BATON ROUGE, La. June 3 (AP)—The Senate Finance Committee, which already has sheared the nickel beer tax, yesterday took up Governor Earl K. Long's sales, gas gathering and severance taxes.

In the House, final passage is expected on an appropriation of $25,000,000 to start the old gas assistance program.

Yesterday the Senate Finance Committee trimmed the proposed nickel-a-bottle beer levy to 2 1/2 cents, before voting approval.

The group accepted an amendment offered by Senator Louis A. Mahoney of New Orleans. His amendment called for changing the tax from five cents a bottle to 3 1/2 cents a bottle. He said this makes it about 2 1/2 cents a bottle.

The Rev. A. C. Lawton, director of the Louisiana Moral and Civic Foundation, offered support for the beer tax bill.

He quoted from the brewers' trade publication to show that wartime sales of beer were a "sales honeymoon."

"Seems like a man ought to pay for his honeymoon," he said. "If they enjoyed the party, let them pay the fiddler."

However, state CIO Director Fred Pieper paced the fight against the beer tax.

He told the finance committee the tax has "no justification from any point of view."

"But if, in your judgment," he added, "this commodity must be taxed then it should be a reasonable tax, not one that is to be passed on to the working people who consume 95 per cent of the beer in Louisiana."

Leading an attack against the gasoline tax bill, J. V. Koch, of the American Automobile Association, and Highway Users Conference.

He said the measure is not necessary, that the state will have available $175,000,000 for a roads program from present revenues for the next two fiscal years.

U. S. Occupied Korea Proceeds With Plans

SEOUL, June 3 (AP)—American-occupied South Korea and Russian-occupied North Korea are going ahead with plans for independent governments.

Both probably will purport to represent the entire nation.

South Korea installed its new assembly four days ago.

The Soviet puppet government of North Korea is busy felling about a proposed constitution for the "Korean Democratic People's Republic."

The U. S. army today released the transcript of a broadcast from the Pyongyang, North Korea, radio. The broadcast said article three provides all residents over 20 except pro-Japanese can vote or run for office. It added:

"Such a Democratic election can never be carried out in South Korea where American imperialists and reactionary elements exclusively control all political power."

The United States sponsored the May 10 assembly election in its zone—Russia boycotted it—under United Nations supervision. Nevertheless, Chairman Stephen Rhee said the members don't like the idea of getting suggestions from the U. S. military command.

JAP CIVIL RIGHTS

TOKYO June 3 (AP)—American civil rights henceforth will be accorded Japanese and foreign nationals charged before U. S. Army provost courts. Eighth Army headquarters announced yesterday each accused may be allowed freedom on bail, subject to the court's discretion, and will be assigned an American lawyer if unable to retain an attorney himself.

More Gold Is Found In Manhattan Than In Fabulous West

By HAL HOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—More gold diggers have struck it rich in Manhattan than all the mining prospectors in the fabulous West.

But there is also a quiet and unglamorous quest for gold that goes on here constantly—and nets about $500,000 a year.

These prosaic treasure seekers are the men who have the job of recovering the fragmentary particles of gold lost by 600 New York City firms in the manufacture of precious metal jewelry.

There is an old saying that gold is where you find it. This is particularly true of these indoor prospectors. They have found it in the air, in wash water, and by putting a vacuum cleaner to the hair of women jewelry workers.

These minute specks of gold also lodge in the clothing of workmen, in shoes, tools, work benches, chairs and floor cracks.

It's worth the cost of the treasure hunt to regain them. They add up to big money.

"We recover about $50,000 annually in gold from such sources," said W. Waters Schwab, president of J. H. Wood & Sons, the nation's largest wedding ring manufacturing firm.

In its 24-year history this firm has introduced many methods of gold recovery now typical in the precious metal jewelry industry, which centers here.

The largest amount is probably recovered simply by burning floor sweepings and refining the bits of gold that have fallen from work benches.

Many firms now also supply aprons to their expert workmen and require them to be worn. The company launders the aprons itself. The water goes through a settling tank as does the water from special basins in which the workmen must also wash their hands each night before leaving the plant.

This prevents the waste of gold which accidentally stuck to the workmen's clothing and hands.

Jewelry manufacturers long suspected their workmen had hidden karat air. Introduction of a special type filter to trap microscopic particles of gold floating in the air confirmed this to an amazing degree.

In a single department where gold is worked as much as $10,000 can be salvaged in a single year," Schwab said.

How to get back the tiny gold waste that stuck to the shoes of workmen? There wasn't enough to make it worth while burning everybody's shoes each night. And

Boy Accidentally Is Hung In Experiment

JOINTOWN, Pa. June 3 (AP)—A comic book "Lesson in Murder" and 14-year-old Richard "Dick" Watkins his life Tuesday night, Cambria county coroner Joseph Goveckar said.

Goveckar said Dick remained name at his home while his parents attended Junior High School exercises for his sister, Betty, 15.

Dick had told his parents he would rather stay home and read his new comic book.

When the family came home, the father, Elvis Watkins, went to Dick's room to tell him good-night. He found Dick dead, hanging from a clothes line over a hot water heating pipe on the ceiling.

A comic book on the boy's bed lay open to a page showing the hanging of a bandit, with the caption, "A Lesson in Murder."

"The ladies stood on their dignity and objected," Schwab laughed. "They insisted they wash their own hair or be taken to a first class beauty parlor—free."

So beauty and industry came to a compromise. The management put away the vacuum cleaners—and the ladies agreed to work with their hair tightly bound in kerchiefs.

It didn't seem quite crick to suggest they work barefooted.

The problem was solved by putting down a floor covering softer than leather shoes. Then the gold stuck to the floor instead of becoming imbedded in the workers' shoes and carried out of the building. When the floor covering becomes worn, it is taken up and burned to salvage the yellow metal.

For a time a number of plants recovered considerable gold dust—and perhaps dandruff, too—by vacuuming the hair of women employees. This practice is now obsolete.

Governors Folsom, Gibson Are Hit For Using Military Craft

WASHINGTON June 3 (AP)—Use of National Guard planes by Governors Ernest W. Gibson of Vermont and James E. Folsom of Alabama was criticized yesterday by the House Appropriations Committee.

In a report to the House, the committee questioned a flight by Folsom from Alabama to the West coast and one by Gibson from Vermont to Salt Lake City, Utah, and return.

The report showed that during hearings on the Military Functions Appropriations Bill for the year beginning July 1, Chairman Scrivener (R-Kan.) of a subcommittee questioned Maj. General Kenneth F. Cramer, chief of the National Guard Bureau, about the legality of the use of the planes by governors except on National Guard business.

Replying to a set of questions Scrivener had sent him in advance, Cramer explained that planes are assigned to the states for use of the National Guard; that governors are commanded in chief of the air units assigned their states and are authorized to use equipment.

"Is there any language in the law which authorizes any state official to utilize such planes for his own convenience or for the transportation of himself on any official business or for any purpose not directly connected with the business, of or connected with the National Guard?" Scrivener asked.

"Governors, adjutants general, and state officials may not utilize National Guard aircraft for their own convenience," Cramer replied, but added "governors, adjutants general, and state officials may utilize National Guard aircraft on national or state business" under certain conditions.

Cramer said the Guard Bureau was not aware that planes have been used by governors for their own use except in the cases of Folsom and Gibson.

"It is to be noted," Cramer said, "that Governor Gibson was authorized a flight from Vermont to Salt Lake City, Utah, and return." Cramer did not explain the purpose of the flight or under what regulation it was authorized.

GI And French Girl Are Aided By Cupid

NEW YORK June 3 (AP)—Cupid in heavy-tinted glasses, carrying $500, made life happy yesterday for a French bride-to-be and GI fiance.

The blonde French girl, Gergette Bertrand, 21, arrived on the liner Queen Elizabeth last Thursday.

Her fiance, Pfc Graydon Morfit, of Houston, Tex., and stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C., did not arrive in time to meet her, and she was sent to Ellis Island.

Morfit arrived Sunday, but didn't have the $500 bond for Gergette's release.

Three Mighty Important Ideas

Maybe you read where a great encyclopedia has sorted all basic ideas into a few select groups. Under the letter "T" they have:

Temperance - Truth - Tyranny.

Bounds like a funny combination. And in philosophy a little, notice that Truth is in the center—between Tyranny and Temperance.

Now and then you hear folks criticize temperate people who enjoy a moderate glass of beer... who talk about "two beers" getting some one into trouble, and claim: "There ought to be a law!"

Then Truth steps in between, and points out that two beers never got anybody into trouble—and that somebody's trying to distort the facts. No, there shouldn't be a law—there should be Truth.

From where I sit, those Ideas are arranged just right. Temperance on one side, Tyranny on the other—and Truth in the middle—seeing that Tyranny never encroaches upon Temperance.

House Republicans Join Democrats In Fighting ERP Cut

Marshall Says Slash Would Turn Foreign Aid Program Into Mere Relief Project

WASHINGTON, June 4, (AP)—A group of House Republicans decided informally today to join Democrats in fighting cuts in the foreign aid bill.

The House Appropriations Committee has recommended a slash of $533,000,000 in the multi-billion dollar aid measure.

Secretary of State Marshall declared such a cut would turn the European Recovery Program into a "mere relief" project.

Rep. Dirksen (R-Ill.) told newsmen he will offer amendments to restore the committee's cuts. Dirksen said a "substantial bloc" of Republicans has agreed to support him. He did not say how many.

House Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas previously had announced that Democrats would oppose the cuts.

Dirksen made his announcement as the House prepared to take up the bill. Leaders aimed for final action by midnight.

Marshall authorized this direct quotation at a news conference. "The reduction proposed would, I consider, alter the European program from one of reconstruction to one of mere relief."

Marshall spoke as the House headed into a bitter fight over the proposed slash in funds.

The Secretary said in response to a question that if the cut which was recommended yesterday by the House Appropriations Committee is confirmed by Congress, it will have a most serious effect on the political situation in Europe.

He was reminded that a year ago he had said that the European program was "a mere relief project."

CIO Official Says Taft-Hartley Act Repeal Is Needed

CIO Counsel Claims Employers Use Law To Hinder Unions

WASHINGTON, June 4, (AP)—A CIO official said today the Taft-Hartley Law "is bad for business, for labor and for the public—it should be repealed."

Arthur J. Goldberg, general CIO counsel, testified before the joint congressional Labor-Management Committee. He said the law "has turned the clock back on progress in the field of industrial relations."

Goldberg was the final witness in a week of hearings on proposals to amend the act governing labor relations. Chairman Ball (R-Minn.) has said no changes in the law are expected this session.

"The law's passage was a tremendous mistake," Goldberg said, "and its repeal will enormously benefit not only the 60,000,000 wage earners of this country but our entire people."

Goldberg said employers are using the law to hamper union activities, although they are not "exploiting to the full the act's anti-union potentialities."

T. A. Johnstone, assistant director of the UAW-CIO's General Motors department, said the Taft-Hartley law has kept workers from getting wage increases they need to meet rising living costs. He said employers are interfering with collective bargaining elections.

Senate Deletes UMT Bill From Draft Measure

Action Leaves Section Allowing Enlistment Men 19 Through 25 Could Be Drafted

WASHINGTON, June 4, (AP)—The Senate struck from the two-year draft bill today a provision for compulsory military training for 18 year olds.

The action, taken without opposition, left intact a section allowing such youths to volunteer for a year of training.

Under the bill men 19 through 25 would be subject to military draft.

A Senate Republican leader said "there is a good chance" that any military manpower bill passed by Congress will leave the actual draft call up to President Truman.

Meanwhile, the Senate Judiciary Committee put off action until Monday on the House-approved anti-Communism bill but decided against further public hearings.

Chairman Wiley (R-Wis.) said the committee will meet again Monday to consider legal questions involved in the Mundt-Nixon measure. It would require registration of Communist political and front groups.

Wiley said he could not guess when the committee will finally act on the bill or if it ever will be voted out to the Senate.

He said the committee in closed session also failed to act on the anti-lynching or tideland bills.

Some Mississippi Delegates Are Cool To Bolting Party

JACKSON, Miss., June 4 (AP)—Some delegates to Mississippi's Democratic Convention here June 22 are cool to withdrawal from the national session, in event of disagreement.

Judge Herbert Holmes, chairman of the state Democratic Executive Committee, yesterday predicted a harmonious state convention. He declared the convention will "live up to" resolutions adopted at the Dixie Conference of States' Rights Democrats.

One of these proposals was that Southern delegates withdraw from the Philadelphia convention if it supports President Truman or his Civil Rights Program.

But Phillip E. Mullen of Oxford, a convention delegate and state representative, said "all of us are for States' Rights and are opposed to Truman. We are for further sessions will be held, but not on date."

Smith said he hoped it will be possible to call Alberto Gander, a former National Broadcasting Company employe, who supervised the broadcast.

Sanford Special Vote For Justice Is Light

It was estimated that nearly 500 votes would be cast in the city, and that returns will be complete by 8:00 o'clock tonight for city precincts. County voting was also reported to be very light.

Emergency Clause Of Taft Law Is Invoked In Maritime Dispute

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—The "national emergency" provision of the Taft-Hartley Law got a new workout today as President Truman invoked it in the maritime dispute.

This makes five times Mr. Truman has used this special machinery in an effort to end management-labor deadlocks. He invoked it previously in these industries: atomic energy, coal, heat, meat, and telephones.

The President took the first step of the emergency procedure in the maritime case yesterday when he appointed a five-man board of inquiry headed by Harry Shuman, of the Yale law school.

Truman's Tour Will Present Him To Voters Of 18 Or More States

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

President Truman swung into the Middle West today on a cross country tour that will take him before the voters of 18 states, maybe more. Plans for the return from the West coast are yet indefinite.

Officially, it is a non-political trip. But it already is drawing political comment from the Republicans contending for the chance to oppose Mr. Truman in November's presidential election.

Harold Stassen said in a speech in Cheyenne, Wyo., last night that the trip is an admission from Mr. Truman that he is weak in the West.

Stassen, Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio, leading contenders for the G.O.P. nomination, have campaigned vigorously in the West, covering much of the ground Mr. Truman now will cover.

The President will speak in Chicago tonight—the first of a major addresses planned. He also expects to make numerous short talks from his special train's rear platform.

His train paused briefly at Pittsburgh early this morning. Mayor David L. Lawrence, National Democratic Committeeman, and other officials greeted him. Mr. Truman did not address the crowd.

The Republican candidates were leading the political bushes for delegate votes in the G.O.P. National Democratic Convention and disputing about who will have the most when the party convenes in Philadelphia June 21, little more than two weeks from now.

From Wyoming, Stassen left for Nevada and California. He will lunch tomorrow with Governor Warren of California. Warren, as a "favorite son," will get the vote of California's big delegation on June 21.

Goldborough granted a court order asked by attorneys representing Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board.

The judge said that it was apparent from the record that Lewis did not want to bargain with the Southern Association because he wanted to "destroy" it.

He suggested that the United Mine Workers chief might desire to bring about the destruction of the Southern Association "because it is harder to deal with" a single unit than with representatives of the 14 smaller associations through the South which make up the association.

"Certainly it's unreasonable in this present case for the union to say 'we're entitled to one representative for 99 units and the Southern Producers Association is not entitled to one representative for 14 associations,'" he continued.

"That is not only not logical, but it is not reasonable," the judge said.

State Forest Board Urges Caution In Preventing Fires

TALLAHASSEE, June 4 (AP)—With Florida's woodland timber, the State Forest Service today urged a high degree of caution against forest fires.

Fire Control Chief Owen H. Douglas said many blazes have been reported in the last few weeks "and even more can be expected unless there is a heavy general rainfall soon."

He added the state's forest fire prevention record for 1947-48, so far one of the best in many years, may be "shot to pieces" if the present drought continues.

Major fires during the past few weeks burned 1,200 acres in north-east Hamilton county, 500 acres in Orange county, 2,000 acres in Bay and 10 acres in Okaloosa.

Some 1,500 acres have been burned in Duval county in about 900 small fires. Other blazes have occurred in Volusia, Marion, Columbia, Escambia and Hillsborough counties, Douglas said.

The forest service reported all rangers have been alerted and additional fire fighting tools have been made available in case volunteer firemen are needed. Trucks and crews usually out in the field are being held in readiness to fight fire at a moment's notice.

Judge Orders Lewis To Deal With Coalmen

Goldsborough States Mine Chief Seeks To Destroy Southern Coal Faction

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—John L. Lewis today bowed to a federal court order directing him to bargain over a contract with the Southern Coal Producers Association.

The United Mine Workers chief announced through his attorneys that he would be ready to resume contract talks with coal operators, including the Southern group, tomorrow afternoon.

WASHINGTON, June 4, (AP)—Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough today ordered John L. Lewis to bargain with the Southern Coal Producers Association, headed by Joseph E. Moody.

Goldsborough granted a court order asked by attorneys representing Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board.

The judge said that it was apparent from the record that Lewis did not want to bargain with the Southern Association because he wanted to "destroy" it.

He suggested that the United Mine Workers chief might desire to bring about the destruction of the Southern Association "because it is harder to deal with" a single unit than with representatives of the 14 smaller associations through the South which make up the association.

"That is not only not logical, but it is not reasonable," the judge said.

Dr. R. W. Ruprecht Is Made Head Of Polio Foundation

Dr. R. W. Ruprecht was re-elected president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis for Seminole County at the annual meeting held at the Tourist Center yesterday afternoon.

Other officers elected were Roland Dean, vice president; Mrs. Geo. A. Speer, Jr., secretary; and R. W. Deane, treasurer.

The local foundation finished the year with a cash balance in the bank of $1,102, according to the Treasurer's report. A total of $380 was spent on four cases during the year, one old case, and three new ones.

Total receipts for the year were $1858 out of which campaign expenses of $123 had to be paid. One half of the balance was sent to national headquarters, and the rest was kept here for local cases of paralysis.

There is now one case at the Harry Anna Home for Crippled Children for whom the local chapter is providing medical treatment.

200-Inch Telescope Opens Scientific Era

PALOMAR MOUNTAIN, Calif., June 4 (AP)—Astronomers ushered in a new scientific era today as they prepared to tackle the mysteries of the universe with the 200-inch Hale telescope—man-kind's "window to the stars."

The giant telescope camera, atop Palomar Mountain in Southern California was dedicated formally yesterday by some of the nation's top-ranking scientists. It will afford them twice the space-penetrating power of any instrument previously at their disposal.

Newsmen who took their first peek through the "big eye" last night labeled the show something of a disappointment.

They gazed at the planet Saturn but said they couldn't see much. Saturn, 71,500 miles across, appeared as a globe about two inches wide.

Astronomers patiently explained, however, that looking through the telescope is meaningless. It wasn't designed for that.

Telephone Strike Is Averted In 42 States' Long-Lines

WASHINGTON, June 4, (AP)—A threatened strike of 25,000 long-line telephone workers in 42 states was averted today when negotiators signed a 21-month contract.

The agreement, reached before a federal mediator here, ended a dispute between the long lines department of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the CIO American Union of Telephone Workers. It is subject to ratification by union members.

A company spokesman said the contract does not provide an immediate wage increase but allows the wage question to be reopened by either party once during the 21-month period.

The spokesman added that the contract does provide for increases in maximum wage rates to meet local conditions at a number of scattered locations.

If the wage question is reopened and no agreement is reached on new rates, the contract may be cancelled any time after June 2, 1949, upon 60 days' notice to either party.

The company also granted union demands on a number of fringe issues including an increase in overtime pay for holiday work and compensation for certain plant jobs.

The Bell System during the past month has signed similar contracts with 13 other unions, representing 54,000 of its employes. The other contracts run for three years, however, and allow the wage question to be reopened twice.

The American Union of Telephone Workers, originally asked a 20-cent hourly increase over present rates which they said averaged $1.21. In the latter stages of direct negotiations, however, discussion centered upon terms of renewal of the old contract.

Mediation meetings in recent weeks were conducted by Bernard J. Forman of the regional office of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. Howard E. Burham, regional director of the service, also attended today's session.

Settlement of the dispute precludes the need for a fact-finding board appointed recently by President Truman. The board called off the scheduled sessions to permit the further mediation efforts which ended the strike threat.

Robert Thompson Is Released By Judge

Young Thompson was instructed to refrain from using alcoholic beverages, entering saloons, beer gardens or pool rooms, and to reappear on the first day of the fall session of the court, which is to be held in November.

Forest Fires Rage On 72-Mile Front In Canada's Forest

TORONTO, Ont., June 4 (AP)—Two roaring forest fires merged last night in the Missisquoi and Champlain areas of northern Ontario and are burning on a giant, 72-mile front.

The fires, regarded by many as the largest and most expensive in Ontario's history, is traveling toward rich timberlands on the Bark Lake area.

Smoke and flame are sweeping over 150,000 acres of green timber north of Blind River, Algoma district lumbering town midway between Sault Ste. Marie and Sudbury.

The big fire is one of some 15 which cover about 150,000 acres, or more than 200 square miles of the region. Millions of dollars of damage already have been done, forest officials said.

Hundreds of fighters are battling the mercurial blaze, but forestry men say only a drenching, three-day rain, can stop it. A west wind is pushing the flames ahead. Scattered thundershowers are forecast today but the forestry men say they probably will be of little help.

Water Churns Thru New Breaks As Raging Flood Front Expands

By WILLIAM PHIPPS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 4 (AP)—Unbridled waters churned today through newly punched-out dikes on the Pacific Northwest's far-flung flood front. More strained levees were crumbling. A new crest was rolling down.

The Fraser River in Canada crushed the barriers—At Barnston and Hatzic Islands in British Columbia. Some 360 persons raced for their lives ahead of a wall of water 20 feet high that broke through on Barnston.

Reinforcements rushed to soggy dikes along the lower Columbia River's shores in Oregon and Washington as the massive flow of the big river threatened to widen its most destructive 1,200-mile surge to the Pacific.

The fresh flood crest was mounting in the Columbia, far up the mountains where the blast is running so quickly changed the deep snook into runoff water. The Snake River, main Columbia tributary, also was rising.

The collapse of Barnston and Hatzic dikes last night flooded more fertile farmland, adding to the tremendous but not estimated millions of dollars damage in the Northwest region.

Before the new rampages of the Fraser, estimates from qualified sources soared to $110,000,000 for the Columbia in Idaho

Official Says Plan Is Being Made To Have Supervision

WASHINGTON, June 4, (AP)—A State Department official said today there is no guarantee now that foreign broadcast programs, such as aroused congressional anger, will not be repeated.

The senators are investigating a "Know North America" series of broadcasts beamed to Latin America. Senate and House members have complained the programs misled individual states.

Thomaston Youth Signs Contract To Play With Phillies

THOMASTON, Ga. June 4 (AP)—Another Georgia Peach has started up the long trail that leads to baseball fame and fortune. Hugh Frank Radcliffe, 19-year-old prep school strikeout king and holder of the world's record for the most strikeouts in a single nine-inning game, was signed up yesterday by the Philadelphia Phillies for their Wilmington, Del. club in the class B interstate league. A reliable source said the National League paid the R. E. Lee high school pitcher star $10,000 to sign the contract. Aside from saying she was "real proud of our boy," Hugh's mother, Mrs. F. W. Radcliffe, had little to say about the boy who has hurled three no-hitters. "He was always a good boy and has been playing ever since he was big enough to throw a ball. I don't know anything about ball myself, but if Hugh is satisfied, I am," Mrs. Radcliffe said. A regular church and Sunday school attendant at the First Baptist Church of Thomaston, Hugh has enjoyed phenomenal success as a high school pitcher. He set a world's record early this Spring by striking out 23 men in one game. His record for the season is nine triumphs and no defeats. He has struck out 183 batters in 72 2/3 innings and has allowed only 16 hits and three earned runs. In addition to the regular season's play, Hugh struck out 24 men Wednesday night but his team lost 8-6 in a Georgia state high school tournament. Nine errors cost him the game. Thirteen major league scouts were in the stands the last time Radcliffe pitched. And the same thirteen scouts were present when Hugh graduated from high school but the Phillies' Johnny Nee obtained the signed contract. Hugh's 28 strikeouts were against Lanier high of Macon, Ga. R. E. Lee's catcher dropped a third strike on one batter, allowing him to reach first. He promptly struck out the next man for the record. Philadelphia sources report that Radcliffe will be assigned to the Philie class B Wilmington, Del., club in the interstate league. Young Radcliffe, who is six feet, one inch tall and weighs 182 pounds, is a right-hander. And, according to his mother, he's a little on the romantic side. She said she believed her son was "serious" about his fiancee, a 17-year-old girl friend, Marjorie Caraway, whom he has known "a couple of years." "Are they engaged?" "Not officially," Mrs. Radcliffe said, "but I think they plan to get married. I don't know how soon." Neither could she say when Hugh planned to leave for Wilmington. At any rate, Hugh Frank Radcliffe is on his way he hopes, to take his place in major league baseball together with Ty Cobb, the original Georgia Peach, and such other Georgia baseball greats as Stoud Chandler, Hugh Casey, Marty Marion and Luke Appling.

Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD, June 4 (AP)—Vivian Romance, the torrid French actress, is reportedly aiming for a Hollywood invasion and hopes to co-star with Glenn Ford. This news comes from Glenn himself, who happily learned that he is the French star's first choice for a leading man when she makes a picture here. A deal for her services is now being cooked up and Glenn is hoping Columbia will let him do the film with her. Meanwhile, the sun-dog actor (he's had only a few days' vacation since exiting the Marines) expects to start another film as soon as he finishes his current one. Next will be "Mr. Miracle," a settlement house yarn which will be partly shot in New York. Joel McCrea continues his Western film jag. He has written through 24 scripts and has come up with an unlimited outdoor yarn on an epic scale. It will follow "Tennessee's Partner" and he hopes to interest Ginger Rogers as co-star. Bill Holden is worried. He has had but two pictures before the public in eight years and now four of his films are slated for release in November. He's afraid the public won't want so much Holden. I don't think he need worry. George Raft faces a big problem with his "Outpost Morocco." He filmed all the location shots in North Africa. He'll finish the film here and now he has to find exact doubles for all the characters in the overseas footage. Victor Jory joins the "South of St. Louis" cast and he and Joel McCrea will have one of those tremendous fights that seem utterly necessary in film Westerns. Victor recently had a grueling knife duel with Glenn Ford in "Carmen." In his spare time, he narrates kiddie stories. Lucille Bremer is displaying a king-size ring designed and donated by her fiance, Abelardo Rodriguez. It's a five-carat sparkler surrounded with rubies and emeralds. The red-headed actress expects to marry in August and says she'll spend six months each year with her husband in La Paz, Mexico, and six months with the movies in Hollywood. The Cary Grant-Letsy Grant friendship is more business than romance. He is greatly impressed with her talent and intends to use her in his future productions. Death Valley, the scenic furnace where actors writ and film melts in the cameras, has been conquered for movie purposes by John Ford. On the "Three Godfathers" location, a special device was invented to water-cool the camera. The company was still happy to get back to the Los Angeles rain. Reds Call Diplomats' Children For School LONDON June 4 (AP)—Russia is calling home for schooling the children of her diplomats in the United States and Britain. The Soviet embassy in London said yesterday 40 children will leave Britain for Russia this month. The Soviet vice-consul in New York said yesterday about 105 children would go home to enter schools this fall. A private Soviet school operating in New York since 1941 closed. An embassy spokesman here said the children in Britain were being sent home because of "considerable difficulties finding suitable language teachers." The diplomat in New York spoke of difficulties in finding local teaching facilities. (AP)

Over 100,000 Vet College Graduates Will Be Available

TALLAHASSEE, June 4, (Special)—More than one hundred thousand veteran college graduates are soon to become available to the employers of the nation, R. E. Macdonald, Veterans Employment Representative for Florida, announced today. Macdonald said that approximately 1,000 of these college-trained veterans will enter the labor market in Florida. This flood of highly trained job applicants will provide the industries and business establishments of each state with a reservoir of skilled employees, Macdonald continued. "These veterans, who attended college through the assistance of the GI Bill of Rights, 'should be utilized to the fullest possible extent, in order that their talents may be most productive for themselves and for the country as a whole,'" Macdonald declared. He quoted Perry Faulkner, Chief of the Veterans Employment Service of the United States, as saying that "this nation can no longer afford to waste its human resources by failing to give its veterans opportunity to fill the best and most important jobs for which they are fitted."

Fuller Not To Make Panned Western Trip

JACKSONVILLE, June 4, (AP)—The gubernatorial Warren-Governor-Eliot Fuller of Florida, won't get together in Los Angeles next Monday as originally planned. Instead, Frank S. Wright of Miami, who managed Fuller Warren's successful campaign, will carry the California's Warren personal invitation to the Florida inauguration Jan. 4. It had been arranged for Florida's Warren to follow his California namesake on the program of the Kiwanis International Convention next Monday at Los Angeles. But Warren's plans have been changed and his vacation rest, following a strenuous four-month campaign, do not now call for him to make the far-West journey.

UMT Bill

(Continued from Page One) which have been stalled now for several weeks. The anti-lynch measure has been designated by Senator Taft (R-Ohio), GOP policy chairman, for action under the Republican Civil Rights pledge. Wiley said the judiciary group may decide something Monday on anti-lynch. He said the tidelands bill also will be discussed Monday. Approved by the House, this bill would give states title to the adjoining ocean tidelands, some of which contain rich oil reserves. Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) said he had offered an amendment to the anti-Communist bill. His amendment would leave it up to the courts to decide if an organization is foreign controlled and is seeking to overthrow this government by force. The senate also voted to boost federal aid for old age pensions by $100 million but refused to lower the age at which the payment will start. By a 77 to 20 yearend vote, the Senate adopted an amendment by Senator McFarland (D-Ariz) and 22 others. This would provide for a $5 monthly increase in federal contributions for the aged and for needy blind and $3 a month for dependent children. By a standing vote, the Senate then beat down a proposal by Senator Revercomb (R-W Va) to lower from 66 to 60 the age at which old age benefits would start. The Senate's action sends the legislation to a conference with the House. The House-approved measure would block extension of Social Security benefits to an estimated $60,000 to 750,000 persons who are self-employed. The Senate's increased benefits are provided as an amendment to the House bill. After voting on the amendments, the Senate then passed the Social Security bill, 74 to 6.

Accused Killers Are Granted Privileges

DELHI, India, June 4, (AP)—The nine accused assassins of Mahatma K. Gandhi were granted privileges in jail yesterday usually given only political prisoners. They are charged with murder, conspiracy to murder and other offenses punishable by hanging, in connection with the Hindu spiritual leader's shooting last Jan. 30.

The court ordered the privileges as it postponed the start of their trial from June 14 to June 22. The accused were called to appear before the court again June 14 for further preliminaries. They all were ordered treated as class B prisoners. Their privileges include having food sent from outside at their own expense, shaving themselves instead of being shaved by the jail barber, and being quartered in better ventilated cells.

ICE CREAM LOVER

GLEN GARDNER, N. J., June 4—Bumps, a year old fox terrier with a penchant for ice cream, pays his own way in this community's soda parlors. Mrs. Ingrid Panagos, the dog's mistress, became embarrassed when Bumps would sit and beg for ice cream from a soda jerker. She purchased a key chain with a coin device and fastened it to the dog's collar. Now when Bumps gets that ice cream look, Mrs. Panagos puts a nickel in the coin container, opens the front door of her home and off goes Bumps to enjoy his favorite treat.

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

MANY THINGS CAN BE ATTAINED ONLY BY PERSEVERANCE AND HAPPINESS IS ONE. FORGET ABOUT HAPPINESS AND WORK FOR THE DAY OF HIS TRIUMPH AND YOU WILL FIND HAPPINESS.—Mt. 6:33: Seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness.

Fuller Warren files his report for campaign expenditures and it shows he spent only $12,241 to get elected governor of Florida.

The city manager form of government was designed to take city management out of politics. But Miami's city manager was fired the other day because he supported the "wrong" candidate for sheriff.

The Senate has passed a bill by a vote of 63 to 13 to admit 200,000 refugees from Europe. Senator Pepper objected to the bill because he said a provision that 50 percent of those admitted must be farmers discriminated against the Jews.

It may be that you cannot believe anything you read in the newspapers, but you certainly can't believe anything you don't read in the newspapers. A few weeks ago a sailor aboard the submarine Casp wrote his family telling hair-raising experiences about being depth-bombed by an airplane and spending 24 terrifying hours on the bottom of the Pacific before being rescued.

The high cost of living is at present of more interest to the American public than the danger of war with Russia or the situation in Palestine. That is something which affects the pocket-books of everyone.

Even though some of us think others of us too extreme, great history is being made in this well-called Southern revolt. We may be too close to understand, but the historians will. Whatever the ways, all the Southern States at Philadelphia will be in revolt against the federal force proposals and against the President who, even though he is our kinsman, has so cruelly played politics with Southern misery.

Long Term Governors

Gov. Sidney Osborn of Arizona, who has just died of the rare and incurable disease that killed ball player Lou Gehrig, was an example of the Arizona fondness for re-electing her governors.

Osborn was serving his fourth term, and at that did not hold the state record. That went to George W. P. Hunt, elected as the state's first governor and chosen for seven terms altogether, besides being defeated for two more. From 1911 to 1934, when Hunt died, he dominated the state's politics. The period since then could fairly be called the Osborn era.

In the early days of the nation governors often served for long periods. George Clinton's 21 years in New York have never been equaled. Terms of 10 years and more were especially common in New England.

Nowadays the job is harder and the competition more severe. Herbert H. Lehman of New York had four terms, three of two years, one of four, making 10 years altogether. But the modern record-holder was Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, strongly supported for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1932. He held office for 15 years until 1934, when he was defeated for a fifth term of four years. Except for that unexpected upset, he might have passed Clinton's mark, not equaled in well over a century.

In Florida a constitutional provision prevents a governor from succeeding himself in office.

Nationalization Ends

British War Minister Emanuel Shinwell, speaking at the 47th annual Labor conference, declared that the government's nationalization program has now come to an end, leaving the iron and steel question unsettled.

The party is split on that question, but all its other commitments have been successfully fulfilled. Deputy Prime Minister Herbert Morrison agreed with Shinwell, comparing the party's present status with that of an army which, after a quick, successful drive, must halt and consolidate its gains. Mr. Morrison outlined a plan for modernization of plants and equipment and called for a new spirit and energy on the part of the people.

Many people who espouse Socialism or any other system involving social change believe at the outset that all problems will be solved with the coming about of that social change. The time inevitably comes when they realize that the basis of general prosperity is general effort. No matter who is in power, the comforts, and even the bare necessities of life are acquired by working for them.

The British are to be congratulated on the fact that their party in power has this practical view of the situation.

Preventing Violence

In a Midwestern city a man in a jealous rage killed his wife and two sons and then took his own life. Investigation of the circumstances revealed that the man had been a patient of a psychiatrist, who described him as "a dangerous paranoiac". The case, it would appear, should be listed in the police records as a preventable crime.

In most states a physician who treats a person suffering a gunshot wound, or other injury of a nature indicating the possibility of criminal violence, is required to report the case immediately to the police. It would seem just as proper to require a similar report from a psychiatrist who diagnoses a mental illness as dangerous.

A complication is that only a few communities and states are prepared to deal with dangerous mental illness in an adequate and sensible way. By remedying this short-coming and making good use of the medical and psychiatric knowledge available, many tragedies of violence might be averted in the future.

Olds, Auto Pioneer, Has 84th Birthday

LANSING, Mich. June 4 (AP)—Ransom E. Olds, famed automobile industry pioneer, observed his 84th birthday yesterday, in good health and convinced that "competition will bring about a marked drop in new car prices."

Olds, who founded the Olds and Oldsmobile automobile concerns, is no longer active in the industry, but he has decided opinions about its future. "The situation will be different after the elections this fall," Olds has been called "the schoolmaster of motordom" and "the father of the popular priced car."

13 Portuguese Army, Navy Men Are Tried

LISBON, Portugal June 4 (AP)—Thirteen high Army and Navy officers went on trial yesterday before a military court, charged with conspiring against the regime of Premier Antonio Oliveira Salazar.

Admiral Jose Mendes Cabeadas is charged with being the ring-leader of an unsuccessful military uprising in April 1947. Cabeadas took part in the revolt which overthrew the monarchy in 1910 and in the revolution of May, 1926, which ended the dictatorial control of the Democratic Party and closed the Democratic parliament. He was president of the Junta which took over for a short time thereafter, before Salazar's rise to power.

Blue Babies' Said Showing Improvement

CHICAGO June 4 (AP)—Of 41 "blue babies" surviving surgery in a Chicago Hospital, 39 have shown "tremendous improvement." Two surgeons who performed operations made this report today in the journal of the American Medical Association. They are Drs. Willis J. Potts and Stanley Gibson of the Children's Memorial Hospital.

They reported the former "blue babies" had been "relieved of cyanosis (bluish complexion), have gained weight and are able to live fairly normal lives." Some of the operations extend back to 1946.

THE WORLD TODAY

By DRWITT MACKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Agreement for a four week armistice in the Arab-Jewish war will, if made to stick, be a matter of extreme gratification from several viewpoints:

- 1. For at least that period the danger of another world war growing out of the smaller conflict will be greatly lessened.
2. Even a brief cessation in the bloodshed, and senseless destruction of relics which are sacred to three great religions, will be a Godsend.
3. It will have asserted the authority (and, equally important, the dignity) of a hitherto divided and weak United Nations.
4. Within that month some sort of bargain perhaps might be made between the Jews and the Arabs. Of course, the Arabs insist that they won't recognize the new Jewish state of Israel and that it must be abolished. However, the creation of Israel is a fait accompli, a fact which is confirmed through its recognition by ten nations, including the United States and Russia. There is no way in which the establishment of Israel could be undone, except by force of arms, and that would mean war to a finish, since the Jews have sworn to defend their state to the end.

Now no one questions the bravery of the Arabs or their willingness to fight. They have been famous warriors throughout the centuries. Still one does question the wisdom of trying to settle by the sword an argument whose end cannot be foreseen but might be a global conflagration which would wreck the hopes of both Arabs and Jews. Another world war might change the entire complexion of the Middle East to the disadvantage of Arabs and Jews.

Therefore one returns cautiously to speculation heard in informal quarters that, when all is said and done, some sort of compromise may be made between the Arabs and the Jews. I referred to that possibility—perhaps remote, but still a possibility—in a previous article.

This speculation revolves in part about King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan, commander in chief of all Arab armies attacking Palestine. Abdullah is the outstanding Arab personality involved in the conflict and his own army is the most powerful fighting force of all those involved.

Some observers hold the view that he might be inclined to bargain with the Jews, unless the opposition of the other Arab states was too strong. It is noted that before the war he was reputed to be less anti-Zionist than other Arab chiefs.

Moreover, Abdullah is under heavy obligations to Britain. His legion is British trained, British equipped and British officered, having been created under British to maintain order among the wild tribesmen along the Palestine frontier. He also receives an annual subsidy of about 2,000,000 pounds sterling ($8,000,000).

Since Britain is anxious for peace in Palestine, one must assume that Abdullah would like to fall in line. Presumably his attitude would be influenced greatly by its effect on his prestige with the other Arab states.

To sum up, the question of whether mediation can achieve a compromise is purely a matter of speculation. Certainly the U. N. move is not unwise with some hope of peace. Perhaps the truce will provide sufficient cooling off period so that reason will prevail.

Here Is A Scene That Happens Oft, But Seldom Seen

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK (AP)—There is a small green park in Manhattan where you can sit and watch the ships of the world come and go.

It isn't much of a park—just big enough to hold a bathtub full of grass. It has some tired Spring, a few limp trees and here and there a low-legged bench. It has the ingredients of any park anywhere—the lovers, the neighborhood mothers and their kids, the guy out of work, and the old men who come to soak up the sun.

This day a boy and a girl sit alone on a bench in the thin shade of a tree. It was a hot day. Across the street the stevedores worked with their heads down, and the trucks rolled by, clanking and stinking.

The boy and the girl didn't look much like sweethearts. They held hands listlessly. It's hard to be story-book sweethearts in a jungle of brick and steel and noise. And in a little park that has to fight to starve.

A black away the liner America, her bright funnels beginning to plume, belled goodbye. Peacetime passengers crowded the rails where thousands of homesick soldiers leaned in wartime for a farewell look.

The hoarse sound of the whistle throbbed through the little park, overfaring the voice of the city. The boy looked up. His eyes brightened. He grinned as the swell of sound pushed by.

"Listen," he said to the girl. "Listen to her. She's saying goodbye. Wouldn't you like to be on her?"

The girl pushed her bobbed hair back impatiently. "How can you want that?" she said.

The boy hardly heard her. He leaned forward on the bench. The liner whistled again, her leashes slipped free, and the tug warred her bow and stern.

"She's on her way," the boy said. "She's on her way."

The girl didn't look at the ship. She watched the boy and she knew he had left her. He was on the ship, standing out to sea. She tried to bring him back.

"Why would you want to leave? Why would you?"

The boy did not answer. He watched the liner as she nosed downriver, her pennant ruffling in the wind from the sea. Then she was lost behind the drab dock buildings.

The boy sighed and leaned back. He lit a cigaret nervously. They sat together in silence.

On the next bench a mother called to her child: "Helen, come on now. It's time to go home."

They left, and as they passed the bench where the boy and girl sat the child said:

"Momma, look, he's—" Her mother jerked her arm and said, "Hush."

The girl squeezed the boy's hand tightly as he stared at the empty dock.

"I just can't see why you always want to go," she said. "Haven't you had enough?"

"I guess not," the boy said. He rose slowly, holding to the bench. The girl reached under it and pulled out a pair of crutches. She handed them to him.

"It's time to go home," she said. "I'll carry your jacket."

The jacket was old, and the sleeves were frayed. It was an Army combat jacket.

Widow Faces Murder Charge in Slaying

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 4 (AP)—The socially prominent widow of a wealthy paper company executive yesterday faced a charge of murder in connection with his death.

Walter Blackford, 61, sales manager for the Strathmore Paper Co., was killed with a carving knife, police said, as he lay helpless in bed—the victim of paralysis caused by a shock a month ago.

Police Chief George A. Yardley said the murder charge was filed against his 55-year-old widow after he and state police Lieut. Richard Cotter questioned Mrs. Blackford for two hours last night.

gation on the first G.O.P. nomination balloting. What other Republicans want to know is where those votes will go if Warren should drop out of contention.
Dewey arranged a trip to Boston in a bid for "second choice" votes from Massachusetts. That state's early ballots are expected to go to a "favorite son"—either Senator Leverett Saltonstall or House Speaker Martin.

The Taft camp in Washington made the claim he will top all contenders on the first ballot with at least 306 votes. They figured Dewey would have 281 and Stevenson 149 with 358 going to favorite sons. The number needed for the nomination is 548.
Stassen has predicted he will have 340 on the first ballot. Dewey's backers said the Taft camp's figures are "wrong—that Dewey will have more than Taft."

The reporter who asked Marshall's comment on the fund slash referred to it as "some reduction" proposed by the House Committee.
Marshall's first response was to repeat the words "some reduction." Then he gave a short, sharp laugh which suggested that he considered the reduction huge.

Taft Law

O. A. Knight, president of the CIO Oil Workers Union said the law is designed "for preserving the employers' interest regardless of the effect it may have upon the interests of the employees".
He said the law will lead either to chaos in industrial relations or the destruction of collective bargaining.

Henry Mayer, general counsel for the CIO Telephone Workers' organizing committee, said the law has been used "to worsen the organizational and wage status of over 650,000 telephone workers throughout the nation".
In another labor development, President Truman named a five-man fact-finding board to report on the dispute between shippers and six unions of seamen and longshoremen whose contracts expire June 15.

of the truce to its end." His main task, he said, is to get a truce before discussing the major points at issue between the Arabs and the Jews, such as the existence of the Jewish state.
One of the immediate issues holding up the truce concerns the Security Council provision stating fighting personnel cannot enter Palestine during the cease fire period, and that if men of military age enter they should not be armed, mobilized or trained.

The unions are threatening to strike unless they get higher wages and the right to use hiring halls to supply sailors and stevedores to ship owners.
In Chicago, a tentative settlement was reached between the Standard Oil Company (Ind.) and the CIO National Maritime Union.
wounded, returned to Mrs. Scott's home next door and was found dead on the floor of the living room.

The main issue, of course, is the Arab demand for an end to partition and the Jewish state and the Jews' insistence on the existence of Israel. Arab leaders say they never will countenance a Jewish state in Palestine.
"Is a man of military age a fighting man?" Bernadotte asked.
Another immediate issue is the Jewish demand that they be permitted to send supplies to besieged modern Jerusalem during the truce. Bernadotte said no decision had been reached on this point.

SELF DEFENSE JACKSONVILLE

June 4 (AP)—A coroner's jury has held that R. A. Brown acted in self defense last May 17 when he shot and fatally wounded James A. Crosby at the Brown residence.
Witnesses said Brown shot Crosby after he had been wounded by a bullet from a pistol in Crosby's hands. Crosby, according to testimony, attempted to enter the Brown residence after Mrs. Betty Scott, a friend of Crosby's and a neighbor of Brown's, had run into the Brown residence to escape from Crosby, who had struck her.
Brown was seriously wounded by Crosby's shot but returned the fire through the front screen door of his home. Crosby, fatally

Ex-Denver Lawyer Is Found Dead In Home

DENVER, June 4 (AP)—Ben B. Laska, Denver attorney convicted of accepting ransom money in a sensational 1933 kidnaping, was found dead Wednesday at his residence.
Detective Sgt. Arthur A. Roush said Laska left six notes indicating suicide.
The cause of death was not immediately ascertained, Roush said. Laska was convicted in 1935 at Oklahoma City of accepting $10,000 of the ransom money paid in the kidnaping of Charles F. Urschel. Laska was accused of accepting the money as a fee to defend Albert L. Bates, one of the kidnapers. Laska was given a 10 year sentence and released on a parole in June 1941. President Truman granted him a full pardon in March 1947.

After the pardon, Laska sought reinstatement to the Colorado bar. His request was pending at his death.
Roush said Laska's body was found by his stepdaughter, Mrs. Charlotte Eilers at the family residence.

STUDENTS GUILTY GAINESVILLE

June 3 (AP)—Richard Wise, 19, of Miami, pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of breaking and entering in connection with the May 13 robbery at the Gainesville Golf and Country Club.
Circuit Judge John A. H. Murphy withheld sentence for a further study of the case.
Wise, a University of Florida student, was apprehended by West Palm Beach police with much of the $1,500 worth of golf equipment in his car and when returned to Gainesville confessed to State Attorney T. E. Duncan.
Sharon Rossin, 19, also of Miami, who is being held in the Alachua county jail on a similar charge in connection with the same case, has also confessed his part of the robbery, Duncan said.
Wise has been free on a $1,000 bond since Tuesday.
The bond for Rossin was also set at $1,000 but Sheriff Fred Holloman said that Rossin had not made the bond today.

JOLIET, Ill.—(AP)—The wind blew out the tall light on his automobile, Alla B. Thayer told police when he was arrested for operating a vehicle without a tall light. Thayer explained he was using a kerosene tall light. Police Magistrate Thomas K. Sprague fined him $3.25 and told him to modernize the car's lighting or he might be arrested again—if the wind is blowing.
PRAGUE—(AP)—Secret telephone numbers, unlisted in the public directories, are on their way out in Czechoslovakia. The ministry of posts said there were more than 7,000 of them in Prague alone, and that they caused a great deal of trouble to the operators. Senate Downs Racial Issue In Draft Bill

Roll Call Vote Is 67 To 7 But Is Not Di- rect Test Of Soions' Segregation Views

WASHINGTON, June 7, (AP)—The Senate, pressing toward action on draft legislation, voted down today a proposal to forbid race segregation in the Armed Services. The roll call vote was 67 to 7.

The vote was not a direct test on how the Senate feels about race segregation. Senate leaders were confronted with the prospect of a filibuster from Southern members if the proposal was not sidetracked.

They are anxious to get final action on the draft measure which, as it stands, leaves to the Department of Defense the question whether the Army, Navy and Air Force are to have units of mixed races.

Senator Langer (R-ND) offered an amendment to prohibit discrimination or segregation because of race, color or religion in assignments or induction into the Armed Services.

It was tabled on a motion by Chairman Gurney (R-SD) on the Armed Services Committee. The motion was not debatable.

This was the first test on a set of seven Langer amendments covering most of President Truman's "Civil Rights" measures such as anti-lynching, anti-poll tax and anti-segregation.

Some senators who favor the Civil Rights Program opposed Langer's amendments. They said that the military manpower available is not the place to fight out such a racial issue.

Boy Is Electrocuted In Swimming Pool

HARRISBURG, Pa. June 7 (AP)—A 12-year-old boy was electrocuted when a short circuit in an underground power line sent current through a steel ladder in a public swimming pool, Dr. Winfield Yarnell, deputy coroner, said.

Dr. Yarnell said the boy, Clyde Peters, of Harrisburg, died of electric burns yesterday as the water was charged in a 15-foot circle around the ladder at the Gay-Way swimming pool.

The boy and another swimmer, Rosmary Pritch, 11, were within the charged area at the time. Both suddenly stiffened and sank beneath the surface. Dr. Yarnell said, but the girl was not hurt seriously.

Army Engineers Throw New Field Command Against Columbia Flood

By WILLIAM PUPPES
PORTLAND, Ore. June 7 (AP)—The Army today threw a fresh engineering field command against the raging Columbia River. It was a desperate attempt to hold the widening 100-mile dike front from Portland to the Pacific.

Twenty-six officers of the Army Engineers Corps rushed to critical points in the heavily barricaded lower valley as the great river built up a year in a week. The reinforcements, including five lieut. colonels, flew in during the night from Fort Belvoir, Va.

The time was short, the task huge.

Present expansion of the flood belt in the Columbia and Fraser rivers in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Canada's British Columbia—26 dead, 82 missing, about 60,000 homeless, damage of perhaps $140,000,000. The new flood crest was deep into the already hard hit industrial area around Portland and Vancouver, across the Columbia in Washington. It was surging downriver, building up the current that has been grinding away the dike since the first crest rolled down six days ago.

Lewis Denounces Mine Operators At Contract Talks

He called them "fat cats, magnificently opulent, digging deep and without restraint into the national purse."

He made two points clear about any agreement replacing the contract expiring June 30:

1. The United Mine Workers have no wage proposals, but they "expect improvement."
2. They want guarantees under the 1947 miners' welfare fund which has paid out nothing because it is tied up in a legal dispute.

He put the next move up to the operators. The miners will consider any offer "which you may persuade yourselves to utter," Lewis said.

This was in a statement with which Lewis opened the negotiations.

He scornfully told the operators they had reduced collective bargaining "to mockery."

Lewis said he and his union members would not accept any agreement that would reduce the welfare fund.

Geiger Counter Seen As Prime Civilian Need If Atomic War Comes

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—If atomic war were to come, a prime civilian defense need would be for a large number of Geiger counters to spot the lingering death rays. Hence the official hope is for the development of a low-cost, easily operated device to equip detector teams.

Current costs for Geiger counters range from about $210 to $1,000 each. There are a number of different types of such instruments. But, a spokesman for the Civil Defense Planning Unit of the National Defense Department said today, only a few are suitable for spotting the area of a bombed city made unsafe by radioactivity.

Most types are those used in laboratories and classrooms for specialized studies, the spokesman told a reporter.

Atomic Energy Commission officials also said that the kind needed by their experts still is rare.

Now scarce, recently published testimony before a House Appropriations Subcommittee disclosed that Geiger counters are being advertised for sale.

Benes Resigns As Leader Of Czechoslovaks

Premier Gottwald's Office Announces Resignation Is Ac- cepted By Cabinet

PRAGUE, June 7, (AP)—President Benes resigned today. Premier Klement Gottwald's office announced the resignation was accepted at a special cabinet meeting.

Benes was elected to a seven-year term in 1946.

He resigned once before—in 1938 after the Munich conference brought the German invasion—but resumed the presidency in London, July 21, 1940. He first became president in December, 1935, after Thomas G. Masaryk resigned because of age and illness. Benes had been Masaryk's foreign minister 17 years and helped him found the Czechoslovak republic.

Three months ago Masaryk's son Jan, Benes' foreign minister, was found dead in a suicide. The Communist government said that followed the Communist coup in February which sharply reduced Benes' powers. He resigned rather than accept the "people's democracy" constitution which the Communist government had drafted. He disagreed with its provisions and disapproved of the single ticket parliamentary elections which the Communist regime held eight days ago.

The first announcement of the resignation said only that a communique would be issued later. There was no promise that the contents of Benes' letter of resignation would be made public.

There has been speculation for two weeks that the president would resign and all health would be given up as a result.

The ministry of Information said it could give no official statement of his health, his official status or whether he has signed the new "People's Democracy" constitution.

Lodge Is Picked As GOP Platform Head

Appointment of Lodge to the important position post expected to be made later in the day by Walter Hallahan of West Virginia, chairman of the GOP Congressional Campaign Committee. The choice of Lodge would end a deadlock that developed after Senator Milton E. Eisenhower was not considered for the job because of opposing work in the closing days of Congress.

Senate Committee Delays Action On Red Curb Measure

Chairman Wiley Says Constitutionality Opinion Is Awaited

WASHINGTON, June 7, (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee took no action at a meeting today on the House-approved Mundt-Nixon bill to require registration of Communists.

Chairman Wiley (R-Wy.) said reporters the committee still has not received opinions on the constitutionality of the measure. It has asked them from Attorney General Clark and a number of private attorneys.

In a week-end development, Wiley and the editor of a Communist newspaper, the Daily Worker, traded insults over the bill.
