Winter Springs to examine codes

Judging by the number of items listed on the agenda for the Winter Springs City Commission meeting Monday, Nov. 22, the city is continuing in the process of trying to improve its appearance, especially in the residential areas. As is the practice in all cities, complaints and apparent abuse of existing rules often bring about needed changes or additions to codes.

Among items to be discussed Monday are amendments to the present city code regarding commercial vehicle parking in residential areas, storage of commercial vehicles in residential areas, and the keeping of animals in residential areas.

The city will also consider, on first reading, new code stipulations pertaining to the placement of garage sale signs in the city.

In commercial areas, the commission is scheduled to discuss and consider code amendments dealing with trailer signs along the SR-434 corridor, and a moratorium prohibiting the installation of new billboards.

The Winter Springs City Commission meeting, Monday, November 22, will begin at 6:30 p.m., in the commission chambers of city hall, 1126 E. SR-434, Winter Springs.

Police seize guns, cocaine

Authorities expect bust to have 'major impact'

By Bill Kerns
Staff Writer

SANFORD — Drug agents on Thursday morning arrested a Sanford man and wife who they say played a major role in the area's cocaine trade.

Frederick Cole, 37, and Vernetta Cole, 29, were arrested at their 901 Persimmon Avenue home and charged with possession with intent to distribute cocaine as well as conspiracy to distribute cocaine.

Agents seized one pound of crack-cocaine, three kilos of cocaine powder, 21 weapons including 12 handguns as well as shotguns and rifles, and nearly $20,000 in cash at the Persimmon Avenue home. Agents also seized a 1997 GMC Suburban.

A warrant that was served at 3649 Main Street in Midway yielded minimal evidence, agents said. "We consider him (Frederick Cole) to be a major player," said Rick Scovel, director of the Orlando office of the federal Drug Enforcement Agency. "We think the amount seized speaks for itself."

The couple were arrested Thursday following an eight month joint investigation by the DEA and various law enforcement agencies. See Police, Page 2A

County board re-organizes

Will Henley keep his chair? Most likely

By Russ White
Staff Writer

SANFORD — On Tuesday, Seminole County Chairman Carlton Henley will pass the gavel to County Attorney Bob McMillan, who will begin the reorganization of the Board process for 1999/2000.

More than likely, Henley will be chosen to serve a second consecutive year.

"That," said Commissioner Randy Morris, "is the way the board should go. With three commissioners up for re-election, it will be a difficult year for everyone. Chairman Henley has demonstrated a steady hand at the helm."

The buzz at the County Services Building is that District 3 Commissioner Dick Van Der Weide would like the chair for himself. Entering his eighth year in office, Van Der Weide served previously as the chairman.

Van Der Weide faces a stern re-election test against former Altamonte Springs Mayor Dudley Bates.

A possible scenario on Tuesday would be for Commissioner Grant Maloy to nominate Van Der Weide for the chair. Another, Van Der Weide's nominating Maloy. If neither gained three votes (including his own), someone else would nominate Henley — who undoubtedly be approved.

"Carlton's done a pretty good job," Maloy said Thursday. "He's done a lot better than Randy. See Board, Page 2A

Carjackers captured after pursuit

By Bill Kerns
Staff Writer

SANFORD — Two carjacking suspects were captured Thursday after a pursuit that stretched from the south side of Sanford to Altamonte Springs.

Willie Lee Carter, 22, of 628 Railroad Avenue in Altamonte Springs, and Rickey Richardson are in the Seminole County Jail facing charges of carjacking and carrying a concealed firearm. Police have not yet determined Richardson's age or address.

At 12:21 a.m. the victim, 21-year old Clyde Littles, was walking from his green 1983 Oldsmobile parked in front of 1706 Ridgewood Lane in Sanford when Richardson walked up to him, put a gun in his mouth, and ordered him to the ground, according to police.

Carter, driving a car that had been stolen out of Orange County, had driven next to Littles. Richardson took the keys to Littles' car, and drove off with the vehicle.

Seminole County Sheriff's deputies observed the Oldsmobile traveling north on State Road 600, and while following the car observed the second car which was stolen from Orange County.

Deputies located the Oldsmobile at the corner of Leonard Street and Marker Street in Altamonte Springs. Littles positively identified the pair as the people who carjacked him at the scene, according to the police report.

Police recovered a loaded revolver from the driver's side door of the Oldsmobile. Deputies escorted Littles to the scene, where he positively identified Richardson and Carter.

A second loaded revolver was found in the passenger front seat of the stolen Orange County car, which had crashed into a pole on the corner of State Roads 436 and 427, the police report said.

Longwood wants to put more cops on the street

Chief Jackson looks to make changes in department

By Nick Pfeiffaut
Staff Writer

LONGWOOD — Improvements in the operation of the Longwood Police Department can be expected soon.

The first effort was this Wednesday afternoon when a departmental meeting was held to discuss and consider reorganization and restructuring. Going into the meeting, Police Chief Tom Jackson said, "What we want to do, is put more officers on the street and improve the overall operations in the various zones."

While Jackson said he expected there may be long-time officers who wouldn't be in favor of all of the plans, he said he was very pleased with the response. "I laid my program out, they listened, we discussed it, and they all seemed to believe that it would be beneficial, not only in their personal scheduled, but their professional work as officers."

The other big step will be the hiring of two new police officers. The Longwood City Commission had previously approved its $10.7 million fiscal budget for this new year, and two new officers were included in the police budget request.

"By Thursday afternoon, we had trimmed the number of applicants down to six," Jackson said. "We had to delay the selections because it took longer than we had anticipated in receiving responses to our inquiries and obtaining references as well as doing background checks." He said that applications had not only come in locally but from out-of-state. See Longwood, Page 2A

Maloy said, however, that he wasn't against having one of the three commissioners running for re-election - Van Der Weide, Daryl McLain and himself - become the 1999/2000 chairman. "The duties should be separate, not conflicting," said Maloy, the present vice chairman.

was extremely difficult. The way our system works, it isn't easy ignoring the politics, the infighting. It's important for the chairman to make things work. I've done all I could to support Carlton Henley for the past year and will continue to support him.

McLain's answer was, "Who knows? Maybe, we're going to need a compromise candidate."

Gallagher releases statewide high school competency test results

TALLAHASSEE — Education Commissioner Tom Gallagher today released the results of the October 1999 eleventh grade High School Competency Test (HSCT) which show a consistent state passing rate when high performing student FCAT scores are combined with the HSCT results.
"Although the HSCT results alone show a decline," said Gallagher, "when we combine the students who exempted the HSCT due to their FCAT scores, we see consistent overall results."
Florida students are required to demonstrate skills in math and reading to receive a high school diploma. Since 1983, students have taken the HSCT to meet this requirement.

ble students earned an exemption from the math HSCT when tested last February and about 32% earned exemptions from the HSCT reading test. These students did not take the October 1999 HSCT.
When the numbers of students earning exemptions from the HSCT are added to those who earned passing scores on the HSCT, the results show 81% met the reading graduation requirement and 77% met the math graduation requirement. These results are identical with those reported a year ago when all students took the HSCT.
The reading section of the HSCT measures comprehension and skills in obtaining information, identifying facts and opinions, and drawing conclusions from a variety of reading selections. Students read and answer questions about the kinds of material they typically encounter in textbooks, non-fictional literature, magazines, newspapers, and other forms of popular literature.
The math section of the HSCT demands that students read and solve real-world problems dealing with consumer applications and percents, measurements, concepts of simple probability, use of ratios and proportions, applying geometric relationships, and solving one-step equations.
The FCAT reports a student's skill with scores that range from 100 to 500. If a tenth grade student earns a score in math at the 315 or higher level, the student does not have to take the math part of the HSCT. Students who score at 327 or higher on the reading test do not have to take the communications part of the HSCT.
The district scores are available on the department's web site at http://www.fim.edu/doe/sas/hscsthme.htm

New education scholarship program unveiled by state

TALLAHASSEE — Miami-businessman Stanley G. Tate today announced a new scholarship program at a Miami-Dade School Board meeting.
The School District Scholarship Program is sponsored by the Florida Prepaid College Foundation and the Florida Department of Education.
The Foundation donated 72 scholarships and collaborated with Commissioner of Education Tom Gallagher to design a program that would identify young people committed to entering the field of education.
Michelle Cleckley of Seminole County was awarded one of the scholarships.
"The Florida Prepaid College Foundation is proud to work with Commissioner Gallagher on this nationally-unique program to target students with an interest in education. With this scholarship, they will be able to focus on a specific career, stay committed to their goals and hopefully, stay in Florida to live and work," said Tate, Chairman of the Florida Prepaid College Foundation.
"Florida will be enriched by our ability to prepare young people for rewarding careers in education. This is the only scholarship of its kind that specifically asks students to make a commitment to education, in exchange for a college education," said Gallagher.
Scholarships are being awarded to 72 Florida students who commit to entering an educational field as a condition of receiving their scholarships. The students represent each county in the state, in addition to the four university lab schools and the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind.
Tate and Gallagher believe that the scholarships will not only foster a commitment to education but a desire by the student to live and work in the state of Florida.
Students will be required to meet the criteria for the Florida Prepaid College Foundation's Project STARS program—a pro-

Don't let the hucksters bug you

Just as Pokeman madness is reaching the height of insanity, here comes Walt Disney Millennium Souvenir Pin mania. Apparently, everyone's hoarding the Daffy Duck pins. Mickey, Minnie and Goofy are going fast, too. Does anyone have a Little Mermaid?

Y2K isn't the problem. It's the hucksters we should be watching. The Almighty may have to come back to stop the gouging and hysteria. With 42 days to 2000, Florida-Florida State football fanatics are possibly the sanest people in a world of 6 billion.

Slow down, everyone. Don't drop the Chulupa. In a little while, everything will be better than normal. New Year's Eve revelers will party out at the Alhambra. Maori warriors will stop dancing atop Mount Hakepa. Dennis Rodman and Carmen Electra will make up. Shaq will keep missing free throws. Rush Limbaugh will eat more.

Bill Bradley will beat George W. Bush by a free throw. Hillary Clinton will decide she wants no parts of politics or Bill Clinton. Dan Quayle will be a contestant on "Do You Want to Be a Millionaire?" Al Gore will become president of the Tennessee Titans.

Russ White

Interest rates will go down. Everyone will be employed. Bill Bradley will assure us that the minimum hourly wage for men seven feet tall working in short pants will be $100,000. For the test of us, it'll be $10.00 an hour. We love you, Dollar Bill. You're the man.

No more cell phones. Too risky. And no more 10-10-321 either. Too dopey. People will be urged to make fewer calls. One or two a day. Get off the phone. Get a life.

Television 2000 will be dramatically different. Muppets and cartoon characters will be restricted to the 6 p.m. and 11 p.m. newscasts. Katie Couric will marry Bryant Gumbel. Vanna White will run out of vowels and be replaced by Deepak Chopra. Biff Henderson will get his own network show.

Orlando's Shannon Hori will succeed Barbara Walters on 20/20.

Life in Seminole County will be so good that residents will ask if they can pay more taxes. Work will begin on the Watermelon Park Hotel and Conference Center on Lake Monroe. Save the Park society members will bottle and sell water from Lake Corolla. Mayor Larry Dale will stay in office for five terms. His successor: wife Stephanie Dale.

Seven buildings — 30 stories or higher — will be going up in Altamonte Springs. Chuluota will get a NFL franchise. Taintsville will remain Taintsville. Monks from Tibet will buy Katie's Landing. Longwood will be renamed Lovewood.

Knowing what you do now may make it easier to cope with the millennium hype that's only going to intensify. Send some one e-mail. Tell them not to worry. Bobby Bowden's not worried. Either is Steve Spurrier. They think Y2K is an play option.

Maybe it is. Watch Warrick.

St. Alban's Cathedral installs new chancel organ pipes

OVIEDO — St. Alban's Anglican Cathedral has recently completed the installation of new chancel organ pipes, designed by the Cathedral organist and choirmaster B. Richard Wright, Jr., and Will Benton of Dunne Music.

The four sections of pipes, hand-crafted by the Lauck Pipe Organ Company of Otsego, Mich., extend above either side of the altar, adorning the upper sections of the side walls of the sanctuary and front walls of the choir.

The rich, burnished gold pipes rest in dark oak chests having a repeating trinity motif that echoes the pre-existing woodwork. This addition to the cathedral beautifully enhances the traditional aspect of the interior and helps to emphasize the inextricable interplay of classical music and liturgy in the Anglican service, which perpetuates the use of the 1928 Book of Common Prayer.

St. Alban's is the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of the Eastern United States of the Anglican Province of America, a part of the worldwide Traditional Anglican movement. The Cathedral is located at 3348 West State Road 426, Oviedo, a tenth-mile east of the Aloma Avenue exit of S.R. 417, the Greenway.

A blessing not to be sneezed at

Two women who rang my doorbell at 8 a.m. on Saturday immediately knew I wasn't awake enough to chat with them.

They shoved a newsletter inside the door and went their way.

That afternoon, I took a glance at the newsletter, which dealt with the dangers of being superstitious. The writer of the newsletter warned that saying, "God bless you," when someone sneezes was an example of being superstitious.

That was all I needed — the newsletter went into the dumpster.

What's going on here, anyway? Why are so many people upset about being blessed by or offering a prayer to God?

Believe it or not, there's a court case filed by an atheist who was greatly offended when someone said, "God bless you," after he had sneezed.

Then, there's the fuss in Texas about whether high school students can pray before a football game — or, for heaven's sakes, at graduation ceremonies.

The advocates of prayer at football games argue that an after-school athletic event, where attendance is voluntary, is not nearly as weighty as a high school graduation and that a 1992 ruling is not applicable. That ruling said that prayer at graduations violated constitutional separation of church and state because students had little choice but to attend graduation.

Pray tell, the U.S. Supreme Court again is faced with making a decision. This is the court, of course, which distinguished itself years ago for banning prayer from the classroom. Had to do it — the Constitution said so.

But, is there anyone who really believes that the Constitution promises Freedom from religion? Isn't it Freedom of religion?

More than 200 years after America freed itself to worship God, why would its citizens — Baptists, Lutherans, Presbyterians, Jews, Catholics, Methodists, Unitarians and Latter-Day Saints, just to mention a few — not want to protect this freedom? The separation of Church and State has separated church from church and people from people, people from God.

If we have to worry that we've offended someone by saying "God bless you" after they sneeze, not only have we been separated from religion but from sensibility.

A person's heart pauses momentarily when he or she sneezes — an involuntary explosion that brings the person closer to his or her creator. For another to offer a respectful "God bless you" is the appropriate response. That, and a tissue.

Chanukah celebration set for Dec. 4 in Orlando

Chabad of Greater Orlando will host its Grand Menorah Lighting and Chanukah Gala at Church Street Station, in the Church Street Market Courtyard, Saturday, Dec. 4, at 8 p.m.

In years past, Chabad has held a Grand Menorah Lighting at the Altamonte Mall. After last year's event, it was evident attendance had grown too large for the mall's capacity. Statistics have shown American society has become more understanding and accepting of Chanukah as a recognized calendar event.

"With that in mind, it seems most appropriate to host such an event in the open arena of a public city street where all people can celebrate together," said Jeff Bander, one of the chairmen on the Chanukah committee.

The event will include a Menorah lighting, greetings from dignitaries, donuts, hot latkes, dreidels, balloons, live music, Chassidic and traditional dancing, Chanukah gett, Grand Menorah Display and Israeli entertainer Yoel Sharabi.

For more information, call (407) 644-2500.

Answers to those turkey questions

From first timers to seasoned pros, cooks of all levels may experience anxiety over preparing the Holiday Turkey Dinner. Continuing the column from last week, I'll address the top commonly asked questions at this time of year.

What do you do before roasting a Turkey?

Remove original plastic wrapper from thawed or fresh turkey. Remove the neck and giblets from the body and neck cavities.

D r a i n juices and blot turkey dry with paper towels.

Stuff the turkey (optional) just before roasting; ingredients may be prepared earlier, but keep moist and dry ingredients separate and combine just before stuffing.

Return legs to tucked position, if untucked for cleaning or stuffing.

Insert oven-safe meat thermometer into the deepest part of the thigh.

Brush with oil to prevent drying of the skin.

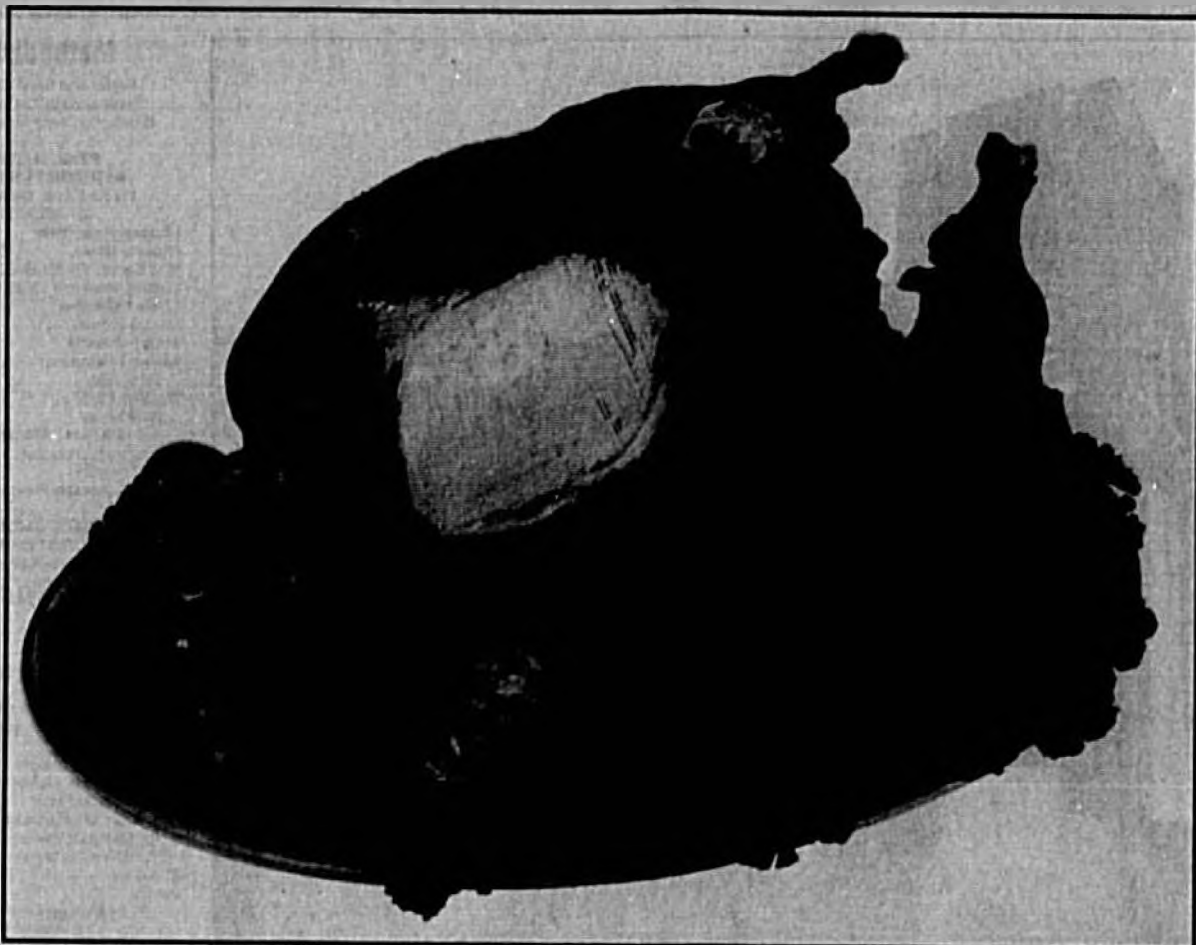

Follow roasting directions that come with every Butterball Turkey.

What is the best way to roast a Turkey?

The Butterball Open Pan Roasting Method will consistently create a juicy, tender, golden brown, picture-perfect turkey.

Place thawed turkey or fresh turkey, breast up, on a flat rack in a shallow pan, 2 to 2-1/2 inches deep.

If unstuffed, insert oven-safe meat thermometer into the thickest part of the thigh. If stuffed, place the tip of the meat ther-meter inside the stuffed cavity of the turkey.

Brush or rub skin with oil to prevent drying of the skin and to enhance the golden color.

Place in a preheated 325 degrees F oven.

When the skin is a light golden color and the turkey is about two-thirds done, shield the breast loosely with a tent of lightweight foil to prevent overcooking of the breast.

Use this roasting schedule as a guideline, start checking for doneness about an hour before recommended end times:

Net Weight (in pounds)	Unstuffed (in hours)	Stuffed (in hours)
10 to 18	3 to 3-1/2	3-3/4 to 4-1/2
18 to 22	3-1/2 to 4	4-1/2 to 5
22 to 24	4 to 4-1/2	5 to 5-1/2
24 to 30	4-1/2 to 5	5-1/2 to 6-1/4

Turkey is done when the meat thermometer reaches the following temperatures:

180 degrees F deep in the thigh; also, juices should be clear, not reddish pink when thigh muscle is pierced deeply.

160 degrees F in the center of the stuffing, if turkey is stuffed.

Let turkey stand 15 minutes before removing stuffing and carving to allow juices to set.

Where does the meat thermometer go?

If stuffed, the tip of the meat thermometer should be placed inside the stuffed cavity of the turkey. If unstuffed, the tip of the meat thermometer should be placed in the thigh muscle just above and beyond the lower part of the thigh bone, but not touching the bone and pointing toward the body.

How do I know when the Turkey is done?

Turkey is done when the meat thermometer reaches the following temperatures:

180 degrees F deep in the thigh; also, juices should be clear, not reddish pink when thigh muscle is pierced deeply.

160 degrees F in the center of the stuffing, if turkey is stuffed.

How do I store leftover Turkey?

Within two hours after roasting, remove stuffing from turkey and carve meat off bones, then store in refrigerator or freezer.

Refrigerator Storage: Wrap turkey slices and stuffing separately and use within three days.

Freezer Storage: Wrap in heavy foil, freezer wrap or place in freezer container or bags. For optimum flavor, use stuffing within one month and turkey within two months.

Sooner is better than later to tell kids about adoption

DEAR ABBY: In a recent column you advised "Clueless in Michigan" to delay telling her daughter that her stepfather is not her biological parent until she is old enough to understand the difference.

NO! Tell her NOW, when she is TOO YOUNG to understand. It should not be done directly, but by occasionally and casually referring to her "other father." If she knows all along that she had "another father," then it will not be a great shock later on when she is able to understand.

The same holds true for adopted children, Abby. From the day they are adopted, they should occasionally be referred to as adopted. Then, when they are old enough to ask, they should be told what it means.

ROWENA SPENCER, M.D., RETIRED PEDIATRIC SURGEON

I am 28 years old now and have never for a moment had any issues concerning being adopted. I have never for a moment felt a void in my life, or a need to contact my "real" parents. I'm being married in six months, and my real sister is my maid of honor, my real dad is walking me down the aisle, and my real mom is going to be with me every step of the way. Dear Abby

Babies are never too young to understand things on some level, and the best answer to the question of "When did you find out you were adopted?" is, "I've ALWAYS known."

TOGETHER IN TORONTO

DEAR DR. SPENCER: Your thinking makes sense. Thank you for writing. When a fact is presented to a child who is too young to question it, the child simply accepts it. Read on:

DEAR ABBY: I agree the baby should be told her father had adopted her, but why wait? Do it right away!

My parents adopted me when I was only 6 days old. From the first minute I was home with them, they began the process of making me comfortable with being adopted. They always referred to me as an infant as their special adopted child. They told me stories all through my childhood about the king and queen who were very sad because they couldn't have children of their own, so they went on a long journey and found a beautiful baby girl by the river who they adopted as their own and made their princess.

They gave birth to a "natural" daughter 10 months after I was born, and when we fought as children — like ALL children do — I had been made to feel so special that I often turned the tables and told her, "Well, Mom and Dad didn't get to CHOOSE you!"

DEAR TOGETHER: Your signature says it all. Congratulations on your forthcoming wedding. If there is any question in any reader's mind about when a child should be told it is adopted, I think you have answered that question once and for all.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. My boyfriend is pushing me into things that I don't want to do. I tell him no, but he just ignores me. What should I do? I really like this boy a lot and don't want to hurt his feelings.

WENDY IN WHITEFORD, MD.

DEAR WENDY: First, stop worrying about hurting his feelings, because by ignoring you when you say "no," he is showing you that he has no qualms about hurting yours.

Wendy, I hope you will take this to heart: No one has the right to pressure you into doing anything you know in your heart is wrong. Draw the line and stand your ground. You will be respected for it.

WDW Resort presents the 20th annual Florida Classic football game

Special to the Herald

LAKE BUENA VISTA - The 20th annual Florida Classic football game between Florida A&M University (FAMU) and Bethune-Cookman College (BCC) will be presented by the Walt Disney World Resort for the third consecutive year at the Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando.

The game kicks off at 8 p.m. on Saturday, November 20th.

This annual game is part of a 53-year tradition that began in the 1920s. Last year, the Florida Classic gained billing as the largest football game in the country involving historically black colleges. The game attracted more than 66,000 Wildcat (BCC) and Rattler (FAMU) fans to Central Florida and the nearby Walt Disney World Resort.

"In just two years, the fans and alumni have made the Florida Classic in Central Florida a 'MUST attend event,'" said Dr. Oswald P. Bronson Sr., president of Bethune-Cookman College. "We are exuberant to have such a strong support from the Central Florida community for this exciting and spirited festivity that showcases our students and alumni. The wholesomeness of the Florida Classic weekend can be experienced by people of all cultures in the music of outstanding college bands, and the excitement of collegiate sports on the basketball court and gridiron. And, on top of all that, the Florida Classic is a tremendous boost to tourism and the economy of the Orlando area."

Dr. Frederick S. Humphries, president of Florida A&M University said, "Early on, we knew the game had the potential to be the largest football event in the nation for the African-American community because of the tremendous enthusiasm for the game. It was exciting for both schools to learn that we achieved that status in our second year at the Florida Citrus Bowl."

In addition to the game, the halftime event has earned the reputation among fans of being just as compelling as the game itself.

The FAMU Marching 100 -- known as America's Best Halftime Show -- and the Marching Wildcats Band, called The Heartbeat of BCC, promise to perform a show to remember.

Tickets for the 1999 Florida Classic presented by the Walt Disney World Resort may be purchased through TicketMaster by calling (407) 839-3900 or at the Florida Citrus Bowl box office.

For information about special Florida Classic pricing packages offered by the Walt Disney World Resort, call (407) 939-7810.

A shuttle service between the Orlando Arena and the Florida Citrus Bowl will be available for $2 per person beginning at 5:30 p.m. and will run until one hour after the game (Parking is free at the Arena).

SANFORD - Longhorns saw its chance to take over the lead in the City of Sanford Recreation and Parks Department Men's Thursday Night Fall Slow Pitch Softball League and it made the most of the opportunity.

Longhorns had the late game Thursday evening at Pinehurst Park so the players got to watch Smith Equipment explode for back-to-back four-run innings, the fifth and sixth, to break a 1-1 tie and go on to upset Stenstrom Realty Incorporated, 10-1, in the opening game.

Then in the middle game, the most up-and-down team in the league, the R.S.C. Regulators, which had scored only 10 runs total in its previous two games, scored 11 runs in the second inning and 12 runs in the fourth inning to crush many-time champion Wolfys, 26-4, by the 20-run rule in the top of the fourth inning.

Sanford to salute SCW one last time

Special to the Herald

SANFORD - Southern Championship Wrestling makes its final appearance at the Sanford Civic Center tonight (November 19th) at 8 p.m.

"Over the past year that the city of Sanford and all the fine people involved with the Sanford Police Department have given me great memories to hold on for a life time," said SCW President, Chris Carson.

From having ring wars with Sanford Police Captain, Michael Taylor, Miss Stephanie and Lake Mary attorney, Jeff Deane, Carson said that these people are first class not only in the ring but as well as out of the ring.

This Friday night, WCW (World Championship Wrestling) signee CO All who headlined and became a strong Sanford crowd favorite comes to Sanford to thank everyone for supporting him and SCW for the last year.

Now, to the matches, Chris Carson will lace up the boots and hit the ring one last time just to face Seminole County's first female High School football player, Sabrina Sapp, who is also an assistant volleyball coach at Seminole High School.

Sabrina, daughter of Sanford resident Linda Sapp, has never wrestled a match before, much less being in their with a male opponent.

Also, Captain Michael Taylor will be the special guest referee for the Sapp versus Carson contest.

Budweiser in control of Friday softball in Lake Mary

By Dean Smith
SPORTS EDITOR

LAKE MARY - The top four teams in the City of Lake Mary Parks and Recreation Department Friday Night Men's Fall Slow Pitch Softball League squared off for a pair of good old-fashioned slugfests at the Lake Mary Sports Complex last Friday.

Pepe Viecco's bases-loaded, RBI single in the bottom of the sixth inning drove in Scott West with the winning run as Hill's Gang moved into a share of second place with a mild 13-12 upset of Blue Haven Pools & Spas in the opening game of the evening.

After Lunch Box Bagels handed Gaylon Black Ford a 7-0 forfeit victory, Brett Moran, Mike Smith and Billy Ellis combined to drive in 10 runs as Budweiser/Signal Zero rallied for a 14-12 victory over Nice 'N Easy.

With the results, Budweiser/Signal Zero improved to 6-1 and leads the league by two games in the loss column.

The leaders are followed closely by Blue Haven Pools & Spas and Hill's Gang (both 5-3), Nice 'N Easy (4-3), Gaylon Black Ford (2-5) and Lunch Box Bagels (0-7).

Tonight at the Lake Mary Sports Complex on Rantoul Lane (North off the end of Country Club road when leaving Lake Mary and south off of CR46A across from Mayfair Country Club), Gaylon Black Ford challenges Hill's Gang at 6:30 p.m.; Blue Haven Pools battles Nice 'N Easy at 7:30 p.m.; and Lunch Box Bagels tackles Budweiser/Signal Zero at 8:30 p.m.

Hill's Gang appeared headed to an easy victory, taking a 7-1 lead after four innings.

But a two-run home run by Matt Epstein, an RBI triple by Chris Maingot and a two-run double by Andy Anderson paced an eight-run fifth inning as Blue Haven Pools and Spas took a 9-7 lead.

The two teams then scored

Four Golden Knights earn conference honors

Special to the Herald

ORLANDO - University of Central Florida head coach Meg Fitzgerald was selected Trans-America Athletic Conference Coach-of-the-Year while senior outside hitter Susan Rosenberger, sophomore middle blocker Piper Morgan and freshman setter Becca Saldana earned First Team All-TAAC honors as selected by the conference coaches and sports information directors.

Fitzgerald, in her first season atop the UCF Volleyball program, has led UCF to a 17-11 record. Her team posted a perfect 9-0 mark in the conference this season, earning the regular season TAAC title and the No. 1 seed in this weekend's TAAC Tournament.

Rosenberger leads the team with 3.08 digs and ranks second with 2,358 kills per game, which places her fifth and seventh, respectively, in the conference.

She has a team-leading 18 multiple-kill and 16 multiple digs matches with 14 double-doubles heading into this weekend's tournament. Earlier in the season she posted 50 kills and 50 digs in 13 games at the Montana Invitational (Sept. 17 & 18) earning All-Tournament honors.

Morgan leads the Golden Knights with 3,382 kills and 1.28 blocks per game and a .380 hitting percentage this year. Her kill and block averages place her sixth and first, respectively, in the TAAC.

She has 18 multiple-kills matches this season, including a career-high 24 against Rice (Sept. 28). Morgan's .800 hitting percentage currently ranks her third on the individual season records list while her 100 block assists place her fourth, 120 total blocks rank her seventh and 20 block solos put her 10th.

Saldana, who also was selected to the TAAC All-Newcomer Team, has led the conference all season in assists.

The only Golden Knight to play in all of UCF's 103 games this season, Saldana's current total of 1,330 assists rank her seventh on UCF's individual season records list. She needs just 18 to move into sixth and 41 to move into fifth place. Her 71 blocks rank her second among her teammates this season while her 29 service aces place her fourth and 222 digs rank her fifth.

She set a school record with her 95 assists in UCF's five-game win over Rice (Sept. 25) and has tallied individual match highs of five kills at South Florida (Sept. 29), five aces versus UNC-Asheville (Sept. 24), 16 digs at Stetson (Oct. 19) and seven blocks against Rice.

The Golden Knights, who have won six TAAC championships over the past seven years, will take on the winner of the Georgia State University (14-18/5-4 TAAC) versus Samford University (14-18/5-4 TAAC) match at 7:30 p.m. Friday (Nov. 19).

If UCF advances to the TAAC Championship game, it will play at 2 p.m. Saturday (Nov. 20). The winner of that match will represent the conference in the NCAA Tournament beginning December 3rd.

three-runs each in their next turn at bats to leave Blue Haven Pools and Spas with a 12-10 lead entering the bottom of the sixth inning.

Back-to-back singles by Scott Perri and David Sternberg and a subsequent error cut the lead to one, before West tied the game with a single. Neal Goldman singled and Sean Turner walked to set the bases loaded and set the stage for Viecco's game-winner.

Nice 'N Easy took early 2-0 and 4-1 leads before Budweiser/Signal Zero scored five runs in the bottom of the second inning to take a 6-4 lead.

Nice 'N Easy regained the lead in the top of the fourth inning only to see Budweiser/Signal Zero tie the game in the bottom of the frame on a two-run home run by Mike Smith.

Nice 'N Easy grabbed the lead again in the top of the fifth inning, 11-8, but once again Budweiser/Signal Zero had the answer, plating six runs in the bottom of the fifth inning to take the lead for good.

Metalade continues to build lead in Industrial

By Dean Smith
SPORTS EDITOR

SANFORD - Metalade remained the only undefeated team in the City of Sanford Recreation and Parks Department Fall Slow Pitch Softball League and in the process again widened its lead in the Industrial League at Pinehurst Park last Friday night.

After having beaten Kemco two weeks in a row, the leaders this time knocked off the Wayne Densch B-53's, who had moved into second place after Kemco's setbacks.

After a scoreless first inning, Metalade got its offense in gear in the top of the second inning, plating five runs.

After the Wayne Densch B-53's answered with two runs in the bottom of the second frame, Metalade put a hammer lock on the game, scoring 10 runs in the top of the third inning.

Most of the damage came when Robert LaFontaine hit a three-run and after a single by Donny Cerce, Chris Bryson hit a two-run home run and Chip Smith and Bobby Brown followed with solo home runs, all with two out.

The rest of the scoring came in the fifth inning with Metalade again winning 5-to-2 to make the final score 20-4.

Kemco then saw its title hopes get dealt another big blow as Briar/BBM Corporation rallied for five runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to hand Kemco its third straight loss, 12-11.

Kemco had taken a 4-0 lead in the top of the first inning, but Briar/BBM Corporation came back to grab a 7-4 lead by scoring three runs in the second inning and four runs in the third inning.

Kemco then took its turn to score seven runs, tying the game with three runs in the fifth inning and taking an 11-7 lead by plating four runs in the sixth inning.

Briar/BBM Corporation was saving the best for last, however.

After a flyout, Bill Prevesk singled, but he was erased on a grounder by Michael DeLaPaz, who went to second on a throwing error. Ruben Garcia followed with an RBI single, as did Eric Church.

Chuck Hardy walked and Bill Elliott singled in a run, after which, Don Baldwin walked to load the bases. Jeff Chestnut came through with a game-tying single and Dan Barton drew a bases-loaded walk-off, game-winning bases on balls.

Kemco then got to go home relatively happy, even though it did not get to take out its frustrations on the field, as Invacare did not show for the late game.

Metalade improved to 6-0 and now leads the Wayne Densch B-53's and Kemco, which are both 4-3, by 2-1/2 games. Briar/BBM Corporation (2-5) is fourth, followed by Invacare (0-5).

The league plays a triple-header every Friday night at Pinehurst Park starting at 6:30 p.m.

Providing the offense were:

Metalade: four hits - Eric Mayhew (two runs scored, two RBI); three hits - Bobby Brown (home run, two doubles, four runs scored, RBI), Robert LaFontaine (home run, double, run scored, four RBI), Chris Bryson (home run, two runs scored, three RBI); two hits - Chip Smith (home run, three runs scored, RBI), Jaime Ray (two runs scored, RBI), Donny Cerce (two runs scored); one hit - Joe Sisco (two runs scored, two RBI), Terry Atkinson (run scored, two RBI), Bill Michaels (run scored, RBI).

Wayne Densch B-53's: two hits - Wayne Kelly (double, run scored), Kelly Pettitt; one hit - Robert Villiana (two RBI), Ron Plummer; one RBI - Rick Ensrud; one run scored - Howard Soru, Melissa Carey, Jackie Ensrud.

Win at Bridge

The elusive echo

In "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie," Muriel Spark included, "One's prime is elusive. You little girls, when you grow up, must be on the alert to recognize your prime at whatever time of your life it may occur." When are bridge players in their prime? That is a hard question to answer, given that two players, Waldemar von Zedtwitz and Boris Schapiro, won world championships in their 70s and 80s, respectively. Yet most would judge somewhere between 35 and 45 to be the answer: old enough to have gained experience, but young enough for one's memory and brain speed still to be good. The winning play in today's deal is elusive. How would you try to make four spades? The defenders begin with three rounds of hearts. Here, South would have done well to raise to three no-trump, a contract with nine top tricks. At the first table in a match, declarer drew trumps, cashed the club ace, and finessed dummy's club jack. East won with the queen and returned a club, declarer throwing a diamond. Back to hand with a heart ruff, South tried the diamond finesse, but that lost as well and the contract was one down. South complained about his bad luck, but the declarer at the other table found a solution. After drawing trumps ending in the dummy, he called for dummy's last heart. And when East produced the 13th heart, declarer didn't ruff; instead, he discarded a diamond. East was employed. Whether he returned a diamond or a club, it conceded the contract-fulfilling trick. Keep alert to recognize the loser-on-loser play.

Doctor Gott

Weigh risks and benefits of treatment

DEAR DR. GOTT: Doctors involved in cancer treatment make a point of discussing the short-term effects (nausea, hair-loss, etc.) of radiation or chemotherapy, but they rarely concede the possibility of long-term effects. Are there any? Is this a case of the cure being worse than the disease? DEAR READER: Few diagnoses carry the frightening overtones of cancer, for which the treatment is a classic case of the risk/benefit ratio. Are the risks of cancer greater than the risks of therapy? No. The cure is not worse than the disease. One caveat, however. Oncologists (cancer specialists) tend to become overly enthusiastic about treatment. If a cancer patient is predicted to live six months without therapy, oncologists may attempt to give that person a few more weeks of life by administering toxic chemotherapy or radiation. Even though such treatment may add some time to life, it is at significant cost: The effects of therapy may make patients feel perfectly awful. Therefore, each cancer patient must be given the opportunity to decide whether he or she wants to be made comfortable (a benefit) or to have extended treatment that can add further illness and discomfort (a risk). In reality, most oncologists try to adopt a middle-of-the-road approach that is individualized according to the patient, the type of cancer and the degree to which the malignancy may have spread. Nonetheless, chemotherapy and radiation have long-term, as well as short-term effects, particularly with regard to quality of life. Here is a situation in which doctor and patient can truly work together, using honest communication and a thoughtful analysis of what goals an ill person wishes to achieve — and at what price. DEAR DR. GOTT: We have our house sprayed once a month by a pest-control company. My three small children are on medication for what their doctor says is allergic congestion. Could the spray be the problem? DEAR READER: Yes, it could. Your children may be reacting to the components of the spray — not just the active substances but the inactive compounds as well. Ask the pediatrician to refer your children to an allergist who can identify the source of their symptoms. DEAR DR. GOTT: Will a sunscreen protect against nuclear radiation? DEAR READER: No. Nuclear radiation exists at a different wavelength than does solar radiation. Therefore, sunscreens have no protective effect. These products are designed to shield the skin from ultraviolet rays (as does glass); they do not block other types of high-energy waves, including nuclear radiation, electromagnetic energy (radio waves) and light.
