Little War Is Slowly Moving Toward Climax

BY JOSEPH MORRIS

United Press Staff Correspondent SHARJA, Trucial Oman To -A little war of great significance is slowly moving toward a climax here on the steamy, palm-fringed shores of the Persian Gulf.

Back in the days when the sun ever set on the British flag. it would have been considered nothing more than a tribal dispute and largely ignored. But it is different today because Britain has bee back to the economic wall and is fighting desperately to retain what remains of her empire.

No place is more important to Britain than the Arabian area with its massive oil production that keeps Britain's industry going. For this reason, the British are ready to risk a reputation already damaged by the Suez attack to arough a hill country rebel who has a pretty good case for rebel-

Citizens should make themselves acquainted with an equalization program instead of listening to the advice of a few. Find out what an equalization program would mean! Why is it necessary to equalize property throughout the county?

This is not a personality program but a program that will benefit each and every citizen owning property inside the borders of Seminole County. There is no other reason whatsoever that could make us favor such Easter a program. Baseball 20th Century Symbol BY WARRYN GILES

Written for the United Press CINCINNATI - I am glad to take advantage of Oscar Fraley's invitation to contribute s few words as Oscar says, "to the great American pastime." Speaking at a baseball ban-quet in 1888, Mark Twain is quoted as saying, "Baseball is the very symbol, the outward and visible expression of the drive and push, and rush and struggle of the raging, tearing, booming Nineteenth Century." It is the same symbol in the Twentieth Century.

I have been asked many times shat I thought were the most important factors contributing to Radamacher, ruler of the ama- ing under Chemeres for three the great popularity of baseball, teurs, on Aug. 22. its deep rooted hold on "young. sters" and "oldsters" alike. In the past five years five cities without major league baseball have either built or voted bond issues to provide funds to build modern stadia, with the sole objective of inducing or encouraging major league teams to locate in their cities. I feel certain some of them will be rerarded for their progressive thinking and effort. Major league haseball should be offered o all sections of the country. I predict that within five years major league clubs will be located in at least three cities not now enjoying that advantage. If ome of the moves which are now being considered materialize, the realigning of some of our higher classification minor leagues will be necessary, if that e-alignment is carefully and objectively planned and completed with the future interest of the entire baseball structure in mind, new league could be formed, and could conceivably become the basic structure of a third major league within a few years.
