In its resolution, unanimously adopted in opposition to a World Federalist movement, the Legion Post was indicated as following the lead of the Department of Florida, which at its 1950 convention in Ft. Lauderdale, unanimously adopted a resolution declaring that "The Department of Florida is opposed to the United World Federalist movement."
The resolution also points out that the national executive committee of the American Legion at its meeting in Indianapolis declared that the Legion is "opposed to any form of World Federation or government at this time."
The local resolution was made in accord with the national and department Legion actions.

2nd Division

ed out by American planes.
As they reached the west bank, combat-ready infantrymen took cover behind a big stone wall. Then, at a lieutenant's order, they moved out in long thin line to the front. They walked past a big enemy ammunition dump captured Monday.
On the last line of hills marking the bridgehead frontier, the Americans were dug in solidly. Last night there were enemy attacks. A Red platoon was sent to the front. American patrols moved quietly out in front, probing for Red positions.
One returned with a warning that a Red platoon was entrenched a few hundred yards ahead. American artillery behind the east bank of the Naktong promptly hit the Red position.
Back on the river, engineers who had been fighting as infantrymen only three days ago went back to their old jobs, working waist deep in water constructing a bridge.

Sgt. First Class Kenneth Hill of the Dalles, Ore., and Pfc. Jimmy Connell of Henderson, Ky., were two of those bullying the big bridge parts into position.
The general impression of the whole bridgehead was that the Second Division men had consolidated and were ready to repulse any enemy attack—or to thrust out themselves.
Elsewhere on the Second Division front, weary infantrymen finally captured Hill 201 with all its intricate fortifications.
By dusk they had moved 600 yards southwest, methodically driving the enemy from ridge to ridge. Once these lesser ridges are cleared, the Second Division can sweep North Korean remnants from the east side of the Naktong north of the Nam and Naktong confluence.

Other elements were striking south on the east bank of the river against this same enemy pocket, overcoming small arms and automatic weapons fire.
In the division's northern sector the enemy stubbornly held out on Hill 409 despite a B-26 attack on the shell-pocked peak.
Back here on the bridgehead across the Naktong, Second Division infantrymen were flushed with letory after their sweep to the river bank.

The whole eastern approach to the river evidences the enemy rout. Still in their camouflaged positions were dozens of artillery pieces, mortars and tons of ammunition. Hundreds of dead North Koreans still lay grotesquely sprawled in death. They were cut down by American bullets.

German Police

The Big Three also announced they had agreed "that the efforts of the United Nations to resist threats to peace and to achieve peaceful settlements will receive their firm support." In other words, they are going into the new session of the general assembly with a common front against Soviet Russia on major peace problems.
Here are the principal points of the agreement on Germany:
1. With an obvious warning to the Soviet Union, the three announced that they will treat any attack against the federal republic (West Germany) or Berlin from any quarter as an attack upon themselves. They backed this up by announcing that they will "increase and reinforce" their forces in Germany.
2. All three will take the steps necessary in their domestic legislation to end the state of war with Germany, and thus "create a firmer foundation" for friendly relations between Germany and other countries and remove handicaps to which German nationals abroad are subject.
3. The powers are prepared to revise the occupation status although continuing the occupation itself, so that Western Germany can set up a foreign ministry and establish diplomatic relations with other countries "in all suitable cases." Existing internal economic controls of the occupation powers, as well as a review system over German legislation, will be reduced or modified.
4. The Big Three further agreed to have a new look at prohibited and limiting laws imposed on German industries. Pending the completion of that study, they have already instructed the high commission to remove all restrictions on construction of commercial cargo ships for export and to permit steel to be produced above the present 11,000,000-ton limit. This would aid the western defense effort.
5. With respect to Berlin, the three powers will continue to provide economic aid and will liberalize Allied controls in the city as much as possible.
6. On the police force the Big Three stated they had agreed "to permit the establishment of mobile police formations organized on a local (state) basis but will provisions which would enable the general government to use this special force in emergencies. No figure was given on the size of the force but it was understood that what is contemplated is an increase to 30,000 for a previously authorized emergency force of 10,000.

"These decisions," the three foreign ministers declared, "mark an important stage in the normalization of the relations (between the West and Germany) and should contribute toward the creation of an atmosphere of mutual confidence and understanding."
"They represent a major advance toward the progressive return of Germany to partnership in Western Europe," Secretary Johnson said. "The American proposal to incorporate German troops into a Western European defense force has fundamental agreement among the ministers who compose the North Atlantic Council—the Big Three and nine smaller states. The council is to resume sessions here within two weeks."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19—(AP)—The decision to end the state of war with Germany confronts Congress and various governing agencies with the prospect of a big job in revising or dropping many wartime laws and rules.
Part of the work already has been done, based on President Truman's proclamation of Dec. 31, 1946, which declared the cessation of hostilities, but did not end the state of war.
The Senate Judiciary Committee's legal staff said literally hundreds of laws and parts of laws would automatically die when war ends with the signing of a peace treaty.
But the President case, a committee aide said, the job is complicated by these facts:
1. There is no peace treaty.
2. The decision by the foreign members of the United States, France and Britain to end the state of war with Germany applies only to that country, but not to Japan.
3. Some laws name the specific war for which they will be operative, and these name all of the Axis powers.
For instance, said a staff lawyer who has studied the whole situation, new problems will arise immediately in handling the property of German nationals under the Trading-With-the-Enemy Act since Germany no longer is an enemy officially.
The Justice Department disclosed it has devoted a lot of work to preparations for the official end of the war. It is compiling a list of all the laws that might need changing, and indicated the list would be a long one.
The reaction to Big Three's decision was generally favorable in Capitol Hill.
Sample comments:
Senator Brian McMahon (D-Conn.)—"This is an important step toward the unification of Western Europe which is so highly desirable." McMahon is a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.
Senator Chan Gurney (R-S.D.) of the Armed Services Committee—"That is a very fine solution and I hope it all works out."
Senator Ed Johnson (D-Colo.)—"I am very glad."

the issuance of the bonds.
Another important factor to be determined is if under present building costs the terminal can be built within the limitations of the $30,000 bond issue, Mr. McKibbin pointed out.
The fiscal agents require as pledges for meeting the bond interest and principal terminal revenues plus parking meter funds. The agency, said Mr. Ghormley, will not try to control the location, number or types of meters.
There was no dissenting vote to the authorization motion by the Commission.
Had the City been granted an R. F. C. loan, no future additions could have been financed during the period of the loan by use of terminal revenues, said Mr. McKibbin. The present bond resolution, however, permits additional financing for needed additions, provided revenues indicate that interest costs can be carried.
A request for the improvement of an alley between Second and Third Street, and Magnolia and Park Avenues was turned down, as the present budget will not permit this.

Naktong Crossing

barrage didn't amount to much in terms of European warfare.
Just as dawn broke—just enough light to make good targets—the first assault boats were hefted into the water.
The first way, led by Second Lt. Loran Chambers of Mount Sterling, Pa., got half way across when there was hell to pay. Throughout the night the hills on the opposite shore had been quiet. But now they crackled with fire.
Many of the men in the boats were hit. Some leaped into the in spots, the river was but waist deep.
The fire fight started precisely at 5:45 A. M.
I watched the whole operation, sweating it out in an apple orchard over night in the dank, cold air with four nice guys in a heavy weapons platoon.
They were 1st Lt. Joe Griffin of Charleston, S. C.; 1st Lt. Thomas Sheehan of Philadelphia; 1st Lt. and 2nd Lt. William B. De Graf of San Francisco.
De Graf was graduated from West Point this year as number one man in his class.
None was enthusiastic at the prospect of the crossing in the face of enemy fire.
They were carrying rations for 24 hours and what ammunition they could load on themselves.
Sheehan, the company commander, after a wearing night, called his officers together.
With a phony British accent, he bid them "cheerio and all that boys. Now get the hell out of here. I did not see them again. They were divided up as a company and attached in support of others.
I wandered in the darkness to where engineer 1st Lt. George Schriener of Norfolk, Va., was doing yeoman work in creating order out of confusion and getting the boats moving. At the first crack of dawn and with the first fire from the opposite shore, I crouched atop a bank with a magnificent panoramic view of the whole show.
Some men drowned on their bellies in the sand at the first shot but others plugged steadily ahead with their boats. On the opposite fire and then the heavy chug of an American light machinegun.
It was possible to see men dropping in their tracks.
Not long after this, Harold Faber, New York Times correspondent, was wounded slightly in the leg as he made his way off the beach.
A few minutes after Faber had gone to an aid station, a mortar round fell where he had been lying. The burst killed a medic 20 feet from me.

Acheson Lays U.S. Program Before World

Secretary Proposes U. N. Police Force To Bar Aggression Anywhere In World

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson laid before the U. N. Assembly today an American program to combat aggression anywhere in the world, including a provision for a peace patrol and military forces to back up United Nations decisions.

He also suggested that the Assembly organize itself so it can meet "upon 24 hours notice" in case of any breach of the peace on which the veto-bound Security Council cannot act. This would apply in any subsequent case similar to the present Korean war.

Giving a major outline of United States policy in the U. N., Acheson said a world organization with teeth to back up its decisions might deter the results in the Kremlin from seeking the piecemeal dismemberment of the non-Soviet world.

"If this does not occur, the increase in our defensive strength shall be the means of ensuring our survival and protecting the essential values of our societies," he declared.

Acheson proposed that the Formosa question should be placed on the assembly agenda as a matter of special and urgent importance. Formosa now is the last stronghold of the Chinese Nationalists. Its waters now are being patrolled by American naval units on orders of President Truman to prevent the spread of the Korean conflict throughout the Orient. The Secretary of State said the United States government believes the "problem of Formosa and the near 1,000,000 people who inhabit it should not be settled by force."

Referring to Korea, the Secretary said the United States will continue to support the bulk of them American—will be able to crush the Communist aggression there and that Korea will be returned to the custody of its people.

Meteor Explodes Lighting Up Sky In Nashville Area

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 20 (AP)—A meteor flashed through the sky to the west of here early today and apparently exploded in the air, lighting up an area from Paducah, Ky. to Memphis, Tenn.

The Illinois Central Railroad dispatcher in Paducah said reports from all along his line to Memphis told of a jar of an explosion.

The IC dispatcher's account was relayed here by Fred Boston, Tennessee Central dispatcher who said the IC man called to ask if there had been an explosion.

At Memphis, 220 miles south of the Shelby county and state highway patrol sent six cars racing north of the city. The central radio office said one car reported the meteor hit in the vicinity of Hatchie Bottoms, a semi-swampy area between Memphis and the Millington Naval Base, about 20 miles away. This report was not confirmed.

A report of the sky flash was given in Memphis by American Airlines Capt. H. J. Garman, of Dallas, Tex. Garman had just landed a DC-6 with 41 passengers from Washington.

"We sighted that thing about one-thirty (1:30 A.M., CST) some 50 miles east of Nashville," Garman said.

"I was flying at 18,000 feet and it looked as though it came right across my nose."

"I tell you, I never saw such a brilliant flash of light before. No one else saw it."

Army Air Force Officers Inspect Local Air Field

Navy Station May Be Used In Civilian Training Program

A group of Air Force officers and civilian technicians headed by Major Jesse A. Irwin of Scott Air Field, Belleville, Ill., arrived yesterday afternoon at the Municipal Airport in order to make a full survey of the facilities of the former Naval Air Station.

The purpose of the survey, said Major Irwin in a conference at Remley's Restaurant with City officials, is to determine how much time and money it would take to put the air facilities back into condition for a civilian contract flight training program for more than 100 cadets at a time.

Asked by Mayor Carraway if it would be necessary to take over the entire facilities of the former Naval Air Station, Major Irwin replied that he did not feel that this would be necessary in case the Air Force decides to locate here, but only to take over that portion needed for the training program.

Some 600 cadets and about 50 officers and airmen would occupy barracks, he pointed out, and the balance of about 1,200 would be civilian personnel. He estimated that about 300 families would locate in the city proper in case the site is approved.

Mayor Carraway stated that certain facilities at the airport, such as Florida Pathways and its holdings are very vital to this community, and it is the wish of the city to retain them.

New York Bookmaker Says Graft Paid To Police For Protection

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (AP)—A big-time bookmaker has told a Brooklyn judge that he could reveal a "terrible scandal" involving graft payments to police.

He indicated that officers as high as inspector might be implicated.

But the gambler, 54-year-old Harry Gross, later changed his mind, saying he couldn't "live with myself" if he named the police who had accepted graft.

Kings county Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz raised Gross' bail to $100,000 and ordered a special 24-hour guard on his jail cell. He is held as a material witness.

The high bail and guard were ordered after Assistant District Attorney Julius Helford told the court that Gross might face an underworld execution if freed.

Gross, alleged head of a $20,000,000-a-year bookmaking ring smashed last week, had been handled with kid gloves by the district attorney's men as long as he gave indication of barring operations of the ring and connections with police officers.

County Fire Issue Goes On Ballot In November Election

The required number of landowners in Seminole County have signed a petition requesting the Board of County Commissioners to place the matter of a county fire fighting unit on the ballot in the 1950 General Election in November.

County Agent C. R. Dawson announced this morning. He expressed appreciation to Fire Chief M. N. Cleveland for bringing the acreage quota over the 102,321 acre mark, or more than half of the 205,440 acres in the county in order to make the petition valid. Chief Cleveland secured the signature of one owner of 3,200 acres among other signers.

A county fire control unit, if approved, would be handled by the State Forestry Service. Randall Chase, who has been signing Mr. Dawson in securing signatures of landowners, declared today that securing of fire control is the progressive thing to do, and pointed out that Seminole is the only county in Central Florida which does not have this control.

Landowners may continue to burn their own land as long as they comply with Florida's forest fire laws in event fire control is established, said Mr. Dawson. Seminole County has 133,307 acres of woodlands that would be protected, and the County's share of expense of the program would amount to about $4,000 a year. State and Federal aid will be approximately $12,000 a year.

General Bradley Says Korean War Most Significant

Communists Said To Have Shed Pretense Of Peace Intention

DETROIT, Sept. 20 (AP)—General Omar N. Bradley said today the Korean campaign has become one of the most significant in all military history.

This is so, he said in a speech prepared for a meeting of the Detroit Rotary Club, because it marks the birth of a new power in the world—"armed action by the United Nations."

General Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said the Korean fighting also has demonstrated that Communism has "shed even its pretense of peaceful intention."

Americans "had become victims of our own catch phrase 'cold war' with its illusion that Communism is merely an opposing ideology," General Bradley said.

He added that it will be America's own fault if its military preparations now are "hating, fumbling, or of half measure."

But he warned Americans that "tension and sacrifice" may be "our normal way of life for many years to come."

Senate-Group Conference Delayed On Tax-Boosting Bill

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—President Truman called on Congress today to sign out a senate-approved proposal to buy economic aid to countries selling war potential goods behind the Iron Curtain. He said the proposal is brought with "dignity to the United States and would pay" and would "weaken the first nations more than it could weaken the Soviet bloc."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (AP)—Disregarding the chance of a presidential veto, the House today passed a subversives control bill calling for peacetime registration of Communists and wartime internment of potential spies and saboteurs. The vote was 312 to 20.

Blood Donors May Receive Two Pints For One Donated

Donors of blood or members of their families are eligible to receive, if needed, two pints of blood for every pint donated to the Seminole County Blood Bank. John K. Byrd, chairman of the Little Club blood bank committee, announced today.

Donors will be given cards, and in event of an emergency requiring a transfusion, these can be presented at any blood bank in the United States, he declared.

The regular cost of securing blood from a blood bank is $25 a pint, plus $10 service charge to cover the cost of equipment, laboratory expenses, and general overhead. However, the blood is secured from the Seminole County Blood Bank, the $10 service charge will be the only charge he said.

The service charge includes $1.75 as a fee for use in charity cases for which no charge is made. The blood bank clinic, as previously announced, will be held at the office of the County Nurse on Palmtoe Avenue next to the Fire Station, Sept. 28 at 9:00 A.M.

Two patients received blood last month from the Seminole County Blood Bank. They are Mrs. J. D. Driggers and Mrs. V. Tucker.

Marines Have Situation Well In Hand After First Setback On Han

UNITED STATES PRESS ASSOCIATION, Associated Press correspondent Don Whitford was in the first assault wave of U. S. Marines to cross the Han River near Seoul at dawn today. His amphibious craft was hit by a shell but he was unharmed. Here's his dispatch sent back from the front by courier and telephoned to Tokyo.

WITH U. S. MARINES OUTSIDE SEOUL, Sept. 20 (AP)—A pale three-quarters moon was sliding below the horizon when the Marines came out of their foxholes and started trudging toward the Han River today.

Most of them, nonetheless, and the dirty road were the big amphibious tractors. The assault waves would ride into the battle for the Han River bridgehead on the Seoul side.

The men came out of their holes unexpecting the darkness from blankets and shelter halves and outside shells. The night was cold and damp.

Deranged Farmer United States Is Commits Suicide Speeding Arms To Kills Son's Wife, French Indochina

ELDEST SON WOUNDED: But Battle Against Red Rebels To Be Waged By French

MONTROCHIA, Fla., Sept. 20 (AP)—Joe Wheeler Gann, 64, shot and killed his daughter-in-law, wounded his eldest son and then committed suicide at their farm here yesterday.

The woman was Edith Standford Gann, 44, mother of five children.

Madison County Sheriff Frank M. Sexton at Gainsville said Gann was mentally ill. County Judge H. H. McDonald declared the shooting a clear case of murder and suicide, and that no inquest would be held.

Two small girls, Clara Ethel, 5, and Rena, 1, children of Gann's brother, were at the scene and witnessed the tragedy, but neither were harmed.

Sexton, in piecing together the shootings, said that Felton, 34, Gann's eldest son, came to his farm about noon yesterday, wounded slightly in the right arm. He asked for a warrant for the arrest of his father, whom he said shot him as he was repairing a tractor.

Sheriff's deputies took Gann to the Alachua General Hospital at Gainesville for treatment after obtaining the warrant.

Sexton, with deputies Carl H. Morgan and Julian Smith, went to the Gann farm about 13 miles outside Gainesville in this section. Lying in a line leading to the farmhouse they found Felton Gann's wife, Edith. She had been shot in the head. Near a work bench outside the farmhouse they

Armored Columns Are Converging On The Capital Against Stiff Resistance

BY LEE ECKHORN
TOKYO, Thursday, Sept. 21 (AP)—Thousands of Marines hurled the Han River yesterday under tactical enemy fire and today were reported hammering at the gates to Seoul.

General MacArthur's post-midnight communique said two armored columns were converging on Seoul against stiffened resistance. Enemy casualties were reported heavy.

The Marines on their first lunges from the river bank drove ahead four miles toward the Korean capital field day after day. The communique did not say how close the Marines are to Seoul now.

Five hours after the first waves hit the Han bank, powerful U. S. tanks were turned across. They churned up sand banks, plowed over river paddies and moved into the van of the march on Seoul.

The Marines' first river-crossing try in darkness was repulsed by dark smoke and a long-range naval shell from the West from Inchon made good.

The tanks rumbled southeast, bringing powerful fire support to Leathernecks attacking hill positions outside Seoul.

Red Koreans were fleeing before the armored vanguard of a 40,000-man Allied liberation force.

Americans and their Communist enemy still were racing for possession of the capital. Communist troops rushed from the old southeast Korea front were reported streaming into Seoul as late as a winding secondary road from the southeast.

Carroll Is Freed As Judge Reviews Hearsay Evidence

SOUTH PARIS, Me., Sept. 20 (AP)—A superior court justice today ordered French M. Carroll, central figure in the celebrated Carroll-Dover murder case, free from 12 months' imprisonment.

Justice Albert Hebrard granted the 34-year-old Carroll's request for a writ of habeas corpus.

The state has no ground for the order, which shattered Maine court precedent.

He contended at a recent hearing in Hartford that he had been sent to prison by fraud and deception and that his constitutional rights (Continued on Page Two)

The technicians signalled they were ready and the director announced "Let's shoot it!" The makeup man ushered the star, Arthur Kennedy, into the set. The scene began. Bystanders were convinced that Kennedy could not see, and sure enough, they were right.

"I thought if Arthur knew exactly what it was like to be without sight, he would be even more convincing," Holson told me. "I was Mark's idea. Kennedy admitted that I was all for it. I tried on 80 pairs of lenses before I found the right kind. As fast as they thought putting in the lenses would help up production, that we managed to talk them into it."

"It was a feeling of being lost," he said. "It's a hard thing to get used to. I talked to a lot of veterans at Valley Forge Hospital in Pennsylvania who've had shot real scenes of the orientation of blind veterans. Once you get to know them, you can see them anything. They told me it takes about 30 days to get adjusted to blindness."

"Light Out" concerns a soldier who is blinded in Tunisia and returns home to seek his own cure. Robert hopes the film will show seeing persons the best way to treat the blind.

"That is," he explained, "to let them help themselves. They want no special treatment."

He illustrated with a scene in which Kennedy fumbles for a light for a cigarette. An unthinking person hurriedly lights a match and Kennedy reacts in a match and Kennedy reacts in a match and Kennedy reacts in a match.

Keller And Mullin, Tiger Power Hitters, Pace 19-Hit Win Over A's

DETROIT, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The booming bats of "oldtimers" Charlie Keller and Pat Mullin injected new life into the Detroit Tigers American League pennant hopes today just when it looked as if the Tigers were slipping fast.

The two veteran outfielders came off the Tiger bench yesterday to spark a 19-hit assault that produced a 12-4 decision over the Athletics and ended a long period of inactivity by Tiger power hitters.

Keller, making his first start of the season, stole most of the glory as he belted a pair of home runs—his 1st of the year—and two singles.

"Oldtimer" Mullin was not far behind. He bagged a homer and a double as the Detroiters snapped out of their hitting slump in a big way.

"We're off again," was the way Tiger coach Dick Bartell summed up the powerful attack which moved the Tigers into a tie with Boston for the runner-up spot in the American League race.

The Yankees still hold a one-half game lead. Manager Red Rolfe's selection of the Keller-Mullin combination proved to be the right medicine for the ailing Tigers, whose weak hitting was largely responsible for their 12-cent loss of key series to the Red Sox and Yankees.

The Detroit manager benched his two leading RBI men, Vic Wertz and Hook Evers, and first baseman Don Kruetz, and gave first major shakup of the Tiger lineup this year. Dick Kryhoski took over at first and contributed two resounding singles to the cause.

"We had to do something to get some base hits and it sure worked," grinned the happy Rolfe after the Tigers unleashed their biggest most potent assault since a 21-hit, 18-run decision over the Red Sox June 10.

The 34-year-old Keller had all the zip and pep of a rookie in left field as he hauled down a couple of long drives. His most spectacular catch when he pitched back against the left fielder in the third to grab Sam Chapman's liner.

Mullin, a year younger than former Yankee Keller, matched him in fielding brilliance. He made a sparkling catch of Pete Stuber's line drive in the sixth.

And yesterday Keller proved to be the spark that Rolfe was looking for to touch off a flood of base hits to end the long drought in the Tiger camp.

Keller drove home Detroit's first run and before the day was over he had walked two homers into the night field stands, the first since 1947 when he led the second line with the bases empty.

The rest of the Tigers caught on in the dead line in a hurry and sprayed hits in great form. He made a sparkling catch of Pete Stuber's line drive in the sixth.

NEW YORK—College football in a rut. At this time each fall every team in either potential champion or a dud.

But it will be a different time along about mid-season when the stories will be coming out that Notre Dame's unbeaten juggernaut ranks with the strong professional teams.

The Irish may not be as strong as the 1949 combination which swept 10 opponents off their collective feet but they figure to pile up nine one-sided victories. That's because only nine teams dare meet Coach Frank Leahy's fourth flender and Notre Dame's unbeaten juggernaut ranks with the strong professional teams.
