PAOLA PERSONALS

A. V. McGinn and wife and sister Mrs. McDonald and Miss Genevieve Ivey returned home Sunday Saturday. R. E. Ivey returned home Sunday from Orlando. Mrs. Flora Kersey spent the day in Paola Sunday with her father, C. D. Pearson. The school house was remodelled during the Christmas holidays and improved greatly. Four new windows were put in, new doors, blinds on the windows and the building painted yellow with dull red trimmings. It is very pretty now and the children are quite proud of "our school house." As one small boy expresses it "That's the reason never liked to come to school before, because it wasn't pretty."

WEST GENEVA AVENUE

Mrs. Neal Culp and Mrs. Sims made a pop-call on Mrs. Jack Vaughn Sunday evening. Mrs. and Mrs. Nixon were spending a few days on the old home place at Soldier Creek this week fixing ground to plant sweet potatoes in the spring. Mrs. and Mrs. Will Robinson spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Neal Culp at their home at Osteen ferry. Mrs. Jack Vaughn has been on the sick list for a week with cold. I heard the flu was gaining through Lake Mary. I hope it won't turn our way any more. Mr. J. M. Nixon from New York made a pleasant call on Mr. and Mrs. Nicola last week. The weather is bad, but the roads are worse. I don't see how the roads ever get over them they are in such a condition. It seems like the airplanes have forsaken Sanford. One went over Tuesday but did not stop. Mr. Johnny Lee, wife and children are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lee in Grapeville. Mr. Jack Thompson from Du-Land was over Sunday visiting home folks. The airplanes were quite a surprise to Geneva avenue. Of course they were soon gone and no waiting. But when the Seminole County road scraper came along that was another story and we have had plenty of noise since, as most anything sounds like a Lizzie now, bumping over the rough roads of course Lake Mary does it care an inch in the hotels and stores and they can stay at home. Yes, Monroe has the St. Johns river and Lake Monroe to get to stay at home too. Geneva and Lake Mary road please. What has happened to the ex-terminator and ex-croton prince? Don't see anything to surprise this creek about them. They must have moved to another place or may be they are on the way to America. We would like to get a look at them. I guess Holland is about through with them both. It seems like the war is hard to settle on the other side the way they are fighting in Berlin now. LONGWOOD PICK-UPS Dr. Green, wife and little son left Saturday. They will visit Sanford and St. Augustine before returning to their home in Montgomery, Ala. Prof. Oakland who is teaching in Winter Park was calling on friends Longwood school in 1895. Cousin Williamson and niece, Miss Olive Vera Glass will be stored out to call on friends Sunday. The Longwood and West Longwood Old Settlers Association will hold its annual reunion January 18. Miss Berta Langenbach of Orlando spent the week end the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sealey. Letters written since Nov., 1918, 1918 have been received from the Longwood boys who were overseas and at the front. We are proud of "Our Boys" and wish them a safe and early return to the good old U. S. A. and home. Miss Ruth Griggs of Sanford was the guest of Miss Lamar and Annabell Fruit on Sunday. Mrs. C. W. Entaminger returned home Monday from Sanford where she has been spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Satcher. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Satcher will be glad to know that

DEATH OF ANDREW AULIN

The funeral from the Bloomberg, Texas, Enterprise will be of interest to citizens of Seminole county, as Mr. Aulin was well known throughout the county. Andrew Aulin passed away Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Will Grogan, at Lake Mary, Fla. He was 67 years of age. He was born in Oh, Sweden, in 1843, and graduated at the university there. He left Sweden and came to the United States in 1870, being one of the pioneers in this section. He took up a homestead, and was given the honor of naming the town (Oviedo). He was christened a Lutheran, but in 1874 joined the Baptist church. He married Lona Lawton in 1873 and they made their home in Oviedo;

Smith, 409 Palmetto Ave., Sanford, says: "Don't you know, I have been my standard kidney remedy for years. Often I have had a steady ache in the small of my back and it gave me a played out feeling. I lacked ambition and couldn't even do my housework. I had severe pains in the back of my head and dizzy spells, too. I used relief. I gladly give this endorsement." Price 60c at all dealers. OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs. This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs clean and in proper working order old age can be deferred. MEDICAL EXPERTS say that one who has his kidneys and digestive organs in good condition will live longer and be healthier than one who does not. For over 20 years OLD MEDICAL HEARTEM OIL has been relieving the weakness and disability due to old age. It is a standard oil-time home remedy and is not inferior. MEDICAL HEARTEM OIL is included in military, hospital, and naval hospitals. It is the only oil that you would a gift, with an analysis.

It takes some time to turn the big factory back from 100% Government work to 100% production of Ford cars. So first come, first served. The demand is big from every part of the country, and the Ford Motor Co. will be impartial in the effort to serve fairly everyone of the great army of Ford Dealers. This means that for some time to come we are not going to have enough cars to supply the demand, so, as above stated those who place their orders first, will have first delivery. The Allies will fix the peace terms.
Germany's only privilege will be to sign them.

It may be that formerly we were too proud to fight, but certainly now we are proud of our fighting.

Don't give your son from abroad either prunes or salmon for his first meal unless you wish to induce an attack of militarism.

If it is decided to sink the German fleet, better select a few German submarines to do it. They have had experience in that line.

The man who swore off smoking on New Year's has by this time extricated his dear old pipe from the back yard to which in the first fine frenzy of resolution he consigned it.

Ireland is said to be much exercised about her future. It is singular that she can consider her future —one would think meditation upon her past would occupy all her spare time.

We have all had some excellent courses in French and Belgian geography, and now it looks as if the next course would be Russian geography, to judge from the war maps in the papers.

It was a rather unnecessary stunt for the suffragists to make a bouffant of President Wilson's speeches. They only succeeded in proving that the speeches told "words that burn," and that the rest of us knew long ago.

The Herald wishes to commend the Sanford Board of Trade for their choice of H. C. Dill as president. Mr. Dill is an able, alert business man and his hand at the helm will inspire the confidence of the membership and those who have dealings with this body.

The members of the South Florida Press Association are deeply indebted to the good people of Winter Haven for a very pleasant meeting in their fair city last week. Bro.
Clarence Wood has justly said that "Winter Haven is the Sweetheart of Florida."

The Herald expects to print in our next issue all the laws of a general and permanent nature passed by the special session of the Florida legislature recently. It is our intention to mail every registered voter in Seminole county a copy. Readers will confer a favor if they will report any omissions and we will see that they are supplied.

THE HOME-COMERS
It is reported that many of our returning soldiers and sailors instead of going back to their homes are entering the large cities to seek employment.

The large cities are preparing to take care of their own returning men, and employers will naturally replace them in their old jobs in preference to engaging non-residents.

Two things complicate the employment question in cities at present. One is that many employers have been forced by the war-time distinction between essential and non-essential industries to lessen their product and must wait for the indications of returning demand to increase it.

The second consideration is that many women and older men have taken the places of young men, and in many cases their services cannot in fairness be immediately dis-pensated with.

These conditions will make the city a difficult place at present for the young men from small towns.
It will be better for such a young man at present to return to his own home, where he is well known, and take his old job for the time being.
He can watch the development of business and make his descent upon the city when conditions appear favorable.

THE PRESIDENT'S TRIP
Nothing could have been better calculated to promote good feeling and agreement between the Allies than President Wilson's trip to Europe at this time.

As long as the war lasted the Allies were obliged to live in amity.
When nations are bound together in a life and death struggle against arbitrary power, the possibility of disagreement. All separate national claims may well be put aside until it is settled whether the nations themselves shall exist.

With the passing of warfare it would be but natural that different policies and separate claims should come to the front among the allied nations.

And who could be so well fitted to arbitrate any differences of opinion among the Allies as the United States, who wants nothing for herself and has no stake in Europe?

And who could represent the United States as well as her President who months ago laid down the fourteen great principles of peace for the world?

Europe has found President Wilson a gracious gentleman, well fitted to his high embassy. The negotiations he has made with statesmen of the allied countries will make his presence at the peace board most effective.

America looks to him to protect her interests and to assist in the adoption of a settlement which will mean lasting peace.

THRILLING SCENES IN
"THE HUN-WITHIN"

Secret Service Man Thrown From Motor Car by Spies

To be thrown from a swiftly moving automobile down a steep declivity into a river, is a dangerous experience even in motion pictures, but this is one of the gripping situations in the "Hun Within."

Paramount Aircraft Picture, which will be shown at the Star Theatre soon. The actor who undergoes this harrowing experience is Douglas MacLean, who in this picture plays the part of a United States secret service operative. He is trading Hun spies who are determined to destroy American transports at all hazards.

Mr. MacLean, one of the best known actors on the screen, vests this character with unusual dignity and power. He is in love with Beth, a patriotic American girl, who treats him coldly, because she fancies that she loves Karl Wagner, the son of a German-American, who later turns out to be a German spy in league with the kaiser's agents operating in this country.

Beth overhears a plot which in-criminates and simultaneously destroys her love for the man to whom she has pinned her faith. How she foils this plot, although herself made prisoner by the spies, threatened with death, and how she finds happiness in the love of the Secret Service agent, are told in a series of captivating and highly exciting scenes. The story was written by Granville Warwick and the picture was photographed by David Ables.

Ethel Clayton Delightful in "The Girl Who Came Back"

At the Star Theatre Wednesday.
Gifted with beauty and talents of a high order of merit, Ethel Clayton, a new acquisition to the stellar forces of Paramount was seen to fine advantage in her first starring vehicle, "The Girl Who Came Back," a picturization by Beulah Marie Dix of the famous play, "Leah Kleschna," by the late C. M. S. Mc-Clellan on its premier presentation at the Star Theatre yesterday. Miss Clayton's exquisite portrayal of an arduous role, and the beauty of a photoplay, which is far above the average in point of superiority of production, impressed a critical audience most favorably as the frequent applause indicated. The story of the photoplay is one of unusual interest, and its heart appeal is distinctly effective.

PREVENT HOG CHOLERA
The B. A. Thomas Hog Powder has a record of 95 per cent cures of Hog Cholera. If you feed your hogs as directed you never need fear hog cholera or any other hog disease. And the directions are very simple, just about what you are doing, plus a few cents' worth of B. A. Thomas' Hog Powder in the feed—twice a week.

Usually, though, Cholera gets in before we know it. Then it requires close attention to each hog—each hog must be dosed—and if you will dose them as directed you will save better than 90 per cent. If you don't, the B. A. Thomas medicine costs you nothing. We—not some distant manufacturer—pay your money back.

"One of our salesmen demonstrated the value of the Long Distance Telephone to us. He was at Huntsville, Ala., and upon his own responsibility put in Long Distance calls for fifteen merchants within a radius of several hundred miles.

"In less than one hour he had sold 2100 barrels of flour at a total cost to us of less than six dollars.

"Since then we have applied the Long Distance Bell Telephone to every feature of our business with most profitable results. The service is fine, the rates are reasonable and there is more satisfaction in one Long Distance Telephone talk than in half a dozen letters."

A man should be judged not by his cast or creed, The meat he eats, the vintage he drinks;
 Not by the way he fights, or loves or sins, But by the quality of the thoughts he thinks.
 —Ex.

You are at the end of another year; at the threshold of a new one. You have passed out of an old world; you are entering a new one. It is the time when men usually take stock, when they lay plans for the future. You want to realize more completely on yourself. You want to be a bigger, better man. You want to know more, so that you can do more. You must gather facts and think. You must keep in touch with men who are thinking and doing. You must carry on some definite line of study all the time. You are never too old to learn—and never too old to take advantage of your knowledge. Men succeed as they think—because they act as they think. Men thinking great thoughts usually do great deeds. Undoubtedly a great doer is a great thinker. Finally, whatever is true, whatever is respect, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovable, whatever is of good repute, and if there is any other virtue which you regard as peculiarly excellent, think on these things. For as a man thinketh, so he is.

I am glad to note that Sanford is gaining some fame this week as a convention city. The County Sunday School Convention was organized here Monday, and Monday night the convention of the Christian Endeavor met with the Presbyterian church. There is no reason why Sanford could not, in time gain the name of the Convention City. Situated as it is in the heart of Florida and easy to get at from all parts of the state, people who come to Sanford from other portions of the state, always express themselves as being pleased. Visitors seem to enjoy themselves here with the least effort of any place that I know of, and this one thought more than any other suggests to my mind that with little effort on the part of our citizens and the powers that be, Sanford could easily be made the Convention City.

Sanford was visited this week by a "Gasp" wagon, and this truck had a tender, a Henry Touring car, and a fellow who never heard of Nam Jones. He was reviewing the new liquor law and especially that part making it a penalty of $500, or six months for getting drunk the first time, and $3,000 or three years for the second offense. This orator of the day avowed that he "did not think he could get drunk with that staring him in the face." Now if this law will just keep that man thinking in his present line of thought, I claim it is a good law whether it ever gets any further or not.
 —Saunterer.

Dr. McCaslin Commissioned
 The many friends of Dr. McCaslin of this city will be glad to learn that he has been commissioned First Lieutenant. The commission was sent to Camp Shelby and followed him on ship board as he was returning home. Dr. McCaslin is now at Ft. Benjamin Harrison in Indiana and expects to get a furlough and come to Sanford next month.

pel Wagon" and at stated intervals made service on the street. Just the other day I read an editorial concerning people who seemingly followed the climate to spread their particular kind of religion. Not for a minute would I attempt to instruct these people in their religious duties, or even attempt to limit their privileges, but in the language of the editor writer just referred to "it does seem to me that these people would grow more concerned regarding the needs of the south in the summer time." It is my experience that wagons of this kind are always traveling toward the equator in the early winter and just the other way in the early spring. Then if we need it in the winter—why don't we need it in the summer too?

"No people on earth, have more cause to be thankful than ours; and this is said reverently, in no spirit of boasting, but with a gratitude to the Giver of good, who hath enabled us to achieve of the conditions that we now enjoy." Thus spoke the late Theodore Roosevelt on the occasion of his inauguration as President of the United States. Close friends of Roosevelt, writing of his life say that "matter not what impression some people obtained of the great man's life, he really lived true to the thought expressed by him and repeated above." Roosevelt always bore a thankful spirit, and though, seemingly, of an aggressive type his nature was that of eternal gratitude to the Giver of good. Many lessons can be gained from observation of the life of Roosevelt. Truly a great man was he. Great in that, after all his greatness he recognized the value of the "nearest of all Givers of Good," who had enabled him to achieve of real greatness enjoyed.

Going from the sublime to the ridiculous, so to speak, I repeat that "Great minds run in the same channel, as well as canal boats," and this is not occasioned by the presence of any split milk either. Two treasurers, or secretaries of the treasury, or head money keepers, feeling the insignificance of the pay offered them by their government, and feeling it due time to retire from public life and make a last effort to recuperate their private fortunes, after due thought and true deliberation handed in their resignations. News of part of these transactions was flashed to the world and some people took a long breath and wondered what would happen now. Others uttered the well known, "I told you so!" Now you watch him! The resignation of one was accepted—without any comeback, the other one accepted also, but he later came back, with renewed vigor and with avowed determination to earn the larger reward for that office. Thus the story of two head money keepers endeth.

Nam Jones, in speaking of the liquor law said, "You drinker, you claim you can't do without the accursed stuff. Suppose for the time that every quart of whiskey was laced with poison, each teaspoonful contains 60 grains of strychnine. What would you say then? Your answer would be 'I don't think I can drink that.'" Truly this speech of Nam Jones was rehearsed one day this week on the streets of Sanford, and by a fellow who never heard of Nam Jones. He was reviewing the new liquor law and especially that part making it a penalty of $500, or six months for getting drunk the first time, and $3,000 or three years for the second offense. This orator of the day avowed that he "did not think he could get drunk with that staring him in the face." Now if this law will just keep that man thinking in his present line of thought, I claim it is a good law whether it ever gets any further or not.

When you clear up the land for a home or grove! Too often a Florida place is left so barren of shrubbery and trees that it repels rather than attracts. Peace stops the fighting but not the feeding. Our armies at home and abroad, our Allies and ourselves must be fed. More food must be produced in 1919.
