Sanford expected to lift boil water requirement, while water districts ask customers to conserve

SANFORD - A boil water notice for Sanford residents is expected to be lifted this after-

About 40,000 customers who utilize city water from Sanford have been ordered to boil all. cooking and drinking water before use since Tuesday.

The order is expected to be lifted at 12.40 p.m. today, when results from samples taken Thursday are finalized. Results from samples taken Wednesday show no bacteria in the city's water, and preliminary results of Thursday's tests show the same thing, said Paul Moore, director of the city's utilities department.

We will lift the boil water notice immediately as soon as the results from Thursday's tests become official at 12 40 thin afternoon, and no bacteria is found," Moore said.

The problem originated Tuesday at a construction site just west of the Airport Boulevard and SR-46A (25th Street) intersection near construction of the new express-

A contractor for the city was running a new waterline and closing the old line in the area, Moore said. The line that broke was a major artery between the city's two water plants.

The break occurred when the old line was being shut down in preparation for the opening.

The break caused a reduction in the water pressure through-

The Great Chicken Escape: 'Chicken Run' springs from the clay

By Cole Smithey Special to the Herald

Peter Lord and Nick Park, the creators of "Wallace and Gromit," have crafted a devilishly clever clay animation feature film that is as thoroughly British in its humor as it is enjoyable to watch.

A band of hyper kinetic European chickens, imprisoned in a stalag type egg farm run by a tyrannical husband and wife team, struggle to escape with the Rooster named "Rocky" (voice by Mel-Gibson - "Lethal Weapon").

Rocky is a circus performing Rouster who is inexplicably able to fly, or so it seems. It only follows that Rocky should be able to teach the fat little egg-laying chicks to get airborne long enough to escape over the burbed wire fence that keeps them on a course with early death when they stop producing enough eggs

Beyond implications about animal cruelty in food processing farms, "Chicken Run" pokes fun at cheer-for-the-hero escape stories, and the very cliche of the American male hero. The chickens trapped on Mrs. Tweedy's (voice by Miranda Richardson - "Sleepy Hollow") Yorkshire poultry farm wouldn't stand a questionable aid of a cocky American chance of ever escaping were not for their fearless and caring leader, Ginger (voice Julia Sawalha - "Absolutely Fabulous"). Ginger rifles the group through every escape scenario she can imagine before landing on the idea of going over the fence instead of under-

When Rocky, the American Jone free ranger" rooster, crashes into camp, it seems like the answer to Ginger's plans for the freedom of her flock and also for her romantic heart. But Rocky is more of a motivational speaker than a liberator of hens. Little facts about chickens and roosters not being able to fly, and rosters not being able to lay eggs are clarified in the furniest of ways.

When Mrs. Twesdy discovers an ad for a chicken pie manufacturing machine that promises to make her a bundle incash, it gives the movie a centerpiece comedy sequence that rivals anything of the most knee-slapping scenes from fully Wilder to Mei Brooks en pie as Mr and Mrs. Tweedy test out their monstrously large cooking and packaging contraption. There's slippers slides, gravy shooting spray guns, mixedvegitables, and a beck of a lot of heat from over burners that Ginger ends up dodging from conveyor belt to canfle and bus.

Chicken Run" is a classy melding of story ideas from movies like. The Great-Escape (1963) "Cool Hand Luke" (1967) Stalag 17" (1953) and even Charlie Chaplin's "Modern Times" (1936). It's easy to take for granted the painstaking process of frame at a time, filmmaking, that clay animation requires when watching. Clicken Run, because the filmmakers have done such a picturesque job of scamboody blending flawless set and figure design with story and character.

Kid's movies are just as important to the summer season as the string of Hollywood blockbusters that rarely live up to audience expectations. Chicken Run" is every bit as rediculous as the title suggests, and carnes with it a look and style that, while referencing a tradition of mape movies, surprises an audience with its ingenuity and cheeky brand of British satire

The little plasticine and silicone figures that portray the two human characters oddly resemble people we all have seen before. Clay animation may not be any position to squeeze out movies like Shaft," but crappy cartoon movies like "Ilitan A.E." don't stand a chance against the mestimable talents the proper behind *Chicken Run

Before there was Russell Crowe, the No. 1 Russell was the U.S. poet, James Russell Lawell, I. know this because I'm numed for

Mr. Lowell. I'm neither a poet nor distinguished, but no one can deny the fact I'm a James Russell.

Candy man Russell Stover also has made a good name for himself. If you were on the old Family Feud TV game, you would get a sweet kiss from Richard Dawson if you named Stover as one of the best Russella Russell Stover - high in calories and recogni-

Building your baby's brain: The basic foundation

100 billion brain cells. Some of these cells are already connected to other cells at birth. These connections regulate the heartbeat and breathing. control reflexes, and regulate other functions needed to survive.

From the moment a baby is born, every experience taken in by the five senses helps build the connections that guide alike! Each child develops individual pathways to deal with his or her experiences. For example, a hearing child makes many connections related to oral language. The brain of a deaf child does not get the experience needed to make those connections. A child who learns to play baseball will make certain connections that a child who never plays ball will not

The kind of care a child receives plays a big role in how the brain chooses to wire itself. Parents who talk and read to their babies are helping them develop important language connections. And parents who respond sensitively to their haby's cries are building the emotional connection that lead to healthier relationships.

What Can You Do?

Here are some of the most important ways you can help your baby's brain develop:

· Make sure your baby's world is safe and secure. Remove any safety hazards from the environment. Respond lovingly and consistently to your baby's cries. Give him attention. A baby feels stress when the environment is dangerous or when caregivers do not respond to him. Stress can slow brain development.

. Talk to your baby. When she makes a smand, repeat it. Smile at her. Talk about the things you're doing together. interacting face to face builds the brain connections needed for both language skills and a healthy emotional bond. • Start reading aloud early.

Hearing adults read helps brain develop language connections. It also gives parents and babies a chance to spend time together. And reading aloud helps your baby build a lifelong love of Choose high-quality child care. To ensure healthy development, babies need sensitive, kwing care and stimulating experiences. Choose a child care provider who will interact warmly with your baby one-onone. Look for a safe and clean environment, a kny baby-toadult ratio, a provider who understands how children grow and develop, and a rich variety of age-appropriate toys.

need. If you have questions about your beby's development, there are many places you can go for answers. Ask your doctor questions during thick-ups. Have your librarian recommend good boots on child development. Your Cooperative Extension Service has publications on developmental stages of young children. Call our office to mail you information!

Daughter's nakedness bothers mother

DEAR ABBY: I have a beautiful 20-year-old daughter. She's currently home from college for a break. She spends a great deal of time in our back yard sunning by the pool and swimming. This is fire, but my concern is that she's doing it in the nude. Now I am far from a prude, Abby, and do most of my own sunning and swimming in the nude as well. My concern is that I am recently remarried, and my daughter doesn't bother to cover up when my new husband is home. She seems just as comfortable nucle in front of him as she is in front of me. This seems odd, because this is only the third or fourth time my daughter has met him. I am further conflicted because my husband obviously enjoys looking at my daughter while she's naked. She has a great body. My husband has been constantly aroused, and this has been ading to some of the best sex I have ever had. When I thought we were falling into a rut, all of a sudden we're making love twice a day. I love it: My daughter is home for one more week. I'm not sure whether to say anything to her or not. I'm certainly enjoying the side benefit of her exhibitionism. Should I just enjoy this week knowing that she'll be back at summer school soon? CONFUSED BUT ENJOYING

Dear

DEAR CONFUSED: Speak up now. By allowing this to continue, you are playing with dynamite. While your daughter has probably learned the habit of swimming and sun-bathing in the nude from you, the fact that she is doing this in front of your new husband - whom she has only recently met - is extremely inappropriate.

Consider the future. What if your daughter decides to spend other vacations with you? You won't be able to let your husband out of your sight. And if he surprises you, and turns out to be capable of making love three times a day, it could mean the end of your marriage.

out the city, which continued until the break was closed Tuesday night. The water from the actual break reportedly did not come in contact with any sewer lines.

Updates on the situation are available on the city's hotline at 407-330-567N

Meanwhile, officials from two water management districts Orange County, and Orlando on Thursday issued a water corner vation plea to residents of Central Florida

The agencies urge residents and businesses to conserve more water as a way to avert the need for additional outdoor water nestrictions. Water providers are reporting record high water demands, driven by increased outdoor irrigation.

Because of the record drought and increased water use, groundwater levels are at record lows in Seminole, Orange, Lake and Marion counties, creating conditions favorable for the formation of sinkholes, said leff Cole, spokesman for the St. Johns River Water Management District

Sanford has a rainfall deficit of 14.65 inches this year, Cole said. The city has received 4.82 inches of rain this year. Normally, the city has received 19.47 inches of rain by this time of year.

Twenty sinkholes have been reported in Central Florida this summer. With a reduction in groundwater, more are likely to form, especially after normal summer weather culterns begin. Heavy rains after droughts often cause enough pressure on the ground to create sinkholes.

Drought conditions can lead to water resource concerns such as an increase in outdoor watering, and a lack of water supply utility capacity and pressure problems during times of peak demand.

Other problems caused by drought conditions include a loss of pressure and flow in private wells, a decline in drinking water quality, sinkhole formation and low lake levels.

The St. Johns River and South Florida water management districts prohibit outdoor watering between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. The public is also encouraged to limit outdoor watering to two days a

Between 3 p.m. and 430 p.m. on a normal day, the eastbound on ramp traffic at the SR-46 exit (one exit west of 17-92) is about 500 vehicles per hour. That volume increased to about 1,500 vehicles an hour during the 17-92 ramp closure. The normal capacity of a limited access lane. is about 1,500 vehicles per hour. before delays began to occur.

With that many vehicles

two easths and 1-4 large was effectively closed to 1-4 commuters coming from west of SR-46. In short, DOT data says eastbound back-ups on I-4 merely moved from the approach to the St. Johns River Bridge to SR-46 In addition, there were lengthy back ups on SR-46. The volume of traffic on northbound 17-92 in Volusia County did not change probably due to 17-92's capacity already being at its maximum, the tests indicated. A construction project currently underway is widening the read to four lanes.

Department of Transportation officials say they will re-examine the issue when Volunta County construction on U.S. 17-92 is completed possibly as early as December of this year.

With additional capacity available on 17-92 at that time, the ramp climure might be a useful option during construction of the new St. Johns River Bridge, which could begin as early as next spring.

Guilty

Ladoczky said she did develop a relationship with Holley. but denied it was sexual. She also denied providing him with drugs or police information during what she claims was an 18month relationship beginning in the summer of 1998.

The trial included revelations about Ladoczky having sex with a second convicted drug dealer. She said the trial was about her personal life more than it was about criminal charges

"I think it was more about my personal life and what people believed about me," Ladoczky said. "I did not break any laws. I made some bad choices in my personal life." Assistant US Attorney Mati Perry called the decision "a victory for the government," but admitted it would have been difficult to convict a police offi-cer of conspiring to distribute drugs while using a convicted cocaine dealer as the primary Witters

"What you have normally in a trial is you've got a police officer testifying against a drug dealer," Perry said. "This time, you had a drug dealer testifying against a police officer. I don't think the jury was prepared to send a police officer to prison based on the word of a convicted drug dealer."

During the six day trial, Ladoczky admitted having sex on one occasion in 1996 in her Sanford home with convicted cocaine dealer Julian Wimberly. 24. Ladoczky was his case agent on a charge of selling crack cocaine, and Wimberly pled

She also admitted to having other extramarital affairs during the trial. However, her husband of 10 years, Longwood Police Officer Robert Ladoczky, 31, said he will continue to support his wife

"I believe everything that came out in this trial was meant for me and Darlene to deal with at home," Robert Ladoczky said. "I stuck through this with my wife, and I will continue to stick with my wife."

The jury convicted Darlene Ladoczky of lying to federal agents regarding phone calls on Jan. 28 and Jan. 29 from Wonda Grooms, the mother of two of Holley's 13 children.

The calls were set up and audiotaped by federal agents to test Ladoczky, according to trial

During the Jan. 28 conversation, Grooms said she was being followed by two sport-utility vehicles, providing descriptions and license tag numbers as provided by federal Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) agents

According to the audiotapes, Ladoczky told Grooms she believes the vehicles belong to the DEA or City-County Investigative Bureau, and offered to check the license tags. During the Jan. 29 call, Grooms followed up on the offer to check the license tags, which Ladoczky never did.

An audiotape of a Feb. 11 phone call from Grooms to Ladoczky could not be understood. Ladoczky testified she did not recall the conversation.

The DEA held a mock briefing at the Sanford Police Department on Feb. 16 to discuss plans for a drug bust involving Grooms and Core Johnson, an associate of Holley whose sister is a member of the Sanford police. After the briefing Ladoczky approached DEA special agent Lee Madeam.

She told DEA agents she had received a phone call from Grooms, but denied disclosing the identity of undercover police vehicles, according to testimony by both Ladoczky the agents. Following her arrest on March 22, Ladoczky again denied telling Grooms the identity of undercover vehicles.

Ladoczky maintained during the trial she was telling the truth to the agents, because during the Jan. 28 phone call she believed the vehicles belonged to the DEA but was not certain.

Ladoczky is suspended from the Sanford Police Department without pay, although Perry, the prosecuting attorney, said a lelony conviction of making false statements to federal agents would likely end her career as a police officer. Ladoczky said she does not wish to be a police officer again. Several other Sanford police officers and a Seminole County deputy sheriff admitted to having friendly relationships with Holley during the trial, ranging from playing softball with him to inviting him to play music for school dances

Holley testified he was friends with the officers, but did not receive confidential police information from them. However, Holley also testified he has sold crack cocaine to Longwood Police Officer Clint Girolli.

Perry said a criminal investigation is being conducted regarding Girolli, but investigations into other police officers have been dropped because of lack of evidence of criminal activity.

Special Agent Perry of the DEA said although criminal investigations into the officers were dropped in October 1999, the Sanford Police Department and Seminole County Sheriff v. Office are still conducting internal investigations.

Sanford police spokeswoman Cleo Cohen said the department will review transcripts and evidence from the trial and conduct an internal investigation.

Emery stars on Rogers' night off at New Smyrna

SPECIAL TO THE HIDALD

SAMSULA - David Rogers took the night off in the Super Late Models and that picked up the car count at New Smyrna Speedway last Saturday night (June 17). Jeff Emery jumped out front in the #12E, "Nicole's Nightmare", and held off the field to win the race. Past winner, Lake Mary's Mike Good driving the Briar Construction #27, looked strong in the heat, but fell out with mechanical trouble. Bruce Lawrence was back in the #16 and powered his way to second. Travis Kittleson's Bob Steele Chevrolet 988 was third at the line. Mike Williams and Eric Black (heat winner) rounded out the top five.

Randy Dye won the Late Model heat race in the #43 WHOG 95.7 Dodge, but tangled with last race winner Mark Stevenson's #21 late in the feature and only Stephenson could continue on to get the victory. Chad Pierce's #57 stayed out of danger to come home in the second spot. Robbie Smith had a new car and a new paint job and speeded him up. The new blue 901 car ran third. Dun Crow was back in the #26 for fourth with Hank Baker's #52 in fifth.

Marty Pierce's flame scorched Briar Construction #75 made it four in a row in several fast cars. Bob Doxie was back in the new Boot Barn #2, but settled for the second spot. Third went to the Silver #94 Mustang of Ron Dubeau. Ron is in the high tech cable business and pulls from West Palm. Tim Clark in the #25 wound up fourth when the flag was thrown and Jamie Disson ran fifth in the blue Mustang #6.

BBM (Bob, Bonnie and Mike) put up the money for this special 50 lap event, but the extended laps took their toll on the cars in the Sportsman feature. Bobby Lee Good set fast time in the Briar Construction #27 Camaro at about 20 flat. Andrecheck was 2nd fast, but fell out with distributor failure after taking the lead on the start. Bobby Lee had lapped all the field except the #8 of Rich Clouser when a late race caution bunched them Clouser's experience let him get the jump on rookie Bobby Lee at the start, and he took home the money in his Olds. After tech it was Michael Carr is 2nd, Bill Love driving the #70 of John Nusbaum in 3rd, Jeff Miller's ONO in 4th and Ian Huffman's #3 in 5th.

There was a massive field of cars in the Super Stock feature and it was clearly the best race of the night. All eyes were on the #13 Olds of Jim Winterstein as he was crashed in the heat, and came back heavily damaged and smoking. Billy Spade surprised the ians with a real strong run to stay up front and get his first win. Rick Picard was accord in the #9, with Winterstein making it all the way from last to 3rd, Tim Ewing drove his Business Archives #35 to fourth, with High Side Ed Zikowski's 97 to fifth.

Thursday.

Today's game is set for a 6:30 p.m. start.

The Sanford All-Stars will not play again until 10 a.m. on Saturday when they will host the loser of Friday's game in an elimination game.

To repeat, the Sanford All-Stars will have to win three games in a row.

The Altamonte Springs All-Stars took advantage of early wildness by Sanford All-Stars starter William Cleveland to graba quick lead.

Harris and Apfel both walked to open the bottom of the first inning and Phipps lined an RBI single to left, scoring Harris.

The runners moved up a base on a passed ball and Evenson doubled to center to plate Apfel and Phipps, giving the Altamonte. Springs All-Stars a 3-0 lead.

After going seven-up-neven down against the slants of Frey, the Sanford All-Stars finally got its offense going with one out in the top of the third inning.

Cleveland broke up the perfect game by drawing a walk and Chris Calhoun ended the no hit bid with a double to left.

Lazarus Mitchell, one of the stars for the Sanford All-Stars as they finished seventh in the state tournament last year, then doubled to left to score both Cleveland and Calhoun.

Adam Frank then lined a single to center to score Mitchell with the game-tying run.

The Sanford All-Stars had an opportunity to answer right back in the top of the fourth inning as Nick Erickson and John Fletcher walked to open the frame, but Frey settled down to get three outs in a row on a strike out, fly to right and a pop up to first to end the threat.

The Altamonte Springs All-Stars finally got some insurance against Sanford All-Stars reliever Dustin Annette in the fifth toning. With one out, Phipps doubled down the left field line and moved to third on a grounder to short by Evenson before Frey helped his own cause by launching a 2-2 pitch high and well beyond the 330-foot sign in left Phipps led the way for the Altamonte Springs All-Stars with a perfect 3-for-3 day that featured a home run and a double. The shortstop also scored three runs and drove in a pair.

Frey helped himself at the plate, going 2-for 3 with the home run, scoring a run and driving in two.

Also contributing offensively for the Altamonte Springs All-Stars were Evenson (double, two RBI), Dickson and McGattin (one single each) and Harris and Apfel (one run scored each).
