5,000 Seminole Customers

Water And Sewer Rates To Be Increased Friday

By MICHAEL BEHA
Herald Staff Writer

If you're one of 5,000 customers getting water and sewer service from Seminole County, you'll soon be paying more for it.

Exactly how much more depends upon how much you use but for the average residential user, bills will increase by about $8 per month.

Seminole County commissioners approved new rates Tuesday night by a 4-1 vote with Robert G. "Bud" Feather casting the lone vote against the rates which eliminate a minimum service charge and base bills on how much water is used.

Feather said he opposes the new rates which go into effect Friday, because they will cost the average consumer, one who uses 13,000 gallons per month, $23 for sewer service. He said the new rate structure also inhibits the use of septic tanks in areas which have soils which can accept them.

The increase in rates is the first since 1979 and is expected to provide sufficient funds to operate the system for the next five years, according to Bill Simpson of Post Buckley, Schuh and Jernigan, the Orlando firm which did the county's rate study.

He advised commissioners to re-examine the rate structure in three years to see if another increase is justified.

Commission Chairman Robert Sturm said the rate study was an important factor to get his support for the rate increase.

Sturm said he was opposed to the rate increase originally because he didn't feel it was justified. The study showed what current costs are, what is needed for future capacity and how much it will cost, he said.

Also approved was an increase in connection fees for the system. Under the new ordinance, new customers will pay $1,400 for a tap-in. The current sewer connection fee is $255. Water tap-ins will continue to cost $425.

The increase in the connection fees is based on the increased costs of sewage treatment, Simpson said.

Simpson said the Iron Bridge Regional Wastewater Treatment Facility which opened in February has cost about $4 per gallon of capacity. Planned expansion at the facility will cost a minimum of $1 a gallon, Simpson said.

He said expansion of the facility is the cheapest method of providing additional sewage treatment capacity. A planned 16-million-gallon expansion would cost $64 million.

That is less expensive than plants currently in design for construction in Orange County, he said.

Commissioners also approved the formation of a committee to study the county's future sewage capacity needs, alternatives to providing that capacity and the costs of those alternatives.

Formation of the committee came as a result of meetings with the Home Builders Association of Mid-Florida who had sought a reduced connection fee during the period the committee is studying the situation.

Under the plan approved by commissioners money paid in connection fees will be held in escrow until the committee submits its findings on Jan. 15. If the study shows that a smaller tap-in fee will be sufficient to fund expansion, part of the fee will be refunded. If the study shows more money is needed, the fees will be increased and those who paid $1,400 will have to pay more.

The home builders group had suggested an interim $960 tap-in fee and a 6-month study period.

Library Voters Will Decide $7 Million Issue Tuesday

Seminole County voters who go to the polls Tuesday will decide whether they want an expanded and improved library system and whether they are willing to pay for it.

While nearly 75,000 county residents are registered to vote in the election, Seminole Supervisor of Elections Camilla Bruce is predicting 10 percent or less of the voters will go to the polls.

The low prediction is because there is no Democratic Party runoff and only one contest — between David Bludworth and Van B. Poole for the GOP nomination for U.S. Senator — on the Republican ballot.

All voters regardless of party designation may vote on the $7 million library bond issue. The ballot question asks for voter approval or rejection of a proposal to improve and expand the library system at a total cost of $7 million through the sale of bonds with a term of no more than 30 years.

Actually the county's fiscal agent, Stuart Hartman, is recommending a term of 15 years to 20 years.

A 20-year bond issue could likely be sold, in his opinion, for an annual interest rate of 12 percent. Cost of funding the issue would be about 28 cents per $1,000 assessed value based on the current tax rate.

The cost per $1,000 would decline as the tax base increased with countywide growth. Total payback over the 20 years at $926,100 per year is $18.5 million.

Hartman actually favors a 15-year issue because a lower interest rate of 11 percent annually can be expected. Under a 15-year issue, annual payments of $955,500 would be required for a total payback of $14.4 million.

The cost to the taxpayers would be 29 cents per $1,000 assessed value and would decline annually as the county tax base increased through growth.

There doesn't appear to be any advantage in going for a bond issue with a term longer than 15-20 years. At this point in the municipal bond market, lower interest rates — like the 11 percent for a 15-year issue — are available for bonds running for periods shorter than 30 years.

If the bond issue passes, the county under U.S. Internal Revenue Service regulations would have as little as three years time or as much as five years to spend the bond issue money for library expansion and improvement.

In the new 1982-83 fiscal year that begins Friday, operation of the county's library system costs the taxpayers about 31 cents per $1,000 assessed valuation. If the bond issue passes, operating costs are expected to increase by 14 cents per $1,000, beginning in the 1983-84 fiscal year, and to continue increasing until hitting a high of 31 cents per $1,000 in the 1987-1988 fiscal year. These costs are in addition to the 31 cents current operating costs.

The total cost for the system by then could be 29 cents per $1,000 for the bond issue and 62 cents per $1,000 for operating costs for a total of 91 cents per $1,000 for overall library operation. These figures worked up by the county budget office are based on a five percent growth rate in the county. If the county experiences a higher growth rate the costs could be less.

Seminole County's library system has seen phenomenal growth since the county took over full operation in 1978. For three years prior to that time, the county contracted with the Orlando Public Library for service at two branches, one in Casselberry and the other in Sanford.

During the last year, the OPL operated the Seminole system an average of 25,000 volumes were borrowed monthly by Seminole County readers.

In August some 55,000 books were circulated among readers at the two branches in Casselberry and Sanford in addition to books borrowed by readers from the Bookmobile and at the county jail.

The total budget for library operations in the new fiscal year is $1.2 million. Some 35 persons work full time in the system plus eight work part time.

And 51,009 Seminole residents hold library cards — 42,240 adults and 8,769 juveniles.

The county almost two years ago commissioned a study on the library system. The crux of the consultant's report was that if the county was going to have a library system, it should be a good one. And to have a good one, more library branches are

And it was recommended the issue be put to the voters.

Ms. Rhein said if the bond issue passes, plans are to build four new branch libraries: a 12,000-square-foot facility in the Forest City-Wekiva area; a 12,000-square-foot facility in the Lake Howell-Tuskawilla area; a 3,000-square-foot facility in the Oviedo area and an 8,000-square-foot facility in Lake Mary.

In addition, the 3,000-square-foot library in Sanford would be expanded to 12,000 square feet including some space for administration.

And a new 18,000-square-foot main library would be built in the Casselberry area to replace the rented space there in Seminole Plaza. Currently, it is costing the county $37,000 a year to rent that space.

The only place where the county is assured of land for library expansion or construction is in Sanford. The city of Sanford has pledged to give the county the vacant lot it owns adjacent to the library on East First Street. The building now used is also to be given to the county by the city and is now being leased by the county at $1 per year from the city.

The other sites must be acquired. Ms. Rhein said she is hopeful property for the branches will either be donated to the county or sold at a reduced price by public-spirited citizens or supporters of the library system.

Funds from the bond issue also are expected to be sufficient to purchase furnishings for the new buildings and to pay for 50,000 new books — both hard-cover and paperback — for the new branches.

Through donations several thousand books are already on hand for the new branches, Ms. Rhein said.

Of the county library system's $1.2 million budget for the new year, some $39,000 is allocated for salaries including three new positions, Ms. Rhein said.

Flea World Permitted To Expand

Seminole County commissioners have given Flea World owner Syd Levy permission to expand his operation by 21 acres but forbid him from using an adjacent agricultural area for parking.

Commissioners told Levy he could proceed with his plans to expand the flea market from its present 10 acres but could not use a parcel zoned for agricultural use as an overflow parking lot.

Levy appealed a decision by the county board of adjustment prohibiting the expansion on the basis one of the board members had a conflict of interest since he leased parking space to a competing flea market owner.

Levy told commissioners the expansion of the flea market, south of Sanford on U.S. 17-92, will improve operations there. He said an exit from the market onto County Home Road, which feeds onto County Road 427, will be closed and a second entrance will be placed on U.S. 17-92.

The property was rezoned by commissioners earlier this year on a petition by Levy who said he was shocked when the adjustment board decided not to permit his expansion plans.

Levy said he has installed holding ponds on the property to improve drainage and is presently clearing the 21 acres. He said plans call for the eventual fencing of the entire property and construction of a house for a security guard.

Several neighbors appeared at the hearing and were skeptical of Levy's plans. Edna Wren, who owns property adjacent to the flea market, presented a petition signed by 125 people who live within 1½ miles of the market.

About 10 residences overlook the property and Mrs. Wren said the flea market is devaluing her property.

Larry Blair, a member of the board of adjustment, sent commissioners a letter addressing his concerns about the expansion. He said left turns from 17-92 onto the property pose a traffic hazard.

Commissioner Robert Sturm made a motion to uphold the board of adjustment decision.

Barbara Christensen agreed with Sturm but the motion was defeated by a 3-2 vote.

A second motion, proposed by Robert G. "Bud" Feather, to reverse the adjustment board's decision was approved by a 3-2 margin, with Sturm and Mrs. Christensen voting in the minority.

Feather's motion requires Levy to maintain the natural boundary and to construct a fence across a low portion of the property used for drainage. The fence will keep vehicles from parking in the area, commissioners said. — MICHAEL BEHA.

County Settles Drive Dispute

The dispute between Sabal Point developer Walter Temple and residents of the subdivision over the location of a driveway at a professional office complex has been settled.

County commissioners voted Tuesday to endorse a plan proposed by Temple to widen the driveway, install a median and remove some shrubbery to improve site distance.

The plan was approved by a 4-1 vote with Commissioner Bill Kirchhoff casting the lone negative vote.

But Sabal Point Homeowners Association President Thomas Spence said he's still not satisfied with the compromise.

Spence said it is the homeowners' contention the driveway should not have been allowed and feels the current compromise should not have been allowed.

He said there is no way to combine safety and aesthetics at the driveway, directly across from Hornbeam Avenue on Sabal Palm Drive. "If you enhance the safety factor you destroy the aesthetics. The end result is that both will be marginal," he said.

Spence wanted to reopen a discussion on how the driveway came to be located there but Commissioner Robert G. "Bud" Feather told him to restrict remarks to the compromise. He claims the drive was not included in the original site plan.

But county staff officials said in a previous meeting that the driveway had been planned about 60 feet from the street's corner. Those staff officials ordered the drive moved opposite Hornbeam to fit with county ordinances that call for side streets to be exactly opposite each other whenever possible.

That put the drive in the direct line of sight of residents on Hornbeam. Temple put shrubbery and a median to restrict the view into the complex but that put the driveway into violation of another county ordinance requiring a 250-foot sight distance.

Under the compromise, Temple will widen the drive to 60 feet.

The median strip proposed by Temple would have laurel and oak trees planted in it and would restrict traffic coming into and leaving the complex.

Traffic Engineer Gary Lester refuted residents' claims the driveway would increase the traffic use on the street above an acceptable limit. He said the driveway has 246 trips a day and will average 360 a day when the office complex is completed. — MICHAEL BEHA

Man Charged With Counterfeiting

By TENI YARBOROUGH
Herald Staff Writer

A 35-year-old Maitland man whom federal agents say escaped from a state prison in 1977 and assumed a second identity was being held in the Seminole County jail today following his arrest Monday night on counterfeiting charges.

James Thomas Wright of 2320 Markingham Road was arrested at 7 p.m. at Maitland Avenue and Maitland Boulevard by U.S. Secret Service agent Robert Connelly. Wright is being held without bond.

At a bond hearing Tuesday before U.S.

Magistrate Donald Dietrich, Assistant U.S. Attorney Joe Urbaniak said he believes Wright is a prison escapee whose real name is Oba Chandler.

Connelly also told Dietrich he believes Wright is Chandler and that he assumed Wright's identity after he escaped May 10, 1977, from a state prison road camp near Jacksonville. At the time, Chandler had been serving a 10-year sentence for robbery, Connelly said.

Connelly further stated he became aware of the case after two youths were arrested in June on charges of passing counterfeit $20 bills at the World's Fair in Knoxville, Tenn.

The youths reportedly told agents that they had been given the notes by an Orlando man known only to them as "Jim" who they say offered them a ride while hitchhiking in Ocala. According to Connelly, the youths said the man had $7,500 in counterfeit $20 bills.

Connelly said the youths later recalled the name of an Atlanta motel where the man had stayed and agents searched motel records and located Wright's Orlando address.

Wright had been arrested in Seminole and Orange counties several times since 1978 on traffic and misdemeanor offenses, Connelly said. He added that fingerprints taken from Wright after a 1981 theft arrest matched Chandler's fingerprints.

Agents then traced Wright to his Maitland address, followed him as he left the home Monday night and arrested him on charges of possession of counterfeit notes in connection with the youths' arrests.

Agents later searched Wright's car under a search warrant and seized an undisclosed amount of counterfeit bills. Further charges may be pending, Connelly said.

The self-employed Wright, who makes cypress clocks, told Dietrich he has never used any name other than Wright but declined further comment on the case.

Jamboree Nets $18,000 For Zoo

By JANE CASSELBERRY
Herald Staff Writer

The fourth annual Zippy-Zoo-Dah Country Music Jamboree and Auction for the Central Florida Zoo was a successful fund-raiser and will net between $18,000 and $20,000 for the zoo, according to the chairman of the event, Patsy Ninninger of Winter Park.

There were 275 zoo supporters, who paid $50 each for the buffet dinner and country music by the "County Line" band and bidding on the more than 300 items auctioned by Lewis Dellarco, Sanford auctioneer.

The affair, previously held at Disney World, was held at Orlando Expo Center Friday night.

The auction of items donated by Central Florida businesses and individuals netted $13,100, Mrs. Ninninger said.

Assisting Dellarco was State Rep. Robert Hattaway, who is a certified auctioneer. Hattaway was surprised at one item he was called on to sell — a dinner partner for the evening in a large box wrapped in silver paper and red ribbon. The "dinner partner" turned out to be a skunk.

Other auction items included such things as a Disney World weekend, a Church Street Station balloon ride, sailing lessons and a condo at the beach.

"We want to thank all those who donated," said Beth Hattaway of Winter Springs, co-chairman for the event. "People were calling the zoo to offer items without waiting to be asked. Sanford really came through for us and we got beautiful things from the jewelry stores there." The other co-chairman was Shirley Mason of Longwood, assistant treasurer for the Central Florida Zoological Society.

The western theme was carried out in decorations which included Conestoga wagons.

"All the wine and beer for the evening was donated by Grantham Distributors," said Mrs. Hattaway, and the beer was served in horse troughs.

More than $200 was raised by raffling off the privilege of naming the zoo's Bengal tiger cub, who was the hit of the evening. She was given the name "Miss Puss" by the winner.

IN BRIEF

'Flat Tax Considered ; Business Breaks OK'd

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Finance Committee, acting just hours after exploring ways to simplify the tax structure, approved more than a dozen special interest tax breaks for businesses.

Early Tuesday, the panel opened three days of hearings on the "flat tax" proposal and other alternatives designed to improve taxpayer compliance by making it easier to file tax returns — a crucial element in a voluntary tax system that has witnessed a growing trend toward evasion over the past decade.

A pure flat tax would eliminate virtually all deductions, credits and exemptions — thus broadening the tax base and permitting a reduction in the tax rate to the range of 15 percent to 20 percent, with the same rate applied to everyone.

A new study by Brookings Institution economist Joseph Pechman showed a flat tax effectively would increase taxes for people with incomes below $50,000 and lower taxes for those with incomes above that level.

RR Cars Still Burning

LIVINGSTON, La. (UPI) — A second explosion today shook a "war zone" of 43 derailed train cars carrying toxic chemicals, spewing shrapnel and flames 50 feet in the air, but officials were helpless in fighting the fires that forced 3,000 people to flee.

The inferno, started when a 101-car Illinois Gulf Central train derailed Tuesday, was too intense and volatile to extinguish and officials said their only hope was that it would burn out without serious explosions.

Two people were treated for smoke inhalation after a first blast Tuesday and no injuries were reported in the second, but it was uncertain whether a toxic cloud feared by officials would materialize.

Blacks Support Wallace Bid

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) — George Wallace, a runoff winner with black support despite his segregationist past, cannot walk and is almost deaf, but has a strong chance for a record fourth term as Alabama's governor in November.

Wallace, 63, will be matched in the general election against Republican Emory Folmar, the pistol-toting mayor of Montgomery, in this Deep South state that has not elected a GOP chief executive since 1872.

Wallace edged Lt. Gov. George McMillan, 38, for the Democratic nomination Tuesday with a strong showing in Black Belt counties and other rural areas.

Palimony Suit Dismissed

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Vicki Morgan's sensational palimony suit against Alfred Bloomingdale and his widow has been dropped by a judge who ruled she was nothing more than "a well-paid mistress" to the presidential confidante.

But Superior Court Judge Christian Markey ruled Tuesday trial may proceed on two parts of the suit based on contracts Bloomingdale, 66, allegedly signed to a hospital shortly before he died of cancer last summer. Those actions seek $10,000-a-month support for Miss Morgan for two years and half of the profits from his share of a joint business venture.

The judge dismissed two key causes of action based on Miss Morgan's claims her relationship with Bloomingdale was similar to that of an unmarried couple covered in the landmark Marvin vs. Marvin case.

Miss Morgan, 30, filed the $11 million suit last July, less than six weeks before Bloomingdale died. She was not mentioned in his will.

In Orange County Arson-Related Case

Former Policeman May Escape Trial

By TENI YARBOROUGH
Herald Staff Writer

Ex-Sanford police officer Walter Jones, convicted of three arson-related crimes earlier this month, may not have to face similar charges in Orange County.

Jack Bridges, lawyer for the former 13-year police veteran, said he has filed a motion with Orange County Judge Joseph Baker asking that the charges against Jones accusing him of defrauding an Orange County insurance company and grand theft in connection with the arson be dismissed.

A Seminole Circuit Court convicted Jones Sept. 10 of solicitation to commit arson, second-degree arson and burning to defraud an insurer in connection with the December torching of his 1839 Jerry Ave. home in the Goldsboro section of Sanford.

Bridges said that because his client was convicted in Seminole County and because the state introduced evidence in the Seminole County case which overlaps with the Orange County case, "the state has put him (Jones) in double jeopardy."

"Florida law says that a person cannot be tried twice for the same offense," Bridges said. "That is, he cannot be tried twice in cases using essentially the same elements."

Bridges argues that the state has placed his client in double jeopardy because "they introduced the checks which he allegedly received from the insurance company for loss of the burned house as evidence here and that would also be the evidence in the Orange County case."

"The state also entered the insurance claims which Jones allegedly falsified as evidence in the trial here and because the charge in Orange County is that of defrauding an insurance company, that evidence would also be used against him down there," Bridges said.

Assistant State Attorney Steve Brady, who prosecuted Jones in the Seminole County case and who is expected to present the state's case in the Orange County trial, said there is "no way that the state placed Jones in double jeopardy. We have a case."

Baker is expected to render his decision Nov. 1. However,

BURGLARS STEAL $600 FROM SAFE
More than $600 was stolen from a safe at Captain Hook's Good Time Emporium, 495 W. State Road 436, near Altamonte Springs, between 2 and 11:50 a.m. Sunday, deputies said.

Deputies said someone pried open the front door of the restaurant and apparently opened the safe using the lock combination. Assistant Manager Stephen Grice told deputies the thieves made off with $611.50.

TICKETS, CHECKS TAKEN
Four airline tickets valued at $564, a checkbook and an undisclosed amount of traveler's checks were stolen from a Sanford man's car parked at the Jai Alai Fronton parking lot in Fern Park between 7:45 p.m. Friday and 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

Mark Larson, 36, of 125 Hidden Lake Drive told deputies he had placed the items under the driver's seat of his 1975 Oldsmobile stationwagon and that upon his return, the tickets and checks were missing.

CASH, CHECKS TAKEN
Thieves broke into a South Carolina man's truck, which was parked at a hotel near Sanford between 9 p.m. Saturday and 11 a.m. Sunday, and stole five $100-bills and three blank checks.

Commission Restores Builder's License

A Lake Mary home builder had his license restored by Seminole County commissioners Tuesday.

Commissioners, on a 3-2 vote with Sandra Glenn and Robert G. "Bud" Feather dissenting, reversed a Building Contractor's Licensing Board decision suspending Irwin Peltzer's license for an indefinite period.

Commissioners said the board overstepped its authority in deciding that Peltzer, president of Peltzer Construction Co., was responsible for drainage problems at the home of a Wekiva Club Estates couple.

The couple, Robert and Ruth Goldenberg, appealed to the licensing board in November 1981 that Peltzer had failed to install drainage swales in their back yard. As a result, their garage was flooded and water from a hillside drained onto their swimming pool deck.

Peltzer was given 60 days to correct the problem by the board in March and later a 30-day extension was granted. In August, after no work had been done to correct the problem, the board suspended his license until he corrected the problem.

But Peltzer's attorney, Robert B. White Jr., argued Tuesday that the poor drainage at the house was because of subsurface problems. He said a contract between the Goldenbergs and Peltzer waived the builder of responsibility for problems caused by subsurface sources.

County Attorney Nikki Clayton said the licensing board may have suspended Peltzer without answering the questions about the drainage.

"That doesn't seem to be in a contractor's field," Ms. Clayton said. She said a drainage engineer is more qualified to determine the causes of the problem.

But Feather said the public confidence in builders is paramount in this case. He made a motion to uphold the licensing board's suspension but that motion died without a second.

Building Official Don Flippen said the property does have a subsurface water problem but also has a surface drainage problem. "What we're asking for are swales to divert water from the structure."

He said the Goldenbergs' swimming pool was built about six inches too low. Had the elevation of the pool been higher, the problem would have been eliminated, Flippen added.

"No engineering was done on this project at all," he said. "It's up to a building contractor to set his elevations and install drainage. That's why they're licensed. They're supposed to know these things."

Sturm made the motion to reinstate Peltzer's license and return the case to the licensing board for further action.

He also urged the Goldenbergs to hire an attorney and try to work out an arrangement with Peltzer to correct the problem. — MICHAEL BELLA

Hinckley Seeks Gun To Kill Foster

WASHINGTON (UPI) — St. Elizabeths Hospital, where John W. Hinckley Jr. is being confined, intercepted a letter by the young presidential assailant asking someone to smuggle a gun to him and help kill actress Jodie Foster.

Justice Department sources confirmed Tuesday that Hinckley wrote a letter, but neither the department, the FBI, the U.S. attorney nor officials at St. Elizabeths would discuss its contents.

NBC News reported that in the intercepted letter, Hinckley asked an unidentified woman in the Midwest to smuggle a .38-caliber pistol to him "and to help him shoot and kill Jodie Foster."

"She is said to be a stranger who had sent a sympathetic letter to Hinckley at the hospital," the network said.

NBC said the letter was read by psychiatrists at the hospital, where he has been confined since he was found innocent by reason of insanity of shooting President Reagan and three others in March 1981, and handed it over to the FBI, which is investigating. No crime was committed because the letter was never sent, the network said.

Meanwhile, with the Hinckley verdict clearly in mind, a House subcommittee Tuesday approved a bill modifying the insanity defense in federal criminal trials.

The bill would require that a defendant prove insanity by a "preponderance" of evidence, prohibit a psychiatrist from offering an opinion at the trial as to whether the defendant was insane, establish a federal commitment procedure, and reform federal procedures for dealing with those incompetent to stand trial.

The subcommittee, which held extensive hearings and took testimony from a dozen witnesses, defeated two Republican substitutes.

One, by Rep. Bill McCollum, R-Fla., and endorsed by the administration, would have eliminated the insanity defense altogether but provided for treatment of the defendant later.

"We owe it to society to find them guilty and then treat them differently," McCollum said. "I find no reason to keep a separate, independent defense."

"This could be construed as an over-reaction to Hinckley," chairman John Conyers, D-Mich., said. "We've been cautioned about that constantly."

"The Hinckley case... gave us a chance to really resolve this question," McCollum said.

Tandy Woods, 39, of Honea Path, S.C., told deputies he often travels to Sanford to buy furniture at the auction and that while his truck was parked at the Holiday Inn, along State Road 46 and Interstate 4, someone broke into the vehicle and stole the cash and checks. Deputies said the vent windows of Woods' truck has been pried open.

MAN GRABS PURSE, TAKES CASH
A 79-year-old Sanford woman told police she was robbed of her purse and $16 cash while getting into her car parked at the Sanford Civic Center at about 4:10 p.m. Saturday.

Virginia Roche of 809 Catalina Drive told police she was entering her vehicle when a man came up to her, grabbed her purse and fled.

A.R. Beadles, 67, of 810 Catalina Drive, a neighbor of Mrs. Roche who was in the parking lot at the time of the robbery, followed the robber and found Mrs. Roche's purse in bushes along the east side of the civic center, police said. However, $17 cash had been removed from the purse, police added.

Little Old Lady Guilty Of Slapping Policeman

A 73-year-old Sanford woman is facing up to five years in state prison and a $5,000 fine following her conviction Tuesday for battery on a Sanford police officer.

After more than an hour of deliberation, a Seminole Circuit Court jury found Ruth Regina Dritz, 802 W. First St., guilty of battery against Sanford police officer Mark Yarborough but returned a not guilty verdict on an additional charge against Mrs. Dritz of obstructing an officer by fleeing.

Mrs. Dritz was involved in a traffic accident July 5 near the Sambo's restaurant parking lot on U.S. Highway 17-92, left her car and entered the restaurant, police said.

Yarborough testified that he saw Mrs. Dritz leave the restaurant and that he believed she was about to drive out of the parking lot before the accident investigation was conducted. When he approached her, she slapped him on the arm, he said.

Yarborough said Mrs. Dritz then turned and ran and that she struck him again when he pursued her and placed his hands on her shoulders from behind. He said she also called him a "Nazi" and a "Communist."

Judge S. Joseph Davis Jr., ruled that Mrs. Dritz could remain free on bond pending completion of a presentence investigation. Mrs. Dritz' lawyer, Mike Gray, requested that she be allowed to remain free in order to care for her husband who was shot during a robbery at the couple's salvage yard three years ago.

Mrs. Dritz had previously turned down a negotiated guilty plea to battery and the obstruction charge which would have called for her to serve one year of probation, write a letter of apology to the police department, attend counseling sessions and pay a $500 fine.

'Ski Mask Gang' Leader To Be Executed Oct. 22

LALLAHASSEE (UPI) — An execution date of Oct. 22 has been set for Daniel Morris Thomas, leader of the "Ski Mask Gang" that terrorized white families in rural Central Florida during the mid-1970s.

Gov. Bob Graham signed the death warrant Tuesday just two weeks after a clemency hearing at which a citizen's group presented petitions with more than 1,000 signatures calling for the convicted murderer's death.

Thomas, 31, headed an anti-white group of blacks that broke into at least 16 isolated homes in seven rural Central Florida counties in 1975-76, killing two men, raping five women, throwing two of the rape victims off bridges and beating and torturing victims.

'Tick Talks' Goes Bust

MIAMI (UPI) — "Operation Tick Talks," once heralded by police as a major drug investigation into the heart of Miami's Latin community, finally died with the announcement by Dade State Attorney Janet Reno that all charges would be dropped.

The announcement was made Tuesday by Reno, following an 11-day bid ruling by Circuit Judge Gerald Kogan which denied the state use of 1,000 hours of taped conversations. Those tapes, made from a bug placed in the clock of a key defendant's home, were the main evidence in the case — and gave the operation its name.

The decision to drop charges ends the case, which took eight months to investigate and resulted in the arrest of 41 suspects in August 1981. Also seized were five pounds of cocaine, $149,000 in cash and an Uzi submachine gun.

Shuttle Test Goes Well

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — A test in which supercold rocket propellant was pumped into the external tank of the shuttle Columbia "went very well" and there was no hint of the falling ice problem that marred the ship's third launch, officials say.

Technicians pumped more than 500,000 gallons of frigid liquid hydrogen and liquid oxygen into the huge tank Tuesday in a crucial test to prepare the shuttle for its first operational launch on Veterans Day Nov. 11.

The test is conducted before every mission to check the durability of the tank's inch-thick insulation and to see if any ice will form on the tip of the tank, which could indicate incorrect procedures or improper insulation.

GRAY WATER ACCOLADE

State Rep. Bobby Brantley (R-Longwood) Monday presented Longwood City Administrator David Chacey (left) with a plaque containing a photo of Gov. Bob Graham signing the Gray Water Bill into law last March, the pen which he used, and copies of the House and Senate bills. Longwood was the first city to adopt the gray water system which sends waste water from home sinks, showers and washing machines through a filter and back into the ground water table. Brantley, who co-sponsored the bill with Sen. Tom Jennings, R-Orlando, credited Chacey with the idea which he first thought "hare-brained." The concept has since been adopted by other cities and has proved beneficial by conserving water and reducing the amount of flow to sewage plants by more than 50 percent.

For Country's Economic Woes

Reagan Blames The Democrats

WASHINGTON (UPI) — With congressional elections five weeks away, President Reagan concedes unemployment may hit 10 percent, but lays the blame on his predecessors and insists his policies have brought hope to most Americans.

Reagan opened the 13th nationally broadcast news conference of his presidency Tuesday with a strong defense of his economic policies that accentuated the positive but acknowledged the recession "has taken a heavy toll on the lives of too many of our people."

"We still have a long way to go," Reagan said in an opening statement. "But together we've pulled America back from the brink of disaster. We're better off today than we were."

The news conference dwelled largely on the economy — recognized by the White House as the key issue of the upcoming congressional elections — and the situation in the Middle East.

On the economy, Reagan sounded the combative theme he has used on the campaign trail — accusing Democrats of placing political interests before economic needs and trying to undermine his achievements with "demagoguery and rhetoric."

On other matters, Reagan: — Indicated the outcry over the massacre of Palestinian civilians in Beirut has not shaken U.S. support for Israeli

Prime Minister Menachem Begin and disagreed the United States bears any part of the responsibility

— Said he would rule out tax increases in his fiscal 1984 budget, "unless there's a palace coup and I'm overtaken"

Prime Falls To 13%

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bankers Trust Co., New York, Tuesday cut its prime rate one-half point to 13 percent in the face of "significant" uncertainty over Federal Reserve policy and the near-term course of other short-term interest rates.

Only one smaller bank, Mitsui Manufacturers Bank, Los Angeles, followed Bankers Trust to the lower prime, the first cut in this base rate since Aug. 23.

Marines Land In Beirut; Massacre Probe Launched

United Press International

Israel agreed to withdraw its troops from the Beirut airport, clearing the way for the landing today of 1,200 U.S. Marines. President Reagan ordered to stay in Lebanon until all Israeli and Syrian troops leave the country.

In Jerusalem, Prime Minister Menachem Begin bowed Tuesday to demands from his Cabinet and angry Israeli citizens to set up a full-scale judicial inquiry into the massacre of hundreds of Palestinians in two Beirut refugee camps.

In Damascus, Palestine Liberation Organization Chairman Yasser Arafat arrived to lead the funeral procession today of Abu Al Walid, the PLO "commander-in-chief" who was slain Monday in an ambush in eastern Lebanon.

Officer Held In Murders

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (UPI) — The armed forces arrested an army captain for questioning in the slaying of two U.S. agrarian advisers, the fourth military officer detained in the case, informed sources said Tuesday.

But they said a wealthy Salvadoran businessman accused of also being involved in the Jan. 4, 1981 killings was told by his lawyer to flee from his Miami home-in-exile to dodge possible extradition.

Two national guard corporals last week confessed they killed Michael Hanmer, 42, of Potomac, Md., and Mark Pearlman, 32, of Seattle, Wash., and Salvadoran Agrarian Reform Institute Director Rodolfo Viera.

Feather To Explain Lien To Sanford Officials

Seminole County Commissioner Robert G. "Bud" Feather has until Oct. 11 to clear up the lien placed by a Sanford architect, against the 8.5-acre tract of property north of the Evening Herald along U.S. Highway 17-92 facing Lake Monroe.

Feather is scheduled to appear before the Sanford City Commission at its first regular meeting of October, a meeting Feather said will be preceded by a letter of explanation to city fathers.

City Manager W.E. "Pete" Knowles demanded an explanation from Feather after the city was served with the lien notice last week.

Feather's explanation Monday was that he doesn't have a good cash flow, but intends to develop the property nonetheless with a $20 million life-care center.

The city's interest is that it owned the property prior to its sale to an Altamonte Springs developer who in turn traded the land with Feather for another piece of property.

In the resulting agreements, Feather agreed to resell the property to the city for $117,000 if his development wasn't begun by March 1, 1983. The property was sold by the city to Tom Rucker of Altamonte Springs for $130,000 including additional fees for time extensions on the development.

Sanford architect Eoghan Kelley filed the lien claim, saying Feather did not pay him $9,751.06 he was due for architectural services for Feather's proposed life-care center. The payments were due on May 10 and July 16, Kelley said.

The Massacre In West Beirut

The Israeli government is responsible, directly or indirectly, for the massacre of hundreds of Palestinians, including many women and children, in two refugee camps in West Beirut last week.

That is the worldwide impression. It is real. It is inescapable. It will not go away.

The Israeli Cabinet met last Thursday and is said to have made the decision to leave the job of purging the camps of terrorists and weapons caches to the Lebanese Christian militia.

Either the Israeli government at the highest level knew, or it should have known, that sending the militiamen into the camps would surely result in slaughter.

The statement by Israeli Defense Minister Ariel Sharon disclaiming any such knowledge is inherently incredible.

And, while the slaughter was going on, Israeli authorities were informed of it and refused to stop it.

Prime Minister Menachem Begin of Israel calls all this "a blood libel" against the Israeli government.

He and his governing coalition had vetoed a judicial investigation of the matter, even though the Israeli constitution provides the machinery for such an investigation. The Israeli parliament now is endorsing a full scale probe into the massacre.

We are involved because we are Israel's closest friend and because we supply Israel with weapons. It could well be that our weapons, given to Israel and then given by Israel to the Lebanese Christian militia, were used in the massacre. When we gave the weapons, it was stipulated that they were to be used only in defense of Israel, and not aggressively.

We are involved also because we persuaded the Palestinian armed forces to leave West Beirut, giving them assurances that the families they left behind them would be protected from reprisal in the refugee camps.

Our ambassador, Philip Habib, is reported to have given such assurances in writing, based on promises from the Israelis.

And yet the refugee camps were "purged" within a week after the U.S. Marines left Beirut, in violation of our solemn word.

Sending the Marines back to Beirut is risky but was the right thing for President Reagan to do. It will take much longer than 30 or 60 days to put the pieces of shattered Lebanon back together again.

Much negotiation will be necessary. All parties, including the moderate Arabs outside Lebanon (Jordan, Saudi Arabia and Egypt), must be involved.

Israel's continued presence in Lebanon is disruptive. Israel must be persuaded to withdraw to its own borders as soon as possible. They are expected to be out by today. An effective international force, with U.S. troops, probably will have to remain in Lebanon for years. We are deeply involved and cannot escape our primary responsibility for finding a way to peace in the region.

How are we to persuade the Israeli government? That is a most difficult question. Israel is a foreign country, not the 51st state. It is a democracy and the people of Israel choose their own leaders.

We must not interfere in Israeli domestic politics. But we must take a firm stand in dealing with Begin. He and his associates are tough, hardened by years of fighting for the cause of Arabs, first against the British, then against the Arabs.

But they are realistic and will pay attention to strong actions by the best ally that Israel has.

BERRY'S WORLD

"I'm putting you on a diet, Judge. You're over-loaded like the court system, and bulging like the prisons."

Well, it's back in the saddle again, as the old song goes. After a week of frolicking in the north Georgia-North Carolina hill country and whiling away the hours on the Golden Isles, including St. Simons and Jekyll, I have to admit it is hard to get back into the swing of things again. But, alas, my respite is over and once again — the clacking typewriter can be heard in my small corner of the newsroom.

First, let me say that if you haven't forsaken Florida's beaches and flatlands and headed for the hills in a while, you might want to do so. It's gorgeous up there! The leaves are beginning to change color. The air is crisp and cool with a hint of burning wood from a chimney and there isn't a single sound except the rustle of leaves, lowing of cattle, whistles of birds and the pounding of your own heart as you take it all in. Paradise.

But, being the Florida-transplanted native that I am, I did long for the beaches and headed eventually for the Georgia coastline. Beautiful. Peaceful. And not a soul in sight.

I promised him I'd do it so here's a Happy Birthday to Assistant State Attorney Steve Plotnick who turned 33 years young Tuesday. If you happened to be at the Seminole State Attorney's Office Tuesday afternoon, you probably got a chance to indulge in some of the delicious birthday cake Steve's colleagues surprised him with. Happy Birthday, Steve.

And, just for your information...State Attorney Robert Eagan of the 19th Judicial Circuit will be the guest speaker at the Oct. 6 meeting of the Central Florida Law Enforcement Association in Sanford. The association is comprised of representatives of law enforcement agencies in Seminole, Orange and Osceola counties and this month's topic, which Eagan will address, concerns support for constitutional amendments concerning law enforcement which will appear on the November ballot. According to Sheriff's spokesman John Spolski, the proposed amendments are well-supported by the law enforcement community.

As we have reported previously, some of the amendments concern changes in laws regarding trespassing on school grounds, spouse abuse and the new state anti-paramilitary act which makes instruction in the use of weapons to cause a civil disorder in the country a third-degree felony.

Bishops' Economic Distortion

The economic radicalization of church groups is a feature of the late 20th century. Though capitalism has provided unprecedented benefits to working people in the modern world, many churchmen continue to present capitalist organization of production as a sinister force.

Thirty Episcopal bishops, organized in something called the Urban Bishops Coalition, have been every explicit about this. In a recent pastoral letter, these bishops declared "We know of no more sinister power and threat to the welfare of the human community than that flowing from corporate structures which remove control of resources and decision-making from the people most affected."

That is very harsh and irresponsible language. Mark the words "no more sinister power and threat to the welfare of the human community." Have the bishops not heard of communism or socialism? Do they find in Castro's Cuba an economic system that is superior to that of "corporate structures"? One wonders at the narrow vision of the bishops.

Corporate structures are a way of organizing wealth and using it for constructive means. Corporate structures make possible production of essential goods and services. The only significant alternative is control of the means of production by the state, as Karl Marx proposed and the socialist world subscribes to.

The economic crisis in Eastern Europe and the Third World is not the result of a "sinister" corporate power but of socialism which denies incentives to individuals and mismanages national resources.

The bishops apparently see another alternative. After condemning what they call "the self interest of absentee corporate owners," they urge "cooperative ownership."

Now there's nothing wrong with cooperative ownership, if people elect to get together and form an enterprise on that basis. But the bishops also propose what they call "a process of democratic control of work in local communities." The suggestion in their proposal is that "cooperative ownership" should be imposed on investor-owned companies. That's a very different kettle of fish.

Centrally to what the bishops say, companies aren't owned by faceless ogres — the "absentee corporate owners." America's giant companies are owned by millions of small investors, pension funds, a cross-section of ordinary citizens who elect to buy shares in productive enterprises. Countless retired people live on the dividends from these shares.

It is ignorant and wicked to suggest that someone who owns 50 shares in General Electric is grinding the face of the poor or perpetuating, in the bishops' words, "work-place inequality and the lack of dignity through shared ownership." The employees of Episcopal Church colleges are not cooperative owners of institutions, with a direct voice in their management. No injustice results from this situation.

The Urban Bishops Coalition should be called to account for its economic ignorance and its distortions of the truth. If it wants to identify injustice, it has only to look to the socialist world.

Rios Montt May Embarrass Reagan

WASHINGTON — Gen. Efraim Rios Montt, the new strongman of Guatemala, is a self-proclaimed born-again Christian. As such, he has been embraced with some fervor by President Reagan and Rev. Jerry Falwell.

But I'd suggest they not hug Rios Montt too tightly to their breast. Sooner or later, he's going to prove an embarrassment.

The White House welcomes Rios Montt as a staunch anti-communist in volatile Central America. The administration hopes to persuade Congress that his regime's human-rights record is good enough to qualify it for American military and economic aid.

As for Falwell, the Moral Majority Evangelist feels a "spiritual unity" with Rios Montt because of their shared fundamentalist religious beliefs. Though Falwell and Rios Montt apparently have never met, Falwell and other fundamentalist Christians, including William Middendorf, ambassador to the Organization of American States, did sit down to dinner with representatives of the Guatemalan regime recently in Washington.

I'm told that Falwell is secretly planning a

Big Banks Hurting

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A recent study of the banking industry says that many of the nation's largest banks are in the worst financial condition — and the news has sent shock waves throughout the banking community.

The study, conducted by The Holt Investment Advisory, an authoritative financial newsletter, says that while the banking industry itself is sound, the same cannot be said of individual banks. And it notes that the larger the bank, the worse its financial condition is likely to be.

In its research, the newsletter exhaustively examined the financial condition of the nation's 14,000 federally chartered banks. Instead of relying on data published in the banks' annual reports, Holt obtained the quarterly bank-data computer tape compiled by the Federal Reserve and analyzed the information using comparisons far more complex than simple balance-sheet ratios.

Six key ratios were applied to each of the 14,000 banks: equity as a percentage of total assets; the percentage of loan portfolio made up of loans to commercial and industrial companies, foreign governments, and construction and land-development companies (the three categories in the most trouble today); the dollar amount of loans to foreign governments as a percentage of assets; and purchased liabilities as a percentage of total liabilities.

Keith Jurow, an associate of newsletter publisher T.J. Holt, would not reveal the weight given to each ratio. However, he noted that "the biggest weight was given the equity-to-assets ratio."

The Holt team found that the system as a whole is sound, since "most commercial banks are enjoying good current earnings" and "the bulk of their loans have short maturities and carry market-sensitive interest rates."

But the most surprising finding of the Holt study was that, in general, the larger the bank, the worse its financial condition.

Holt has refined the data to lists of the "100 best" and "100 worst" banks in terms of financial condition. Of those that Holt considers worst, 57 have assets of more than $1 billion. Of the 100 considered best, only 21 have assets of more than $300 million.

In short, while small-town banks are in relatively good shape, the giant household-name financial institutions are skating on very thin ice.

Those who live outside their areas probably have never heard of the Morgan Bank (Delaware), First Blair City National (Pennsylvania), First-Union (Ohio), Barnett Bank & Trust (Florida), McDowell City National (West Virginia), Security State Texas, First Wisconsin Trust (Wisconsin), Milford Trust (Delaware), Clay County (Texas) or Jefferson State Bank (Texas). But Holt rates these as the 10 best of the 14,000 national banks, and each has a "Holt rating" of more than plus-90.

The banks on the "100-best" list share several traits: They all have equity-to-assets ratios of more than 8 percent (and many have ratios of more than 12 percent); most have little money lent to construction or land-development companies; and not one has lent funds to a foreign government.

At the other end of the scale are Holt's "10 worst" banks, which include six big names: Bank of the Commonwealth, First National of Chicago, Manufacturers Hanover, Bank Leumi Trust (New York), Bank of America and Banco Central (Puerto Rico). The remaining four worst are smaller banks — United American of McMinn City (Tennessee), Metropolitan Bank (Florida), Independent State (Minnesota) and Mark Twain (Missouri) — and each of the 10 has a "Holt rating" of more than minus-370.

In addition to these 10, the 100 banks on Holt's "worst" list include such heavy-hitters as Chase Manhattan, Citibank, Chemical Bank, First National of Dallas, Continental Illinois, The Bank of New York, Republicbank of Dallas, Riggs National, Morgan Guarantee, First Pennsylvania, Bankers Trust, Irving Trust, First National City of Houston, First National of Boston, Texas Commerce, Marine Midland and Denver National. And these are only some of the top 50-worst.

The picture is clear: The "100-worst" list reads like a Who's Who of major commercial national banks.

These "100-worst" banks share equity-to-assets ratios of less than 6 percent, a large percentage of loan portfolios comprised of loans to commercial and industrial concerns, and billions in loans to foreign governments.

Are the major banks on this "100-worst" list in any real danger of failing? Probably not, says Jurow. "It's clear they all have very serious problems," he says, "but I doubt the Fed will ever let any of them go under."

The Lie About The Fifties

I recently ruminated about the decade of the Fifties, arguing that that much-maligned decade was not conformist and dull, but creative, often contradictory, and continually exciting.

I arrived at these conclusions not only from personal experience — I was a college student during the Fifties — but from my research for my new book, "When the Going Was Good: American Life in the Fifties" (Crown).

Moreover, I think it is very important now for us to understand why it was so important to falsify the emotional history of the Fifties.

Were the Fifties dull and conformist? Just contemplate the names: Grace Kelly and Audrey Hepburn, yes, but also Marilyn Monroe and Brigitte Bardot, Jackie Robinson and Willie Mays and Mickey Mantle, Jack Kramer and Pancho Gonzalez, T.S. Eliot, whose "Cocktail Party" played on Broadway, Robert Frost and Dylan Thomas, Lucille Ball and the advent of popular television, Adlai Stevenson...

Well, my friends, with that last name you have the clue to the whole Big Lie about the Fifties.

Adlai Stevenson was a superb mainstream liberal Democratic candidate, a man to whose praise as an articulate liberal I do not have to add. Yes, he lost twice to Eisenhower, but he lost pretty honorably. Liberalism did not lack for public expression during the Fifties, neither in politics nor in the media.

But left radicalism certainly did.

During the decade of the Fifties, there was no serious national left-radical movement or even important publication in the country.

That is the real meaning of the statement, revealing enough, that the Fifties were "apolitical." Translated, that means that there was no radical-left impact.

Why? Oh, yes it was the Age of McCarthy.

But only minimally. It was the Age of Stalin, the growing knowledge of whom tended to blanket radical-left politics. It was the age of atomic spies Klaus Fuchs and Bruno Pontecorvo, the seizure of Czechoslovakia, and KGB international murder. Koestler had written "Darkness at Noon," and it was credible. Hiss had been convicted. Is it any mystery that Marxism was under a cloud, despite the vigorous interest in non-left politics during the Fifties?

I do not call that political "apathy." I call that political "perception."

During the next decade of the Sixties, the New Left acknowledged its elders' Fifties defeat by calling itself "new." But though it downplayed metaphysics, its program was pretty old, and its heroes were Castro and Che Guevara and Mao Tse-tung and Ho Chi Minh.

To re-envision the Fifties was a tremendous experience for me, and I sought the appropriate literary form to express it.

I found partial models in the early Hemingway's "In Our Time," and in Dos Passos' "USA," a form expressing variety, energy and sometimes contradiction, large units — "chapters" — with short and more intense "Camera Eye" sections in-between. The longer units deal with Eisenhower, baseball, politics, tennis, movies, television, the state, art and the communist investigations. The shorter units deal with poets, boxers, Kennedy "stealing" the presidency in 1960, Kefauver's strange personality, Korea close-ups, and much else.

The Fifties... it was a wonderful decade, and that's why I called the book "When the Going Was Good."

leftist guerrillas are responsible for the increased violence in Guatemala is Rep. Jerry Patterson, D-Calif. And he's in a good position to make his doubts felt. As chairman of the House Subcommittee on International Development, Patterson reviews loan requests to the Inter-American Development Bank. And Guatemala has a request for $18 million for a telecommunications system.

Patterson's committee rejected the loan on grounds that it might enable the Guatemalan military to coordinate its attacks on rural Indians.

Footnote: The State Department insists that the increase in rural violence in Guatemala "appears, when identifiable, to be largely the responsibility of the (leftist) guerrillas," according to the Foggy Bottom fact sheet.

The State Department also points encouragingly to the fact that Rios Montt has brought a number of former government officials to trial on corruption charges, and has reportedly improved relations between the government and the Catholic Church.

Almanac Predicting Hard Winter Ahead

CONCORD, N.H. (UPI) — The Old Farmer's Almanac predicts a severe winter beginning right after New Year's Day over most of the nation. Or, as Old Abe Weatherwise puts it:

"Pull up the quilt," because there will be "snow to the hilt." The new edition of America's oldest continuously published periodical with the familiar yellow cover, says the cold weather should last straight through March in most northern sections of the country.

For 191 years the almanac has been making its annual long-range forecasts, with an accuracy of 80 percent, its authors say. This year, Weatherwise says Thanksgiving football could be played on a snow-covered field with the first major storm striking the Northeast in early December, when he advises to "shovel on the double."

But in general, December should be sunnier and milder than usual. That will give way to nastier weather around New Year's Day.

The venerable Weatherwise predicts severe cold waves will dominate in January, early February and late March in the East.

The winter of '82-'83 will feature "teeth a-chatter" in mid-

Evening Herald, Sanford, Fl. Wednesday, Sept. 29, 1982—5A

January followed by "wish this filly weren't so chilly" toward the end of the month.

February will be "damp and freezing, wet and wheezing."

Summer in the Northeast will be cooler than normal and dry during the months of August, September and October.

In the Rockies and West, drought may be the most serious problem, as a result of a warm and dry November

Hunters Warned

The first of three phases for the shooting of mourning doves will begin Saturday and continues through Oct. 31.

The Seminole County Sheriff's Department is cautioning hunters of recent changes in state statutes, one of which relates to Lake, Orange and Seminole counties. It prohibits the possession of firearms on certain portions of the Wekiwa and Little Wekiwa rivers.

Seminole County Sheriff John Polk said there may be hunters who may not be aware of this change and from habit did their hunting in this area. He is cautioning hunters, "Notwithstanding any general laws to the contrary, any person who possesses or discharges a firearm on or knowingly discharges any firearm over that portion of the Wekiwa or Little Wekiwa rivers lying south of State Road 46 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree."

Hunters are reminded that during the first phase, shooting hours are from noon to sunset; and that no shooting is permitted from any public right-of-way. Also, written permission is required from the owner of any land on which hunting is to occur.

Daily bag limit is 12 doves.

During phases two and three, hunting will be permitted from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset: Nov. 13-28 and Dec. 11-Jan. 3.

11-Year-Old 'Ambassador' Is Invited To Russia

HOLIDAY (UPI) — The little boy whose peace message to a Russian "comrad" went out in a bottle he tossed into a land-locked lake has won an invitation to carry his concern about "too many wars" to Soviet youngsters.

An international friendship group has offered Michael Baron, the first-grader whose offer of friendship turned up on the shores of Lake Conely last week, a 13-day trip to Helsinki, Leningrad and Moscow. He is to tell schoolchildren there about life in the United States.

"I'm runned out of words," the six-year-old said when he found out about the trip. "I'm going to take them some McDonald's hamburgers and my Rocky poster. Do they have Buck Rogers on TV over there?"

The boy put the message in a Sunkist orange soda bottle, plugged with a cork from his father's wine bottle, and threw it into the lake after testing it for seaworthiness in his bathtub. His grandmother had kissed it for good luck.

A freelance photographer found it about 75 feet away three days later.

Wayne Smith, founder of the Friendship Force, saw newspaper accounts of the boy's peace wish and invited him on the trip to the Soviet Union.

"That's a young man who speaks our language," said Smith, whose group visits homes of other Friendship Force members. "We think young Michael would be a fine ambassador and have no trouble making friends. We want to sponsor him and take him to schools, the circus, everywhere."

When Michael's father asked him what he would tell Russian children, he replied: "I would ask 'em do they have Star Wars over there and do they get to swim and have bobsleds. But it's a long way on the plane. I want to go on a boat better."

Smith said Friendship Force members invited the Barons to accompany them on a trip starting Nov. 5, 12, or 26. The group will stay with families in a mountain village in Finland. From there they fly to Leningrad and then take a train trip to Moscow.

Students, Zoo Both Backed

The Sanford City Commission is proud of the high average of Seminole County school students on Scholastic aptitude tests and it also wants the zoo to remain in the county and said so in resolutions adopted Monday night.

The zoo resolution directed to the Central Florida Zoological Society notes the city of Sanford's role in the zoological park being established at its present location off U.S. 17-92 across from the lakefront.

The resolution also points out the zoo is loved by area residents and is a tourist attraction.

Currently, a study is being conducted by a group at the University of Central Florida on the feasibility of the zoo being moved to Turkey Lake Park in Orlando.

Commissioner Milton Smith recommended that his colleagues join with him in a resolution to School Superintendent Robert Hughes lauding the county's high school juniors and seniors for topping the state, adjacent counties and the national averages in the SAT scores in 1981-1982.

The scores are one basis for college admission.

While the national average combined test scores were 893 and the state average is 889, Seminole County students scored 916.

At the same time, Lake County students scored 890, and Orange County students scored 887.

Seminole County students improved both their verbal and math scores by seven points from the 1980-81 school year. But they were three points behind the high year, 1979-1980, when the average score was 919. — DONNA ESTES

Lyman Drowns 'Noles

The Lyman boys swimming team swept eight of 11 events Tuesday in an 82-40 victory over Seminole at Lyman. The Greyhounds girls were also triumphant, by the score of 69-55.

Steve Metzdorf and Chris McClelland each won two events for the 'Hounds while Seminole sophomore Chuck Burgess won two events.

Metzdorf won the 200 free with a time of 2:08.86 and the 100 backstroke in 1:08.73. McClelland touched in first in the 100 free, 54.73 and the 100 breaststroke, 1:12.73. Burgess won the 100 fly, 58.72 and set a new Seminole record in the 500 free with a time of 5:08.44 (the old record was held by Mark Smith who set it in 1974 at 5:24.3).

Metzdorf and McClelland also swam legs in the winning 200 medley relay team that won with a time of 1:55.52. Randy Heibert and Johan Nikalsson

The Tribe's only other first place finisher was diver Greg Carter whose 231.55 points earned him a victory over teammate Bruce Montes who wound up second with 191.2 points.

The girls competition was close with outstanding individual performances turned in by Lyman's Kim Soulder and Seminole's Lisa Polgar.

Soulder won the 200 free, 2:25.16 and the 100 back, 1:14.57 while Polgar triumphed in the 50 free, 29.53 and the 100 free 1:06.29.

Soulder also swam a leg in the 200 medley relay team that finished first at 2:25.41 and includes Susan Saintheart, Stifley Parker and Marie Van Hissenhoven. The Tribe's 200 relay team (Alison McCall, Jill Janak, Susan Mann and Suzie Porter) was not far behind at 2:29 flat.

Seminole's 400 free relay team claimed first place at 4:45.47 and includes Polgar, Porter, Dana Ray and Gigi Hunt. Bridget Deere also claimed a first place for the 'Noles, swimming the 100 breaststroke in 1:27.8 and was followed by McCall who turned in a 1:30.1.

Other first place finishes for the Lady Greyhounds include, Parker (200 in-

Panthers Stop Pats; Rams Blank Hornets

By CHRIS FISTER
Herald Sports Writer

The Crooms Panthers freshman football squad benefited from big plays offensively and a strong defensive effort en route to a 20-7 victory Tuesday night over the freshman Patriots at Lake Brantley.

Crooms' 1-2 backfield punch of Mike Wright and Alvin Jones were too much for the Patriots defense to handle. In the first quarter, Wright scored on a 55-yard run, the two point pass failed as the Panthers took a 6-0 lead.

In the second period, Crooms ran a sweep to Jones who swept for 40 yards and a touchdown. The two point conversion was a halfback pass from Wright to David Posey as Crooms took a 14-0 lead.

Lake Brantley cut the Panthers' lead in half in the third quarter as Cornelius Frenley scored on a seven-yard run and the conversion was successful to make the score, Crooms 14, Lake Brantley 7.

With Lake Brantley within striking distance, the Patriots' home crowd began to rally around its team. But it was then that Crooms showed why it is a winning team. Jones raced 80-yards for a

TD in the fourth quarter to nail down the victory for the Panthers.

"We showed a lot of poise in the fourth quarter," Crooms coach Bill Zeuss said. "We were only up 14-7 and we were playing at Lake Brantley. We didn't fold offensively or defensively when we could have."

Jones was the leading rusher with 170 yards, Wright followed with 105 yards and the Panthers' Mike Hickman had 47 yards.

Defensively, Crooms was led by Larry Byrd and Dave Merkle while Craig Dixon and Theron Liggins each intercepted a Lake Brantley pass.

The Panthers are now 2-0 for the season, its first win coming over Lake Mary, and the Patriots are 1-2 with a 7-0 victory over Oviedo and a 12-0 loss to Lake Mary.

At Lake Mary, the Rams defense stole the show in an 18-0 triumph over the Bishop Moore Hornets freshman. The Rams have yielded just six points in three games, that coming in a 6-0 loss to Crooms.

The freshman Rams took a 6-0 lead in the first quarter when Jose Delrosario galloped 45 yards for a touchdown. The score remained 6-0 at the half.

The Rams defense took control of the second half. Lake Mary's second score came when Skip St. Pierre blocked a Hornet punt and a host of Rams jumped on the ball in the end zone to give Lake Mary a 12-0 lead.

Lake Mary's defense put the game on ice in the fourth quarter when Dave Mitro picked off a Bishop Moore pass and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown to end the Rams' scoring and the Hornets' hopes of coming back.

"It was not a real well played game but our team speed was a factor," Rams coach Marshall Heinson said. "Bishop Moore is a solid team but we were just too fast for them."

Delrosario was the game's leading rusher with 85 yards. Mitro, Raymond Hartsfield and Byron Washington were the defensive standouts for Lake Mary whose record now stands at 2-1.

Manley Heads For 1,000

Seminole High's swift running back Rendell Manley continues his assault on a 1,000 yard season with 363 yards in three games, an average of 121 per game. Manley's four touchdowns also gives him the lead in county scoring. Mike Hill, Lyman's rugged linebacker continues to lead in defense while Seminole's Steve Alexander, punting, and the Tribe's David Haisten, turnovers, are new leaders. Despite a poor performance a week ago, Jerry Axley still leads by a wide margin in passing as does Todd Marriott in receiving.

Seminole Gets Unexpected Split; Greyhounds Net 7th Straight Win

By SAM COOK
Herald Sports Editor

Seminole volleyball coach Beth Corso may have expected a split during Tuesday night's tri-match at Lake Howell. It's doubtful whether the split she received was what she expected.

After dropping the opening game to DeLand, the Lady Seminoles came back to hand the host Silver Hawks their first Five Star Conference loss of the season, 15-9, 15-7.

"I don't know what it is," said Corso. "But we always play Lake Howell tough. They were definitely better than DeLand. We just couldn't get anything going against DeLand."

Sara Von Herbulis turned in 11 "nice sets" during the two-set loss (15-9, 15-6) to the Bulldogs but she received no help offensively except from Lisa Nelson's two spikes.

Against the Hawks, though, Seminole came alive. Von Herbulis, Nelson, Lisa Morse and Arlene Jones served well as the 'Noles jumped to a 7-2 lead, aided by two spikes from Gene Stallworth.

Howell rebounded to tie the set at 7-7, but Jones, Teri Hardy and Tracy Gregory served out the win. Jones started a string of three straight with an ace for the victory.

In set two, Hardy blew open an 8-7 game with six straight serves including an ace. Stallworth hit the final two, helped by a Hardy hit on point 15.

Seminole, 5-3 overall and 5-2 in the Five Star, plays New Smyrna Beach tonight at 7:45. The Tribe JV plays at Lake Brantley at 3:30 p.m. and against NSB at 6:30 p.m.

Prep Volleyball

"We had eight bad serves against Seminole," moaned Hawk coach Jo Luciano. "We don't have that many bad serves in a week. Seminole served hard and consistent. That was the difference."

While the Hawks had trouble with Seminole, DeLand didn't prove much of a problem. The Silver Hawks won, 15-3, 15-13.

Junior Christy Scott's serving took care of the Bulldogs in set one. She also added a nice dink while Eileen Thiebaut slapped home the final two serves.

In set two, Beth Saunders and Thiebaut helped Howell to a 7-4 lead before DeLand pulled within one. Dawn Crawford then hit three winners for a 10-6 bulge. The 'Dogs rallied again, but Kathy Barma aced her first serve and then hit three more for a 14-9 lead.

DeLand put three together to close again before Cathy Saunders closed the game with a nice serve.

Lake Howell goes to Lyman Tuesday at 5 p.m. for a tri-match with Seabreeze and the Greyhounds.

Coach Karren Newman's 'Hounds rolled over two more foes to push their record to a sparkling 7-0. Lyman whipped Apopka, 16-14, 15-7, before crushing Spruce Creek, 15-3, 15-6.

Trailing, 14-7, Lyman staged a furious rally behind Pam Stambaugh's serving, Carol Roger's spiking and Wynne Wycoll's final two serves for a 16-14 win. In game two, Army Babcock blew the Blue Darters away with a string of very hard serves during the game's middle stage.

Against Spruce Creek, Rogers ran off the first eight points. "Our offense didn't have to play," said Newman. "They couldn't return the ball."

In set two, Stambaugh, Rogers and Babcock served the Hawks into oblivion. Rogers' ace started a string which ended the game.

Elsewhere in the county, Lake Mary posted its first victory of the year as the Rams dropped Leesburg, 15-13, 6-15, 15-8.

In set one, Mae Ravenel served the Rams from a 13-7 deficit to a 14-13 lead. Michelle Swartz added the game-winner minutes later. Laura and Peggy Glass dominated the net and Robin Pinnock added several good spikes.

In set three, Peggy Glass served Lake Mary to an 11-0 edge before Pinnock added 14 and 15. Amy Kantargian was the key factor at the net.

Also in 3A action, coach Anita Carlson's Oviedo Lions hammered previously-undefeated district kingpin Eustis, 15-4, 11-15, 15-10.

"Fay Robinson just wiped them out in the first game on sets from Sandy Stephens," said Carlson. "She had her best game ever. Fay was hitting girls in the chest with her spikes and knocking them down."

In set three, Kim Boston came through with the clutch serves and Robinson was again devastating around the net as the Lions pulled out a five-point win.

Oviedo, 7-2, goes to Leesburg Thursday while Lake Mary, 1-4, hosts Eustis Thursday.

Cardinal's 20-Run Third Jolts Jaycees; Barn Wins

What can a team do when its opponents send up 23 hitters and score 20 runs in 18 hits — and all in the same inning?

That poor team, Jaycees, probably got out of Pinehurst Field as fast as possible Tuesday night after Cardinal Industries scored 20 runs in the third, and final, inning in a Sanford Men's Softball League massacre.

After two and a half innings it was still a respectable ballgame, with Cardinal on top 1-0 on the strength of Wayne Lively's sacrifice fly. After that, the onslaught ensued.

Larry Pressley led off the bottom of the third with a single, one of 18 Cardinal hits in the inning. Kip Grant and John Westbrook, both batted three times in the third and both wound up with three hits in the inning.

Big hits in the inning included a three-run triple by Bryce Baker, a solo home run by Billy Griffith and two-run singles by Griffith and Westbrook. There were only two outs in the inning when the game was called.

The second game of the night was another rout with The Barn coming out on top of Mobilite, 17-2. Instead of fleeing the field, Mobilite took a different approach to being hammered, it protested claiming a player for The Barn did not have a proper shirt.

The Barn loaded the bases in the first inning and they were cleared as David Price ripped a double to give The Barn a 3-0 lead. The Barn took a 5-0 lead with two unearned runs in the second.

Mobilite got on the board in the third when Manuel Riverao led off with a double and scored on Willie Thames' single.

The Barn put the game out of reach with five runs in the fourth and six in the fifth.

Price led the 14-hit Barn attack with three doubles and four RBI's while Danny Cannon had three singles.

Rock Defense Tames Teague

By SAM COOK
Herald Sports Editor

Don't ask Rock Lake Junior Pee Wee coach Bill Clark about his offense. He'll look you straight in the eye and tell you he doesn't know a thing about it.

How can he? Saturday against Teague Red, the defense scored on a safety, punt return and interception to lift the Raiders to a 15-7 victory over Teague Red at Lake Sylvan Park.

"It was an outstanding defensive game," said Clark whose head-hunting Raiders held Teague to just FOUR total yards.

The offense, well, it may get its turn this Saturday. Last week, however, it had to play second fiddle. It just didn't get much of a chance.

Peter Egan, Billy Clark and John Bixby gang-tackled a Teague ballcarrier in the end zone for the safety and a 2-0 advantage in the second quarter.

Chris Shore then grabbed a short punt and galloped 25 yards into the end zone for an 8-0 lead. Vincent Alexander hauled in a pass from Jay Varitek for the point after and a 9-0 bulge. (Kicked PAT are 2 in SYSA and run-pass are 1.)

Alexander was at it again in the fourth quarter, intercepting a Teague pass and returning it 30 yards for the TD. The PAT failed, but the Raiders led, 15-0.

Teague finally got on the board in the last quarter when Scott Meredith hooked up with Brice Fedder on a 45-yard scoring strike.

Meredith completed 2 of 3 throws for 55 yards. He also ran seven times for 25 yards. Jerry Fowler toted the ball three times for 25 yards and Sadat Smith had six tries for 20 yards. Mike Krot caught the other pass for five yards.

Clark led the Rock Lake rushers with 41 yards in 10 carries. Varitek carved out 25 yards in eight. He also hit 5 of 9 aerials for 42 yards.

Coach Clark lauded Alexander, Egan, Clark and Karl Kaufmann for stellar defensive efforts.

Defense was also the name of the game as the Tuskawilla Rams battled the South Seminole-Milwee Hurricanes in the other Junior Pee Wee Division game.

Tuskawilla's Marquette Smith ramblled around the right end early in the first quarter and the Rams' defense made it stand out for a 7-0 victory over the Hurricanes. The PAT came on a pass from Brian MacInnes to Brannon Hewlett.

SYSA

Smith led all ballcarriers with 70 yards on 10 carries. John Locke added 20 yards on six totes. Hewlett and Jason Hush each snatched six passes for 20 yards. MacInnes completed 12 of 15 for 40 yards.

Braniff Bonaventura caught an 11-yard pass from Jerry Tucker for the Hurricanes longest gain.

Tuskawilla held the Hurricanes to just 12 total yards.

In a non-division game, coach Dan Cannon's Teague Gold squad blanked Hudson, 20-0.

Sean Jones ran for two touchdowns for Teague. The first was a 40-yard jaunt over the right-side blocks of Jason Boucher and Bobby Richardson. Matt Cannavino scooted across with the PAT for a 7-0 lead.

In the second quarter, Jones picked off a Hudson pass and returned it 30 yards for a TD. The point after failed, but Teague was comfortably in front, 13-0.

Also in the second quarter, Randy Brown cruised 25 yards on a sweep to put the game out of reach. Cannavino again added the extra point for a 20-0 whitewash.

Jones motored 78 yards on eight carries. Brown added 43 yards on just three carries and Cannavino rolled to 62 yards on six attempts.

Robbie Hughes and Jones had four tackles each to lead the defense, while Brown and Cannavino collected three apiece.

In a Midget Division game, coach Wes Childers' Lakeview Dolphins rolled up 343 yards of total offense enroute to a 19-6 victory over Rock Lake.

Mike Edwards hit 5 of 9 passes for 125 yards and one TD. Edwards located Dwayne Willis for 15 yards and a touchdown for a 6-0 first-quarter edge.

In the third quarter, Willis powered in from two yards out for a 12-0 lead. John Curry raced 65 yards to tee the game in the fourth quarter for a touchdown and an 18-0 lead.

Curry churned out 95 yards on seven carries. Willis had 42 yards on eight and Alonzo Barnes had 45 on one. Dennis Barnes added 23 yards on six tries and Reginald Bellamy chipped in 13 on two rushes.

Chris Smith led the defense with six tackles. Willis had five and Alonzo Clemons four. Sheldon Richards intercepted two passes and Willis one.

In a Junior Bantam game, Hudson shut out the Seminole Bulldogs, 19-0. Rodrick Davis with six stops and R.J. Noid with five led the Bulldog defense.

Does Jerry Tucker (with ball) hear foot-steps? If not, he will pretty soon as Kevin Gutch (right) circles from behind in an attempt to catch the South Seminole-Milwee Hurricane running back. Gutch's team, the Junior Pee Wee Tuskawilla Rams, beat the Hurricanes, 7-0. SYSA football action picks up again Saturday with games all day long at Lake Sylvan Park. Oh, by the way, Jerry, let's cover the nose of that football.

Donlan, Garvey Continue To Trade Verbal Jabs

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jack Donlan feels if Ed Garvey spent as much time negotiating as he did testifying in Washington, the National Football League players' strike would be settled.

Donlan, the chief negotiator for the owners, said as much Tuesday in a wire message to Garvey, perhaps trying to take some of the sting out of a Players Association victory in a National Labor Relations Board hearing.

Garvey, the NFLPA executive director, invited Donlan to resume collective bargaining talks in Washington late Tuesday and Wednesday. Donlan refused, preferring to wait until Thursday, as previously agreed.

"This is another piece of evidence we will use on Thursday at the congressional hearing before Chairman Peter Rodino, who will be looking into the relationship of the networks and the league in this dispute," Garvey said. "Because I think the fans are upset with the idea the networks are paying for games that are not played, because, in essence, there is no financial crunch on the owners. Therefore, they might prolong the strike."

Donlan wired Garvey late Tuesday afternoon and blamed the strike on the union. Noting the Management Council originally wanted to meet Wednesday but the Players Association insisted on Thursday, Donlan's message to Garvey claimed: "Your refusal to meet until Thursday afternoon eliminates any opportunity to play this coming weekend. Obviously, testifying in Congress and 'running a strike' are more important to you than resolving this dispute."

"At some time, solving the problem will take priority over all your other activities. Again, we repeat our call for federal mediation and conciliation services' involvement in helping us reach a settlement."

"If you have any changes in your offers, please forward them to us immediately and we will work on responses for our Thursday meeting, which in our opinion will expedite the strike immediately."

The first-ever, regular-season strike in the NFL's 63-year history forced last weekend's 14-game schedule to be scratched. According to NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, the strike must be resolved today in order to save this weekend's games.

In Washington, President Reagan reluctantly commented on the strike during a nationally televised news conference. "There doesn't seem to be the consideration for the fan there should have been," he said. "They do seem to be very far apart, however, in their goals."

Reagan isn't the only one critical of the strike talks. Tampa Bay Buccaneers quarterback Doug Williams Tuesday called for new negotiators to replace Donlan and Garvey.

Players Win Dispute

WASHINGTON (UPI) — On a winning streak, the NFL Players Association upped its record to 3-0 Tuesday in unfair labor-practice disputes with the league.

A National Labor Relations Board administrative law judge ruled the NFL is guilty of unfair labor practices for refusing to give the union copies of player contracts and non-monetary details of network television contracts.

The NFL Management Council, the league's negotiating arm, said it will appeal the ruling to the full NLRB.

While "ecstatic" over the decision of Judge Julius Cohn, Ed Garvey, union executive director, agreed the appeal could keep the matter unresolved for a year or more.

"This is just a recommendation by an administrative law judge," said Jim Miller, spokesman for the NFLMC. "These recommendations are routinely overturned."

Two previous NLRB rulings also went against the NFL. The board agreed with the union Seattle wide receiver Sam McCullum, the club's player representative, was cut because of his union activities rather than a lack of ability at his position.

The union also received a favorable preliminary ruling in a charge against San Diego Chargers' owner Gene Klein for failing to suspend quarterback Dan Fouts for refusing to pay union dues for the 1981 season. An administrative law judge will hear that case in November.

Garvey said he wants related agreements and memoranda leading to the signing of the NFL's contracts with the three major television networks.

There were many who thought the Atlanta Braves would fold in the National League West pennant race under the pressure of having to play their last seven games on the West Coast.

But they have done just the opposite so far — Atlanta whipped San Francisco, 8-3, Tuesday night to sweep a two-game series from the Giants and took over first place in the NL West when the Los Angeles Dodgers were beaten by Cincinnati, 4-3, in 10 innings.

The Braves took over first place after the Dodgers, world champions last year, went down to their seventh straight loss.

"I feel real good about this team," said Manager Joe Torre after the Braves had piled up 13 hits off five San Francisco pitchers. "We've waited patiently for a long time... I have to feel very good about our chances because of the way we are playing."

Terry Harper's bases-loaded double, a drive to left that hit the foul line, capped a five-run third inning that sparked Atlanta's victory.

The Braves had any number of heroes Tuesday night. Pascual Perez came out of the bullpen to rescue a struggling Rick Mahler in the third and allowed the Giants only three harmless singles the rest of the way.

"I don't think he has pitched better than that at any time this year," said an appreciative Joe Torre, the Atlanta manager who has kept his composure through a roller coaster season that has seen the Braves lead, fall back, lead and fall back again.

"I hope our roller coaster stops at the top floor," said Jerry Royster, Atlanta's No. 1 handyman who is filling in for an injured Bob Horner at third base these days. Royster had four hits in five at-bats Tuesday night and also stole three bases.

Claudell Washington had three hits and three stolen bases and Terry Harper drove in three runs with a bases-loaded double in a big five-run third inning.

"They seem to have it altogether now," said Torre. "I like the aggressive way they are playing and if we keep on winning, no one can catch us. But I'm not quite ready to pop the champagne. There are still five big games left to play, and even though the Dodgers have had problems lately I don't count them out."

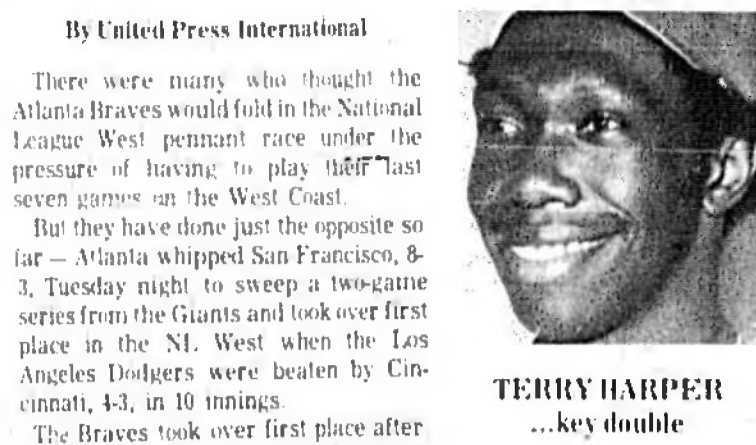

At Los Angeles, pinch-hitter Ron Oester singled home the tie-breaking run in the 10th inning as the Reds handed the Dodgers their seventh straight loss.

The loss was especially frustrating since the Dodgers loaded the bases with none out in the 10th but failed to get a runner home against reliever Joe Price.

All the bad things have happened to the Dodgers and Manager Tom Lasorda was at a loss to explain the latest defeat.

"I can't remember ever being more frustrated," he lamented.

Molitor, Yount Power Brewers, 9-3

By United Press International

The Milwaukee Brewers are using a combination that could put a lock on the American League Eastern Division title.

"Paul (Molitor) starts it and Robin (Yount) keeps it going," outfielder Gorman Thomas said Tuesday night, after the Brewers pounded the Boston Red Sox, 9-3, and increased their lead to three games over the Baltimore Orioles.

Yount drove in three runs and Molitor had two of the Brewers' 17 hits in continuing to set the scene for Milwaukee's American League power hitters.

Ted Simmons also drove in three runs as the Brewers reduced their magic number at two for clinching its second Western Division title in four years.

Cook Of The Week

A Kitchen Prodigy At The Age Of Eight

By LOU CHILDERS
Herald Correspondent

When Debbie McConnell really gets into cooking a meal, whether it's for family or company, she is likely to go all out and fix the likes of homemade Chow Mein.

Debbie says, "The girls in our family have always helped mom in the kitchen." She goes on to relate that she started cooking when she was a tender eight years old. "Now that I work at the Pony Tail Beauty Shop in Oviedo, it's hard to get home to Chuluota in time to help with the cooking."

Debbie adds to her story, "The ones who don't do the cooking in our household get to do the dishes, and this is usually my plight!"

In 1976, Debbie had the distinction of being in the first graduating class of Agape Christian School in Orlando. She immediately started her beauty culture training, graduating as a hair dresser from Romar Beauty Academy in 1977. Whether she's in the beauty shop or the kitchen, Debbie projects enthusiasm about what she is doing.

"One of my prize recipes came from my paternal grandmother, Bernice Pike of Lanette, Ala.," says Debbie. It seems her grandmother developed a recipe for "not too sweet" Pecan Pie as a result of having an abundance of the pecans from two trees in her front yard.

Debbie enjoys cooking so much she has a few recipes of her own invention. One of them, Fried Rice, makes good use of left over rice and optional left over meat. She says her family is extra fond of this recipe when it contains chicken.

Debbie's younger sisters, Donna and Sheli, and brother, Bobby Brown, as well as her parents, Bob and Lois Brown, are all guilty of a common crime, according to Deb. When she decides to make a batch of cookies — either Bachelor Buttons or No-cook Cookies — they all seem to disappear as quickly as they are made. No chance to fill the cookie jar in her home!

With a sparkle in her eye, Debbie reveals the real incentive in her life for learning to cook. She exclaims, "Mom always told me 'Kissin' don't last, cookin' do', and I believe her!"

CHOW MEIN

Brown 3 pounds of stew beef or 1 chicken, deboned, and cut into chunks, in one-third cup of butter in an electric frying pan on medium heat. Add 2 cups of water and simmer covered for 30 minutes.

Add 1 stalk of chopped celery and simmer 30 minutes uncovered. Add 3 onions, chopped, and simmer 30 minutes uncovered. Add 2 tablespoons molasses and 1 can homestyle mushroom gravy, simmer uncovered 30 minutes. Add soy sauce to taste. Make a thickening by mixing 2 tablespoons flour and 1 tablespoon corn starch in 1 cup of water. While stirring meat mixture, add thickening, and continue to simmer 5 to 10 minutes longer.

Serve over toasted chow mein noodles, or rice. Pass extra soy sauce.

FRIED RICE

2 cups rice
4 tablespoons butter
2 small onions, chopped
2 eggs
Salt, pepper and soy sauce to taste
Optional: Left over chicken or pork, chopped fine

Prepare rice and choice of meat ahead. Melt butter in frying pan. Add onions and saute. Add meat and stir in rice until well coated with butter. Add raw eggs, stirring and cooking until eggs are cooked. Season with salt, pepper and soy sauce. Yield: 2 servings.

NOTE: This recipe can be easily adapted to the number of servings needed. Example: 1 serving — 1 cup rice, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 small onion, 1 egg. 5 servings — 5 cups rice, 1/2 cup butter, 5 small onions, 5 eggs.

PECAN PIE

1/2 cup sugar
1 cup light corn syrup
4 eggs
4 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups broken pecans

Cook butter, sugar and syrup in a saucepan. Bring to boil. In a separate bowl, beat eggs. Add syrup mixture to eggs while beating. Stir in vanilla and nuts. Pour into a 9-inch uncooked pie shell. Bake at 350 degrees until pie browns, about 45 minutes.

A single recipe will make slightly more than 1 pie; a double recipe will fill 3 pie shells.

NO-COOK COOKIES

1/2 stick butter

Debbie McConnell with pecan pie from old family recipe

1 cup uncooked quick oatmeal
2 cups sugar
2 tablespoons cocoa
1/2 cup crunchy peanut butter
1 tablespoon milk
Mix all ingredients together. Knead with hands, mixing well. DO NOT COOK. Drop onto wax paper with teaspoon and refrigerate until cookies are firm. Yield: 2 dozen.

BACHELOR BUTTONS

2 tablespoons butter
5 tablespoons flour

5 tablespoons sugar
1 egg
3 drops almond flavoring
Additional white sugar
Combine butter and flour. Stir in 2 1/2 tablespoons of sugar. Beat egg, adding the remaining 2 1/2 tablespoons of sugar. Add egg to flour mixture. Add flavoring, mixing well. Roll into balls the size of hickory nuts and sprinkle lightly with additional sugar. Bake on a cookie sheet lined with buttered brown paper in a 230 degree oven until light golden in color (about 25 minutes). Yield: 2 dozen.

He's Setting Beethoven's Record Straight

DEAR ABBY: Poor Ludwig van Beethoven! Dead these 155 years only to be revived by the anti-abortionists. I quote an item sent by a reader and published in your column:

"A professor at the UCLA Medical School asked his students this question: 'Here is the family history: The father has syphilis. The mother has TB. They already have had four children. The first is blind. The second has died. The third is deaf. The fourth has TB. The mother is pregnant. The parents are willing to have an abortion if you decide they should. What do you think?'"

"Most of the students decided on an abortion. 'Congratulations,' said the professor. 'You have just murdered Beethoven.'"

To set the record straight, Abby, Beethoven was the second of seven (not the fifth), of whom only three survived.

One child was average, another became very wealthy, and Ludwig, of course, was a genius. True, four siblings died, but infant mortality was very high in the 1770s due to cholera, typhoid fever, TB, diphtheria, etc. Further, there is no evidence that Beethoven's father was syphilitic.

So, all you anti-abortionists out there, when you quote, please be accurate, and in the future, please leave poor Ludwig out of it.

S.K., EAST MEADOW, N.Y.

DEAR ABBY: If you can stand one more comment regarding responses to Julia Child's letter on abortion: Rather than agitating to get as many human beings born as possible on the chance that one of them will be another Beethoven, the anti-abortion crowd should ask themselves whether in today's world, a second Beethoven would get a chance to develop his genius before he was mugged, brainwashed or smothered in pollution.

Dear Abby

CONCERNED NATURALIST
IN DENVER

DEAR ABBY: I'm terribly confused and need an outside opinion. I've been seeing this man who works at a local business, and the problem is that he's engaged to someone I knew from school. Abby, he's the sweetest man I've ever met, and when we're together we are very happy.

He tells me he doesn't love his fiancée anymore, but I realize it may be just a line to keep me with him. I don't like being the other woman, but I am not ready to give up my newfound happiness.

We haven't made love as yet, and we won't unless his engagement to my ex-school chum is broken. I can't make that much of a commitment to a man who is engaged to another woman. What should I do?

ANONYMOUS

DEAR ANONYMOUS: Refuse to see him as long as he's engaged. Then ask yourself, what kind of man would become engaged, then take up with another woman and tell her that he's no longer in love with his fiancée? He doesn't sound like much of a prize to me.

DEAR ABBY: My son is getting married, and his bride has asked me to be her matron of honor. I am, of course, honored and flattered, but I have never heard of a bride asking her future mother-in-law to serve in that capacity. Is it appropriate and socially acceptable?

NO NAME IN NEW MEXICO

DEAR NO NAME: The bride customarily selects for her matron of honor a "close friend." To be regarded as such by your son's bride is indeed an honor. If you consider her a close friend, it is both appropriate and acceptable.

Paraplegic Student To 'Run' In Race For Threshold Kids

UCF — A young registered nurse crippled in an automobile accident just one year ago is among the entrants in the fourth annual "Run for the Kids," to be held on the UCF campus Saturday beginning at 9 a.m.

Brenda Hawley, an Orlando native and UCF student, has been a paraplegic ever since a prankster moved a "Detour" sign on a dark country road near Denver last September.

She was hospitalized for six months and had to abandon her job as an R.N. specializing in high-risk obstetrics. She said she's heartbroken at having had to redirect her career, but she's looking to the future.

With courses she's taking at UCF, she hopes to get into nursing management or social work.

As a member of the Orlando Orange Wheelers, a group of wheelchair-bound athletes, Hawley plays basketball and tennis and "runs." One of the Orange Wheelers loaned her a "running chair" and talked her into training for Saturday's 5,000-meter race.

With the four other Orange Wheelers—all men—who are entered in the race, she's built up her strength to last 3.3 miles.

"You need a lot of upper body strength and endurance," said the 4-foot, 11-inch, 95-pound contender. "I'm not running for time, and I expect to finish last, but you have to start somewhere."

Hawley and the other wheelchair contestants will get a 60-second headstart on the "ABs"—that's "wheelchair talk" for able-bodied runners.

"Running isn't just a hobby to us—it's one of the few things we can do to keep in shape," she said.

Proceeds from the "Run for the Kids" will benefit the Threshold School in Goldens. The school provides individualized help to children with multiple handicaps. Last year's run generated $7,000 for the school, and chairman-coordinator Richard Tucker hopes this year's program will bring in $10,000. He expects 1,000 runners to participate.

In addition to the 5,000-meter race, there will be a 1/4-mile kiddie run, for children 8 and under, and a one-mile fun run. Face-painting clowns will be on hand from Circus World, and The First Bankers will provide 1,500 free balloons for the children.

Congressional candidate and UCF alumnus Dick Batchelor will be running for the kids, as will RC Cola's Ivan Laayer and The First Bankers' M.G. Sanchez, representing the event's co-sponsors.

Those signing up for the race or fun run will receive a specially-designed T-shirt, race day program and after-race refreshments, and will be eligible for prize drawings.

Entrants can register for $7 at any of the following places: Track Shack of Orlando or Daytona; Foot Locker in the Winter Park Mall; Athletic Attie; or any First Bankers branch in Orange or Brevard counties. Registration will be open the day of the race.

Velour Makes Fashion Comeback

NEW YORK (NEA) — A couple of years ago, velour was among the most popular fabrics for tops. Now it's returned in a whole range of new uses for actionwear, separates and even richly colorful dresses.

Velour brings a new look to actionwear, the kind of sportswear meant for tennis, golf, jogging and exercise. At Sport I, an entire group comes in vivid jewel tones with black accents. A pull-on velour miniskirt over a striped stretch cotton leotard goes to the enclosed winter tennis court. Velour jogging pants are matched to a zippered, raglan-sleeved jacket with black stripes and banding extending down the full sleeves.

Sport I hasn't abandoned the velour top, but details it in new ways, such as circular shoulder striping, geometric color panels and laced V-bib fronts. Although always meant for active sports use, actionwear separates in plush, richly colored velour can be wearable for any leisure activity.

In fashion separates for street wear, velour takes on soft earth tones, taupe, fawn and charcoal, spiced with bright color accents. Designers use it for vests — very popular this fall — jackets with padded, trapunto-stitched shoulders, soft-sleeved shorts and jumpsuits. The RED 1 collection features these adapted sports looks in street velours.

Retired Educators Tour New Hospital

About 65 members of the Seminole County Retired Educators Association were welcomed to the new Central Florida Regional Hospital by Mrs. Kay Bartholomew, public relations director, and James D. Tesar, administrator. Following the welcome, educators enjoyed a brunch and a tour through the new facility.

Members then met at the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church of Sanford for their regular September meeting.

Mrs. Barbara Smith, coordinator of Emergency Medical Services for Seminole County, discussed with the group the desirability of having at least one and preferably all members of the family trained in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), a highly successful life-saving technique.

Following an overview of actual CPR training, Mrs. Smith indicated that a class would be arranged for SCREA members wishing to secure necessary training. The class will be in the daytime, will be limited to 15 people, and will last three hours with breaks as necessary. The time, date and place will be determined by the class. Members interested in taking this course should contact Kate Nash (322-4908) within the next two or three weeks.

An Arts and Crafts Show and a White Elephant Silent Auction will be highlights of the Nov. 9 meeting. Crafts will include creative writing. Members wishing information concerning projects may call Mildred Lind (322-4966), chairman of the show.

Escar Bender, chairman of the Auction, said members are already looking for suitable objects for the White Elephant Auction.

Eating Well On The Run

It's a fact: you're busy. You're always on the go. You're always on the run. You're always on the go. You're always on the run. You're always on the go. You're always on the run.

At 7:30 you are looking for a quick breakfast. You're always on the go. You're always on the run. You're always on the go. You're always on the run.

Smiling, you pride yourself on another race won when the news comes. You missed breakfast, an important checkpoint in the race. You're always on the go. You're always on the run.

When you eat in the morning, your body refuels and prepares itself to keep up with your challenges. It's been anywhere from seven to 10 hours since your last meal, and that means your body's supply of glucose, or blood sugar, is at its lowest point.

There is a way to have your cake and eat it too. With these quick and easy breakfast ideas, you can charge up your system with needed vitamins, minerals, proteins, fats, and carbohydrates and still be on time.

Bagels with cream cheese and fruit slices can easily be taken with you on the run. You can pile a pocket bread sandwich stuffed with scrambled eggs and shredded cheese. A half-pint carton of milk and a peanut butter and jelly sandwich also makes a nutritious, portable meal.

If you have the time to eat at home, but don't like traditional breakfast foods, try creamed chicken or chipped beef over toast, grilled cheese sandwiches, milkshakes made with real milk, ice cream and fresh fruit, or even pizzas made on English muffins. As long as it is nutritious and incorporates selections from the four food groups, anything goes for breakfast.

By taking just a few minutes for breakfast, you will give yourself the edge on the day's challenges and the best chance possible to be a winner in the rat race (P.R.N.).

PEANUT BUTTER BANANA COOKIES

- ½ cup soft butter or margarine
- ½ cup creamy peanut butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup mashed ripe bananas (3 medium)
- ½ teaspoon vanilla
- ½ cups unsifted all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon baking soda
- ¼ teaspoon salt

In large mixing bowl, cream butter and peanut butter with sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs one at a time. Beat in mashed bananas and vanilla. Mix dry ingredients and gradually blend into batter. Drop by rounded teaspoons onto greased baking sheet. Bake in 375-degree oven 10 minutes. Remove from baking sheet and cool. With frosting in a tube, decorate with names or drawings. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 3 dozen cookies.

Is There Cancer Without Symptoms?

Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB — During a routine checkup three months ago, slides from my stools showed blood. I have always been in good health and didn't have any symptoms. I have had this test for blood in the stools before and it was always negative.

My doctor took X-rays and they found a tumor in my colon. It was removed and I was only in the hospital a week. There was no cancer in any of the lymph nodes or liver. The rest of my colon was completely free of cancer. The doctor said he got it all.

Now I have been wondering if I also need chemotherapy. What do you think? The surgeon says he rarely recommends chemotherapy after successful surgery.

DEAR READER — I will not try to second guess your doctor but if you are concerned about it, ask for a consultation with a cancer center near your home. You are near New York City and there are two national cancer centers there.

Your story should be of interest to other readers, as it shows that cancer of the colon can and does occur without any symptoms. It is the second most common cause of cancer deaths in both men and women. The use of slides for detection of blood is one of the best methods to find cases early. The earlier a case is found the better the outlook after the cancer has been removed.

DEAR DR. LAMB — My son will soon have his first dental checkup and the dentist will probably want to clean his teeth. Is it necessary to have your teeth cleaned? I read somewhere that once you have your teeth cleaned professionally you need to do so periodically, and that your teeth lose their hard plaque, become more porous and consequently absorb substances more easily.

DEAR READER — That is one of the worst examples of medical misinformation that I have received for some time.

The plaque that is removed around the roots of the teeth is the substance that causes gum disease that leads to pyorrhea. The reason for periodic cleaning is because this substance accumulates on people's teeth and it is something we cannot remove ourselves. Good home dental hygiene helps to limit it or prevent it but professional cleaning is an important part of having healthy teeth and healthy gums.

The loss of teeth most often results from pyorrhea or gum disease, in part caused by inadequate cleaning. For heaven's sake, let your dentist do what needs to be done for you son.

allowed them to show their singleton before getting past game. Both South players opened one heart.

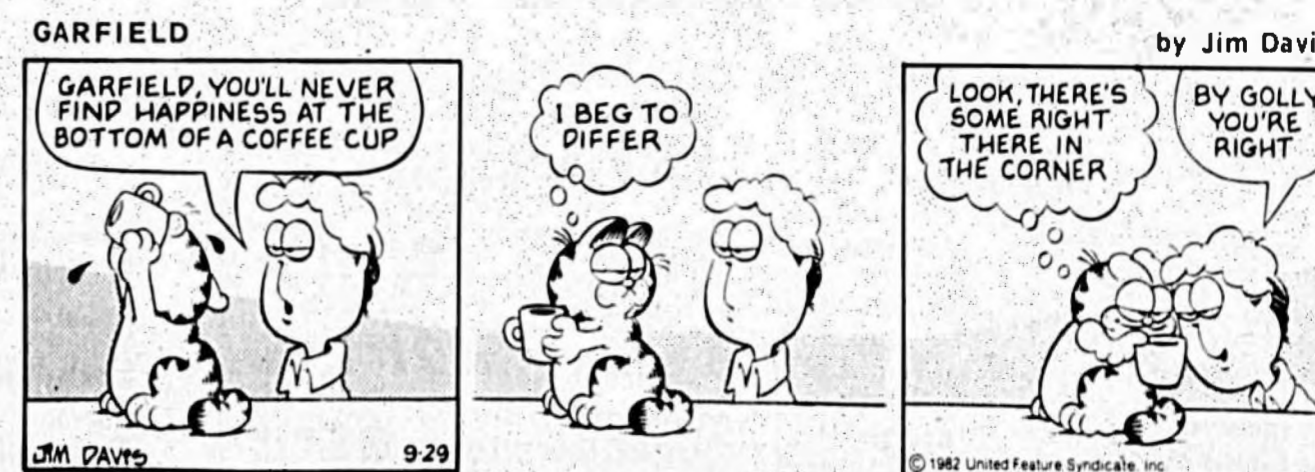

At table one, North responded with four clubs to show a heart raise with a singleton club. South decided that since there were no wasted club values he could afford to bid past game with a five-club call and North carried on to the slam.

The bidding in the box took place at the other table. North's two no-trump was a forcing heart raise and demanded that South show a singleton or void if he had one. Hence, South's three-spade rebid.

Now North's values had become solid gold. He cue bid in diamonds. South signed off at four hearts. He wasn't strong enough to pass game on his own, but North continued with a four-spade cue bid. This allowed South to show his ace of clubs. Now North made a second diamond cue bid to show the king. South bid the heart slam.

The bidding may look like a lot of sound and fury, signifying nothing. Lots of ordinary players would get to six by simpler methods, but it does show experts at their best.

Edie Sedgwick had it all—and blew it all in a stunning four-year orgy of madness and self-destruction. "There was a tremendously dramatic descent," says George Plimpton.

Edie Sedgwick's Fall From The Top

NEW YORK (NEA)—She was the golden girl of the '60s. Edie Sedgwick had it all—beauty, wealth, breeding, brains. Vogue magazine, for whom she modeled trendsetting fashions, dubbed her a "youthquake." Andy Warhol, for whom she starred in celebrated underground films like "Vinyi," dubbed her a "superstar." Bob Dylan wrote the song "Just Like a Woman" about her.

And Edie Sedgwick blew it all in a stunning four-year orgy of madness and self-destruction. She barely lived out the decade—drugged-out, burnt-out, Dead, age 28.

Her story makes for this summer's most talked-about book, "Edie: An American Biography," by Jean Stein, edited with George Plimpton. Told through the voices of relatives and friends, "Edie" details both the disintegration of a patrician New England family, the Sedgwicks, and the underside of American pop culture in the '60s. It is not pretty reading, though it is compelling.

George Plimpton, who helped Jean Stein assemble the oral biography, knew Edie's father, the handsome Francis "Duke" Sedgwick, very well. Came from the same upper-crust background. "A vibrant, vigorous man," recalls Plimpton. Also an unbalanced one, a manic-depressive who had been advised by doctors never to have children.

He and his wife had eight, raising them in a succession of mammoth, utopian ranches in Santa Barbara, Calif., where Duke moved because of his asthma. "What seemed like a paradise wasn't," says Plimpton. "Something was at work there, dooming them." By the time Edie came of age, two of her older brothers had already committed suicide.

After a brief stint as an art student in Cambridge, Mass., Edie found her way to the New York of the early '60s and to Warhol's bizarre combination art studio-living theater, the Factory. There she flourished, then rapidly declined. "Her was a tremendously dramatic descent," says Plimpton.

Plimpton knew her. "She had very little to say," he recalls, "but she had this guileless charm. She was slightly breathless, utterly charming. You wanted to protect her. We were friendly, though I didn't spend four years in the Warhol toilet with her. There was something very destructive about the Warhol crowd."

For Edie, says Plimpton, Warhol's Factory was "a firmament. There was a lot of industry, some pretension of art. It was curiously appealing, totally foreign—like visiting the slums of Bombay. Like Edie, there were a lot of others there who had lost their way."

She became Warhol's superstar, headliner of his curious films and of his even more curious entourage which, through Edie, now had access to the "A" parties. "He saw in her an entree to the levels of society to which he aspired," says Plimpton. "Did he exploit her? That's hard to say. The environment exploited her, the drugs, the alcohol, the lack of direction."

"Edie's story is in the American tradition of the beautiful and damned. I think we've always been fascinated by the downfall of people who have everything."

Edie's story is also sparking a controversy. Some critics are calling it the ultimate story of the '60s, and she a figure of heroic proportion. Others call her story irrelevant to the social and political upheaval of the '60s, and she a trivial personality. "Her life and the book have nothing to do with Vietnam," acknowledges Plimpton, "but she had a lot to do with the spirit of the '60s, the excessiveness and permissiveness. The '60s provided Edie with an amusement park where she could get on these destructive rides—drugs, promiscuity, a whole shift in the moral context."

"It's too simple, however, to say it was just the '60s that did it to her. I grew up in the '60s too, and I didn't put a needle in my behind. It was a turbulent, puzzling age. Edie's story illuminates a certain part of it. Her life has significance in that it says here's what can happen if you lose control."

Florida Chamber Seeking Local Business Support

Seminole County businesses this week are being invited to join the Florida Chamber of Commerce, according to W.E. "Duke" Adamson, president of United Home Service of Florida, Inc., of Sanford.

Adamson said area businessmen and women are inviting Seminole County business owners and managers to join the state chamber.

"Seminole County businesses have received invitations to become members of the Florida Chamber," said Adamson, campaign chairman "and volunteers from Florida Chamber member firms in the area will be calling these prospective members to explain the benefits of a membership investment."

Currently representing more than 3,500 businesses and local chambers of commerce throughout the state, the Florida Chamber is made up of a diverse body of businesses representing a variety of professions.

The Florida Chamber closely monitors government actions and activities and aggressively lobbies for business interests within the state and nation, Adamson said.

Campaign headquarters will be the United Home Services of Florida, Inc., offices at 203 E. Third St. A new member reception will follow in the coming weeks and will provide an opportunity for new and current members to become acquainted.

and sugar; stir until sugar dissolves. Add celery and scallions, simmer 5 minutes. Add tomatoes and pineapple. In mixing cup, blend soy sauce with cornstarch, stir into sauce. Cook stirring constantly, until thickened and bubbly. Stir in tuna and almonds; heat thoroughly. Serve hot with rice and chow mein noodles (or toasted coconut) plus other accompaniments, such as chopped green pepper and orange segments or banana chunks. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 to 6 servings.

Popular Pork Pairings

Some flavors are natural go-togethers, each complementing the other. For fall one of the most popular pairings is pork and apples. To discover just how delicious this flavor duet can be, try Curried Pork Chops and Apples, suggests the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

Meaty pork chops are slowly braised to tenderness in apple juice that's flavored with catsup and spiced with curry powder. Then quartered apples and raisins are added to complete the fall medley of flavors.

While this exotic yet easy entree is adding interest to family menu plans, it is also making valuable contributions to the diet. Pork is an outstanding source of high-quality protein, B-vitamins and iron. The B-vitamin thiamin deserves special mention for pork is the leading source of this essential nutrient, containing three times more than any other food.

CURRIED PORK CHOPS AND APPLES

6 pork chops, cut 3/4 inch thick

1/4 cup flour
2 teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 teaspoon curry powder
1/4 cup catsup
1 1/2 cups apple juice
4 apples, quartered and cored
One-third cup raisins

Combine flour and salt; dredge chops, reserving excess flour. Brown chops in lard or drippings; pour off drippings. Combine reserved flour with curry powder and blend with catsup. Stir in apple juice and pour over chops. Cover tightly and cook slowly 40 minutes. Add apples and raisins and continue cooking slowly, covered, 15 minutes or until chops are tender. 6 servings.

SAVORY PORK AND VEGETABLES

1 1/4 pounds boneless pork shoulder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon summer savory
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3/4 cup water
1 medium onion, cut into 4 wedges
2 medium carrots, each cut into 4 pieces
2 cups cooked hot Brussels sprouts
2 cups cooked hot cauliflowerettes

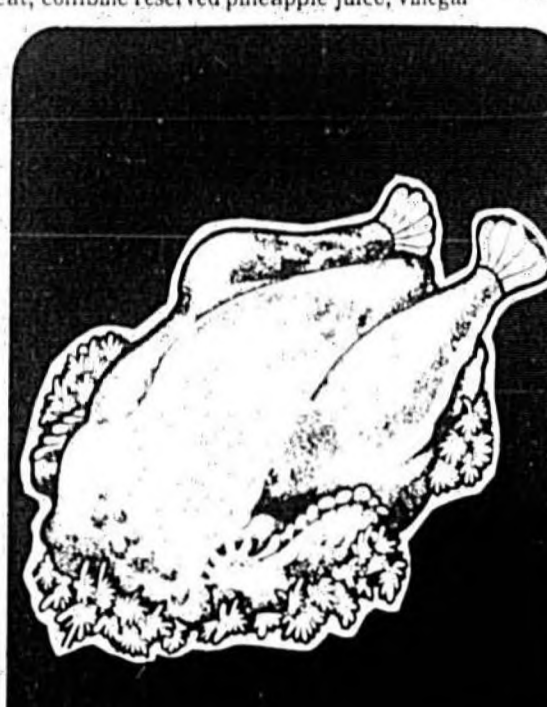

Trim excess fat from pork; slowly heat fat in large frying-pan to obtain 1 tablespoon drippings. Discard fat. Cut pork shoulder into 1-inch pieces; brown in drippings. Pour off drippings. Sprinkle salt, savory and pepper over pork; add water, cover tightly and cook slowly 15 minutes. Add onion and carrots and continue cooking slowly, covered, 30 to 40 minutes or until meat is tender. Remove carrots and cooking liquid to blender container; blend at high speed until smooth. Pour carrot mixture over pork and onions and cook slowly 2 to 3 minutes, stirring occasionally. Arrange Brussels sprouts and cauliflowerettes around braised pork. 4 servings. Serving portion: 1/4 recipe (3 oz. pork; 1/2 cup Brussels sprouts; 1/2 cup cauliflowerettes).

Old-Fashioned Fall Meal Is A Quick And Easy

Fortunately for today's busy cooks, it's possible to create the old-fashioned goodness of a Porkfest meal with modern-day speed and convenience. Sure to please hearty cool-weather appetites is Fall Ham Medley. Strips of flavorful cooked ham, fresh sweet potatoes and peas are combined in a colorful entree that can be made conventionally or more quickly in the microwave oven. The ham and vegetable combo is deliciously glazed with an easy-to-make pineapple sauce that's laced with apricot brandy and warmly spiced with nutmeg.

Put your microwave oven to use, too, to help you make a favorite fall dish — baked apples — in a matter of minutes. Crunchy Pecan Apples are especially tasty, for the cored apples are cooked with a sweet 'n spicy pecan filling. Serve as a dessert or side dish at any meal.

You'll appreciate the ease with which these and other microwave dishes can be prepared and served in cookware designed to go from microwave or conventional oven to table. While the cookware is elegant enough for entertaining, it's practical enough to use every day.

Festive Food Favorites For Fall

Fall is favored not only for its brilliant colors, comfortable days and crisp moonlit nights, but also for its bountiful harvest. Since ancient times, people have celebrated the autumn harvest with festivals featuring the fabulous foods of the season. In this country, the tradition has become known as Porkfest — a table tribute to the land that teams pork with other favorite American foods.

Today's on-the-go family will especially appreciate slowing the pace to enjoy the time-honored Porkfest custom with a hearty and wholesome home-style dinner. Deserving the center spotlight at any fall feast are Pecan-Stuffed Pork Chops. Thick, succulent pork rib chops are filled with a unique stuffing that's deliciously flavored with graham cracker crumbs, allspice and chopped pecans which add not only crunchy texture but also rich taste.

It's appropriate that pork and pecans are paired for a salute to American foods since both have prominent places in this country's culinary history. Pork has been popular here since pre-Colonial times and pecans, the only nut native to America, are believed to have grown wild here for thousands of years. They also contribute valuable nutrition as well as fine flavor to the American table.

For another delightful sampling of the pork and pecan partnership, try Sausage and Pecan Corn Bread Pie. Perfect for a fall supper, lunch or brunch, this quick and easy main dish pie features fresh pork sausage and chopped pecans baked in corn meal batter. Wedges of the nutritious, delicious pie are especially tasty served with maple syrup.

PECAN-STUFFED PORK CHOPS

- 6 pork loin rib chops, cut 1-1/4 inches thick
- 1/2 cup finely chopped celery
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1/4 cup water
- 1 cup crushed graham cracker crumbs
- 1 cup coarsely chopped pecans
- 1/2 cup dry bread cubes
- 1/4 teaspoon ground allspice
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons cooking fat
- Salt and pepper
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 cup water

Make a pocket in each chop by cutting into the chop with a small, sharp knife on rib side parallel to the surface of the chop. Be careful not to cut through the opposite side. Cook celery in butter or margarine in frying-pan 3 minutes. Stir in water. Combine graham cracker crumbs, 1/4 cup pecans, bread cubes, allspice and salt; stir into celery. Fill pocket in each chop with an equal amount of stuffing. Lightly brown chops in cooking fat in frying-pan. Season chops on both sides with salt and pepper. Place in 11-3/4 x 7-1/2 x 1-3/4-inch glass baking dish; cover tightly with foil. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 45 minutes. Remove foil and continue baking 15 minutes or until done. To prepare gravy, combine flour with 1/2 cup water, stir into cooking liquid in small saucepan and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add reserved 1/4 cup pecans and continue cooking 3 minutes. Serve gravy with stuffed pork chops. 6 servings.

SAUSAGE AND PECAN CORN BREAD PIE

- 1 pound fresh pork sausage
- 1 cup yellow cornmeal
- 1 cup flour
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 4 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 egg
- 1 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons oil
- 1-3rd cup coarsely chopped pecans
- Maple table syrup, if desired

Brown pork sausage, separating it into pieces. Pour off drippings. Sift together cornmeal, flour, sugar and baking powder. Add egg, milk and oil. Mix to combine thoroughly. Fold in sausage and pecans. Turn batter into a greased 9-inch glass pie plate. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 30 minutes or until done. 6 servings.

Microwave Magic Soup's On In A Hurry

Cooler days and soup for lunch or dinner seem to go together. The microwave makes the preparation so much easier and less time consuming.

If you use a 10-oz. can of condensed soup, add 1 soup can water. Combine ingredients in a 4-cup glass measure. Cook covered, 3-5 minutes, 100 percent power, stirring once or twice to distribute heat evenly.

For soup mixes, in a 4-cup measure, prepare as directed on the envelope. Cook, covered, 100 percent power, 3-5 minutes or until mixture boils. Rest about 5 minutes before serving.

Most homemade soups can be cooked in the microwave; however, they will cook in about the same cooking time as "top-of-the-range" cooked soups.

This New England Clam Chowder can be prepared in the microwave as well as the top-of-the-range.

NEW ENGLAND CLAM CHOWDER

- 6 slices bacon, diced
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 3 cups potatoes, diced
- 2 7-oz. cans minced clams with liquid
- 1 cup water
- 2 13-oz. cans evaporated milk
- Salt and pepper to taste. In 2 qt. batter bowl or glass container saute bacon and onion 3-4 minutes at 100 percent power. Add potatoes, clam liquid, water and cook 15-18 minutes, stirring several times. Add clams, milk, salt and pepper to taste and microwave 5 minutes, stirring several times. Allow to rest 5 minutes before serving. Serves 16.

SPLIT PEA SOUP

- 1 cooked ham shank
  - 2 1/2 qts. water
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
  - 1 small onion, chopped
  - 1 stalk celery, chopped
  - 1 carrot, peeled and chopped
  - 1 lb. dried split green peas
- In a 4 qt. casserole, cover ham with water, add salt, pepper, onion, celery, carrots and peas. Cover and microwave 100 percent power, 25 minutes. Remove ham shank, cut off any bits of ham. Add pieces of ham to soup broth. Cook, covered, for another 30 minutes or until peas are soft. Thicken with flour if desired. For a smoother mixture, puree mixture in blender before serving. Serves 6-8.

Next week: Sandwiches and Soup Accompaniments

Tasty dessert treats include Heavenly Six-Layer Squares, Spicy Apple Nut Cake and Chocolate Chip-Peanut Butter Sandwich Cookies.

Totables For Tailgating

Tailgating—a picnic at your car before or after the game—has become a popular activity associated with football and other outdoor sporting events. When it's your turn to treat the gang, what could be easier than home-baked desserts using dessert mixes as the base so that part of the preparation is already done for you.

Portable, totable foods will make the host's job easier, and the food will arrive unharmed. Bars, cakes and cookies are among the desserts most popular for away-from-home parties.

CHOCOLATE CHIP-PEANUT BUTTER SANDWICH COOKIES

- 1/2 package chocolate chip cookies mix
- 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1 egg
- 1 cup peanut butter

Roll dough 1/8 inch thick on floured cloth-covered board; cut into 2-inch circles. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet until edges are light brown, 7 to 8 minutes. Cool 1 minute before removing from cookie sheet; cool cookies completely. Spread each of half the cookies with 1 heaping teaspoonful peanut butter; top with remaining cookies. About 2 dozen sandwich cookies.

(Chocolate Chip-Marshmallow Creme Sandwich Cookies: Substitute 3/4 jar (7-ounce size) marshmallow creme (1 cup) for the peanut butter.)

HEAVENLY SIX-LAYER SQUARES

Layer chocolate chips, peanut butter chips, butterscotch chips, nuts and almond brickle chips evenly over dough. Pour milk evenly over top. Bake until golden brown and bubbly, about 30 minutes. Cool completely on wire rack. Cut into about 1 1/2-inch squares. 50 squares.
