert Watts and Mrs. Hugo Wolf.

Girls attending were Kathy Arthur, Rebecca Buell, Hollis Brownell, Diane Castle, Connie Connelly, Susan Dabbs, Karen Donaldson, Veronica Dalek, Kerry Goplen, Denise Greenhill, Roxanne Hasty, Kathy Kacar.

Cynthia Marene, Linda Norris, Donna Scott, Charlotte Smith, Gail Steele, Bonnie Stuart, Kathy Vaught, Cathy Watts, Nancy Watts and Patty Wolf.

The cost of running the home far exceeds the amount of contributions received from those in the care of the home, Dr. Starke said.

The home is a non-profit institution, but most of the persons in the home are elderly citizens with limited income. About one quarter of them contribute the maximum amount, $100 per month. Others contribute whatever they can but all receive the same care, said Dr. Starke.

Care furnished by the home includes room and board, nursing and medical care, linen and laundry services and wheel chairs if necessary.

Food, cooks, trained nurses and aides for day and night, gas for cooking and heating, lights and water, and linen must be paid for out of the resident contributions, which at the most amount to $3.33 per person per day.

Persons desiring to make contributions to the fund can send them to the Good Samaritan in Home at 801 Mulberry Ave. or in care of the Florida State Bank.

Local Man Wins UF Award

David L. Leonard of Sanford, who will graduate this year with a degree in architecture from the University of Florida was presented the Phi Beta Kappa Creativity Award at the annual Phi Beta Kappa Banquet, held in Gainesville last Friday.

This award is presented annually to the student who makes the greatest contribution through creative work in his major.

Leonard's submission of design projects was chosen over other entries from the College of Architecture and Fine Arts and the College of Arts and Sciences at the University.

Dean Turpin C. Baunister made the presentation which was a volume of architecture. Leonard was recently initiated into "Gargoyle," the honorary scholastic fraternity of the College of Architecture and Fine Arts.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Leonard of 2041 Holly Ave.

Bailey Grand Slams Frisco Giants To Victory

Pinch Hits Big Blow

By United Press International
Ed Bailey and Clay Dalrymple — a couple of major league catchers traveling in opposite directions on baseball's merry-go-round—have found the same route in leading their teams to come-from-behind victories.

The veteran Bailey, one-time standout catcher of the National League while with the Cincinnati Reds but now relegated to the second-string job, pinch-hit a grand slam home run Wednesday night in pacing the Giants to a 5-7 triumph over the Houston Colts.

The 28-year-old Dalrymple, starting his third year as a regular backstop, capped an eight-run outburst in the seventh inning with a two-run homer to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 10-7 victory over the Reds.

Sandy Koufax, pitching his first complete game since last July, held the Chicago Cubs to five hits in a 2-1 triumph for the Los Angeles Dodgers; Ray Washburn of the St. Louis Cardinals blanked the New York Mets, 4-0, and Donn Clendenon's homer led the Pittsburgh Pirates over the Milwaukee Braves, 3-2, in other games.

Houston led 7-4 going into the eighth inning, but reliever Don McMahon filled the bases and Bailey blasted his pitch 300-feet over the right field wall. Felipe Alou hit a homer and Orlando Cepeda added three hits for the Giants.

Don Demeter singled home the tie-breaking run and then Dalrymple connected — both coming on the first pitch served by the Reds' fourth hurler, Jim Brosnan. Johnny Callison also homered for the Phils.

Koufax, sidelined for the last half of the 1963 season with a circulatory ailment on his pitching finger, showed no effects from the injury, striking out 10 Cubs. With stars Maury Wills, Tommy Davis and Bill Skowron bunched with injuries the Dodgers made the most of five hits to beat old nemesis Bob Buhl.

Washburn set the Mets down on four hits, handing Casey Stengel's team its second straight shutout. Dick Groat's homer and Bill White's three hits paced the Cardinals' attack. Clendenon's second home run of the season came in the eighth inning to make Don Cardwell's debut as a Pirate a winning one.

The Red Sox scored all their runs off Los Angeles starter Dean Chance in the third inning. A two-run double by Carl Yastrzemski featured the outburst. Earl Wilson went the route for Boston, allowing six hits.

Two-run homers by Mickey Mantle and Elston Howard powered the Yankees to their victory at Kansas City. Bill Stifford was working on a three-hit shutout when he departed in the seventh inning with a sore elbow.

Two Shoot For Big No. 8 Win At SOKC

Both Sleek Ponda and Loyal Luke will be trying to annex an eighth win when they go to the post in the featured ninth race at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club tonight. Sleek Ponda, owned by Mrs. M. V. Kirkland, has already triumphed in two main events while Loyal Luke has come home first in four features.

Three greyhounds in tonight's top attraction have accounted for five firsts. They are Foxworth, Rucker Chair Jean and Abigail Sue.

In gaining the win, the Williams Girls banged out 18 hits including eight extra base blows.

Miller Hurls Five Hitter To Pace Yowell's

Billy Miller hurled a stunning five hitter to pace Yowell's to a 7-0 whitewash over the Engineers in National League Little League play Wednesday.

Miller was aided by some brilliant catches by Cecil Simpson and three stolen bases by Senkarik. George Hiltchcock also aided Yowell's cause with three hits.

In American League action, George's topped Sanford Atlantic 133 with Van Robbins picking up the win on the hill for George's.

Turman was the outstanding hitting star for George's collecting two doubles.

In other Little League action, Lake Mary defeated Casselberry, 6-4.

Celtics Kill Circi Dreams

By United Press International
The graybeards of basketball, Boston's veteran Celtics, pulled the bell rope to sound midnight for Cincinnati's Cinderella team and immediately turned to their newest title task.

The Celtics, faltering with age in recent weeks after seven seasons of total domination in the National Basketball Association, got hunting for their fifth straight world playoff crown on Sunday.

And the Celtics, who Wednesday night eliminated the Royals from the Eastern SBA playoffs, don't care whether St. Louis or Los Angeles wins the role of Western finalist.

The Lakers and Hawks, deadlocked at three wins apiece, clash in Los Angeles tonight for the Celtics in the best-of-seven finals starting here on Sunday. The second game of the finals will be here Tuesday before the teams go west for two games on yet undisclosed dates.

Alleged Fix Probe Ending?

ATLANTA (UPI) — Alabama Atty. Gen. Richard Flowers today was expected to complete the Georgia phase of his investigation of an alleged Southeastern Conference football scandal.

Flowers arrived Wednesday to question 8 to 10 persons involved in a report that former Georgia Athletic Director Wallace Butts and Alabama coach Paul Bear Bryant conspired to rig the 1962 Alabama-Georgia football game. Both Butts and Bryant have denied the report contained in a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post.

"We have completed our investigation but before we closed it we thought we would see if anyone in Georgia had anything to add," Flowers said on his arrival.

A CATCH TO IT

Clay Wants Patty; But Will Meet Cooper

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—of the 21-year-old Louisville if Cassius Clay had his way, his next fight would be with former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

But since Clay couldn't get together on terms with Patterson, he will meet British Empire champion Henry Cooper in a 10-rounder at London's Wembley Stadium probably June 18.

Cocky Cassius is to receive $50,000 or 27 1/2 per cent of the gate, which ever is greater, for the bout with the sturdy Englishman, who is ranked No. 8 among heavyweight contenders by the World Boxing Association.

Clay, who is ranked second behind Patterson for a shot at Sonny Liston's crown, was willing to box Patterson for 30 per cent of the gate in New York's Madison Square Garden. The offer came from New York matchmaker Teddy Brenner.

Floyd rebelled at the idea "annihilate" his opponent.

Player Top Choice In Greensboro Play

GREENSBORO, N. C. (UPI) — The $35,000 Greater Greensboro Open golf tournament got under way today over the 7,017-yard, par 72 Sedgefield Country Club course with two of golf's "big three" among the missing.

Gary Player, the diminutive South African who currently is No. 2 among the PGA money winners, leads the name contenders into the 26th annual GGO. Masters and U. S. champion Jack Nicklaus and crowd-pleaser Arnold Palmer, the other members of the "big three," were not competing.

Billy Casper of Apple Valley, Calif., who edged out big Mike Souchak of Durham, N. C., last year, defended his title in a field of some 140 pros and amateurs. The 72-hole tournament ends Sunday.

Charlie Sifford, Negro pro from Los Angeles, was back. Sifford became the first Negro to play in this tournament in 1961 and he led the field after the first round in his initial appearance.

The 1963 GGO featured a profit-sharing plan for the first time. It guarantees a minimum purse of $35,000 with an amount above that based on gate receipts to be determined on the final day. The bonus plan is similar to that utilized by the Masters.

Veteran Sam Sneed, who has won the GGO seven times including the inaugural in 1938, has been in Greensboro all week, fishing and golfing. Sneed, now 50, carded a four under par 67 in a practice round and then went fishing in a nearby pond.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am married and have five children. I am 27 and have a sister who is 18. She has lived with us for the past five years. My husband hasn't slept with me in two years. He insists that he is not in love with my sister, but if a boy tries to see her he goes crazy. He takes her places and I sit at home with the kids. I am a good mother and want to be a good wife, but my husband is so busy looking at my sister he doesn't even see me. I mentioned sending her away and he raised the roof. What should I do?
CONFUSED AND UPSET

DEAR ABBY: Your sister is old enough to have boy friends, and, if necessary, she is old enough to live elsewhere. YOU raise the roof and tell your husband you refuse to put up with his behavior any longer. Consult your clergyman or The Family Service Association for guidance. Your marital situation is desperately in need of repair.

DEAR ABBY: I read in your column some time back where some couples got married on horseback. Some even got married under water. My boyfriend and I want to know what you think about our getting married on motorcycles.
MOTORCYCLE CRAZY

DEAR MOTORCYCLE CRAZY: Not much.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is a couple who drop in on us all the time. It used to be about once a week. Now it's almost every night. The woman has the loudest mouth in town. When she laughs or talks she scares my baby to tears. She wears her clothes so tight there is no guessing about anything. I have nothing in common with this woman and my husband has nothing in common with her husband. We've never visited them or asked them to visit us. How can you tell people you don't want to socialize with them?
NOT THEIR TYPE

DEAR NOT: When they appear at your door, tell them you are sorry you can't invite them in because you have "plans." (You could have "planned" to be alone.) I guarantee you that after you say these magic words three times, they will disappear.

DEAR ABBY: I just want to say that a woman has never been kissed until she's been kissed by a man with a mustache.
BEEN KISSED

Tonight it's a similar swindle with a husband taking poison and accusing his partner of attempted murder. He then is murdered, with his wife and his partner becoming co-defendants. There's some intricate side-plots and an excellent cast including Gloria Talbot, Gerald Mohr, Douglas Henderson and George MacReady, with stars Raymond Burr and Barbara Hale. 8:30-9:30 p.m. NBC. Dr. Kildare. "Sleeping Princess." A rather sluggish story that succeeds in being only mildly interesting. Dr. Kildare (Richard Chamberlain) clinics with a hospital psychiatrist (Alex Davion) over whether a teenage girl (June Harding) is or is not sane.

strong in distribution so after his partner jumps to four clubs South has definite interest in a club slam. His problem is how to show this interest. He can use Blackwood and if North shows two aces South can afford to bid six clubs, but if North shows only one ace South will have dug himself into a hole with no way out. North probably has two aces, but he could have a sound four-club bid with only one ace so four no-trump is a bad bid. The right bid is four diamonds. It is possible that North will believe that South is showing first round control and pump to six with only one ace, but North has already bid pretty strongly and is unlikely to go slam crazy without two aces. The four diamond bid makes things easy for North. He considers going to seven, but abandons that idea. He has bid a heart and jumped in clubs with only 13 high card points so he contents himself with the lay-down six clubs.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

The French (like the Americans) are running into an increased divorce rate because so many couples are marrying too young. This report comes from Rosette Hargrove, Paris correspondent for Newspaper Enterprise Association. And what steps are the French considering to meet the problem? Well, the French are talking about establishing marriage counselor bureaus in various sections of Paris and in the larger provincial cities to help young couples get off on the right foot matrimonially. That might be some help. But the only real and sensible answer to the problem of too-early marriages is for parents to discourage them before they take place. Can they do it? Of course they can. They can put an end to early dating, going steady in high school, letting their teenagers get the idea they can do anything they please because "all the other kids can." But, most important of all, parents can impress their teenagers with the fact that once they marry they are completely on their own. Sixteen-year-olds who marry today confidently assume that their parents will give financial support to such marriages. They also assume that when the first baby comes along, they can palm him off on one of their mothers if the wife needs to work—or at least they can count on their parents' keeping the baby in the evening so they can get out and have fun. In short, what they want is to play house—with parents obligingly saying, "Don't worry, children, we'll see you through this." Marriage wouldn't look nearly so inviting to kids who aren't old enough to be self-supporting and self-reliant if they knew that marriage meant standing on their own feet right from the start. Ninth Birthday Celebrated

By Donna Estes

Mark Kendrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Kendrick, 796 Lormann Circle South, Longdale celebrated his ninth birthday with a party at his home Sunday.

His young guests enjoyed an enthusiastic game of baseball before being served birthday cake, punch and ice cream by his mother, while his adult guests were served cake and coffee.

Young guests included Jay Felgar, Pam King, Don Kendrick, John Addison, Danny O'Neal, Jimmy Finch, Terry King, George Jamison, and Tracy Estes.

Adults present were Mr. and Mrs. George Felgar, Mrs. C. L. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. King, and Miss Linda King.

Hoot Owl Wives Plan Projects Social Events

The Hoot Owl Officers' Wives of VAH-9 have embarked upon a series of projects and social events while their husbands are deployed on the USS Saratoga in the Mediterranean area. They have planned dinners, bridges, learning new hobbies and "fun days."

The first of these events was held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Shipman, soon after the squadron departed, in the form of a "pot-luck" dinner. Plans for the summer activities were the major discussion. A large group of the wives enjoyed the evening and had as their guest Mrs. G. Cova, the mother of Mrs. R. H. Cooke.

Another affair was held recently in the lovely lake home of Mrs. J. L. McCracken in the form of a coffee. Coffee cake was enjoyed and the monthly business meeting was conducted by Mrs. G. K. Kimmons.

Mrs. T. B. Wood reported from the Naval Officers' Wives Club board meeting on the next social event of May 4. Hobby projects to be sponsored by the Club were discussed. Also charity work for the Club and the Hoot Owl Wives were reviewed.

Another coffee is scheduled at the Kimmons home in the near future. A new member of the group was welcomed, Mrs. G. L. Thompson, and a baby gift was presented to Mrs. R. H. Cooke.

Others attending were Mrs. T. E. Quilan, D. F. Munday, E. F. Havel, R. D. Harrop, J. J. Moynihan, C. R. Jasper, W. J. Fordham, A. F. Reno, J. L. Shipman and D. G. Tisc.

MRS. HERBERT GOERSS, left and Mrs. R. L. Andrews, chairman and co-chairman of the "Around the World" amorgasbord planned by the Ladies Aid of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, talk over last minute details. The dinner is set for April 20 at the Church, 103 W. 25th Place and serving will be from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Goerss says "It will be an all you can eat" dinner with tickets limited to 500. Tickets may be obtained from any of the church ladies. (Herald Photo)

Easter Program Presented By OES

An Easter program was participated in by 38 members and visitors of Seaside Chapter 2, Order of Eastern Stars, recently.

Attending Grand Chapter in session at Jacksonville were worthy matron, Mrs. Charles Cole; associate patron, R. E. Pearlfay and Mrs. Pearlfay; treasurer, Mrs. L. T. Sheppard and organist, Mrs. Joseph Leinhardt. Due to the absence of the worthy matron, the meeting was conducted by Mrs. L. E. Estes, associate matron.

The marshal lighted tall white tapers on either side of a styrofoam cross in the East. At the base of the cross was a large square of styrofoam on which rested an opened Bible surrounded with fern. Mrs. Estes gave Bible quotations applicable to the Easter season, after which Mrs. Nick Pfeiffauf sang "Christ the Lord is Risen". Worthy patron, J. E. Blackman, gave a short reading and Mrs. Pfeiffauf sang "Hail the Long-awaited Saviour" and after another scripture by Mrs. Estes, said "My Faith Looks Up."

Mrs. Marie Bowen signed the by-laws of the chapter thereby affiliating with Chapter 6 in Titusville. Officers who served the friendship program in New Smyrna Beach and Daytona Beach recently gave reports. Three of the officers have been invited to serve the friendship program in Dunell on April 23.

Mrs. Byron Leach gave a report of the opening session of Grand Chapter which she and Mr. Leach and Miss Anna Muir attended.

The chapter room was decorated with a pot of Easter lilies in the East, an arrangement of pink amaryllis in the West, and bowls of nasturtiums on the conductress' pedestals and the secretary's desk.

Due to the absence of officers attending Grand Chapter, the following officers substituted for them: Harvey Dunn, associate patron; W. D. Causey, sentinel; Mrs. John Shepard, treasurer; Mrs. Laura Platt Brown, organist; and Mrs. R. W. Turner, chaplain.

Hostesses were Mrs. Estes and Mrs. P. A. Rowland, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Johns. The dining room table was overlaid with a white cloth and centered with trailing fern interspersed with nasturtiums. Coffee, cookies, and small chocolate Easter eggs were served.

The male jaguar is from six to seven feet long when full grown. It stands 28 to 30 inches tall and weighs 175 to 250 pounds.

Homemakers

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson

A nice Thursday before Easter to you. I guess that most of you housewives have already planned that important dinner for Easter Sunday. I have talked to quite a few ladies and most of them are centering it around baked ham. Let's try some of these recipes using ham. To bake a ham around 12 to 15 lbs. (also smoked), place ham, fat side up, on rack in open roasting pan. Insert meat thermometer so that the bulb reaches the center of the thickest part. Be careful that the bulb does not rest in fat or on bone. Do not add water nor cover. Roast in a slow oven 300 degrees until the meat thermometer registers 160 degrees. Allow 18 to 20 minutes per pound for roasting.

I found this recipe in my "Florida Meat Recipes" cookbook. It is called Ham slaw. This can be made the next day with the ham leftover. 2 to 3 cups diced cooked ham 2 eggs 2 tbsps. sugar 1/2 tsp. salt 1/4 tsp. pepper 1/4 cup vinegar 1/4 cup water 3 cups coarsely chopped cabbage 1 medium carrot thinly sliced 1/2 cup chopped green pepper

1/4 cup chopped onion Cabbage or lettuce leaves Beat eggs. Add salt, pepper, vinegar and water. Cook slowly, stirring constantly, until mixture is slightly thickened, about 2 to 3 minutes. Chill. Combine ham, cabbage, carrot, green pepper and onion. Add dressing and toss together lightly. Serve in lettuce or cabbage-lined salad bowl. Serves 6.

Now how about this Ham and Sweet Potato Casserole? 1 1/2 cups diced cooked ham 6 cups cooked sweet potatoes 2 eggs beaten 1/2 cup milk 1 1/2 tbsps. lemon juice 1/2 tsp. salt or to taste Brown ham slightly in 1 tablespoon butter or ham fat. Whip potatoes until smooth and combine with beaten eggs, milk, lemon juice and salt. Again whip thoroughly; mix with brown ham and drippings and turn into a buttered casserole. Bake in a moderate oven (350) degrees 45 minutes. Serve hot. Serves 5.

We have a request for a Sour Cream Peach Pie. Who can come to her rescue? Let us hear from you. She says she "likes every kind of pizza that there is."

How does this sound? Rhubarb Cheese Pie. 1/2 cup shortening 1/2 cups sliced flour 1 tsp. salt 2 to 3 tbsps. water 2 pkgs. (1 lb. each) frozen rhubarb 2 tbsps. cornstarch 1/2 cup sugar 4 pkgs. (3 ounces each) cream cheese 2 eggs 1/2 cup sugar 1 cup dairy cream (sour)

Sift flour with salt in a bowl. Cut in shortening using a blender or fork, until mixture is the consistency of cornmeal and small peas. Sprinkle cold water, a little at a time over flour mixture. Toss together lightly with a fork. Place dough on waxed paper. Knead 3 times. Press gently into a ball. Let stand for 20 minutes. Lightly flour pastry board. Roll dough in to a circle 1/4 inch thick. Fold dough over rolling pin and lift into pan. Press from center out to remove air bubbles. Fold edge of pastry under and make fluted high edge. Blend together rhubarb, cornstarch and 1/2 cup sugar. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Bake in oven 425 degrees for 15 minutes. Meanwhile blend together the cream cheese, eggs and 1/2 cup sugar. Remove pie from oven at end of 15 minutes. Reduce oven to 350 degrees. Spoon cream cheese mixture over top of fruit filling. Return pie to oven and continue baking for about 30 minutes. Cool. Spread sour cream over top of pie. Refrigerate until ready to serve. This makes a 9 inch pie.

To prepare crust, combine the crumbs and sugar. Add melted butter and stir until thoroughly blended. Pack mixture firmly on the bottom and about 1/2 of the way up the sides of a 9 inch or 10 inch spring-form pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) until lightly browned—about 8 minutes. Cool. To prepare the filling, place cream cheese in a bowl. Stir with fork until well softened.

Corner

Add 1 cup of the milk a little at a time, blending until mixture is very smooth. Then add remaining 3 cups of milk and the pudding mix. Beat with egg beater just until well mixed, about 1 minute. Pour slowly into graham cracker crust. Chill until set—about 3 hours.

We have a request from Frances Warren for good old homemade pizza. Who can come to her rescue? Let us hear from you. She says she "likes every kind of pizza that there is."

Lake Mary Residents Enjoy Visit From Miami Friends

By France Wester

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Anderson, of Lake Mary, experienced another busy week full of activities recently.

First, they had as luncheon guests their great niece, Miss Rene McClary, of Miami, and her friend, Miss Betty Graham. The girls, who are classmates at Southern Georgia College at Statesboro, Ga., were on their way back to college after spending the spring vacation in Miami.

Mrs. Frank Evans, Mrs. Kibbe Wilke, and Mrs. Anderson attended the DelBary Garden Club Flower Show in DelBary. Mrs. Anderson's cousin, Mrs. J. V. Richards is president of the club.

Miss Lettie Caldwell, of Sanford, and Mrs. Anderson visited their mutual friend, Mrs. E. D. Brownlee, who is a patient at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Dade City. Mrs. Brownlee will be remembered as the widow of Dr. Brownlee, who was pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Sanford for 27 years.

Miss Perry Lee Bell, of Sanford, called on the Andersons one afternoon. She was accompanied by her brother, Clifford Bell, also of Sanford, and his wife and four children. The Bells are former residents of Sanford, and Miss Bell and Mrs. Anderson have been friends since girlhood.

Miss Bell is now head guide at the Ringling Mansion in Sarasota. The Andersons also went to Enterprise, where they were a part of the family celebration of the 89th birthday of Russell Palmer, Mrs. Anderson's uncle. He makes his home with another niece and nephew, the J. V. Richards. They all enjoyed a festive dinner on the patio. Adding to everyone's joy was the presence of Mrs. Richards' sister, Miss Mary Wilcox, who returned, April 1st, from her Los Angeles position, and came to Florida to a lovely new home adjoining her sister's, overlooking Lake Monroe.

Other members attending were Mrs. S. M. Banks, A. R. Blunden, S. F. Carr, R. M. deLorenzi, R. D. Field, H. B. Helms, Kermit Jamison, J. C. Patterson, M. C. Premeo, Wayne Robinson, T. S. Treanor, D. N. Varner, E. O. Williams and W. A. Yelinek.

Mrs. B. C. Moore and Mrs. Mabel Thompson have received word of the death of their brother, William C. Lewis, of Plymouth, Pa. His wife died eight months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis visited in Sanford and the surrounding area a number of times.

Club Presents Fashion Show

By Linda Smithson

The Oviedo Woman's Club was the scene of a gala event, recently, when a fashion show climaxing a Charm Course sponsored by the club, was staged at the clubhouse.

More than 100 people enjoyed a delicious Chow Mein dinner prepared by Mrs. Edward Janson. It was served in an "Oriental Garden" and the waitresses were dressed in Chinese costumes.

The fashion models demonstrated what they had learned at the charm course and presented the latest Spring and Easter fashions. Mrs. Pat Fleisher was narrator and Rev. Bob Soka presented background music at the piano.

Models were Meses. John Lundy, Jim Michael, J. M. Staley, R. W. Estes, J. S. Ridenour, C. R. Clonts, D. H. Jackson, Ivan Jacobson, Ferdinand Jacobson and Ray Beasley.

Modeling the teenage fashions were the Misses Anne Martin, Miriam Wheeler, Martha Mikler and Jan Beasley. Door prizes of jewelry and a gift certificate were won by George Morgan, Mrs. Amaret Hopkins, Mrs. B. G.

Smith, Rabob Neely, Mrs. L. L. Faulk Jr. and Miss Katherine Lawton.

SEARS HAS SO MUCH MORE THAT'S SUMMER - RIGHT FOR 1963

BIG PRICE CUTS on BIG 17-cu. ft. Coldspot Freezers

Chest or Upright $209⁸⁸ Delivered and Installed

You get more than just low price when you buy a Freezer from Sears...

Stay-bright Porcelain Interior
... not just painted as in many freezers at this price! Tough, non-porous porcelain can't stain... can't discolor... can't absorb odors that might taint food flavor. Durable, rust-resistant, smooth... wipes clean in a wink.

$200 Food Protection Plan
Sears protects the food inside your freezer. Covers food loss due to mechanical failure of freezing unit—even power failure due to flood, hurricanes... any act of God. There is no finer food protection plan.

5-year Guarantee
The sealed refrigeration unit of freezer is so quality engineered Sears guarantees materials and workmanship for five years, not just two or three.

1-year Guarantee
All other parts guaranteed one year. Add them up—food plan, one-year guarantee and five-year guarantee—and you have after-the-sale protection that is unsurpassed.

Chest... with big fast-freeze section
28-cubic foot fast-freeze compartment freezes food rapidly without thawing other items in storage. Two sliding baskets—perfect place to fit away family favorites. Magnetic lid forms an airtight seal, and lid's counterbalanced for easy lifting. Concealed, flush-type hinges permit placement of freezer against wall, allow passage through standard 28-inch door. Built-in lock with two keys. Durable porcelain interior, white enamel exterior. Interior light; cold control. 27 1/2 inches deep, 50 1/2 inches wide, 37 1/2 inches high. UL listed. For 110-120-volt, 60-cycle AC.

Upright... puts food within easy reach
Store a "supermarket" of frozen food... takes up less than 7 square feet of floor space... and everything's easy to see, easy to reach. Four deep freezing shelves insure zero-safe temperature throughout. Handy swing-out basket for big cuts of meat. Plenty of floor storage... six shelves for packages, three racks for juice cans. Door opens within freezer width to save space. Magnetic closure assures airtight seal. Built-in lock control; light. White porcelain interior, white enamel exterior. 30 1/2 x 70 1/2 x 32 in. wide. UL listed; 110-120 volt, 60-cycle AC.

Coldspot Food Protection Plan: Sears will reimburse you for the value of the food in your Coldspot Chest or Upright Freezer, from a minimum of $5, up to a cumulative total of $200, against loss caused by mechanical failure of freezing unit or power failure due to act of God, for 5 years from sale date.

Coldspot Guarantee: If sealed refrigeration unit of your Coldspot Freezer fails to operate properly within 5 years from sale date due to any defect in materials or workmanship, we will repair or replace (at our option) defective part free of charge. Similar one-year guarantee on all other parts.
