MAKING UP YOUR LIST

PERHAPS you do your staple shopping by the week. Larger items you renew each month. Household furnishings, automobiles, radios, and smaller things are in the nature of investments, which are for months, for years, or for life. You buy these things at long intervals.

But no matter what you buy, you serve yourself best if you plan your purchases in advance. Every list you make is a budget in itself. Careful study of the advertisements will always help you in picking out the best thing at the lowest price. . . in weighing your needs and desires.

Making up your list is really a fascinating game when you plan it against your allowances. The more carefully you give to the preliminary study of the advertisements . . . the better will be your choice and the more you will save.

THE OLD WATER

As the water deepens
I pray that Beneath their feet gives such care
Stands listening with ray,
As from his vision, a sad-eyed Grand
Dear to my heart, and his Brimming with joy and
The "I" have not
And he knows his task
"Paradise" work
In the end, all these things

TO A BLACKBIRD

O garden poet, you
And I am one
To this—we lose our god
As not of sun.

And we are kindred when
The hill-wind shakes
Sweet song like blossoms on The color green lake.

We dream, while Earth's and children Go sleepily by Reading for our conversion
With the Book of Job.

By Patrick Kavanagh

Why is it that every phrenologist thinks he is the head man?

It's never too late to begin over, and apparently to go under.

The unemployment situation has not discouraged workers in casing factories. They expect to get around.

The United States government passed through the year with a slight surplus. Almost all of the surplus is in the hands of the bankers.

You can say what you want to about these new fangled bathing suits, everything is absolutely open and above board about them.

The past few days have been like the calm before the storm.
Everyone seems to realize that the coming extra session is going to be a stormy one.

The city of Orlando will vote on August 18 on the question of whether to sell, lease, or mortgage its utility plants. That city is trying to take care of its bonded indebtedness.

Warner has it that dog racing at Longwood will make Sanford a better resort. It's funny. We've had nothing down there for the past two or five years, but all the tourists want to Orlando.

French ministers to the Hoover administration plan to resign, it is said. These Frenchmen are a bit of a puzzle. It's said they are not to be millionaires to give up $150,000,000 a year.

The city of Detroit has been sending about twenty million a year to the relief of unemployed, and which was in the form of delays in the automobile manufacturing industry.

Somebody, read chairman, and we haven't stop building the houses that would three times the best of jobs who are building a good thing. Well,
the city of Detroit has been
sending about twenty million a year to the relief of unemployed, and
which was in the form of delays in the automobile manufacturing industry.

Modern Furniture Defended

Those who have sat, or tried to sit, on some antique chairs or divans and have experienced the uneasiness and discomfort attendant upon such an act, may rejoice in the suggestion of the Christian Science Monitor that modern furniture is just as beautiful and even more durable than antique furniture. It appears that the present furniture makers are a little vexed at the continual expressions that old pieces have a charm and beauty and durability that cannot be attained in this day, and according to the Boston paper, they declare that present-day furniture compasses more than favorably with furniture made in centuries past. Modern factories operate dry kilns which reduce the moisture in wood to as low as 5 per cent. By the old-fashioned, air-seasoning method the moisture content could hardly be reduced below 14 or 15 per cent. The kiln-dried lumber is said better to resist shrinking, splitting or warping under varying temperature and humidity conditions.

In modern furniture factories, also, machines can be set to cut, drill, or join to the accuracy of one-thousandth of an inch, a record which the craftsmen of bygone days could hardly surpass. Nor is the assumption correct that most furniture today is made exclusively by machine processes. There is a vast amount of handwork done, especially on the more expensive types.

As for the design of present-day furniture, many of the pieces now being selected by people of discernment and small pocketbooks are copies of the finest work of Sheraton, Chippendale and other famous designers. Especially authentic, too, are many copies of the exquisitely simple early Colonial furniture so much in vogue now. What is more, the methods of mass production result in the public obtaining beautifully designed and sturdily constructed furniture at an extremely low price.

Thus, Dr. Julius Klein, assistant secretary of commerce, states that never has furniture been so reasonably priced as now, and that greater values are to be had than at any time during the last sixteen years. Furniture prices are 25 per cent lower than they were in 1930 and 50 per cent lower than in 1929.

Considering these facts, the question of whether antique or modern furniture is the more beautiful may be ignored for a still greater consideration: In the past, beautiful furniture was expensive and available to only a few; now it is reasonably priced and can be enjoyed by many.

NEW YORK INSIDE OUT
BY SAM LOVE

NEW YORK, July 2.—It always strikes me that New York janitors to become a janitor, and moved in.

Janitor Quodman's "janitor quarters" consist of 20 rooms and six bathrooms. They are rather magnificent, another janitor using wood in such quarters being surprised with his quarters to look, meals and bathing. When he goes to work in the morning, Janitor Quodman is the janitor of the city. He has a lot of money in a bank and he works a little more. He has a little more money in a bank and he works a little more.

It is pretty nice to find a bank of money in a bank and he works a little more.

Will Rays save American business is staging an intricate Bull Run. Glaciers or instigators, so such run is inevitable in the stock market. -Virginia Pilot.

But the best and most charming little O'Keefe number was the ballad he sang about Calvin Coolidge when Coolidge retired from the White House to a $25-a-month home in Northampton. Mrs. Coolidge, in the song, was supposed to be insistent on a $100-a-month house, to which Mr. Coolidge replied:

"For eight years we've been living here."

It's time we came to earth, says I've got to budget all we spend. I look to you to watch your own. Why, a hundred bucks a month is not a great deal. Why, Grace, you must be crazy.

About the only difference between the old time novel and one of today is $1.20. -Ohio State Journal.

If rubber gets much cheaper, Edison will be inventing a way to turn it into goldrod. -Tacoma Ledger.

The only place where it is safe to shoot first and inquire afterwards is in a trap game. -Dallas News.

You can really tell them apart. If it seems a price tag, it's something and if it seems a tag, it's a price tag. -Boston Herald (Ill.) Star.

Any man who is in the position to be the star-brightest is a star-brightest. -Albany Gazette.

Baptist Group Holds Meeting In DeLand

At the meeting of the Seminole Baptist Sunday School Association held in DeLand yesterday morning at 10 o'clock the Rev. J. M. Anderson presided and representatives from the following members of the association answered the roll call: Barboville, Chulsova, Calvary Baptist Church of Daytona Beach, Daytona Beach Baptist Church, North Ridgewood Baptist Church of Daytona Beach, DeLand, DeLeon Springs, Emporia, Geneva, Lake Helen, Lake Monroe, Longwood, Mims, New Smyrna, Oak Hill, Oviedo, Osteen, Pearson, Port Orange, Sanford, Seville, and Titusville.

Dr. J. M. Grice, pastor of the DeLand Baptist Church spoke a few words of greeting. The following officers were then elected for the coming year: John D. Jenkins, general superintendent; J. Tilden Jacobs, secretary and treasurer; the Rev. J. B. Webb, publicity director; associational superintendent of the Sanford district, the Rev. B. C. Fields; superintendent of the DeLand district, the Rev. H. F. Fellick; and of the Daytona Beach district, the Rev. J. I. Tezart.

The main topic of discussion for the day was: "What Should the DeLand Assembly Mean to the Various Organizations of the Church?" Short talks on various phases of this subject were given by the Rev. B. D. Law, John D. Jenkins, Dr. W. W. Williams, state director of Baptist Sunday Schools, E. W. Calhoun and H. F. Loomis.

For the third time, the Sunday school banner to the church having the largest number of members present who had traveled the greatest number of miles, went to Chulsova.

The meeting adjourned at noon for luncheon which was served by the ladies of the DeLand Baptist Church. Among those from here attending were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Tilden Jacobs, Mrs. J. V. Johnson, John D. Jenkins, the Rev. W. P. Brooks, Jr., C. P. Henderson, R. R. Pippin and J. W. O. Singletary.

Legion Dance Will Be Staged Here Tonight

A large number of the social set of the city is planning to attend the dance to be given tonight at the Trianon Club on the Sanford-Orlando Highway by the Campbell-Losing Post of the American Legion.

Dancing will begin at 10 o'clock and continue until late in the evening to music furnished by Mero's Orchestra, well known in this part of the state for its dance music.

Spaniards Loot, Fire Monastery, Fight Soldiers

Driven back by soldiers, they fought with stones, sticks and knives in a desperate but unsuccessful effort to break through the lines.

There was no martial law today, but troops were posted at strategic points throughout the city. The provincial governor reported to the minister of interior at Madrid that the situation was under control and that precautions had been taken to prevent further disorders.

The Capuchin Monastery, built four years ago, was valued at about $50,000.

Last May there was a series of anti-Catholic riots in half a dozen important cities during which churches and convents and monasteries were burned, several persons were killed and many injured.

The trouble was attributed to a pastoral letter issued by Cardinal Segura, primate of Spain, calling upon the people to vote for assembly candidates who would protect and defend the interests of the Catholic Church.

The Cardinal left the country, returning after a conference with Pope Pius at Vatican City. Subsequently he was deported by the government and is now in France.

A preliminary draft of the new Spanish constitution, which will be submitted to the cabinet and then to the national assembly elected last Sunday, would establish among other things religious freedom for all creeds and would abolish a state religion.

MADRID, July 2—(AP)—Government authorities here were informed by telephone last night that the situation at Coruna, where a mob set fire to a Catholic monastery, was under control. The governor of Coruna said it had not been necessary to call out troops garrisoned near the city. He said order would be maintained in other parts of the province and that it was unlikely another mob of anti-Catholic demonstrators would be seen in that city again.

Mile Long $1,000,000 Bridge Named After Collier

GEORGIANS ARE INDICTED

SWAINSBORO, Ga., July 2—(AP)—The grand jury yesterday announced indictment of George Clay, Henry Lee Dixon, and Cliff Hightower of Dublin in connection with the slaying of Ellie McBride, filling station operator, two months ago.

ASTOR ESTATE WIND SUIT

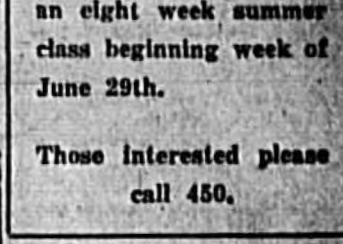

NEW YORK, July 2—(AP)—A judgment from the Federal Government of $10,000,000 paid for inheritance taxes and interest of about $6,000,000, has been won by trustees for the estate of the late Vincent William Astor in Federal court here.

still is unsettled, high speed is possible. Collier's friendship for Florida in general and Punta Gorda in particular is responsible for the bridge, built jointly by the state and national governments, being named after him. Collier owns the land of which he owns outright, is south of here, but he has large Punta Gorda interests. He has been active in improving the river, front and moderating other parts of the town. A few years ago when Collier learned that two of three local banks would not open that day, he hastily imported a large amount of greenbacks and gold from Tampa, dumped them on the counter of the one open bank, and quickly restored business confidence.

Strike Says Schmeling In Five Rounds But Stribling Says No

CLEVELAND, July 2 (AP)—From what the managers had to say last night, it appeared there would be two knockouts tonight when Champion Max Schmeling and Young Stribling meet for the world's heavyweight championship.

The fighters were in seclusion last night but each of their managers freely predicted his acrapper would win by a knockout.

"Pa" Stribling, father-manager of the challenger, said: "W. L. will win the title on a knockout within five rounds. He is in perfect shape, ready and eager. He has never been boxing better nor punching harder. I am certain he will bring the title back to America and to Macon, Ga."

Joe Jacobs, manager of the champion, insisted Schmeling would be the one to win by a knockout, but he said the fight might go 10 rounds. "Max will take the fight on a knockout within 10 rounds," Jacobs said. "He is in such better condition that when he fought Sharkey last June. He is much stronger and his punching is heavier. He will clip the southerner with a few of those right hands and it won't last long."

CLEVELAND, July 2 (AP)—Salient facts and figures of the world's heavyweight championship fight between Max Schmeling and Young Stribling tonight:

Principals—Max Schmeling, Berlin, Germany, heavyweight champion; W. L. (Young) Stribling, Macon, Ga.
