10 Masked Bandits Rob Club Guests Of Big Sum Of Money

dominant Citizens Of Indianapolis Victims Of Bold Hold-up Netting Nearly $200,000

New York Group Meets Like Fate Gotham Stick-Up Men Invade Bowery Cafe Confirmation Party

INDIANAPOLIS, May 31, (INS)—10 masked bandits today held up the Roadside Country Club and robbed 200 guests of jewelry and money valued at between $60,000 and $200,000. The robbers were prominent citizens of Indianapolis and their townsmen had to attend the meeting. The bandits invaded the exclusive club in full swing when the bar was crowded in the round room where they were equipped with sub-machine guns, sawed-off shotguns, pistols. The guests were ordered to lie down against the wall in a few of the men opened fire, others raised their rifles and they quickly fell silent.

With the fashionably dressed men and women in evening clothes along the two sides of the spacious ballroom, the bandit leaders asked for their attention and the following orders: "Drop in my name and we'll let you leave that will be paid out now."

One of the bandits stood openly with the machine gun of the tenth bandit went down with the other, he and up the call for him. He had a woman taut in his arms and allowed to enter with a mucky program in it.

One of the visitors tried to say "results" and jewels by dropping them behind their backs, all were of no use and one said that it was dangerous to hope to "hold out." With the action completed the men faded in military uniforms based in a large automobile and disappeared in the darkness.

NEW YORK, May 31, (INS)—Men and women, guests of a ladies' birthday party for a twelve-year-old girl in a cafe near the city, were lined up and easily today by four masked bandits who took away from each person $15,000 in jewels and cash. The four masked bandits left the restaurant empty-handed, carrying off a diamond ring which the girl had slipped in a small diamond into her mouth.

The ring was precious to the girl as a confirmation present. The eye of one of the bandits was the action. He demanded the girl shoot her head and gave hand grasped her throat. The taken dropped to the floor. The robber slapped the child's face from her, while dress a ring and a brooch.

A tragic climax to a gay party is believed to have been brought by the bandits who invaded the Actors' Inn, in Greenwich Village a few days ago. A robbery ended in the killing of a man by another to a person pursuing the bandits.

In a description of the bandit police believe he is one of four men wanted for the murder of detectives Cantor and Cork more than a year ago. The two were shot to death in a battle with four bandits held up an East Side restaurant.

Loughran At Outs With Tex Rickard Because Of Failure To Get Battle

By Davis J. Walsh

NEW YORK, May 30.—The abiding mystery as to just why a young man of intelligence had insisted upon getting himself involved in three title fights—probably for the price of one—within a period of fifteen days was explained in painstaking detail this morning by Tommy Loughran, the young man in question. He was getting ready to enter the ring tonight with Pete Latzo in the first heat of this endurance contest and he deemed the moment ripe for a snappy what's it all about if anything inquiry.

He replied by charging Tex Rickard with bad faith, in allegedly failing to keep a word of mouth promise to drop him down in the heavyweight elimination tournament, just recently concluded with dissatisfaction to everybody except Tunney, Heeney and Rickard.

The latter, he said, had talked him out of a match with Johnny Risko in Detroit by promising to put on a Risko-Loughran fight in the garden this spring.

"The next thing I knew," declared Loughran this morning, working himself into a dudgeon, "Rickard had announced a Risko-Latzo fight and I was left out of the bag." His option on my services didn't mean anything, apparently, for not only was he giving me no work but he was preventing me from getting any making promises he didn't keep. Did I run out on him? You can put it that way. If you want I prefer to say that I walked out on him."

Running or walking, Loughran's gesture seems to have lent aid and comfort to some of a stunner.

RUTH AND GEHRIG HIT TWO HOMERS AS YANKEES WIN

Home Run Twins Go On Rampage Against Washington In Twin Bill; Percy Jones Blanks The Cincinnati Reds

NEW YORK, May 30.—(INS)—Little Lloyd Brown, rookie southpaw of the Washington Senators, does not crave to run against the New York Yankees again for a long, long time. Sent to the mound against the murderous Yanks in the fourth inning of the second game in yesterday's double header here, Brown was dumped for a home run by Babe Ruth and another by Buster Gehrig before he realized what it was all about.

The Babe and the Buster each shipped in with another homer during the nightcap, giving Ruth a total of 18 and Gehrig 10 for the season to date. The world's champions have walked 46 homers in their 10 games and the American League today leads the National 143 homers to 142, thanks to their slugging.

Ruth is now eight games and eight days ahead of the record pace he maintained last season.

Incidentally, the Yanks won both ends of the doubleheader by scores of 3 to 2 and 12 to 3. Leo Durocher, substitute shortstop, broke up a pitching duel between Sam Jones and George Piggas in the first game by smacking a triple with the bases loaded. It was Piggas' eighth victory.

Joe Hauser of the Athletics tied Hack Wilson for third place in the home run marathon by hitting his ninth home, which beat the Red Sox 4 to 3.

Percy Jones, Chicago's 8 millionaire southpaw, held the Reds to four hits and whitewashed them 4 to 0. The Cub now trails the league leaders by only one game.

Hard luck is dogging the Cincy pitchers. Red Lucas was injured earlier this week and Luque's arm went on the Fritz yesterday.

Memphis Bill Terry pulled a Frank Merrifield by clutching a Homer with the bases full as the New York Giants swiped Brooklyn 12 to 5. With four hits in all, Terry was the chief factor in the downfall of Jess Petty, who whitewashed the Giants last week.

The Pirates, getting less ferocious daily, have lost four straight. Flint Rhein of the Cardinals subdued them yesterday 7 to 1, the Cards regaining fourth place.

George Sisler got a big hand and one hit and scored two runs in his debut with the Boston Braves, who slaughtered the Phillips by a 9 to 3 rout. Hornsby collected a single, a double and a Homer, and now leads the National League hitters. Other teams were idle.

W. Truwick, 51, overturned after shipping a front wheel while traveling at a high rate of speed.

Richard Byrd Picks Bennett Successor For Pole Journey

NEW YORK, May 28.—(INS)—Harold L. Jones, naval petty officer and aviation pilot, a young and comparatively unknown flier, has been selected by Commander Richard E. Byrd as the successor to Floyd Bennett for the proposed Pole flight. Approval of the Navy Department is awaited.

Byrd was an obscure chief machinist's mate when picked by Commander Byrd from the ranks of the non-commissioned personnel of the navy, from which source his successor has been chosen.

Jones has had four years of flying in the navy and 1,500 hours in the air. He was a member of the "million dollar Vanderbilt yacht crew," that enlisted in a body in the naval forces during the war. Although Jones was without great means he served in the crew, as chief engineer and joined with the rest of the party. He distinguished himself at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station for ability in handling engines.

After being out of the service for a while Jones re-enlisted in 1920. He became interested in aviation and in his work in the school specialized in engineering. He became a non-commissioned pilot in 1923, and since then has made record which Commander Byrd believes is outstanding in test flying.

Jones is thirty-three years old, is married, has one child and lives in Stamford, Conn. He is stationed at the naval air station at Hampton Roads, Va.

Chicago Merchant Enlists Al Capone For His Protection

CHICAGO, May 28.—(INS)—Desperate over the alleged failure of established law to protect his interests, a prominent Chicago business man today was reported to have taken into partnership one Alphonse Capone, none other than the notorious "Scarface Al" of gangster fame.

Morris Becker, for forty years a leading cheater and dyer in Chicago, is the big business representative who has made a partner of Capone, according to G. L. Hostetter, secretary of the Employers Association of Chicago. Becker, according to Hostetter, has come to believe that fire must be fought with fire, and that "it takes a devil to kill a devil."

Becker explained, said Hostetter, that for ten years his cleaning establishments have been bashed, his employees shamed and terrorized, and his business generally demoralized by gangsters and racketeers hired by unscrupulous competitors. And none has ever been punished.

Forced to the conclusion he could not expect protection from constituted authority, Becker is said to have conceived the idea of taking "Scarface Al" the power-fight of gangland into partnership with him. Along with Capone is said to have come the Mafia tributary, including Jack Guzik, a Capone confidant member who formerly had charge of Chicago's bathhouses.

Becker who operates a chain of cleaning and dyeing establishments, told Hostetter, according to the latter, that everything had been quiet since the partnership was formed. Not a single threat nor the slightest suggestion of trouble has come to his attention since Scarface Al joined his firm.

Prohibition Agents To Wear Uniforms Says New Command

OAKLAND, Calif., May 28.—(INS)—Last minute preparations completed, the huge triple-monoplane Southern cross was today pronounced ready to hop off on a projected Trans-Pacific aerial expedition to Australia.

Weather permitting, the giant plane will take off early tomorrow or Thursday on the first leg of the flight, a 2,400 mile trip to Honolulu. It will leave either from the Oakland airport, where it now rests in a hangar, or from the San Francisco airport, depending on wind conditions.

Four men, two Australians and two Americans, plan to make the attempted flight. They are Captain Kingsford-Smith and Capt. T. P. Uin, Australian pilots; and Harry W. Lyon Jr., navigator, and James Warren, radio operators. The fuel tanks of the Southern Cross will be filled with 1200 gallons of gasoline and 39 gallons of oil.

Actor's First Wife Given Back Alimony

BALTIMORE, Md., May 28.—(INS)—Mrs. Josephine M. Bushman, first wife of Francis X. Bushman, motion picture actor, was advised today that Justice Callahan, of the New York supreme court had awarded her a summary judgment against him for $52,298 back alimony for the support of herself and five children.

"I never want to hear his name mentioned again," she said. "The public is tired of hearing our domestic troubles, but I am sure the sympathy of the world is back of me in the court actions. I have been compelled to take."

(Continued from page one) future resort to war. "It is my earnest hope that success may crown the negotiations now in progress," he said. "It is realized that war can not be profitable. The trend of civilization is undoubtedly toward peace."

The present military operations of this government in Nicaragua, China and Haiti were warmly defended by the President. "Though we have at this time some of our forces in Haiti, Nicaragua and China, they are in none of these places for the purpose of making war, but for the purpose of insuring peaceful conditions under which the rights of our nationals and their property may receive that protection to which they are entitled under the terms of international law."

With reference to Nicaragua and Haiti, he said: "We are there at their express invitation and in accordance with explicit agreements."

Turning from the subject of international relations, President Coolidge discussed briefly problems of a more domestic nature. On the correlated subject of preparedness, he expressed the opinion that the building up of national resources, establishment of good credit and retirement of the national debt constituted greater gestures toward national safety than would the maintenance of a tremendous military establishment.

"Good credit, which is derived from sound financial conditions, is the principal foundation of national defense," he said. "Reduction of our national debt, permitting a reduction of taxes which stimulate private enterprise and increases our credit, is an important addition. The industrial development, the agricultural development, the financial resources, strengthened by wise policies in time of peace are of inestimable value in time of war."

The crime wave prevalent in certain points of America's big civic centers also came under the analytical eye of Mr. Coolidge, and he derided it as "a loosening of the moral fiber of the nation."

"It is very easy to cast the blame upon the police authorities, the prosecuting officers, and the courts," he asserted. "But if a criminal condition continues to prevail, the blame goes beyond these officials. We live under a system of popular government. Our officers reflect to a very large degree public opinion."

"If the people themselves show that they are determined to have crime stamped out, there will be no lack of vigilance on the part of the police, no lack of adequate penalty on the part of the courts."

In this connection, the President diverged to a discussion of the law in its application to government. "The purpose, as has been so well expressed, is to provide a government of law and not of men," he said.

"The chief temptations to go beyond the bounds which the people have set arise in legislature. In their desire to take some action which they conceive to be in the public interest, they often times manifest a disposition to exceed their constitutional authority. Such action is a harbinger of power. Responsibility for it can not be evaded by the weak plea to let the law be passed and the courts decide its constitutionality."

As a parting shot, the President admonished Americans abroad to remember that they must adhere to the laws of the countries in which they happen to be. "The carelessness of some of our citizens abroad in violating domestic law and in assuming an arrogant attitude toward the local inhabitants tends to bring our country into dispute and endangers the continuance of friendly relations," he observed.

Herring Honors Soldier Dead In Patriotic Talk

(Continued from page 1) ance in office. To them a trust is a sacred thing, and they will defend it with their very lives if need be.

"Teach the rising generation, the future hope of our country's greatness, to love, admire and cherish the memory of our soldier dead. Those brave, generous unselfish hearts that were true to their trust and faithful unto death.

"To me it has always seemed that the most glorious death a man could die was on a hard-fought field of battle with the arms of his comrade supporting him and the victorious cheers of his own troops ringing in his ears."

"Today, not in grief and sorrow, for their lot was a glorious lot, but in pride, admiration and affection we come to place our floral offerings at the foot of this shaft and on their grave in yonder cemetery, with the humble prayer to the God of Hosts that he will bless and prosper their loved ones."

Mr. Herring's address followed invocation by Dr. E. D. Brownlee, pastor of the Presbyterian Church. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mortimer Glynn, rector of the Holy Cross Episcopal Church, followed by a salute fired by the national guards and taps played by the drum and bugle corps.

The various organizations paraded from the courthouse to the park, led by the drum and bugle corps and members of the Campbell's National Convention in Houston.

The Herald, Sanford's pioneer newspaper, is a member of the International News Service, receiving from this superior news organization twenty thousand words daily covering every important event in the entire world. The I. N. S. is especially efficient in Florida and it's manner of handling state news is without equal.

The Herald is a member of the American Bureau of Circulations, International Association of Publishers, Advertisers and Advertising Agents, which regulates each publishing member to submit a thorough audit of subscription lists in order to get absolute accuracy in circulation as well as honest business methods.

THURSDAY, MAY 31.

Tune in on Doyle Carlton speaking over the radio tonight in Miami.

The Herald also recommends for the legislature Mr. L. P. Hagan, and for county commissioners Mr. John Meisch and Mr. Frank Evans.

It is unfortunate that an attack of appendicitis has prevented Governor Martin from completing his campaign tour, but he is to be congratulated that he has already piled up a sufficient lead to make further campaigning unnecessary.

We agree with the Tampa Tribune that if the supporters of Catts think that he can give the counties racing, that he is just double crossing them. The grand jury can stop it in five minutes. —
Sanctuary Times. But a number of guidable voters are being suckled by this line of applesauce.

It is no reflection on Dr. MacKenzie that only 34 persons would come to hear him speak for Dr. Hathaway, but it is a serious reflection on the road department chairman who has successfully convinced the people that he is not the man for them to elect governor.

There are some people in Seminole County supporting Hathaway because they think that by so doing they will more quickly secure a road. Roads will be built as the legislature has planned no matter who is elected governor, but they will be built more economically, and probably just as quickly, with Carlton in the chair.

Of course Carlton refused to debate with Dr. MacKenzie. Carlton would be a fool running around the state debating with every Tom, Dick and Harry whom Hathaway met — house to send against him, none of whom have a thing in the world to do with the gubernatorial race, and who in reality know nothing whatever about the conduct of the road department.

When Dr. Hathaway spoke here early in the campaign, he had a crowd of nearly four hundred. Later when Senator Waybright came in Hathaway's behalf, about a hundred turned out Tuesday night. Dr. MacKenzie, the 56-year-old speaker and most able man of the two road department, 34 citizens, hear him extoll the virtues of Dr. Hathaway. Thus, we believe, can well be taken as an indication of the one time leading candidate's waning popularity.

Sometimes honest people, unwittingly perhaps, aid in the circulation of malicious lies. We have in mind, for instance, the one about Frank Evans having brought out John Meisch's opponent, and the other one about John Meisch having brought out Frank Evans' opponent. There is not a word of truth in either of these rumors as each of these men while aversed at times to the other's policies, is lending his utmost support, in this election, to the other.

P. E. B. of the Tampa Tribune takes issue with our statement that we have been daily receiving enough Al Smith propaganda to sink a battleship and asks how we knew it would. While our knowledge of battleships is limited almost entirely to the stroke of a class crew, we will defend ourselves by asking how P. E. B. knows that it wouldn't. Our position is that a man is innocent until proven guilty. We have made the statement; let P. E. B. disprove it.

When opponents innuated that Frank Evans had disgraced him, he challenged them to debate, and then produced the records, and John Meisch, chairman of the board, to show that someone had lied. He proved beyond all question of doubt what they had been saying about him was untrue. But when Doyle Carlton said that Pons Hathaway had grafted, the road chairman didn't do anything. When Carlton challenged him to debate, he refused. And finally when he saw that he must do something, he did not produce records, auditors or affidavits; he simply said "It isn't so!"

Freedom Of Speech

Last week in Germany there took place a secret convention of agents representing the Third International, the Communist bureau at Moscow, whose object it is to foment "The World Revolution of the World Proletariat," whatever that may mean.

The police knew that the convention was contemplated, that many of the delegates had entered the country on forged passports and that the object of the meeting was to spread insidious propaganda. But using a little more shrewdness than is usually granted to such officials, the law enforcers of Germany allowed the assembly to take place, permitted the participants to lay bare their breasts and get off their chests the long rankling grievances which they had harbored.

Little did the ill advised seditionists think that detectives had planted dictaphones within the recesses of their council chambers and were listening to their innermost thoughts, as it were, and would in due time broadcast to the world what had been said. It was learned that great progress was claimed by the "Communist Cells" or nucleus in the principal navies of the world, ten such cells being reported in the U. S. Navy. It was discovered that mutinies and seditions would occur in the armies of capitalistic powers within the next few months, according to the would be benefactors of the poor people. Many other dire and calamitous things were predicted to be impending.

Had the German police prevented the meeting from taking place many people through sympathy would have been attracted to a cause in the belief that it was being persecuted. Had the meeting been held without the widespread publicity which it so luckily for us received, wild rumors would have gone abroad to scare credulous citizens and to make frightened mothers clutch their trembling children more closely.

As it now is, the spotlight has been turned on the machinations of a futile organization which, judging by the words of its leaders, is groveling in the darkness under the guidance of fanatics, and whose wild claims make it appear ridiculous. It seems that the best way to correct an evil condition is to allow those responsible for it to express themselves to the limit of their abilities and then to publish their pronouncements.

Training Camps

As the summer months approach many young men throughout the country will be looking forward to the two or four weeks' period when they will leave for military training camps. Aside from the benefits derived from such camps in a physical way, they are doing much for the country toward keeping it in a reasonable state of preparedness. We quote the following from the Kansas City Star, conservative newspaper, which believes the camps of inestimable value:

"The total numbers to be provided for at the camps this summer, according to an announcement of the war department, will be approximately 273,000 with 51,351 regular army officers and men being detailed for camp instruction. More than one-half of those attending the camps will be members of the national guard, the chief dependence of the country for military protection in time of peace. The number of young men to be accommodated at the citizens' military training camps, it is indicated, will be about the same as that for several years previous, or 35,000.

"Much of the training, particularly that of the citizens' camps, is aimed at preparation for the duties of peace and daily citizenship. It is training designed to encourage patriotism, respect for authority, good sportsmanship, observance of the rules of healthful living and of the rights of others.

"But the main purpose is to train these young men to defend their country in the event of war. And no good American need be ashamed to avow it."

LET THE SOUTH STAND UNITED
ATLANTA JOURNAL

For the southern states and for the national democracy the most important news of the week was told by the Associated Press in the one sentence: "Texas Democrats have decided to use their 10 votes at the national convention of the party to back up a dry platform for a candidate in sympathy with it."

Thus an imperial commonwealth, the largest in the union and one of the most populous, joins the south's battle line against the political forces behind Governor "Al" Smith. Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee, and now, the Lone Star state take their stand in defense of a common heritage of right principles, the hope for a party that need not be ashamed.

It so happens that the immediate issue on which this contest hinges is the upholding or undermining of the 18th amendment, but vital as that in itself may be, it here serves mainly as a grapping point around which yet greater issues, in so far as the Houston convention is concerned, must be fought to an answer:

Shall, or shall not, the Democratic party be controlled by the better influence in our national life?

Shall it be an instrument to build up or tear down good government?

And in the drafting of its platform, in the choosing of its candidates, in the shaping of its destiny, shall the southern states, the party's one never failing tower of strength, be duly recognized or ignored?

Such are the questions which six states of the south have already answered, and with which North Carolina, Virginia, Florida and Kentucky are now confronted. The Texas result is peculiarly significant. For long months, indeed for years, we are told, emissaries of the cause represented by the candidacy of Governor "Al" Smith have been at work in that quarter. Their organization was far-reaching and highly proficient, their influence so subtle that some of the most distinguished Texans, former Attorney General Gregory, for instance, and former Postmaster General Burleson, were faiths she taught them! Surely

Florida and Kentucky will not forget a kinship that is thicker even than blood—the kinship of devotion to common ideals!

It is to no dead past that we appeal and to no ties of flimsy sentiment, but to realities that are the heart of Southern character, the soul of Southern Democracy. If a people will not stand by their beliefs, they will stand by nothing. If they can be bluffed or bulldozed into parting these, what is left will not be worth keeping.

Because the candidacy of Governor "Al" Smith (not the man himself, but the forces behind him) is a challenge, an arrogant challenge, to what the South believes in, not simply as regards prohibition but as regards essentials that determine the whole spirit of government. Georgia is against him, South Carolina is against him, Alabama is against him, Tennessee is against him, Mississippi is against him, Texas is against him; and unless the others of the Southern household are false to themselves, they will be solidly against him when the Houston roll is called.

His chief press organ, with a bigotry that would have suited the Puritans in their witch-burning days, proclaims that the Houston convention must take a Wet candidate and a Wet platform, no matter what "Southern politicians" hold. It was Oliver Cromwell who declared, "The Irish shall go to Connaught, or they shall go to hell;" such today is the tone of certain would-be dictators to the South. In their provincialism, they lose the perspective of time as well as of space, and forget that for more than three score years the South has been the sinew and the soul of that party from whose counsels they now would virtually exclude her.

What Southern state, what Southern citizen can relish this intolerance? What Democrat, in all Dixie, will not arouse when he sees the peril of turning the party over to a clique bent upon running for the advantage of one group of interests, and those the narrowest, the most selfish in America? Such is the issue on which Texas has taken her place with Mississippi and Tennessee, with Georgia and Alabama and South Carolina. And it is the Journal's faith that on this same issue, involving the integrity, the usefulness, the very existence of the Democratic party, North Carolina, Virginia, Florida, Kentucky and the rest will be found marching breast forward.

If so, the Smith candidacy is defeated and Democracy is saved for a potent future. The common country, as we believe, looks to the South for this service; assuredly her own calm sense of reason and of right bid her to it. Then what ever else Democracy may win of loss, it will avoid that saddest disaster, of which a prophet wrote, "When just principles are overthrown, when truth and honor are abandoned, then are the fall and undoing of man."
