Charlie Morrison, of the Seminole Co. C, tells that several persons were watching the secretary-receptionist at the First Street headquarters for gubernatorial candidate Hayden Burns posing his picture in the window. Along came a man who greeted the group with "Hi!" Quick as a flash the receptionist yelled: "That's a dirty word around here!"

Once I was a slow hunt-and-peck typist but now I'm a speeded up expert if the toUch systEx.

There has been much printed lately about the beauty of Rands Mall. Comes now a 'phone call and a sweet young voice recommended that we also mention the beauty of the landscaping in front of the school administration building on Commercial Street.

Just a reminder: The public is invited to open house Saturday at Sanford Naval Air Station in keeping with the observance of Armed Forces Day.

In reading the story about the AF "Hound Dog" missile in Thursday's Herald, we questioned its cost: $500,000. So we telephoned the PIO at McCoy AFB and sure enough each one of those babies costs a half-million bucks. We always knew war is expensive but that's 'way out of this world.

All persons serving Seminole County in the teaching profession are invited to the Classroom Teachers Association banquet at 7:30 Saturday at Mayfair Inn. Dr. Phil Constans, NEA director, will be the speaker. New officers will be installed. Dancing and a social hour will follow.

Cause for wonderment: Young man with his leg in a cast riding around Sanford astride a motorcycle.

Seminole County Board of Public Instruction will offer education training for out-of-school youths under 20 years of age during the summer months. Information may be obtained at the school administration building, 202 Commercial Street. Applications must be submitted by next Friday, May 22.

The "Clock" item about the city paving the alley along the ACL spur off First Street, after a truck broke an axle, elicited from City Manager Pete Knowles that ACL has decided to the city a strip 35 feet on the west between First Street and the alley extending at the rear of The Herald plant. The railroad retained an easement for its spur.

Once and for all: The thought behind the beautification of Rands alley came from the City Zoning and Planning Commission and was carried out by city employees. Mary Harkey says the city did not get proper credit for the new beautiful Rands Mall.

Police Chief Roy G. Williams would enlist the aid of anyone who can help him round out his "art gallery." The Chief has photographs of every Sanford mayor excepting Col. A. M. Thrasher, 1853 and 1859; Henry L. Lillienthal, 1857; Dr. B. Y. Herndon, 1887; A. M. Fleming, 1880, and J. F. Welborne, 1901. He would like to borrow portraits and have copies made.

A Rattling Unlucky Day

EDINBURG, Tex. (UPI) — Thirteen deadly rattlesnakes were still loose somewhere in this Rio Grande Valley city today, causing residents to step lightly. Police said they were "small ones" just three feet long.

The snakes were all that was left out of a batch of 35 of the poisonous reptiles that escaped from the garage of Roger Miller Wednesday night. Miller, a mechanic, planned to sell the snakes to a canning firm in Laredo, Tex.

Newest Industry In Seminole Welcomed

Seminole County's newest industry was greeted Thursday with a luncheon at Jim Spencer's Restaurant and a tour of the plant located south of Sanford.

Welcomed by city and county officials and members of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce's Industrial Committee was Harold Slama, president of the Southern Fiberglass Products Company, makers of the Colbia boat.

Carl Schilke and Scott Burns, co-chairmen of the Industrial Committee, were hosts at the luncheon.

Goldwater Won't Visit State Now

Sen. Barry Goldwater, of Arizona, aspirant for the Republican nomination for president, will not campaign in Florida prior to the May 26 state primary.

Florida Republicans are offering two slates of delegates to the GOP national convention July 13 at San Francisco, one pledged slate headed by William D. Pawley, of Miami, and a second pledged to Senator Goldwater, headed by U. S. Rep. William C. Cramer, of St. Petersburg, and State Rep. Robert H. Elrod, of Orlando. Candidates for district delegates on this latter slate are John F. Jacobs, of DeLand, and Cherie Gardner, of Allandale.

Dean Burch, assistant general director of the Goldwater for President Committee, Washington, today informed The Sanford Herald that "at the present time, we have no firm plans for the Senator to visit Florida prior to the primary because of the stringent requirements of the California primary. This situation may change, but as of now, I can give you no assurance that the Senator will be in Florida prior to the primary."

Florida Republicans will send 34 delegates to the national convention whereas California Republicans will send 80.

Senator Goldwater, according to United Press International, has been campaigning for the California delegate vote in that state's primary early next month.

Collections Up

Seminole County's property tax collections last month with sales and gas tax collections showing a sharp leap over a comparative month in 1963, and even for the previous month of March.

The sales tax take for April, 1964, hit a total of $108,517.48 compared with $75,389.70 for April, 1963, and the March, 1964, total of $88,688.74.

Gasoline taxes for April, 1964, were listed at $100,354.38 compared to $89,442.91 for the same month in 1963 and $92,621.75 for last March.

Candidates To Meet Again Over Weekend

TAMPA (UPI) — Gubernatorial candidates Haydon Burns and Robert King High headed today into a weekend of scheduled head-on meetings, with Burns apparently spurning advice to dodge them and High anxious for the fray.

Today, however, the candidates head for opposite sides of the state and are not scheduled to meet. This also was a source of concern to Burns' advisors.

Burns went from the west coast in Los Angeles and High was to arrive late in the morning at Clearwater in Pinellas County for another vote drive in the populous Tampa Bay area.

The widespread report Thursday was that both High and Burns would be at a civic club meeting at Clearwater at noon, but this had never been on Burns' schedule. One Burns advisor said he feared Burns' failure to show up might be misinterpreted and that "the press will murder us."

The two candidates, however, are both scheduled to go before the State Jaycee convention at Cocoa on Saturday, and a telephone official reported in Miami the two would be on an hour-long program there Sunday evening—and maybe even a second program on another channel.

Death Strikes Second Time For Widow

MIAMI (UPI) — A Miami widow, who lost her husband in March when he died after five months in a coma, also grieved for her two-year-old son today.

John Eric Jackson, 2, son of Mrs. Jean Jackson, followed a neighbor's cat through a broken fence Thursday, fell into a canal and drowned.

"He knew he wasn't supposed to go near that canal," sobbed Mrs. Jackson Thursday night, "but he loved that dopey old cat."

Mrs. Jackson, whose husband was involved in an auto accident Oct. 5 of last year, and died March 16, said "I was just getting so I could sleep nights again."

John Eric had five brothers and sisters. They are Richard, 16; Donna, 15; Mike, 13; Steve, 10, and Stormy, 4.

UF Distributes $6,650 Check

Checks totaling $6,650 have been distributed by the United Fund of Seminole County to nine participating agencies. The Fund's action represents the second quarterly disbursement.

Agencies participating include the American Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Children's Home Society, Family Counseling Service, Girl Scouts, the Good Samaritan Home, Mental Health Association, the Salvation Army and the USO.

The figure is based upon cash on deposit in January. The final disbursement in October will be adjusted according to payment of unpaid pledges at that time, fund officials declared.

Recent Events Boost Spirits Of Exiles

MIAMI (UPI) — Lauding spirits in Miami's exile colony soared today in the wake of Brazil's diplomatic break with the Fidel Castro regime and Wednesday's successful exile raid on a Cuban sugar mill.

Exile leaders accused Brazil's break with Havana as a "devastating blow" to the Castro regime and International Communism which opens the door for hemisphere action against the Cuban government.

The jubilation was further heightened by a U. S. Commerce Department decision to tighten restrictions on the sale of food and medicine to already rationed Cuba.

Wednesday's successful raid by the Revolutionary Recovery Movement (RRM) on a sugar mill in Oriente Province was seen by the exiles as the first move in a campaign to step up raids on the Communist controlled island.

Brazil's break with Cuba leaves only four Latin American nations—Uruguay, Chile, Bolivia and Mexico — maintaining diplomatic ties with the Castro regime.

Former Cuban President Carlos Prío Socarras said that "with this action by Brazil, the aggressive plans of international Communism not only suffer a devastating blow, but the prospects for the cause of Cuban freedom are now opened."

Salute To SNAS Program For Armed Forces Day Slated

The crackling of the after-burners sometimes gets a little bothersome. Especially when they drown out the favorite TV programs in the evenings.

But isn't it a most comforting feeling on retiring at night, in hearing those jet blast furnaces roaring, to know that the Navy fly-boys are up there solely and only for our protection? Bluntly, they are flying the skies to prevent another Pearl Harbor; to prevent another "day of infamy."

Citizens will have their opportunity Saturday to pay tribute and homage to these military men who protect our homes and hearths when Sanford Naval Air Station will hold "open house."

For Saturday is "Armed Forces Day." The purpose is for calling attention to those men who devote their careers and their lives for our protection, whether they wear the blue of the Air Force, the khaki of the Army, the scarlet and gold of the Marines or the blue and white of the Navy.

Local attention is focused, naturally, on the Navy because of Sanford Naval Air Station. Over and above our pride in the Navy there is a selfish, economical reason for paying tribute to SNAS — it employs more than 3,500 in military and civilian status, with a monthly payroll of well over $1 million.

And this observance of Armed Forces Day should have added meaning to all of Sanford and Seminole County. It was just a few weeks ago we were faced with the threat of the base here being closed. But due to the efficient and expeditious work of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and the abilities of our state and federal legislative delegations the base is still here — an integral part of our area's economic makeup.

So, to the Army, Marines, Navy and Air Force — welcome aboard!

Union Disputes Railway Claims

Exception to a statement Thursday that Atlantic Coast Line Railroad will let out only three firemen under the "featherbedding" action, was taken today by the Sanford local of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

H. A. Stoffer, grievance chairman of the local, said 13 Sanford men "stand to lose their jobs as firemen." He added that 10 Sanford firemen will be out of a job within the next few days; three men already have been fired.

An ACL spokesman at Jacksonville reiterated today only three men have been discharged, that nine other firemen have been offered comparable paying positions within the ACL system. He explained that should the new jobs pay less than the firemen have earned in the last year, they will receive bonus pay monthly to equal their past earnings for a period covering the next five years.

"As of this date," said Stoffer this morning, "the Coast Line has not offered these men comparable jobs as required by the Award 232. The jobs offered are not jobs but most of them are paper jobs and don't exist. The jobs are in Tampa and Lakeland and the superintendent of the ACL can not tell, or refused to tell, this representative what the jobs consisted of, hours, days off, type of work, etc. And these men have until midnight tonight to make a decision which will affect their lives and their families in the future."

Stoffer continued: "Do the people of this free country realize that a restraining order by U. S. District Judge Alexander Holtzoff, of Washington, D. C., restrains the union and its members from even thinking or talking or discussing any action whatsoever of trying to dispose of the dispute in any manner? The Coast Line to this date has refused to hold the question in dispute at a status quo until the men affected have a clear view of the company's position of the Award, and are being forced to make a decision for the future under these tactics."

While the ACL spokesman said only three firemen have been let out, Stoffer named the three already discharged and 10 more who face "a deadline at midnight tonight."

Rev. Grover Sewell

Did God Smile?

Early in my ministry I became the pastor of a small church which had some of the most talented people one will ever find in a small church. There were a number of members who were willing and did work and give generously of their time, talents and money, but there was one exceptional person about whom I feel compelled to write.

I will not tell you her name because it would embarrass her if she found out but her life is too great an example to remain hidden.

This lady was not a five-talent person nor even a two-talent person. As far as ability in any area of stewardship was concerned her capabilities could be described best as talent. She was unlike the one-talent steward in Jesus' parable as you will understand.

This little church of which I have written was too small to afford any paid worker other than the minister so any work not accomplished by him had to be done by volunteers.

Within a few hours of my being "on the field" this dear lady informed my wife that there was to be no concern about the cleaning of the church building for Sunday worship services because she would do this herself. She explained that she had had as part of her service to the Lord the task of volunteer janitor for many years and she had no intention of stopping.

We were curious as to how she would manage transportation for her Saturday chore and found that much of the time she walked the distance of about two miles while carrying different tools that she might need for the job. She preferred to do all of the work herself so it was best to let her do it as she pleased.

We could rest assured that the work would always be done and the floors swept because this saint of God loved Him and her fellowman. This reminds us that most of the work in God's Kingdom and giving must be accomplished by one-talent people. Of course, we do thank God for those who are eloquent in teaching God's work, and for those who contribute magnificently to His cause in other ways, but let us not be discouraged if we feel that our work is not significant enough to count. It is always great in God's sight if it is done sincerely.

Sunday Is Pentecost, Birthday Of Christ

By Louis Cassels
United Press International
Sunday is the 1,834th birthday of the Christian Church.

It commemorates an event which took place in the city of Jerusalem in the spring of the year A. D. 30.

The New Testament records the precise date. It was a Jewish holiday called Pentecost. One week had gone by since Christ ceased His post-Resurrection appearances among His disciples. In accordance with His instructions, the disciples were gathered together in a house in Jerusalem waiting.

Suddenly, they felt among them a Presence which seemed to take possession of their hearts and minds, filling them with a strange sense of joy, a consciousness of power, and a boldness which they had never known before.

They went out and began to proclaim the Gospel of Christ to the people of the city with such fervor and conviction that the infant church won 3,000 converts by nightfall.

The transforming Presence which the disciples experienced on Pentecost is known to Christians as the Holy Spirit.

When the time came for Jesus to terminate His relatively brief stay among men, He assured His disciples that "I will not leave you comfortless." In His stead, He promised, they would have the Holy Spirit to guide them into all truth, and to strengthen them against all trials.

During the early years of the church's history, the Holy Spirit made His presence felt in the Christian community in very vivid ways.

The Book of Acts speaks of the apostles being "empowered" by the Holy Spirit to heal the sick, to speak in foreign languages hitherto unknown to them, and to perform other miraculous works.

It is a cardinal tenet of Christian belief that the Holy Spirit is still at work in the world, and particularly within the community of faith which is called the Church.

Sometimes it is very hard indeed to discern His guiding hand. But there are also times when His presence becomes as unmistakably real and compelling to individuals or groups of contemporary Christians as it was to the disciples on the day of Pentecost.

Many Protestants and Catholics are quite certain that the Christian unity movement, which has flowered so miraculously in recent years, is being led by the Holy Spirit. The late Pope John XXIII insisted that he did not think up the idea of calling an Ecumenical Council. It was, he said in his usual matter-of-fact way, entirely the Holy Spirit's idea.

Upsala Church Names Mother Of The Year

By Mrs. H. E. Johnson
A young mother was completely surprised during last Sunday morning's worship service at Upsala Presbyterian Church when announcement was made that she had been chosen "Mother of the Year."

Receiving this annual award was Mrs. Marie Harris of Loch Arbor who was presented with an engraved gold pin citing her as Mother of the Year, 1964, with the name of the church inscribed on back.

Mrs. Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Pezold, also of Loch Arbor, says she is a "Florida Cracker all the way." Born and reared in Sanford, she attended local schools and graduated from Seminole High School.

She is employed by The Sanford Herald as linotype operator, a position which she has held for the past 15 years. She is a member of Upsala Presbyterian Church and has taught the nursery class there since 1958. She is the mother of three children, Teresa, eight, and Harold, seven, who attend Lake Mary Elementary School and Tina, age six, who will enter first grade next term.

Presentation of the award was made by John Andes who has presented pins for the past five years to mothers of the church. Pastor is Rev. James Hardin.

Members to be so recognized are W. Sterne Bolte, Sam Goble, George A. Rufus, Dan F. Siglin, James Temple and Paul Wireman.

Politically Speaking..

Local Democratic leaders are joining the "Burns Blitzers" while state Republican leaders are feuding.

Seminole Democratic bigwigs who took to the hustings for Sen. John Mathews, Fred Dickinson and Fred Karl for the governor nomination have transferred their allegiance to Hayden Burns and are openly campaigning in his behalf.

Those in Scott Kelly's camp seem to be split. Some say they will go down the line for Burns while a few "diehards" still are stumping for the Lakeland.

As one politico put it, "Burns more nearly follows the thoughts expounded by our candidate than does" the second man on the totem pole, Robert King High.

All the local Democratic leaders are pounding for a big vote come May 26 but feel that with only three colorless county races in a runoff that the turn-out of electors will be poor.

Two state GOP leaders, both supporters of Sen. Barry Goldwater for president, have reached the parting of the ways.

Former ambassador William D. Pawley was quoted by United Press International that he will not actively campaign for the unpledged state of Republican presidential delegates he heads but was highly critical of U. S. Rep. William C. Cramer, who heads a state of delegates pledged to Goldwater.

"I do not wish to indulge in the type of gutter politics being employed by William Cramer," Pawley was quoted. He said he will work for the election of Albert Roberts III, of St. Petersburg, for the post of national committeeman.

Other candidates for national committeeman are Cramer, Robert A. Peterson, Miami Beach, and Chester W. Stoltenberg, Oakland Park. For committeewoman are Frances C. Salmon, St. Petersburg, and Helene M. Morris, Sarasota.

Candidates for Democratic national committeeman are Elliott Roosevelt, Miami Beach; A. G. Broderson, Merritt Island; Joe Carrin, Tallahassee; Bill McCoy, Jacksonville; J. B. Rodgers Jr., Orlando; Napoleon B. Broward, Fort George Island; Grover Cleveland, Punta Gorda; Jim Fair (the perennial candidate for numerous posts), Tampa; James James, Miami; Rex Swain, Jacksonville; Leon Whitehurst Jr., Clearwater; E. L. Kilgore, Leesburg; David Gill, Tampa; Richard D. Barkley, Jacksonville, and John J. Kennedy, St. Petersburg. For committeewoman are Annetta Baker, Clearwater Beach; Nancy W. Evans, Miami; Ann M. Cramer, West Hollywood, and Catherine C. McAll, Ocala.

James claims that Cleveland has withdrawn and thrown his support to James. However, Secretary of State Tom Adams has ruled it is too late for a candidate to withdraw his or her name from the ballot.

A state Democratic convention to select a party-endorsed candidate for governor is advocated as the No. 1 plank in the platform of John Kennedy, candidate for Democratic national committeeman.

Such a convention would be patterned after the national Democratic convention to select the party's presidential candidate, Kennedy said, with each county Democratic organization selecting its delegates in proportion to the number of registered Democrats. The party-endorsed candidate would then oppose unendorsed candidates in a primary election, where the voters would make the final selection.

The Herald endorses Kennedy's idea, even to the point of suggesting a county convention.

Senator Goldwater is leaving any Florida campaigning in his behalf for the GOP presidential nomination to his followers and supporters. He is gambling Florida's 34 Republican delegates votes for California's 80. His opposition in Florida is an unpledged state on May 26 and is confining his campaigning at this time to California, which has a primary early next month.

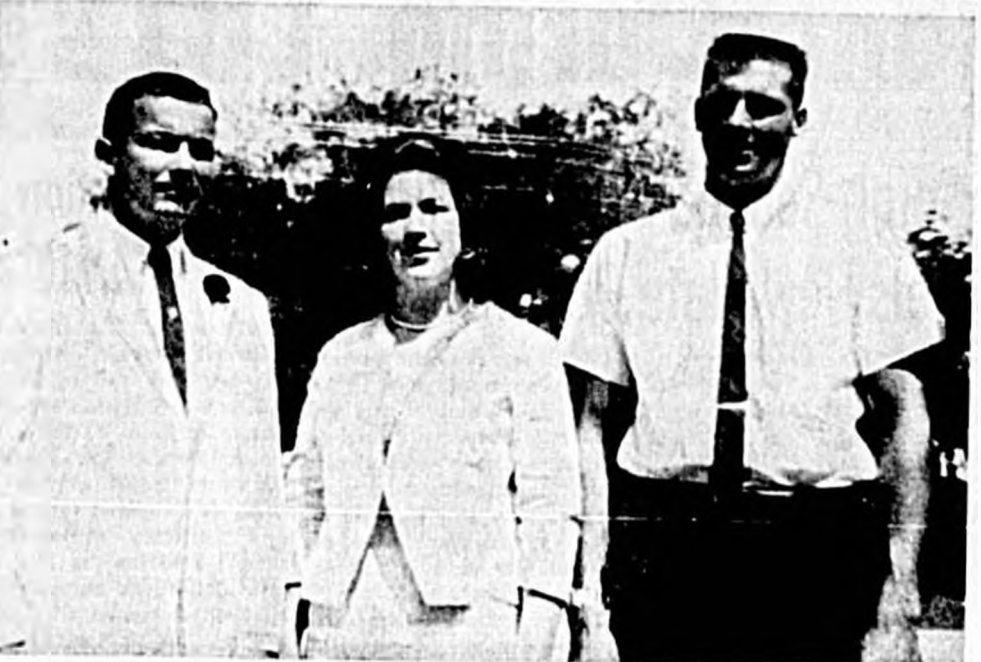

The Sanford Herald telegraphed Senator Goldwater with the question of whether he would come to Florida before the May 26 primary and received this reply from Dean Burch, assistant general director of the Goldwater for President Committee: "At the present time we have no firm plans for the Senator to visit Florida prior to the primary because of the stringent requirements of the California primary. This situation may change, but as of now I can give you no assurance that the Senator will be in Florida prior to the primary."

Retired Maj. Gen. John H. Medaris is chairman of the Florida Goldwater for President Committee.

Obviously pleased and grateful at polling better than 100,000 votes more in the first primary than his next opponent, Mayor Hayden Burns immediately pledged to maintain the integrity of the governor's office.

"Even if we have to run the rest of this campaign on pennants, as we did in 1950," says Burns, "I assure you I will not sell out the office of governor to special interests. I am going to be governor of all the people."

Robert King High's campaign tactics has some political observers puzzled. For example, a report came out of Bear Lake he would attend a coffee there Thursday morning. No such report came from High's headquarters. But his headquarters did give The Herald one whole hour's notice of a press conference Wednesday afternoon. A call came at 3:30 p. m. that High would meet the press at 4:30 p. m. . . . at Orlando.

Strike-Free Auto Negotiations LBJ Goal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Johnson administration, eyeing the approaching auto negotiations, expects a strike-free settlement that will not force an increase in car prices.

At the same time, it views chances of price cuts for autos as pretty remote and would not be surprised to see the cost of the wage-benefit package creep above the administration's guidepost figure for non-inflationary bargaining.

These observations were made today by a high government source six weeks before negotiations for the United Auto Workers and General Motors, Ford and Chrysler open 1964 bargaining.

From the mallbag: "There is never any use to cry over spilled milk; however, I want you to know how much I personally appreciate all your efforts in my behalf."

"My daddy used to say, 'Make of every failure a stepping stone to greater success.' Thoughts like that are comforting at this time and I still remain the eternal optimist. 'I am enough of an optimist to think that somewhere, somehow, good is going to come out of this campaign and I want you to know that I am grateful for everything you have done.'"

Freund appeared before the House Judiciary Committee as it ended its fourth week of hearings on 147 proposals to override Supreme Court decisions barring prayer and Bible-reading as required parts of public school programs.

Religious Freedom...cornerstone of our national strength!

We are free to think . . . to believe . . . to worship as we choose. In this, we are strong.

History has demonstrated countless times that when a nation's religious freedom no longer exists, the nation weakens, begins to crumble, and becomes easier prey for conquest and violent revolution.

But we are free. However our beliefs may be expressed — in the Bible, the Torah, the mind — we need have no fear of censure or coercion. For the freedom of religion that prompted America's first settlers to seek these shores is still this nation's most inspiring example . . . a powerful voice that carries the words of freedom to people in other lands.

In this, we are invincible.

Freedom of religion is inherent in the freedom of the individual — the freedom of initiative and enterprise that helps keep America powerful! Symbolic of America's leadership in the fight for free enterprise is the success of the nation's investor-owned, taxpaying electric power companies in achieving world leadership. Today, Florida Power and Light Company is accelerating its already phenomenal rate of expansion to meet the skyrocketing demand for increased power. We hope, through even more outstanding performance, to encourage the trend in America today which proposes more freedom for private enterprise so that industry may serve our Country even more efficiently.

Army Captain Charged With Desertion

HEIDELBERG, Germany (UPI)—The U. S. Army announced today that Capt. Alfred Svenson has been charged with desertion for defecting to East Germany a year ago.

Svenson, 31, a former intelligence officer from Scranton, Pa., was returned to the West suddenly and without explanation May 7. Russian officers handed him over quietly at the East-West German border.

A U. S. Army statement said the charges against Svenson resulted from investigations conducted since the defector was returned. Svenson, a native of Lithuania, drove the jeep across the border into Communist East Germany on May 4, 1963.

The defector had been a border officer familiar with U. S. troop dispositions and tactics, and there had been speculation he might also be charged with betraying secrets.

South Seminole Junior High Gets New Slate Of Officers

By Jane Casselberry
New officers were elected and installed Tuesday night at a meeting of the South Seminole Junior High School PTA in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Frank Stuedde of Casselberry, who has been active in PTA work for many years both here and in New Jersey, served as installing officer.

Newly elected officers are Mrs. Arthur Rhodes of North Orlando, president; Mrs. Joseph Pavelchak, Fern Park, first vice president; John Angel, second vice president; Mrs. Arthur Ferrin of North Orlando, secretary and Mrs. Tom Wells, Maitland, treasurer.

Mrs. Charles Dome, outgoing president, was presented with a past president's pin and a gift of a matching set of crystal necklace and earrings.

Mrs. Dome gave her annual report telling of activities and projects which included, among other things, the gift of an atlas for the school library; a gift of $25 to Robert McKennis, a member of the faculty who lost everything when fire destroyed his apartment and a desk and laundry service for the clinic. The South Seminole PTA joined the county council and Old Glory Community Bank during the year.

As a result of the successful "Hootenanny" sponsored by the PTA, which netted $314.55, Mrs. Dome was able to present a check to Principal John Angel for $280 for library books and $50 for beautification of the school grounds.

Geneva Gems

By Mrs. Joe Mathieux
Remember last week when I told you about good neighbors. Well, I've learned of another one. Mrs. John Thomas not only visits Mrs. Leona McLain but stays to clean house, paste trading stamps in books and many other such services.

Speaking of Miss Leona, I had a very pleasant visit with her at the polls and she seems to be getting along real well, I am happy to report. She has a lot of courage and I am certainly glad to see her improving so rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wittman left for Orleans, Mass., to stay for six months. When they return in the fall they hope to start their new home across from the Tommy McLain.

Speaking of new homes. Mr. and Mrs. Hoover have moved into their new home on SR 44.

Mrs. Emma Youts spent the weekend with Mrs. Ina Botts who is recuperating at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bass and Miss Emma says Mrs. Bruns is "doing fine."

The recent meeting of the Geneva Historical and Genealogical Society was certainly a big success. All who attended were very pleased. The fish fry on Saturday was attended by a large crowd. I bet Joe Mathieux, Stewart and Oliver Mathieux, Orrie Mathieux, Buddy LaFlis and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Raynor had enough of fish trying to last them another year.

The following day a chicken basket dinner for members also was well attended. Some even came from Mississippi.

If anyone wonders what the Society does, they might note the new pump house in the cemetery which was a project of the group with Bill Bridges doing the work.

Mrs. Katherine Ladd recently attended the Republican State Convention in St. Augustine. Prior to that time she was in Washington, D. C., to attend the Republican Woman's Club Convention. While there she enjoyed a reunion with her friend, J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI. Her husband, the late M. L. Ladd, worked for Hoover as his immediate assistant.

While she was gone, her brother, Jack Pfeiffer, came all the way from Atlanta just to "dog-eat" with her dogs. That's what I call a dog lover.

Speaking of Katherine and her brothers, their many friends will be sad to hear that she recently was called to Westport, Conn., because of the death of brother, Carl Pfeiffer, a professor of English who wrote a biography of Somerset Maugham with the introduction done by Jerome Weidman.

In closing I'd like to leave this thought which was given to me by my young friend Cooke Benham: "A little care makes accidents rare. How much do you care?"

Tax Collection At $2,614,710

A total of $2,614,710 was collected through April on the 1963 tax roll of $2,839,962. It was reported today by Mrs. Marjorie Shepard, assistant county tax collector.

This is 92 per cent of the total, as compared to 94.5 per cent collected through the same period for the 1962 tax roll. Collections through April 1963 amounted to $2,625,368 on the 1962 tax roll of $2,777,057.

Mrs. Shepard called attention to the fact that each parcel of land on which the 1963 taxes have not been paid has been advertised and if the taxes are not paid before the tax sale on May 28 a tax certificate will be sold on each and every one. It is to the advantage of the taxpayer, she said, to pay the taxes before the tax sale.

The program was presented by the music department. Bandmaster George Kirsten directed the band in eight numbers. The mixed chorus sang six numbers under the direction of Mrs. Jennifer Kelly.

American Legion School Awards were presented to winners of the ninth grade citizenship contest by Memorial Post 256 of Casselberry. The students were chosen by the faculty and fellow students on the basis of honor, courage, scholarship, leadership and service. Making the presentation were Commander Harold Kryder and American Legion Chairman Larry Maplesden. Medals and certificates went to first place winners Ron Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Greene of 11 South Cortez Ave., North Orlando, and Carol Noell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Noell, Dolores Drive, Altamonte Springs.

Runners-up who received certificates were Linda Cote, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cote, South Triplet Drive, Casselberry, and Jim Bachus, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Bachus, Lakewood Shores.

Refreshments were served by the executive board following the program.

Rights Issue Between Two

ATLANTA (UPI)—When President Johnson visited Georgia last week almost every politician from Rabun Gap to Tybee Light tried to shake his hand, but one man was conspicuous by his absence and his name is Richard Brumard Russell.

Russell was not in Washington embroiled in some parliamentary maneuver, nor was he on some distant mission. He was in Georgia, but at the other end of the state at a place called Horse Pen Bluff.

Russell, of course, doesn't need the aura of being seen next to the President, but there was plenty of speculation on why he couldn't make it to Atlanta.

The most rampant speculation has it that Russell's presence at Johnson's side might have been embarrassing—to Russell—because of his unyielding opposition to the civil rights bill.

Being the man he is, Russell can afford to be where he wants to be when he wants to be there.

Even by remaining in Horse Pen Bluff, where he dedicated a solid fuel rocket plant, Russell's awesome presence trickled out during Johnson's visit when the President's daughter Lynda Bird remarked that the Georgia senator had helped raise her as a child.

But Russell's absence, and the presence of Herman E. Talmadge—who remained by the President's side constantly—brought up another point of speculation that has intrigued politicians for some time. That is the apparently gradual divergence between the two men.

While this doesn't appear to be hard on Russell or Talmadge, it is sending arctic chills down the backs of politicians who one day may be called on to choose up and take sides. It could be a first class Donnybrook.

While Russell remains recharged on the race issue, Talmadge is ever bending slightly in accordance with the pressure.

Two men. Two men. Two men.

Buying A New Home? Here's A Good Tip

Been browsing and shopping around for a new home? And can't find the one you really want.

Then call on the LeRoy C. Robb Construction Company or the Shoemaker Construction Company. If they haven't got what you want... they'll build it to suit your tastes.

Robb Construction is so pleased with the response they have received on their model home at 1202 Forest Drive that they soon will commence construction of another model.

This new one will have the same outstanding features as the first plus an inclosed patio and a hip roof.

The Forest Drive model, "The Floridian," is just off 24th Street. It is open for inspection 1-6 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays and through the week by appointment.

Of brick construction, it contains 2,200 square feet and has three bedrooms and two baths. It is completely air conditioned.

Robb Construction plans to continue building model homes, with dozens of outstanding features. From these models prospective home builders can convey to Robb Construction those features they desire for a custom-built residence on their own lot.

Shoemaker Construction is offering three models for inspection, two at Idyllwild, four at Ravenna Park and two at Mead Manor, in Oviedo.

The firm has sold two homes in Ravenna Park, a four-bedroom residence to Allen T. Reardon and a three-bedroom house to Lt. Jarrell N. Henson. Both are of concrete block construction, completely air conditioned, with two baths and a GE-equipped kitchen.

Outlaw Burns Signs Protested

MIAMI (UPI) — The Haydon Burns campaign organization has complained to the state attorney that someone is issuing automobile bumper strips designed to hurt the Jacksonville mayor's bid for the governorship.

A Miami printer, Ed Dickson, said he received an order for 1,000 of the bumper strips last week, was paid for them, and delivered them to a man he didn't know.

The black on red signs read: "Burns vs. the NAACP; Burn 'em up with Burns."

Attorney Tom A. Testa, representing the Jacksonville mayor, complained to State Attorney Richard Gerstein.

Testa said the law had been violated because no one signed any vouchers for the campaign slips.

"After researching the law, I believe this situation is not covered," Gerstein said.

"There is a gap in the law," "I think it must have been

Courier Leads Lions To Top Year; Awards Dinner Tonight

Youngster Hits, Pitches Oviedo To Best Record

By Julian Stenstrom
UPI Sports Writer

The curtain's down on probably what has been one of the finest baseball seasons ever enjoyed by a Seminole County high school since this political subdivision came into existence back in 1918.

We're talking about the Oviedo Lions and their record of 14 victories and 2 losses plus the host of talent baseball coach Paul Mikler has developed in the southeast Seminole school.

The Lions lost their first game of the season, rolled to 14 straight wins, and then dropped out of the regional playoff in the final at Avon Park when they were edged out, 1 to 0, by the Red Devils of that city's high school.

But in between the first and last tilt, much transpired among the 14 youngsters and the coach who comprised the Lion club.

Every club has its ace—and Oviedo's was Jimmy Courier, also a handy quarterback, a top cage player, and we imagine if he had time he'd probably go in for the decaathlon.

Courier led the Lions at the plate with a remarkable batting average of .568. He collected 81 hits in 57 trips to the plate. Three of his safeties were doubles, four were triples and one was a round tripper.

But that's not all. Courier won nine games during the season while working on the mound. The two losses Oviedo sustained were also charged to him. He hurled 72 and 2/3 innings, allowed only 89 hits, three earned runs, he fanned 125, passed only an even dozen.

Also in the pitching department, Walter Beasley worked nine and 2/3 frames, permitted only five hits, fanned 14 and walked eight. Beasley picked up two wins, Danny Gammage and Charlie Miller each got one. Miller's one win, was a five-inning no-hitter—the only game he hurled all season.

Back in the offensive department, Mikler's receiver, Rag Brooks, batted .442 clip. Billy Mikler came up with a .388. First sacker Tim Colbert had a .326 and Miller a .304.

Brooks' 20 runs batted-in was tops for the club. Colbert had 17, Wayne Jacobs registered 18 and Courier himself had 15.

During the campaign the Lions split with Lyman, lost to Avon Park, won three games from Montverde, two from Ocoee plus single games from Central Catholic of Melbourne, Edgewater Jay-Vee, Florida Central Academy, Titusville, St. Cloud, Brooksville and Tavares.

To give you an idea of the power of the Lions, they posted 189 runs during the year but allowed the opposition only 50. Six of Oviedo's 14 wins were shutouts.

Other Lions not heretofore mentioned include second sacker Bobby Stewart, third baseman Mike Partin, utility outfielder Leroy Woods, utility infielder Andy Mikler and utility infielder Kelley Fors.

Six Twin Home Runs Slaughter White Sox

By Milton Richman
UPI Sports Writer

There is no capital punishment in Minnesota but the Twins still keep murdering pitchers every day.

The marauding Minnesotans are doing such a thorough job of it that only one rival pitcher has managed to last against them so far this month and only three have gone the entire distance this season.

Gary Peters, the American League's rookie of the year last season, was the Twins' latest victim Thursday when they teed off for six home runs in a 15-7 slaughter of the Chicago White Sox.

GAINESVILLE — Coach Percy Beard takes a 19-man squad to Lexington, Kentucky this weekend to compete in the annual Southeastern Conference track and field championships.

Hunt's And Navy Continue Lead In Little Loops

Hunt Lincoln-Mercury and the Navy continue to baffle all opposition in the City Recreation Department's Little American and National League.

Thursday afternoon Hunt took a 9 to 5 decision from Standard Oil while Navy racked up an 18 to 6 win over the Sanford Atlantic National Bank.

Hunt made it 12 victories in succession, without a defeat, but they had their hands full. For four innings they trailed the Oilers but pulled away for the win with seven runs in the two final frames.

Steve Hitchcock chalked up his fourth win without a loss. Navy buried the Bankers with Andy Rufus in the principal role. He hurled a two-hitter and while at the plate he banged out a triple and no less than three doubles.

The Elks can win the first half crown in the Junior Boys League, that is if they can whip CPO this afternoon. If the Elks lose this one the race will go down to the final day.

In Thursday's action, Kiwanis remained in the race with a 14 to 4 rout of Lake Mary. Larry Rowland had good backing while turning in a four-hitter. The Kiwanians executed three twin killings.

Meanwhile, the Rotarians closed their first half play by downing the Shriners, 14 to 8. The win left Rotary and the Shrine knotted for second place with identical records of seven wins and five losses.

Ricky Fordham, Kelly Ogden, Frank Whigham and Bruce McKibbin all collected a pair of hits each. Buddy Stump was the mainstay for Rotary. Bobby Powell went the distance in notching his fourth mound victory of the season without a setback.

In the Men's Six-pitch Softball circuit, Longwood extended its winning streak to five Thursday night by beating Robb's Construction, 12 to 11. Roy Lish was the big man for Longwood. Meanwhile, the Florida State Bankers grabbed their fourth in a row by "short changing" Chase, 13 to 7, due primarily to a big seven-run outburst in the sixth inning.

Observers Tag Hill Rise To Beat Dancer

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—Hill Rise, beaten favorite in the Kentucky Derby two weeks ago, was favored today to avenge that defeat in the first of the triple crown classics in Saturday's 8th running of the Preakness Stakes. Dancer, the derby winner Northern Dancer, was primed to repulse him again.

"I really believe Hill Rise is better now than he was in Kentucky," said Bill Finegan who trains the colt for the El Pecco Ranch of George A. Pope Jr. "Not that there was anything wrong with him at Churchill Downs but he seems to have blossomed out here."

Once again Hill Rise has been made early favorite at 7 to 5 in the field of six entered for the Preakness with Northern Dancer the strong second choice at 8 to 5.

The second race, Roman Brother, Quadrangle and Big Pete round out the small but select field in the mile and three-sixteenths race.

"Hill Rise had a rough trip to Kentucky from California," Finegan recalled. "Over 20 Louis the plane ran into a storm. The horses were whinnying for their grooms and their knees were buckling under them. It took Hill Rise a little time to settle down after that and then when he got feeling good he injured a hock acting up in his stall."

RAINOUTS RESCHEDULED

NEW YORK (UPI)—Two postponed games with the Chicago White Sox have been rescheduled by the New York Yankees. The first postponed game was set for June 12 as part of a twilight-night doubleheader and the second rained-out contest will be made up Aug. 11 and set up a day-night twin bill.

Little League Park Dedication Is Set

By Jane Casselberry

Night baseball at the South Seminole Little League Park in Casselberry becomes a reality Saturday night after months of work and planning by city officials and the South Seminole League.

The lighting ceremony will begin at 8 p. m. and will be followed by a game between two Senior League teams in their initial appearance under the lights.

Other improvements have also been made at the field, such as the outfield fence, bleachers, a new concession stand and press box.

Dignitaries scheduled to attend include Rep. Joe Davis, Judge Kenneth McIntosh, R. T. Milwos, county school superintendent, and Jim Slade, area director of Little League for District 3, who will toss out the first ball.

The master of ceremonies will be Art Lago of Casselberry and Rev. Leonard Jones of the Prairie Lake Baptist Church will give the invocation.

Jimmy Dunham, player from Sunland, will give the Little League pledge. All the teams in the South Seminole loop will be present and the managers introduced.

There will be an exchange of official lease papers between the owner, Hubbard Casselberry who leased the land, and league officials.

Bill Livingston, Little League president, will make a presentation of awards. The Lake Mary Boy Scout Troop will have charge of the color raising ceremony.

Participants in the night game will be introduced and the lights turned on, and with the tossing out of the ball the night play will be officially underway.

Seminole Hold First Spring Scrimmages

Seminole High's football squad, now engaged in spring drills, was put through its initial scrimmage sessions Thursday afternoon at the SHS athletic field.

Head Coach Jim Pigott's charges were a bit rusty on the offensive side of the ledger despite the fact that two touchdowns were scored.

"It was the defensive play that stood out," said Pigott. "We expected the offensive work to need a lot of oiling but the defensive performance was excellent."

Rick Walstrom, up from last season's JayVee outfit, scored the first touchdown after a pass from Quarterback Ron Hinson to Larry Watson to set it up. The other tally was scored by Sonny Messer, another of last season's JayVee backs. Messer, however, was elevated to the varsity last year following the close of the JayVee season.

Billy Kuykendall converted for one extra point and Mike Fordham connected for the other. Another standout on the offensive Thursday was Dan Simon, a fullback for last fall's Sanford Junior High Braves.

Steve Clark was the top defensive man in Thursday's session, playing a defensive tackle position. Danny Tillis and Chuck Scott, a pair of backs, also shaped up well.

FSU'S HEAD FOOTBALL COACH, Bill Peterson, will be the principal speaker tonight at the Oviedo High School all-sports banquet and will be the guest of honor at a summer "pow wow" of Central Florida alumni of Florida State Saturday at Lake Sandy, south of Orlando.

Seminole Chief Will Be Guest At 'Pow Wow'

Bill Peterson, head football coach at Florida State University, will be the guest of honor at a summer "pow wow" and barbecue on Saturday, May 23, at a summer residence on Lake Sandy, south of Orlando off I-4. The annual affair will be held from 2 until 7 p. m. and will provide facilities for water skiing, swimming, as well as other entertainment. It is being sponsored by the Central Florida FSU Alumni Association.

Peterson has indicated a great willingness to meet all local FSU alumni and their guests. He will talk about the football prospects of the Seminoles during the coming season.

According to Dr. James Booth, president of the group only 200 tickets on a first-come, first-served basis will be available due to the size of the facilities. He indicated that those who have just recently graduated from FSU are particularly invited and to meet the members of the group. Alumni living in Seminole County can obtain tickets by calling Ted Rybeck in the evening at 638-3068, Forest City.

Birth records maintained at Marineland of Florida show that the new-born porpoise calf, being an air-breathing mammal, will within 10 seconds swim to the surface for its first breath of air.

Dodgers Pound Chicago Twice; Howard Shines

By Milton Richman
UPI Sports Writer

Six-foot-seven Frank Howard, a mountain of a man, has a way of making all those Dodger problems look like molehills.

It has been said that every time the 255-pound Howard moves, the earth around him trembles, but more important is the fact that every time he does, he seems to move the Dodgers, too.

The big outfielder moved them up a notch Thursday and although Howard was only into eighth place, it's still higher than ninth and certainly a step in the right direction.

Howard's homer in the opener was his 11th of the season and the two runs he drove in during the finale gave him a total of 21.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Phillies climbed within a half game of first place with a 3-2 triumph over the Cardinals, the Houston Colts pulled the San Francisco Giants, 4-3, and snapped Willie May's hitting streak at 20 games, and the Mets belted the Braves, 12-4.

Jack Calvert, an Oviedo teacher, will present the school's trophy to the most valuable track man. Miniature silver track shoes will go to the best field man and to the top sprinter.

Spencer, Heard Win Golf Title; Meeting Slated

Doris Spencer and Cecile Heard wound up the Mary Esther tournament for members of the Maytag Women's Golf Association with a net score of 90 to capture the event.

The tourney, of three weeks duration, was based on teams of two golfers each who attempted to get a net score on each of the 18 holes played. Myrtle Adams and Edie Ware were in second place with a 61.

The golf association will hold its annual business meetings and luncheon May 27. At that time all prizes and trophies from this and other tournaments will be awarded. New officers will be installed for the coming year.

FSU's Peterson Is To Speak At Oviedo Banquet

By Julian Stenstrom
UPI Sports Writer

Florida State gridiron coach, Bill Peterson, will be the principal speaker tonight when Oviedo High's officials, athletes and guests assemble for the annual all sports banquet.

The event will also be featured by the presentation of a number of trophies and other awards to athletes for exceptional performances in football, basketball, baseball and track.

The Citizens Bank trophy will be presented by Harden Webb to the most valuable football player and gridiron coaches Jim Palmer and Art Scott will summarize last fall's football season, announce letter winners and present awards to the best back and the finest lineman.

The annual Jones Memorial trophy will be awarded to the school's most valuable basketball player by Jimmy Jones, a recent Lion athlete and outstanding cager himself. Basketball coach Paul Mikler will name the winners of awards for the best offensive and the best defensive cagers. He will also announce the names of letter winners in this sport.

Baseball's most valuable player will receive the annual A. Duda & Sons trophy. James Colbert, assistant to the president of the firm, will make the presentation and Mikler also diamond mentor, will reveal the names of letter winners and present awards to the best hitter and the finest defensive man.

Jack Calvert, an Oviedo teacher, will present the school's trophy to the most valuable track man. Miniature silver track shoes will go to the best field man and to the top sprinter.

Among other awards will be the presentation of The Sanford Herald's trophy to the school for being named Seminole County basketball champions for the school year, and special awards will go to various cheer leaders.

Peterson is the fifth coach in FSU gridiron history. He took over the Seminoles in 1950 following a successful tenure as an Oklawaha high school coach and a line coach under Paul Dietzel when the current Army coach was chief mentor of the LSU Tigers.

Peterson just last season was named the nation's coach of the week when his Seminoles upset the University of Miami.

Enriching the screen with its glowing portrait of family love, selflessness, heartbreak, sacrifice and triumph, "Spencer's Mountain," starring Henry Fonda, Maureen O'Hara, James MacArthur, Donald Crisp and Wally Cox, opens Sunday at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre.

Holley Assails 'Shadow Boxers'

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — GOP gubernatorial hopeful Charles Holley says his Democratic opponents are "shadow boxing" with the issue of severance tax on timber and phosphate just to gain votes. Holley, a St. Petersburg attorney, said his opponents had urged a severance tax on the two industries without either justifying the proposal or acknowledging evidence that can be presented in opposition to the tax.

Portraying the hard-working, hard-living, hard-drinking, hard-loving, rough-talking father of nine, Fonda etches an unforgettable portrait as the screen shines with his earthy humor, roars with his anger and bristles with his determination to achieve the best for his brood.

Maureen O'Hara brings the full force of her classic Technicolor beauty and her fiery Irish charm to the role of the strong-willed woman who tamed the Mountain's rowdy, lusty lover and shares his home and his hopes. "Spencer's Mountain" marks Miss O'Hara's 47th consecutive starring role of the screen.

MARILYN MONROE and Tony Curtis (above), along with Jack Lemmon, star in "Some Like It Hot," which is co-featured with "Irma La Douce" at the Seminole Cinema Theatre.

There's a hot argument going on around town. Some people are saying "Irma La Douce" is the funniest picture Billy Wilder ever made; others claim that "Some Like It Hot," is the funniest picture Billy Wilder ever made. Here's your chance to decide for yourself. United Artists, the distributor of both films, has released them on a twin bill being shown now at the Seminole Cinema Theatre. Break Brightens Anti-Red Hopes RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI) — Brazil has broken off diplomatic relations with Cuba, increasing the likelihood of effective inter-American action against Fidel Castro's Communist regime.

Only four of the 20 Latin American nations still are officially on good terms with the Castro regime—Bolivia, Chile, Mexico and Uruguay.

The foreign ministry, announcing the break with Castrolism Wednesday, said this country can no longer tolerate Cuba's "interference in the internal affairs of Brazil."

"Castro's government has been using relations with Brazil—particularly in recent months—to cover the propaganda activity of his agents... a foreign ministry communique said.

"The regular dialogue through diplomatic channels was being replaced by an inadmissible understanding with minority groups... incompatible with the traditional Christian and democratic con-

Miss Peggy Jane Price Exchanges Nuptial Vows With Robert Brown

Miss Peggy Jane Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen J. Price, of Sanford, became the bride of Robert Eldon Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldo W. Brown, of Hartford City, Ind., on May 2, 1964, at 7 p.m. at The First Baptist Church of Sanford, with the Rev. Fred B. Chance performing the impressive candlelight, double-ring ceremony.

The church was a profusion of palms and greenery with candelabra and standing baskets of white glads and daisies. Each window held a candle embedded in fern.

Mrs. Marvin Milam played the traditional nuptial hymns and R. Willard Warfield, talented tenor, sang "Because," "Song of Ruth" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a floor length white lace gown over illusion tulle with lace coming to a point of three lace roses in front and alternate layers of lace and tulle in the back. The bodice featured a scalloped neckline with wrist length pointed sleeves. The shoulder length illusion veil fell from a pearl tiara and she carried a crescent cascade of gardenias interspersed with pearls.

Miss Cindy Smith served her cousin as Maid of Honor. She was gowned in a street length aqua silk dress featuring a bell shaped skirt, and her circular net veil was attached to a pill box crown. She wore white accessories and her bouquet was a deep red cascade of gladioli petals. Bridesmaids were Miss Sue Koke, and Sue Price, sister of the bride. Their dresses and bouquets were identical to the Maid of Honor.

Tom Roberts, cousin of the bride, was best man and ushers were Fred Hermann, Carl Mills, Jerry Dull, Wayne Berg, Ray McIntyre and John Finn.

Little Miss Robin Scott was flower girl.

The bride's mother was attended in a smart aqua linen dress with white accessories and her corsage was of white mums centered with a white gardenia.

The groom's mother chose a stunning green and white two piece ensemble with white accessories and her corsage was of white mums and gardenias.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church.

The punch table held the traditional three tiered wedding cake flanked on either side by sterling candle holders bearing white candles interspersed with fern.

The bride's table held the bride's book, kept by Carolyn Brown, sister of the groom, and along side was the framed wedding announcement.

Mrs. Louise F. Smith cut the wedding cake assisted by Mrs. Judy Romaine, both aunts of the bride.

Mrs. Dorothy Thomas and Mrs. Judy Finn presided over the punch bowl.

For her going away outfit, the bride selected an aqua knit dress and jacket ensemble with black patent accessories and a white mum corsage.

Following an east coast wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Brown are at home at 1809 Vernano Avenue, Sanford.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Brown, Lawrence Brown, Mrs. Carolyn Weschke and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hiser of Hartford City, Ind.; Mrs. Louise F. Smith, Miss Cindy Smith and Mrs. Evelyn Hazel of Greenville, S. C.; Miss Carolyn Brown and Joseph S. Lelman from Washington, D. C. Also Mr. and Mrs. John Finn of Orange City; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Lyon, Rosanna Lyon, Mrs. Ray Justice, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leopold of Orlando; Mrs. Anne Graham, Tampa; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roberts, North Orlando; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perrine, Gainesville and Bob Warren, Winter Park.

The Oviedo Woman's Club Conducts Surprise Mortgage Burning Ceremony

By Evelyn Lundy
Members of the Oviedo Woman's Club were indeed surprised at the regular monthly luncheon meeting.

Just before the luncheon was served, Harden Webb, Executive Vice-President of the Citizen's Band of Oviedo, arrived with a container of the Mortgage of the Woman's Club. After a few words of interesting facts about the club, Mr. Webb burned the mortgage.

The mortgage was begun in July 1961 and was paid off May 11, 1964, which was two years and nine months. The Woman's Club Building, which is certainly one of the prettiest buildings in town is valued at over twenty thousand dollars. The mortgage was only $5800.

Mrs. R. W. Estes, Club President thanked each and every member for her splendid and untiring work. Mrs. W. H. Martin was building chairman. Mrs. Jim Michael, Finance chairman, and Mrs. J. H. Staley treasurer. For the devotion, Mrs. J. H. Staley sang "Bless This House," accompanied by Mrs. T. L. Lingo, Sr.

A delicious fruit plate luncheon was served by the chairman, Miss Ruth Davidson, and her committee of Mrs. James Lee, Mrs. C. L. West, Mrs. Donald Weaver, Mrs. Clifford Pendarvis, Mrs. R. L. Croom and Mrs. Ray Beasley.

A beautiful orchid corsage was presented to Mrs. Estes from an anonymous former member.

A Mother's Day gift was presented to the mother who had been a member of the club for the most number of years. Mrs. B. F. Wheeler, Sr. was the winner and she told of having been a charter member since 1906, when the club was formed. She has also been most active as the third vice-president of the club, whose office obtains new members for the club.

Roses of every color were used to decorate the club, and on each table was a mother's day card signed by all the hostesses. A ceremony in which new officers for the coming year were installed, was performed by a former District President, Mrs. Charles MacDowell. Part of the Woman's Club Collect was reported as each officer was installed. New officers of the club for the coming year are President, Mrs. Lynn Mosler, First Vice-President, Mrs. R. W. Estes, Second Vice President, Mrs. Fred Peterson, Third vice-president, Mrs. B. F. Wheeler, Sr., Recording secretary, Mrs. W. T. Walker, Corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. H. Ryan, Treasurer, Mrs. Harold Barnes and Parliamentarian, Mrs. B. G. Smith.

Mrs. Mosler spoke briefly about plans for the coming year. After a salute to the flag, members were adjourned until the fall meeting.

MORTGAGE BURNING CEREMONIES were recently conducted by the Oviedo Woman's Club at their meeting. Participating in the ceremony are Harden Webb, executive vice president of the Citizen's Bank of Oviedo, Mrs. J. H. Staley, Mrs. Jim Michael, Mrs. W. H. Martin and Mrs. R. W. Estes.

The Vanishing Housedress

By Helen Hennessy
Newspaper Enterprise
Women's Editor

Even when fashion is your business, you don't always know what's going on. Has anyone tried to buy a housedress lately—not a patio dress or an at-home shift, but just a dress that buttons down the front, is washable and comfortable to wear while cleaning?

Well, whether we're 16 or 60 we all like to look pretty around the house. But it does seem absurd that you have to spend $10 before you're well enough dressed to scrub the floor.

DEAR ABBY: I am fed up hearing people say that all the money I spent on my college education was "wasted" because I did not get married.

NEW YORK (NEA) — The Beatles, bless their fuzzy heads, may be good for the music business but they are not very good for musicians.

Sharp Shopping 'Cents Off' Nags People

"Ten cents off — what?" This is a question that nags most of us food shoppers. And well it might because there are 8,000 food items on shelves to trigger our buying.

Supposedly there always was a savings, often obscure to you as a consumer because you did not know what the original price was or whether the retailer would give his price to compensate for the "threecent saving" offered by the manufacturer.

If you feel a supermarket or grocer still ups prices a few cents before the "cents off" promotion begins, you can call this to attention of your Chamber of Commerce, the Better Business Bureau or the Grocery Manufacturers Association.

It make my hair fall out?
A—Since blackheads are usually associated with an oily skin, washing your face several times a day with soap may help. The blackheads should not be squeezed because more often than not this is an invitation for the pus germs on your face or fingers to set up an infection. Removing the blackheads doesn't do much good anyway because they tend to come back in the same location.

We Hack Up Treasure

Everybody can breathe a small sigh of relief now. The Pieta, Michelangelo's marble masterpiece of Christ and the Virgin Mary, has arrived safely at the New York World's Fair.

America thanks the Italian people who overcame their understandable fear in allowing this national treasure to be moved from its place in the Vatican for the first time since it was created 465 years ago.

America has no portable treasure to send in return, unless it is the original of the Declaration of Independence or the Constitution. Our treasures are of the land itself—"of purple mountain majesties," the "fruited plains."

We would hesitate to let the Declaration of Independence leave the country. Alas, we exhibit no such concern over our natural inheritance.

Conservationists are having to fight tooth and nail to push a bill through Congress to preserve remaining wilderness areas which are still in the public domain.

Too much of the public domain is already gone. The magnificent redwood trees—living things whose age dwarfs the four and a half centuries of the Pieta—were literally put under the ax by a thoughtless government in the 19th century for as little as $1.25 an acre.

These trees, some of which were tall when Christ was born, are being cut down at the rate of a billion board feet a year. It is predicted that within 20 years, all but a minuscule 3 per cent of virgin redwood forest under state protection will have been transformed into recreation room paneling, picnic benches and what not.

Who cares? Maybe somebody in the 21st century will. By then it will be too late.

Prayerful Decision

The U. S. Supreme Court decisions state-composed or state-ordered prayers and Bible reading in the public schools have resulted in a batch of proposed amendments to the Constitution.

No less than 146 congressmen have introduced bills to modify the First Amendment to permit religious exercises in the schools. The House Judiciary Committee will begin hearings soon.

Polls have shown that the overwhelming majority of Americans oppose the Supreme Court stand. Because of this, it is often asked why these millions of citizens should be forced to bow to the wishes of the handful of persons involved in the court cases.

This argument has two edges, however. It is usually over-looked that at the time of the court's most recent decision, 38 states of the Union did not require religious activities in the public schools. Many states absolutely forbid them.

Of the 12 states requiring religious exercises, eight have so far defied the court's ruling.

It may be asked whether a change in the Bill of Rights, the first since it was adopted in 1791, may not result in eight states having forced at least 38 others to adopt practices they have heretofore not deemed necessary or even desirable.

Thought For Today

Therefore the Lord waits to be gracious to you; therefore he exalts himself to show mercy to you. For the Lord is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for him. — Isaiah 30:18.

If you believe in the Lord, He will do half the work—but the last half. He helps those who help themselves. — Cyrus K. Curtis.

Smoking Back To Normal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It is now three months since the U. S. Surgeon General announced that there is a link between smoking and cancer.

If you are one of those who reacted by cutting out or cutting down cigarette smoking then but have now resumed smoking about as much as before, you have lots of company. A nationwide survey by the Associated Press shows that cigarette sales in most large cities are back to normal after a two-month falloff.

If you are under 21 and have not begun smoking because of the Surgeon General's warning, you too are following the trend. The collectors of cigarette taxes in many of the states told the AP they observe that confirmed smokers have backed, but young people are heeding the educational anti-smoking campaigns that are increasingly aimed at them.

After three months of national soul searching on the subject of cigarettes, the age factor is shaping up as the decisive one. Old cigarette addicts settle with their consciences by saying to their children, "don't get hooked like me." And the tobacco industry makes its penance by publicly pledging allegiance to a new advertising code which would bar sales pitches aimed at convincing the very young that cigarettes are good for you and make men more virile and women more alluring.

The tobacco industry's long-delayed move toward self-regulation comes at a crucial time for this $9-billion-a-year business. On May 15 the Federal Trade Commission will complete its investigation of charges that the cigarette manufacturers are guilty of unfair and deceptive advertising and labeling of their product.

Then FTC members settle down to deciding what corrective action, if any, is called for. The tobacco industry would not be human if it did not hope that confessing past sins in enticing the young would influence this government which is so lenient in its verdict.

If the FTC is unduly lenient, it is on notice that those who feel strongly about the health hazards of smoking will not be silent. The spokesmen for these crusaders insist on nothing less than cigarette packs that bear "proper warning labels" of potential danger, plus a drive for development of less-hazardous cigarettes for the protection of those adults who will not quit.

More in the center of the anti-cigarette campaign, while the FTC is making up its collective mind on these long-range matters, is the subject of youth and smoking. The Public Health Bureau called the first national conference on the subject. One hundred twenty-five teenagers from all the states attended. A Public Health Service scientist told them parental example was a main reason most young people had drifted into the smoking habit. Another factor to watch, he warned, is the tendency of youthful failures to become smokers, as compensation, "a symptom of other problems of mental health," the doctor said.

A more cheerful and positive note was struck by Senator Maurine Neuberger (D-Ore.) who sweetly reported to the assembled youths that it is the "amari" set that has quit the weed. High on the list of categories having the most cigarette dropouts, she observes, are U.S. Senators and British doctors.

SHEPHERD OF THE ILLS

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE 5465: During the winter I was invited to Washington, D. C. to deliver an address against the Gestapo behavior of the Food and Drug Administration.

Prior to my talk, I listened to a very challenging paper, read by one of our outstanding American physicians, Dr. H. Curtis Wood Jr.

For a quarter of a century Dr. Wood has been a leading obstetrician in Pennsylvania. He is a member of the A.M. A. and other medical societies. But in 1959 he wrote a book entitled "Overfed But Undernourished," which soon ran through 12 printings.

In it he pointed out the fact that we Americans often consume too many calories but not enough trace chemicals, vitamins and other food essentials.

His book was fully documented from the medical literature. A manufacturer of a food supplement became a delighted with the book, that he negotiated with the publisher to sell it.

So this manufacturer disposed of thousands of copies. But the Food and Drug Gestapo agents then stepped in and confiscated the books.

It said the food firm had violated one of the Gestapo rules of the FDA about "implied endorsement."

Yet Dr. Wood had never even mentioned that vitamin supplement in his book. He knew nothing about it.

Yet his books were confiscated merely because they were being sold by the same people who distributed a certain food supplement.

Moreover, the FDA, again in typical Gestapo fashion, intimidated the food people till they sent out printed forms, asking everybody who had a copy of Dr. Wood's book to please burn the book and sign the questionnaire attesting to that fact!

Shades of Hitler! And right here in the U.S.A.

Newspapers have jealously guarded the rights of freedom of speech and freedom of the printed word.

We even decry government censorship of comic books lest the censors establish another Hitler Gestapo.

Yet the Food and Drug Administration has already been doing that same thing.

It has sneakily reached over into the book publishing field to confiscate innocent books that just happened to lie on the same counter with other merchandise! This is intolerable!

Remember, Dr. Wood never even mentioned this food supplement that was distributed by the people ALSO selling his best seller.

So it is time American taxpayers revolted against the Gestapo tactic being used against them by the tax-supporting bureaucrats in Washington, D. C.

It made by blood boil when I heard the paper being read by Dr. Wood, a prominent Quaker and a scientist of impeccable reputation.

For the head of the FDA has earned no doctor's degree at all—neither a Ph. D. in chemistry nor an M.D.—yet he pontificates like Hitler. See my personal case tomorrow.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Editors polled across the country choose Richard M. Nixon by a wide margin as the likely winner of the 1964 Republican presidential nomination at San Francisco.

This is the verdict drawn from a poll taken by Newspaper Enterprise Association among its many hundreds of client newspapers.

More than 300 editors in every state but Mississippi responded to a broad series of questions bearing upon the 1964 GOP race.

Among editors who joined in the survey, 133 or 44.2 per cent believe Nixon will win the nomination as he did four years ago.

Seventy editors, or 23.3 per cent, label Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge the probable nominee. In third place is Pennsylvania's Gov. William Scranton, who is rated the winner by 48 editors, almost 16 per cent of those answering.

Arizona's Sen. Barry Goldwater, the current GOP front runner with a presently estimated convention delegate total of 500 out of a needed 655, stands fourth in the editor's judgment. Just 40 of the more than 300 respondents—13.3 per cent—think Barry will wind up with the nomination.

The most devastating verdict of all is reserved for New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller. Only four editors, a bare 1.8 per cent, expect him to emerge on top at San Francisco.

Scranton, third highest in the presidential sweepstakes, is the editors' clear choice as the Republican party's probable vice presidential nominee for 1964. He received the vote of 86 editors—28.6 per cent of the total responding to the poll.

Fifty-one editors think Lodge will repeat his 1960 role as running mate, 14 give the palm to Kentucky's Sen. Thurston Morton, 31 voted for Goldwater and 27 for Nixon. A considerable number, 14 per cent, offer no opinion on the vice presidency.

Greatest responses to the poll were from the Midwest, whose editors supplied 33 per cent of the total. The South contributed 29 per cent of the replies.

Top-rated Nixon draws a most of his support from the Midwest (46 editors) and South (29), with sizable backing showing up in the Plains states.

The editors who mark Lodge the winner for the No. 1 spot are rather well sprinkled about the nation. Scranton draws half of his third place status from the Midwest.

Almost three-quarters of the responding editors say their newspapers have not and will not endorse any candidate for the nomination. Most of these never do. Some 20 editors say they papers usually do endorse but will not this time.

Of the editors whose newspapers either have endorsed or may do so, 42 per cent have given their approval to Barry Goldwater. No other candidate has more than a mere handful of endorsements. The endorsing list includes 10 newspapers which usually do not make a choice at this stage.

Curiously, about one-third of the editors whose papers have endorsed Goldwater think Nixon, Lodge or Scranton will turn out to be the actual nominee.

Only a few editors volunteer any comment as to why they believe Nixon will be the winner. Some, however, explain why they think the most active bidders — Goldwater and Rockefeller — won't make it.

E. J. von Nostrand, publisher and editor of the Creation (Iowa) News Advertiser, perhaps speaks for many when he says:

"Senator Goldwater and Governor Rockefeller, after sizeable stunts, do not seem to attract a 'get through' feeling. (They) don't seem to hit."

Goldwater Calls For GOP Unity

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sen. Barry M. Goldwater issued a plea for Republican party unity and assailed the Johnson administration at a mass rally in jam-packed Madison Square Garden Tuesday night.

"I do not say that the Republican party must do it my way or I don't play," he told more than 18,000 cheering supporters. "I want to find ways that we can work together—as a team."

Phil Newsom Says:

Trouble Beginning

Since the days of the Romans the port of Aden at the tip of the Arabian Peninsula has been a trading link between Asia and Europe. Today, in the hands of the British it is a strategic military base guaranteeing the flow of oil from the Persian Gulf, and the site of an oil refinery capable of processing five million tons of oil per year.

It also is a plum ardently desired by President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

In recent weeks have occurred events which in British eyes are not mere coincidences.

In neighboring Yemen, where for more than a year his troops have been deeply involved, Nasser told cheering tribesmen:

"We swear by God to expel Britain from all parts of the Arab world. We shall shed blood and sacrifice souls. . ."

And in the South Arabian Federation, of which Aden is a part, the tribesmen whom Britain has been battling for a century and a half were striking with modern arms, mortars and automatic weapons. The weapons could only come from outside sources, and the British were convinced they came from the United Arab Republic via the Republic of Yemen.

As usual in the tangled affairs of the Middle East, the ramifications spread far beyond the desolate volcanic rock and the barren mountains and sand which make up the Aden protectorate and the sultanates, emirates and sheikhdoms composing the South Arabian Federation.

In Yemen, Nasser has tied up close to 40,000 of his armed forces, a third of his military strength. An operation undertaken to protect the new Republic of Yemen after the overthrow of the monarchy and at first expected to be of short duration had turned out to be a quagmire, costly to the Egyptian economy and unpopular at home.

With all the effort, Yemeni republican forces and the Egyptians still were able to control only Yemen's cities. Desert tribesmen still rallied to the deposed monarchy.

For Nasser the time was approaching when either he had to win in Yemen or get out with resulting damage to his aspirations for Arab unity.

cellent and you will have a Sunday in which you can think out your most magnificent course of action for the future. Gaining such principles through church services or studies is fine.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)—The path ahead is clear to you today, so be sure not to limit the scope of your planning. Fortunately, others stick pretty much to principal, although they may be confused about details.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)—Getting things accomplished at home with a will is possible now, since the planets are with you. Add comforts, beauty, that please all. Home can be the harbor light that never fails.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Petty, detailed affairs are boring, but be sure to concentrate on new and more lucrative outlets now. Study, do research. Think big, since your capacity and stability are great.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21)—Take the opportunity afforded today to do some kind service for a bigwig. Failure in showing your loyalty could mean loss to you in the future. True friendship is rare.

LEO (July 22 to August 21) It's all right to have a good time, but do so in such a way that others are inspired. Be chummy with the influential, the wise. Make plans for a more affluent future.

VIRGO (August 22 to September 22)—You must plan today and ensuing days along by the hour if you are to get the greatest benefit from them. Get more support, look into new ventures. Meditate first, though.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22)—Take the time to plan wisely any course of action you contemplate for the future. Then relax with kind friends. That project may only need a practical touch.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You find it necessary to divide your time between regular associates and family duties today. Do so wisely. Don't permit relatives to impose on you, though, to the point of losing out on something important.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21)—Early services are best now, so that you can carry through with obligations for the day. Stick to principle in all that you do. Then full speed ahead!

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20)—First be sure to carry through with promises made before going off on some carefree spree. Take time for religious contemplation first, too. Stay on high level of consciousness.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19)—Use your best judgment where all family and business affairs are of sudden imminent importance. Many things break into the open now. Don't take chances where loved ones are concerned.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20)—Delegate minor services, duties, to others while you dash off to services and dig into paper thoroughly. Discuss the future with partners socially later. Strive for perfection.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, he or she will early have to overcome a feeling of shyness and inadequacy, if the fine promise in this interesting chart is to become manifest. Give attention early to diet, ethics, etc. The big financier is strong here.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Central Florida Rabbit Breeders Association will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday at First Federal caucus room in Orlando.

From the mailbag: "The mail is a big improvement to an unsightly alley. But so many more improvements are so necessary. We do have a very nice, popular zoo to be proud of. Hundreds of people visit it every week. Then they look across the street at our dilapidated band shell on Lake Monroe . . . Just try to drive around the pier. The bumps are awful and dangerous to cars. What and when can something be done about this?"

Pre-school roundup will be held at the West Side building, Third and Maple, on Friday 1-3 p.m. for all children who will be entering the first grade of West Side Grammar School in the fall. Children must be six years of age on or before Jan. 1. Parents are requested to bring birth certificates or other legal proof of age.

The "Clock" has received an air mail special delivery letter from Chicago stating that the Nile and the St. Johns are not the only rivers running north. Now, we are beginning to believe this. But we enjoy the last paragraph: "Keep up the good work. We enjoy the Clock."

NAL Auxiliary of Letter Carriers is meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the First Federal caucus room.

Local politics in the campaigning just closing, made a point of having telephone service between north and south Seminole County. A letter today from Arthur H. Beckwith Jr., clerk of courts, reports his office has installed a toll free line to the Orlando exchange. From now on, South Seminole residents may telephone his office without toll charge.

Roger Miller, of Oviedo, adds to the odd names of municipalities with a list from Georgia. He reports of Pokedale, Hard Cash, Split Silk and Between. And he reminds of the old familiar odd name, Plum Nelly, plum out of Tennessee and nearly in Georgia.

Annual spring concert of the Seminole High School glee club will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the school auditorium. No charge.

Must have been a busy weekend at Seminole Memorial Hospital. From Thursday through Sunday there were 48 admissions, nine births and 35 discharges. Of the 35 admissions 14 were from out of town.

When introduced at the Oviedo High all sports banquet Friday night as the assistant to the president of A. Duda & Sons, James Colbert explained that when he was appointed to the position the only change was that he got the mail delivered to him instead of delivering it himself. While presenting the firm's trophy to Jimmy Courier as the school's most valuable baseball player, Colbert misread for a moment and remarked, "I guess I'll go back to delivering mail."

The thickest fog seen since one of our Clock winners left California blanketed an area between Casselberry and Sanford early this morning. Traffic was held to a snail's pace along the route. Oncoming autos, even with headlights burning, were barely visible at 40 feet in some places.

Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider said that some 2,500 "front" auto tags—advertising Seminole County and the six county municipalities plus Chuluota, are now in "circulation." Krider says that to his knowledge Seminole is the first county in Florida to use the plates in this manner.

Laos Rule Collapses As Reds Score Gains

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—Laos' shaky truce and coalition government crumbled today under a Communist onslaught in the key Plain of Jars that sent neutralist military leader Gen. Kong Le fleeing to the hills.

Neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma appealed to the British and Soviet envoys to do everything possible to stop the two-pronged offensive by the Communist Pathet Lao. Britain and Russia are co-chairmen of the 1962 Geneva conference which established the coalition government.

The Pathet Lao sweep of the strategic plain in central Laos dealt the coup de grace to the two-year-old cease-fire and virtually ended all hope for an early settlement of the political crisis.

The weekend successes of the Pathet Lao brought a top-level review of U. S. policy on Laos by American officials in Washington. Sunday Secretary of State Dean Rusk met with diplomatic representatives of a dozen countries involved with the tiny Southeast Asian kingdom.

The Pathet Lao attacks coincided with stepped-up Communist guerrilla activity in neighboring South Vietnam, putting pro-Western forces on the defensive in key parts of Southeast Asia as the rainy season begins.

Greater Effort Needed, He Tells Congress

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson asked Congress today for an additional $125 million in economic and military aid to advance the anti-Communist war in Viet Nam.

"The Viet Cong guerrillas, under orders from their Communist masters in the north, have intensified terrorist actions against the peaceful people of South Viet Nam," Johnson said in a special message to Congress.

"This increased terrorism requires increased response," he said.

Of the new funds, $70 million would be for economic and $55 million for military uses in Viet Nam.

Johnson said this was one of "two major changes" which prompted his request to add the $125 million for Viet Nam to the $3.4 billion foreign aid program he already had submitted to Congress for the 1965 fiscal year, starting July 1.

The other change, he said, was that "a new government under Prime Minister Khanh has come to power, bringing new energy and leadership and new hope for effective action."

"I share with Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge the conviction that this new government can mount a successful campaign against the Communists," the President declared.

"We cannot respond to the new situation in Viet Nam within the limits of the original budget proposal without unacceptable danger to our other basic security interests," the President said.

Johnson noted that in March Khanh "declared his intention to mobilize his nation and enlarge his domestic budget by 40 per cent to provide for this."

"We must share the increased costs of the greatly intensified Vietnamese effort," Johnson said.

Two Guilty In Manslaughter

A six-man Circuit Court jury Friday found a man and woman guilty of manslaughter in the fatal beating of a 22-month-old child and received sentences of from six months to 20 years in state prison.

Hearing the verdicts after the jury deliberated "less than 20 minutes" were William Gable Taylor and Roberta Mitchell who had been living together in an area motor court since last October.

Burns, High Separate After Heated Setto

MIAMI (UPI)—Florida's two Democratic gubernatorial opponents, with a civil rights wedge driven bluntly between them Sunday night, took their campaigns on separate ways in Dade County today.

Jacksonville Mayor Haydon Burns threatened Sunday night to lose it with no future dual appearances with Miami Mayor Robert King High "depending on his (High's) future conduct."

Burns was scheduled to meet an Elk's club in Homestead today and have a reception for a Miami supporter later. He is scheduled to be on a radio program later tonight.

High's campaign today was to start with a breakfast followed by a television taping session in the afternoon.

The pair had their fourth straight face-to-face meeting, and the hottest of the runoff campaign, at a television debate Sunday night.

The debate, which had been scheduled to go for a half hour, blossomed suddenly into an hour program when moderator — host Ralph Renick WTVJ steered the questions to civil rights.

Renick asked each candidate how he regarded NAACP approval of a candidate. The NAACP Political Action Committee, in a pre-first primary analysis, said High had the best attitude toward civil rights out of the six Democrats in the race.

But the NAACP says it did not "formally" back High. The two men answered the question, but the answers took too long for Burns.

He got up and headed off stage saying he would not participate further in the debate unless the format of the program was followed.

"I understood the questions from you (Renick) would be with one minute limitation. . . I did not know we were going to get into the same vicious attacks Mr. High has resorted to."

But he returned and continued the clash after High asked: "Are we still on the air?" Burns said before his temporary exit that he did not feel it was right for any kind of bloc vote, but High snapped that a Negro bloc vote helped elect the Jacksonville mayor. Burns conceded that he got a heavy Negro vote in his hometown, but added that "with the Negro vote thrown away, I still would have won."

Burns has claimed that High has the backing of the NAACP, and both High and the NAACP have denied any official backing in this direction. High, in turn, has accused the Jacksonville mayor — an unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1960 — of courting the Negro vote by playing up to the NAACP.

Final Canal Route To Be Discussed

Final alignment of the St. Johns-Indian River Canal will be discussed Friday at a luncheon meeting in DeLand with the DeLand Chamber of Commerce Cape Kennedy Access Road Committee.

The luncheon will be held in the Calico Kitchen Restaurant with directors of the Canal District. After it, the directors will meet with the Chamber group.

To be discussed is the highway which will parallel the canal and originate in the vicinity of the Orange City-DeLand interchange on I-4 and terminate at U.S. 1.

The canal will open up a waterway from Lake Monroe to the Indian River. Fill from the dredging operation will be used to build the highway.

The four-lane road will be located to the north of the canal and be placed far enough away from it so that the canal area can be utilized for industry, pleasure boating and other uses.

West of Sanford and near the St. Johns River bridge will be located a number of warehouses and a terminal building to handle the expected outbreak of new materials arriving by way of the canal.

The Lake Monroe area would be reserved for a huge marina, according to plans now under discussion.

Technicians To Visit SNAS

An estimated 250 members, wives and guests of six Central Florida technical groups will inspect some of the Navy's latest technology tomorrow as they visit the Sanford Naval Air Station for a tour and aircraft carrier landing demonstration.

Later the groups will hold a combined dinner meeting at the Mayfair Inn where they'll hear an address by Capt. James O. Mayo, Commander of Sanford's Heavy Attack Wing One.

The Orlando chapter of the American Society for Metals is arranging the program. Also included are the American Society for Chemical Engineers, the American Society of Tool Manufacturers and Engineers, the Florida Engineering Society, the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the American Society of Quality Control Engineers.

The combined technical societies will assemble at 5:30 p.m. in the NAS Sanford auditorium. They will inspect the Navy's new twin-jet RA-5C Vigilante reconnaissance bomber on the flight line and in the air during Field Mirror Landing Practice, a simulation of aircraft carrier landings.

Finally they'll tour new facilities of the Naval Air Maintenance Training Group, which trains support personnel for Sanford's six squadrons.

Shift In Laos Policy Hinted

WASHINGTON (UPI)—U. S. policy in Laos was being given deep soul-searching thought today by administration officials concerned about new Communist attacks in the Southeast Asian trouble-spot.

American officials said some major decisions might have to be made soon. There was a feeling in high quarters that the latest attacks might be the "last straw"—that the Communists could not be permitted to keep on violating the Laotian truce.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk summoned to conferences at the State Department Sunday diplomats from a dozen countries with special interest in Laos.

Boat Motor Stolen

Theft of an outboard motor from his boat was reported to sheriff's deputies over the weekend by Albert Adams.

The boat was recovered across Lake Jessup but the motor is missing, police said.
