State Officials Ask For More Farm Debt Relief

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Farm Belt governors and state legislators bring their message that "the crisis is real" to President Reagan and Congress today and the Senate, pressed by a farm-state filibuster, considers more aid to debt-strapped growers.

Senate Republican leader Robert Dole of Kansas warned legislators their lobbying effort would do little good, but other senators urged them on.

Kansas Gov. John Carlin, a Democrat and president of the National Governors Association, said Sunday as the group opened its winter meeting that without more federal aid, one out of three farmers could be forced off the land.

Governors as well as legislative delegations from 15 farm states today were to meet with Agriculture Secretary John Block and lobby members of Congress to vote for more debt relief.

The legislative group included the 105-member

South Dakota Legislature, scheduled to arrive late today, and large delegations from Nebraska, Kansas, North Dakota, Wisconsin and Iowa.

The legislators tried unsuccessfully Sunday to meet with Reagan.

Carlin said governors will "communicate the depth of the problem and the absolute necessity for significant action — unless this country by policy simply wants to consider it a positive to wipe out a third or more of the American farmers with all the consequences for rural America."

Carlin said he is "anxious" because in Kansas, the "farm situation is about to go into a depression."

Farm state governors will tell Reagan and Congress, "The crisis is real, both short and long term," he said.

One Lane Of I-4 Shut Down

Motorists will find the congested Interstate 4-state Road 436 intersection even more so over the next three weeks as the state Department of Transportation adds lanes to the SR 436 overpass bridge.

Beginning today the DOT will be closing down one lane at a time on I-4 at Altamonte Springs while two lanes are added on the bridge, according to DOT spokesman Michael Beha.

Beha said that motorists should be aware that over the next three weeks one lane will be closed from time to time beginning with the westbound lanes.

"This is a fairly small operation and the fact that there are three lanes in each direction makes it easier," he said. "While the bridge is being enlarged from four to six lanes on 436, it will be necessary to close a lane on the interstate because of scaffolding."

Enlarging the overpass will cost $770,000 and Wiley N. Jackson of Roanoke, Va., is the contractor, Beha said.

The entire road widening project on SR 436 is scheduled to be completed by the end of July, he said.

No Burning: County Still Tinder Dry

There were no brush fires in Seminole County over the weekend but a burning ban remains in effect because of dry conditions.

A dispatcher for the state Division of Forestry, which issues burning permits, said the ban was being extended on a day-by-day basis as weather conditions warranted.

"According to the forecast this morning we're not expecting a breakthrough in the dry weather," John Clayton of the Division of Forestry said.

Although the area has received rain since the January freeze, which dried up foliage and made the county and the state a virtual tinderbox, Clayton said it was not enough and high winds continue to keep the area extremely dry.

About 2,000 acres of Seminole County have been scorched by about 50 fires since the freeze, Clayton said. That figure does not include the number of fires within each of Seminole County's seven cities.

The eastern part of the county around Geneva and Chulota has particularly susceptible for brush fires, Clayton said.

Most of the fires have been caused by people burning trash without permits, he said. Also, there have been a number of roadside blazes caused by cigarettes thrown from passing cars, he said.

Evidence

Sanford City Commissioner Bob Thomas, right, turns over a bag of garbage that was tossed into the yard of an Academy Manor residence over the weekend to Police Chief Ben Butler early today. Police will attempt to discover who threw the trash. If the person can be identified he or she could be charged with a second degree misdemeanor and upon conviction could face a $100 fine and 30 days in jail. Thomas said the bag contains not only garbage but envelopes and other written material containing the names and addresses of people living in the Lake Monroe area. Thomas also said despite city efforts to clean up lots off McCracken Road in the past few weeks the property is again filled with trash and garbage.

Another Fire Engulfs A Manila Hotel

MANILA, Philippines (UPI) — A fire of undetermined origin engulfed a hotel in Manila's tourist district early Monday injuring five people, including two who crawled out of smashed windows to escape the flames, authorities said.

It was the seventh hotel fire in the Philippines in four months, and police cited "a pattern of arson and terrorism" in the blazes.

The fire broke out shortly after midnight in the fourth floor of the six-story, 21-room Icaya Hotel and Restaurant. Firefighters took more than an hour to put out the blaze and smashed windows to rescue guests.

Hospital sources said five people sustained minor burns and lacerations. Hotel owner Emerito Ho said the injured included two Filipinos who crawled out of a smashed glass window on the third floor and slid to the ground through a huge, cylindrical advertising lamp.

Sixty-eight people died in six other fires in the past four months, including 25 at the five-star Regent of Manila hotel that burned down two weeks ago.

Police Brig. Gen. Victor Natividad said, "There's definitely a pattern of arson and terrorism" in the fires. He said he was following leads that indicated opponents of the 20-year-old government of President Ferdinand Marcos were responsible.

He declined to elaborate, saying "we're not discounting other possibilities. We're looking into all angles."

Natividad said there were no security guards at the hotel. See HOTEL, page 2A

Longwood Man Gets 7 Years In Loan Scheme

By Deane Jordan
Herald Staff Writer

A Longwood man accused of being the mastermind behind a scheme that bilked $280,000 from businessmen by charging them fees to arrange loans through fake banks was sentenced in Federal Court to seven years.

Victor Murgio, 68, was sentenced in Orlando Saturday by visiting U.S. District Judge

Walter Hoffman of Norfolk, Va. Murgio lives in the Sweetwater Oaks area.

Murgio is expected to file an appeal, according to Assistant U.S. Attorney Stephen Calvaca. Murgio is free on a $200,000 appeal bond, Calvaca said.

According to Calvaca, Murgio was convicted in March 1983 on 24 of 25 counts of conspiracy and fraud. He reportedly operated Murgio and Sanborn Associates in Orlando and Toronto.

The company advertised in The Wall Street Journal offering loans from Caribbean or European banks at low interest rates. But the banks were fake as were corporations and middlemen involved.

When a businessman expressed interest in getting a low-cost loan, the company would ask for expense money and charge various fees to line-up appointments. The businessmen would then meet with various purported officers of different corporations — supposedly involved in the loan process — and then each fake officer would charge a certain amount, Calvaca said.

Hoffman also fined Murgio $24,000, according to Calvaca.

Four other defendants, all living out of state, received sentences from probation to 4 years.

Khadafy To Blacks: Destroy 'White America'

CHICAGO (UPI) — Libyan leader Moammar Khadafy says he stands ready to arm a black army in the United States to destroy "white America" and set up an independent state.

Khadafy spoke by satellite Sunday to the 1985 Nation of Islam International Savior's Day Convention, hosted by Louis Farrakhan, whose controversial remarks last year prompted the Rev. Jesse Jackson to repudiate Farrakhan during Jackson's campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Speaking in broken English,

Khadafy urged the 400,000 black soldiers in the U.S. Army to leave the military and create a separate force.

"You have the force. You have the soldiers," Khadafy told an estimated 13,000 people at the convention. "Call them now to leave immediately. This number is enough to create a strong army to the future enemy. We are ready to give you arms because your cause is just."

Khadafy, introduced by Farrakhan as a "fellow struggler in the cause of liberation for our people," assured blacks who take up his call that he would fight beside them.

"We are with you. Don't worry. You have to trust us. We will fight together shoulder by shoulder. The final victory will be soon," he said.

"This country must be destroyed," Khadafy said. "They (white Americans) refuse to accept you as American citizens. This means you are obliged to create a separate and independent state."

He said whites have sealed their fate by failing to accept blacks: "The whites force you to do this by refusing you in political and social life."

Farrakhan also called for an end to white America.

"It would be an act of mercy to end the white man's world because your world is killing you and us and all of humanity," he said. He called on American Indians and "whites of good will" to join the fight.

Last year, Farrakhan, who had endorsed Jackson, created controversy by describing Adolf Hitler as "a great man" and Judaism as "gutter religion." Jackson later called the remarks "reprehensible and morally indefensible."

At the convention, Farrakhan rebuked black leaders for looking to the government for assistance, and praised the president for cutting entitlement programs.

"Thank God for Ronald Reagan," Farrakhan said. "Don't look to the same white father that your slave-mentality grandparents looked to. You've got to look to yourself."

Farrakhan called for the formation of a group called People Organized Working for Economic Rebirth to establish a black-run corporation to supply goods and services in the black community.

Downtown Project Near Completion

City Manager Interviews Set

By Donna Estes
Herald Staff Writer

Sanford's downtown beautification project could be completed by March 4.

If the Sanford City Commission at its 7 p.m. meeting today approves the low bid for resurfacing 1st Street from Sanford Avenue to Oak Avenue, the project is expected to wind up in about seven days.

City crews that have worked on the project since last July are scheduled to complete the city portion of the improvements Thursday.

And Macasphalt Inc. of Orlando, which submitted a low bid of $16,629.38 for the resurfacing, can come into the city as early as Friday to begin the resurfacing, City Manager W.E. "Pete" Knowles told the city commission in a memo.

Knowles said Macasphalt estimates it can complete the resurfacing virtually over the weekend.

The beautification project, estimated to cost $300,000, began in mid-summer, 1984. The project includes the laying of paving brick at intersections within the downtown improvement area from Magnolia Avenue to Park Avenue, as well as the construction of flower planters, installation of antique-style street lights, planting of bushes and flowers, and the conversion of the first block Magnolia Avenue south of 1st Street from a street with vehicular traffic to a pedestrian mall.

Three firms, in addition to Macasphalt, submitted bids for the resurfacing. They are: Basic Asphalt & Construction Co., $22,914.50; C.A. Meyer Paving & Construction Co., $28,808.80 and Tri-State Asphalt Corp., $27,824.75.

In other business, Knowles will tell the city commission that appointments have been made for their interviews with the five top applicants, chosen by the board, for the city manager position.

Interviews, each day at 4 p.m., are set up as follows: James Turner, city manager of Orono, Me., Friday; William Cook, city manager of Kingsport, Tenn., Saturday; Alan Tandy, city manager of Gillette, Wyo., March 5; William McGill, city manager of N. Miami Beach, March 7 and Frank A. Faison, former county manager of Henrico County, Va., March 8.

The city commission last week reviewed all 101 applicants for city manager, narrowed the field to 11, including Assistant City Manager Steve Harriott, and then using a point system, chose the five, listed above, to be interviewed.

Three of the five — Turner, Cook and Tandy — were on a list of top 10 recommended by a citizens' advisory committee, appointed by the city commission to review the applications.

The commission wants a new city manager in place before Knowles' retirement on April 30 begins.

Knowles is also recommending that the commission at its meeting tonight set a minimum fee for permits under the city's new arbor ordinance at $5 plus $5 per acre or a fraction thereof, up to a maximum of $200.

This is the same fee charged by Seminole County.

The city commission adopted the ordinance several weeks ago requiring property owners to get a city permit if a tree as large as six inches in diameter and three feet high is to be cut down and the tree has the potential to grow to 15 feet.

NATION IN BRIEF

DEA Chief: Mexicans Helped Agent's Kidnappers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A drug trafficker suspected in the kidnapping of an American drug enforcement agent apparently got help from the Mexican police to escape, the chief of the Drug Enforcement Administration says.

DEA Administrator Francis Mullen said Sunday that Carroll Quintero was stopped only briefly by police and then allowed to leave Guadalajara, where DEA agent Enrique Camarena Salazar was kidnapped Feb. 7.

Salazar was kidnapped in Guadalajara, 350 miles northwest of Mexico City, by suspected ringleaders of the country's illicit industry.

Mullen acknowledged that recent car-by-car searches at the Mexico-Texas border were aimed at getting the attention of Mexico and added, "I believe it has worked."

U.S. Customs agents Sunday began relaxing the searches and predicted traffic flow at nearly two dozen crossings would return to normal today. The delays choked up traffic along the border from California to Texas and waits averaged about four hours.

Meese Becomes AG ... Finally

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A year-long fight fueled by election-year politics and charges of ethical lapses and prolonged in the end by crisis in the Farm Belt came to a quiet end today as Edwin Meese became attorney general.

Meese, who emerged victorious over the weekend from the swirl of controversy surrounding his nomination, informally took the oath of office today, taking over from William French Smith.

His 63-31 Senate confirmation Saturday closed the books on a grueling year of challenges to his ethics and personal dealings that saw President Reagan unwavering in his loyal support for a longtime aide.

A law-and-order conservative who has served at Reagan's side on and off for 18 years, Meese expects to be sworn in March 10 or 11 by Chief Justice Warren Burger in a formal ceremony.

Until then, the 53-year-old native Californian, who prosecuted pot smokers and anti-war protesters as a deputy district attorney and joined the staff of Governor Reagan in 1968, will divide his time between the White House office and the Justice Department.

Woman Doctor Subdues Gunman

WARE, Mass. (UPI) — A doctor, held hostage with eight other people by a crazed gunman in a hospital emergency room, thought she was going to die until she noticed the bleeding man weakening and "just grabbed the damn gun."

A nurse and a maintenance man rushed to help Dr. Laura Plasee subdue the man, ending the two-hour ordeal for eight employees and one patient at Mary Lane Hospital.

"It was touch and go the whole damn time, and I really didn't think I was going to make it out alive," said Plasee, 30, a third-year medical resident and mother of two from Worcester.

During the siege, the man fired a semi-automatic rifle repeatedly — first at the floor and windows and then randomly, Plasee said.

None of the hostages was injured, but the suspect, Matthew Kelly, 21, was treated for a severe hand wound police believe was self-inflicted. He was taken to Bridgewater State Hospital for psychiatric evaluation.

permit can be a second-degree misdemeanor up to a third-degree felony, depending on the size and circumstances surrounding the fire, according to Seminole County Fire Investigator Ray Pippin.

If a person loses control of a fire and it burns another person's property, he or she could be held liable for the damage and pay up to a $1,000 fine.

Clayton adds that the Division of Forestry also charges the liable person for the cost of putting out the fire.

"There are not too many people we have trouble with after that happens," Clayton said. —Rick Brunson

Polk Joins Fray, Nabs Suspect

Seminole County Sheriff John Polk usually lets his deputies catch the bad guys, but when Polk saw a man drive around a railroad crossing gate he gave chase and collared a suspect.

The man was initially spotted at the crossing on 25th Street just east of Old Lake Mary Road, Sanford, at about 3:10 a.m. Sunday. Polk pursued him and found the man in his car behind a chemical plant on 20th Street, a sheriff's report said.

But when Polk identified himself and told the man he was being charged for attempting to elude an officer, escape and resisting arrest the man jumped back in his car and drove away again, the report said.

Polk blocked the man's car with his and the suspect jumped out and ran. He was caught by deputy R.L. O'Dell who had been summoned via radio. Upon further investigation, a charge of driving with a revoked license was added, the report said.

Russell Tomlin, 40, of 2020 Hawkins St., Sanford, has been charged in the case. He was released on $500 bond and is scheduled to appear in court March 6.

BURGLARIES & THEFTS

Michael Nielson, 26, of Orlando, reported to deputies that $50 and a $200 TV-radio combination were taken from his car while the vehicle was parked at 1900 Howell Branch Road, Winter Park, Thursday.

Jewelry worth about $1,100 and a $325 handgun were stolen Thursday from the home of Thomas G. Gundermann, 48, of 661 Moss Drive, Altamonte Springs, a sheriff's report said.

Nancy Carol Lindo, 31, of Camino Court, Altamonte Springs, reported to deputies that her purse, which with its contents has a value of over $100, was snatched from the front seat of her car while the vehicle was parked at Club 436, Lake Howell Lane, Altamonte Springs, around 10 p.m. Thursday. Mrs. Lindo told deputies when her husband, Donald, 29, began asking bystanders about the theft he was knocked to the ground, kicked and beaten by several people, a sheriff's report said.

A hitchhiker picked up in Seminole County on Feb. 9 may have stolen a $375 handgun from under the passenger's side seat of the vehicle of John C.

Nix, 51, of 2234 Palm View Drive, Apopka, a sheriff's report said. The theft of the .45-caliber pistol was reported to deputies Thursday.

A homemade go-cart worth $150 was stolen from the carport of James Phillip Walters, 32, of 145 Nashua Ave., Longwood, around 2 p.m. Thursday, a sheriff's report said.

Part of an inactive burglar alarm worth $300 was stolen from a house being built at 418 Twisting Pine Circle, Longwood, between Feb. 18 and Thursday, according to a report Orlando builder William Blackton filed with deputies.

Almost $7,000 worth of jewelry including several rings, gold chains and cuff links were stolen from the home of Meyer Fluke, 58, of 1998 Kenaston Drive, Maitland, Thursday, a sheriff's report said.

Copper tubing worth $750 was stolen from lot 150, Wekiva Cove Trail, Longwood, Wednesday or Thursday, according to a report Orlando builder Henry D. Craven of Orlando filed with deputies.

In September, as the campaign moved into full swing, Reagan announced $650 million in federal loan guarantees for troubled farm debts. Only $25 million was used through January.

Under political pressure, the plan has been modified twice this month to help more farmers — the second change forced by Senate Democrats who started a filibuster blocking for four days a vote on the confirmation of Edwin Meese as attorney general.

Unsatisfied with those adjustments, Democrats held out until they won a promise to debate more debt relief on the Senate floor today. The House also will debate the issue this week.

Dole told legislators Sunday the administration is willing to pump necessary amounts of money into the existing debt relief program but there will not be any efforts beyond that.

"If you don't like what we have, I'm not certain you're going to get much more," he said. "I kind of believe we've reached a point where kind of not much more is going to happen in the immediate future."

Dole said, "We have to be very candid. We can't help every farmer in every state."

But Sen. John Melcher, D-Mont., predicted Senate passage of more debt relief.

"I think it's rather timely you folks are here this week," he said. "There's nothing like having advice from home that's determined advice and insistent advice."

State Sen. Jim Allen, chairman of the Kansas Senate Agriculture Committee, said, "If we do not have help immediately, the next 45 to 60 days, we won't have to worry about the long-term."

State Rep. Sam Morris, a Pennsylvania Democrat, said the problem is not so bad in his state but, "It doesn't take much imagination to see it coming."

WEATHER

NATIONAL REPORT: Weekend rain and snow melted by record warmth combined to wash the Midwest with floods today, forcing hundreds of people to abandon their homes while workers piled sandbags along rivers nearing their highest levels in decades. Unseasonably warm weather continued today from New England to the Southeast. Atlantic City, N.J., established a record high today of 68 degrees just after midnight. Records for the day and the month were set Sunday in 24 cities. Weekend floods punched a 30-foot hole in a Michigan dam and drowned an Illinois man in his home. Today, scores of roads were closed and hundreds of residents were evacuated in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and western New York. The Maumee River was six feet above flood stage early today in Defiance, Ohio, and was not expected to crest until noon. Defiance College students helped pile sandbags, while 225 residents spent the night in a church. Albert Shippe, a National Weather Service hydrologist, predicted central Indiana would experience its worst flooding today "in 20 to 30 years." St. Joseph County was declared a flood disaster and Fort Wayne officials said they expected their third worst floods of the century. City offices in Fort Wayne were open on a 24-hour basis and about 500 volunteers placed 60,000 sandbags along the city's three rivers.

IN BRIEF

Chernenko Ends 2-Month Absence; Still Appears Ill

MOSCOW (UPI) — A wheezing President Konstantin Chernenko, appearing for the first time in eight weeks, cast his ballot in nationwide elections but his waxy face and wooden movements showed he has been ill.

In a carefully orchestrated television appearance Sunday, Chernenko, 73, appeared obviously tired and still recuperating from the illness that had forced him to cancel all public functions since Dec. 27.

Friday, Gribahn told an election rally that Chernenko's doctors forbade him to deliver the traditional closing campaign speech.

Sunday's surprise appearance put an end to weeks of speculation that Chernenko was critically ill and near death.

Chernenko was shown sitting at a desk, then standing stiffly at the ballot box but there was no footage of him walking, neither inside the building nor of his entry and departure, an indication he might have needed assistance.

Election Called A Sham

ISLAMABAD, Pakistan (UPI) — Voting began today in a national election President Mohammed Zia ul-Haq said would be a step toward ending nearly eight years of military rule, but which his political opponents boycotted as a sham.

On the eve of the election, Zia told reporters that despite the opposition call for a boycott, he expected 40 to 50 percent of Pakistan's 34 million eligible voters to go to the polls to elect a parliament.

Girl, 10, Still Faces Sex Charge

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — A 12-year-old boy and a 10-year-old girl who had sexual intercourse should receive counseling, not criminal records, their lawyers say.

Robin Faber, representing the boy, and Roberta Fox, handling the girl's case, criticized Miami Beach police and the state prosecutor's office for their roles in the case. The children were arrested after admitting they had sex.

In the midst of a public uproar, a state prosecutor has agreed to drop charges of sexual battery against the boy, Faber said Sunday. But Fox said she had not been told whether charges of lewd and lascivious conduct would be dropped against her client.

The boy was arrested on Dec. 19 and detained for three days at a youth center after the girl admitted to her mother that she had sex with him Dec. 17 at his parents' home. She was arrested on Jan. 16 and told police she had willingly participated with the boy.

The girl was not detained. The arrests were disclosed Friday, leading to public furor. Miami Beach police and the prosecutors office exchanged accusations over who was responsible for the arrests. Faber and Fox said the youngsters should not receive criminal records.

Police said assistant State Attorney Paul Mendelson ordered the boy's arrest, but Mendelson angrily denied that and said he was told of the case only after police had already arrested the child.

7 Dead In Bloodiest Week This Year In IRA Campaign

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (UPI) — The bloodiest week this year in the outlawed Irish Republican Army's campaign to end British rule in Northern Ireland has left seven people dead.

Police said the latest victim, a former member of the Protestant Ulster Defense Regiment militia that backs up police and troops in routine security patrols, was shot and killed by gunmen late Sunday.

Douglas McElhinney, in his early 40s, was shot "several times in the head" as he sat in his parked car in the predominantly anti-British Rosemount area of Londonderry, 80 miles northwest of Belfast, police said.

Witnesses said a van pulled up alongside McElhinney's car and gunmen fired an automatic weapon before speeding away. Police said he died almost immediately.

There was no immediate claim of responsibility for the killing, but police sources said the shooting had the hallmarks of the IRA, which has stepped up its attacks on security personnel in its bid to end British rule in Northern Ireland.

Earlier Sunday, the IRA claimed it killed an unemployed laborer for being a police informer, but a Belfast police spokesman called the death a "brutal killing without justification."

The body of Kevin Coyle, 24, married with three children, was found slumped in a Londonderry street Saturday night with a single gunshot to the head.

Coyle's death came less than 24 hours after a troop patrol ambushed and killed three IRA fighters that police said were preparing to attack a security target in the town of Strabane near the border with the Irish Republic.

The killing of the three IRA fighters was heavily criticized in the Catholic community.

British troops in Northern Ireland are under orders not to fire without warning unless their lives are endangered. More than 60 soldiers have been prosecuted for shooting incidents since 1973.

17 Nabbed In Gambling Raid Freed From Jail

All 17 suspects charged in a Seminole County sheriff's raid on a reputed high-stakes gambling house on the outskirts of Altamonte Springs have been released from the Seminole County jail. Some posted bond and many were freed without bond.

A woman initially nabbed in the raid making the total 18, was not charged, deputies said today.

The men were arrested just before midnight Friday after Seminole SWAT team members battered open the front door of the Altamonte Men's Club and 40 lawmen moved in to break up a what they called a long-standing poker game.

Sheriff's spokesman John Spolski said the stakes were high in the games dealt in the playing house located on North Street at county Road 427. However he would not say just how high the stakes were except to say some pots were in the thousands of dollars. Deputies were assisted in their investigation of the alleged gambling activities by an informant who joined in the play during a two-month investigation.

Charged with gambling, keeping a gambling house and possession of gambling paraphernalia was Lynn Hopson, 51, of 102 Salem St., Altamonte Springs. His bond was $5,000. David Lester Barnes, 21, of 312 Teakwood Lane, Altamonte Springs, was charged with possession of cocaine and possession of cocaine with intent to sell after deputies reportedly spotted him drop a plastic bag to the floor of club as they moved in. The bag allegedly contained several foil packets of cocaine. Barnes' bond was $8,000.

Floyd Nelson, 45, of 98 Spring St., Altamonte Springs, owner of Floyd's Pool Room next door to the club, was charged with possession of alcoholic beverages and possession of alcoholic beverages for resale. His bond was set at $100.

Deputies reported finding eight lottery tickets in the possession of Carl D. Wilson, 29, of Leonard St., Altamonte Springs. He was charged with gambling and possession of lottery tickets.

Others charged with gambling and released on $100 bond were: from Altamonte Springs — Crosby Harris, 57, of 121 Leon St.; James Berkina, 48, of 443 Dunbar St.; James Earl Vimer, 42, of 716 Black Bottom; George Watkins Jr., 106 DeSoto Ave.; James Roosevelt Stevens Jr., 30, of 204 North St.; James Curtis Mandy, 61, of P.O. Box 1011, Marker St.; and Norman Junior Griffin, 22, of 432 Ford Drive.

From Orlando — Louis McGriff, 44; Bette Harold Jr., 48; Preston Moore, 50; Fletcher Andrews, 47; Clarence Prazier, 53.

L.C. Johns, 45, of Leesburg, was also charged with gambling.

Docs Know What Ails Vid-Kids

It's 8:30 Saturday morning. Do you know where your children are? Lamentably, they may be perched in front of the television set, trying to decide whether to watch "Dungeons & Dragons," "Smurfs," or "Turbo Teen." Such mindless programming — and the shows mentioned here are but three of a couple dozen — has prompted a task force of physicians to call for changes in broadcasting aimed at children.

The doctors are right on target. Particularly noteworthy is the task force's sponsor, the American Academy of Pediatrics, whose members see the effects of inferior TV programming in children who are indifferent to violence, children incapable of amusing themselves, children unable to distinguish fact from fantasy.

Not all children's TV is insipid, of course: PBS offers the highly acclaimed "Sesame Street" and "Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood"; ABC often scores with its "Afterschool Special." Those are exactly the kinds of programs the pediatricians' task force wants to encourage.

To that end, the group sensibly proposes that pediatricians first educate themselves about the consequences of TV viewing, then counsel parents and children. The task force also suggests that pediatricians support lobbying campaigns aimed at improving program quality.

That recommendation is fine as long as the aim is not to legislate program content, an activity that could seriously abridge the First Amendment's guarantee of free speech.

The proper targets for lobby efforts are the producers of kid-vid trash, the networks and affiliates that peddle it, and the advertisers that sponsor it. The excuse that kids watch the stuff because they like it (and not because there's no other choice) strikes us as lame.

Potentially most effective, perhaps, is the recommendation that doctors counsel parents. Ultimately, parents remain the gatekeepers. It's surprising how many of them forget that the TV set's on-off control and the word "no" are powerful weapons in the fight against inanity on the airwaves.

Space Funerals

Has anything come along lately that is crazier than the idea of shooting the ashes of dead people into orbit?

Here we are spending billions to try to clean up our environment and we decide to clutter up the one remaining part of it that we have not already polluted beyond repair.

The Reagan administration has given the OK to an outfit from Florida that will charge you $3,900 to put the ashes of your loved one into a space capsule that will be shot into orbit 1,900 miles above the earth. The capsule will have a highly reflective outer surface so you can see it pass overhead on clear nights — a sort of traveling tombstone.

As one reporter put it, you will be guaranteed that the ashes will remain in orbit for eternity or 83 million years, whichever comes first.

The U.S. Department of Transportation, headed by Elisabeth Dole, granted the request for this piece of madness because Mrs. Dole felt it complied with President Reagan's advocacy of commercial space launches.

We certainly hope this is not what the president had in mind.

Use of space for commercial purposes such as laboratory experiments and the manufacture of products improved by weightlessness ought to be encouraged. But using it for the disposal of earthy residue ought to be rejected.

BERRY'S WORLD

Who Keeps President's Fans Away?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan says he has never intervened "in any of the security things that are done."

He made the remark in an interview with the Santa Barbara News-Press in which the reporter told him that many military personnel at Point Mugu, where Air Force One lands in California when Reagan is vacation-bound, are disgruntled because they do not get to see him.

The reporter noted that the personnel are involved in missile work and all have "super secret clearance," but are nonetheless kept away.

Regan said that sometimes some of the families of the personnel are turned out and that he says "a few words to them."

"And I've never asked who does that, or who determines that I've never even inquired or intervened in anything like that."

One letter-writer to UPI complained that the president and Mrs. Reagan "went to the people telling them the president needed another term to finish the job he started. ... Now, we are being told that because of his age he wants more time away from the White House. In the first term, the first lady talked of the lack of privacy. Now it is the president. So why did he run again? many would like to know."

On the age question, Reagan's never fails to bring down the house when he quips about his own longevity.

At a recent ceremony in which technology awards were given, Reagan recalled that President Rutherford B. Hayes once was "shown a recently invented device."

"That's an amazing invention," he said. "But who would ever want to use one of them?" He was talking about a telephone. I thought at the time that he might be mistaken."

The president and British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher have formed a mutual admiration society that has stood them in good stead and promoted Anglo-American relations.

And in terms of technology, the British leader is not above emulating the master communicator.

After Reagan made a big hit in Britain speaking from a teleprompter — two screens that carry the speech line by line — Thatcher learned the technique. And when she spoke to a joint session of Congress, she used teleprompters. But she acknowledged she had some trepidation.

Told that she was as good as Reagan, she said, "Not quite. ... I'm not so used to it and I'm always a little worried that one of them might stop working."

President Reagan is getting ready for a busy springtime of travel. He will fly to Quebec City March 17 for an overnight stay, talks and socializing with Canadian Prime Minister Brian Mulroney.

In May he has a 10-day European tour staked out, starting with the Economic Summit in Bonn, a state visit to Germany, a speech before the European Community in Strasbourg, France, and state visits to Spain and Portugal.

DON GRAFF

The Coming Carnage

Most Americans approve of the death penalty.

In an Associated Press poll released at the beginning of the year, 84 percent of respondents — an all-time high — endorsed it in some form.

Only 12 percent were unequivocally opposed. Four percent were undecided.

The figures do not surprise Charles Fulwood, coordinator of Amnesty International's campaign to abolish capital punishment. High public approval is inevitable, he says, when the issue is presented in general terms. But when it is posed in respect to specific crimes, the percentages show significant variations.

He can point to the same poll as evidence. A clear majority — 57 percent — approved only under certain circumstances, such as cases involving the killing of children or police, multiple murders and murders for hire. Only 27 percent would impose it across the board in all murder cases.

Further, many penalty supporters — more than half of those approving in certain circumstances — also believed the penalty is imposed unfairly, with minorities and the poor more likely to be condemned for their crimes than more advantaged defendants.

Statistics support them. Of the more than 1,400 inmates on death row today, more than 60 percent are unskilled. Roughly the same percent were unemployed at the time of their crimes.

The first execution following a 10-year moratorium took place in the United States in 1977 to intense publicity. It didn't last. There were no executions the next year, two in 1979, none in 1980, one in 1981, two in 1982 and five in 1983, concentrated in a few states — Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Texas.

Public reaction has been minimal, even with a jump last year to 21.

At Amnesty, they think that may be because the cumulative effect has yet to hit home. It could begin this year, with the possibility of as many as 60 executions. When they begin clearing out death rows throughout the country, the public attitude may change.

Enough to effect that lopsided majority in favor of capital punishment?

It could be. Fourteen hundred is a lot of people, Amnesty points out. There will be a lot of blood being publicly let.

FBI Uses 'Shield' In Donovan Case

WASHINGTON — The FBI has hidden behind technicalities in the Freedom of Information Act to protect itself from disclosing information that might suggest the G-men were less than aggressive in their pursuit of allegations against Labor Secretary Raymond Donovan.

The information deleted by the FBI from its FOIA disclosure later became part of the basis for Donovan's indictment for grand larceny and filing false statements.

How do I know what the FBI deleted from the document that I obtained under the information act? My associate Tony Capaccio got an unadulterated copy of the document from another source.

The blacked-out information constituted seven lines of an FBI teletype dated Jan. 10, 1981. The teletype was from the FBI's New York office, which had been assigned to work on the background check of Secretary-designate Donovan.

The heart of the Senate Labor Committee's concern over

JEFFREY HART

Conservative Heaven

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Conservatives in and around the Reagan White House are in a state of euphoria, and the marvel of it is the thing happened so quickly and so effortlessly. All of a sudden, the upper-level staff of the first term are gone. All of a sudden, no more squabbling among Baker, Deaver, Meese and Clark. Meese and Clark, broadly speaking, believed in the "Reagan revolution," while Deaver and Baker sought to modify it in the interest of a more central image.

But their revels all are ended, and a new and somewhat startling cast of characters takes center stage at the White House. Former Secretary of the Treasury Donald Regan, now chief of staff, is a Reagan implementer and runs a tight ship. What Reagan wants, Regan wants — and if you leak things to The Washington Post, well, clean out your desk. Most welcome and startling was the White House acquisition of Patrick Buchanan, former Nixon speech writer and also columnist and TV commentator. Buchanan will be White House communications director, replacing David Ogden, but will also assume some of Mike Deaver's former duties as presidential counselor.

Buchanan, a savvy hard-liner and also superbly articulate, thus moves into a key position.

The atmosphere in the White House among conservatives is festive, as if a great load has been lifted — as, from their point of view, indeed it has. Jim Baker and his lieutenant Richard Darman are off to the Treasury Department. Of the "pragmatists" at the upper levels, only Deaver remains. He has little to do, and patrols the corridors. Oddly, though he wants to make money in the private sector, he is staying around until May. But there is a song in conservative hearts these days.

Meanwhile, the Old Maestro carries on with utterly deceptive ease. Just before the State of the Union address, he downed a glass of Perrier water with congressional leaders and swapped some stories. Then he went before a joint session of Congress and, among other things, announced that we may have changed "forever" the relationship between the government and the people.

This may not be an exaggeration. All along, it has been assumed that Reagan was "blithely ignorant" of the evils of the deficit. Do you recall John Anderson's remark in 1980 that if Reagan wanted to cut taxes, increase defense spending, and balance the budget he would have to do it "with mirrors"? Do you remember George Bush's 1980 characterization of Reagan's program as "voodoo economics"?

Well, the awareness is beginning to gradually permeate official Washington that the old witch doctor, wanted those large deficits all along. They are his weapon to force Congress to cut back on federal programs that Congress would not cut without such a gun to its head. Even Speaker Tip O'Neill, who has spent his political lifetime soaking the taxpayer, is today talking about educating social spending.

ROBERT WALTERS

Brief Era Of Justice

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (NEA) — When California's legislature in 1975 enacted a landmark law governing labor relations in agriculture, the state embarked upon a noble experiment "to insure peace in the ... fields by guaranteeing justice."

A decade later, however, California's experiment is in danger of failure because of Gov. George Deukmejian's hostility to the concept of equity for field workers seeking to improve their lives.

In the mid-1970s, Gov. Edmund G. "Jerry" Brown Jr., a Democrat, nominated five people to serve on the Agricultural Labor Relations Board and implement the new statute.

During the late 1970s and early 1980s, the ALRB conducted almost 1,000 elections to designate collective bargaining agents, considered more than 4,500 charges of unfair labor practices and rendered approximately 400 legal decisions.

Within weeks after succeeding Brown in 1983, Republican Deukmejian sought to undermine the ALRB by appointing David M. Stirling, a former Republican state legislator sympathetic to the growers, as the board's general counsel.

Under the law, the general counsel has total and unreviewable control over charges filed with the ALRB.

The average number of complaints issued annually has dropped precipitously — from 140 to fewer than half of that number — since Deukmejian and Stirling took office.

Claiming that the UPW previously "got everything it wanted" from the board, Stirling vowed to alter the agency's "total philosophical direction."

The case of the Abatti Produce Co. of El Centro, Calif., illustrates his commitment.

In 1981, the board imposed a $10 million penalty on Abatti after finding the firm guilty of refusing to bargain in good faith and illegally firing union activists.

Last year, Stirling flew to El Centro — in a private plane provided by Abatti — and offered to settle with the company for about 10 percent of the original fine.

One Deukmejian appointee already is a member of the ALRB and another has been nominated by the governor but has not yet been confirmed by the state Senate.

When a third seat becomes vacant next January, Deukmejian could gain political control of the board itself — and terminate a brief era of justice for California's farm workers.

Lyman Gets Big Kick — State Title

John Nelson
Herald Sports Writer

LONGWOOD — When Tom Barnes took over the Lyman girls soccer program, there was just one thing left for him to do — win a state championship.

After all, with all of his girls returning from coach Cathie Well's state runner-up, there was just one more step to scale.

The Lady Greyhounds completed that long climb Saturday night before 750 fans at Lyman High School. They bounced back from a 2-0 deficit at halftime to trim South Plantation, 3-2, on Dawn Boyeson's goal to capture the State 4A Soccer Championship with a perfect 24-0 record. For two years, Lyman is a sparkling 48-1.

Last year, Lyman lost to Coconut Creek in the finals 3-1. Therefore, this year's victory was satisfying for first-year coach Barnes and his girls. "It feels great," said Barnes. "I was a parent last year, now a parent and a coach this year. And it feels even better."

The victory was a replica of Friday's win.

Soccer

"We've never been down by two at the half," Lyman assistant coach Laura Dryden pointed out before Friday's victory over Coral Springs. However, for the second consecutive night the Lady Greyhounds were down 2-0 in the first half, but both times they came back to defeat their opponents by one.

Lyman overcame Coral Springs Colts, 6-5, in a sudden death shootout last Friday after 110 minutes of play at the semifinal game Friday night. The next night they were in a similar situation at halftime (2-0), and came back to win once more.

At first seemed the Greyhounds were going to dominate the Paladins but Plantation turned around to control the ball in Lyman territory. The Greyhounds couldn't penetrate deep into the Paladins' half because of quick defender Beth Walder and strong tackler Debbie Weston controlling the tempo.

Lyman's top scorer, forward Sheila Mandy, played with a strained right leg which added to the 'Hound's offensive problem. Despite the injury, Mandy controlled the centerfield attack with her speed and superb dribbling.

Plantation's strong pressure paid off 17 minutes into the game when forward Suzanne O'Loughlin kicked a 25-foot bomb crossing from right to left just over Lyman goalie Lisa Chatman.

The Paladins went right back at the Greyhounds continuing their controlling the ball. "We weren't getting possession of the ball in midfield," said Barnes, which again proved costly for the 'Hounds.

Plantation forward Jean Carano received a long pass from midfield, dribbled through defenders toward the goal, then centered the ball to O'Loughlin. A line drive shot by O'Loughlin into the right corner of the net gave the Paladins a 2-0 lead.

Lyman rebounded with a shot over the bar by midfielder Stacy Roy. The momentum of the game changed in favor of Lyman after the shot but switched back for the last three minutes of the half.

The Greyhounds were down by two again at halftime but they didn't lose heart. "I knew we could come back, since we did it last night," said Chapman.

In the final 40 minutes, Plantation repeated its first half performance of ball control at midfield and defensive dominance early, but the Greyhounds soon turned the game around with their own brand of pressure. "We came back strong as ever," said Mandy.

Five minutes ran off the clock when Lyman closed the gap in the score. Mandy flicked a header near the goal area bringing Paladins keeper Jeannie Meade out from the net. Forward Kim Mitchell was positioned perfectly and tapped it just past the rushing goalie to score.

"I said we've got to do it," said Mitchell. "I did it for the team."

Lady Rams Add 4A District Gem To Trophy Case

By Chris Flister
Herald Sports Writer

They're not polishing old accomplishments in Lake Mary High's trophy case. They're making room for new ones.

With Saturday night's 51-45 victory over Sanford's Lady Seminoles before 450 fans at Lake Brantley High, Lake Mary's Lady Rams added the 4A-9 District title to the trophy case to go along with the 2A district title they won three years ago and the 3A crown two years ago. Lake Mary was runnerup in the 4A-9 district last year.

"The 4A title is awful sweet after last year," Lake Mary coach Bill Moore said. "We played two outstanding games (upset of Seminole in semifinals loss to DeLand in finals) but the three games we played this week, the two wins over Lake Brantley and the one over Seminole, has to equal the way we played last year."

The Lady Rams will have the home court advantage Tuesday night at 8 when they host Orlando Evans in the 4A-5 Region Championship. Evans advanced with a 57-46 victory over Winter Park Saturday in the 4A-10 District title game.

"They've (Evans) got the one great player, Cynthia Williams, and we've gone up against some great players, like Bridgette Gordon, and beaten them," Moore said. "We have to try to stop her or at least slow her down."

Williams, a 5-9 senior center, pumped in 22 points in Saturday's victory over Winter Park. When she's on and out of foul trouble, Williams is very hard to stop as she proved by totaling 41 points in a game against Seminole earlier in the year.

"Aileen (Patterson) has just done a fantastic defensive job," Moore said. "She did it on Bridgette (Gordon) and held Lake Brantley's Dellinger to one point. Courtney (Hall) does good a job helping out."

Patterson, a 5-8 senior, was instrumental in Saturday's victory over Seminole. Lake Mary's first over the Lady Tribe in three tries this year. Patterson was 7 of 11 from the floor and 3 of 8 free throws for a team-high 17 points. She also ripped down a game-high 18 rebounds and collected five steals.

Courtney Hall joined Patterson to dominate the inside as the 5-10 senior added 14 points on 7 of 9 shooting from the floor and grabbed nine rebounds. And senior forward Andrea Fenning, out most of the season with a knee injury, turned in her best performance since coming back with 10 points on 4 of 8 shooting from the floor and five rebounds. Liz Stone contributed six points on 2 of 2 from the floor and 2 of 2 from the line and the senior guard also handed out four assists.

"She's starting to move much better," Moore said of Fenning. "With her in that gives us seven girls who can score."

"I was just thinking, 'don't limp,' when I went in," Fenning said. "I still had my shot down because that was all I could do while I was out. But I thought I could rebound too. It really felt great to be able to play against Seminole."

Lake Mary had to change its strategy for Saturday night's game against the quick Lady Seminoles.

"We had been going out after people," Moore said. "But we decided just to go back in a zone and stay in it as long as we could. Then, if we got behind, we would go out after them. But we dominated boards so much we never had to go out after them."

Lake Mary hit the boards hard in the opening quarter Saturday as it used its rebounding strength to build an early 8-2 lead. Mona Benton, who scored a game-high 20 points, then caught fire for Seminole and scored six points the remainder of the quarter to pull the Tribe within two, 14-12. Lake Mary outrebounded Seminole, 12-5, in the first quarter.

Seminole tied it at 14-14 on Andell "Soul" Smith's jumper but Fenning and Hall combined to score eight straight points to give the Lady Rams a 22-14 lead with 1:56 left in the half.

The Lady Seminoles rallied for eight straight points though to tied it at 22-22 before Fenning hit a layup on an assist from Hall at the buzzer for a 24-22 halftime lead.

Lake Mary led by four most of the third quarter but Benton, the Seminoles' senior leader, picked up her fourth foul going for a steal with 4:26 left and sat out the rest of the quarter.

Lake Mary took advantage of Benton's absence to score seven straight points at the end of the quarter for a 37-28 lead going into the fourth. Patterson's three-point play with 29 seconds left provided the nine-point cushion.

The Lady Rams pushed their lead up to 44 points, 45-31, with 5:25 remaining as Patterson hit four points early in the fourth quarter while Hall and Fenning had two each.

"When we were up, 14 I told Bob Wagner (Lake Mary assistant) that there just wasn't enough time for them (Seminole) to come back," Moore said. "You've got to give them credit, they did keep coming at us. If there was more time, though, we wouldn't have played like we did. We would have tried to score more."

Behind Benton's continuous drives to the hoop and Smith's foul shooting, Seminole came back within six, 49-43, with 1:30 left. Seminole was then forced to foul Lake Mary and Kim Averill hit a pair of free throws with 49 seconds left for a 51-43 lead. Seminole got within six again with 21 seconds left but Lake Mary ran out the clock before Seminole could foul them.

Behind Benton for Seminole, Smith added 10 points. Catherine "Kitty" Anderson contributed six points and 10 rebounds and Kim "Big Wheel" Johnson tossed in six points and grabbed eight boards.

Lake Mary Strangles Region Field

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor

LONGWOOD — Next stop — Tampa. With Lake Mary's Rams leading the way with nine qualifiers and an incredible 150 1/2 points, Seminole County will march 24 grapplers into the state tournament Friday and Saturday at Chamberlain High School.

Lake Mary, which has no peer in Central Florida, stormed to a 73 1/2-point victory in Region 1 at Lyman High School. Gainesville Buchholz was next with 66. Seminole, which surprised the field by holding second place after two rounds, showed its halfway performance was no fluke by finishing third with 64 points. Lake Brantley (60), Panama City Mosley (77 1/2) and host Lyman (75) were next in line. The top four individuals in the region qualify for the state.

"We only took six wrestlers to the state last year and that was a great team," said Lake Mary coach Frank Schwartz while hugging the championship trophy. "Taking nine to state is really something. We've proven we can compete with the best. We'll be happy with a top five finish."

More incredibly, Lake Mary's overpowering win was accomplished with just one champion — 116-pounder Ivan Carbia. Freshman Enrique Carbia (102), senior Tom Olson (136) and senior Walter White (171) each placed second. Sophomore Sean McMorrow (123), senior Todd Beauchamp (142), senior Bill Caughell (224) and junior Matt Broberg (130) were third while junior Scott Ross (159) was fourth.

Schwartz singled out Ivan Carbia, Olson and Broberg for kudos. "Olson beat a kid (Buchholz) Carl Davis) that beat his brother (Tom) in the regions last year," said Schwartz. "That was particularly satisfying. Broberg battled through the wrestlebacks to finish third. He did a helluva job."

"And Ivan, what can you say? He's been our leader all year and he came through again. I sure hope he can win a state championship. He deserves it."

Seminole, too, should have some state championship hopefuls. Troy Turner (see related article) topped Lake Brantley's Joe Waresak for the 150-pound title to remain unbeaten (24-0) but 142-pounder Tony Brown suffered his first loss after 27 straight wins when he lost to Sandalwood's Tim Mellot, 8-2. "I guess after 27 good matches I'm entitled to one bad one," said a subdued Brown after the match.

Seminole received a third place finish from freshman Tracy Turner, who ripped Ross, 7-5, in overtime. Sophomore Sheraton "The Headliner" Mays finished fourth when he lost to Orange Park's Franko Hall, 8-3.

All of which made Roger Beathard a pretty happy coach. "That's the highest Seminole has ever finished," he said. "The individual success of these kids showed through. Tony Brown has had a lot to do with it all season long. He's been an inspiration to kids like Wayne Hall and Walt Lowry. "Without Tony, the others may have not pushed themselves."

Along with Seminole's surprising finish was the showing of Lyman's Pat Perkins. The hard-nosed junior fought through Lake Mary's Caughell in the semifinals, then outlasted Lake Howell's Hal Crowley, 9-8, in the 224-pound final.

Wareak's Hard Work Can't Reverse Score Against Turner

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor

Joe Wareak, the hardest working wrestler Kevin Carpenger has ever coached, rolled over and looked beseechingly at the ceiling. He was looking for answers but he wouldn't find them there.

It was a look of despair, yet a look of longing. After all of the Lake Brantley senior's hard work, it just didn't seem fair. It was a look of "what else do I have to do?"

Wareak didn't have to look at the scoreboard. He knew what it read. Troy Turner 9, Joe Wareak 6. For the third time this year, Seminole's unbeaten sophomore had gotten the better of his senior rival.

"I don't know what I have to do," said Wareak Sunday night. "I give a lot of things away. It seems like when it's close at the end that I'm behind. I have to gamble and make the move."

Which is playing right into Turner's hands. "He is a very good counter wrestler," said Wareak. "He waits for my mistakes. I guess I just have to work harder."

Work harder? "I don't know anybody that works harder," said Carpenger. "He just ran over to my house (Sunday). That's eight miles. Last Sunday, he ran 13 miles. After Saturday's match, Joe was in the corner doing pushups."

Wrestling

"Joe does every thing a dedicated kid should do. He just has to wait until something falls his way."

Last year, things did fall his way. Wareak had the upper hand on Turner. En route to a fourth-place finish at the state tournament, the 159-pound Patriot whipped Turner in the district and region but lost in the conference. Turner, unfortunately, suffered an injury and wasn't able to compete in the state tournament.

This year, though, it has been different. Wareak has been troubled by a painful cartilage pull which has limited his movement. Turner's first two wins were convincing — 10-6 in the conference and 11-6 in the district.

"He tried the cradle that time (conference), too, and Troy shook him off the cradle but putting his elbow in Wareak's face," said Seminole coach Roger Beathard. "Troy has got the confidence now. He knows he can beat him. But Joe is a tough kid. He's a dedicated young man. His shoulder was injured last year and he went on to take fourth in the state. He has a lot of courage and a lot of ability."

Carpenger said he feels Wareak is getting closer. "This was the best match between the two," said Carpenger. "He just made a silly mistake with his cradle and Troy took advantage of it."

After an early feeling out period, Wareak scored a takedown with 52 seconds left in the period for a 2-0 lead. Turner wasted little time in deadlocking the match as he reversed Wareak 25 seconds into the second period for a 2-2 tie. Fifteen seconds later, though, Wareak came back with a reversal for a 4-2 lead.

Then came the mistake. "I was working his legs and then went into the cradle," said Wareak. "I just took the cradle the wrong way. It was dumb. I should have gone to something else."

Turner, of course, took advantage, reversing Wareak and the flow of the match for a 4-4 deadlock with just 16 seconds in the period. "I just got under and he fell to the side," said Turner who pushed his season mark to 24-0.

Wareak, who is 21-0 against the rest of the world, took a short-lived lead 25 seconds into the last period when he escaped but Turner picked up a takedown 13 seconds later and earned a penalty point for a 7-5 lead.

Wareak escaped again with 30 seconds to go, but Turner was ready for Wareak's lunge and he turned it into a takedown with just 10 seconds left to secure the three-point victory and the region championship.

And now, it's on to the state tournament and Tampa Chamberlain for both. "I'd sure like to meet Joe again," said Turner about the upcoming meet. "If everything works out right and we both keep winning, we'd meet for the championship."

Wareak concurred. "Hopefully, we'll meet again. I'd like it that way," said Wareak. "Hopefully, I won't make the same mistakes again."

"He had to do something to keep up with his girl friend (Lyman soccer standout Karen Abernethy)," quipped one fan. "She just won a state championship."

Perkins built a quick 5-0 lead in the first period against Crowley but the Silver Hawk senior bounced back to tie with 1:13 to go in the third period. Perkins went ahead with a penalty point and an escape but Crowley got a takedown with 30 seconds left to pull even.

Perkins, though, came up with a reversal with just five seconds left for the win. "I wasn't thinking about a reversal, just an escape," said Perkins. "It was a move my brother (Willie) taught me."

Lyman also qualified senior Pat Bell (123), junior Chad Dubin (109) and senior Derek Smith (171). Bell and Dubin finished second while Smith, who was pinned by champion Stacey White of Buchholz in the semis, came back to attack Mosley's Tyrone Roach in the consolation.

Lake Brantley crowned one champion, senior Jim Martin who rallied in the last minute to top Enrique Carbia, 9-4. Carbia had a 4-1 lead but was hit with two stalling calls before Martin hit a whizzer for a reversal and a three-point near fall. "Carbia's a tough wrestler," said Martin. "I just had to wait for my opportunity."

Lake Brantley had second place finishes from Wareak and Dan Black (130). Andy Craft (unlimited) finished fourth.

Lake Howell didn't have any champs but had two near misses with Crowley and 149-pounder Greg Buckley, who lost a tough 9-8 decision to Buchholz's John Galney. Buckley and Galney were tied at 8-8 when Buckley was penalized for "moving too soon" from the down position with eight seconds to go.

Lake Howell's Todd Miller finished fourth.

Several minutes later, Lyman went back at the Paladins with a cross in front of the goal by forward Dawn Boyesen that just missed Mitchell's foot. Also, defender Karen Abernethy applied pressure with a free kick similar to equalizing 40-yard kick she took Friday night.

With 21:23 remaining Lyman knotted the game at 2-2. Mandy took a long throw-in which was headed up twice in the area by Plantation players then midfielder Alyson Barrow line-driven a volley though a crowd into the back of the net.

The Hounds seemed to score another goal when Walder was whistled for obstruction 13 feet outside the goal. Mitchell quickly took the free kick to Boyesen who put it in the net, however, the kick was taken without referee consent which disallowed the goal.

The official kick bounced off the four man wall then was shot out-of-bounds saving the Paladins for the moment. The Greyhound's attacking never let off.

The pressure and the fatigue seemed to catch up with the player as tempers began to fly. Mandy was on a breakaway from a Boyesen pass when defender Susan Engel tackled from behind giving her a yellow warning card. Abernethy took the free kick which almost scored but it slipped the cross bar.

The winning score was netted with 14:48

Flutie Struggles In Loss — Kelly Rallies Gamblers

By United Press International
In his professional debut, Helaman Trophy winner Doug Flutie struggled through a day that belonged to another prolific passer.

Houston quarterback Jim Kelly threw for a pro football record 574 yards and five touchdowns at Los Angeles as the Gamblers rallied to defeat the Express 34-33 in the U.S. Football League opener for both teams.

The previous mark of 554 yards was set by Norm Van Brocklin of the Los Angeles Rams in a 1951 NFL game. The USFL record was 444 yards, set last year by Bobby Hebert of Michigan.

Birmingham, meanwhile, led by veteran quarterback Cliff Stoudt, beat Flutie's New Jersey Generals, 38-28, in another USFL opener.

"My offensive linemen gave me protection today that was unbelievable," Kelly said. "I've been in some comebacks before, but never anything like that."

Kelly's last TD pass, 39-yards to Ricky Sanders, came with 88 seconds to cap a 20-point Houston comeback. Kelly, the league's MVP last year, completed 35-of-54 passes.

After Troy West intercepted a Kelly pass at 9:47 of the fourth quarter and returned it 42 yards to give Los Angeles 33-13 lead, Houston began its rally.

Kelly hit Richard Johnson with a 52-yard TD and connected with Vince Courville for a 20-yard TD pass with 2:58 left to move Houston within 33-27.

The Express' other TDs came in the third quarter on a 24-yard run by Kevin Nelson and a 8-yard pass from Steve Young to JoJo Townell.

In the game at Birmingham, Ala., while Stoudt completed 21-of-33 passes for 220 yards and three touchdowns and hit 20 of his first 27 attempts, Flutie got off to an 0-for-9 start. He didn't have his first completion until late in the third quarter.

However, Flutie found the range and connected on 12 of his last 18 for 189 yards and two touchdowns and led the Generals to three fourth-quarter touchdowns.

"For a rookie quarterback to come back and make the game close like he did is outstanding," said Birmingham Coach Rollie Dotch.

"All the pressure was on Doug," said Stoudt, whose 44-yard TD pass to Jim Smith made the score 38-21 and snuffed the Generals' comeback attempt.

Elsewhere Sunday, Jacksonville defeated Baltimore 22-14, Arizona edged Portland 9-7, and Oakland routed Denver 31-10.

Dalziel Lifts Lady Rams Past Lyman To JV Crown

By Chris Pister

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — Marcie Dalziel poured in a game-high 21 points and Tricia Noel provided the spark in the second quarter that helped lift Lake Mary's Lady Rams to a 38-22 victory over Lyman's Lady Greyhounds in the 4A-9 Junior Varsity District Championship Saturday night at Lake Brantley High.

The victory left the JV Lady Rams with a 15-0 record for the season and 31-1 for the past two years. Lake Mary has not lost a junior varsity contest since late January of 1984.

"I'm really proud of the girls," Lake Mary coach Bob Wagner said. "Especially the sophomores. They've been with me for two years and we've had a lot of success with them."

Lake Mary jumped out to a 9-3 lead after the first quarter Saturday but Lyman battled back within two, 11-9, early in the second. Lake Mary made it 12-9 on one of two free throws by Dalziel but the Greyhounds pulled within one, 12-11, on Mana Richardson's layup.

Basketball

Noell then made her move. Lyman had the ball with the chance to take the lead when the freshman guard came up with a steal and raced downcourt for a layup and a 14-11 lead. Another steal by Noell resulted in two points for Dalziel and a 16-11 lead. Gina Dawson's layup made it 18-11 with 1:30 left in the first half.

Noell then collected her third steal of the quarter and converted the layup on the other end for a 20-11 cushion and she came back with another layup with 16 seconds left that gave the Lady Rams a 22-11 halftime lead.

"She (Noell) did an excellent job in the second quarter," Wagner said. "I'm really counting on her for next year."

Bandits Thrash 'Gades

TAMPA (UPI) — Gary Anderson got off to a far better start than the United States Football League.

Tampa Bay's standout running back darted for 143 yards and four touchdowns Saturday night as the USFL opened its third season in ragged fashion with a blowout before a Tampa Stadium crowd of 45,045. The Orlando Renegades trailed 28-0 at halftime before falling 35-7 to the Bandits in their first regular season game as a pro franchise.

"I'm not out to prove anything," said Anderson, who scored on runs of 3, 68 and 6 yards in the opening half before going over from a yard out in the third period. "People say I don't get the same fame others get, but I'm just out to help the team."

Anderson was the only offensive standout on a night of shabby play that added ammunition to the arsenal of USFL skeptics. Tampa Bay quarterbacks John Reeves and Jordan combined to complete just 9-of-29 passes but the Bandits were never threatened after linebacker Tony Office scooped up a Jerry Golsteyn fumble and rumbled 35 yards for a touchdown midway through the first period.

"It was one of those," said Bandits' defensive lineman Fred Nordgren, credited with two of Tampa Bay's eight sacks against Golsteyn. "We've had them and they had one tonight. They didn't play that well while we played very well and caused them a few problems up fr."

Unfortunately for football fans in central Florida, the Renegades resembled the same team that posted a 3-15 record last season as the Washington Federals. Orlando committed four turnovers, didn't convert a third down situation until trail-0 and generally made it a hard day's night for rookie coach Lee Corso.

"Basically, to me, the better team won," said Corso, "but I'm really looking forward to making this a better football team. I have confidence in these guys. We will make necessary changes starting Sunday, but as far as wholesale changes ... no way."

"We'll try and upset New Jersey Friday in our home park. The speed and quickness of Anderson hurt us and you have to be impressed with the Tampa Bay team."

Orlando was outgained 202-42 in total offense before intermission and the Bandits had a shutout until Golsteyn capped an 87-yard march by finding tight end Bob Niziolek for a 6-yard TD with just 61 seconds left in the game.

Anderson, who scored 21 touchdowns last year to tie New Jersey's Herschel Walker for the USFL lead, broke the game open with a pair of second quarter scores — including a dazzling 68-yard burst. On the opening play of the second quarter, Anderson turned a routine draw play into the longest scoring run of his career by utilizing his 4.4 speed and deking past three defenders. His final TD gave Anderson a share of the USFL record for points in a game (24) also held by three others.

Reeves, a 4,000-yard passer last year in leading the Bandits to a 14-4 mark, completed just 6-of-23 passes for 87 yards. Golsteyn, dismal through the first three periods, hit on 25-of-43 attempts for 331 yards and was intercepted twice.

Seminole, Lake Mary JV Cagers Outshine Varsity On Saturday

The junior varsity teams for Seminole and Lake Mary high schools fared better than their older counterparts Saturday night in the regular season final basketball games.

At Stuart, coach Tom Smith's Seminole JV used a driving layup by Mike Edwards with two seconds remaining to upend Martin County, 73-72. Joe Holden led the JVs with 26 points while Rod Fossett added 12. Mike Franklin chipped in 10 and Todd Kriebbe eight.

Seminole, 18-5, is looking for a berth against Lake Mary in the 4A-9 District championship game Saturday night at Spruce Creek.

At Lake Mary, Matt Napoli dropped in a baseline jumper with two seconds left to lift coach Charles Steele's Rams to a 59-57 victory over DeLand. It was the Rams' 19th win in 22 games.

Terry "The Cat" Miller scored 17 points and handed out seven assists to lead the Rams. Oscar "Big O" Merthie had 13 points and 10 rebounds. Napoli finished with 12 points.

The varsity teams didn't fare as well. Seminole, 15-11, dropped a tough 76-70 decision to No. 4 ranked Martin County while Lake Mary, 13-12, was blown out by DeLand, 70-44.

Kenny Gordon (21), James Rouse (14), Craig Walker (14) and Rod Henderson (13) were all in double figures for Seminole, which will play Spruce Creek at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday in the district opener at Port Orange.

"We played real well," said coach Chris Marlette. "We didn't get many calls at the end and there were a few questionable ones."

Kevin Weickel's 26 points buried Lake Mary. Darryl Merthie had 22 for the Rams and Donald Grayson had 10. Lake Mary plays Apopka in Thursday night's district pairing. Mainland plays Lake Howell in the other game Thursday.

DeLand, top seeded, plays the survivor of Tuesday night's Lake Brantley-Lyman game at 7 p.m. Wednesday. A coin flip today will decide the site of the Brantley-Lyman encounter. — Sam Cook

Poor Shooting Dooms JV Lions

ORLANDO — Oviedo's junior varsity Lady Lions played an outstanding defensive ballgame Saturday night but shot just 12 percent from the floor in a 29-21 loss to Jones' JV Lady Tigers in the 3A-7 District Junior Varsity title game at Bishop Moore High.

"We held them to 51 less points than last time when they beat us 81-18," Oviedo coach Mickey Norton said. "We changed things around and harassed them on defense. There's no doubt they're much better than we are but it was a moral victory for us to come back and give them a ballgame after being blown out of the gym the last time."

Jones took a 5-2 lead after one quarter and 19-12 at halftime. Oviedo stayed within seven, 22-15, after three quarters but could not find the touch on offense to come back.

"We shot 5 for 40 (12 percent) from the field and out of those 20 were layups," Norton said.

Leah Rowson was high for the JV Lady Lions with six points. Jodi Switzer added five and Teresa Philpott contributed three.

OVIEDO JV (21) — Leah Rowson 4, Jodi Switzer 5, Christina Walker 1, Stacy L. Houston 2, Wendy Duda 1, Teresa Philpott 2, Julia Dames 2, Trudy Ferguson 1, Christy Caldwell 0. Totals: 21-38-31.

SCC Women Host State Tourney

Seminole Community College will host the 1985 Women's State Junior College Tournament this Thursday through Saturday at the SCC Health Center.

SCC's Lady Raiders not only will host the tournament but have qualified to play for the state title. The Lady Raiders, 15-8 for the season and Mid-Florida Conference runnerup, will open tournament play Thursday afternoon at 2 against Manatee Junior College, the Suncoast Conference champions.

In Thursday's second game, scheduled for 4 p.m., Southern Conference champions and top-ranked Indian River takes on Brevard Community College, an at large selection.

In Thursday night's games, Pensacola (Panhandle Conference champs) takes on Miami-Dade North (at large) at 6 and Mid-Florida Conference champion Santa Fe battles Southern Conference runnerup Edison at 8.

Friday's semifinal action will be at 6 and 8 and Saturday night's final will be at 8. There will also be a FCCAA North-South Classic all-star game Saturday at 6.

Sanford Baseball Sets Tryouts

Sanford Recreation Little Major League tryouts for 10, 11 and 12 year olds will be held Tuesday and Wednesday at Fort Mellon Park, Superintendent of Recreation Jeff Monson said Friday.

New players should be a birth certificate and a $5 registration fee. Players should also bring gloves.

Monson also said Junior League tryouts will be held March 12-13 at Chase Park.

Girls Run Into New Dimension

Martin, Webster Put Distance Between Lady Seminoles, Foes

By Chris Flister
Herald Sports Writer

Shownda Martin and Dorchelle Webster, a pair of versatile freshmen, have added a new dimension to the Seminole High girls track team. Although both are capable of competing in the sprints, they are also outstanding in the distance events, something Seminole has never been that strong in in the past.

In their first meets for the Lady Seminoles, Martin established a school record in winning the mile and Webster broke the school mark with a third place in the 880 as Seminole took first place in the Lake Brantley Open Saturday with 68 points compared to 62 for Lake Howell's Lady Silver Hawks.

"Shownda and Dorchelle are super," Seminole coach Emory Blake said. "They make up for all the seniors we lost last year. Shownda makes up for two by herself."

Martin, who was all-state second team in cross country, cruised to first place in the mile with a time of 5:26 compared to 5:32.65 for Lyman's Julie Greenberg. The old record, held by Susan Neiswander, was 5:35. Martin also placed second in the long jump at 16-2 1/2 and ran a leg on the winning mile relay team. Martin was awarded the Outstanding Athlete trophy for the meet and also tied Evans' Donna Curry (first place in both the 100 meters and 220 yard dash) for the High Point Trophy.

Webster, also all-state second team in cross country, was third in the 880 run at 2:28.57, breaking the old record set by Brenda Davis. Webster also came in third in the long jump at 15-11 and ran a leg on the mile relay team.

"They're probably the most all-around athletes I've had since Tony Hardy," added Blake. "They said they wanted to try the long jump and went over and finished second and third. You can't beat their versatility. It makes it easy to prepare for a meet and place people where you want. And they give me a dimension I've never had."

While Martin and Webster give Seminole talent in the distance events, senior standouts Katrina Walker and Glenda Bass are the top sprinters. Bass took first place in the 440 Saturday (59.40), fourth in the 220 (27.01) and also ran a leg on the mile relay team which won with a time of 4:03.63. Walker took third in the 220 (26.6), third in the 440 (59.72) and was also on the mile relay team.

"Glenda (Bass) and Katrina (Walker) are our only two seniors and are handling their responsibilities very well," Blake said. "It's still early in the season and they're not really in form yet but it doesn't bother me. I know they'll be there in the end. They're both great competitors."

Behind Seminole in the team scoring were Lake Howell at 62, Orlando Evans at 40, Orlando Oak Ridge at 38, Father Lopez at 27 1/2 while Trinity Prep and Lake Mary tied at 21.

For Lake Mary, Fran "Flash" Gordon continued to dominate the 880 run as she won with a time of 2:24.97 compared to 2:25.92 for Trinity Prep's Katie Sama.

"Fran's not at 100 percent yet," Lake Mary coach Mike Gibson said. "She's just getting over a hamstring pull from soccer. I don't want to put her in any event yet where she has to accelerate."

Other places for the Lady Rams included Jill Buddenhagen in the two mile (fourth at 12:21.65) and Oneyke Berry in the long jump (sixth at 15-4 1/2). The Lady Rams also took third in the mile relay with a school record 4:19.10 with the team of Gordon, Berry, Sonya Walker and anchor Jodie McCurdy.

Lake Mary took sixth in the two mile relay as the team of Heather Heikkila, Niki Hays, Denise Putnam and Buddenhagen turned in a time of 10:44.58.

For Lake Howell, Rochelle Spearman continued her outstanding performance in the hurdles with a first place in the 110 highs (14.88) and second in the 330 lows (47.95).

Other first places for the Lady Hawks included Kim Hammontree in the high jump (5-2) and the two mile relay team. The two-mile relay team of Martha Fonseca, Angie Smith, Nancy Nystrom and anchor Lisa Samocki recorded a time of 9:54.43 to outdistance Seminole which finished at 10:02.38.

Seminole took the early lead in the two mile relay as Martin blazed to a 2:16 split in the 880. Also on the Seminole team were Debbie Coleman, Jennifer Roberts and Webster.

Lake Howell's Samocki and Trinity Prep's Adrienne Poltowicz engaged in another tough battle in the two mile and it was Poltowicz, a junior for the Lady Saints, who came out on top this time with a fine time of 11:25.06 compared to 11:30.06 for Samocki who had come out on top the last time the two distance races met.

Other second places for the Lady Hawks included Cheryl Brinkley in the high jump (5-0) and the 440 relay team (51.42). Third place finishes included Amy Ertel in the mile (5:36.80) and Fonseca in the two mile (12:19.32).

Fifth places for the Lady Hawks were turned in by Mary Kay Scott in the discus (96-2) and Nystrom in the 880 (2:28.6). Sixth places included Belinda LaSeur in the mile (5:42.51), Hillary Stout in the shot put (32-10) and the mile relay team (4:25.28).

For Lake Brantley, high jump standout Taleena Smith went in at 5-0 but no heighted and didn't place but she did take third in the shot put at 33-10 1/4. Other places for the Lady Patriots included Debbie Lovelace in the discus (fourth at 105-9), Burrows in the 330 hurdles (third at 50.46) and Cathie Wild in the 330 hurdles (50.96).

For Lyman, Maybelle Bryant took third in the 110 hurdles (17.10) and Tracy Fisher was fourth in the two mile (12:19.40).

Also for Trinity Prep, Stacy Johnson, a freshman, came in fourth in the 440 with a time of 61.78.

Next on the track agenda for Seminole County is the Lake Howell Invitational Saturday at Lake Howell High.

Tribe Outclasses Brantley Field

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — Frank Barnett, Leo Peterson and Billy Penick won two events apiece and Cliff Campbell blazed to a meet record in the 440 as Sanford's Fighting Seminoles outclassed the rest of the 21-team field in the Lake Brantley Open Saturday at Lake Brantley High.

Seminole finished with a score of 74 compared to 50 for Orlando Oak Ridge, 38 for Ocala Forest and 33 1/2 for host Lake Brantley. Barnett, a senior, sailed to a new meet record 39.3 in winning the 330 intermediate hurdles, edging out Lake Howell's Brian King who finished at 41.0. Barnett also won the 110 high hurdles with a time of 13.9.

Peterson, a junior, continued to dominate the jumping events as he won the long jump with a leap of 23- 1/2 and the triple jump at 48-6. The meet directors voted Peterson as the meet's top performer. Teammate Dexter Jones was second in the triple jump at Penick, a junior, dominated the distance events Saturday with first places in the mile and two mile. Penick won the mile with a time of 5:31.4 compared to 5:32.9 for John Hook of Haines City. Penick edged out Lake Mary's Ken Rohr in the two mile with a time of 10:01.3 compared to 10:06.0 for the Lake Mary junior.

Campbell continued his assault on the top spot in the state in the 440 dash with a meet-record time of 48.9, two full seconds better than the second place performer, Lake Brantley's Steve Emmons (50.9).

Seminole also took first place in the mile relay as the team of Campbell, Jones, Eric Martin and Louis Brown recorded a time of 3:21.9, easily outdistancing Oak Ridge which was second at 3:28.1. Lake Brantley was third at 3:29.6 and Lake Howell tied Evans for fourth at 3:32.7.

"That's an excellent time this early in the season for the mile relay," said Seminole coach Ken Brauman. "Especially since the second place was only 3:28."

Lake Brantley's John Mondo was awarded the Outstanding Performance trophy Saturday by the Seminole Track Officials for his first place finish in the 880. Mondo raced to a time of 2:01.1, just edging out Lake Mary's Harold Pitts who came in at 2:01.4. Pitts' time is a new school record for the Rams, the second time in two weeks he has broken the record. Lyman's Carl Schmalmaack was fifth in the 880 at 2:05.1.

Also for Lake Mary, which finished 12th with 13 points, Matt Palumbo was fifth in the two mile at 10:20.4 and Chris Bonham sixth in the 330 hurdles (43.1).

Behind Mondo and Emmons

Leo Peterson won the long jump and triple jump at the Lake Brantley Open Saturday.

for Brantley, Cornelius Friendly took third in the 220 (32.9) and Gehr was third in the high jump (6-0).

Lake Howell took three of the six places in the pole vault led by Holloway (second at 12-0). Row (third at 12-0) and Owynn (sixth at 11-0).

Earnhardt Wins Richmond 200, $33,000

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI) — Dale Earnhardt, more than $33,000 richer after his victory in the Richmond 400, says a new regulation limiting tire changes at pit stops equalized the field at the NASCAR short-track race.

"I don't think anybody ran away with the race because of the tire rule," Earnhardt said Sunday after averaging 67.945 mph and winning the first short-track race of the Grand National season. "I think it (the rule) saved everyone some money and seemed to keep the competition fairly equal."

The rule only permits two tire changes at a time on short tracks.

Earnhardt passed Tim Richmond with 20 laps remaining and then beat Geoff Bodine by three car lengths to win the race at the half-mile Richmond Fairgrounds Raceway.

Bodine, also driving a Chevrolet, finished second while pole-sitter Darrell Waltrip, in a

Auto Racing

Chevrolet, took third. Ron Bouchard finished fourth in a Buick and Harry Gant fifth in a Chevrolet.

There were 10 caution flags for 70 laps, slowing the race considerably for the 27,500 fans. But it was those crashes and blown engines that knocked some of the top names out of the race, including Daytona 500 winner Bill Elliott.

During the last caution flag, Earnhardt, who started fourth, gained a favorable position on the restart. Once that was done, he passed Richmond to take the lead.

There were nine lead changes among six drivers in the race that took a little more than three hours to run.

How To Defeat An Initiative: Keep The Voters In The Dark

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — A public opinion survey indicates the best election strategy for opponents of ballot initiatives is to keep voters ignorant and confused, according to the public interest lobby Common Cause.

A Common Cause spokesman said that 803 adult Californians interviewed by telephone last month said they tend to vote against initiatives when they lack knowledge about them.

Walter Zelman of Common Cause said the survey was conducted by the University of Southern California's Institute of Politics and Government.

The poll also indicated that voters generally approve of the initiative process but a majority would like to see spending limits on initiative campaigns and identification of interest groups that sponsor campaign advertisements.

Almost half of the registered voters in the sample said they know enough about ballot measures to make an intelligent decision only "some of the time," Zelman said.

"While most voters are say they don't vote when they're uncertain, a sizable number apparently do, and these figures suggest that this latter group is much more prone to vote 'no' than 'yes,'" he said.

"If an initiative campaign has left many voters confused or undecided the tendency of many voters to vote 'no' when uncertain could have a major impact on election outcomes."

Secrets 'Leaked'

Carelessness Puts Sensitive Info Into Hands Of Soviets

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Commerce Secretary Malcolm Baldrige says the Pentagon and other federal agencies are letting military and technical secrets slip into Soviet hands by failing to check documents before they are declassified. The Washington Post reports.

In a letter to five top Reagan administration officials, Baldrige asked that agencies stop "this massive giveaway program that permits the Soviets to acquire tens of thousands of scientific and technical studies as well as other strategic information."

The four-page letter, made available to the Post, was sent Jan. 16 to Secretary of State George Shultz, Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger, former Energy Secretary Donald Hodel, White House national security adviser Robert McFarlane, and James Beggs, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Baldrige declined comment on the letter saying he does not discuss classified matters.

In the letter, the Post said, he cited "inadequate" results to his requests since 1982 for cooperation from the agencies to protect strategic information.

Baldrige was particularly annoyed by what he considered the easy availability of sensitive documents of the Defense Department. The Commerce Department has argued repeatedly with the Pentagon over the leakage of strategic high-technology products to the East bloc.

The documents problem developed, Baldrige said, because "previous administrations" opened up vast amounts of government studies "to combat what they perceived to be over-classification" and to allow greater public access to government-financed studies.

Although the Commerce Department operates the National Technical Information Service, which acts as a clearinghouse to make these documents available to the public, Baldrige said his department lacks the legal authority to stop the declassification process.

He said agencies were not committing enough money or personnel to check studies before they are automatically declassified.

"Moscow has unlimited access to all information in NTIS through the All-Union Scientific Research Institute, which is a prominent subscriber to this source of data," the commerce secretary said.

Among the studies available to the Soviets, Baldrige said, were Pentagon analyses of space weapons, chemical warfare, nuclear weapons and computer security.

Man Gets 3 Years In Shooting Death Of Kin

By Deane Jordan
Herald Staff Writer

An Altamonte Springs man has been sentenced to three years for the shooting death of his cousin.

Anthony Vann Fossett Sr., 27, was sentenced by Circuit Judge Dominick J. Salfi who gave Fossett credit for 44 days Fossett already served.

Fossett could have received up to 15 years.

According to court records, James Stewart, 38, of 209 Longwood Ave., Altamonte Springs, was shot in the right side of the chest with a .22-caliber rifle at about 9 p.m. on June 25.

Stewart was at 205 Williams St. Altamonte Springs, when he was wounded, the report shows. He then traveled a half-block and fell in his front yard.

An Altamonte Springs rescue squad arrived at Stewart's house at about 9:11 p.m. and he was transported to Florida Hospital/Altamonte where he died at 9:40 p.m.

Sheriff's investigators said Fossett had ordered Stewart not to come onto his property. After two warnings, Stewart reportedly continued to approach Fossett's house.

According to police reports, Fossett shot Stewart and then waited at his home for officers to arrive.

In other court action:

—Charles Huff, 34, of Orlando, arrested Aug. 5 on a charge of burglary after he was seen entering Hill Richards Co., at the Village Shoppes on Westmonte Drive in Altamonte Springs. Salfi sentenced him to 60 days and ordered him to pay the Public Defender's Office $300.

—Leslie Daniels, 19, of 111 Cove Lake Drive, Longwood, pleaded guilty to resisting arrest without violence. She was charged with battery on a police officer. The charge she pleaded to was a lesser included charge. She was arrested Nov. 19. According to court records, she refused a bouncer's orders to leave Fern Raxx Station, Fernwood Boulevard. She was reportedly being violent, abusive and screaming and cursing. The woman fought with two deputies and a third man who was asked to help as the officers put her in handcuffs and leg irons after she tried to kick and bite them. After she tried to kick out the windows of the patrol car, the deputies hog tied her.

She could receive up to a year in the county jail when sentenced March 21.

—Orvel A. Bolin, 43, of Orlando, arrested Oct. 24 and charged with theft, forgery and uttering a forgery, pleaded guilty to petty theft. He was sentenced by Seminole Circuit Judge Robert McGregor to 60 days in the Seminole County jail and was given credit for 60 days already served. Bolin was a passenger in a stolen truck police chased after he reportedly bought beer and gas with a stolen credit card. The truck was stopped by Altamonte Springs police after a high-speed chase that led into Winter Park. Bolin and the driver of the truck fled, but Bolin was later arrested. The driver was never caught. Bolin was not charged with taking the truck because police couldn't establish he was involved in the heist.

—Bernadette Henderson James, 22, of 911 Cypress Ave., Sanford, pleaded no contest to grand theft. She could receive up to a year in the county jail when sentenced April 12 by Mize. According to court records, she was arrested Nov. 3 and charged with strong arm robbery. She was accused of struggling with a man in Sanford and then grabbing his wallet containing $100.

Governors Want Government Spending Freeze

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's governors, upset with President Reagan's claims that most of them enjoy a budget surplus, are issuing a plea for the federal government to impose a one-year freeze on its own spending.

Members of the National Governors' Association, which is conducting its winter meeting, were scheduled to meet with Reagan for an hour this afternoon at the White House for an exchange on such issues as the farm crisis and potential cutbacks in federal programs.

Heading into the meeting today, many governors voiced ire with Reagan's suggestions that most states have surpluses and therefore can make up for cuts in federal programs.

Kansas Gov. John Carlin, a Democrat and the association chairman, complained, "There's a lot of misunderstanding on the so-called surplus."

He said most states have a 2 percent to 3 percent surplus of their annual budget, but that falls shy of the safe figure of 5 percent.

He warned federal budget cutters: "Don't operate on the basis that it can easily be done — just transfer it to the states and localities that are sitting there with a lot of money. It's just not there."

Republican Gov. Lamar Alexander of Tennessee said he is "very disappointed that the administration would spend a minute arguing with the states about whether they have a surplus."

"The president knows better than that," Alexander said. "It's an irrelevant issue."

At a black-tie welcoming dinner at the White House Sunday night, Reagan told the governors passage of tax reform and an austere budget will require "great courage and effort and extraordinary cooperation between us" and asked them to work with him "in a spirit of good will."

"Today, the people no longer look to Washington as an emerald city with magic solutions to every problem," he said. "I've been here going on five years now and I can tell you it's more like the Twilight Zone than the Land of Oz."

In Sunday's opening of the three-day conference, the executive committee of the governors' group endorsed efforts to scrap the current tax system and replace it with a flat tax that would end most exemptions.

Without embracing either a Democratic or Republican approach, the executive committee adopted a resolution that favors reducing the current top tax bracket from 50 percent to "at least" 35 percent.

The committee also called for a one-year freeze on federal spending, including the Social Security program, to close the massive deficits.

"We've reached the point where everybody's entitled to everything and nobody's left to pay for it," said Gov. John Sununu, R-N.H., in suggesting Washington should face its fiscal problems "with some backbone."

The governors will vote on the policy resolutions Wednesday and are expected to endorse the recommendations of the executive committee, which adopted both actions without dissent.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED MORATORIUM ON APPLICATIONS FOR AND CONSIDERATION OF AMENDMENTS TO LAND USE DESIGNATIONS ESTABLISHED IN THE COMPREHENSIVE PLAN: CHANGES IN ZONING DISTRICT BOUNDARIES, REZONING SPECIAL EXCEPTIONS AND CONDITIONAL USES; VACATION OR ABANDONMENT OF PUBLIC ALLEYS, ROADS OR EASEMENTS; AND APPLICATIONS FOR AND CONSIDERATION OF SUBDIVISIONS AND SITE PLAN APPROVALS

The City of Lake Mary, Florida, proposes to place a moratorium on applications for and consideration of amendments to land use designations established in the Comprehensive Plan, changes in zoning district boundaries, rezonings, special exceptions and conditional uses; vacation or abandonment of public alleys, roads or easements; and applications for and consideration of subdivisions and site plan approvals within the area shown within the area in the map in this advertisement. Said area being the entire incorporated land area of the City of Lake Mary, Florida.

A Public Hearing on the proposed moratorium will be held on March 7, 1983, at 7:30 P.M., or as soon thereafter as possible, at Lake Mary City Hall, 158 North Country Club Road, Lake Mary, Monday through Friday from 8:00 A.M. until 4:30 P.M.

The moratorium is proposed to be in effect for eight months from the effective date of the adoption of the ordinance or for such lesser time in the event that the Comprehensive Plan, the Zoning Regulations, the Land Development Code, and the Master Sewer Plan have received final approval from all required governmental agencies and have been fully and formally adopted.

PERSONS ARE ADVISED THAT IF THEY DECIDE TO APPEAL ANY DECISION MADE AT THIS MEETING THEY WILL NEED A RECORD OF THE PROCEEDINGS AND FOR SUCH PURPOSE, THEY NEED TO ENSURE THAT A VERBATIM RECORD OF THE PROCEEDINGS IS MADE WHICH INCLUDES THE TESTIMONY AND EVIDENCE UPON WHICH THE APPEAL IS TO BE BASED, PER SECTION 206.0106 FLORIDA STATUTES.

THE ENTIRE INCORPORATED LAND AREA OF THE CITY OF LAKE MARY, FLORIDA, WILL BE AFFECTED BY THE PROVISIONS OF THIS MORATORIUM.

In And Around Longwood

History Buffs Discover City Was Once Called Myrtle Lake

Myrtle Lake, Florida? That's what Longwood was known as in her beginnings according to Florida historian, Hal Freeman speaking at the last meeting of the Central Florida Society for Historic Preservation. Mr. Freeman's talk and slide presentation revealed many interesting facts of the rich history of the Longwood area gleaned from his research for the book he is writing on this subject.

The Central Florida Society for Historic Preservation sponsors and is involved in many projects and events such as the annual Longwood Arts and Crafts Festival. The society meets the third Tuesday of each month at the Bradlee-McIntyre House in historic Longwood.

New members are welcome. For further information on joining the Central Florida Society for Historic Preservation, please call Membership Chairman, Rosalie Hess at 786-0628.

Members of the Sweetwater Garden Club were recently feted at a very special luncheon held at the Sweetwater Country Club.

Mr. E. Everett Huskey, prominent citizen and founder of Sweetwater Oaks, hosted the event in honor of the club's many accomplishments for the betterment of the Longwood community.

Mr. Huskey spoke to the members about his life, his success in business and his ongoing involvement in civic concerns.

Longwood Civic League Woman's Club will meet March 5 at 1 p.m. at the club building, 150 West Church Ave.

The program will be a fashion show presented by the Don Ellen Dress Shop in Longwood. Several members will model the spring fashions. They are: Marsha Walte, Peggy Gromak, Patti McKinney and Eida Nichols.

Hostesses for the event are Carolyn Bistline, chairman, Blanche Kissane and Louise Goodwin. Visitors are welcome to attend.

Young people involved or interested in baby-sitting are urged to take the course being sponsored by the American Red Cross. The course stresses child care and being a prepared and responsible sitter.

The first part of the course will be held Saturday. The second part of the course will be offered March 2 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Seminole Services Center of the Red Cross at 705-C West State Road 434 in Longwood.

A spring arts and crafts festival sponsored by the Wekiva Woman's Club is currently on the drawing board. The show will be held March 30 at the Wekiva Hills Park on Hunt Club Boulevard.

Area artists and crafts-persons are urged to reserve a space to show their works. To rent a booth call Carolyn Roberts; 862-3275.

Florida Literacy Day will be held at Longwood Elementary School today, Monday, Feb. 25. Activities planned for today and the remainder of the week include students dressing as their favorite book character, students from the upper grades reading to students in the primary grades (and vice versa). The principal and vice principal will read to students in the classrooms, and the media specialist will film students during oral readings.

Longwood Elementary School's Teacher of the Year for 1984-85 is Mrs. Cheryl Jessup, media specialist. She was chosen for this honor by her peers who feel she has enriched both their classrooms and students by providing many resource materials and by bringing books and literature to life for the children through her many costumes of story characters, her enthusiasm when telling a story and her many creative activities for student participation.

Mrs. Jessup is a graduate of UCF and has taught in Seminole County for eleven years.

Pat D'Amico, president of Sweetwater Oaks Garden Club, welcomes host and guest speaker, Everett Huskey.

Toastmistress On Treadmill

Dyeann Dummer of Altamonte Springs and the Greater Seminole Toastmistress Club, demonstrates the use of a treadmill while auctioneer Ed Weeden of Naples tries for top dollar at the recent fund-raising auction. Held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dummer, the auction netted $435 for the Council 4 International Training in Communications Club. The next meeting of the club will be at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 28, in the meeting hall of the Altamonte Community Church.

Spondylitis: Exercise Helps Minimize Damage

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am 32 and was diagnosed two years ago as having the female variant of spondylitis. I have been on 750 mg. of Naprosyn a day. I have read about the effects of Naprosyn over a long period of time, which include renal problems later. On my own I have reduced my dose to 500 mg. a day with no obvious discomfort. I'm very athletic and do some weight lifting. I weigh 126 and don't plan to ever become too sedentary.

DEAR READER — I am glad that you have had your diagnosis established this early in your life, since that will provide the maximum opportunity to minimize the damage from the disease. It is also good that you are physically active. You need to maintain muscle strength. However, you should see a physical therapist for a program that includes exercises for stretching and flexibility. One of the problems that results from spondylitis is that one loses flexibility and the spine may become as stiff as a poker. The cause of spondylitis is not known. It is sometimes confused with rheumatoid arthritis. I have discussed the disease in The Health Letter, Special Report 10, Rheumatoid Arthritis and Ankylosing Spondylitis. You should limit your medicine to the smallest amount needed to prevent pain. Naprosyn and similar medicines combat the inflammation and provide comfort, but there is no evidence they really delay or stop the disease. Many physicians prefer to prescribe Indocin, when the patient tolerates it, and there is some indication that Butazolidin may delay the rate of fusion of the vertebrae. DEAR DR. LAMB — When I take medicine it is like opening Pandora's box. Antibiotics are especially troublesome. They trigger an imbalance between bacteria and yeast, causing painful diarrhea and vaginal yeast infections. The only help seems to be to eat yogurt. It takes about two years for me to restore the balance after taking antibiotics. I plan to visit relatives in a Third World country where yogurt is not available. DEAR READER — You cannot eradicate a yeast infection of the vagina by treating yeast in the intestines. This is why vaginal suppositories usually are prescribed for this condition. Antibiotics will eliminate the natural bacterial flora in the colon in some patients, which can lead to a troublesome over-

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby

When a bridge match is going badly, the final hand can be a real exercise in kamikaze tactics. Spain was behind against the United Arab Emirates at the World Bridge Olympiad last fall when this deal occurred. The two-spade bid was a transfer to clubs. The North rebid of two no-trump showed a maximum with good club support. After that, a series of cue-bids led to the ultimate six-club contract. Declarer Jose DeBlas won the opening club lead in his hand, led a club to dummy and immediately led a heart. East rose with the ace and continued with the heart queen. DeBlas won the king, cashed his top spades and began running his long club suit. On the fifth club he discarded a heart from dummy. By this time West had come down to the spade queen and three diamonds to the king. East had the jack of hearts and three diamonds to the J-10. Now declarer played his last club. West had to keep the spade queen and so discarded a diamond. The nine of spades was shed from dummy and East was in the vice. He had to hold the jack of hearts or declarer's 10-9 would be good. When East let a diamond go, DeBlas played a diamond to the queen, then the ace, and the last trick was taken with dummy's lowly diamond four.

Although there were a couple of ways that the defenders might have broken up the squeeze, DeBlas must be applauded for ingenious declarer play.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY FEBRUARY 27, 1985

A venture that you've already devoted considerable time and effort to will yield the types of returns you've been hoping for in the year ahead.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Something you begin with companions today might have to be finalized alone. Don't let the lack of their cooperation impede you.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Lady Luck will look upon you kindly today if you're willing to split your benefits with others. However, if you're selfish, she'll be stingy as well.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Your possibilities for material gains look hopeful today. Be enterprising and ambitious and try to make hay while the sun shines.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Ventures you either originate or personally direct have excellent chances for success today, provided you don't wait on others or get a late start.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) In order to succeed today, you must visualize yourself succeeding regardless of what occurs. Once self-doubt seeps in, it could deprive you of victory.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Your friends will get miffed with you today if you rearrange plans at the last minute to satisfy your purposes but not theirs.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) In important career matters today, be extra careful who you team up with or take into your confidence. A poor choice could work against you.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Take time to enjoy yourself today but be sure it's not the time that should be devoted to your responsibilities and duties. Keep your priorities in order.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You're likely to be a rather shrewd horse-trader today, provided you're operating on familiar turf. However, speculating in unknown areas is another story.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Take the commitments you make to others seriously today because they will. Beware of promising anything you might not be able to deliver.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Material rewards are likely today but they might not be as grand as you hope. Keep in mind the old adage that "half a loaf is better than none."

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Activities you participate in today that don't cost you out-of-pocket funds will turn out to be the most fun. Try to avoid expensive pastimes.
