HOLLYWOOD By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — The topic most movie stars are talking about these days is not the Academy awards or the presidential race. It's the "18 Month Club."

This club has no officers, dues or headquarters. But it is exclusive and it may possibly prove highly profitable to its members.

The "18 Month Club" is Hollywood slang for the group of movie personalities who plan to take advantage of a new and unique provision in the tax laws. There has been so much misinformation about this matter that I did some research to ascertain the facts.

The internal revenue office here told me that the 18 month plan was included in the 1951 Revenue Act, passed by Congress. It provides that U. S. citizens who become bona fide residents of a foreign country for 18 full days of an 18-month period are exempted from paying U. S. income taxes for that period. (That permits citizens to visit this country for about 37 days during the 18 months.)

The provision was reportedly to encourage oil and aircraft workers to accept assignments in far-off places. Now movie firms and agents have been studying the plan as a means of lulling huge, virtually tax-free salaries for stars and directors. Of course, the talent would be required to pay income taxes in the countries where they reside, but in many lands that would be negligible.

One star will reportedly bring 400,000 tax-free dollars home after an 18-month movie-making spree abroad.

Among those who have been reported as members of the "18 Month Club" are Gene Kelly and Directors Anatole Litvak and John Huston, Mario Lanza and Gregory the members for the cooperation they had accorded her during her term of office. Following completion of routine business, the club presented Mrs. Zimmerman, a recent bride, with several pieces of her chosen china.

Upon adjournment, the hostesses assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Ted Brooklyn served coffee, cake and candy to Mrs. L. W. Scott, Mrs. P. D. Anderson, Mrs. Walter Piper, Mrs. Esther Smith, Mrs. James M. Thompson, Mrs. M. H. Rice, Mrs. M. H. Gleason, Mrs. E. K. Lloyd, Jr., Mrs. H. M. Cochran, Mrs. Betsy Fowler, Mrs. Robert E. True, Miss Alice B. Downard, Susan Brooklyn, Howard Lloyd and Rev. L. W. Scott.

Seven of Preacher Roe's 1951 victories were by one run. In none of his three losses was he knocked out of the box.

Pock Have Been mulling plans to

Here is some of the comment I have uncovered about the plan: Gregory Pock—"I have been thinking about it. I had already decided I wanted to get away from Hollywood for a while. I plan to go to the Olympic games, and I might stay over in Europe and make some pictures. (I can find some good scripts and some good directors of the caliber of Carol Reed. But I wouldn't make just any pictures in order to get the tax benefit. Two or three had pictures in this business and you're washed up."

"Actually, I don't think there are more than four or five stars in the business who could take advantage of the 18-month plan. There aren't enough pictures being made in Europe."

Ann Sheridan—"It just doesn't sound safe. A star might take any script that comes along in order to qualify for the plan. Then what happens to her career? Besides, to do things right, you have to take along competent help—makeup men, hairdressers, wardrobe people. That gets complicated."

A business manager of the stars and former internal revenue agent—"There might be loopholes which the government could invade. After all, there is a lot of difference between an oil worker who is needed at an American refinery in Arabia and a movie star who wants to take a tax-free vacation."

John Lund—"It doesn't sound logical that a deal like this would be kept on the books at a time when the government is seeking every possible means for taxation."

A top Hollywood lawyer—"A big agency is maneuvering these 18 month deals, just as it did the production company setups a few years back. And just as it happened before, the success will probably bring a government crackdown."

Today Last Day For Automobile License

TALLAHASSEE — You have only Wednesday left to buy your 1952 Florida automobile license tag.

If it isn't on your car by Thursday morning, you will be risking arrest without further warning by the State Highway Patrol, Motor Vehicle Commission inspectors and other law enforcement officers.

However, if it is not on the highway Patrol sent out orders to his men all over the state today that they should start making arrests Thursday morning.

That's in line with a policy announced by Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arch. Livingston that this year there will be no warning period for auto owners.

In the past, the state has given motorists a few days after the deadline to get their papers in order—and in some cases, it has even postponed enforcement of the deadline for a couple of weeks.

But that was when the deadline came Jan. 13, and auto owners were financially pinched after their Christmas buying. This year, the Legislature changed the law, moving the deadline to Feb. 20 just to give Floridians a chance to recover from Christmas.

So there won't be any period of grace after Wednesday.

Florida visitors from other states won't have to buy tags unless they go to work here or put their children in the public schools.

Livingson reported this morning that through Feb. 13 the county tax collectors had sent in $9,088,000 in receipts from sale of 437,000 tags. For the same number of tag sales days last year.

Miss Martha Laura Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Smith, and Clarence William Bauer, Jr. of the Sanford Auxiliary Naval Air Station, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence William Bauer, Sr. of Northfield, Ohio, were united in marriage Sunday at the L. D. S. Chapel in Orlando.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Elder Roy Doublerly against a background of baskets of white gladioli and snapdragons.

A program of pre-nuptial music was rendered by Miss Carolyn Cartwright, organist, and Mrs. Daniel Blockwelder soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle with a fitted bodice which featured a sweetheart neckline. The long sleeves tapered to points over the hands. The full skirt with fitted waistline fell in soft pleats in the back and ended in a full length cathedral train. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls belonging to the groom's mother. Her finger tip veil of nylon illusion trimmed in lace fell from a Juliet cap of tulle and orange blossoms. The bride carried a single white orchid from which fell white satin streamers.

The maid of honor, Miss Joyce Lea, wore a gown of blue tulle which was fashioned with a fitted waist, sweetheart neckline and short sleeves. She also wore a hat and mits of matching material and carried a nosegay of daisies.

Rural Common Sense By SPUDS JOHNSON

Many agricultural leaders and others who give thought to the matter consider the family farm the bulwark of democracy and the American way of life. The family that owns some land and operates its own farm almost never swallows false doctrines or chases misleading will-o-the-wisps.

Early national leaders believed that the man who tilled the land ought to own it and have security in its possession. If this democracy were to be as strong as it should be. For this reason, public land was made available to farmers under very liberal terms, homesteads being provable just by claiming them and living on them.

The trend toward farm ownership has increased materially in the last two decades. Twenty years ago 42 percent of the nation's farms were operated by tenants. Today the percentage has been reduced to 25. Under Secretary of Agriculture C. J. McCormick attributes a good part of this gain to the farm programs which have prevailed for the last 19 years and says these have come about as an extension and further application of national agricultural policies since the beginning of the nation.

The assumption that if a family owned its land not much else is needed has given way to more desirable land tenure policies. It is now realized that ownership alone is not enough. The owner of land is a steward; what he does with the land likely will affect not only him and his family but the entire community and the nation. Most of the country's tillable land is in cultivation, the best use of land is essential if this country is to produce the food and fiber needed for its constantly increasing population.

The increase in family farming in farm ownership by these

KKK CHIEF HIT
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A former Alabama Ku Klux Klan chieflain was free on $300 bond today after being indicted on federal charges of mailing an allegedly obscene pamphlet.

William Hugh Morris was arraigned Wednesday before Mrs. Louise O. Charlton, United States commissioner here.

The pamphlet was entitled "Klan Intelligence Report." The Elks Club of Birmingham was discussed under the heading, "Who's who in the smear campaign against the Ku Klux Klan."

BANK ROBBED
MIDDLETON, Tenn. (AP) — The 10-robbed Middleton Bank was held up again today by two gunmen who were cut down by mass fire from irate citizens as they fled.

The two holdup men were severely wounded as they tried to escape with a bank customer whom they had seized as a hostage.

The hostage, W. B. Sasser, Jr., an oil distributor, was not hurt.

who operate the farms — has brought new strength and stability to agriculture. "The family farm community is a wellspring of moral influence that is good for America," says the Under Secretary of Agriculture. "Rural living in the American farm family pattern is a solid bulwark of democracy, a fertile seedbed of good character and morals, and an ever-spreading source of deep religious faith."

"You can't watch crops grow without feeling awe for the infinite power which makes them grow, and you can't grow up learning to combine pride of personal ownership and neighborly concern for others without understanding the real meaning of democracy."

The first theater in the American South was built in Williamsburg in 1718.

HOLLYWOOD By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — One of Hollywood's most eligible males offers this advice on how to elude designing females in this leap year: RUN!

Don't try to argue or rationalize or dawdle in any way. Just RUN! Handing out this advice is Rock Hudson, 34, dark-haired, softly built actor. The handsome Winnetka, Ill., lad is the latest to cause a big noise among the bobby-soxers. In his two years in Hollywood, he has acquired a good number of the glamor girls and he would like to continue his single ways.

"I'm 34," he remarked. "I don't think I'd like to get married until I'm 30."

Leap year or not, there are girls who would like to thwart his long-range planning, he said.

"I can always feel it coming on," he said. "I have several dates with a girl and then she starts wanting to get serious. She starts to work me into a corner. That's when I use my strategy. I run."

"I don't call her up for four or five days. Finally, she calls me up and she's indignant. She wants to know what the dickens has happened to me and why haven't I called her. Pretty soon she gets the idea."

Hudson came close to marriage once during his Hollywood career. He and Vera-Ellen decided they would wed and even set the date for the big event. But it was cancelled by mutual agreement.

"Now I don't believe I would marry an actress," he declared. "It places too much strain on a marriage. For one thing, I want to be the breadwinner in the family. I wouldn't want my wife footing any of the bills."

That was one of the reasons Vera and I broke it up. She was making 10 times the salary I was."

He further illustrated with one of his current dates, Marilyn Maxwell. "She's just finishing up a picture and I'm just starting one. She'll be going out on a tour next, and as soon as she gets back, I'll be going out on one. We seldom have the time to see each other."

Hudson is currently the fair-haired boy at Universal-International. He gets his first star billing in "Band of the River," but it was the premiere of that picture that put him in solid with his studio bosses. He spent a week touring Oregon for the film, and he got the cheers of the younger set wherever he went.

At the Portland premiere, he attracted more clamor than the more established actors. Fortunately, the studio boss, William Goetz, was present to observe the scene.

When Michigan State's basketball team defeated Notre Dame, 66-52, at South Bend this season it snatched a 30-game home victory being for the Irish extending to 1942.

ovation. "It was tremendous," Hudson recalled with enthusiasm. "It was raining, but the crowds didn't seem to mind. They pushed against my car as I approached the theater. I could hardly get the doors open. The sidewalk was jammed. Two rows of policemen, arm-in-arm, pushed open a passageway and I ran through it."

Do such demonstrations frighten him? "I should say not. It's wonderful."

Capsule review: "With a Song in My Heart" is a musical biography with a ready-made plot. The dramatic story of Jane Froman. The movie makers had to do little elaboration on the exciting life of the famed singer. Fortunately, they stuck largely to the facts, and the result is a moving and highly entertaining musical is sided by David Wayne, Guy Calhoun and Thelma Ritter. But the real star is the voice of Miss Froman herself, more vibrant and stirring than any other in the business.

Customers' Corner

George Washington said it first.

This week, the celebration of Washington's birthday brings to mind the story about the famous cherry tree. Whether he said, "I cannot tell a lie" or we don't know, but the father of our country did say, "honesty is always the best policy." The founding father of A&P — George Huntington Hartford — had the same idea when he said, "Always do what is honest, fair and sincere and in the best interest of our Customers."

That's the spirit that has always guided the folks of A&P. It always will!

Blues Receive 353
Record Vote For
First; San Sems
Second With 815

The "Celery Feds" dropped to third receiving not a single vote for a 977 total. Ellers remained in fifth with 417. The "Semnole Tigers" stood in sixth picking up 26 ballots for a 144 total.

In all, 412 ballots were cast yesterday to bring the contest's total to 3,610. The contest will close Monday noon and at the present rate it appears as though the voting will pass the record vote in the Smathers-Pepper election of May 4, 1950 when 5,773 ballots were cast in Sanford.

Exclusive of Sanford, the County record high is 1,465 during the same Smathers-Pepper election. The contest has more than doubled that figure. The record for Sanford and Sanford combined election figures of 7,675 seem to be out of reach of the contest's figures or hopes.

The election returns will be available every 15 minutes from 6:00 p. m. over WTRR Monday night. The Helard will publish the complete official returns and list of winners on Tuesday.

MAGLIE.
PHOENIX, N.Y. (P-Sal Maglie, 23-game winner for the National League pennant-winning New York Giants last year, may come to watery terms with the club in a day or two if he is indicted today.)
Maglie has been indicted, but did not report with the battery men who have been working out since Monday.
He was reported from Niagara Falls, N. Y., that Maglie said he is willing to accept a compromise if the Giants come up with an offer. Maglie reportedly has been in contact with his attorney while the New York firm has offered him a final offer of $33,000.
Horace Stoneham, owner and president of the Giants, said in Phoenix that "if Maglie wants to continue to be a ball player, he will be glad to talk to him; we don't hear from him today, we'll call Maglie tonight."

KENTUCKY

NEW YORK — Kentucky's basketball players are riding high in crest of the highest point production rate ever recorded in collegiate annals with an average of 86.2 points a game.

Figures released today by the NCAA Service Bureau for games through Saturday show that Kentucky has poured 2,008 points in 23 games.

The Wildcats increased their scoring rate 1½ points a game by scoring 110 points against Mississippi State and 93 against Tennessee last week.

Their present average exceeds the collegiate mark of 85.3 points a game established by Beloit last season.

West Virginia whipped four foes last week in scoring better than 90 points a game, and moved into second place with an average of 81.8 points a game. The Volunteers were fifth a week ago.

Those invincible Junior Federsagers from Sanford Junior High School will unleash their court machine against Lyman Junior High tonight at 7:15 in the Seminole High gymnasium as the ~~twins~~ of a twin bill. The initial fray will find the Lyman Freshmen Five pitted against the local Frosh quintet.

The Junior Fed Gordlemen will be seeking their eighth consecutive victory in nine games this season. Oviedo holds the only win over the Gordlemen this season. That loss came at the very beginning of the year and was avenged by the Junior Gordlemen machine took the Feds in a recent tilt when the Gordlemen machine took the measure of the Ovieduans 18-16 in an overtime period.

The Sanford Frosh aggregation will be in the quest of their initial win of the season in the first game of the Lyman twin bill. Duke Hentling and Johnny Jones will be at the forwards with Larry Bates snarling at center and Ralph Powers and Joe Hunt getting the call at the guard posts.

The local Frosh will have the law of averages on their side having lost all five games this year.

In Apopka Tonite:
Beat DeLeon By 1

By ELDRA L. DIXON
Tonight the Crooms Panthers will journey to Apopka to meet the Jugsford Boh Cats for the second time this season. The initial meeting of these two teams was at Crooms Academy on January 21. The Panthers won the game after they were behind 21-30 with only seconds left to play, when forward, Loonardy Anderson broke for the center and was hit with a bullet pass which he m-kine the score 22-21 at the whistle.

The Panthers racked up their ninth victory in a row by beating out over Deland 22-17 last Monday night at Crocena Academy. This was a "heart-burner" from start to finish.

In the opening quarter the local cagers hit the bucket with six points, then came back with seven in the second period. Eucida's fast breaking team racked up four in the first and eight in the second periods, making the score 18-12 with the Panthers ahead at the

Both teams tallied for eight more points in the third stanza with center Norman "never miss" Kinard hitting for six points and Ernest "popping guard" Thorne hitting for DeLand, determined to stay in the contest, again evened the score in the last period with seven for Sanford and seven for Euclid. With only two minutes left to play and Crooms ahead 26-25, right guard McCullough of DeLand came through with a field goal to almost put the game on ice for DeLand putting the Panthers behind 27-26.

With time running out, pressure growing greater and greater, Kinard again came through for Grooms Academy with an overall shot that shook the string for the two winning points at the whistle. The Panthers' record is now 9 wins and 2 losses.

The Seminole High School varsity cagers will take a four game losing streak into the opening tilt of the East Florida Conference Tournament play-off with New Smyrna in Daytona Beach tonight.

Although the team will go into the first tournament decided underdog on the basis of its two previous losses to the Smyrna quintet.

The Gannamen lost by acount margins of 34-40 and 34-41 to the central group five. It is possible that the loss of several players will catch up with the team and quiet and only in the high school opening tilt.

The incomparable Seabreeze High of Daytona, the host five, will be the perennial favorite.

BOX PRIZE
SARASOTA (Fla.) — Boston Red Sox pitcher, going to be consistent hitters. If new Manager Lou Boudreau has his say. He plans to give his fingers extra doses of bating practice throughout the entire spring training season.

"The day of the weak-hitting pitcher has passed," Boudreau explained. "Good has to be able to hit." He has done for fellows like Bob Lemmon, Early Wynn and Vic Raschi. And, if our Bill Wright had been able to hit in the clutch last season, he might have won most of the close games he dropped."

Boudreau started spring training Wednesday with a pick of his best catchers. Among the missing were unsigned Hurlers Mel Parrell, Walt Masterson and Ray Scarborough.

If the Gansamen win they play again on Saturday in semi-finals and "if" they can beat they will reach the final Saturday night.

Each team's Ganas will go to his regular starting five on night with Covington and getting the roll at the foreposts, Hardin at center and Smith and Metts going at the guard. One insertion may be made. Ganas might fill the low scoring McCall's spot with Junior Metts and Ray Davis would replace Metts at guard.

MacArthur Is Not Going To Support Ike

Hatred Of Truman As Reported Is Denied But Not Support Of Senator Taft

By The Associated Press
Gen. Douglas MacArthur is on record today that he does not support Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for political office.

MacArthur said "headlines, captions and advertisements which are being placed in the body of the article itself, tend to create the impression that I am favorable to the nomination of Gen. Eisenhower for the presidency and that I have a personal hatred of President Truman."

The New York Daily News said it learned on "unimpeachable authority" that Eisenhower backers had mapped out a new strategy to get their man home from Europe before the July GOP convention.

The paper said its information was that Gen. Eisenhower, who is in the Philippines, would seek the nomination and would seek the nomination and would seek the nomination.

Gen. Eisenhower's continued silence is hurting the general's chances for the nomination.

MacArthur said "headlines, captions and advertisements which are being placed in the body of the article itself, tend to create the impression that I am favorable to the nomination of Gen. Eisenhower for the presidency and that I have a personal hatred of President Truman."

Capital Celebrates Washington's Birthday By Going On Buying Binge

By JACK RUTLEDGE
WASHINGTON (AP) — If George Washington were around today he would not just that dollar across the Rappahannock—he'd probably use it to buy a radio or television set or a typewriter. And get change for it.

The city named for the first President annually celebrates his birthday—which is today—by going on a unique buying binge encouraged by the radio and television set or a typewriter. And get change for it.
