Sanford Drops 6 To 4 Game To Daytona Beach

Locals Commit Seven Errors In Field; Singleton Is Loser

The Sanford Giants dropped a 6 to 4 ball game to Daytona Beach last night. It was the third setback against two wins for Manager Ed Levy's boys.

The locals committed seven errors in the field aiding the Daytona Beach cause. Left-hander Jim Singleton, who made his opening professional debut last night, was tagged with the loss.

Singleton struck out six and walked five in the nine frames he worked. Manager Ed Levy said, "Singleton pitched winning ball, but the errors in the field pived too costly."

Sanford shortstop Clark committed four of the seven miscues.

The locals were leading Daytona Beach 3 to 2 going into the last half of the eighth inning, but Daytona pushed four tallies across the plate to ice the ball game.

Sanford takes on the Leesburg nine tonight at the Municipal Park. Game time is 8:00 P. M.

NEW YORK, Apr. 18.—(AP)—If you think writing about sports is an easy racket, consider the guys who have to interview the Boston marathon winners each April.

It's a four-year span, they've encountered a French Canadian whose command of the English language is none too good, a Korean, a Greek and a Swede, who spoke no English at all.

Only thing the boss races last weekend proved about derby prospects is that Hill Prince runs too fast to avoid rear-end collision if another galloner stops in front of him.

Maybe Edgie Ayers thought he was doing some Sunday driving on Saturday... Edgie will ride Hill Prince again this week in an effort to complete a set of six matched woods.

Wood memorials, that is, he always has plenty of irons in the fire.

When the Reds and Braves played an exhibition in Bluefield, Va., the other day, Walker Cooper led home runs his first two times at bat.

An A.C. Cooper strolled to the "on deck" circle for his third licks, a kid in a box seat caught his eye and yelled: "Hill another home, Cooper!"

Walker looked around, grinned and replied: "Son, you want mass production."

And he doesn't think he's entitled to first down if he hits the ball ten yards... Nick Schoder, the Bucknell U. tennis player who isn't quite another Ted Schoder though he sounds like one, lost a 6-0 set in a recent match.

Turning to his worried coach, Hank Peters, Nick remarked: "I was not warming up my shots." Then he won the next two sets.

Major Leagues Open Jubilee Season Today

Yanks And Sox Start Where They Left Off Last Season

NEW YORK, Apr. 18.—(AP)—Ted ($125,000) Williams and Joe ($100,000) DiMaggio start earning those bulging salaries today as the big league season opens on eight fronts.

Pay starts for about 450 major leaguers with the first pitch of baseball's jubilee year. An opening day turnout of about 260,000 fans will help the bosses foot the bill.

The schedule makers come up with a tasty bill in rematches of the New York Yankee-Boston Red Sox and Brooklyn Dodger-Philadelphia Phillies games that decided the 1949 pennant races on the final day.

With DiMaggio in the opening lineup for the sixth time in 12 active years (not counting three in the Army) the world champion Yanks visit Fenway Park for the first of four with the Red Sox. The Yanks didn't beat off the Boston challenge until the last day in '49.

Most of the experts and oddsmakers pick the Sox to win it all this time. Brooklyn, favored to repeat in the national, also opens on the road at Sluice Park where the Phillies took them to extra innings last October before yielding the clincher.

The night opener at St. Louis is something new, a friend of things to come when all major league weekday games will be played under the lights. Many more night games will follow—a total of 409 during the 24-week season.

Top in national interest on the opening program is the Yankee-Red Sox clash at Fenway where Boston wound up its home season last fall with 21 straight victories.

Manager Joe McCarthy has his southpaw ace, Mel Parnell (25-7), ready to get the Sox off on the first foot.

For the Yanks, Casey Stengel is pitching Allie Reynolds (17-9), sturdy right-handed hero of the World Series.

Both Williams and DiMaggio huffed the spring headlines. Ted banged out 11 home runs and Joe smashed six homers and a 403 average. They seem to be ready to start firing.

With Hal Newhouser's arm still acting up, Detroit Manager Red Wolfe had to come up with a new opening day pitcher. It's Art Houtteman (10-10) or Freddie Hutchinson (15-7). Houtteman, critically injured in an auto accident a year ago, didn't appear until May 21 last season. Now he may get the first crack at Cleveland's stadium.

Bobby Feller is due to sit out the opener for a change, giving way in the Indian's Bob Lemon (22-10) proclaimed by many baseball men as the best pitcher in the league.

Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics, starting their 50th year under the 87 year old manager, have pitching miseries. Dick Forster and Joe Coleman have arm troubles so Mack opens at Washington with 23 year old, Carl Scheib (9-12).

After Freddie Harry Truman throws out the first ball at Griffith Stadium, Rae Scarborough (13-11) takes up the burden for Washington.

New Garver (12-17) goes for the youthful St. Louis Browns at Chicago against the White Sox' lefty Bill Wright (15-13). Wright is

The Neutral Corner

By BILL HERING

Manager Ed Levy said today that right fielder Al Neville will be benched for a few days because of an ankle injury he received in Sunday's game against the St. Augustine Saints.

The accident occurred in the top half of the seventh frame when Neville was chasing a ball hit by the Saint's catcher Strocker. The Sanford player was stooping over to pick up the ball when he turned his ankle on a small mound of earth.

Levy immediately ordered that the player be taken from the game and have cold ice packs placed around the sprained joint.

"I can't say for certain how long he will be out of action," the manager declared, "but I've given orders for him to stay off that foot until the swelling goes down."

The 19-year old rookie touched the swollen ankle and grinned, "I'll be back in the line-up in a few days."

Pitcher Charlie Tedesco, in Sunday's game against the Saints, put on a better exhibition of hurling than any Giant pitcher so far. The 18-year old right hander allowed only one walk and was in trouble only once in the contest. With men on second and third he easily faced the next three batters and retired them in order with a run crossing the plate.

In every inning but the second, Tedesco retired the first man to face him. In the first, third, fourth, sixth, and ninth frames he retired in order the first two men at bat.

The major league loops aren't the only one spawking about baseball's new balk rule. A few of the Sanford Giant pitchers claim that it gives a fair man his first base on first base. He needs to steal second. The youthful moundmen were, in 1924, the opinion that the runner can take a much longer lead off the sack with the new ruling. The present balk rule states in effect the with men on first and second after his stretch must come to a full second stop with both hand in front of his body before delivering the pitch. It's like closing your eyes and counting to three with the bases loaded; one Gian: hurler said.

One thing is for sure: the fans will be able to spot a balk easier than they did in the past. Just keep your eyes on the pitcher's hands as he brings them to rest just before delivering the ball. If he uncorks his throw without coming to a full one second stop, it's a balk.

The Sanford Giants are scheduled to play 69 home games this year. They close out their home stand against Daytona Beach on Aug. 31.

Shortstop Johnny McMannus who was with Sanford in 1947-48-49, was sold by Springfield to the Bristol Twins yesterday.

50th Annual South And North Tourney Opens At Pinehurst

PINEHURST, N. C., Apr. 18.—(AP)—The 50th annual North and South Amateur Golf Tournament is starting in a manner befitting the golden anniversary of the tournament with the longest uninterrupted run of any major event in the country.

Yesterday's qualifying play produced a brilliant five-under par 67

the fellow with the tricky move to first that picks so many runners off the bag. It will be interesting to see how Wright and the other pitchers make out with the new balk rule that requires a full second halt before throwing to the batter with a man on base.

Big Don Newcombe (17-8) is the Dodger pitcher at Philadelphia in the Phillies' nominee although Eddie Sawyer might switch to lefty Ken Heintzelman (17-10).

There is great interest in the Polo Grounds meeting of the Boston Braves and New York Giants, which has in the big winter player deal.

Sid Gordon, Willard Marshall and Buddy Kerr, all ex-Giants, will be playing with another major league team for the first time. They give the Braves more punch but the Giants expect Alvin Dark and Eddie Stanky ex-braves to patch up their infield. Now we'll see who goes to the top.

Pitching rivals are Warren Spahn (21-14), Boston's talented southpaw, against Larry Jansen (15-16) of the Giants.

Manager Eddie Dyer of the St. Louis Browns follows the book in taking a sighthander—Gerry Staley (10-10)—against Pittsburgh's right-handed batting power.

Bob Chernes (7-15) will work for the Pirates.

Johnny Schmitz (11-13) is the starter for the Chicago Cubs at Cincinnati against Ken Raffensberger.

3 People Are Indicted By Grand Jury

Gross Mismanagement Of Florida A. And M. Is Charged By Leon Grand Jury

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 19.—(AP)—A Leon County grand jury today returned indictments against three persons formerly connected with Florida A. and M. college for Negroes here.

Neither the identities of the persons indicted nor the charges made against them were announced since they are not in custody.

In a formal report, the jury said it was convinced there had been "gross mismanagement, immorality and dishonesty" committed by the other persons at the institution but it did not have sufficient information to warrant indictments.

The jury said it felt a president of an institution is largely responsible for management of his school and "the former president of Florida A. and M. College failed to maintain proper standards and permitted gross mismanagement."

W. H. Gray, Jr., resigned as A. and M. president last July after charges were made on the floor of the legislature he was guilty of questionable practices. The jury which reported today is the third to investigate the Negro college since Gray's resignation but the first to announce any findings.

The jury made 11 specific recommendations to the legislature, the Governor, the board of capital and other agencies on correction of conditions at the college.

The jurors declared their investigations disclosed "an unfortunate state of affairs reflecting unfavorably upon certain members of both the white and colored races."

They were succeeded as president by Dr. George W. Gore, Jr., who took charge of the institution April 1.

State Auditor Bryan Willis reported numerous cases of mismanagement and other irregularities at the institution. He said there was a $15,848 shortage in state funds and that $2,414 worth of scrap was sold by employees of the college maintenance department who kept the money.

Shortly after Gray resigned as president last summer, he was charged by State Rep. Bryant Patton with numerous acts of mismanagement, mismanagement and impropriety.

Air-Bomb Planter Might Be Handed Murder Indictment

LOS ANGELES, Apr. 19.—(AP)—Police today charging 34-year-old John H. Grant with attempting to murder 16 persons.

There were 16 — including Grant's wife and two small children — aboard an airliner yesterday when a crude gasoline bomb was discovered in the luggage just before the plane was to take off.

Police Detective Ned G. Lorenz said Grant, an Airline pilot, admitted to a lengthy statement that he plotted the death of his family to collect $25,000 insurance and pay up his accumulated debts. Detective Jack Goulding said Grant had a long history of complaint charging Grant with 16 counts of attempted murder.

An investigator deposed into Grant's tangled affairs — which include another woman who says she knew him — they said he told them his debts include back payments for support of an illegitimate child in New York.

Detective said Grant had this to say of the New York paternity case: "The girl was a young widow. We had been intimate for some time and she was expecting a baby. I brought charges against me. I needed $500 and came to California with my family. I had been transferred, but it was routine and had nothing to do with the paternity matter. In March of 1947, on the pretext of my attorney's return to New York and admitted paternity, I was ordered to pay $10 a week child support."

China Commies Gain Ground On Hainan Island

CHANG KAI-SHEK Calls Service Heads Together To Coordinate Action

TIPEI, Formosa, Apr. 19.—(AP)—A reliable source said tonight the Chinese Reds have landed reinforcements on Hainan Island, where they won two beachheads Monday.

Jubilation over earlier Nationalist claims of a smashing victory gave way to anxiety in this Nationalist capital.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek called his service chiefs into a huddle to find what went wrong on the south Chinese island. They sought to develop quickly a smoother coordination between commanders there.

Defense units apparently fought independently of each other, this permitted the Reds to make deep inroads, apparently.

One high official said the situation was serious.

The informant said, however, the Reds landed only a few new troops. He said many troop-laden craft were sunk before they could reach the beachhead.

Adm. Kwei Yung-Ching, Nationalist naval chief, said it was hard to stop all invading craft.

"One of the most difficult things in the world to sink is a wooden junk," he said. "We could sink them with high speed boats with flame throwers. That would be the best way to tackle them."

Kwei said the navy had killed more than 5,000 invaders at sea during the Monday attack.

He predicted the Reds, if they take Hainan, would turn their full attention to southeast Asia. A similar note was heightened by the arrival yesterday of Chen (Continued on Page Two)

U. S. Air Force Has 600 M. P. H. Jet Fighter On Its Purchasing List

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—(AP)—The Air Force has put a 600-mile-an-hour jet bomber at the top of its buying list and intends to keep it there next year.

The favored plane is a B-47 Stratofortress which has just begun to come off the Boeing Aircraft Company's production line at Wichita, Kas.

The jet bomber's range, however, is only a fraction of that achieved by the B-36 with its piston engines.

While the combat radius of the B-36 is listed officially at 6,000 miles, that of the Stratofortress is placed only at "more than 4,000 miles."

But the Air Force is busy trying to increase the range of the faster plane. Besides adopting more efficient engines for the craft, it recently ordered an experimental B-47 equipped with four engines of greater power than the ones used on the type now in production.

When the jet bomber joins the medium bomber groups in which it will replace B-29 Superfortresses of World War II, its range will be increased further by B-29 tankers planes in those groups. The tankers can be sent ahead of the jet bombers to refuel them on their way to targets.

Even with such refueling, the Stratofortress is expected to require outlying bases for attacks on targets far from the United States.

Ultimately all of the medium bomber groups in the Air Force are to be re-equipped with B-47 jet bombers or B-50 superfortresses, an improved version of the B-29.

Of 10 medium bomber groups which are scheduled to continue as such, three already have been converted to B-47. Since the production of the Boeing plant at Seattle is scheduled to end in 1947, the jet bombers have a narrow place in future purchase plans.

All of the medium bomber groups are now stationed in the United States, except one in Guam and one in the United Kingdom.

"During the fiscal year ending next June 30, the Air Force is spending $262,000,000 on B-47s. Additional purchases of B-36s to provide reserve planes for heavy bomber groups are expected next year." (Continued on Page Two)

Hours Are Changed At Swimming Pool

A new change of hours of the opening and closing of the Sanford Municipal Swimming Pool was announced today by F. Hasky Wright, manager and cashier.

There will be no morning session at the pool except on Saturdays when it will open at 9:30 A.M. and will close at noon, will be open at 1:00 o'clock and close at 5:30 o'clock. The same afternoon schedule will be observed also on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays. No tickets will be sold after 5:00 P.M.

When weather will permit, arrangements can be made for private swimming parties at night, said Mr. Wright, who will furnish data on rates and dates.

BRADLEY SPEAKS — CONCORD, Mass., Apr. 19.—(AP)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff of the United States, said today that the United States, Britain and Canada — "politically joined" — can preserve democracy in the Western world.

Gen. Bradley spoke at the 17th anniversary of the Battle of Lexington and Concord which began the American Revolution and the ultimate separation of the United States from the British Commonwealth. He went out of his way to note British armed force representatives in his audience on this anniversary.

Czechs Order U. S. Officer To Leave Country

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—(AP)—The Czechoslovak news agency announced today that all but a few Roman Catholic missionaries will be taken over by the government and converted to "social and health purposes."

"Some of the missionaries will be used to ease the housing shortage in the respective districts," the official news agency said.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—(AP)—The United States may ban Czech publications in this country in retaliation for Czechoslovakia's demand that the American press refrain in Prague from attacking the government.

LONDON, Apr. 19.—(AP)—Czechoslovakia today under the expansion of Joseph U. Kolark, director of the U. S. information services, and demanded an immediate halt to the U. S. I. S. activities in the country.

At the same time dispatches from Prague said six Czechoslovak, one of them a woman, went on trial in Prague state court in Prague charged with belonging to a spy ring directed by the U. S. Embassy.

The Czech press agency said the chief defendant, former army major Janouk Nechansky, confessed to charges of high treason and spy activities. (Continued on Page Two)

Polio Victim Who Spent 19 Years Imprisoned In An Iron Lung Dies

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Apr. 19.—(AP)—Death yesterday took 32-year-old Birdell Sweet out of the iron lung that kept him breathing during 19 years of polio.

He had lived in an iron lung longer than any other human in medical history. The next longest case was 15 years.

The young man's release came at the end of a slow decline that began last summer and grew more serious two months ago. Doctors called it "complications of long-established polio."

Sweet's father and mother, who spent a good part of their own lives serving their imprisoned son, were with him when he died. "They had been a marvellously attentive family," the physician, Dr. Scott Lord Smith, said. The father, Perry Sweet, is a Beacon, N. Y., real estate man. Sweet was troubled with polio when he was 14 years old. While he survived the disease, he had to stay in the lung for 19 years.

Government's Case Against Maragon Is Said Tottering

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—(AP)—The government's case against John Maragon, once a White House confidant, appeared to be tottering today.

A source was said to have suddenly unrolled tomorrow to give prosecutors time to decide whether to offer confidential government records as evidence in support of their chief accusations.

Maragon is being tried on charges he had to Senate investigators about his business and financial affairs.

The big question is whether the federal Bureau of Investigation and the Agriculture Department should be compelled to produce records they consider confidential.

The defense issued a subpoena for all documents the FBI has that relate to Milton R. Pollard of Milwaukee in connection with Maragon. It already has subpoenaed records relating to the Allied Mollasses Co. of Perth Amboy, N. J.

The records were brought into court yesterday. The officials who produced them said they were under orders not to turn all of them over to the court or the defense because of their confidential nature.
