Miss Stubbings is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stubbings of Lake Mary, and a senior at Seminole High School. She is proficient at sewing, knitting, crocheting and cooking, her teacher reports.

"Having achieved the highest score in a knowledge and attitude test given senior girls in December, Susanne is now eligible along with winners in other state high schools, for the state title contest," Miss Ruprecht said.

The State Homemaker winner will be awarded a $1,500 scholarship by General Mills, sponsor of the program and the runner-up receives a $500 scholarship.

The school of each state Homemaker is awarded a complete set of the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Basis for the selection of local and state winners is a test prepared and scored by Science Research Associates in Chicago. Personal observation and interviews are added factors in determining national winners.

All state winners will join each other for an all expense paid educational tour of New York City, Washington, D. C. and Colonial Williamsburg, Va. in the spring.

During the tour, the All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and runners-up will be named.

The top winner will receive a scholarship of $5,000, with second, third and fourth place winners scholarships set at $4,000, $3,000, and $2,000 each.

This year, 410,466 high school girls participated in the testing throughout the United States. Miss Ruprecht supervised the testing at Seminole High School.

'Rash To Run Against Mack' - GOP

Party To Meet Tuesday

Reports that he plans to seek the Republican Party nomination for State Senator in the Feb. 26 special primary were denied today by Don Willson, GOP county committee chairman.

"I wouldn't do anything as rash as that," said Willson, adding, "Mack (Cleveland, seeking the Democratic Senatorial nomination) is too well known and too well liked."

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The Big Question... Sanford's Future

The BIG QUESTION will be answered tonight. Will the Naval Air Station get its much-desired jet fuel pipeline?

The question will be settled once and for all by the City Commission at its meeting this evening. Situation now stands 3-2 against. Tonight's session will decide the question.

Either one or more of the dissenting Commissioners will change his vote. Or the pipeline will die a natural death. In other words, it will pass into limbo.

Armed Forces committee of the Chamber of Commerce, in a letter over the signature of President F. E. Roumillat Jr., has urged all Chamber members to be present tonight in SUPPORT of the pipeline.

The Herald urges ALL citizens to be present and SUPPORT the pipeline. In fact, this fuel pipeline could be the economic pipeline for Sanford's future. Think on it.

Commissioner A. L. Wilson, following the session when the Commission rejected the pipeline, said he wanted more facts and figures for consideration. The Navy gave him ALL the facts and figures last week.

We admire the convictions of these three Commissioners... but it takes a good man to admit the error of his ways. We sincerely trust one of the three will see that error and change his vote this evening.

To Fight JFK

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The National Association of Homebuilders, an organization with 41,000 members, plans to fight President Kennedy's proposal to tighten up income tax deductions. A spokesman said the association's executive committee discussed the President's tax plan this weekend, and decided that "the home-owner and home buying public will receive the least net benefit" from the President's proposal for a $10 billion tax cut.

Spottswood Set To Run For Seat

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Monroe County Sheriff John M. Spottswood, Key West, qualified today as a candidate for the county's brand new Senate seat. Spottswood was the first to officially enter the fray for the new 41st district seat, provided under Florida's new reapportionment bill.

To Seat Or Not To....

Legality of a State Representative resigning his House seat to seek a place in the Senate under the new reapportionment law was to be decided this afternoon by the Leon Circuit Court at Tallahassee, according to UPI.

Former Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr., of Sanford, resigned his House seat Friday, qualified today to run for Seminole County's new Senate seat, relying on an opinion by Attorney General Richard Ervin, who ruled that House members can seek these Senate seats.

Meanwhile, State Rep. George Hollahan, of Miami, arrived in Tallahassee with papers to qualify for the House in his pocket and his Senate race already filled out.

He delayed filing either, however, pending a ruling

FEC Strike Appears Tough 'Nut To Crack'

JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—Federal mediator James Holaren said this weekend the 20-day-old strike against the Florida East Coast Railway is going to be "a tough nut to crack."

He said neither side is willing to yield. "They don't even want to talk about the strike any more," said the mediator.

Eleven non-operating unions threw up pickets at FEC railroad property Jan. 23 when wage negotiations broke down. When they walked out, the FEC abolished their jobs. After a 10-day shutdown, supervisory personnel began operating the line on a limited basis.

"Neither side wants to move an inch," Holaren said. "We'll meet with the railway any time," a strike leader said, "but only on our terms."

Fresh Water Boost Stressed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Interior Undersecretary James K. Carr told Congress today that large salt water conversion plants can probably supply fresh water economically to large cities within a few years.

Carr, appearing before the House Interior Committee, said the Interior Department was "optimistic" that sea water could be turned into fresh water economically if conversion plants were built in combination with steam electric plants.

The gap between the cost of water from saline plants and conventional methods for obtaining municipal and industrial water is closing rapidly, Carr said.

But he warned that the conversion of salt water for irrigation purposes was still "not within sight" at costs competitive with ordinary irrigation methods.

Tanker Mystery Deepens

PIRATE LASSIES of the Twirling Seminoles pose prettily in the costumes they will wear today as they march in the Invasion of the Pirates Gasparilla Parade at the State Fair in Tampa. These three, Judy Hedwell, Mary Scott and Bel-tina Vale will be joined by the other members of the Twirling and Marching Seminoles as they become pirates for a day. All-Out Search Continues

JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—Planes and ships fanned out over the Atlantic today in an effort to solve the deepening mystery of a tanker missing for eight days with 39 crewmen aboard.

There was no clue to whether the 824-foot Marine Sulphur Queen, carrying a cargo of molten sulphur, had exploded and sunk or was lost or disabled.

A Coast Guard officer speculated that if the hot sulphur had come in contact with the water a steam explosion would follow, causing "the whole thing to go up like an atom bomb."

The World War II Merchant Marine vessel sailed from Beaumont, Tex., nine days ago bound for Norfolk, Va.

The ship transports sulphur in heavily insulated steel tanks that are kept at 265 degrees by steel coils. The ship's operators, Marine Transport Corp. of New York, said hauling sulphur is no more dangerous than hauling other cargoes.

The Coast Guard rushed two ships to check what appeared to be floating debris Sunday night but hours of searching a 200-square mile area east of here produced no trace of the ship. The Coast Guard reported the flotilla did not appear to be from the vessel, last heard from when it dispatched a radio message Feb. 3 while sailing near Dry Tortugas in the Gulf of Mexico.

The disappearance of the ship recalled another great maritime mystery in the Atlantic—the U. S. Navy supply ship Cyclops which vanished in 1918 with 302 men aboard.

The Cyclops, carrying a cargo of manganese, took on coal at Barbados, then sailed, never to be heard from again.

The last radio message from the Marine Sulphur Queen gave no hint anything was wrong aboard.

A search for the gray-hulled tanker, built in 1944, was begun when it failed to reach Norfolk on schedule Thursday.

Second Phase Of Interstate Now Underway

Work on a 7.6 mile construction project on Interstate Route 4 in Seminole and Orange Counties started last week, the State Road Department announced today.

A Max Brewer of Titusville, Road Board member for District Five, said the $2,642,891 project extends from Markham Road in Seminole County, southerly to Lee Road in Orange County.

Work on this four-lane, divided, superhighway includes clearing, grading, paving, construction of three dual grade separation bridges, drainage structures and fencing.

HLH Gives Right-Of-Way

Agreement by HLH Products to donate 30 feet along its north property line for a sidewalk along Onora Road between Sanford Avenue and the Sanford Naval Air Station will be read at Tuesday's County Commission meeting.

Chairman J. C. Hutchison said today the agreement was reached verbally and by letter. Commission will be asked Tuesday to approve acceptance of a deed of transfer for the right-of-way.

General Hutchison said these matters also are on Tuesday's agenda: Reading of letters from the State Controller relative to the conflict of the county's $15 million trust funds for purchase of right-of-way and road improvements.

Study of legislative proposals to permit the County to take the water management question to the citizens.

Approval of a resolution for the County Commissioners to attend a budget hearing by the State Road Department on county primary and secondary road improvement proposals March 7 at Deland.

Study of resuming the County's former policy of paying for health care for medically indigent food handlers.

Reds Seeking Dispute End

MOSCOW (UPI)—Western observers said today the Soviet Union appeared intent on keeping its political and ideological dispute with Communist China well below the boiling point.

An 8,000-word editorial in the Sunday edition of the official Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda hit hard on the call for unity in the Communist camp. It included a carefully guarded invitation to Communist China for a meeting "at any level" to try to resolve their differences.

The offer did not suggest specifically that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev and Chinese Chairman Mao Tse-tung might be participants. But it left the possibility open.

At the same time, however, Pravda made it clear the Kremlin expected Red China to abandon its condemnation of Khrushchev's "peaceful co-existence" policy if the quarrel is to be resolved.

Five Dead

MIAMI (UPI)—Two wrecks accounted for five lives in the Highway Patrol's weekend climb-down to at least eight.

Gasparilla Blasts Off

TAMPA (UPI)—A three-masted pirate ship, its decks swarming with some 400 businessmen-turned-buccanniers, blasted its way into Tampa's harbor today to touch off the cigar city's colorful Gasparilla Festival.

Cannons roared and thousands of rounds of blank ammunition were fired by the costumed pirates, many dangling dangerously from the rigging of the black-hulled Jose Gasparilla. Once ashore, the pirates piled onto floats to join the nation's noisiest parade.

The group, which included 22 Cubans and four Haitians, joined 52 others brought to Puerto Rico Saturday. Thirteen more Cubans are scheduled to fly directly from Havana to Brazil today or Tuesday.

Cage Fixer Gels 10-15 Years

NEW YORK (UPI)—Convicted basketball fixer Jacob (Jack) Molinas today was sentenced to 10 to 15 years in state prison on charges of bribery, conspiracy, and subornation of perjury.

Supreme Court Justice Joseph A. Saratite characterized Molinas as "a completely amoral person, who not only managed this conspiracy but also personally approached many of the players and corrupted many of them."

There was an audible gasp throughout the crowded courtroom when Saratite pronounced the sentence upon the former Columbia University star. Molinas exhibited no sign of shock or disappointment.

27 Refugees Ask Asylum

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (UPI)—A Brazilian military plane arrived here from Cuba Sunday with 27 refugees evacuated from the Brazilian embassy in Havana.

The group, which included 22 Cubans and four Haitians, joined 52 others brought to Puerto Rico Saturday. Thirteen more Cubans are scheduled to fly directly from Havana to Brazil today or Tuesday.

Livestock: A Rough Day

Sunday was a rough day for livestock in Seminole County. A cow and a horse died as the result of traffic accidents.

Trooper Bill Stringfield reported that the car of George Dixon Jr., Negro, of 807 West 12th Street, struck and killed the cow on the Old Orlando Road at about 5 a. m.

The trooper said Dixon's car was damaged to the extent of $250. No charges were filed against Dixon. H. W. Shannon Sr., of 2900 French Drive, owner of the cow, said the animal, with calf, was valued at $60.

A race horse valued at $800 was destroyed after a freak accident on Sanlando Road at 11:30 a. m.

Stringfield said Boyd Edwards, Orlando, was transporting three race horses in a trailer when it overturned. One horse suffered a broken back and was shot by Stringfield. Damage to Edwards' car and trailer was estimated at $230.

"LET'S TALK DRY CLEANING"

By - WOODROW CASH

For us "old timers" Valentine's Day brings a flood of memories. Remember the valentines of yesterday . . . the big red hearts with their resplendent frills of paper lace? The valentines didn't last very long . . . the lace soon started to curl around the edges . . . but they live long in memory.

And speaking of lace . . . or any equally delicate and lovely design in fabric for women's more elegant blouses and dresses . . . there's no finer thing more delicate—ending to a woman than to have their fragile finery treated roughly so that its fresh loveliness is lost.

Many fabrics in women's clothes, especially the delicate laces and overlays and unusual siling you'll find in cocktail and evening dresses, require special handling when they're cleaned. Their cleaning can't be a mass production affair. They require careful, individual attention and extra care.

When you bring your best clothes to us, you can be sure of this personal attention to details, plus the thorough knowledge of cleaning techniques and of fabrics that assures you that your clothes will come back to you safe . . . and clean! We pick up and deliver, at

Bishop Released From Prison

Red Tortures Reported

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Ukrainian Archbishop Josyf Slipyi, unexpectedly released from 18 years of "horrible torture" and imprisonment in the Soviet Union, met with Pope John XXIII for an hour Sunday. A Vatican source said the Pope greeted Msgr. Slipyi "affectionately" and took him into his private chapel where the two gave "a prayer of thanks" and then had a "very cordial" talk. A spokesman for the Ukrainian Pontifical College in Rome said the 70-year-old archbishop of Lwow was "horribly tortured and was forced to do hard labor in Siberia during his imprisonment."

Msgr. Slipyi's release from Communist captivity came as a complete surprise. It was learned Saturday night that he had been freed by the Russians last Christmas. He arrived in Rome at midnight Saturday. Vatican sources said the archbishop's release was in no way a result of an agreement between the Kremlin and the Holy See.

"There have been no negotiations on this matter," the sources said. Msgr. Slipyi was arrested by the Russians April 11, 1945, because his predecessor as archbishop of Lwow had played host to German army officers during the war, according to a booklet of the Ukrainian college. The college said the archbishop, who is spiritual leader of all Eastern Rite Catholics in the Ukraine, was sentenced to eight years of forced labor in a Siberian "slave labor camp" on charges of collaborating with the Nazis.

Support For Frederick

Gordon Frederick has qualified for Mack Cleveland's vacated house seat and the Herald heartily endorses his candidacy.

Mr. Frederick has served this county in the Legislature since 1958, a member of the powerful appropriations committee, he has time and time again looked out for the people of this county.

It was Mr. Frederick who fought County Commissioners on the legislation to take away $50,000 for teachers from the county road and bridge fund.

It was Mr. Frederick who strongly opposed any pay raise for the commission who had only been in office 18 days.

It is unusual for a newspaper to come out in favor of a candidate before any "token" opposition forms. We feel we need his experience in the House to aid newcomer Joe Davis plan for this state's future growth and development.

Mr. Frederick has served this county well in the Capital halls. We hope the people will see fit to allow him to continue his effective, and visionary service.

Letters

To The Editor

Dear Mr. Editor:

I would like to raise a few questions and comments on the pipeline issue. I am interested somewhat as I live on Meltonville Ave. and it will come through my front yard.

It so happens that I am an employee of the A.C.L. Railroad of which I am proud. I am writing this on my own and it is not being approved by the A.C.L. Railroad; it is strictly mine of my business.

The issue involves people on both sides, and I think should be stated frankly.

Question: Who are the individuals that own the so-called Sanford Pipe Co.?

Question: Has it been organized? Question: Have they run a notice in your paper that they are using a fictitious name which is required by law?

One out of town paper stated that they are a taxpaying company.

Question: Who are they paying their taxes to?

Question: Why would Mr. Randall Chase put so much pressure on Mr. Tom Rice (president of the A.C.L. Railroad) to get him to stop the local employees from protesting the pipeline as you stated in your paper?

Now come on, Larry. Question: Does Mr. Chase really own the property on which the Sanford Pipe Co. tanks are to be located, or is it unfair simply going around?

Question: Why is Mr. Rider interested in this give-away in disregard to private property, and with no payroll?

In the last commissioners' meeting which brought three "no's" for the pipeline you stated that the voters would have their day at the polls.

Larry, I sat right behind you, and all that I could make out of the evidence presented was that it was going to cost the taxpayers more money, yet they were talking about a savings. Somehow they forgot to tell about the cost of transportation on the fuel from Jacksonville to the lakefront.

It was later brought out reluctantly that the bids had not been let.

Now come on, Larry! Don't you think the three that voted "no" were the ones that were really on the ball? They were asking for facts and figures and were using their pencils to try to make them work out. Didn't you also notice that the other two were not interested in facts and figures? It looked to me like they were doodling.

Mr. Editor: I have finally been convinced that if the Navy really wants a pipeline which they say they need, and have recently bribed the commissioners on the great savings they will make in having the pipeline. Well, Larry, I cannot get through my thick skull why they keep forgetting that someone is going to have to pay for the transportation from Jacksonville to the lake front.

If the Navy wants the pipeline as their own and wants it run down Meltonville Ave., I would like to be the first one to offer them the right of way at 3000 Meltonville Ave., and I will dig the ditch.

I am proud of the Navy being in Sanford. They are a part of us and we are a part of them.

Navy pipeline, YES. Private pipeline, NO! NO! I am afraid that it would have an odor of some kind, and it wouldn't smell like JP-5.

The fuel expert from Washington gave the figure 548,000 barrels to be pumped annually, and Mr. Rider gave at the commissioners' meeting a figure of 36,000,000 gallons. If 43 gallons is correct for one barrel of oil his figure would be 819,000 barrels.

548,000 barrels at 25 cents per barrel — approximately $137,000.00

819,000 barrels at 25 cents per barrel — approximately $204,750.00

I wonder if they are going to put their stock on the market. If you can find out let me know.

It was very interesting to notice that the attorney for the pipeline was very reluctant to admit the price was 25 cents from the lakefront to the base.

I commend these men for voting their convictions and not bowing to a pressure group that has been with us before.

Respectfully yours,

J. A. Calhoun
2009 Meltonville Ave.
Ph. FA 2-1948

Ed. Note: (It is public knowledge and was reported in the Herald that Mr. Chase does not own that property. Why shouldn't Mr. Rider be interested in the pipeline; why shouldn't every citizen of Sanford be interested? Why do we always have to deal in personalities around here instead of issues?)

Open letter to the Citizens of Seminole County;

Some of you probably have already decided as to your vote in the forthcoming special election. Thinking that you should have a choice, I had given serious consideration to filing in this election for the unexpired term of Mr. Cleveland. However, "Around the Clock" of Feb. 8 carried a not so subtle or veiled advice or threat — against my filing. This could also apply to other interested citizens.

In this wonderful country of ours, we have always believed that the people — and not some newspaper reporter — should elect those whom we want to represent us in the various branches of government. Also, that it is the inescapable duty of the press to print the truth of what has happened, correctly informing the public in all matters, then let the people make their own decisions. They also are capable of thinking and deciding.

Has one newspaper reporter the right and the qualifications to make decisions for you? To single out one candidate, however capable and qualified he may be, then tell you that you must vote for him? And warn others not to file? Thank God that in our American way of life — you have the right of making your own decisions.

Give this and other matters serious thought and let's keep ours — a government of the people, by the people, and for the people, that we so dearly love, fought for, and hundreds of thousands have died for. We can not and shall not tolerate any other.

Sincerely,

Vernon W. Dunn

(Ed. Note: That was certainly no threat. Just like you so much don't want to see you get upset when the Pork Choppers corner you in those halls.)

SPEAKING OF POLARIS MISSILES—1

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Joan found herself imprisoned in a small modern type of dungeon. And thousands of other adults, as well as children, also get locked in similar domestic "prisons" so take a moment to survey your home.

Then teach your children a few of the simple safety measures in case they start chomping on smoke.

CASE 0-455: Joan Crane is my sister-in-law.

Last winter my brother, Dr. John B. Crane, the economist, had left on a speaking trip for several days, so Joan was all alone in the house.

It was Saturday morning. She had entered the bathroom, wearing her nightgown, and absently had turned the lock on the door, although she was the only person in the house.

Also, when she tried to leave, the lock stuck. She couldn't get the door open. Hastily she looked around to see if there was anything she could use as a makeshift screwdriver to unfasten the hinges on the door.

But, as is true of the usual bathroom, there was nothing available.

And the only other possible exit was a narrow window that led out upon the roof.

Joan hesitated to try this window, for the roof was covered with snow. Besides, she couldn't get down from the roof, anyway, unless somebody would come along the street and bring her a ladder.

In desperation, however, Joan did open the window and eagerly watched the sidewalk for a pedestrian.

An hour passed and still nobody came in sight, for their house was on a dead-end street with little traffic of any sort thereon.

About 9:30, however, a boy strolled along. He was about 12 years old, so Joan called till she finally attracted his attention.

Then she told him she was locked in the bathroom and would be pleased to home and get a screwdriver for her. She wanted him to toss it upon the roof so she could use it to remove the hinges on the door.

But the boy told Joan he was late for his Saturday catchment class, but he would get her the screwdriver when he returned.

Joan waited patiently, meanwhile hoping somebody else would walk along the street.

But nobody else came in sight, so Joan began to worry lest the boy had forgotten her. After another anxious hour, the lad finally reappeared and tossed a screwdriver up to her.

She then unfasted the screws that held the hinges and thus was able to lift the bathroom door out of its frame and thus escape from her prison.

So it might benefit all of us to leave a screwdriver and a pair of pliers in the bathroom in case of such an emergency.

Sometimes children will also lock themselves inside and then grow so terrified they can't get the door open.

In such an event, what would you mothers do? And that is especially true if your bathroom door has the hinges on the inside where you can't get access to them.

Many door hinges have a metal center pin that can be removed, at least with a pair of pliers. But if those hinges are on the wrong side of the door, then you are helpless.

So take a quick look at your bathroom door to make sure. And if the hinges are on the inside, keep a spare screwdriver in your medicine cabinet for just such an emergency as befell Joan.

Furthermore, deliberately instruct your children in what to do if they should ever wake up, almost overcome with smoke, with the house on fire.

Many youngsters die from smoke suffocation when they might be saved if they were taught to grope for a window and smash the glass with their shoe.

There's no place like home — for pictures!

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA) — Many Americans couldn't care less about the hassle between French President Charles de Gaulle and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan over Britain's admission to the Common Market.

But there's one angle of this that every American has an interest in. It's how much American fried chicken the Common Market countries will eat and what the price will be.

Export of American poultry meats to the six EEC—European Economic Community—or Common Market countries has dropped nearly 50 per cent in the last year.

It was over 29 million pounds a month at the end of 1961, only 15 million pounds a month at the end of 1962 — and headed downward.

A principal reason for the drop was a 25 per cent price increase. This was caused entirely by new Common Market trade restrictions in the form of import fees.

Before the Common Market laid down its agricultural policy last August, American poultry—broilers, fowl, frozen and canned meats—could be landed in Europe at 31.4 cents a pound on the average. The Germans levied a 4.5 cents a pound tariff on that to protect domestic poultry raisers, but the 35.9 cent price was competitive with European wholesale prices.

Under the Common Market, the 4.5 cents duty has been dropped, but four additional import fees have been added.

These extras add up to 13.3 cents a pound. The price of American poultry delivered in Europe thus goes to 44.7 cents a pound average. This is far higher than EEC domestic prices. U.S. poultrymen can't compete with it and their European market is fast disappearing.

The U.S. government is kicking about this, naturally. It wasn't mentioned in the official communiqué, but when German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was in Washington last fall, President Kennedy complained to him about it. After a long debate in the Bundestag, German import fees were cut two cents a pound.

Whether Adenauer and De Gaulle discussed this when they signed their historic treaty of co-operation also was not mentioned in their communiqué.

Other things are involved, though chicken has become a symbol in this battle. The Common Market has thrown up restrictions on U.S. wheat and wheat flour, feed grains, rice, tobacco and vegetable oils. Cotton, soybeans, hides and skins, tallow, oil cake and meal are getting a better break.

France has restrictions against American apples, pears, prunes, citrus fruits, canned fruits and juices as well as many industrial products.

In the case of France, the United States might impose import fees on such things as, well — French wines, goose liver and cheese. That would create a real test on who would chicken out and be the first to cry "Uncle Sam!"

The new Trade Expansion Act set a firm policy in attacking restrictions against exports of both industrial and agricultural products.

It provides that the U.S. may take "protective action" by raising similar restrictions on imports from countries that discriminate against American exports.

New U.S. "trade czar," former Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, has gone to Europe as Kennedy's chief negotiator under the U.S. Trade Expansion Act passed by the last Congress. One of his principal jobs will be to work for removal or lowering of all EEC trade restrictions.

This is done by filing what are known as Article 23 proceedings under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

The United States already has started such proceedings against France, West Germany and Belgium. Earlier proceedings against Italy resulted in withdrawal of their fees.

In the case of France, the United States might impose import fees on such things as, well — French wines, goose liver and cheese. That would create a real test on who would chicken out and be the first to cry "Uncle Sam!"

Other things are involved, though chicken has become a symbol in this battle. The Common Market has thrown up restrictions on U.S. wheat and wheat flour, feed grains, rice, tobacco and vegetable oils. Cotton, soybeans, hides and skins, tallow, oil cake and meal are getting a better break.

France has restrictions against American apples, pears, prunes, citrus fruits, canned fruits and juices as well as many industrial products.

The new Trade Expansion Act set a firm policy in attacking restrictions against exports of both industrial and agricultural products.

It provides that the U.S. may take "protective action" by raising similar restrictions on imports from countries that discriminate against American exports.

Blood Bank Gets 97 January Donors

Response to appeals for help from the Seminole County Blood Bank have been gratifying, Ralph Wight II, chairman, announced as he released figures showing that 97 persons donated a pint of blood during the month of January.

"This fine response to the needs that can come to any of us at any time, serves as a safety factor for everybody," Wright said.

There were 33 persons who came in and were accepted to give their first pint of blood, four of them women. (Not all persons who volunteer are able to give blood, for varying reasons, and an examination must be made at each visit.)

Top donors this month was Robert B. Johns who gave his 22nd pint; Frank Holmes and Claude Hawkins, each gave 20 pints; Clifford Proctor and David Green, 17 pints.

Henry Faint received his Two Gallon Certificate for giving his 16th pint of blood, and John Beewiechen is only one pint away at his 16th donation.

John Fortier gave his 14th; Joe Zavrotny and S. B. Cogburn their 13th; Harry Wilson and Marvin Warfel their 12th; Ed Davis and Willard Sessions, their 11th; Raymond Hall and Jim Pigott, their 10th and Jesse Crews his ninth.

Three men and one woman hit the Gallon Club marker and received their key chains. They included Elizabeth Wilke, Hubert Smith, Lewis Schwelchert and John Buhl.

Just behind them at seven pints are Britt Yates, Alvin Hittell, Leroy Nopper, Christine Robertson and Wilfred Smorowski.

Sixth pint donors are Caren Gager, Lester Tillis, Louis Sweeten, Silas Lackey, George Bromberger, and Ralph Schwelchert.

At five are David Berrien and Willard Young and half-gallon donors include Kenneth Shaw, Elwyn Humphreys, Gordon Meyer, Harley Wilhelms, Raymond Lord, Stanley Poloski and Glenn McCall.

Three pint donors were Elva Pearson, Judy Asencio, Robert McCaskill, Harshell Harris Jr., Alvin Thompson, Oscar Bertrange, L. A. Tison, Burnie Wiggles, Cecil Abney, James Rafter, Richard Siles and Harry Leslie.

Coming in for the second round were Sammy Hills, Sara Jacobson, Royal Conrad, Robert Gay, Richard Brooke, Lloyd Seabe, Wilbur Yentsch, Patricia Johnson, Odel Hunt, Henry DeRose, James Rintle, mann, and Edward Wilson.

Donating for the first time, many of them because of the free movie passes issued at the MovieLand Drive-In by Manager Hugh Prince, to those who pledged to donate blood, were the following persons:

Tommy Crow, James Wright, Dewey Wilburn, Charles Jones, Susan Byrd, Fred Bias, Walter Britton,

Edward Miller, Charles Beal,

Henry Knowles, Raymond Olszewski, Charles Lipford, Al-fred DeLatilbeaudienne, Jim McGruther, Willie Lee Hills,

Donald Clark, Karl Feld, Mrs. Jean Converse, Avery Fields, Willie Marshall, Kenneth Merica, Michael Myatt, Carlos Raines, Travis Pence, Patricia Pence, Joseph Veayo, George Phillips, Raymond Boone, William Treptor, Richard Jones, Calvin Thomp-

To be selected as a teacher's aide, the future teacher must be a junior or senior, have earned points for service in the FTA, have the approval of each teacher and the principal. Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I'm glad that R.F.D. character wrote in to belly-ache about postage going up. It gives me an opportunity to let off a little steam. Maybe he doesn't know that the Post Office Department is a public service and operates at a deficit. Also, Post Office employees cannot strike against the government and probably wouldn't if they could. Tell this R.F.D. guy that he ought to thank God he is living in a country where he has the privilege of paying an extra penny for postage, rather than somewhere else where men are paying with their lives for freedom.

MR. CITIZEN

DEAR ABBY: In 1898, when postage was two cents, my father was employed as a barber. He earned $9 a week plus tips. If a barber's wages had gone up in the same proportion as postage, then effective January 7th, 1963, barbers would get $22.50 per week plus tips. Do you know of any barber who works for $22.50 a week? Does R. F. D. (the fellow who griped about the price of postage today) know of any?

K. G. S.

DEAR ABBY: I agree with R.F.D. all the way. Why wouldn't postage go up? If you saw all the free mailing sent by preferred personnel in the government, you'd understand it. It's as though I owned a garage and used all the labor and material to repair my own automobile and never put a dime in the register. Then I soaked my customers to pay for getting my own car fixed. If that is fair, my name is McGee.

CORWIN

DEAR ABBY: I was very much disturbed over a recent letter from a reader complaining about five-cent postage for letters. People can grumble about low incomes and high taxes, but not about the postage rates.

Over the years we have had a tremendous increase in the cost of everything. I am astonished that the postage rate is not higher. And, pray, where can you get more service for a nickel?

SUE

DEAR SUE: I am with you! The American people have shown themselves to be anything but cheap. My mail has INCREASED since postage went up!

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to ABBY, BOX 3365, BEVERLY HILLS, CALIF., for Abby's new booklet, "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

Jacoby On Bridge

Mrs. Leo Seewald writes from St. Paul, "Our annual Winter Carnival tournament is over and we are starting to get ready for 1964. Every one worked hard as usual, but we also found time to play and I think that Al Pask, one of our hardest workers, came up with the best hand of the tournament."

"I am not sure you will approve of the final contract of four hearts. Al didn't when he saw the dummy and counted up two spade losers, one club loser and probably one diamond loser. Then Al proceeded to make the hand anyway."

third club which Al carefully ruffed with the queen of trumps. Al led another spade and West was in with the ace. He led a spade and Al was in dummy. He ruffed dummy's last club with the ace of trumps and played three rounds of trumps. Because he had ruffed three clubs he was able to discard his nine of diamonds on dummy's jack of trumps and made the last three tricks with his fourth spade and two top diamonds. Is there a name for that play?

There sure is. It is known as a dummy reversal and this is a perfect example.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millett

"Did you ever notice," asks one of my women readers, "how few words there are to tell a man he looks especially handsome?"

"Any woman knows the importance of a thoughtful compliment when she has put extra effort into looking her best. And it makes a difference whether she is told she looks beautiful, lovely, glamorous, pretty, gorgeous—or any of dozens of other words that an observant man can use to give a woman a real lift.

"Yet when we women can see at a glance that a man has dressed with special care and attention to detail, what can we say other than 'My, how handsome you look!'"

"I've combed a thesaurus trying to find words to compliment the men of my family when I notice that extra-careful shave, those just-polished shoes, that tie carefully chosen for a certain suit, and the kind of shining radiance men exude when they have made a special effort to look their very best. But the complimentary adjectives suitable for a man are mighty scarce—'dashing,' 'handsome,' 'debonair.' What else is there?"

Come to think of it, the ways in which you can tell a man he looks especially handsome are pretty limited.

But even so, most men would probably be content if their wives would just notice how they look and make any kind of comment.

Most husbands would be pleased just to have their wives comment when they get a haircut, praise the fit of a new suit, approve of a new necktie, or brag a bit when

'Throw The Guy Out,' Clay Shouts At Sonny

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Heavyweight boxing champ Sonny Liston engaged brash Cassius Clay here Saturday in verbal battle that almost landed in the ring.

Clay, No. 2 contender who predicts knock-out rounds, was working out in a gym here Saturday night when the champ walked in unannounced.

Clay, never at a loss for words, yelled, "Throw that guy out of here. This is my training headquarters. This place isn't big enough for both of us!"

Sonny shot back, "The only reason it's not big enough is because I can catch you in here."

Then the champ offered Clay $100 a round to spar with him.

"Spar," Clay screamed. "You got in the ring now and we'll fight for nothing."

Promoters and trainers stepped between the two men, but the boiling Clay spouted forth:

"I had predicted Liston would fall in eight rounds. After this, you will fall in six."

He went on to tell the champ that he'll be waiting in his dressing room April 4 to sign a contract for the title match — "If you get by former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson."

Liston told Clay, "They ought to arrest you for impersonating a fighter."

Sanford Plays Here Tonight; Drops 10th

Sanford blew a seven point first period lead as the Leesburg eagles dumped the locals 67-48 in cage action Friday night.

It was the 10th loss of the season for the locals. They will host Deland in their final regular season tilt here tonight.

Three Sanford eagles hit for double figures in the losing cause. Hutch Riser connected for 15 points; Dave McMillin, who scored nine in the first period, ended up with 10 while Don McMurray also tallied for 10.

At the first quarter, Sanford led, 22-15 and held a one point margin at the half. It was all Leesburg in the second half as the home team scored 15 in the third quarter to Sanford's 10 and tallied nine in the final quarter to four for the Seminoles.

Lyman Batters Cudas, 34-30

Lyman battered New Smyrna Beach in a bitter cage struggle Friday night, 34-30, as Donnie Smith paced the winners scoring 13 points.

The first half ended in a 10-10 deadlock and the Greyhounds picked up ground in the third quarter holding the Cudas scoreless while they managed to pick up four points.

In the final period, Lyman tallied 11 points to New Smyrna's 10. Jim Shuster socked in 10 points for the victors. The Cudas won the preliminary tilt, 36-33. Tonight, Lyman travels to Kissimmee for a tilt.

Toppers stayed in the second spot, with Gladys Piliolan rolling a 157-439 and Beverly Kreeck a 150-400.

Markettes took third place, Gloria Summerford downed the 3-10 split and rolled a 159-364 for that team.

Palmer Shoots For Third Straight Phoenix Crown

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — Arnold Palmer goes to the tee today in an attempt to win an unprecedented third consecutive Phoenix Open golf championship—weather permitting.

The fourth round of the $35,000 event was scheduled to be played Sunday, but a combination of rain, wind and hail swept over the Arizona Country Club course in mid-afternoon, cancelling all scores.

For some it was a tough break, for others it may mean money in the bank.

Palmer goes into this round with a 51-hole total of 203 strokes—the same number he had when he teed off Sunday. He went only two holes before the storm broke and was given par.

But Gary Player, who had started the day one shot behind him with 204, had finished four holes and was two under par, and theoretically in the tournament lead, Jack Nicklaus, winner of the Palm Springs classic last week, also was even par for the two holes he played Sunday. He is tied with Player.

Several others, including Tony Lama, also were enjoying good rounds when the storm broke. Lama was three under par after seven holes and only two shots back of Palmer.

The storm broke out with such suddenness that thousands of fans were caught on the fairways and scattered in all directions. Some huddled under palm trees for protection from the biting sting of being hit by the large hailstones.

The powerful wind caught up lawn furniture along the fairways and smashed them into fences. Trees came toppling down. Concession tents were uprooted and sand-wiches and other food tossed about in the wind.

When it was all over the whole course was pure white, covered with hail stones. An hour later the hail stones still were visible lying on the ground.

One man died of a heart attack after running to the safety of the clubhouse. The telephone company estimated that damage to their equipment on the course would run close to $20,000. The tower for the television station covering the tournament blew down and the damage there was $5,000.

Old-Timer Dies
NORTHAM, England (UPI)—J. H. Taylor, 91, the grand old man of British golf and five-time British Open champion, died in this southwest England town Sunday.

CYPRESS GARDENS — To expect the unexpected is how the photographer planned these pictures of three year old Cindy Odum of Kingston, Tenn., who visited Cypress Gardens with her parents recently. The photographer had Cindy dressed in an old fashion gown, and then posed her with some China doll roses. The pictures tell the story of a small girl who's expression explains how she liked the flowers.

'Religion Fights Communism,' Ministers Tells Civic Club

By Louise Simunek
Rev. Ray Woody of the First Presbyterian Church of Maitland stated in no uncertain terms that "one of the ways to prevent Communism is through the Church" adding that "if you want to be on the right side, you should support your churches."

"Communism is a Religion," Rev. Woody said, "but a very evil one and no stones should be left unturned in our fight against it."

The talk was very engrossing and was enjoyed by a large attendance present for the meeting of the Altamonte Springs Civic Club last Wednesday afternoon.

The club had a full program with another part of it featuring the handwork of members who had made their own clothes. Among the many ladies who modeled outfits were Mrs. Louise Cadin, Mrs. H. G. Fuller, Mrs. Emma Welborn, Mrs. Milton Tinsley and Mrs. T. L. Gorham.

Mrs. Cadin was the candidate selected to go to Leesburg on March 16 to compete with other women in district seven of the Federation of Women's Clubs.

Her garment was a tailored, forest green wool jersey, trimmed with matching braid at the neckline and effective vertical tucks on three-quarter length sleeves. The dress was very becoming and the tailoring work was superb.

Announcement was made that the club's executive board would meet Feb. 27 at 10 a.m. in the Community House to prepare for the meeting of the Seminole County Federation of Women's Clubs which is to be covered dish luncheon held on Feb. 28.

Mrs. Charles McDowell, district seven director of the Florida Federation, will be guest speaker.

Also in the planning is a card party to be held at 2 p.m. on March 13. Considerable time and work already has gone into this event and Dr. Gertrude Forman, president, announced that the club has more than 80 door prizes to be given at the party.

In addition to the door prizes, individual table prizes also will be awarded. Tickets are available from any member of the club.

Named to the nominating committee were Mrs. Helen Juth, Mrs. E. A. Dalman and Mrs. J. Burkes.

Nobody asked me but how can the city turn down John Burton's request to allow the sale of liquor at the Valdez after midnight and know the Mayor can serve until 2 a.m. . . . What kind of logic is that? . . . Burton has done a tremendous job fixing up the hotel and should be given some consideration.

Legislative hearings scheduled Monday . . . Joe Davis will have to go it alone and face John Fitzpatrick about that pay raise . . . However, Joe will invite candidates Mack Cleveland Jr. and Gordon Frederick to sit in . . . Queried Joe about a pay raise and Joe says "It's rather doubtful" . . . "It all depends" . . . eh?

Memo to the City recreation department . . . Anyone ever thought about a course on small boat handling? . . . Getting tired of balon twirling.

The jam-packed city commission room heard from the lips of hiszop, Mayor Tom McDonald, that this was NOT the place from which to launch personality conflicts . . . The City Fathers want COLD facts, not HOT heads to help in their decisions.

Too bad that Ken McIntosh was "sick-a-bed" and could not represent his client, "The Pipeline" . . . But his partner-in-law, Doug Stenstrom, substituted very well . . . With his sympathetic approach to the ACL through the theme-song of his family, "I've Been Working On The Railroad," telling of some six or was it eight? Stenstrom having been on the ACL roster here . . . and his logic would have delighted Ken . . . His other partner-in-law, Rep. Joe Davis, did NOT applaud—even though he no doubt was tempted—but he did smile approvingly as Doug plead his case.

A number of leading business men were in the audience . . . Much concerned with the decision and what it COULD do to the local economy . . . After great effort and many years, the Navy Base has just achieved the sought-for completion of permanency . . . Navy rarely asks us for anything, and although this decision of the commissioners would not make or break the Navy, neither would it do the city any harm to grant their request . . . So, why not further cement the Navy-City relationship and strengthen our reputation as "the world's friendliest Navy city" by granting this—a seldom-sought favor? . . . Keeping the Base growing . . . or even keeping it here—means keeping our biggest industry . . . Many people now working here wouldn't BE working . . . and that includes ACL folks who move many a car onto and off the base . . . if the Navy "folds" . . . You'd better believe that those businessmen, sitting in that commission room, were concerned! . . . And since all five of the City Commissioners also have financial investments in our local business world, they SHOULD have been, too . . . were . . . Although that was not the basis of their decision.

The Downtown Merchant's bulletin reminds the First Street folks that the potted plants when they are used as trash receptacles, you know—cigarette wrappers, cigar butts, etc., do NOT ADORN the city, so KEEP 'EM CLEAN . . . That may well be said to all of us . . . Let's all keep Sanford clean—and beautiful.

Lessee now, is it the city or the Garden Club that's responsible for the appearance of the "Triangle Park" at 25th and Park Avenue? . . . It, too, could do with a bit of cleaning up . . . Maybe Dig 'n Whistle would like to—since a lot of the cups on the park site etc. originate there!

The Sanford Pipeline Co. will submit its proposed lease to transport jet fuel from Lake Monroe to the Naval Air Station at the Feb. 25 City Commission meeting after commissioners Monday night by a "tongue" 3-2 vote agreed to continue negotiations with the company.

The two month old hassle ended with M. L. "Sonny" Raborn brandishing a legal opinion from city attorney Bill Hutchison, reporting the city had the legal right to grant a permit to the company to use public rights-of-way.

The company plans to transport the fuel from the lake, up Mellenville Ave., to NAS.

Voting with Raborn for the pipeline approval was Joe Baker and Mayor Tom McDonald.

Jim Crapps and Al Wilson voted "no" on the issue with Wilson asking for a vote of the people while Crapps talked about safeguarding people's rights.

The commission chambers were jammed with interested citizens, members of the Chamber of Commerce and Atlantic Coast Line employees.

Courthouse Annex Study Asked Of County Board

Feasibility study toward the establishment of a courthouse annex in South Seminole County was requested of the County Commission this morning.

Douglas Stenstrom, chairman of the long range planning and development program, Chamber of Commerce, asked that the Commission appoint a committee of "responsible citizens" to "study the feasibility of establishing a facility in the south end of Seminole County for the extension of courthouse services."

Stenstrom asked that these factors be investigated: Is the facility needed? If so, what kind would serve the need? What would be the initial cost? How much overhead would be involved? How should it be staffed? Who will select the personnel? Will the operation be paid for from the general fund of the county or through the excess fees of the offices using the facility?

County office holders have agreed that a study should be made, Stenstrom told the Commission.

The question was taken in to abeyance for study and discussion at the next Commission meeting.

County Attorney Harold Johnson was directed to draft tentative legislative bills for discussion at a special Commission meeting later this week on these subjects: Water management, with a referendum for the taxpayers to approve or disapprove ad valorem taxes; uniform junk and/or salvage yard control; animal control, especially, dogs, and for the establishment of a criminal court of records at some future date.

The Commission will present these proposals at the legislative delegation hearing next Monday.

'Limited' Casselberry Meet: Just Not So

Drainage, annexation, roads and a new town charter were main items on the agenda for the Casselberry Board of Aldermen at Monday night's "limited" meeting which extended into a three hour session.

Paul Bates, in charge of committees studying the first three items, reported that water levels in Casselberry area lakes are nearing "Hurricane Donna" heights. He advised that with the board's approval he would represent the town at today's County Commission meeting to ask that an engineering study and survey be made on providing drainage outfall for the area.

Further progress on annexation of the shopping center at Hwy. 17-92 and SR 430 also depends to a great extent on providing drainage outfall, Bates said.

Other points holding up agreement between the town and Shopping Center officials were reported by Mayor Fred Heath who pointed out that the town is particularly interested in that parcel of the center not included in the annexation request and would like to know future development plans for the area before okaying the present arrangement.

The town questions whether or not a liquor license could be obtained if this area remains in the county although it is not the specified 500 feet from a church called for by municipal ordinances.

Reporting on roads, Bates said that although the county would not approve resurfacing on Seminole Blvd. done by the Parkway from Lake Drive to the entrance, it had agreed to do the work on Button Road.

Prices for resurfacing the boulevard from Lake Drive on out to Hwy. 17-92 might run higher than estimated due to recent heavy rains, Bates pointed out, adding, however, that at present the town and Parkway stand to get at least part of their investment returned under the joint participation agreement with the county.

Search Cuba Waters For Ship

JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—The Coast Guard today planned to search as close to Cuba as possible for a tanker which mysteriously disappeared nine days ago on a voyage from Texas to Virginia.

The fifth day of searching ended Monday night with no trace of the Marine Sulphur Queen and its 39 crewmembers.

"God knows where the tanker is now," said an officer at the search center here.

"We are undoubtedly looking for the remains of a sea disaster," he said. "It could have blown up, or broken up and sunk without a survivor, or maybe it was hijacked."

A Coast Guard spokesman at Portsmouth, Va., said, "We are reasonably well convinced the tanker is not afloat along the Atlantic Seaboard."

Heath announced that Jack Hurns had been appointed chairman of the Zoning Board and Larry Miller, chairman of the Recreation Commission.

Other business, including appointments of a building inspector and a lighting committee chairman, was carried over until the continued meeting to be held next Monday night at the Women's Club Building.

Approved preliminary plans for $275,000 24-foot paved Highway 427 between Altamonte Springs and Longwood, and referred them to SRD for further processing.

Granted permission to the South Seminole Gun Club to improve the roadway leading to its grounds.

Instructed Clerk Arthur Beckwith to advise the South Seminole Elementary School Council of Parents and Teachers the County cannot legally improve the road leading to the school since the street is in the Town of Casselberry.

Agreed to meet with proponents of a nursing home at Delray at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the Commission room.

Referred to Commissioner John Alexander a request of Sarcetta Rest Home to care for the county's ambulatory patients for his recommendation.

Named The Sanford Herald as the official newspaper for all county legal advertising in 1963.

Knowles Urges City: Don't Up Center Rates

City Manager W. E. Knowles asked the City Commission Monday night "not to increase" the rental rates of the Civic Center and stressed the facility would "never be a self-sustaining public building."

ual center revenue at $2,731 and expenditures at $7,950.

"To raise the rental rates would cause a great deal of concern among the many civic groups that use the building," Knowles said.

City Turns Down Valdez Request

The City Commission by a 3-2 vote turned down a request from the Valdez Hotel to serve liquor after midnight.

Opposing owner John Burton's request was Tom McDonald, Joe Baker and Al Wilson.

Burton asked that his hours be extended the same as the Mayfair which is allowed to serve liquor until 2 a.m.

Cold Front Moves In State

MIAMI (UPI)—A gusty squall line, preceding a slow-moving cold front, deluged most of the state today. Up to six inches of rain and winds around 50 miles an hour were reported.

A 28-foot ketch was swamped by a big wave near Key Largo last night, but the five persons aboard were rescued by a tanker.

The weather bureau issued a severe weather forecast in a sector of South Central Florida for thunderstorms with damaging winds and a possible tornado during the morning.

Ex-Marine Dies; Under Truck

A 37-year-old ex-marine apparently committed suicide by diving under a tractor Monday on Second St. and French Ave., police reported.

The man was identified as Richard Saxe.

Police reported that eye witnesses said they saw the man dive under the truck operated by J. B. Williams of Raleigh, N. C.

Saxe died enroute to Orange Memorial Hospital.

Baghdad Revolt

BAGHDAD, Iraq (UPI)—Sporadic gunfire echoed from the outskirts of Baghdad today. In other sections the revolt-torn city appeared to be returning to normal four days after last week's coup d'etat.

William C. Foster, director of the U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, told the first 1963 meeting of the 11-month-old conference that "I believe that there is some reason to hope that a test ban agreement may be on the way."

Soviet First

STOCKHOLM (UPI)—Soviet doctors have successfully developed artificial limbs which can be operated by nerve impulses from the hand-dipped person's muscles, the newspaper Dagens Nyheter said today.

Pro-Nasser Forces In Iraq Control

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI)—Provisional President Col. Abdul Salam Aref and his pro-Nasser military supporters today appeared in firm control of Iraq despite stubborn Communist resistance.

The list of countries granting recognition to the five-day-old rebel government in Baghdad grew by the hour. The United States, Great Britain and the Soviet Union were among those to recognize it Monday.

Asian flu has struck at least 13 states in the East and Midwest but the U. S. Public Health Service (PHS) says the outbreak probably will be less serious than the 1957 and 1960 epidemics.
