Claims 'Scoop'

Prof. A. M. Arnett (above) of the University of North Carolina claimed he "scooped" the country when he cited a letter he regards as proof that Woodrow Wilson wanted to enter the World War in 1914 but was prevented by the late Rep. Claude Kitchin of North Carolina, Democratic floor leader of the house at that time, and Representative Clark Flood. The letter was written by Kitchin. (Associated Press Photo)

HOW SUPREME COURT LINED UP IN KILLING THE AAA

Here's how the members of the Supreme Court lined up in the decision that upset the Roosevelt administration's farm relief program and threw other major New Deal laws into question. Six justices voted "No" on the question of the AAA's constitutionality and three voted "Yes." Those voting against the act were, left to right: Justices Roberts, Hughes, Van Devanter and Sutherland. The majority vote in the affirmative was cast by Justices Brandeis, Stone and Cardozo. (Associated Press Photo)

Enough Money Is Set Up For City Paving

Commission Told Of No Need To Worry That Project Will Not Be Completed

WPA Engineers At Conference

Work Cannot Be Continuous, Engineers Tell City Officials

Sufficient funds have been set up by the Works Progress Administration for completing the repaving of Park Avenue and First Street in Sanford, the City Commissioners were told at a special session today noon by T. K. Apper, assistant director for the WPA in District No. 2, with offices in Orlando. Practically the same information was given by D. A. McCluskey, local representative of the Works Progress Administration.

Today's conference between the City Commission and the WPA engineers was decided upon at last night's session of the commission when the four who expressed that available WPA funds might be exhausted and a halt called on various projects before they are completed, and that the Sanford paving project might be included if there was a cessation of activities on the part of the Washington bureau. This fear on the part of City officials was explained to Mr. Apper and Mr. McCluskey today.

Mayor Deane told the WPA officials that the city would be left in a "sorry predicament" with several blocks torn up in different sections on the two streets being resurfaced. He asked if the work could not be concentrated, starting at one end of Park Avenue and continuing through without stopping around.

While assuring the Commission that funds set up for the project are sufficient to complete the paving work, the engineers explained that because of the nature of the work the paving would have to stop in different places.

Committees For Birthday Ball To Meet Wednesday

Municipality May Have To Buy Stolen Bonds Of City Bought By Innocent Party

The City of Sanford may have to buy stolen property, to-wit: Three bonds to the value of $1,000 each. But if it does have to pay them the $3,000 worth of paper can be bought for about $450. The City Commission was so advised last night.

The bonds were delivered, along with other securities, to the W. S. Dekey Clay Manufacturing Co. of St. Louis for sewer pipe bought in Boston days several years ago. Soon after their delivery to the sewer pipe manufacturer the three bonds were stolen. The municipal authorities were notified at the time, and they in turn notified various bond houses of the theft. And nothing was heard of the bonds for years.

Now they turn up in Cincinnati where they were bought by J. S. Todd & Co., innocent purchasers, at 15 cents on the dollar.

City Attorney Fred R. Wilson advised the commission that the city could probably be made to pay for the bonds, but before any action is taken an effort will be made to contact the W. S. Dekey Co. and ask that certificate of it is still in existence, to indemnify the municipality.

Princess Theatre Permit Given By City Commission

Modern Building Is To Replace First Street Structure

Willing to co-operate in every possible way in bringing about improvement was shown by the City Commission last night when it voted to waive a few technicalities in the building code applying to a entirely new construction, and instructed Building Inspector G. P. Paxton to issue a permit for the remodeling of the old Princess Theater on First Street.

North Palmetto Ave. May Be Closed While Fair Is In Progress

City Commissioners last night instructed Chief of Police William to close North Palmetto Avenue, between Lake Shore Boulevard, during the week of the Seminole County Fair if such closing seems desirable. The street closing was requested by fair directors, but members of the Commission stated that it may be found advisable to keep it open for parking purposes even if no traffic.

Special Taxes Are Not Forgotten By City Commission

The Sanford City Commissioners are still thinking about levying special taxes, a proposal suggested several weeks ago but allowed to remain dormant until after the installation of the new commission.

Senate Group Favors Paying Bonds To Vets

Consideration Of Bill In Upper House In Expected Thursday By Committee Head

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—(AP)—The Senate Finance committee today gave speedy approval to the coupon bonus payment bill by a vote of 15 to two. Senators Connors, Republican, Michigan, and Gerry, Democrat, Rhode Island, were the only members voting against a favorable report on the measure which provides for full payment after June 15, 1937, of the bonus certificates in "Baby Bonds" redeemable in cash.

Chairman Harrison, Democrat, Missouri, said he would try to get Senate consideration Thursday. By a vote of 18 to nothing the committee authorized the Senate bill for that passed by the House last Friday which provided for full payment but specified no method of payment.

Mr. Roosevelt's testimony on Capitol Hill was said to have advised him a week ago that it was highly unlikely that sufficient votes could be found in either body to uphold another bonus issue. First indication that the Administration had capitulated came when Majority Leader Joe T. Robinson of the Senate predicted that some compromise measure agreeable to the White House could be agreed on.

J.S. Gordy Dies Of Heart Attack In Office Today

Drops Dead At Work; Was Believed To Be In Best Of Health

Julian S. Gordy, manager of the Sanford office of the Wisconsin-Fertilizer Co. company, dropped dead in his office shortly before 9 o'clock today. It was stated that a heart attack was the cause of his sudden death. He had seemingly been in the best of health, and talked and joked with friends only a few minutes before he died.

Fair Endorsed By Trade Body, Says Papworth

Our "indirect" endorsement by the County Chamber of Commerce of the Seminole County Fair to be given next week is stated by President H. M. Papworth of the trade body in the following letter addressed to the chief of the Sanford Herald.

"Have for the Seminole County Fair to be held the week of Jan. 21 in Sanford by the ladies of the Sanford Women's Club and the Seminole County Federation of Women's Clubs, have been shown me, and I certainly want to do anything possible to make this Fair a big success.

"The Fair means getting the families from all corners of our County together, to see the arts and crafts, antiques and the many exhibits that we have in our County. We think it a splendid idea to have the fine art exhibit in the Arcade Building where people with practically no means will be glad to show them to the patrons of the Fair.

"A carnival company will furnish the amusement and I understand that they have a wonderful free act.

"The Chamber of Commerce endorses this Fair one hundred percent and any assistance we may be to you will be gladly rendered."

Mayer Won't Attend Safety Conference; Speeches Tire Him

Sheriff J. F. McCallum and Chief of Police Roy Williams expect to attend a band session of the Safety Council in Jacksonville tomorrow and Thursday, but Mayor T. L. Deane who had planned to go to the conference told the City Commission last night, he had decided not to be present.

"I am heartily in favor of the conference and hope some real good will come from it, but when I read the long program and noticed how many speeches are to be delivered I changed my mind about going," he said.

Habeas Corpus Writ Is Sought In Lindy Case

Counsel Appeals To Federal District Court In Effort To Prevent Execution

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Counsel for Bruno Richard Hauptmann arranged to seek a writ of habeas corpus in the Federal District Court this afternoon. Only four days of life were assured for the Bronx captives as attorneys—increased to five by the addition of two from Washington—drafted a petition alleging that Hauptmann's constitutional rights were violated during his trial at Flemington. His execution which must be sought in a separate application would mean that the only hope for Hauptmann was a reprieve by Governor Hoffman. The governor returned to the capital today for his first appearance since he left soon after the Court of Pardons rejected Hauptmann's plea for clemency last Saturday. In intervening days Hoffman spent much of the time in New York, but declined to say whether he conferred with anyone on the case.

From his death cell in the state prison only six steps removed from the electric chair Hauptmann yesterday told his wife, Anna, he could readily undergo further questioning by authorities to give any information he might have overlooked in the past. But he stressed his innocence of the crime.

Col. Mark O. Koesterling, prison warden, commencing arrangements for the execution, said the condemned man remained calm, ate and slept well.

Rotary Expresses Loss In Death Of Harry R. Stevens

Memorial Resolution For First Leader Passed At Session

Resolutions in memory of Harry Stevens were adopted by the Rotary Club at its regular weekly luncheon at the Mayfair Hotel today. Mr. Stevens, who died recently, was for many years an active member of the club.

The resolutions declared that "we do place on record our deep sense of gratitude for all that Harry Stevens has meant to us for the privilege of knowing him and the honor of having had him as a member and first president of the Sanford Rotary Club, and we pray God that he may go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service in Thy Heavenly kingdom."

The program of which the Rev. Martin Bram had charge consisted of a brief talk and demonstration by Prof. E. L. Melton, of Charleston, S. C., who is a guest in the city of Dr. E. E. Hudworth, Prof. Melton is a hand writing expert who was for six years connected with the Department of Justice in Washington.

Other guests at the luncheon included: Ben Cantwell, who is an honorary member, Roy Wright, a student at the Seminole High School, Walter Briggs of Kalamazoo, Mich., Fred Corey of Barboursville, Ohio, Bill Higginbotham of DeLand, and W. C. Prince of Greenville, Fla.

Joyce Robbins, 8, Is Victim Of Pneumonia

Joyce Stanley Robbins, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Robbins residing on the Country Club Road, died Saturday of pneumonia after an illness of less than a week. She was in the third grade in the East Side Primary. Funeral services were held Sunday from the Erickson mortuary with the Rev. E. D. Brownlee officiating.

Joyce is survived by her parents, one brother, Kenneth, Jr., and two sisters, Annie and Emma Jane.

MAYORS ASK MUCH

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Big city mayors asked Congress late yesterday for a $2,200,000,000 appropriation to continue federal relief 12 months after July 1.

U.S. Subsidy For Air Ports Is Demanded

ATLANTA, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Aviation officials of the Southeast urged that the federal government appropriate money for airways and airports, just as it does for federal highways.

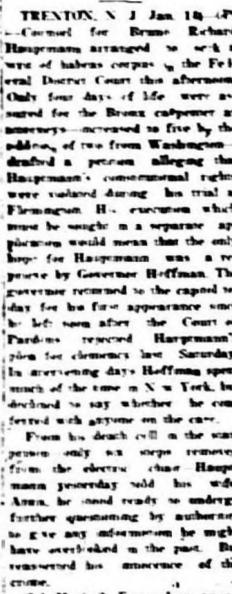

Their action took the form of a resolution at the closing session yesterday of a regional meeting of the National Association of Aviation Officials.

Speakers had told of a need for additional airports to bring about a revival of private flying, to defend the Nation in time of war, and to facilitate airplane schedules.

Rotary Expresses Rallying Cry Of Party Sounded By James A. Farley

Postmaster General Says, 'Keep FDR In, Keep Gang Out'

TUCKAHOE, N. Y., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Postmaster James A. Farley last night sounded the Democratic rallying cry for the 1936 Presidential campaign: "Keep Roosevelt in, and keep the gang out."

In an address, couched in ship and vigorous phrases, the Democratic National chairman arraigned "the self-proclaimed gangsters of big business" as "arrant demagogues" and "heralds of privilege" whose "stock in trade is talk."

Farley prepared his speech for delivery at a delayed Jackson Day dinner of the Westchester County Democratic Committee. His words were a clear amplification of the President's declaration to Congress of "no retreat."

He accused what he called "unprincipled brigands" of money and big business with crying for quarter in 1932, but now attempting to "muscle in" on the fruits of a general prosperity.

"President Roosevelt proposes to make a clean workmanlike job of reform," Farley declared, "and because he knows that only through reforms that end of the exploitation of the many by the few can American institutions be preserved. He knows that since every element has suffered from the wrongs, the reforms must touch every element in the Nation, the farmer, the industrial worker, the miner, the toiler incapacitated by age, the small business man, the white collar worker."

"That is what is making his Administration so popular."

Mrs. Naomi Brinton Died At Early Hour

Mrs. Naomi Josephine Brinton died at 2:40 o'clock this morning in the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Ester, in Longwood. She had been in ill health for a year and came to Florida to visit her daughter about seven weeks ago. She spent three years in Longwood on another visit.

Mrs. Brinton was born in Westmoreland county, Pa., on Sept. 11, 1868, and Federal services will be held in her native state. In addition to her daughter, the deceased is survived by two sons, John and Eugene A. Brinton, both residents of Sanford, Fla., one brother, E. K. Chadwick, of Jamaica, Fla., and three sisters, Mrs. C. C. Brinton, Miss Elsie Chadwick and Miss Belle Chadwick, all of Jamaica.
