House Repubs To Press Tax Bills Ahead of Bonus

SHOWDOWN EXPECTED ON THURSDAY
COOLIDGE FAVORS

Settlement of Tax Ahead of Bonus Issue Will Not Be Dodged

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The House of Representatives today passed a bill to reduce the tax on the sale of real estate, and to increase the tax on the sale of personal property. The bill was passed by a vote of 237 to 177.

Opposed to giving priority to the bonus—a question expected to come to a showdown at a conference of House Republicans Thursday night—Representative Longworth, the majority leader, notified the group of former service men who are demanding a vote on adjusted compensation ahead of tax legislation that no effort would be made to dodge the issue.

For an hour Mr. Longworth was in conference with Representatives Johnson, of South Dakota; Fish of New York, and Andrew, of Massachusetts, who were active in having the conference called. He told them that "we have you beaten and will show you Thursday night."

Coolidge Wants Tax First. The discussion was had after it had been announced at the White House that President Coolidge was in hearty support of plans to give tax legislation right of way over the bonus. At the same time, a White House spokesman, in discussing the tax situation, said the president considered that the surtax schedule carried in the Garner Democratic substitute for the Mellon bill would tend to discourage the investment of capital in business enterprises rather than tax-exempt securities.

The position of organized labor is to the program, called to alter the plans of the Republican soldier bloc. Those who were over the situation with Mr. Longworth later held a conference and determined to go into the party conference prepared to bring about a vote on the priority question.

Another meeting of members of the group will be held before Thursday night's meeting. At the time it will be decided what sort of a resolution will be presented. Leaders in the movement tonight declared they would either support the way and means committee to report a bonus bill by January 21 or recommend its passage as soon as it completes consideration of the administrative features of the Mellon tax bill.

To Bring Bonus to Floor of House. If a resolution offered by the war veterans, is rejected by the conference, bonus proponents plan to bring their fight to the floor of the house. Such a move is expected to be adopted next week, undoubtedly will make provision, they predict, for the discharge of committees.

A motion to discharge the ways and means committee from consideration of the McKenize bonus bill, which is essentially the same as the compensation measure vetoed by President Harding, is now being brought about a record vote in the house. Republicans favoring the bill counting on the support of Democrats to put the measure through.

Mr. Longworth, declaring he was in thorough accord with the administration tax program, said he and other party leaders had not been consulted as to the feasibility of holding Thursday night's conference. Today's meeting with the three former service men was at their suggestion, he said, adding that there was no doubt in his mind that the country was demanding action on tax reduction ahead of the bonus.

At Thursday night's conference Mr. Longworth will propose that the ways and means committee be instructed to complete consideration of all features of the tax bill, report it and then determine

ARMS EMBARGO MORE EFFECTIVE BY STEPS TAKEN

Instructions Forwarded to Customs Officers to Enforce Rigidly All Border Regulations

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Steps toward making rigidly effective the Coolidge arms embargo directed against the de la Huerta faction in Mexico went forward rapidly Tuesday.

The treasury forwarded instructions to customs officers and prohibition enforcement agents to enforce vigilantly all laws and regulations under which business across the border is transacted, while upon request of the state department, the American Railway Association, through its car service division, declared a freight embargo against shipment of arms and other war equipment to Mexico unless approved by a United States government agency.

Order Forwarded. The embargo order was forwarded at once by the association to its members in the United States among whom are all of the major railroads of the country and is to become effective immediately.

The treasury, in addition to telegraphing explicitly directions to border points also notified all port authorities to hold up exports of arms or other munitions destined for the Mexican rebel forces. The action was preliminary to the drafting of regulations to carry out formally the terms of the embargo proclamation issued yesterday by President Coolidge.

Border Lines Tightened. The action looking to an effective tightening of the lines along the border and at American ports was still another move on the part of the Washington administration in his progressively developing policy of giving aid to the Oregon government and at the same time preventing insofar as legally possible munitions reaching the de la Huerta forces.

During the day progress was made toward the sale of equipment from the Washington government to that of President Coolidge through the receipt of cash from Mexico for the transactions. Whether the arms actually have been delivered, however, has not been revealed.

The administration policy with reference to Mexico, however, did not escape criticism from American sources, during the day the arms embargo being assailed from Democratic quarters in the senate. Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, presented a bill which would prohibit the sale of munitions to foreign governments except by the United States government or a private American citizen.

The treasury acted today without awaiting receipt of the formal notice from the state department of the White House embargo proclamation and a result of reports from its agents that they have been having more than the usual amount of trouble in recent weeks with border smuggling. In the opinion of the agents the increased difficulties have been due in a measure to the political disturbance in Mexico.

As a result of the conditions, the customs and prohibition agents have been ordered to make more thorough inspections of all consignments either in-bound or out-bound. The increased effort is expected to lead to a curbing not only of arms and munitions shipments but to the movement of other contraband such as liquor and narcotics as well.

Under the provisions of the freight embargo exceptions are made specifically for the shipment to Mexico of arms and munitions of war as follows: Those on government bills of lading, those authorized by proper military authorities to be exported into Mexico by authority of the secretary of state.

ASHLEY GANG OF BANK ROBBERS KILLS SHERIFF IN A HOT BATTLE

(By The Associated Press)
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 9.—Notorious Ashley-Mobley gang of bank robbers and desperadoes which has made the Florida Everglades its rendezvous for years was wiped out Wednesday morning by Palm Beach county sheriff Fred Baker and posse in a gun battle in which Deputy Sheriff Fred Baker lost his life. Five members of the gang were killed. The battle was fought near the game camp at Fratta in the Everglades starting at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning, officers using a machine gun. Deputy Sheriff Baker was said to have been working for months to locate the gang and on several occasions had seen one or two members but waited until he had them all in camp. He sent word this morning that the stage was set for the raid and the sheriff's posse started, headed by Bob Baker. Deputy Sheriff Fred E. Malphrus was reported slightly wounded. Ad-vice at 11 o'clock said the battle was still raging.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK VOTES TO INCREASE CAPITAL AND SURPLUS

President Forster's Annual Report Pleasing to Directors and Stockholders

Increasing the capital stock from $100,000 to $150,000 and voting to increase the surplus from $25,000 to $50,000 by the sale of additional stock, was the big step taken by the officers and directors of the First National Bank at the annual meeting held at the bank on Tuesday.

Increasing the capital and surplus to the sum of $200,000 by the bank's directors was necessitated by the large growth and increase of the bank's business during the last 12 months, it was stated Wednesday. The latest move of the First National Bank places that institution in the ranks of the strongest financial institutions in this section of the state.

The report of President Forster was gratifying to the directors as it bespoke of the continued progress which the bank is making. Since moving into its new home, the bank has enjoyed almost a phenomenal growth, the report showed. Hundreds of new accounts have been opened in the commercial and savings departments and a large number of safety deposit boxes have been rented. In connection with the number of new accounts opened, the report showed that 100 were opened during one period of 30 days. The deposits of the bank now total over $1,800,000 and the resources amount to $1,800,000.

Following the reading of President Forster's report to nearly 100 per cent attendance of the stockholders, the election of officers was held. The following officers were re-elected: F. P. Forster, president; L. A. Brumley, vice president; J. Miller, second vice president; B. F. Whitner, Sr., cashier; A. L. Betts, assistant cashier.

The board of directors for the year 1924 all of whom were re-elected, is as follows: L. A. Brumley, S. O. Chase, F. P. Forster, T. I. Hawkins, T. J. Miller, B. E. Squires and B. F. Whitner.

That the stockholders of the First National Bank are proud of the splendid growth that the institution has enjoyed this past year, goes without saying. It is quite evident that Sanford and Seminole county is enjoying a most prosperous year, directors declared, and the First National Bank stockholders and officials are glad to note that fact and believe that still a more prosperous year is ahead.

A short statement given out Wednesday by the bank was as follows: "The officers and directors of the bank face the new year with every assurance of a record growth for Sanford and naturally the bank will, as always before, assist in any and every way consistent with sound conservative banking to bring these conditions about, thus living up to its slogan 'A Community Builder.'"

1924 NEW ERA FOR SANFORD THINKS MAYOR

Makes Address Before Rotary Club and Declares He Is Optimistic Over the Outlook

In an address before the Sanford Rotary club of which he was a guest at its weekly luncheon held Tuesday at the Valdez Hotel, Mayor Forest Lake declared that Sanford faces one of the greatest years in its history.

"The year 1924 marks the dawn of a new era in the development of this city," Mayor Lake said, and I am happy and proud to have the honor of being the Mayor of Sanford during such a time of unprecedented growth and prosperity."

Mayor Lake who was recently elected to head the city government for the tenth time since he began serving as a member of the city council is extremely optimistic over the outlook for the coming year according to his talk Tuesday. Sanford began to awaken to the opportunities that were before it some time ago, he said, and the beginning of a new year, the citizens of this city are determined to make the best of those opportunities. With the splendid spirit of co-operation and interest which is being shown now by Sanford citizens it is evident that this year will be most successful in every way.

Mr. Lake stated that he was glad to note that more interest is being manifested in the bond election which is to be held on Friday of this week, and declared that the passage of the issue by a large majority means everything to this city.

Mr. Lake's remarks were loudly and generously applauded at the conclusion of his talk and it was evident that he had struck a popular chord when he declared that everyone should work together in a friendly spirit of co-operation to make this the greatest inland city in the state.

Other guests of the Rotary Club were some prominent Orlando Rotarians among them being Dean Adcock, W. B. Miller, George McCrory and Walter Rose.

AMUSEMENTS

Motion-picture patrons who like plenty of pepper in their service have evidently found the red-hot fare they like in "Crashin' Thru," Harry Carey's latest starring vehicle, now being shown at the Milane Theatre.
This latest release of the Film Booking Offices starts off with a bang and whoop and takes one terrific climax after another a brackneck speed without pausing to ponder on grave social problems or the why or wherefor of it. But it heats up excitement in ladlefuls from the enthusiastic reception being given it by patrons.
The Milane Theatre, meets the thrilling hungry demands of the hour.
Although a delightful love element runs through "Crashin' Thru" the producers of this film must have made up their mind to build up a Western story which would top anything else in its line by at least one or two more thrills than have hitherto been incorporated in any previous story of this type.

ASHLEY GANG

through his right lung, but not before he had emptied 18 rounds into the camp from his three automatics.
Four companion officers carried Baker to safety behind trees.
There he shook hands with them, said goodbye with a smile playing over his face, and a few moments before he expired in the arms of Deputy Sheriff H. L. Stubbs he said, "Well, boys, I did my best."
After reports were made by the various officers and committees, new officers were elected for the coming year, as follows:
Treasurer, M. C. Williams.
Clerk, A. L. Renaud.
Trustee, J. J. Bolly.
Deacon, Ed. Randall.
Sunday School Superintendent, J. J. Bolly.
Assistant Sunday School Superintendent, Ed. Randall.
Ushers, George Saunders, L. Renaud and Harry Kent.
Music Committee, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Kent, and Mrs. Mitchell.

Have themselves outnumbered. Leaving two deputies to watch the dense hammock on which the camp was located, Sheriff Bob Baker and a deputy stole away to Stuart, five miles to the north to spread the alarm and get assistance.
About noon John Ashley, son of the dead man, limped out of the hammock holding one arm and disappeared in the Everglades toward the west. Albert Miller, Baker's slayer, disappeared soon after the first attack. An hour later he telephoned into Salerno for a doctor, reporting an accidental shooting, and has not been seen since.
Augmented by thirty hastily sworn in deputies Sheriff Baker advanced to take the outlaw's camp by storm at noon. It was found deserted save by the wounded woman and Mrs. Wesley Mobley who were keeping watch beside the dead body of Joe Ashley. Five bullets had pierced Ashley's body, one severing the jugular vein. Beside Ashley were two loaded guns. He had sprung from his bed to the attack, dying as he slipped on one shoe.
Tonight three posses of officers and citizens, aggregating 40 men, are searching for John Ashley, Hanford Mobley and Albert Miller. Bloodhounds were unable to follow trails because of a warm rain that has been falling all day long. At 7 o'clock tonight Sheriff Baker stated at Stuart, where his men were refreshing, that he had every reason to believe he was close on the trail of Miller and John Ashley.
At Stuart the sheriff said John Ashley this afternoon called to an acquaintance passing along the Dixie highway importuning him to go to Stuart and procure for him some guns and ammunition. Ashley declared, the acquaintance reported that he had left Albert Miller in the woods dead.

A trail three miles long through innumerable hammocks, high saw grass, and swamp undergrowth led to the gang's camp from the nearest roadway. The camp stood in the center of a dense hammock of three acres, through which it is impossible to see more than a distance of a few yards. Its natural seclusion afforded a safe rendezvous for the bandit moonshiners.
There they had set up one of the largest "still" ever confiscated in this county, and it was said there officers declare, that holdups and bank robberies laid to the doors of the Ashley gang were plotted.

BOND ELECTION

meeting on the night of Dec. 3 which was attended by a large representation of the city. It was the unanimous opinion of that gathering that the commissioners should immediately set about to have measures drawn calling for an election to float bonds for a sum large enough to erect the three utility plants.
On Dec. 11 the City Commission met and passed favorably upon the proposed bond election and included in it not only the sum of $245,000 for the erection of the utility plants but an item of $75,000 for the erection of a city hall, which it was felt is another thing that the city has long felt the need.
The election was set for Jan. 11 and since that time interest and enthusiasm in behalf of the latest progressive steps to be taken by the city of Sanford, has increased by leaps and bounds.

NEW AUTO FIRM TO OPEN HERE

The Pierson-Rogers Auto Company of Orlando has leased the building adjoining Baggett's filling station on Sanford Avenue and will formally open that establishment on Saturday of this week. It was announced Wednesday by F. C. Rogers, the junior member of the firm.

The new firm will have the agencies for the Maxwell, Chrysler and Chalmers automobiles and will have on display in its display rooms the latest model in all three cars. Not only will the company handle the exclusive agency of the three popular cars but will maintain an up-to-date service station with a corps of experienced mechanics who will look out after the needs of the patrons in the way of repairs, etc. Not only will the service station cater to the owners of the above named cars but will also do general repair work for all makes of automobiles.

The Pierson-Rogers Auto Company has been established in Orlando for five years and enjoys one of the largest businesses of any firm in the city. This concern has the agency for the three cars mentioned for the four counties of Lake, Seminole, Orange and Osceola.

The manager of the new firm has not been appointed as yet but it was announced by Mr. Rogers that J. P. Thurmond, for the past two years in charge of the service department of the Orlando branch, will assume the same position here and J. M. Dawson, formerly advertising manager of The Sanford Herald, will be head of the sales department.

MOTORIST ASSN. MAKING PLANS FOR NEW YEAR

"What are the plans of the National Motorists' Association for the coming year?"

This was the chief topic for discussion when delegates representing more than 378,000 N. M. A. members in good standing met at the first annual convention of the association in Washington, D. C., last month.

The progress of the organization in using its influence for the betterment of motoring, its broad policy in handling the vital problems before motorists and its success in building up the largest automobile organization in the world in record time encourages the belief that the N. M. A. will carry out some unusually important plans within the next few months.

Thus the query and, as a consequence, the following interesting statement of the policy as adopted at the convention:

For instance, the N. M. A. has already "pointed the way" with its slogan for safety, "Not traffic safe for the highways but highways safe for the traffic." This revealed the subject in an entirely new light and has already encouraged much more intelligent cooperation on the part of those individuals, organizations and officials who are working for the elimination of the causes of accidents rather than offering temporary remedies.

REQUEST IS MADE CONCERNING 1924 AUTO TITLE TAGS

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Jan. 9.—Persons who fail to properly fill out applications for automobile title certificates and license tags are placing handicaps upon the state officials in charge of issuing these credentials that are unnecessarily delaying the prompt compliance of requests for both. This is indicated in a statement issued today by Ernest Amos, state comptroller, urging that the applications be correctly made out, so that his large force of workers may send out the tags as expeditiously as possible.

The statement follows: "Applications should be covered by one remittance and license tag applications covered by a separate remittance, but both should come in the same envelope.

"They should come in the same envelope because the license tag will not be issued unless the title certificate has been applied for. The reason for separate remittances is that the title certificate money goes into the state's auto-theft fund, while the license tag money goes to motor vehicle license tag fund.

"Unless applicants observe this method of making requests they not only delay the issuance of tags to themselves but clog up the machinery of the department and delay delivery of the tags all around. This is especially true in cases where people make a business of sending in applications for the public, such as notaries public, automobile dealers and others.

"To illustrate, I have before me about 100 applications sent in by one concern, some for title certificates and others for license tags, all covered by one check and that for the wrong amount. Many of these will have to be sent back for correction of individual irregularities."

ENGLISH PLANT OF FORD MOTOR CO. IS LARGEST

The Manchester plant of the Ford Motor Company of England, Ltd., the largest automobile factory in the British Isles, will produce approximately 30,000 cars during the year 1924, according to a recent report. The English company, formed in 1910, began operations in a small factory near London where 870 cars were turned out in the first year. The factory was moved shortly afterward to Manchester, forming the nucleus about which the present mammoth plant employing 2,200 men has developed.

While the company was originally dependent on the Ford Motor Company in America for parts, the new plant includes on its 316,924 square feet of floor space complete up-to-date automotive production machinery for every important unit. Thus the English Ford car, originally a combination of American parts and British assembly, is now 95 per cent British, both in manufacture and materials.

Since its inception 13 years ago the Manchester plant has grown to be the largest plant outside of the United States, and it is estimated has directly and indirectly given employment to 20,000 British workmen.

FACTORY HOLDS KEY TO SALES

There is one factory, at least, in which there is no dispute between sales and production executives as to the relative importance of their departments.

Ask anyone of authority in the sales department of Dodge Brothers, Detroit, which is more important—the job of manufacturing or the job of selling—and you will get an immediate, emphatic answer:

"In our business, manufacturing, by all means."

Ever since Dodge Brothers turned out their first motor car, back in 1914, and even before that time, when Dodge Brothers were building parts for other manufacturers, major stress has always been placed on the building of that product, rather than the selling.

"Build it well and it will sell itself," was their cardinal doctrine. Dodge Brothers believed that a product could not survive long unless it was conscientiously built—that the public would always prefer fundamental merit to superficial glamor; that a car with a real reputation for goodness would always find a healthy market, regardless of the whims of fashion.

The fact that Dodge Brothers have now built and sold more than 1,000,000 cars, seems to bear out this contention in an emphatic way. The million mark was reached December 13, 1923—just nine years and 11 days after the first Dodge Brothers Motor Car left the factory.

OVER A MILLION OVERLANDS HAVE BEEN PRODUCED

Announcement by President John N. Willys of the Willys-Overland Co. of the production of more than 2,000,000 cars on December 15 capped the climax of the most remarkable year that Willys-Overland has had, a year replete with sensational success that has returned this organization to its place far in the forefront among the leaders of the motor car industry.

Mr. Willys coupled this announcement with the statement that Willys-Overland expects to break every one of its 1923 records in 1924 with a production which at present indicates a probable sale of 300,000 cars.

Willys-Overland created the first of its series of unusual announcements in 1923 with the appearance of its new Willys-Knight Coupe.

N. M. A. to Urge Automobile Plank in Party Platforms

For the first time in automobile history, automobile owners of the nation will attempt to have a motor plank included in the national political platforms.

The National Motorists' Association has taken the lead in presenting this subject, following the reception of its delegates and officials recently by President Coolidge at the White House. At that time the president outlined his personal views regarding the automobile.

"The motor car," he told the N. M. A., "has raised the people and has given them a new outlook on life.

"To experience its greatest fulfillment, the motor industry must be provided with good roads.

"It is desirable, moreover, to see that this great enterprise and activity have an equitable method of taxation, and in obtaining these activities and benefits, I want to tender to you my most hearty cooperation and support."

In his address to congress, the N. M. A. also points out, President

Coolidge voiced his policy on highways in these words:

"No expenditure of public money contributes so much to the national wealth as for building good roads."

Since the president's speech has been widely construed as an outline of his platform for re-election, N. M. A. officials believe that the proposal of a plank on motoring will meet friendly consideration at the hands of those who will formally draft the convention resolutions.

Sedan at the New York show. The enthusiasm which this car occasioned here was duplicated at every motor display in the country and in every Willys-Overland dealer's show room, with the result that within 30 days after its announcement almost every possible motor car purchaser in the larger centers of population had inspected this unusual model.

The new product was a novelty in automobile manufacture—not a coupe, not a sedan, not a coach—but a distinctly original and individual creation in motor car design; the first of a series of refreshing departures which marked Willys-Overland's career for the past 12 months.

Red Bird Another Success. Another important message was sent forth early in spring—the new Overland Red Bird, a novel creation in Mandalay Maroon and glistering nickel, set off with khaki-colored top and extra equipment, the first of a new price class. Its success was instantaneous and country wide. This was in a limited measure duplicated in the Willys-Knight line by the building of the Country Club model, a handsome touring car in Cavalier Maroon, also specially equipped. Both of these cars filled a long-felt want for novelty and appealed to the buyers of the so-called "sport" types.

Shortly after the original announcement, the Red Bird was further stressed by an entire month of demonstration and display that greatly increased its popularity.

And Then the Champion. But the height of motoring utility was reached in mid-fall by the announcement of the new Overland Champion, a closed car of unique design, actually introducing to the public something radically fresh, said to be the most divergent useful car so far brought out—the first standard closed car seating more than two passengers for less than $700.

Almost of equal interest to the motoring public were further announcements of new closed car designs on both Overland and Willys-Knight chassis; of the production of the larger Overland with black body and top; of the building of the Willys-Knight Coupe-Sedan in two types, a leather-upholstered body for professional and business men, and another finished in velour, called the DeLuxe model; the Overland Model 91 Touring car in both standard and DeLuxe designs; and the Willys-Knight five-passenger Sedan in both standard and DeLuxe designs.

The Spad for Commercial Car Users. Of particular interest to the business man who operates one of a fleet of delivery cars was the Overland announcement of the new Overland Spad, a delivery car chassis, with standard body types, methods which permit the manufacture of these cars, with highest grades of materials and without sacrifice of rigorous inspection and test, at less cost than has hitherto been thought possible. Overland's last reduction in September brought this model down to $495, f. o. b. Toledo.

Ranked also among Willys-Overland achievements of the past year has been the growth of its dealer organization, which today is practically twice that of 1922.

Able merchandisers of motor cars in practically every community have been obtained to sell Willys-Overland products and in practically every instance the success of the factory in Toledo during the past 12 months can be attributed to the remarkable co-operation extended by Willys-Overland merchants.

The Millionth Car. One more spot of pleasant memory that the past year holds is the production of the millionth Willys-Overland car, an event properly and fittingly celebrated not only by the factory organization at Toledo, but by the entire dealer body.

Sales classes held by hundreds of Willys-Overland merchants in an effort to train new selling talent have been supplemented by a remarkable series of "service clinics" which have been conducted at central points during the past months. These courses have been in charge of specially-trained factory men who have been entrusted with the task of teaching and training dealers' mechanics and service men in the latest and most efficient methods of taking care of Overland and Willys-Knight motor cars. Willys-Overland feels that it possesses the leading dollar-for-dollar value in automobiles; it is our persistent aim to back this product with the best obtainable service.

Sales records for the past year indicate that, even in a year of careful buying, Willys-Overland value has been solidly appreciated and men who have paid more for a motor car in the past have been attracted to Willys-Overland because they have appreciated the company's efforts to build and improve. One hour in the Willys-Overland factory would cause the most skeptical that Willys-Overland is following the most rigorous standards of manufacture, which fact, more than other, has been responsible for the remarkable wave of popularity that has gained Willys-Overland its present position.

Greater Things in 1924. With this series of achievements, Willys-Overland faces the new year on this record. The Willys-Overland factory in Toledo expects to beat every month of 1923 production requirements will exceed 300,000 cars.

Taking America Off Its Feet!

Overland Success is the Talk of the Country

The year just ended has been the greatest of all the fifteen years of Overland history. A great year made by great cars—the greatest Overlands ever built. Greatest in looks, power, action, comfort—and money's worth!

Look at the new Overland Champion, for instance. It brings a quality closed car with features and utilities hitherto unheard of within reach of every purse. America's first all-purpose car—conceded to be the most useful motor car on wheels. The Champion and all Overland models have the bigger Overland engine—brute power with extreme economy. Leaders in economy—leaders on the road—leaders in the many satisfactions they bring to owners. See them. Sit in them. Ask for a sample of their performance.

WOMEN HOLDING IMPORTANT JOBS AT STATE CAPITAL

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 8.—Women are playing no unimportant part in handling the affairs of the state. That this is true may be confirmed by a glance at the personnel of State Capitol employes. There they are found in numbers occupying positions of trust and importance, where as private secretaries and clerks handling documents that necessarily must be of a confidential nature at certain stages of state transactions, they often are the custodians of state secrets which if revealed probably would create sensations throughout the state.

The fact, however, that every member of the cabinet has a young woman as his private stenographer is testimony of their value in places of responsibility. Not only the cabinet members, but the governor also has a woman as his chief stenographer, Mrs. Agnes Bremer, of Live Oak, while the governor's private secretary, L. B. Edwards, who is also secretary to several of the important state boards, has Miss Mildred Jackson, of Tallahassee, as his private stenographer.

Miss Beattie Gibbs, of Tallahassee, attached to the executive offices, knows the details of the offices as perhaps few other persons that have been connected with them. It is Miss Gibbs that usually keeps track of the intricate records of the office, such as a card index of petitions for pardons, and matters of that nature. But perhaps one of the young women in the capitol service that enjoys her work most is Miss Rose-melle Bowen, who handles the routine bulky though they are—of the Confederate Veterans' pension matters. Although she has been on the same job for about 10 years, Miss Bowen never tires of the exact requirements necessary to fulfilling the demands of the position. Her chief regret is that she cannot by her own authority grant some of the innumerable requests that constantly come to the pension board for pensions—those that are excluded by provisions of the law, yet they come so close to being within bounds that it seems there should be some way around.

There is plenty of "elbow room" in Florida. Much land has been put into profitable production, much wealth has been made; but there are plenty more chances.

Making New Markets With Printer's Ink

One of the most striking changes of the past ten years is that which has come about in the important business of housekeeping. In this short time the broom and the washboard have vanished from the housewife's coat of arms, and the comic pictures in which Mary hurls the flatiron at John don't ring true, as they once did.

Broom, washboard and flatiron have given way to suction sweeper, electric washing machine and electric iron. And Mary doesn't hurl the iron at John any longer, not simply because it's fastened to a cord, but be-

What has brought about this new and agreeable state of affairs? Well, how did Mary happen to buy that new iron which has proved such a boon to herself—and John? She saw it advertised, of course. And the multiplied Mary's of today represent a great market created largely through national advertising.

No wonder the alert retailer and the wholesaler have come to hold national advertising in high esteem—for besides making easier for them the sale of goods with long-established markets, quickening their turnover, protecting them against inferior merchandise and benefiting them in many other ways, national advertising is constantly creating markets for new merchandise and opening up new channels of trade.

It is because America reads advertising that the new idea today so swiftly supplants the old. Advertising changes deep-rooted habits. Advertising creates new desires. Advertising sets new and better standards. And all this it does with amazing swiftness—for advertising speaks to millions simultaneously.

The safety razor, the player piano, massage cream, the glass baking dish wallboard, fireproof roofing, the talking machine, soap flakes, canned soup—one could go on indefinitely extending the list of products which today testify to the ability of national advertising to create new merchandise demands.

There is probably no industry today for which advertising has not blazed new trails. There is no merchant, wholesale or retail, the scope of whose business it has not greatly widened.

But the main thing which advertising does for the retailer is to speed up his turnover; that's what makes him a profit.

Thrift Means Financial Independence

National Thrift Week begins a week from tomorrow. During that week all the nation will stress the importance of thrifty methods for the purpose of bringing more success and happiness to our people.

It is well that at the beginning of each new year a week is set aside for this purpose. Americans need to be urged to save. And coming as it does when the year is just starting, Thrift Week makes it easier for any person to make a fresh start toward financial independence.

The greatest men in all lines of activity in the country are endorsing the thrift idea. The benefits that will be secured from this special week will depend entirely on how seriously the lessons of the week are impressed and how permanently the idea of thrift takes hold of those who think of it.

There is little fear for the financial independence of the man or woman who invests his earnings judiciously and who studies how to save regularly from the weekly earnings and puts away a little nest egg for the proverbial rainy day. The smart man or woman who plans to spend all his earnings for a temporary "good time" regardless of the consequences, will soon come to grief.

Sanford presents great opportunities for the thrifty person. It has good banks and good real estate. It offers every possible assistance to the man or woman determined to save.

Ben Franklin's warning should be remembered especially during Thrift Week "Beware of little expenses. A small leak will sink a great ship."

The All-Florida Exhibit Will Help

"What Florida needs above everything else is good, wholesome advertising."

The above statement was made by Governor Hardee in his appeal to the people to support the all-Florida exhibit to be shown next month in Madison Square Garden.

In an editorial Sunday the Palm Beach Post urges all Floridians to learn by heart Florida facts so that they may broadcast them like shoal markers, to guide the destiny of thousands pouring into the state annually in search of homes and wealth and happiness.

Florida will be in the limelight at Madison Square Garden in February. Thousands upon thousands of interested people will view the exhibits and from those exhibits will form their opinions as to the different sections of this great state.

Sanford and Seminole county will be well represented and will have an exhibit reflecting credit on this prosperous section. In neglecting their personal interests to make the display a good one the citizens from this county who have the exhibit in charge are doing a great work. They intend to make Seminole's showing second to none.

Along with the great amount of advertising Florida will receive from this exhibit, Sanford will get its share. It will be good wholesome advertising appealing to the better class of people and the kind desired for this state.

Over A Billion Increase In Wealth

On Monday the department of commerce announced its preliminary estimate of the value, December 31, 1922 of the principal forms of wealth for the state of Florida. The total amounted to $2,423,602,000 as compared with $921,796,000 in 1912 an increase of 162.9 percent. Per capita values made an increase of 103.9 percent.

A gain of over a billion dollars in Florida wealth is shown in the above figures. Florida is a great state. Each year it astonishes the rest of the United States. But yet the state as a whole has only made a start and the coming years will show much greater gains.

THE INDIFFERENT CITIZEN who fails to vote is a greater menace to society than the official who takes hush money.—Daniel A. Poling.

RELIGION, SOCIETY, and Nature. These are the three struggles of man. They constitute at the same time his three needs. He has need of faith; hence the temple. He must create; hence the city. He must live; hence the plough and the ship. But these three solutions comprise three perpetual conflicts. The mysterious difficulty of life results in all three. Man strives with obstacles under the form of superstition, under the form of prejudice and under the form of the elements. A triple necessity weighs upon us. There is the fatality of dogmas, the oppression of human laws, and the inexorability of nature.—Victor Hugo.

My Favorite Stories

By Irvin S. Cobb

This story was old—good and old—before prohibition came in. As I used to hear it, years and years ago, two southern gentlemen of ripened age sat one evening by the hospitable fireside of one of them when the shocking discovery was made that there wasn't a drop in the house to drink. "Jim! Oh, you Jim," called the host and in prompt response his black body-servant appeared in the living room door. "Jim," ordered his master, "I've just found out that the demijohn is empty and here Colonel Doole and I are fairly perishing for a toddy. Throw a saddle on the fastest horse in the stable and grab a jug and light out for town as fast as you can go and bring a supply of liquor back. If you hurry, you ought to be back in just forty minutes. But don't lose any time—I don't believe we can wait a single minute longer than that!" "Boss," proclaimed Jim, "I've gone!" "The roads are powerful muddy, Major," said the guest, as Jim vanished. "I'm afraid your man won't be able to make the round trip on schedule time."

His Thankful Sentiments

By FRANK L. STANTON

I reckon we're feelin' thankful—I reckon we ought to be, Fer the good we've had to the present—fer the future we can't see; Fer things that we call our blessin's—fer the trouble an' the sighs; But fer all the preachin' an' prayin', there's a mist there, 'round the eyes. Yes, I reckon we're feelin' thankful for the life an' light we know— Fer the little love that's left us, an' the love that's under the snow; Fer the hope that the love will greet us somewhere on a golden shore, But in lonesome winter shadows we sigh fer it more an' more! Some of us are divided—some have drifted away; An' the stars are not so beautiful—there's less light in the day! There's a roof that gives us shelter—a table with plenty spread, But the vacant chairs bring heartache when we break our daily bread. But I reckon we're feelin' thankful, on the hills—in the flowerless dells, Fer the little light that's left us—fer the music of the bells; An' maybe we'll see clearer when the clouds are swept away, An' the weary winter is no more, an' we reach eternal May.

FOLLOWING A CONSISTENT COURSE

The Tampa Observer

The announcement in the preceding issue of The Observer of its support of Frank E. Jennings brought forth so many words of praise that The Observer more than ever is convinced that Mr. Jennings will be the next governor of Florida. Mr. Jennings will sweep Duval County, where he and Mr. Martin have long resided. Leading and influential Democrats in their home city have organized for Jennings in herculean strength. These include Frank C. Groover, recognized leader in the commercial avenues, and one of Jacksonville's most constructive developers, a church worker and prohibitionist. Among those most active for Jennings are hundreds of his home people, like A. W. Cockrell, distinguished lawyer, Hon. Arthur T. Williams, manager of Senator Fletcher's campaign, and a capitalist, who gives much time to civic and charitable work; John W. Dodge, for years law partner of Senator Fletcher; Frank O. Miller, Florida's most active good roads exponent, and who lead the temperance forces with Rev. J. A. Taylor in the last legislature; Hon. W. P. Corbett, Edgar Waybright, together with an army of men including lawyers, doctors, bankers, merchants, labor leaders, ministers and men prominent in all worthy trades, professions and crafts. Frank E. Jennings can not be accused of a single ignoble act that he ever did. His strength among his home people is due to the life he has led. When practically a boy—just reaching manhood age, he stumped most of Florida for Prohibition, and at a time when it seemed a forlorn hope. As speaker of the House of Representatives and member of the State Board of Control, his splendid record speaks for itself. Frank Jennings has never forsook a principle or a friend. Those who know him best will testify to his intense love of and loyalty to Florida. Their will be certain corporate

PRETTIEST

Now Claire Scott holds the spotlight as New York's prettiest girl. She won a recent beauty contest and as a reward will be featured in a new movie.
These beauty contests certainly seek out pretty faces, don't they?

TWELFTH NIGHT PARTY.

Very unique and lovely in every detail was the Twelfth night party given by Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Mc-Bride at their home Monday evening.

The rooms were beautifully decorated in Christmas colors with poisettias, evergreens and silver stars.

The guests were received by Mr.
and Mrs. McBride. Mrs. E. D. Mobley and Mr. Ralph Warren were chosen king and queen for the evening and given the seat of honor.
The lights were then turned out.
High up in the east end of the living room appeared an electric star, while "Star of the East" was softly played, as if by magic tiny colored lights appeared among the evergreen and silver stars, that banked the stairway.

A long high bench covered with red velvet trimmed withinsel, on either end of which was a cast candle representing a desert caravan laden with packages of various shape and size—done in white paper tied with tinsel and illustrated with tiny lights was placed before the king and queen. These were the gifts to be chosen by the guests. This caused much merriment as they regardless of shape or size contained only a card board star and tiny silver pencil, the evening favors. The king and queen were presented with a package which contained large popcorn balls.

A guessing contest was then participated in, the 12 months was represented by some decoration or effect in the rooms and the lady or gentleman guessing correctly was given a prize. Miss Demarius Musson received the cut glass basket and Mr. Victor Mc-Laulin a large apple pie. Victor seemed to be very popular. But, he carried it home with him.

Delicious punch was served throughout the evening.

A little game of Ruth and Jacob was played, after which refreshments of coffee, chicken sandwiches and cake were served.

The guests enjoying this lovely party were: Dr. and Mrs. E. D.
Mobley, Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Speer,
Mrs. Fannie Musson, Mrs. R. H.
Renick, Mrs. L. A. Micky, Misses Margaret Miller, Ollie Vera Gilson, Demarius Musson, Fannie Reba, Musson, Faye Micky and Dorothea Micky. Messrs. Ralph
Warren, R. Miller, Victor McLaulin, Ivey Stewart, and LeRoy Williams.

COUNTY FEDERATION LUNCHEON.

The officers of the Seminole County Federation of Women's Club were entertained Tuesday at a most enjoyable luncheon at the Valdez Hotel.

The long table was centered with a large crystal basket filled with sweet peas in pastel tints and the place cards were also in floral designs.

During the luncheon, a general discussion of the Federation work and the County Federation page in the Sanford Herald. Chairman from each club were appointed to work with the Federation chairman, Mrs. John Leonard.

Covers were laid for Mrs. John Leonard, Mrs. Endor Curlette, Mrs.
B. G. Smith, Mrs. W. B. Ballard,
Mrs. Porter Wakefield, Mrs. W. O.
Wolcott, Miss Agnes Berner, Miss
Elizabeth Musson, Mrs. B. J.
Starling and Mrs. R. E. Tolar.

SEMINOLE COUNTY FEDERATION CLUBS.

(As Reported by Mrs. John Leonard.)

Scarcely two years have passed since the organization of the Seminole County Federation, but this time has been marked by definite efforts on the part of the club women to better the child life in their respective communities;
secure parks, inspirational beauty spots for the coming generations;
plan for the educational advancement of the county; protect bird life; encourage a higher order of citizenship through the right kind of Americanization; look after the needs of our poor, delinquents and other unfortunate; and last but certainly not least in the work of bringing into closer touch with each other on the grounds of a common interest the women of our county.

Our child welfare committee together with the League of Women Voters secured from the county commissioners one year ago the appropriation for the county nurse.
We held the following clinics last year: one clinic for mid-wives;
one hookworm clinic, and a course in bed side nursing sponsored by the red cross and worked largely through the different women's clubs in the county. This bedside nursing class was most successful for it worked not only with the white but also with colored classes. Every child in the county schools was weighed and measured as well as being given a complete physical examination. The Geneva Parent-Teachers club put hot tubches in their rural school and equipped a playground. Tooth brush drills were given in every school and tubes of tooth paste given away. A course in physical culture was given and many of the schools have purchased Walter Camp's Daily Dozen, and take them every day. All the schools in the county except three own their own scales; the health crusade in every school in the county. The Geneva school gives once a month a health play which the children enjoy immensely and at the same time learn important health laws without any undue pain. A Better Baby week will be put on December. Literature is being distributed to the mothers on how to feed the School Child and all follow up work carries the nurse into the home where she tries to improve conditions when necessary.

The county federation now owns a beautiful five-acre park on the Wekiva river. This is not to be cleared but left largely in its wild tropical state but running through the park at intervals will be trails and on the plateau in the park will be placed a camp concrete fireplace for cooking. This is also the county's bird sanctuary. Every club in the county owns a park and the city of Sanford owns five.
Our educational committee is raising a $100 scholarship. This will be completed by Christmas and loaned to a girl now in Tallahassee. We are now working on plans for a county library system.

Each town in the county will in the next month be made a bird sanctuary and the federation owns possibly the largest bird sanctuary in the state, being an 80 acre tract located at Altamonte. The deed will pass to the federation as soon as the town passes the ordinance declaring themselves sanctuaries.

Our Americanization committee chairman is making a tour of the county schools teaching the correct usage of the flag and instilling in our boys and girls reverence for our country and its laws. Each school is to be given a book. The Flag Code.

Our social service committee has secured help from the county commissioners and administers the money for one poor widow and orphans. One home has been investigated for social agencies outside of the state. The county farm has been furnished entertainment several times, and the convict camp inspected and literature sent to the convicts. Clothes have been furnished several families.

Our meetings are always enjoyable from a social standpoint. The women meet and have a short session in the morning and then ad-jour for a luncheon served by the hostess club. We always try to have one or two good speakers but haver crowd our program.

At our last meeting Mrs. E. M.
Galloway, Mrs. B. F. Blackman and Mrs. John Fuller were honor guests and each brought a message of inspiration and good cheer.
Mrs. John List spoke on beautification of highways and parks.
During the remaining months of our club year we are going to conduct a club institute and have a parliamentary law class under Mrs. E. M. Galloway.

ization in this state are successful

MISS ADDIE MULLER OF SANFORD IS WINNER OF GOOD ROADS ESSAY CONTEST FOR STATE OF FLORIDA

Member of Sanford High School
Is Recipient of High Honor—Stands Fourth in National Contest.

Competing with more than 150-000 high school students from all and was judged to have one of the four best essays entered in the National Contest, put on by the views," New York City.

Miss Muller's essay was entered in the fourth Annual Good the Highway Education Board.

The subject for this year was "The Influence of Highway Transport on the Religious Life of My Community," and the reward for first place was a $4,000 scholarship in any college or university in the United States. The first prize went to Miss Dorothy Louise Roberts, of Harlan, Kentucky, and in ad-

Miss Marjorie Mathews, of Portland, Oregon; Ben Thompson, Peo-

School, of Tallahassee; fourth place, Mr. Richard N. Merrill, Jr., of Miami High School, Miami, Florida. In speaking of the contest, B. C. Riley, Director of the General Extension Division, says:
"Miss Addie Muller has not only won national distinction for herself, but her achievement reflect great credit upon the Sanford school under the supervision of Mr. T. W. Lawton, County Superintendent, G. E. McKay, High School principal, and Miss Sara Muriel, head of the Department of English.

The Influence of Highway Transport Upon the Religious Life of My Community.

In my home county in northwestern Oklahoma the religion once called No Man's Land, the development of good roads and of all religious activity have been in-separably connected, ever since the first dusty covered-wagon stopped beside some creek.

The religious life of a community is a broad term; it includes more than church attendance and praying meetings. It covers spiritual plunge of living, and all intercourse that lifts to a higher plane.
During the last few years immense changes in modes of living have taken place, changes directly traceable to the more general construction of good roads.

Only those who have lived in No Man's Land can even faintly realize what heartaches and struggles its settlement has meant.
Many a homestead was built though wetfully of some little white church, "back east," its peacefulness, and the friendly faces of those who were brothers and sisters in that church. Many a strong man, without quite defining his need, wanted the inspiration of forceful sermons and solemnly swelling music. But it takes money to build churches, and a fair number of members to support them, and the settlers were poorly equipped for either. When roads were only dusty trails, broken by canyons and sandhills, friendly callers were few.

As more settlers came, roads were improved somewhat—the very worst crossings on the creeks were fixed, and the deepest sand strawed. Sunday schools, and essentially church, were held in the first one-room schoolhouse, and no one who has not experienced a death of religious influences, can estimate the real value of Sunday school there. Men and women drove weary miles over the toilsome roads, to feel under the "peace that passeth understanding," and old, old miracles were translated into the marvels of their daily surroundings for the little children.

Small the reluctant miles were a barrier. A home missionary, daredevilly daring heat or cold,
driving a team of Indian ponies, might meet many warm welcomes in the isolated settler's home, and yet encounter refusals to attend church services, because they were too far off, and the roads bad, or because, in the rush of farm work, horses worked all week must rest on Sunday. The work of better organized churches, in the few small towns, had little influence outside the immediate limits of the town. The roads were still a hindrance; the roads, and lack of any means of speedy transportation.
A 10 mile trip then was, to many, the equal of one of 50 today. In summer the long sandhills and slippery clay slopes, and in winter the heavy rains, drifted roads, or frozen slush kept people at home. Motor vehicles were rare, for their value was unproved, and the condition of the roads discouraged their use. Newspapers stimulated interest, however, and curiosity did its share. With the arrival of automobiles, good roads became a necessity, and a lasting change took place, resulting in good straight roads, passable in all seasons. It took perseverance and hard work, but men who dared
No Man's Land never quitters.

Because they forced the improvement of roads, automobiles helped in many ways. It is hard to believe, even when one has witnessed the change, how much they have increased religious activity.

All life was broadened; young people's societies furnished experiences and developed thought along many lines, encouraging civility and helpfulness. Sunday school and church came to mean more, when distance was no longer an obstacle. With better communication it was easier to practice the deeper principles of Christianity, love and kindness.

If some home missionary of the early days, absent 15 or 20 years, should come back now, driving his wiry little ponies, he would see that many of his prayers for No Man's Land have been answered, and he could well say with Ollie Sheppard:
"There are roads that clamor to greet the dawn,
Wandering restlessly on and on—
Through all the years and life;
But these that march across the plain,
Past banners of goldenrod,
Out of the sights and sounds of men,
Are leading back to God."

Lake county had the honor of putting the first bale of 1923 cotton on the market last week and it is believed that Grovland has the largest cotton yield in Lake county.

Probably more celery has been sown in Seminole county to date than ever before. An effort is being made to have early celery celery in the belief that it will be less liable to attacks of insects and diseases. Optimism prevails.

The fine asphalt roads of Taylor county have proven a blessing to the people during the past excessive rainy weather, and the wonder is how people managed to get along for so many years without them.

Florida Basketball Team Begins to Train For Coming Season

By The Associated Press
GAINESVILLE, Jan. 9.—Work of preparing the Gator varsity basketball team for the coming season will now begin in earnest, with the holiday season over. Director White, of the athletic department, will train his charges with the view of entering them in the Southern Interscholastic Conference tournament to be held at Macon, after they have finished their regular season. The season will be opened here January 14 and 15 with games against Southern College. Later a trip will be taken through Georgia, South Carolina and parts of North Carolina, while on February 21, 22 and 23, the Gators will play Southern, Rollins and Stetson, respectively, in their home state.

Rubbing leather shoes with vaseline occasionally keeps them moisture from passing through

BLAME FOR FIRES IS ON LIGHTNING AS WELL AS MAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—
Man and lightning share equal responsibility in the fact that forest fires in California were more destructive during the past year than in any other state, according to a report issued by the United States forest service here.

Eighty-six per cent of all the California fires in national forecasts were extinguished by forest rangers and their co-operators before more than 10 acres had been covered by flames. Forest officers obtained convictions against 120 violators of state and federal fire laws.

"The tailor-made cigarette and the unextinguished match continue to be the greatest enemies of our forests," said District Forester Paul G. Redington. "It is surprising also to note the number of fires started by careless campers.

Doc Hiller says: Avoid spending money (even pennies, nickels or dimes) for needless things, just you come to want needed things.

In The World Of Sports

JACK DEMPSEY IS ENJOYING VISIT TO "MAGIC CITY"

MIAMI, Jan. 9.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, is enjoying his little visit in Miami. So is Teddy Hayes, his running-mate and social secretary. The pair motored to Miami from Jacksonville, arriving in the Magic City early Sunday evening. They are staying at the Hotel Marlborough and as a result, two telephone girls are nearly frantic in their attempt to handle the several times a minute calls, which have poured into the hotel ever since it became known that the McAllister was Jack's hangout.

Dempsey spent a restful night in his room overlooking the bay and remarked Monday morning that even though a little rain made things look dreary that he liked Miami and while he might stay only a day or so at this time that the chances for his return were excellent, with the possibility of his appearing here in a match with some other clever lad in the immediate future.

I talked for more than two hours with the world's champ Monday morning before the latter. That is to say, during that period of time represented in the difference between the latter razor and whiskers, which Jack is having removed when I dropped in. Lounging back in a comfortable chair, his head propped up by a real fluffy McAllister pillow, Jack was enjoying his shave, a selection on his portable music box, chauffeured by Teddie Hayes, who spent his odd moments answering the telephone and looking disconcerted at a long, deep dose of castor oil which he said he required to help him keep his youthful appearance.

Of his future appearances in the ring, Jack had little to say. "You see, it is this way," said Jack. "Those handling that part of the game back in New York make all arrangements. As I know the date and who my opponent will be. Right now it would appear that there will be no matches until next spring, because there are no places available for a big match. I will probably meet Tommy Gibbons again and also Firpo," said Jack.

Speaking of Firpo, Jack admitted that had the Argentine rushed into the ring but Coach White at all times kept the count down, the first stringers remained in just long enough to run up a comfortable lead.

The great offensive play of Kenneth Hilt, "Red" Newton and Edgar Jones combined the sterling defensive work of Oie Marshall and Dick Brown, were features in the sluggish encounter. "Bulldog" Thomas, a substitute forward, proved himself the star performer on Joe Barchan's list of basket-keepers.

Florida's varsity will be a great team this season, but naturally in the opening competition last night they were not up to near standard. Jimmy White, the best basketball coach that ever appeared here, has taught his proteges basketball, and before another two weeks have passed the Orange and Blue Cagers will unquestionably be dangerous.

No player last night was more outstanding than young K. B. Hilt, one of the few letter men from last year's squad. Coach White called upon Hilt to start at the pivot position and he played his post excellently. His three field goals were nice shots, while the manner in which he covered the floor was without fault.

"Red" Newton, the Hillsboro flash, played jam-up ball, as did Jones, but the latter was a good ways off in his shooting, something that the entire team can well practice.

A good slogan, "A garden for every country home."

Kipke Undecided About What To Do

Kipke is considering several offers but has not yet decided which position he will take.

"Ark" Newton Drives Golf Ball 307 Yards

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 9.—"Ark" Newton, captain-elect of the Gators 1924 football eleven and all-southern halfback, is believed to have set a record recently on the Gainesville links when he drove a golf ball for a distance of 307 yards. The Florida celebrity got his drive in a foursome with three other members of the 1923 grid machine, Sam Cornwall, center; "Cy" Williams, tackle, and Owen Pittman, halfback.

Golf has become a popular sport with the Gator grid men and daily the links in Gainesville are being crowded to their capacity.

Besides the grid potential Sarzens, and other golf players of note include Gordon, former amateur state champion; Murr Brumby and others.

GATOR CAGE TEAM IS WINNER OVER THE G. H. S. TEAM

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, GAINESVILLE, Fla., Jan. 9.—Exhibiting a varying brand of basketball before a small gallery of spectators, the University of Florida varsity quintet last night defeated Gainesville High school in a listless exhibition. The score was 21 to 12. A host of substitutes rushed into the fray but Coach White at all times kept the count down, the first stringers remained in just long enough to run up a comfortable lead.

The great offensive play of Kenneth Hilt, "Red" Newton and Edgar Jones combined the sterling defensive work of Oie Marshall and Dick Brown, were features in the sluggish encounter. "Bulldog" Thomas, a substitute forward, proved himself the star performer on Joe Barchan's list of basket-keepers.

"Whitey" Taylor Is Navy's Grid Leader

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 9.—Edmund B. (Whitey) Taylor, of Lima, Ohio, has been elected captain of the Naval Academy football team for next season. The election took place on the train en route home from Pasadena, Calif. Taylor is the youngest member of the team, 19 years old. He has played a fine game at left end this season and also center on the LaCrosse team.

The football party reached Annapolis shortly after noon Monday and received a warm welcome. Shapley fullback, received a broken collar bone during the game, and is not expected to be able to play basketball this year. Callen, halfback, retired from the game with a badly bruised arm, but it improved greatly during the trip home.

The players gave up their Christmas leave to take the trip and play the game against Washington, and lost but two days from their regular work at the Academy.

BIG MOMENTS OF SPORT

Luis Angel Firpo had just been floored again. He had been floored many times before, but on this occasion he had flopped upon his back in the ring with a thud that usually denotes extended sleep. For the first part of the count he remained sprawled out almost motionless. At the count of five he began to squirm and writhe. At the count of nine he was just lifting himself up, wearily and painfully. He had barely beaten by a half second the fatal toll that meant in this case total extermination in less than two minutes. Anyway, one more punch would end it.

Close to 80,000 persons were howling and yelling as Dempsey, now careless, rushed in to finish the act. But in place of lunging into a clinch Firpo came up swinging his right fist. The flat caught the unguarding Dempsey on the jaw. His knees sagged. His eyes became glazed. And Firpo, sensing the change, continued the assault. Dempsey for a moment kept away, and then with a half swing and a half lift Firpo caught the champion between ear and shoulder as Dempsey's feet flew into the air and his big tanned body came hurtling through the ropes, head down. There was $1,000,000 on the wing in that second and from 80,000 throats came a wild screech that never will be forgotten.

The mauled and battered challenger, almost out, was upon the verge of victory. One sure blow, delivered with coolness and precision as Dempsey finally climbed back to the ring, meant a new champion. The big Argentine flat came swishing through the air, but in the midst of the wild, flurried attack Dempsey's waving, swaying head put off disaster after one of the greatest thrills ever known to any sport.

Is Part of Immense Irrigation Project Being Built For Agricultural Purposes.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The world's largest dam, the central unit in an irrigation scheme so vast in its conception as to make even Americans who are accustomed to gigantic irrigation and engineering projects marvel at its immensity, is built on the Indus River in India. American government irrigation works in western states such as the Roosevelt Dam, seem small in comparison to Indus River project near Sukkar, in the province of Sind.

The Indus Dam, which will be known as the Lloyd Barrage in honor of Sir Lloyd George, governor of Bombay, will be nearly a mile long. Two bridges will be built upon it, one at a low level slightly above the alignment of the river banks and the other at a high level. The railings of the high level bridge will be 770 feet above the foundations, or as high as the tower of the Woolworth Building in New York. The foundation stone of the dam was laid on October 24, 1923, and 20,000 workers are employed, but the project will not be completed, even under favorable working conditions, until June, 1930.

Then the work of regulating and conserving the flow of the Indus by means of 60 massive steel gates, each weighing 50 tons, will be possible. While the dam is being built another army of workers is busy constructing a gigantic network of canals which will carry water over an area almost as great as England.

Immediately above the dam seven canals will carry the silt laden waters of the Indus over wide areas of the province of Sind. The Rohri Canal will be 295 miles long, with 2,300 miles of branches. The central rice canal, 87 miles long will irrigate 500,000 acres of the finest rice growing land in India. Similar waterways will radiate in all directions from the central reservoir. Three of these canals will be wider than the Suez Canal.

When the Lloyd Barrage is finally completed, the Province of Sind through which the lower Indus flows, is expected to share the prosperity of the Punjab, which is

Strange Wild-Cat Killed At Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 9.—A wild cat—of the species commonly termed "bob-cat"—about three feet long and weighing about 35 pounds surprised W. J. Flowers, of Oakland City, a suburb of Atlanta, recently while he was hunting rabbits in a thicket south of Lakewood Heights.

The big cat appeared suddenly before him at a distance of less than 50 feet, and fell dead when a charge of shot pierced its heart. The presence of the animal in the suburbs is declared very unusual as it was believed that all of the species had been exterminated some years ago.

The color is a light gray with black stripes. Mr. Flowers stated that he intends to have the skin mounted.

due mainly to the successful irrigation of the upper reaches of the river. Vast areas of arid desert land will become rich fields of rice, cotton and wheat; there will be large movements of natives from the densely populated districts of India, and the sparsely inhabited banks for 300 miles along the lower course of the Indus will become a hive of industry and form another great granary for India and the British Empire.
