

Come to Church Every Week

IS HE YOURS

You take him for a walk around the block and people stop you to say, "What a beautiful baby!" You try to be modest about it, but your heart is bursting with pride. He is the most beautiful baby—and he's yours!

It can be pretty disturbing the first time you realize that your baby really isn't yours at all—that you do not possess him. Yet the sooner you do realize it, the better. We can't possess another person no matter how dearly we love them. And in the case of our children, we are custodians, not owners.

He is a beautiful baby—and you, naturally, want nothing more than for him to grow up into a fine young man. It is your responsibility, in the years ahead, to help him do so—and you will find the strength and guidance to aid you in your task in your church.

Start going to church this Sunday. Chances are that they've even got a nursery for beautiful babies!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a workshop of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every citizen should attend church:

1) For his own sake. 2) For his children's sake. 3) For the sake of his community. 4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and spiritual support.

Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

We Get Our Vital Link

A vital link in this county's road program is off the ground thanks to the combined efforts of the County Commission, road department and many property owners in Lake Mary.

We are of course referring to the news that all rights-of-way needs for the I-4 interchange at Lake Mary were turned over to the State Road Department and that bids on this important project will be let later in the year.

State Road Department officials report that four ramps will be constructed, an entrance and an exit on either side of I-4. A Lake Mary Boulevard bridge over I-4 was constructed when I-4 was built. The ramps will lead on and off I-4 at this bridge on the Boulevard.

The Lake Mary Interchange will give this county five accesses to I-4 — at Altamonte Springs, at Longwood and two at Sanford. It will give a center access in the nine-mile stretch between the Longwood (SR 434) and SR 46 (First Street) interchanges.

The securing of rights-of-way deeds was a task that took three years — the donation of these rights has saved this county a tremendous amount of money from county secondary funds and as SRD member Willard Peebles said the other day "this is the first time in my memory that 100 per cent of rights-of-way deeds have been donated for such a project."

Earlier we mentioned the many owners who donated their land for this project. We feel the entire county owes them a "thank you" and we are now listing their names with a "thank you" from The Herald.

Jeno Paulucci and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Trepanier of Duluth, Minn. and Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Al Wallace Mack Cleveland, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bull, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dyson, all of Sanford and Overstreet Investment Company of Orlando.

Earlier donors for rights-of-way for Lake Mary Boulevard, access road to the interchange were: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wallace, Southward Fruit Company and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Pratt all of Sanford; Mr. and Mrs. Gurner J. Gehr, Mr. and Mrs. A. John Charotwicz, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton F. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Riley and W. C. Hopkins, all of Lake Mary; Mr. and Mrs. James T. Paris of Baltimore, Md.; City National Bank of Miami Beach; Mrs. Elizabeth Washburn, Cranston, Rhode Island; August C. Kim, Port Charlotte, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Nathan W. Bennett, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred N. Adams, Daytona Beach; Alexander H. Crowe, Inc., Oklawaha, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Glauson Stidham, Detroit, Michigan and Overstreet Investment Company, Orlando.

Olive Branch In Ike's Hat

Dwight Eisenhower confesses that the greatest disappointment of his career as president was the failure of his quest for scientific progress.

In an interview in Saturday Review, however, the former chief executive says his administration did achieve some success in diffusing tensions between the United States and the Soviet Union. He cites:

— His "atoms for peace" plan for an international pool of fissionable material to be used for peaceful purposes. Out of this was born the International Atomic Energy Commission.

— Initiating U.S.-U.S.S.R. co-operation in the international geophysical year.

— His proposal for an Antarctic treaty signed by 12 nations—explaining that contentment from national claim-staking and preserving it for peaceful, scientific uses.

— His invitation to Nikita Khrushchev to visit the United States in 1959.

But none of these, he says, reached anything like the fullness of American purposes he had hoped for.

If Mr. Eisenhower feels he was a failure in this respect, we won't presume to argue with him. We only hope all our presidents fail as splendidly.

The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON (UPI) — When it was first revealed that Lynda Bird Johnson was looking for work on a magazine, she is a personal friend of Bill D. Moyers, the President's press secretary, and thus might be several national publications were said to be willing, and maybe even eager, to have her on the staff, despite the apparent lack of experience.

Some cynics suspected her connections at the White House may have brightened her employment prospects. After all, she is a personal friend of Bill D. Moyers, the President's press secretary, and thus might be in a position to get inside information.

But I prefer to think the editor who suggested in Miss Johnson the type of talent that holds circulation.

Political Notebook

LOS ANGELES (NBA) — Part of the suspicion of a Vietnamese war by some educated, highly motivated young people can be laid at President Johnson's door.

There is in the Pentagon and the State Department these days — as there was not in the past two decades — an attempt to prevent the people from learning what the possible courses of U.S. action are — what decisions the government is wrestling with.

Even when the action has been decided and put into effect, frequently there are attempts to hold off letting the people know until a polished, uniform version of success can be put forth.

Every official is expected to speak with one voice. Information for the public must be correlated and cleared of every difference of opinion.

It is a type of information so patently false in its overall content (even though each individual fact may be true) that it is especially galling to people who are not in the government — a record in disbelief.

President Johnson's secrecy has thus boomeranged. It can seriously hurt the conduct of the war.

If all major segments of the American people are to back the war fully in Viet Nam then something has got to be changed about the government's secrecy policy on news.

The tragedy is that controlled news causes people to distrust all news and to distrust the motives of the man who controls the news.

Johnson's "management" of news on his Viet Nam decisions causes some young people, therefore, to distrust why the war is being fought.

It isn't enough to announce why the war is being fought or to explain and explain again.

It is necessary for people to be in on the step-by-step arguments and decisions that lead to the decisions before and while the decisions are being made by people who do not feel a trust in those decisions.

Before action in a democracy there must be knowledge and a great debate. That debate sorts out the issues and promotes wise decisions. It also makes people feel a part of those decisions and insures that those decisions will have public backing.

Debate after the fact leaves the people with a bitter taste in their mouths.

There was no great decision-making in his first drive in the major leagues (1939).

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Prof. Gregory is using a clever psychiatric trick to help cure stuttering. This nuisance habit starts when a child focuses his conscious attention on the previous automatic act of talking. Note similar dilemma of the old mountaineer with his long beard!

By — GEORGE W. CRANE Ph. D., M. D.
CASE A-555: Prof. Hugo R. Gregory deals with the difficult cases at our Northwestern University Speech Clinic.

He is now urging deliberate stuttering on the part of the victim to combat involuntary stuttering.

"Some have made dramatic improvements," he adds.

These youngsters are in the 6 to 10-year age group.

Since stuttering is often made worse by the tensions of hyper-critical parents (or teachers), anything that promotes relaxation in the victim will of ten prove very helpful.

Previously, I mentioned Paul Stadelman, noted instructor in ventriloquism, who found that adult ventriloquists could speak fluently while they were "throwing their voice" into the dummy's mouth.

When a child stutterer also tries deliberately to stutter, this makes him "master" instead of "slave" of the nuisance habit of stuttering.

In psychiatry, we say that whenever you can laugh at your own bugaboo, then you are already halfway on the road to cure.

Stuttering of the functional sort (not due to brain damage) starts in childhood due to unusual embarrassment or tension that results from a social blunder involving speech.

If the child's classmates then laugh or ridicule the child may instantly become self-conscious about the act of speaking.

Because he then focuses his anxious attention on a previously automatic act, he begins to stutter.

An old mountaineer with a beard flowing while he was once greeted by a teen-ager, who asked:

"Uncle, what do you do with that beard when you go to bed at night?"

"Do you spread it out on top of the covers or keep it underneath them?"

The mountaineer scratched his head, puzzled.

"Son," he added, "I don't remember. But tonight I'll watch myself to see where I put it."

So he carefully spread his long beard atop the covers when he got into bed. But that didn't help.

"I must have been keeping it underneath," he concluded, as he rolled back the covers and then spread the beard beneath them.

But his beard tickled his skin and kept him awake, so he put it back on top of the covers.

Again, he felt uncomfortable, so he spent the entire night shifting his beard from on top; then underneath, and back on top.

Next day he was so dead tired from lack of sleep, he figured it would be easy to find the answer.

But again he lay awake all night irritably shifting his beard back and forth, yet never feeling comfortable.

By this time he was so dead for slumber that he went to a barber and had his long beard cut off.

That night he went right to sleep even before he could pull up the covers.

But he slept so soundly that he took pneumonia, due to absence of his warm beard, and died a few days later.

The moral?

Don't pay too close attention to a previous automatic act, whether it be speaking, golfing, batting a baseball or anything else.

Otherwise, you may throw a monkey wrench into the smooth functioning of your body.

Dr. Crane of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents for postage, is printing and mailing copies of this story to all who send for one of his booklets.

Church To Have Ladies' Night

The Men of the Church, Presbyterian Church of the Covenant, will observe Ladies' Night with a 6:30 p.m. supper Tuesday. The speaker will be Dr. Paul M. Edris, who for 25 years has been the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Daytona Beach.

Well known as a preacher and speaker at civic clubs all over Central Florida, Dr. Edris is now chairman of the Area Committee on Christian Outreach, Presbytery of St. Johns. He brings with a serious message a charming wit and humor that inspires and captivates audiences everywhere, according to the Covenant pastor, Rev. Thomas H. McKistler.

Mercury, the Man's Car, believes in being top cat.

Mercury believes a Man's Car should be taller, stiffer, tougher ideas—the stuff that better cars are made of.

Apparently you agree. Our showrooms have been crowded with car buffs, demonstrators, riders, and buyers. The wild, new Cougar has been drawing rave comments, of course. But what's wilder is that people are talking about the entire Mercury line of 28 cars as if they were Cougars.

Reason? Lots of 'em. Man's Car ideas like the front seats in the Marquis. They split into two "club chairs," so a man can have the legroom he wants without disturbing his wife.

And options such as a foot-resting speed control that's up where it should be, where it's handiest—works from a button on the turn signal lever.

Letters To The Editor

Yes—I, for one, "care"—about theater, that is. I am not a "young people" however—I am 48—but I oldsters also need a convenient place to go for entertainment. But, of course, a movie theater is great for children and teenagers. They need one for inexpensive entertainment, a nice place at which they can meet their friends—and in my book I think a young couple on a date enjoy a movie together more than any other diversion of spending an evening.

And not only a "young couple—but couples of every age—both single & married.

My husband and I quit going to the Ritz years ago, even though we enjoy going to a movie theater very much. There have been so many pictures I have wanted to see but, but not at the Ritz the way it has been for a number of years.

It is dirty and extremely noisy. A good theater is just not run that way. I'm not blaming the local manager for this—but the company that owned it. They expected to take in money they put me out—impossible.

High Twelve Club Hears Talk On DeMolay

By Mildred Hanes
Col. George M. Percival, chairman, advisory council, DeLand Chapter of DeMolay, was principal speaker at the bi-monthly luncheon meeting of the High Twelve Club of DeLand.

The DeMolay Chapters are composed of young men from 14 to 25 years of age, sponsored by recognized groups of Masons which may be a Blue Lodge, a Scottish Rite or York Rite, a Shrine Temple, or other similar Masonic group. The High Twelve Club of DeLand is a strong supporter of the DeMolay movement. Patrick Scott Hanes has been accepted into the DeMolay from DeLand.

Col. Percival gave a brief history of DeMolay from its inception in 1919 by the late Frank S. Land in Kansas City, Mo., to the present membership of three million young men, many of whom have become great leaders in various fields of endeavor. Under the supervision of reputable Masonic members, fine characters are molded.

Following his talk, Donald Moore, president of the DeLand Shrine Club, gave a short resume of his club sponsorship of the DeLand DeMolay Chapter and gave High Twelve members detailed information relative to the part they can play in supporting the DeMolay movement.

The meeting opened with a duet presented by H. E. McSwain, church choir director, and D. C. Spivey, followed by scripture reading and prayer.

The program, "Purpose of Brotherhood," was presented by Woodrow Hartley.

Supper following the meeting was served to Rev. H. T. Barrett, Samuel Polson, W. J. Payne, J. E. Andrews, Alan Davidson, James Hayes, W. W. Hartley, Leland Todd, Byron Odell, Rob Riser, T. V. Metta, Willard Bradley, A. Albersohn, Willis McSwain, Spivey, and Hartley.

Prisoners Sing Out

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Thirty-three prisoners sang their way out of jail.

Brought before Police Judge William Colton Wednesday, the prisoners—some wearing paper party hats—burst into the strains of "Happy Birthday."

Later, Mayor Kenneth Schmidt passed out cake to the prisoners, who had been arrested on drunkenness charges.

Finally, they were called before Colton, who dismissed the charges and "blessed" Wednesday was his 47th birthday.

77 Years With Same Spouse

JAMESTOWN, N.Y. (AP)—Bertha Lowe was 16 and Oliver Bunting was 19 when they stood before a justice of the peace at midnight to become husband and wife.

Today, they observed their 77th wedding anniversary, and among their descendants are four great-great grandchildren.

The couple chose midnight for their marriage, they said, because it came at the end of Bertha's birthday celebration and the start of Oliver's. She turned 93 Tuesday and he reached 96 today.

They were married in Walkerville, Mich., where Bunting was a country school teacher. Later, he became a newspaper advertising man in this western New York City. He retired in 1946 as display advertising manager of the Jamestown Post-Journal.

Chancellor Erhard May Be On Way Out

BONN, Germany (AP)—There is a widespread feeling in Bonn that Chancellor Ludwig Erhard is on his way out.

The most active candidates to succeed him are people in his own party who would like to hold tight to the job as minister of economics and heir apparent to the chancellorship despite all Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's efforts to shake him loose.

Erhard is extremely stubborn when it comes to his own personal position. For years he has held tight to the job as minister of economics and heir apparent to the chancellorship despite all Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's efforts to shake him loose.

Erhard's chief hope for survival seems to be that his enemies fight more with one another than they do with him. This is important in West Germany because the only legal way to replace a chancellor who won't quit is for a majority of the Bundestag to get together and elect a new one.

Some say Erhard will have to go before he is 79 on Feb. 4. But at least two of the four political leaders reported to have agreed on this day that they are preparing any such birthday present.

Others think he will have to go prior to the local elections in the Rheinland and Schleswig-Holstein next spring—or at least some time next year so that there is time to build up a successor who can win the 1969 national elections.

One of the complaints against Erhard is that he pledged West Germany to make arms purchases in the United States when the funds were not provided in the budget.

But Erhard is extremely stubborn when it comes to his own personal position. For years he has held tight to the job as minister of economics and heir apparent to the chancellorship despite all Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's efforts to shake him loose.

"When they want to get rid of me," he says, "there is a perfectly good constitutional way of doing it. Let them try."

'Athena' Proves Good Watch Dog

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Would you be nervous if a 41-foot, 30-pound Canadian lynx perched atop your refrigerator and watched while you cooked breakfast?

Mrs. Leonard Gamble of Wichita, Kan., says it has become routine at her house since a California family made her a present of Athena, a lynx, a year ago when she was only a kitten.

The Gambles say Athena sleeps on a bed with Christine, their 11-year-old daughter; romps with Zazab, their Siamese cat and their Persian cat Princess; and Chinney Sweeps, their three-pound Pomeranian dog.

Athena proved her worth as a watch dog recently. A prowler was working at a window and had removed the screen when Athena screamed and leaped through the open window. The family looked out and saw a man jump up, run to the street and speed away.

Pine Crest PTA Set For Halloween

Plans for the annual Pine Crest PTA-sponsored carnival discussion of the first meeting of the group. It will be held from 4 to 8 p. m. Oct. 29.

Mrs. W. J. Crawford, chairman, asked for assistance from all interested persons in order that this carnival will "be bigger and better than ever."

A course in modern math for parents is slated to be organized at the school under the supervision of the principal, Harold Heckelbach. He explained to the parents the various programs and projects of the school.

William Crabtree, president of the PTA, volunteered to head a committee to investigate the possibility of getting either the city or county to provide a sidewalk for the 27th Street area.

Mrs. Walter Cook, membership chairman, told the audience that Pine Crest PTA "more than meets the requirements for a Local Unit Award by enrolling more than 60 per cent of the parents in the organization."

She added that she "is optimistic about increasing enrollment by 75 per cent by March 1 in order to qualify the group as an Honor Roll PTA."

President of the organization is William Crabtree with Mrs. R. D. Priest, secretary, and Mrs. C. N. Roberson, treasurer. Devotion was given by Mrs. William Gramkow.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) was created by President Dwight Eisenhower.

Faculty Downs Girls In U F Benefit Tilt

Sanford Junior High Future Homemakers of America girls basketball team fell to the Sanford Junior High women's faculty 18-12 Friday night in a United Fund benefit game.

The F.H.A. coaches, with the support of most of the 1,000 spectators on their side, took off to a 3-1 lead halfway through the first period. Then, with a determined effort by Betty Watson, the faculty took a 6-5 lead despite the younger girls comeback try, led by Beth Secord.

At the beginning of the second half, the teachers took off on a scoring spree and went into the final frame with a big 14-8 lead. The faculty team was rapidly losing their fine edge however, as their substitutions were getting closer together. A steady pressure was built up by the Future Homemakers in the third period and things were looking like the teachers in the last quarter.

John Repp put in two field goals to boost the F.H.A. score to 12-12 in the final frame, but the teachers, paced by their physical education mentors, Laverne Sweeney and Betty Watson put the game on ice and from the ball a final score by the faculty before the final whistle gave the Teachers an 18-12 win.

Leading the "Puffing Professors" were Miss Laverne Sweeney, Betty Watson, Carol Dean, Mary Jo Stagnolo, Mrs. Betsy Rosell, Kay Buehler, Erma Jernigan, Karen Warner, Sandy Jones, Pat Helms and Shirley Secord.

Midway in the initial period, George Gordon scored on a 22-yard jump to put the Panthers on the scoreboard. There was no further scoring in the period as both teams were unable to move into pay dirt.

Late in the second stanza, Gordon scored his second touchdown of the night on a nine-yard run.

The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard early in the final period, and tried valiantly to overtake the Panthers.

Halfback Pat Higgs dashed 42 yards for a touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter Friday night to break a scoreless tie and give Oak Ridge a 7-0 victory over the Lyman Greyhounds in a non-conference match in Orlando.

The host Pioneers broke the tie in the tough defensive battle when linebacker Mike McCormick recovered a fumble on the Oak Ridge 42-yard line. Higgs converted both of the extra points and at the end of the first quarter, the Lions held a 7-0 lead.

Crystal River accidentally got its first score in the opening moments of the second quarter on a 68-yard punt return by Danny Wells. The extra point was kicked by Higgs and the Lions held the lead 14-0.

On the first play of the final period, Higgs broke loose from several Lyman tacklers and moved through the secondary yard after yard to score the second and final touchdown of the game.

The Greyhounds, losers for the third time in four games, were once again unable to score on their own mistakes. Coach Dick Copeland's gridiron lost the ball on fumbles and once on pass interceptions. They also lost 55 yards on penalties.

Lyman's stubborn defense managed to contain the Pioneers most of the night. Oak Ridge clicked offensively only twice in the contest. Once a 23-yard pass to Higgs from Randy Rowan in the second quarter and later on Higgs scoring run.

On the other hand, the Lyman offense was unable to mount a successful drive, fumbling away every scoring opportunity. Jim Lucas, in his first start at quarterback, completed 5 of 7 passes and rushed four times for 33 yards.

Fullback Hank Tulp and halfback Simon Harper led Oviedo to its third victory Friday night as they rolled over Crystal River 27-0. What was to be a tough test turned out to be a routine of the Pirates by the Mighty Lions. Crystal River couldn't manage to get the ball anywhere as the Lions controlled the ball all the way.

Oviedo got on the scoreboard first with a 39-yard run by Harper in the first quarter. The Lions came back in the final minutes of the first quarter to score again on a seven-yard scamper by Hank Tulp. Higgs converted both of the extra points and at the end of the first quarter, the Lions held a 14-0 lead.

Clash With LSU Scheduled

FLORIDA (AP) — For the first time this season, the unbeaten Florida Gators probably will be underdogs to week 10 at Southwestern Conference activity at Louisiana State.

"It's a trip no team likes to make," said Florida Coach Larry Shivers. "The fact that Florida is in Baton Rouge, this is particularly true when it looks like LSU is getting its offense into high gear after losing its regular quarterback, Nelson Stogdole."

But grapes is by no means a convincing argument for the team's chances of pulling off a surprise victory. "The best thing about this team is they never lose their poise," the coach said. "They always feel they can come back and win."

It was the way they approached the final 12 minutes of week 9 at North Carolina State Saturday, trailing 10-3, they went to work for two touchdowns and a 17-10 victory by mechanical fashion.

After the first touchdown, with nine minutes left, Florida went for a one-point conversion and tied the score 10-10 rather than the 10-11 that would have led. "It was just a decision we had to make, and we made it," Graves explained.

Richard Trapp, who caught his fifth touchdown pass of the year, made a great effort to shove two takers on the 21-yard play, which won the game with 3:07 left on the clock.

With the incentive of preserving their winning streak, the Gators may rise to the peak of their first two games at LSU. They have whipped the Tigers in their home late twice since Graves became Florida's coach in 1960 and have won over them the past two years.

Hip Swinger Namath Loses Winning Step

By UPI

The short, happy football life of Joe Namath was jolted by the harsh realities of tough times Sunday-like the ones so often a part of the long, tedious life of George Blanda.

Namath, the hip swinger on the New York scene who is the glamor boy of the American Football League, has enjoyed all the hollywood this season while piloting the New York Jets to the best mark in the league.

But Sunday it all went wrong for the celebrated $400,000 quarterback while the scuffed-up Blanda, a showman veteran of 17 years of the up and down grind of pro football that has known, shown he still hasn't lost it at age 38.

Suffering through his worst day as a pro Namath had four passes intercepted and failed to get his team in the scoring column as the Houston Oilers, led by Blanda's two touchdowns passes, routed the Jets 24-13.

Averaging a 52-13 humiliation at New York Sept. 18, Houston kept the pressure on Namath throughout and failed to throw inaccurately. Big Ernie Ladd, held out by the Jets in the first quarter for Scott Appleton. But Ladd came on in the final three periods and led the charge on Namath with the other tackle, Pat Holmes, linebacker Al Underwood and end Jim Hayes.

Elsewhere in the AFL, Buffalo held San Diego to a 17-17 tie, Oakland crushed Kansas City 34-13, and Miami finally won its first game with a 24-7 verdict over Denver.

New York's loss combined with Buffalo's tie made it a rare case in the Eastern Division with the Jets at 4-1 and Houston at 2-2, Buffalo 3-3 and Boston 3-3.

City's loss dumped it into second place in the West with a 4-2 mark, while San Diego leads at 4-1. Oakland is an outside shot at 3-3.

New York, which has never won a game in at Houston, got into a quick hole at Houston's first game on the first scrimmage play of the game and Appleton recovered. Three plays later, John Henry Johnson, the race track bet determiner, threw the first Oilers TD.

Blanda then threw a TD pass in the second quarter, but Namath was able to gain 137 yards in the air on just 37 passes. He hit made two of the four Oilers interceptions. Darryl Lamonia, who became noted as Jack Kemp's replacement, threw a 20-yard strike on six different occasions, but never really having the catch. The bombers to push the pigskin across.

The Panthers are now tied for first place with a record of 7 and 2 with the Charleston Rockets, who're in Orlando this Saturday at 8 p. m.

Coach Moss indicated that the Panther line-up will be vastly changed prior to this important contest at the Tangerine Bowl.

Return To Glory For The Packer Gridiron Golden Boys

United Press International

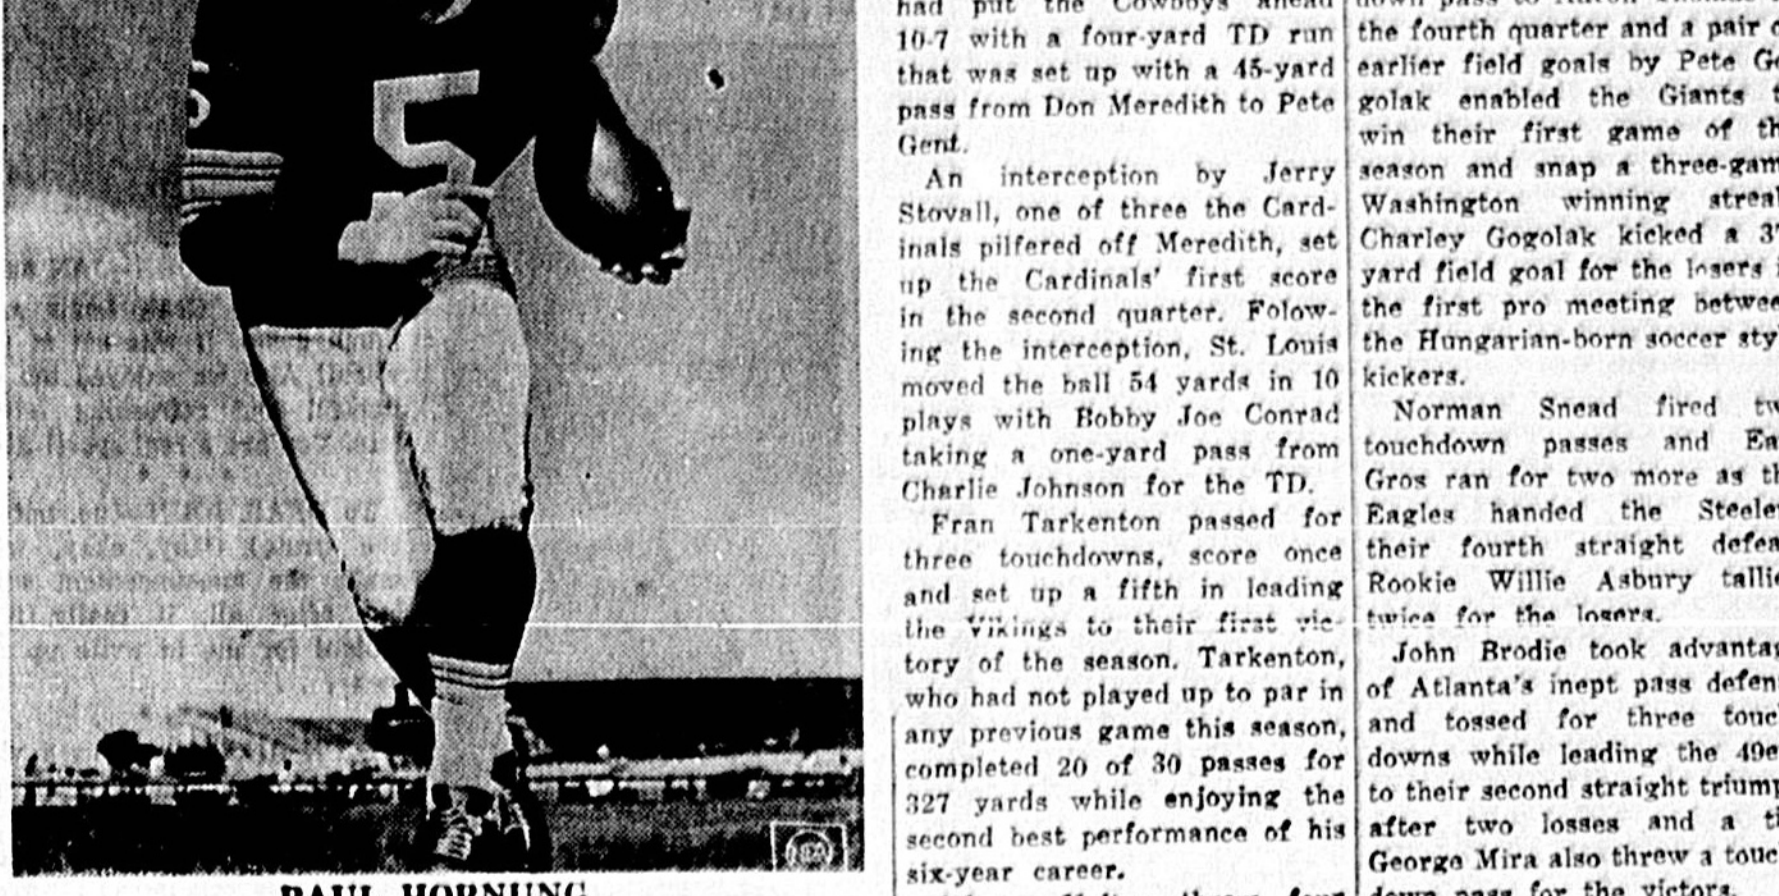

Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor remembered what it means to be a star, but Bob Hayes forgot for just a moment.

Hornung and Taylor, whom experts said were slowing down to a walk, ran with their old verve and power Sunday to lead the Green Bay Packers to a 17-0 victory over the Chicago Bears, while the speedy Hayes committed a rare blunder that cost the Dallas Cowboys a victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in the leading National Football games.

The culture of Hornung and Taylor to run like their old selves in the last two games had given coach Vince Lombardi the idea of benching his two stars in favor of youngsters Danny Anderson and Jim Gramowski. But because of the importance of the game, Lombardi turned to his veterans and the psychology paid off as each man turned in an exceptional game.

Things didn't go quite so well for Hayes, who had starred in each of the Cowboys' four previous victories. The talented pass receiver fumbled a fair catch on a punt late in the fourth quarter to set up a 37-yard field goal by the Cardinals' Jim Bakken that produced a 10-10 tie and cost the Cowboys a chance for sole possession of first place in the Eastern Conference.

In other action, Minnesota downed Los Angeles 33-7, Baltimore defeated Detroit 45-14, New York upset Washington 13-10, Philadelphia whipped Pittsburgh 30-14 and San Francisco routed Atlanta 44-7.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I would like your opinion of a 71-year-old man who has a wife, six living children (all married), and 21 grandchildren. He seems to be enamored of a 21-year-old student nurse? He was recently hospitalized and she was with him then. He writes her letters and even includes little love poems which he copies out of a book. He gets plenty of love from his family who all love him very much. What do you think about this? CONCERNED WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Don't worry. It's all in grandpa's head. When the 21-year-old nurse starts sending HIM love poems, you'll have something to be concerned about.

DEAR ABBY: What exactly is an alcoholic? My wife says she is not an alcoholic because she never drinks until after four in the morning. She says all alcoholics start drinking in the morning and they drink all day. My wife drinks every day, starting at four o'clock. I don't think she will take a couple of drinks before dinner.

DEAR ABBY: I hope you won't think me ungrateful, but my problem is a husband who buys me too expensive gifts. We are on a limited budget, and I am the one who has to cut the corners and balance it when we are short. I know my husband wants to please me, but every time I open one of his gifts, my heart sinks. I love the guy for what he is, not for what he gives me. How can I get that thru his head?

On special occasions, I give him something reasonable like a dollar tie and a cute card, but he doesn't take the hint. Any suggestions?

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem with my 17-year-old son. He is an alcoholic? My wife says she is not an alcoholic because she never drinks until after four in the morning. She says all alcoholics start drinking in the morning and they drink all day. My wife drinks every day, starting at four o'clock. I don't think she will take a couple of drinks before dinner.

DEAR POLLY: When my father dines in a restaurant that has picturesque or unusual place names, he makes a practice of asking for an extra one which they are usually willing, if not eager, to supply. He uses the name of that place in the next morning while still drunk. Today's hand illustrates one of these strange safety tricks.

DEAR POLLY: My children have come up with the following "straw" magic. If the front teeth are sensitive to hot and cold drinks, use a drinking straw. Also, if you are in a hurry to lunch and the kids dawdle over their soup, let them drink the soup through a plastic drinking straw. There will be no mess and the soup goes down quickly.—MRS. C.L.L.

Fall Promotion Campaign Set Up For Deltona

By MILDRED HANEY
Mackie Bros. division of the Deltona Corporation is planning an extensive fall promotion campaign aimed at increasing home sales in Deltona.

In order to better equip personnel of the northern branch, the corporation is providing them detailed information concerning house construction and many other aspects of community building.

Some 40 of the northern agencies in the area are presently being held in daily sessions at the Little Red School House, Community Center and Deltona Inn.

In one session, the salesmen will be joined by sales managers from their respective agencies in a combined session.

Purpose of this joint session is to provide latest sales techniques and complete product knowledge to better serve the northern clients.

The sales managers will then remain for a three day school, including administrative and financing details.

The promotion campaign will be launched by a large scale cooperative advertising program aimed at bringing qualified house buyers on eight day bus trips to Deltona for the purpose of inspecting and selecting homes of their choice.

The present schedule calls for 18 of these bus groups on consecutive weeks starting late in October and continuing through the winter months. A goal of 120 house sales per month has been established and it is confidently expected that this goal will be attained.

One of the guest speakers at the first session was R. F. Shelden, Sanford, manager of Southern Bell Telephone Company, who spoke on the rapid growth of Deltona and the present phone service and the plans the Southern Bell has for future expansion.

AROUND THE CLOCK
BY LARRY VERSHEL THROUGH THE PICTURE FILE

This is what happened after I asked this charming lady how much her son makes as public official.

Here I am running to be the first across the new Osteen Bridge when it is built.

This is my friend at the Humane Society getting the word on how much was collected from last week's circus. Proceeds netted close to $1,800 but after expenses the society got less than $300.

Here's how I looked after visiting Indian Mound out by the Osteen Bridge. . . . When is the County Commission going to clean this up? Weeds all over the place and it's a disgrace. Many cub scout troops plan to visit the mound but leaders are ashamed to take them now.

Here's how I looked before I was dunked at the Joycee Carnival Saturday.

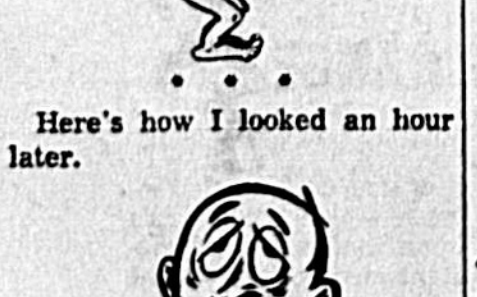

Here's how I looked an hour later.

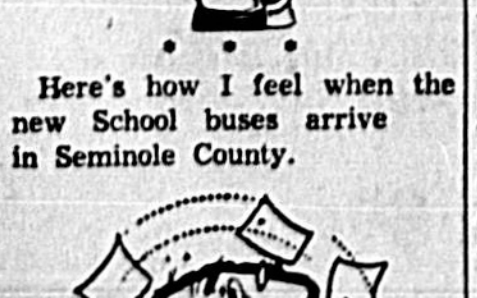

Here's how I feel when the new School buses arrive in Seminole County.

County Says No On More CD Funds

The County Commission refused today to amend its 18 day old budget to allocate additional funds to the local civil defense unit to permit training of a new radiological officer.

Herbert Johnson, civil defense director requested the additional funds to add Jack Keim of Mattland to his staff pointing out that Keim is a teacher and could instruct and train shelter managers following his attendance at special training classes next week.

Johnson estimated expense of Keim's attending the classes in per diem allowance would be approximately $100.

Motion by Commissioner Lawrence Swafford to amend the budget failed.

No action was taken by the commission on the proposal of Frank Brown and Company of Miami to conduct a survey of the county's water supply.

Commission Chairman John Alexander gave the opinion that the board apparently feels it is unwise to amend the budget to provide new expenditures only 18 days into the fiscal year. In other business, the board:

Authorized transfer of $3,000 in unexpended funds from the 1965-66 budget of the health department to the contingency fund of the new budget;

Stated its willingness to participate with the city of Longwood on building of a road from the city center to SR 434 as soon as the board receives some notice from the city as to its intentions;

Accepted for maintenance Kings Road in Midway-Canaan; Authorized purchase of an acre for the county road department at expenditure of $20,000;

Agreed to permit Richard Rogers of the Planning and Zoning Board to attend the PACES conference in Tallahassee Oct. 27, 28 and 29 with expense for meals to be paid on regular per diem basis;

Adopted resolutions stating appreciation of the county to the citizens who donated rights of way for the I-4 interchange at Lake Mary and the Lake Mary Boulevard access to it and proclaimed the week of Oct. 24-29 as Voter Information Week at request of the provisional League of Women Voters of Seminole County and Oct. 25 as Democratic Women's Day in the county;

Passed a resolution for reciprocity agreements to recognize certificates of master plumbers and journeymen who had passed the H. H. Block exam;

Rescinded property west and south of the intersection of old and new SR 438 from A-1 to C-1 and property west of Sanford at the intersection of U.S. 1 and SR 15 from A-1 to C-1.

Completion Expected In 60 Days

Bulkheading of the 13-acre landfill area of the Lake Monroe marina is proceeding rapidly with approximately 500 feet of concrete piling now in place on the west side of the neck of the T-shaped land area.

Indications are that construction crews will start installing the bulkhead along the east side of the neck before beginning to work around the top of the "T".

With the piles down, "grouting" (filling in the spaces between the pilings) will begin and forms will be constructed for pouring of the "cap" or top of the piling. This cap will be two feet wide and 18 inches deep, according to plans.

There has been a temporary halt in dredging operations by Bray Dredging Company of Winter Park on pumping in the hydraulic fill for the dike which will hold the breakwater to be constructed to the east of the landfill area.

There has been a temporary halt in dredging operations by Bray Dredging Company of Winter Park on pumping in the hydraulic fill for the dike which will hold the breakwater to be constructed to the east of the landfill area.

Indications are that construction crews will start installing the bulkhead along the east side of the neck before beginning to work around the top of the "T".

With the piles down, "grouting" (filling in the spaces between the pilings) will begin and forms will be constructed for pouring of the "cap" or top of the piling. This cap will be two feet wide and 18 inches deep, according to plans.
