New Year's Bridge Party
Mrs. R. J. Holly and Mrs. R. H. Marks entertained most charmingly at a New Year's Bridge party Monday afternoon and evening, January 1, in the Welaka Club rooms, in honor of their sisters, Miss Hesse Tyner of Tampa and Miss Rose Clayton of Atlanta.

The decorations were yellow and white, a number of ferns and palms, with red roses, being used.

The honorees were beautifully gowned in yellow satin dresses, wearing American Beauty roses. The score cards were in keeping with the color scheme, bearing pretty girls' heads.

Top score was made by Mrs. Samuel Puleston, who received a pretty brass candlestick. Mrs. O. W. Brady received the booby prize, a pretty picture with this motto: "So here's good cheer for another whole year."

A delicious salad course was served at the close of the game.

Mrs. Holly's and Mrs. Marks' invited guests for the afternoon were: Mesdames Frank Miller, Fox, Holden, Smith, Bennett, Morrow, McLaughlin, Puleston, Newman, Herndon, Barnes, Cruse Barnes, Lane, Keelor, Howard, Claude Howard, DeForest, Neal, Lake, Woodruff, Brady, Putman, Shinholser, Dickins, Dingee, Geo. W. Brown, Commons and Miss Nona Wylly.

At the evening party for the young people five hundred was played. When time was called it was found that Miss Charlotte Keelor had the highest score and she received a lovely box of stationery. Miss Flossie Frank received the consolation prize of a handsome deck of cards.

Mr. Raines was the real thing among the gentlemen and received a box of cigars. David Caldwell received the booby prize of a jar of stick candy. After delicious chicken salad, sandwiches and coffee had been served an impromptu dance was held and with reluctant feet the guests departed for their homes.

Those invited to the evening affair were as follows:

Misses Charlotte Keelor, Margaret Roberts, Vivian Yeiser, Dorothy Hayes, Annie Higgins, Irene Brady, Alice Whitner, Nell Whitner, Flossie Frank, Rose Dickenson, Ruth Mettinger, Mabel Bowler, Belle Smith, Peaches Lefler, Linda Lefler, Laura Fish, Bessie Schumpert, Veda Ward, Madge Ward, Mabel Hand, Charlotte Hand; Messrs. CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

J. S. Bashaw, local representative of Crutchfield & Woolfolk, commission merchants, Pittsburg, has returned from a visit to Fairfield. Mr. Bashaw states that the continued rains have played havoc with the lettuce crop in the Fairfield section and estimates damage will amount to 80 per cent. The greatest damage was done to the plants set in low lands. The damage to the cabbage crop will be about 25 per cent.—Gainesville Sun.

A movement was brought before the school board in Miami a few days ago asking that a lunch room for the children be arranged in the Central school building. The board agreed to the suggestion and arrangements for same will be made.

Prof. W. N. Sheats has resigned as principal of the Lakeland High School and Prof. Charley M. Jones, now first assistant to Prof. Sheats has been appointed to fill the vacancy. Prof. Sheats' resignation will go into effect on the 15th of this month.

Three prominent homes in Daytona have recently been entered by burglars and many valuables stolen.

Work of razing the three-story brick building at Franklin and Zack streets, to make place for ten-story structure of the Citizens Bank and Trust company, was completed.

Mr. A. L. Auer, the well known contractor. Mr. Auer was the contractor who erected the structure some time ago. As soon as the present building has been razed the building will be razed.

The Brookville Argus is ten years old and is a monument of what a newspaper can be made when a man knows how. The editor modestly gives it as his opinion that the Argus is the best paying country newspaper in the state without exception, which is rather a broad challenge.

The net earnings of the Bartow water works for last year exceeded seven thousand dollars, after charging 3 per cent depreciation and taking no account for water used for public purposes. Looks like a good investment.

Exchanges of the State say that Sempronius is the candidate for Governor from Key West is only running around the island. Anyway he'll be the big name at the political rally to be held there on the 22d of this month.

Judge F. M. Robles has decided that the fight between church members in a Tampa organization has no place on the court docket.

Death of C. A. Hawkins

C. A. Hawkins died yesterday at the home of his brother, J. J. Hawkins on Lake Avenue. Mr. Hawkins had been in poor health for some time and apparently was getting better, when an intestinal obstruction occurred and in his weakened condition could not be combated by the skill of the physicians, and Mr. Hawkins passed away almost at the threshold of his career.

He was known but little in Sanford, being a retiring disposition, but those who had the pleasure of his acquaintance recognized his true manhood.

Mr. Hawkins was a power for good in his native city of Commerce, Ga., where he was manager of the Commerce News and identified with many other business enterprises. His chief ambition to build was the chief cause of his physical breakdown and his last journey to Sanford was in the hopes that a rest and change of climate would benefit his health.

His remains were shipped to the old home yesterday, where the funeral will occur. His father and brother accompanied the remains. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved family.

Mission Study Circle

The study circle of the united missionary societies of the Methodist church will meet at the residence of Mrs. Charles Smith Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All the members of the circle and society are urged to be present.

POLITICS WARMING UP

The Key West Celebration Will Bring Them From Cover

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 8.—With the passage of the holidays, before which a truce existed among candidates and near-candidates, interest in this city and throughout the entire state in the 1912 campaign is rapidly increasing. Following the meeting of the state executive committee here Tuesday, January 16, when it is expected that a call for a primary some time in May will be issued, the storm will break in earnest.

There is bustle and activity in the headquarters of all the candidates throughout the state. Just what the field will contain after the meeting of the committee is a matter of interesting conjecture at this time. It has just been announced that Hon. W. H. Ellis has withdrawn from the race for congressman-at-large, and will devote his time to increased interests at Quincy. His elimination as a factor, however, will carry small comfort to the other men in the race for it is practically known that Braxton Beacham, of Orlando, is preparing to announce for the place. This will leave the field for congressman-at-large just where it was before the retirement of Mr. Ellis.

It would be the merest guess-work to estimate just what showing Mr. Beacham will make throughout the state, but in the section about Orlando he is very strong. Through his extensive land and timber operations, he has become known to business men in hundreds of Florida cities and towns not in his own territory, and is said to be very highly regarded. He is a man of considerable wealth and of progressive ideas.

The latest feature of interest, and a circumstance which may permit Key West to see, along with its first sight of a railroad train, the greatest formal opening of an important campaign, is the invitation to candidates to attend a big only for the meeting at the island chairman of the Florida Democratic Executive committee. Mr. Price has sent letters to all the candidates in the field, and promises that a ten to seat 5,000 people will be provided. The exact date is not specified, but the jubilee will be held during the week of the over-the-sea railroad celebration.

It is expected that most of the candidates in the field will fire their first guns at this meeting. Perhaps the first man to accept the invitation of Mr. Price was Oot, Cromwell Gibbons, of Jacksonville, candidate for governor. He proposes to make his opening speech under the dome of the jubilee tent at Key West. Politicians and the people throughout the state are awaiting this speech of Colonel Gibbons with much interest, for it is believed that he will launch the paramount issue of the campaign—the policy of the state of Florida toward the drainage of the Everglades.

The drainage plank of Colonel Gibbons' platform appears innocent enough at first glance, but it is known that he has been engaged for months in making a thorough study of what has been accomplished in the work and the policy under which it is pursued. He has had the advice of the best engineers in the country, and has not yet finished. He proposes to strip the proppation to the bar skeleton and then weigh the past against the future of a great section of the state which, he has declared, is being destroyed by the methods employed.

Florida Facts.

Peanuts will certainly grow in popularity as a feed feed for animals and as a profitable crop to follow grain crops. They are a comparatively sure crop, quick maturing, easily cultivated and thrive on soils too poor for many other crops.

There is money in cabbage where one likes this line of truck growing and understands the requirements of the plants. Cabbage requires a deep rich soil, a sandy loam, or gravelly loam soil is preferred. A liberal amount of barnyard manure will be needed on most soils to supply the humus required and some acid phosphate and potash.

There is splendid fishing in Florida, in fresh water and salt. The waters of the State are the source of many things which have contributed to the general wealth. Besides fish of many kinds, there are oysters, clams, crabs and sponges. The tarpon is the great game fish of the seas. It is doubtful if any other state in the Union is the equal of Florida in variety of fish.

THE LETTUCE OUTLOOK

Crop Has Brought Good Prices During The Season.

FIVE TO SIX DOLLARS PRICE NOW

The Late Crops Will Also be Money Makers According to Buyer's Predictions.

The lettuce crop for the season as a whole promises to be satisfactory. Despite the climatic changes and rains that caused the lettuce to go to seed and "damp off" the market has proved steady and even leaves have brought a good price.

When the market dropped a few weeks ago it was not on account of a glut but because the warm weather had caused the lettuce to damp off and it was not in good condition upon arrival.

As a whole the price has been excellent and the average has been much better than ordinarily. In some instances the record has been broken for high prices.

The crop coming on also promises good prices and the buyers are inclined to think that Sanford stuff will bring a good price all the season. With the growers making good on lettuce and such a fine prospect for celery there is prosperity in sight for the celery delta.

A GREAT TRADING CENTER

Sanford Offers Great Bargains To The People of This Section

It is the custom for merchants to offer goods at half price at the end of each season, but Sanford merchants are going farther this season and are offering winter goods at cost right in the midst of cool weather.

This week the well known firms of D. L. Thrasher, Palmer & Seigh, N. P. Yowell & Co., D. A. Caldwell & Sons and The Boston are offering large stocks of dry goods, clothing, hats, shoes, notions, ladies' and men's wear at cost and below cost and the prices are bringing many people from all parts of Orange, Lake and Volusia counties to Sanford to trade.

Never before have such low prices on good material prevailed and as one out of town customer remarked, "The prices are lower than New York." The people who come to Sanford to trade can make a dollar go further than in any other city in Florida. Glimpse The Herald this week.

Delightful Recital

The recital given Thursday evening, in the auditorium of the High School, by some of the pupils of the school and Mrs. Munson's piano students, under the auspices of the school improvement Association and the South Park committee, was a delightful success. In the pleasure afforded the audience, by the charming manner in which the young performers rendered their selections on the program, it is greatly to be regretted, that the various attractions in Sanford Thursday evening, prevented the young people having the full house that they richly merited. All those who did not attend deprived themselves of a great deal of pleasure, which the following program will show.

RICH PROFIT ON LETTUCE

Grower Realized $1,657.00 On One Car Load of Lettuce

Car F. G. E., 23063 belonging to Mr. Dale of Orlando and containing lettuce brought $1,657 last Friday. The car had 350 baskets of which some were seconds, but the hungry market grabbed it all at the above mentioned price and Mr. Dale realized a handsome profit thereby.

The car was handled by the well known commission firm of Smith & Holden, through their representative, J. W. Barnes, Jr., of this city and is a record car of the season. Mr. Barnes stated to a Herald representative that he had some Sanford lettuce that he expected to bring as much in the next few days, as the market was steady and the demand for lettuce was good.

Third Degree Was Good

Some of the plays that are given in Sanford are good and some are otherwise, and because this is true the theatre goes are apt to be shy of a play unless they can be assured of its merits. The Third Degree was one of the best, if not the best play presented this season in Sanford and merited a much better patronage than was given them.

The play is a strong one, has a good moral effect and the cast is excellent, the work of Raymond Wells and Miss Lord deserving special mention. Lack of space forbids an extended description of the play and players. The Herald recommends the Third Degree to the people of Florida as a good, clean show and one that richly deserves the patronage of the people wherever they give a performance.

Should the United Show Co., with the same cast give another performance in Sanford they can be assured of a crowded house and the S. H. A. Co.

Fifty Thousand New Settlers

Fifty thousand new settlers in Florida during 1912 is the prediction made by the heads of three hundred colony organizations, according to figures gathered by J. D. Reaney, who is representing Florida at the National Land Show being held in Chicago. Every good organization interviewed reports tremendous business and to a class of buyers considered above the average and calculated to benefit the state. A concerted effort is being made to send to the state only those financially equipped to do the improvement work on small farms. Every railroad company operating south reports wonderful increase in business being booked, and it is forecasted by those who know that greater sincere interest prevails today than existed a year ago. It is believed that traffic will be at least one-third greater than last year.—St. Cloud Tribune.

After California Scalps

The Chicago Evening Post of Dec. 27th, goes after the Los Angeles, Cal., papers as follows:

Probably it is a vile slander. Undoubtedly it is a practice that no longer exists. But we were told this week by a former resident of Los Angeles that whenever the weather is bad in that favored spot the local weather office simply "forgets" to send out a bulletin on it, the object being to keep the world from getting the idea that it is ever unpleasant in Southern California. Of course this omission would not do much good, as the meteorological experts would retort whether or not storms hung over Los Angeles. Also too many "forgettings" would bring reprimand or discharge from the service. Nevertheless, this idea is so delightfully characteristic of a certain type of "city boosting" that it is worth setting down on paper. Also just in the off chance that there may be a truth in the story, we will balance it by recording the fact that the temperature of Los Angeles yesterday was 16 degrees above zero. Which is considerable of an extreme for the evenest climate in the world.

The reason that the papers of Southern California print the misleading and unfair weather reports is that this country is full of tourists and they want them to get some satisfaction out of the Southern California climate which runs from 40 to 65 degrees daily during the winter, to know that it is 40 degrees below zero at Medicine Hat and probably "Florida has had the fifteen freeze of the season and for the fifteenth time that season the entire orange crop has been frozen, the gloves ruined, etc."

Nevertheless in spite of dismal croakings and actual evil the year 1911 was the best year the world has ever seen, and 1912 is going to be better still. The world not only moves but it moves forward and upward.

The severest cold weather of the present winter has prevailed throughout the country during the past three days. Nine below zero was the record in Chicago, while zero temperature was recorded in many other sections.

Columbia, S. C., suffered from a half million dollar fire in the wholesale district on the morning of January 5th.

Speculation will rife today as to what ultimately will the fate of Rev. C. V. T. Richeson, who yesterday in a written statement confessed the murder of his former sweetheart, Avis Linnell. From a source close to Governor Foss, the statement came today that the attitude of the executive probably would be in favor of a commutation of sentence of death in the electric chair to one of imprisonment if the law's fullest penalty is imposed by the court. Members of the Governor's counsel are known already to have been approached concerning their attitude in case the death penalty is imposed and a petition for commutation is made.

Plans for the promotion of a National Conservation Exposition, to be held for one month each year in some city of the Southeast, have been completed at Washington. While the exposition will have for its object the advancement of the conservation of the nation's resources, its field is to be especially the South. The exposition will be held in the fall of 1913.

In his annual report, made public last night, Third Assistant Postmaster-General Britt recommends that an increase of one cent per pound be placed on newspapers entered as second-class mail. He also advocates the abolishment of the frank now the prerequisite of every member of both houses of the national legislature and other officials of the government, and issuance of postage stamps to such persons as are now using such mail frank.

Record Prices For Lettuce

New York, Jan. 5.—There was only one car of Florida lettuce on the market this morning and buyers almost fought to secure stock. The car was from Orlando and came to Smith & Holden. It contained 350 baskets, of which 298 were fancy and 52 No. 2 stock. The fancy sold at $5 and the No. 2 at $3.20, the car grossing $1,657. These prices are record breakers for the season and this is probably the most money a car of Florida lettuce has ever grossed. It is not believed that any high prices were realized last season.—Produce News.

Weather Report

CURBSTONE GLEANINGS

A Budget of Opinion "Just Between You and Me"

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chisel is Among Ye—Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Prent 'Em'—
So Says Sauterer.

Of banner living, sander hours, simpler ideas entirely for the entire routine, are ideas which are growing more insistent every day among people who have somehow stopped for breath in time to give a thought to the future men of affairs and to the future mothers of men of affairs of the country, says the Pensacola Journal.

Late hours for social events constitute an element which is sapping the vitality of a lot of young people who might, under proper conditions, amount to a great deal more than they are likely to do—always speaking commercially.

The time, in short, has come to stop it. Almost all of the desirable young men who are to be found at the social functions are, it is devoutly to be hoped, engaged in some kind of business—and any one who goes out in the everyday grind of this same cold, calculating business atmosphere, knows, too, how necessary it is to have one's wits about them upon even the most ordinary occasions.

It is the clear, unclouded mind that can grasp a situation before the other fellows; spot the smoothest kind of a personal enemy, and be forewarned by seemingly trivial occurrences, from committing graver errors. Success is largely the control of the master mind over the weaker element, at any time, and if the young business man clogs his human machinery with useless fatigue and thinks that he should not have eaten nor drunk, he will soon find that he doesn't cut the ice that he might in the present commercial age.

It is your wholesome, rested looking fellow who gets the business because he is mentally and bodily fit. And unless he is a molly coddle or a polite social bum who can sleep next day like the girl, he will need every one of his wits, clear and sharpened, to accomplish the things that are naturally expected of him.

Never be formal with your friends. There is a certain amount of frigidity about the fellow who is always calling every one "Mister."

You feel closer to a fellow who calls "Frank" or "Harry" than if he would address you in a formal manner.

Of course there are conditions, times and ages to be considered in addressing our acquaintances.

The youth who calls an older person by his Christian name is not only impolite, but it is a sign of bad breeding, advises the Bartow Record.

A young lady to address her young man acquaintances in such a familiar way would be considered by polite people very impolite, but to men of nearly the same age, and long business acquaintances the familiar Christian name sounds brotherly and friendly.

The more good fellowship one puts into his own life and the life of others, the stronger becomes the tie of friendship.

Yes, call your friends, your close associates "Frank," "Tom" or "Harry," and closer ties of mutual friendship will exist and you will be apt to have a greater interest in his welfare.

I see the Sanford girls are on the job early and no sooner was the year ushered in than a Leap Year dance was given. I am glad to see the girls sitting up and taking notice. The idea of so many nice girls in this city pining for a man and unable to hook one because they are too timid to ask the girl makes me feel bad. Now the girls have a chance and I want to see them get off the shelf and grab a man—no matter about his antecedents—just grab a man and pop the question. Some of you have been laid away with the moth balls too long and you are liable to get shop worn. Emerge from your crysolite and in the glad rags that catch the male man's eye dazzle your charms before him and ere he recovers his breath, seek the preacher. In a few weeks you will learn all about that high cost of living that you hear so much about but don't let that bother you. Hubby will be obliged to cut out many of his little habits to buy groceries and dry goods but you will both be happier and you will get along. We all do and I was only making twelve dollars a week when a girl grabbed me off the Christmas tree and both of us are here yet and have never regretted it.

Get married! That's the trick!

"De man dat gits de mos out o' life," said Uncle Eben, "is de one dat's willin' to jump in an' hep heave cotton while he's down to de dock waitin' for his ship to come in."

Railroads' Oil Fuel.

An interesting feature shown in the report on petroleum for 1910, by the United States geological survey, now in preparation, is the statement of the extent to which oil enters into railroad transportation. The total length of railroad lines operated by the use of fuel oil in 1910 was 21,075 miles, a trackage equivalent to that of practically five transcontinental lines stretching across the United States from ocean to ocean. Some of the lines that use oil, however, also use coal. The number of barrels of fuel oil—of forty-one gallons each—consumed by the railroads of the country in 1910 is stated to have been 24,529,883 barrels. This includes 768,762 barrels used by the railroads as fuel otherwise than in locomotives. The total number of miles run by oil-burning engines in 1910 was 88,318,947. This would have carried one engine or train around the world approximately 3,620 times.

Grade Crossings Going.

In Great Britain no persons are struck and killed by railway trains at highway crossings. The train crossings are all either above or below the highways. In this country upward of a thousand persons are killed and upward of two thousand are injured at the railway crossing at grade. An exchange published a blood-stained record of grade crossing accidents in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut for the seven months from January 1, within which time forty-six men, nine children and thirteen women were killed outright, sixty-seven persons were seriously wounded and sixty-six horse-drawn vehicles and automobiles were demolished. The cost of eliminating the crossings may be high, the cost in flesh and blood is higher.

Mice Hamper a Railroad.

Mice are making it unpleasant for railroad men in the West Shore railroad yard in Newburg, N. Y. Twice within a month the turntable has been put out of commission by the rodents and the railroad men are having their difficulties getting the trains out of the yard on time.

The turntable is operated by electricity. A little mouse got into the meter and upset the machinery in such a way that it was impossible to move the turntable. Walking across the machinery the little animal's body crossed the commutator bars and short-circuited the motor. This blew the meter out. As a result, some of the engines which left the yard were not facing in the right direction when they were attached to the trains.

Electricians worked for two days before they discovered the trouble. The machinery was restored to normal. As a similar happening took place recently, an arrangement will be made to prevent the rodents from using the turntable as a playground.

Georgia's Profitable Railroad.

Seventy-five years ago the State of Georgia decided to build a railroad. Today Georgia is in possession of a property which has paid it more than $20,000,000 in cash, and which would bring approximately that sum upon the market, a property that is bringing the state more than $400,000 in annual rental, and upon which the lessee is securing enormous returns, with net earnings for the fiscal year, ended June 30, 1910, of $1,022,853.25, or $7,187.13 per mile.

NEWS OF RAILROADS

England is a small country, but it has twenty-eight railroad tunnels of a mile or more each in length.

Most of the Canadian steamers on the Pacific are being changed into oil burners. The Canadian Pacific railroad contemplates treating its locomotives in the same way.

If an express train, moving at the rate of 45 miles an hour, were to stop instantly, it would give the passengers a shock equal to that of falling from a height of 45 feet.

Three thousand freight cars, which for some months have been stored on one of the main tracks of the Petersburg cut-off of the Pennsylvania, near Altoona, have been put into service.

Without the air brake the fast passenger and freight trains of today would be out of the question, owing to lack of control. It takes a powerful locomotive drawing a train of ten passenger cars a distance of five miles to reach a speed of 60 miles an hour on a straight and level track. The brakes will stop the same train from a speed of 60 miles an hour in 700 feet.

Straight Tip.
This old world of ours would be 50 per cent better today if the people who "mean no harm" wouldn't do any.

To Chloe's breast young Cupid slyly stole,
But he crept in at Myra's pocket hole.

—William Blake.

What will not woman, gentle woman dare,
When strong affection stirs her spirit up?

FISH "ROPES" MAN

BOSTON WHALER COMES TO PORT WITH WEIRD TALE.

Relates How an Enraged Dolphin Dragged Him Through the Water, After Pulling Him Off His Boat.

Boston, Mass.—John Haywood, able seaman and fisherman aboard the schooner Massasoit, which reached T wharf the other day, declared that he had undergone the very worst experience at sea with which he had ever met in all his years before the mast, or that he had ever heard of. He was dragged through the sea at a furious rate of speed by an enraged dolphin, narrowly escaping death at the tail of the monster.

In relating this very unusual adventure of the deep, Haywood said: "We had been out a matter of two weeks or more, had some fifteen swordfish under the decks, and I was standing with the lily iron in the pulpit waiting for a chance at a swordfish.

"The whole cruise was sort of a funny one from my way of sighting it. You see, the water ought to be pretty cold on the banks, but, sink me if it was not warm enough clear to the Bay of Fundy from Georges Banks to douse an infant in, and we were out only a matter of a day or so, or more, when we sighted a great school of flying fish.

"Those bird fish are some scarce in these waters, and I never saw them so crazy-like. Why, sink me, if they wouldn't even skim over the very poop, sometimes alighting on the quarter to wink at the skipper, and then flip into the water with a sort of chuckle.

"Ever hear a flying fish chuckle? No? Well, it's some chuckle, sort of exasperating-like, and I once advised the skipper to spread a few sheets of fly paper over the deck so as to trap a few. The skipper, be allowed as the scheme was a right smart one, only the lack of fly paper spoiled it.

"Anyway, I was there in the pulpit with the lily iron getting heavy in my hand when I sighted what looked like a big swordfish.

"I signaled astern, and as we came closer I let fly with the iron and caught the beast fair. It was no swordfish, though, worse luck; it was one of the dolphins that had played about the bows like puppy dogs for a long time.

"I let out the line from the iron to the keg buoy which we drop with it, the line went so fast it caught me armdrums about three fathoms abast the critter's tail, and away I went, clean out of the pulpit.

"We must have gone a mile at least, and by the time the dolphin began to get tired I had brought up the keg and was hanging onto it for dear life with a load of sea water under my bulwarks. I was near dead when the schooner reached me and discovered that we had made that mile in just about 31-knot time. The fish had to be ironed again before it could be taken."

ASKS FOR A COURTHSHIP ROOM

Pastor Would Establish Place for Boys to Woo and Girls to Be Wooed.

Huboken, N. J.—The Rev. Joseph D. Peters, pastor of the First Reformed church of this place, suggests that a large public room be established and put in charge of a matron, so young persons may make love in it. In the pastor's opinion, most of the young men and women in a big city have no suitable place in which to woo and be wooed, and if such a place is provided, with restrictions, he is of the opinion the number of divorces will be lessened to a great degree.

"The need of a proper place for courtship," said the pastor, "has been responsible for many disastrous marriages; I believe, and if such a place would be provided, in charge of a matron who would be a sympathizer with heart affairs of the young, it would do wonders toward shaping a courtship to a glorious end.

"There are so many young persons who have no place in which to make love. Many woosers and wooed never learn to know each other as they should before matrimony. Many think fascination is love because they have not had a sufficient opportunity to understand what real love is."

The greatest of all commandments is to love one another.

The only way to keep clear of sin is to keep close to Christ.

Those who preach only to the head soon become tired in heart.

The man who sets a bad example is working for the devil, whether he knows it or not.

The man who uses tobacco never seems to know or care how much of a nuisance he is to others.

Office in Herald Building Telephone No. 148

The Tampa Tribune has just passed its eighteenth milestone and it was not a painful operation either. The Tribune is a paper that is the pride of the South Florida people and The Herald wishes Editor Stovall and Sir Edwin Lambright and the entire staff eighteen years more and then some of prosperity.

Sanford people are boasting that they have shipped 400 cars of lettuce so far this season. Sanford people are evidently on to their job, working every minute to pile up shekels for that rainy day that will inevitably come to us all.—Apalachicola Times.

The rainy day is here, but we are still shipping and piling up the shekels.

The Palatka News was ten years old last Friday and Editor Russell gives an interesting account of the trials and tribulations of the paper in that period and closes with a statement of the prosperity that finally crowned his efforts. Florida Journalism is finally coming into its own and the boys who have labored so long and faithfully can see something coming back as a remuneration.

If the generous and great hearted who are sending that Everglades literature to The Herald would cease we will promise never to mention some of the facts about the "dredging." We don't care whether the custard apple grows there or custard pies. It is a dead moral certainty that we will never locate there as long as there is any dry land left in Florida. If the Everglades is the proper place to locate why the need of so many circles denying this charge and that?

Let the satisfied customers make the statements and have them signed.

ON TO KEY WEST

On Monday, January 22, the first train will go over the new railroad to Key West. The man who planned and financed this over-the-sea railroad is Henry M. Flagler, now in his 82nd year. Like every other man who is really worth while, who has accomplished great things. Mr. Flagler never has and never will get his full mead of praise for attempting in the face of difficulties this almost impossible task. The Herald has never felt inclined to gather flowers for the dead, but to place the laurel wreath upon the living, and we hereby acknowledge the debt that the state owes Henry M. Flagler. May his dream be realized before his span of life is broken and may his true motive of developing his adopted state overshadow the commercial spirit that clings around railroad enterprise.

May the over-sea railway not only realize the dreams of the founder in regard to development, but also realize the profit necessary to carry on such a large undertaking.

We hand the bouquet to Mr. Flagler, with no scorpion of jealousy hidden among the flowers to leave a sting. He has a lasting monument to his memory, such as no crowned head will ever leave to posterity.

THOSE COUNTY DITCHES

When Sanford was in the early stages of vegetable raising every man dug his own ditches and managed to get rid of the overflow water in some manner. As the country filled up the question of ditches became a serious problem, involving disputes about certain rights and privileges. The solution to the affair was to create a drainage district, employ an engineer and ditch the entire Sanford district, forever settling the matter. This was done and the work was progressing nicely, when certain parties became disgruntled over the direction of some of the ditches and enjoined the contractor from proceeding with the work. Since that time dozens of growers have been forced to abandon their farms because of improper drainage and thousands of dollars worth of property have been ruined. During the past week the heavy rains have again demonstrated that unless drastic measures are taken in regard to this ditching more farms will be abandoned and Sanford will receive a black eye that will forever put a blot upon our section.

Something should be done at once regarding this drainage scheme. The men who stopped the work must have had sufficient reason for getting the injunction or the court would have over ruled it.

But all of the parties concerned ought to settle their differences, get together and proceed with the work. It means more to our section than any other one improvement.

POVERTY STRICKEN EXPRESS CO

Some time ago an audit of the books of the Southern Express Company in Florida was started. The company claimed that they were not making any money. We had always been under the impression that they were making all there was. Here are one or two reasons why the Southern Express Company is in reduced circumstances.

Thursday The Journal took a box out of the Express office, the contents of which cost just $2.50. The express charges on this box from Atlanta, Ga., were $4.01. NEARLY TWICE THE VALUE OF THE SHIPMENT. For the past several weeks we have been paying express charges on goods from Atlanta which amounted to nearly double the actual cost of the goods themselves. At this rate, if we had a box come from Chicago we would have to sell our plant in order to pay the express charges. And so it will easily be seen that the Southern Express Company does not make any money. It is a charitable institution. The Southern Express Company and other express companies are deliberately robbing the people, and it is sanctioned by law. Compared with the express companies, the James boys were novices at the hold up game.—Key West Daily Journal.

More Good Lettuce Sales.

Roy Symes, K. R. Murrell and O. W. Billingsley struck it rich yesterday with their lettuce, the market being steady and even leaves brought a good price. The best brought $5.50 to $6.00 per basket. Part of it was different kind sold at $4.50. The leafy at $5.00.

G. F. Smith received a belated Christmas present as he shipped some leafy stuff, no heads, and received $4.00 per basket.

The stuff was sold by the commission firm of Smith & Holden. J. W. Barnes, Jr., their representative here, expects some more good sales today.

An Appreciated Gift

The trustees, teachers and pupils of the High School greatly appreciate the donation of trees, palms, and money made by the Wednesday Club, Welaka Club and the Sanford Improvement Association, for the beautifying the High School grounds.

The treasury of the board had been taxed to its utmost in providing equipment for the schools, so that with out the timely help of the ladies, it looked as if our grounds would have to stay bare, but thanks to their thoughtfulness we are to have some trees.

Together with the ladies of the South Park Improvement board, the pupils of the High School gave a recital in the High School auditorium last Thursday evening and a neat little sum was realized. The money will also be spent for trees.

If any citizens wishes to make a donation of money or trees for our grounds it will be gratefully received.

N. J. PERKINS.

The Impeccable Sardine.

They can be given to children without fear of their choking. It can easily be recognized that the bones are taken away. A large number of consumers evidence their appreciation of this sardine so prepared to have a first class reputation. They are to be found on all tables where the lady of the house wishes to show she lives in style.—From an earnest advertisement.

He Would Join Him.

Hostess—"Why, Mr. Smith, I've hardly seen you all the evening! Now, I particularly want you to come, and bear a whistling solo by my husband." Smith (whose hearing is a trifle indistinct)—"A whisky and soda with your husband? Well, thanks, I don't mind if I do have just one!"—Punch.

Educational Advancement.

The children at an Erith school were taken the other day to a traveling menagerie and circus in order to give them a practical lesson in natural history. Later on, we understand, they are to be taken to see a classical dancer in order to learn anatomy.—London Punch.

Not a Real Genius.

A Connecticut man has an alarm clock which arouses his hens and feeds them at the proper time. Time wasted! A real genius would have spent his time inventing an alarm clock that would lay eggs and cackle at the completion of the feat.

Humps and Mumps.

A hump-backed woman was passing when a little five-year-old, with a pitying look, said: "What's the matter with the lady, mamma? Has she got the mumps in her back?"—Philadelphia Record.

Church For Funerals Only. New York has one church which is devoted entirely to funeral services. It is called the Funeral church, and its usefulness comes from the fact that many families living in small apartments in the city desire to have the last services for their dead conducted in a larger place than is provided by their home. Having no fixed church affiliation they seek this place for the services. Faithful to Duty. When the army of Pompey stormed and took Jerusalem, at the moment the temple was taken, the priests were engaged with the daily sacrifice, and amid all the horrors which surrounded them, they continued their solemn duties unmoved, thinking it better to suffer whatever came upon them at their very altars than to omit anything their law required. The Mote in Your Own Eye. If you find yourself thinking more of the bad points of your friends and relatives than of their good ones, just stop a moment and ask yourself, how you would like people to get into the habit of doing the same with you. Then start again right away and do better next time. Everybody has good points. Try to see them—Argus.

POULTRY

IN recent issues we have given you a few figures comparing Florida with the very best Northern States in the production of corn and potatoes. It is not possible to compare Florida with all of the states on all kinds of crops, because certain crops in Florida pay so much money to farmers that they do not care to give attention to some other crops which are staple in the North. In looking over the statistics on any crop that is grown both in Florida and the Northern States, we find that Florida has a decided advantage.

Owing to our wonderful climate, we have advantages along other lines—in the raising of stock, for instance. It is not necessary to protect stock from the weather, and consequently all kinds of stock run at large the year 'round and require no attention and but little feed. This is one of the most inviting fields for the cattle business in the country. We may have more to say on this subject later on.

Just now we call your attention to the raising of Poultry.

Poultry raising as an industry has made wonderful strides forward in the past few years, yet the demand for poultry products is increasing much more rapidly than the supply, and prices are advancing slightly each year. This fact is due to several reasons. Almost everybody enjoys eating poultry products. The general high cost of living along other lines undoubtedly adds to the consumption of poultry products and tends to increase prices. Still another, and we think a greater reason than any other, is due to the rapid increase of population in our cities and the decrease in population of our country districts. The census of 1910 reveals some startling facts. The State of Illinois, for instance, lost 45,000 population in the rural districts in the past ten years, while the state as a whole, including the cities, gained over 800,000. What is true of Illinois is true of practically every other state in the union. As people flock to the cities they, of course, cease to be producers, but still continue to be consumers. That this condition of affairs will continue for years to come is a practically settled fact.

For one of limited means we do not know of any field so inviting as poultry raising, and certainly if one is going into the poultry business, no place in the world offers the advantages today that Florida does.

In the Year Book of the Department of Agriculture of the United States for 1910, pages 643 and 644, are two tables giving prices in each state of eggs per dozen and chickens per hundred pounds for every month during the past two years. We have selected six representative states out of this list and figured the average price for two years on both eggs and chickens. They are as follows:

		CHICKENS PER 100 LBS.
South Dakota	$.203	$ 9.04
Illinois216	11.26
Indiana220	11.48
Iowa203	10.20
Missouri194	10.80
Kansas195	10.37
Average for the six states205	10.37

Now compare Florida from the same table: Eggs 24c and chickens \$13.34. This will show you that the price of eggs in Florida during the past two years has averaged $3\frac{1}{4}$ c higher than the six states above mentioned, and that the price of chickens has averaged \$2.97 per 100 pounds higher than in the six states above. This difference of itself should be an attractive margin of profit.

In the vicinity of Sanford but few people pay any attention to poultry, probably because they are engaged in truck growing, from which they make enormous returns, and consequently do not care to fool with chickens.

Being near the great resorts of the country, and having such excellent transportation by both water and rail, the demand here is much greater than in other parts of the state and the prices at Sanford are consequently considerably above the average given.

We do not know of a better place or one more adapted to poultry raising than our Volusia Farms. This land is level, excellent quality of soil, well drained, has splendid transportation facilities by both water and rail and CAN BE BOUGHT AT FROM $30 TO $50 PER ACRE, depending upon location.

One of the finest poultry farms in this part of the state is located at Enterprise, only a short distance from our Volusia Farms. The owner of this farm, Mr. Throop, has a large number of hens, and in an article written for The Sanford Herald of recent date, this gentleman states that his hens average to pay him $2.00 per head each year above all expenses.

Mr. Throop buys all his feed and does not attempt to grow any of it, as his farm is located on a few town lots.

It is so easy to grow anything or everything in Florida that we should certainly advise one who intended trying the poultry business to buy sufficient land to grow all his own feed, especially so when our Volusia Farms can be bought at the present low price. There is no question about an advance in value later on, and besides being able to raise feed for one's poultry, one would get the benefit of the advance in value of the land itself.

Let us show you over this splendid tract of land. No matter what you want land for in Florida, you will be pleased with our Volusia Farms. Sold on easy terms with small payments.

WOMEN IN MASONRY

English Parson Forms Fraternity for Fair Sex.

Founder of Society is Ridiculed by World for Admitting Females to Lodge—Masons Do Little but Eat Dinners.

London.—There is nothing in Masonry, according to Rev. Dr. Cobb, founder of the Honorable Fraternity of Ancient Masonry, that forbids the inclusion of women, and he adds that they are quite as capable of preserving the secrets of the society as the men. So women are admitted to his fraternity—and the rest of the Masonic world is laughing.

Dr. Cobb is the vicar of St. Ethelburga's, a tiny, picturesque, ancient church in the heart of the old city of London, and it was here a correspondent found him.

"I belonged to the Grand Lodge of England for many years," he said, "but I saw that few people took it seriously. Though, of course, they keep up a large number of charitable institutions, they do little else but eat dinners. Originally Masonry was a religious movement, which insisted that spiritual life was the most important. In the process of time, the spiritual side of Masonry has been lost to sight, and it has become too materialistic.

"Some years ago I was attracted to a form of Masonry practiced by Annie Besant, and, becoming interested in it, I joined. But I found her too autocratic altogether. All members were bound in obedience to her, and this seemed inconsistent with the spirit of Masonry, as I understood it. So I left her society, and some time after a few friends and I—we were five in all—decided to found a lodge of our own. Now we have 150.

"The aim of our fraternity, and the aim of the church are identical. I take it that aim is to deepen the spiritual life. This being so, there is no argument that can be brought forward to uphold the exclusion of women. The term 'brotherhood' is a contradiction if it does not include them.

"There are a large number of unattached Masons, who, like myself, take no part in lodge activities, owing to the failure of English Masonry to deal with spiritual needs. Our organization in addition it enables the Mason to bring his wife and daughter into his Masonic life."

"What does the Grand Lodge of England say to your innovation?"

"Of course, they have called us to book severely about it. But I maintain that I have done nothing to violate the ancient traditions of Masonry. According to the rules, I took an oath to reveal the secrets of Masonry to none but Masons, and this I have kept. The members are initiated and all the proper ceremonies are carried out reverently.

"The objection raised by the Grand Lodge of England, that no one is at liberty to establish a lodge without its consent is an old one. It is the plea that whatever is right and that all attempt at reform is wrong. Such objections have been raised through all ages, dating from the time when the Pharisees objected to the preaching of Christ in Palestine.

"Furthermore, the feminist movement cannot be ignored. Looking back on the events of the last few years it can be seen how disastrous has been the absence of a policy as regards this movement, and the result has been a course of events of which no nation can be proud. Such a position is not one that Masonry can afford to risk. To exclude woman as a sex is to court early disaster, so let us be beforehand and welcome her gladly."

"And you find that women keep the great secret perfectly?"

"Perfectly," replied Dr. Cobb. "The secrets of Masonry cannot be told."

HOW THE RAILPHONE WORKS

Hans von Kramer's System for Telephonic Communication Between Moving Trains is Explained.

A new invention of great importance has just been perfected, through which telephonic communication between moving trains is made possible. Though many efforts have been made in this direction, the matter had not been definitely solved in a really practical and comparatively inexpensive manner. The new system, which has been given the name "Railophone," has been patented in almost all countries.

The inventor is a German civil engineer, Hans von Kramer, who has made this branch of telephoning his special study for a number of years. Dr. von Kramer claims that, while on a moving train, he can put himself in telephonic communication with any other train also in motion, moving in no matter what direction, if it be provided with one of his apparatuses. The principal part of the installation is in an arrangement of electric wires in a frame fastened beneath the foot railing or other convenient place of the railway car. This frame can be lowered and raised as occasion requires. Through an ingenious scheme all the telegraph or telephone poles along the line are utilized and their functions center in a regular telephone booth installed where judged most convenient.

In important and regular daily long distance trains the intention is to install complete switchboards, which from their connection with both telegraph and telephone wires, may be utilized for both telephonic and telegraphic messages. While no secrets have been divulged, the apparatus does not appear to be a complicated one. A large coil of wire is placed on the roof of the car with its plane vertical and parallel to the rails. Its ends are connected with a telephone receiver installed in a soundproof booth inside the car.

This coil is inductively affected by a fixed circuit composed of an overhead telegraph wire and a cable carried alongside the rail, and connected with a telephone transmitter at a station. Each track is provided with a circuit of this kind, which enables the operator on the moving train to establish a direct service without any transfer and consequent liability to error.

UNCLE SAM'S FINE RAILROAD

Panama Road is a Model of Efficiency and Economy and Shows Good Profits.

The first heterodox fact which is likely to surprise the visitor from home is the sight of a high power locomotive, with "U S" stenciled on the cab, says Albert Edwards in his article, "The Lesson of Panama," in Success Magazine. There are two railroads on the canal zone owned and operated by the government, the Isthmian canal commission system, used exclusively for construction purposes, and the Panama railroad, which besides helping in the canal work, does a large and profitable commercial business.

Compared with other tropical railroads the P. R. R. is a model of efficiency and economy in every department. There is no system at home so thoroughly equipped with safety appliances. The accident rate both for employees and passengers sets a standard which none of our privately owned lines have ever approached. The 200 miles of track in the zone carry more traffic per mile than any railroad in the states, except a few terminal systems like that of the Chicago stock yards.

The annual report to the stockholders of the Panama Railroad company—it is technically a private corporation so that it can conduct a commercial business—for the year ending June 30, 1910, shows a "gross earnings" of $6,100,788.82. Extensive relocation work is in progress but the operating expenses were only $4,365,426.92. The company also operates a direct line of steamers between Colon and New York. They make the run between these ports in a day less than the competing lines and in the year ending June 30, 1910, they earned over $150,000 net.

WALK FLOOR WITH HIS BABY

Chicago Man is Also Ordered to Give His Wages—Judge Will Determine Christmas Gifts.

Chicago.—Sentenced to walk the floor for two hours each night with his baby in his arms, was the fate of Patrick Knight, arraigned in the court of domestic relations the other day, on complaint of his wife, who charged non-support.

When Judge Sabath saw Mrs. Knight with the baby in her arms he ordered the husband to take the child. Knight took the baby, while the mother talked with the judge.

The baby's hands stole up and caressed the father's face. He smiled. The wife turned to look, and smiled too.

"That's better," said the judge to Knight. "I'll dispose of this case right now. Knight, I sentence you to go home with your wife and walk the floor with the baby two hours every night from now until December 30. Besides that you will turn your wages over to your wife every pay day.

On December 20 you will come here, and you and I will discuss the kind of Christmas presents you are to buy for your wife and baby."

Walks Long for Job

Minneapolis, Minn.—Hans Peter Klotter wants a job in the courthouse. Since June 1, when he started after the job, he has walked 2,250 miles in the courthouse corridor. Until he had passed the custodian's office 10,590 times, his wants were not made known to the official inside. Probably he never would have got courage to apply for the place, but the custodian, after seeing him haunting the corridors for months, asked what he wanted, and was told it was a job. Klotter hasn't the job yet.

Money Question from Woman's View.
Most men trust their wives with their hearts, but draw the line at their pocketbooks. Some day I am going to write a book on the righteousness of a husband giving his wife a regular allowance and never asking her to account for it. Better still, a common purse and let her help herself. As long as my woman works for her clothes and board and lives on bounty she is a slut—Exchange

Work of Gothic Sculptors.
The Gothic sculptors produced crude and grotesque carvings from a technical standpoint, but they were the first to attempt intimate speech in art addressed to the common people, and both Roscellino and Glotto with their clever followers are heirs of the humbler craftsmen who broke the bonds of convention to immortalize the homeliness and variety of daily experience and common types of human nature.

Nicely Put.
Brahms dined one day with one of his fanatic admirers, and the latter, knowing the master's predilection for fine wine, had a bottle of renowned quality brought to the table toward the end of the repast. "This," he exclaimed, "is the Brahms among my wines!" The guest slipped of it, saying: "Excellent, wonderful! Now bring on your Beethoven!"

By the Evidence.
Donald, aged 4, had been to school with an older friend and had seen the teacher put a star on the cards of each child whose conduct had been good. That evening while walking out with his parents, he remarked after looking at the starry sky, "There've been lots of good boys today."

Attitude and Art.
Fewer people nowadays pretend to be reading when they get their pictures taken. Still, there are those who think art is waning—Atchison Globe.

Unreasonableness Permissible.
Human beings were never meant to be entirely reasonable people; sentiment and persuasiveness were intended to play a part in human life.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

Rev. Richeson who pleaded guilty to giving Avia Linnell cyanide of potassium causing her death has been sentenced to die on May 19th.

Paul H. Smith, the ticket agent of the Central of Georgia Railway who was arrested on the charge of robbing the safe at the union depot at Macon of $2,000, after he claimed he had been held up, bound and gagged by two unknown men, denied this morning that he had any part in the crime. Sheriff Hicks and Detective Poole, however claim that the young man confessed to them, and that they found a large portion of the money on him.

The Democratic National Convention will meet at Baltimore on June 25 to name the candidate for President of the United States. Several other cities were after the plum but Baltimore was chosen on account of the location and because a Democratic winner has never been chosen from the west.

The immense marble and granite home of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, covering a whole block in lower Broadway, an historic landmark of New York's early period of sky scraper buildings and one of the city's important financial centers on Tuesday was destroyed by fire with a loss of six lives and probable $6,000,000 in property. A dozen persons were injured. Valuable records including the bibliography of S. H. Harriman and two priceless libraries, which cannot be replaced, went up in flames and the fate of hundreds of millions of dollars worth of securities, stored in safety deposit vaults, was tonight in question, although it was believed, fireproof construction, had saved them.

After a lapse of more than ten years, American troops are again to invade China. They are to aid in keeping open the railroad from Peking to the sea.

A plan practically revolutionizing the business methods of the entire Federal government and placing all of its half million employees, with the exception of heads of important bureaus under the classified civil service is recommended by the report of the commission on economy and efficiency now in possession of President Taft.

The Moros of Mindanao and Jolo islands have started a holy war of extermination against American soldiers and civilians, had according to reports brought to this city on the United States transport shipman, which arrived from the Philippines this week, several hundred of the head hunters and several American have been killed in the jungle fights.

"The banking system of the United States is a disgrace to our civilization," was the opinion Andrew Carnegie vented today while testifying before the Stanley committee of the house of representatives which is investigating the United States Steel Corporation.

William J. Bryan endorsed the candidacy of Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey for the presidential nomination at the hands of the democratic party. But Colonel Bryan's endorsement was qualified by his statement: "Governor Wilson looks to be the best man now in the race. I am not in favor of any third party movement," said the Nebraskan. He said he favored the nomination of some strong, progressive democrat for the presidency, adding that Governor Wilson appeared to be about the best man that has offered.

Thousands of dollars may soon be spent in the south by the war and navy department of the United States for the purchase of cotton seed oil, many thousand pounds of which are annually consumed by the federal authorities. If plans which Congressman Branly of Georgia announced are carried out.

The house committee on naval affairs and the committee on rivers and harbors have notified Congressman Frank Clark and T. J. L. Brown that they would leave Washington on the afternoon of January 13, on the special train to be provided for them and start south to attend the Overseas celebration to be held at Key West a few days later.

BUSINESS IS GROWING

Sanford Furniture House Ships All Over The State.

Sanford has a furniture house that in a few years has made wonderful strides forward. This is the store of W. W. Abernathy, formerly Jones & McLaughlin and McLaughlin & Abernathy. The large store at the corner of First Street and Palmetto Avenue, now occupies two floors, and here everything that is needed in house furnishings can be seen in profusion. Mr. Abernathy is an experienced man in this line and keeps the stock in fine shape. He believes in turning the stock right along and consequently every day sees car loads of furniture going in and going out. Besides the Sanford store he has good branches in Orlando, DeLand, Kissimmee, Eustis, Leesburg, Winter Park, Maitland, Mt. Dora and Glen Ellen.

The Bush & Gertz pianos are also carried in stock, a piano at a reasonable price that can be put in the home for a twelve months trial. Mr. Abernathy has great hopes in the future of Sanford and of all Florida, and is constantly engaged in enlarging his trade and invading new territory. Having so many branches enables him to carry an immense stock of house furnishings in Sanford and his trade here is constantly increasing.

Potatoes from Scotland

It is rather unusual to have potatoes coming from Scotland at this time of year, but the high price in eastern markets has resulted in an invoice of 1,500 tons of choice Caledonian tubers, which must pay a considerable duty.

Last year was not a particularly good one for potatoes in most parts of the country, but the shortage is largely due to the fact that farmers generally seem to have neglected this specialty. Potatoes form a rather important part of the food of every family in this country, although not approaching that in Germany, and this country ought to be able to supply its own demands easily. The farmers insist that potato culture requires too much individual labor and that laborers are not easy to secure, hence they devote themselves to less intensive farming.

But we are met with the rather interesting situation that the farmer says there is little money in potatoes, while the public is now paying almost maximum prices. The highest wholesale price quoted in this market is one dollar a bushel, but the consumer pays much more than this, while the farmer says he gets very little. The mayor of Indianapolis has broken the market for potatoes by importing several carloads from Michigan, which he has sold to the public at cost. This, however, is no sort of remedy of which permanent good may be expected. It does, however, point out that there are too many middlemen between the farmer and the consumer and that many of these profits can be eliminated.—Atlanta Journal.

Another Big Sale

Sanford continues to draw the crowds of shoppers from all sections and the big sales continue. This week J. K. Mettinger joins the "big hearted" and will get right in line by almost giving away his entire stock of goods. He calls it a sale to be ethical, but really he is giving the stuff away.

By Order of the Court of necessity, which is not so bad as the headlines would suggest and a perusal of the prices will convince you that that the time to make a dollar go farthest is right now.

Read The Herald and come to Sanford. Every store in the city is playing Santa Claus and really you can load the wagon down with good stuff for a few dollars.

Sanford is the Trading Center.

More than $50,000,000 in stocks and bonds was recovered from one of the smaller vaults in the burned Equitable Assurance Society Building late Wednesday, but it probably will be a week or perhaps longer—before the great vaults of the society and the Mercantile Safe Deposit Company give up their half billion or more in securities. Further examination of the vault, located in the building, swept on Tuesday by fire, showed more conclusively Wednesday afternoon that the vaults are still in tact. In the opinion of those who made inspection their contents will suffer little at all. But, buried as they are under hundreds of tons of ice and debris, it may be a matter of a week or more before it will be advisable to open them.

Annual Meeting of People's Church

The Congregational church held its annual meeting last Wednesday night. It began with a supper served at the parsonage at 6.30, by the Ladies Union which has had a large place in bringing about the financial results of the year.

At the church meeting which followed reports were given from the various activities. Chief in interest among these was that of the trustees who had in charge the building of the church, completed last Easter. Figures presented in detail show that there was put into the new building a total of $8,324. In fixing over the old church, which is now used as a parsonage, expenses were incurred amounting to $622. Other expenses for well draining, insurance, etc, bring the total amount thus spent on the property to $9,283. It is estimated that with the fine lots the church owns, and with the inside furnishings this society now has property easily worth $15,000.

In bringing about this result the largest credit is due to the four faithful trustees who had the work in charge. The church showed its appreciation of this by giving them an unanimous and standing vote of thanks. The church also wishes to acknowledge the generous help given by citizens of Sanford outside the church and congregation. Particularly would they remember the large gifts by men who were employed upon the building.

Altogether the church feels that it has been a prosperous year and that with the new equipment there is every encouragement for future upbuilding.

ANOTHER JOINT INSTALLATION

Woodmen and Woodmen Circle Install Officers and Have Banquet

A joint installation of the Woodman Circle and Woodmen of the World was held at the Eagles' Hall Wednesday evening, Jan. 10th.

The meeting was called to order by Sovereign Parker, Guardian of the Celery City Circle, who introduced Sovereign T. W. Mitchell of Jacksonville as installing officer. Sovereign Griffin called the officers elect to form a semi-circle around the stump to be obligated. Sovereign Mollie Singletary was then called to conduct officers to installing officer to receive their charge and be invested with their badge of office.

Sovereign Parker gave a brief charge to her sovereigns, also a history of the order from its organization in 1891, showing the growth of the order to the present time. This organization stands at the head of all fraternal insurance orders for women.

The officers of the circle were then unseated. Sovereign Mitchell called the officers elect of the Woodman to come forward for installation, after which he introduced Sovereign Rosenthal of Columbus, Ga., who is one of the law committee of the Woodman of the World, also camp lecturer for Georgia and Florida. Sovereign Mitchell then introduced the newly installed consul commander, Sovereign Underwood, who announced that the ladies of the circle had prepared a bountiful feast. All were invited to be seated at tables where a four course supper was served and much enjoyed by all present.

The Wednesday Club

A very fine attendance of the club was present Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. S. J. Chase. Miss Mabel Bowler opened the program for the afternoon by singing "To You," Marie Beatrice Gannon. Miss Bowler was accompanied by Miss Frank. The song was much enjoyed by the club. After the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. Chase, Mrs. M. H. Bowler read a very interesting paper on the "Ancient Dress, Manners and Customs" of the Norwegians and Swedes, written by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher who was unavoidably detained at home. Miss Gertrude Speer entertained the club with a fine paper on "The Vikings, Their Explorations and Settlements." Miss Tetherly read "The Building of the Long Worn," the rather peculiar name given an exceedingly long ship that was constructed for one of the powerful Norse kings. Second reading, "Queen Asta Makes Ready."

Mrs. Geo. H. Fernald announced to the club that the Hospital Association was planning to have on Feb. 14th a Field Day, when a number and variety of enterprises and efforts would be made in the interest of the hospital fund, such as outdoor sports for men and boys, attractive booths and other plans of entertainment to be in charge of the young ladies and a lunch room to be presided over by committees of ladies. Mrs. Fernald asked the interest and cooperation of the club in the enterprise, as well as their assistance and influence in enlisting the interest and enthusiasm of every man, woman and child in the town, in making this Field Day a magnificent success, as they hope to clear at least one thousand dollars.

Unitarian Services.

Rev. Eleanor E. Gordon conducted Unitarian services on Sunday last at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Fernald, 500 Oak avenue, Miss Gordon is from Des Moines, Iowa. The services are held under the auspices of the American Unitarian Association and they have arranged for Miss Gordon to speak in Orlando and Sanford during January and February. Miss Gordon's subject last Sunday was Personal Religion. The next service will be on Sunday, Jan. 14, at 3.30 p. m. at 500 Oak Ave. The subject will be "The Relations of God." Everyone is invited to attend.

Welaka Club Notice

The art entertainment which was to have been given, Thursday afternoon by the club was postponed on account of the inclemency of the weather until next Tuesday afternoon. At that time the art entertainment and the musical entertainment will be given at the club rooms. All members are requested to be present.

Former Sanford Citizen Dead.

A clipping from the Moravia, Mass., Register, gives an account of the death of Albert S. Chamberlain, who formerly resided here. He married Mrs. Julia E. T. Phelps, also well known in Sanford.

ALL AROUND FLORIDA

The General News of The Land of Flowers.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

Large catches of Spanish mackerel and kingfish have been made in Miami during the past few days. Several fish houses shipped by the carload Thursday while others had smaller shipments.

For the benefit of fruit and vegetable growers in the immediate vicinity of Miami arrangements have been made to sound whistle signals as frost and cold wave warning. Upon notice of cold wave or frost, whistle signals will be given from the electric light plant in that city.

Mr. Walter E. Flanders, the well known automobile manufacturer, has purchased the Grating property at Buena Vista at the cost of $52,000, and will soon begin the erection of a beautiful home which will cost $30,000.

The question of whether a woman can hold an office in Florida has been submitted to the Supreme Court by the Governor. The latter has been asked to appoint the widow of the former County Treasurer of Palm Beach county to the vacancy made by her husband's death, and he is uncertain as to the constitutionality of such an appointment.

The large cannery plant of C. B. Gay in Jacksonville was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. The Gay Co. made a specialty of Florida cane syrup and did an extensive business for export trade. The plant will be rebuilt.

A Philadelphia man will erect a fine new theatre in St. Petersburg that will have a seating capacity of 1,000 people.

The fight for the location of the county seat of Pinellas county is on and Clearwater, St. Petersburg and Largo are after the plum.

By building a connecting link from Dunellon to Monticello the Atlantic Coast Line expects to connect Tampa with a direct route to western points.

Madison, Fla., the other day voted with practical unanimity to buy the plant of the local electric lighting and power company, and the enterprising little city has put its feet on the highway of progress.

Some time within the next few years some man will have and $150,000 will build a gasoline motor railway between Dayton and the St. Johns river, passing through Deland. There is big money in this proposition for some wide-awake man.—Deland News.

The mutilated remains of a white man were found Thursday on the Atlantic Coast Line tracks half a mile south of Yonkers, which is about six miles from Pin City. A grip containing clothing was also found with the body.

After a search, which has extended from coast to coast, and from the Gulf to the Lakes, Philip Grace, the young desperado, who made his escape from a Florida convict camp after having been sentenced from Jacksonville, has at last been located in Youngstown, Ohio, and will undoubtedly be brought back to Jacksonville.

Association's Good Work

The Florida Vegetable Growers' Association is doing good work in the shipping of crops to the members and getting quick returns.

One car that left on Jan. 3rd was sold on Jan. 8th as follows:

349 packages gross returns were $1,333, netted $1,088.78 to the growers. The money was back to Sanford yesterday and the growers received their share today.

These business like methods of handling the crop are bringing up more members under the Association banner and the growers are realizing the benefits to be derived from a well organized and well directed Association.

Sanitary Tax

All those who wish to pay their scavenger tax now can pay the treasurer, W. L. Morgan at his store or to Sam Williams. After the 10th of the month of each quarter delinquents will be summoned before the mayor. Sanitary Inspector Williams can be found at the city clerk's office every Saturday after noon and Monday morning.
