New White House Drink

WASHINGTON (AP) - They're serving a new drink at the White House these days.

"What's that drink?" President Ford inquired across the Cabinet room when he saw some of his economic advisers sipping an apricot-colored, iced drink. "Iced tea and pineapple juice," came the reply.

LITT! Plane R'g Wage Bid

CHICAGO (AP) - Despite President Ford's hopes to jawbone wage and price increases, the United Transportation Union says it will seek wage hikes totaling 35 per cent in fall negotiations. Al H. Bay Area Rapid Transit engineers overcame the final hurdle to full-scale operations on Tuesday by convincing the California Public Utilities Board that an electronic system could safely dispatch 80 miles per hour computerized trains through the 3.6-mile underwater link between San Francisco and Oakland. The transbay tube, 132 feet beneath the bay, will open officially on Sept. 16.

U.S. Reviews Cuban Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Ford administration is reassessing the long-standing U.S. policy of support for the hemispheric embargo of Cuba, according to tiplomatic informants.

The policy reappraisal comes in the face of mounting nemispheric pressure for an end to the diplomatic and economic sanctions imposed against Cuba 10 years ago by the Organization of American States, Presently, seven of the 23 OAS member nations have relations with Cuba in violation of the sanctions.

Costa Rican Foreign Minister Gonzalo Facio said on Tuesday there are more than enough OAS votes for lifting the embargo and he predicted its end within two months. Sources said, however, that American acquiescence on an end to the embargo would not necessarily be a prelude to a normalization of U.S. relations with Cuba.

Charles Lindbergh: Man For All Ages

When today headlines speculate on a possible used to it." linkup of American and Russian vehicles in outer space it is difficult to grasp the impact Charles A. Lindbergh had on the world a mere 47 years ago. Lindbergh, a barnstormer and mail pilot in the early days of aviation, vaulted from obscurity to international celebrity status, when he flew the Atlantic in his "Spirit of St. Louis" - a feat that only a decade earlier had been thought impossible. The man who was buried Monday in Hawaii never sought personal publicity and, indeed, spent a great deal of his life fleeing it, was nonetheless never out of the public eye for long. Only five years after his historic flight Charles Lindbergh and his WILLIAM RUSHER young wife suffered one of life's greatest tragedies, the kidnaping and murder of their infant son. Lindbergh, who was somewhat of a recluse even when forced into the spotlight, went into voluntary exile following the trial and conviction of Bruno Hauptmann for the kidnap-murder only to surface again years later when he urged the United States not to get involved in World War II. It was a tragic time. Many people have long since forgotten that Lindbergh was championing a position then held by many Americans and the weight of his personal stature was such that President Franklin D. Roosevelt felt it necessary to question, if indirectly, Col. Lindbergh's patriotism.

The accusation was, of course, false but it was cruel and the man most Americans fondly called "The Lone Eagle" dropped from public sight to than I how galling it has been, during this past work as a civilian fighter plane instructor. Bat Boys Banned

The luckiest kid on many a block is the one who gets a job as a batboy down at the ballpark. It can be seventh heaven for a youngster to be part of major league baseball, and earn pocket money at the same time. At least that's how it was until the federal government got into the act.

Officials at Arlington, Tex., have fired 173 batboys and other youths from their part-time jobs with the Texas Rangers. A new ederal law aimed at protecting them from "child labor" abuse says anyone under 16 cannot work after 9 p.m. An aura of big business is said to be threatening the future of

Blazers Defense Faces Offense

Of Memphis Southmen Tonight

Central Florida's Blazers (6-1), leading the WFL Eastern division by a full game, will host the Memphis Southmen (5-2) tonight at 8 p.m. in the Tangerine Bowl. If you haven't made it out to a Blazer game yet, then this is the one to attend. Tonight's contest pits the WFL's leading defensive team, the Blazers, against the league's leading offensive team, the Southmen. Action point tickets are available for $5 and can be bought at any of the many ticket locations. Offensively, the Southmen are ranked second rushing and fourth passing. The Blazers are tenth offensively-fifth rushing and fourth passing.

Defensively, the locals are second against both the run and the pass, Memphis is ranked eight in overall defense: first against the rush and last (12th) against the pass The Blazer's fine defensive line and secondary will be taking on two of the WFL's leading runners tonight. Memphis's J.J. Jennings is the third leading rusher in the WFL with 416 yards on 96 carries, an average of 4.3 yards a carry, and five touchdowns. John Harvey, the other starting back, is fifth in rushing with 73 carries for a 5.6 yard average and two TD's.

Blazer QB Bob Davis completed 11 of 20 passes against the Storm last week for 146 yards and a touchdown. Former Heisman Trophy winner John Huarte leads the Southmen. The ten-year NFL Vet is currently sixth leading passer in the WFL with 75 completions on 141 attempts for 1132 yards, a 53.2 percentage and ten TD's. He has been intercepted Blazer Rod Foster is the leagues leading punt returner for the second straight week, with a 19.7 average on nine returns. His fine return of 86 yards-twisting, hitting and sidesteppingcame against the Chicago Fire three weeks ago at Soldier Field.

Blazer Dickie James, with a 46.0 average has the best record of kickoff returns in the league but does not have enough returns to qualify for official league lead. Former Houston U. star Jim Strong is still leading the team with both rushing and receiving. He's carried the ball 82 times for 299 yards and three touchdowns. He has caught 20 passes for The Blazers have beaten the Hawaiians (8-7), the Detroit Wheels (18-14), the Houston Texans (15-3), the Chicago Fire (46-21), The Jacksonville Sharks (33-26) and last week, the Portland Storms (11-&). They lost to Houston in the Astrodome 7-6.

Club officials say they hope to break the home attendance mark of 24,000 set two weeks ago in a game against Jackson-

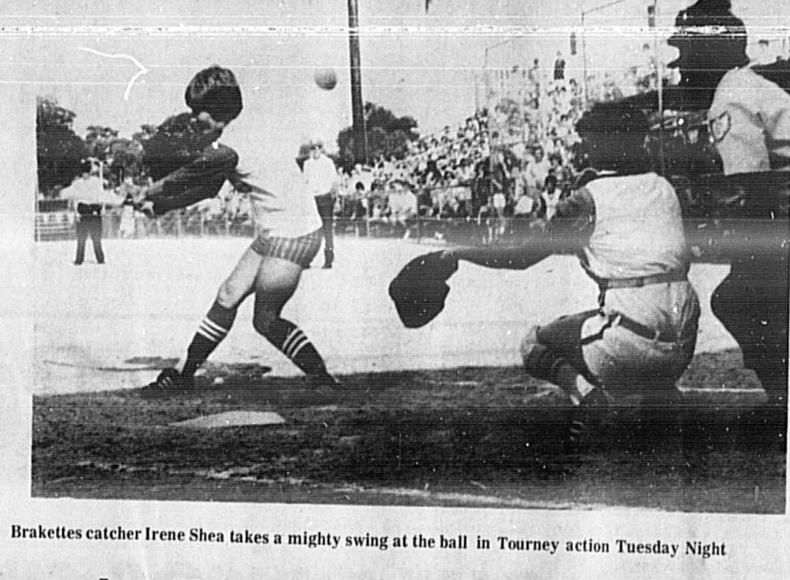

Managing General Partner Rommie Loudd has called a 24,000 home attendance per game "necessary" if the Blazers are to remain in Central Florida. At last week's Storm game, figures were just about 10,000 less than needed. Former Pittsburg Steeler Hubie Bryant, acquired by Florida from the Detroit Wheel last week should help Bob Davis's a passing effort tonight. In addition, former University of Maryland and Cleveland Brown star Gary Collins, sidelined all runs in the bottom of the first season with a broken collar bone, is expected to see limited inning after the Rebels failed to In his first outing of the year, player-coach Collins will Both teams played the next

DEAR ABBY Becoming A Senior Citizen With Style By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY, 2 identified with that Whichin The wrote . saying we should try to be more patient with our elderly parents. I am trying to be patient with a mother who is at times quite exasperating. However, not all elderly people are the same. Some of Mother's contemporaries are charming and quite remarkable.

I do believe that as we grow older, we should try to keep active and interested, so that we will be interesting to others. For many years we had my wife's grandmother living with us, and now my mother-in-law, who is nearly 80, is making her

With my vast experience in dealing with the elderly I've been meaning to make a list of things to do and not do so that I will one day be a charming senior citizen, but with my luck, my memory will probably fail, and I won't be able to find the list. GETTING THERE

DEAR GETTING: Thanks. You've given me an idea. I think I'll compose such a list from the experience of others. My own parents weren't lucky enough to become senior citizens. And my husband's parents are in their 70s - but a more beautiful, independent and ageless couple I've never known.

DEAR ABBY: A poor, homely type girl became impregnated by a married man who had no intention of leaving his wife and marrying her. The poor girl says it's too late for an abortion, but the father of the unborn suggested that she have the baby and let him and his wife adopt it as they were childless and desperately wanted a child.

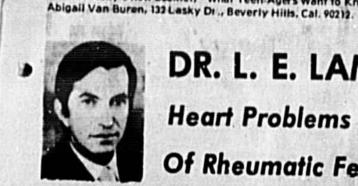

This would have been a perfect solution to everybody's problem. But you say "no," and even have the gall to suggest that the child be handed over to an adoption agency! How can you be so narrow-minded? Any child born under such circumstances would rather be in a home with its biological Rose is fragrant base of the perfume industry father than in a "nice" home with adopted strangers. Are you so arrogant that you think you can play "God" with people's lives with your often biased advice? It seems to me that you need a little advice yourself.

DEAR MR. F.: What assurance have you that after th unwed mother hands over the child to the man with whom she's in love (a "detail" you ignored) she will simply disappear forever? I have received many letters from people who have been a party to such a deal, much to their regret. If one could eliminate one factor - the natural mother's emotionalism, you would be right. But one can't.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stanged,

DEAR POLLY - I wonder if some reader knows of a wash J could use for cleaning the wood frame of an old-fashioned chair I want to reupholster. TI This Dish Is From Carolina

By CECILY BROWNSTONE Associated Press Food Editor Nowadays chicken dipped in batter (a mixture of flour, liq uid and other ingredients that is thin enough to pour) and cooked in deep fat goes under the broad name of Fried Chicken. But a century ago, when this recipe appeared in a cookbook published in Charleston, S.C., it was called Battered Chicken!

Although through the years the recipe has changed in a few particulars, Battered Chicken - yes, we're all for reviving the good old direct name - is still one of the most delicious versions of fried chicken you can make. The batter is light and crisp, the chicken juicy and tender-a pleasure to serve. BATTERED CHICKEN Broiler-fryer chicken, about 21/2 pounds 1/2 cup flour 1/2 teaspoon baking powder teaspoon salt. In a medium mixing bowl stir together the flour, baking powder and 1/4 teaspoon salt; add egg, milk and 1 tablespoon corn oil; beat until smooth.

Pour 1 quart corn oil into a heavy 3-quart saucepot or a 3quart capacity electric skillet: heat to 350 degrees.

Waite Waits For Fame Via Songs

NEW YORK (AP) - Genevieve Waite says she can't help it. That's the way she sings. That's the way she talks That's the way her voice sounds all the time.

"I tried to sing like a normal person, but I just couldn't do it. This is the only sound that's comfortable for me," said Miss Waite, the pop world's new su-

In her recently released first album, "Romance Is on the Rise," Miss Waite is simultaneously sweet, shrill, seductive and girlish. The style is vaguely reminiscent of Tiny Tim, but much more pleasant to listen to. What Andy Warhol did to art, Miss Waite does to music. "I always wanted to sing, but everybody always told me to shut up before. My family threw things at me when I opened my mouth. But I can't help it. This is me."

The baby voice lives in a waifish, mannequin body and the face of the littlest angel with frizzy blonde hair and large, ice blue eyes. During an interview, she is either as skittish as a faun or as blank as a kewpie doll. Relaxing in the rose-colored sitting room of the town house she shares with her husband and manager, John Phillips, she insists she wants to be taken seriously. Miss Waite lets Phillips do much of the talking.

"Genevieve is in the tradition of the great movie stars like Marilyn Monroe and Betty Grable. She has a very feminine voice and style. This is not some whisky-voiced woman screaming at you. It's a whole new sound," said Phillips. Once the leader of the Mamas and Papas, it was Phillips who wrote such unforgettable hits as "California Dreamin" and "Monday, Monday." He recently started a new record company, Paramour, to release his wife's album, which he wrote and produced.

"I think we have some good danceable tunes and the words are good to listen to as well. There really are so few females around who are singing. Most just make thudding sounds to rock 'n' roll," said Phillips. "But Genevieve is special People who really know music - Mick Jagger, David Bowie really love her. I think she'll be taken very seriously as time Phillips is now working on a musical show, due to open off-Broadway in October, that will star Miss Waite.

Originally the show, a space romance called "American Man on the Moon," was to star a heroine from another planet who couldn't sing. But when Phillips heard his wife burbling a song in the bath one day, he realized there was a new talent in the tub.

"Mick Jagger and I helped get her in tune," said Phillips with his easy smile, "and now the show will have a singing

Miss Waite was born 25 years ago in South Africa where her favorite musician was someone called Spokes Moshiane who played the penny whistle.

"Maybe that's why your voice is so high," Phillips teased his wife. "You tried to make sounds like a penny whistle."
Miss Waite was a model in London for a while and then was hailed as a star in the movie "Joanna."

When she met Phillips in Los Angeles, he was separated from his second wife and singing partner, Michelle Phillips. The three are all good friends now. Michelle, who will also be recording on the Paramour label, made a special trip from California to attend Miss Waite's public debut as a sing-
