Sangster Memorial Service Set

Memorial services for Lcdr. John B. Sangster will be held in the Sanford Naval Air Station Chapel at 1 p. m. tomorrow, with Chaplain William C. Fuller officiating. Burial in Arlington National Cemetery is scheduled Friday.

Lcdr. Sangster died when his Sywarrior jet crashed near East Moody, N. C., after both engines flamed out. Attempts to relight the engines failed but Sangster kept the plane under control long enough to descend through a heavy overcast enabling his two crew members to bail out.

A graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Lcdr. Sangster attended schools in Grinnell, Iowa, at the State University at Iowa. He is survived by his wife, Diane; a 20-month-old daughter, Gail, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Sangster Sr., Nathrop, Colo.

Planning to dedicate a memorial seat to Sangster in the Navy and Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, Annapolis, his family prefers that in place of flowers, donations for the seat be sent to the Commanding Officer of VAH-1, at the Sanford NAS.

BACK FROM ORDEAL are First Class Photographer's Mate Deiton E. Wilson (L.) and Second Class Aviation Electrician's Mate William G. Mitchell. The two Navy men who were ordered to bail out of Lcdr. J. B. Sangster's flamed-out jet last Wednesday, were flown back to the Sanford Naval Air Station Friday. Wilson lives at 115 Summerlin Dr. Sanford. Mitchell is from St. Petersburg. (Staff Photo)

Labor Reform Bill Offer May Head Off Senate Fight

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House Republicans conferred, in a surprise move, reported today that they would offer some new proposals which could head off a Senate floor fight over the labor reform bill.

If Senate Democrats agreed to the offer made by the House group, Senate Republicans obviously would abandon their plan to call up a resolution asking the full Senate to break the conference deadlock in favor of the House bill.

GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen introduced the resolution Friday after the committee deadline on House bill curbs on secondary boycotts and organizations of picketing and on federal-state jurisdiction in labor disputes. He said he would call up the resolution for action later today.

This appears to be a move to hope that the conference could agree on a bill before then.

Over the weekend, however, the House conference came up with some new proposals which apparently would at least partly accept the modification demanded by Senate Democrats.

Rep. Robert Griffin (R-Mich.) said he and Rep. Phil Landrum (D-Ga.) co-authors of the tough Landrum-Griffin bill passed by the House drew up the package. Asked if it represented a concession on their part, Griffin said he preferred to call it an "adjustment."

Good Intention

MOSCOW (UPI) — Premier Khrushchev is interested in a new proposal from West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to resume disarmament talks and wants more details, Tass news agency reported today.

Khrushchev said disarmament and other East-West issues "are not insoluble" and reiterated his promise that he is going to the United States "with good intentions to help peace" and to "melt the ice of the cold war." Tass said.

The new Adenauer proposal brushed aside warnings about Soviet military might made by Khrushchev in his earlier note, and instead appealed to the Soviet leader to reopen big disarmament talks.

Adenauer said the negotiations should begin where they broke off in August 1957.

Rain, Flash Flood Cave Streets, Soak Homes

SARASOTA (UPI) — Pitted streets, ruined lawns and water-soaked homes remained today as evidence of the rain storm-triggered flash flood that struck Sarasota Saturday night.

The Weather Bureau predicted the area would have scattered showers today, but nothing like the four inches of rain that deluged some sections of the city Saturday.

Water stood waist-deep in some areas, causing stalled traffic, street cave-ins and at least one bridge washout. Most affected homes had returned to near-normal by Sunday night.

Hardest hit was the Southgate section, which lost electric power and water service when the flood washed out water lines. One family was evacuated by civil defense workers.

City officials said there was no way to accurately estimate the damage total. However, they said damage would run into "the thousands of dollars."

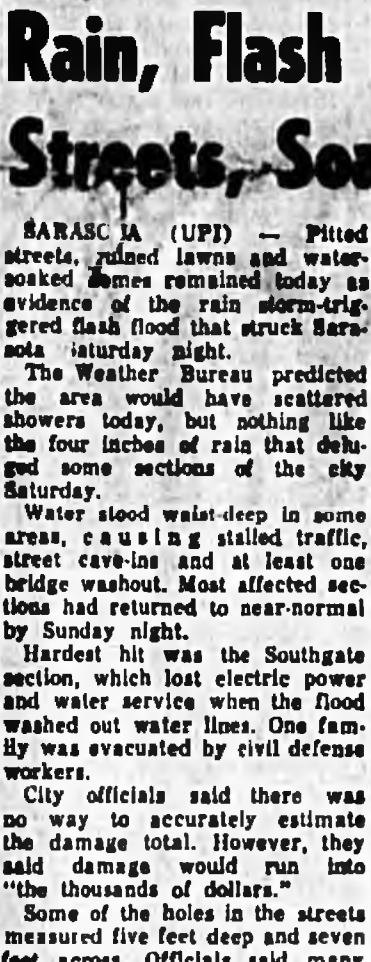

Some of the holes in the streets measured five feet deep and seven feet across. Officials said many streets were underlaid and the damage might not show up until later.

During the storm's height, lightning knocked about 50 bricks from a downtown hotel's chimney. They damaged an automobile below.

A mystery was the whereabouts of a small plane whose pilot radioed Sarasota - Bradenton Airport that he was lost and low on fuel just before the storm hit.

An all-day search Sunday by a Coast Guard boat and law enforcement officers aboard turned up no trace of either the pilot or its aircraft.

Residents of a nearby community said they heard a plane's engine pattering, but did not hear a crash or see the plane land. Authorities theorized the pilot may have made an emergency landing and then departed without informing anyone.

Mental Health Unit Invites Public

The Seminole County Mental Health Association invites the public to attend its meeting at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow in the First Methodist Church's McKinley Hall.

Plans for work in this fall's United Fund Campaign, setting up of a nominating committee and review of the year's work are scheduled.

Driver Licenses On Sale Tomorrow; Sites Listed

The 1960 drivers licenses will go on sale Tuesday 9 A. M. in the lobby of the Court House.

Renewal prices remain the same, $1.25 for operator and restricted operator licenses, and $2.25 for chauffeur licenses. Anyone now holding 1959 Florida license may renew it by bringing the license in person, or by sending it by an adult member of the family, or an employer may obtain licenses for his employees.

They may be renewed by mail. The entire original license must be presented in order to renew, and the applicant may keep the green carbon copy to use while the license is being renewed.

All restricted operator licenses must be renewed before October or examination will be required. Those now holding out-of-state valid licenses must appear in person to obtain Florida license, and anyone under 18 years of age must have signature of both parents and appear in person.

County Judge Wilson Alexander is extending the service this year and hiring additional help to give fast and efficient issuance and applicants may save much time by having license and exact change ready when they are next in line.

In addition to issuing licenses in the Court House in Sanford during the month of September, Judge

Alexander will take a staff to the following places for the convenience of residents:

Lake Mary Post Office, Sept. 3, from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m.

Griffin Real Estate, opposite Glass Tower, Fern Park, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Casselberry Post Office, Casselberry, Sept. 9, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Oviedo Town Hall, Sept. 10 and Sept. 22, 2-5 p. m.

Geneva Community Hall, Sept. 10, 9:30-11:30 A. M.

Fla. Power Corp. Club House, Bear Lake, Sept. 1, 2-5 p. m.

Altamonte Springs Town Hall, Sept. 15, 2-5 p. m.

Longwood Town Hall, Sept. 16, 2-5 p. m.

Adm. Bldg. Forest Lake Academy, Sept. 17, 2-5 p. m.

Naval Air Station, Sanford, Sept. 17, 2-5 p. m.

The first two weeks of September, when little interest is shown, the hours at the Court House will be from 9 a. m. to noon and 1-5 p. m., Monday through Friday.

Starting September 14, the office will be open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. to accommodate residents who wish to purchase the licenses during the lunch hour. Also, the office will be kept open on Saturday, Sept. 19, and from 9 a. m. to noon for persons who cannot renew licenses any other day.

Deputy Gets Two Hits With One Shot

Sheriff's Deputy W. R. Brown shot two men with one bullet in a Midway struggle early Saturday morning.

Brown had James Henderson under arrest and was taking him to a patrol car when Henderson jumped Brown, according to the sheriff's office. Ollie Stallworth came to help Henderson, with whom the deputy was struggling. Brown managed to draw his pistol and shot Henderson. The bullet passed through him and hit Stallworth.

Both the Negro assailants are in Orange Memorial Hospital and will recover, barring any complications, Sheriff J. L. Hobby said today.

Officer Delivers 40th Baby On Job

NEW YORK (UPI) — Patrolman Robert L. Desendorf Jr., 33, Sunday delivered his 40th baby.

The 21-year police force veteran, who took several pre-med courses before joining the force and carries a medical kit with him on the job for just such emergencies, beat the ambulance to the home of Mrs. Frances Lopez and assisted in the birth of a seven-pound 10-ounce boy.

Fire Put Out

An attic blaze Friday brought the Sanford Fire Dept. out on its ninth August call. Little damage was caused by the fire at the 801 Perimeter house which belongs to Mrs. Verdell McIntosh.

British Back 'Firm, But Flexible' Stand In Khrushchev Talks

Ike Position Gets Added Strength

LONDON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today ended the second round of top secret Allied cold war talks assured of Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's support for a "firm but flexible" stand in dealing with Russia's Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Macmillan's backing was confidence from West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. He placed Eisenhower in a strong position for his talks with Italian and French leaders when he goes to Paris Wednesday.

The president and Macmillan completed a week end of intensive discussions and headed back to London this morning from the Prime Minister's Chequers estate.

Police were prepared to cope with another overwhelming popular demonstration for Eisenhower on the drive through the heart of the capital to visit a World War II memorial chapel for Americans dead at St. Paul's Cathedral.

Tonight the president and prime minister were expected to disclose to the world in an unprecedented joint radio-television appearance some details of their weekend talks.

Eisenhower and Macmillan held a series of conferences Saturday and Sunday with their foreign ministers and a small group of top advisers at Chequers.

They discussed the forthcoming Khrushchev-Khrushchev meeting, the Communist drive against the free world, means of strengthening NATO, disarmament, Western defense, nuclear test ban negotiations, the forthcoming United Nations General Assembly meeting and the Red Chinese threats against Laos and India's northern frontier.

Virtually no details of the talks were disclosed by Eisenhower and Macmillan's press officers and there was a near revolt Sunday night by the 400 or more newsmen who have come here to cover the meeting.

Other reliable diplomatic sources disclosed the two had reached broad agreement on a "firm but flexible" line to be taken when the president exchanges visits with Khrushchev.

They were said to have agreed that the president take a firm stand on basic principles while indicating the West's readiness to negotiate toward a cold war settlement.

In addition to a possible summit meeting, they were said to have agreed that the West should press for other conferences with the Soviet Union on lower levels on specific issues such as disarmament and a nuclear test ban.

The sources said the two were in close agreement on situations in the Middle and Far East.

Macmillan also was said to have indicated that Britain no longer intends to press for Red China's recognition by the United States for admittance to the United Nations.

India Reports New Invasions

NEW DELHI, India (UPI) — The Chinese Communists have made new invasions into the Slang and Lohat division of India's North-East Frontier Agency region, unofficial reports here said today.

The reports gave no details of the alleged new aggression by the Reds into India's border area. They came as Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru said that India would try to solve its border problems with Communist China by negotiation rather than war.

Nehru told Parliament his plan was twofold — to reinforce Indian border forces while at the same time talking the situation over with the Peking government.

Even as he spoke Indian newspapers published reports that the Chinese had entered the Day Himalayan country of Bhutan from Tibet and had climbed again within Indian border guards.

The Nehru government was reported to have dispatched heavy army reinforcements to the north with instructions to shoot if necessary to drive back encroaching Chinese.

Nehru's speech to Parliament, however, was designed to reduce some of the tension that has been building up. He said war was not the way to settle disputes.

He said the difficulty is that Indians 'tain certain northern territories on their maps and the Chinese Communists claim the same soil. He said he hoped conferences and talks could work out the dispute.

Nehru told of four clashes between Indian and Chinese troops during August but said the last one he was informed about occurred Wednesday. The other three occurred Aug. 1, 14 and 25, he said.

Old Sheets Can Help In Cancer Unit Job

If there are any old bed sheets around your house, you should make good use of them right now by giving them to the Cancer Unit of the Cancer Society.

Clean sheets, even though worn, make good dressings for cancer patients. The unit here has volunteer workers making these dressings as fast as they can. The problem is that the volunteers can work only as fast as materials are available and the way the cancer unit gets these particular materials is by using old sheeting.

The Cancer Society has asked that anyone having old sheets, no matter how large or small the bundle, contact the office of Bud Moughton at 218 W. 1st St. or the home of Mrs. J. N. Amaral, 500 Park Ave.

An old bed sheet you might be saving for the kids next Halloween can help ease the pain of a cancer patient.

Registration Books Open Sept. 4

Supervisor of Registration, Camelia Bruce has published notice that the voting registration rolls will be open for 30 days beginning Sept. 4.

Seminole County residents are entitled to register to vote if they meet these qualifications:

- Have reached the age of 21 years and have not registered for county, state and national elections since 1949.
- Have lived in Florida one year and in Seminole County for six months of that year.
- Have changed their names since registering.
- Have changed addresses since registering.

Mrs. Bruce reminds the citizens that if they desire to register a ballot in the November election this year they must register on or before October 3.

This election will include the vote on the reapportionment of the legislature adopted by the lawmakers subject to approval by the people. It would give Seminole County its own senator instead of the county sharing the senator with Bradford County.

The registration office will be open from 9 a. m. to noon and 2 to 5 p. m., Monday through Fridays and from 9 a. m. to noon on Saturdays.

The office of registration is in the Chamber of Commerce building, 400 E. 1st St., Sanford.

All eligible citizens ought to get on the rolls and vote.

Visit Exchange Feared 'Oversold'

TOKYO (UPI) — There is a building fear in the minds of many Americans that the Eisenhower-Berlin visit may lead to a terrific letdown in Asia.

And that means literally as well as figuratively. But mostly literally.

It must be understood that just as the West for all its best efforts, is lacking in insight into the ways of Asia, so Asia is unappreciative of the understanding of the things of the great powers of Europe and North America.

Asia has all the cohesive qualities of quicksilver. But soundings made by United Press International throughout the vast area indicate that, at least from the American point of view, too much is being expected of these historic visits of the two most powerful leaders in the world today.

The danger is, again from the American standpoint, that the sweetness and light will cut the ground from under the strong pro-American stand taken by our allies in Asia; weaken the pro-Western stand of government leaders in such countries as Japan and the Philippines; and strengthen the hand of the Communists in the so-called neutralist nations of Asia.

Plainly, the fear is that the visits have been "oversold."

VULCAN'S ANNUAL DAY OFF

Assignment Washington

By ED KOTERA

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower is sometimes awed, and possibly irritated, by the magnificent fuss made over her by White House protocol, which keeps a tight iron shield between her and the outside world.

And even the President does not like to think that there is a long chain of command between his First Lady and those who should be able to reach her easily. Either that, or President Eisenhower—bred on this business of going through channels—has a lapse now and then when he talks to newsmen and suggests they go directly to an elusive source for their answers.

The other day, the President at his press conference graciously replied to a series of questions about his personal plans for 1961. But the part where I asked whether he and the First Lady planned a Washington apartment after leaving the White House, he grinned and said I should have one of my lady reporter friends call up and ask Mamie.

Several lady reporters did call, and the closest they got to Mrs. Eisenhower was her personal secretary, Mary Jane McCaffree.

Getting to Mrs. McCaffree is often a tiring accomplishment. Some callers don't get beyond the personal secretary's personal secretary.

Whenever our town's society reporters want to get a bit of gossip news from the White House, they first try to reach Mrs. McCaffree. Inevitably, they are connected, eventually, to a voice other than Mrs. Eisenhower's secretary.

"Who is calling?" says the voice. You tell her. Long silence. The voice comes back on, and they maybe or maybe not the voice will say, "Mrs. McCaffree will now talk to you."

One evening a social reporter happened to describe this exasperating routine to Mrs. Gordon Moore, Mamie's sister. Mrs. Moore—the girl call her "Mike"—re-layed this laughingly to Mamie, as the story goes.

Mrs. Eisenhower was fascinated, if not disturbed. However, she must have considered the report exaggerated, for she cooked up a scheme to find out for herself.

The lady reporters swear on a stack of Bibles that this is true. Mrs. Eisenhower, an inveterate telephone user anyway, picked up the phone, dialed the White House, and asked for Mrs. Eisenhower.

She kidded her way through the switchboard, to Mrs. McCaffree's office, to her secretary's secretary, to the old coo-woo play within the office, and finally got Mrs. McCaffree. Just what happened then isn't quite clear.

But later the First Lady came up to Mrs. Moore, as the society gals tell it, and exclaimed in amazed resignation: "T'mow, Mike, you were right about those calls!"

That shield is still around the First Lady, whether she likes it or not, as those who tried to reach her the other day discovered.

I've been wondering whether the President was really serious when he suggested that a mere reporter could get directly to Mrs. Eisenhower on the phone.

He made one thing clear, though, in that press conference reply. And that is: It's Mamie Eisenhower who makes the household decisions in that house.

Only Churchill Left Of 'Big Five' Of World War II

LONDON (UPI) — Adolf Hitler killed himself in the stinking ruins of his Berlin bunker while the boom of Russian guns tolled the death knell of his empire.

Benito Mussolini was shot and strung up by the heels in an Italian gas station.

Franklin D. Roosevelt died with victory in Europe only days away.

Joseph Stalin lived long enough to plunge peace into the cold war.

Only Winston Churchill of the "big five" is still alive. At the age of 85, he spent the lazy summer months of 1959 cruising around the Mediterranean on a Greek millionaire's yacht.

What of the others whose thoughts and actions of 30 years ago changed the history of the world?

In Britain in 1939, the names on everyone's lips were Churchill, Chamberlain and Eden.

Neville Chamberlain died a bitter and broken man not long after war was declared, his spirit shattered by forces beyond his control.

Anthony Eden survived as a power in British politics until 1956 and another war, this time against the Egyptians and Gamal Abdel Nasser. It was a war that was a disaster, and Eden retired in disillusioned man.

In France, the greatest name of them all emerged from the war years as an all-conquering hero but it was not until 1956 that

Gen. Charles de Gaulle finally found the niche in post-war France that had evaded him for so long.

Paul Reynaud, the courageous little Frenchman who was overwhelmed by events he could not understand when he was Premier of France in 1940, survived a political prison to emerge as a wartime leader in the Fourth Republic. He helped draft the constitution which brought Gen. de Gaulle's Fifth Republic into existence.

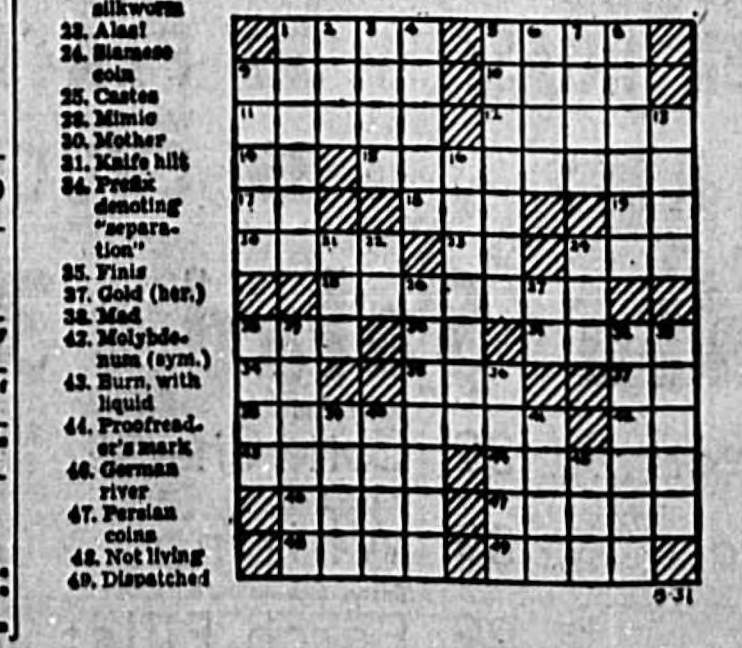

Edouard Daladier, French Premier at the time of Munich, remained in politics after the war, most of which he spent in Fatale German internment. He was swept out of political life by the Gaullist landslide last fall because of his opposition to Gaullism.

Construction Job

DENVER (UPI) — Twenty-four young men and girls have their work all cut out for their next week. They have to rebuild a privy in Morrison Park. They were caught tearing it down Saturday. Park police agreed not to prosecute if they rebuild it.

Washington Calling

By MARSH COWLEY

PARIS — So much hangs in the balance — for France, for the Western alliance, for the world — on events in the days just ahead that the importance of these events can hardly be exaggerated.

The President of the Fifth Republic, Gen. Charles de Gaulle, must at last try to make those decisions which he has so long postponed. For the simple truth is that time has run out.

De Gaulle must and the war in Algeria or he will very soon find himself complete captive of the army and of the extreme nationalists here in France and in Algeria. Le Monde, one of the few papers that still writes seriously on events in France, heads a long commentary: "There is still time... The article suggests that the choice is between 'Liberal De Gaulle and totalitarian nationalism.'"

While President Eisenhower's dilemma during his visit here will be nothing like as painful as that of De Gaulle, it will nevertheless be acute enough. During their private talk, which will come at the end of the visit, De Gaulle intends to unveil for the American President his new procedure for Algeria.

That the formula is no one, including perhaps De Gaulle himself, knows for certain at this time. The current speculation is that he will call for an effort to make peace with all the Moslem elements in Algeria, among them, as one and the only, the rebel liberation movement known as FLN.

The uncertainty which De Gaulle himself may feel has its origin in the controls that have been exercised by Soviet in the army ever since the revolution of the colonists in Algeria that brought De Gaulle to power in May of 1958. Some go as far, privately at least, as to call it an invisible government. As De Gaulle has delayed and the war with all its costs in manpower, blood and money has gone on, it has seemed to many that the invisible power has grown greater while the visible government has correspondingly lost not only prestige but the capacity to take the tough decisions.

In his latest mission to Algeria, on the eve of the Eisenhower visit, De Gaulle is trying to determine how far he can go in offering terms for a cease-fire. It is said that he will go to the command posts to get the views of the younger officers on the firing line. He seems to be searching for areas of loyalty beneath the level of those who have a rigid and unyielding view of the need to continue the "pacification" to the bitter end, with all its horrors of organized torture and brutality.

In this he resembles a sensitive old elephant feeling his way over terrain that is full of pitfalls and traps. There is something poignant in this spectacle for this noble elephant, who for all his ambiguity and obscurities has performed heroic service in an heroic fashion.

What he tells Eisenhower in general outline De Gaulle will make the subject of speech to the world, to be delivered some time after September 10 and before September 15. If Eisenhower could give the new formula his wholehearted approval, then De Gaulle's position would be strengthened at home and abroad. But approval depends on whether he can go far enough to convince the Arabs and the Africans, who now stand in almost unanimous opposition, that he wants to make a just peace.

September 15 is the looming deadline. That is the date on which the United Nations General Assembly meets. The Asians, Africans and Arabs, with some help from newly rebellious nations in Latin America, are determined to pass a resolution censuring France for conducting a "colonial" war in Algeria.

That could be the trigger setting off a chain of fatal consequences. The extreme nationalists would welcome it as a means of discrediting the U. N. and forcing the allies of France to take sides. In recent speeches Premier Michel Debre has more or less openly said that if the Allies did not give France a blank check in Algeria then they would cease to be allies.

There is also the matter of money. For some time Finance Minister Antoine Pinay has been saying that France cannot wage a war engaging 600,000 men and at the same time spend billions developing France and still other billions making an atomic bomb. When France was waging a similar war in Indo-China the United States was pouring in aid at the rate of a billion dollars a year.

As almost everyone agrees that the Algerian war is the crux of every other problem, no everyone agrees that De Gaulle is the only man who might bring it to an end without provoking military dictatorship or civil war. The American conviction is to do everything possible to help him, short of helplessly compromising the Western position.

While it is late in relation to the urgent need to try to compose the differences with the alliance, perhaps President Eisenhower's visit is not too late. A great deal of hope is already invested in it.

Too Late To Classify

BY RUSSELL KAY

Los Angeles, the City of the Angels, may be Heaven to some folks, but it has developed into too big a cloud with too many discordant harps to suit me. I like people, but not too many in one place and Los Angeles today sprawls itself all over Southern California with everybody slipping on everybody else's toes. Whenever you see people today, you find cars and it seemed to me as we whizzed along the six-lane freeway that there were more cars than people.

Traffic jams on the freeways are frequent with as many as a thousand or more cars backed up for miles while police and emergency units try desperately to un-near the backlogs. Helicopters fly above them directing ground crews and radio stations cooperate by informing motorists of traffic jams, but still getting from here to there and back alive is a real problem.

You have heard of the poor simple evils who barge in where Angels fear to tread. Well, we were like that, with a map across her knees our cousin Jane would try to interpret it to Bob, our driver, while Mama and I sat in the back seat and although our hearts were in our mouth most of the time, we kept our traps tight shut. L. A. is no place for a backseat driver.

Among the points of interest we visited in Southern California were Marineland of the Pacific, a similar attraction to our own Marineland and at St. Augustine, only considerably larger. Located east of San Diego on the ocean it is an impressive layout. The trained whale show compared favorably with our trained porpoise show at Marineland in Florida.

We stopped to photograph the Church of the Wayfarer, where Jane Mansfield was married and then found comfortable accommodations at a lovely motor court in Long Beach. The next day we drove to San Diego and found this a thriving bustling city. Naval craft swarmed the harbor and sailors were everywhere in evidence.

The following day we visited Knotts Berry Farm, a unique and colorful attraction of a restored ghost town. It is a must if you ever visit Southern California. Of course we had to see Disneyland and you need a day or more to really cover this amazing attraction. Both Knotts Farm and Disneyland are doing a land office business and in my estimation are better than any gold mine the @ers hoped to find.

Crowds were tremendous at both attractions and people actually would stand in line an hour or more to gain entrance to some ride or show that would last only three or four minutes. As Art Linkletter says, "People are Funny." To try to fully describe these

James R. McKee, Linda Gail Wigley Wed In Ceremony At Fort Lauderdale Church

Miss Linda Gail Wigley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Arthur Wigley of Ft. Lauderdale and James Randolph McKee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edward McKee, Sr., of Sanford were married Saturday August 26 at the First Presbyterian Church in Ft. Lauderdale at 8 p. m.

The Rev. Richard E. Neumann officiated at the double-ring, candlelight ceremony. Miss Nancy Goodman was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Karen King, Miss Nancy Berry and Miss Harry Wigley.

Clarence McKee Jr. served his father as best man and ushers were Henry McLaulin III, Terry Parker and Michael McKee. Miss Ruth Lee Savage, organist, presented a program of nuptial music accompanied by Maurice Van Dyke, soloist who sang, "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The church was decorated in a color scheme of pale and emerald green, with palms, arrangements of greens and white in both altar and standing vases, candelabra with burning tapers and floral decorations with satin along the aisles.

Miss Wigley was given in marriage by her father.

The maid of honor and attendants wore identical gowns of emerald green organza with lacelet sleeves, empire bodices and scoop necklines. They also wore picture hats of matching green tulle and two matching organza roses.

The bride's mother chose a pale green chiffon dress, with draped bodice, matching cocktail hat, matching shoes and white elbow length gloves. The groom's mother wore a grey lace gown with pink accessories and hat and corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Coral Sands Hotel in Ft. Lauderdale. Decorations continued the color scheme of the two shades of green, in floral arrangements of green and white. Emerald green and white rice was distributed by the bridesmaids on sterling silver trays.

The three tiered wedding cake was separated by pedestals and the top held a bell with a big satin bow and a miniature bride and groom. Assisting with the serving and entertaining were Miss Sandra Johnson, Miss Jo Ann Sandala, Miss Pauline Sandala and Mrs. Charles Owens.

Mrs. McKee chose for her going away outfit a French red silk shantung sheath, with matching jacket and white accessories. After a honeymoon at the Fountainbleau Hotel on Miami Beach the couple will be at home at 1340 Dunn Ave. in Daytona Beach, Fla.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. McKee Jr., Mrs. Nora Moreland, Mrs. C. C. Allan and daughter Carol. The bride was born in St. Petersburg and attended Florida Southern College in Lakeland.

The groom was born in Sanford and also attended Florida Southern College. He was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity and is associated with his father in the Royal Crown-Nehi Bottling Corporation.

The Bride

Wore this gown of tulle and antique satin, with portrait neckline of scalloped hand-clipped imported chantilly lace and short sleeves. The satin bodice and front of the tulle skirt were applied with hand-clipped imported lace and the back of the bouffant satin skirt terminated in a full chapel train. Scalloped veil of imported French illusion fell from a pillbox of matching lace.

Pre-School Skate Party Enjoyed By Teenage Group

The Misses Brenda Brown, Judy Lavender, Maria Rowland and Ceni Wheatland entertained a group of friends with a skating party at Skate City last weekend. The pre-school party was enjoyed by the group from 7:30 to 10:30 p. m.

Guests included Janet Johnson, David and Ricky Golloher, Anne Aiken, Sonny Mason, Johnny Bewiechen, Diane Smith, Doyle Carlton, Norma Whittier, Paul Colman, Ducky McMurray, Robbie Blake, Jimmy Touhy, Tommy Griffin.

PeeWee and Jackie Knight, Martha Keel, Jeri Wheatland, Dawn and Billy Liphrott, Linda and Billy Ball, Linda Stapler, Billy Shaffer and Billy Colman. Unable to attend were Larry Chester and Kenny, Kathy and Sharon Puff.

The girls' mothers Mrs. L. T. Brown, Mrs. Curtis Lavender, Mrs. P. W. Wheatland and Mrs. W. L. Rowland chaperoned the party.

CAROL FLEMING

Carol Chooses Vocational School

Carol Fleming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fleming, Randolph St. plans to continue her education at the Seminole County Vocational School. She has enrolled for the fall term and will take the secretarial and business course.

While in Seminole High School Carol was a member of the glee club and future nurses club. She also assisted with the office work during her junior year and liked the work so well she hopes to get a secretarial job when she finishes school.

Her hobbies include swimming, dancing and sewing. She spent her vacation this summer visiting in Washington, D. C.

Personals

The Hendersons entertained as house guest some of the out-of-town guests here for the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haney and daughter Serene, who was a Junior bridesmaid, of Atlanta, Georgia and Mr. and Mrs. William McGee of Tallahassee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson returned to their home in Tampa after having been house guests of Miss Doris Faber for several days. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Braddock, and Wallace, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Braddock and son Jimmy of Pierson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Braddock Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Ralston Wells were business visitors in Jacksonville Saturday.

Mrs. McNab Gives Going Away Party For Mrs. Adams

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. McNab entertained Mrs. Martha Adams and other employees of the Credit Bureau and the Collection Division of Sanford at a dinner at Jim Spencer's Restaurant Wednesday evening. Mrs. Adams was special honor guest as she will leave soon to make her home in Key West, Fla. where her husband, John W. Adams is stationed with the Navy.

Mrs. Adams has been employed by the Credit Bureau for the past 2 years. Novel gifts were given Martha at intervals during the dinner which caused much merriment. One being a 3 "carrot" ring, guaranteed to make your eyes "sparkle" if eaten. As a going-away gift she was presented a service for 6 of stainless steel tableware by Mr. and Mrs. McNab and the employees. Those attending were Mrs. Mae Davis, Mrs. Jackie Meredith, Mrs. Polly Jones, Mrs. Betty Wright, Mrs. Theresa Francis and Miss Pete Rans.

Henry Schumacher Honored At Party

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fletemeyer and their daughter, Dee Hargrave, were hosts at a surprise party, honoring Henry Schumacher last week end at their cottage at Lemon Bluff. It was a last get-together for a group of friends before Henry leaves to enroll at Cornell University.

Guests enjoyed swimming, water skiing and a gab session. A

LARRY ELMORE

Larry Elmore Plans Career As Aviator

Larry Elmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Elmore plans to enter Georgia Military College, in Milledgeville, Ga. to continue his education. His father was a Chief in the U. S. Navy before he retired two years ago. Larry hopes some day to be an aviator.

He completed his freshman year of big high school at Elizabeth, N. C., his sophomore year at George Dewey High School in Subis Bay, Philippine Islands and his junior and senior years at Seminole High.

His favorite subjects were chemistry and math. His favorite recreation hobby is swimming. He is an expert at water skiing. He has been employed during the summer months by Odham and Tudor Construction Co.

Academic Crush
—The National Education Association predicts a 20 per cent increase in the number of students per teacher during the next 10 years.

To balance shortage against larger classes which might be taught using television and other mechanical devices. The association also recommended elimination of courses that draw only a few students.

First Aid Medicine Safe For Small Fry

With the children outdoors from dawn till dusk enjoying their summer vacation, mother must play nurse to a host of juvenile cuts, scrapes and burns. But the clever homemaker's medicine cabinet boasts fold-up tubes of antiseptic and petroleum jelly, as well as bandages, for just such minor emergencies. And, by letting children administer their own first aid, she may prevent tears—without fear of bottle-breakage or spills, since, besides keeping their contents fresh and clean, collapsible metal tubes are unbreakable and non-spillable—even by small fry.

Glass Fact
"Annealed" means that a finished piece of glass is reheated and then gradually cooled to give it greater strength.

Children Surprise Father

Frank Evans of Lake Mary had a pleasant surprise on his 80th birthday recently, when he had several unexpected visitors. They were his son Frank Evans Jr. of Saugus, Mass., another son, Jack E. Evans, his wife and son David of Roxford, Mass.

Also present at the surprise birthday celebration were Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart Jr. of Altamonte Springs. Mrs. Stuart is Mr. Evans' granddaughter and she was responsible for the whole affair. She arranged the big surprise and prepared the dinner complete with decorations and brought them to the Evans' home.

They included a turkey dinner with all the trimmings and a birthday cake decorated with one 50 year, and two 15 year candles. Mr. Evans received many lovely birthday presents in addition to enjoying the visit of his children.

Study To Offset 'Propaganda' About Fallout

(UPI) — A study of the Florida fallout from atomic tests is being conducted by the State Health Commission, according to a report released today.

The study is being conducted by the State Health Commission, which is headed by Dr. J. H. DeLoach, University of Florida professor and director of the commission's research.

The study is being conducted in order to determine the extent of fallout from atomic tests in the state and to determine the extent of fallout from atomic tests in the state and to determine the extent of fallout from atomic tests in the state.

in the north temperate zone, which includes both the United States and Russia.

"The heavy increase in fallout this past year has, in part, been due to the stepped-up nuclear testing of the U.S.S.R.," he said.

At present, fallout is not being used for radioactivity in Florida, but DeLoach argues that it should be. The matter will be brought up at a future meeting of the nuclear commission.

The State Health Commission also has a committee studying the matter.

Dr. DeLoach said Florida is in a "very favorable position" concerning fallout.

"The State's high rainfall, general absence of the soil and location in the border of the north temperate zone tend to favor a lower level of fallout than in other areas."

"This in turn favors a lower level of fallout than in the milk produced in Florida," he said.

Geasonson Starts Miami Drills For Toughest Slate

CORAL GABLES — Facing the most difficult schedule in 34 spectacular years of football, University of Miami football begins its back to work Tuesday to prepare for the toughest slate.

Two-day workouts will be in order from the start and will continue until the coaches feel the squad is ready for one-day drills.

The varsity squad slated to take the field Tuesday includes a total of 55 men. The squad is dominated by a number of seniors, with only 16 lettermen among them. Of the 55 varsity squadmen, 30 are sophomores with only 11 seniors on the squad.

With the opening of fall practice, Bob Boeshagen, who is capable of playing either halfback position, is expected to start out at the left half. Frank Curci at quarterback and Doug Davis at full. Vollmeider played both right half and fullback during spring practice, but will start at the right half post.

Theron Mitchell and sophomore Bill McClain, a passing find of spring practice are behind Curci at quarter, while DiGiammarino will work at left half with Boeshagen. Vollmeider, all seasons material listed at right half with sophomore Vollmeider. Don Proctor, Charley Yanda and Ben Fritzsche, are presently listed at right half. James Bruno also played at this post during the spring session, but he has had experience at full, too.

Stan Markowski, Frank Souland, Harry DeLoach are some of the halfbacks listed behind Davis. Vollmeider, all seasons material listed at right half with sophomore Vollmeider. Don Proctor, Charley Yanda and Ben Fritzsche, are presently listed at right half. James Bruno also played at this post during the spring session, but he has had experience at full, too.

Red China Tries To Beat Russia To Draw Again

GENEVA (UPI) — Red China which wooed Russia's Khrushchev's summit visit last year, is reported to be trying once again to tip the hand of the Soviet leader.

Strong indications have reached the West that the Peking regime is not too happy with Khrushchev's forthcoming visit to the U. S. and his private meeting with President Eisenhower.

Red China apparently also would like to see the end in the 1949 Russo-American agreement of the future.

Peking stopped the Soviet leader from going to an agreed summit meeting in New York at the height of the Middle East crisis last year, and virtually forced him to reverse his decision.

The surprise decision on exchange visits between Khrushchev and the President have apparently caused considerable apprehension among the Red Chinese hierarchy.

Chinese leaders are scheduled to fly to Moscow shortly for consultation with the Kremlin at an Eastern pre-summit gathering of Red bloc representatives.

Khrushchev himself, according to latest hints, may fly to Peking to calm Red Chinese suspicion, as he did last year on the eve of the scheduled summit meeting in the United Nations in New York.

But, unlike then, the Soviet leader is not likely to be away this time to back down again.

Allan Swaim Gets Winn-Dixie Award

Allan Lewis Swaim, 2105 Amelia Avenue, is one of 141 students throughout the South who have been awarded college scholarships by Winn-Dixie Stores, Inc.

Swaim received scholarship assistance in the amount of $200 a year to attend the University of Florida in Gainesville. The grant was based upon scholastic achievement, merit and the desire for educational advancement. It was announced by H. L. Avery, vice president of the Jacksonville division of Winn-Dixie Stores.

The 141 scholarships awarded for the 1949-50 school year represented an increase of 48 over the previous year under the Winn-Dixie Stores Foundation program, which was begun in 1943. Mr. Avery added.

Sox Dump Indians Twice, Lead By 5 1/2

United Press International
Those go-go White Sox can ahead and print their World Series tickets but they'd better leave a blank space for the name of their opponent because it could easily be the supposedly long-gone Pirates.

The inspired White Sox really did a job on the Indians in all but wrapping up their first American League pennant since 1915.

Al Lopez' speedy crew took a doubleheader from the Tribe Sunday, 6-3 and 6-4, before 65,356 at Cleveland to sweep a four-game "show down series" and lengthen their lead to 2 1/2 games—longest of the season.

The White Sox never had it so good. If they win only 12 of their remaining 25 games, the second-place Indians still would have to win 19 of their last 24 to overtake them.

The Pirates aren't in such good shape, of course, but they aren't exactly complaining. They made it nine out of their last 16 by sweeping a four-game series from the Phillies, 3-1 and 7-6 in 16 innings, with Little Roy Face fashioning his 17th victory of the season without a defeat in the nightcap.

By taking two from the Phils, the Pirates climbed to within four games of the first-place Giants, who dropped a 7-6 decision to the Dodgers. The Cubs beat the Braves, 6-2, and the Reds defeated the Cardinals, 6-4.

Among the "also rans" in the AL, the Tigers took over third place with a 4-0 victory over the Athletics; the Senators topped the Yankees, 3-1, and the Red Sox blanked the Orioles, 3-0.

The White Sox won their opener from the Indians with a five-run sixth-inning rally that Early Wynn launched with a home run. Wynn, who needed Gerry Staley's help in the eighth, won his 17th of the season and sixth of his career, tying him with Bob Feller and Eppa Rixey for total major league victories.

Barry Laitman was his eighth game in the nightcap although he gave way to Turk Lown in the sixth. Before departing, Laitman yielded Cole's 20th homer with two on and Woodie Held's 26th homer with the bases empty.

Face, who now has won 22 straight over two seasons, got away a bit lucky in Pittsburgh's second game win over Philadelphia. Ed Bouchee homered off Face in the top of the 10th to put the Phils ahead, 6-3, but Dick Stuart doubled home two runs off

Dick Farrell in the bottom of the 10th. Stuart also hit a pinch homer, his 21st, in the sixth.

Bob Skinner's fourth hit of the game, a two-out single in the sixth, was the opener for the Pirates. Lefty Harvey Hadden gave up only six hits, including Gene Freese's 11th homer, in notching his 19th triumph.

An error by third baseman Jackie Brandt paved the way for two unearned runs in the sixth that gave the Dodgers their victory over the Giants. Wally Moon followed with a triple to tie the score at 4-4 and after Sam Jones relieved loser Mike McCormick, the Dodgers lifted the bases on two walks. Willie McCovey then let in the winning run when he fumbled Norm Larker's grounder.

The Cubs won their game from the Braves with a five-run rally in the eighth at the expense of loser Carlton Willey. Key plays in the rally were Jim Marshall's double which tied the score at 3-3 and Irv Noren's two-run single.

Ex-Cardinal Eddie Kasko drove in three runs to help Cincinnati snap a four-game St. Louis winning streak. Jay Hook buried a seven-hitter for his fourth win.

Over in the American League, Don Mossal of Detroit posted his 12th victory when he held Kansas City to three hits and also belted his first major league homer.

Russ Kemmerer and Tex Clevenger rombed in a five hit pitching effort that led Washington to victory over New York. Kemmerer, who won his eighth game, had a three-hit shutout until he had to leave with a pulled back muscle in the sixth.

Frank Sullivan pitched a four-hitter and struck out nine in Boston's win over Baltimore.

Thursday Night Mixed Bowling Series Scheduled

The Thursday Night Mixed, a new local bowling league will have its second series of matches Thursday night at the Sanford Bowling Alley.

The Florida State Bank team will meet Furniture Center, B. Edwards Builders' Supplies will take on the Sunland Estates group, and Stealmeyer Roofing will roll against South Pinescrest Furniture Center, the bankers, and Stealmeyer's now hold the lead resulting from last Thursday's contests. Each has a 2-1 record. The other three teams are tied for second slot.

Frances Mackey led both the men and the women in last week's matches with a 210 scratch game. Following was Don Stetler with a 204 high game, 354 three game total; Ed Callen; 269-263; and Tom Stringham, 196-322.

President of the league is P. L. Elmore; vice president, John Ogden; and secretary-treasurer, Margie Woods.

READY FOR DAYTONA RACES — Howard Fowler of Miami Springs, shown here with his wife, Evelyn, was among the first drivers to file entry for the SCCA sports car races scheduled at Daytona International Speedway. Fowler will be driving a Porsche Carrera. The Daytona Beach sports car races head the Labor Day weekend sports program for Florida.

Packers Show Spark In Rolling Up 45-28 Win

United Press International
When the Green Bay Packers went to training camp, new Coach Vince Lombardi claimed his biggest problem would be to conquer the "attitude of defeatism I know is here."

The former New York Giants offensive coach, who also doubles as general manager with the Packers, listed a number of other difficulties at the time but it was obvious he was most concerned with the temperament of his new players. And you couldn't exactly blame him because the Packers were the worst team in the National Football League last year, winning only one of 12 games.

However, one look at the Packers this summer would indicate Lombardi has licked his biggest problem and is ready to pull a couple of surprises once the season gets underway Sept. 27.

With six different players sharing in the scoring, the revitalized Packers rolled to their second straight victory in three exhibition starts Saturday night by whipping the Philadelphia Eagles, 45-28.

The Forty Niners, led by veteran quarterback Y. A. Tittle and rookie Tommy Davis, handed the Cleveland Browns their third consecutive defeat, 17-14; the Los Angeles Rams stopped the Chicago Cardinals, 34-21; the Giants shut out the Detroit Lions, 38-0; the Bears crushed the Pittsburgh Steelers, 34-17, and the Baltimore Colts downed the Washington Redskins, 23-10, in other week-end action.

Tittle threw two touchdown passes to give San Francisco (2-1) and early (14-0) lead and Davis booted a 23-yard field goal in the fourth period for the margin of victory. Jim Brown scored both Cleveland TD's.

The Rams (1-2) took a 14-7 half-time lead and then moved up and down the field almost at will in the second half to easily beat the Cards (3-1) before a crowd of 52,013 in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Versatile Frank Gifford was practically the whole Giants offense in their victory over the Lions (2-3). Gifford scored two TD's on Charley Conerly passes and then directed a third scoring drive while playing quarterback. It was the Giants' first victory in three starts.

Quarterbacks Rudy Bukich and Ed Brown were the stars in the Bears' crushing defeat of the Steelers while the Colts took advantage of loose Washington play in whipping the Redskins.

MacKay Holds Hopes For Davis Cup Victory

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (UPI)—Barry MacKay, celebrating his 24th birthday, can make a present of the Davis Cup to the United States if he defeats Australian's Neale Fraser today when the two tennis stars resume their decade-long rivalry in the 1956 challenge round.

Each was one set on the center court at the West Side Tennis Club Sunday before darkness forced him to halt. Their match, now reduced to a best-of-three struggle, resumes this afternoon.

MacKay, on leave from the U. S. Air Force, admitted a victory over Fraser would be "the biggest birthday present I could ask for." However, the Dayton, Ohio, giant was pitted against an equally powerful swinger who is the No. 1 player in tennis—Mad Australia.

Australia started Sunday's final two singles matches in the best-of-five series with a 2-1 lead, but Alex Alonzo, the lean, moody Peruvian who won the cup for the U. S. last year, regained enough of his form to beat left-hander Rod Laver in a record 66-game four sets, 9-7, 4-6, 10-8, 12-10. That match took 3 hours and 25 minutes, and it was after 9 p. m. when MacKay and Fraser took the court.

Fraser took the first set, 6-6, but MacKay won the second, 6-3.

Oil Slick Fatal To Race Driver

MIWAUKEE (UPI)—An oil slicked track was blamed today for the death of Ed Ellan, the first victim of a fatal auto racing accident in more than two years at State Fair Park here.

Ellan, 33, Fresno, Calif., was burned to death Sunday during the 200-mile big car race which climaxed the Wisconsin State Fair. His car spun out on a turn, crashed into a wall, overturned and burned.

Writers Nominate Auburn As Choice

JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—Powerful Auburn, which has not lost a game since 1956, is the choice of 7 to 12 Southern sports writers to grab the Southeastern Conference football title this season.

The writers, voting in a poll sponsored by the Jacksonville Journal, selected Coach "Shug" Jordan's Plainsmen and gave only two first-place votes to national champion Louisiana State University.

Mississippi was designated for the third spot, followed by Georgia Tech, Tennessee, Florida, Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Vanderbilt, Mississippi State and Tulane.

Tampa Beats Saints, 7-8, In Series Opener

ST. PETERSBURG (UPI)—Once-beaten St. Petersburg hopes to even the score against Tampa here tonight in the second game of the Florida State League's best-of-seven playoffs for the league championship.

Tampa, the season's first-half winner, came from behind Sunday night to nip St. Petersburg 7-6 at Tampa.

Second baseman Norm Gigon drove in the tying and winning runs with a two-run double in the bottom of the ninth. St. Petersburg had gone ahead 5-3 in the sixth with a four run uprising highlighted by Manager Tom Hamilton's double and Bill Cline's booming homer.

The win went to relief pitcher Sam Croge, who pitched a hitless ball after relieving starter Don Casten in the eighth with the bases loaded and two out.

Miamian Winner In Jaycee Golf

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (UPI)—Fritz Lettingwell of Miami Shores Fla., winner of the 14th international Jaycee golf championship here during the weekend, headed home today vowing to forget golf for "a solid month."

"I'm very sick of it," the 110-pound star said Saturday as he accepted a huge four-foot trophy declaring him tops over 199 entries from 48 states over the rough Elizabeth Manor Country Club course.

Lettingwell shot a 72-hole total of 200 for the win. Two strokes behind him at 202 was medalist Ronnie Geringer of Newport News, Va.

Third was Lynn Yturri of Ontario, Ore., with a 204, followed by Wright Garrett of Danville, Va. with a 205.

Worry Clinic

Worry's own being out a very good deal of worry by the fact of being used daily by the millions of people. And this is not because worry is a disease, but because it is the habit of people and they are happy as well as for more happiness. Apply this rule to your children.

By Dr. GEORGE W. CRANE
CLASS G - 481, Freddy J., aged 7, got a drum for a second birthday.

"Dr. Crane," his mother began, "Freddy almost drove his daddy and me crazy with that drum."
"Yes, but," his father whispered to her on the side that an "accident" would have to happen to the drum, for he couldn't stand it much longer.

"That drum is very interesting," said Dr. Crane. "Freddy left his drum, and went outside to join his friends."

"Then my husband picked up the drum sticks and he played with the drum for 15 minutes."

"I still drove me nearly crazy," said my husband no longer seemed to mind the noise as long as he was making it."

"When you explain the curious fact that my husband couldn't play it while Freddy made the noise, but he enjoyed the same amount of noise when he was producing all that racket?"

INSURANCE & PAIN
In 1918, answering Freddy's mother, let me ask you readers why an unlearned peasant would be so much more in control, though modern enlightened doctors suffer comparatively little pain?

Because ignorance is NOT bliss: When Freddy's father listened to his son's drum beating, he never exactly knew what was coming when. So he reacted to the irregular sounds as "noise," and said he couldn't stand such a racket.

But when he himself picked up the drumsticks and beat on the drum, he now realized the sounds and didn't consider them as irritating "noise," for he knew what was coming at every given instant, even though his helpless wife still suffered just as much from his racket as from Freddy's.

Nowadays, doctors are constantly teaching their patients what to expect during a hospital stay or the birth of a baby.

Pregnant wives thus are no longer helpless victims of un-expected pain, but are intelligent partners in the process of birth.

PSYCHOLOGY IN MEDICINE
Modern medicine has this injected much psychological strategy into medical practice.

For instance, Nathan W. Helman, director of Mt. Sinai Hospital in Chicago, recently outlined a plan before his hospital board by which patients can help themselves.

Such "self-help" hospital units will become increasingly popular, for they reduce costs, free nurses for more critical duties, and also divert the patient's mind by giving him something to do.

It is even wise to let one patient help another, for this extroverts the first and promotes a happier morale.

Obstetricians are now inviting a dozen or more patients into a little classroom session at intervals just to teach these pregnant wives what to expect.

Childbirth is thus becoming much easier. And the duration of labor is actually growing shorter!

Send for the booklet "Facts About Pregnancy," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 50c (non-profit). It will offer more hints for expectant mothers.

More Red Troops Advance On India

NEW DELHI (UPI) — A fresh wave of Communist troops from China, backed up by multi-packed heavy weapons, is advancing toward Red-ruled northeastern India, it was reported today.

From reports from Lachak in the border province of Assam, it is believed that the Red army is moving along the border between India and Communist-ruled Tibet where an incursion has already taken place.

This was an apparent reference to the Lachak area, where the Reds seized an Indian border post a week ago.

Other reports from the tense Lachak area are drawn up barely a stone's throw apart. An official spokesman said, however, that there has been no report of renewed fighting at Lachak.

Meanwhile, it was reported that Indian Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon had resigned in the face of growing press and parliamentary criticism that he was playing politics with the forces of the army, navy and air force also were reported to have quit because of Krishna Menon's actions.

Pakistan's President Mohamed Ayub flew in from Karachi today, apparently to propose a united Indo-Pakistan front against the invaders.

After an hour-long conference with Premier Jawaharlal Nehru, Ayub told newsmen it is time for Pakistan and India to "forgive and forget" their differences. He reminded newsmen of the historic

Walkout Ties Cape Projects

United Press International

A walkout by operating engineers tied up construction projects at the Cape Canaveral missile test center today and the flight unit was threatened a strike tonight against Pan American World Airways. But threatened strikes in the rubber, glass and meat packing industries were averted.

Negotiators planned to meet today in an effort to end a strike by members of Local 673 of the AFL-CIO Operating Engineers Union at Cape Canaveral. They set up picket lines at both entrances Monday.

A construction company spokesman said the workers were demanding double time pay for over time work in violation of a government contract. Thousands of workers could be involved, he said, because other craft unions refused to cross the engineers' picket lines.

A 24-hour truce was arranged Monday night in a strike threatened by the Flight Engineers Union against Pan American Airways. The union said it would walk out if the airline began training so-called "third pilots" for jet planes.

Pan American, a union spokesman said, had agreed not to begin the training program until tonight to enable negotiators to try and work out an agreement.

In the drawn-out national steel strike, negotiations were in recess until Wednesday. AFL-CIO President George Meany called on all unions to make Labor Day next Monday a "support the steelworkers' day."

An agreement late Monday appeared to have lifted off a scheduled strike in the meat packing industry.

Court Decision On Collins Veto Due For Appeal

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A court decision stemming from the governor's veto power probably will be appealed to the State Supreme Court.

Assistant Attorney General Joe Jacobs said the ruling by Circuit Judge Hugh Taylor against Gov. LeRoy Collins likely would be appealed.

Taylor overruled the governor's veto of salary raises for Prison Director H. G. Cochran Jr. and State Forester C. H. Coulter. Collins vetoed the salaries in the appropriations bill so the officials could be granted higher salaries.

Taylor ruled that Collins was "unauthorized by the Constitution" to veto part of an item in the bill. He said the law restricted votes to whole items in the appropriations act.

Collins struck out the $12,000 a year salary for Cochran and $10,000 for Coulter to permit the Cabinet to increase their pay. The Cabinet raised Cochran to $12,000 and Coulter to $12,000.

Taylor ordered their salaries based on the appropriations act rather than on the higher figures.

Paddle Wheeler To Ply St. Johns

A miniature paddle wheel river boat will be plying the St. Johns out of Sanford within two weeks.

A group headed by George Steele, Sanford Civic Center Custodian, is buying the 28 foot long, eight foot wide craft to rent for fishing, private and sightseeing cruises.

The $2,495 boat seats about 20 people on its lower deck. It is operated by a gasoline "kicker" motor, not by the paddle wheel. The red, white and blue "Dixie Belle" is currently tied up at the boat basin near the bandshell pier.

Railway Express Rates Increased

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Railway Express Agency boosted its rates today from 25 to 35 cents per 100 pounds. The increases apply only to less than carload shipments.

Railway Express said the higher rates would bring in about $16 million additional revenue annually.

PLANNING EMERGENCY MARCH of Dimes to raise funds for Seminole County efforts to curb polio are these members of the Anna Miller Circle of the Elks Club and John Sauls, county director of the polio organization. The Mothers' March will close out the emergency drive Thursday night when they call on homes from 6 to 7 p.m. Shown completing plans are, standing, Mrs. Russell Spencer, chairman, and Sauls. Seated are Mrs. Martin Dyer, co-chairman, and Mrs. Harry Adair of Anna Miller Circle. (Bergstrom Photo)

A-Bomb Can Be Widespread, Ramage Says

The ability to produce atom bombs can become widespread among small nations. Capt. James D. Ramage told Sanford Rotarians yesterday.

Since the United States and Russia both have atom bombs, keeping other nations from having them will be difficult, said the commander of Heavy Attack Wing One, the Atlantic Fleet's main atomic striking arm.

Only the lack of desire to direct large sources of electrical energy to producing uranium is keeping many small nations from developing nuclear bombs, Ramage declared. Possible uranium producing areas are quite extensive, he said, explaining that new processes have been developed in the last two years which allow uranium to be drawn from oil shale.

France, West Germany, Japan, Canada, Italy, Sweden, Switzerland, East Germany, Red China and Czechoslovakia have the ability to produce A-bombs, Ramage said.

Considerable electric power is produced in these countries. President Eisenhower is going to need "some pretty great arguments to keep France from developing A-bombs," he said.

An all-destructive bomb wouldn't eliminate the need for manpower like the Army's, Ramage declared. He said that if Chinese troops invaded Laos, we would need troops, since we wouldn't bomb Peking. Men are needed to back up the "strong right arm" of the bomb.

"It's much better to pick the lock of a delicate international situation than it is to batter down the door," Ramage said.

visit to the United States should be wanted peace.

"Peace is preferable," he declared. "If we try to have a summit, Mr. Khrushchev must understand that as you and I do."

Macmillan made it clear he was less demanding.

"I have never concealed to you that I have always wanted a summit meeting and with your initiative we may get it under the best conditions," he said.

Summit Accord Incomplete

LONDON (UPI) — President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan left it clear today that they still do not agree completely on a summit policy.

Although nothing was said in their joint radio-televised chat Monday indicated any serious friction, it was quite clear that Eisenhower's price for formal summit negotiations with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev was higher than Macmillan's.

After winding up two days of cold war talks with the prime minister the President this morning took time out from his European peace crusade to deal with White House business that has piled up.

He scheduled no more major political talks until he goes to Paris Wednesday to meet with French President Charles de Gaulle and Italian leaders.

This afternoon he left free for a small tea party for the Indian high commission in London, Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, sister of Premier Jawaharlal Nehru, and several other women.

Eisenhower invited a number of old World War II comrades-in-arms to dinner this evening.

A million a day Eisenhower made a big bid in Britain with their friends chat, unique in history.

The impact, coming at the end of overwhelming evasions for the President by the British press, was tremendous. The British press was unanimous in its praise.

Eisenhower declared he was willing to go to Moscow or the summit or do anything else for world peace provided there were prospects of success and provided Khrushchev during his coming visit to the United States should be wanted peace.

"Peace is preferable," he declared. "If we try to have a summit, Mr. Khrushchev must understand that as you and I do."

Macmillan made it clear he was less demanding.

"I have never concealed to you that I have always wanted a summit meeting and with your initiative we may get it under the best conditions," he said.

City Approves New Fee Measures

Recreation fee measures were passed by the city commission last night.

Cost of swimming in the city's two pools on weekends will be 25 cents for children and 40 cents for adults beginning Oct. 1. The 15 and 25 cent fees for children and adults will be charged on weekdays.

Persons living outside Sanford will be charged $5 per person per year, or a maximum of $10 per family per year, to use the city's recreation facilities. Non-transferable cards will be issued to people who pay the fees. This will go into effect Oct. 1.

The license fee for dogs will be changed from 25 cents to "such fee as the City Commission shall from time to time establish" under an ordinance the commission ordered drawn up last night. The commission talked of changing the fee to $1.

Court costs fees will no longer go to the police pension fund, the commission decided. The Police Dept. pension fund will get a definite amount each year from city revenues and the court costs charges made to litigants will be used to offset the cost of running the courts. Court cost fees have run about $2,700 per year.

A new completion of the yearly cost of converting the Municipal Stadium field from baseball to a football field will be made, the commission said. The city has been charging the County School Board $1,450 for the conversion, while the 1956 cost of the change was $2,900.

He said the letter was signed "Rufus T. Washington III, Supreme Grand Vicar, Imperial Pontiff Regent, National Negro Congress of the U. S. A., Supreme Headquarters Inc., 1239 Bedford Ave., Brooklyn."

He said the letter said, "The National Negro Congress in Convention informs you that you have this day been tried in absentia and condemned to death for your crimes against the Negro race. We have sent orders to all members and sympathizers in your state to start a rebellion to capture you alive. You will be tarred and feathered and hung up to the nearest tree."

He said the letter said there would soon be full integration in Florida with Negroes in charge of the schools and sitting in the Legislature.

McCall said he has received hundreds of threatening letters through the years, but this was the first signed or purported to be from a Negro organization.

"It was probably written by a crank," he said. "But the FBI is going to check it out to see if there is such an organization."

Negro Letter Threatens Life, Sheriff McCall Says

LEESBURG (UPI)—Sheriff Willis McCall said he received a letter Monday which purported to be from a Negro organization which had condemned him to death.

McCall said he thought the letter was from a crank. But he said he had asked the Federal Bureau of Investigation to check it.

Summer's Last Fling May Be That

CHICAGO (UPI) — America's last fling at summer vacation fun may be the last fling period for 450 motorists, the National Safety Council said today.

The council predicted that 450 persons may be killed in one of the biggest traffic jams in the nation's history during the Labor Day weekend.

Virtually every one of the 71 million automobiles in the United States will be on the road at some time between 4 p. m. Friday and midnight Monday, the council said.

Together, they'll roll up a predicted seven billion miles of travel as vacationers seek a respite from work and relief from the heat at the seashore, in the mountains or in other recreational pursuits.

Tax Trial Slated For Trafficantes

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Tampa's notorious Trafficante brothers face trial here in U. S. District Court when its term opens Sept. 21.

The tax trial of Santo and Henry Trafficante is the first case on the trial calendar. The pair is under bonds totaling $10,000 each on an indictment and information charging evasion of the federal wagering taxes.

Ike, Nikita Set Private Talks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will go into seclusion at Camp David for two days of fateful cold war talks at the end of the Russian leader's U. S. tour.

This was disclosed today by diplomatic sources who said Eisenhower plans to take Khrushchev to the isolated and tightly guarded presidential retreat in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains on Sept. 28. Eisenhower will remain there until about midday Sept. 30.

There, behind a tight security ring of U. S. Marines, Secret Service officers and State Department police, the leaders of the world's two most powerful nations will try to find a way to ease the tensions that have divided the globe.

The Camp David sessions will take up almost all of the three days allotted to Khrushchev's wind-up visit to Washington just before he leaves the country. The ceremonial aspects will be taken care of when he arrives for the first time in Washington on Sept. 28 — one day before the formal functions on Sept. 29.

Between his two visits to Washington, Khrushchev, his family and his official party, will visit New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Des Moines and Ames, Iowa, and Pittsburgh.

Eisenhower selected Camp David as the site for his hard-rock talks with the tough Soviet leader in order to give him an opportunity to assess the real intentions of Khrushchev entirely removed from the intrusions and pressures of protocol and press.

News Briefs

Spray Use Denied
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Agriculture Commissioner Nathan Mayo has again denied Florida registration for an animal spray containing one per cent parathion, a deadly poison.

Rickenbacker Quits
NEW YORK (UPI) — Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, chairman of the board of Eastern Air Lines, will relinquish the title of chief executive officer on Oct. 1. Rickenbacker said Malcolm A. MacLellan, the company's newly elected president, will become the new chief executive officer.

Oklahoma Wet
OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) — Prohibition ends in Oklahoma today at noon with "temperance" becoming the watchword of the wet Gov. Howard Edmondson, the man most responsible for repeal of the 30-year ban on the sale of liquor in the state, urged the wet to mark the new era with limited drinking.

They're After Earl
BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — A move to force Louisiana Gov. Earl K. Long to resign before he can qualify for reelection was under way today by a faction in the state Central Democratic Committee. N. B. Carstarphen said he is drafting a resolution to be introduced before the full committee Saturday.

Volusia Vote Sought
DAYTONA BEACH (UPI) — A Chamber of Commerce group is launching a campaign to seek a referendum on whether the county seat should be moved from DeLand to this resort city. J. Hart Long, committee chairman, said his group would launch an all-out drive this week to obtain signatures needed to call the vote.

No School Trouble
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Integration difficulties are not expected during the opening of a majority of Florida's schools in the next two weeks, according to State School Supt. Thomas D. Bailey. "I anticipate no difficulty anywhere," Bailey said.

Committee Okays 1 Ct. Gas Tax Raise

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Public Works Committee today approved an immediate one-penny hike in the federal gasoline tax to keep the super-highway construction program going. The vote was 25 to 6.

Chairman Charles A. Buckley (D-N. Y.) told reporters he would ask the Rules Committee to clear the plan tomorrow so "it can go to the House floor Thursday."

The proposal provides for boosting the federal levy on gasoline from three to four cents a gallon for 22 months.

The committee adopted an amendment declaring it the "intent and policy" of Congress that the states should be reimbursed for highways, bridges or tunnels they have built as part of the interstate highway system. Buckley said there now are about $5 billion dollars worth of such projects for which the states eventually should be repaid.

President's Term Limit Repeal Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Senate Judiciary Subcommittee tentatively approved legislation today to repeal the present two-term limitation on presidential reelection.

It also voted for a proposed constitutional amendment to outlaw the poll tax in federal elections.

The vote was 3 to 0 on each bill. Three absent members of the constitutional amendments subcommittee were given 24 hours in which to record their votes.

Although the vote thus was not final, at least one of the absent members was believed to favor the two proposals. The subcommittee action sent the measures to the full committee, headed by Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.).

Labor Legislation Solution Close

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate House conferees, working with the expected new determination, tried today to resolve the "razor blade" differences blocking agreement on compromise labor reform legislation.

None of the 14 negotiators would predict that they would agree on a compromise between the Senate anti-racketeering bill and the tougher House version. But they were much more hopeful than they were last Friday when their talks appeared to reach a dead end.

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) said the disagreements were no thicker than a razor blade. The conference has approved most sections of a compromise, generally leaning toward the House features. The negotiations are snagged by the refusal of Senate Democrats to accept without modification House provisions on secondary boycotts, organizational picketing and "no man's land" labor disputes.

Stolen Vaccine Bootlegged

MONTREAL (UPI) — Medical authorities and police officials theorized today four masked bandits stole 75,000 Salk polio vaccine shots for bootlegging on a black market.

A high incidence of polio in the city and other parts of Quebec lent credence to the theory that a black market was operating, police said.

County Orders Tentative Budget

A tentative Seminole County budget was ordered drawn up by the county commission this morning.

This tentative budget is required by law and will give a general picture of budget needs, said Commission Chairman John Kridner. This budget should show the minimum amount of money county departments need, he said.

"We can get one side of the budget," said Commissioner Lawrence Swoford, referring to the appropriations requests of the county departments.

Getting the estimate of the non-exempt tax roll and the appropriations requests will mean having a budget in 30-45 days, said Kridner. For the tentative budget the clerk can look at requests and shave them, according to receipts, he said.

Some departments have doubled their requests since last year the chairman declared. No department should be given double its allotment for last year he stressed.

Deputy county clerk Earl Burdick said he had to know what revenue to expect before he could draw up a budget. Use an estimate of about a five per cent increase on county non-exempt property, advised Kridner.

Ballistic Missile Unit At 'Ready'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States is preparing to declare its first intercontinental ballistic missile unit "combat ready."

After a two-month delay to fix mechanical troubles, the first part-strength Atlas ICBM squadron is being turned over to the Strategic Air Command at Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

The unit has five missiles — three mounted on launching pads and two spares. Later squadrons will have 10 missiles.

Each of the three missiles kept at the ready at Vandenberg will be assigned a Russian target just as strategic bombers are. That means each rocket will be kept upright on its launching pad with its guidance system always set to direct the missile and its hydrogen warhead to a target more than 4,500 miles away.
