Wright Shelled For Nine Blows In First Round

Mote Does Splendid Relief Work Holding Down Hitters

ST. AUGUSTINE, July 31.—Young Bill Butland scattered six Sanford hits here yesterday as St. Augustine piled up an early lead to defeat the bottom-place Lookouts, 3 to 2, in the Florida State League.

The Saints pounded Wright, the starting lookout hurler, for nine hits and three runs in the first innings but were completely fanned by the relief hurling of Mote.

Fitzgerald's double, singles by Kinard and Zupanic and a Maltby error at second, stood out in a two-run spree by St. Augustine in the opening frame. Baker drove McGowan home with the third Saint run in the fourth frame.

Sanford bunched two bases on balls and Duncan's single off

Sanford's Lookouts will meet Palatka tomorrow in the Azalea Bowl, there. Today the locals are tangling with St. Augustine here.

Bonner's glove at short to tally a run in the fifth and Kinard's error on Davis' drive to left into another run in the last round.

Although both sides committed errors, the game was featured by four fast-double plays, three of which were pulled by the Saints.

Fitzgerald, Kinard and Zupanic led St. Augustine's attack with two hits each. Langston, Davis and Duncan duplicated the feat for the Lookouts.

All-Star Outfit To Meet Islets On August 18th

Sportswriters Asked To Select Representative Team

By PAT PATTERSON

Eddie Gilliland, president of the Florida State League, yesterday invited sportswriters in towns supporting state loop ball clubs to choose an all-star outfit that will meet the Daytona Beach Islanders in Daytona Beach on Aug. 18.

This department, in naming its choice for manager, will look squarely into the eyes of "Raw Meat" Bill Rodgers, Lookout boss.

The selection is made on the basis of experience—and Rodgers has nearly three decades of professional baseball life including several terms in the majors.

On this and like departments of state league baseball towns falls the doubly desirable pleasure of delving into the loop roster and hauling forth a pair of catchers, the same number—only applied to pitchers this time—that made Mrs. Dionne famous, four regular and one utility infielders, three regular outfielders and two utility garden patrolmen.

We haven't completed our selections as yet, however, we would like to offer Owen Wright as one of our pitchers because he seems to be as good at relief work as he is at starting games.

Wright would be our choice for the man behind the plate, and we base our judgment on the fact that he can slap the gage with a bat as well as handle pitchers.

Here we stop selecting until we've had a chance to look over the rest of the crop and attempt to pick a representative team that will boast at least two players each from Sanford, DeLand, Gainesville, Palatka and St. Augustine.

The all-star game originated with Ernie Padgett, president of the Daytona Beach outfit. He got the idea from the recent all-star game in the major leagues.

America Enters Complete Teams In All Game Events

Great Britain Only Fractionally Represented; Germany Ranks Next To U. S.; Entries Close Saturday

BERLIN, July 31.—(AP)—The official Olympic handbook which says specifically that all entries must be received by midnight July 18.

A German Olympic official, questioned about the discrepancy, said, "There has been some trouble with the applications of four nations, wherefore we are unable to give out the entire list. Everything will be in order by Monday and the final list probably will be available Tuesday."

Great Britain is only fractionally represented to date, with no entries in any of the flat races up to the marathon. Entries have been received in the hurdles races and all the field events except the javelin and shot put. Canada has forwarded only one entry, and that for the javelin.

Neither Great Britain nor Canada has entered its women's athletes as yet.

Many nations are completely lacking in representation in several events insofar as the provisional list is concerned.

The largest entry list for any event is in the 100-meter dash, which to date shows 62 competitors.

Azalea Players Assessed Fines For Arguments

Andrews Docked $50; Manager Emerson Is Set Back $25

DELAND, July 31.—As a result of their actions in protesting decisions of Florida State League arbitrators almost two months ago, George Andrews, centerfielder, and manager Jeff Emerson, both of Palatka, have drawn fines from Judge W. G. Bramham, head of the organized minor league ball. It was revealed here yesterday in a letter received by President G. E. Gilliland.

"A fine of $50 is assessed against Player Andrews and a fine of $25 against Manager Emerson which must be paid into the office not later than July 25. The players will be suspended until payment is made, if not paid upon the date mentioned," Judge Bramham notified President Gilliland.

Both players have already paid President Gilliland fines of $10 for the incidents which brought about action by Judge Bramham, who several weeks ago threatened suspension in addition to fines.

"I feel that in letting these players escape without a substantial suspension is more or less a splendid performance upon my part," the minor league head wrote. "I can not consider the size of a league, the position of a club in a race, nor can I ever consider whether the league folds up or not in the matter of enforcing rules of baseball and putting rowdies down," he added.

Concerning the imposition of fines alone, Bramham said he was taking the action purely in view of President Gilliland's "earnest plea in behalf of your little league, but you just might as well notify a'l comers it is not the standard by which future performances may be judged."

Andrews became involved when he shoved Umpire Sheffield at a game in Daytona Beach nearly two months ago when protesting a decision of the arbiter's at first base. Manager Emerson's fine was the result of his action at Gainesville when he unstrapped the first base sack from its peg, threw it into the air following a close play called by Umpire Maddock, and then attempted to climb into the stands to get at heckling fans.

Sparkman Misses Hall Of Fame By Single Base Hit

Lowe, Pinch Hitter, Spoils Perfect Game For Azalea Southpaw; Palatka Wins By One Run Margin

PALATKA, July 31.—(AP)—Little Joe Sparkman, Waldo southpaw, nearly crashed the portals of baseball's hall of fame here yesterday afternoon when he limited the G-Men to a single blow to post a 1-0 shutout over the Gainesville also and gain a valuable tie for second place for the Azaleas.

Palatka's lone tally came in the last of the ninth frame when pinch hitter, Calvin Lowe, another local southpaw with a one-hit game in the record book, lined a clean single to right to score Guerra from third base.

Sparkman held the G-Men hitless through the first seven frames and had disposed of one man and walked another in the eighth when Milton McDougall, Gainesville receiver, lined a clean single between third and short to give Sparkman's no-hit record.

McDougall's blow sent McMullen from first to third but an attempted squeeze play failed and McMullen was trapped between third and home for the second out of the inning. He walked the next hitter but fanned the following to come out unscathed for his shutout in the only threatening inning.

Sparkman fanned seven and walked three during the contest while Elbert Padgett, Gainesville eighth-inning pitcher, had his own nemesis for the first time. He was nipped for eight hits, three of them in the ninth inning. Padgett struck out five and walked one.

Guerra started the ninth with a one timer to left center and raced clear to third on Andrews' rubber over second. Lowe's drive to right evaded the hit.

Guerra was the only player in the game to hit safely twice.

Sharkey To Meet Brown Bomber In August Comeback

Ex-Champion, Now 33, Is Tavern Keeper In Massachusetts

NEW YORK, July 31.—(AP)—Joe Louis, Detroit's erstwhile "Brown Bomber," will launch his comeback campaign against former heavyweight champion Jack Sharkey of Boston in Yankee Stadium, August 18.

Both fighters were signed for a 10-rounder yesterday by the 20th Century Club.

The fight will be staged in place of the Barney Ross-Tony Canoneri welterweight title scrap which Mike Jacobs, 20th Century promoter, was trying to negotiate for that date.

Sharkey will be the fourth former champion Louis will face. After disposing of Mike Esser, Primo Carnera in his majestic climb to a title bout with Jimmy Braddock, Joe was knocked out in the twelfth round by Max Schmeling of Germany, another ex-titleholder, in June.

The Louis scrap will be the fifth bout in the comeback campaign of 33-year-old Sharkey. After disposing of Mike Esser, Sharkey now a Boston tavern keeper since he retired from the ring in 1933 after losing the title to Primo Carnera, has had four other title fights.

His final return engagement was the "finest" with unknown Winston in Boston. Then he lost

A Dangerous Responsibility

The attempt last week to assassinate the King of England has led to additional precautions by government authorities to safeguard the lives of political leaders. If, in a country which is remarkably free from crime of any kind and where the people as a whole have a most reverent attitude toward the royal family, a man can be sufficiently aroused, or deceived, to break through the police lines and get close enough to inflict serious damage, it goes without saying that political leaders everywhere are likely to be in constant danger.

Alice Longworth, the daughter of former President Theodore Roosevelt, has pointed out that particular efforts should be made in this country to protect the life of our President. Elaborate precautions, she explains, are often misunderstood by the public who seldom appreciate the risks involved in the appearance of a prominent figure among large crowds of people. But somewhere among these thousands there is always apt to be a half-wild person who fancies himself to be aggrieved to the point where only murder can satisfy his honor.

We are reminded that President Roosevelt has already been fired upon by a would-be assassin. When Zengara stood upon a bench in Miami's Bayshore Park and leveled his pistol at Mr. Roosevelt, he was at the very zenith of his popularity. He had just been elected president by an overwhelming majority. He had not yet been inaugurated, or begun any of the policies which have since alienated certain interests among his followers. No one could conceive of anyone's wanting to shoot the President-elect.

Some criticism has been directed at the President on account of the tremendous force of armed guards which stood between him and the crowd at Philadelphia recently on the night of his acceptance speech. It has been said that such a display of military might and police power in the face of his own people should be unnecessary. But one is reminded by the recent vitriolic attack of Father Coughlin, in which the priest called the President "a liar and a betrayer" that even some presumably intelligent people carry their political likes and dislikes to a dangerous and ridiculous extreme.

Lesser political lights than the President are even more often subjected to this same type of calumny. During our recent gubernatorial campaign, the Governor of this state, though himself not a candidate, was flayed unmercifully.

It is particularly important to provide every possible safeguard for those to whom we entrust the responsibilities of our government. Most of us are inclined to blame all our troubles on someone else and during hard times our troubles are likely to be economic ones whose burden naturally but unreasonably falls upon the leader in power. Where the President of the United States is held personally responsible for whatever rise or fall in income there may be for 120,000,000 people, it is well to give him every protection from maniacs.

The Chances Of Widowhood

A wife today has a slightly greater risk of becoming a widow than she did in 1920, despite the fact that the average length of life has steadily increased, according to statistics of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, who point out that the mortality improvement has been greater for women than for men.

"For a couple of the same age," the Metropolitan says, "the chances that a wife will eventually be left a widow are about 55 in 100, according to the mortality in the United States in 1929-1931, that is, about the time of the last census; while the corresponding chances were about 52 in 100 according to the mortality of 1920."

"For a husband, the chances of becoming widowed have diminished since 1920. The chances of a husband, of equal age with his wife, becoming widowed were about 45 in 100 according to the 1929-1931 mortality, as against about 48 in 100 according to the 1920 mortality."

"Where a man is 5 years older than his wife the chances of his becoming a widower are 85 in 100; if 10 years older, the chances are 27 in 100; if 15 years older the chances decrease to 20, while if he is 25 years older his chances of becoming a widower are slightly more than 10 in 100."

The Metropolitan further points out that the average duration for widowhood is longer for women than for men, because the wife is usually younger than the husband, while the mortality for women is also less than that of men. For example, if the husband and wife are the same age, say 35 years old, the average duration of widowhood in the case that the husband dies first is 15.3 years.

If the wife dies first the husband will, on an average, survive as a widower for 14.3 years. If, on the other hand, the wife is 35 and the husband 40 years older—that is, 45 years old—then, if the husband dies first the wife will, on an average, be a widow for 18.6 years; if the wife dies first the husband will be a widower, on an average, for 11.7 years.

DISPELLING THE FOG

By the Honorable Charles E. Sawyer, U. S. Senator from New York

It is a common saying that the fog of the present is the best light of the future. It is a saying which is often repeated in the halls of Congress. It is a saying which is often repeated in the halls of the State Legislatures. It is a saying which is often repeated in the halls of the courts. It is a saying which is often repeated in the halls of the universities. It is a saying which is often repeated in the halls of the churches. It is a saying which is often repeated in the halls of the homes.

Of course, these words are hardly valuable as an index of public sentiment when we know how they are conducted and how general the representation of all the elements of the population may be.

The particular poll discussed here does not reveal how it was conducted except by the general statement that it was "a poll of the voting population." It is, admittedly, admitted to only 100,000 of some 60 million voters in the United States.

As a general rule, perhaps it is the easiest process, the replies are solicited from telephone directories and those who have automobile permits. Statistics tell us that only 27 out of each thousand voters has a telephone listed in his or her name, and only 179 out of each thousand have automobiles. They also tell us that the percentage of replies to questions mailed in July was in five Congressional districts only 11 out of each thousand of population. If the proportion is between the two statistics is 9 to 1, a change of one vote in a thousand would give the result, which is only another way of saying that the overwhelming mass of voters in the United States are practically unrepresented in such a poll.

According to this calculation, Mr. Landon is safe only in 13 states, with an aggregate of 99 electoral votes, while Mr. Roosevelt is safe in 24 states, with an electoral vote of 229. In order to figure a Republican victory, there had to be included as "probably Republican" 11 of the states styled as doubtful, while allowing the President only three.

Included in the states in which the Republicans are accorded an advantage are every one of the most populous states in the East and all of the most populous states of the Middle West. In all, the calculation gives 173 electoral votes on the doubtful list to the Republicans and only 30 electoral votes on the doubtful list to the Democrats.

Needless to say, the figures do not at all accord with the estimates made from Democratic sources. Those who gamble on elections would be quite willing to bet that the 13 "safely Republican" states will not be in that column on election day, and to give still larger odds that the eight doubtful states classed as "Republican" will not show any such advantage on election day. To put it more bluntly, the Democrats will only have to carry any one of six of these "doubtful" states to win the election—that is, if they win in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, or Minnesota. Mr. Roosevelt goes in for a second term.

The poll that has caused so much Republican jubilation naively presents that it was taken before Governor Lehman of New York had expressed his willingness to run again for the governorship. In 1932, with the same combination of Roosevelt for president and Lehman for governor, New York

Philippine Army Dresses In Shorts

MANILA, July 22.—(AP)—Economy is the watchword of the new Philippine army which is being set up by Gen. Douglas MacArthur under a limited military budget.

Local products are helping the general to save money. For instance, American campaign hats, formerly worn by Filipino soldiers, cost $4.50 each. New campaign hats, made of coconut fiber, cost 45 cents.

When it comes time to outfit the new soldiers next January, Gen. MacArthur plans to put them in khaki shorts instead of long trousers. With 40,000 recruits in 1937, that will save a lot of cloth.

Britain Building To Hold Sea Rank

In addition 64 naval vessels, including two for Poland, two for Estonia and three for Argentina, are under construction or have been ordered.

Despite this revival, less than half the shipbuilding capacity is being employed and more than a third of the registered shipyard workers are idle.

Citrus Control State And County Committee Seeks More Authority

C. R. Dawson, county farm agent, today said the base allotment is that number of boxes of fruit which the control committee estimates will be produced per acre by any specific grade.

The county agent said that the body has power to establish allotments but does not have authority to correct it should an error be detected.

Mr. Dawson said past production is the basis on which future estimates are founded.

The citrus agreement is compulsory, the agent asserted, adding that it is in no way connected with the soil conservation program which the government now has under way.

In the bulletin and ballot distribution by the Department of Agriculture, it is stated that the citrus program in Florida will be facilitated if growers see fit to give the control committee power to rectify base allotments which are proven to be inaccurate.

Blank ballots have been mailed to citrus producers in this county. They should be marked and returned to A. P. Spencer, vice-director, Florida Extension Service, Gainesville, Fla.

The county agent has a number of the voting tickets to supply those who have mislaid the originals which were received individually through the mails.

Chinese Profit By Coffin Lid Thefts

CHINKIANG, China July 22.—Lawless persons here are said to be reaping large profits by stealing coffin lids and holding them for ransom.

It is the custom among well-to-do Chinese to buy coffins in anticipation of their death, and store them in special buildings near their ancestral temples.

Owners of the coffins usually pay the ransom because it would cost more to purchase a new lid. If the owners refuse payment, the thieves chop up the covers and sell them for firewood.

Court Orders Primary For Senate Posts

Secretary Of State Directed To Prepare For Elimination Elections

Gray Left Free To Make Choice

Pepper Is Unopposed In One Race; Three Seek Other Seat

TALLAHASSEE, July 23.—(AP)—By a four to two decision the Florida Supreme Court today directed Secretary of State R. A. Gray to proceed with arrangements for the special Democratic primary to nominate successors to the late Senators Park Trammell and Duncan U. Fletcher.

The decision, reported here today, was reported, but it left Gray free to decline if he so desired and tell the court why he was not complying with the order.

Developments today have been awaited for several days since Attorney-General Cary D. Ladd refused to rule on the legality of the special primary and dumped the problem into the lap of the Supreme Court.

Gray said he would be glad to comply with the temporary court order if the attorney-general's office advises him the court's opinion gives him sufficient authority for spending public funds.

If by any chance Secretary Gray declines to abide by the court decision, the task of nominating two potential candidates will fall to the State Democratic Executive Committee.

Special primaries have been tentatively set for Aug. 11 and Sept. 1.

The election as arranged for by Secretary Gray would be paid for by the state. It had been the suggestion of the Democratic Executive Committee that each party committee in Florida's 67 counties withhold the expense of the balloting.

Four men are qualified for the two nominations. Claude Pepper of Tallahassee is the only Democratic candidate for the Trammell post. Former Governor Duke E. Carlton of Tampa, C. O. Andrews of Orlando, and Robert Boone of Miami seek the nomination for the Fletcher vacancy.

Civic Clubs Urged To Tell Friends Of Weather In State

Sanford Kiwanians yesterday urged that every member of all local civic clubs write at least one letter to some friend in the north and describe the pleasant weather which Florida has had while the heat wave has been sweeping the northern half of the country.

The move was the second taken within two days to bring tourists here. The Junior Chamber of Commerce early this week instituted a program which, it is hoped, will bring a host of returning travelers to the city.

National Guardsmen Mustered To Scene; Nineteen Arrested After Fierce War

TALLADEGA, Ala., July 23.—(AP)—Nineteen men were arrested here today by National Guardsmen patrolling the streets where a police officer was slain and 17 persons wounded last night in the savage climax of a labor dispute at the Samsco Cotton Mills.

More than 180 troopers with fixed bayonets restored order in thoroughfare that had run red with blood, and that echoed with the crashing fire of guns.

The soldiers were directed to prevent crowds gathering, an order resulting from the death last night of Deputy Sheriff John J. Bryant who was shot during the fiercest of the day's disorders.

National Guard officers refused to reveal the names of those arrested by militiamen.

While some of the arrested men were supposed instigators of the trouble, the city was a seething mass of fighting last night.

Stones, clubs and guns were employed by an army of laborites who stormed their way into the streets. Local officers dived grimly into the situation but were unable to surmount the overwhelming odds until state troopers arrived.

No Funds Given For Local Work In St. Johns River

Appropriation Is Cut From $4000 In '36 To Nothing In '37

Federal expenditures will be lacking next year for work in the St. Johns River between Jacksonville and Lake Harney, according to an Associated Press dispatch received today from Washington.

On the other hand, the government plans to spend $904,000 in 1937 for dredging operations in the St. Johns between Jacksonville and the Atlantic Ocean, the report further stated.

Last year the government allocated $4,000 for activities on the Jacksonville-Lake Harney section of the river. Not a single cent was appropriated for next year.

Total allocations for work on all waterways in the state will amount to only $4,360,500 next year as compared to the $11,467,375 expended for the fiscal year ending in 1936.

Three separate charges of larceny against Frank White, negro, each drew fines of $15 or 30 days in prison.

Martin Kelly, colored, charged with petty larceny, was fined $15 or given 30 days in jail.

A disorderly conduct charge against Jerome Williams, negro, drew a fine of $15 or 30 days in prison.

Deadly Screw Worm Almost Exterminated In Seminole County

Screw worm, one of the most persistent and deadly enemies of cattle and other live stock, is practically non-existent in this county, Farm Agent C. R. Dawson said today.

The last case reported in Seminole was more than two weeks ago, county farm records reveal. The last serious epidemic caused by the worm was under way at this time last year, according to Mr. Dawson.

A comprehensive report of the screw worm's damage in 1935 revealed that 1350 cases in the county resulted in the death of 20 heads of live stock.

There were more than 150,000 cases in the state, a Department of Agriculture report shows.
