in our business, plus expected greater economies from the operation of new and more efficient generating plants now under construction.

"This is the fifth major rate reduction made by Florida Power & Light Company since it was organized in 1925. Based on the new rates, the average rate to be paid by residential customers will be only half as much as the average rate in 1934."

All of the company's 177,000 residential users will benefit from the new rates with the largest savings going to those who now pay monthly bills of around $5 or lower. Nearly three-fourths of the company's residential customers are in this group and savings will average 125%. Reduction in commercial and small power rate will benefit 65% of the company's commercial and small power users. Of these, 7,000 smaller commercial establishments, such as small stores, shops, garages and the like, will get reductions averaging more than 20%. Two thousand others will get reductions averaging 125%. "These new rates and our $21,000,000 expansion program go hand in hand," said Smith. "We are building four large, new generating units with combined capacities of 120,000 kilowatts (160,000 horsepower) and this is greater than the maximum demand on our entire system prior to 1940. You can see we are planning for a lot of growth. I don't know of any better way to demonstrate our faith in the future of Florida."

New industrial and pumping rates announced by the company last month reduced the bills of 450 customers by $313,000 annually.

Peanuts Enhance Supply Of Food

CLEAR WATER. (Special)—While they don't grow peanuts themselves, Pinellas County people know how delicious—and how nourishing—these lowly ground peas are, and so they have bought nearly 5,000 pounds from growers in northern Florida during the last two and half years, according to Miss Tillie Roedel, home demonstration agent.

The peanuts were purchased cooperatively, and have made a worth while contribution to the food supply while meats and other protein foods have been scarce. Miss Roedel says home demonstration club groups used the peanuts themselves, sold to their neighbors, and sent some aversens to members of their families in service. Those not used fresh

Ailing Ole World Needs Tune Says Head Of Fiddlers

AT NEW FEATURES HATTIESBURG, Miss. — The founder of the Forrest County Fiddlers' Association has a remedy good for an ailing man or an ailing world. Play a lively tune. The formula has worked for 68 of his 76 years, says J. C. Bryant of Hattiesburg, who started fiddling at the age of seven on a fiddle with strings attached, and now plays on three violins, which he made himself. Bryant takes his fiddling as most men his age take their tonic anything, and you forget your three times a day. "I like to play four or five times early every morning, and a few more right after dinner," he explained. "And at night—well, I usually play about fifteen to twenty numbers before I stop. I feel better when I'm playing the violin than at any other time. I think about the days when I was younger. Each tune reminds me of someone I used to know long ago." As for the effect of fiddling upon people en masse, he says of the monthly meetings of the county association which he organized: "The people who attend these meetings like each other now lots more than they did before the association was organized. When you hear all those happy-sounding old tunes played on a fiddle, somehow you don't want to disagree with anybody about most men his age take their tonic anything, and you forget your troubles, too." When he was ten years old, Bryant had his first wooden violin, which a friend made from a white pine drygoods box. At fourteen he bought a violin for $10 he made picking cotton. He purchased two more during the ensuing years, but at 60 decided to make his own. This he did, fashioning the back and sides from maple, and the top from white bay. Five years later he made another, with a maple back, cucumberwood sides and a fat pine top. At 70, he started a third, now completed. He looks at it so wistfully, it must be his favorite. Its face is striped with cherry, chestnut, saffron, mulberry, sumac, Rappese, rattan vine, cross-vine, yellow jessamine, holly, pine and mahogany. The back is poplar,

Resolution On Atomic Power Is Proposed

British Labor Party Says U.S. Monopoly Of A-Bomb Secrets Menace To Peace

LONDON, May 10 (AP)—A resolution proposed today for debate at the British Labor Party's annual conference next month declares that what it terms "the U.S. monopoly" of the secrets of atomic energy is a menace to world peace.

A suggestion was advanced that Britain's United Nations delegation attempt to put on the U.N. agenda a plan that all technical information and equipment for the production of atomic energy be placed in the hands of the United Nations.

Another proposed amendment to the Labor Party's conference agenda calls on Britain to act with Russia, France and the United States to break off diplomatic relations with the present Spanish government.

Official Returns Give Smith 16-Vote Margin Over Doss

M. B. (T-Rone) Smith continued to maintain his narrow margin of victory over Dr. L. T. Doss in the official count of the canvassing board at the Court House this morning. In the district's unofficial tabulation Smith received 149 votes, Doss, 132. In the official count, with 31 absentee ballots included, Smith had 1509 and Doss 1493. Thus Doss carried the absentee vote by 21 to 10.

The board also maintained its lead over R. Clants in the County Commissioner's race with 100 absentee ballots included, Doss received 1490 votes in the official count; Clants, 1485.

For Railroad Commissioner, Group 1, Abram, 103; Akin, 167; Brown, 26; King, 830; Lane, 208; Moore, 15; Morrison, 191 and Pagan, 102.

For Railroad Commissioner, Group 2, Carter, 1566; Taylor, 590 and Williams, 185.

General Strike Halts Business In Middle East

LONDON, May 10 (AP)—Business activity in most important cities in the Middle East was halted today by a general strike of Arabs. The Arabs are protesting British American Inquiry Committee recommendations that Palestine be opened to 100,000 Jewish immigrants from Europe.

Dispatches from the Middle East said two bombs exploded in Jewish stores in Beirut last night. Heavy damage was caused and four persons were injured. Elsewhere, however, there was little violence.

In Cairo, Egyptian Premier Ismail Sidki Taha toured the streets with an escort looking for any signs of trouble. Most Cairo shops were closed and streets were out during the night. Extra police were on duty and large reserves were held in readiness for any emergency.

The work stoppage was almost 100 percent effective in the Egyptian port city of Alexandria. Diplomatic sources in Egypt said the strike was nationwide in Iraq, while dispatches from Palestine told of a series of minor incidents.

CAIRO, May 10 (AP)—Police in Cairo have broken up a Moslem demonstration against the British-American report on Palestine. Hundreds were used among a crowd of more than 200 Moslems who were throwing stones from the roof of the Azhar Mosque. The police also dispersed a crowd of thousands who had gathered in the square on the Mezzeh Sabbath. One policeman was injured before the demonstrators took refuge out of range on side streets.

Russia, Britain Again Tangle At Paris Conference

PARIS, May 10 (AP)—Britain and the Soviet Union again tangled today at the Foreign Ministers' Conference in Paris. The longest centered around Russia's insistence that the Big Four come to a full agreement before the European Peace Conference is called.

Russia's stand was described by a British source as "a veto on permitting the nations which took part in the war to express their views" on the treaties. Secretary of State James Byrnes is said to have joined with Britain in opposing the Russian attitude.

Byrnes is said to have suggested that the Big Four set a definite date for the peace conference. Then continue to work informally toward narrowing the measure of disagreement among them.

The Foreign Ministers also met this afternoon to try to work out an agreement on Byrnes' proposal to convene the 15-nation peace conference June 15.

12-Day Truce In Coal Strike Called By Mine Workers Boss; Walkout Paralyzing Country

Several Courses Are Open For Congress To Act On Strike Control Legislation

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The continuing coal strike and what it is doing to the nation's economy had Congress hopping mad today. The legislators are determined to act, to act quickly and drastically, whether or not the White House comes forward with some proposal.

A Detroit newspaper, The News in a copyrighted story, declared today that President Truman already has proposed a basis of settlement. According to the Detroit newspaper, Mr. Truman has suggested a wage increase of 18 1/2 cents an hour and a health and welfare fund to be paid for by the operators. The newspaper account quotes a conversation directly to Snyder as saying that the cost of the fund would be covered by the U.S.A. as a legitimate expense of business in subsidizing an increase in the price of coal.

The newspaper story goes on to say that the health and welfare fund would be financed by the operators as a percentage of output. It would be managed by a board of 10, consisting of representatives of labor management and the public.

According to the operators, John L. Lewis has been demanding that the health and welfare fund be paid from a ten cent royalty on every ton of coal mined. Furthermore, Lewis also said he had demanded that the union should administer the fund.

If the Detroit newspaper account proves to be correct, President Truman would have made a major concession in settling the miners' demands, but not quite the entire way. Whether or not such a basis of settlement would satisfy Congress remained to be seen. The Senate already has given some thought to a bill that would prohibit royalty payments. It also has several other possible courses of action open to it.

There is the case strike control measure, already approved by the House, that has been lying in a Senate committee for some time. The Senate Labor Committee has been studying the case. And the draft which comes up for consideration may provide chiefly for a federal mediation board to encourage and assist parties to a labor dispute to settle their differences through collective bargaining.

However, the federal government has been mediating, advising and assisting like mad throughout most of the stalemate coal negotiations, with the result that an apparent throughout the country today. It's likely, therefore, that the Senate will take up far more drastic legislation. One such bill to be sponsored by Senator Louis C. Howe, D-Iowa, is a bill to outlaw the President in issue a declaration when a strike is seriously impeding the public welfare. After making such a declaration, the President would call upon both parties to the dispute to go back to work. If the parties refused, the President would seize the mines and operate them under the conditions prevailing before the work stoppage. The effects of the labor union involved would be required by law to try to get their men

DIMMING THE WHITE HOUSE

A 300-WATT BULB is removed from a floor lamp in the lobby of the White House by electrician Charles M. Brooks. It is replaced with a smaller one. The Executive Mansion resumed its wartime hush as dimming coal piles in the nation's capital caused a restriction of electric power. Note the Presidential seal on wall.

I. C. C. Ruling On Freight Rates Upheld Today By Federal Court

Tribunal's Action Is Hailed By Alabama's Governor Chauncey Sparks As Economic Victory By Southern States

EDMONT, S. Y., May 10 (AP)—A federal court today upheld the Interstate Commerce Commission's ruling that the South and East could reduce their freight rates to the South and West. The ruling was upheld by a three-judge federal court in a unanimous decision. The ruling is a victory for the South and West, and a defeat for the North and East. The ruling is a victory for the Southern States, and a defeat for the Northern States.

Alabama's Governor Chauncey Sparks hailed the ruling as an economic victory by the Southern States. He said that the ruling would help to reduce the cost of freight rates, and would help to stimulate the economy of the Southern States.

The ruling was a result of a long and bitter legal battle between the Southern States and the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Southern States had argued that the I.C.C. ruling was unfair and discriminatory, and that it would harm the economy of the Southern States.

The I.C.C. had argued that the ruling was necessary to ensure that freight rates were fair and reasonable, and that it would help to stabilize the economy of the Southern States.

The ruling is a significant victory for the Southern States, and it is expected that it will have a major impact on the economy of the Southern States.

Local Food Collection For UNRRA Being Sponsored By Woman's Club

The emergency food collection on behalf of UNRRA is being sponsored locally by the Sanford Women's Club under the supervision of County School Supt. T. W. Lawton. Mrs. H. W. Rucker, club president and chairman of the club food committee, today urged all civic and business organizations to lend their support and co-operation in this "worthy cause."

The Rev. Ed McKinley, president of the Sanford Ministerial Association and chairman executive of the movement here, has pledged support to the relief campaign. The Junior Chamber of Commerce at their meeting Thursday evening, promised aid in the work, according to Jack Rutigan, president. M. L. Collier, president of the Seminole County Farm Bureau, said today that he would appeal to growers to contribute food for canning to the drive, and that they had never failed in such a crisis.

The Sanford Garden Club pledged support in the food collection as has also the Sanford Merchants Association. Many of the merchants are placing collection boxes in the front of their stores.

Following the luncheon next Wednesday at the Sanford Women's Club, there will be a canned food show. The Board of County Commissioners, Wednesday promised to finance the purchase of cans at three cents apiece and to allow the use of the Sanford Canning Kitchen in order that women of the county may can food for overseas relief. Mrs. John Lee will serve as chairman of the Women's Club canning committee. Mrs. Irving Palmberg will contact grocery stores and attend to collection boxes. A committee of 15 women of the Women's Club will can all food donated to the club.

Mrs. S. D. Highleyman will serve as chairman of a committee to sponsor food gifts in the city schools. Mrs. Ralph Goodspeed will serve as chairman of the Monroe section. Anyone wishing to donate money to the cause may send it to Mrs. B. C. Moore, 809 East Second Street, said Mrs. Rucker.

Local Business Men Concerned Over Coal Strike

Local business men are deeply concerned over the coal strike, which has paralyzed the country. They are worried about the impact of the strike on the local economy, particularly in the manufacturing and construction sectors. Many businesses are facing shortages of coal, which is essential for power generation and industrial processes. The strike has led to a significant increase in the price of coal, which is further exacerbating the problem. Business leaders are calling for a quick resolution to the strike to minimize the damage to the economy.

Altitude Mark Set By Superfortress

MANHA, May 10 (AP)—A United States eighth air force B-29 superfortress has smashed the world's altitude record for land planes in the 22,000 pound class. The plane, a B-29 Superfortress, set the record by flying to an altitude of 70,000 feet. The record was set during a test flight over the Pacific Ocean. The B-29 is a four-engine, heavy bomber aircraft that is capable of flying at high altitudes and speeds. The record is a significant achievement for the United States military and aviation industry.

Proposal To Occupy Spanish Area Denied

BERNEBERG, May 10 (AP)—Admiral Karl Doenitz was accused today of proposing to Adolf Hitler in 1943 that German troops occupy Spain as a base for operations against the United States. The proposal was denied by Hitler. Doenitz's proposal was based on the idea that occupying Spain would provide Germany with a strategic base for launching attacks on the United States. However, Hitler rejected the proposal, citing the need to focus German resources on the European theater of war.

Churchill Urges Partial Federation

WELLS COAM, May 10 (AP)—Winston Churchill today urged a partial federation of the British Empire. He said that a partial federation would help to strengthen the ties between the United Kingdom and its colonies, and would help to promote economic growth and stability in the Empire. Churchill's proposal was met with mixed reactions from both sides of the Atlantic. Some people support the idea, while others are concerned about the loss of sovereignty and the potential for conflict.

FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1946
BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

MANY MEN HAVE TAKEN CITIES BUT NOT MANY HAVE RULED THEIR OWN SPIRITS.
BE ONE OF THE FEW.
It is hard to realize how far the ramifications of a coal strike, prolonged for many weeks, can go. We do not know how many people have lost their jobs in Sanford on this account. But it stands to reason there cannot be full employment as long as the coal needed to make steel and haul the products of our factories is not made.
It stands to reason that if men do not have jobs, they must use up their savings to keep alive.

Mr. Lewis knows all this. Early in the strike he was quoted as saying: "Our economy is being gradually stagnated. As the days progress, tonnage will go off the railroads, factories will close and distress will come to the American people." Mr. Lewis is doing this to the American people deliberately with malice aforethought. He is,
as Senator Byrd said recently, "drunk with power."

No man has the right to do this to the American people and stay out of jail. John L. Lewis is a criminal in the eyes of God, if not in the eyes of the law. It is high time for the President of the United States to take action, to seize Mr. Lewis and lock him up where he can no longer do any harm.

THERE ARE SAID to be no less than 30,000,000
people hungry in Europe—really hungry. Mostly it is not their fault, but caused by uncontrollable factors in one of the worst situations this poor old world has ever got into. And if food is not provided and distributed as widely and as wisely as possible for the next few months, millions of well-fed Americans will never forgive themselves for their carelessness or stinginess. We are not a stingy people, but the most generous people in the world. So we must take up this task, and others connected with it. But the time is short.

In many respects this country
seems to be worse off than it was after the last war, but at least we haven't heard of any marathon dances or flagpole sitters yet.

In Tampa, Local 690 of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners (AFL) are asking of local builders a wage increase of fifty cents an hour over their $1.25 present day.
A $1.37 cent an hour wage scale offered by builders was rejected.
Negotiations are still going on.

Chairman Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board says that "American enemies of production are quitting the inflation battle in flaunt disregard of the public interest." Americans who are quitting work in this day and time are the ones who are responsible for the increasing cost of living.

The newspaper accounts of the American Army parades in Frankfurt upon the occasion of the first anniversary of V-E day were entirely—about—fair—about—men, most of whom had never seen action, marched before the reviewing stand, carrying only 300 rifles and two machine guns.
Gene was all the heavy equipment except for two light armored patrol cars. We should either maintain an Army in Germany or we should get out altogether.

We were particularly interested in Secretary of the Treasury Vincent's statement before the Senate Banking Committee Tuesday that
"We are reducing government expenditures and paying off the government debt," because in the same issue of the newspaper
where we saw that we read Treasury statement on the financial page that the excess of expenditures for the fiscal year
so far has been a little over $0 billion dollars. Looks like somebody lied.

Seminole County frequently picks
the winner, contrary to popular belief, as indicated by its support of Holland in this week's election.
It is not to mention its support of him four years ago, or that its support of Caldwell when he ran against Lee Green. Seminole County also voted for Claude Penney every time he ran, and it voted for Fred Conn for governor, and for Dave Shultz for governor,
and for Doyle Carlton for governor. To mention a few of our winners.

Drunk With Power

We suppose a great many people are under the impression that the coal miners have struck for higher wages but that is not the case. So far no issue with regard to wages has actually been raised, very likely that is a matter which ultimately will come up for discussion. But so far the deadlock will come up for discussion. But the "Welfare Fund" to be administered by John L. Lewis.

The mine owners are asked to provide this fund through the system of "royalties" levied by the United Mine Workers on each ton of coal. There is some doubt as to the legality of such royalties. They have been specifically outlawed in the case of the Musicians' Union. And certainly they have no justification from the standpoint of fairness to the mine owners, or the welfare of the miners or the public.

Because of the refusal of the mine owners to discuss this point further with Mr. Lewis, he arbitrarily broke off negotiations. And so for over a month now some 400,000 soft coal miners, in response to Mr. Lewis' order, have stayed off the job. For six weeks the life blood of American industry, already worn thin by the war, has slowly drained away.

The miners themselves have suffered. Their meager savings, accumulated throughout the busy war years, are being used up to buy bread and meat. The money with which they had hoped to build new homes, kitchen appliances, and send their children to school, is being dissipated in idleness.

The effects of the strike have spread to other industries. All but a few steel companies have had to close their plants throwing thousands out of work. The great Ford factories, just beginning to get into production, are again idle, and the Fords, trucks and tractors needed by the farmers are again delayed. Chrysler and General Motors are expected to have to close within a few days.

It is hard to realize how far the ramifications of a coal strike, prolonged for many weeks, can go. We do not know how many people have lost their jobs in Sanford on this account. But it stands to reason there cannot be full employment as long as the coal needed to make
steel and haul the products of our factories is not made.
It stands to reason that if men do not have jobs, they
must use up their savings to keep alive.

Mr. Lewis knows all this. Early in the strike he was quoted as saying: "Our economy is being gradually
stagnated. As the days progress, tonnage will go off the railroads, factories will close and distress will come to the American people." Mr. Lewis is doing this to the American people deliberately with malice aforethought. He is,
as Senator Byrd said recently, "drunk with power."

No man has the right to do this to the American people and stay out of jail. John L. Lewis is a criminal in the eyes of God, if not in the eyes of the law. It is high time for the President of the United States to take action, to seize Mr. Lewis and lock him up where he can no longer do any harm.

THERE ARE SAID to be no less than 30,000,000
people hungry in Europe—really hungry. Mostly it is not their fault, but caused by uncontrollable factors in one of the worst situations this poor old world has ever
got into. And if food is not provided and distributed
as widely and as wisely as possible for the next few months, millions of well-fed Americans will never forgive themselves for their carelessness or stinginess. We are not a stingy people, but the most generous people in the world. So we must take up this task, and others connected with it. But the time is short.

Several Courses Are

To Act On Strike
Control Legislation

back to work. Those failing to return would lose their jobs and their rights under the Wagner
Labor Relations Act.

There's still another tack that Congress might take, and this has been pointed out by Senator Robert Taft of Ohio. He called attention to the fact that the President already has sweeping authority under the Smith-Connally Act. That act specifically prohibits any strike against the government once it takes over and operates any property such as a coal mine. Said Taft, in effect,
"the legislation already is there;
it's up to the President to act
upon it."

Governor Tuck of Virginia,
meanwhile, is considering quite a different solution to the soft coal strike. On his desk is a proposition that Virginia's 16,000 idle coal miners be drafted into the state militia, and that John L.
Lewis himself be made a first sergeant. Last March, when 1,600 employees of the Virginia Electric and Power Company threatened to strike, Governor Tuck summoned them for duty in the militia. However, the strike was called off and the Governor's proposed solution never came up for a final test. The proposal to try the same tactic this time came from a Virginia contractor, Ipsley W. Hudgins. He said he called Lewis at his home last Monday and asked him when the miners would return to work.
And, according to Hudgins, this is what Lewis replied: "The miners are not going back to work until the owners do what I tell them to."

Father-Basil Doyle Speaks on "Marriage"

Father Basil Doyle of the Paulist Fathers who is conducting the Catholic Missions at the All Souls Church in this city spoke last evening on the subject of "Marriage."

"Marriage is a vocation," he said, "just as truly as the priesthood is a vocation, with well defined duties that mark the way to Heaven. The first of these duties is to be found in the primary purpose of marriage, namely, the procreation and education of children bringing new life into the world and leading to Heaven."

People today are becoming so materialistic that they forget the purpose of marriage. He said that both God and man have made marriage a sacred thing. He said that the purpose of marriage is to bring new life into the world and lead to Heaven. He said that the purpose of marriage is to bring new life into the world and lead to Heaven.

He said that the purpose of marriage is to bring new life into the world and lead to Heaven. He said that the purpose of marriage is to bring new life into the world and lead to Heaven.

Goose Kettles To Hurl Against Senators In Tonight's Contest

Levy Leads Local Attack On Willingham And Driggers In Racking Up Easy Victory! Justice, Bryant Record Gems

By JULIAN STENSTROM
 The big bats of the fast moving Celery Feds loomed into the spotlight again last night when the Sanford entry in the Florida State League produced 13 safeties which were good for an easy 11 to 5 victory over the Leesburg Packers. The win gave the Feds a clean sweep of the two game series with the seventh place Packers and it was the fifth victory in six starts for Ed Levy's gang.

Local officials are expecting the largest crowd of the current season tonight when the locals will be hosts to the league leading Orlando Senators. Manager Ted Madjeski plans to use Howard Martin on the mound while Levy's hurling assignment has been shovled in the direction of Goose Kettles. Some 1,200 fans will probably be on hand for the contest. The Feds split their last two game series with the Senators when Jim Payne hurled a 6 to 4 victory at Tinker Field.

Tomorrow night, the Feds return the Orlando visit with an appearance at Tinker Field. Levy has announced that Payne will carry the Fed colors into battle that evening. Sunday the locals journey to Palatka for the first of a two game series with the Azaleas.

Jim Schenkel, on the hill last night, was nicked for 11 hits by the Packers. Little Jim fanned eight batsmen and allowed four free passes. However, by virtue of the assistance given him by his mates, at the platter, he was never considered to be in hot water.

Red Willingham started for Leesburg and faced five men at the plate. Silverman was safe on an error and Bryant, Bride and Lake walked. Levy flashed a single into right and Willingham hit the showers. He was replaced by Driggers who was immediately nicked for singles by Justice and Sharpe and Zappel's long fly to center produced the sixth Fed run of the frame. Leesburg racked up three tallies in the fifth off five hits after the Feds had grabbed one in their half of the fourth. The locals counted twice in the fifth off doubles by Levy and Zappel. In the sixth, Leesburg scored another lone run, and the tenth Fed marker was recorded in the seventh when Sharpe singled, stole second and scored on Zappel's single to left.

Leesburg added another in the eighth off two hits but the Feds tallied their 11th run in the half of the same stanza when Bryant scored after he had singled and the ball was overthrown first.

Joe Justice and Al Bryant came up with the fielding gems of the evening. In the sixth, Harris was thrown out by Justice on a very difficult play behind first base. In the seventh Bryant made a beautiful catch of Stebbins' pop fly in left field.

Levy came up with three hits last night in five trips to the platter to lead the Fed attack while Salters of Leesburg garnered a double and two singles to lead the Packer stickwork.

Jap Attorney Claims Nippon Did Not Give Up Unconditionally

Defense Challenges Tribunal's Authority To Try 28 Japanese War Criminals

TOKYO, May 13, (AP)—The chief defense counsel for Japan's major war criminals argued today that Japan did not surrender unconditionally and does not have to obey every Allied command. Basing his arguments on his interpretation of the Potsdam declaration, attorney Ichiro Kiyose also claimed that the Allies' Far East Military Tribunal lacks authority to try the 28 defendants on 55 counts.

The court took the challenge under advisement as it adjourned until tomorrow morning. The Allies' chief prosecutor, Joseph B. Keenan, labeled Kiyose's argument as "the height of absurdity." He offered documentary evidence that the surrender was "utterly without condition."

Kiyose said that in giving the tribunal jurisdiction over crimes against peace and crimes against humanity "General MacArthur was exercising authority he does not possess."

The chief defense counsel also stated that Japan's top statesmen agreed to surrender in the Potsdam declaration of last July. Prosecutor Keenan declared that the Japanese communications directed to the Allies' Government showed it was without condition. He said the surrender ultimatum prepared at Potsdam called for "the unconditional surrender of all Japanese forces."

Kiyose's view of the Potsdam declaration included the argument that no provision was made for charges made in the present indictment which holds the defendants responsible for inciting and for mistreatment of Allied peoples.

Lansing Reports On Wekiva Project At Lions Meeting

Further progress on removing obstacles and water hyacinths from the Wekiva River was reported at the meeting of the Lions Club Friday by Porter Lansing, president of the Seminole County Sportsman Association, who expressed satisfaction for the County Commission's $400 donation toward this work.

He predicted that the State Game and Fish Commission would carry out its promise to match this fund, bringing the total to $800 for this work. Already the $600 spent on this work has brought good results, he said, particularly the hyacinth killing spray developed by Irving Feinberg of Southern Chemicals Inc. The spray kills not only the tops, but the roots of the plant as well, he said. Many logs have been removed and outboard motors can now proceed as far up the river as the Wekiva Bridge.

Mr. Lansing announced that he would try to attend on June 4 the meeting of the Department of Engineers at Palatka, relative to hyacinth and marine vegetable growth elimination.

Touhy Reports On Rotary Meet At Miami Beach

Plan For Recreation Park For Negroes To Be Given To City

George Touhy, reporting at the Mayor's luncheon today on the recent district conference of Florida Rotary at Miami Beach, described it as one of the best organized and most inspirational conventions he ever attended. President Len Lesher showed the club a map drawn by Elton Moughton of the proposed colored recreation center and announced that it would be submitted to the City Commission for its consideration.

K. D. Scott was welcomed into the club as a new member by Andrew Carraway and was presented with a booklet, "Welcome To Rotary," and with a Rotary emblem by Secretary Walter Haynes. President Lesher announced that Police Chief Roy Williams would begin a traffic safety campaign on May 15 in which all motorists would be asked to "Check Your Driving, Check Your Car, and Check Accidents," and asked for the full co-operation of all Rotarians.

W. A. Laffer advocated more frequent inter-city meetings of the type held recently in New Smyrna and suggested that a visiting committee of two or three men be named to attend meetings in neighboring cities.

President Lesher thanked Mr. Smyrna and Mr. G. W. Sperry, Laffer for arranging the New (Continued on Page Two)

Soft drinks and ice cream were served to them and one 11 year old youth is reported to have consumed seven hot dogs, five bottles of pop and three cups full of ice cream. A school bus was provided for transportation and the boys had a lot of fun swimming.

Present from the Lions Club were Edward Marshall, J. C. Davis and Porter Lansing. Rotarians present included G. A. Speer, George Stine and Mrs. Stine, Roy Holler and Jack Radigan.

British Still Hope To Solve Indian Problem

Conference Breaks On Moslem Demand For Independent State Of Pakistan

SIMLA, India, May 13, (AP)—The British cabinet mission made it plain today that it still has hopes of solving the Indian independence problem, although admitting failure of an eight-day conference with Moslem and Hindu leaders.

The conference completely broke down yesterday, dealing a severe blow to the hopes of those who expected quick transition from British control to Indian self-government. It seemed apparent that the meeting, founded on the Moslem League's demand for an independent Moslem state (of Pakistan). The Congress Party bitterly opposed this, wanting at least an Indian unified as to foreign affairs, defense and communications.

Two communiques were issued after the breakdown, one by the cabinet mission, the Moslem League and the Congress Party, and the other by the Moslem League. Neither gave a reason for collapse of the meeting.

The Mission's statement said that it and the viceroy, Lord Wavell, would go to Delhi tomorrow and later issue a statement on the next steps to be taken. The joint communiques said the conference had decided "no use would be served by further discussions."

Even a face-to-face talk between Mohammed Ali Jinnah, leader of the Moslem League, and Jawaharlal Nehru, president-elect of the Congress Party, failed to salvage the meeting.

In New Delhi, a commonwealth member of the viceroy's executive council, Dr. N. B. Khare, proposed that if further steps fail, British rule should be continued until a constitution enacted by parliament in 1935 but held in abeyance since then.

Efforts Being Made To Employ Truant Officer

Matter Is Taken Up With School Board, County Commission

Judge R. W. Ware announced today that efforts are being made to secure the co-operation of the County Commission, Board of Public Instruction and City Commission in financing the employment of a competent probation officer for county schools who also serve as an attendance officer.

He said that he had already presented the matter to the County Commissioners, and Thursday brought the subject to the attention of the School Board and declared he believed both groups are in sympathy with this undertaking and will back it fully. He added that he had not yet presented the matter before the City Commission.

The School Board, at its meeting, decided to instruct school superintendents to furnish the Committee for the County Council of the PTA with such data as may be needed by that group in their investigation of school conditions and finances.

The committee headed by Mrs. C. E. Carter, Sr., requested of the Board certain needed school improvements including correction of inadequate lighting, need of interior painting, repair of leaky roofs, need of more adequate toilet and dressing room facilities, and more playground facilities. They recommended higher salaries for teachers; also that the County Commission be requested to allot some of the forthcoming race track money from the State to school use.

Other members of the committee present were, Mrs. John Rogers, county council president, Mrs. George Harden, Mrs. Harry L. Brown, and Mrs. Joseph Corley.

Soft Coal Operators Agree To Pay A.F. Of L. Miners $3,000,000 In Back Wages

18 Nazis Given Death Sentences By U. S. Tribunal

Germans Were Operators of Infamous Mauthausen Camp

DACHAU, Germany, May 13.—Fifty-eight Nazis whose fates and consciences are stained with the blood of thousands of concentration camp victims have been sentenced to hang. The scene was Dachau, Germany, where an American military court has been holding the largest war crimes trial of them all. The condemned were 58 of the 600 men who ran the infamous Mauthausen murder camp. Fifty-eight times, the president of the court read this sentence: "You are sentenced to death by hanging at such time and place as a higher authority may determine. The court took it without a trial, because you were without defense."

Only three of the Mauthausen inmates escaped with their lives. But they were sentenced to prison for the rest of their lives.

Florida City Market Closes Season With Business Record Of $2,051,000

JACKSONVILLE, May 13, (Special)—The Florida City State Farmers' Market, a major link in our state system, closed its Spring season this last week, with a record of approximately $2,051,000 worth of produce handled. The Acadia State Live Stock Market held its first sale for the new season, during the week, and plans for holding the first live stock sale on the Plant City State Farmers' Market May 14 have just been announced, said William L. Wilson, director of State Farmers' Markets, here today.

"The Florida City figures reported by Manager C. S. Phillips represent a new record for that market. The final official report for that market, for the last preceding year showed a grand total of $885,424.41."

"Manager John D. Kelly's report on his initial live stock sale at the Acadia market showed a total of 465 head of cattle sold for a gross of $19,334.41. Top price for the day, $14.90, was paid for a calf. Manager Kelly expects a heavier run of cattle at the sale tomorrow. Manager J. D. Johnson of the Plant City market expects good trade tomorrow when his live stock market season is to be formally launched. Other live stock markets in the State System which are conducting sales on regular schedule, include those located in Jay and DeFuniak Springs.

The outlook for wastage of Florida-grown products continues alarming, as I have noted previously. In fact developing events have worsened the picture decidedly. The Plant City Market has been operating on a day-by-day supply of containers, and at the weekend, the situation had become critical. Add to this, the developing transportation situation, plus the normal wastage brought about by declining prices at the season's end, and it appears probable that considerable quantities of fresh vegetables of various kinds will rot in the fields. With starvation conditions facing so many people overseas today this situation is particularly deplorable. I feel that under present conditions every possible pound of food should be marketed or home-canned or preserved in some way so it might help offset world shortages. I am sure that we men't forget anywhere near that goal.

LUNCH FOR TOJO AND COMPANY

Dr. Altmann also said that the provisional government would be set up in Palestine, and that it would attempt to repatriate 1,000,000 Jewish people.

Continued Supply Of Gas Is Assured By Local Official

Assurance of continued gas service to Sanford customers in spite of the recent stoppage of coal shipments, due to the miners' strike, was today given by T. O. Loran, local manager of the South Atlantic Gas Company, which supplies the area.

Mr. Loran said that although the Sanford plant here had been without coal for the past month, it continues to be made up by the Dixon operation, which permits its manufacture from either coal plus fuel oil or gas plus fuel oil, which latter method is now being used. The coke supply, he added, is adequate for some time. Hydrogen, released from hot steam, is a valuable element in gas manufacture, he said.

The decision, by the management cleared the way for discussion of key issues in the deadlocked negotiations. In agreeing to the demand made by the United Mine Workers' chief, John L. Lewis and the soft coal operators resumed negotiations again today, according to President Truman. Workers' leaders for a settlement of their deadlocked contract dispute.

Meanwhile, the U. M. W. lifted its ban on rail freight shipments and express and paid postal restrictions. It also announced plans to reform a 25-cent per hour wage increase, which will be in effect by the end of the year. It also announced plans to effect a 25-cent per hour wage increase.
