REED IS CAPTURED IN PALATKA AND BROUGHT HERE FOR TRIAL

Alleged To Have Taken Jewelry And Other Articles

RINGS WERE HIDDEN

IN TOOTH PASTE TUBE AND SHOWED MARKS OF OLD TIME STUFF

It was almost a foregone conclusion that when the bold burglar broke into the doctors' offices here and extracted therefrom the cocaine and morphine and other sleep producers that said burglar was either in the business of selling the dope to the different runners over the state or selling it himself or using it himself and the latter conclusion was the most obvious. Therefore the city police force and the sheriff's office worked on this phase of the matter and sent out what was a good description of the man who was supposed to have taken not only the opiates but the diamond rings, from Mrs. Keeler and many other articles. The police of the different cities were on the lookout for him and the Palatka police force pinched the gentleman in that city one day this week and the sheriff's office here sent a deputy to Palatka to bring him back. He was not alone as his wife and little daughter were with him and it is understood that he has another little child in Tampa where he calls home. His name is Sid Reed and it is said that he is well known in Tampa where he has resided for many years and has relatives. Upon bringing the family here Sheriff Brady took up the case and after careful questioning brought out the fact that Reed was responsible for the several robberies that had taken place here in the week of his residence. He is a slick one all right and had the diamond rings hid in the tube that had been used for tooth paste and had he not made a clean breast of the matter it is possible that the rings would never have been found, but his wife went to her room and produced the rings to the sheriff this morning and Sheriff Brady now has them and will restore the property to Mrs. Keeler. The prisoner also said he had stolen an electric fan from the Masonic Hall and told of other robberies giving up sufficient information to mark him as a dangerous character to have abroad. The articles stolen from the doctors especially Dr. Stevens' medicine case have not been produced as yet and this information may come out at the trial.

DRUG ACT NECESSARY IN ENGLAND

LONDON, Oct. 4.—(By Mail).—The dangerous drug act now enforced here is designed to reduce the use of habit-forming drugs which has grown very rapidly here during the last few years. ## White Man Beaten By Orlando Mob

MYSTERY ABOUT CASE SAID TO HAVE BEEN ONE OF ASSAULT

A masked mob, estimated at between fifteen and twenty men, overpowered Officers Nettles and Barnes at 309 America street, Orlando, about 11:30 last night and took from them J. E. Howard, whom the officers had placed under arrest and were preparing to place in an automobile in order to convey him to the police station. Howard was carried away in an automobile by the mob and at a late hour his fate has not been made known. Sheriff Gordon is reported to be after the mob. According to police headquarters, Officers Nettles and Barnes answered a telephone call that came from the neighborhood, stating that there was a disturbance of some sort out in that part of town, and to come to 309 America street at once. When they arrived at this address they were met at the door by Mrs. Howard, the wife of J. E. Howard. Upon their request to see her husband they were told to come inside, that he would not come out. "Asked if they saw any men when they approached the house, the officers stated that they had noticed only two men who were apparently accidentally in the neighborhood. Upon entering the house, Howard asked the officers what they wanted. They replied that they wanted him for disturbing the peace. He is said to have stated that he was glad to go with them, that he wanted protection.

"What do you want protection for?" asked Officer Nettles. "That's all right, you'll find out later," he is said to have replied. Not being certain just what action ought to be taken in the case, Officer Nettles left Officer Barnes at the house while he went back to the police station for further instructions. He was ordered to arrest Howard and bring him in to the station. Following out his instructions he went back to get Howard with the car he was using from headquarters. He and Officer Barnes, accompanied by Howard, had reached the gate of the Howard home when a number of men suddenly confronted them, two of the men covering the officers with revolvers.

"What do you want?" demanded Officer Nettles. "We want Howard for the assault of a ten year old girl," came the reply from the man who had Officer Nettles covered with his revolver. "Did you offer any resistance?" was asked the officers, and they said that they could do nothing as they both were covered with guns. "Could you recognize any of the men in the crowd?" was asked, and they said that it was too dark to see any of the faces but that they believed some of the men wore masks.

"How many would you say composed the mob?" was also asked, and both officers agreed that there were at least fifteen and that they saw two cars standing in the street. A late telephone message to police headquarters stated that Howard had been severely beaten by the mob but returned home.—Orlando Sentinel.

Banks Must Assist Federal Board After The Fly

AMERICAN BANKERS CALLED UPON TO ESTABLISH CO-OPERATIVE WAREHOUSES AND ORGANIZATIONS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The report of the agricultural commission of the American Bankers Association said the bankers can and should assist farmers by assisting in the establishment of co-operative warehouses and selling organizations and unless the farmers can sell products with reasonable assurance of fair profit there will be an increasing tide of men drifting from the farms to the cities.

BOLS ADOPT SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK GUIDE TO SPREAD DOCTRINE

SISTERVILLE, Va., Oct. 21.—Charges that bolshevism is being spread throughout Southern West Virginia under the guise of Sunday school work, were made here today by L. F. Black, state superintendent of Sunday school missions, in an address at the annual meeting of the synod of West Virginia Presbyterian church.

Mr. Black told the visiting delegates that headquarters of the "holshavik" movement were in Chicago, and that twelve "missionaries" had been allotted to West Virginia. Two of these "missionaries" he said, are already active preaching doctrines condemning the home, marriage, church and government.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE HOLDING BIG MEETINGS LAST NIGHT AT GENEVA

European Cities Are Cleaner

LARGE CITIES OF EUROPE ARE MUCH CLEANER THAN AMERICAN CITIES

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The large cities of Europe in the point of cleanliness and tidiness of streets are far ahead of New York, Chicago, Cincinnati and many other cities in America, says Clyde A. Cospen, manager of the Anti-Litter Bureau of the Merchant's Association, who has just returned from a trip of observation in Europe.

"In some sections of New York," he said, "I can see more street litter in one square block than in any city I visited abroad. Paris and London are models of cleanliness and comparatively free of street litter of any description. This is due to the fact that the people abroad are more tidy than we who live in America.

"The city of New York countenances conditions that none of the cities which I visited would tolerate for a moment."

Mr. Cospen said that London has the best organized Street Cleaning Department in Europe, Glasgow, the poorest, and Paris has the best garbage disposal system.

Referring to the taxi-cab drivers and all chauffeurs abroad, Mr. Cospen's statement said that they "seem to know their business and when in trouble, or about to run down a pedestrian, they apply the brakes instead of tooting horns. The chauffeurs in New York do just the opposite, hence the greater number of accidents and noises."

"Newsboys and vendors in London," he added, "do not shout their wares, but instead carry signs on which in large letters the important news headlines. The system helps considerably in lessening the general noise. The subway, or 'tubes' as they are called in London, are more comfortable than ours and scrupulously clean."

OFFICERS RAID CONTRACTOR'S OFFICE FOR TRUST PROOF

PLANT FALL AND WINTER VEGETABLES

Many homes go lacking for fall and winter vegetables because the heads of the homes fail to plant a succession and variety of garden seeds. If the early fall garden plantings have been in wide rows, it will be a simple matter to make plantings now in the middles for winter use.

October and November plantings should be highly frost resistant; such as cabbage, lettuce, turnips, mustard, kale and onions. In order to maintain a warm temperature in the soil, give it constant stirrings with a rake or hoe, or even a plow run very shallow.

Purple top white globe is probably the best variety of turnips to plant. The extra curled mustard, or what is known as ostrich mustard, is recommended. Of the many varieties of cabbage, Charleston Wakefield is probably most desirable for Florida. Romaine lettuce is preferred for all general purposes. Dwarf curled kale is recommended for early winter planting in this part of the country. Kale makes a very delicious vegetable, can be used for a great many purposes, and makes an excellent croon when boiled with fat meat. It is also a good salad plant.

If dwarf Essex rape has not been planted in the family garden, C. K. McQuarrie of the University of Florida agricultural extension staff, suggests that it be planted at once. This plant makes excellent greens and the surplus provides a good green food for poultry.

The family garden will go a long way toward keeping the home table supplied with wholesome foods at the lowest possible cost. Vegetables grown at home are cheap and healthy, and almost essential in the diet.

Will Have Big Rally In Sanford Saturday Night

WOMEN TO GATHER AT THE WOMAN'S CLUB NEXT WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON FOR INSTRUCTIONS

People are becoming interested in politics this year as never before and whether it is the vital issues that confront us here in the South at this time is the incentive or whether it is the women coming into the party that is adding zest or whether it is the action of the County Executive Committee in making a county campaign that is stirring up the people but at any rate the committee meetings and the speakers have been meeting with great success everywhere and the people are aroused to the need of definite action and aroused as they have never been before in a national election.

Last night at Geneva a large crowd was present at the Town Hall and the people of the Geneva section were augmented by a large crowd from Sanford and other points. The meeting was called to order by R. J. Holly, one of the Sanford members and secretary of the committee, who introduced the following speakers:

Mrs. John Leonardi, F. P. Forster, E. A. Douglass, George A. DeCotter, C. M. Hand, E. F. Household and J. J. Dickinson. Every question affecting the voter was taken up by the different speakers and the primary regulations that govern the voters in the national election after taking a moral obligation was stressed as well as the fact that the new women voters should see that all the women go to the polls and vote on November 2. Mrs. Leonardi was given an ovation as she told in a clear and concise manner the duties of the women in regard to their new privilege as voters.

The next rally will be held in this city next Saturday night at eight o'clock at the corner of First street and Park avenue at which meeting there will be a number of local speakers to discuss the political issues. It behooves every voter, men and women, regardless of their political creeds and beliefs, to be at this meeting and hear these speakers. Mrs. Leonardi has consented to again address the ladies and the men on this occasion. At the Woman's Club next Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the women will have a mass meeting to which all are invited and where several prominent speakers will address them and instruct them on the ballot.

If there are any precincts in the county that have not been visited by the committee that want them next week they can have a meeting by making their wishes known to the precinct committee member or to the secretary of the committee, R. J. Holly.

Mobley's Drug Store

This Toad Was a Vagrant.
 How she indulged in an experiment to determine the truth of the assertion recently made by a Youth's Companion contributor that toads have homing instincts, and was disappointed, Miss Dora Read Goodale tells in the Springfield Republican.

Some time ago, she writes, I read that the unassuming toad has the "homing instinct" to an extent as great as the homing pigeons, and the assertion was supported by detailed accounts of various toads that were removed to a distance but returned to their native haunts even before their owner or landlord. Therefore, on a fine Sunday morning I caught in my garden a partly toad, whose puffy corpulence suggested that he had executed numberless flies, and, after tying a red thread round his leg like a badge of honor, I carried him, partly by automobile and partly on foot, three miles from home.

When I gently deposited him near a mossy log by the wayside, he sat perfectly still for fully two minutes, as if getting his bearings; then, after winking two or three times and catching an ant or two with his lightning tongue, he gave a prodigious leap and disappeared in the undergrowth. I confess I had not much hope of seeing him again—and I never have.

No "Mute Inglorious Miltons."

There are no "mute, inglorious Miltons," although there are many inglorious persons who imagine that they are Miltons, writes St. John Ervine in the Manchester Guardian. A Milton may be "inglorious" for a period, but he is never "mute" for a moment. Even the inglorious persons who imagine that they are Miltons, when they would be much better employed as haberdashers, are never mute. They are as a rule, more articulate than the Miltons, for they put into their tongues what they are unable to put into their pens.

The problems of society in dealing with men of genius is not how to encourage them but how to keep them in order. It is probably true that in a disorganized nation the average intelligent man, if he be reared in poverty, will fall to rise to his level, but it is equally true that the man of genius, however harsh his circumstances may be, will find his level as certainly as water does.

(By The Associated Press)
 JACKSON, Ohio, Oct. 20.—Senator Harding lauded the Republican protective tariff policy in a speech here today declaring "that with all progressive tongues and literary idealism of our opponents it is still the Republican party, not only as a tariff protection but every other kind of production which stands as a safe guard of America."

The Facts of the Telephone Situation in Florida

By J. EPPS BROWN, President.
 SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH CO.

Quality of the Service

Prior to the war, the telephone service in Florida was equal to the best. Service reports from all parts of the United States establish this fact.

Today, the service is not equal to the pre-war standard. This is the direct result of furnishing the abnormally large volume of service, both exchange and toll, shown in our last advertisement.

We are now furnishing a far greater volume of service than the plant was designed and constructed to furnish. We had no alternative. The vital needs of the public, both commercial and social, required that we do this.

This demand for service continues to grow larger and more insistent. Every telephone that we install, and every additional toll message that is transmitted, before the additions to the plant now under construction are completed and put into service, delays and prevents the improvement of the service.

Efficient telephone service involves two fundamental prerequisites:

- (a) Adequate facilities, including an unused margin of not less than 15 per cent.
- (b) An adequate force of trained and skilled workers.

The amount of switchboard equipment in every central office is engineered upon the basis of the average daily number of calls to be handled. This determines the number of operators' positions for each switchboard. Each operator can handle only a given number of calls per hour. When the number of calls per hour exceed the maximum capacity of the switchboard, and is beyond the human endurance of the operator, the connections simply cannot be promptly made.

Since the switchboards now in service were installed the average daily number of calls has materially increased, so that the switchboards are today carrying a greater load than they were engineered and constructed to carry.

All surplus switchboard equipment has disappeared, having been put into daily constant use. This makes it impossible to add additional operators, or to adjust the load to meet varying conditions.

This is equally true of the toll switchboards.

The toll circuits are, likewise, engineered and constructed to transmit a certain number of messages during a definite period of time. When a greater number of messages is forced upon the toll lines, the quality of service is inevitably impaired. Today, a greater load is placed upon the toll circuits than they were designed to, or can, efficiently carry.

There is nothing haphazard or accidental in a telephone plant. Each part is engineered to perform a definite function, the service being dependent upon each part functioning as designed.

The switchboard is the heart of the service. The maximum capacity of the switchboard measures both the quantity and the quality of the service.

The operators have more than done their part. If the public could know what efforts, and in many instances sacrifices, they have made to serve you, you would be as grateful to these fine women as is the Company.

While the service is not now as efficient as our pre-war service, a very large per cent of all calls, both exchange and toll, is efficiently handled.

It is the small percentage of calls which go amiss that occasion criticism in the minds of the individual subscribers, who accept the larger percentage of calls satisfactorily handled, as a matter of course.

These are the facts; conditions, not theories, are the sole cause of the present situation.

The quality of service furnished by this Company, is always the composite of conditions, just as is service furnished by any other business enterprise, public or private. Service is dependent upon and varies with conditions.

The sole solution of the situation is adequate facilities and trained forces; there is no other remedy.

The next advertisement will state what the Company has done to secure the needed facilities.

Charles E. Jones P. W. Carr
 Martin Caraballo W. V. Knott

Commission form passed in Tampa.

And the red flare was flashed from the watch tower.

The Tampa Tribune supported the commission form and the Tampa Times was against commission form.

Thank goodness, Sanford will not have to go through another city election imbroglio this fall.

After the national election is over we will be fed up on elections for a long time to come and the man who wants to start something in the way of elections will get the cold shoulder.

And the thing that makes us feel good just now is the sacking of the national pendulum to Cox for president. He started out with the Republican machine all oiled up and working fine but Harding has been driving it in such erratic circles that the old machine is awful wobbly.

In another week the Republicans will be so badly licked at all points that even the campaign manager of the party will have sense enough to acknowledge it. The doubtful states are swinging into line for Democracy and the solid Democratic states are standing firm as Gibraltar for they are in the right and right usually wins.

But assurance of victory should not make the Democrats unmindful of the danger of overconfidence. Let every man and woman go to the polls and vote on election day and roll up the greatest victory for the Democratic party that has ever been recorded. And show them that the solid South is more solid than ever before and that we are alive down here even if it is a foregone conclusion that Florida will go Democratic. Don't let them cut down our majority.

WISH THEY WERE HE

"What happens to a man now if he happens to get bit by a snake?"

"Well," replied Uncle Bill Bottletop, "if there happens to be a little liquor around for an emergency, a crowd gathers around and congratulates him."—Washington Star.

TALK ABOUT YOUR OWN

If you have faith in your own ability—believe in the integrity of your house, and know that you are selling "the best line on the market"—you can't help but be positive in your selling talk. On the contrary, if you lack faith in these things you are bound to be negative.

The man who spends his time condemning other lines is not forcing the conviction upon his hearers that he is selling a better line. He is merely calling or directing attention away from his goods to those of his competitor.

Those who think, upon hearing a salesman of this type discourse on the inferiority of his competitors' product, can't help but wonder if it is the lack of merit in his own that keeps him from saying more about it.

This holds good when talking about your home town. Never mind the other town, its what you have that counts.

COMMISSION-MANAGER FORM WINS

The election to decide whether the people of Tampa wanted a change in city government or not was held in Tampa Tuesday and went overwhelmingly for good government. The Tampa Tribune comments on the result as follows:

They have done it for Tampa. By an overwhelming vote, that

J.P. says
 "I HAD THE BLUES. IT TOOK EVERYTHING TO KEEP MY WIFE AND SELF GOING. I COULD NOT ADVANCE. I WAS ABSOLUTELY DEPENDENT UPON MY SALARY. THE FUTURE WAS LIKE A DREADFUL NIGHTMARE ON MY HORIZON. ONE DAY I DECIDED TO INVEST. IT INSPIRED HOPE, CONFIDENCE AND SELF RESPECT. I ADDED TO MY INVESTMENT MONTH AFTER MONTH, AND YEAR AFTER YEAR UNTIL I HAD OBTAINED A PROMINENT POSITION IN FINANCIAL CIRCLES. THERE IS NO BETTER TIME TO DECIDE TO INVEST THAN RIGHT NOW IN THE 8 PER CENT CUMULATIVE PREFERRED STOCK OF THE SOUTHERN UTILITIES COMPANY. DO IT NOW. THERE'S NONE BETTER."

swept all opposition before it, the people of this splendid community, through the adoption of the commission-manager charter, have made this their mandate:
 That we look forward, not backward.
 That we look up, not down.
 That partisan political government in purely local affairs shall no longer exist.
 That in the great patriotic scheme for the upbuilding of our beloved city there shall be one irresistible brotherhood which shall not be hampered and retarded and made ineffective by the factionism and suspicion of political partisanship.
 That in the work to be accomplished for the honor and glory of Tampa, Republicans, Democrats, Socialists and Independents and all factions shall put their shoulders to the wheel, not as partisans, but as fellow-citizens and neighbors, pledged to a great cause and determined upon a great achievement.
 That municipal government in this city shall be a government for all the people by all the people.
 That every civic officer and every servant, from the highest to the lowest, shall secure his place and hold his place on his individual merit, his fitness, his efficiency and his individual character.
 That municipal government shall be a business proposition in which every man and every woman in this community is a stockholder and the commissioners their board of directors, who shall serve them and serve them with efficiency and faithfulness or suffer the alternative of being discharged from the public service.
 The Tribune believes this great popular verdict of the people is the biggest thing that Tampa has done in half a century. The word will go out to the country that Tampa has taken steps that will insure a greater and more wonderful city; that Tampa proposes not only to establish progressive municipal government, but a co-operative municipal government in which there shall be but one standard and one banner, and that the standard and the banner of civic patriotism.
 The electorate by its mandate placed the keystone in the arch, and said that the people shall rule.
 The Tribune rejoices with the people in their triumph. We have fought for them in their splendid cause with great spirit and enthusiasm, for the reason that we knew their cause was right. And right always prevails in the end.
 We fought hard for Tampa's sake, for her material and moral advancement, for her honor, and glory, and for what is more important than all these things—government by and for the people.
 Now that the triumph is won, let us proceed to the work in hand in a broad spirit of helpfulness, mutual trust and civic unity, with charity for all and malice toward none.

WORLD WAR MEMORIAL DAY

Sunday, November 14, is to be observed as World War Memorial Day, and President Woodrow Wilson has directed that on that date the American flag will be displayed at half mast on all public buildings and naval and military posts "as a token of the nation's participation in the memorial services held for the heroic American soldiers, sailors, marines and others, who gave their lives to their country in the world war."

Armistice Day, the second to be celebrated since the world went mad with joy because great armies ceased their onward rush, will be observed appropriately, on November 11. Armistice day is a day of rejoicing, of happiness, and there is not in it that quality of reverent remembrance for our dead which is due those who fought the good fight and fell in the defense of their country's honor. Therefore the announcement of the World War Memorial Day is fitting indeed, and its observance should be universal.

THE CHANGING WORLD.

I used to vote in a livery stable, or, occasionally in a plumber's shop. The judges sat at a dusty table with cigarette ashes sprinkled on top. But since the ladies have come to run it, the polling place is a candy store; the judges' desk has bouquets upon it. And a boy in buttons attends the door. Campaign cigars are a thing forgotten. And it is better, beyond dispute, (since they were always distinctly rotten) that chocolate creams are the substitute. Serene, complacent, the lovely ladies establish all their reforming plans, and I bet I'll find when I get to Hades, they've equipped the place with electric fans. —Chicago Tribune.

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS.

"You have been grossly misled with regard to the treaty, and particularly with regard to the proposed character of the League of Nations, by those who have assumed the serious responsibility of opposing it. They have gone so far that those who have spent their lives, as I have spent my life, in familiarizing themselves with the history and traditions and policies of the nation, must stand amazed at the gross ignorance and impudent audacity which have led them to attempt to invent an 'Americanism' of their own, which has no foundation whatever in any of the authentic traditions of the government."
 "They (the creators of this government) thought of America as the light of the world, as created to lead the world in the assertion of the rights of peoples and the rights of free nations; as destined to set the responsible example to all the world"

A FORTUNE ON WHEELS

Guarded by the driver and eight other men, all heavily armed, this Speed Wagon carries millions of dollars between the Post Office, the Federal Reserve bank, and member banks in the city of Detroit.
 Over a period of four months this car has averaged better than a million dollars a day for its load, and has at times carried as high as $7,000,000 to $10,000,000. This money is wrapped in packages which average seven to a mail bag, each mail bag is placed in a separate iron trunk, and six trunks are carried in one load.
 Reliability of operation as well as speed are essentials for this work. A breakdown might have serious consequences. This made it necessary for the Federal authorities to select a truck whose reliability was proven.

"No worse than a bad cold," is the precipice over which many a young man has fallen.

Your automobile is registered isn't it? How about your baby?

That well regulated children should have measles is another case of those ideas which should be consigned to the attic with relics of long ago.

One hundred and seventy-six people died in Florida unnecessarily in 1919. They were not vaccinated. Birth registration is a parents duty and a child's right.

More People Are Coming to Florida

GOODRICH PEOPLE SIZE UP SITUATION REGARDING TOURING MOTORISTS

That the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company sees more than the usual crowds for Florida is indicated by the following bulletin from the company's offices:

"Absent voters' ballots are in big demand this year—and the motor car's responsible.

"The reason is that winter vacationists are hitting the trail early this fall for the resorts in Florida and California. Formerly most of them migrated from the 'cold lands' by train and didn't start until nearly Christmas. This year they are going in automobiles and are starting early to take advantage of the good roads and fine fall weather.

"This premature exodus is causing election boards to be swamped with requests for absent voters' ballots. Few of the winter resorters—men or women—want to lose their chance of voting in the presidential election and consequently are voting before they leave their home cities.

"The increased use of motor cars by the winter vacationists is shown by the number of requests for road information reaching the Travel and Transport Bureau of the Goodrich Company. During the past two months, 15,000 Florida road maps have been distributed. The demand for California maps from persons east of the Rockies has been almost as great.

"The requests show that about 90 per cent of the winter resorters from the states east of the Mississippi will go to Florida for the cold months. Vacationists from the Mississippi valley are dividing in almost equal numbers to go to Florida, resorts on the Gulf, and to California. Practically all resorters from the Mississippi valley west are going to California.

"It is estimated by the Goodrich bureau that at least a half-million persons will take part in this winter migration. If the winter in the north is severe, the number probably will increase to a million. A large majority of the vacationists will spend at least a month in the land of sunshine and flowers while many will spend the entire winter there.

"To accommodate those who intend to motor to the winter resorts, the Goodrich Travel and Transport bureau is collecting the latest information regarding the roads throughout the south and on the Pacific coast. Pathfinders are now going through the territory to learn exactly what conditions will be encountered.

"The eastern route to Florida thru Washington, Richmond, Raleigh, Columbia and Augusta is recommended by the Goodrich bureau. The route through Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, Chattanooga, and Atlanta is bad in many places, particularly in bad weather. Anyone taking this route is advised to carry with them several strong tow lines, jacks, chains and a hand axe."

Stewart Dutton returned yesterday after spending some time in Quincy, Ill., attending business school. His friends are glad to see him once more.

A jolly party, made up of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kent, Miss Esther Wilson and Mr. Sid Rivo motored to Orlando Monday night to attend Vogel's minstrel.

A. E. Lang, district commercial manager of the Western Union Telegraph Co., was in the city today looking after the local office and found everything in good shape here.

Mrs. J. Houston and daughter, Florida, are back in Sanford as guests of Mrs. Campbell and daughter, Lucy Byrd, at the Valdez. They have been touring the East Coast and after a little rest and visit will motor back to their home in Jacksonville.

If there are any merchants in Sanford who think people do not read the advertisements in the Herald let them make a mistake in prices and see how quickly the people call it to their attention. People are reading advertisements in the Herald as never before and they read the small ones as well as the large ones. If you are not advertising these days you are not getting your share of the business.

L. S. Fitzhugh, of Wilmore, Ky., who is the guest of George A. DeCottes, informs us that he is now an editor, having taken over the management of the Wilmore Enterprise. Mr. Fitzhugh is well known here, having visited this city many times and his Sanford friends are glad to see him again. He says that since he started the newspaper in Wilmore to boost the place that it has grown larger and larger showing that a good newspaper is the greatest pusher for progress that any community can have.

The School Buss
Question Up Again

HAS BEEN PASSED TO COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD FOR FINAL QUESTION

The school buss question has now been left to the county school board and they will settle it at their next meeting. This question has stirred up considerable discussion in the past two weeks. It seems that the new contracts for the hauling of the school children from the rural districts to the city schools meant an outlay of considerable more money this year than last and the city school board wishing to give the children better service, if possible, contracted for this service by letting out the hauling by bids as usual and the contract went to A. J. Lossing on the West side and C. E. Chorpene on the East side. The price paid for this service was so much more than formerly that there was considerable discussion from the East side and the West side and taking the matter of the cost up with the school board resulted in the board making it incumbent upon each child paying $1.00 per month to ride on the school buss in order that the full eight months hauling could be met. The demand for payment to ride on what had always been free busses raised a big objection from some of the patrons of the school. Others paid their dollar. At a mass meeting in the court house the patrons of the schools from the different districts met with the school board but nothing definite could be arranged. The local school board passed it to the county school board and at another meeting of the patrons in the court house last Saturday night it was resolved to ask the school board to take of the tax of $1.00 per child and haul them free as heretofore. It is now up to the school board to haul them free for six months and then stop as the funds will only last that long or to refuse to haul them free or not haul them at all. It is more than likely that the board will decide to haul them as long as the funds hold out and then take off the busses or devise some other way for taking care of the children. Bringing the children to the city schools is the best method of giving them the proper schooling and centralizing the educational methods and it is hoped that some way can be devised to haul them as heretofore and settle the matter in an amicable manner.

It is only another problem that the high cost of living has brought to our door. The people of Sanford have taken no part in this discussion and yet they are paying more in taxes than any part of the county and when the call came for funds to supplement the teacher's salaries the town people dug deeper than any other part of the district and they reason that along with the high cost of everything it looks like the hauling of the children to school will have to be met in the same manner that other problems are met—square in the face and pay more money.
