McCarty Sees First Need As 4-Lane Road

Governor-Elect Says He Hopes Decision On Turnpike Won't Hinge On Politics

FORT PIERCE — Dan McCarty said today he believes improvements should be made on the turnpike before we get involved in a "brawl."

The Democratic nominee for governor said, however, that he could take no stand for or against the proposed 275-million dollar East coast toll road until he has studied the matter carefully.

"I hope that a decision on the turnpike will not be based on politics and my hope and my feeling is that after sound, unbiased, practical study we can come to a decision based on whether it's sound for all Florida and not get involved in politics as to whether it's built," he said.

McCarty said he has asked for a copy of the engineers' report on the turnpike proposal and will study it but probably will have no statement until he takes office. He has Republican opposition in November but his nomination as the Democratic candidate guarantees his election.

He said U. S. 1, which now carries the bulk of Florida's south-bound tourist traffic, is overcrowded along its whole length but is in particular need of improvement from Miami through Palm Beach County.

The work on it should be done on a "pay-as-you-go" basis, he said.

Florida Wildlife Magazine Contains Sanford Articles

Much interest is being shown by leaders and sportsmen in the August issue of Florida Wildlife Magazine which contains two stories concerning Sanford.

One of these "Sanford on the St. Johns" by Gene Gruber, contains seven pictures, including an aerial view of the city, a picture of Miss Evelyn Jones with the Florida Wildlife Game Warden, a scene showing the author and a fine catch of bass, a picture of the Big Tree at Longwood, and a picture of the author and a fine catch of bass.

The other article, "Dare the Pet Bass" is by E. H. Stout, clerk at the Smoke House, with photographs by the author and a fine catch of bass.

Jack Grant, formerly of Sanford and managing editor of the magazine, which is published by the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, has been interested in a million more quail.

Recognizing the interest value of the Sanford articles, local merchants, in co-operation with Manager Forrest Breckenridge of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, have inserted two pages of the magazine in the window display of the Chamber of Commerce building, headed "Welcome to Sanford Land of Sports and Recreation." It contains photographs of the lakefront, a small girl with a big bass, and of Clarence Welch, Dr. H. W. Rucker and J. S. Tillis wading in a big catch of bass after a trip to Lake Jessup.

The author's article describes fishing in the St. Johns and Wekiva Rivers, and the "excellent hunting opportunities that attract thousands here during the winter months." The author's other creations, including golf tournaments, baseball, boating, swimming, greyhound racing (Longwood), and other sports, are pointed out in the city south of Sanford are referred to.

Oscar, the pet bass, is described by Mr. Stout as a very unusual bass, both in and out of the water, are something to see. Mr. Salisbury, wading in the pool is shown catching Oscar with a net of worms, and the fish is seen leaving its master like a pet cat or dog, and likes to be scratched under the chin.

Syngman Rhee Is Inaugurated As Korea President

Thousands Cheer As He Promises Not to Let Up For Communists

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Thousands in this war-torn capital cheered wrinkled Syngman Rhee today as he was inaugurated as his second term as president of South Korea. He promised "no rest" until the Communists are licked.

The 77-year-old president, re-elected Aug. 5 in South Korea's first popular presidential election, proclaimed during open air ceremonies that Korea's "first charge remains upon the battlefield."

He added that his long-range aim, and that of the U. S. and the U. N., is "the restoration of a free, independent, united and democratic nation."

A perspiring crowd estimated at 200,000 jammed the capitol grounds to celebrate also the seventh anniversary of Korea's liberation from 40 years of Japanese occupation and the fourth birthday of the U. N.-sponsored republic.

In Pyongyang, the capital of North Korea, Premier Kim Il Sung issued a mild blast at the U. N. Thursday night ceremonies commemorating the liberation.

"U. S. insistence on compulsory retention of Communist prisoners," Kim said, "is the only obstacle holding up final settlement of the Korean dispute."

The speech, broadcast over Pyongyang Radio and heard in Tokyo, promised efforts "to settle the Korean question amicably" (The U. N. stand at the deadlocked truce talks is that no prisoner should be forced to rejoin communism against his will.)

Russia's Premier Joseph Stalin and Mao Tse-tung, boss of Red China, wished the North Korean success in the war, in anniversary messages.

Gen. Mark Clark, the Allied supreme commander, and Gen. James A. Van Fleet, U. S. Eighth Army commander, were seated with Rhee on the flower-decked platform in Seoul. Clark congratulated the white-haired president and commended "the splendid leadership he was given his country in the valiant fight against communism."

Dedication Ceremonies Slated For New Stadium Next Friday

Thousands Cheer As He Promises Not to Let Up For Communists

Dedication ceremonies will be held at the Memorial Stadium Friday night, Aug. 22, Joel Field, former president of the Sanford Baseball Association and Chairman of American Legion Stadium committee, announced today.

The program will be conducted with a double-header game with Palatka scheduled for that night and is slated to take place at 7:00 o'clock.

Seventeen players, four feet by three feet will be unveiled outside the stadium at the beginning of the dedication, and an admission will be charged for this part of the program, Mr. Field said.

Following the dedication a program will be conducted inside the stadium by the American Legion which will be concluded by 8:00 in time for the beginning of the second game of the double-header.

The first game is scheduled to begin at 6:45 and Mr. Field said that arrangements had been made with both teams to assist in the conclusion of the game by 7:00.

The new stadium required 15 months to construct, and the Jaro Construction Co., Orlando, had to contend with the acute building restrictions due to the Korean War. Elton J. Moughton was architect.

The stadium's history dates back to March, 1950, when a referendum was held and voters approved the construction of a modern baseball plant to supplant the obsolete wooden structure, built in 1925. Work was started on the foundation of the new stand in October, 1950.

It was on Sept. 26, 1951 that the long awaited 125 tons of structural steel for the stadium arrived from the Virginia Steel Co. It was predicted that the project would be completed by the first of this year but it was March before the first game was played in the new park.

At its meeting on March 17, the Sanford Post No. 81, the American Legion, approved the purchase of two more players, 39 by 40 inches in size to be dedicated to the stadium's women's team. The players who have served in wars in which this country has been engaged.

The contractor originally figured that the stadium as it stands would cost $75,000 but due to increased cost of steel and other materials, the cost has risen to $123,434. Work on the field, bleachers, lights and other additions brought the total figure to $141, according to H. S. Nagels.

Termed the finest stadium in the Class B League, the stadium has a total seating capacity of 2,302 fans in the grandstand, stand and bleachers.

The concrete and steel grandstand will seat approximately 1,000 white and 400 colored persons. Box seat allocations were the seating of 250 whites and 100 Negro spectators. In all, 1,100 permanent seats are afforded to all patrons in the new stadium.

Painted in silver and black, with a roof extending over the grandstand section, the stadium presents a pleasing appearance. Sports writers and fans were afforded comfort in the press box, which is roomy, and which affords a fine view of the field from the very front of the stand directly back of the plate.

Egypt's Strong Man Denounces Everything 'Red'

Says Army Will Crush Any Element Which Talks Communism

Cairo, Egypt (AP) — Egypt's strong man, Maj. Gen. Mohammed Naguib, told his clearing troops today the army would crush any element which talks communism.

Naguib, who is clearing the way for the army to take over the government, said he would not pay attention to pacifist demands to quit Egypt's military and civil service, and that he would not accept any element which talks communism.

In an impassioned address to his men after attending Muslim prayers, Naguib said he would not pay attention to pacifist demands to quit Egypt's military and civil service, and that he would not accept any element which talks communism.

"We'll crush them," he said, "if they talk communism."

The general said the property of the army will not be confiscated. "We'll pay them for what we'll be under total restriction," he said. "We're not going to give the land over free. Each person will pay for it to install the army which will be used to pay the original owners."

Naguib cautioned his troops against forming any political party.

"The army is the only party to which all officers and soldiers should belong," he said. "Our duty is fighting and we should not mix in politics."

Meanwhile, Egypt's new reform government stepped censorship on all outgoing news stories, after only a few days of free reporting.

President Naguib had granted women freedom from the strict Egyptian customs in a decree last Sunday. Censorship had been on a tight rein by King Farouk's regime, particularly in the criticism of the royal family.

The sudden shift did not come as a complete surprise, even though Anwar Habib, the nation's (Continued on Page Two)

Practices Begun By Seminole Band For Dedication

More than 25 members of the Seminole High School Band, and last night under the direction of Ernest Cowley in preparation for playing at the Municipal Stadium Friday night.

Many of the members have been turning out for practice one night a week during the summer months, said Mr. Cowley, who expressed much enthusiasm today for the spirit shown, and who predicted that SHS will have an outstanding band during the coming year.

"We have already had requests to play in neighboring cities, including Daytona Beach, where the band played last year," he declared.

He pointed out that last year the band was a "young band" including many sophomores. Only about eight members were lost by graduation, and with the band membership set at 45, the loss can be replaced by incoming players from the Junior High School, who have been under training by Mr. Cowley.

A new addition will be a band of 25 beginners at the High School, bringing total band membership up to more than 80.

Henry DaMico, former solo trombonist with the University of Florida band, has been practicing with the school band here this summer.

For two weeks in early July this summer, Mr. Cowley served as a member of the teaching staff at the University of Miami Band Camp, and he stated today that he had gained some new ideas for the band that he will introduce.

UN Is Told Atom Bomb Use Rests On This Country

United States Maintains Right To Use Bomb On Aggressor

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — The United States warned today that it reserved the right to use the A-bomb and atom warfare to suppress aggression until such weapons are eliminated by an ironclad system of international safeguards.

The warning was made by U. S. Delegate Herbert A. Brown in a speech before the U. N. Disarmament Commission where Russia has repeatedly demanded that the U. N. ban atomic weapons and gain war powers.

Brown made it clear, however, that the United States does not intend to use such weapons at any time contrary to the terms of the United Nations charter. He said that the United States would not accept a mere paper declaration prohibiting the use of the weapons.

Cohen said "We are making no ultimatum. We are making no threats."

He went on to say that until there is an effective international system of inspection to make agreements are not being violated, the United States does not intend to make agreements by which it would be committing itself to being aggressed and charged with the responsibility of suppressing aggression.

"We do so in exchange for mere paper promises which do not give us any real security," he said. "To certainly there is no real security in a system which does not keep its own promises and does not fight with its own weapons if they have them and do not believe them when they are broken."

He said the American position was expressed in one sentence of Cohen's speech which said "men fight to kill. It is not easy to negotiate how they should kill. The Soviet delegate called this 'the spirit of American going to war' and added 'they are attempting to force it on international law.'"

Blues In The News

By BOB ANTHONY

The regular meeting of the Fleet Reserve, Branch No. 147 was held last night at the CPO Club aboard the station. President Z. C. Hanrahan, Chief Commissaryman, USN (retired), opened the meeting and during the course of business a new board was inaugurated to campaign for a larger membership for the local chapter.

The local Fleet Reserve Branch has just been started and men of the Navy and Naval Reserve, with over six years service, may obtain information as to membership by contacting Don Taylor at the NAAS Personnel Office, or any member of the Fleet Reserve. Present at the meeting last night were President Hanrahan, Henry Robinson, Chief Aerographer, USN; George Powell, Yeoman first class, USN; Don Taylor, Personnelman second class, USN; William C. Braxton, Storekeeper second class, USN; Oscar New, Aviation Machinists Mate first class, USN; James Herndon, Aviation Machinists Mate first class, USN; and Chief Aviation Boatswain Scherer, USN.

Ralph Gussman and Jim Stayton of PASRON were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barnes of VP-22 at their home in Casselberry recently in honor of a birthday. Dinner was enjoyed after which the traditional "Happy Birthday" was sung to "Dixie's Delight." "Dixie's Delight" is the Barnes dog and the party was held to celebrate the late pilot's seventh month of existence. What was that remark about "leading a dog's life"???

Jack Perry, who was discharged from the Navy and PASRON in July made several friends during his tour of duty here in Sanford. As a result, Jack will be the host to three Sanford "love-liners" in about a week. The love-liners are the Misses Bobbie Lee Morton, Betty Doris Williams and Betty Cutlum. The three girls are on their way to New York City now and plan to return to the trip to Bangor, Maine to visit Jack at his home before returning to Sanford.

If the girls try real hard, they may be able to talk Jack into returning to Sanford to live. He always did seem to be quite happy through the next week. All boys and girls welcome.

being stationed in this city. Frank Aymann left PASRON today with an honorable discharge from the U. S. Navy. Frank plans to return to his former job as a lithographer in his hometown of New Orleans.

The Station Personnel Department has completed their plans for a picnic this Sunday afternoon. Burt's Recreation Park will be the site of the occasion and swimming, fishing and games will be climaxed with a steak roast. Don Evans of Fighter Squadron 32 returned here today from leave while PASRON's George Mingsel departs on leave. In each case, Massachusetts is the home state. Don says everything is fine up there in "Yankeealand" but I guess George doesn't want second hand information. He's on his way now to spend his leave in his hometown of Boston.

Another man to leave Sanford on leave is Ken Jones of NAAS. Ken left Wednesday night for Lancaster, Pennsylvania where he will enjoy about 20 days with his family and friends. If you're planning to drive somewhere this weekend, be careful. Accidents don't always happen to the "other guy".

And remember, there are 168 hours in a week and the average church service is no longer than an hour. Attend the church of your choice this Sunday.

PRINCESS ANNE IS TWO
BALMORAL, Scotland—Britain's young Princess Anne, a bright little blond with an independent sparkle in her eye, is two today, and court gossip already is picking her a husband. The speculation ranges over a wide list of blue-bloods-in-short-pants, all of them young aristocrats whose family connections are bound to bring them near the young princess.

But her future dancing partners held little interest for Anne this morning. The excitement centered entirely on the birthday celebration program starting at breakfast with the presentation of gifts. There were presents from her big brother, three-and-a-half year old Prince Charles, and a couple of big ones from her royal parents, young Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Edinburgh.

TO AVOID BOLLYC
PARIS (AP)—To avoid provoking the Soviets, the United States will move with caution in pushing strong naval and air forces into North European waters for next month's Atlantic pact war games. An Allied military source said Thursday night.

The big maneuvers—operation "Mainbrace"—begin Sept. 13 for members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO). Some 150 Allied ships will take part. They will range from Denmark to the Arctic Circle. But the steers clear of the Southern Baltic and Soviet-occupied East Germany, said a spokesman here.

Airplane and Boat Chase On St. Johns Has Movie Setting

JACKSONVILLE—Two shrimp fishermen are due for criminal Court trial after a plane-boat chase that could have come right out of a spy movie.

The chase ended with a collision between the State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission plane and one of three boats; the pilot being charged with careless and reckless operation of an airplane; one fisherman charged with illegal shrimp fishing and another charged with damaging state property.

Details of the chase—from the Naval Air Station 10 miles or so from Trout River—were told here by Justice of the Peace George Brown.

Principals were Herbert Ingham released from a charge of illegal shrimp fishing and charged with damaging the plane's tail assembly; I. B. Lunberg, who must answer the shrimp fishing charge; and R. R. Tower, wildlife officer and pilot of the plane. Ingham was responsible for the reckless plane operation charge against Tower.

Tower said he was on routine patrol about noon Monday when he spotted Lunberg pulling a net into his boat. When the shrimp saw the plane he cut the net line and started away fast. The pilot said he saw a net piled on the boat manned by Ingham, who also pulled away in a hurry. He testified further that every time he landed to taxi close to the boats, the fishermen turned in another direction to escape him.

So Tower radioed for help from ground-based wildlife officers. Leon Barrie, one of these, said he first saw the boats as they passed under one of the bridges at downtown Jacksonville. He said he had a tough job keeping them in sight.

Wildlife Officer Max Aiken said he pursued Lunberg's boat and found about 150 pounds of shrimp when he finally arrested him. Tower and Barrie went after Ingham with Tower making passes over the boat to try to halt him. Varying stories about the crash were told.

Tower said he was taxiing when Ingham turned into him. Two outside witnesses said the pilot cut across the boat's bow. The third boat was lost in the shuffle.

"King Of Nudists" "Skinned" Of Title In Cult's Election
MAYS LANDING, N. J. (AP)—Silver-haired Rev. Hsley Boone has been skinned of his unofficial title, "King of American Nudists." In a hotly-contested election watched over by three fully-clothed Superior Court appointees at near-by Sunshine Park, the 37-year-old Baptist preacher's 20-year old hold on the American Sunbathing Association was broken.

An opposition slate headed by Mervin Mounce, a 43-year-old Spokane, Wash., contractor, was swept into office by a 1,437 to 430 vote margin over Aloise S. Knapp, Chicago, Boone's candidate. In his acceptance speech, delivered in the nude, Mounce said: "Before you stand a humble man."

The new president then promised what he called a more business-like democratic association. Boone, who fought for a year to retain control of the bareskin cult, took his defeat gracefully. Said the rotund, roundly-tanned preacher: "I have given 20 years of my life to nudism and I shall welcome a brief period of retirement before I kiss old mother earth goodbye."

The election capped a year-long scrap for control that wound up in Superior Court after both sides claimed victory in voting held during last summer's convention at Mohnton, Pa. Boone and Norval Packwood, both of Sunshine Park, a nudist's Mecca, were the principal adversaries. Superior Court Judge Vincent S. Haneman listened to the rivals claim leadership of the 8,000-member group and decided neither had been legally elected. He ordered Thursday's election and appointed three attorneys to supervise it.

Army's Task Great In Figuring How Many GI's Fought

WASHINGTON (AP)—Military experts said today it will take them a long time to determine how many Americans have been under fire in Korea.

They will soon start paying $45 to $75 of these "bonus" payments for every month in which they spent six days within range of enemy guns.

But the job of sorting out and deciding claims will involve a mountain of paper work and a long time lag, experts in both Congress and the Pentagon say.

Congress approved this special combat pay retroactive to the start of the Korean campaign.

Pentagon officials estimate it will cost between 250 and 300 million dollars.

The measure applies chiefly to infantrymen of the Army and Marines. Sen. Moody (D-Mich.), the sponsor, said the main purpose is to give hazardous duty pay to men in the foxholes, thus putting them on equal footing in this respect with fliers, submariners and paratroopers.

Those now serving in Korea will get their July payments as part of their August checks, Pentagon officials said. In each case, the commanding officer will have to certify that the individual was attached for the required time to a unit designated as having been within enemy fire.

The problems become more involved, the experts say, when they start reviewing the long lists of men who have gone through Korean combat in the past.

This is easiest for combat infantrymen but becomes difficult for those in the Navy, Air Force or attached to numerous fringe units, such as supply and signal corps.

Some experts say that a number of veterans who have seen bitter action might be ineligible. They say it is possible some infantry units might have been pulled from the line, badly chewed up, without serving the required six days during a hot month's campaign.

Nearly two million official claim forms are being printed for the use of ex-servicemen. The forms will be available at most postoffices by Sept. 15.

NEW CANCER TREATMENT
NEW YORK (AP)—Montefiore Hospital in the Bronx says it will receive a high intensity cobalt "bomb" next month from Canada to help in the treatment of deep-seated cancer.

Particles of energy from the cobalt unit penetrate cancer cells to destroy them. X-rays chiefly have been used in cancer therapy up to the present.

"With the cobalt unit," the hospital said, "it is possible to direct a larger, sharper and more effective dose at the patient without injury to healthy skin and bones around the cancer."

CONCRETE PAVEMENT!
You can see for and stop short of concrete, the safety pavement, because:

1. Its light-colored surface purifies reflected light without glare, increases visibility and reduces night driving fatigue.

2. Its gray surface is child resistant, wet or dry, helping you make safe, quick stops.

Concrete highways, engineered for safety, stay safe longer with lower cost for maintenance. Your gasoline tax and motor vehicle license fees will buy more highway service per dollar when invested in concrete pavements.

Bids For Dixie

WASHINGTON (AP)—Page One) GOP threat since 1928 had Democratic party leaders whooping it up for today's homecoming of Sen. John Sparkman, the Democratic nominee for vice president.

In Arkansas, Democrats were told they could expect to be defeated for two years if, after having voted in the Democratic primary, they support the GOP ticket at the polls Nov. 4.

In Louisiana, Republicans organizing Eisenhower's state campaign ran into an upsurge of party strife. Still, the odds were Eisenhower backers and supporters of Ohio's Sen. Robert Taft.

At a meeting in Alexandria Saturday, the Eisenhower people succeeded in placing their choice as Louisiana campaign manager but failed in a bid to seat new members on the state central committee.

At Denver, it was learned Eisenhower is arranging an unprecedented whirlwind invasion of perhaps a dozen major cities in at least seven Southern states. The plan is to travel to New York from New York about Sept. 2 and zip through Dixie for 2 or 2 1/2 days. He would speak at Miami and Jacksonville, Fla.

Eisenhower headquarters at Springfield, Ill., was also astir with speechmaking preparations. Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney, Oklahoma, chairman of the Democrats' speakers bureau, said a team of four orators will range country wide.

Stevenson himself took off for a brief vacation. Indications were he would keep up with his chores as Illinois governor, when he returns, and still stay on campaign schedule. The official "kickoff" address by him will be at Detroit Labor Day — coinciding with President Truman's initial campaign speech at Milwaukee.

A few days later, Stevenson's plans will take him stumping to the West Coast and possibly the Southwest, with a Southern junket a bit afterward.

This Wednesday at Boise, Idaho, Eisenhower makes what his camp has labeled his first frankly political speech since winning the GOP nomination. A major campaign speech on world peace, after the quick quest for votes in the South is scheduled Sept. 4 at Philadelphia.

In Washington, the Americans for Democratic Action, which sought Eisenhower's nomination for President four years ago, opposed his bid as the GOP candidate this year.

A statement, issued Sunday by the ADA national executive committee, endorsed the Stevenson-Sparkman ticket and the Democratic Party platform. It expressed disappointment in Eisenhower, saying he "has apparently turned his back on his own magnificent service."

ADA's action drew a response today from Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper, Iowa, who said it "now completes the captivity picture in which the Democratic presidential nominee finds himself."

DEATH CELL AWAITING WOMAN
MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Murderer's row at Kilby Prison—which few women have ever even seen—has a curtained cell in readiness for one scheduled to die there Sept. 20.

Grim, impassive Mrs. Earle Denison, convicted at Wetumpka Saturday for the poison slaying of her two-year-old niece, is to be transferred there today.

The law requires the Alabama Supreme Court to review her sentence.

If the sentence is upheld and further appeals fail, the curtained cell in Kilby's death row will be the last home on earth for the 34-year-old nurse.

Because the prison has no facilities for condemned women, Warden C. P. Buford picked a special cell and draped it with curtains to insure "privacy."

IN KOREA, Lt. Col. Edward Daniel McNaughton ponders over news from Kingston, Ontario, that his late aunt, Mrs. James Norman Stuart Leslie, had willed him her $250,000 estate provided that he legally assumes the surname of Leslie. McNaughton, who is with the Canadian First Commonwealth Division, is the son of Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, commander-in-chief of Canada's overseas forces during World War II.

These Women

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Whatever else the recent double spectacle at Chicago proved, it is that woman's place—wherever else it may be—isn't on the political rostrum.

The gentlemen might just as well face the cold, hard fact that women are sneaking onto the top rungs of the political ladder. The nomination of two women for the vice presidential candidacy was a token gesture, but the mere fact that two nominating speeches were made has considerable significance. But if the girls are going to be up there, it might be well for both party councils to sit down right now and get some ground rules established.

By nature, by instinct, by physical construction and by the pitch of their voices, women are not orators. The sight of a woman in front of a battery of microphones, making like a flower-bellied William Jennings Bryan and feebly aping the traditionally masculine gestures of the spell-binding trade is an unpleasant combination of comedy, pathos, embarrassment and boredom.

Speaking as one who remained glued to a television set through two of the hottest weeks July could produce, it is my measured and quite serious opinion that the one woman who came off well and who spoke with communicable conviction was a female impersonator hired by the sponsor of one network's convention coverage to plug ovens, washing machines, refrigerators and related kitchen appliances.

It must be conceded immediately that a handful of determined women, crusading vigorously for feminine rights, are largely responsible for the political advancement of women in the past 30 or 40 years.

I believe, however, that women are victims of mistaken reasoning when they seek to imitate the platform manners of the boys, now that they've won the right to speak and be heard. They might have got away with it in the days before public address systems and—most important—before television. But the searching eye of the talking camera is in the process of forcing some speedy political evolution for the masculine performers. The bull-throated, silver-tongued orator was a product of the days when it was necessary for the human voice, unfortified by electronics, to travel to the farthest reaches of the political arena, and when listening to memorized eloquence was one of the few forms of entertainment.

Today there's a premium on brevity, simple language and understatement. Unfortunately, most speakers at the recent conventions haven't caught up yet with the trend. The ladies, however, better catch on or the cause of women in politics will crumble.

Helen Pierce Hicks Weds Clifford Wynn

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pierce Sr. of Orlando announced today the marriage of their daughter Helen Pierce Hicks to Clifford Wynn, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James M. Wynn of Sanford. The wedding took place on Friday at 1:30 p.m. in the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Orlando.

The Rev. Albert H. D. Rosales officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of the family and intimate friends of the couple. Forming a lovely setting for the ceremony were the palms, arrangements of pink gladioli and lighted candles on the altar.

Mrs. Esther, violinist and organist, rendered a program of pre-nuptial music and the traditional wedding marches were used.

The petite bride was radiant in her ballerina length gown of sheer ice blue nylon which featured a matching half hat with veiling and carried a Colonial bouquet of sweetheart and tuberose flowers. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of sweetheart roses.

Clarence L. Wynn, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man, and ushers were John M. Senkark of Sanford and John W. Pierce Jr. of Cocoa, brother of the bride.

The brides mother was gowned in a sheer grey dress complemented with a corsage of gold poinsettias. Mrs. H. J. Overstreet Sr. of Longwood, sister of the bridegroom, wore a lace trimmed dress which she took with a corsage of sweet heart roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church reception room. Receiving the guests were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce; the bridegroom's sister Mrs. Overstreet; the bride and groom; and the matron of honor, Mrs. Senkark.

The bride's table was covered with an imported outlook cloth over rose and centered with a three tiered wedding cake flanked with lighted white tapers in silver candleholders. The cake was served by Mrs. Clarence L. Wynn, Mrs. John Wrennick, sister of the bride, served punch from a crystal bowl, and another sister, Mrs. G. C. Stevens, kept the bride's book.

HOLLYWOOD By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD—No more tear jerkers for Jane Wynn. From now on, she wants happy pictures. This may sound like biting the hand that has fed her very well. After all, it was the screeners that established her as a top Hollywood star. A dawning dawn named "The Last Weekend" first showed producers that she could really handle character roles deftly when she played Ma Baxter in "The Yearling."

As a plain deal girl in "Johnny Brenda" she won one of those gold thumbs that get Academy hands out annually. Last year she snagged her third Oscar nomination with "The Blue Veil," which was strictly a four handkerchief affair.

But audiences don't want to see pictures like those right now. They're protesting as we talked beside her pale blue swimming pool. "Homecoming" they have enough trouble of their own without going to see more problems on the screen. That's why I want to sing and laugh in the movies I make.

Besides, it's a lot easier on me. I can breeze right through a happy picture. But "The Blue Veil" was a lot of work. I had to look a lot of like I was in pain. I spent 16 weeks on that. I spent months seeing films about instructing about people and learning how to act like they were. "The Yearling" took about a year. At the end of the picture we actually used the deer that had been in the first scene. It was a year.

Mrs. Wynn as a lot happier about her new picture. She's happy about it. "Just for You" it's the kind of a movie she wants to be doing in the future. But I suspect the thing she likes about it is that she gets ample opportunity to sing.

The girl is as glibly about her new singing career as a starlet is about her first arrival copy of Variety. It checks off major points of her latest record with "You're a Little Zing."

This singing kick started when the producer contacted her to do a record of two songs. She appeared to others in "Here Come the Girls." Some time she had some wild recording, right and left and singing at the drop of an eye, as she says that. Now she's planning to hit the road.

I was supposed to open in Chicago next month and go on to the Bronx in New York with my own stage show, she said. "But the date came too soon and I have to do a picture at Columbia. But I intend to do it next year, when my film commitments are squared away. Then I'll go on to play the Palladium in London."

Oh, yes, we also talked about fashion before we ended our pool side talk. I mentioned that Chris Tina Dior was again trying to vie with American husbands by bringing back the late unfashioned new look. What does Jane think about that?

"I think it's awful," she said frankly. "But fashion was so unflattering to women. Besides, it's too hard on the pocketbook. No woman can afford to get a whole new wardrobe because the length of skirts has fallen in Paris styles."

Mrs. Howard tells her dating plan to Patricia Medina in "Lady in the Iron Mask," released by 20th Century Fox. In natural color, showing on the Ritz Theatre screen Tuesday and Wednesday.
