MANY TOWNS DESTROYED AMERICANS IN HONAN ARE FLEEING TO SAFETY POINTS

Nearly 300 Americans
Are in Danger Zone in Chinese Province

FOUR AMERICANS IN CAPTIVITY

Chinese Government is Making Effort to Secure
Release of Captives

(By the Associated Press) PEKING, Nov. 18.—George Olaf Holm, a member of the Lutheran mission, has been kidnapped by bandits in Honan Province. The powerful bandit army is growing bolder and it apparently dominates the entire province. A dozen towns have been sacked and burned and the inhabitants forced to flee. Upwards of 300 Americans in the danger zone are greatly alarmed, according to the American consul at Hankow.

Mr. Holm is the third American missionary to be carried off by the bandits, who also are holding Anton Lundeen and Einar Borgreen, together with the latter's five year old son. Holm was born in Norway but is a naturalized American citizen.

A band of armed bandits entered the town residence at Chen Ya seized the missionary in the presence of his wife and two daughters, and marched him off into the country. So far as known all the kidnapped missionaries are safe and unharmed and permitted to communicate with their families.

Reports from Honan indicate that the bandit activities are becoming more serious, with the outbreak apparently in full control of the province, and a dozen towns in ashes in the wake of their march.

Foreigners in the unprotected communities have been advised by their consuls to flee to Hankow, and scores of missionaries already have arrived there. Hundreds, however, still are scattered throughout the more remote districts, including approximately 300 Americans. The entire staff of the American mission school at Chikungshan has fled to Hankow, where martial law has been declared.

The Chinese foreign office, replying to the joint note from the American, British, French, Italian and Swedish ministers, demanding action, announced yesterday it had appealed to General Wu Pei Fu, military power of North China, to attempt to conciliate the bandits. It is feared if force is used against them, it would jeopardize their captives.

General Wellington Koo, foreign minister, said the government was making every effort to secure the release of the captives.

SHOWS UNBOUNDED FAITH IN THE FUTURE OF THIS CITY AND SECTION

During the past sixty days The Herald Printing Company has added nearly $15,000 worth of equipment to a plant that was considered one of the best in Central Florida. The latest addition is the big 8-page Duplex perfecting web press that printed The Weekly Herald last night for the first time and this is the first issue of The Daily Herald to be produced in this size from the press.

The erector, C. C. Lee, together with George Shippe, has labored unceasingly for the past nine days getting the machine in shape for work, and they both deserve the thanks of every one connected with this paper. The press runs without a hitch and will prove a great labor saver. It is not intended to give any extended description of the new machinery and equipment at this time—as all that will be fully covered in our anniversary number soon to appear. Suffice to say there is a proud and happy bunch of men in The Herald office today that the dream of years is nearing fulfillment—and we know our friends are happy with us. A cordial invitation is extended all interested to call and see the big press in operation any afternoon.

REVISED LIST PLACES CHILE'S DEAD AT 548

OFFICIALS REPORT IN DETAIL
REGARDING CITIES DAMAGED
BY THE TIDAL WAVE

(By the Associated Press) SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 18.—Revised figures given by the minister of the interior place the total of those killed in last Saturday's earthquake at 548, which is considerably below earlier reports.

The number of injured is only partly estimated, the total being set at 837, but those coming under this category in Valparaiso and Chancal are described in the report as "innumerable."

Going into details, the report says that the destruction of Antofagasta consisted of the partial demolition of some privately owned homes, the loss of a number of boats and damage to the wireless plant. Illapel, Tocopilla, Mejillones and Pampa Salitrea escaped unscathed. At Talta, eight boats were lost.

Valleparaiso City is in ruins, with 333 dead and the injured "innumerable," but estimated around 600. Twelve prisoners were killed and eighteen injured in the collapse of the jail.

The entire lower section of the Chancal was razed, the commercial quarter railway station, a school and workshops being among the buildings destroyed. Seventeen are dead and many are injured.

At Copiapo approximately half of the houses were destroyed and others rendered uninhabitable. The jail, theatres and churches were all destroyed and the town hall, postoffice and departmental engineers' offices badly damaged. The dead there number sixty-four. A hospital has been established in a motion picture theatre but only forty-eight patients at a time can be accommodated.

GERMANY TO BE OCCUPIED INDEFINITELY

PARIS, Nov. 18.—The Allied powers, through the council of ambassadors, have informed Germany that all questions concerning the withdrawal of the military control commission in Germany have been suspended until the German government gives the fullest satisfaction for what are termed flagrant violations of the military clause of the treaty of Versailles, committed during the past six months, and shows willingness to abide by the commission's instructions.

The note of the Allies was sent after the receipt of a German communication on the subject which was termed "insolent to a degree." In this communication, Germany is said to have disregarded totally the tone and spirit of the notes sent by the Allies and to have declared that she was glad to learn the Allies were about to end their military control and permit Germany to revert back to normal.

The note also ignored formal Allied representation to the Berlin government of September 29, concerning the large number of acts of aggression against the Allied military in their work of inspection.

The Allied note of today demands an apology and reparations for recent incidents at Pusan and Stettin. In requesting an immediate reply, the Allies say their patience is about exhausted.

ENGLAND, FRANCE AND ITALY HAVE FULL CONFIDENCE IN NEWLY ELECTED OFFICIALS

NEW BUSINESS BUILDINGS ARE BEING ERECTED

Figures compiled by the Sanford Chamber of Commerce show that at no time in the history of Sanford have building permits reached the magnitude of the total issued from the period of Nov. 1st to 15th inclusive, during which time they amounted to $382,100. This increase is all the more gratifying for the reason that at this time of the year building permits in other communities of Florida invariably show a decrease.

The previous high record for Sanford was made last June when permits were issued for $128,400 worth of new construction. The new permits granted represent the largest building projects ever constructed here, the most important being the new six-story First National Bank Building, which will cost over $175,000. Actual work in this building started this week and the Fuller Construction Company, of New York, contractors for this building, expect to have it finished in six months.

L. A. Brumley and Dr. S. Palestine have also secured permit for a four-story building, directly opposite the site of the First National Bank Building. The Fuller Company are also the contractors for this work, and work on the two buildings will be done simultaneously. The total estimated cost of the Brumley-Palestine Building is $60,000.

Another large project included in November building permits is that of L. W. Phillips, of Orlando, who let a contract for the construction of a new garage and store room building, which the permit shows will cost $29,000. The Milane Amusement Company have let a contract for their new theatre to R. J. Galespie, of Jacksonville, also the contractor for the Melach Building. This new theatre, when completed, will cost $50,000, and will have one of the largest prosceniums in the state and a seating capacity of over 700. It is to be completed by the first of next April.

Anti-Prohibitionists Threaten Formation of a New Party in 1924

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Plans for "intensive" organization work looking to the presidential and congressional campaigns of 1924 are to be drawn up at a conference of state leaders of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment to be held next Monday in St. Louis, it was announced here tonight by W. H. Stanton, executive head of the organization. He predicted that both of the great parties would adopt a "wet" plank two years hence.

"We have no desire," he said, "to get into anything like a third party movement. But it must be obvious now to all that if the two existing parties will not settle the 'wet' and 'dry' question, there will have to be an independent movement that will propose, therefore, to be prepared in advance for such an independent movement if necessary."

And Are Backing Them Before the Lausanne Meet

PRESENTING A UNITED FRONT

Election in England a Vote of Confidence
For the Conservatives

(By the Associated Press) PARIS, Nov. 18.—The chamber of deputies last evening gave a vote of confidence to Premier Poincare on the eve of the Lausanne peace conference and after a month of intermittent debate on the interior and exterior policies of this government. The vote was 462 to 71.

The entire chamber, excepting the extremists on both sides and the Communists, Socialists and Royalists voted in favor of the government.

The debate was left unfinished, being merely adjourned for another month in order to leave the premier free to occupy himself with the Lausanne conference.

M. Poincare virtually gave notice that a final agreement on reparations must come out of the Brussels conference in December or France would take her own measures. He said categorically, there could be no reduction of the French share of German reparations, unless it was in the form of a transfer of part of Germany's debt to France, and that there could be no moratorium without effective guarantees.

ROME, Nov. 18.—The Italian chamber of deputies yesterday voted confidence in the new Mussolini, 306 to 116.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Approximately the probable vote for unopposed candidates at 10,000 each—which is a conservative estimate in the British election—the following is an analysis unofficially compiled here yesterday of the popular vote by parties:

Conservatives, 5,821,346; Labor, 4,326,245; Liberal (Asquithian), 2,784,080; Georgians, 1,501,500; Ulster Unionists, 1,100,000; Independents, 150,000; Irish Nationalists, 12,264; and farmers, 11,496.

Gratification is expressed by most of the morning newspapers as the result of the parliamentary elections. This was, of course, to be expected from the Conservative press, in view of the retention of the Conservative majority, but some of the Liberal newspapers also find certain grounds for satisfaction or at least compensation.

They recognize that the outcome means a return to party government and a disappearance of all their most disliked in the assurance of survival of the coalition long after they regarded its dissolution. "We are rid," says the Westminster Gazette, "of the compromise and subtleties which have made parliament contemptible," while the Daily News declares the election "has blown fresh breath of clean air into discredited parliamentary institutions and rejoices at the establishment of a strong, effective and able opposition."

The Daily Herald, exulting over Labor's successes, anticipating another election within eighteen months, and says:

"If meantime, we play our cards skillfully we ought to have a Labor government without doubt."

MARKS AND FRANCIS

From Henry's story, has been slumping lately, after holding up pretty well for the last couple of years, and Francis is secured. The cause is fairly plain. It is the collapse of German currency and the consequent inability of Germany to meet reparations payments.

FLORIDA BELIEVES IN PUBLICITY

That the people of Florida have full faith in the merit of advertising and are willing to back up their belief with the cold cash, is shown by the following list of appropriations for advertising by various localities, clipped from the New Smyrna News:

FEMININE HUMILITY

In an era of feminism, here is something new, from one of the most eminent women in America. Mary Jarden's first word, on returning from Europe for the grand opera season, is this: "I would rather have built a railroad or won a battle than be Mary Jarden. Men, to me, seem so much more capable of greatness than women that I can hardly name one truly great woman today."

The Jacksonville city council for this year has appropriated $25,000 for publicly work, to be expended by a committee of three councilmen. For the next year the council has appropriated $25,000 on condition that civic organizations will raise a like amount, the whole to be expended by the council committee.—Tampa Times.

TAX FREE BONDS

Any proposal to eliminate the taxing made possible through tax-free bonds is likely to be popular. It is well known that billions of dollars of income have escaped the federal income tax in recent years because they came from tax-free bonds, national, state and municipal. The rich tend to invest their savings in such securities more than do the humbler investors, because they save more by the higher income tax rate is so much higher. As a result, not only is a vast amount of income escaping federal taxation but a great deal of capital is thus kept from productive, constructive use.

VALUABLE ADVERTISING, FREE

At a recent luncheon of the Bartow Kiwanis Club, an exhibit of work accomplished by the publicity department of the Bartow Chamber of Commerce was made, and after looking at it, thinking over it, and trying to measure its value, a member fell to thinking along a kindred line. His mind shaped itself into this question: "What would Bartow have had to pay for the news stories up to that time, at advertising rates?"

KLANSMEN EXPECTED TO TAKE WITNESS STAND AT TRIAL

DE LAND, Nov. 15.—A signed statement by Mrs. Alice E. Shields, witnessed by three members of the Ku Klux Klan who wrote their names, tore off and took away with them that portion of the sheet of paper containing their signatures, is expected to figure prominently in the evidence at the state proposed to introduce at the trial of Mrs. Shields, charged with the murder of her husband, William A. Shields, near here the night of February 6 last.

It has been intimated the Klansmen might take the stand, if necessary, and this possibility has been a topic of wide discussion since the trial was postponed last May until the November term of Volusia county circuit court, which opened today, because of the absence of witnesses for the prosecution.

Shields, who was a native of Moline, Ill., one time prominent in the business life of that city, and member of a widely known family, was sixty years old. Mrs. Shields, thirty-eight years of age, was born in Rockport, Maine, and had been married and divorced twice before her marriage. She, according to her statement, was Shields' fourth wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Shields were on their way to their farm several miles from here the night of the killing when they saw an obstruction in the highway, according to her story. Upon alighting to clear the road, Shields was fired upon by an unidentified man who emerged from concealment at the roadside, a charge of bird shot striking him in the face and causing instant death. Mrs. Shields claimed that after the shooting she was forced from the car and that the slayer attempted to assault her. He later disappeared, she said, and she made her way to the nearby winter home of a middle western capitalist.

The authorities during their investigation of the shooting announced today they were proceeding upon the theory that Shields was killed in order that his wife might realize upon his life insurance, and in the indictment returned by the grand jury Mrs. Shields was charged with murder in the first degree and with having counseled, aided and abetted an unidentified person to commit the crime.

Peter Smith, a seventy-three year old negro who had been employed on the Shields farm, was arrested on suspicion when a deputy found in his home a double-barrel shotgun containing one exploded and one unexploded shell, the former loaded with shot of the calibre said to have caused the death of Shields.

With Smith in jail Mrs. Shields went to the home of her father, L. S. Davis, a Union army veteran at St. Cloud, a colony near Kissimmee, esablished some years ago by members of the Grand Army of the Republic. While there she wrote the headquarters of the Ku Klux Klan in Atlanta, Ga., stating that she was being persecuted, needed help, and requesting that a Klansman be sent to interview her. She was not acquainted with any members of the organization, she wrote, and she suggested that the messenger be given her letter as a means of identification. The Klan complied with the request.

R. S. Mott, assistant state attorney, a few days later received a communication signed "Committee of Investigation, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan," informing him that if he would learn the purported facts concerning the killing of Shields, he should meet at a designated time in a hotel in Orlando a messenger known to him but who knew Mr. Mott by sight. The attorney followed instructions and was piloted to St. Cloud and to the home of Mrs. Shields' father. There, in the presence of three strangers, who he was informed were Klansmen, Mr. Mott obtained a lengthy statement from Mrs. Shields charging the negro Smith with the crime and containing details of the killing. The Klansmen witnessed the document, tore out their signatures and gave to Mr. Mott the letter Mrs. Shields had written to the Klan headquarters in Atlanta.

The statement obtained by Mr. Mott was regarded by State Attorney George A. Decottes as so widely at variance with Mrs. Shields' previous story that he ordered her arrest on a warrant charging murder. The grand jury returned an indictment but failed to find a true bill against Smith after Circuit Judge Perkins had refused to permit Mrs. Shields to appear before the jury and testify against the negro. Smith was released.

The two witnesses whose absence from the state in May resulted in continuance of the trial were Mrs. Lillian Ferrell of Eau Claire, Wis., and H. L. Berry, of Waycross, Ga. Mrs. Ferrell was the housekeeper at the winter home where Mrs. Shields appeared after the shooting. The state attorney in pleading for a continuance told the court that Mrs. Ferrell heard the Shields car pass the house some time before the shooting and that an unusual length of time elapsed before Mrs. Shields appeared. Her testimony was needed, he said, in order to determine what time the killing occurred.

Berry, Mr. Decottes told the court, informed him that Mrs. Shields had attempted several months previously to induce him to shoot and kill Shields, offering to divide Shields' life insurance with him in payment.

ELECTION IN ENGLAND GIVES NEW PREMIER A MAJORITY IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

LONDON, Nov. 16.—At 2 o'clock this morning the positions of the parties, including unopposed members, was:

Conservatives, 145; Labor, 58; Liberals, 21; Georgeite Liberals, 19; others, 6.

Andrew Bonar Law, the prime minister, was elected for the central division of Glasgow.

The results from today's election were coming in slowly at 11 o'clock tonight, but still were characterized by the early features of heavy polling and an increase in the Liberal and Labor vote. It is already evident that the refusal of the Labor party to enter into an election pact with the Liberals will lose seats for both parties. A noticeable example of this was at Stockton-on-Tees, where a Georgeite Liberal was elected with a minority vote of 12,396, the combined votes of the opposing Asquithian and Labor candidates being over 20,000.

Labor made a notable gain in the Farnworth division of Lancashire, where T. Greenall, Labor, was elected with a vote of 13,391.

Are you fixing up the farm this winter? It is the best season to put out trees and plants of various kinds. Don't neglect flowers and shrubs. Send to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., or to your senator or congressman for copies of Farmers' Bulletin 1171, "Annual Flowering Plants," and No. 1087, "Beautifulizing the Farmstead." Don't wait till spring, but send now. They're free.

New Zealand consists of two large islands and several smaller islands in the South Pacific, with a total area of 103,801 square miles, or rather more than that of Great Britain. The population is about 11-4 millions of whom nearly 11 per cent served overseas in the Great War. The principal industries are the rearing of sheep and dairy farming, the chief exports being wool, frozen meat, and dairy produce. It is only quite recently that attention has been given to commercial fruit growing, with apples, oranges and berries and results have been so encouraging as to give ground for the belief that in a few years the export of fruit will rank next to the export of dairy products, which last year amounted to over 80 million dollars.

Europe is said to have many idle men who refuse work they do not like or want to do and yet hope and expect to come to America where they would have to do the same sort of work they decline to do in their home land. There are already over 13,000,000 foreign people in the United States and many of them do not understand our institutions nor speak English.

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE

Mrs. Parkinson, of Osteen, was a caller Wednesday to see her friend, Mrs. Westerdick.
Mrs. Raymond Butler and little Raymond, jr., from Miami, came Tuesday and are visiting her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Volie Williams. Their aunt, Mrs. Austin Williams spent Wednesday with them, also.
Mrs. Geo. Benton and daughter, Alice, of Rochester, New York, are down to look after her property interests here, coming to visit her brother's home Wednesday.

Nearly every one who had a way to get there, was in Sanford on Armistice Day and enjoyed it.

Rev. Burhans has recovered from the dengue, calling at the Ballinger home and later taking dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bollic and Mr. and Mrs. Ehrenspurger.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Swayne and two little daughters arrived Sunday from Boston, Mass., and are visiting Mrs. Westerdick for the present. Mrs. Swayne is troubled with asthma and they will remain here this winter if the climate helps her. Mr. Swayne is a brother of Mrs. Pritchard.

Emil Magnuson came up from Windermere, Sunday in his new 1923 model Ford, purchased in Orlando. George Vihlen is employed in truck driving there now, drove up for him and Mrs. Bengston, Miss Eunice Tyng and Elmer, came with him to see their folks.

Mr. Magnuson and George took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lundquist also attending the services.

All the family called in to see Mrs. Edwin Lundquist on Sunday, grandpa going with them.

We hear Mr. and Mrs. Neil Swanson have sold a part of their orange grove property to a Swiss. It lies opposite the home place.

Rev. Wahlberg was pleased with the number out Sunday evening. While he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Burtleson. He also gave us a short talk at the school.

Mrs. Westerdick returned Sunday, spending nine days at the Conference in Orlando. Mrs. West and baby and Leonard, went down with the others for a couple of days.

Mrs. Campbell and children were out from town Tuesday.

Alfred Ericson and Mr. and Mrs. Bollic have been in to hear Rev. Slack.

Mrs. Girihl Munson and little daughter, Josephine of Savannah, Ga. came Wednesday to attend the funeral. She is the wife of Captain Geo. Munson, of the Savannah Line. They spent the evening with her sister, Mrs. August Swanson.

Emil Magnuson, came up again from Windermere accompanied by Elmer Tyng and Mrs. Bengston to attend the funeral.
Axel Lundquist and sister, Mrs. Julia Nyland, of Lake Mary, were also present and Mr. Letson, of Winter Garden.

Besides a large number from this section, Mrs. Larzand Jonas and Mrs. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Olsson from Piedmont and Mr. Jackson were among those attending the funeral.

We were dreadfully shocked when the news came that John E. Lundquist had shot himself between 4 and 5 o'clock Tuesday morning. All knew there was no reason for the rash act but a sick body and mind. He had a severe sick spell three years ago and a bad fall from which he never recovered. He was respected by all who knew him, having come here from Sweden in 1873 and by hard work had built up a fine grove here with other property. He had charge of the famous Haines grove here for 45 years. He was married to Miss Hilma Magnuson in 1880, a devoted wife, faithful and true to the end and to them six children were born, all of whom were present for the funeral: Mrs. H. G. Lundquist, Edwin and Elmer of this place, Hilmer and wife and child of Wauchulla; Garder, of Pensacola and Aaron of Jacksonville. Frank Miller, after the inquest, had charge of the arrangements. The funeral being held Wednesday in the Lutheran church, Dr. Walker gave comforting words to sorrowing ones assembled. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Campbell sang some beautiful selections, Mrs. West playing: "There Shall be No Night There." The interment was made at Lakeview. Many beautiful floral offerings were made showing the love of his friends and their sympathy for the family. He was born near Stockholm, Sweden, April 5th, 1856, and had made one or two trips back to the land of his birth.

MINE WAGE MEET ADJOURNS

J. E. Phipps made a trip to Fort Meade the first of the week and will leave for Mobile Friday to attend a B. & O. Ry. meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nelmyer were visitors in Orlando Tuesday.

COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION

The International Chamber of Commerce, of which the United States chamber is a leading member, has perfected plans for the establishment of an international court of arbitration for the settlement and adjustment of commercial disputes between different countries. There is nothing political about the international chamber, and its new court will have no connection with governments or their agencies. Twenty-eight nations are members of the big organization and will be represented on the court. At first thought this organization and its latest activity may seem to concern only persons interested in business and commerce. On the other hand, commerce and its branches have been responsible for many of the great wars of history. If an international body can bring about just and friendly commercial relations among nations, as our national chamber of commerce is advancing good will and co-operation among private American commercial interests, who can forget how far it may go in promoting world peace?

China is a large producer of eggs, and singular to say that there are no large chicken farms. The average farm rarely keeps over a dozen hens, yet the total value of 1920 exceeded $150,000,000 for poultry and eggs, of which eggs had a value of $260,000,000. There are large factories in the chief cities where eggs are frozen or dried. The six factories of Hankow alone handle 250,000 pounds of dried eggs a day, or about 16,000,000 eggs. The factories buy eggs by the pound. The eggs are smaller than American eggs. Large quantities of eggs in the shell come to this country. Last winter 20 cars of Chinese eggs came to New York by train from the Pacific coast.

GOLD STAR WOMEN OF WORLD WAR

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—One hundred and sixty-one names of "gold star women"—American girls who gave their lives in the World War—are found on the list made public today by the Women's Overseas Service League, compiled as a feature to Armistice Day. Most of them rest under French soil, some in far-off Siberia, Armenia, China and Manila, and others in England.
Plans for a perpetual testimonial to the (female) service women if the American Expeditionary Forces were announced in connection with the list, which will be presented at the league's convention here in June next year, Chicago's headquarters of the league said in the announcement.
"There is a handsome bronze tablet in the Army and Navy building in Washington memorializing the mules and horses who died in the war, but nothing in Washington is there found a record of the women who died—except army nurses—until we com-

It is the opinion of experts that both insects and plant diseases are increasing, not in numbers but actually of new kinds. And the job is to check their spread. During the winter season many insects seek seclusion and lay eggs for a new crop under the bark of trees. Clean off the loose bark and dig into holes and rake off the cocoons and egg masses. Dead and dying trees are a menace as usually they are full of insect nests. The conflict in the future for the possession of the earth will not be between man and man but between man and insect life. Go after bugs at all times.

Sanford High Girls Lose Opening Basket Ball Game to Orlando

The girls basket ball team of the Sanford High School opened its 1922-23 season on the Orlando court last night and lost by the score of 13 to 8.

Although we haven't heard full particulars from West Palm Beach...

CELERY SEED

And we hope this proves correct as that will give the regulars a chance to grab the bacon away from that just Miami bunch in the game...

All of which makes us think that perhaps these wise 'uns that pick the big five for the state might take into consideration the fact that there are a few that can play two games in two days.

The girls didn't win last night—they got away to a good start.

And they are going to uphold these athletic honors that Sanford is going in for.

And speaking of upholding honors, we would like to know why it is that in picking the all state team, Sanford hasn't been mentioned.

The bowling league hums right along. New records being made and old ones broken.

FOR THE MOVIE FAN

Did you see the Storm last night. Weather map says "Storm" again tonight.

And it will be the same kind of "Storm" as last night.

House Peters is the big guy playing in "The Storm," and without a doubt this picture is one of the best that has been here this year.

The big forest fire scene is the best yet. And the way that girl rides the rapids in a canoe is—well, you must see it to appreciate it.

And the snow storm. Real snow—no fake—and a sure enough storm.

SANFORD HIGH DEFEATS PALM BEACH PIG-SKINNERS

WEST PALM BEACH, Nov. 18.—(Special).—The first eleven from Sanford, contending for state honors, invaded West Palm Beach yesterday and had little trouble in conquering the local eleven in a hard fought game. The final count was 13 to 6.

No word has been received in Sanford as yet giving a detailed account of the game, but in all probability this game with Palm Beach was played with the second string men, or at least a majority of them.

Clash for Dixie Title At Birmingham Today

Centre and Auburn Try to Eliminate Each Other from Five Southern Contenders

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 18.—The Auburn Plainsmen, one of Dixie's pre-eminently great elevens, and the Centre Colonels, whose meteoric rise to gridiron fame in the last few years has placed them well at the top, will meet today in Birmingham in a contest that is destined to remove one of them from the ranks of claimants for the Dixie title.

The two powerful opponents lead the South in total scores this year and neither has lost a game this season that would affect its Southern ranking.

There remain only three other gridiron machines in the same class, Vanderbilt; North Carolina University, and Georgia Tech.

All of which makes us think that perhaps these wise 'uns that pick the big five for the state might take into consideration the fact that there are a few that can play two games in two days.

The program for today will not provide many other games of outstanding interest for many of the elevens from the big institutions will be taking on lighter opponents, but there will be at least half a dozen contests to whose result football followers will turn with keen scrutiny.

The meeting at Morgantown, W. Va., between the University of that state and the University of Virginia will be one them, and the Old Dominion is promised one of its hardest battles of the season.

Two other major Virginian elevens, Washington & Lee and Virginia Tech will meet at Lynchburg in annual match which the Generals won last season, 3 to 0.

Despite the presence of the great Roberts and half a dozen other stalwart Colonels, the loss of McMillan has shown itself in Centre's play this season, especially on defense, and hope was running high at Auburn last night that the Plainsmen, who have been molded into a far smoother running machine than last year, might emerge the victors.

Save for a Christmas holiday defeat by Texas A. & M., the Centre Colonels have not gone down before another Southern eleven since 1920, and they will go into the fray today with their record for versatility and spectacular play backed up by a powerful psychological advantage.

Big Ten Schedule Contains Important Games for Today

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Tomorrow's play in the Western Conference will see three undefeated contenders for the Big Ten championship opposed by teams that may relegate all or some of them to the losing column for the final games of the season a week later.

Chicago plays Illinois at Chicago; Michigan meets Wisconsin at Ann Arbor, and Iowa opposes Ohio State at Columbus.

More than ordinary interest is attached to the Notre Dame-Butler game at Indianapolis tomorrow.

Neither team has been beaten. The Butler eleven has eight straight victories, including a triumph over Illinois at the start of the season.

SANFORD HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Dr. King, of the Baptist Church, spoke at the chapel exercises Thursday morning.

Eighteen players and several others made the trip. Those going were: E. Moye, W. Moye, M. Moye, McLucas, McLaughlin, Cowan, Stone, Flowers, Pope, McAlexander, Aycocke, Swinney, Fiebis, Gunter, King, Peck, Fleischer and Meisch.

Sanford High's girl basketball team has been working hard. These girls will go to Orlando Friday night to play their first game of the season.

It is hoped that they will have as much luck as the football team. The girls, who under Miss Cora Lee Tillis' coaching, have been working for the team are Mildred Holley, Emma Spencer, Maude Carraway, Jean Maxwell, Kiddy DuBose, Anna Kanner, Doris Hand, Lucile Echols, Gayle Marshall, Mary Elizabeth Puleston and Gladys Wilson.

MRS. PHILLIPS, LOS ANGELES MURDERESS, REQUESTS NEW TRIAL

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 17.—Mrs. Clara Phillips, convicted of second degree murder for beating Mrs. Alberta Meadows to death with a hammer, will seek a new trial, and if that is denied, will appeal from the verdict, it was announced by Bertram A. Herrington, her attorney.

"There is a fatal error in the record, and finally Clara Phillips will be freed," Herrington said. "I will not quit the fight until she is."

The motion for a new trial will be made when Mrs. Phillips is sentenced Monday. The verdict, which was a compromise one from a jury of nine men and three women, carries a penalty of from 10 years to life imprisonment.

"I expected to be acquitted," Mrs. Phillips said in commenting on the verdict. "They didn't give me a fair deal. I am going to ask my attorney to appeal, and believe with another trial I can be acquitted. I don't think I will go to the penitentiary. But if I have to go there, I could face life in that place, with the same pose I have here. It would not make much difference to me. All my hopes are crushed, anyway."

The three women members of the jury voted for the death penalty until the final compromise of a second degree murder was reached, it was said.

OPERATORS AND MINERS FAIL TO AGREE AT MEET

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Two sub-committees, one representing coal operators and the other the miners of the bituminous fields, conferring here in an effort to agree on scale at a meeting of miners and operators next January, announced tonight that they had disagreed after an all-day conference and would so report to the meeting of miners and operators tomorrow morning. The announcement was made by Henry N. Taylor, of Kansas City, president of the Southwestern Coal Operators' Association.

Four tentative plans were considered by the sub-committees for negotiation of new agreements, it was stated. One involved a virtual reinstatement of the old central competitive field as the basis, another would have enlarged the central competitive field by the addition of Kentucky and West Virginia and the third and fourth plans were for a National conference of operators and miners to meet an
