

LBJ OKs keystones of his Great Society

Social Security At Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has signed the Social Security Act of 1965, the most important of his Great Society legislation.

Each family's Social Security benefits will increase by 10 percent. The average monthly benefit for a man with 35 years of work will be $118.50 compared to $108.00. The maximum future payment for a surviving family will be $1,044.40, compared with $950 under the old law.

Taxes—A worker now pays Social Security taxes on wages up to $12,960 a year. This will be increased to $15,000 in 1968. The tax rate, now 4.4 percent each for worker and employer, will remain there in 1968, but eventually reach 5.3 percent in 1967.

Retirement earnings—Annual earnings which a worker may earn without loss of benefits will be increased to $1,800 from the present $1,600.

Medicare—Each beneficiary will have a lifetime reserve of 90 extra days of hospital care beyond the 90 days now available. The cost each year will be $2.00, but will be $3.00 for each of the additional 90 days.

U. S. Seeks Clarification From Reds For Peace Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — North Vietnam and the United States apparently have narrowed the differences over starting peace talks. But U.S. officials see little prospect the talks would be "productive" as required by President Johnson.

The next phase, he said, calls for close scrutiny of America's welfare system which he brand "welfare state" and in need of "major change."

He appointed a 15-member commission to "examine any and every plan, however unconventional, which could provide a constructive advance in meeting the income needs of the American people."

The education bill provides a record $9.3 billion for elementary and secondary schools. The Social Security bill increases benefits by at least 10 percent for 54 million people.

A Look At 1968

As the year draws to a close, it is time to take a look at the year that has just passed. The year 1967 was a year of many firsts and many new beginnings. It was a year of growth and progress, and it was a year of challenges and setbacks.

The year began with a bang as the economy showed signs of recovery. Unemployment fell to a low of 3.7 percent, and inflation remained under control. The stock market reached new heights, and the dollar strengthened.

However, the year was not without its challenges. The Vietnam War continued to be a major focus of attention, and the civil rights movement remained a significant part of the national conversation. The assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in April 1968 was a tragic event that shocked the nation.

Despite these challenges, the year ended on a positive note. The economy remained strong, and the nation showed signs of unity and progress. As we look forward to 1968, we are optimistic about the future and the possibilities that lie ahead.

Crane's Worry Client: Flirtatious Hubby Needs Reassurance

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE, D.M.S., D.I.C., and D.C. Crane is a licensed clinical psychologist and a member of the American Psychological Association.

It is not surprising that many women find themselves in a state of anxiety and worry about their husbands. This is especially true when the husband is flirtatious and needs reassurance. The wife may feel that her husband is not committed to her and that he is looking for other women.

It is important for the wife to understand that her husband's behavior is a result of his own insecurities and fears. He may feel that he is not good enough and that he needs to be reassured that he is loved and valued. The wife can help him by providing him with the reassurance that he needs.

Political Notebook: 'Medicaid' Program Ailing

By BRUCE MORRIS, WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders in the House and Senate are expected to pass legislation in the next few days that would significantly expand the Medicaid program.

The program, which provides health care for low-income individuals, has been a major focus of the administration. The new legislation would increase the number of people eligible for the program and would also increase the amount of federal funding.

However, the program is currently facing several challenges. One major problem is the high cost of the program, which has led to budget cuts and increased scrutiny from Congress. Another problem is the complexity of the program, which makes it difficult for states to administer.

Despite these challenges, the administration remains committed to the program and is working to address the issues. The new legislation is expected to be passed in the next few weeks.

Hal Boyle Says: Life Can Be Great In '68

NEW YORK (AP) — Every body has been hoping for a better world in 1968, but nobody has been doing much about it. The new year is already in its third day, and so far it doesn't look greatly different from last year. Any improvement is slight and is unnoticeable.

Perhaps this is because perfection, like charity, begins at home. The many people have my money are encouraged to row them to a finer world rather than a better one. If you are one of those people, you may want to consider giving up.

Here, for example, are a few things you might consider giving up: Breathing too deeply of fresh air. People who breathe too deeply throw back too much carbon dioxide into the atmosphere and then complain about the amount of oxygen available in the room.

James Marlow Says: Congress, LBJ Take Credit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Few things have grown faster in the last few years than the size of the federal government. The federal government has grown from a small agency to a massive bureaucracy. This growth has led to increased spending and a larger role for the government in the economy.

James Marlow, a prominent economist, has criticized this growth and has called for a return to a smaller government. He believes that the federal government should focus on its core responsibilities and should not expand its role unnecessarily.

The Communist forces also attacked other Allied positions in the north, including the city of Vinh. The attacks were a major setback for the South Vietnamese government and its allies.

Strikes And Spares

By JOHN A. SPURGE

A bowler's New Year's resolution just has to be for an improvement in his or her current average.

And then there's that "other group" who'll just hope that they can continue doing as well as they did last year. The Saturday Junior Bowling League and others like the Ten Pin Bowling League, Ten Pins, All Bowling... to name a small sampling of the red hot pin games.

Let's give the kids the spotlight first, O. K.?

There's little in life that gives you as much of a thrill or satisfaction as it is when you're working with your young friends. Especially so when you're on hand to share their enjoyment as was the case this past week during their Christmas Tournament competition.

In the opening Division (those under 12 years of age) the Single Division was won by David Myers with his 311, followed by Jimmy Clark's 302. All of these scores are with handicap.

David Payne and Jim Link combined talents in the Doubles competition with their winning 1988 series. The "farthest foursome" of the 21st century was a 1790 to the team event with credit falling to Brad Johnson, David Link, Jimmy Clarke and Kevin Spill-ki (the little one, that is.)

Marking in the Junior-Division had some scoring done which more than a few adults would love to roll for their own.

The Men's (senior, that's their team name and no offense intended) will receive the champions' trophies for their 2250 series. Included in this happy group are Harold Herbit, William Owen, R. Colangelo and David Link. Jimmy Clarke and Kevin Spill-ki (the little one, that is.)

They were pinned a one strike this past week when he exploded with two games over the 240 mark, and they were in two different leagues. Happened first on Tuesday evening at the Metropolitan League and then completed the feat again on Thursday evening in the Toyota Mixed League.

And while we're on this league, congratulations to Forrest Warner for getting his first sanctioned 200-plus game. I promised not to mention his third game total, nor the fact that he just got a brand new ball, either.

It isn't limited to just the men who are rolling the big ones, either.

Take the Wednesday morning Joe Bowlerettes League and Joyce Grimes as another good example. Joyce unloaded a haul of a 287 game, certainly one of her biggest efforts while the Ten Pins was on pin higher at 246, her constant during the course of action in the Tuesday a.m. Seminole Primers League.

There was a great big hoorah from the Deltona Pin Busters on Friday afternoon as Grace Antolek continued her striking pattern and finished with a 226 game. Like I said, it wasn't just the girls who were pin busting... it paid their share of fun, too.

In the thrilling fourth quarter, the lead changed several times and with 35 seconds left in the game the SIS knotted 49-49. Each team tried to set up for the score before Hinson stole the ball and went driving down the court for a layup but was fouled as he tried to turn into the basket. At this point the Seminoles called time with 31 seconds left on the clock.

Hinson then came out and converted on a one in one situation to give the Seminoles a one-point margin. ### Garden Tips DeVary-Masiarczyk Engagement Told

One of the most intriguing features of Florida is the variety of plants who flourish in the state. The weather is colorful with flowering shrubs and trees, as well as annuals and perennials. To leave more joy and harvest branches behind and find green trees and lawns and gay flowers, shrubs, ferns, warm sun and blue skies is an exciting change.

If you are a new resident of Florida, no doubt you are finding gardening much different than "back home." Primarily this is due to the fact that in Florida plants grow almost all year... and because of the planning gardens designers use professional skill and "know-how" to combine hardy, sun-tolerant and shade plants in a beautiful combination planting so that if we do have cold sufficiently to damage some of the tender trees and shrubs, we have the basic planting of hardy materials.

That is why you should become acquainted with the FNGA nurserymen in your area, according to President Richard C. Johnson, Florida nurserymen and Growers Association. These are the outstanding nurserymen in your area who strive to live up to the FNGA motto of "Quality, Knowledge-Service-Integrity."

They can advise you as to best plants for your particular area, the best planting time, the annuals and perennials for adding color to your plantings—and most of all, how to have the attractive home grounds you want! If you want correct information, just ask the man who is an expert—your FNGA Nurseryman.

For an interesting salad, marinate drained cooked broccoli in French dressing and serve on lettuce; top with a thin layer of sour cream (the commercial kind) mixed with mayonnaise; sprinkle with paprika.

Rev. and Mrs. George Owen of the United Church of Deltona have as their guests for two weeks their son, David H. Owen and family from Chester, N. J. Granddaughters, Heather, age 2 1/2, and Jennifer, eight months, don't seem to miss the snow they left in New Jersey at all!

$1 Million Budget To Fight Crimes Eyed By Florida

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — The Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement today approved a $1,000,000 budget for the next six months and heard State Treasurer Broward Williams again lash Gov. Claude Kirk for making "irresponsible statements" about the cabinet's role in the war on crime.

"Someday those who make these irresponsible statements in the heat of battle will see the light and perhaps correct such misstatements," Williams said. Kirk was not present to hear Williams' remarks during a meeting of the bureau. Aides said he would be late due to difficulties in getting his Lear jet through adverse weather at the local airport.

The budget approved by the crime-fighting agency, created by the 1967 Legislature, is subject to cabinet approval. Williams moved Monday to limit the balance of payments by announcing a five-point program to strengthen the dollar against the U.S. dollar. The cabinet last week refused to approve the Bureau's budget, going along with Atty. Gen. Earl Faircloth's argument that the bureau should get approval of the Legislature.

Williams repeated remarks critical of Kirk that he made in an interview last week. He said he wanted the remarks on record.

Williams had blasted the Republican governor after Kirk said cabinet members were dilatory in their actions on the war against crime and had made a "holiday season gift to crime" by their inactivity.

Williams said today these contentions are false.

Turning to another matter which had rankled Kirk, Williams said he did not approve of the bureau taking over the remaining cases of the Wackenhut Corp. "I didn't want to see Bill Reed starting to grow the Wackenhut label."

State Controller Fred Dickenson, another member of the bureau, announced that he is preparing letters now asking Kirk and leaders of the House and Senate to consider taking up the question of "self-protection" and counties in paying higher salaries for deputies and policemen.

He called such officials "our first line of defense against crime."

Legislators gather here in late January for a special session. Dickenson said he hopes to hear from former committee chairman William Beaufort who blasted Kirk when he introduced the bill to create the bureau.

Dickenson said the third meeting will be set for late January, probably at Tampa. The initial meeting was held in Miami Dec. 21.

The committee's study of the development commission was reported by newspaper reports that state funds had been used to pay for Gov. Kirk's honeymoon in Europe and that the major project of the commission was promoting Kirk's national image.

Host Of $ Woes Face Americans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arthur M. Okun, the 59-year-old college professor who is President Johnson's choice for chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors, says a host of money problems await Americans if taxes aren't raised.

Okun told newsmen Tuesday the alternatives to Johnson's proposal to per cent income tax surcharge are higher interest rates, increased price-wage pressures, a tight money situation for those seeking loans and continued disruption of the balance of payments.

Johnson moved Monday to limit the balance of payments by announcing a five-point program to strengthen the dollar against the U.S. dollar. George C. Wallace Gov. Wallace Eyes Convention At Miami Beach

MIAMI (AP) — The Miami Herald reported today that George Wallace is considering a convention of his followers in Miami Beach next summer, probably after the Republican convention.

The Herald quoted an unnamed Wallace spokesman in a telephone interview from Montgomery, Ala., saying Wallace had offered to provide coverage of a Wallace party convention.

But, the newspaper quoted the spokesman, the networks argued that any third-party convention would be held on the site of a major party convention to simplify the complicated logistics of television equipment.

The Republicans met here the week of Aug. 5 and the Democratic convention was held in Miami Beach City Manager Miami Beach City Manager Jack Duffield said there was a meeting in his office two months ago with two men who identified themselves as Wallace spokesmen.

"They stated they represented Gov. Wallace and were contemplating a convention site," Duffield said. "I am not sure if they were available in September."

The men said they would get back to him at a later date but so far he has not heard from them.

Deadly Cyanide Gas Threatens Village

DUNREITH, Ind. (AP) — Officials said the 236 residents of Dunreith will be asked to return to their homes when a deadly chemical compound is removed from a tank car left battered but unbroken in the wreckage of two freight trains.

Two Pennsylvania trains sidetracked New York's night, setting off a series of explosions in a quarry, service station and three homes. Windows were broken in a dozen other homes and businesses.

George Winburn, safety director of Hoban & Inas Chemical Co. of Louisville, Ky., said it would take 8 to 10 hours for the team of experts to transfer the lethal acetone cyanohydrin to a tanker truck. The compound, used in making pesticides, produces cyanide gas when exposed to air.

Officials said the transfer may be complete by tonight. Many townspeople stayed with friends and relatives in other cities, while some were lodged in motels.

Winburn said he had hoped to make an estimate of the total damage here, but the amount may reach $500,000 or more in the railroad alone.

Narcotics Addict Killed In Riot

NORCO, Calif. (AP) — Some 250 narcotics addicts interned at a state rehabilitation center, Tuesday, burning buildings and stoning guards until massed law enforcement officers quelled the riot.

Six officers were injured and five of the rioters wounded, one fatally. Damage was estimated at $250,000 at the California Rehabilitation Center located 60 miles east of Los Angeles.

"I would say the residents definitely had control for a couple of hours," said Roland W. Wood, superintendent of the center. "This is the worst disturbance since the center started in 1961."

After 300 guards and law enforcement officers from surrounding communities rounded up the rioters, 31 inmates were shipped to the maximum security California Reformatory and Guidance Center in Chino.

There are no cells on the 91-acre campus occupied by 2,000 inmates. The rioters, who have been committed by civil court order for a minimum six-month term, are held in a dormitory building.

Officials said they found no evidence of rape.

There are some 1,900 male residents and 300 women there.

Rocky Paints Worsening $S Picture

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller urged lawmakers today to practice restraint in spending and painted a picture of a worsening economic plight in the world and nation.

The governor, who insists he is not a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, urged his annual message to the New York state legislature to urge all levels of government "to strike the balance between what is doable and what is desirable."

It seems to me that we have arrived at a moment which cries aloud for a pause to take stock," said Rockefeller who, during the last eight years, has embarked the state on massive spending programs to upgrade education, curb pollution, and improve transportation and health care.

"As a people, and as local officials, we must face the fact that government at all levels—just like a family—cannot spend way beyond its means for long without weakening its credit and undermining its strength," Rockefeller asserted.

He said that "we may well be reaching a point where the level of expectations of the American people is rising at a rate which is outstripping our capacity to raise revenue on a sound basis—on a basis that will not seriously affect economic growth and increased job opportunities."

NY Stock Exchange May Revise Rates

NEW YORK (AP) — For the first time in nine years, the New York Stock Exchange has moved to revise its commission rates on stock sales.

The proposal to the Securities and Exchange Commission includes a volume discount on large stock transactions, such as those placed by mutual funds. The amount and nature of such a discount would be determined later.

The stock exchange said the five-part program was explained to the SEC in Washington Monday by the exchange chairman, Gustave L. Levy and its president, Robert W. Haack. The program, announced Tuesday, has been approved by the exchange's board of governors.

In 1952, the SEC in a study called on the stock exchange to "discourage" volume discounts on other things. Two years later, the exchange submitted tentative plans which did not meet the commission's requirements.

The SEC has continued to press for changes.

In the announcement of the proposal, Haack said that "the commission is not in a position to take any action on our part in the problem being solved by those outside the industry who may be less familiar with the ramifications and as a result might direct change less satisfactorily than those we intend to make."

Other changes proposed included giving brokers who are not stock exchange members a discount in maximum commission, and limiting membership

Shortbread Afternoon Refresher
By Cecily Brownstone
AP Food Editor
A good snack in New York, N.Y. contributes this recipe for a shortbread-type cookie.
Jean Watson's Almond Cookies
Tea or Coffee
JEAN WATSON'S ALMOND COOKIES
COOKIES
1 cup vegetable shortening
1/2 pound (1 stick) butter
Confectioners' sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sifted regular flour
1/2 cup to 1/4 cup to measure
1 package (3 ounces) natural whole almonds, blanched and ground fine
In a large mixing bowl cream the shortening, butter, 6 tablespoons confectioners' sugar, vanilla and the salt. Gradually work in the flour; then the almonds. Using 1 level tablespoon of the mixture for each, form into small crescent-shaped balls. Place, 1 inch apart, on ungreased cookie sheets. Bake at 350 degrees until only very lightly browned—about 13 minutes. With a wide spatula carefully remove to wire paper lined with confectioners' sugar. Using a fine-mesh strainer, sift more confectioners' sugar over the cookies. Store in a tightly covered tin container. Makes about 4 dozen cookies.

DINNER FOR FOUR

4 canned peach halves
Mince meat
Whipped cream

Bake at 350 degrees until thoroughly hot—15 to 20 minutes. Serve with whipped cream slightly sweetened and flavored with vanilla. Makes 4 servings—1 slice pineapple and 1 peach half for each portion.

COMPANY SUPPER
This chicken dish boasts an interesting topping—and there's plenty of it to serve with rice.
Almond Cheese Chicken Rice
Green Peas Salad Bowl
Pineapple and Strawberry Compote
ALMOND CHEESE CHICKEN
1 cup whole natural almonds
1/2 cup minced parsley
1/4 teaspoon oregano
1/4 teaspoon thyme
1 jar (5 ounces) processed American cheese spread
1/4 cup soft margarine
1 clove garlic, minced
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 frying chicken (about 3 1/2 pounds), cut up
Finely chop almonds; toss with parsley, oregano and thyme. Blend cheese spread with margarine, garlic and pepper. Wash chicken pieces; dry thoroughly. Arrange in a 13 by 9 by 2 inch pan, skin sides up. Spread chicken generously with cheese mixture. Sprinkle with almond-parsley mixture, pressing it into cheese. Bake at 350 degrees until chicken is fork-tender—about 1 1/2 hours. Serve with rice. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Saturday Night Snack With Bourbon
SATURDAY WHISKY SNACK
This is a new version of one of our most popular recipes.
Cheese and Crackers
Miniature Pecan Bourbon Cake
Beverage
MINIATURE PECAN BOURBON CAKE
1 1/2 cups sifted regular flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 cup (1/4 pound) butter
1 cup sugar
3 large eggs
1/4 cup (8 proof) bourbon
1 cup golden raisins, chopped fine
1-2nd cup finely-chopped candied orange rind
8 cups pecan halves, coarsely cut
On wax paper sift together the flour, baking powder and nutmeg. In a large mixing bowl cream the butter and sugar; thoroughly beat in the eggs, one at a time. Beat in sifted flour mixture alternately with bourbon, keeping better smooth. Stir in raisins, orange rind and pecans.
Turn about 1/4 cup batter into each of 8 well-greased individual loaf pans (1 cup capacity, 4 1/2 by 2 1/2 by 1 1/2 inches). Bake at 350 degrees until a cake tester inserted in center comes out free of batter—about 25 minutes. With a small spatula, loosen sides of cakes; turn out on wire rack. If any bit of fruit mixture adheres to bottom of pans, remove with spatula and "plaster" back onto loaves. Cool thoroughly; wrap each cake in plastic wrap and store in a tightly covered tin box. For most loaves that cut well, sprinkle with extra bourbon. Allow to mellow for a week before using.

SUNDAY SUPPER
If you like sardine sandwiches, here's a good way to make them.
Mushroom Soup
Savory Sardine Sandwiches
Fresh Fruit Brownies
SAVORY SARDINE SANDWICHES
2 cans (each 3 1/2 ounces) brining sardines, drained
1 tablespoon plus 1 teaspoon red wine vinegar
1/4 cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons minced scallions (green onion)
12 thin slices bread
Sardine greens and pimiento-stuffed green olive
Mix the sardines and mix in the remaining ingredients except the bread, greens and olive. Make 6 sandwiches of the sardine filling and the bread; cut each into 2 triangles. Garnish with greens and olive. Makes 4 to 6 servings—1 or 1 1/2 sandwiches per person.

FAMILY DINNER
This is everything you need to know when you cook a smoked tongue.
Smoked Tongue
Red Cabbage
Crisped Potatoes
Green Beans
Fruit Bowl
Beverage
SMOKED TONGUE
Smoked tongue (3 1/2 to 4 pounds)
1 tablespoon mixed pickling spices (do not include whole pepper pod)
1 clove garlic, halved and slightly crushed
Cold water
Remove all wrapping from tongue and place in a 5-quart saucepan with pickling spices, garlic and enough water barely to cover. Bring to a boil; simmer, turning midway, until tongue feels quite soft when a fork is inserted and turned in its center—about 1 hour. Drain tongue; cool slightly. Cut off roots—fatty meat and gristle beneath on underside. Carefully peel off skin and discard. Slice thin from top end, gradually angling knife so slices are cut in uniform thickness. Serve at once; refrigerate uncooked leftover tongue and serve cold or use in other dishes. (Remember hot and cold slices make a chop which makes a fine sandwich filling.)
