Bryan Denounces Davis As Latter Makes Steady Gains

CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS

McAdoo Holds Veto Power Over Smith.
Darkest Dark Horses May Be Selected.
Franklin Roosevelt Is Mentioned.
Rumors of Running Bryan Are Heard.

By R. L. DEAN
Editor The Sanford Herald

AS THE CONVENTION is about to assemble again and call the roll of ballots for the sixteenth time, all eyes are turned hopefully but almost vainly in the direction of some dark horse who might break the deadlock between Smith and McAdoo, nominate a winning Democrat and let the delegates home away from heat and hardships of New York. The results of yesterday's balloting tends to indicate definitely one thing. That McAdoo has the veto power over Al Smith. In order for Smith to be nominated some of the delegates who voted for McAdoo on the first ballot would have to switch all way across convention hall to Smith. This is of course is unthinkable.

ON THE OTHER hand McAdoo showed sufficient strength to be nominated without getting any of Smith votes. If about 250 of the dark horse delegates turn to McAdoo, he will be nominated and nothing Smith can do will prevent it. But for McAdoo to get these dark horse delegates seems to be a difficult problem. In 16 ballots yesterday his increase was only 47 1/2 votes. If the rate of increase continues in a proportionate manner the Democrats will not have a nominee in time for the election in November.

THE NAME OF almost any one may be heard as a candidate whom the Democrats should swing. And the longer the convention is in session the more likely it seems that a compromise candidate will be someone heretofore almost unconsidered. They are, however, Davis and Sen. Ralston, but the Smith crowd would fight Ralston as hard as they would McAdoo and McAdoo would fight Davis with the same intensity that they would Smith.

PROPAGANDA IS out to nominate Franklin Roosevelt who is the only one of Smith following who has showed himself to have any of the attributes of a gentleman and American. Any large block of delegates swinging suddenly to Roosevelt would likely to have a powerful reaction on the convention. For that matter the same may be said for Senator Walsh.

THE NEW YORK Herald Tribune gives rise in an editorial this morning to fear in certain quarters that William Jennings Bryan may for the fourth time be the standard bearer of his party. His party would make no mistake to take this honor upon him. As a matter of fact he is the leader of the party. He has ably demonstrated that no other Democrat has even the comparable weight in his party's councils. And that is more Bryan is not yet too old to be president.

JOHNNY MEINICH is another who has temporarily shaken the colony peed from his crowning locks and is now prominent among notables at the Democratic National Convention. Johnny thinks that in all probability the Democrats will nominate some one, but maintains that the committee on resolutions has entirely overlooked what is probably the paramount problem confronting people of this nation today. He insists that his party would have been invincible in November had it declared itself definitely and unequivocally either for or against that question which today is perplexing millions, stampeding divorce courts and threatening to shatter the very foundations of those institutions upon which our American civilization is based. Some are advocating that a plank be inserted condemning or commending bobbed hair.

Demonstrations All Over Japan Are Held

TOKIO, July 1.—A widespread demonstration against the American Exclusion Act which goes into effect today opened with mass prayer meetings at all national shrines throughout the country. Growing protests and anti-duties to aid people in this troubled time when the Japanese are "insulted" by exclusion from America. Tokio's principal meeting was at the Meiji shrine. It was attended by thousands of reverent and others. Reports of other anti-American meetings are being held in Tokio today.

President Speaks on Taxation

In Address Before One Thousand Administration Heads President Coolidge Stresses Importance of Relieving People of Excessive Tax Burden Which They Are Now Having to Carry

WASHINGTON, July 1.—President Coolidge called upon the administrative heads of the government Monday night to measure up to "the full test of our national character" by giving efficient administration so further reduction of taxes for all the people may be accomplished.

Speaking before more than 1,000 executive officers at the seventh semiannual meeting of the government at the close of the fiscal year, the president stressed the importance of his declaration that all of his subordinates must enter into them in spirit as well as in practice.

"I am for economy," the president said. "After that, I am for more economy. We must give the people relief from the excessive burden of taxation."

Mr. Coolidge's program contemplates cutting expenditures to the bone. He wants to continue even more drastically the three-year-old plan that every administrative effort be carried on with absolute minimum of expense. That means, he asserted, that the government payrolls must be reduced.

The president's broad outline of his views was expanded by Director Lord of the budget bureau, who argued that those who failed to function sympathetically, and who obeyed the chief executive's instructions in half-hearted fashion, may as well feel that they are not desired in the government machinery. He added that disloyal ones have no place in the organization. The director explained that the bureau's agents were cognizant of all activities in the government and said he would not fail to call short comings to their president's attention.

The speech was the first by Mr. Coolidge since the Republican party selected him as its presidential candidate and he chose in this utterance to review the financial accomplishments of the administration for the past three years. In this period he said there was net reduction in the great public debt of more than $2,720,000,000 and a consequent saving to the people of more than $120,000,000 in interest alone.

Progress Easily Shown. "What progress we have made in ordering the national finances is easily shown," Mr. Coolidge said. "A comparison of our receipts and expenditures for the last three years explains what has been accomplished during the three years of the budget system."

"For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923 the last pre-budget year, expenditures were $5,539,000,000 and our receipts $5,624,000,000. For the succeeding three years, which includes the year which ends today, our expenditures were $3,795,000,000, $3,970,000,000 and $3,497,000,000 respectively. Here we show a progressive and constant reduction in expenditures. On the other side of the ledger our receipts for 1922 were $4,090,000,000, 1923, $4,007,000,000 and 1924, $3,395,000,000. An analysis of these figures shows...

Mors Is Exonerated In Lumber Conspiracy

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Ernest C. Mors, former director of sales of the war department, was exonerated today by Judge Bailey of District Columbia Supreme Court in case in which John L. Phillips of Georgia and others are on trial in connection with sale of government surplus lumber.

SOUTH CAROLINA WOMAN BOOMED AS RUNNING MATE

Mrs. Leroy Springs Is Gaining Support of Women and Few Men in Behalf of Candidacy for Vice-Presidency.

By RUBY LEACH
Special Correspondent The Herald

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, July 1.—The Smith forces say that the delegations at the convention include 309 Catholics and 125 Jews. They also claim that 36 per cent of the delegates are lawyers.

Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo and Miss Margaret Woodrow Wilson receive hundreds of visitors daily at their suite of rooms at the Marlborough Hotel. Because of her ready smile and joyous spirit, Mrs. McAdoo makes instant friendships. She wore a pleated black crepe dress, relieved only by a narrow white organza collar, when I watched her receive the other afternoon. Like her husband, she has a magnetic personality.

"Yes, the Republican newspapers keep us fighting," she said in answer to one woman's question. "But we're equal to them."

"Oh, the women are splendid fighters," she exclaimed to a group that surrounded her. "And I depend on them so."

Women have come to front wonderfully in this convention, but Florida's feminine talent is missing. With Mrs. Leroy Springs' nomination for vice-president of the United States, coming subsequent to Miss Mae Kennedy's appointment last week, when she was the first woman to preside over a national political convention in America, the women have received unprecedented honors. Miss Kennedy is from the Bronx, Mrs. Springs is from Lancaster, S. C. and she is beautiful, wealthy and clever.

Mrs. C. L. Collins, national committeewoman from New Mexico, is another woman prominent in the Springs. "We elected her," said...

Lorain Death List As Result of Big Tornado Is Now 72

LORAIN, Ohio, July 1.—Lorain's death list was increased by two late Monday afternoon when searchers digging in the ruins of the Crystal Restaurant, found the body of 12-year-old Dorothy Landis and Edward Wittichen of Henrietta, Ohio, died of injuries he received in the storm Saturday afternoon. The total dead now stands at 72.

One more was also added to Sandusky's list when John Kinon, a negro of Glasgow, Ky., died of injuries Monday afternoon at a Sandusky hospital bringing that total to eight. The efforts of the men cleaning out the debris in the State Theatre Monday were futile, but little progress being made in removing the tons of brick and twisted steel. Their work was interrupted several times by heavy showers and last night a severe rain and thunderstorm struck the city, stopping all work.

Many Bodies in Debris
Fire Chief David Hatt and Coroner Miles E. Perry yesterday said they believed a number of bodies still remain under the debris in the theatre.

While the rescue work was going on throughout the wrecked parts of the city, local business men and city officials were formulating plans for the rebuilding of Lorain.

Mayor George Hoffman said Lorain will not be repaired, but rebuilt. "We will erect one of the most..."

TALLAHASSEE, July 1.—Governor Harris today appointed J. Vinne Harris as judge criminal court of record in Monroe County, succeeding Judge H. H. Taylor, resigned.

Sanford Officially Takes Over Old Utilities Waterworks Plant Today; Postoffice Has First Class Rating

Today marks an important date in the history of Sanford, according to many prominent business men who point out the fact that the city today officially takes over the waterworks system it recently purchased from the Southern Utilities Company and that the local postoffice joins the rank of first class offices.

With these two changes which will eventually mean much and will be a great benefit to the city as a whole and the citizens as individuals, they have said that too much stress can not be laid on the importance this new enterprise of the city and the benefits that will accrue due to the new rating the postoffice has assumed.

In an interview with City Manager W. B. Williams this morning it was learned that on June 23 all the water meters were read and the waterworks plant put in readiness to be officially taken over by the city today. The city officials are now in full charge of the plant and will operate it until the new plant now being constructed is completed and put into service.

On June 9 the Southern Utilities Company accepted the city's offer of $71,000 for their waterworks plant and City Attorney George A. DeCottes was instructed by the City Commission to draw up a contract for the transfer of the plant and put into effect the approval of the utilities company.

Since that date the city has rapidly pushed forward construction of the new plant and the laying of mains. Mr. Williams said. Many thousands of feet of mains have been laid and much more yet to be laid. Some time ago Mr. Williams stated that beginning on July 1, when the city officially took over the old plant it has purchased, work on the laying of mains in the outlying sections would be started.

Most of the 40 car loads of pipe or mains received by the city have now been distributed and will be placed in the ground and put in service as soon as possible. It has been announced today that tonight the new main will be laid, the one connected at the intersection of...

Seaboard Seeks To Acquire New Road

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Hearings on Seaboard Air Line application to acquire control of Florida Northern and Western began before Examiner Haskell C. Davis of interstate commerce today. The Seaboard proposes to lease and purchase stock of the Florida Northern and Western road recently authorized to be constructed across state.

Main Offices of Chase and Company Are Installed in Orlando Wednesday

Chase and Company, a 40-year-old concern and the oldest independent shipper of fruits and vegetables in the state of Florida, has moved its main offices from Jacksonville to Orlando, it was learned today.

In an interview with Randall Chase of the local office, a representative of The Herald learned today that this step has been taken in order to bring the main offices of the firm closer to the producing sections of the state. Mr. Chase stated that Orlando is in the center of citrus growing section in which Chase and Company operates most extensively and for that reason the company was desirous of having its main citrus offices in that section.

He further said that the main offices of the vegetable department will remain in Sanford where they have been in the past. This is the largest and oldest independent firm for shipping and marketing fruits and vegetables in the state. Besides the main offices in Sanford and Orlando, there are branch offices in Winter Haven and in Miami. The company maintains representatives in all of the other important producing sections of the state.

DAVIS PROBABLE CHOICE BELIEVES F. D. WATERMAN

Head of Fountain Pen Company Enroute to Exits From Convention Says West Virginian Boom is Strong.

Belief was expressed by Frank D. Waterman, head of the Waterman Fountain Pen Company, upon his arrival here last night on route to Exits, that John W. Davis of West Virginia, formerly United States ambassador to Great Britain and now a prominent candidate for the Democratic nomination, has the best chance to secure the honor of the several dark horse candidates who are being mentioned.

Mr. Waterman, who left the Democratic convention Saturday night as it was about to vote on the Klan question and who is a prominent member of the New York State Finance Committee, was responsible for securing the convention for that city, stopped in Sanford and was met by friends from Exits, who drove him there later in the night.

Speaking further on the convention, Mr. Waterman said:

"Throughout the past week one heard much about John W. Davis. His candidacy appeared to gain strength each day and all day Saturday there was a great deal of talk in his behalf. I believe that he has the best chance for the nomination of any candidate at this time."

Asked whether he thought that either McAdoo or Smith had any chance, Mr. Waterman replied in the negative. "Both of those men are there to fight each other to the end," he declared, and that necessarily means that only a compromise candidate will win."

Speaking of the Saturday night session which runs over into the wee small hours Sunday morning, Mr. Waterman declared that it was one that will not be forgotten soon. The intensity of the situation and the bitter feeling existing on both sides in the struggle over the adoption of the Klan plank made that session one of the most exciting one of the convention up until the time he left, he further said.

One Candidate Will Be Indicted If Named, Says Reed

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 1.—From his sick bed here Monday Senator James A. Reed, issued a statement in which he asserted that "if a certain candidate" was named as a nominee for the Democratic National Convention is nominated for the presidency the Democratic party will likely be compelled to conduct its campaign on a federal court-room defending its candidate against serious criminal charges for violation of Federal statutes. He did not name the candidate referred to.

Senator Reed dictated this statement:

"Of course, I do not know what the convention will do, but I should be greatly surprised if it should nominate a man who would be indicted in a court of law for violation of the federal statutes, which forbid federal employees and officers appearing before departmental committees within two years after their employment to touch any matter or claim pending during the time of their employment."

"The facts do not seem to be in dispute, and should we nominate such a man we are likely to be compelled to conduct our campaign in some federal court room, defending our candidate."

One Killed and Seven Injured in Auto Wreck

DAYTONA BEACH, July 1.—As the result of a head on crash of automobiles early today, Ralston Singletary, 17, of Thomasville, Ga., was instantly killed and seven others injured. Miss Helen King of this city is most seriously hurt and is not expected to live.

Second Day of Balloting Sees Missouri Switch From McAdoo to Davis While Smith Makes Gain Over His Standing Monday; Florida's Great Leader Says Davis Not Fit Candidate

State's Delegation Becomes Prominent When One Member Switches to Smith

Jacksonville Man Insists Upon Voting For New Yorker While Colleagues Attempt to Make Him Stick By McAdoo—Vote 11 to 1

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, July 1.—With the taking of the nineteenth ballot in the Democratic Convention seeking a presidential candidate today, W. J. Bryan made an open attack on John W. Davis, of West Virginia, before the convention.

Mr. Bryan argued with the delegates that Davis' professional connections would cost the party something in the west and denied the charge made by members of the delegation that McAdoo's connection with Doheny injured the latter's candidacy.

A forced poll of the Missouri delegation which had been solid for McAdoo with its 35 votes under the unit rule, revealed that McAdoo had 34 there; and that the other 12 votes were scattered against him.

The eighteenth ballot—the third of today's proceedings—like its predecessors developed no residential candidate. Florida's 12 votes which had been going solid for McAdoo, challenged the casting for McAdoo again. The state was passed to be taken up later at the end of roll call. The purpose evidently was to show that the state was being held for McAdoo, only by the unit rule with the idea that it would have some effect on tides in the convention.

J. E. T. Bowden, of Jacksonville, demanded the poll for Florida. The delegation was said to stand 11 for McAdoo and 0 for Smith.

Florida Delegate Deserts Group To Vote For Al Smith

At the end of roll the clerk went back to poll Florida where the vote had been challenged. On the roll the first name called was W. J. Bryan. The great commonwealth was in his seat and his name was passed. There was one Smith delegate in Florida but the state was under unit rule.

Chairman Walsh called for some member of the delegation to come to the platform and explain to the convention that the state was under the unit rule. There were howls from gallery for Bryan.

John C. Cooper, Jr., of Jacksonville took the platform to contend for the unit rule. He recited that the delegation had been sent pursuant to primary vote by McAdoo. Contended that any personal preference of any delegate should have no weight in view of the expressed preference of majority of Democrats of state.

Former Governor Gilchrist spoke against the unit rule contending the same situation prevailed in 1912 when Florida pledged to Underwood and two members claimed the right to vote for Wilson.

The first 12 votes were the convention the appearance of more or less the orderly Marathon race in which contestants trotted around track without any material change in race or position.

Both Gilchrist and Appleyard who were underwood men in the primary voted for McAdoo on this ballot, but Appleyard will vote for Ralston or Glass when he thinks the time has come to leave McAdoo. He would not say how long he would stick.

Chairman Walsh ruled that the matter of how long a delegate should vote for the choice of his state as expressed in preferential primary was a matter between him and his constituents. A similar ruling was made at Baltimore on the Florida case and there is a similar case in the Montana delegation at this convention, the state having instructed for McAdoo while one delegate has been voting for Smith for some time when would not explain his vote other than to say that he was tired of voting for a loser.

Sanford Chambers Of Commerce Not to Hold Luncheons This Week

There will be Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon on Thursday noon, according to an announcement made today. Instead the luncheon has been postponed to a week from next Thursday. This action was taken by the officers of the organization, it is said, because of the larger number of members who will be absent from the city.

R. W. Pearman, Jr., secretary of the senior organization, also announced this morning that there will be no luncheon of that body on Friday for the same reason. Many members of both organizations are planning to spend the week-end away from Sanford.

Appleyard Casts Vote For Ralston

The following telegram was received late this morning by The Herald from Bryan Mack, editor of the Pensacola Journal and a member of the Florida delegation at the convention:

"Appleyard just voted for Ralston. He first told Chairman Lambright to vote his for Smith and then said 'Make a Ralston this time. Before leaving Florida Appleyard is quoted as saying he was going to hold the Florida delegation for McAdoo, but he deserted the state's choice, was leading...

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY NO MORE WAR: Nation shall not lift up sword against nation...

RECOMPENSE

Give a pleasant word, and wear a merry smile; Scorn not this weary world, be happy all the while...

Give truth in every blessing, be noble, brave and true; So others in their blessings, will do the same to you...

Drift out of seeming darkness, and hold God's love and grace; For the only joy and gladness is to meet Him face to face...

Beg of Him to lighten this cloud of doubt and sin; Beg of Him to brighten the thought that lies within...

And all the voting goes on; McAdoo is far from being defeated.

Friday in the Fourth of July and the beaches will be crowded; July should see many important talks begun in Sanford.

All the noise in New York has resulted in the few additional votes for that city's Al Smith.

LaFollette and Al Smith would make a good pair to start a party all of their own.

Perhaps Andy Gump could be drafted as a favorable compromise candidate for the Democrats.

According to the present outlook it is possible the Democrats may have a presidential candidate by the end of the month.

The Republicans would be greatly pleased to see Al Smith the nominee of the Democratic party.

"Lake Worth is Growing," says a headline. And so are many other cities in the state and incidentally that's the reason why the state is growing.

And now talk is going the rounds for William J. Bryan as the ideal candidate. That's ideal talk and Florida would be in the lime-light more than even then.

A Japanese statesman seeking office recently spent one hundred and fifty thousand dollars in behalf of his candidacy. Must have secured a few pointers from Newberry in Michigan.

Frank Fialar of Seymour, Indiana, celebrated his ninety-ninth birthday anniversary by obtaining a divorce from a woman half his age. The judge ruled that he might not remarry for two years. Probably he figured by that time Fialar might be old enough to pick out the right kind of a wife.

There was a fatal automobile accident on Sanford Avenue yesterday. While it happened out of the city limits, still in all probability the speed limit was the cause.

The Sanford Herald Friday contained a page advertisement of the Florida Vegetable Corporation which furnished a great surprise to many who didn't realize the size of the business carried on by this institution, composed of prominent growers of this section.

Too Many Innocent Victims

Do you know how to handle a gun? Is it safe to be around you when you have a pistol or a rifle in your hands? Unless some catastrophe is brought close to home we think very little about it.

In the last few weeks it has hardly been possible to pick up a newspaper without seeing an account of some accidental shooting in which an innocent person has been killed or seriously injured.

It was brought forcibly home to Sanford people last Friday when Mack Gilstrap, a fifteen year old boy, was instantly killed when a gun that was being handed to him by another boy was accidentally discharged.

Many people realize that there is entirely too much careless handling of guns by boys who know nothing about the use for which guns were intended.

Saturday's account in The Sanford Herald which told of the accident along the banks of the Wekiva River, near here, should be the means of waking a careless people to the point where some action is taken to prohibit the handling of firearms by those who are inexperienced and careless.

The average boy wishes to go camping during his summer vacation. It is great sport and should not be denied. But the plan of allowing boys to handle guns, without proper supervision, should be brought to an end.

Boys should learn how to shoot. They should be trained in the proper manner of handling rifles and pistols. But they should also be instructed in the dangers connected with the careless handling of dangerous weapons.

Too many innocent people have been the victims recently for this matter to pass unnoticed: Would it not be a good idea to limit the handling of guns to those who have had experience and instruction and know the danger connected with it?

That "Idol" and the Fourth of July

With Fourth of July at hand and all good Americans taking extra pains to tell their children as much as they can about the glorious beginning of this land of the free and home of the brave, would it be right or wrong to make any illusion to that impudent gentleman in India who has among his collection of idols one from America?

The man in India has a gold coin from the United States labeled "Christian Idol From America." It is placed in a cabinet along with images of other pagan deities and emblems, and if there are children in that Indian's household, they doubtless stand and look at the coin, wondering just how the shining gold piece is used in our temples here.

Away back under when the colonists felt that they were entitled to the freedom and the independence that they had crossed an unknown sea to find, and felt their cause so earnestly they were ready to fight for it, that first Fourth of July was tinged with all the idealism that we can put into the picture today, with the best of our imaginings.

Then after the youngsters have gone out to have a patriotic parade with the neighbor children, ask yourself if it could possibly be true that an idol is being set up for America to worship, an idol symbolized by a gold coin!

When we grant, however, that the Almighty Dollar rules our nation, we can comfort ourselves in many ways. The Almighty Dollar builds and protects. Of late there has been more and more willingness to devote dollars to the building of institutions for the amelioration of human ills.

We were merely wondering how the idea would fit in with your Fourth of July tribute.

DESERVES EVERY ENCOURAGEMENT

They are planning a "Safely Drivers Club," which it is hoped will end reckless driving in Pensacola.

They are boosters of the "Own your home" movement and are planning an active campaign along this line in the near future.

Every young man of the younger generation in Pensacola should be a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and to the end that this organization may be made even more effective, every business firm should urge the younger men to become members, and should give to the various movements fostered by the Junior Chamber of Commerce their hearty support.

They are marking the historical spots of our city, so that the citizens and visitors may know how rich in history Pensacola really is.

They have organized and will have an annual Industrial Show, which have acquainted Pensacola with the industries in their midst.

They are working on a Pensacola "trade mark" which they will advocate being placed on every article manufactured in this city, so that the public may see what articles constitute our industries.

They are planning to sign that will tell the visitors "To the right for the famous Gulf Beach to the left for the U. S. Naval Station."

They are co-operating with the Public Library Committee.

FLORIDA A BIRD SANCTUARY

Several progressive Florida towns have converted their corporation limits into bird sanctuaries. Within those boundaries members of the feathered tribes are safe.

No gunner molests, no small boy makes them afraid. Now and then a greedy cat may take her toll of their population, but the cat has to be pretty sly about it.

The idea is excellent, and we can see no reason why it should not be made effective by extending it to the whole state of Florida.

This state at one time gained some unenviable notoriety by the ruthless slaughter, by plume hunters, of some of its noblest bird inhabitants. That has been made illegal, and so far as we know the law is being enforced.

It is still a deal of wanton slaughter of birds in Florida, and, both as a business and a sentimental proposition, it should be stopped.

Why not protect them all? There is not a bird that flies through the LATEST FROM convention. It is announced that the committee on resolutions has voted, 31 to 10, to omit from the platform all mention of the Ku-Klux Klan, by name.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN when that plank of the platform is read to the convention, without any direct mention of the Klan, if it is so read, remains to be seen.

MR. BRYAN'S earnest praying in the committee on resolutions, following an entire night of "scrupulous discussion," was evidently notable to bring unanimity. Mr. Bryan's article for Sunday says: "Out of the heart are the issues of life," and he seems happy, devoting the rest of his article to the wonderful State of Florida, its beauties, spring, fertility and land people.

CONVENTION NEWS is dull, usually, but this isn't dull. At 6 o'clock Saturday-morning in the Madison Square Hotel, across the street from the convention, the Democratic committee on resolutions, after spending a night in bitter discussion of the Ku-Klux Klan plank for the Democratic platform, wound up the session on its knees, with William Jennings Bryan praying for Divine guidance.

MR. BRYAN'S prayers are as earnest and eloquent as his speeches. Half a dozen of the Democratic committeemen were in tears while he prayed.

IT WAS a touching sight but it doesn't promise harmony in the coming Democratic campaign.

THIS IS NOT A political but a religious convention, with plenty of the hatred, bitterness and danger that have always gone with religious discussion.

MR. BRYAN'S earnest praying in the committee on resolutions, following an entire night of "scrupulous discussion," was evidently notable to bring unanimity.

THESE FEW MINUTES must have meant 10,000 extra prayers, every body too busy to pray for what he liked.

AS FOR THE Democratic party, its chances are getting worse every hour. W. G. McAdoo still leads in strength, and his delegates seem determined to prove their loyalty by sticking to him to the last.

But what is the use of a nomination if it is contested by a party with bitter religious and racial quarrels?

McADOO'S GIGANTIC labor following, reaffirmed since the convention began, a statement signed by leaders of 40 great unions, and endorsed by 100,000 workers, as a Democratic candidate in spite of a heavy handicap.

LET THE WORDS "Ku-Klux Klan" be mentioned in denunciation, when the platform is read, and if you don't see a fight you will know that angels of mercy have been particularly busy.

A YOUNG DELEGATE in the (Great) delegation, whose name will be mentioned in the fact that he is not a member of the Ku-Klux Klan, said: "If the Democratic platform attacks the Ku-Klux Klan by name, men from the South and from a good many places in the North, if they voted for that plank, would not dare come."

THE LATEST ITEM OF news tells you that New York's Chief of Police, Commissioner Richard E. Enright, a determined citizen, has ordered 1,000 extra policemen to Madison Square Garden, making a secret of the fact that this intention is to prevent a Ku-Klux Klan riot at the convention. It may take more than a thousand policemen, even New York policemen, to prevent New York City from being read. It all depends on the plank. If it mentions and attacks the Klan by name, fireworks may be expected.

ARTHUR HARRIS, of the I. W. W., stabbed in a fight with Harry Fully, concluded, say everything that was going on surgeons in Kansas City removed three of his ribs, drained the pericardium, permitting the heart to continue pumping, put back the ribs, sewed him up and he lives. Thanks to local an-

Boundary Dispute Not Involve Irish

ALBANY, July 1.—Appointment of a judicial committee of the Privy Council to examine the aspects of the naming of the Boundary Commission, brought forth the statement of the former Free State attorney, Hugh Kennedy, now a member of the Supreme Court, that the question of interpretation of any name has been or can be referred to the judicial committee so the government of the Free State is concerned.

Work of the commission, it is felt, will in reality be an attempt to anticipate any difficulties which might arise after the Free State has made its decision, which will have the force of law and will probably automatically transfer various populations and jurisdictions to another jurisdiction, by the commission's investigation, either directly or indirectly, and while legislation necessary to thoroughly legalize proceedings.

"This Freedom"

Long ago, when woman's place was in the kitchen, they used to say when discussing women in politics, 'They'll soon be wearing the trousers.' Well, here they are, Miss Ethel Clavens, an attorney of Newark, N. J., appeared at the Democratic convention in 'Knickerbocker.' Why not be comfortable with a sweeping convention hat to sit in all day, she demanded.

For Summer

A fascinating wrap to throw over a summer chignon is this one of white silk hand-painted in rose of henna for. It is unlined and cut around the neck with a wide band on the simple lip of the box coat with the regulation tailored effect about the collar. The white hat with its girlish bow of white-cord ribbon of very fine French felt is in the popular small model preferred by many women despite changes of fashion.

Funeral of Roy L. Rollard Is Held in Lakeland Sunday

At Lakeland Saturday a great outpouring of sympathy was manifested at the funeral service held at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the chapel of the Fitch Company for the late Roy L. Rollard, locomotive engineer on the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, who was a victim of a fatal accident in the Lakeland yards at noon Friday. It is reported that the Fitch chapel was filled to capacity. Willing hearts stood on the outside endeavoring to catch a word or two spoken by the minister or listen to the singing.

Rev. W. J. Bolin, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated and in his address referred to the uncertainty of human life as evidenced by the taking of "one who stood high in love and affection of his near and dear ones and was greatly esteemed by his fellows in the railway service." A special quartette from the Lakeland Elks composed of Leonard H. Thompson, H. C. Tillman, C. W. Robinson and J. J. Haldeman sang the hymns. Mrs. B. H. Haraly was accompanist.

Great masses of floral offerings bore additional testimony to the love of friends and relatives. The body was placed on train No. 80 of the Atlantic Coast Line at 1:05 Monday afternoon, accompanied by his young widow and a representative of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers for shipment to Kansas City, Mo. where burial will take place.

OFFICIALS STATE CANNOT SHORTEN AUTO NUMERALS

It is impracticable to try to work out a feasible scheme to shorten Automobile License Tag Numerals.

TALLAHASSEE, July 1.—State officials in charge of administering the affairs of the automobile license tag department have found it impracticable to work out any feasible scheme to shorten the tag numerals. It is stated by E. A. Gray, chief clerk in charge of the department. Suggestions have been heeded in this connection and consideration has been given to the subject, Mr. Gray states, but he points out that there is perhaps no other state in the country that makes use of so many letters for different classifications of the motor vehicles to which licenses are issued. This very fact, alone, it is stated, precludes the feasibility of working out a satisfactory system of numbers that would make it possible to use perhaps three figures and a letter for the larger numbered "license" tags, an idea which is possible to recognize them at a glance.

Twenty-five letters are used in Florida for classification purposes beginning at "A" for motorcycles and running through "Z" for trailers for hire.

The largest number covered by any one letter, however, is listed under the heading of "O"—automobiles, private use. There were 108,621 of these issued in 1923, which retold the state an item of $1,108,390.63. Next to passenger cars for private use came "G"—trucks, for private use. Licenses under this classification were issued to the number of 20,418, and brought in a revenue of $34,859.34.

Second annual fees issued under these headings brought the totals up to figures considerably higher than the foregoing figures. For private passenger cars, 17,132 semi-annual tags were issued, which brought in $21,569.76, and 4,205 semi-annual "G" tags brought $27,338.25 in Miami.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT, NEA Service Writer.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The old maxim that there is more pleasure in pursuit than in possession applies to politics as well as to persons.

At least the Democrats on the outside trying to get in, have had a lot more fun out of their national convention than the Republicans, on the inside and waiting to stay, had at Cleveland.

No greater difference could be conceived in the atmosphere and activities surrounding two conventions than marked the Cleveland-New York gatherings.

The outcome at Cleveland was regarded from the first as a certainty. At New York, nothing had been certain.

At Cleveland, only one man had a look-in at the nomination. At New York, even days after the convention began, any one of a dozen entries had a sporting chance. But no one had better than a sporting chance.

THE lack of suspended interest in a Cleveland was responsible for the apparent absence of enthusiasm on the part of delegates and visitors. No use abouting one's head off when there's nobody to shoot down.

By contrast, the very uncertainty surrounding every situation at the Democratic meeting brought an excess of fervor to the supporters and opponents of each candidate and each platform plank. The feeling that everything was in flux, that every candidate and every issue had a fighting chance, spread over the smallest groups in the crowd. A man might be down, but he wouldn't be out until the last vote was counted.

While the Republican life there remained cool, and hope is one of the things the Democrats have lost in 1924 year.

THE Cleveland convention, in comparison, will go down in history as a "New York" convention rather than a "Cleveland" one.

Idaho Calls Attention To New National Park Near Paths Tourists

ARCO, Idaho, July 1.—The "Crater of the Moon" section, located about 40 miles south of here and recently made a national monument by action of President Coolidge, is so named because it weird lava formations bear a marked resemblance to the moon as seen through a telescope.

Countless years ago this area, located in a valley about 25 miles long and three miles wide, was the scene of great volcanic activity. Surrounding the district is timberland which abounds with wild animals.

A freak of the region is an immense underground cavern, hollowed out by a seething flow of molten lava, and down which automobiles can be driven for a considerable distance.

Other caverns glow with phosphorescent slits of volcanic ash, dead and cold, yet presenting the appearance of an active volcano. There are no rattlesnakes or other reptiles in the district, despite the fact that similar lava territory elsewhere is literally alive with them. Why there are no snakes in the "craters" is a question which no one can decide.

Yankees Will Train At St. Petersburg

ST. PETERSBURG, July 1.—Al. F. Lang has received telegraphic advice from Ed Barrow, secretary of the New York Yankees baseball club, that his team will train in St. Petersburg next spring. The announcement by Mr. Lang indicated that the Yankees would make this their training headquarters for perhaps several seasons. Final decision by the New York club officials was made after months of correspondence with Lang, who is chairman of the baseball committee of the chamber of commerce, and who has been trying for six years to get a Gotham team to train here.

City Water Supply Will Be Cut Off So Mains May Be Joined

It was announced this morning by City Manager W. B. Williams that the water supply of the city will be cut off at 12 o'clock tonight for the purpose of connecting new water mains with the old mains at the intersection of Sanford Avenue and Sixth Street. Officials of the city are desirous of inconveniencing the people as little as possible and want to warn them of the discontinuance of water during this time. It was also announced by N. T. Cobb of the Southern Utilities Company that during July all flat rate water bills, payable quarterly, coming due are payable at the offices of the Utilities company, 218 East First Street. Mr. Cobb, who has been the manager of the Southern Utilities' interests here during the past six months, has been employed by the city as its office manager in the utilities department.

President Coolidge Says Taxes Must Be Reduced Soon

that in the face of a progressive reduction in receipts we have still achieved a substantial surplus at the end of each of the fiscal years—$314,000,000 for 1922, $310,000,000 for 1923 and $408,000,000 for 1924.

"The amounts which I have stated as being the expenditures, receipts and surplus for the fiscal year 1924, which ends today, are only approximate. We will not have the actual figures until the books are finally balanced. The surplus accumulated at the end of each of the last three fiscal years has been applied to the reduction of the public debt in addition to the reductions required by law under the sinking fund and other acts. Without the aid of this recurring public debt would be $1,100,000,000 more than it now stands, and the interest would be some $40,000,000 greater next year than we shall now have to pay.

"Along with this reduction in expenditures has gone a progressive reduction of the public debt with its attendant relief from the burden of interest. On June 30, 1921, the public debt was $25,964,000,000. In 1922 it had been reduced more than $1,000,000,000 to $22,964,000,000. In 1923 it had been reduced more than $600,000,000 to $22,364,000,000. In 1924 it has been reduced again by more than $1,000,000,000 and stands at an estimated amount of $21,364,000,000, which is a reduction in three years of $4,600,000,000 and means a saving of interest of more than $120,000,000 each year.

Mrs. Collins, "because we felt it is most important that we have an efficient, capable woman to serve on committees." She has been appointed chairman of credentials committee. Mrs. Springs was born in Tennessee and educated in Virginia College, Roanoke, Va.

Mrs. D. A. McDougal, chairman of committee on arrangements, and Mrs. Emily Newell Blair, vice-chairman of national democratic committee, and all women who have delivered speeches at the Garden, have made a good impression at convention.

Mrs. Blair entertained at tea Sunday afternoon for all committee women. Her apartment at the Waldorf was decorated with profusion of roses and peonies which were sent her from her home state, Missouri.

Mrs. Lois K. Mayes, Florida committeewoman, was re-elected to office without opposition.

"It appears to me the Democratic party is being stabbed night into death in the house of its friends," Bryan Mack, editor of the Pensacola Journal, is quoted as saying in the New York World. "It can do no good and can do untold and permanent harm," Mr. Mack continued in this interview. "We do not propose the question based upon prejudice shall disrupt us. The Jews, Gentiles, Catholics and Protestants united and instructed us for William Gibbs McAdoo, and if we can get together in Florida, surely the Democrats of the nation can get together on a good man and not permit a few near-sighted persons, prompted by prejudice and bias, to carry our glorious party onto the rocks that will surely wreck it."

Lorain Death List As Result of Big Tornado Is Now 72

modern cities in Ohio after the ruins of the old are cleared away," he said.

At the same time tears were shed for the first victims of the storm, three children who were buried yesterday. Today nearly 40 more will be laid to rest, but there will be no public funerals. Mayor Hoffman forbade them. He said there had been enough grief and that public funerals would only open the city's wounds.

Twenty-five citizens of Lorain to meet with a like number from Elvira today to form a committee known as the heroic committee, to undertake the task of rebuilding Lorain.

$25,000,000 to Rebuild
The Lorain group yesterday said it would cost $25,000,000 to replace the devastated structures with modern buildings. On being notified of this, Governor Doheney declared he would issue an official proclamation inviting the entire United States to contribute to a $25,000,000 rehabilitation fund to be used in Lorain and vicinity.

Plans now in a formative state, call for the raising of practically all of the old structures in the business district.

It will take about five years to replace them, but at the end of that time Lorain will be one of the most modern cities in the country, the committee said.

The 7,000 homeless and hungry are being taken care of as well as a crushed and battered city can take care of them. They live a primitive life, sleeping on floors or in crude shacks and tents. They eat at the Red Cross and Salvation Army canteens but have managed to accomplish the routine of living.

DAVIS PROBABLE CHOICE BELIEVES F. D. WATERMAN

Mr. Waterman said that so heated was the struggle that it was necessary to keep the ranks lined with policemen in order to keep the delegates from staging an almost "free-for-all" fight. Mr. Waterman left the convention hall at the conclusion of the day's session and said that it is remarkable how this man, declared many times dead, politically speaking, by his party, can rise and meet any emergency and sway the minds of democratic followers upon any subject. Still the leader of his party, Mr. Bryan, said Mr. Waterman, seems to have lost none of that fire and enthusiasm that has marked his participation in politics for the past 25 years.

"You cannot call a man dead, who, after sitting on a platform for several hours listening to speakers take issue with him, rise in the face of jeers and biases and speak until he receives cheers with every word, and by his speech, turn the tide of defeat into one of victory.

princess and to vent her wrath for Kapiolani's impious act.

In December, 1824, the tale runs, the Princess Kapiolani, converted to Christianity by the first missionaries who came in 1820, forsook the worship of her people. She journeyed from Hilo to Kilauea and spent the night in a hut on the brink of Halemauau. She ate of the "tabu," or forbidden berries, which were consecrated to Pele, an act of insult to the goddess. She stood on the brink of the crater, with its ever-active lava lake below, and cried to Pele: "Jehovah is most powerful, Jehovah is my God. I defy thee, Pele."

Sale of Old Papers Recalls Romantic Gretna Green Days

LONDON, July 1.—Something of the romance of Gretna Green, the little Scottish village that for more than 100 years has been the haven for couples who, for one reason or another, could not be married in England, was brought to light recently in a London auction room when the nearly 1,200 runaway couples, extending over the period of 1825-1854, were sold for $1,400.

Superstition Vies With Science To Explain Volcano

HILO, Island of Hawaii, July 1.—Science and superstition vie with each other in explaining the present unusual activity at the Halemauau crater of the Kilauea volcano.

Science, in the person of Roy Finch, temporarily in charge of the volcano observatory at Kilauea, advances the theory that tons of rock, avalanched down from the sides of the crater, have choked the vent through which Mother Nature usually eases the pressure on the earth by pouring forth surplus lava into the great pit, raising the lava lake in the crater and withdrawing the fiery substance from the crater when pressure has been more than relieved. The lava underneath the surface, unable to find its way into the open, generates gas which blasts its path out of the vent, carrying with it tons of rock and dust. The explosions and earthquakes shake down further avalanches from the crater sides which again may block the vent, in an unending circle, according to the theory.

But the Hawaiians have returned to history and tradition, to the act of the brave Kapiolani, the Christian princess; who dared the wrath of Pele, the fire goddess, exactly 100 years ago. They say that Pele waited a century to become "huhu," or angry, with the people of the
