LEAGUE OF NATIONS IS PARAMOUNT ISSUE IN DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

CHARGE REPUBLICANS WITH RAISING MILLIONS FOR CAMPAIGN FUNDS.

Dayton, Aug. 7.—In his address here accepting the democratic nomination, last Saturday, Governor Cox expressed his views on the paramount campaign issue as follows:

Championing the league of nations as proposed by President Wilson, with "interpretations" assuring good faith and understanding, and denounced what he termed the dishonorable proposal from Sen. Harding for "a separate peace with Germany."

Played his opposition—candidate, platform, leaders and congressional record—as reactionary, and asserted that the republican congress had failed to pass a single constructive law or to reduce war taxes.

Demanded publicity for "the plain truth" regarding all campaign expenses and disbursements, charging that millions in campaign funds had been gathered by the republicans for "the reactionary cause."

Promised emphatically strict law enforcement, although he did not mention specifically the prohibition amendment and Volstead law.

Urged ratification of the proposed constitutional amendment providing for woman suffrage.

Denounced profiteering and promised that profiteers should "suffer the penalty of the criminal law."

Declared he took up the democratic standard "a free man, unfettered by promises."

Advocated fair returns for both capital and labor and approval of development of both "in large units—without injury to the public interest."

Favored collective bargaining by labor through its own representatives.

Advocated many experiments for agricultural development, including reduction of tenancy, increased production, co-operative selling as well as purchasing by farmers, municipal markets, government regulation of cold storage, and increased acreage by reclamation.

Favored American youth for its own service, declared that the nation owes a debt to those who died and their dependents and to the wounded, who should be trained and rehabilitated.

Advocated giving a thorough test to private ownership of railroads under government regulation, and stated that financial credit for the 1920 should be provided.

Pledged "heavy" and immediate reduction of federal taxation, declaring that, with economy, $2,000,000,000 could be lopped off.

Advocated repealing of "annoying consumption taxes," and said income of wage earners, agricultural producers, professional and small business men should be "sharply modified."

Advocated reform of federal agencies and activities, including establishment of a budget system, asserting that the government could be run on $1,000,000,000 annually, including sinking fund and national debt interest.

Commended the federal reserve act as a democratic achievement, enacted "against the protests of the bitter republican stand-patters," and recommended establishing foreign banks in these centers.

Advocated repeal of war laws restricting freedom of speech and assembly and liberty of the press, to "begin with the Americanization of alien residents and extension of education work."

Observation of children by provision of child labor, adequate pay for government employees, short shift for anarchistic agitators and development of waterway transportation was also favored.

"I accept the nomination of our party," he said in conclusion, "obedient to the Divine Sovereign of all peoples, and hopeful that by trust in Him the way will be shown for helpful service."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

FORIEN SANFORD GIRL WEDS.

A wedding which was of much interest to many friends in Kissimmee, Sanford, Orlando and other cities of the state was that of Miss Maudie Alice Wagner to C. B. McCaughen, of Orlando, which was solemnized at the First Methodist Church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The large auditorium was beautifully decorated for the occasion. An arch, covered with fragrant roses and dainty trailing vines was arranged at the altar. The background was banked with stately palms and delicate ferns, the only note of color being two tall candleabra, each holding seven pink candles. Below the arch, where the bride and groom would kneel to receive the benediction was an imported oriental prayer rug, a gift to the bride from the groom's parents. Long blue ribbons marked the seats reserved for the relatives and intimate friends and bouquets of the same color held in place pretty clusters of varicolored ribbons along the aisles further emphasizing the rainbow color scheme.

The decorations were arranged by the ladies of the Kings Daughters class of the M. E. Sunday school, of which the bride is a member, under the direction of Miss Jean Caldwell.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the ushers, Messrs. Walter Blass, Byron Ames, Gordon Bullock and Bert Wells, closed the church doors.

The opening solo, "Believe Me I'm All These Enduring Young Christs," was very sweetly sung by Miss Ethyle Robinson, accompanied by Miss Louise Thomason at the piano.

Then as the wedding march from Lohengrin sounded, the doors at the left were thrown open and the groom with his best man, A. E. Donegan, entered, and advanced to the altar, while Rev. R. F. Hodnett approached from another entrance.

Two wee flower girls, Fatsie Johnston and Katherine Parker, veritable fairies, in rattled line frocks, carrying baskets of pink roses, came down the aisle in advance of Miss Ada C. Wagner, the maid of honor, on the right, and the little ring bearer, Alta Ruth Overstreet, on the left.

Then the bride entered and was met by the groom beneath the floral arch where the vows were pledged.

During the ceremony Mrs. S. H. Bullock rendered the strains of "Oh, Thou Sublime Evening Star" on the violin, accompanied by Miss Thomason at the piano. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as a recession as the party left the church.

The bride was lovely in an exquisite gown of net, embroidered in pearl and crystal beads, worn over satin. Her long veil was held in place with bands of pearls caught at either side with clusters of lilies of the valley. She carried an exquisite bouquet of bride's roses and orchids, showered with sweetheart roses and fringed with maiden hair fern.

The maid of honor was very sweet and girlish in a soft pink tulle, clouded with pink madame and carried a bouquet of pink "radiance" roses and maiden hair fern.

The little ring bearer in dainty yellow added another rainbow tint.

The groom and best man were in full evening dress.

Mr. and Mrs. McCaughen left in their car immediately after the ceremony for parts unknown. In fact, they expect to wander anywhere their fancy dictates for perhaps a month, before returning to Orlando, where they will make their home.

Mrs. McCaughen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Wagner, prominent Kissimmee people. She is a talented musician as well as a very charming young lady, whose hosts of friends offer her many felicitations.

Mr. McCaughen lived here for a number of years and was first lieutenant at Kissimmee and was first lieutenant at the time he was honorably discharged. He is now in business in Orlando, where he owns the Model Cafe and the Turner Cafeteria. He is interested in a real estate firm also.

Out of town guests attending the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. William McCaughen of St. Louis, Mo.; Misses Lola and Lottie Lawler of Gainesville; Mrs. Edward Pound of Jacksonville; Mrs. J. M. Masters, Jr., and Herbert Masters of Port Orange; Misses Margaret Eleanor and Ruth Roberts, Maurice Spencer, Margaret Peters, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Phillips, Miss Marion and Mrs. Kenneth McCullough of Winter Park and Frank Laughton of Orlando.—Kissimmee Gazette.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT.

The following formal announcement appeared in the Times-Union of Jacksonville on Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Melton of Sanford, announce their engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Louise Allison, to Mr. William Howard Ford, of Cleveland, O., the wedding to take place in September at their summer home in Daytona Beach.

POLAND WILL ASK FOR AID

WILL ASK UNITED STATES FOR CREDIT TO CARRY ON WAR.

Washington, August 11.—Poland intends to appeal to the United States for aid in her fight against the bolshevik, it was stated today by the Polish minister.

The aid requested, it was said, probably would be confined to a desire for credits with which to purchase surplus war stocks. Two hundred thousand army uniforms and two hundred thousand pairs of shoes for army stocks already have been asked for by the Polish legation.

The appeal to the state department the minister said, will be based upon the assurance contained in the American note to Italy that the United States will insist upon the maintenance of the political independence and territorial integrity of Poland.

Poland, in an official communication issued at Warsaw, has solemnly warned the world that if it is overthrown by the bolshevik, it will be one not only to "overbearing might," but "the indifference of a world which calls itself democratic."

A REAL FURNITURE SALE.

In speaking to J. D. Davison, of the Sanford Furniture Co., he said that his sale had been a great success. In every way and that the people who have purchased found out that the 25 per cent. discount meant just what it said and that was 25 per cent. of the cash price—which is some in price.

The furniture is all new and up to date stuff and as Mr. Davison says, it will pay the people of this section of Florida to buy at these prices, even if they have to store the stuff until they need it.

Read the advertisement in this issue of The Herald and then look them over. You can save some real money on this great furniture sale and while it lasts all month, you should get there before all the many beautiful designs are sold.

TRADING IN SANFORD.

The streets of Sanford are filled each afternoon and all day Saturday and Sunday night with the multitude of shoppers who are coming here from the country roundabout and other cities, attracted by the low prices of all kinds of merchandise now being offered by Sanford merchants. Advertising is responsible for the many people coming here and then, after they get here, the courteous treatment of the merchants and the prices will hold them. Sanford is fast becoming the trading center for this part of Florida and, with a few big days, such as Dollar Days and Trade Days, much more business should be brought here and kept here for all time.

Sanford is a revelation to strangers on Saturday nights, and the many people here demonstrate that this is one of the best trade centers in this part of the state.

BD. TRADE BANQUETED LAST NIGHT

VALDEZ HOTEL ENTERTAINS A LARGE BUNCH OF BOOSTERS.

The Board of Trade held their regular monthly meeting and banquet last night at the Valdez Hotel and, as usual, it was well attended and the banquet was up to the standard established by the famous Valdez Hotel.

Some hundred guests sat down at 8 o'clock at the long tables and for some time nothing much was said, but when the last dishes had been cleared away President Miller called the meeting to order and many things of importance were taken up and discussed among the members.

The various committees appointed last night for that purpose.

F. P. Forster talked about the excursions of the Clyde Line and taking care of the people coming here. A. P. Connelly, Geo. A. Burtette and H. R. Mrs. James D. Dosssey and son Earl spent as the guest of her sister Mrs. Macy.

Arnes Perritt is home again after spending a few days at Daytona Beach, the guest of Emily Bailey.

Sherman Moore left Sunday for Baltimore to undergo a slight operation. The young folks wish him a speedy return.

Mrs. J. A. Grundie and charming daughters, of Dunnellon, Florida, wives of Mrs. Graham, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Herbert Speer, of the Heights.

Mrs. Alfred Edja has as her guest her sister, Mrs. C. H. Taylor, of Plant City. Mrs. Taylor has many friends here who are showing her many social attentions.

Mrs. Ida Austin and daughter, Mch. Bernice, are spending a few weeks at Daytona Beach. Mrs. David Sedler of Valdosta, Ga., is their attractive guest while there.

Chas. W. Gatchel, of Collinsville, Ill., who has been visiting his brother M. D. Gatchel and family for the past week, returned to his home yesterday. Mr. Gatchel is highly pleased with Florida and while here spent some time sight-seeing around Sanford and other nearby points.

Mrs. J. B. Calder of Sanford was the hostess at an afternoon tea at the Justa Tea Room of Mrs. Ashley Sunday afternoon, having as her guest the members of an automobile party that was going through from Sanford to Alabama. The same party left with a delicious lunch which Mrs. Ashley packed for their pleasure.—Daytona Journal.

Walter Dressor writes from Water town, N. Y., that he landed there in cold weather, but it was now 90 in the shade and raining and made him feel more home-like. Says he is getting fat, and those who noted his attenuated appearance when he left, will be glad to learn that his health is slowly improving and that he is now able to sit up and eat three meals a day and several more at night.

D. C. Marlowe is home from Chicago and New York and several other large market centers. He left Mrs. Marlowe and his little son, Robert, in Chicago, where they will visit relatives for some time. Mr. Marlowe says that the big cities are filled up with people from the farms and the farms are languishing as a consequence, making everything higher. The prospects for good prices for winter vegetables seem brighter although it will cost about $80 a car in excess this year to ship our stuff to Northern markets, and the growers will have to get good prices to come out.

Harold Washburn has accepted a position with the Peoples Bank, where his smiling countenance will now be seen.

E. F. Lane has sold to Mr. A. R. Hamilton of Bushnell, Fla., seven car loads of egg boards. Mr. Hamilton is one of the largest cucumber growers of Bushnell and will use the lumber to cover up the eaves during the cold nights the coming winter.

Mr. F. L. Eddy of Bushnell has purchased of E. F. Lane three car loads of celery boards. Mr. Eddy is also one of the cucumber growers of Sumner county.

BYRANT ADDS TO HIS PROPERTY

C. C. Bryant, of Wagner, believes in Seminole county property and has added to his holdings, consisting of home and store and big farm at Wagner and many orange groves scattered over the county, last week added to his holdings with two other good pieces of property.

He purchased a corner business lot in Oviedo known as the Howard lot, belonging to W. H. Howard, and the Woodcock orange grove in Longwood, the latter consisting of seven acres, five of which are in good bearing grove.

Mr. Bryant buys orange grove property and immediately brings it into line shape, on the principle that a poor grove is of no use in the world, while a good grove is a thing of beauty and a profitable investment. He is one of the successful farmers of the Wagner section and is busy getting ready for a big lettuce and other winter vegetable crop.

BALL GAMES, TOURNAMENTS RACES AND DANCING AT NIGHT.

Well, well, Sanford has the old-time pep.

This city will entertain the crowds that are coming from everywhere on Thursday, September 2nd, at which time Sanford will entertain with an all-day affair.

The morning will be given over to shopping, and the ladies from cities around will have the men folks bring them to town and each and every merchant will offer some special bargain on that day. The money saved by you will more than pay you for the trip and you will get some of the rarest bargains that you ever saw in this great era of high cost.

Then in the afternoon of the same day the stores will close at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, because the merchants expect to play ball and engage in all kinds of sports and, with all their employees, will be at the ball grounds where the fathers will play the daughters and the married men will play the single men three-inning games only, as they will all be dead by that time, and after the ball game there will be tournament races with the Seminole cowboys pitted against the rough riders from Orange and Osceola and Volusia and Arango and adjoining counties. There will be sack races and hurdle races and one-legged races and potato races and every other kind of a race, all for special and liberal prizes donated by the big-hearted merchants of Sanford, who intend to make this the greatest day that has ever been given to their friends and patrons in this and adjoining counties.

And in the evening there will be street dancing at the Seminole Bank corner, with good orchestra music, and the festivities will last until the last horn blows. There will be something doing all the time, and it will be an affair that will be a pleasant home gathering of all the clans, and the people will come here and meet old friends and mingle together again for a great big time.

At a meeting at the office of H. C. Dubose Wednesday afternoon, Col. G. W. Knight was chosen as chairman of the meeting and ways and means discussed as to the best method of giving the visitors entertainment and the following committees were appointed:

Merchants committee, Chas. Britt, chairman.

Publicity, R. J. Holly, chairman.

Athletics, program and prizes, C. E. Henry, chairman.

Refreshments, Eugene Rommiller, chairman.

Dance, R. A. Newman, chairman.

Tournaments and horse races, C. M. Hand, chairman.

C. E. Henry was elected as captain of the Father's team; Chas. Britt, of the Married Men's team, Dr. Ralph Stevens, captain of the Single Men's team.

And all of the proceeds go to the General-Laughter Hospital for an ambulance. This is for a worthy cause, and will not only bring a large crowd to Sanford, but it will be a big advertisement for the city—a big get-together party, and a grand time just among the boys and girls.

The chairman will meet next Monday and appoint their committees and discuss further plans for this big day.

Meantime, don't make any dates for Thursday, September 2, for you will want to be in Sanford on that day.

CHANGES IN THE PEOPLES BANK

R. R. DEAS RESIGNS AS CASHIER AND CLAUDE D. COUCH IS PROMOTED.

Several changes have been made in the personnel of the Peoples Bank, R. R. Deas as cashier. Mr. Deas has accepted a position as manager of the Farmers' Exchange, the grocers department of the Citrus Exchange in this section and the offer made to him, coupled with the fact that it promised more outside work, was so good that it caused him to forsake his first love and leave the institution that has known him for the past eight years. Although Mr. Deas gives up the position of cashier he will retain his position as one of the directors and in this capacity will still be identified with the Peoples Bank.

Mr. Deas leaves with the feeling that his work in this bank has given general satisfaction to customers and to the officials of the bank. Ever affable, obliging, good humored and accommodating, R. R. Deas has built up a circle of friends that are a distinct compliment to him during his many years in the bank, starting at the foot and going to the top. His many friends are glad of his splendid promotion.

His place, while hard to fill, will be filled by a gentleman who is as well known as Mr. Deas. Starting years ago Mr. Couch started at the bottom and by his maturing energy has risen to the responsible position of cashier of this institution about 2 years ago. Mr. Couch also has an unfading fountain of good humor, is accommodating and gentlemanly and courteous in all his dealings with the public and his promotion to the position of cashier is a source of gratification to his many friends. Humsy Bump, a young man of splendid promise, who started several years ago in the banking business with the Seminole Bank but lately came over with Peoples Bank will be assistant cashier of the Peoples Bank.

Graceville, Fla., Aug. 2.—Bog Garner, a colored farmer who has a place near what is known as the Brown-town settlement, sold a bale of cotton this week, on which he realized $198.78. This was the second bale he sold this season, being paid 10 cents for the first and 39 cents for the second. If the boll weevil does not do great damage in this section there will be a heavy yield of the fleecy staple here this season.

Judge and Mrs. E. F. Housholder and little son, Carleyle, are visiting Grandpa and Grandma Housholder at Tallahassee this week and next. In the absence of the Judge, his duties will be taken care of by Judge Schele Maines.

COL. THRASHER HELPS SCHOOLS

Mrs. A. P. Connelly, chairman of the committee who have been successfully raising funds to augment the pay of school teachers, received during the past week a nice letter from Colonel A. M. Thrasher, formerly a prominent attorney and long time resident and a booster always for his town and county, commending the work of the ladies of the committee and to make the letter more effective, enclosed a nice contribution to the cause.

IN HONOR OF VISITORS.

Mrs. Braxton Perkins tendered a card party at her home last Saturday in honor of her sister, Mrs. M. S. Wiggins, of Gainesville, and her cousin, Mrs. Frank Milteer, of Ft. Meyers, who have been her guests for the past week.

Five tables of cards proved most interesting and at the close of the game it was found that Mrs. John Murrell had high score and she received a beautiful fern dish. In the cut for prize Miss Mell Whitler had high, and she was presented with an elaborate Madiran tray cloth.

A delicious salad course was served later in the evening and rounded out a most pleasant gathering for all present.

Mrs. Wiggins left Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Löffler, for Georgia, where they will remain for some time, afterwards going to the mountains of North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Kelly of Sanford Heights, have returned from a visit with relatives in North Carolina.

Condor Largest Bird of Prey.

The eagle is commonly spoken of as the largest of the birds of prey. This is wrong. The largest is the condor, a South American vulture. The condor is a native of the great mountain chain of the Andes, especially in Peru and Chile. It lives in a region of perpetual snow, from 10,000 to 15,000 feet above sea level. The length of the male condor is about 48 inches, and the span of wings, when extended, is 9 to 10 feet. The plumage of the male is glossy black, with gray on the wings and white on the margins of the wing coverts.

Razor Claim Hard to Catch.

The so-called "razor claim" is no unfamiliar along the Atlantic littoral. It looks remarkably like a closed razor (not of the "safety" pattern, but the old-fashioned kind), and the valve of its shells are almost sharp enough to shave with, says the Kansas City Star. On the Pacific coast it is highly esteemed as a table delicacy, and in Oregon, Washington and Alaska razor claims are canned in immense quantities. They are gathered between tides at extreme low water. They live buried in sand, and no little skill and dexterity are required to capture them, so rapid are they to their movements. When frightened the razor claim protrudes its "foot" downward, expands it and jerks itself deeper. At each jerk it goes down a couple of inches, and so is quickly out of reach.

Whirling "Hot Iron Into Pipe.
If you whir a string with a weight on the end and then let go, what happens? It flies off at a tangent. This is caused by what is known as centrifugal force; and the same principle is applied to many pipe-casting machines. The hot iron is poured into the machine, and it lands on a whirling steel mold that is properly cooled. The liquid is flung against the sides, juggling, and comes out a perfect pipe. The pipes that are made in this way are of uniform thickness, and, though thin are very strong.—Popular Science Monthly.

SOCIAL ARBITER AT WASHINGTON

Department of State Is Court of Last Resort.

FIXES SEATING OF GUESTS

Takes Big Responsibility Off the Shoulders of Hostess—No One Can Take Offense If His Place Does Not Suit His Idea of Prominence—Washington Social Structure Founded on Its Elaborate Calling System

The department of state is society's court of last resort in the capital.

The burden of responsibility for seating guests in their proper order no longer rests upon the shoulders of Washington's society women.

Those who plan an entertainment for a third guest or other distinguished visitor call up a certain official in the state department and all the details are arranged. The master of ceremonies is Mr. Cook.

For example, the state department approves a dinner and sets a date, but its responsibility does not end there. Within a few days Mrs. Blank sends in her list of guests and Mr. Cook's office arranges the order in which they are to be seated. No question can arise as to the taste of the lady; no one can take offense if his place does not suit his idea of prominence. The state department has seated the guests and its decision is final.

Many "Precedents" Broken. The very lack of rank in society in this country has exaggerated the importance of rank. Precedents have been set by one president and another. Custom and unwritten law have been the causes of many disputes. Nearly every administration brought about new social problems and nearly every president's wife broke some "precedent" by not following exactly the methods of the lady preceding her.

Society at the capital has been somewhat varied and almost chaotic in the Wilson administration. During the war the formality and match of the gayety ceased. The White House, equipped with war and the serious problems of the times, gave little attention to the lighter side. The society women at the capital turned their talents toward war relief and supplementary war work.

The foundation upon which is built the complicated structure of Washington society is the calling system. The newcomers make the first calls, and the women whose husbands hold the lowest offices are expected to pay their respects to the ladies of higher "rank." Some idea as to the proportion reached by social duties can be gained from statistics of cabinet ladies' call galleons. They average between 500 and 1,000 calls.

To classify and simplify their duties, most of the women in Washington have adopted a system of book keeping. Mrs. Roosevelt's social secretary developed this system of books which has been adopted.

Leave Cards at White House. Mrs. Woodrow Wilson does not receive calls, in the ordinary sense of the expression. Women wishing to pay their respects to the present "first lady" call at the White House and leave their cards. Later they may write to Mrs. Wilson's social secretary that they wish to meet her.

At intervals Mrs. Wilson gives in formal teas for about 30 women, which are known as altogether charming affairs. This is her manner of receiving calls.

The foreign visitors to this country in the last year have been received and entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall.

HOW TO DETECT WHALE MEAT

Method Developed in Laboratory Studies in Washington.

A wide range of research work in connection with federal meat inspection is shown by a recent report of the bureau of animal industry. United States department of agriculture. Laboratory studies during the past year developed a method for the detection of whale meat in sausage or other mixtures with animal fats. In co-operation with the bureau of markets the meat-inspection laboratories made studies of the melting point and composition of the fat of soft pork. Other activities were the analyses of spices, branding inks, fat exterminals, waters, and other products used directly or indirectly in connection with meat inspection and the packing industry.

OPEN RICH MICA DEPOSITS

New Mexico Mines, Long Idle, Furnish Foundation for New Industry.

The commercial mica industry, which is just being opened up in New Mexico, promises, it is said, to be one of the most extensive of its kind in the United States.

For years this deposit, which stretches over the eastern and southern portion of Rio Arriba county and extends into Santa Fe county, has lain dormant, but it is now being developed after tests have fully demonstrated that the mica is equal in quality to that produced anywhere else.

Ground mica is used in the manufacture of paints, axle grease, roofing material, wallpaper, tire powder and is an adulterant in rubber, as well as in the manufacture of washers.

To Drill Holes in Glass. By using a combination of turpentine and camphor glass may be drilled with a common drill, says Everyday Engineering. When the leged woes of the proletariat will no longer mean anything to him."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Reflected Glory.

"How would you like to see your wife making a speech from the rear end of a train?" asked the old-fashioned man.

"I wouldn't object," replied the new type of citizen. "I might wear a silk hat and be permitted to introduce her to the assembled multitude."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Grandchild Is Also "Grandma."

New York.—As a result of a daughter being born to her daughter, Mrs. Katherine B. Reddingfield is said to be the only woman in New York who is a granddaughter and a grandmother at the same time. The great-grandmother of the new baby is Mrs. Elizabeth Behren, Brooklyn, who is 89 active, though she has passed her eighty-seventh year.

Fishing Superstitions.

The salmon fisheries of California used to be responsible for a queer custom on the part of the Indians. Every spring they would "dance for salmon." If the fish did not appear with the celebrity deemed appropriate, there would be employed a "wise man" who made an image of a swimming fish which was placed in the water in the hope of attracting live fish to the bait. The Japanese fishermen have the quaint notion that silence must be observed, and even the women left at home are not permitted to talk lest the fish should hear and disapprove. Among the members of the primitive race of Ainus, the first fish caught is brought in through a window instead of a door, so that the other fish "may not see."

Cruel Chinese Custom.

There is a cruel custom which prevails in some districts in South China in time of drought. A large collection of iron locks is made, and each is marked with a Chinese character. One iron lock is added to the pile, and duplicate slips are distributed among the male population of the villages. The unfortunate man whose slip holds the same writing on it as the iron lock must have a slit made in the front of his throat and through this the bar of the iron lock is passed. He is considered to be in some way the cause of the drought and must wear this lock until it rains. Blood poisoning often carries the victim off before the drought is broken.

Effective Remedy.

"Glipping is beginning to talk bolshevism."

"Is there any cure for that sort of thing?"

"Certainly. Give Glipping a tip that will enable him to pick up a few thousand cents in the stock market and the ailment will be cured."

Firestone

Why did sales of Firestone 3 1/2-inch tires average 96% the first six months of this year?

Because the motoring public found in the product exactly what it demanded—a balanced tire—uniform service.

You, multiplied by thousands, getting your most miles per dollar expended for tires. You demonstrated the efficiency of the balanced Firestone.

Firestone built a single plant (Plant No. 2) to specialize in tires for small cars and got results which have been passed on to you at 17 cent—most miles per dollar.

It is more than thickness of tread, the mystery of rubber compounding, the size of the breaker strip, the number of plies of fabric, the heavy cushion or the greater air displacement that has put greater tire mileage—more economy—more comfort at your call.

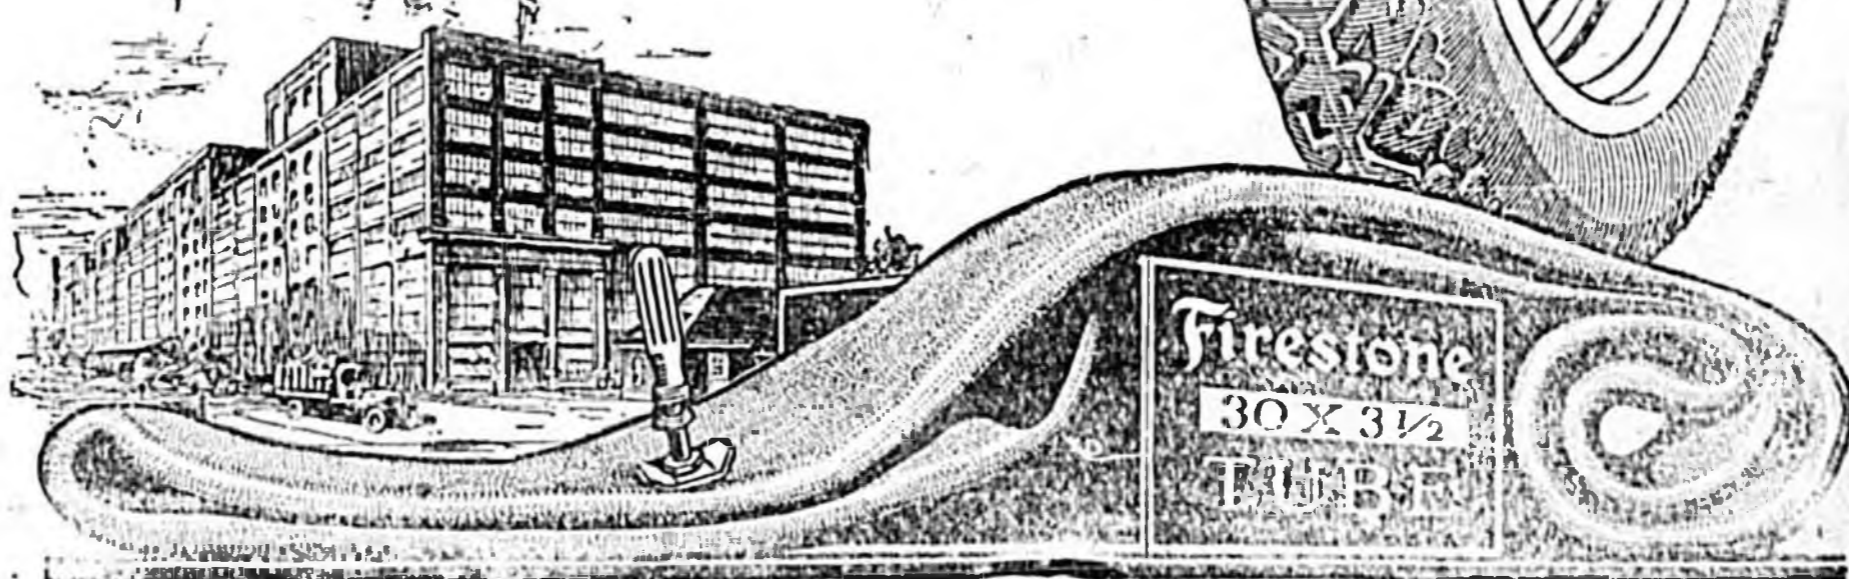

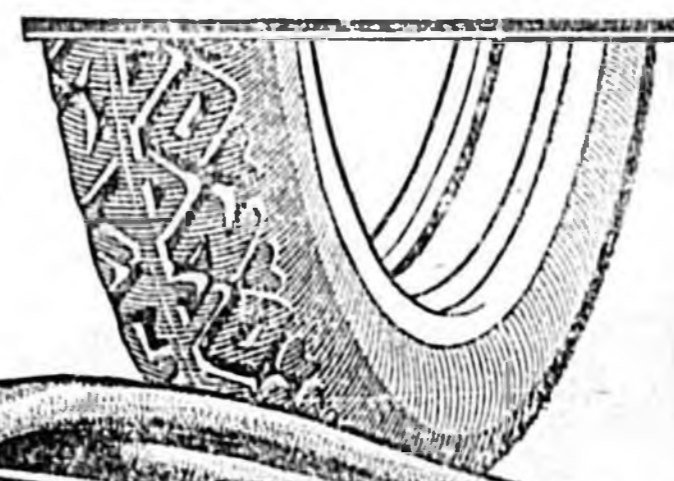

It is the balanced co-ordination of all parts of the Firestone 3 1/2 by specialists who have given eighteen years' study and practice to tire needs. Ask your dealer.

NOT TRUE "WONDER CHILDREN"

"Wonder Children" Merely Intellectually Precocious.

In Most Cases They Are Possessors of an Abnormally Retentive Memory—Do Not Necessarily Die Young.

A few days ago there appeared an account of the doings of Samuel Reschinski, a wonderful chess player, eight years old, who is confounding Berlin with his uncanny knowledge and skill. These "wonder children" always arouse especial interest, and, as many expectations are put forward to account for their apparent genius, there are gloomy forebodings as to their meeting with an early death.

There have been many "wonder children" in the past, and it is strange, though true, that quite a large proportion have lived to the average age.

In recent years there have been a number of child evangelists who have sanctified the world by their eloquence and theology. In the United States a few years ago a boy nine years old attempted to convert the whole country, and when ten years old he was actually appointed minister of a church in North Carolina.

In Great Britain there are records of a child, twelve years old who preached in a Baptist church at Portswear, and a small boy who, at the tender age of three, began preaching to crowded audiences, and continued to do so until well after ten years old.

In the case of such prodigies, their talents consist chiefly in an abnormal, retentive memory and, provided that their temperaments are not emotional, they stand the mental strain exceedingly well, though there is, of course, the danger attached to the excessive physical strain which they frequently undergo.

To this type belong those children who learn rapidly by heart such things as the names, words and numbers of all letters in the ancient and modern languages. It is such children, with a high development of one faculty, who meet their end with early death, and who, in such cases, that old proverb, "The wise die young" find its fulfillment.

But the child chess player in Berlin belongs rather to the type of intellectual precocity, such as the learned child of Lubek, of the early part of the eighteenth century. This child could recite the whole of the Old and New Testaments before he was two years old, and a little later he was an authority on religious history and dogma. He mastered also ancient and modern geography and history and several languages before his death at the age of four years.

A contemporary of this wonderful child was fluent in five languages before he was five, and translated the Hebrew Bible into Latin and French at the age of eight. He survived until he was nineteen.

Historical and clinical evidence are both definite in showing that "wonder children" are no more liable than other children to die young, nor is it found that children who assimilate knowledge readily and retain it show any undue signs of fatigue.

The great point in the case of children marked by special brilliance is to avoid any attempt at making the brilliance apply to everything, for in so doing the existing brilliance in the one special direction may tend to disappear. In the same way those who are intellectually brilliant must not be forced to become industrious in a practical way, for such interference invariably brings on over-strain and breakdown.

How's This, "Pedestrians"?

It was an toky black night and we were riding along a country road, when we saw a railroad crossing ahead. We stopped about a hundred feet from the tracks and peered through the brush and trees that lined the road. There up the track we saw a light moving toward us. The driver wished to move on, but I, being very nervous, objected loudly, so we waited at least five minutes. The light kept drawing nearer, but the driver in disgust insisted upon crossing, saying it was probably a slow freight. But again I shrieked loudly, for I knew train lights were so deceiving at night and it must be nearly upon us by now. We continued waiting in the darkness for the train to pass, and as the light drew nearer we discovered our locomotive to be nothing more than a man coming down the track with a lantern.—Chicago Tribune.

The "Lion D'Arras."

A Paris dispatch announces the disappearance of one of the last of the war newspapers—the Lion d'Arras. These war news sheets, which did so much to cheer and encourage the inhabitants of the stricken towns and countryside, will be looked upon in the future as one of the most interesting products of the war years. The Lion d'Arras appeared in the city at a time when the enemy was within a few hundred yards from the walls. The founder of the paper was the Abbe Germain, who continued its editor during the 17 weeks of its existence.

BEAUTIFUL ISLE IS TOBAGO

Crusoe's Famous Abode, in the Caribbean, Described as a Place of Many Attractions.

Tobago, the scene of Robinson Crusoe's story, is, at the one time, residence of John J. Jones, is an island of surpassing beauty, nestled in the Caribbean Sea. Its stormy history is without parallel. The island is a point of the West Indies. Its first name was "Tobago" and it was named by Christopher Columbus. It was discovered by the Dutch and savage Caribs and often deserted for scores of years at a time. The Detroit News reveals the justice of Tobago's claim to be called Crusoe's Island. It is the most beautiful of the West Indies. The fact is that, as Alexander Selkirk in real life, he was marooned as a rebel on a desolate island. The natives were friendly to the crew in which he dwelt, and from another isle came the waterway that parted forth across the waters of the Gulf of Guayaquil, to which he refers, and see the faint outlines of the "Island of Trinidad" as stated in his story. Wonderfully varied and beautiful is Tobago and the visitor is inclined to wonder why Crusoe ever deserted it. Its coast line has crescent and beaches bordering sheltered coves; outlying verdure-draped rocky islets and wooded bays; surf-washed reefs protecting secluded lagoons. Everywhere wonderfully luxuriant vegetation covers the land. It has a delightful climate, there are no snakes, and it would be an ideal winter resort if its attractiveness were known. There is one village of 3,000 people on the island.

APPLY NAMED "MOLTEN SEA"

High Priests' Swimming Pool in Solomon's Temple Most Wonderful "Tub" Ever Constructed.

How many persons ponder, while "tubbing" in the midst of modern conveniences, on how the rest of the world performs this same act of personal cleanliness? The stolen pleasures of the "old swimmin' hole," the wooden tub in the kitchen surrounded by that questionable curtain of privacy—a sheet over the clothes horse—a real sea bath or swim in a "gym" pool have been the stepping stones of progression for most of us to the modern conveniences.

This bathing idea started with Bible folk, who built the most wonderful swimming pool the world has ever seen in Solomon's temple. This "molten sea" measured ten cubits from beam to beam, five cubits in height and was round in compass; the thickness was a hand's breadth, and the brim, shaped like that of a teneup, was curved with fillets and leaves. The immense basin was borne aloft by 12 carved oxen, three each facing north, south, east and west. The pool received and held 3,000 bathers at one time and was designed for and used by high priests, there being 20,000 baths of wine and the same number of oil provided for the laymen.—Indianaapolis Star.

Beautiful St. Sophia.

St. Sophia's church at Constantinople is one of the most remarkable buildings in the world. In architectural features the structure has a 107-foot dome carried on four pillars, one at each corner, and composed of light pumice stone, with the apex 175 feet above the floor.

So extraordinary is the appearance of the church that the awe-stricken Sultan Mohammed is reported as having stopped at the door when the building was taken over by the Moslems and, seeing a soldier bowing at the floor "For the faith," exclaimed, "ye have the whole city to pillage and enslave; leave ye me the buildings!" The Mohammedans have never destroyed the treasures of art they found upon taking Constantinople, but have covered them up. They have preserved whole cisterns or cistars full of priceless manuscripts of Greek and Byzantine literature, and writings belonging to the early part of the Gospel age.

ELDER SPRINGS WATER

THOMAS D. BAKER, Ph. D.
Analytical and Consulting Chemist - Professional of Natural Science
Emeritus, Rollins College, Florida

Mr. T. O. Charles
Sanford, Fla.
Dear Sir: I have completed careful chemical analysis of the sample of water you brought me early last week, and have obtained the following results:

Color..... Clear Chlorine..... 1.75 parts per million
Reaction..... Neutral Total solids..... 3.00 parts per million
Free Ammonia..... 20 parts per million Hydroxide..... 2.00 parts per million
Albuminoid Ammonia..... Trace Nitrate..... Trace

The absence practically of free and albuminoid ammonia in this water and its very small amount of chlorine indicate its excellent quality for household purposes. In addition to the good quality characteristics of superior household water, it possesses special features of much value, especially those of excellent water aeration and LOW degree of hardness.

The bacteriological analysis, resulting in an average total count, in four samples of the water, of 2 bacteria per cent, and in finding no coliform or other harmful bacteria, fully confirm its good quality indicated by the CHEMICAL analysis.

Of the many waters of this and other regions that I have analyzed, I have found none superior in all good qualities to that of the "Elder Water."
Yours very respectfully,
(Signed) THOMAS D. BAKER

What's done as much as anything else to fill up the movie houses

LOOK at the crowds that step out of their cars in front of the movies every summer evening.

The movie managers would be renting half of their theatres for store space, if it weren't for the automobile.

It is typical of Americans that they took to the automobile as a matter of course—just as they have to the movies and to every other great invention of the last half century.

And the same thing has happened everytime. Taking things as they come is a fine way to foster waste and extravagance.

As regards tires, the comeback is about due. People are pretty near through paying for something that isn't there when they look for it.

What a man pays for in a tire is quality—not a limited number of miles or the privilege of getting a rebate in case the miles don't come up to the limit.

U. S. Tires are guaranteed as to quality—with no limitation of mileage.

And that holds just as good for the small car tire as for the biggest U. S. Tire we've got. There's only one standard of quality with U. S.—and the size of the car has nothing whatever to do with it.

We represent U. S. Tires in this town. You'll find it worth while to talk to us before you buy any more tires.

DAVIS ANSWERS "LARRY"

The following from "Red" Davis, of the Jacksonville Times-Union, and former sporting editor of The Herald, is a reply to "Larry," the sporting editor of the Orlando Sentinel, and will be interesting to the fans:

To "Larry," of the Orlando Sentinel: Larry, old boy, I only know you by sight for I have never had the pleasure of meeting you in person. In those days when Sanford and Orlando were playing ball together it was a crime for a Sanford man to shake hands with a gentleman from Orlando. And many times I thought of you and your position on the Sentinel. You used to sit in a few thousand dollar machine and I was only able to score the game from a Ford. But just the same, those days of scoring games were far different from the scoring of today. In those days you and I used to count nothing but home runs and three baggers as a legitimate hit. I remember one time when Jim Moor, playing centerfield for Orlando, broke his leg trying to get a ball that Third Baseman Crow, of the Sanford club, had hit. You, if I remember very well, gave Moor an error on the play while I saw fit to give a hit on the same play.

"Larry," your suggestion about me asking President Rose for a job as umpire is absurd. I would not umpire in the Florida State League if the president gave me $500 a month and a beautiful home on Orange avenue to live in. I carry very little insurance and can't see why as an umpire I should forfeit my life for the sake of a job on President Rose's efficient staff of umpires. If you want an umpire tell Walter Rose that. Bob Holly knows the game from A to Z, and there are Glenn and Essington, who don't care much for their lives. Let them go out and call them. Could also, refer you to Thomson, over at Perry. He owns a newspaper and would gladly sell out just to umpire in your league. Then to make the closing short, why don't you take the job yourself? I know positively that you were not blind in 1916. And in 1920 you may still have just as good eyesight. Well, Larry, good luck to you and your Orlando Caps, but be sure to watch those Sanford Celery Feds. For when "Old Man" Spencer turns loose, its good night.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mrs. E. P. Morse announces the engagement of Miss Lucila Garcia to Mr. Harold Washburn, the wedding to take place in October.

CLEVELAND'S SHARE.

The state of Connecticut has done her share in furnishing the Sanford club with good ball players this season, and we have quite a few of good ones here right now that hail from up there, but at that, Cleveland has been there with the goods.

Teske and Lavity both come from Cleveland and we will leave it to any of the "base ball bugs" of this burg of ours if they are not just as good a pair of ball tossers that have struck this town of ours in some time.

Wednesday's game with Dayton in which Sanford played eleven innings and ended a 2-2 tie on account of darkness, marked the eleventh game in which Teske pitched and his record to date shows that he won six out of these eleven, lost four and tied one. And the very noticeable part of these games that he has lost is that even though he was given credit for a loss, he was not the man that did it. The first game that he lost was with Lakeland, 4-2. The records show that he gave up but four hits, but the club made three errors behind him, all costly ones. Two of these errors were made by Inmann.

The opening game of the second half was lost with Teske pitching and again we claim he was not responsible. The score was 4-2 again and the team was Daytona. Teske gave up six hits and again there were three errors behind him, two of which were costly.

The only game that stands out black against Teske's record was the one he started to work in Tampa after getting over a several days' sick spell. He allowed eight hits and six runs in one-third of an inning.

The fourth game lost was with Tampa last week, the first game of a double header. He gave out but four hits and the three errors made behind him counted for Tampa's three runs. The score was 3-1.

Teske has figured in quite a few extra inning games and pitched the last half of the sixteen inning game at St. Pete. At no time has he been knocked out of the box, with the exception of the one game in Tampa.

And Lavity—well, every one that has seen a ball game since that boy arrived here knows that he was in the game. He has played in thirty-six games to date, and has started it quite a few. In one game he figured in five double plays, three of which were unassisted.

And we, therefore, can't help but claim that Cleveland has done her share in furnishing us these two boys, and the way both have gone since arriving here makes us feel that there is not the least doubt about them going to a faster company next season.

Anyway, if they don't go to the bigger show, here's hoping that Sanford will be fortunate enough to have them with us again.

DEMONSTRATED THE MOLINE.

Bell Brothers, of Lake Monroe, are the agents for the famous Moline Tractor and they made a demonstration at the Dutton Farms, on the west side, last week that was a revelation to all those who saw it. The Moline was out there to prove that the corn stalks and heavy grass and hay can be turned under in the fall by the Moline without any trouble, and the way this tractor accomplished the work made it a favorite with the farmers right now. See the Moline advertisements in The Herald each and every Bell Brothers for a demonstration.

FREAK IN TREES.

Capt. Stafford brought a block of white bay wood to The Herald office this week that is a freak of nature. The white bay block has poplar all through the middle of it, showing the brown streaks very plainly, and experts have pronounced it poplar without a doubt. The white bay is being cut along the St. Johns river and this big tree happened to have the poplar all through it, which was called to the attention of Capt. Stafford, and he brought it to The Herald office as a curiosity.

WON TWO LOST ONE TIED ONE

Wednesday, August 11.—This past week for the Sanford fans has been a week just like the weeks in times gone by. Just like one of the weeks of last season and just like one of the weeks of 1916, at which time Sanford had a pennant-winning club.

The editors about the circuit, the Sanford "critics," and the curb stone artists, have now all joined together and said, "Well, I guess them Feds ain't going some."

Friday those chesty Caps, representing the city of Orlando, were here to spend the day and the way in which those Caps spent the day will go down in history as "one bad day" for the Orlando club.

Teske, the little "iron-arm" blond of ours, was on the mound for the Feds, and he had Big Jim Black for his opponent. And as far as base ball games go, this one was a beauty. For eleven long innings Teske had the entire tribe of Caps eating out of his hand. And we must say this much for Black, he kept the Feds eating some themselves. Teske gave up but six hits, while Black gave up ten well scattered ones.

In the very first inning Sanford tied once and the Caps did likewise in the fifth. After that the scoring was over until Sanford's half of the eleventh, at which time this same old "Iron-Arm" Teske of ours hit out a pretty single to left. Manager Burke then proceeded to end things by driving one so far into centerfield that Teske scored from first.

Next day, however, Sanford in the Caps' back yard, did the same thing over again, battling eleven more long innings, to the same score, this time Orlando on the big end. Smith, our new man from Daytona, did the twirling for the Feds and Valentine started the game for Orlando. Valentine threw his arm out in the sixth and Big Jim Black again took hold of things and held the Feds at his mercy the rest of the way.

Orlando scored first in this game, in the seventh inning and the Feds proceeded to tie it up in the eighth. No more runs then until the eleventh, at which time Manager Donnelly of the Caps, duplicated Manager Burke's stunt of the day before and drove one into centerfield far enough to score a man from second base.

We are somewhat glad that Orlando got away with this game, because to beat that club all the time would mean that interest would lag somewhat, and we do not want that to happen.

Monday Bradentown was to have played in Sanford but rain broke things up in the third with the 1 to 0 in favor of Sanford with Herlong pitching.

A double-header was started the next day (Tuesday) with Boswell pitching for Sanford and Drake for Bradentown. Rain broke the game up again, with Sanford at the long end of a 5 to 1 score in the seventh inning. The second game was called off on account of wet grounds.

Today the Feds played the strong lunch at Daytona and again they battled eleven innings, the game having to be called with the score 2 to 2 or the mound for this game and he out-pitched Bennett, Daytona's best bet.

Tomorrow (Thursday) Sanford will play a double bill at Daytona with Daytona, and Smith will more than likely be the one to start things.

The Feds come home to play two double headers with Bartow Friday and Saturday.

"RED" DAVIS AGAIN.

We are in receipt of a neat little article written by "Red" Davis, the writer of "Amateur Dope," in the Times-Union in Jacksonville, and it is with regret that we find that we have not the space to copy it this week.

"Red" wrote the dope for the sporting page of The Sanford Herald in 1916, and has never forgotten the good old days that we romped on the bunch from Orlando.

In his story he recalls the day we went to Orlando and beat Decatur with an outfielder pitching for us. He tells all about the time that a "rough neck" fan ran out into the field and started to heat up our man "Lefty" Robinson. He remembers the way the Orlando fans focused their wind shields and flashlight beams in the Sanford players' eyes, and he will never forget the way Sanford always got away with the big end of the score.

We are afraid that "Red" would not enjoy the games between Sanford and Orlando now. The series between these two towns has gotten to be somewhat one-sided and, of course, Sanford is again on the big per side.

Anyway, come see us some time, "Red." Come down and watch us beat Tampa next time they come to town.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holly, of The Herald, and R. B. Brassiere and Miss Price, of the Orlando Reporter-Star attended a meeting of the publishers at Daytona Beach yesterday.

O. L. Stuart and wife of Bradentown, were in the city yesterday, stopping over for the night in an auto trip they are making over the state.

And we play Bartow today. Good luck.

What is more pleasant than a day in August in Florida?

Have you noted by the very feel of things that Sanford is growing?

Rainy weather? Yes, but the finest weather in the world at that.

We just can't see that state bond issue for roads from any angle.

Sanford farmers are coming back from their vacations and putting in their seed beds for another money crop.

All we need is a strong stand together, co-operation of all the business interests and a big boost for the Board of Trade.

We need more co-operation among the farmers, among the business men, among the churches, among the lodges, among all the people of this city and county. One for all and all for one.

If that paper mill of Gilbert Leach's don't hurry up and start soon the world will have to cease publication for lack of paper. This old thing of running a newspaper without the paper is worse than printing in the good old days when money was scarce.

The Board of Directors of the CRANKLESS ENGINE COMPANY have announced that the shares in the Company will advance in price from $11 to $12 per share on FRIDAY, AUGUST 20th
Several types of gas and steam engines now being built in the Company's plant at Jacksonville are nearing completion, while at Orlando the powerful gas engine now being built at the Efficiency Engineering Co.'s plant, under the supervision of the president of the Crankless Engine Co., Mr. P. L. Billingsley, will in a few weeks be pulling a Studebaker chassis that is waiting for it, out of that city.
A good many first-class mechanical engineers have passed on this engine and have pronounced it mechanically sound. A number of them state that in their opinion it will eventually supersede all present types of engines.
On the strength of what they already know of the performances of this engine, its certain saving of gas, lubricating oils, manufactured cost, upkeep, etc., shrewd investors are today buying shares in this company while the price is still low.
As the representatives of the company are each covering a large territory, it is advisable that you write the Company at Jacksonville at once if you wish one of them to call on you before the price advances, August 20.

Indigestion
Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which griped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."
Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

Kava in a New Way.
The national beverage of the Samoan islanders is "kava," obtained from the dried fruit of a plant known to the botanist as Piper methysticum. The classic method of its preparation was by chewing. Water was added, and, after straining, the stuff was ready to drink. Missionaries convinced the natives that this method did not accord with the best social customs, and so nowadays they grind the kava root in a stone mortar with a stone pestle. To any unaccustomed person kava tastes rather like soap-suds, though some say it has a flavor of varnish. Many Americans, however, having acquired a liking for it, drink it by the gallon. But the native way of preparing it is too slow for them and they prefer to use a meat grinder.

Apples as Trouble Makers
One day the Austrians made Wilhelm Tell shoot an apple off his son's head. Bill, who was never the man to be made nervous by a hazard, hohled it in 1, to the great disappointment of the Austrians, who were expecting him to fizzle and hit the caddy. The modern apple has proved no less of a trouble maker. Recollect the big red ones you left on the teacher's desk? What a poor investment they generally proved to be when the marks came at the end of the month!—Kansas City Star.

Captivity Shortens Lives of Animals.
Statistics tend to prove that the lives of wild beasts in captivity are much shorter than the lives of those which are at liberty, especially in the case of exotic beasts. The tiger and lion in captivity do not live more than seven or eight years, lions a little longer, hyenas five or six years, and the brown bear seven or eight, although they often reach 20 when at liberty. In captivity the white bear reaches only four or five years, and the elephant, which often attains 100 when at liberty, lives only 25 to 30 years.

To Keep Thread From Knotting.
A simple way to keep silk threads from knotting and breaking in machine sewing is to dampen the eye of the needle. This allows the thread to go through the eye with much less strain.

Accounting for Old Legends.
It was over the Bahama islands that old Ponce de Leon ranged in 1513 searching for his fountain of eternal youth before he discovered Florida which also was called Bimini by the Indians. The British commissioner in Bimini has another theory about the fountain legend. He says that the crew of Ponce's ship were nearly famished when they landed. The first thing they found to eat was conch. This is a shell-fish with solid white flesh which has a remarkably invigorating effect on the human constitution. It literally makes one feel young again.

CHINA HAS NEW WRITING SYSTEM

May Transform the Celestial Into United Nation.

REMOVES ONE BIG HANDICAP

Written Language Being Simplified and the Government is Strongly Urging General Use of New System—Great Drawback to the Development of National Spirit is Overcome—Old System Had 6,000 Characters.

Of the barriers to national self-consciousness in China, not the least formidable is the barrier of the Chinese written language. We can readily understand from phenomena daily observed in our midst how great a handicap to the development of a national spirit in China are the poor communications, the decentralization of the functions of its government and the deep-rootedness of its localisms. But in China, in addition to the poor communication between its component provinces and a relatively weak central government, there has existed from time immemorial, to work against the spirit of nationalism, the handicap of a written language that is symbolical instead of alphabetical.

The extent to which the symbolism of its written language has hindered the arousing of a Chinese national spirit is revealed by a Chinese writer in a recent issue of the Far Eastern Republic, says the Boston Transcript. Western civilization early developed a written language of the type known as alphabetical; China, in common with India and other Asiatic nations, developed her language along symbolical lines. Symbolical written language permits the creation of a great literature.

Of the Chinese Masterpieces. In perfection of style, in power of delicate expression, in artistic charm, the symbolical language used in the Chinese masterpieces yields in no respect to the alphabetical language used in the literature of the Western people, from the days of the classic models of Greece and Rome. The essence of the Chinese written language is the "radical" or root symbol. For example, zoological objects possess a zoological character as their key symbol; botanical objects a botanical character, etc. By this arrangement shades of meaning infinite in number become possible, together with the creation of a literature extraordinarily plastic. The Chinese system, however, has produced an extraordinarily large vocabulary. For ordinary purposes a knowledge is necessary of some 6,000 characters. To learn these requires at least eight years of study.

The symbolic character of its written language has brought with it a vast quantity of provincial dialects. The language of a man in Peking may be utterly unintelligible to his compatriot in Canton. Even the most widely used dialect is understood in but 15 provinces.

New System for China.
 The peculiar nature of the written language makes impossible the use of a telephone directory, as no alphabetical arrangement of words is possible. It puts herculean difficulties in the way of the use of the printing press. It makes the sending of telegrams a labor of hours, as each character is numbered from one to 44,000; a telegram must be deciphered like a code. A typewriter is hopelessly out of the question.

GUAM LEADS EASY LIFE

Small Island in Mid-Pacific Not Worried by High Prices.

Guam, a small island in mid-Pacific, has no peace treaties or policies, no candidates or elections, no income taxes or poorhouses and high prices cause no worry. Added to this is a good American government.

Land is fertile and the sun works overtime for Guam. The 15,000 natives exact a living from the soil with a minimum of effort, raising enough only for their own needs. The internal government has a fish, meat and vegetable market where produce grown on the government farm is sold.

The government passed a labor law, compelling every able-bodied man to cultivate a bit of land, when war and a destructive typhoon came. The natives didn't object, but worked in groups so they could talk. In a year there were just five cases for charity.

Guam youngsters have it easy, as school sessions are only half a day, and there aren't enough teachers. School ages are from seven to twelve.

PHONES AT MILE POSTS

Plan to Install Public Pay Stations on Ohio Highways.

The proposal that public telephone pay stations be installed along Ohio's highways has been made at Columbus.

The suggestion was made by City Councilman Milton W. Westlake. Westlake will urge the telephone companies to cooperate in putting up pay stations. The proposal that a telephone be installed at each mile post. Then, in the event of a breakdown, a blowout, or other trouble, the traveler would be not more than half a mile from a telephone.

PLANT TREES ON SOIL WHERE YANKEES DIED

French Reforesting Devastated Districts With Seed From United States.

On the battlefields where American soldiers gave their lives when the call from humanity came, France is planting trees sent by the American Forestry association.

Expressing the gratitude of the minister of agriculture of France, Ambassador Jusserand reported to the American Forestry association the first steps taken to care for the seeds which the association shipped to France from Boston January 15 to help in reforesting the battle areas. Upon arriving at Havre the seeds were sent to the central warehouse of the forest school at Nogent sur Vernisson, Lolret. In his report to the American Forestry association, Ambassador Jusserand said:

"Most of the seeds of Douglas fir will be sent to the departments of the Aisne, Oise, Ardennes and Somme, for the reforestation of the regions devastated by war. The seeds of the leafy trees, such as oak, ash and poplar, will be sown this spring in the nurseries of the same school and that at Nancy. The minister adds an expression of his desire that his feelings of deep gratitude and those of the administration of waters and forests be conveyed to the American Forestry association."

"Thus in the years to come," said Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Forestry association, "America will have the finest of all memorials on the battlefields where her sons answered the call of humanity—the living, growing trees of America."

LOSES HIS $15,000 FLAT

Business at Last Claims Building in Financial District.

The New York curb market is only a blur of red caps and black to the feeble eyes of the old man who sits all day at the window behind the old-fashioned Nottingham lace curtains at 62 Broad street.

Hiram Hildebrandt is ninety-two years old, and long has ceased to take any interest in the turmoil of the great financial world that seethes at his feet. Business, which by some mischance had spared the little building all these years, now has claimed it for her own, and the Hildebrandts must move.

For all these residential advantages (to say nothing of the financial possibilities of the location) the Hildebrandts have been paying the astonishing sum of $10 a month. They have six large rooms and a glass covered court that makes an excellent clothes yard.

Hiram Hildebrandt rented the flat fifty years ago from Mayor Gunther. When the property passed into the hands of the Stevens estate Mr. Hildebrandt was retained as landlord, and so the rent never was raised.

The Hildebrandts were paying for 2,000 square feet, or what would command a rental of $15,000. Instead they paid $10.

L. L. Whickelmann, a broker, recently became the owner of the $10 flat. When altered the property will be worth about $100,000.

SAYS HE'S NOT DEAD

Nebraska Youth Appears During Progress of His Funeral.

While his parents were attending his "funeral" in Johnston, Neb., Dewey Kinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kinney, walked into the police headquarters, in Sioux City, Iowa, and declared that he was not dead. Kinney was reported shot and killed in a hold-up in South Sioux City, Neb., several days ago.

The body of a man believed to be Kinney was declared that of Sam Corlensky, pal of a bandit suspect held in the city hall in Sioux City, Ia. The suspect declared Corlensky was accidentally shot.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinney came from Johnston cemetery to Sioux City to meet their son. He is being held in jail as a material witness in the case against the bandit suspect.

He said he did not know he had been reported dead until he read a story of his supposed death in a newspaper in Nebraska.

PETAINE IS DEMOCRATIC

Refuses to Use Government Auto When Off Duty.

Marshal Petain is noted for his democratic habits and a story is just being told of him which illustrates this point, while it brings into relief the way motor transportation was used by many American officers in France, says the Stars and Stripes.

The marshal was met in the Metro recently by Senator Strauss of the Seine, who asked the marshal if his motor was broken down that he was riding in the Metro.

"My car," the marshal replied, "is intended for government service. When I go out on my own account I take a public conveyance in order to save gasoline and tires."

Union Miners Must Be Americans.

A foreigner hereafter must become a citizen of the United States before he is entitled to membership in the United Mine Workers of Ohio, according to a law enacted by the organization.
