

GIGANTIC OIL AGREEMENT OF ENGLISH SYNDICATE AND RUSS GOVERNMENT

Signed at Genoa by the Shell Group of British Oil Companies

CONTROL SITUAT'N

IN RUSSIA AND DEMONSTRATES THAT IN THE BIG SHUFFLE ENGLAND IS GETTING A PORTION.

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, May 2.—A gigantic industrial agreement was signed Sunday at Genoa by representatives of the Russian Soviet government and a Shell Group of British oil companies, telegraphs the Evening News Genoa correspondent. Under the agreement he says, the Shell Group will control all sales and under certain conditions all production of oil in every part of Russia for an agreed period of time.

PARIS, May 2.—The American Debt Refunding Commission has informed the French Government it will be glad to receive the government's observations on what it has to offer concerning the payment of interest on the French debt to the United States and amortization of capital.

GENOA, May 2.—Chief Justice Taft of the United States Supreme court will be asked to name the chairman of the mixed arbitral committee to be established for controlling debts owed by the Russian government to foreign bond holders, according to the plan arranged yesterday. The other members of this commission will represent all the bond holders and the Russian government respectively.

The commission will have power to remit interest and decide all questions affecting foreign bond holders and Russia's ability to meet her obligations; a time limit will be fixed in which bond holders may make their own arrangements with the Russian government if they desire.

GENOA, May 2.—The Genoa correspondent of the London Evening News in a dispatch to his paper quotes Colonel Boyle, representing the Shell group of the British oil companies here as denying an industrial agreement had been signed between this interest and the Russian Soviet government as reported. Reuter's correspondent here says the Russian delegation to the economic conference also flatly denied having made any concessions to Shell interests.

DELAND FIRE DEPARTMENT WANTS PUBLIC TO ATTEND FIRES AND SEE THE WORK

DELAND, May 2.—C. H. Campbell, chief of the Deland fire department, in a communication to the Deland News invites the citizens of this city to attend fires and see what there may be of interest, and enjoy yourself. The chief's communication is designed to obtain the co-operation of citizens with the fire department. He begins by saying that although motor fire apparatus raises a huge racket enroute to a blaze, and some people might believe the truck was running sixty or seventy miles an hour, as a matter of fact it seldom exceeds twenty-five or thirty-five miles.

"The noise is put on for a purpose," says the chief. "It is to call attention, in the only way it can, to the fact that the fire department is on an errand of emergency and deserves a clear road or right-of-way to get to its destination in the shortest possible time."

After discussing the blaze hound, that citizen who drops all business to chase a fire truck, and those of the ilk who get in the way of the firemen, the chief refers to city ordinances desired to curb interference. However, he says the department believes that more can be accomplished by co-operation than coercion.

"All the department would desire is co-operation," he concludes. "So the next time you want to see a fire, come ahead and maybe you can help. But take to the curbs when you hear the apparatus and members of the department and wait until it all has passed. Then park your car at the curb away from a fire hydrant and at least a square away from the fire. Then walk or run the remainder of the distance, see what there may be of interest and enjoy yourself without coming into range of the stream of water. Thank you for your co-operation."

The Business and Professional Women's Club will have a chicken supper at the Miller building, corner of First and Park, Saturday night, May 6th. Price 75c. Everybody come and enjoy good home cooking. Watch for menu. 31-5t.-jw-1tc

Rotary Club Meeting At Noon—Luncheon Was Greatly Enjoyed

The regular weekly meeting of the Rotary Club held today at noon in the Valdez was interesting, being the first meeting under the new president, D. L. Thrasher, who made a fine talk in taking over the reins of government and told the members something about what Rotary seemed to him. He called for a rising vote of thanks to the retiring president, H. R. Stevens, for his untiring work and energy during the first year of Rotary here.

Among the visitors present were Kendrick Guernsey and Chester Goodrich, of Orlando, who were called upon to explain just why they were allowed to live in Orlando and both of them proved an alibi in a satisfactory manner. Condolence was extended to Rotarian Deas and Mrs. Deas in their bereavement and loss of their little son. The new committees were appointed by the president and the names of the members read out in meeting and slips showing the year's attendance were also passed among the members showing two members to have 100 per cent records.

The Sanford Rotary Club is growing in numbers and in interest and they are expecting to do great things in the year 1922.

BAND CONCERT AGAIN TONIGHT WITH DANCE

LAST NIGHT BIG CROWD WAS PRESENT AND EVERYBODY WAS HAPPY

The band concert and street dance last night was a great success in every way and the men and women delegated to tag the people report that many dollars were garnered for the band. The evening started about 7:00 o'clock when the band headed by Mayor C. E. Henry and Frank Akers paraded down Park avenue and back by way of Magnolia to the temporary stand at the corner of First street and Magnolia. Here the tagging took place and then the band started the festivities by ripping off a few good ones.

Hon. Forest Lake took the stand and told what the band was and what they wanted after which he introduced Hon. F. P. Ferster, who in his customary manner, told of the benefits of the band and asked for the hearty support and co-operation of the people of the county.

The band will play every night this week at the Seminole Hank corner if possible and in this way stir up interest and enthusiasm and endeavor to get all the people interested in something that is of great benefit to the city and county. Come out tonight and hear a good concert, dance if you wish and meet your friends and have a good time. There will be benches provided tonight especially for the ladies.

Seeking Dismissal Catts Demurs To Federal Indictment

PENSACOLA, May 2.—The trial of former Governor Sidney J. Catts, of Florida, on the charge of peonage, started in the federal court here yesterday but was short lived. Counsel for the ex-governor demurred at each of the twelve counts contained in the federal grand jury's indictment, and a hearing was set for May 5. Refusal of the court to grant the defense plea, it is confidently expected will be followed by a request for an immediate trial upon the part of the prosecution. Action on the indictment which was returned last year, is said to be almost certain with both the defense and the government pressing for a decision—even though the sought decision in each case is opposed to the other.

Catts, whose term as governor expired in January, 1921, was indicted after an investigation by a committee of the Florida legislature last spring into the acts of the former chief executive. In the federal indictment it was charged that a pardoned negro state convict had been forced to work on Catts' plantation in West Florida.

The former governor is also under indictment in the state courts on allegations that he accepted a bribe to influence his vote as a member of the state board of pardons, on the application of a convict for clemency. J. J. Mendenhall, murderer, will be a witness in the state case.

WATER HEARING AT TITUSVILLE SOON

A public hearing is to take place at Titusville court house, Tuesday, May 16, at 10:30 a. m., in connection with the preliminary examination of the intra-coastal waterway from Jacksonville to Miami. This waterway has been called for by an act of congress and was approved June 5, 1920.

Cities located along the proposed waterway have been requested to send representatives and to present briefs giving information as to the tonnage and value of the outgoing and incoming commerce; what markets shipped to; what proportion shipped by rail and what proportion shipped by water, and many other facts that will have bearing upon the utility of a waterway through the state.

S. J. Sligh, of Orlando, is chairman of the Water Traffic League of Florida, and state yesterday that meetings of the league will be held at Sanford before the public hearing, which will be an event that will be anticipated with great interest by all Florida shippers. Announcements were issued yesterday by Mr. Sligh that a meeting of the directors of the Florida Water League will take place in Sanford on Wednesday, May 3, at 4 p. m., and May 8 there will be another meeting at Sanford of the league, when representatives from the chambers of commerce of all cities located on the proposed waterway as well as from cities and towns along the East Coast, and all eastern Florida, will gather to discuss this matter and the arranging of credentials.

The waterway will open vast opportunities for inland Florida in her commercial and industrial enterprises and will insure reasonable transportation rates.—Orlando Sentinel.

ORANGES FOR 1921 30,700,000 BOXES

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 2.—The total value of fruit and fruit products on farms in 1921 was $525,000,000 as compared with $744,000,000 in 1919, the department of agriculture announced yesterday. The decline is attributed to killing frosts early in 1921 and to lower prices.

Production of apples in 1921 was only 96,981,000 bushels as compared with 233,077,000 in 1920. Peaches dropped from 45,620,000 bushels in 1920 to 32,733,000 in 1921, and pears from 16,806,000 to 1,075,000. There was a slight increase in production of oranges at 30,700,000 boxes.

Intermittent Employment and Irregular Production, Etc.

IN STRIKE TROUBLE

WITH VIEW OF SECURING DATA WHICH COULD BE USED FOR REORGANIZATION

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 2.—Investigation by the Commerce Department into the underlying troubles in the coal industry, such as intermittency of employment, irregular production, is being expedited, it was learned today, with a view of securing data which might be used in proposed administration plan for reorganizing the entire industry. Hint of administration's plans for meeting the strike situation as divulged today indicated high officials did not consider any specific proposal for settlement of the present controversy but rather concerned with remedies for fundamental difficulties underlying the general coal situation.

BURNED HALF MILLION BONDS BUT IT MEANT NOTHING

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, May 2.—Attorney General Buford, State Treasurer Luning and J. Stewart Lewis, secretary of the Everglades Drainage Board, loosened up recently and burned half a million dollars worth of bonds as if they were so much paper.

In fact they were so much paper. It was an issue authorized by the 1921 legislature for the drainage district but after they had been engraved the party purchasing them decided it wanted a new clause inserted. The bonds were re-graved at the expense of the purchasing party and a commission appointed to destroy the old issue.

This was the occasion for the seeming extravagance.

No one knows the troubles of the newspaper man. You can print a daily paper every day in the year and make no mistakes and never have a kind word of praise spoken to you about it but just make one little mistake in a name one time during the year and you are cursed from Dan to Beersheba and from Pensacola to Coca Cola.

Almost every city in Florida has the curb market where fresh vegetables and fruits can be obtained in the summer time at least and many cities have the curb market the year round and find it most profitable.

DON'T MIX POLITICS WITH BUSINESS

Now that a political campaign is on again and we are in the midst of a mildly heated argument over whether John Smith is a better man than Bill Brown let us all sit down and reason together as citizens with the common aim of building up our town.

GROCERIES FRUITS AND VEGETABLES. Courtesy and Prompt Service Our Motto. DEANE TURNER 1308 497-194 WELAKA BLOCK stresses laid on the fact that this fellow or that fellow voted against us one time and we intend to soak this candidate or that candidate because he injured us in one way or another at some time in the past.

And then—politics is not the ruling object of the universe. We must have good men in office but we should not spend all of our time trying to get them in office.

Four months idleness for Florida productive lands and gardens is too much valuable time lost. Let's get out of the rut and make Florida a real all-year state.

If the people as a whole could rise above this petty political game and all work together for the Greater Sanford that we want and must have there would not be any trouble in raising any amount of money to put over all the big things contemplated.

GROW VEGETABLES THE YEAR ROUND.

The Experimental Station at Gainesville has been making a campaign to grow vegetables in Florida the year round. We can certainly grow them in the Sanford section the year round and the only reason we do not grow them in Sanford is because after June there is no market for them in our local lots and our growers rest up a bit before planting seed beds for the next years crops.

"About June 15th the truck shipments are over, and there will be no money coming to the truckers before October 1st, or thereabouts, when sweet potatoes enter the markets."

The Telegraph concludes by asking why we stay in a rut, and consider that as soon as the old established crop are moved it is useless to attempt the growing of any others. It is an important question, and one which should be answered wisely.

JUST FLORIDA

Very frequently a very few words tell a very great deal. This was illustrated one day last week during the all-Florida friendship tour.

We come to you today, not to sell you anything, not to boost Jacksonville, or any other particular section of Florida, but to endeavor to impress upon you the tremendous results, which are possible in the development of Florida, provided we forget our sectional differences, and cooperate for the good of just Florida.

If you will read that brief paragraph again, let it "soak in," there is little need for extended comment. President Adair's words are perfectly plain, so plain although so comprehensive, that "he who runs may read."

It is gratifying, indeed, to witness the unanimity of sentiment, of goodwill, that this tour aroused. It can not be otherwise than productive of good results for "Just Florida," granting that the friendship created is as sincere as were hearty the receptions accorded to those whose mission was to bind us into one all the people of Florida in order that the work, of making better the state of enormous possibilities, may be done with force combined and with but one object in view—"the good of just Florida."

No matter how much of good comes to Florida, because of the friendship tour, or by reason of any similarly commendable enterprise, that good will be shared by the world, of which Florida is a part, and in which it is designed to stand forth more and more gloriously as the years go by—friendship, united efforts aiding materially to attain the goal by all desired.—Times-Union.

FLORIDA INVITES ALL—WITH LIMITATIONS.

When, half-dozen years ago, an occasional winter tourist from the north or west would drive into any portion of Florida in his automobile, he was gladly allowed to park his car in almost any convenient spot he chose.

But like the camel that commenced to edge its way into the tent the number of tourists grew into vast armies, and, emboldened at all lack of rebuff, actually made themselves at home—and to "crowd" upon the regular residents—those who paid for the good roads, who paid taxes to maintain government of the different towns and cities and counties.

A recent copy of the Saturday Evening Post has an article pertaining to the situation which is most timely in this regard, and the extract which follows will be verified by every reader:

Florida has made it plain that she wants no more of these seasonal laborers who can't make a satisfactory living in their own communities. Most of them are so hard-boiled that a diamond-pointed drill is needed to penetrate their shells; and most of them have as much regard for neatness, cleanliness and the rights of others as a Berkshire hog has for a potato peel.

BLACK TONGUE CURE.

Owners of bird dogs in this section should clip this article out and keep it. The story appeared in a recent issue of Field and Stream and the remedy for this dog disease is as follows: Give as soon as possible 1-2 oz. of castor oil internally and 10,000 units of Diphtheria Antitoxin sub-cutaneously.

TARIFF WILL ADD TO BURDENS ON WORKERS AS WAGES ARE CUT

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 1.—The pending tariff bill was attacked as "the worst blow ever dealt the consuming public" in a statement today by Senator Pat Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi and was defended by Senator Edw. Ladd, Republican, North Dakota, as "the first attempt at a really constructive tariff."

"It was concocted behind closed doors, dictated by special interest • • • scintillates with inconsistencies and radiates with wrongs" declared Senator Harrison. "Instead of relieving the six millions unemployed, and the millions whose wages are being cut, it will add heavier taxes and greater burdens."

He denounced the authority given president to make farther changes in tariff rates threatening to destroy the legislative branch of the government." The bill he continued was not "constructed along Republican principles and is the most flagrant repudiation of campaign promises ever attempted by any political party."

"The present tariff is the first attempt at a really constructive tariff that would afford any real degree of protection to agriculture and industry," Senator Ladd's statement said. "By properly adjusting our tariff, by writing a tariff fair to all sections of the country, we shall increase diversified production in the United States by producing more products we import and reduce the quantity of those of which we have a surplus."

"The farmer has never complained when he had to pay a fair price for farm machinery and other products when he received a reasonable return for his farm products. He does, however, object to selling his products in an open unprotected market in competition with the cheap labor of Asia and Europe."

STER UNABLE TO IDENTIFY THOSE WHO KIDNAPPED HIM SATURDAY

WTON, Okla., May 2.—Plans for a church trial, May 9th, of the Rev. Mr. Irwin, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, proposed yesterday in the absence of the Rev. Mr. Irwin Saturday, hit on the head, chloroformed him and threw him in a ditch twelve miles from the city.

Rev. Mr. Irwin was found by a motorist after he had lain in a ditch for one and one-half hours. Saturday he repeated that he could identify none of the three men who attacked him.

Both factions in the congregation which has been split for more than a year, when the pastor preached the funeral sermon of Jake L. Hamon, after Hamon was slain by Clara Smith Hamon, were discussing the incident yesterday, but out of the discussion nothing concrete for an investigation has come thus far.

This was one of the things which brought about the movement for his removal as a pastor.

The Rev. Mr. Irwin later married a couple in a public bathing pool, and exhibited motion pictures in his church, things which split the congregation anew.

Recently the Rev. Mr. Irwin announced that certain persons were trying to intimidate him and force him to leave town, and some time ago, he said, he was approached by three men as he was leaving the church one Sunday night and at the point of guns was warned to go away.

According to his story of the Saturday night incident, he was on his way to the home of a member of the congregation at about 8 o'clock when three men stopped him, and knocked him unconscious with a blow on the head. When he awoke, he said, he was in a moving automobile, tied hand and foot, a gag in his mouth, and one of the men sitting upon him. He declared he heard one of the trio urge the other two to "do away with him now," while another suggested they give "him one more chance to get out of town before they killed him."

Soon afterward, he said he was thrown from the motor car into a ditch at the side of the road, and although he succeeded in removing the gag sufficiently to halt several persons, none would stop and render him aid. Finally, five tourists picked him up and took him to the residence of Senator J. A. Towns, where first aid was administered. He had recovered entirely yesterday.

MBRIDE-MICKEY

Beautiful in its simplicity was the marriage, Sunday morning, of Miss Flo Mickey, and Mr. Frank McBride, which was solemnized at 12:30 at the Presbyterian church, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends of the young people, Dr. E. D. Brownlee performed the impressive ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with potted plants, and wicker baskets filled with pink and white oleanders.

Dr. H. H. McCaslin, organist had charge of the nuptial music, and used the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin as professional, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as recessional. During the ceremony, "I Love You Truly" was softly played.

Especially becoming was the bride's gown of white tulle, crepe, worn with a large white picture hat. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of brides roses and valley lilies.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McBride left for New York and other places in the East. Mrs. McBride

Everyone knows that the Hupmobile maintenance and repair costs are almost unbelievably low, and that the car is particularly free from the need of constant and petty adjustments.

It's almost a proverb among skilled repairmen, that the Hupmobile is better built, and that it stays out of the shop far more consistently.

RELIEF ORGANIZATIONS PREVENT STARVATION AMONG REFUGEES

(By The Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, May 2.—Relief organizations were continuing to work today to prevent hunger, exposure and disease among the tens of thousands of homeless in the stricken flood zones of Louisiana and Mississippi. Particular efforts were directed to the area in central, eastern Louisiana where a lake of more than 1,400 square miles now exists on erstwhile fertile farm lands and thriving commercial towns as a result of the breaking of the levee of the Mississippi river near Ferriday, La.

Harrisonburg, La., far west of the river but yet in the flood zone, continues to present the most serious problem. Food is the crying need of the thousands of residents and several thousand refugees who fled to that town or were brought there by their rescuers.

Stocks of the local merchants have become exhausted. Today it was reported that some food has been brought in by boat from neighboring communities which it is hoped will last until a boat with food which left New Orleans last Saturday arrives. In addition to those in need at that town, it was reported yesterday that boats laden with food to that town or were brought there.

Old men and women and children upon their arrival at Harrisonburg already showed the effects of undernourishment as the back waters of the rivers had been creeping into their homes for many days before they decided to flee.

MYSTERY IN STREET LAMP

One in London Apparently Has Power to Light Up and Extinguish Itself.

At Streatham, near London, that pretty suburb where Doctor Johnson spent many days at the house of his friends, the Thales, an experiment has lately been made that would have interested the controversialist and probably caused him to rattle his stick furiously and declare that lamps do not light themselves.

The people of Streatham nowadays take things more quietly and probably their only observation on this particular occasion was that the lamp had just had a new coat of paint, was making a curious ticking sound, and with that they ceased to think on the matter until at dusk, without further warning the streets leap into brilliant light. The ticking lamp-post continued its illumination until dawn, appeared, when just as mysteriously as the light had burst forth it went out; self-lighting and self-extinguishing.

It is just as well that Boswell was not able to tackle the doctor upon the subject and record in his invaluable notebook the irate answers to his exasperating and in the case of the self-governing lamp endless questions.

DOLPHIN GIFTED BY NATURE

Rarely Beautiful in Coloring, and Believed to Be the Speediest of All Fishes.

Of the game fishes the dolphin must be mentioned in the front rank, says a writer in the National Geographical Magazine. There is probably no other citizen of the deep which travels so swiftly. It spends its entire life in the open seas. While idling, its movements are sluggish, but when in quest of its prey it moves with incredible rapidity, and to one observing its movements it appears like nothing so much as a dash of color in the sea—a yellow-blue-whitish streak that is almost lost in the green water.

Of all deep-water fishes, the dolphin possesses the greatest power to change its color. A dying dolphin affords a most beautiful and spectacular sight, when, with all the iridescence of an opal, it changes hue so rapidly that the brain can not grasp the beauty of one color before another comes into view. In life its general color is a blue or emerald green above, with brighter blue dots showing on the base; the under parts are silvery and the caudal and pectoral fins are a clear yellow.

Animals "Pretend to Die."

Some animals can pretend to be dead when they imagine they are going to be hurt or taken into captivity.

A good example of this is seen in the American hog-nosed snake. This is a small reptile about three and a half feet in length, which has a shovel-shaped snout.

It is perfectly harmless, but many people have thought it to be most dangerous, because, when it is alarmed it raises its head and expands the skin folds on its neck—in imitation of a cobra.

If, however, no notice is taken of this performance, it pretends to be dead, writhing its body about as in convulsions. Lastly, it rolls over on its back and remains perfectly motionless until the intruder is gone.

The Australian dingo dog is another expert at feigning death. Mr. W. S. Berridge, F. Z. S., in "Marvels of the Animal World," tells of a "dead" dingo dog that was taken into a hut to be skinned.

This dog kept up its pretense of death and allowed a portion of the skin to be taken off before it moved and gave the game away.
