This was the opinion of several persons attending last night's Sanford City Commission meeting when John A. Burton IV, architect, showed plans and a model of a proposed city hall which could, if approved, grace the lakefront, Unveiled publicly yesterday for the first time, the model showed the bee-hive appearing 78,000 square foot structure hovering over water, constructed on a central core principle with five floors, a parking area for 215 cars and a restaurant

Burton estimated construction costs between $4 million and 6 million, and said some of the areas could be leased with money derived to pay maintenance costs. "This building will serve the city growth to 100,000 population," Burton informed.

A plaza level also would accommodate a commission meet ing room, historical museum and exhibit space, the architect

Mayor Lee P. Moore thanked Burton for his presentation but no plan to approve the structure was forthcoming, as the architect was retained by the commission to make a study of the city's need for a new municipal building City Manager W. E. Knowles expressed his pleasure over the reaction of Burton's professional attitude in researching the needs of a city hall. Commissioner Gordon Meyer brought out a chuckle reminding of the problem caused by the annual visit to the lakefront of the blind mosquitoes nuisance and what calamities 1968 A previously owned 1968 Cadillac offers so much more than many new, fully equipped, medium-price cars. Of course there's Cadillac luxury, elegance, comfort and craftsmanship for you to enjoy. But you'll also be impressed with Cadillac's big 472 V-8 engine and the precision of its standard power steering and power braking. All this plus the pride of ownership a Cadillac provides.

1970 Even the newest model of the world's finest luxury car-a car of uncompromising elegance, comfort and performance-competes in price and economy of operation with cars of far less stature. GEORGE L. STUART

The phenomenal growth of George Stuart's, Florida's largest business supply department store, is the result of an effort to rander service and to offer quality mer-

Today George Stuart's retail, office space, and sales area, occupy approximately 22,000 square feet, with an additional 50,000 square feet devoted to warehouse and storage space. In 1970, George Stuart anticipates a minimum of 150 solid train carloads of furniture plus an additional total of 50 carloads of miscellaneous merchandise.

An office design department, complete with a staff of designors has further increased the growth of this concern in the business life of Florida: A large number of the financial institutions of Central Florida and throughout the State have depended on George Stuart for equipping their offices and buildings. Many firms have found it is no longer necessary to go to Atlanta or New York to get the type of service they desire. Not only have they furnished many Florida firms, but are recognized by many national concerns. They have furnished offices and equipment for schools and offices throughout not only the southeast, but the entire United

Among other departments, included are a complete copying machine department, duplicating equipment, engineering and art supplies, luggage and other specialized departments, making them truly the largest independent distributor of business supplies in the State of Florida.
