Robert Sparkman, former Sanford resident and now of Orlando, is a member of the American Red Cross "Task Force" and chairman of the mobile canteen serving emergency workers in the Casselberry sinkhole area.

The canteen is on loan from the Southeastern Area Headquarters in Atlanta and is being manned by volunteer workers from throughout the county.

More volunteers are needed to staff the unit which will be on duty as long as it is needed.

When work begins on repairing damage and filling in the hole, their efforts will be especially appreciated.

Anyone wishing to donate a few hours in the canteen may call American Red Cross Chapter in Sanford, or volunteer at the scene.

'This Is Your Life' Stars Judge Ware

Robert W. Ware, 53-year-old attorney and former city and county judge, was honored with the Kiwanis 50th Anniversary Golden Service Medal in "This Is Your Life" ceremonies at the club luncheon Wednesday.

Rev. Robert Jenkins, pastor of First Methodist Church, of which Judge Ware is a member, was master of ceremonies for the occasion. Ware has taught the Men's Bible class there for the past 40 years.

Present for the event were Judge Ware's daughter, Mrs. Muriel Gardner, and his grandson, Ware Gardner. His son, Rev. Milton Ware, was unable to be present.

Another person who helped recall "the old days" was Mrs. Joel Field, the former Hazel Murray, who was a first grader in the Georgia school where Judge was once principal.

Mrs. Ophelia Bennett sang the judge's favorite song, "In the Garden."

Ware was born in Georgia and received his BA degree from Dalton College. He moved around quite a bit and finally settled in Warrenton, Ga. where he served as mayor, school superintendent and state legislator.

He moved to Sanford in 1925 and opened law practice here. He was elected city judge and later county judge, a position he held for three terms.

Rev. Jenkins credited Judge Ware with inspiring the six young men from First Methodist Church, who have entered the ministry, including his own son.

A resolution was read by Edwin Shinholser commending Judge Ware as "a great source of inspiration and guidance in education, local and state government, religious and church work."

First indications were that the cease-fire which ended the near-civil war between the army and trade unionists had come apart.

There were reports of dead and wounded but the casualties could not be confirmed immediately.

House leaders appeared determined today to write an even stronger version of the tough voting rights bill overwhelmingly approved by the Senate, including the controversial poll tax ban.

President Johnson's historic measure, designed to strike down the remaining barriers to large-scale Negro voting in the South, passed the Senate on a resounding 77 to 19 vote Wednesday.

Improvements totaling $7.363 million, including extension of the north-south runway, for Sanford Naval Air Station received further impetus Wednesday afternoon when a military construction bill was authorized by the U. S. House of Representatives armed services committee.

Rep. A. S. Herlong Jr. informed The Herald today actual appropriation still must be approved by the House appropriations committee.

The project would include the runway extension, taking more than half of the appropriation; aircraft control tower, enlisted men's barracks, bachelor officer's quarters and an electrical distribution system.

The present north-east runway has been closed for the next 15 days while soil boring tests are conducted for the extension.

Tough Policy Promised Chinese, Russ

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk has served notice on Russia and Red China that the United States will not be frightened out of Viet Nam by threats of a wider war in Asia.

Rusk made his tough policy statement at a news conference during which he also revealed that a second Soviet anti-aircraft missile site may be under construction in Communist North Viet Nam.

He said he believed that the additional missile site involved a "deepening" Soviet commitment. The State Department had announced last April 16 that one Surface-to-Air Missile (SAM) site "appears to be in preparation near Hanoi."

"There may be a second in the immediate Hanoi area," Rusk said. "We don't know whether there may be others in that area. In terms of the normal geographic positioning of such sites around a heavily populated area."

The secretary said at another point that he was not alarmed by reports of a recent interview of Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin by U. S. industrialist Cyrus Eaton. Kosygin said at that time that Russia might enter the Vietnam war unless the United States changed its policies.

He said he didn't attach "undue importance" to what Eaton has said. But, he added, "it is very important . . . that no one misunderstand the gravity of the situation."

"If, in fact, those who are supporting North Viet Nam, or feel themselves associated with North Viet Nam, feel that they can drive us out of our commitments there in Southeast Asia—these commitments are serious, they are of long standing—we are determined."

"When we ourselves say, as we have said for a long time, that we don't want a larger war out there in Southeast Asia . . . it would be a great mistake if the other side should think that that means that they can have a larger war with impunity, and that a larger war on their side would remove us from Southeast Asia."

LATEST SINKHOLE to form in the Casselberry-Fern Park area developed to a depth of some 10 feet early Wednesday morning in the backyard of Mr. and Mrs. Garnie Bessinger on Fern Park Boulevard. Neighbors Balk At Sinkhole Aid

By Jane Casselberry

Neighbors who have balked at signing property access releases have delayed, or perhaps ended all chances of, promised state and county aid for victims of the monstrous sinkhole which developed in Casselberry May 13.

The property access releases are needed so that heavy machinery may be brought in the area to fill the chasm which devoured one home and damaged three others on Northmoor Road.

Meantime, the latest in a rash of sinkholes to plague the Casselberry-Fern Park area occurred early Wednesday morning in the backyard of Mr. and Mrs. Garnie Bessinger, 528 Fern Park Boulevard.

By mid-afternoon the cavity was approximately 10 feet deep and 10 feet wide.

For the past two weeks the Bessingers have noticed signs of settling. Cracks have developed in every room of the house, accompanied by popping and cracking sounds. A depression was noticed to be forming in the yard.

The Bessinger property adjoins the lot at 618 Prairie Lake Drive where a sinkhole formed some weeks ago. Mrs. Ivy Campbell, who is renting that house, has noted some settling in her house and yard in spite of the 10 truckloads of sand used to fill the gaping hole.

A neighbor, Mrs. O. E. Smith who also lives on Prairie Lake Drive, stated that as long as two years ago she had a clue that the artesian ground water was drying up when their 150-foot deep well failed and a deeper one had to be drilled.

Another small sinkhole has been located in a Casselberry orange grove on Lake Warren.

Tornadoes Kill Two, Injure 24

United Press International

Torrential rains—up to five inches—fell in Arkansas and Tennessee today after a savage siege of tornadoes in 11 states.

Tornado storms killed two persons Wednesday and injured at least 24 others, including 11 in suburban Chicago.

Nearly five inches of rain fell at Memphis, Tenn., and west Memphis, Ark., including more than three inches in six hours.

Bitter Rivalry Blocks Peace

SANTO DOMINGO (UPI)—Increasingly bitter internal rivalries continued today to block outside efforts to mediate the Dominican civil war.

Criticism of the foreign role in peacemaking efforts mounted in the camps of both rival military Dominican factions.

The phantom Dominican congress—dissolved two years ago but backing rebel leader Col. Francisco Caamaño Deno—denounced "maneuvers" of the United States and its diplomats.

House Approves Garbage Measure

TALLAHASSEE (SpI)—The House today passed a bill allowing Seminole County to contract for garbage collections in unincorporated areas. It also approved a measure concerning North Orlando elections for council members. Both bills, sponsored by Rep. S. J. Davis Jr., now go to the Senate.

Constable, JP Redistricting Wins Approval

Seminole County board of commissioners today approved a redistricting plan for constables and justices of the peace.

The board adopted a resolution requesting legislation on its plan. It will have to be submitted to the voters in a referendum.

District 3 will include Geneva, Oviedo, Chuluota, Tanglewood, Eastbrook, Lake Howell and the Bear Gulley Lake area. Constable of the district is now George Kelsey and B. A. Johnson is justice of the peace.

District 6 is comprised of Bear Lake, Branley Lake area, Sanlando Springs, Altamonte Springs, Longwood, Casselberry and North Orlando. Grady Hall is constable and Al Davis justice of the peace.

District 4 includes Paola, Lake Mary, Sunland, Loch Arbor, Ravenna Park, Sanford and Midway. Robert E. Carroll is constable and Hugh Duncan is justice of the peace.

Commission Chairman John R. Alexander said the districts were drawn to take in consideration population, land area and area identification.

District 5 is the biggest one in land area and District 4 the largest in population.

Water Project Start Ordered

By Donna Estes

Altamonte Springs Town Council in special session Wednesday evening accepted bids totalling $3,504.88 for pipes and fittings to be installed to provide water to second section, second addition, of Oakland Estates.

Bids accepted were those of Hughes Supply for $1,470.88 for cast iron pipes and fittings and Johns Hanville's bid of $2,124 for 1,800 feet of six-inch pipe.

Also submitting bids on the second item were United Pipe Company and Hughes Supply.

Maintenance Supt. A. C. Brown was authorized to order the necessary materials and begin work on the project immediately.

At regular meeting of council next Wednesday, bids will be opened on the proposed recreation center.

School Opens For Classes In September '66

TALLAHASSEE (SpI)—First students will pass through the doors of Seminole Junior College in September 1966.

For Seminole County won its junior college this morning.

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Gov. Haydon Burns today called a 20-day extraordinary session of the Legislature to start Saturday, June 5, for the sole purpose of reapportionment.

ing when the House of Representatives approved the new school.

Rep. S. J. Davis Jr., of Seminole, reported the House approved the measure previously approved by the Senate.

The measure now goes to Gov. Haydon Burns for his signature . . . and his administrative aide informed The Sanford Herald at noon today that the Chief Executive will approve.

The college legislation was guided through the Senate and House by Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. and Davis.

Two different pieces of legislation provide $618,549 for the school — for planning, for first year's operation and for construction. It has been discussed that probable site for the college will be in the Casselberry area.

Seminole School Supt. R. T. Milwee — here today for a conference with federal school officials — said the probable first order of business for the Seminole School Board will be to retain a president of the school.

State education officials have agreed to send a team of planning experts to Sanford to assist county educators in outlining a curriculum, selection of faculty, selection of a site and planning the actual facility.

Milwee said the next year would be required to complete the planning and that the school could open its doors to its first students in September 1966, at the beginning of the 1966-67 school year.

Present available facilities in school plants will be utilized for the first year of operation of Seminole Junior College, pending construction of the facility.

J. P. Wiegars, New York City, president of the Barnard Macfadden Foundation, informed The Sanford Herald by telephone Wednesday it is "highly probable" the junior college could use for the first year the present Sanford Naval Academy plant on Mellonville Avenue.

The Naval Academy will move into the Mayfair Inn after June 1. The Mellonville plant will be inoperative until expansion of Academy classes in a year or two.

Legislators Close To Road Bond Pact

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A House-Senate conference committee began today ironing out some minor changes made by the House in the governor's $800 million road bond program.

Two major changes in the proposed constitutional amendment to build 1,200 miles of primary highways in areas by-passed by the turnpike and interstate highway system.

Get-Acquainted Party Held By Garden Circle

Bear Lake Garden Circle welcomed 10 prospective members at an informal get-acquainted party held during the May meeting at the home of Mrs. Jessie Jacobs in Bear Lake.

In the group were Mrs. Evelyn Bortoff, Mrs. Iris Wilson, Mrs. Tarvis Darnell, Mrs. Nora Norris, Mrs. Doris Hale, Mrs. Wahweese Kerr, Mrs. Viola Sheard, Mrs. Betty Russell, Mrs. Mary Krenser, and Mrs. Maryann Miles.

In business, reports of the year's activities were read by Mrs. Nuchee Brunk, past president and current hostess for the circle.

Highlights of the year were winning third place for the exhibit at February's Central Florida Exposition in Orlando; second place in the April Table Show of the Orlando Garden Club, and 12 first place and two second place ribbons on horticulture exhibits.

At conclusion of Mrs. Brunk's report, Mrs. Aggie Ostrander, circle chairman, presented her with two silver charms for her bracelet as a token of appreciation from the group which was celebrating the fourth year of organization.

Others present for the occasion were Mrs. Kate Jones, Mrs. Nora Massey, Mrs. Jennie Weinar, Mrs. Carolyn Glaves, Mrs. Dorothy Stevenson, Mrs. Joyce Harrington, and Mrs. Marge Scott.

Meetings have adjourned for the summer with the opening fall session scheduled for the third Tuesday in September.

Seabees Launch World Spy Hunt

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State Department, with the aid of specially trained teams of Navy Seabees, is planning a wall-smashing search for hidden spy microphones in U. S. embassies around the world.

The move was disclosed when testimony before a House appropriations subcommittee was made public.

Department officials asked for $1.6 million to finance the demolition of the interiors of embassy rooms in 15 different world capitals.

A special mobile crew of Seabees would aid embassy security officials and "counterespionage" technicians in searching for electronic eavesdropping devices under the department's new "complete demolition" security policy.

Showers Soak Much Of Nation

United Press International widespread showers and thunderstorms soaked much of the nation today.

Parts of Nebraska braced for lowland flooding while stockmen's warning were continued in parts of the Central Plains.

The heaviest rain was centered near the east slope of the Central Rockies.

The storm pushed out across Nebraska, causing 8.5-inch rain, with 1.25 inches during the night.

MINERS DEAD

ROBBINS, Tenn. (UPI) — Rescue workers, hoping for a "miracle," found what they really expected Tuesday—the bodies of five miners trapped in a coal mine explosion in Tennessee.

The Senate, on a motion by Doyle, Carlton Jr., of Wauchoula, was to reconsider today the vote by which it killed Sen. Jerry Thomas' bill requiring children to be six years old by Oct. 1 before enacting the first grade.

It was Sen. George Tapper who removed the major stumbling block to the road program by agreeing to remove a $5 million U. S. 99 project added by the Senate, but rejected by the House, and urging acceptance of a strong conflict of interest provision added by the lower chamber.

The Senate balked, however, at seven House changes, forcing the proposal to go to conference committee for reconciliation. But the amendments are minor and should be ironed out easily.

They deal with specific road projects in the program, like writing in a fixed amount of $5 million each for bonds in Duval, Hillsborough and Orange Counties and providing an alternate project in Pensacola.

Tapper, a Fort St. Joe road contractor, said in a dramatic speech that he feared the whole program would be jeopardized if the U. S. 99 project in his district was not removed.

"So," he said, "I ask that you accept the House amendment removing this project." And he said that since he was the only lawmaker affected by the conflict of interest provision, "I say let's take it and get on about the business of making laws."

The school age bill, which passed the House with almost no opposition, was killed Tuesday in the Senate.

But Carlton, who voted to kill the bill, moved Wednesday that the Senate reconsider and take another vote on the measure. Carlton made the move as a favor to Thomas.

The upper chamber was in a rare spending mood and passed bills authorizing construction of a $4 million new State Insurance Commission office building and bills appropriating $921,104 for highway patrol stations and fire control units in a number of counties.

The Senate also passed and sent to the lower chamber a bill, which carries no appropriation, authorizing a study to determine the feasibility of establishing a state university in Dade County.

Marine On Top In Recruitment

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The armed services fell 96,000 men short of their recruiting goals during the first 10 months of the fiscal year ending July 1 with only the Marines scoring 100 per cent in signing up new Leathernecks.

The Defense Department said during the weekend that the Navy obtained 78,000 first enlistees against its goal of 87,000; the Army got 78,500 recruits against a goal of 84,000, and the Air Force signed up 64,500 out of a goal of 70,484.

The Marines set a goal of 26,500 first enlistments and got every one.

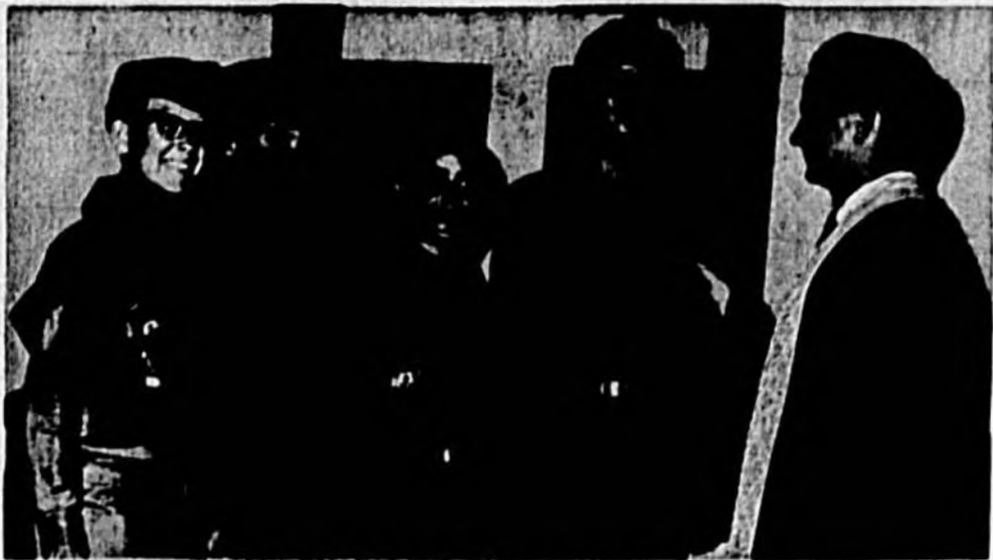

Yacht Breaks Up In Heavy Seas

MIAMI (UPI) — A Coast Guard helicopter rescued a man and four boys from a 60-foot yacht, the Owan, broke up and sank in the Gulf of Mexico.

The boat's captain, Ed Erickson, said he was carrying the boat to California when it broke apart in 16 foot seas about 70 miles northwest of Key West.

University Tours Concluded By Biology Students

Trips to J. Hillis Miller Medical Center at the University of Florida in Gainesville by Biology II classes at Lyman High School were concluded when the third and final group of boys and girls were accompanied to the center by Mrs. Teena Armao, of the Heart Association, and Tom Barnes, Lyman science teacher.

First trip was made May 10 with Mrs. Beth Thomas, of Heart Association, and Sal Manfre, teacher, and the second trip was made May 17 with Vance Ambrose, teacher. All tours were arranged by the Florida Heart Association in co-operation with Seminole-DeBary Heart Association. Mothers of the students provided transportation.

At the center, students were shown nuclear radiology with the cobalt machine, physiotherapy and occupational therapy, and rehabilitation for patients. They heard Dr. Jape Taylor, cardiologist and president of the Florida Heart Association, speak on heart surgery and saw x-rays of heart catheterization. They learned that it takes 17 pints of whole blood just to prime the machine for open heart surgery.

The "mad scientists laboratory," where a variety of animals are used for tests, was visited.

Students in the second group to make the tour saw the Van de Graaff machine, a cardiovascular operation with pacemaker, a kidney operation on a rabbit and some minor surgery performed. They visited the school of pharmacy and met two students of this year's graduating class.

Lake Monroe Jottings . . .

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson Hello there. Have sure missed being with you the last couple of weeks. But there sure has not been a dull moment in that time I can assure you. . . . With school so near out and quite a few parties and such going on there is plenty to do. . . . Tommy Carroll was a delegate to the recent D.C.T. convention held in Jacksonville. Alice and Bill are planning on taking Tom up to Berry College in Mt. Berry, Ga., next month to enroll him for the coming year. Good luck Tom. . . . The Robert Manns are planning their vacation trip right now. They are going to see her parents "Out West" and also visiting other places. . . . Mrs. W. R. Reddick has returned home to Destin after visiting here with her daughters, Mrs. Rena Hawkins and Mrs. Hazel Chambliss. Also here at that time was Mrs. Reddick's other daughter Mrs. Myrtle Pickett of Jacksonville. . . . Very glad to hear that Mrs. Ebba Lee is now okay after undergoing eye surgery. Ebba is one of those hard working gals you can't keep down. . . . I want to thank people for the many, many letters and telephone calls I have received after being given the honor of being the Mother of the Year of the Upsala Presbyterian Church. I was so surprised with the honor. . . . A very lovely affair was given for retiring teacher Mrs. Thelma Sikes by the Wilson School P.T.O. last weekend. Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Herbert Muse were in charge of the party. Mrs. Sikes received a silver tray from the P.T.O. and other gifts from the guests who attended. County School Supt. R. T. Miller was called during the afternoon. Thelma will be very much missed by all who knew her. Now maybe she will get out her paints and brushes and paint beautiful pictures. She is very talented. Good luck Thelma. . . . Claude and Mary Hittell had a hamburger fry Saturday evening for high school grads George and Paul Markos and son Richard Hittell. They spent an enjoyable afternoon playing records, dancing and enjoying various games. . . . This Saturday afternoon Lynn Giles and Ann Tyner will have a splash party for grads Betty Turner and Ferrell Hickson, at Lynn's home. . . . I am sure you have heard of the song "Alexander's Ragtime Band." One of the lines goes like this "It's the best band in the land." Well let's say that this line refers to the Seminole High School Band, because it is! At the annual banquet of the band last Friday evening at the Civic Center, I had the pleasure of being their guest. I received from the band the most beautiful double orchid corsage accented with lavender net and ribbon. Also a beautiful gold pin and a special honorary award. I won't mention the pink card with a picture to prove why I received the pink card but John Horner seems to think I deserve it. Anyway, because I am retiring from being a county school bus driver, I will miss taking the band on their trips. But I can truthfully say that for the seven years that I had the pleasure of taking Mr. Cowley and his band, there has never been a more wonderful time with such a wonderful group. So boys and girls, from the bottom of my heart, I thank everyone of you and the concert afterwards was just simply perfect and of course wonderful to listen to. . . . Mrs. Olga Hunter spent last weekend in Tampa with several members of local American Legion Auxiliary Unit 53, attending the annual Legion convention. She reports a wonderful time. . . . Rena Hawkins and I will leave next weekend for Washington, D. C., where we will visit my brother and sister-in-law, Bill and Jeanette Grow and their family. We will see the new addition to the family, little John, who joined the family in April. . . . Our thought this week—"There are two days about which nobody should ever worry, and these are yesterday and tomorrow."

Lake Marians Grateful For Voting Changes

By Frances Wester
Announcement that the Lake Mary area has been re-districted back into two voting precincts was received with gratitude by residents of the area, Don Jackson, Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce president, reported today.

Pointing out that the recent county action had been projects spearheaded by the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce, he said that the group also has a number of other projects under way.

One is the house numbering of all residences and places of business in the community which is currently being done.

Another is the past year's effort for obtaining needed rights-of-way on Lake Mary Boulevard for paving out to Interstate 4. Survey of the road was made again this week making it authentic and it is hoped that the county will include the paving into current programs so that work will be completed by this fall.

A TROPHY was presented by Bear Lake Elementary School Gray Y team to Coach Don Hasley in appreciation for work he has done with the boys during the past year. Hasley will be teaching in Brevard County next term.

"Precinct dividing line within the area will be Country Club Road and voting places will be established in each of the two areas by the next election with everyone living in Lake Mary able to vote in Lake Mary," Jackson advised.

"Another important step to the community in recent action of the county commission was to adjust commission districts putting Lake Mary into a single district, that of County Commission Chairman John Alexander.

Previous redistricting several years ago by the county had Lake Mary people voting in three places, at the Lake Mary Fire Hall, in Longwood and at the Farmer's Market on 17-92. The community also had three county commission districts," he said.

sports siftings

Rocky Graziano once said: "Somebody up there likes me." Cassius (Muhammad Ali) Clay goes him one better. "Somebody up there" talks to him.

One Orlando sportscaster Wednesday morning succinctly commented about the affair: "It isn't just the scent of pieces coming out of the Maine woods."

And speaking of that one punch, comedian Joe E. Lewis summed up the crudity of the blow very aptly: "I've been hit harder by a shot of whiskey," Lewis said.

As now, Sen. Charley Johns of Maine, hundreds of miles from the Cold Coast center of horse racing, has proposed the state take over the so-called Sport of Kings and reap all the profits.

Johns has introduced a constitutional amendment authorizing the state to purchase all property rights and interest in the thoroughbred racing industry of Florida, and sell bonds to pay for it.

More pleasant subject. The Panthers baseball team of Crooms High School finished their season this year with a 9-5 record. This makes the sixth consecutive winning season for the boys.

L. E. Woodhams of Casseberry reports that a cod fish, not usually found this far south, was caught 26 miles off Daytona Beach Sunday from the charter boat Make.

In addition to Woodhams, the fishing party included Rex Niblack and Rex Jr., Tom Herald, Don Greene, Mike Samarco and Mike Jr., Mickey Smith and Dave Rutenkroger, all of Casseberry.

From a letter out of the U. S. Dept. of Interior, Fish and Wildlife Service, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, come the following:

"For the year 1962 we estimate that 50,000 fishermen days were expended in the St. Johns River between Lakes Harney and Monroe. About one-third of this fishing pressure was for shad. . . . In 1964, the estimates of sport fishing for shad only in this stretch of the river from January through March amounted to about 85,000 man-days. . . . It appears that sport fishing for shad is up nearly 50 per cent over 1964."

Devlin ranks third with more than $1,000. Player, the only foreigner to win the Masters tourney, captured the tourney at Speedway last year with an 11-under-par 273, edging Wall and Sanders by a single stroke.

Devlin warmed up with a 5-under-par 69 in Wednesday's wind-and-rain-swept pre-tour curtain raiser with Art Wall and Casper peeling the Sanders, winner of the Pensacola and Doral Open this year, ranks second only to Masters winner Jack Nicklaus on the official PGA money list with more than $97,000 and contracts.

Twins Dump Bosox To Take Over AL Lead

CPO HENRY M. Knowles, Sanford Naval Air Station, proudly displays 107 lb. tarpon he landed last Friday while fishing off Boca Grande. Knowles played the 70-inch fish for one hour and five minutes before boating it. The catch climaxed a dismal day of fishing, during which two 1 1/2 lb. red snappers were the only other catch. The tarpon was hooked while Knowles was returning to port. (Herald Photo)

K of C Takes First Half Flag

The first half of the Church League season was completed last night and the champions, the Knights of Columbus, subdued the Church of God, 21-4. Nick Constantine was the winning pitcher. John Jensen and Tom Shawney each collected three hits to all batters. Jensen had the only homer of the contest. Fred Osborn and Bob Dorn were the top hitters for the losers.

The Knights won the first half championship by winning 11 of their 12 games. They were the only team in the loop to play .500 or better ball, and will be strong favorites to repeat their performance when the second half of the season gets underway June 1.

Kiwans and Civitan took Junior League victories. Kiwans won the afternoon portion of the Wednesday schedule, by downing CPO, 10-3. Kiwans broke a 3-3 tie game by chasing across 7 runs in the fifth inning. CPO came back with five runs in a sixth inning rally but fell short in their attempt to overtake the Kiwanians. Sidney Lloyd received credit for the win in relief of Allen Cooper. Randy Nobles was the top hitter with two safeties. Don Boyd was singled out for his fielding play making an outstanding

Al Grooms, one of the top little league hurlers in the city, limited the Hunt Comets to one hit as his First Federal teammates won their tenth game of the season, winning 4-2. Grooms struck out 11 and offensively had two hits, as did Mickey Brady and John Russell to lead the way to the victory.

Hal Smallwood accounted for the only Hunt hit with a triple. In an exhibition game, the Knights of Columbus surprised Kingswood 11-9.

Lyman High Blue-Gold Game Friday

By Jim Bacchus Herald Sports Writer Lyman High School will hold its annual Blue-Gold spring football game Friday night at Lyman field beginning at 8 p.m. Admission will be nominal. Student admissions must also be accompanied by a bar of soap.

The 22-year-old right hander from Ottumwa, Iowa, who was signed conditionally by the Angels off the Pittsburgh Pirates' Balavia farm club roster in 1964, received credit for his third win of the season Wednesday night with a two-inning shutout relief effort in Los Angeles' 2-1 victory over the Washington Senators.

Lee relieved rookie Marcelino Lopez in the eighth inning with the score tied at 1-1 and didn't allow the Senators a hit the rest of the way. The Angels scored the run that gave Bob his third straight victory after two early-season defeats when Jose Cardenal singled in the ninth, stole second and tallied on Jim Fregosi's single.

The Minnesota Twins moved into first place when they beat the Boston Red Sox 9-7 and the Cleveland Indians tripped the Chicago White Sox 3-1, the Kansas City Athletics beat the Baltimore Orioles 8-3 in the other AL game. New York at Detroit was rained out.

In the National League, Milwaukee topped San Francisco 10-4, Houston defeated Cincinnati 8-2, Chicago downed New York 8-4, Pittsburgh beat Philadelphia 5-3, and St. Louis slipped Los Angeles 2-1.

Members of the Blue team will be: Centers, Bob Olson and Joe Pennebaker; guards, Larry Chubb, Ron Greene, Steve Brady, Harry Cronk, Mike Tatam and Gary Scott; tackles, John Stuart, Richard Rubright, Tim Blair, Mark Goldsmith and Richard Mulne; ends, Danny Overton, David Drueding and Bob Harrington; quarterback, Mike Hargis; fullback, Mike Warren; and halfback, Larry Lot, David Straughan and Bob Eldridge.

Ron Greene was elected captain of the Blue team and Danny Overton named co-captain. Paul Lambert will captain the Gold team, with John Angel the co-captain. Manager for the Gold team is Charlie Stewart. Scott Brownell will manage the Blue team.

Last year's contest was won by the Blues, 6-0.

Two Controversies Still Burning Clay-Liston Probe Demanded

By Tim Moriarty UPI Sports Writer LEWISTON, Maine (UPI) — Although the combatants have departed this Maine mill town with considerable amounts of greenbacks, the furors over the Cassius Clay-Sonny Liston fight continued to rage today amidst the usual demands for "sweeping" investigations.

When fast talking Clay and slow-moving Liston pulled out of town, they left behind two burning controversies and several enraged officials demanding probes because they smelled "fix."

The controversies involved the knockdown count and the time of the key.

Duncan McDonald of Bangor, a member of the Maine Boxing Commission, conceded Wednesday that referee Jersey Joe Walcott "got a little mixed up" when Clay landed his short right that sent Liston sprawling to the canvas.

McDonald wondered aloud why Walcott didn't suspend the count of knockdown time-keeper Francis McDonough when Jersey Joe was unable to get Clay to go to a neutral corner. "Walcott could have suspended the count and started again if he wanted to," said McDonald. "He had the power to do that. It's right in our record book."

McDonald was supported by Coley Welch, a former New England middleweight champion who served as a judge at the fight.

"If that was an amateur fight, the referee would have thrown Clay out of the ring for not going to a neutral corner," Welch said. "It was a bad job of refereeing."

After the fight Walcott explained he couldn't pick up the count from McDonald because he was too busy trying to get Clay back to a neutral corner.

McDonald revealed the controversy over the actual clocking—many writers timed the finish at 1:45—would be discussed at a meeting of the commission. However, he indicated it would remain a one-minute knockout in the books.

Gov. John H. Reed of Maine, who was instrumental in bringing the fight to his home state after it was banned in Boston, defended it as "completely legal." He commended the state Boxing Commission "and all other officials connected with the fight," and insisted "they did an outstanding job."

State Sen. Donald O'Leary hardly agreed with the governor. He asked the Maine legislature to create a subpoena-powered commission to investigate the bout, which he termed a "debacle." The Senate tabled the request for further consideration.

"We get our million dollars worth of publicity but we don't want any more of this," O'Leary said. "If this is the death of boxing, I think it is a good thing."

NEW YORK (UPI) — Defending champion Northeastern University will head a field of six schools in the fifth annual Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference Holiday Hockey Festival at Madison Square Garden on Dec. 19, 21 and 22.

The other five teams scheduled to appear in the tournament are Boston College, St. Lawrence, Cornell, Yale and Colgate.

Altamonte Twins Topple Lake Mary, 12-3

By Jim Bacchus Herald Sports Writer The Altamonte Twins whipped Lake Mary last night in Senior League action in Casseberry by a score of 12-3.

The Twins came up with four runs in the first inning, three in the third, one in the fourth and four more in the fifth, to back the five-hit pitching of Reese Griffin.

Terry Danford had a single and double for the Twins. Bob Culppepper and Larry Cooper each had a pair of singles. Tommy Hedrick and Mike Culpepper each rapped a double.

Tom Brockbraugh had a home run for the Twins. Jeff Bunn pulled a triple; Mark Thompson had a pair of singles and Rusty Reed had an Altamonte 8 five hit attack.

Tommy English was the winning pitcher for Lake Mary. The North Orlando Cardinals will take on the Longwood Braves in tonight's action beginning at 8 p. m.

Sam D'Ambrosia Marks Anniversary

The day was March 18, 1905. The place was New York Harbor. The day was just like any other day to most people living at that time.

But to one immigrant crowded at the rail of a ship as it steamed slowly into the harbor and under the shadow of the Statue of Liberty, it was a day of rebirth.

A young man who would reach his 17th birthday the next day stood solemnly at the rail, his eyes glistening with tears of expectation. It was his first glimpse of what was to be his new home, far from the shores of his native Italy.

Many years of happiness and heartache have passed from that day to this, to a little blue cottage at Five Points just south of Sanford.

There, that immigrant of 60 years ago, lives in active retirement, where, daily, he flies the flag of his adopted homeland. The man is 77-year-old Sam D'Ambrosia.

Now some people do nothing but complain every time they have to give the government money—whether it be income tax or some other type of federal tax. But not so Sam D'Ambrosia. In addition to any taxes he may pay, D'Ambrosia cheerfully and gratefully kicks in another $18.25 to the U. S. kiddy each year.

But let Sam D'Ambrosia tell his own story, as he does in a letter to the Hon. Henry Fowler, secretary of the U. S. Treasury Department. The letter reads:

Cheerful Company Sold By Deltona

"Enclosed please find my personal check in the amount of $18.25, representing my annual contribution to the United States Government for the privilege of flying Old Glory each day from a flagpole in front of my home.

"This year's contribution marks the 25th anniversary.

"When, as a young man, I emigrated from Italy to the United States many years ago and discovered the freedom and opportunities citizens of the United States enjoy, I vowed that I, too, would show my appreciation by becoming a U. S. citizen; also, should I ever succeed in owning and operating some sort of business of my own, no matter how small, I would further show my gratitude by flying the Stars and Stripes each day and contributing 'a nickle a day' for this privilege. After working as a common laborer in several states for many years, I finally settled in Paramus, New Jersey, where I built and operated a gasoline station for several years. Later on I moved for health reasons to Florida and built and operated a small country grocery store at my present address.

Brantford has sales of about $8 million a year.

DELTONA FIRM OPERATES HERE

The community of Deltona, across Lake Monroe from Sanford, and Marcos Island, on the southwest coast of Florida, near Naples, are developments of Deltona Corporation, along with other projects throughout the state.

Final Margin

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate passage of President Johnson's historic voting rights bill was a foregone conclusion today with only the final margin of victory the remaining question.

Remap Plan In Line With U. S. Court Order

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A 36-senator, 108-representative reapportionment plan that would end rural domination of the Florida Legislature was presented by big city mayors Wednesday night to delegations from the state's 12 largest counties.

The plan, unlikely to win favor with even the most liberal minded legislators from small and medium sized counties, would leave 45 of the 67 counties sharing representatives and give 26 of the 36 Senate seats to 11 counties.

It would, however, put the voting power of the Legislature where the preponderance of the state's population is, in line with the U. S. Supreme Court's mandate for equal representation.

Members of the mayors' conference on fair reapportionment — comprised of the mayors of Miami, Tampa, St. Petersburg, Fort Lauderdale, Orlando, Palm Springs and Pompano Beach — presented the plan at a country club banquet attended by senators and representatives from the 2 largest counties.

The mayors' group, headed by Herman Goldner, of St. Petersburg, is on the side of Gov. Haydon Burns in opposing consideration of either legislative or congressional reapportionment before the regular legislative session ends and a promised special session begins immediately. Purpose of the banquet was to get the plan in front of legislators in hopes of gaining support for it—and also gaining an introducer.

"We realize this is a responsibility of the Legislature, but since reapportionment affects our communities, we want to talk about it and make suggestions," Goldner said.

He said the mayors are in disagreement with plans under study by small county majority bloc legislators which would increase the Senate from the present 43 to 98 members and the House from 112 to 220.

"We do not think that large a Legislature would be effective," Goldner said.

The plan contains a provision for automatic reapportionment in the future by the State Cabinet, something that would end the endless hassles over redistricting.

The mayors' plan, similar to one supported by the League of Women Voters, distributes House members on a basis of one for every 45,848 citizens, and provides a senator for every 137,543 people.

Counties with less than 45,848 residents would be grouped with one or more contiguous counties in sharing representatives.

The plan also contains a subdivision provision for simplifying elections in counties with more than five representatives.

Under the initial apportionment proposed in the plan, 22 of the counties would have at least one House member each. Dade County would have 20 House members.

In the Senate, Dade would have seven senators, Duval, Hillsborough and Pinellas three each, Broward, Palm Beach and Orange Counties two each, and Escambia, Volusia, Brevard and Polk one each—a total of 26 senators for these 11 largest counties.

The other 56 counties would share senators. One small county district, for example, would be made up of Jefferson, Taylor, Madison, Lafayette, Suwannee, Hamilton, Columbia, Union, Bradford, Baker and Nassau Counties.

The U. S. Supreme Court has given the Legislature until July 1 to reapportion itself on the basis of its "one man, one vote" mandate.

Layman Leaves Lawyers No Loopholes

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Rep. Allison Strickland put lawyer members of the House on notice that laymen could draw better legislation than could members of the bar.

The Citrus County lawmaker drew howls of laughter from his colleagues during debate on a bill prohibiting pollution of lakes and streams.

Reps. William O'Neill, of Marion, and William Wadsworth, of Flagler, both attorneys, were arguing against the bill. Wadsworth said the bill, proposed by Strickland, was loosely worded.

Strickland convulsed the House when he said, "One of the problems the opponents face here today is when a layman draws a bill, he doesn't leave any loopholes."

Swain Allergic To Sweetheart

AMERHAM, England (UPI) — Tim Schofield, 21, had a problem. Every time he kissed his sweetheart, Billie Tordoff, 17, he blushed and broke out in a rash.

For months, Schofield went to doctors to find a remedy. The answer was always the same: Stop seeing Billie or at least stop kissing her.

Finally, Tim found a skin specialist who said the problem was the result of "emotional disturbances." He prescribed pills that lower Tim's blood pressure.

"They work wonders," Tim said. "I take one and I'm immune from blushing for hours." The romance was saved from going on the rocks.

"I don't know why I have this effect on Tim," Billie said. "It's really most odd."

Experts Hunt For Ways To Remove Punch From Hurricanes

MIAMI (UPI)—Weathermen hope to find out in the next few months if there's anything man can do about a hurricane.

If the best he can do is get out of the way, the 1965 hurricane season may help by producing improved hurricane forecasts. Researchers have cooked up a new formula to feed to their computers. The season officially opens June 1. September, however, is normally the peak month for the big tropical blows.

The big question, and the one weathermen aren't able to answer, is whether 1965 will be another "bad year" for mainland coastal residents in the hurricane belt.

Last year was the worst for the mainland in 15 years. Four hurricanes hit the southeastern United States, three of them in Florida. Damage totaled an estimated $515 million and 49 fatalities were attributed to the storms on the mainland.

Some oldtimers are saying 1964 was the start of a new "cycle" of hurricanes hitting the mainland. Gordon E. Dunn, the Miami weather bureau's chief hurricane forecaster, will only say that present weather patterns over the southeastern United States are abnormal and definitely uninviting to any tropical storm.

"I don't think this type of weather regime can persist. I think maybe by August it will change, but I can't say what the change will bring," says Dunn.

When the first tropical storm of 1963—Anna—is reported by a ship or one of the Navy or Air Force's hurricane hunter planes on patrol, Dunn's concern will be plotting its course and trying to predict where it will go if it gets close to land.

In the past, Dunn says, weathermen have had "pretty good luck" in general long-range forecasting of hurricane courses by feeding to computers in Washington data gathered from spots around the Caribbean and the United States on atmospheric pressure, humidity, temperature, wind direction and velocity.

This year, weathermen hope to advance forecasting by providing a computer at the weather bureau's new University of Miami headquarters with what has proved the most dependable of this "input" data—plus a Washington computer's prognostications of what conditions will be in 24 hours around the hurricane.

It will be the first time such a formula has been used.

The concern of another weather expert isn't as much predicting what a hurricane will do as determining whether whether scientists have found a way to take some of the punch out of a hurricane.

Even Cecil Gentry, director of the National Hurricane Research Project based here, has no illusions of taming hurricanes by "seeding" them with silver iodide crystals.

"If our test works like we hope it will, we may wind up with a bigger storm—but one of much less intensity," Gentry said.

In 1961, Gentry's researchers dumped 120 pounds of silver iodide into hurricane Esther. The hurricane's intensity dropped 10 per cent for a short time afterward. There was similar success in seeding a storm in 1963.

The researchers decided to try a full-scale seeding experiment this year, using several times the amount of silver iodide used earlier and over a longer period, in hopes of partially dissipating a storm.

Gentry, however, will wait for a fully-developed hurricane which is over water and far from land. In the late 1940s there were accusations that a seeding experiment caused a hurricane to veer from a course that had been paralleling the coast and strike Savannah, Ga.

Silver iodide crystals are used in seeding because they have a molecular structure similar to ice crystals. When the rain-laden clouds of a hurricane are properly impregnated with silver iodide, much of the moisture in the storm is drawn to the silver iodide and "flooded" into forming ice.

The result of this is a heat exchange which upsets the balance of forces in the hurricane and robs part of its tremendous energy.

Shooting Victim Rites Saturday

Funeral services for Danny Joe Roberts, 14, of Longwood, who was fatally wounded late Wednesday afternoon in a shooting accident, will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday at the grave site in Longwood Cemetery, with Rev. Jack Lindsay officiating.

Born in Breholm, W. Va., young Roberts had lived in Longwood for the past eight years. He was a student at South Seminole Junior High School.

Survivors are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts, of Longwood; brothers, W. T. Roberts, of New Jersey and Jimmy and Johnny, both of Longwood, and sisters, Mrs. Shirley Lowry, of Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. Patsy Eber, of California, and Jeannie, of Longwood.

Arrangements are in charge of Cox-Parker Funeral Home, Winter Park.

St. Johns Cruise Is Postponed

Low water and other adverse conditions on the St. Johns have forced postponement of the planned scenic cruise June 12.

Waterways committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Wednesday voted to call off plans for the cruise.

Sam Levy, committee chairman, said it is possible that the cruise may be held in late summer or early fall.

Three-wheeled motor scooters first were used experimentally to ease postmen's aching feet in Decatur, Ga.

Chatter Party Honors Miss Benton

Miss Brenda Benton, a member of the 1965 graduating class of Seminole High School, was honored with a cake and chatter party recently at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Benton Jr., 1807 Adams Avenue. Co-hostess was Mrs. John Krider Jr., sister of the honoree.

The table was covered with a white damask cloth and decorated with a floral arrangement of yellow mums and greenery. A large silver lazy susan was filled with potato chips, crackers and dips. Other refreshments included miniature sandwiches of chicken and tuna fish salad, a Hawaiian mold, cookies, cashew nuts and Cokes.

The honoree received a graduation gift from the hostesses.

Invited guests were Mrs. Jack Benton Sr., mother of the honoree, and the Misses Faye Hayes, Joy Howell, Lucy Willis, Sylvia Bateman, Treva

Arnette, Betty Turner, Muriel Parnell, April Whittington, Norma Adams and Marcia and Miriam Hearn, Linda Sharon Booth, Linda Behney, Coleman.

Have had requests to repeat the Apricot Nectar Cake. Am very glad to do so.

APRICOT NECTAR CAKE
1 pkg. white or yellow cake mix
1 pkg. lemon jello
½ cup (5 oz. can) apricot nectar
½ cup cooking oil
2 tps. lemon juice
4 egg yolks

Mix all ingredients in mixing bowl. Beat egg whites and fold into cake batter. Bake in tube or loaf pan at 350 degrees for 1 hour or until done.

GLAZE
½ cup powdered sugar
Juice of 1 lemon

Combine sugar and lemon juice and pour on top of cake when taken from oven, while in pan. Let cool in pan before removing.

COFFEECAKE MUFFINS
½ cup brown sugar
½ cup chopped walnuts or pecans
2 tps. flour
2 tps. cinnamon
2 tps. melted butter
½ cup sifted flour
½ cup granulated sugar
2 tps. baking powder
½ tsp. salt
¼ cup shortening
1 beaten egg
½ cup milk

Combine brown sugar, nuts, flour, cinnamon and butter, set aside. Sift dry ingredients into bowl, cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Combine egg and milk, add all at once to flour mixture. Stir just until moistened. Grease muffin pans or line with paper cups. Spoon in small amounts of batter. Top with layer of nut mixture. Repeat layers, filling pans ¾ full. Bake in 375 degree oven for 20 minutes or until done. Makes about 1 dozen.

SKILLET COOKIES
1 stick butter, melted
1 egg, beaten
1 cup sugar
1 cup dates, cut fine
2-2½ cups flake Krispies
1 cup pecans
1 tsp. vanilla
1 box coconut (small)

Melt butter, add beaten egg, sugar and dates that have been cut fine. Cook in skillet at 300 degrees for 6 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from stove. Add cereal, nuts and vanilla. Form into balls and roll in coconut.

COCONUT KARO PIE
5 eggs
3 cups white Karo
3 tps. flour
¼ cup melted margarine
1 cup coconut
2 tps. vanilla

Beat eggs. Add flour to melted margarine. Combine eggs and margarine mixture. Add Karo, coconut and vanilla to the egg mixture. Pour into 2 unbaked pie shells. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 minutes. Lower oven to 350 degrees and bake about 25 minutes more.

PEACH PECAN PIE
¼ cup soft butter
¼ cup sugar
3 tps. flour
¼ cup light corn syrup
¼ tsp. salt
3 eggs
1½ cups fresh peaches

Corner

½ cup chopped pecans
1 unbaked pie shell
Nut Crumb topping

Cream together butter, sugar, flour and stir in syrup and salt, mix well. Beat in eggs one at a time, until just blended. Add peaches. Pour into pie shell. Sprinkle with topping. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees) for 35 minutes or until knife comes out clean when inserted half way between center and edge of pie. Serve chilled.

NUT CRUMB TOPPING
¼ cup flour
¼ cup brown sugar
2 tps. butter
½ cup pecans coarsely chopped

Combine flour and brown sugar. Work in soft butter until crumbly. Add chopped pecans.

CINNAMON PUDDING
1 cup sugar
2 tps. cinnamon
1 tps. baking powder
2 cups flour
½ tsp. salt
2 tps. oil
1 cup milk
1 tsp. vanilla
½ cup nut meats

Cream sugar and oil slightly. Sift dry ingredients together and add alternately with milk, add nuts to last flour to coat. Put batter in greased baking dish. Pour cooled sauce over it and bake 35 minutes at 350 degrees. Serve with milk, whipped cream or ice cream. Serves 8.

DUTCH MEAT LOAF
1½ lbs. ground beef
1 cup fresh bread crumbs
1 medium onion, chopped
½ of 8-oz. can tomato paste
1 egg beaten
1½ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper

Lightly mix all ingredients. Form into loaf. Place in shallow pan in 350 degree oven.

LIME JELLO SHERBET
1 pkg. lime jello
1 cup boiling water
1 cup sugar
3 lemons, juiced and rind
1 qt. milk

Dissolve jello in boiling water. Add sugar. Cool. Add other ingredients. Freeze (stir 3 or 4 times while freezing). When soft frozen, beat with rotary beater. Return to refrigerator tray until ready to serve. Serves 6.

FRESH UNCOOKED APPLESAUCE
3 red skinned apples
½ tsp. salt
1 qt. water
1 tps. lemon juice
¼ tsp. cinnamon
¼ cup honey

Thinly slice cored, peeled apples into salt water. Let stand 15 minutes to prevent discoloration. In blender, combine lemon juice, spice and honey with ½ of apple slices. Run blender to mix, adding balance of apples and mixing until all is blended to a smooth a sauce as wished. Chill before serving.

BAKED CANTALOUPE
2 cantaloupes
2 cups sliced peaches
½ cup sugar
few grains mace
mint sprigs

Halve cantaloupes. Remove seeds. Combine peaches, sugar and mace. Fill cantaloupes with peaches, arranging slices in radiating pattern on top. Bake at 425 degrees for 15 minutes. Garnish with mint. Serve at once.

SAUCE
½ can tomato paste
1 cup water
2 tps. prepared mustard
2 tps. vinegar
2 tps. brown sugar or molasses

Combine all ingredients. Pour over loaf and bake 1½ hours, basting occasionally. Serves 6.

Mr. And Mrs. Wayne Poucher Visit Oviedo Woman's Club

By Evelyn Landy

Mrs. Lynn Mosier, president of the Oviedo Woman's Club, welcomed members and guests at the final meeting of the year, at the regular club luncheon and meeting.

The club house was decorated with Spargna fern interspersed with day lilies in yellow and brown tones.

Mrs. Doug Layman gave the devotional after which a delicious covered dish luncheon was enjoyed.

MR. AND MRS. WAYNE POUCHER were recent guests of the Oviedo Woman's Club when he was guest speaker.

DeBary Personals

By Mrs. John Leone

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rader, Clara Vista, entertained his brother, William J. Rader, of Fort Lauderdale, who will be leaving for Alaska and visiting many places en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Youman of DeBary Drive have their friends, Mr. and Mrs. S. Brudl, of Clearwater, visiting them in DeBary. The Brudls are former DeBaryites.

Price Goodson is expected to arrive home in DeBary this week after a long stay in the Winter Park Hospital.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Mrs. D. MacFarlane, Mrs. Harry F. Rose, Herbert Olsen and Mrs. Charles (Margaret) Schneider.

Phi Gamma Eta Honors Mothers With Luncheon

Mrs. Glenn McCall was hostess for the annual luncheon of the Phi Gamma Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in her lovely home in Longwood. The luncheon was in honor of the girls' mothers and was the last formal social of the year.

The buffet table was overlaid with a lovely linen cloth and centered with a floral arrangement. Silver trays held the elaborate salads, ham, rolls and relish tray, feed tea and lemon pie were served as dessert.

Each guest received an individual tray, overlaid with a linen cloth, and a favor appropriate for members and guests. Place cards were at each place setting.

Members and guests attending were Misses James Warner, W. R. Jennings, Robert Gonzalez, Sidney Vihlen Jr., Sidney Vihlen Sr., Bill Reck, Myron Reck and Mrs. Edward Womack, of Daytona. Mrs. McCall is director of the chapter.

Swimming Party And Dance Fetes Miss Michele Jones

Miss Michele Jones was guest of honor at a graduation dinner and swimming party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jarvis on Sanford Avenue.

Hostess and host for the evening were Miss Debbie Jarvis and her date, Dick Mamele. Assisting with the party were Debbie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis, and her grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Walker.

The honoree and other guests enjoyed swimming in the Jarvis' beautiful new pool and a complete ham dinner.

Michele received as a graduation gift from the Jarvis family, a jet plane ticket to Houston, Texas.

Those enjoying the party included Miss Jones and her date, Rick Walstrom, Linda Robson, Jim Koerner, Angela Hurt, David Noel, Donna Collins, Joe Farless, Delaine Johnson, Eddie Griffith, Christie Schilke, Ricky Burns and Janie White and Gary Loyd.

Also Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jones, parents of the honoree, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Jones, her brother and his wife.

Michele plans to enter Louisiana College, at Pineville, La., this fall.

The B. L. Perkins Host Dinner Party After Robson-Schwartz Rehearsal

Following the rehearsal of the Robson-Schwartz wedding on Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Perkins Jr. entertained the wedding party with a delightful dinner at their gracious Sanford Avenue home.

A color scheme of bridal white and pink was carried out throughout the dining area with dainty colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations and mums enhancing the charming bridal atmosphere. Magnolia blossoms centered the individual dining tables covered in Damask.

The tempting dinner was served buffet style with twin antique silver candelabra containing tall white tapers, uniquely interspersed with white mums, baby's breath and cascading ivy, forming the magnificent centerpiece of the attractive table.

The bride couple was presented a lovely silver tray from the hosts with the bridal attendants receiving silver charms from the bride-elect.

Mr. Schwartz presented his groomsmen with a combination mahogany hair brush and hanger combination for traveling.

Savory sauces inspired a continental flair and a gourmet's delight to the colorful and palatable cuisine which featured mayonnaise chicken, asparagus en casserole, crab meat au gratin in pastry shells, assorted relishes and Polynesian rum flavored whipped cream cake.

Attending in addition to the bride-elect, Miss Jeanne Robinson, and her fiance, Sam Schwartz, were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robson; her sister, Miss Linda Robson, maid of honor; and Misses Debbie Scott, Merrill Phillips, Carolyn Fulford and Susan Schirmer, bridesmaids.

Also attending were Harry F. Robson Jr. who will serve the groom as best man, and Bud Taylor, Bill McGee, Lee Greynoy and Roger Clark, ushers.

Other dinner guests were the Reverend Leroy Soper, Mr.

Other dinner guests were the Reverend Leroy Soper, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gielow. Miss Patricia Perkins graciously assisted her parents with serving the guests.

Mrs. H.R. Ervin Hostess To Azalea Club Meeting

The new home of the H. R. Ervins, Lake Mary, was the meeting place of Azalea Club last Thursday evening. Mrs. Ervin was showered with plants for her new garden from the gardens of her fellow members. Monstera deliciosa, ivy, dracina, pyracantha, begonia, balsam, bleeding heart and the lowly tomato were among the plants brought.

Mrs. Henry Russell presided and heard the roll call and minutes of past meeting read by the club secretary, Mrs. Dempsey Carnos. Mrs. Porter Lansing gave the treasurer's report and announced dues are payable at the June meeting.

Hostesses for the coming season were assigned and each person present signed a greeting card to Mrs. J. M. Moye, who is convalescing at home after surgery.

The beautiful refreshment table was set up for informal self service by Mrs. Ervin and her co-hostess, Mrs. C. P. Harkey.

Afloat in the clear amber punch was a golden Jonquil frozen within ice. A grapefruit with peel curled back to resemble petals was tinted green and pierced with countless toothpicks studded with tasty bits.

Trays and large hostess plates of assorted party sandwiches "too pretty to eat" and "too good to resist" and a basket of tiny golden brown cookies completed the beautiful array of delicacies.

Others participating in the meeting, enjoying the social hour and sharing Mrs. Ervin's delight with her new home were the Mrs. J. D. Callahan, Henry McLaulin, Fred Pope, Clyde Slinson, R. F. Steele, Roy Tillis and Miss Ellalee Kirchhoff.

Other dinner guests were the Reverend Leroy Soper, Mr.

"Smoke Signals" Staff Guests At Barbecue-Dance

Mrs. Thelma Lewis, sponsor for the Seminole High School paper "Smoke Signals," entertained members of the staff and their friends at a barbecue at her home recently.

The staff presented silver charms to the editor, Miss Geni Klinefelter, and the co-editor, Miss Lynn Howell. Mrs. Lewis also was presented a gift from the staff.

Miss Anne Aiken and her fiance, Charles Hayes, were present. Miss Aiken has been Mrs. Lewis' assistant this past year. She was presented a piece setting in her chosen china pattern.

Following the dinner the 34 guests enjoyed dancing on the patio.

Zeta Xi Chapter Finalizes Plans For A Beatnik Party

Zeta Xi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met recently at the home of Rena Foster. Co-hostess for the final meeting of the year was Betty Hurlburt.

The program, entitled "The Amateur" was presented by the hostess. It was brought out that an amateur is one who does what he loves to do without monetary gain. The amateur activities of many famous people were discussed at great length.

Final plans were made for a beatnik party to be held June 11 at the home of Mrs. Hurlburt. Flora Mae Wells was appointed corresponding secretary, to replace Jan Cara who is taking a leave of absence.

Committee chairmen for the 1965-66 season were appointed by the president, Eleanor Butler; Mrs. Hurlburt, publicity; Rena Foster, ways and means; Dora Lee Russell, projects, and Grace Marie Stinecipher, sunshine.

Members were urged to attend the coordinating committee meeting, June 1, at the home of Marchetta Dorniney. Beta Buddy gifts were exchanged and Beta Buddies for the past year were revealed. Twelve members attended the meeting.

Tea Compliments Mrs. Thelma Sikes

By Mrs. H. E. Johnson
Members of the Wilson School PTO honored retiring teacher, Mrs. Thelma Sikes, with an afternoon tea on Saturday, May 22, at the school. The hall of the school was decorated with profusions of gladioli and palms.

The gift table was overlaid with a white linen cloth. A beautiful arrangement of pink and white carnations, mums, baby breath and fern formed the centerpiece.

Mrs. Sikes received a gift of a silver divided compote tray from the PTO.

Guests who called during the afternoon signed the guest book which was in charge of Mrs. Pearl Bates, who is a former principal of the Wilson school.

The luncheon of the school was decorated in pink and green with streamers hanging overhead. On the huge sheet cake were the words, "To Mrs. Sikes—We thank you for your many years of faithful service. Good luck and God bless you in your future years. Sincerely Wilson School PTO." Also on the cake were pink rosebuds and green stems.

Mrs. Sikes has taught in the Seminole County School system for 19 1/2 years.

Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Herbert Muse were the co-hostesses for the event and they served lime sherbet punch, cake, nuts and mints to the large number of well wishers calling during the appointed hours.

R. T. Milwee was a special guest during the afternoon.

Garden Circles

PALM CIRCLE

Palm Circle of the Sanford Garden Club closed the 1964-65 season with a covered dish luncheon in the lovely garden at the home of Mrs. George Rounds.

Chairman, Mrs. Blanton Owen, called the meeting to order and welcomed four guests, then the incoming chairman, Mrs. Wade Garner, presided at the meeting. Other new officers are Mrs. Owen, vice chairman; Mrs. Harold Howe, secretary and public relations chairman, and Mrs. Gertrude Gilbert, treasurer.

Those who have not paid their dues for the coming year are urged to mail them to Mrs. Gilbert, so a complete list of members will be included in the new year book.

A beautiful floral arrangement, made by Mrs. Garner and used at the dedication of the new Garden Center building, was used as a model for an original oil painting done by Mrs. Mildred Babcock, a member of Rose Circle. After admiring the painting, members agreed that it should be purchased by Palm Circle and offered to the Sanford Garden Club to hang in the new building. It will be given as a memorial to two recently deceased members of the circle.

Following the delicious luncheon, many of the group remained to enjoy the beauty of the spacious garden and hospitality of the hostess.

The tables in a U shaped setting were beautifully decorated with gold banquet cloths, trailing ivy and asparagus fern interspersed with brilliant gerbera daisies to carry out the gold and green colors of the organization.

The centerpiece at the president's table consisted of a milk glass Grecian cup holding myriads of orchids—vandas, cattleyas and phalaenopsis — with fronds of coqui palm. Programs bearing the club emblem "Nike" were at each seating.

Following the outstanding dinner, which was prepared and served by Circle Two, current officers were installed by Miss Waits, who used the signs of the Zodiac as the theme of her beautiful and

Mrs. Chalfant Heads Geneva Homemakers

By JoAnn Hays
The Geneva Extension Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. H. G. Shuler on Lake Harney for the May luncheon and business meeting with the president, Mrs. Pearl Yarborough, in charge. Deputy Wesley Place of the Seminole County sheriff's department presented a program on safety preceding the luncheon and officers for the new year, which begins in September, were elected in business conducted to open the afternoon session.

Elected were Mrs. T. J. Chalfant, president; Mrs. Robert Coe, first vice president; Mrs. Donald Dunn, second vice president; Mrs. Donald Norton, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Yarborough, delegate, and Mrs. Emma Youts, alternate delegate.

At the close of business, Mrs. Gladys Murphy of Winter Park and member of the Geneva Club, conducted an auction which brought a net total of $20.

Members attending, in addition to those named, were Mrs. C. D. Perry, Mrs. T. J. Watkins, Mrs. Eugene Bodogh, Mrs. Kenneth Taylor, Mrs. A. J. Baxter, Mrs. M. D. Ladd, Mrs. Bertha Lindsey, Mrs. W. L. Sieg, and Mrs. W. V. Wagon.

Visitors were Mrs. Polly Denton, Mrs. Lola Morgan, Mrs. L. B. Moss, Mrs. James Rowan, Mrs. Charles Hays and Mrs. Taylor's mother.

Senator Johnson Makes History

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Sen. Beth Johnson of Orlando, has made history.

Mrs. Johnson became the first woman ever to preside over the Florida Senate, taking her turn at the gavel at the request of Senate President James Connor.

Sen. Verle Pope, of St. Augustine, noted the incident for history.

He had spread on the Senate Journal the notation that on this day in 1965, the first woman, Beth Johnson, presided over the Senate, performed ably and received a standing ovation from her colleagues when she finished.

Mrs. Johnson, serving her second session as a senator, is Florida's first and only lady senator. She served in the House prior to her elevation.

RICHARD OSTRANDER, president of Bear Lake Community Club, was one of 75 members and friends enjoying supper sponsored by the organization at Bear Lake Elementary School. Table hostesses (down table from right) were Mrs. Aggie Ostrander, Mrs. Helen Cockley, Miss Irma Strassberg, Mrs. Russell Loomis, and Mrs. James Ancrum. Last club meeting of this season will be held June 17. (Herald Photo)

Slavia Girls To Receive Degrees

By Evelyn Lundy
Miss Sandra Hellhorn and Miss Betty Duda, both of Slavia, will receive degrees from Concordia Teacher's College, River Forest, Ill., Friday.

Sandra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hellhorn, will receive a BS in education and has been assigned to teach at St. Michael's Lutheran School in Fort Myers in the fall.

Betty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Duda Jr., who also will receive her BS in education, will teach at Faith Lutheran School in Bay City, Mich.

Both girls are Oviedo High School graduates and members of St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Slavia.

Mrs. Hellhorn and Mrs. Duda will attend graduation exercises.

Area Students On Dean's List

Three Seminole County students have been named to the dean's list at the University of Florida for the winter trimester.

Sharon Lorraine Giles, of Lake Monroe, and Lawrence J. Pivo Jr., 428 Summerlin Avenue and Roberta Ann Rankin, 308 Flamingo Drive, both of Sanford, were on the list of academic leaders.

WIESBADEN, Germany (UPI)—Members of the Wiesbaden and Mainz pigeon breeders clubs released 4,700 birds last Saturday in a demonstration of their homing ability.

Only 50 pigeons returned. "Our members are worried sick," a spokesman said. "What could have happened to 4,650 pigeons?"

Pooches And Pouches

The Post Office Department has just announced that 7,000 mail carriers were bitten by dogs in 1964. It wasn't explained whether the dogs were unhappy with the service or just didn't like mailmen. But it does indicate a strained relationship. On the other hand, it's a common sight to see a mailman accompanied on his rounds by a dog or even several dogs. And they must really like the guy, since it stands to reason all of them wouldn't be tagging along because they expect to get a letter. Why do dogs bite some mailmen and like others?

It depends partly on the dog, of course. But it also may depend on the postman. Some carriers may go out of their way a bit to win over suspicious or hostile pooches with a friendly word and a confident approach. The same technique has been known to work with people. And with nations. If it's important for the U.S. mail to get through, it's important for human understanding and good will to get through, too. And by special delivery.

Production vs. People

On paper, the record of the less-developed countries of the free world in raising their standards of living appears impressive. The figures for 24 of these countries, as reported by the National Industrial Conference Board, show that industrial production zoomed 122 per cent between 1953 and 1963. This was more than double the rate for 24 more advanced countries. Population growth, however, swallowed much of the benefit of this gain. Here again, the rate in the less-developed countries was more than double that of the developed—2.8 per cent a year as against 1.3 per cent. With 71 per cent of the non-Communist world's population, the less-developed countries generate only 17 per cent of its income. The average income of a citizen of a developed country is still about 12 times higher than that of his counterpart in a less-developed country.

Thought For Today

I was pushed hard, so that I was falling, but the Lord helped me.—Psalms 118:13. As a physician, I have seen men, after all other therapy had failed, lifted out of disease and melancholy by the serene effort of prayer.—Dr. Alexis Carrel.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Terry's case is one of the most interesting in the entire field of psychology. It not only shows the fascinating development of food preference. But it offers young people a magic formula by which to create romance. For love follows the very same pattern as Terry's liking for hot dogs! CASE W-404: Terry F., aged 10, is a Cub Scout. "Dr. Crane," his father began, "I decided to take Terry and three of his pals to a fancy restaurant for a celebration. "This eating place was noted for its superb steaks and fried chicken, as well as various sea foods. "But when the boys looked over the menu, Terry blurted out, 'This place is no good. It doesn't have any hot dogs on the menu!'"

"And his pals agreed fully with him, for they apparently looked with far more delight on hot dogs than on the most appetizing steak or chicken dinner. Why?" Well, you readers with children have doubtless faced much the same restaurant situation which Terry's father describes. And you can answer his puzzled question by realizing that there is no native or inborn fondness for any food except sugar! Therefore, fried chicken, T-bone steak, fancy fish menus and all the hundreds of other appetizing food items that tempt us adults, don't have the same attraction to youngsters as their first encounter. Our liking for foods is an example of a transference. If we experienced a delightful picnic or other jolly party mood when we first tasted the new food, then those generalized emotions begin to fasten upon that new food. For example, when children get free from city apartment restraints and romp on the beach or take Boy Scout hikes, the fun attaching to their outdoor freedom actually becomes entwined with the hot dog. Later, they disdain T-bone steak or fried chicken and grumble if they find not hot dogs on the menu. Many hot dogs resurrect memories that have a delightful "aura" or emotional "halo." When a Cub Scout thus bites into a hot dog, he is figuratively reviving dozens of hikes, picnics, beach parties and outdoor excitement. He is thus biting into fun, romping, games, youthful camaraderie. So he transfers all those diffuse past memories to the hot dog and imagines that it is the most delicious meat item on the menu. Actually, the hot dog may be exactly the same in flavor and food value as when he was given the first bite of such a wiener as a baby in his high chair. And in that high chair, the usual infant will pucker up his mouth and spit out the bite of hot dog. If he could talk, he might express dislike for such a novel taste. For at that moment the hot dog does not tap dozens of former exciting picnic memories or submerged emotions of fun and frolic. But later, the hot dog is a symbol. It now tastes wonderful, for it is an "Open Sesame" or magic lamp that transports him back to many thrilling outdoor experiences. Men, the same basic laws apply to winning a sweetheart as to making a strange food acquire delightful qualities. Just link your contacts with the new girl with pleasure, fun, happiness, gay camaraderie. Ultimately, you will then become, like the Cub Scout's hot dog, a means of releasing diffuse emotions of delight. She will then think you are wonderful! So—get help! (Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

POWER HITTER

Phil Newsom Says

Rebuilt Shrines

When Hitler's defeated army began pulling out of Warsaw in the closing months of World War II it left behind in the rubble the ruins of Warsaw's most famous churches. Today in rebuilt Warsaw, those shrines have been restored in all their former beauty. Among them are the Church of the Holy Sacrament standing along one side of the new town market square. Another is St. John's Cathedral. Attendance in Warsaw churches is heavy. In the words of a Western diplomat in Warsaw, "The church is in the heart of Poles."

Harsh disciplinary measures were used to spread atheism. Neither the atheism of communist nor Cardinal Wyszynski's firm opposition to it were new. Cardinal Wyszynski's steadfast stand already had cost him three years in detention. Within Poland today there are numerous conflicts. The Communist party is divided between old leaders, many of whom received their training in Moscow, and a younger faction called the "partisans." These latter are really men who remained in Poland throughout the war. They are Communist, nationalistic, generally anti-American and anti-Semitic. An unbalanced economy battles serious unemployment at the same time it is torn between continuing emphasis on heavy industry and a rising demand for consumer goods. In the urban areas, unemployment and the unsatisfied demand for consumer goods leads to mounting unrest. The least unrest is among the farmers. Of all the Poles, they have retained the most independence.

Editor, The Herald: Thank you for the newspaper coverage you gave our swim team this year. Most towns give a brief list of results of their school's meets, with a story if the kids do something extraordinary. David Higinbotham, your High School Sports Reporter, gave us story coverage on every swimmer, every event, and pictures of our team. I challenged David back in JV Football season to try to cover our swim team as well as he did our JV Football team—Congratulations, David. Thanks to Mr. Brookshire for permitting David to enter so much of our material. Thanks to Bill Vincent for the many fine pictures we had published. John Colbert Swim Coach

The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON (UPI) — When and/or if the time comes that we all join hands and go marching into the Great Society, I feel certain that the U.S. Agriculture Research Service will be at the head of the column. No other group that I know is doing more to lead us onward and upward than the good old ARS. During the year we get occasional reports on some of the wonders being performed by the boys down at the lab. But the full impact doesn't register until these marvels are all on view at the same time. A summary of recent agriculture research projects has just been published by a House appropriations subcommittee. Put them all together, they spell P-R-O-G-R-E-S-S, a word that means a lot to these and me. —"P" is for pink bollworms, pregnancy prevention and parthenogenesis. Within the past 12 months, the ARS has:

Unlocked the secret of what makes female pink bollworms attractive to male pink bollworms; Developed a new peach drink that can be made from peaches that are too ripe to ship and would otherwise be wasted; Found a new birth control method for dairy cows; and, conducted new experiments with parthenogenetic development, a mysterious process by which chickens are hatched from infertile eggs. —"R" is for rooster, which won't have much to grow about if those parthenogenesis experiments pan out. —"G" is for grapefruit. Thanks in part to the ARS, beekeepers now have a new machine that uncaps honeycombs. The next step, I presume, will be a fliptop honeycomb. —"P" is for pink bollworms, pregnancy prevention and parthenogenesis. The ARS has identified the substance that gives grapefruit its distinctive aroma. It is called "nootkatone." —"R" is for rooster. I've already mentioned that once, but I feel so sorry for the poor bird, I thought I would give him an extra plug while he is still around to enjoy it. —"E" is for ears. Research into the physiological effect of noise on insects shows that if Indian meal moths are exposed to low frequency sound waves, a lot of their eggs won't hatch. —"S" is for "switch." This is a growth-regulating substance that has been isolated and identified in plants. The ARS says "switch" may bring about revolutionary changes in agriculture. Farmers may one day be able to start and stop the growth of their crops "on command," so to speak. If so, old mother nature will be in the same boat with the rooster. —The final "S" is for surplus property. Which is what that unfortunate rooster may become.

Dear Abby:

DEAR ABBY: I have been happily married for over 20 years to a self-made man who has had very little education. He is doing very well financially. Our sons are of college age, and my husband refuses to encourage them to get a higher education. He says all you need to get along is guts. I don't agree. Do you?

VAN NUYS

DEAR VAN: No. But if "guts" are a factor, an educated man with guts has a much better chance of succeeding than a man with guts alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've been married three and one-half months and I love married life. My husband and I get along fine except for one thing. He doesn't want me to wear a girdle. So far it hasn't bothered me because most of my clothes can be worn without one. But with summer coming on, I'll be wearing last summer's clothes and they all have straight skirts. I can't wear a straight skirt without a girdle. My husband says I don't need a girdle, but I feel sloppy without one. When I wear a girdle, my husband doesn't talk to me for a day. I love my husband and want to please him, but this has me stumped. I don't know why he is so against girdles.

GIRDLE TROUBLE

DEAR TROUBLE: Tell your husband that you FEEL better in a girdle and, furthermore, he can wear what he wants to under his clothes, and you'll do the same. Stay FIRM on that. (Maybe he was fascinated by a bowl of gelatin when he was a baby.)

DEAR ABBY: Is there anything wrong with a father kissing his son, or son kissing his father? I'm almost eight years old and I can't remember ever seeing my father kiss him. My husband says, "Men don't kiss boys—it's effeminate." It's heart-breaking to see our little four-year-old daughter getting hugs and kisses from her Daddy, while the little boy watches with tears in his eyes. The boy is a fine, well-behaved child. He idolizes his father, but the resentment he is building up toward his father because of all the affection her father lavishes on her is terrible. Please tell me, Abby, do you think it is so wrong for a father to kiss his son?

A MOTHER

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

In his prime, the late P. Hal Sims stood three inches over six feet and weighed 350 pounds. He stood even taller among bridge players and in the late twenties was unquestionably the best auction bridge player in the world.

He carried his supremacy over into the first days of contract, but refused to concede that scientific bidding was necessary.

His jump to seven no-trump was typical of his slam bidding but the contract was a good one. He had 13 top tricks and could make the 13th easily if spades broke three-three. Failing that he could still fall back on a finesse for the king of hearts.

If you look at all the cards,

It looks like a case of one peek being worth a lot more than two finesses but Hal plucked that king just as easily as if he had looked in his opponent's hand.

It was all a matter of counting. He started by noting that West held exactly two spades. Next came the parade of diamonds and when West showed out on the third diamond lead, Hal had counted exactly 12 of his cards and knew that the other one was a heart.

On the last diamond lead East had to discard down to one heart in order to hang on to the jack of spades. Hal discarded his deuce of spades and made the last two tricks with the ace and queen of hearts without caring about the location of the king.

you will see that West holds the singleton king of hearts and that sales don't break.

We The Women:

By Mrs. Mariel Lawrence
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Two astounding statements recently emerged from the leadership of Mississippi's White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

They are: "Through Christ, our Lord and Savior, the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi is spiritually connected with our Klan brethren of Alabama... our purpose is to preserve Christianity."

Speaking, dear reader, is the leadership of hoodlums who, according to good authority, are responsible for murders, beatings, burnings, and bombings in their state last spring, summer and fall.

For Jesus, the man you'll recall, who said, "This is my commandment: that ye love one another as I have loved you".

These being days when everybody marches in protest against injustices done to other people, I'm tempted to march myself on these White Knights in protest against the outrage they do to Jesus. I asked Dr. Angus Hull, executive secretary of the New York City Baptist Societies, to comment on Klan efforts in behalf of the preservation of Christianity. He said: "If they succeed, they will destroy it."

And you know, it's just possible that they and their like might do just exactly that.

Jesus has survived an awful mess of Christians. He's survived the Christians of the Spanish Inquisition who tortured in his name. He's survived the Crusaders who carried up Moslems in his name. He's survived the Conquistadores who stole the gold of American Indians, looting and maiming in his name. He's survived what hoodlum Christians called "holy wars", the Reformation, Puritan superstition, witchburning, arrogant missionaries—the whole savage catalogue of history's self-styled Christians who committed evil in his name.

Yes, it's just possible that this century will destroy Christianity. Because it's a very angry century. Here at home, as well as in Islam's Africa and in Buddhist and Hindu Asia, there are millions of people who love to point at history's hoodlum Christians and say, "See, that's what your Jesus produced!"

Those statements made by the leadership of Mississippi's White Knights are dangerous to Jesus — more cruel than ever was Pilate. They encourage hate of Jesus.

TV Time Previews

- 8:30 p.m. CBS. Perry Mason. "The Case of the Lonely Explorer." (Herun) An interesting performance by Jane Taylor as an introvert accused of killing her aunt (Jorja Curjwright) after the aunt thwarts her elopement with a "Fortune Hunter," very well played by Jack Glig. Perry Mason defends the helpless girl, and the real killer is a last-minute surprise.
- 8:30-9:30 p.m. NBC. Dr. Kildare. "The Chemistry of Anger." (Herun) Guest star Rip Torn snarls his way sullenly through the largely unsympathetic rule of a brilliant but almost unhuman resident. There's the inevitable clash of personalities with the cow-like Kildare and the expected moment of truth at the end.
- 9:30 p.m. ABC. Bewitched. "Eat at Mario's." It finally happens! Samantha finds herself in a competitive advertising situation with husband Darrin and, with Endora on her side, poor Darrin doesn't stand a chance. But, Sam relents and before the show is over everyone is pulling together, pushing the benefits of pizza. Cute show, but if you're on a diet, careful. Some of that Italian cooking is fattening just to hear about.
- 10-11 p.m. CBS. The Defenders. "The Star-Spangled Ghetto." (Herun) This episode propounds the theme of just how responsible is society for the unhelpful actions of our youth. Though it's extremely well written (series creator Reginald Rose did the script) and acted with distinction (Ossie Davis plays a prosecutor and Richard Jordan and Kathleen Widows play a couple of socially irresponsible teenagers with an out) this is a stacked deck story suggesting, as so many others in the series have, that everyone is guilty except the perpetrators of a crime.

Beauty after Forty

EDYTH THORNTON McLEOD

"My sister, who reduced by your 'Figure Perfection Diet,' says it was her determination which made her follow the diet. I have no will power and am therefore, at 48, so heavy I look awful. If I get a copy and eat what is shown, at times, would it still help? I eat at restaurants at lunch time and I do have a cocktail every day.—M.N."

Yes, it is a matter of determination when you stick to a diet. You know you should not eat certain foods and a drink at lunch is bad for you. Your health is so important that I cannot understand why you do not go on a diet. You would look so much younger and feel so much better. If you are 20% overweight, it is very dangerous to your health and, yes, happiness. If you want a

Seniors Perform Volunteer Tasks

By Dottie Austin
(Second of Three)
The giving of one's self, one's time, talents and capabilities in unpaid service to others is one of the most rewarding ways in which people who have reached retirement age continue to be active, useful and needed.

Hundreds of "senior citizens" of this area daily perform volunteer tasks in services for which no organization, individual or institution could afford to pay.

Often their efforts go unheralded and unnoticed except for the gratitude and appreciation of those to whom the helping hand is extended.

Senior Citizens Month, the month of May, is an excellent time for clubs, organizations, communities and individuals to honor the vast army of volunteers — people who care enough to "do something" about whatever it is that needs to be done.

Each person, doing their part to help, adds up to a volume of service that could not possibly be chronicled, were this newspaper to run a full page daily enumerating the helping hands of the Good Samaritans.

We can only touch lightly here on the untold story of many, many senior citizens, who when they eventually depart the mortal world will leave behind them the greatest form of immortality—the gift of self.

One of the most outstanding senior citizens of this area is Mrs. Frank C. Woodruff, of DeBary, founder and executive secretary of the Seminole Memorial Hospital Eye Bank, called SHEBA.

Touched and inspired when she learned that it is possible for a portion of the eyes of a deceased person to be transplanted to a living blind person, Mrs. Woodruff set about single-handedly to spread this good news to others and through concentrated, relentless effort, to establish the first eye bank in this area.

Today, after only a few years, Mrs. Woodruff and other volunteers whom she rallied to the cause, have persuaded more than 800 persons to will their eyes after death so that the living might have the gift of sight.

Untriting in her efforts to further this thrilling cause, Mrs. Woodruff devotes untold hours to the administration of the Eye Bank Association. She has received the wholehearted co-operation of the Sanford and Casselberry Lions Clubs, but to this dedicated senior citizen must go the most earnest praise, for it is she who "lifted high the torch" bearing out the philosophy of Christ that "it is better to light one little candle, than to curse the darkness."

Bridge Club Has Master Point Game

DeBary Duplicate Bridge Club had 15 tables in play for Tuesday's master point game. Mrs. Robert Nicholls directed.

Winners were, NS, first, Mrs. Edith Hawley and Dr. R. R. Rosborough; second, a tie, Mrs. Jody Bunnell and Mrs. F. E. Anderson and Mrs. Ida B. Wilson and Mrs. J. D. Cordell; fourth, Mrs. O. N. Lackey and Mrs. Edwin Wichter; fifth, Mrs. R. F. Scudder and Mrs. William Hibbard.

EW, first, Mrs. Frank Matheson and E. Z. Walter; second, Mrs. Doyle Driver and William Woodlock; third, Mrs. William Woodlock and Mrs. Loris Weeks; fourth, Mrs. Elia Unkle and Mrs. Frank Heider; fifth, Mrs. Mildred Heister and Mrs. Dolores Finn.

Winners for the month of May were, first, Dr. Rosborough; second, Mrs. Loretta Munson; third, E. Z. Walter; fourth, Mrs. Edna Kelly; fifth, Mrs. W. B. Cook, sixth, Mrs. Ruth Blatt.

Eight Left
LOWELL, Mass. (UPI) — A cat laid one of its nine lives on the line early today when fire erupted in a row of three-story buildings. The cat leaped safely to the ground from a top-floor window.

The candle Mrs. Woodruff has lit will light the way for thousands of people who are now blind, but who someday will open their eyes on a new world of light and beauty.

"I cannot conceive what this hospital and other hospitals across the country would do without the devoted services of the Hospital Auxiliary—the Pink Ladies," said Robert Besserer, administrator of the Seminole Memorial Hospital.

"We could never even begin to pay for the services they render," he added.

Selling a brisk pace for several hundred of these compassionate ladies, pert and pretty in their pink uniforms and white blouses, is Mrs. M. Van Brackle.

This 82-year-old pixie told the reporter who interviewed her at her tasks in the Hospital Shop.

"I don't consider myself a senior citizen—I don't like that title. I may look different on the outside but inside, I'm just the same as I always have been and I have always tried to do whatever I could to help."

Chuckling, she confided that she goes for a swim every day in a neighbor's pool.

"It's not my pool and so I don't have to take care of it. I can just jump in and swim around, then get out and go home," she said with an impish grin.

Not all the Pink Ladies have a nice neighbor with a pool, but all of them are nice neighbors themselves—in the time-honored tradition of good neighbors around the world who feel deep sympathy and compassion for the sick and ailing and offer their services to do whatever they may, bearing out another Christian principle, "I was sick and ye visited me."

Along these same lines of caring for the sick is the life story of Dr. Gertrude Welton, of DeBary, who recently received the Distinguished Alumna Award at the centennial celebration of St. Margaret's School for Girls in Waterbury, Conn.

Dr. Welton first started out as a teacher on a Navajo Indian Reservation in Idaho, and later returned to her studies as one of two women graduates in a class of 72 medical students from the University of Michigan medical school in 1910.

She served at the clinical laboratories and X-ray departments of Nassau Hospital in New York; Beverly Hospital, Mass. and the Polyclinic Hospital in New York until in 1918 she joined the staff of New City Bureau of Laboratories as bacteriologist-in-charge.

When Dr. Welton retired in 1936 she moved to DeBary where she helped form the DeBary Concert Orchestra and serves as its librarian, is a member of the Woman's Club Dance and Glee Club and a Democratic committee woman. She also works with the Audubon Society, Garden Club and St. Anne's Guild.

"How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of them that bringeth good tidings."

Two senior citizens, of Sanford, Judge R. W. Ware, 83, and Mrs. W. P. Chapman, 71, have "brought the good tidings" to hundreds of persons in the many years they have taught Sunday School classes at First Methodist Church.

Judge Ware's 38 years of teaching the Gospel and Mrs. Chapman's 40 years total more than three quarters of a century of dedicated service, Sunday after Sunday with the members of the Men's Bible Class and the Truthseekers, the women's Bible class.

Recently these two were honored by members of their church at a dinner, along with Mrs. Richard Friedle, 75, a former school teacher, who recently volunteered to assist Mrs. Chapman with her duties, taking over the class every other Sunday.

Most important of all, Mrs. Chapman and Judge Ware not only are dedicated teachers, but also are living examples of the precepts that they expound each Sabbath, humble, loving, servants of the Lord.

It has often been said that one can feel closer to God in a garden than in any other place, because the Lord created a garden before he created people.

Gardening is an act of creating — planting a seed, nurturing it and watching that which seemed dead spring to new life and bear fruit so that it's own life shall continue.

One of this area's most dedicated and most successful gardeners is Mrs. Charles Cole, of Geneva. This venerable lady carries home "baskets full" of first, second and third place ribbons from every garden show that is ever held in the community, as well as in the district and the state.

She is said to have two "green thumbs," but Mrs. Cole laughs and says they are "just dirty thumbs from digging in the earth."

One of the original founders of the Sanford Garden Club, this sprightly lady was recently honored with a life time membership.

But she doesn't rest on her laurels—only a few weeks ago she was busy trudging all over the country-side, begging, wheedling and cajoling to get donations of plants, fertilizer, mulch and other necessary ingredients with which to landscape the new Garden Club Center building in time for the dedication ceremonies.

Having acquired them, she personally directed the exact planting of each shrub and

The surpassing beauty of many of the lovely yards and grounds of homes through out the area are a result of the work of garden clubbers, whose clubs are the direct result of the seed that was the dream of the Sanford Garden Club which Mrs. Cole helped to plant many years ago.

One of the groups which does much to make the lives of senior citizens of the area fuller, happier and more meaningful is the American Association of Retired Persons in DeBary, all "senior citizens" themselves.

President is Mrs. Charles Ulrich, a former social worker who is past president of the Auxiliary to the Volunteer Firemen, a member of the Women's Club and Stamp Club.

Mrs. Ulrich has helped with the library, the blood bank, the youth committee, the emergency committee and many other civic associations.

A former Brooklyn lawyer, Harry Bell, arranges bus trips to points of interest around the state for retired persons.

He is also active in the Methodist Church and civic life of the community.

Mrs. John Ehetsch, a former bookkeeper, secretary of the AARP, has made over 30 trips in the past year to area hospitals transporting people who cannot drive.

Elmer Crumbacher, treasurer of the club, uses his knowledge to give free advice to all who ask about insurance problems.

In every civic organization (except the Jaycees who have an age limit of 35) in every church, club, social and fraternal group can be found busy, active senior citizens.

Their wisdom, experience and abilities prove invaluable assets in helping to chart the course of group activities, community projects and civic endeavors.

Dividend Of 100% Declared By Eckerd

Jack M. Eckerd, president and chairman of the board of Eckerd Drugs of Florida, Inc., announced a record-breaking year at the end of the fiscal year, April 3. Total sales of $23,054,765 as compared to the year before when sales were $17,105,824, a per share earnings of $3.05, as compared to $1.72 the previous year.

JACK ECKERD

On May 14, the board of directors of Eckerd Drugs of Florida, Inc., declared a 100 per cent stock dividend on common stock to stockholders of record as of the close of business June 8.

The cash dividend on common stock payable on June 22 to shareholders of record as of the close of business on June 8, was increased from seven-and-one-half-cents to 10 cents per share per quarter, on shares outstanding after the 100 percent stock dividend.

"We are certainly pleased," said Eckerd, "to have our faith in Florida's future so well demonstrated. We have added eight Eckerd Drug Stores this past year. New, quality-economy stores, geared to meet the ever-increasing needs of our customers."

Commenting on the constantly improving service offered customers by the employees of Eckerd's, Eckerd added, "The record year has enabled the company to contribute $111,000 to the employee profit-sharing trust fund, almost double the amount contributed last year. This trust fund is presently shared by 301 employees."

areas and attractions in Florida during the summer vacation season.

As its part in the program, the Eckerd firm will promote a month-long photo contest during June with prizes to be all-expense paid vacations in St. Petersburg. Major co-operation has been obtained from the new, plush Gulf Lane Motel-Boatel on Indian Rocks Beach. All winners will be hosted by this resort facility according to Ed Hickey, general manager.

Florida Youth Writes His Own Garden Of Verse

FT. WALTON BEACH — (UPI) — Joe Potter Jr. is just about like any other eight-year-old boy.

He goes swimming. He plays baseball. He collects things. He's an active third grader.

But the world is comparatively new to Joe and everything is fascinating to him—nature, animals, mud, boys and girls.

Unlike other third graders, Joe sat down recently and began writing of his experiences, his likes and dislikes. Joe writes verse, like this entitled "Boys":

Boys are made for climbing walls,
Boys are made for taking falls,
Boys are made for fixing bikes,
Boys are made for their dilikes,
Boys are made for being boys,
And not little love toys.
Or this, aptly called "Mud":
Mud is greasy slime,
Mixed with some black grime.

It is just wet dirt,
That can get on your skirt.
It's really a big mess,
Always on your pretty dress.

While adults take many things for granted, experiences make an impact on Joe, who wrote "Farms":

Farms have pigs and hens,
Farms have a nest of wrens,
Farms have hay and oats,
And mad of 'billy goats,
It's more than dirt and sand
It is the promised land.

When Joe grows up, he won't be a fireman or a policeman or anything like that. His mind is made up.

"I'm going to be minister and a poet," he said.

Legion Unit Wins Honors

By Jane Casselberry

Honors were won by American Legion Auxiliary Memorial Unit 256 of Casselberry at the Department of Florida convention held last weekend in Tampa.

Delegate Mrs. Kenneth Green won first place and a cash prize for the attractive centerpiece which she designed using veteran's poppies.

The unit history compiled by Mrs. Joseph Claszewski, historian, won first place and a citation.

A special citation and a cash award was presented for the prebook entered by Mrs. Leonard Casselberry, prebook chairman.

The Auxiliary meet was held at the Sheraton Tampa Motor Inn.

Kenneth Green was delegate from Post 256 at the state Legion convention held at the Floridian Hotel.

State Road Department announced in Tallahassee this afternoon, according to UPI, that Mac Asphalt Company, on its low bid of $66,331, was awarded the contract to resurface SR 415 (13th Street-Celery Avenue) from French Avenue to the Sanford east city limits and SR 436 from a point south of Casselberry east and south to a point near Goldenrod.

The Clock is still trying to recover from the avalanche of calls about our picture of Sanford's "mystery man." Charlie Morrison refuses to tell us when the picture was made but it was after the invention of the telephone.

A membership drive will be held during July for the Ginderville Volunteer Fire Department, according to Mrs. Rex Hays.

The Ginderville firemen are ready to serve all residents of South Sanford and people in the area are strongly urged to support the organization. Last week the department assisted in putting out two fires — one a large woods fire on Highway 46, two miles east of the Geneva bridge.

Meeting nights of the Ginderville firemen are the second Thursday and fourth Monday of each month.

Eyeball To Eyeball

Sanford is a good place to live but the city has no image, no identity. It has no noteworthy attractions for tourists.

Among Florida's most interesting cities it rates near the bottom of the list.

Even native Floridians, in other sections of the state, some times are hard-pressed to tell you where the city is located.

"Oh, that's between Orlando and Daytona."

"There's a big lake there, isn't there?"

"Is that on the St. Johns?"

Some tourists used to be funneled through Sanford whether they liked it or not. Now, Interstate 4 whisks them around the city in a few minutes.

If by chance the motorists happen to glance sideways while crossing the bridge, they may get a faraway look at our city 'way up there on the lake.

It is not good to be recalled as a mere by-path on the road to cities of well-known identification and well-established images.

But all this is changing.

Our image is taking shape.

Our identification is in the making.

The Lake Monroe Development Project is off the drawing board and ready for launching.

Definite, painstaking, concrete steps taken recently by our City Commission, our County Commission and our state legislators can assure us of a bright future. A future than can hold unlimited opportunities.

Sanford need no longer be the forgotten city where the word "progress" was a tongue-twister and where growth was always undertaken at a snail's pace.

Our biggest assets, the St. Johns and Lake Monroe, have been standing by for years on end. We have been content to let it be.

But our lake could be a jewel and our river a necklace.

The time for action has come and our officials are now eyeball to eyeball with reality.

It has been a fruitful year so far. Planning takes months, even years. In the days ahead we should reap the harvest of the past labors of a lot of hardworking and progressive-thinking people.

We congratulate everyone who has had a part in taking our dream and forging it into a fact of tomorrow.

HHFA Directs

Canal To Detail Powers

By Paul Brookshire

The St. Johns-Indian River Canal District board of directors Thursday voted to amend a legislative act under which it was set up so the district can qualify for funds from the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

The HHFA notified the district that its powers must be spelled out in more detail before it can approve a $54,000 loan to the district.

The district's board of directors, which met here Thursday, is seeking the loan to complete an engineering report on the proposed canal.

Chairman John Krider said the HHFA did not reject or approve the canal's application but said it must be resubmitted for consideration.

The HHFA said the current act under which the canal district was set up did not contain any authority to construct the canal or obtain rights-of-way.

The directors promptly voted to amend the act to include such authority. The district's attorney, Mack N. Cleveland Jr., also state senator, is expected to introduce the amendment in the Florida Legislature Monday.

The amendment will give the canal district power to contract with the Florida Canal Authority to build the canal.

The HHFA also informed the district that it would consider application for a loan for construction of the entire canal if no other means are available and if there is an acceptable means of repaying the loan.

In other action, the district's board of directors approved a payment of $15,000 to Reynolds, Smith and Hills, architects and engineers, for a preliminary engineering survey of the canal. Also approved was a $4,000 plus interest payment to the trustees of the Florida Internal Improvement Fund.

Krider informed the directors that the State Road Department's budget for 1965-66 includes an item of $10,000 for survey of a road paralleling the canal.

Two minor changes in canal alignment also were discussed and the board agreed to pay expenses to send Krider to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress Conference in Washington next month.

LEE P. Moore, member of the board for seven years, has been appointed to the newly created position of executive vice president-general manager of Chase and Company, effective Aug. 1. He will be in the office beginning Tuesday. A native of Palmetto, Moore is married to the former Anne Wiggins, daughter of M. S. Wiggins, sales manager-director of the Chase firm for many years.

'Walk In Space' Flight Delayed

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — A planned attempt to rocket two U. S. astronauts on a record four-day flight to conduct America's first "walk in space" June 3 has been postponed.

The launching of rookie astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White may be delayed as much as one week — to about June 10.

St. Johns Traffic On Increase

One-way water traffic on the St. John River from Jacksonville to Lake Harney averages about 677,300 tons a year, the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers revealed today in its latest report.

The 1963 traffic on the 160-mile stretch was 569,000 tons.

Increase in traffic tonnage on the St. Johns waterway is sparse with inland waterways traffic patterns in other parts of the nation.

The year 1964 was a record year for waterborne commerce, according to the latest figures of the Army Engineers. An all-time high of 1.2 billion tons of freight was carried by water.

This was 72 million tons, or 6.2 per cent more than the previous peak recorded in 1963.

By far the greatest tonnage (456 million tons) was carried on inland waterways.

Boat Works To Build Boat Capital Pictured

Lakefront Development Is Outlined

A program to develop the shores of Lake Monroe into a facility that will make Sanford the recreational boating capital of Central Florida was revealed today in a spectacular color drawing.

(An abridged color version of the Lakefront Development Project is carried elsewhere in today's edition of The Herald.)

The actual 9-3-foot drawing by Architect James G. Chapman will be on display Saturday at Roumillat & Anderson Drugs at First Street and Park Avenue. Architect John A. Burton IV was a consultant for the design.

The rendering, financed by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Florida State Bank and Sanford Atlantic National Bank, will be on display at other locations in the downtown area within the next few days.

The drawing outlines the proposed marina project, the motel-boatel-restaurant complex, Lake Monroe causeway and Port of Sanford. It also envisions the relocation of the Municipal Zoo and tank farms and complete beautification of the lakefront.

Rep. S. J. Davis Jr. informed The Herald this morning he had introduced and pre-filed in the House a measure creating the "Port Authority of Seminole County." Directors, under the supervision of the Seminole County Commission, would operate the "Port of Sanford."

The City of Sanford is moving ahead with the lakefront program. The city's fiscal agent Leedy, Wheeler, Allen and Associates, of Orlando, already are preparing the bond ordinance for the city to issue revenue certificates for the first phase of construction, estimated to cost $800,000.

Negotiations are now under way to determine what private capital would be interested in providing a top flight, quality motel with restaurant and small convention facilities.

The city will provide the location, land and lakefront facilities for the motel complex.

The construction of the marina area will be carried out in stages. In the first phase the city will bulkhead, fill and provide services for a 15-acre tract on which the motel-boatel complex would be constructed.

The city also would provide marina facilities for the area such as docks, floats and ramps to serve nearly 150 boats in the first stage. Eventually a 30-acre landfill is planned with 2,000 boat berths.

Plans also call for the relocation of the zoo and tank farms with shopping areas to take their places.

HAROLD SLAMA, with one of his Cobia boats, today announced a $300,000 expansion of the Southern Fiber Glass Products on Silver Lake Drive off South Sanford Avenue. (Herald Photo)

$300,000 Cost Pictured By Southern Co.

Sanford - Seminole Development Company today announced the expansion of Southern Fiber Glass Products, Inc. to one of the larger industrial manufacturing complexes in Central Florida.

The boat company has contracted to purchase its present building of 30,000 square feet in Sanford Industrial Park.

The development company also will construct an adjacent building of 40,000 square feet for boat manufacturing.

Southern Fiber Glass will move its entire operations into the new complex from Orlando.

It is estimated that the expansion project will cost in excess of $300,000.

Southern Fiber Glass presently is producing the fiber glass Cobia boat. Twelve boats up to the 17-foot category are being produced daily at the Sanford plant. The company also is producing three to four larger craft daily at its Orlando plant.

President Harold Slama, of Southern Fiber Glass, said that combining the two operations will improve production and centralize the company's operations.

The expansion in Sanford will mean employment at the Cobia plant will increase from the present 83 employees to 150. At the peak of production, approximately 200 persons will be employed, Slama said.

Slama said he was very pleased with the local labor situation and that was an important factor in the expansion plans here.

Negotiations for the expansion deal were handled by Sanford - Seminole Development Company, of which Clifford McKibbin is president, the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce's industrial committee headed by Scott Burns, and Howard Hodges, president of Sanford Atlantic National Bank.

"We are very pleased to announce the expansion of the Southern Fiber Glass operations here," McKibbin said. "It will be a big asset to our community."

The Sanford - Seminole Development Company's board of directors also announced its third annual dividend of 60 cents a share on company stock.
