Men Abandon Idea For Park As Horses Win

Two Orlando and Winter Park businessmen who recently figured in a proposal to build an open-air amusement center on Lake Monroe have gone into the harness horse training business at Casselberry.

W. R. Kemp and Richard Sodero, is leasing the Azalea Driving Park for 35 years, announced that the plant will be renamed Seminole Park and will operate on a year-round basis.

Strolling In Sanford

A general business discussion featured the weekly luncheon meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce today at the Yacht Club.

A proud grandfather told the stroller that this actually happened. Six-year-old Jackie was visiting relatives in the country for the first time. Everything he beheld was new and exciting to him. Toward sunset of the second day he stood in open-eyed wonderment watching his grandmother plucking a chicken. After a bit, his curiosity aroused, he asked very seriously, "Grandma, do you have to take their clothes off every night?"

Which came first this yoke or that? At least Mary King, cook at Fausta Drug Store might be asking herself that question. As she broke a medium size egg open this morning what should appear not one yoke but four . . . when asked what she did with the oddity she replied: "Why, I threw it in the trash it looked so funny. It kinda scared me. We'll bet it did, Mary . . . But think of the poor chicken!

Pilot Apologizes To Startled London For Sudden Burst

LONDON (AP)—A test pilot who startled Londoners out of their sleep with an unscheduled burst through the sound barrier apologized last night for the stir he caused.

Early Tuesday Dickie Martin was test-flying a twin-jet delta-winged Javelin over London at a routine 700 miles an hour.

Suddenly his oxygen tube got tangled in the parachute harness. The plane swerved, gathered speed and rocketed through the sound barrier.

Flustered Londoners phoned police that a bomb had gone off. Sailors on the Thames prepared to abandon ships, convinced the bombers had burst. Scotland Yard made extensive inquiries but could find no explanation.

The Gloster Aircraft Co. finally got in touch with the Air Ministry to explain what had happened and relay Martin's apologies.

Investigators Call For Wenzell Info Regarding His Role

WASHINGTON (AP)—Investigating senators called for testimony today from Adolph H. Wenzell about his role—said by President Eisenhower to have been an entirely proper one—in Dixon-Yates contract talks.

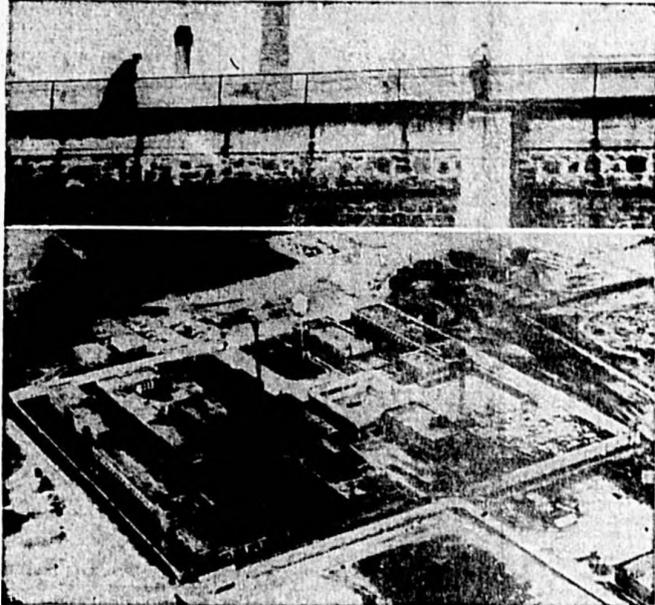

Wenzell served for a time as a consultant to the Budget Bureau while still a vice president of the First Boston Corp., which later became financial agent for the Dixon-Yates utility group.

Administration officials have repeatedly said Wenzell did not influence the contract but merely served as an adviser on financing. Eisenhower said at a news conference yesterday Wenzell's role was proper.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.), however, opined there may have been a law violation in Wenzell's dual capacity.

Kefauver, an opponent of the Dixon-Yates plan, heads the Judiciary subcommittee on monopoly matters which asked Wenzell to testify.

"SHOWBOAT FLOODED" WARWICK, R. I. (AP)—The unusual presentation "Showboat" had to be canceled last night because of too much water. The show flooded the orchestra pit and ran into the tank.

GUARDS AT THE Washington State Penitentiary (top), Walla Walla, Wash., are shown watching prisoners on the inside of the prison as rioting convicts held seven hostages and controlled half of the prison. The riot, touched off by 33 hardened criminals armed with knives and razor blades, swept through the penitentiary. The rioters beat one officer and took eight other hostages but later released the injured man and another guard. At bottom is an air view of the penitentiary. (International)

Final Immunization Clinic For Youths Slated Tomorrow

The final immunization clinic for Seminole County first and second graders who have not received their second shot of polio vaccine will be held tomorrow at the County Health Unit, Dr. Terry Bird, County Health Officer, announced. The clinic will begin at 9 a. m.

Dr. Bird said he had been advised by the State Health Department that the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis had recalled all unused vaccine. Any vaccine left after tomorrow's clinic will be returned Monday or Tuesday, he said.

Only 828 of the 1,546 first and second shot, Dr. Bird reported first shot have been given the second shot, Dr. Bird reported. He said the Health Unit had enough vaccine left to immunize 600 of the remaining 718.

Efforts Being Made To Help Conditions

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Rep. Gleaton of Citrus County says many Florida restaurants are not observing sanitation laws and he doubts the hotel and restaurant commission is making proper efforts "to correct these bad conditions."

His protest was made in a letter to Gov. Collins. "I do not think that the hotel and restaurant commission is making a half effort to correct these bad conditions," Gleaton said. "I suggest to you, sir, that if the present commission cannot correct these conditions, you as governor make some changes in this department."

He complained some restaurants are full of flies and have restrooms "in such filthy condition as to be unusable. These places in my opinion have not been inspected in years."

Simultaneously Chinese Nationalists said two Red air bases which would bring Formosa and offshore islands within easy striking distance of Communist jets were about completed.

The visiting officers are Gen. Laurence S. Kutar, commander of the Far East Air Force in Japan; Maj. Gen. Sory Smith, chief of the Pacific Air Command in Pearl Harbor; and Brig. Gen. William L. Lee, commander of the U. S. 13th Air Force in the Philippines.

In addition to the Red buildup, they will discuss operating problems of the U. S. air task force on Formosa.

Full Disclosure Of Names Called

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-N.H.), today called for a "full disclosure of all the names" of U. S. officials Burma Premier U. Nu contends do not oppose sending Communist China in the United Nations.

Announced by U. Nu's statement that responsible Washington officials feel Red China's admission to the U. N. is simply a question of timing, Bridges said in an interview.

"If there are any such responsible officials as U. Nu claims, let him name them."

California Law Student Awaits Arraignment On Murder Charges

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Law Student John R. Crocker Jr. awaited arraignment today on murder charges for the death of auburn-haired socialite Norma McArthur.

Police say Crocker, 31, confessed he stabbed Mrs. McCauley, 33, and garrotted her with her own stole after she fell asleep while he begged for a reconciliation.

She was found dead Tuesday morning, the bloody stole knotted about her neck.

Crocker, who was a houseboy in the attractive divorcee's home when he was attending the University of California at Los Angeles, confessed.

Detectives quoted him as saying: "We talked about an hour, with my trying to get her to come back to me. She either went to sleep or pretended to go to sleep on the chair lounge.

"When I tried to wake her up to continue our talks, I could not arouse her and this increased me. I started to choke her with both hands and she started to scream. I put my left hand over her mouth to muffle her scream and reached into my coat pocket for a knife I had found earlier."

He said he stabbed her, made sure she was dead and then left, taking money from her purse.

Crocker was married in 1948 to Mrs. Marian Crocker. They separated three years ago.

Mrs. Crocker, 42, said the last time she saw her husband was a month ago when he visited their son, 5, and daughter, 3.

Niblack of Daytona Beach; 15 grandchildren; 13 great grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Georgia Sligh, Ocoee; and Mrs. Ada Pike, Miami.

We are going to keep on doing everything we can to keep her. We can only play a defensive role and try to counter the attacks of those who are trying to take her."

No Trace Of Ship Is Found

No Reply Offered By Coast Guard

NEW YORK (AP)—A radio message relayed to the Coast Guard said today a fishing boat with 21 persons aboard was sinking off the New Jersey coast. Seven hours later no trace of the vessel or survivors could be found, indicating a possible hoax.

Asked if the message and subsequent ones might have been a hoax, the Coast Guard would only say they were proceeding on the basis the messages were authentic.

The first message reported the boat had struck a mysterious object, caught fire and began to sink. A subsequent message reported survivors were being taken aboard a submarine which was "not an American."

The Eastern Sea Frontier said an American submarine was 35 miles from the scene but it had no report of the mishap.

First report of the mishap came from the fishing boat, Blue Star, at 2:30 a. m. At 3:40 a. m. the tugboat Nancy Moran said it picked up this message from the Blue Star.

"A submarine is surfacing about 350 yards from us. It is coming alongside. It is proceeding to take survivors aboard. It is not an American submarine."

There was speculation that the submarine might be a craft of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization some of which are stationed at Norfolk, Va.

The Blue Star said it struck the object in the water some 30 miles off Barnegat, N. J.

Planes and other rescue vessels reached the scene of the reported mishap at 7:30 a. m. said they found no trace of either ship or passengers.

The Coast Guard said there are three boats by the name of Blue Star listed on the Eastern seaboard and two on the West Coast.

New Converts Won For Package Plan In Florida House

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The rescheduled package reappointment program won new converts in the House today but sponsors appeared inclined to hold off starting the big push for adoption until sentiment jells more.

The plan, which consists of two bills and a constitutional amendment, was rejected 62-32 by the House last month.

However, influential representatives who originally opposed it said they now looked upon it as the only proposal a night with possibilities of breaking the 33-day deadlock.

Sen. Carraway of Tallahassee and Barber of Vero Beach are getting names of cosponsors in the Senate and Rep. Murray of Polk County is seeking pledges of support in the House.

Carraway and Barber said the measures will be introduced simultaneously in both houses when there are sufficient assurances of approval.

Capt. E. Wagner Arrives At Base To Assume Post

Capt. E. O. Wagner, commander of Heavy Attack Wing 1, arrived at the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station yesterday afternoon. His staff has been moving in for the past several weeks.

Captain Wagner graduated from the Naval Academy in 1910 and completed flight training at Pensacola shortly afterward. Previous to his present assignment, he was chief of staff to Admiral Hickey, commander of Carrier Division 8 in Korean Waters.

Heavy Attack Wing 1 is the Navy's all-weather atomic attack force.

MRS. GEORGE OTTO, Longwood President of the Florida State Home Demonstration Council.

Big Tests Planned On Copper Sulphate To Fight Red Tide

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Copper sulphate will be tested this fall on a big scale as a means of combating the fish-killing red tide if it crops up in the Gulf of Mexico.

Albert Collier of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service reported the plan at a conference with members of the legislative red tide committee. He said the chemical will be stockpiled in Naples, Fort Myers, Sarasota and St. Petersburg for use against the minute organism which periodically turns the waters of the Gulf a tawny hue and kills millions of fish.

The legislators also were told the University of Miami's marine laboratory plans a study cruise this month to seek more information on the cause of the red tide.

The research vessel will leave from Naples, journey north to a point off Apalachicola and return by way of the Dry Tortugas.

The legislators will meet with red tide researchers every two months to keep abreast of developments and frame recommendations for submission to the 1957 Legislature.

Old North Church Sports New Spire Just Like Original

BOSTON, Mass. (AP)—Old North Church, from whose steeple hung the lanterns warning Paul Revere of the approach of the British, has a new spire today—the exact reproduction of the original.

The new steeple was raised yesterday. Hurricane Carol had toppled the earlier spire on Aug. 31, 1954.

The rebuilt structure has the original window from which hung the lanterns for Paul Revere on April 18, 1775. The window and other ancient woodwork were salvaged from the storm wreckage.

The assembled steeple was hoisted into place with a huge crane. As workmen bolted it down, Vicar Charles Russell Peck rang the church bells to announce the restoration.

Stevenson Strikes At School System

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai Stevenson says President Eisenhower promised the American school system "some prompt effective help" 2 1/2 years ago, "but nothing has been done."

The 1952 Democratic presidential nominee attacked Eisenhower's program of school aid in a speech last night to the National Education Assn.

Stevenson quoted President Eisenhower as saying just after he assumed office: "Our school system demands some prompt effective help."

"Instead of 'prompt effective help' Stevenson added, 'we await a conference on education to be held at the White House next fall.

What Is Leisure?

In Aspen, Colorado, recently, members of the International Design Conference discussed the problem of leisure time, or rather, they interpreted leisure time as a problem. They rightly assumed that more people have more time, but whether it's correct to assume it is more time in which to do nothing is a debatable point.

People are using well and happily, that "nothing" time. They are traveling. They are seeing this country and so many have gone abroad that tourists in search of European "natives" are howling that Americans are cluttering the continent.

What else are people doing? They're painting. Art schools, night schools and adult education programs report classes are full of people dabbling with considerable skill with brush and paint.

They're doing-it-themselves from pantry to parlor, and the enjoyment derived from this home-style entertainment and education needs no detailed description.

They are reading. They attend lectures and study courses.

This is only the beginning of a long list anyone can make, not of what people could do, but what people are doing.

The designers in Aspen who predicted a twenty year adjustment to increased leisure

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

I am meek and lovely in heart.—Matt. 11:29.—The humblest sinner may approach the throne in complete assurance of a perfect welcome. God is like the father that welcomes his prodigal son who had wasted his substance and his future. The father is looking for us now.

Young Girl Wants To Be Serious

NEW YORK (U)—She is just a young girl far from home trying to make good in a strange country. And Dilys Lay has made good on the roughest street in America—Broadway. But not in the way she wanted to.

"All my life I've wanted to be glamorous and languid and—above all—to be taken seriously," sighed the Welsh lass, digging into a plate of luncheon eggs with the hearty air of a young woman.

"And what do people call me? Cule—well, if it's cute they want me to be, it's cute I'll be. But I'd like once to be taken seriously. Even my friends call me Dilys."

Dilys made an instantaneous hit last fall as a giddy young flapper in "The Boy Friend," a musical which kids the skirts off life in the gay and memorable 1920s.

Playgoers found a Peter Pan quality in the vibrant little visitor, time have somehow missed the hurry and scurry of people being anything but leisurely with their extra time.

The Lattimore Case

The government acknowledges defeat in the Lattimore case. Owen Lattimore, professor at Johns Hopkins University and an authority on the Far East, was twice indicted for allegedly testifying falsely that he was not a Communist. Twice the essential parts of the indictment were thrown out by Federal Judge Luther W. Youngdahl, and twice his decision was essentially upheld by the Court of Appeals. Now Attorney-General Brownell announces that there is little likelihood of a conviction on what remains of the indictment.

The government's case came close to trying a man for his opinions. It would have been hard to prove its statement that Lattimore sympathized with Communism, and so vague was the statement that it would have been hard for him to refute it. The courts therefore threw the indictment out as too indefinite for a court case.

Partisan denunciation has confused the issues. Lattimore is left in the position that the government thinks he is a Communist, but cannot prove it. He is thus the victim of an innuendo which he and his friends call a libel.

Where Do We Go Next?

Cars, cars and yet more cars. Most people have an impression from their own observation that there are more cars than usual on the roads. Sometimes they think it may be the bright colors of the new models that convey the idea of an unusual number. The figures, however, show that this explanation does not tell the whole story. There really are more cars.

This year 4,000,000 new cars had been manufactured by June 20. In 1950, year of the largest previous production, that figure was not attained until late August. It is estimated that the year's total will reach 7,000,000. There were 6,665,000 new cars made in 1950.

The least curious person must occasionally wonder where all this will end. Downtown districts are becoming so congested that merchants lose customers. Are our cities going to be blighted by the abundance of mass transportation?

They do not need to be. Surely something sensible can be done about roads and parking before it is too late.

'Giant Brain' Really Quite Stupid

NEW YORK (U)—Those big electronic computers, called the "giant brain," have run into a bottleneck—a shortage of human brains to tell them what to do.

If the truth be known, a giant brain is really quite stupid. It does only what it is told.

A big brain like Sperry Rand Corp.'s UNIVAC or International Business Machine Co.'s model 702 has the computing ability of 25,000 trained mathematicians. It can remember enough information to fill an 1,825-page Manhattan telephone directory, perform logical

TAMES MARLOW

Intergovernment Issues Studied

WASHINGTON (U)—The first intensive study since the constitutional convention of 1787 on relations between the federal government and the states has just been completed.

The job was done by a 25-man group set up under the direction of President Eisenhower and called the Commission on Intergovernmental Relations. Appointed in 1933, it has just reported to Eisenhower.

The reason for its creation had its roots in a problem which has plagued this country from the beginning of powers between the federal government and the states.

The problem has become increasingly acute since depression days and the advent of the New Deal, which widened federal control over the citizen while at the same time giving them new benefits and protections.

Some, but not all, of what the federal government has done might have been done by the states if they had either the willingness or the financial resources.

So the special commission tried to examine the whole picture and make recommendations on what the states should do and what the federal government should do so that the latter would not eventually become all-powerful and dominant.

The commission made some specific recommendations. For example: education is the states' job and there should not be any general federal aid to education; the federal government should be in full control of civil defense.

In short the commission suggested less government from Washington, more government to states and local communities. But at this point the report was at its weakest since the commission could only suggest ideas and can't enforce them.

It recommended states and local communities do more for themselves and rely less on the federal government. How can it be done? That's up to the states to do for themselves.

Since what the government does for the people as a whole costs money, there is the endless temptation in the states, which don't want to spend money if they can help it, to let the federal government do the job. Each time that happens more power is centralized in Washington.

As an example of the complexity and interlocking of the whole government structure in this country, the "local government index" of the United States discloses a maze of approximately 10,000 governmental units, many of them overlapping.

"The figure includes some 3,000 counties, 17,000 incorporated municipalities, 17,000 towns and townships, 60,000 independent school districts, and 12,000 special districts."

Vietnam Minister Claims Government Accepts Principle

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (U)—Vietnamese Foreign Minister Vo Van Mau said Wednesday his government accepts the principle of an election next year to unify Viet Nam but only if it is a free ballot, held under the direction of the United Nations.

Mau's declaration was the first official statement by a member of Premier Ngo Dinh Diem's Cabinet on the election, which the French armistice last July specified should be held throughout North and South Viet Nam not later than July 1955.

The official Viet Nam press agency said Mau voiced his stand to a visiting group from the Moral Rearmament movement.

There had been speculation recently that Diem would refuse to join in the voting on the ground that the Red government in the North would not really permit free elections.

at all. The daily fight with the stone city is over until tomorrow morning and they are standing there in numb, relaxed, comatose peace—feeling, sensing... but not thinking.

The lines are secured, the plane is down, and you troop away through the long pier building. Luckily, you spy a taxicab and make for it and already the gentleness of the twilight is ending and the brightness of the fever of the city night has begun. Behind you the City of Keansburg heaves once, and the leaves of memory slip for a final moment and then settle down, motionless.

Conservation News

By Ben Wiggins.

Next Tuesday, July 12, an election will be held to elect two supervisors to serve on the governing board of the Seminole Soil Conservation District. The present terms of supervisors Ralph Hammond and George Harden expire on that date. Mr. Harden and Mr. Hammond have devoted much of their spare time in promoting the conservation and wise use of our land, water, and other natural resources during their terms of office.

Mr. Harden does not desire to run again; however, his son Spencer has agreed to serve as supervisor if elected.

In addition to Spencer, three other candidates: W. W. Lens, W. A. Lefler Jr., and Ralph Hammond have each been petitioned by 25 or more local landowners to serve as a supervisor for this district. The polling places for next Tuesday's election: Lyman School in Longwood, Oviedo, Gardner's Store in Lake Monroe and the Chamber of Commerce Building in Sanford. Any resident qualified to vote in the general elections under the constitution and Statutes of Florida, who is also a landowner within the district, is qualified to vote. According to Secretary Bill West there are plenty of ballots and a good turnout of landowners is anticipated.

Soil conservation districts are organized by landowners for their benefit and for the benefit of all the people in the district. Seminole County is a soil conservation district. There are now 64 such districts in the State of Florida.

Districts are a sub-division of state government and operate under state laws. They have self-determination and are not controlled by arm-chair theorists or any pressure group, but operated through the unselfish leadership of five local landowners. These supervisors are elected by local landowners. The district supervisors need technical help to carry out their program of soil and water conservation, and through a memorandum of understanding with the Department of Agriculture, technicians are assigned to districts to help farmers plan and establish needed conservation measures under guidance of District Supervisors.

What does all this mean to the individual landowner? When a farmer asks his district for help supervisors may be requested, and the Soil Conservation Service then makes a survey of his farm. This survey shows the various types or classes of soil on the farm, the best use and capability of each class of soil, whether the land needs drainage or irrigation, and lots of other important things a farmer should know about his land.

The owner and the technician go over the entire farm. They study the land capabilities or natural abilities of the land. The farmer tells the technician the kind of farming he would like to do and the technician discusses with him the capacity of his land to do that kind of farming. Together they work out a conservation plan for every acre of the farm.

This is strictly a voluntary program. The fine thing about it is that the district program sells itself. When a farmer sees his neighbor making better crops and more income as a result of good land use and water management, he is ready to get in himself.

Regardless of where you live or what you do, we urge you to be a good citizen. Get acquainted with your district program and the individual supervisors who serve you. Then, go to the polls on July 12 and cast your vote, remembering your conservation program will be only as good as you—the people.

If Child Swallows a Poison

By NEWMAN H. BOWEN, M.D.

INSPECTOR, left carefully around the house this time of the year, a constant hazard for your children.

You've got to act swiftly if your youngster should swallow a poisonous liquid or powder. Even more important than the proper antidote is immediate emptying of his stomach.

Several Ways
There are several ways you can do this: Give your child a tablespoon of mustard mixed in a glass of warm water, or two tablespoons of salt in a glass of warm water, or a glass of soapy water.

Much faster and quicker, however, is the simple procedure of sticking your finger down his throat.

Place your foot face down on a towel in a kneeling position. Hold his head with your right hand and move the ball of your left index finger along the roof of his mouth and then down the back of his throat. If you don't want to use your finger, you can substitute a blunt spoon handle.

Support Facebook
When he begins to vomit, place his head at least eight to ten inches lower than his hips. You can use your left arm to support his forehead. If he begins choking, this will prevent him from breathing any of the vomited material into his lungs.

Your child may gag and retch but bring up little. If this happens, give him a cup or two of milk to swallow rapidly and then try to make him vomit again.

One warning: Don't make your youngster vomit if he has swallowed a strong corrosive substance such as ammonia, lye or washing soda. In such cases vomiting might injure his esophagus and stomach.

COMMON SENSE ANSWER
R. R.: Why do I have weakness and numbness in my legs when I smoke?
Answer: The weakness and numbness in the legs may be due to blood vessel spasm which can occur in persons who smoke excessively. On the other hand, there may be no relationship between the weakness and numbness and the smoking. A careful examination by your physician is advisable.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A PHILADELPHIA correspondent tells us of a business man who left his car in front of a hydrant with this note attached to the wheel: "I know I have parked illegally, but my whole business future depends on my getting to my office instantly. Forgive us our trespasses. B. F."

When he climbed back into his car two hours later he found a parking violation ticket, with another note which read: "My future also depends on my nailing illegal parkers. Lead us not into temptation. Motorcycle Officer J.A."

On a TV quiz program, a sailor bragged that his girl had the most beautiful legs in San Diego. "How do you know?" prodded the M.C. The sailor answered simply, "I counted all of them!"

Epitaph on an army colonel's gravestone: "Peace to his husband! And the gravestone of an old railroad conductor queries: "Papa, did you wind your watch?"

David Jerome Is 'Chirp Off Block' In Hines Household

There is always harmony in the Jerome Hines household. Mamma and Papa are opera singers, and little David Jerome is a chirp off the old block.

"He was a year old on Valentine's Day, and already he is singing," says his pretty, petite mother, Lucia Evangelista of New York City Center. "I mean, he follows me with the same pitch."

Hines, young Metropolitan Opera Co. basso, nods. "When he's old enough to sing bass he can have it."

"We don't have a baby-sitting problem like some couples," exclaims Miss Evangelista, who would rather be called Mrs. Hines. "Both our mothers are at home with us."

I don't understand all the fuss about mothers-in-law," says her husband. "We all get along fine. And Lucia and I haven't had an argument in our nearly three years of marriage."

"He's too big. I know I'll lose before I start, so why start?" "How could I fight with HER?" Hines, 6 foot 6 1/2, looks like a man asking how you could beat a soft, cuddly kitten. "But seriously, it's a big help having two opera singers in the family. We understand each other better because we have the same problems. And since we can't sing the same roles—nature having made her a soprano and me a basso, thank heaven—there's no jealousy."

"I depend on her professionally too. I come off the stage and ask her how I did. If she wrinkles her nose, I know what she means."

Mrs. Hines laughs and relates how her husband got started singing. It seems he was asked to drop out of gym club in his Hollywood, Calif. junior high school because he couldn't carry a tune. But at 16, because the pretty girl who lived next door was taking voice lessons, he started too.

At 25 he joined the Met, proving something or other about mind over music. Now, at 33, he sings 30 leading basso roles.

The singers pursue their hobbies in concert—especially spearfishing.

"I'm afraid of sharks and man-eating rays," volunteers Mrs. Hines. "But Jerry's not."

Not long ago I tangled with a 6 foot shark, says Hines. "He was hungry and he wanted the fish I had just speared. Well—I was taller than he was, so he swam away."

He turns to his wife. "I bet David will love spearfishing in a few years. And by that time..." She looks demure. "We want to have one more child—a girl," she says.

"And after the girl, another boy," her husband goes on.

She spitters. "That's easy for you to say."

But in a minute she decides he's hit the right note after all, and she nods. The Hineses are in harmony again.

Tutor Takes Over As Uranium Entices Regular Bus Driver

IDAHO SPRINGS, Colo. — A 41-year-old schoolman took over when the uranium boom enticed a regular bus driver of a school bus serving this mountain area.

After a week's practice, she is wheeling the loaded bus over precarious roads clinging to the sides of the towering Rocky Mountains.

Mrs. Kathryn Griesel, slight dark-eyed widow and mother of two children in their teens, is not native to the mountain terrain. She came here from Indiana on vacation and liked the area so well she stayed to teach school to first graders in Idaho Springs. Recently the regular driver joined the uranium hunt spreading across the state from the rich plateau area of Colorado and Utah. There was no way to get the 30 children over the 36 miles of mountain trails into Idaho Springs for school.

Mrs. Griesel, who rode the bus every day and knew the route but had never driven anything heavier than a car, volunteered to fill in. After a few trips with an instructor, she got a special license and within a week was wheeling the big bus around hair-pin curves like a veteran.

Only once has she failed to make the trip. That was when a howling blizzard blocked all mountain trails in the area. Several times, however, older students had had to help push the clumsy bus out of rough sections on the unimproved road through Beaverbrook Canyon from Pine Valley and other mountain settlements to Idaho Springs.

How do the children like a woman driver? Mrs. Griesel says she, at any rate, has no trouble with rowdiness.

Picnic With Cook-Out Spaghetti

ITS picnic time! The Browns, the Smiths, and the Thompsons, too, are packing baskets with "fun foods" and trotting off to the picnic grounds... or maybe just to the back yard. At this time of year any excuse will do for moving meals to the outdoors.

Cook-Out Spaghetti makes the picnic as much fun for Mom as it for the kiddies. She can prepare the spaghetti at home and tote it to the picnic in a casserole, wrapped in newspapers to keep it hot. Or the gang can gather round the campfire and take turns stirring the spaghetti in a big black kettle.

COOK-OUT SPAGHETTI For 4 1/2 pound ground beef, 1 large green pepper, chopped (2 cups), 1 large onion, chopped (1 cup), 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 cans (1 1/2 cup-size) spaghetti, 1 teaspoon chili powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt. For 24 2 pounds ground beef, 2 medium green peppers, chopped (2 cups), 2 medium onions, chopped (2 cups), 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 8 cans (1-poundounce size) spaghetti, 1 spoonful chili powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Brown ground beef, green pepper, and onion in shortening. Blend in spaghetti, chili powder, and salt; heat thoroughly.

Star Greta Garbo Arrives On Riviera In Usual Manner

CANNES, France (UP)—Greta Garbo arrived on the Riviera today in her usual manner — felt house slippers, slacks, a plain blouse, dark glasses and ducking photographers.

She came ashore from the liner Constitution with a friend identified as Arthur Schlee. Her frequent companion in New York is George Schlee, husband of dress designer Valentina.

Fellow passengers said the former movie queen never left her cabin during the voyage from America.

At the customs office she at first refused to show her passport, surrendering it only after much pleading from Schlee. Spotting a photographer, she ducked back into the customs office until the cameraman disappeared.

Miss Garbo has bought the large villa l'Europe, at Cap d'Al. While it is being repaired, she is staying at the Hotel de Paris in Monte Carlo.

Battling Bessie Has Hard Punch, Appears At Club

By COLIN PROBT
LONDON (AP) — Battling Bessie Braddock, the Labor party 200-pounder with a punch to match, made her night club debut alongside Mariene Dietrich Tuesday night and gold-plated Lady Norah Docker picked up her marbles in fury.

Mariene is being introduced during her current engagement at the swank Cafe de Paris by a different celebrity nightly. Bessie, Laborite member of Parliament and president of the 'Professional' Boxers Assn., was the barter Tuesday.

Lady Docker, booked to bark next week, was on hand for a prurient. When Bessie curled her 50-40-50 frame into a bow, Norah grabbed her multimillionaire husband and her furs and headed for her 101st St. m. m. d. Daimler, squawking "I'm furious."

Lady D. has garnered headlines in the past by entertaining miners on her spouse's yacht and shooting marbles with working girls' clubs. But last night she demanded of the club management:

"How dare you ask me to introduce Dietrich after Mrs. Braddock. You'll never see my face in this place again."

Bessie took the Docker exit calmly and went on with her work. Wearing a dark gray suit and the bronze medalion of a boxer, she told the fashionable audience: "This isn't my way of life." She said she was doing the turn to help British-American relations. She said she'd reciprocate by having Mariene to lunch at the House of Commons next week.

"I've been chasing you for weeks," Mariene told Bessie later. "I just want to get you alone and talk politics with you."

What do a pair of 55-year-olds care about marbles anyway?

Mudgett Will Take Division Command This September

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maj. Gen. Gilman C. Mudgett, Army information chief under Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway and Secretary Robert T. Stevens, will take command of the 6th Infantry Division at Ft. Ord, Calif., in September.

The Army said he will succeed Maj. Gen. Edwin K. Wright who will be eligible for retirement this year.

No successor to Mudgett as chief of information has been named. The Army is seeking a civilian to fill the post in accordance with a decision by Defense Secretary Wilson that the services should replace their military information heads with civilians.

A native of Valley City, N.D., Mudgett served with the 13th Army Medical Division in Europe in World War II. In the Korean War he served successively as assistant chief of staff for operations of the 6th Army, as a member of the Military Armistice Delegation and as assistant chief of staff for the Far East Command. He has been chief of Army information here since November, 1953.

In 1953, the average American consumed 688 pounds of milk, compared to 800 pounds at the beginning of World War II.

The number of farm tractors in Sweden rose from 18,000 in 1939 to 100,000 today.

California Court Upholds Dismissal

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — California's State Supreme Court has upheld the dismissal of Dr. Henry C. Steinmetz from the San Diego State College faculty because he refused to say whether he was a Communist party member.

In a 6-1 decision Tuesday, the court rejected Dr. Steinmetz's request for a writ compelling his reinstatement in the psychology teaching job he had held since 1930. He was discharged in February, 1954.

Chief Justice Phil S. Gibson's majority opinion, upholding constitutionality of the 1953 legislature's "answer-or-be-fired" Luskel Act, declared:

"Loyalty on the part of those in public employment is important to orderly and dependable government and is therefore relevant to fitness for such employment."

Information Act Put Against Man

TAMPA (AP) — An information charging Jerry Lopez, 41, with setting up, promoting and conducting a bolita lottery has been filed by County Solicitor Paul Johnson.

Lopez only last week made a complaint to Mayor Curtis Hixon that he was mistreated by Capt. Walter Heinrich, head of the police gambling squad.

The solicitor said the charge against Lopez resulted from the seizure Saturday of Smalley Palmer, 47, a St. Petersburg Negro, with 2,000 bolita tickets. Palmer was co-charged with Lopez.

Only a few of the southern cities of Canada have annual temperature averages above 40 degrees.

Swedish shipbuilders launched a record 67 ships with a gross tonnage of 58,000 in 1954.

West German Cops Identify Foreigner As Carnak Assassin

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — German police have identified a 34-year-old foreigner as the assassin of a Communist Slovak refugee leader and World War II collaborator with the Nazis.

The 35-year-old minister of culture in wartime Slovakia's present Red government was slain in his home by a 34-pound parcel addressed to his employer in a Munich post office Tuesday.

An aged German housewife also was killed instantly. Thirteen other bystanders were injured.

Police hit a man "political motives." Carnak headed the National Council of Slovaks, which campaigns for Slovakia's independence from the Prague Communist regime.

CIGAR FOR EACH YEAR
COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa (AP) — A cigar for every year of his life. That was Martin Wakehouse's gift from veteran railroad workers who honored his 100th birthday Tuesday.

"We gave him 50 cigars last year and told him he'd get 100 if he'd come to the party this year," said Henry Wendt, president of the local unit of the National Retired and Veteran Railroad Employees Assn.

Concrete Bear Cage Nearing Completion; Other Plans Revealed

Workmen neared completion of a new concrete-block bear cage at the Sanford Zoo today as zoo superintendent Sidney RICHARD announced plans for a long-range improvement program for the popular tourist attraction.

RICHARD said the new cage, measuring 12 by 32 feet, is the type which will eventually replace the old wooden cages which are "impossible to keep clean." He said the wooden cages have been there since the mid-1920s.

Another feature of the new cage, other than an overhead sprinkler system designed to maintain cleanliness, is the fact that heavy wire instead of bars will be used to retain the animals.

"I don't like bars," RICHARD said, "and the wire will provide a better view of the animals." He said the No. 6 wire used on the cage is sufficient to hold a lion. The wire is used at the Jacksonville zoo, he pointed out.

"We are going to try to move in a cub tomorrow and the rest of the bears Monday," RICHARD added.

The zoo was painted not long ago, but RICHARD said there are a lot of other things that must be done before the tourists season begins.

RICHARD said he was still hoping that the Bengal Tiger captured by Gen. James Van Fleet could be transported from Pakistan to the zoo. Gen. Van Fleet presented the tiger to the Pakistan government which in turn presented it to Gov. Collins. The zoo was informed by Collins that it could have the tiger if some means could be found to transport the animal here. The Chamber of Commerce has been active in negotiations to arrange this.

RICHARD said the tiger would be a big asset to the zoo because Bengal tigers are found mainly in the larger cities.

Expansion of the zoo, RICHARD said, is limited for all the available space in use. If the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad would let the zoo have a little land, it could be expanded in the direction of the track he said.

RICHARD ruled out the possibility of placing part of the zoo in the area below the Court House. He said this would be a hazard to children who would be forced to cross the street to see some of the animals.

RICHARD said he planned to "lighten up" the zoo in order to make the fullest possible use of the available land. He added, however, that this does not mean the most will be eliminated.

A NAVAL HELICOPTER search party from the Naval Air Station at Alsteg, Japan, views the wreckage of a P-3 "Fury" jet fighter identified as that in which Lt. Alan McAneny, of Yorkers, N. The air-sea search for the missing airman was declared "practically terminated" in the closing chapter of a Far Pacific tragedy that took the lives of two Marines. (International)

Uncanny Luck Ends For Jailbreak Artist

MIAMI (AP)—Joseph Albert, cocky 23-year-old jailbreak artist, was shot and fatally wounded today by a jealous husband who told police he found Albert and his wife locked in a lover's embrace.

The husband, Richard J. Svoboda, 29, called police and reported: "I've just shot a man. I warned him to stay away from my wife."

Thus the fantastic luck of Albert, who recently won back his freedom after he had been convicted of murder and who twice broke out of Miami's skyscraper jail, played out in a speeding ambulance.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at a hospital.

Pgt. Stanley Hartles of the county police said Svoboda told officers he returned to Miami this morning from a trip to Nebraska to find his wife, Ruth, 26, and Albert on a couch in the living room of an apartment.

Svoboda fired a single shot from a .32 caliber pistol. The bullet struck Albert in the mouth.

Hartles said Mrs. Svoboda, a slender brunette, readily admitted she had been having an affair with Albert.

Svoboda was held for investigation.

Albert and William F. Chapman were convicted in 1933 of slaying Dr. Clifton Springmyer, a Miami naturopath during an attempted holdup.

Dead is Ronnie Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marlow Larson. He was slung 300 feet.

He was inside the farmhouse of Mr. and Mrs. August Wabena when the twister hit. Mrs. Wabena said eight persons were in the house. They tried to get into the cellar, but were unable to make it before the tornado tore the dwelling apart. All were injured.

Bank Robbery Gets New Lead

Two men brightening the dice tables with new $100 bills touched off a transcendent police investigation of their possible connection with the biggest cash bank robbery on record.

New York police summoned victims of the bank robbery to view photographs of the two today. And experts are checking their fingerprints in search of a link with gamblers who took $305,000 from a Chase Manhattan Bank in Queens, N. Y., last April 6.

Police here arrested Frank Ellsworth, 36, and Ray Wilson, 33, after casino cashiers told Law they moved from one gaming table to another, buying chips with crisp $100 bills.

Detective L. R. J. Handlon said Ellsworth had 61 hundred-dollar bills and Wilson 21 when they were picked up here yesterday.

Ellsworth said he sold magazine subscriptions, Wilson said he was a clothier. Police searched their room in a luxury hotel. All told they found more than $87,000.

Ellsworth was freed last night on a writ of habeas corpus. Wilson remained in jail on an investigation of robbery looking.

Ellsworth's attorney posted $1,000 bond with the writ, which is returnable Monday.

While Las Vegas officers checked the bills serial numbers, New York authorities checked photos and fingerprints of the pair. Both have records.

The Prime Minister assured Russia the West stood ready to guarantee her against any threat from a free, united Germany. But he said Britain stood firmly behind three principles:

1. "We are not prepared to break up NATO."

2. "We will not be parted from the United States."

3. "We will work for the unification of Germany."

"I can quite understand that the Russians feel that a free Germany would probably unite with the West," Eden said. "I think that is wrong."

Without naming the dollar-denominated man, Campbell mentioned an agent's administration of the defense material procurement agency in 1951-1952 "who at the same time was head of the American Zinc, Lead and Smelting Co."

The company had complained of frequent break-ins and the tape recording incident occurred weeks ago.

Detective L. J. R. Beach said the boy told them he and eight other youngsters, 7 to 12, entered the plant six or seven times to steal cookies.

"Davy" and the gang were turned over to Orange County Juvenile Court. Their names were withheld.

The registration deadline was Wednesday but anyone who plans to take the course and failed to register may sign up tonight.

The classes are being taught by Bill Fleming and are conducted each Wednesday and Friday from 7 until 10 p. m.

If enough persons are interested an instructor's course will also be held.

Baseball Campaign For Fans' Support Is Backed By CoFC

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and its Baseball Committee are 100 per cent behind the effort to revitalize the baseball program in Sanford, it was announced today by President Earl Higgenbotham.

"We have the best working agreement now that we have had in years. Baseball is costing us less this year and Sanford has the best club that he has had in several seasons. In view of those facts we urge the public to support the effort of the local baseball officials by purchasing the $2 and $4 books of tickets that will be mailed the first of next week," Higgenbotham reiterated.

He continued, "Baseball is an integral part of the overall recreation program and the only way that we can hope to have baseball is to support it by buying tickets and attending the games. The boys are playing hard and giving the fans everything they have by playing hard right down to the last minute of every game."

J. C. Davis, chairman of the CoFC committee, also urged the support of the public in this renewed effort of the local baseball program for the remainder of the season. The Chamber is assisting materially in the program by stuffing the envelopes and mailing them to the public.

Chamber officials have urged that everyone mail his remittance as soon as possible.

Peron Challengers Report On Denial

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Argentina's opposition Radical Party, which challenged President Peron to back up his peace talk with doves, says it has been denied radio time to answer a presidential speech.

In a broadcast earlier this week Peron dissolved the political opposition of any part in the June 16 revolt and invited anti-Peronist factions to come to terms with him.

The Radical Party responded by letting it reply over the state radio, Argentina's only network.

The party's national committee said last night the Communications Ministry had advised that "regulations" prevent the granting of free radio time for the Radicals to answer.

The opposition leaders said they would continue to press for radio time, which they have been denied since Peron came to power.

Minister Suggests That Soviet Bloc May Be Included

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Eden suggested last night that the Soviet bloc eventually might be brought into the Western European Union's arms control and weapons pool.

The Prime Minister assured Russia the West stood ready to guarantee her against any threat from a free, united Germany. But he said Britain stood firmly behind three principles:

1. "We are not prepared to break up NATO."

2. "We will not be parted from the United States."

Joint Declaration Published Today By Tito, Nehru

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Yugoslav President Tito and Indian Prime Minister Nehru published a joint declaration today again advocating world disarmament, use of atomic energy for peaceful purposes only and peaceful coexistence of all nations.

They also called for peaceful solution of "the questions relating to Germany and Taiwan" (Formosa) and a U.N. seat for Communist China.

The two worked out the statement during Nehru's week-long state visit to Yugoslavia. The Indian flew to Rome yesterday.

The Tito-Nehru declaration in general followed the lines of statements each made earlier this year jointly with Soviet Premier Nikoal Bulganin.

The statement said Tito and Nehru agreed to exchange missions to foster trade between their countries.

'Lonesomest Man' Dies In Jail At 77

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—Tony Duley, "dean" of lifers and reportedly the "lonesomest man" in southern Michigan prison, died yesterday.

At 77, Duley was the eldest inmate and had served the most time—45 years.

Death ended a fight for freedom which Duley had waged for most of his adult life and seemed finally to be winning.

He was said to have gone 10 years in one stretch without receiving a letter or a visit.

Then three years ago Mr. and Mrs. Marion Baron of Grand Haven, Mich., read a story that described Duley as the "lonesomest man" in prison. They became interested.

At their urging, the corrections commission last March ordered Duley's case processed for possible parole. But while Duley waited, death intervened.

World War I Vet Given New Medals

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Frank Lochleider, World War I infantryman who saw action in France in 1917, has a couple of new medals from the Department of the Army.

Proudly displaying a Silver Star and Purple Heart, he said they arrived only this week, more than 38 years after they were awarded.

The 72-year-old Portlander says he was told of the decorations upon his discharge from the Army in 1920. But it took all these years and three letters to Washington, he said, before he got action.

Lochleider said the latest quarry was mailed two weeks ago.

Republican Leaders Still See Chances To Salvage Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Republican leaders said today they still have a good chance to salvage President Eisenhower's proposal for a 60-cent-an-hour minimum wage.

The House Education and Labor Committee yesterday defeated the Eisenhower plan on a 15-18 tie vote and approved instead, 21-9, a Democratic bill to increase the minimum to $1 from the present 75 cents.

Key Republicans predicted a lively House floor scrap next week. They said they expect strong support from their southern Democratic for the 60-cent figure.

If administration officials put up a vigorous fight, these Republicans said, they probably will be able to pass the figure, the White House requested.
