Sanity of McCoy Is To Be Determined

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—Kid McCoy, former pugilist, charged with the murder of Mrs. Theresa Mora on Aug. 12, was visited at the county jail today by alienists instructed to determine the truth of reports that the alleged slayer was going insane. According to attendants, McCoy has been writing letters to the woman he is accused of shooting and on several occasions has asked permission to call her on the telephone.

SHAVEN STATES WAR VETERANS WILL BACK DAVIS

Also Attacks Coolidge For Failure To Reduce Sugar Tariff And For Not Prosecuting Charles R. Forbes

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—In three statements given out through party headquarters here Thursday, Democratic National Chairman Shaver criticized President Coolidge's failure to reduce the sugar tariff, accused the Department of Justice of delaying the prosecution of Charles R. Forbes, and predicted that John W. Davis would be supported overwhelmingly by veterans of the Civil and World Wars.

The president, Mr. Shaver said, in his first statement, apparently intends to delay action on the sugar tariff until after election, with a continuing heavy loss to the country, the chairman declared the summing up.

Discussing the Forbes indictment, Shaver said the case brought against him in Maryland and was postponed in Chicago until Nov. 24. Thus, he said, the case had been "postponed at the instance of the Coolidge administration until after election."

"This effort of the Coolidge administration to prevent the trial of the Forbes cases in the closing days of the campaign," he continued, "is in direct contradiction to the promises that President Coolidge gave the people last February when he was making a political speech before the National Republican Club in New York. Referring to the numerous instances of corruption in the administration then under public discussion, President Coolidge said:

"There will be immediate, adequate, unshrinking prosecution, criminal and civil, to punish the guilty and to protect every national interest."

"Now the Department of Justice whose head is a member of the president's cabinet, on its own initiative and despite the objections of the attorneys for Forbes, has delayed the trial of this former Republican official.

"The explanation is probably to be found in the fear of the Republican administration that the faithful management of the Veterans Bureau will be revealed in the testimony.

"President Coolidge could have prevented the postponement of the Forbes trial in the court at Baltimore. He had control, through his attorney general, of the local district attorney. But he is evidently not willing in this specific instance to make good the promises he uttered in his political speech eight months ago."

Declaring that "three out of four service men and women of the World War and two out of three veterans of the Civil War," are supporting John W. Davis, Mr. Shaver said in his third statement that thousands of dollars were being spent by the Republicans to develop a Republican service league and to win votes from LaFollette by attacking his war record."

KLAN STAND IS REITERATED BY JOHN W. DAVIS

Will Make Several Speeches in Chicago Tonight; Says Illinois To Go Democratic

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—John W. Davis carried the Democratic presidential campaign further into Chicago today and prepared, after a series of addresses scheduled for tonight in the Bohemian, Polish and Jewish sections of this city, to turn south again, headed this time for St. Louis, Illinois and Missouri.

The Democratic presidential candidate opened a two days stay with an address last night at the Auditorium theatre where, facing an audience of several thousand, he renewed stress upon what he characterized as the necessity for "good government from the ground up."

The official report of Mr. Davis' remarks on the Ku Klux Klan said in part: "In my judgment no great misfortune could overtake the American people than the division along lines of race or religious beliefs and that whether it be called the Klan or any other name, any organization that cherishes doctrines of religious intolerance, does violence to American ideals and could not be approved by those who believe like myself in those principles."

In his speech Thursday night Mr. Davis told his audience that it was "solemn business that calls us together here tonight."

"It is a solemn errand on which I have been sent," he declared.

The Democratic candidate said the quadrennial decision the people were called upon to make were always fraught with serious responsibility and consequences. He reviewed the political situations which Abraham Lincoln and Woodrow Wilson faced during the Civil and World wars and asked who would have thought when these two presidents were elected that decision of world-wide and national importance would be made by them.

At this point a man yelled from the rear of the audience:

"Mr. Davis, what is your stand on the Ku Klux Klan?"

Mr. Davis replied amid questions. "Mr. Davis replied amid cries of 'sit down, sit down.'"

"If the gentleman had been a consistent leader of the daily press he would not have overlooked the fact that in the first speech I made in the campaign I answered that question."

"I then said that any organization, whether it was called the Klan or by any other name which does violence to the principles of the constitution and the constitution."

"But the gentleman must permit me to add something more. At that same time I ventured to express the hope that the nominee of the Republican party would join me in a similar expression. I suggest that the gentleman's question is addressed to the wrong quarter."

Haggard Is Named Head Sanford Post American Legion

A. P. Haggard, was elected post commander of the Campbell Post of the American Legion in Sanford following a vote at a banquet held at the Semmore Cafe last night for the express purpose of electing new officers for the ensuing year. Mr. Haggard succeeds Percy A. Mero.

Other officers named for the year 1925 were as follows: Vice Post Commander, James Huff; Adjutant, Lloyd Bebout; Historian, Reginald S. Holly; Master at Arms, Thomas Meredith; Chaplain, W. S. Coleman.

The meeting was opened by Commander Mero, who briefly explained the purpose of the gathering and commented on the necessity for a more elaborate celebration of Armistice Day than have ever been observed here before.

In this connection Mr. Stewart was introduced as the representative of a company that plans to install a novel system of street decorating here consisting of five sockets placed along the curbing on both sides of First street at 25 feet intervals. It was pointed out that this system would prove invaluable in decorating the street upon short notice for parades and celebrations. It was said that Miami, Tampa and most of the larger towns in the state had adopted this method of street decorating and found it very satisfactory.

The plans that were adopted for the celebration of Armistice Day here include a street parade, a football classic, a dance and fireworks in addition to many other novel features of entertainment. It was also announced at the meeting that work had been recommended on the new Legion building and that the structure is expected to be completed sometime in the near future.

Tampa and Mt. Dora Roads Are Now Open to Public; DeLand Road Much Worse

The Tampa and Mount Dora roads from this city are open to traffic and in good condition, according to reports received here today by the Chamber of Commerce. It was said that a temporary bridge has been built in the vicinity of Kissimmee where washouts occurred and that it is being used today.

Warning has been received that the north end of the Lake Monroe bridge is nearly two feet under water and that motorists are warned that they must pass over it at their own risk. All passing over the road at this point are advised to go slowly for the water is said to be swirling over the road running through it too fast may drown the motorist. In every case it urged that utmost caution be taken.

The DeLand road from the bridge to DeLand is said to be in a very bad condition and at several places considerable caution must be exercised because of water and mud holes. Although attempts have been made in several places by the county to ding the road, it is still in poor condition.

Mud Hole at Junction. Especially are motorists warned by Volusia officials to avoid a dangerous mud hole which has formed near the water tank of the Kissimmee branch of the Florida East Coast Railroad at Enterprise Junction. By maneuvering carefully, it was learned, the mud hole may be avoided and all kinds of traffic is warned to be on the lookout for this spot.

On the brick road north of DeLand there are reported numerous water and mud holes of which travelers are further warned. Although the water is subsiding in that section, the road is still partly under water and extreme care must be taken in going over it.

The remainder of the road to Daytona is reported to be in fairly good condition. Points on the lower east coast may be reached via that city by going in easy stages to the south from it. A number of bad detours are reported on the coast roads by the State Road Department. This organization, however, is keeping several maintenance crews at work to help any motorists who may be unfortunate enough to get stuck in the bad places.

REV. BURHANS TO GIVE UP MINISTRY HERE NOVEMBER 1

Pastor of Congregational Church Will Leave, Work Here To Return To Former Home At Fort Myers

Rev. Paul C. Burhans, for four years pastor of the Congregational Church, yesterday announced his intention of resigning his pastorate here and returning to his former home at Fort Myers, where he will take over a small community church and attempt to regain his health by observing a long period of rest.

Rev. Burhans came to Florida five years ago, broken in health from his mission work in the northwest, and located at Fort Myers with the intention of never assuming duties of a minister again, but his health became so improved that he could not resist the call of his profession, and two years later he again assumed the duties of a pastor at a small church near his home.

His health continued to improve and he accepted an invitation to take over a large parish at Austin, Tex., where he remained for 14 months before his health again failed and he found it necessary to return to Florida, where his health once more became much improved.

After remaining for several months in Fort Myers, Rev. Burhans accepted a call here. He has endeavored himself to many citizens of Sanford who view his departure with deep regret.

In speaking of Sanford and her citizens, Rev. Burhans characterized his stay here as "one of the most pleasant experiences in my ministerial life," and stated that he is deeply regretted the fact that his failing health made it necessary for him to resign his duties at the Congregational Church.

"The people here have been lovely," he said, "I love them all, Baptists, Presbyterians, Methodists, Episcopalians and all of them, and shall always remember my stay here as one of the most pleasant periods of my life."

In discussing service, Rev. Burhans said that he was satisfied only when rendering the best aid possible to remain as head of a church after failing health made it impossible for him to render the high order of service that the people had a right to expect.

Rev. Burhans has spent practically his whole life in the advancement of religious work, having delivered his first sermon when but 19 years of age.

The first 10 years of his active ministerial work were spent among the wilds of the northwest in mission work, and it was during this period of his life that overwork brought on illness that has since developed to such an extent that physicians have ordered him to return to his quiet home at Fort Myers and rest.

DEMOCRATS OF FLORIDA ASKED FOR SUPPORT

William Jennings Bryan In Statement To Voters Asks For Funds To Carry On Fight In Doubtful States

Sounds Optimistic Note For His Party

But Declares That It Is Up To Democrats In Florida And South To Give Aid

In a prepared statement sent out to the Democratic voters of Florida, William Jennings Bryan, who is at present campaigning for the Democratic national ticket in the west, makes an urgent appeal for financial support to carry on the campaign in doubtful states.

In his statement, the Great Commoner gives expression to an optimistic view of the Democratic chances for victory but declares that money is greatly needed at this time to meet the heavy expenses of carrying the party fight into those states which are being contested next.

In a statement, Mr. Bryan further says:

"The national committee needs money; our campaign fund is very small and our campaign necessities very large. We have no large newspapers in the north to speak of, while the Republicans are abundantly supplied. The Republican newspapers are engaged today in a nation-wide conspiracy to belittle the Democratic candidates and their chances and the Democrats are not in position to expose and counteract the misrepresentations through literature. Every Democrat who is interested, as every Democrat should be, in the success of our national ticket, should, therefore, subscribe liberally and at once."

"That the readers may know that I am not neglecting to make a contribution myself, I will add, in pardon me, that I am giving six weeks of my time to the national campaign, and paying my own traveling expenses. I would remain in Florida and speak for Mr. Martin and the rest of the state and Congressional ticket, if they needed me, but as they do not, I am on my way north and will speak in the agricultural states of the Middle West until the night before the election. I want to render the maximum of service to the national ticket by speaking in the contested states until election day. I have paroled with a Republican of Miami, so that my vote will not be lost."

"Every Democrat Should Vote."

"Every Democrat in Florida should go to the polls and vote so that our state will do its part in swelling the total vote and every one who can should contribute whether he is able to contribute much or little. Every Democratic voter in Florida should have a part in the victory for which we are striving. We owe it to our State, Congressional and county ticket, as well as to the national party, to be at the polls on election day."

"Assuming that the Democrats of Florida will be interested in a report of the campaign, based upon my personal observations in the

Altamonte Springs Will Have Block Of Modern Stores

Ground was broken Thursday by A. B. Bell, of Nashville, Tenn., for a block of modern stores with apartments on the upper floors at the corner of Sanford and Altamonte Avenues. On the south end of town a new store, filling station and garage will be built, according to several reports at once on the Ballard property, and the new hotel on Frank Heathcox's Suburb Beautiful is practically assured. This project is expected to be financed by a well-known hotel man who has also been made that Mr. Heathcox and his associates will build a block of stores at the corner of Newberryport and Altamonte Avenue early in January, by which time it is expected that a bank will be fully organized and possibly become a part of a well-known southern chain of banks.

Mr. Heathcox is the party who recently bought the E. Bartlett holdings in Altamonte, consisting of approximately 800 acres, which is a part of the famous Lake Aveland property opposite the hotel and completely surrounds Lakes Florida, Marion and Frances. Mr. Heathcox reported that more than 800 lots were sold to the Orlando boys, many of whom expect to build suburban homes in this village.

Five miles of new streets and electric light lines are now under construction. Canals are being opened along the plans of the famous Water Park Canals making boating from one lake to another possible.

One Florida newspaper recently made the statement that Altamonte Springs, now called the "National Hotel,"

Milwaukee Baseball Club Will Train In Sanford Next Spring

Final Arrangements For Team's Stay In This City Are Completed On Thursday

Training Period Will Be 28 Days

Many Games With Big League Clubs To Be Played In Sanford

The Milwaukee "Brewers" of the American Association have been secured to train in Sanford next spring, according to an announcement made Thursday following a conference between representatives of the City Commission, senior and junior Chambers of Commerce and L. M. Nahim, business manager of the team.

Mr. Nahim, who came here upon the invitation of Floyd Palmer representing the Junior Chamber of Commerce, declared that arrangements had been completed to the satisfaction of all parties concerned and that Sanford may look forward to seeing an excellent baseball team here in training during the month of March.

Speaking at the Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon Thursday, Mr. Nahim complimented the city very highly upon its park when he said, "Sanford may well be proud of its baseball park and diamond for it is without doubt the best in the state."

The baseball official further expressed appreciation of the cooperation that had been promised by the team by local business men and declared that Sanford, he feels sure, will make an ideal training ground for a baseball team.

The "Brewers" 27 strong accompanied by a group of newspaper men and their wives, and Mrs. Otto Berchert, will arrive in this city Mar. 10 and 12 and will remain here for a period of 28 days, according to Mr. Nahim. Hotel accommodations have already been secured and other details connected with the club's sojourn here, are to be closed within the next few days.

That Sanford people will be able to see many of the best teams of the country in action during this training season, is the promise of Mr. Nahim, who has declared that scheduled with the following teams training in this state: Washington Nationals, New York Nationals, Cleveland Nationals and Brooklyn Nationals. Mr. Nahim is also trying to arrange games with the Boston Nationals and Columbus or Indianapolis teams of the American Association.

Regarding the argument that may be advanced by some people that in securing a minor league team, Sanford will not see the best class of playing, Mr. Nahim said, "Fans of this city will, on the contrary be able to see a better breed of baseball with the Milwaukee club here than a major league team for the reason that our team will be trying at all times to win its games against the major league clubs whereas two of the big league clubs playing each other would only give exhibition affairs."

Another thing pointed out by Mr. Nahim was that if Sanford had secured the Boston Red Sox, local

Lake Monroe Again Rises Three Inches In 24-Hour Period

As in the case of the water level of Lake Monroe rising three inches in the 24-hour period ending Thursday morning, it again rose three inches during the period ending this morning, according to information received here today.

In a week's time, during the heavy rains, the level of the lake rose three feet. After the rains had stopped it rose about six inches a day for two days, five inches for two days in succession and now has risen three inches for two days in succession. It is expected that the water level will be three inches higher on Saturday morning.

Word was received here today of damage being done in and around several homes and much property bordering on the lake because of high water. It was predicted that the water will continue rising for several days and those who are familiar with conditions here have expressed fear that the continued rise will do more damage than was expected at first.

Many of the roads in and around the St. Johns River territory are said to be in worse and worse condition as the water continues to wash over at low points. It was reported that this morning the Sanford DeLand road was barely passable and that it must be used only at the risk of the driver's motorist.

VESTRY ACCEPTS RESIGNATION OF LOCAL MINISTER

Regret Is Expressed And Praise Given Rector For His Work Here; Receives Gift of $1,200 From Church

At its meeting Wednesday night at the home of H. E. Whitney, Sr., the vestry of the Holy Cross Episcopal Church voted to accept the resignation of Rev. Arthur S. Peck as rector. The action became known today when the vestry made public a set of resolutions drawn by that body in which the resignation was accepted with regret and praise for the rector's work here during the past 12 years, was expressed.

The body tendered the use of the rectory to the minister for his use until May 1, 1925 and also delivered to him a check for $1,200 in appreciation for his "long and faithful service."

The resolutions passed by the vestry were as follows:

"RESOLVED—We, the Vestry of Holy Cross Parish, accept with sincere regret the resignation of our Rector, the Rev. Father Peck, who has served the Parish most joyfully and faithfully for 12 years. We deeply deplore the necessity for change of residence and hope for a speedy recovery to normal health. His life and service among us has left an influence that will be felt for many years to come. His spiritual life is and has been a shining example of the devout Christian Rector and our best wishes go with him in his new field.

The citizens of the city feel most grateful and appreciative of Father Peck's wonderful work among the boys and deeply regret the loss of his leadership and contact with the youth of the city."

"IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED—That senior warden, Mr. Whitney, be requested to personally inform Father Peck that the vestry desires him the rectory for his personal use until May 1, 1925."

"IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED—That senior warden, Mr. Whitney, to draw a check in favor of the Rev. Father Peck in the sum of $1,200 to be delivered to him in appreciation of his long and faithful service. This amount to include regular stipend up to effective date of resignation."

Rev. Peck, who for more than 12 years served as the head of Episcopal church here, left this morning accompanied by his aged mother for Harrisburg, Pa., where he has accepted an invitation to become rector in a large parish of that city.

A large host of friends went to the train to bid good bye to the minister and his mother. Although his resignation is not effective until Jan. 15, Rev. Peck said he felt the necessity of leaving at once because of account of his health and also because of the urgent invitation of the Pennsylvania church to come and assume his duties there at once.

Rev. Peck came to Sanford from Geneva, Ill., where he had been the rector of a church for four years. Prior to that time he had served for six months as chaplain at Panama in the Canal Zone, being stationed there with United States Army engineers. It was while in Panama, that the minister suffered a very severe illness of typhoid fever, which caused him later to resign his duties and return to this country.

Speaking of Rev. Peck's work in Sanford this morning, H. F. Whitmer, senior warden of the church, declared that the rector highly and deservedly had been commended that great strides had been made by the church during the past 12 years.

Mr. Whitney especially praised Rev. Peck for his work among the boys and young men not only in his own church but among those of the entire city. "Sanford will long remember Rev. Peck for his excellent work along this line," declared the warden.

It was during Rev. Peck's ministry, Mr. Whitney pointed out, that the parish house, the brotherhood clubhouse, the bowling alley were constructed and the magnificent pipe organ was installed in the church. Other activities, both in religious and civic affairs, of the minister were praised by Mr. Whitney.

which the federal trade commission reports has profited hugely by the tariff on aluminum written into the Fordney bill. Nor was it binding on Henry F. Lippitt, the Rhode Island cotton mill baron, who gave $10,000 to the 1922 fund, after the Republicans had written enormously high rates on cotton manufactures into the Fordney tariff.

"That Chairman Butler's financiers know how to get around any limitation, whether it be $1,000 or $25,000 has been proven in President Coolidge's own state, Massachusetts, this year, where there is a state statute limiting contributions to $1,000. But tariff-protected mill owners in that state, in appealing to other tariff beneficiaries to subscribe to funds for the campaign of Mr. Coolidge, told prospective contributors that there is no limit to the amount any individual may give to this committee. Large contributions will be so divided as to give full observance to the requirements of the statutes."

"With a limit of $1,000 in 1920 and more than eight million dollars raised and expended through national and state headquarters, what expenditures may be made in 1924, with the limit raised to $25,000?"

Chamber Commerce Receives Inquiries From Ball Clubs

Information was received from the offices of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday to the effect that inquiries as to spring training facilities for baseball teams have been received from the management of four clubs, three of which are members of the International Association and one a member of the American Association.

These are the Jersey City, Buffalo and Baltimore clubs of the International Association and the Milwaukee club of the American Association. Inquiries, it is stated, followed the line of questioning in regard to ball park and housing facilities in Sanford for the various teams. It is understood that several of these class AA clubs are anxious to come to this city next spring for their pre-season training and want to ascertain the accommodations which may be afforded.

It will also be remembered that Floyd Palmer, chairman of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Ball Park Committee, is in receipt of a letter from Bobby Quinn, president of the Boston Red Sox, stating that he expects to be in Sanford during the week or next with President Al Lang of the Florida State League for the purpose of looking over the local municipal athletic field and deciding whether or not Sox will come here to train next Spring.

Local organizations have expressed themselves as being in favor of getting the Boston team to Sanford if possible. It has been decided, however, that if the major league team does not train here, one or more of the class AA or class A clubs will be secured to train in this city.

Prince Of Wales Grand Nephew Of Will Open Famous Franklin Reported Old English Road Found In Nevada

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The announcement that the Prince of Wales, upon returning from his American and Canadian trip, will on Nov. 19 formally open the reconstructed road between Dartford and Strood, draws attention to one of the oldest and most celebrated highways in Europe.

This stretch of road is in reality part of Watling Street, a thoroughfare of great antiquity which still traverses the heart of London and just back of St. Paul's Cathedral to this day bears its ancient name. No one knows how old Watling Street is, but had been long established when the Romans came to Britain two thousand years ago.

The road which today carries the name of Watling Street, the famous Watling Street, which Roman soldiers took when, on conquest, they marched through England, Jewish marauders in their day burned and plundered the country side which it served. Traders from Gaul trod over its stones long before the medieval age, in fact the whole panorama of English history would be unrolled if this ancient way could speak.

Fred Walsh, of Daytona Beach, spent Wednesday in the city, calling on local stores.

SATTLE, Nev., Oct. 16.—Back in the middle ages "Franklin" meant freholder and John Henry Franklin, known to residents of this section as "Long John" and reputed grand nephew of Benjamin Franklin, is running true to form. He is a freholder of a tentative claim site near here and in the summer months lives in a log cabin there, residing in Sattley during the winter.

"Long John" is 68 years old, tall and with hair and beard tinged with grey. He is a bachelor and takes great pride in baking pies and cake. He describes himself as the "black sheep" of an illustrious family and has little faith in the writings of Benjamin Franklin in regard to liquor.

Whereas Benjamin Franklin wrote "Drink water; put the money in your pocket and leave the dry bellyache in the punch bowl," it is his claim of "Long John" that he "can hold his liquor with the best of them."

From the time he was 18 years old until he came to Nevada 12 years ago Franklin wandered about the world, and he recounts among his experiences a trip to Siberia aboard a whaling vessel and imprisonment there by Russians for many months.

This heat is focused right on the cooking

Before you buy an oil range, be sure it answers your one most important question: "Does this stove cook quickly and efficiently?" The right answer is found in the Florence — because it is built on the principle of focused heat.

Florence burners are designed to send the heat straight up through the bottom of the pot, into whatever you're cooking.

The heat of the strong blue flame is focused right where you want it — not thrown out into the room and wasted. This means better cooking — quicker cooking — lower fuel bills.

After you've used the Florence for a while, you just can't help having a friendly feeling for it. It lights so easily — at a turn of the lever. It's so reasonable in its demand for fuel — and it burns one of the cheapest fuels, kerosene. There are no wicks to trim.

The famous Florence Oven takes all the gamble out of baking. Pies and cakes come out evenly baked and browned. Meats roast to just the right turn.

Women like to own the Florence because its sturdy lines promise years of good service, and its jet black frame and shining enamel make any kitchen a happier place to work in.

Honeymoon In Wilderness

Lowell Dunne and wife, Portland, Oer, took an economical honeymoon. Living in the wilderness for a week, with only a jack-knife to provide their living, they won a bet that enabled them to buy all their household furniture. Mrs. Dunne is shown admiring one of the crawfish she caught to stave off starvation, while her husband is spearing a salmon.

Children With Rickets Need Cod Liver Oil

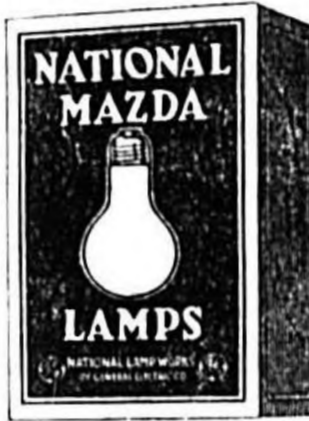

For weak, puny, under-developed children—and especially those that have rickets, and need a sure builder that promotes the growth of teeth and bones, cod liver oil is the one medicine supreme—nothing else like it.

But it is nasty and repulsive and evil smelling and nearly always spoils children's stomachs—so now up to date chemists advise McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets.

Children love them as they do candy, because they are sugar coated and easy to take. One boy gained 11½ pounds in seven weeks, and is now healthy and happy—thousands of other children have proven strong and robust.

Sixty tablets for 60 cents at the "Bowers" Pharmacy and druggists all over North America but be sure and ask for McCoy's the original and genuine.

Makes Puny Baby Fat and Healthy

One of the most valuable things about Teethina is the way it stimulates growth and increase of weight in babies that are weak and puny.

This is because it corrects digestive troubles, regulates the bowels and causes the child to assimilate its food. Immediate improvement follows the use of Teethina, and the little one seems to change for the better over night.

Mrs. W. L. Weeks, of Blythe, Ga., writes: "I am grateful for the good Teethina did my baby. He was so little and poor and weak he hardly had any life at all. Since I started giving him Teethina he has fattened up, is playful and healthy."

Teethina is sold by all druggists, or send 30c to Moffett Laboratories, Columbus, Ga., for package and FREE BOOKLET ABOUT BABIES

Over a thousand satisfied customers drinking that famous Elder Spring Water; clear as crystal, and good to the last drop; positively free from dregs and sediment. Just read Dr. Thos. R. Baker's analysis of Elder Springs Water:

Color	Clear
Reaction	Neutral
Free Ammonia	None
Albuminoid Ammonia	Trace
Chlorine	1.75 parts per million
Total solids	8.00 parts per million
Hardness	23.03 parts per million
Nitrate	None

(Signed) DR. THOS. R. BAKER, Chemist.

Now just take your pencil and paper and the above figures and compare with the best water you know of and see if you can find its superior. We do not claim this water to be 100% pure, but 99-98-100. The fractional part of chlorine prevents this water from being perfect, and we claim to have a water with less chlorine than any water on the market today. Judge for yourself; it's your privilege to buy what you want, but we are on the job, with courtesy and service as our motto.

Just phone 311 and give us a trial.
