 large school program, he announced. More children have been inspected by nurses and more examined by physicians than ever before. Many of the defects found have been corrected. Many more pictures on health subjects were shown to school children where facilities were available. We would like to do this for all schools, he pointed out.
 Many visits were made to school lunchrooms and much improvement in water supplies, waste disposal and sanitation has resulted, he indicated.
 The tuberculosis control program has been extended, and a new ray unit is used to examine all expectant mothers and persons requesting health cards who have not had an x-ray in a year. More people than ever before took the mobile ray unit in June, and more cases were sent to the sanatorium than in any previous year.

Health talks to civic groups were given and the foodhandler's school sponsored by the Jaycees and put on by the Health Unit, State Board of Health, State Hotel Commission, the Radio Club and association was a great step forward in health education, Dr. Quillman asserted.
 Work on venereal disease has not been so heavy as in previous years due to cases having been sent to the Rapid Treatment Center. All new cases are interviewed for contacts and all contacts discovered are brought in for examination and treatment when necessary, he revealed. Dr. Quillman emphasized the need of community effort in preventing disease, prolonging life and promoting physical and mental efficiency.
 "We wish to take this opportunity again to thank the Board of County Commissioners, the School Board, the City of Sanford and other friends of the Seminole County Health Unit for their contributions," wrote Dr. Quillman. He also thanked for their cooperation the Seminole County Tuberculosis and Health Association, the State and County Welfare Boards, the Red Cross, the State Crippled Children's Commission and the State Vocational Rehabilitation Office.

 "Oh you mean you'd make the stations hire standbys," Rep. Kersten (R-Wisc) demanded.
 "That's been taken care of," Petrillo said.
 Kersten wanted to know whether the union's "forever ban" on record-making is the only solution to the musicians' plight.
 "Up to this moment it's the only solution we know," Petrillo said. "It's unsound, I agree, but what are we going to do about it? All we can do is say no more recordings — period. What happens from there on, we don't know."
 As the hearing opened, Chairman Hartley (R-NJ) told Petrillo the Justice Department was "exceedingly lax" in preparing a case in which the union leader was acquitted.
 Speaking face to face with the Justice Dept. at a recent hearing, Petrillo declared Petrillo was "clearly in violation of law" despite the acquittal in a Federal court at Chicago last week. He added:
 "I am not particularly upset at the court action but I am concerned about how the case was prepared by the Justice Department. I must say it was exceedingly lax."

Secretary Marshall's Chances Of Resting At Home Grow Less

(Editor's Note: John M. Hightower, Associated Press diplomatic reporter who here reviews George C. Marshall's first year as Secretary of State, has "covered" the retired General's cabinet career from Moscow, London and New York as well as Washington.)
 WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—George Marshall winds up his first year as Secretary of State today with even less hope than he had last January of ever settling down at Leesburg, Va., for a long well-earned rest. At 67 the one place Marshall wants to go is home, and his friends know it.
 He has left no word unsaid to eliminate himself from this year's presidential speculations. He already holds a job in government exceeded by only the presidency, and he holds that only because President Truman forcefully sought him for it.
 His prospects for the life of a gentleman at Leesburg, Va., are bright. For Marshall is now solidly settled in that position in public life which few men in his generation attain. As long as he is physically fit—and he looks in top form at the moment—he almost certainly will never be allowed to retire permanently.

It was a little more than two years ago that President Truman planned another medal on the general's uniform and in a sort of farewell eulogy and salute to the man who had made "As much as to any individual, the United States owes its future." It was a grand good-bye but it didn't stick.
 Marshall had given way to Dwight D. Eisenhower as Chief of Staff and headed for his colonial mansion in Virginia as fast as he could. Shortly a phone call followed him. Mr. Truman asked him to go patch up things in China.
 Marshall packed the bags he had just unpacked and began his travels. Thirteen months in and around China as a special ambassador introduced him to the presidency. Last January the President hailed him home to succeed James F. Byrnes at the State Department.

From his start in diplomacy in Chungking, Marshall has piled up a curious record—on the face of it.
 He failed in his mission of reconciling Chiang Kai Shek and the Communists in China.
 He failed to get an Austrian peace treaty out of the Russians at Moscow and London.
 He failed to win Big Four progress on a German peace settlement.
 He failed to stop or check and sometimes to meet directly the torrent of propaganda from Soviet Foreign Minister at international parity.

 But with each of these "failures" on the formal record, Marshall carried American public understanding and support on his side.
 Since he became Secretary of State last April 21, Marshall has been charting his own new course in some respects, following inherited policies in others. He inherited the policy of "firmness toward Russia and he built on it. But it was after he entered the cabinet that the "Truman Doctrine" of helping free peoples resist totalitarianism was proclaimed and limited American strength thrown behind Greece and Turkey.
 Back home in late spring, he worked on some reshuffling of State Department and then headed south for the Inter-American Defense Conference at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. After a few weeks he returned to Washington with a completed American defense treaty and a new problem: preparations for a meeting of the United Nations Assembly meeting in New York.
 Marshall, as Secretary of State, is one of the foremost advocates of the theory that the United States must keep physically strong in order to be politically effective in the world; good intentions and high ideals are not enough.
 Thus he has proposed that Congress lay out $6,000,000,000 for European recovery this year as against probably $300,000,000 for China. But his reasoning and that of his advisers is that European recovery is the first essential to a working world economy and that this country can't do everything at once.
 Four major problems seem certain to dominate Marshall's activities in the months ahead. These are:

1. To win congressional approval and appropriations for a European recovery program which he considers certain to give a reasonable chance of success.
 2. To continue the policy of "containment" of Russia — which means operating an anti-Communist diplomacy in respect to France, Italy, Turkey, Iran and China, holding the line in Germany and Austria.
 3. To prepare United States policy for further strengthening inter-American cooperation, especially on economic lines, at a forthcoming Western Hemisphere conference at Bogota, Columbia.
 4. To expand the resources of the State Department to take over the administration of German funds in the Army, which Marshall hopes to do by June 30, and after that presumably to prepare for a similar administration for Japan.

There is greater confidence in the stability of money if there is gold or dollars in the hands of the central bank," he said.
 Former Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson said a drastic cut in Administration money estimates for European recovery would "merely prolong the illness, the cost and the danger of the participating countries," that the correction of their current money troubles "will be permanent."
 "There is greater confidence in the stability of money if there is gold or dollars in the hands of the central bank," he said.
 "Congress reduces the $6,000,000,000 figure for the first 15 months of the Marshall Plan to $4,000,000,000 or $5,000,000,000, he declared, "it ceases to be a recovery program."
 "Instead, it would be a dole handed out to keep Europe alive and relief "is costly because it may be endless," Acheson said in a speech at the convention of the National American Wholesale Grocers' Association.
 "This is a very different thing from saying that the amount asked of Congress is sacrosanct and that the Congress should vote the amount without careful consideration," he added.
 "I believe that the program has already been reduced a much as consistent with achieving the success of the program."

HOT BATH
 MIAMI, Jan. 21 (AP)—A 38-year-old housewife suffered severe burns early today when alcohol which she was bathing her head ignited.
 Detective Sgt. John L. Deas said the woman, listed as Mrs. Estrella Saeza, was rubbing her head with alcohol near the kitchen stove when the bottle exploded, spreading the flaming liquid over her clothing.
 Her husband, Daniel Saeza, was seriously burned in his attempt to extinguish the blaze. Mrs. Saeza's condition was listed by hospital attendants as critical.

 A state building program of $5,000,000.
 A $10,000,000 needy aged, children and blind appropriation.
 Construction of public health centers throughout the state.
 Creation of a state department of labor.
 A study of state employ salary scales with possible upward revision.
 Exemption of livestock feeds from the sales tax act.
 A full time gas and oil board and sound oil and gas conservation law.
 As the legislators digested these highlights and many other more minor features of the governor's recommendations opposition in the more conservative features began to crop ranks.
 In the house the first woman ever to head the house temperance committee is still against prohibition.
 Rep. Zelma Price of Washington took him to task, was accused under the Lee Act of covering a Chicago radio station to hire more workers than needed.

 TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 21 (AP)—Richard W. Ervin, Jr., today qualified as a candidate for the position of state attorney general to succeed Tom Watson who is running for the governorship.

ton county, the chairman, delayed after the address that she agreed with the governor that laws which the people do not respect should be abandoned.
 "I, for one, name the present prohibition law as one of the laws which we should forthwith give up," she declared. "If the people want this law kept in force then I think that law enforcement officers should be forced to make this law effective or be forced out of office."
 Rep. Price's counterpart in the senate, Robert E. Lee Gentry, said, however: "Our governor has again spoken on the prohibition subject and the chief executive again states that he would not sign to repeal the prohibition laws of this state."

Excepted pyrotechnics over some sort of state police force will probably not be long in coming.
 Gov. Wright asked such a force in order that he might carry out his duties as chief law enforcement officer of the state. He pointed out that he cannot now maintain strict enforcement of the prohibition law, for instance, when he has no police with which to do so.
 He does not want the present MB's life extended beyond July 1, when it will expire under existing law.
 Opposition to any type of state police force will come from the state's sheriff, who has long

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Fire swept a Marine Corps warehouse and adjoining building during a sleetstorm early today, routing several families from their nearby homes.
 The blaze started in the two-story brick warehouse and spread to a privately-owned athletic hall housing 16 families, a training quarters for the Office of Strategic Services. Two Marines who had been sleeping in the warehouse escaped unharmed.
 Firemen using a Potomac River fireboat and approximately 75 trucks brought the fire under control about two hours after it broke out.
 The buildings are located along the river bank near 28th and D Sts., N.W. about a mile west of the White House. There was no estimate of the damage and no report of the location of the cause of the blaze.

U.D.C. Broadcast Robert E. Lee's Birthday

The N. de V. Howard Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy gave a Radio Program over Station WTRR, Monday evening at 8:30, commemorating the Birthdays of Robert E. Lee.
 Mrs. E. H. Laney was the General Chairman and the announcer.
 The program opened with "Dixie" and followed by "Is it true what they say about Dixie". These songs were sung in chorus with Mrs. F. E. Roumillat, accompanist.
 Mrs. J. J. Bolly, president of the chapter gave the following: "Robert Edward Lee was born 141 years ago today, at his ancestral home, Stratford Hall, Westmoreland, Va. Stratford Hall is not only the birthplace of our beloved Robert E. Lee, but also, the birthday of two signers of the Declaration of Independence—Richard Henry Lee and Francis Lightfoot Lee.
 "Stratford Hall is one of the oldest Virginia Estates and is surrounded by grandeur and beauty; foot-paths through orchards and forests that lead to a picturesque spring. Laurel is mirrored in the Mill Pond. Old paths and terraces make up its eighteenth century garden. On one terrace a box border is quartered in the design of the Lee coat-of-arms. This great house is built on a plateau a mile inland and overlooks the Potomac, 60 feet cliffs and a stretch of sand beach below.
 "It was in Stratford Hall that Robert E. Lee received the foundation for his great roll in the future history of America. Where his character was molded and where he grew up with a passionate devotion to his native State.
 "In 1825 he was sent to the Military Academy at West Point. There he passed four years and was graduated second in his class. Two years later he married the great granddaughter of George Washington's wife, and toward her he showed all his life a most beautiful devotion.
 "During the Mexican War his services were so brilliant he was declared the greatest military genius in America.
 "Lee was opposed to the breaking up of the Union; he felt that slavery was an even greater evil to the white than to the colored race; and he had several years before freed a few negroes he had inherited; but loyalty to his state made him refuse the command of the United States Army when it was offered him in April, 1861, but he accepted the leadership of the Army of Virginia. President Jefferson Davis very shortly raised him to the highest rank in the Confederate Army.

 "The years of 1862, '63 and '64 were filled with victories and defeats for Lee. It was at the Battle of Gettysburg that the greatness of Lee's character was as evident in defeat as in his most brilliant victories.
 "In the spring of 1864 occurred a series of the fiercest and bloodiest engagements of the war; and due to the inferior number of his men Lee was forced to surrender on April 6, 1865 at the Appomattox Court House.
 "Never, throughout the war, were his dignity and true greatness more evident than in the hour he met this final failure of the GAUZE for which he had striven.
 "After the war he accepted the Presidency of Washington College—now Washington and Lee University. He accepted this position to educate Southern youths into a spirit of loyalty to the new conditions.
 "On Oct. 12, 1870, after a brief illness, he died.
 "Yes, Robert Edward Lee and his unimpeachable honor and dignity represent the Old South and its history. And it is the duty of the United Daughters of the Confederacy to see that the true history of the South is presented to the future generations."
 Mrs. Mary Leffer Strong, one of the Charter Members, gave a beautiful inscription from an old monument: "This man shall stand through the years to come as our loving tribute to the Confederate

Marriage Has Place, Says Off-Wed Woman

DALLAS, ORE., Jan. 21 (AP)—Mrs. Betty Dunlavy, 40, a comely tavern owner, has won her fight for a fifth divorce.
 The decree was awarded by the Polk county court to the Brooks, Ore., woman, who once told reporters she "still hopes to find the 'right man' when John S. Dunlavy failed to contest the suit.
 She first sought a divorce from Dunlavy in Marion County courts, and later in Clackamas County, but in both instances she was quietly last week. She married Dunlavy about two years ago. Several of her previous attempts at marital happiness lasted shorter periods, starting and ending in Nevada. She told the Marion County court she was married and divorced from one husband—Victor Williams—three times.
 Prior to winning the latest suit in Polk County, she told reporters she believed marriage "has its place," but added however, "I have no prospects for No. 16 and I'm not looking."

3 Unions Block Labor Peace—Refuse Wage Boost Already Accepted by 19 Other Railroad Unions!

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and the Brotherhood of North America, representing 125,000 railroad employees, have refused to accept the offer of the Railroads of a wage increase of 15 1/2 cents an hour, which would mean an average annual increase of $1,175,000 for 1947.
 This is the same increase awarded 1,000,000 non-operating employees by an arbitration board in September, 1947.
 "This is the same increase accepted by 125,000 conductors, trainmen and switchmen by agreement on November 14, 1947.
 Arrangements have been made with 1,175,000 employees, represented by nineteen unions. But these three unions, representing only 125,000 men, are trying to get more. They are demanding also many new working rules not embraced in the settlement with the conductors and trainmen.
 Incidentally, the Switchmen's Union of North America represents only about 7 per cent of all railroad switchmen, the other 93 per cent being represented by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and covered by the settlement with that union.
Strike Threat
 The leaders of these three unions spread a strike ballot while negotiations were still in progress. This is not a secret vote but is taken by union leaders and votes are signed by the employees in the presence of union representatives.
 When direct negotiations failed, the leaders of these three unions refused to join the railroads in asking the National Mediation Board to attempt to settle the dispute, but the Board took jurisdiction at the request of the carriers and has been actively attempting since November 24, 1947 to bring about a settlement. The Board on January 15, 1948, announced its inability to reach a mediation settlement. The leaders of the unions rejected the request of the Mediation Board to arbitrate. The railroads accepted.

Bevin Says Russia Seeks Europe's Rule

LONDON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Bevin today announced plans for a union of the states of Western Europe to face a "ruthless drive by Soviet Russia to control the continent. He said the time is ripe for the consolidation of Western Europe," and announced British talks already are under way with Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg. Britain's alliance with France will be tightened, he said, and Italy and other countries will be brought into "this great conception."

LONDON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Bevin said today that Soviet Russia is making a ruthless drive to dominate Europe, and that this will inevitably lead to another world war.

"We are driven to that conclusion," Bevin told the House of Commons.

"The Marshall Program has brought to light vividly what must have been under the surface all the time."

Bevin pictured the European recovery plan, proposed by Secretary Marshall, as unmasking Russian efforts to communize Western Europe as well as the states already in Moscow's orbit.

Nevertheless he emphasized British eagerness to cooperate with the Soviets, saying: "It is madness to think of anything else if we are ever going to have peace. But the British government cannot agree to four-power cooperation while one of those four powers continues to impose its political and economic system on the smaller states."

Evolution of the Yalta decision, Bevin told the House of Commons, "reveals a policy on the part of the Soviet Union." (Continued on Page Three)

Soil Conservation Heads Nominated

Five petitions of nomination have been submitted for election of five supervisors of the Seminole Soil Conservation District, and K. S. McMullen, acting Extension Conservationist, has set the date of election on Jan. 31, according to C. R. Dawson, county agent.

Names of the following nominees were submitted: Francis T. Meriwether, Victor Green, Mrs. Endor Curlett of Geneva, C. S. Lee of Oviedo and C. A. Wales of Longwood. These were nominated on Jan. 9 at the meeting of the Seminole County Farm Bureau of which Mr. Meriwether is president.

The soil conservation act states that the three nominees receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected for three years terms; the nominee receiving the next highest vote is elected for a two year term, and the next highest for a one year term.

Since each qualified elector may vote in the election for five nominees for supervisors, some voters will be required to stagger their votes so as to eliminate ties.

MIDWAY PULLED
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Vice Admiral Earle W. Mills said today the Navy is pulling its 45,000-ton aircraft carrier Midway out of the Mediterranean for "extensive alterations."

The Midway has been the most powerful war vessel in this sea bordering international trouble spots of the Middle East. It has visited waters about Greece where the United States is helping the Athens government smother Communist aggression along her borders facing the Soviet zone of influence.

MELON SEASON

Mrs. E. G. Weeks of South Sanford Avenue today reported that her family had recently enjoyed eating another 45 pound out of season watermelon which grew in the back yard near the cow shed. It was only a few weeks ago that the first edible watermelon was picked. One watermelon grew to a weight of 45 pounds but remained too long on the vine to be edible, she reported.

James Brailey Odham Is Named As Seminole's Outstanding Young Man

James Brailey Odham, Jaycee president and State Representative, was today announced by Gordon Bradley, secretary of the Seminole Junior Chamber of Commerce, as the outstanding young man of Seminole County for 1947. The award, he said, was based on the report of a Citizens' Committee composed of Senator L. F. Boyle, R. L. Dean, E. G. Kilpatrick, Jr. and H. James Gut.

Among those who congratulated Mr. Odham for receiving the award as an outstanding Jaycee was Bob Bishop, former state Jaycee president and present vice president and a director of the national organization.

In accepting the award, Mr. Odham stated that he thought that much credit should be given to the founders of the Seminole County organization, including its first leader "Julian Stenstrom whose ability during the first 90 days of the organization's existence did much to keep the unit together."

"The organization elected one of the most able men in the county in 1946 for their president—Jack Ratigan. If the club had been far enough along in their Jaycee work last year, I am sure that Jack would have been given a similar award," he asserted.

"We members of the organization should not become self-satisfied with our work. There is still much for us to do. If we do become satisfied, we have lost the true purpose of the organization. We must strive to achieve better goals for the community and its people," Mr. Odham declared.

"At the present time, our main objective is the tourist program. In our budget of $8,000 there is an amount set aside in the amount of $5,700 for the operation of the Tourist Information Booth and to (Continued on Page Three)

New York Blacked Out As Another Snowstorm Hits

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Strips of near midnight darkness settled over New York in mid-afternoon today as a new snowstorm swooled onto the weather-battered city.

Lights gleamed in skyscrapers in some sections of Manhattan while other areas were normally clear. The Weather Bureau said a combination of snow and fog caused the phenomenon.

As the darkness passed and light came again like delayed intensity. The Weather Bureau said the storm, moving in from eastern Pennsylvania, would continue until late afternoon, leaving two inches or more. The metropolitan area still is blanketed with snow from the Dec. 26 fall of 25.8 inches.

Temperatures tumbled to near 30 degrees below zero in the Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin today. The biting cold extended as far south as the lower Missouri and lower Ohio valleys in the central Nebraska and western South Dakota. The line of sub-zero readings was as far south as Iowa and northern Illinois.

Federal forecaster H. E. Jacobson in Chicago said the current (Continued on Page Three)

Lewis Turns Down Bid From J. A. Krug

He tossed some stiff verbal punches at Krug in doing so. The United Mine Workers' John I. Lewis in a letter rejecting the invitation: "I can conceive of nothing more anemic or futile than a coal industry advisory council attempting to give private advice to you."

"You have had such a committee to advise you on oil, and it is to be fervently hoped that the consumers of coal will be spared the present unhappy fate of the consumers of oil."

General Walkout Looms In Bavaria

MUNICH, Germany, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Bavarian Grade Union Federation called today for a 24-hour walkout of virtually all workers in Bavaria to begin tonight at midnight.

The strike is protesting food shortages, could affect nearly 1,000,000 workers in this American zone state.

About 200,000 workers staged a 24-hour strike yesterday in Nuernberg and Cologne. It was the largest walkout in Western Germany since last April.

The strike call will affect such large cities as Munich, Nuernberg, Augsburg, Regensburg, Wuerzburg and Coburg.

Trade union leaders arranged a broadcast to all union members throughout Bavaria, appealing for the strike between midnight Thursday and midnight Friday.

Truman Sees No Hurry On His Candidacy

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—President Truman said today there undoubtedly will be an announcement by someone seeking the Democratic presidential nomination before the July convention, but he sees no need for hurry about it.

He joshed with reporters at a news conference after 1948 politics and said a front porch campaign is probable. Not once, however, did he come out flatly and say he would be the candidate.

The President said he favors Bernard Baruch's economic proposal as far as they jibe with his own recommendations, but is opposed to those of Herbert Hoover. Mr. Truman did not say exactly what part of Baruch's plan he favors, but asked reporters to compare it with his message to Congress.

Among other things, Baruch favored no tax cutting, for two years, rolling back the food prices while guaranteeing farmers a fair return, holding down further wage increases, and restoration of one-half the wartime excess profits tax, with allowance for corporations to take a credit for cost of new plants.

The President twice remarked he was not for the Hoover proposals. The former chief executive yesterday urged cutting the European program from four years to 16 months.

Asked about a proposal of Charles E. Wilson, of General (Continued on Page Three)

Judge R. W. Ware Offers Candidacy For Re-Election

Judge R. W. Ware today announced his candidacy for re-election as County Judge of Seminole County, subject to the Democratic Primary of May 4.

Judge Ware is a native of Georgia, having moved to Florida from Warrenton, Ga. in 1926. Prior to coming to Florida he served as superintendent of schools of Warrenton county, Georgia for two terms, then was admitted to the bar and practiced law at Warrenton for eight years. After beginning his practice of law there, he represented Warrenton county in the state legislature, and also served as mayor of the city of Warrenton. He practiced law at Sanford until he was elected County Judge, and took office in January 1947.

"Judge Ware stated, 'I am deeply appreciative of the honor—the citizens of Seminole County have bestowed upon me as your county judge since last April. I am particularly proud of this because I am the only person elected by popular vote to serve three terms as county judge since the County was created."

"During this time I have given the very best of myself in time, effort, ability, and mature judgment gained from years of experience, to any and all persons who have had reason to come to me for counseling, or advice how to meet the problems with which (Continued on Page Eight)

Gov. Dewey Flays Policy Of Scarcity At Farmers' Meet

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 22 (AP)—Governor Thomas E. Dewey advised American farmers that their "best protection" against a possible recession is to pay their debts now and not expand any further.

The Governor, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, gave the counsel last night at the 116th annual dinner meeting of the New York State Agricultural Society.

He said that if economic conditions should dictate large government subsidies, "it seems to be much more logical to subsidize a continued high consumption of agricultural production" rather than pay for crop curtailment.

"People need to eat," he observed, "even if they are in a depression."

"Every attempt to impose artificial restrictions or controls in agriculture is inevitably doomed to failure," Dewey maintained.

"The New Deal policy to meet a collapse," he asserted, "is to collapse the farmers. I have always opposed that policy and would consider production controlled only as a last resort."

Government support of prices of farm products, in Dewey's opinion, "should not be high enough to make production controls necessary."

"Such proposals as minimum income payments for all farmers," he continued, "might turn our farmers into a dependent class."

The Governor, who owns a large dairy farm in Dutchess county, said he had been asked many times lately how farmers should protect themselves against a recession.

Marshall Says Sharing Farm Tools Needed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall said today that the book disclosing secret agreements between Soviet Russia and Nazi Germany was ready for release before the London Big Four conference in December but was held up because "we were trying to reach an agreement."

Marshall, here for a visit with friends, made the statement in a news interview. The Secretary of State would not comment on the effect of the published documents on U. S. Soviet relations.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 22 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall said today that sharing farm machinery and fertilizers with Europe under the proposed recovery program "may cause some hardship for a few American farmers." But he said, "the sacrifices here will be insignificant" in comparison with the job to be done.

Marshall spoke before the National Cotton Council, delivering an address that was frankly designed to explain the Marshall Plan to agricultural interests. Similarly at Pittsburgh last week he appealed for businessmen's support of the recovery program.

The Secretary of State said that scarce items which would have to be shipped to Europe despite need in this country will include small amounts of nitrogen fertilizer, farm machinery and other supplies and equipment needed (Continued on Page Three)

Jack Hickson Is Candidate For Seminole Sheriff

Robert Jack Hickson, a permanent resident of Sanford, today announced his candidacy for election as Sheriff of Seminole County, subject to the will of the voters in the primary election on May 4.

Mr. Hickson served for one year as a motorcycle policeman under the late Sheriff C. M. Hand. Prior to that he owned and operated a farm on Cleary Avenue. He later became chief outside deputy, serving in that capacity for 18 years, under Sheriffs J. F. McLelland and Hand.

He served as Mr. Hand's deputy until his resignation at the time of Mr. Hand's death last March. For the past nine months he has been employed by the City of Sanford as City Patrolman under Chief Roy G. Williams.

Mr. Hickson is a member of the First Methodist Church. He and his wife own their home at 2908 Palmview Avenue. They have two sons, both of whom served overseas in the U. S. Navy, and one daughter. Their younger son, Paul, attends Stetson University.

I sincerely solicit their vote and support as I seek election for this post."

Jews Kill 12 Arabs In Attack On Yazar

JERUSALEM, Jan. 22 (AP)—Hagana, Jewish militia, said it attacked the Arab village of Yazar and killed 12 Arabs today after seven Jewish settlement police were slain at a roadblock at the edge of town.

Yazar is about five miles south of Tel Aviv on the main road to Jerusalem. Officials confirmed the Hagana report that seven Jewish settlement police were shot or stabbed to death and said four others were wounded there. They reported only three of the Arab attackers killed.

150 Tons Of Mines Blow Up At Depot

SAVANNA, Ill., Jan. 22 (AP)—A violent explosion of 150 tons of anti-tank mines in an underground ammunition dump at the Army's big Ordnance depot near here last night shook a wide section of three states and shattered windows in several communities some 50 miles away. There were no casualties.

Tremors were felt in a 100-mile radius of Northwestern Illinois, Southern Wisconsin and Eastern Iowa following the blast about 9 P. M. which made a hole 100 feet wide and 50 feet deep.

Col. Eugene Regard, commanding officer of the depot, which covers several thousand acres 10 miles north of here on the Mississippi river, said no fire followed the explosion. However, other magazines in the immediate area were damaged.

Jones, who defeated Long for the office in 1940, will fight it out for the governorship in Louisiana's second Democratic primary Feb. 24. Complete, unofficial returns from 1203 of 1878 boxes gave Long 147,209 votes, a plurality of 50,285 over Jones who won 96,924 votes. Appeals Judge Robert F. Kannon was third with 75,416 and Rep. James H. Morrison (D-La) last with 63,888.

AFL Head Proposes 45-Hour Work Week To Check Inflation

President Is Said To Have Right To Launch Preventive Attack

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Can the President send the armed forces into a "preventive attack" on an aggressor poised to atom bomb U. S. cities, or must he wait for Congress to declare war?

Col. Louis E. Cona of the Air Force operations division asserted today the President has the constitutional right in such a case to go ahead on his own.

And in times like these a President "must be prepared to accept the responsibility for issuing the order," Cona contended in an article written for the "Air University Quarterly Review."

"The assumption that this nation must necessarily continue in the future as in the past to absorb the first blow before countering the aggressor is not only unjust but unless challenged might risk the ultimate survival of our nation," Cona said.

To back up his argument that a President need not wait for Congress before dispatching emergency forces against another nation, Cona:

1. Cited William Whiting, author of the book "War Powers Under the Constitution," as giving "the chief object of a declaration of war is to give notice thereof to neutrals, in order to fix their rights and liabilities to the justic powers."

2. Declared the basis for the President to order a preventive attack "exists in constitutional law as evinced by usage of presidential decision."

Cona pointed to President Polk's order in 1846 sending troops into Mexico in dispute with Mexico; McKinley's dispatch of the battleship Maine to Havana to assert the occupation of Veracruz in 1912 by orders of President Wilson and the entrance of American troops in Siberia against Bolshevik forces in 1918. He wrote that "the years during which Franklin D. Roosevelt asserted the president's authority to engage in preventive action regarding authority to commit the armed forces."

The Air Force writer said this nation must be especially alert (Continued on Page Five)

Twenty boys and 20 girls will take the course and class credits will be given for the course, which includes class instruction and practical driving instruction, said Mr. Morris. This instruction, however, does not entitle a pupil to a driver's license as this must be obtained at the Court House in the regular manner.

Woman Who Lost 3 Sons In War Now Citizen, Gold Star Mother

HACKENSACK, N. J., Jan. 22 (AP)—Mrs. Stella Lewandowski, United States citizen, wore a gold star mother's pin with three stars yesterday.

The Lyndhurst, N. J., widow, who lost three of her five sons in World War II, received her certificate of citizenship Tuesday, which made her eligible for membership in the Gold Star Mothers of America.

The 58-year-old woman had been under the impression she had been a citizen since 1923, but learned last year that when her late husband became a citizen in 1923, she did not become a citizen automatically as she had thought for almost 25 years.

The Naturalization Law of 1922 ended automatic grant of citizenship to an applicant's wife. Mrs. Lewandowski discovered she was an alien when she applied for membership in the Lyndhurst Chapter of the Gold Star Mothers. Government officials, headed by U. S. Attorney General Tom C. Clark, helped speed up her naturalization papers.

Mrs. Lewandowski stood proud and sad before Bergen County Judge A. Dymowski Del Mar to receive her papers. The court gave none of the usual directions to new citizens on the meaning of citizenship.

Judge Del Mar said quietly, "I believe that the suffering and heartaches which have been your lot in life make it unnecessary for me to give you any instructions on your newly-assigned duties."

Navajo Indian, 137, Dies In New Mexico

SAN PATRICIO, N. M., Jan. 22 (AP)—Francis Saiz, Navajo Indian reputed to be 137 years old, died last night.

The Indian, who had worked as a cowboy and shepherd in his youth, died at the home of Simon Sanchez near here. He became acquainted with the Sanchez family in the 1860's.

A girl reporter, Miss Mary Nell Tazzer, of the Ruidoso, N. M., Weekly News, recently interviewed Saiz and checked his story with pioneer residents. At that time she said she was convinced of his age. She reported he was still active, attended to his personal needs, and ate three hearty meals a day with his third set of natural teeth.

Knowing that worms come to the surface when it rains, the kiwi bird of New Zealand stamps on the ground to imitate the sound of rain and decays a meal.

Regular U. S. Army units have composed it as than 10 per cent of the armed forces of the United States in every major war in which the country has participated.

3 Killed In Air Crash At Statesboro, Ga.

STATESBORO, Ga., Jan. 22 (AP)—Three men were killed last night when their small plane crashed after taking off and circling the Statesboro Airport.

Sheriff Stohard Deal of Bulloch county said the craft crashed while evidently trying to land. He reported that its occupants were burned beyond recognition. The men were tentatively identified by Sheriff Deal as J. C. Stafford, the pilot, learning to fly under the GI Bill of Rights;

Harry Tucker, and John H. Fulmer, all of Bulloch county.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration in Atlanta said the craft, a Stinson 10A, belonged to Forrest Boshears of Statesboro. Sheriff Deal reported a low ceiling and rain at Statesboro at the time of the crash. There was a 100 foot ceiling at Augusta at the time, the CAA said.

In very early Egypt, all people went barefoot most of the time, but a man of rank would be followed by a servant carrying a pair of sandals for use when needed.

White House Mail

Contrary to public opinion, letter-writing is not a lost art. More than 5,000 letters pour into the White House, addressed to President Truman, every day. Ira R. T. Smith, chief mail clerk, who has worked at the White House 51 years, says the volume of mail he handles has increased to 20 times that in the Coolidge administration. In those days he managed it alone. Now he has 20 assistants. At special times, as during the hearing of controversial issues, this corps of mail assistants has to be increased.

Strange Titles

Lawyers are said to be conservative, but those who have anything to do with genealogy and heraldry are especially so. The late ex-king of Italy, Victor Emmanuel III, still carried as part of his titles King of Cyprus, Jerusalem and Armenia. It is nearly a year since any Italian had anything to do with the rules of these three states. At the time of the Crusades the Venetians owned Cyprus, and some shadowy claims to descent from the medieval kings of Jerusalem and of Armenia account for the other titles. But they sound wonderful, and the Italian kings have hung on to the titles.

Strange Languages

Do you want to do something that no one else in the United States can do? Then learn to speak Annamese, the language of the Indo-Chinese people who have been giving the French so much trouble. The State Department reports that no one in the foreign service can speak it. Obviously this is a big handicap in trying to find out what is going on in Indo-China.

Movie Producers May Be Told To Dispose Of All Film Theaters

WASHINGTON Jan. 21 (AP)—The Justice Department today asked the Supreme Court to require five major motion picture producers, distributors and exhibitors to dispose of their local movie houses scattered throughout the country. Solicitor General Philip B. Perlman told the court in a brief that "the only way in which the domestic film market can now be opened to competition is by divorcing the five 'from their affiliated theaters'."

Comedian Has Fun, Then Drops Dead

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 22 (AP)—Comedian Jack Lamont, had a night club crowd at the Senator Hall checking at his gain early Wednesday. Then he was one of his associates, pitched forward and dropped dead. A physician summoned to the hotel pronounced the 51-year-old entertainer dead of a heart attack.

'Road To Rio' Seen As Season's Funniest

America's number one laugh highwaymen—Bing Crosby and Bob Hope—are hitting the road again, this time the merry, merry "Road to Rio." Of course they have for their co-star and co-traveler the luscious Dorothy Lamour, without whom no "Road" picture would be complete.

Britain's Socialist Prime Minister, Clement Attlee, used just one crisp sentence yesterday in rejecting a proposal in the House of Commons that he organize a meeting with President Truman, Premier Stalin and the heads of other Allied states in an effort to prevent further deterioration of the international situation. Said Mr. Attlee:

Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 22. (AP)—You can bet that Bing, Dotty and Bob will be hitting the "road" again before 1948 is out.
Each time the tri-starred film is made, the series is reported at an end. "Road to Rio" was announced as "the absolutely final one." But it is doing so well at the theaters that there is already talk of a repeat.
Lamour was lunching with Crosby at the Paramount commissary when the Crooner remarked, "I guess it's about time to do another 'road' show. Yes, I guess it is," she answered. "Yes, but not yet been heard from."
Crosby legends are the most persistent of all in Hollywood. Recently he was reported (1) to be entering the hospital for a check-up; (2) to be suffering from virus X. He told me he knew nothing about either story. "I feel fine," he said.
"Bing is still hopeful that something can be worked out with Petrillo so that his transcribed air show can continue. It's a tough break -- just when the program was getting its stride," he remarked. "He's back in Hollywood for more scenes of 'Conn. Yankee'."
Don Ameche is pleased with his part in "Let's Fall in Love" for which he hurriedly replaced Jeffrey Lynn. His only worry about taking a role so quickly "is that I might get caught overweight." Incidentally, Columbia was caught red-faced by trying to attribute Lynn's removal to virus X; it was actually because the studio thought he was miscast. The truth will out, even in Hollywood.
Bergman leads a life of Engand and Alfred Hitchcock's "Under Capricorn" on Apr. 11. Neither her daughter nor her husband will accompany her. Before leaving, she has some more work on "Joan of Arc" (final title).
Laraine Day and Zachary Scott are reported set for a comedy, "My Dear Secretary," Charles Martin's independent film. Don't put any bets on MGM going through with the Johnson sequel. Columbia is said to be reading "Coup de Grace" for lead-actor Glenn Ford. But Glenn, who has worked continually since he left the Marines, needs a rest.
Betty Hutton, whose "Parils of Pauline" award possibilities were first mentioned here, is getting added support for an Academy nomination. Van Johnson has promised a vote and says he knows others who feel the same way. Wayne Morris, who waited a long time for a picture after he left the Navy, is now in two -- "John Loves Mary" and "Fighting Terror."
William Garret celebrated his 20th wedding anniversary by working late in "The Argyle Secrets." In case anybody cares: Barbara Stanwyck wears $250,000 worth of jewels in "Sorry, Wrong Number" and spends 2/3 of the picture in bed. Capasia reviews: "If Winter Comes (M-G-M)" and "Walk Alone" (PAR) vie for the title of the least probable films of the new year.

SEMINOLA REBEKAH LODGE
The Seminola Rebekah Lodge No. 43 will hold their regular meeting tonight at 8:00 P. M. in the I. O. O. F. hall for the purpose of installing officers for the coming year. The meeting will be formal and all officers and members are asked to be present.

Ivey And Carraway Talk At Golf Meet

John Ivey, president of the Seminole Country Club and Andrew Carraway, membership chairman, were guest speakers at the monthly luncheon meeting of the Sanford Women's Golf Association held yesterday at the Seminole Country Club at 12:00 o'clock. The U-shaped table was centered at intervals with lovely arrangements of white gardenias and magnolia leaves.
In opening the meeting Mrs. E. B. Smith, president of the association, called attention to the play ground which is nearing completion for the benefit of women golfers who wish to have their children cared for while they are playing golf. The group voted to sponsor a Scotch-toursome on this coming Sunday with proceeds to go toward the buying of playground equipment.
Minutes were read by Mrs. Price Heard in the absence of Mrs. John Ivey, secretary, and the treasurer's report was given by Miss Dorothy Powell for Mrs. Jack Horner. Miss Powell called attention to the fact that with all bills paid there is now a balance of $172.28 in the club treasury.
Mr. Ivey was introduced by Mrs. Smith and made an appeal for help in contacting prospective members for the Country Club. Mr. Carraway appointed six captains of teams who in turn selected two members to make up their teams.
An attractive golf trophy, donated by Powell Supply, was displayed. The trophy will be won in a city women's championship tournament in March in match play. To be eligible for this award, Miss Powell explained, six scores must be handed in prior to the championship. The trophy must be won three consecutive times to be kept permanently. Two new members, Mrs. Phil Grasshoff and Mrs. Jack Holt, were introduced and welcomed into the club. A guest, Mrs. G. R. Slater of Douglas, Ga., was also introduced.
Following the luncheon a putting contest and a nine hole tournament were held. A three-way tie was scored in the putting contest by Mrs. Bolt, Mrs. Heard and Mrs. A. J. Williams with 15 putts for nine holes. Three points were awarded to players scoring par on a hole; one over par, a bogey, gave a player two points and two over par, a double bogey, one point. The winner in Class A was Miss Powell; Class B, Mrs. G. R. Slick and Class C, Mrs. Williams.
About 30 members and their guests were present for the luncheon meeting.

Beauty Notes

By BETTY CLARKE
AIP Newsfeatures, Beauty Editor

What do women and giraffes have in common this season? The answer is -- necks!
Giraffes, however, don't have a problem, always having had lots of neck with which to contend. But the fashionable ladies who have kept their necks hidden with long bobs and built-up shoulders have a bit of a problem, now that the new look with its sloping shoulder line and shorter hairdos have taken necks out of hiding.
For one thing it can be very daunting, exposing a neck that has been in hiding so long. And though this inconvenience may be solved by wearing a fancy scarf, there is always the beauty problem -- exposing a neck to public gaze when the scarf is removed.
Necks, this season, will have to be pretty enough to invite the envy of a swan, with a smoothness and sheen that would make porcelain look dull by comparison. But long neglected necks will not respond to a quick-once-over treatment.
At first, it's probably best to try one of the pale pink scented lotions which will blend into your own neck color without making it look painted. A quick drying lotion of this type can form a flattering powder base. You can use the same foundation on your face.
When you are not using the lotion with powder to camouflage your long-neglected skin, it can be used as an after-bath rub-down. Such a lotion should contain emollient oils and should be applied to the neck, shoulders, back and arms before going to bed. Be sure it is satisfactorily non-sticky so as not to soil bedclothes.
Skaters and skiers will find wind and weather lotions wonderful protection. Though the body is constantly exposed to the elements, it can take a beating from extremes of weather.

Mrs. Eugene Simpson of Mt. Dora was the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Holy Cross Episcopal Church held on Monday at 8:00 P. M. at the Parish House.
The president, Mrs. Joe Meisch, presided over the meeting and devotionals were given by Rev. Mark T. Carpenter.
A short business meeting was held during which time board members were reminded of a meeting scheduled to be held on Jan. 29. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Randall Chase, program chairman, who introduced Mrs. Simpson. Her subject was "Christian Marriage and the Family". A large number of members and visitors were present for the meeting and to hear Mrs. Simpson's talk.

These Women

By ADELAIDE KERR

Dinkum the platypus nestled against Kate's shoulder and a warm thrill of happiness coursed through the child to her toes. Happiness had been fate as a rainbow to Kate, since the black truck struck her a careless blow, as she played in the New York street and threw her to the sidewalk like a sack of salt. She missed her mother who worked all day in a laundry and had little time to visit her in a Bellevue Hospital ward.

Frank Chase Given Party Tuesday Night

Mrs. Frank Chase entertained on Tuesday evening with a birthday party honoring her husband at their home, Ellsworth, near Winter Garden. Those invited to be with Mr. Chase were Mr. and Mrs. Randall Chase, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Chase and children, Sally, and Sydo, and Mrs. F. S. Verway.
Jean Tackley, a young woman who began life in a little Wisconsin town, earned her way around the world and "laid it in" New York, first with idealism. Then she founded World Ideas, a little business with big aims.
"On my trip I was impressed with the fact that the world is not so very big and that people of many countries are much alike in many ways," she says. "I wanted to make children see that. If we could, we would have a better chance of their fighting for peace when it is their turn to run things. We are trying to show the children how small the world is through the adventures of Dinkum and his pals on the other four continents."
Included in World Ideas' productions are platypus book and map which their producer expects to follow with platypus lilypones, bean, sugar, etc. The other animals have not yet been produced.
"Jean Tackley's 'one world' interest stems from days when she had barely a nodding acquaintance with geography. One day her teacher held up a small orange and said 'The earth is no bigger in comparison with the universe than this orange is to you.' Jean was promptly fired with ambition to conquer it. Years later, in 1936, she set sail, earning her way by writing advertising copy, radio scripts and commercial movie scenarios and by an entertainment 'trick' blowing smoke bubbles. (To this day, in remembrance, she uses glass bubble balls for home and costume decorations.)

Of the many advances in military technology the most appalling by far is the atomic bomb."

(Continued from Page One) promote tourists in the town and county. I want to remind you to assist in every way that you can, by registering rooms and apartments for rent so that tourists, who want to stop in Sanford, can be accommodated," he said.

Mr. Bishop, who due to delay on his plane connections from Tallahassee, arrived shortly after the award was made, highly commended the Citizens Award Committee for their selection of Mr. Odham as an outstanding member of the local group. He pointed out that each year the Jaycees throughout the nation single out young men who have rendered outstanding service to their community, state and nation. "You all know the contribution Brailey Odham has made to the civic and economic life of the community, and his action in many fields has reflected credit on himself, the Jaycees and the citizens of Seminole County whom he has so ably represented," declared Mr. Bishop, and he added that the state and national officers of the Jaycees were heartily in accord with the selection, and urged the local Jaycees to make even greater contributions to the progress of Seminole County.

Secretary Gordon Bradley reviewed the accomplishments of the local group since its organization in December, 1945. He announced that the Jaycees are sponsoring a five minute program daily at 11:00 o'clock over Station WTRH; to interview tourists here, and find out how they like it here.

In cautioning against further expansion, Dewey made it plain he was not advocating curtailment of production, but was urging farmers to keep within their present operational limits. Dewey advocated letting the farmers themselves plan and carry out agricultural programs, with government confined to the role of helper.

Florida State News In Brief

WOMAN KIDNAPED
TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 22 (AP)—An office salesman was held today under federal charges of kidnaping a woman state employe at gun-point and imprisoning her in a hotel room across the state line.

FBI Agent J. K. Mumford of Mobile, Ala., said Clifford Woodard George, 42, was accused of forcing Miss Dorothy Groover, 30, into an automobile and taking her to Moultrie, Ga. The woman, Mumford said, was made to get into the car despite efforts of a girl companion to defend her. Miss Groover complained two months ago, Tallahassee Chief Prater said, that George had threatened her.

COUNTY AID
JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 22 (AP)—Plans to step deeper into the business of borrowing to help counties finance road construction are at the top of the agenda for discussion by the state Improvement Commission here today.

The agency, which has used hesitantly the broad borrowing power the Legislature gave it nearly three years ago, will discuss procedures for handling $3,280,000 worth of loans for eight counties which want to build roads now with money that will come to them from gasoline tax surpluses in the future.

PRICE QUALIFIED
TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 22 (AP)—U. S. Rep. Emory H. Price of Jacksonville today qualified as a candidate for re-election from the second congressional district. Former state Rep. Charles Bennett of Jacksonville also has qualified for the position.

OIL DRILLING
TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 22 (AP)—Well-drilling is booming in Florida, and incidentally is turning up information that will change the underground map of the state.

State Geologist Herman Gunter reported his department now has geological samples from more than 1650 wells. Increased oil prospecting accounts for some of the extra drilling, but most of the samples come from water wells being sunk in greater numbers to supply new industries, more demand of crops, and a growing population.

WORKERS ATTACKED
MIAMI, Jan. 22 (AP)—Police reported two construction workers were attacked today when 15 men marched on a job employing non-union labor. When an emergency squad of police arrived at the job after a call from Henry Degraff, 37, son of the contractor, the group had vanished.

Police arrested one man identified as Sam Andrews, 32, of Miami, an a disorderly conduct charge.

Wyoming's Text Books On Social Science Okay

LARAMIE, Wyo., Jan. 22 (AP)—An investigating board's report stated that an examination of University of Wyoming social science textbooks "failed to reveal any material in any book examined which in the opinion of the committee falls under the denomination of 'subversive or un-American' material."

The report was prepared by a committee of college department heads who had been appointed last October at the direction of the university's board of trustees to review the school's textbooks for "subversive or un-American" material.

Sharp criticism from faculty members, students and academic organizations developed over the trustees' actions.

Some faculty members had objected to the textbook investigation as a violation of "academic freedoms."

The investigating group headed by Dean R. R. Hamilton of the University Law School said "the committee examined the book for material which in its opinion paraded under false colors or distorted facts to the end that any forms of government or governmental institutions were made to appear in other than their true light."

Presidency Turned Down By Eisenhower

Chief Of Staff Takes
Stand With Sherman
That Politics Is Not For Military

ALBANY, N. Y. Jan. 23 (AP)—Governor Dewey's office officially said today
that General Eisenhower's
statement removing the Army
Chief of Staff from the race
for the Republican presidential nomination.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—
General Dwight D. Eisenhower
said flatly today: "I am not available for and could not accept nomination to high political office."

The Army Chief of Staff's
statement referred to entry of his name in the New Hampshire presidential primary March 9.

"I wrote Leonard V. Finder,
publisher of the Manchester
Union-Leader, that for two reasons
he had heretofore refrained
from making the bald statement
that I would not accept nomination. The first, Eisenhower said
was that such an expression "smacks
of effrontery." A second and deeper reason, the General added,
was a "persistent doubt that I could phrase a flat refusal without appearing to violate that concept of duty to country which calls upon every good citizen to place no limitations upon his readiness to serve in any designated
capacity."

"It is my conviction," General Eisenhower wrote, "that the necessary and wise subordination
of the military and civil power
to the law is a principle which will have greater confidence that it is sustained when lifelong professional soldiers in the absence of some explicit and over-
riding reason abstain from exercising high political office."

Forty And Eight Hold Celebration And Big Initiation

By WILLARD CONNOLLY
Five prominent Sanford residents were involved in a terrible
"wreck" in Orlando Wednesday
afternoon, were jailed for two hours, and were again released
marched up Orange Avenue, and forced to clean streets and sell
newspapers.

They others were in the "wreck"
and were from Orlando and Klaminess. Those from Sanford
were John L. Gallaway, county tax collector, who is accused of selling Orlando newspapers for profits; Assistant State Legion Adjutant Laddie Rowlen,
who was put on the street cleaning detail in PG garb, along with Chic Lester, Seth Woodruff, Van

Kay Francis Is Reported Ill; Manager Held

Mysterious Illness
Follows Wild Party
Staged At Hotel

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 23 (AP)— Kay Francis, the actress, became seriously ill under mysterious circumstances today and her
stage manager, Howard Graham, 37, was booked at police headquarters "for investigation of assault to kill."

Miss Francis and Graham were
here with the six "production"
of "Ship of the Union."
After midday, Miss Francis refused to eat and recovered consciousness sufficiently to ask for a drink of water. Hospital workers described her condition at that time as "semi-conscious." She had been unconscious for several hours
before that.

Police said Graham, taken into custody at the hospital, asserted Miss Francis had summoned him
to her hotel room and said she
had taken some sleeping tablets.
She had been severely burned,
he added, when she fell against a radiator.

Delictive Karl Hanna and Police
Sgt. Clifton said they found evidence of a "wild party" in the hotel room.

Dr. M. Rusoff, a specialist
in internal medicine who attended the 43-year-old star of the screen and stage, declined
to identify the nature of her illness.

Clifton said Graham refused
to submit to a urinalysis, to determine whether he had been drinking and quoted him as adding:

"I'm not doing anything."
"You're not on the stage now," Clifton told Graham. "You're in jail."

"You can conduct your own investigation," he said Graham replied.

Graham was then taken to be booked for investigation.

John Sauls Installs VFW Post At Pierson

District Commander John Sauls,
eighth district, installed the VFW post at Pierson last night. A delegation from Sanford made the trip with Commander Sauls to assist with the installation. The commander from the DeLand
post, John Secash, and O. J. Camp
past district commander, also assisted.

The post got off to a good start, Mr. Sauls reported this evening, with approximately 50
members on the charter. Pierson is located in a farm shipping
center and a number of the local citizens were on hand to see the post get off to a good start. The post name will be Moore-Mohar-re-North Post No. 8726 and is located in north Volusia County.
The VFW post in Pierson is the only veteran's organization located in that community.

Churchill Urges Red Showdown

Tells Commons Action
Necessary Before
Russia Develops
Atom Bomb Plants

LONDON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Winston Churchill declared today
Western Europe must unite quickly and demand a showdown with Moscow before the Russians develop the atomic bomb and something happens.

"I believe the best chance of
preventing war is to bring matters to a head and cope with a settlement with the Soviet government before it is too late,"
Churchill told the House of Commons.

"You may be sure the present situation cannot last. There are very grave dangers in letting everything run on and pile up until
something happens and the matter
passes all of a sudden out of your control."

The conservative party leader
endorsed the Labor Government's proposal for unification of Western Europe as a barrier to the spread of Communism. But he appealed to his political opponents
to rise above party in fostering
the plan.

"In trying to make a United Socialist Europe, you are on the same level as trying to make a United Communist Europe."

Chances for reaching an agreement with Russia are better now
than "if we waited until the Soviet government had got their atomic weapons developed," he said.

Churchill recalled that when
the present Parliament convened

Mr. and Mrs. Pope Feast On Turkey Baked In Blaze

It is doubtful if any Sanford
family ever before ate a turkey
that was partly cooked by having the house burn down around
it, but that was the recent experience of Mr. and Mrs. O. J.
Pope.

Many spectators saw the exposed contents of the Pope refrigerator, including the browned
turkey, after the plane carrying
three ill patients had crashed through the tile kitchen wall
in the northeast portion of the home, at 1915 Sanford Avenue,
demolished and burned the house
as the gasoline exploded last Saturday evening.

The plane spun the refrigerator around and tore off
its door, but by a strange plank
of fate, left the contents intact,
including the turkey. Even a bottle of milk was not broken and
was found in the refrigerator.

Mrs. O. D. Farrell, sister of Mrs. Pope, "completed" the baking of the turkey, which was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Pope.
Mrs. Pope also reported that he looked in a charred cedar chest
and found $200 worth of travelers checks in a leather folder.

She reported that prior to the accident he had brought in his fishing rod and tackle and left
it by the radio. A fishing reel

and Jerome Silverman, three 1947

leases from the club. It was announced today by John Kridler,
vice president of the organization.

Kridler stated that the men
were released at the suggestion of the New York Giants, so that the men will have an opportunity
to make a deal with some other club for 1948.

BOYS ARRESTED

NASHVILLE, Ga., Jan. 23 (AP)— Sheriff N. N. Hughes reported
today that two Nashville high school students had been arrested
in connection with an $18,000 safe
burglary at the home of B. King

Big Business And Big Labor Support ERP

Green of AFL, Cal-
der Of NAM Are In Agreement On Need
For Marshall Plan

ATLANTA, Jan. 23 (AP)—
The National Cotton Council
today endorsed the Marshall Plan for European aid, and also called for closer political
and economic ties with Spain.
Support of the Marshall Plan
was given without qualification, although the council
urged that protection be given to private competition
enterprise. Speaking on Spain
the council asked the American government to "reconsider its political and economic policies toward Spain"
with a view to building more
trade between the two nations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—
Spokesmen for Labor and industry groups pledged full support
to the Marshall Plan for European recovery today but asked Congress to insert some restrictions
on its operation.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor,
urged "early and favorable action upon legislation authorizing
the European recovery program."

Curtis E. Calder said the National Association of Manufacturers is in "complete accord"
with purposes of ERP.

ate Foreign Relations Committee

Glasses Approved For 16 Children By Lions' Club

Requests of 16 children for glasses have been approved since
the Lions Club Sight Conservation Committee. It was reported by Clyde Ramsey, committee chairman, at the luncheon
meeting today at the Tourist Center.

Of the cases approved, 10 are white and six are colored, and children to be aided range from six to 14 years of age, he said.
Sections of the county represented are Sanford, Oviedo, Forest
City, Lake Monroe, Lake Mary,
Wagner, Cameron City and Midway, he announced.

But the committee
wished to thank Dr. G. S. Selman
for co-operation with the Lions
in making eye examinations and furnishing glasses.

The Lions voted to purchase a new club banner. Small American flags with stands for placing on school teachers' desks throughout
the county were shown to the Lions, who will purchase a number of flags for this purpose.

Vice President Richard Dear,
who presided, read a letter from Central Florida Airways inviting
two members of the club to enjoy a free flight in an Airways
plane Sunday afternoon at the Municipal Airport.

Due to the illness of Mrs. M.
D. Gatchel, the luncheon was served by Mrs. G. H. Carlton, assisted by Jerry Silverman.

Science Shows Eating Too Little Or Too Much Is Cancer's Cause

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
AUBURN, Ala., Jan. 23 (AP)—Discovery that diet alone can cause cancer in rats, made two years ago at the Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station of Alabama Polytechnic Institute, has brought on experiments with other animals.

This brings a new angle into cancer, the fact the malignant growths can be caused by too little food as well as by too much. Too much is illustrated by more than 30 chemicals which cause cancer in animals.

Always the cancers come from
too much and too long use.

The rats got cancer from too little of a necessary food. These are the first and thus far only
examples of too little.

The missing food was choline,
sometimes called a B vitamin, but identified by the Alabama experts
as an organic base. Lacking ch-
line, rats got cancers in muscles, bladders, lungs and livers. This same deficiency in man being
tried on chickens and on dogs.
Dogs eat much the same foods as men.

The Alabama discovery was not made by cancer researchers, but
by a team of nutrition experts.
They were not even looking for cancer. The malignant disease
was something entirely unexpected. Choline was one of the last

Stassen Says Pauley Made Big Profit On Slip By Anderson

Meat Packers Promise Plenty Of Meat In '48 If No Rationing

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—Western meat packers told Congress
today that every butcher will have meat to sell this year if the industry is not subjected to rationing or price ceilings.

L. Blaine Liljenquist, representing the Western States Meat Packers Association, testified before the Senate Banking Committee that such controls are "unworkable in time of peace" and would swiftly revive the black market. He added:

"Price control and rationing
treat the symptoms of high prices
without altering the causes. If demand continues high the only
real cure to the high cost of meat
is additional production."

Both Liljenquist and F. E. Mol-lin, executive secretary of the American National Livestock Association, emphasized to the senators that the nation's meat supply in 1948 will be 14½ percent
higher than the 1936-39 average
although 10 percent more than
the per capita consumption
level last year.

The committee, headed by Senator Tobey (R-Mt.), is considering President Truman's proposal
for a 10-point anti-inflation program including rationing and
price authority.

However, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) indicated today he may insist that Mr. Truman carry out terms of the Republican anti-inflation law before Congress acts
on administration proposals.

Meanwhile, the White House
disclosed that President Truman
last night with Bernard M. Baruch, frequently a presidential adviser.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross
told reporters Baruch went to the White House at the President's invitation. While Ross said he was present the conference, in which Baruch presented his proposal "it concerned the state of the union."

Baruch, a New York financier,
has proposed a drastic anti-inflation drive as part of the program
of European restoration. Mr. Truman told a new conference ter-
day he approved of Baruch's
recommendations that are in line
with his own domestic and foreign proposals.

ers, came from DeLand.

The visitors were delighted with Sanford set-up, and invited Sanford Tourist Club members to a return match at DeLand on Feb.
6 said Mr. Armitage. About 100
persons enjoyed serving of coffee
and doughnuts in the Tourist

report of Manager H. J. Lehman, showed but little increase over
last year, with 166,522 units sold

False Statement Led To Jump In Grain Market Just After Pauley Had Bought

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23
(AP)—Harold E. Stassen said today that Edwin W. Pauley
not only made $10,175 on grain trades after a speech
by Secretary Anderson pushed
prices down, but also $56,- 360 on land and oil deals
"patterned" closely to Agricultural Department buying.

The land trades were such as to make inescapable the conclusion that they were
guided by "more than coincidence," Stassen contended
in a Senate Appropriations Subcommittee which is looking into Pauley's commodity
speculations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—
Harold E. Stassen declared today
that Edwin W. Pauley made $40,- 175 profit on two grain transactions following a speech by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson
which depressed the market.

Stassen told a Senate Appropriations Subcommittee inquiring into Pauley's trading that Pauley
took advantage of an "off the cuff" talk by Anderson on Sept.
19 in which Anderson said that grain prices were not realistic.

"These statements, which of course were not correct, caused a temporary drop in grain prices," Stassen said.

He made the statement only a few minutes after Pauley pointed
a finger at Stassen and demanded that the Republican presidential aspirant be required to confront
him "right here, face to face, on the floor," he has told about me.

"We are going to give you an opportunity to be heard," Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich) said.
"Today?" Pauley demanded.

opportunity to be heard," Fergu-

Cold Wave Whips East From Rocky Mountain Region

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
A severe cold wave, following
the pattern of last week's icy blasts, whipped across the country from the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic Seaboard today and coast toward the Gulf Coast and the Carolinas.

The north central region bore
the brunt of the biting cold.
Temperatures in some parts of the frigid belt tumbled to near 10 degrees below zero. The mercury failed to rise above the zero
mark all day yesterday in parts
of Minnesota and the Dakotas.
There were widespread reports of fuel shortages as the cold intensified.

engulfed by sub-zero weather
from Nebraska to northern Mis-

Fuller Warren, Jacksonville lawyer, today became the fourth

He served as a state representative from Duval county in 1939
and earlier represented Calhoun county.

qualified with Secretary of State
E. A. Aron include Attorney General Tom Watson, Richard Cooper,
DeLand law student and news-
paperman; and Bernard MacFad-
den, Miami Beach physical cul-

Anthony merchant; State Senator
W. A. Shands of Gainesville; and State Superintendent of Public
