Chief Urges Tighter Youth Driving Law

Juveniles who are given adult drivers' licenses should be tried in adult courts if they violate traffic laws, Sanford Police Chief Roy Williams said today. Sixteen-year-olds can get adult licenses in Florida, but cannot be tried in city or county courts until they are 17, the chief pointed out. "There's a gap there that ought to be closed up," he said. Juvenile traffic offenders cannot be jailed without an order from the county judge. Usually they are taken home to their parents, Chief Williams said. He emphasized the need for holding parents responsible for a child's auto accident until that child is at least 17-years-old. Chief Williams recommended either raising the licensing age to 17 or, lowering the age of trial in regular courts to 16. Juvenile court now handles traffic offenses committed by 16-year-olds. Names of these traffic offenders should be made public, the chief said.

Storm Threat Ends After Sudden Blow

MIAMI (UPI) — Tropical Storm Judith, which sloshed across Florida's midsection causing more insomnia than damage, claimed the broad Atlantic as her playground today. No casualties were directly attributed to Judith. The storm boiled up suddenly in the Gulf of Mexico late Saturday, routing thousands of West Coast residents from their homes.

Retaliation Urged Against Red Ouster

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Republican senator says the United States should retaliate against the Russians by expelling a Soviet Embassy official unless they apologize for the ouster of an American on spy charges. Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, a former U. S. ambassador to India, said Russia committed "an awful affront" by their expulsion of Russell A. Langelle, U. S. Embassy security chief in Moscow. The State Department already has denounced the spy charges as phony and accused the Russians of abducting Langelle in an unsuccessful effort to gain American secrets. "The only thing we can do, unless there is a very clear apology from the Soviet Union, is respond by asking one of their people to leave this country," Cooper said. "They should be strongly rebuked and told 'in no uncertain terms that we disapprove of this action.'" "I don't think he was spying," the former diplomat said. Senate Democratic Whip Mike Mansfield (Mont.) described the Soviet claim that Langelle was a spy as a "far fetched" excuse for ousting him. He said he thought it possible the State Department would retaliate in line with established U. S. Soviet practices. The United States accused Russia of seizing Langelle and trying by threat and bribe to force him to spy for them. The State Department said Russia ordered him out of the country when he refused to be a turncoat.

Marshall Rites Slated Tomorrow

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gen. George C. Marshall lay in state at Washington National Cathedral today. Marshall, Army chief of staff in World War II and later secretary of state and secretary of defense, died here Friday. His body will lie in state at the cathedral until funeral services Tuesday. Thousands of persons, including high government officials, the military, members of the diplomatic corps and ordinary citizens, were expected to pay their last respects by filing past Marshall's closed casket in the cathedral's Bethlehem Chapel. However, according to Marshall's wishes, his funeral services will be a private ceremony in the chapel at Ft. Myer, Va. There will be no funeral march to the cemetery and no massing of troops behind a horse-drawn caisson at the grave. Only simple military honors will be rendered.

Injunction Could Perk Economy

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The nation's economy is expected to perk up slightly in the event that Taft-Hartley law is invoked in the 97-day steel strike which already has cost the nation billions of dollars. With President Eisenhower expected to invoke Taft-Hartley's 60-day cooling off provision, some facets of the economy were expected to feel an immediate nudge upward. However, in most industries it would be weeks, perhaps longer before any improvement could be noted. The auto industry, one of the hardest hit by steel shortages, was scheduled to lay off more workers this week and further curtail production of 1960 model cars. More than 40,000 workers in the auto industry have been idled by the strike. With more than 85 per cent of steel production choked off, nearly 250,000 workers in coal mines, railroads and related industries have been laid off because of the strike. These workers and the strikers have lost an estimated $775 million in wages. Steel Magazine said last week that direct losses for steel mills and workers plus indirect losses for dependent industries would total an estimated $4,500,000,000 by today. In the construction industry, builders said critical shortages in such materials as water heaters, nails, and especially structural steel, would develop within 15 to 20 days even if the strike ended soon. The Federal Reserve Board noted during the week end that the nation's industrial production dropped slightly last month because of the steel walkout. It said the pinch of steel shortages was felt in the auto, railroad equipment and ship building industries. Time was running out for shipments of iron ore on the Great Lakes during the ice-free shipping season. If the strike does not end before the freeze many ore boats would not be able to move out of ice-locked ports. The government last Friday ordered available steel supplies be channeled to the nation's missile and atomic defense programs. The action, in effect, diverted all available steel coming from mills not on strike from civilian use.

Area Fund Drive Hits $6,687 Mark

The Seminole County United Fund received $604 Saturday from 49 contributors. This brings the total amount contributed through Saturday to $6,687.31, given by 365 donors. Paola has turned in $118.96 from 28 firms and individuals plus a pledge from a construction firm. Heading the Paola solicitors team were Mrs. B. F. Ganas, and Mrs. Gordon Frederick. They were assisted by Mrs. Lucille Spivey, Mrs. Dorothy Steele, Mrs. Fran Abram and Mrs. Pauline Werfel. Chuluota has added $186.21 to the fund from 48 contributors. Mrs. Joseph Armstrong and Mrs. Virginia Chadwick headed the Chuluota Drive, assisted by Mrs. Onie Carpenter, Mrs. W. R. Crossdale, Mrs. Morris Luther, Mrs. Margaret Norman, Mrs. L. M. Stiver, Mrs. Edna Spath, Mrs. F. Stumpf and Mrs. M. Mello.

Truman Preaches Morals Sermon

'Improved With Age' Coburn Weds At 83

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Charles Coburn, moneted 83-year-old actor who believes that "sex appeal, like smooth brandy, improves with age," leaves today for a week-long honeymoon with his attractive 27-year-old bride. The chipper and gracious actor refused to reveal where he and Winifred Green Clements first were married. They were married in a surprise civil ceremony in Las Vegas, Nev., Sunday and returned here Sunday night for a reception at the home of his bride's sister, Mrs. Lawrence A. Dysart. It was the second marriage for Coburn and also the second for his bride. Both were widowed. He said they met about six years ago and had been planning the marriage for the past year. A stewardess on the plane which took them from Las Vegas said the couple "held hands like teen-agers" during the flight. While the couple was being married by acting jinx of the

Russian Planning Limb Graft Experiment

LONDON (UPI) — The London Daily Herald reported today from Moscow that a Russian surgeon is preparing to graft a new right leg on a 20-year-old girl in the first such operation in history. Herald reporter John Mossman identified the surgeon as Dr. Vladimir Demikhov who previously won headlines by successfully grafting the head of a small dog onto another, creating a two-headed animal. He quoted Demikhov as saying: "I can now take the limb from a person who has died and transplant it on to a living person. The girl is my first patient." The girl was described as a typist who recently lost a leg when she was hit by a train. Mossman quoted Demikhov as saying, "She is pretty and when I have patched her up there should be a queue of young men waiting to marry her." Demikhov was quoted as saying he was "ready to operate tomorrow" but there were some "administrative matters" to be cleared first. Mossman, who said he interviewed Demikhov at his Moscow research laboratory, described the grafting procedure as follows: "First the professor has to find a limb from a newly dead person of about the same age as the person undergoing the operation. For up to six months the patient will feel nothing from the new limb until the nerves and tiny blood vessels have grown again." The Daily Herald, in an accompanying story, quoted "one of Britain's top surgeons," who was not named, as saying that if the Russians actually could perform a leg-grafting operation as described, "it means they are about 100 years ahead in the field of biology."

Ike Expected To Seek Court Order To Halt Steel Strike

RANDALL CHASE, B. L. PERKINS JR. DISCUSS PROGRESS

No Agreement Reached On Any Point, Board Says

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower's steel fact-finding board told him today that union and management officials do not agree on any major issue in the 97-day old steel strike. The White House refused to say if the president will seek a court order to halt the walkout for 80 days under the Taft-Hartley Act. It said the president wants to study the report carefully "and there's no time limit on that."

News Briefs

GOP Drive
FORT MYERS (UPI) — Florida Republicans began a fund-raising drive today with the announced object of getting enough money to campaign for every state office in 1960. State Party Chairman G. Harold Alexander said "this will be the most comprehensive program adopted by any Republican organization in the country."

Patience Urged
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The chairman of the Federal Communications Commission said today the public should have "patience" with television's growing pains, including fixed quota shows. John C. Doerfer said it wasn't necessary and perhaps dangerous for the government to step in and tighten its regulation of the industry.

Race To Campaign
ORLANDO (UPI) — Charlie Race of Winter Haven, candidate for the office of Commissioner of Agriculture, campaigned in Central Florida today. Race, the first to announce for the office, will attend the State Association of County Commissioners here and later in the week will go to the homecoming celebration at the University of Florida in Gainesville.

Twin Report
LONDON (UPI) — Court gossip was reported speculating today that the child Queen Elizabeth II expects early next year may turn out to be twins. Twin births are not uncommon in European royal circles. Prince Philip's sister Margaret recently gave birth to twins. A number of the Queen's more or less distant cousins are twins, and she has twin grandsons on her mother's side of the family.

Red Tide Check
ST. PETERSBURG (UPI) — A marine biologist said a plane would check the waters off Florida's southwest coast today to determine what effect tropical storm Judith had on the fish-killing red tide. Earlier, conservation experts said the storm could either help kill the tide by kicking up rough water, or make it worse by creating westerly winds that would wash thousands of dead fish ashore along beaches of the southwest coast.

U. S., Russia Equal On Atomic Power
MOSCOW (UPI) — John McCone, chairman of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, said Sunday Russia and the United States appear to be at about the same stage in the development of atomic power for peaceful use. McCone told a news conference "there is no possibility of their getting far ahead of us" as they claim to be in rocket production.

New Pipeline
The Casselberry Utilities Commission is expanding its sewage facilities by laying a new pipeline. After the line is completed, the area in front of the Post Office will be paved.

C Of C To Honor Chase Officials
Chase and Co. will be honored tomorrow night by the Chamber of Commerce for 75 years of service in the community. Officials of the company will be honored at a dinner meeting of the chamber at 7 p. m. at the Civic Center. Tomorrow's meeting also will be the first meeting of the new board of directors and B. L. Perkins Jr. will be installed as C of C president for the new year.

Lake Mary Man In Auto Mishap
A 30-year-old retired Navy commander who makes his home in Lake Mary was listed in serious condition today after he crashed his car on W. 8th St. in Sanford early Saturday morning. William Class is in Orlando Air Force Base Hospital after he broke six ribs, his collarbone and suffered other injuries as a result of the accident. Police reported that Class, traveling west on 8th St. slammed into an Atlantic Coast Line sign as he apparently lost control of his vehicle and turned over in a ditch some 2,000 feet off Perammon Ave. Police are still investigating the accident, Sgt. Ben Butler said.

California Fire Rages Through Seventh Day
LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Embattled firemen fighting the nearly week-old Los Angeles foothill fire today had to contend with a new brush fire which already has blackened 3,000 acres. U. S. Forestry Service spokesman Elmer Osterman said the new blaze—about 20 miles from the giant foothill fire—was being investigated to see if it was deliberately set. Both fires were in the spacious Angeles National Forest. Some 500 men had to be pulled off the giant foothill fire to battle the blaze in watershed and grazing land about eight miles northwest of Castaic. No homes were threatened by the new blaze. The foothill blaze has burned a black scar in 13,000 acres of brush just north of the suburban communities of La Canada, Altadena and La Crescenta-Perimeter of the city. The blaze was estimated at 45 miles. More than 100 residents in the La Paloma and Vogel Flats areas in the big Tujunga Canyon above the tip of La Crescenta had to remain away from their threatened homes during the night. Osterman said the blaze was slowly working its way down Mt. Lukens to the homes, but he was hopeful firemen would be able to save them. Also threatened was a Nike missile site in the foothills. Flares earlier roared within 300 yards of the site and fire officials said they planned to mass men and equipment there for the rest of today. The fire has claimed the lives of two firefighters. Phillip Chavez of Zuni, N. M., died Sunday night from inhalation of smoke or fumes. Some 15 other firemen were seriously injured since the outbreak of the fire with injuries ranging from broken ribs to a broken back. Leo Pribano, 50, also of Zuni, suffered a fatal head injury earlier.

Chessman Denied Execution Stay
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown today refused to save the life of Cary Chessman, a kidnaper-rapist and best-selling author who faces execution next Friday. "I have used the power of clemency before," the governor said in a formal statement, "and in proper cases I will use it again. I do not believe this is a proper case." Brown said several factors weighed heavily in his thinking not to grant mercy to Chessman. These, he said, included "a deliberate plan of robberies, sexual attacks, and the use of a loaded gun." "So too, has Chessman's failure to show contrition," the governor added.

NAACP Asks Big Push On Pupil Assignment Law
TAMPA (UPI) — A Negro official has called for hundreds of thousands of applications by Negro children to the schools of their choice under the Florida Pupil Assignment Law. Dr. John A. Morsell assistant to executive secretary Roy Wilkins of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, spoke to the local NAACP chapter as the Florida organization opened its annual membership drive. Morsell predicted one of two fates for the Pupil Assignment Law. Either its administrators enforce it honestly and permit integration, or they will administer it dishonestly and it will be struck down by the courts. Morsell said either way school integration is doomed.

Reds Say Lunik Took Back Of Moon Photos
MOSCOW (UPI) — Man may get his first look this week at the mysterious back of the moon which has never been turned toward the earth. The Russians said photographs of 90 per cent of the lunar surface, made by the Soviet Union's Lunik III moon satellite, were transmitted Sunday when the satellite skirted the earth, 29,515 miles above the Solomon Islands in the Pacific. The official Soviet Tass news agency said the pictures, taken about 11 days ago when the satellite was reported behind the moon, are now being processed by Soviet scientists. It said the information would be made public. One Soviet scientist predicted shortly after the launching of Lunik III on Oct. 4 that the pictures may disclose some "low form" of life on the moon. "Photographs were taken of the other side of the moon which cannot be seen from the earth," the Tass announcement said. "The information of the scientific measurements and photographs are being processed and the results of the processing will be made public." It did not say when.

In skirting the earth Sunday, Lunik III became the first satellite to pass successfully around the earth and back toward the earth. If it stays on course the moon will fall within Lunik's orbit about every two weeks. One Soviet scientist said eventually Lunik III may burn up in the earth's atmosphere or fall onto the moon. Tass said the satellite now was hidden from Russia and that its next transmission of information is scheduled for Wednesday between 6 and 8 a. m. e.d.t.

Asia May Decide World's Future, Chiang Reports

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—President Chiang Kai-shek said today the political future of the entire world will be decided in Asia.

The Nationalist Chinese leader said the threat of Communist aggression in the Eastern Hemisphere will collapse if the West lives up to its policy of Red containment and helps his government return to the Chinese mainland.

Generalissimo Chiang, who met with the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt and former Prime Minister Winston Churchill in 1942 during World War II, predicted that Communism will never gain the voluntary support of Asia's masses.

He called for active anti-

Communist support from his allies to topple the Peiping regime.

Chiang summed up the last half century in Asia, and offered predictions and advice for the future in an exclusive interview with United Press International which now is making its 50th anniversary in Asia.

In capsule summary, Chiang:

—Named the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen, founder of the Republic of China, as Asia's outstanding leader during the last 50 years.

—Called Dr. Sun's 1911 Chinese revolution against the Manchu empire one of the major events of the 20th Century because it "gave impetus to the independence and self-determination of various other Asian nations."

—Warned, "It is on the Asian continent that the Communist battle to wage their final decisive battle against the democratic world. The fate of the whole world will therefore be decided on this vast and densely-populated continent."

—Concluded, "Asia peoples have suffered the most from Communism. For this reason, Communism will never gain the voluntary support of people in this area."

—Predicted, "revolutionary movements will surely break out one after another to shake the Communist regime to its very foundation."

Reapportionment Opposition Seen No Help To Judge

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Opposing the legislative reapportionment plan will not help Judge John McCarty or former House Speaker Ted Davis win the governor's election, Gov. LeRoy Collins said Sunday.

"I don't think their gubernatorial ambition has been helped," Collins said in a television panel show. "I don't think the people approve of jumping on an issue and hitting it into office."

Collins said he was "disappointed" that both men had taken a strong stand against the reapportionment amendment which will be voted on in a November referendum.

He said he did not think such probable candidates as Senate President Dewey Johnson of Quincy were endorsing the proposed 44-member House plan because it was popular in north Florida. On the contrary, he said, the north Florida counties have "something to lose since it strengthens the position of south Florida."

The governor said he had no immediate plans for his own political future when his present term ends. He decided that the leasing of his home, "The Grove," as a tourist attraction was any indication he would not move back in for some time.

Northern Paper Backs Up 'Lynching' Term Charge

MONTPELIER, Vt. (UPI)—A stinging editorial in a southern newspaper which charged the North with a double standard in regard to lynchings, was supported by at least one Yankee newspaperman.

Burlington Sunday News columnist Fred Richmond said in his column that the death of Newbury farmer Orville A. Gibson, 49, was "a lynching pure and simple." Robert O. Welch was freed in the case last week.

Before and during the trial, state officials appeared to avoid use of the term "lynching." The Gibson case was called at various times a "community" or "vigilante" killing.

Editor James Ward of the Jackson, Miss. Daily News said last Friday in a front page editorial that if Gibson had been killed in Mississippi there would have been:

"Screams, shouts, tears, moaning, plate passing church revivals over a dead body. There would be world prayer meetings, public statements would be issued, sainthood sought for the deceased. Television cameras would

HAPPINESS THROUGH HEALTH BY DR. F. LEO KERWIN

You May Be Missing Something:

It is important at this time to explain why Chiropractic stands out from all the others as a separate, distinct healing science and what constitutes its practice and its legal definition.

Chiropractic, in brief is legally defined as a science and art of adjusting bony articulations that have become misaligned.

(Subluxation), more especially those of the spine for the purpose of giving freedom of action to those nerves that may cause pain or abnormal function (disease).

The trend of all healing sciences is toward Chiropractic. Records of the past few years show that research workers have ascribed interference to nerve flow as the fundamental cause of 720 definite diseases. More will be added to this number until such time that all healing sciences will agree basically disease is caused by nerve interference. You will note as time goes on that health articles in newspapers and magazines will deal more with the brain and nerves and their relationship to health.

Those who are now adopting and enjoying the benefits of Chiropractic in their health program are utilizing the health service of the future.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 201 S. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7442.

Liz Taylor Signs $1 Million Pact

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Actress Elizabeth Taylor has become the first feminine screen star to sign a million-dollar contract for a single movie, 20th Century-Fox studios announced today.

Mrs. Taylor completed negotiations Sunday to play the title role in "Cleopatra," a film that caused a squabble between the actress and her home studio, MGM.

MGM suspended the beautiful star briefly when she insisted on appearing in "Cleopatra" before fulfilling her contract by playing in "Butterfield 8."

The actress said she disliked her lady of easy virtue role in the film and also objected to the script, which she called "almost pornographic." All was settled when MGM agreed to tame down the part and she guaranteed to return after the shooting of "Cleopatra."

Mrs. Taylor said she would set up a trust fund with the million dollars for her children, Michael, 6, Christopher, 4, and Lisa, 2.

Film-land Pays Final Respects To Flynn

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Film-land pays its final tribute today to Errol Flynn, but the actor's last love — 17-year-old Beverly Aadland — wasn't on hand for the funeral services.

Miss Aadland, who was the 80-year-old actor's "protege" for the past two years left Hollywood Sunday night for an undisclosed destination.

"We don't know where she is," said her mother, Mrs. Florence Aadland. She said she had advised her daughter to stay away from the funeral.

Two of the dashing actor's three wives were expected to be among the great and small of Hollywood to turn out for services at Forest Lawn's Church of the Resurrection.

The wives attending were his widow, Mrs. Patrice Wymore, who arranged for the services and burial, and Mrs. Nora Edgington Flynn Haymes, his second wife.

Miss Wymore, who was estranged from Flynn, arranged for the service with burial following in Forest Lawn.

Miss Aadland sought to have Flynn buried in Jamaica, saying he hated Hollywood, but the teenager had to give in to the wishes of Miss Wymore.

Flynn's parents, Professor and Mrs. Theodore Flynn, flew here from London for the services.

The actor's first wife, Lilli Dalmis, remained at her Florida home.

Jack Warner, head of Warner Bros. Studio, was selected to read the eulogy at services conducted by the Rev. Kermit Castellanos of All Saints Church of Beverly Hills.

Flynn's body arrived Sunday from Vancouver, B. C., where he died last Wednesday, in a plain

Johnson Reports He's No Candidate For Presidency

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (UPI)—Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson said Sunday night "I am not a candidate for the presidency and I do not intend to become a candidate."

The statement was made in a letter answering a questionnaire submitted by Mexican newspapermen covering the visit in this country of Mexican President Adolfo Lopez Mateos.

The question was: "They have told us that you aspire to the presidency. From this point of view, do you believe that you should maintain a friendly relationship with President Lopez Mateos?"

Johnson, after saying he did not intend to become a presidential candidate, replied, "I would not have a friendly relationship with President Lopez Mateos on political grounds. My feelings toward him are personal because he is a man of great vigor, great understanding and a great desire to preserve and foster individual liberty."

"If you became president of the United States," the Mexican newspaper asked, "would you put your whole strength to avoid the multiplication of racial discrimination cases as the one in Little Rock that the whole world knew about?"

"I am not a candidate for president of the U. S.," Johnson replied. "But personally I believe that all of us should put forth every effort to promote better relations among all people and to avoid strife within our country. The important thing is that we make progress and try to put behind us the divisions of the past."

Carnefix To Attend National Sunday School Meeting

The Rev. David Carnefix, pastor of the Alliance Church, will attend the National Sunday School Association Convention in Atlanta this week. The District Sunday School Committee of the Christian and Missionary Alliance on which Mr. Carnefix serves also will be in session Tuesday and Wednesday.

The NSSA Convention opens Thursday with workshops, lectures, conferences, and displays designed to help improve the effectiveness of all Sunday School work. Outstanding leaders from many denominations will participate in the convention.

During Mr. Carnefix's absence, the Mid-week Prayer Service at the Sanford Alliance Church will be led by Mrs. Carnefix.

Church Sponsors Clothing Sale

The New Salem Trinity Baptist Church will sponsor an outgoing clothing sale Friday and Saturday at 1208 W. 18th St.

Fannie Finkley, chairman, requests donations be delivered to this address any day between 8 a. m. and 8:30 p. m.

Articles will be accepted until the sales closes.

Pilot Club Slated To Host Convention

The Sanford Pilot Club will host the district 4 Spring convention at the Mayfair Inn starting April 4. The convention will run for three days and approximately 400 delegates are expected to attend from Central Florida.

Lanza Was Legend In Own Lifetime

By VERNON SCOTT
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Mario Lanza was one of those rare individuals who created a legend while he lived.

Alternately boisterous, hell-raising and introspectively pensive, the massive tenor was a great bear of a man who kept his friends in doubt every time he swung his hefty arms. They weren't sure if he was aiming at their chins or throwing an arm around their shoulders.

Lanza was a living paradox. One week music critics acclaimed him as having a voice second only to Caruso, the next they accused him of being washed up.

In every controversy Lanza stood his ground, especially when his voice was involved. He spoke about his ability to sing in the third person, referring to his voice as if it had supernatural origins.

Four years ago he told me, "This voice of mine was given me by God to use as an instrument of beauty. My whole life is dedicated to my voice. I am merely the means of bringing this gift to everyone."

Despite his reverence for "the voice," Mario abused himself. He stuffed himself ravenously at the table, and when the drinks were poured the tempestuous tenor could drink with the best of them. But he was a good friend. When he was needed, Mario came through. One day he would fight furiously with intimates, the next he would lavish gifts on them. He was unsure of himself, anxious to please, infuriated when crossed.

Lanza was a bull of a man who enjoyed the company of other men. Rocky Marciano was his hero. And on a couple of occasions he sparred with the heavyweight champion in the boxing ring erected at his home.

Because he was a virile, hell-for-leather guy who came from the wrong side of the tracks, he despised the roles he played in movies, calling them "sissy and gutless." This attitude led to endless fights with MGM studios where he was under contract.

In his frustration the Italian boy from Philadelphia gorged himself with a vengeance, growing fat and temperamental. He realized he was hurting himself, but this was tempered by the fact that it made the studio unhappy.

When their differences were settled he was able to lose weight quickly. According to friends, this impaired his health.

Mario Lanza was controversial. And the question was asked, "How can a guy sing like Caruso and sell records like Crosby?"

Lanza had the answer. "The voice," he used to say. "The voice appeals to everyone. I am amazed by it myself."

His great ambition was to sing for the Metropolitan Opera, but his temperamental outbursts and refusal to discipline himself made the dream impossible.

Lanza hated Hollywood. He didn't trust the people who made movies. More than once his trust was violated, and it hurt him.

"Why can't people level with me?" he asked before leaving movieland for Italy. "I just want to sing—on records, television and in good movies. But there are always deals going. I don't like deals!"

Worry Clinic

As a doctor, I give you a chance to look over my shoulder at patients and actually hear their unvarnished reports, so listen to Howard's brutally frank confession. His wife thinks he is 100% guilty of this "affair" but a wife's sense of omission often make her at least 50% to blame for a straying husband. Scraps of this case and discuss it at your Women's Clubs.

BY GEORGE W. CRANE,
PH. D., M. D.

CASE C — 470: Howard H., aged 42, has kicked over the traces.

"Dr. Crane," his worried wife began, "I can't understand what is wrong with him."

"We have been the most happily married couple anybody could imagine."

"Why, people often pointed to us as a model couple. And Howard has been very active in club work as well as our church."

"But now I find that he has been running around with a girl about half his age."

"Oh, Dr. Crane, what can I do?" and she began to cry.

FIGHT FIRE WITH FIRE

So I gave her the usual terse advice in such cases, namely, that such men generally admit they would much rather have an "affair" with their wife than with any temporary paramour.

"But my wife fails to pick up her cues," such a husband will report.

And that was exactly the case here, for I later had an interview with Howard.

"My wife is fat and matronly," he said. "I had noticed that our love life had grown platonic, so I decided we ought to revive some of our courtship memories, as you have urged in your column, Dr. Crane."

"Consequently, I took her to dinner and a movie on our last wedding anniversary."

"She seemed elated and I felt maybe we'd solve our problem. But that night when she finally peeled off her girdle and I saw those rolls of fat tumble down, I suddenly felt nauseated."

"It is hard to explain, but all my romantic feelings vanished in an instant."

"Maybe it is due to the fact I grew up on the farm when I was a boy."

"There we used to fatten hogs for market till they could hardly walk. Their jaws hung down and their bellies almost dragged on the ground because of the corn and swill they had devoured."

"Be that as it may, my wife suddenly reminded me of one of those fat hogs so I not only felt a complete loss of all my romantic feelings but actually had a feeling of nausea."

"To avoid offending her, I tried to say nothing and in order to protect her vanity, I fabricated a bad headache, which I told her I got at the movie."

"But from that day to this, I have felt cold and aloof regarding my wife."

"I'd like to regain my old affection for her, but how? I'd much rather have an affair with her than with this paramour."

ROMANCE REVIVED

Romance can be built up deliberately. And even if it is then destroyed by a wife's sense of omission or sins of commission, it can still be rebuilt.

But you wives must play the game of love according to psychological Hyle.

That means you must fight fire with fire: And you can't very well beat a younger girl who weighs 118 or even 125, with your fat chassis of 158 to 200 lbs.

Remember, you can't feel like a sports roadster with a chassis of a truck.

So regain that youthful figure by sending for the booklet "How to Lose 10 Lbs. in 10 Days," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20c (non-profit).

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4c stamped, addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

St. Augustine Pays Us A Compliment

St. Augustine's city commissioners visited Sanford last week to observe the municipal operations and organization here and they said they were impressed with the way things are being done.

Nobody can do everything just right, but there is little doubt that Sanford has an energetic group of officials and a well-planned routine of providing services.

This was proved when the city was able to begin all services in the newly annexed areas the same day these sections were officially taken into the city limits.

The St. Augustine commissioners told City Manager Warren Knowles that they were impressed with the department heads in the City Hall organization and with the planning done by for various offices.

The visiting delegation headed by St. Augustine Mayor Earl Miller also took home some statistics showing that Sanford departments are getting more done for less money than their town is.

They pointed out as one example that Sanford is getting better refuse collection for $53,600 a year than St. Augustine is getting for $104,000. And Sanford is servicing about 2,000 more people.

The visitors also noticed that Sanford operates its departments with only 143 city employees, while St. Augustine has 170 on the payroll. They concluded that efficiency was the difference.

Another compliment connected with the visit was that the city planner, Gerald Dake, currently making every conceivable kind of survey of Sanford, is the man who recommended our city as a good example of municipal operation to be studied by the St. Augustine commission.

It's good to have our virtues noticed, municipal ones included, but better yet to have some other city point out that we're probably getting our money's worth from city expenditures.

Education Available

State School Supt. Thomas Bailey said Friday that Florida has "made a start toward training technicians for industry" in its high schools and junior colleges.

He explained that the program is fairly new since Florida's economy has been tied to tourism and agriculture until the past five years or so. Increased industrial activity in the state has enlarged the local demand for workers in various industries, chiefly electronics.

Seminole County has been lucky that its educators got off to a good start in planning vocational training and guidance in the school program. This is particularly true of the adult programs which have been started.

The county is offering several courses for adults to complete high school educations as a background for additional schooling or training and the vocational program is being helped through the cooperation of the State Employment Service and industries such as Dynatronics, which is training workers in the electronics field.

Seminole residents who may not have finished school or who need training or information should take advantage of the vocational school opportunities offered here at home.

Assignment Washington

By ED KOTERBA
WASHINGTON—The pressures of public relations have been known to send a publicity man off on a lost week end. How I feel sorry most for Alfred Davis, of Forest Hills, N. Y.

Somewhere along the line he lost a whole year.

Mr. Davis was public relations director for Jack Barry and Daniel Enright, two enterprising gentlemen of New York who've received more publicity for their defunct TV quiz show, "21" recently than they did in 1956-57 when the show was running.

But the kind of headlines the quiz show finally got was not the kind Mr. Davis was hired for. That's when he started losing sleep — and track of time.

The mild, balding fellow of 37 years flidgeted at the microphone before the House investigating committee, giving answers to questions which, it may be noted here, were not all posed to him beforehand.

What the Congressmen were specifically interested in was just what happened behind the scenes at NBC after contestant Herbert Stempel squeaked, "Flit" some time after he took a dive on the show of Dec. 5, 1964.

Mr. Stempel had told his story to the New York City papers, but it was several months before it was published.

And when it was, a storm broke at NBC, and broadcast officials called a hurried consultation. Mr. Davis was invited.

Did they meet to discredit the Stempel story?

Not exactly, said the P. R. man, but they met to get some counter-acting angle of publicity—to discredit Mr. Stempel's integrity.

Sheepishly, however, the nervous Mr. Davis admitted that, yes, he knew the contestant knew the Q's and A's to "21" before entering the isolation booth. Mr. Stempel, he said, showed them to him before the show.

When did all this take place, asked the committee counsel—1957 or '58? The publicity man, now ironically making his own publicity, thought and thought.

Then, in utter defeat, he said he didn't know. "It was a very confused time... I don't think I slept for several weeks."

And, quietly, he said: "I seemed to have lost a year in there somewhere."

The way he said he lost it, it sounded like he now wished he really had it.

But the witness who came up with the prize-winning punch line in this quiz program was port, grey-haired Ross Liebrand of Washington, D. C.

Miss Liebrand bristled with the kind of womanly indignation that defies underestimation. She didn't know the program was fixed, she said, when she stepped up to proudly represent the 175,000 loyal members of the Federation of Business and Professional Women of America.

But her pride was shattered. Not only was she given the Q's and A's before going on the air, she said, but "I was told, 'Do not bid over seven or eight—or nine.'"

And now she huffed into the Congressional microphone. "Be I bid seven and I bid six—just to show my independence."

She won only $130, but now she could hold her head high.

France Has No Strong Man Besides DeGaulle

(Editor's Note: This is the fifth of a series of articles by A. M. and R. H. Haskell who are now in Europe.)

PARIS—The quickest way to gain some insight on a country and its problems is to talk to a news correspondent who is thoroughly familiar with the area.

We had a lengthy conversation with a veteran who is now covering France and its possessions. Most of this story is based on what he had to say.

DeGaulle, this man said, has no logical successor as head of the French government. If the general should die, the American feels there would be a terrific fight for power inside the country. He feels it possible that the army and other right-wing elements might use force to take over, and that the more liberal elements would lose out in such a struggle.

The president is 68 years old, is in good health but is nearly blind. He drives himself at a great rate, visiting more parts of France and of the French possessions than any of his predecessors. He tours the country by car at 80 miles an hour and is a tremendously hard worker.

This reporter believes that DeGaulle's efforts to solve the North African crisis are being opposed by the military. He feels there will have to be a settlement with the high brass before real progress can be made to end the fighting.

The Algerian war is costing the country $2 million a day. It is obvious that this money could make a tremendous difference to the economy of the country if it could be used for peaceful things.

DeGaulle has an almost hypnotic appeal to those who come in contact with him. The correspondent told of attending a DeGaulle press conference with 300 other reporters. He said all of those present rose to their feet as the president came in. It was an involuntary action, inspired by the great dignity of the man, he said.

The new order has given the people of the country so much more confidence in their country that much of the money invested abroad for safety under former governments has now been returned to productive use inside the nation.

DeGaulle is a family. The people will take more from him than they would from former leaders. His programs have caused some resentment, but the people are willing to trust him. The reporter said it was like a father telling a child "you must take this nasty medicine tonight because it will make you better tomorrow."

In general, the American believes, French opinion is not enthusiastic over Eisenhower's conversations with Mr. K. He said the French feel that a "strong line" must be used in dealing with the Russians, that the Russians take willingness to negotiate on reasonable demands as a sign of weakness. He said that this is also the attitude of the Germans.

We talked to a hotel man who has known for several years. His establishment is a luxury spot, noted for its restaurant, in a Paris suburb. He agreed that the country was booming and that business was very good. He mentioned the fact that employment was at such levels it was impossible to hire people to work as waiters and maids.

He showed us around the town of St. Germain, where he is located. After the war there were 20,000 inhabitants. There are now 30,000. New apartment buildings are springing up all around the area. Places to live are still hard to find, however. Finding an apartment frequently involves a payoff to the rental agent.

More Air Travel

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Army has been authorized to send more troops and their families overseas by air and fewer by ship, the Defense Department announced Wednesday. The department said Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy authorized the increased air passenger movement to start next Jan. 1.

Lunk Stamp

MOSCOW (UPI)—A stamp honoring Russia's Lunk III went on sale Wednesday at the central post office. The Tass news agency reported.

Washington Calling

BY MARQUE CHILES
WASHINGTON—While in England there is widespread disillusion with polls as a means of forecasting elections, the politicians here are still combing them over and reading into them large and certain portents for next year's trial of strength.

Having campaigned around the country as the furious dawn-to-midnight pace he sets for himself, Vice-President Richard M. Nixon and his strategists now believe they have the Republican nomination for the Presidency all but clinched. This might in itself be put down to strategy calculated to dismay the followers of Governor Nelson Rockefeller and damp down the Rockefeller movement.

But the men around Nixon are, on the whole, realists and their claim cannot be idly dismissed. The wind is certainly blowing in Nixon's direction as reflected by the straws currently being counted by the poll-takers.

The confidence in the Nixon camp is based not only on the nationwide polls but on certain specialized regional tabulations of voter preference. In Fairfield County, Connecticut, former Congressman Albert Moran and queries to 600 Republican officials at the county and city level, asking them to name their choice for the Republican nomination.

Of the 539 replies 383, or 71 percent, were for Nixon, with 141, or 26 percent for Rockefeller. Four preferences were cast for papers in South Dakota Nixon not only led Rockefeller by a substantial margin but he was ahead in trial heats with leading Democratic candidates. This is interpreted in the Nixon camp as a significant test in a farm state. What is more, the newspaper poll is said to have been exceptionally accurate in the past.

It is in Nixon's home state of California that the local polls are causing the greatest gratification. Three months ago the Nixon realists conceded that he could not carry the state as against any one of three or four Democratic possibilities. But in recent polls Nixon is shown scoring 51 percent against 44 percent for Senator John F. Kennedy and 51 percent to Adlai Stevenson's 43 percent. The state has 3,500,000 registered Democrats against 2,500,000 Republicans.

In a later poll among Republicans in California Nixon got 66 percent to 18 for Rockefeller. The score with independent voters was 55 percent Nixon, 21 Rockefeller.

When he was in Puerto Rico in August at the governor's conference Rockefeller is reported to have told newspapermen that he would decide about his candidacy on the basis of what the polls showed in November. Later he said he had not put anything like so much stress on the polls, insisting that he would reach a decision on the basis of what he felt was his duty to his party and to the country.

Nevertheless, the statement attributed to Rockefeller got wide currency and seemed to put a new emphasis on poll-taking. If the New York governor were to predicate his political future on the trend of the polls at the end of the year, then plainly that trend should show Nixon declining and Rockefeller rising. This would encourage the belief that Nixon could not win in '68 and suggest the likelihood of a repetition of the Taft-Eisenhower drama of 1952, when on the score of "Taft can't win" the convention was swung over to General Eisenhower.

But, as seasoned observers here are pointing out, present trends may be reversed in the nine months before the national conventions. To hold a clincher on the nomination the Nixon stock must continue to rise and that is by no means certain. On the political course it has been an unstable stock, rising and falling

RAILROAD FEATHERBEDDING:

$500,000,000 LOSS

TO THE NATION—INCLUDING YOU—EVERY YEAR

Featherbedding on the railroads — pay for work not done or not needed — is costing the American people the shocking total of more than $500,000,000 a year.

You pay for it every time you shop, because featherbedding costs are hidden in the price of everything you buy.

Obsolete union work rules, involving the railroad operating employees, are responsible for this gigantic burden. Right now, for instance, these rules require every diesel locomotive to carry a fireman — even though diesels have no fires to stoke, no boilers to tend.

The forthcoming negotiations between the railroads and the unions are urgently important to the whole nation.

In asking the unions to drop these featherbedding rules, all the railroads ask for is a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

New Fashions To Be Shown Tonight At Woman's Club

The first large showing of autumn fashions in Sanford this season will be held tonight, at 8:45, in the Woman's Club on Oak Avenue. The show will be sponsored by the American Home department of the Sanford Woman's Club and the public is invited to attend.

Fourteen lovely models will promenade in sports togs, smartly-styled suits, afternoon and cocktail costumes from the Mary-Esther shop. Their attire will be completed with harmonizing accessories, jewelry and they will wear glamorous coiffures and make-up created by Phillip Boyd

A STUNNING two-piece costume from the Mary-Esther shop will be worn by Mrs. Robert Smith in the fashion show to be presented tonight at the Woman's Club. The public is invited to attend. (Bergstrom Photo)

LASSIE SMITH (wife of a Naval commander) will comment on fashions to be shown tonight at the Woman's Club. A former Conover model, she has had wide experience as actress and model and performed on Broadway in "Life With Father" and continued with the play for a USO tour overseas. She also was featured on the TV program, "Panorama Potomac."

PHILLIP BOYD, local hair stylist, has been busy today setting glamorous creations for the models who will appear in the fashion show at the Woman's Club. Many hair styles will feature color in pastel shades. (Bergstrom Photo)

Coffee Honors Mrs. Harris

The Mayfair home of Mrs. Earl Yates was the scene of a morning coffee, given by Mrs. Yates and Mrs. Alex Viquhart in honor of Mrs. Floyd Harris. Mrs. Harris is the wife of Cdr. Floyd Harris, commanding officer of VAH-9, who is to be relieved of his duties Oct. 17 in Athens, Greece by Cdr. Earl Yates.

VAH-9 is serving aboard the USS Saratoga in the Mediterranean Sea. Coffee, punch, opened face sandwiches and assorted sweet rolls were served throughout the morning.

The dining table was covered with an exquisite green linen tablecloth trimmed with lace and held an arrangement of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Wives of the squadron presented Mrs. Harris with a sterling silver sauce boat and tray. About 40 people called during the morning.

Navy Wife's Club To Meet Tonight

The bride, given in marriage by her father, J. C. Beasley, was radiant in her gown of nylon lace over taffeta and net. The gown featured a nylon chiffon cummerbund. The floor-length scalloped lace skirt parted in the back, revealing nylon lace ruffles and a lace bow. Her fingertip veil of pure silk illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible centered with a white orchid and white satin streamers and a small bouquet of carnations.

Splash Party Held For Jay Morrison

Jay Morrison, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jack Morrison, recently celebrated her 8th birthday with a "splash" party at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McRaney. Many prizes were given for swimming relays, water games and rollicking fun was enjoyed by Anna Lee Moore, Kay Forquisen, Debbie Angel, Judy Lynn and Tommy Judy. Bill Bracken, David Aiken, Mett Morgan, Ricky and Tommy Oiler and Cyndee and Laurie Lee Morrison. During the afternoon party ice-cream and traditional birthday cake were served.

Mrs. Myers Feted With Stork Shower

Mrs. Sarah Kate Myers was honored with a stork shower at the Home Demonstration Bldg. on 25th St. Hostesses were Mrs. Ruth Gowan, Mrs. Kay Sassman and Mrs. Dorothy Patterson. A large stork, white mums and pink rosebuds formed the centerpiece. Those present were the Meses. Lucy Steen, Geraldine Sigmone, Winnie Dunn, Bonnie Richarde Joyce Myers, Bennie Brooks, Dora Lee Harper, the hostesses and Mrs. Myers.

Annual Fish Supper Held Thursday Nite

The men's Club of the First Methodist Church met Thursday night at the home of J. A. Calhoun for their annual smoked mullet supper. For several years Mr. Calhoun has been host for this event and also prepares the fish which is served with grits, "ole slaw, Italian bread, coffee and doughnuts. Around twenty-five men were present for the supper which was followed by a business meeting.

REGISTRATION NOTICE

The Registration Books of the City of Sanford, Florida, are open at the City Hall, commencing Monday, September 21, 1969, for the purpose of registering for the Municipal General Election to be held on November 3, 1969, and will remain open up to and including Friday, October 24, 1969.

H. N. Tamm, Jr.
City Registration Officer

The matron-of-honor wore a ballerina length dress of green organza and carried a crescent bouquet of green carnations with autumn leaves and satin streamers. She wore a matching head-dress and feather-clip. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns fashioned after that of the matron-of-honor of yellow organza and carried crescent bouquets of yellow carnations.

Patli Lynn Nolle, niece of the bride wore a dress of yellow organza. She carried a white basket and scattered rose petals in the path of the bride. Ringbearer was the groom's brother, Randy Riggins, Omega, Ga.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of antique gold print with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations. The mother of the groom wore an outfit of blue with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage.

A reception was held immediately following the wedding in the Educational building of the church. Mrs. Joe I. Beasley, cousin of the bride, presided at the reception and was assisted in greeting the guests at the door by Mrs. Milton Gore.

Baskets of white gladioli were placed about the spacious room. The bride's table, overlaid with a white cut-work linen cloth, was centered with the traditional tiered wedding cake, flanked by crystal candleholders holding white tapers. Two crystal punch bowls graced either end of the table.

Mrs. Ben F. Ward Jr. and Mrs. R. L. Ward cut the wedding cake. Pouring punch were Miss Katherine Mikler, Miss Ann Lundy, Sandy Chambers and Yvonne King. Circulating hostess were Misses Marlene Bellhorn, Junie Fleming, Julie Gore, Marilyn Mathers, Besale Fleming, Jackie Pendarvis, Gladys Alford and Clyde Dunklee.

Rose Marie Beasley, sister of the bride, kept the guest book while Mrs. George C. Means played soft background music.

For traveling the bride wore a two-piece, royal blue suit with a feathered hat, gloves, bag and shoes to match and the orchid from her bride's bouquet.

Following a short honeymoon in Florida, the couple plan to make their home in Omega, Ga. where the groom is engaged in farming.

Von Braun Lashes Space Policy As Medaris Retires

Missile Expert Says New Program Will Slow Up U.S. In Space Race

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Missile expert Werner von Braun lashed out at the nation's new space policy today in a growing interservice quarrel following announcement of Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris that he is retiring.

Von Braun said the decision to give the Air Force full control of the space program indicates lack of confidence "in a proven rocket team," and threatens to put the United States even further behind in the space race.

Von Braun, German-born scientist who led the team that launched the first U. S. satellite, addressed a breakfast meeting of National Assn. of Food Chains. His criticism of the policy shift came on the heels of Medaris' announcement that he will step down Jan. 31 as boss of the Army Ordnance Missile Command, which has headquarters at Huntsville, Ala.

Associates said Medaris was not retiring because of his disappointment with the Army's new scaled-down role, but he has spoken out against the move.

Von Braun said constant "re-evaluations and reassessments" also are slowing American progress in space.

"We must carry forward a long range space program if we don't mean to abandon the heavens to the Reds," he said.

Von Braun said the Army agency is twiddling its thumbs, waiting for "someone in Washington" to decide whether to break up its "marital relationship" with the Army and make it the new "bridegroom" of the Air Force.

"We have not sued for this divorce," he said.

America could make a great stride toward matching superior Russian rocket thrusts by speeding development of the Saturn, a 1,500,000-pound thrust rocket, he said. He said the Saturn project is moving ahead "but it could move faster."

Medaris, 57, is retiring after 28 years of service. He scheduled a news conference this afternoon in New York.

The fight over the military space program is one of the major headaches Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy will face when he returns this afternoon from a month-long Pacific tour.

McElroy, who hopes to leave his cabinet post by the end of the year, must decide what to do about the German scientist in Medaris' command at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Ala.

By a recent decision which appeared to lodge chief responsibility in the Air Force, McElroy took the Army largely out of the space field but left unsettled the future of the 2,100 scientists and technicians at Redstone.

The Huntsville scientists have been developing the giant Saturn rocket, a 1,500,000-pound thrust vehicle, for the Defense Department's Advanced Research Projects Agency ARPA. But the Army men have complained they are getting insufficient funds to speed the development.

Medaris, a native of Milford, Ohio, has been active in missile work since 1935. He supervised the launching of America's first earth satellite in 1958 and has led in development of the Jupiter intermediate range ballistic missile.

Friends said that Medaris has not "entertained any offers" from industry and would not, at least until he leaves the Army. There was speculation he might join some private firm, however.

Two Face Charges

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A federal grand jury today brought contempt of Congress charges against two union officials and two other persons in connection with testimony before the Senate Rackets Committee. One of those named was Maurice A. Hutcheson of Indianapolis, president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters.

Marriage Rumor

PARIS (UPI)—A French weekly claimed today that Britain's Princess Margaret soon will become engaged to young Canadian lawyer John Turner, one of her escorts in Canada last year. British court circles immediately called the report "impossible" and pointed out that Turner is a Roman Catholic. The 28-year-old princess' spokesman declined to comment.

Blast Takes Toll

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—A mechanical failure caused an explosion in an engine room of the Woodward Iron Co. today, injuring four men, two of them seriously. John Urquhart, chairman of the board of Woodward, said the explosion was caused when "a cross head on a blowing engine broke and a piston went up into the engine and allowed gas to keep burning."

Hits Justice

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UPI)—Caryl Chessman—who sidestepped the gas chamber for nearly 12 years after being condemned for robbery, kidnap and rape—lashed out today at California justice. The 38-year-old convict-author also criticized Gov. Edmund G. Brown, who refused to grant clemency which would have saved Chessman from the gas chamber for the seventh time. He is scheduled to die at 10 a. m. p. t. Friday.

Layoffs Soar

DETROIT (UPI)—Almost one-third of the assembly lines closing out 1959 Chevrolet were closed down by steel shortages today as auto industry layoffs soared to 72,528. Layoffs today soared to a record assembly and Fisher Body plants at Janesville, Wis., the Chevrolet assembly plant at Atlanta and GM's plants at Saginaw and Flint, Mich., added 3,976 to the growing number of idled workers.

Widow Kills Children

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (UPI)—A widow who police said admitted killing her five children with overdoses of barbiturates because she couldn't support them was to be charged with five counts involving murder today. Mrs. Ruth L. Urdanivia, 41, widow of a Peruvian diplomat, sobbed to police, "Who wants a woman with five children?" She told investigators she tried suicide three times after giving the children 74 barbiturates last Wednesday.

No Lepus Seen In Peace Drive

LONDON (UPI)—Western observers today saw no lepus in Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's "peace drive" despite the expulsion of the security officer at the American Embassy in Moscow in an incident reminiscent of the Stalin era.

Dipomats were surprised, even shocked, by the kidnapping and arrest of Russell Langelle and his ouster by the Soviets on charges of espionage. But they tended to regard the incident as an isolated episode rather than any switch to the methods of the cold war.

All signs, in the belief of officials here, still point to a continuation of the "spirit of Camp David" as far as Khrushchev is concerned, coupled with a genuine desire on his part to get along with the West.

The Langelle incident jolted officials here. However, they did not regard it as any indication of a switchback to cold war tactics.

The general British view was summed up in an editorial in the Times of London which said Monday, "The incident is a sign that the Russian police services are still strong. It is probable that the affair was due to the momentum of the machine rather than any deliberate decision by the government."

Red China Urged To Talk Peace

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—Ireland appealed to Red China today to negotiate a peaceful settlement with the Dalai Lama and recognize the right of the small Tibetan people to control their own destiny.

Government Asks Court To End Steel Walkout

STEEL FACT FINDERS Paul Lehotsky, George Taylor and John A. Perkins cleared the way yesterday for the injunction bringing a cooling-off period in the steel strike. They reported to President Eisenhower that there was "no agreement" by the industry and the union. (UPI Telephoto)

Union Ready To Fight Injunction

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—A U. S. attorney, acting under orders of President Eisenhower, today asked federal court to issue an injunction to halt the 80-day steel strike for 80 days.

U. S. Atty. Hubert F. Tellebaum handed the Taft-Hartley back-to-work petition to the clerk of the Western District court of Pennsylvania, putting it up to Federal Judge Herbert P. Sorg to decide whether to order 500,000 steelworkers back to their jobs.

Sorg accepted the petition and then went into a closed session with Tellebaum and Clerk James Wallace, saying, "Until I have read the petition, I cannot say when a hearing will be held."

The government petition was nine pages long and listed all the strike-bound companies.

Tellebaum received the petition from George C. Bomb, an assistant attorney general who flew here from Washington.

The petition asked for an injunction directing the United Steelworkers Union to on pickup since July 15—to instruct its members to return to work for 80 days and for the immediate issuance of a temporary restraining order pending issuance of the injunction.

The United Steelworkers Union said it would fight an injunction because the work stoppage "does not imperil the national health or safety."

President Eisenhower, saying it was a "sad day for the nation" Monday ordered the Justice Department to seek the injunction.

The big steel union's executive board was called to a meeting this afternoon and the wage-policy committee to meet Wednesday morning. The strike is now 80 days old.

"The steel strikes does not imperil the national health or safety within the meaning of the Taft-Hartley Act.

"The provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act which have been invoked are unconstitutional."

The spokesman did not elaborate on the union's contention of unconstitutionality.

United Steelworkers President David J. McDonald said his union would try to block the order in district court here and, if unsuccessful, it would carry the fight to the Third Circuit Court of Appeals in Philadelphia and to the United States Supreme Court.

McDonald said the steelworkers would obey a return to work injunction but would be free to strike again at the end of 80 days if their demands were not met.

Government lawyers were geared for what was expected to be the first all-out challenge of the government's power to force striking workers back on the job under the 12-year-old Taft-Hartley labor law.

Justice Department lawyers were known to have examined every aspect of the strike in their long preparation for a legal battle with the Steelworkers Union.

Population Gains May Add Judge

Population increases in the Ninth Judicial District, which includes Seminole County, have more than doubled over the past three years, making the circuit eligible for two more judges, it was announced today.

Three years ago, the population estimate was 405,379. At that time two additional judges, Volle Williams and Vassar Carlton, were named.

A new estimate for the circuit's population is nearly one million, according to G. W. Laycock of Rockledge who was here today.

Laycock is serving on a special population committee with William H. Dial, Orlando, and W. T. Warren Jr. of Fort Pierce.

Laycock and the committee are touring the circuit this week before making their recommendations to Gov. LeRoy Collins.

The criteria and method used in making the estimates are in accord with the methods used by the Bureau of Census, Laycock said.

County-by-county totals in the new estimate are: Seminole, 52,000; Orange, 247,300; Brevard, 107,000; St. Lucie, 34,800; Indian River, 23,100; Oseola, 18,600; Martin, 15,500 and Okeechobee, 5,600.

Public hearings will be held in Melbourne and Orlando at which the committee will hear data to support these population figures. City and county officials, chamber of commerce officials and utility managers will be invited to give their views.

President Urges DeGaulle On West Summit Meeting

PARIS (UPI)—President Eisenhower has sent three letters to French President Charles DeGaulle in the past three weeks urging a Western summit meeting in Paris to prepare for an East-West conference, diplomatic sources reported today.

French officials refused to confirm or deny the reports.

The sources said Eisenhower's latest letter was delivered to DeGaulle on Friday. They said Eisenhower called for an "early meeting" of the Western "Big Four" to settle differences of opinion before sitting down with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, for "cold war" talks.

The sources said it was the third letter from Eisenhower since his talks with Khrushchev at Camp David, Md., last month.

According to the sources, it is now almost inevitable that DeGaulle will invite Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to Paris, possibly by the end of this month.

DeBary Chamber Meets Tomorrow

The DeBary Chamber of Commerce will hold a dinner meeting at 7 p. m. tomorrow at Rylands Restaurant on Route 17.

A film "Highway hearing" will be shown during the meeting.

State Flood Board Issues '61 Plans

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Florida Flood Control Board presented its plans for fiscal 1961 today to the Corps of Engineers.

The board asked the Budget Bureau Monday to include its request for $22,289,800 in appropriations for the year, including $13,555,000 for new projects and $8,734,800 for continuing contracts.

The board also requested that $1,777,800 be included to repay funds appropriated by the state for flood control above matching amounts from the government in previous years.

Boy Taking Long Bike Ride Brings Out Searchers

Billy Schaeffer, 11-year-old Lake Mary boy, took a bike ride after school yesterday to mull over a bad report card and wound up being sought by a county-wide search party which included the National Guard.

He was found about 9 p. m. by the father of one of a group of Boy Scouts aiding in the search. T. A. Best, also of Lake Mary, said Billy was pushing his bike between Casselberry and home.

The boy said he had "just been riding around" since school was dismissed. Some friends said he had received "a bad report card and said he wasn't going home."

344 Tickets Sold To Smathers Dinner

Three hundred forty-four tickets have been sold for the Civic Center dinner at which Sen. George Smathers will be guest of honor tomorrow night, City Manager Warren Knowles said today.

Sanford civic club members and their wives will make up a large part of the guests at the 7:30 p. m. dinner.

State Senator Douglas Smathers will introduce Sen. Smathers.

Judith Speeds Towards Azores

MIAMI (UPI)—Hurricane Judith sped across the Atlantic toward the Azores Islands today, no longer a threat to any major land area.

At 5 a. m. Judith was about 310 miles east of Bermuda, racing to the east northeast at about 40 miles per hour.

The Miami weather bureau said the hurricane, which cut across Florida Sunday as a tropical storm, is expected to continue the same forward movement at the same speed during the next 12 hours with a slight increase in forward speed in the same direction thereafter.

Gale winds extended 300 miles in the southeast semicircle and 80 miles to the northwest. Ships in the path of the storm were warned to use caution.

An official Weather Bureau report issued Monday showed the storm packed little punch when it hit the southwest Florida coast Sunday. The highest wind recorded was a 56 m.p.h. gust at Fort Myers Beach, a weather official said.

Comparatively minor damage was done and no deaths, although 1,500 to 1,900 persons left beaches and islands in the face of the approaching storm. Rainfall for the Fort Myers area was 7.57 inches in a 24-hour period.
