BERLIN, Jan. 16. - The year 1924 in Germany was one primarily of financial adjustment. Economic questions have overshadow-ed everything e'se. Strive as they would to create party issues, politicians were never able to get away from the reparations question, which underlaid all the financial uncertainty that was holding back the new republic.

The year opened with gound money. The rentenmark banished the spectre of worthless paper money and Germany was ready to since the close of the war. There was faith in the rentenmark. An honest man's Word

MORE than three hundred years ago, Miguel de Cervantes said: "An honest man's word is as good as his bond." Advertisers must be honest men, if they would remain advertisers. Their announcements are signed. They must tell the truth in their advertising. For their own protection, as well as yours.

What would it profit a man to advertise "Pure, virginwool suits," only to have you discover they were shoddy? You would soon separate the sheep from the cotton. And you would never deal with that man again. And, further, you would tell all your acquaintances what a skinflint he was.

As a matter of business, if not of personal principle, an advertiser must tell the truth in his signed announcements. That's what makes the advertising columns of this paper such reliable guides to honest merchandise. The printed announcements are bonds between you and the advertiser.

Read the advertisements. Read them regularly. To be informed on the newest and best in everything. To save hours of shopping. To make the family do a bigger, better job. To get goods of known quality at the most attractive price.

You would not plan a motor trip without first consulting road-maps and guide books. Is it logical to plan a shopping trip without first consulting the advertisements? Read the advertisments. Then go to the stores with your mind more than half made up.

> A signed advertisement is, in effect; a sealed bond that between you and the advertiser

Sound Ideals Which Are Your Best Guarantees for Safe and Wise Investment

ORAL GABLES is a city built on ideals. Ideals of beauty, of fine architecture, of landscaping, of recreation, of business needs and utilities. Ideals molded into definite, permanent form for the enjoyment of people who will appraise them tarties di al ministra de la company at true value.

And back of Coral Gables ideals there is a dominating cause which should never be overlooked. This is the fact that Coral Gables has been for more than a quarter of a century the all-year-'round home of its owner and creator-George E. Merrick.

Of course, the promoters of large developments invariably own their properties, but it is fare indeed in this section when they live upon these properties all the year 'round.

cases they do not even build residences on the development at all. Most of the men back of large operations make their homes in the North or West, and have adopted Miami merely as a winter residence.

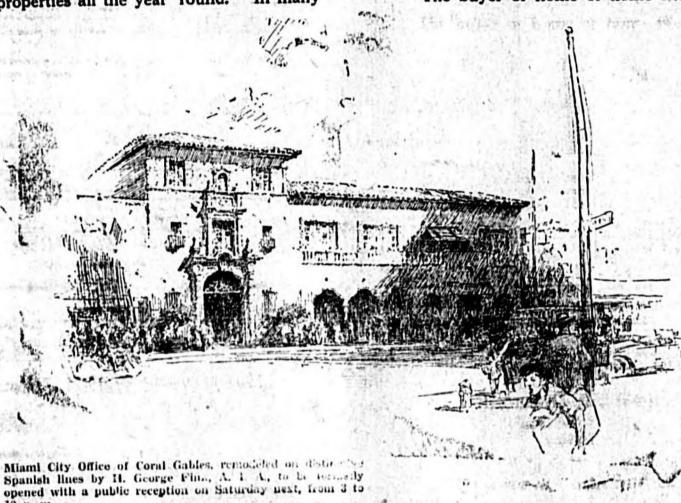

A man-any man-creating a large development around his own home will inevitably build more wisely, carefully, farseeingly than he would if his motives are actuated solely by the making of money. George E. Merrick's home ever since Miami was incorporated as a city, has been Coral Gables. _He has never had any other home in this section. All of the cherished ideals which for more than a quarter of a century have centered around his home have played their part and written their impress upon the Coral Gables of today.

This is the reason—if reason be required—for the surpassing beauty of Coral Gables of today. This is why more has been planned and carried out—on a scale never before attempted in city planning—to make Coral Gables the finest residential suburb in America. And this is why, when high ideals have been established, as they have been established at Coral Gables, the most far-reaching restrictions should be adopted, as they have been adopted at Coral Gables, to perpetuate these ideals and guarantee their perpetuation for the future.

The buyer of home or home site at Coral Gables today enjoys a larger measure of the comforts and refinements of life because of these things, and also in a material and practical way enjoys also a larger and quicker profit on his investment. The magnificent growth of Miami insures this splendid increase in values for years to come.

Never, perhaps, has man in his pursuit of cherished ideals found such success as has been achieved at Coral Gables. There has been glory and profit here in unbounded measure, and every one who invested here shares in them. The buyer today has the same opportunities that were enjoyed two or three years ago, for Coral Gables is still in its youth, and the future holds far greater developments and success than has yet been achieved.

Rollins "Tars" Will Face Hard Gridiron Schedule Next Year

ROLLINS COLLEGE, Winter Park, Fla., Jan. 19 .- The tentative announcement of the football schedule of the Tars of Rollins college for next fall leaves no room for doubt, say those connected with the institution, that the col-lege is due to carry out an at-tractive program of intercollegiate athletics for 1925.

This schedule is the first as an actual member of the S. I. A. A., although Rollins played under rules of that organization on last season.

Other outstanding opponents are the Citadel Military college and the College of South Garolina, Mercer university, which won over the 'Gators' in '24, Centenary College of Louisiana, coached by "Bo" Mc-Millin, Newberry College of South Carolina, Howard College of Alabama, and Orlethorpe University of Atlanta, 1924 champions of the
