"It pays to advertise and to advertise with due planning, thought and execution."

Dr. Talbert's findings will help to lay at rest one more old wives tale about promotion and advertising. Both are inseparable from the free market, mass prediction and mass distribution system that makes possible U.S. living standards. More importantly, promotion and advertising in the long run are the foundation of a free press. These are the reasons why it is no exaggreration to say that economic freedom, as well as all of our other freedoms, including freedom of the press, are inseparable.

By MILDRED HANEY Christmas Carols sung by the Deltona Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Clark, heralded the Christmas party of the New England Club of Deltona. A short business meeting was held in which the officers for 1969 were elected. Unanimously voted into office were Miss Mary E. O'Leary, president; Nathan Goodman, first vice president; Harris Goodman, second vice president; Frederick Adams, treasurer: Mrs. Ann Marie Piasta, recording secretary; and Mrs. Florence Mescall, corresponding secretary. Installation will take place at the Jan. 5 meeting, which also marks the first anniversary of the club. Plans for the birthday celebration are in the final stages. Attendance for the affair, to be held from 1 to 5 p.m. at the Community Center, is limited to adult New Englanders. Following the business meeting, Alcide Poirier as Santa Claus, made his entrance to the strains of "Westminster Chimes" played by Mrs. Roy Stewart at the piano. Amid bell ringing and "ho-hes," gifts were distributed to about 175 members and guests. Door prizes, courtesy of the club, were won by Harry Davis and Mrs. Elmer Starrett.
