During the last year 14 new lodges were instituted, making the total number 1,340. There was a net gain in membership of 11,862, making the total membership April 1, 453,516. Total assets of all lodges were $28,373,723 62. During the preceding year $656,245.97 was expended by subordinate lodges for charity.

Goes to Philadelphia: C. R. Walker left Saturday for Philadelphia where he will represent the Sanford Board of Trade at the great meeting of the Rivers and Harbors Convention of the United States. He is the chairman of the Inland Waterways committee of the Sanford Board of Trade and is also one of the vice presidents of the association and goes to Philadelphia armed with the proper credentials and the information that will open the eyes of the delegates present to the possibilities of the great St. Johns river. That he will get results and will also advertise Seminole county goes without saying and demonstrates again the vast possibilities of the Sanford Board of Trade and what co-operation will do.

MACEDONIA SALOON LEAGUE IN TROUBLED POLITICAL

BRITISH AND RUSSIANS ARE TRANSFERRED TO GREECE

Paris, Sept. 12.—British troops on the front in Greek Macedonia took the offensive last night. They crossed the Struma River, the War Office announced today, and attacked the Bulgarians, who are resisting desperately.

The British troops crossed the Struma under fire. Having gained a footing on the eastern bank at a point about forty miles northeast of Saloniki, they attacked the villages of Nevolyen and Karabjades.

Paris, Sept. 12.—Five times last night the Germans attacked positions newly won by the French on the Somme front. The War Office announces they were repulsed each time with heavy loss.

The official report says the Germans employed burning liquid in making their attacks. The fighting occurred south of the Somme, from Berny to the region south of Chaucques.

London, Sept. 12.—Two efforts were made yesterday by the Germans to recapture Ginchey on the Somme front, from the British, but it is announced officially the attacks were beaten off. The statement follows:

"The enemy made two more counter attacks on Ginchey yesterday, attachments of hostile infantry attempted to attack our line near Mouquet farm and in the vicinity of Pozieres, but were driven off."

"Between Neuville St. Vaast and La Bassee canal our troops entered the enemy's trenches at several places, taking some prisoners."

Berlin, Sept. 12.—The Overseas News Agency says it is reported from Swiss sources that with the exception of one division all the Russian troops which were sent to the French front have been transferred to Saloniki.

Death of Trainmaster Middlebrooks

Word came to this city last night of the death of Z. Middlebrooks in Tampa. Mr. Middlebrooks was trainmaster at the Atlantic Coast Line, southern division from Sanford to Tampa, and for some time had his headquarters in Sanford where he and Mrs. Middlebrooks were quartered at the Hotel Carnes. Several weeks ago Mr. Middlebrooks went to Tampa, having charge of an excursion train and taking suddenly ill remained in that city where Mrs. Middlebrooks joined him. He never recovered and died there yesterday. The funeral will occur in Tampa tomorrow.

Mr. Middlebrooks was one of the most efficient employees of the Atlantic Coast Line, having been in their employ for the past twenty years.

He leaves a wife and two children, a son in the west and a daughter in an eastern conservatory of music.

KENT PENDLETON SUES TRIBUNE AND McMULLEN RESIGNS

John P. Coffin, chairman of the State Central Committee of the prohibition party in Florida will be a candidate for congress in opposition to Frank Clark, Don C. McMullen, president of the Florida State Anti-Saloon League will be asked to resign, and Kent Pendleton, superintendent of the league has entered suit for $40,000, charging libel against the Tampa Tribune for an editorial August 24.

"These are the latest developments and admissions in the wrangle which the Anti-Saloon League will become the 'innocent center' of, according to Mr. Pendleton. These statements were made this morning by Mr. Pendleton in the State Anti-Saloon League headquarters, 606 Dyal-Upchurch building. The Prohibition party and the Anti-Saloon League have no connection except a moral common ground upon which they met, according to Mr. Pendleton. He learned of Mr. Collins' intention to oppose Mr. Clark several days ago. Mr. Collins, in Mr. Pendleton's office declared he would be a candidate for congress, according to Mr. Pendleton.

That Don C. McMullen of Tallahassee, president of the Florida State Anti-Saloon League will be asked by Dr. P. A. Baker, superintendent of the national committee of the league, to forthwith hand in his resignation, assured, according to Mr. Pendleton. The request, it is said, will come as the climax of a situation, which had its inception when, according to Mr. Pendleton, "McMullen's candidate, F. M. Hudson, of Miami failed to receive the nomination for governor in the June 6th primary. Mr. McMullen, at that time, strongly condemned Mr. Pendleton for the political attitude he had taken. Mr. Pendleton declares Mr. McMullen shortly following, notified the national headquarters of the league that he would resign as president of the Florida league unless Pendleton was forced out.

A telegram dated August 14 was sent to Mr. McMullen at Tallahassee, asking if he intended to resign if Pendleton did not. Mr. Pendleton declared the message was answered by a member of Mr. McMullen's household, who said, "The Senator is out of town," and not since that date has Mr. McMullen answered.

"Mr. McMullen resigned as president in February when the superintendency of the Florida league was taken from Crook, who had piloted the craft for some time. The state committee requested him to reconsider and, 'he licked his dry lips in a sort of a smile and came back on the job.' Suit has been started in Tampa by Mr. Pendleton against the Tampa Tribune based on alleged libelous charges made in an editorial in the Tribune of Aug. 27. The editorial was written, it is said, in reply to a letter from Mr. Pendleton printed in the Orlando Reporter-Star of August 24th. In this letter, which Mr. Pendleton declares was a personal communication to J. H. Reese, editor to the Reporter-Star, written on stationery of the Pendleton Land Co., Inc., of Tampa, Mr. Pendleton criticized what he called an attack by Edwin Lambright, editorial writer of the Tribune, on the courts, in a previous issue. The letter also mentioned that the editorial criticized could have been appropriately used as an "inset" for a beer advertisement.

"On the following Sunday in the Tribune, appeared another editorial. This time devoted principally to Kent Pendleton, who is a Tampa man, referring to his 'record' and, which Mr. Pendleton charges was basely libelous. Mr. Pendleton declares he called on his attorneys in Tampa, requesting their opinion as to the libelous nature of the editorial and was informed that it contained five separate libelous statements, and thereupon directed that suit be started against the Tampa Tribune Publishing Company, Editor Lambright and W. F. Stovall, president of the company and editor of the Tribune. The suit is for $40,000, based on five alleged libelous attacks in the editorial which Mr. Pendleton charges was written by Mr. Lambright.

"That the Anti-Saloon League should not side with either himself or Mr. McMullen in their differences, but that the league's energies should be concerted directed at rectifying the evil against which the organization is maintained, was Mr. Pendleton's plea this morning.

A convention of the Florida Prohibition party has been called by Mr. Coffin to be held here next Tuesday morning, September 12. The previous convention was held in the Herkimer building and was attended by a small number of men. Mr. Coffin directed to write Hankinson & Hagler acknowledging receipt of their letter of Aug. 29th, to Geo. A. DeCottea and the board pairing system of brick road in this country within time states in this communication.

Mr. J. M. Wynn addressed the board in reference to getting a room in county home for Mr. Tom Hartley, same was granted.

BIG MEETING of the Sanford Board of Trade TONIGHT In the Court Room—Court House EIGHT O'CLOCK

The Doctor used as his Bible reading the well known parable of the rich man's supper, wherein the hidden guests fail to appear, they making, when re-summoned various excuses as to why it would be impossible for them to be present. Chit-Chat of the Play Houses in Sanford

De Wolf Hopper's New Play is Exciting

Mr. Goode, the Samaritan, in the Triangle photoplay feature of that name, which is to be shown at the Lyric Theatre for a limited engagement of Wednesday, is a benevolent old gentleman who becomes enmeshed in the coils of the law when he buys a stolen automobile from Foxy Monte, a crook.

De Wolf Hopper and Fay Tincher in Triangle Feature, "Mr. Goode, the Samaritan," at the Lyric Wednesday

While poor Mr. Goode languishes in jail, his family, believing him to be absent on a business trip, Foxy Monte makes himself most agreeable to Mrs. Goode and her charming daughter, Evellna, who promises to become his wife. Good, not pleased with the state of the jail, and being in great sympathy with the disreputable inmates has the place re-furnished, and at expiration of his sentence invites Shifty Ed, one of the incarcerated crooks to come and visit him.

Ed comes to make his call in company with his "goil," Shorty Sal, at a time when the Goodes are entertaining a fashionable house party, with Foxy Monte, under an alias, as one of the guests. Sal recognizes Monte; and he, realizing he is in danger of exposure, denounces Ed and Sal as notorious thieves, himself robbing their guests of their jewelry to fasten suspicion upon them. While attention is directed to the two unfortunates, he persuades Evellna, whose hand has been denied him by Mr. Goode to elope with him.

How Shifty Ed and Shorty Sal turn the tables upon Monte in gratitude to Mr. Goode, leads the film to an exciting finish.

Fannie Ward who will be seen at the Star on Monday in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "Each Pearl a Tear," has been surrounded by a cast of unusual excellence, including such distinguished actors as Jack Dean, Charles Clary, Paul Weigel and Jane Wolff. The story is an unusual one and has to do with the attempts of a rogue to attract a young girl in having her believe that she has lost some of his valuable pearls.

"Each Pearl a Tear" "Prop" pearls don't go with Fannie Ward who plays the stellar role in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "Each Pearl a Tear," which will be the attraction at the Star on Monday. The Company secured for Miss Ward an excellent imitation necklace, but this would not do, so she went back to the bank and brought out a string of pearls from her own famous half million dollar collection of jewels. These were carefully guarded, but during one scene the string broke and the pearls were scattered all over the stage; fortunately they were all recovered.

"Seventy Times Seven" the Woman Must Forgive Can a woman find that she still loves a man who has wronged and publicly humiliated her, when she discovers that the man really believed her guilty? This is the problem that gives a new and tense turn to the "love interest" in "The Primal Lure," new Triangle play starring W. S. Hart, at the Lyric Theatre.

Any woman who has endured the lash of a cruel and false accusation will sympathize with Lois Le Moynes, the youthful heroine of this play of the far northwest. Seeking to leave a little girl, the wife of her own hands, in the desk of the man whom she silently and secretly loves, she is seized by that man as a thief, dragged through the settlement, and thrust into prison before the eyes of every one she knows.

Her revenge comes. The man who has misjudged her is in his turn publicly humiliated and bears a bitter burden. But despite his mistakes, he is made of the stuff of which heroes are molded, and in time of desperate peril he offers his life for the girl. Then—does she still care for him?

At first she thinks she does not, but when he tells her she has come to occupy his heart and mind, to the exclusion of all other women—she finds that she must forgive him, and go to him or else deprive herself of her greatest happiness in life.

The picture contains thrilling portrayals of the defense of a border post against an Indian attack, a fight with knives under water between Hart and an Indian, and remarkable snowstorm effects.

Lyric, Friday. Fannie Ward in "Each Pearl a Tear" Fannie Ward, the beautiful Lasky star who recently created such a success in "The Cheat," "Tennessee's Pardner," "The Gutter Magdalene" and others has just completed her last starring vehicle, "Each Pearl a Tear," which will be seen at the Star on Monday. Miss Ward recently signed a long term contract with the Lasky Company and will appear exclusively in their photodramatic productions for some time to come. "Each Pearl a Tear" is said to give Miss Ward great scope to show her unusual dramatic ability.

Thrilling Scenes in New Lockwood-Allison Photoplay

Harold Lockwood and May Allison, the two popular Metro stars will be seen on the screen here at the Star on Tuesday in "The River of Romance," a five part drama produced by the Metro Yorke Co. The principal scenes of this feature were photographed in and around the picturesque Thousand Islands in the St. Lawrence under the direction of Henry Otto, who produced "Undine" recently, one of the best features ever made with water scenes predominating. The story abounds with thrilling incidents that absolutely demanded the daring of two such fearless players as Mr. Lockwood and Miss Allison. It was written by "E. J. Rath," which is said to be the pseudonym of the wife of a well known United States senator. A strong cast is seen in support of Mr. Lockwood and Miss Allison, including Lester Cuneo, one of the best heavy leading men on the screen, Bert Busby, Phil Masi, Dan Hanlon, Lee Walker, Mrs. Mathilde Brundage and Lillian Halpern.

Cleo Ridgley, the beautiful Lasky actress will be seen at the Star tonight in support of Lou Tellegen, the celebrated dramatic star in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "The Victory of Conscience."

As the most famous dancer in Paris, Miss Ridgley introduces several startling dances, one of them being the famous dance of the seven veils. How she and her lover are brought together although separated by their religious vows is presented in a manner which must be seen to be understood.

"The River of Romance" Harold Lockwood and May Allison without question one of the most popular stellar combinations now appearing on the screen will be seen here at the Star on Tuesday in "The River of Romance," a five part Metro wonderplay produced by the Yorke Film Corporation, one of the Metro's newest producing companies. The scenes for this feature are laid around the Thousand Islands, where Director Henry Otto took his players to make the production. Some of the big palaces and costly homes, the most pretentious of an in this country were used as the background for many of the scenes. The story is one of romance and adventure, and there is an unusual twist to the finale that will straddle while it will please the spectator. A strong supporting cast is seen with Mr. Lockwood and Miss Allison, including Lester Cuneo, the foremost leading heavy man on the screen.

Lyric Wednesday. Fay Tincher, who is (to put it paradoxically) one of the best dressed young women on the screen off the screen, sacrificed all chance for sartorial glory when she took the part of the ragamuffin pickpocket in De Wolf Hopper's third Triangle vehicle, "Mr. Goode, the Samaritan." But Miss Tincher is artist enough to do whatever she does well and to like to do it. Her crook costumes are triumphs of comedy characterization in clothes. At the last she does have a chance to wear a little evening frock. She designed it herself of course, and got an odd variation on the familiar Tincher black and white-combinations. This time instead of stripes she used big black circles in a white background. Incidentally Miss Tincher discovered a rare chance for a real characterization in this part, and in it she does some of the best work of her career.

Victory of Conscience Tonight

Were it proper, the Jesse L. Lasky Company could announce in connection with the production of "The Victory of Conscience," which will be seen on the Paramount Program at the Star Tonight with the distinguished actor, Lou Tellegen, in the stellar role, "Incidental Music by the celebrated Geraldine Farrar, Grand Opera Prima Donna." Mr. and Mrs. Tellegen were both at the Lasky studio during the production of this thrilling photodrama, but are not appearing in the same production. During the filming of the cafe scenes of the Tellegen picture, Mrs. Tellegen (the former Geraldine Farrar), insisted upon playing the accompaniment for Cleo Ridgley's celebrated dances. Unfortunately the piano with this famous accompanist does not appear in the picture; therefore the opportunity of seeing the famous prima donna as the accompanist to a dancer in a Parisian cafe is lost to the world.

"The Victory of Conscience" "The Victory of Conscience" has been selected as the title for the thrilling drama in which Lou Tellegen, the distinguished dramatic star will make his next appearance for the Jesse L. Lasky Company at the Star tonight. He is supported by Cleo Ridgley and an all star Lasky cast, including Elliott Dexter, Thomas Delmar and Laura Woods Cushing.

The Lasky Company considers "The Victory of Conscience" one of the most unusual photodramas that it has ever presented to the public. It tells a tensely dramatic story in a most realistic way of how two loving souls are brought together when they are separated by their religious vows.

Many scenes are laid in the prominent cafes of Paris.

ENTHUSIASTIC FOR DEEP WATERWAYS

Mayor of Philadelphia Voices Sentiment of City's Business and Manufacturing Interests.

In no city along the Atlantic Coast has the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association secured more support during the past year than in Philadelphia, where the Ninth Annual Convention is to be held September 12-13-14 and 15. Speaking in favor of the movement to provide open waterways for heavy traffic, to be owned and operated by the Government, from the New England States to the Florida peninsula, Mayor Thomas B. Smith of Philadelphia said:

"While I am convinced the present Congress fully approves of the work inaugurated and accomplished by the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association during the past nine years, I believe that at this coming Ninth Annual Convention the movement for the completion of the deeper inland waterways project will receive such an impetus that, if the present Congress does not make sufficient appropriations for this work, the next Congress will surely provide for the opening of these waterways to our heavy maritime commerce.

"From a military preparedness viewpoint never before was the value of these inland waterways so apparent. Philadelphia in the past has entertained some wonderful conventions, but none has ever occasioned such a deep interest as the forthcoming Convention of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association."

Time for Haste. A little five-year-old McCordsville miss has a stepfather of whom she is very fond. One day the stepfather suffered from a violent headache, and his wife went to the kitchen to prepare some domestic remedy. Lillian waited quietly for some time for her mother to return and relieve the sufferer. Losing patience, she went to the kitchen door and energetically called out: "Mamma; if you don't hurry up you're going to have another husband to bury."

Atlantic Inland Waterways Necessary For Defense In War

President Wilson, Secretary Daniels and Other Government Officials to Speak at Philadelphia Convention.

NEVER before in the history of the Atlantic Deep Waterways Association has so much interest been shown in the annual conventions in favor of deeper waterways as at the present time, and the indications are that the Ninth annual Convention, to be held at Philadelphia, September 12-13-14 and 15 will be the most important and the largest attended convention since the deeper waterways movement was inaugurated.

DANIELS WANTS DEEP WATERWAYS

To Tell Convention at Philadelphia Their Value as Means of Defense.

Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels will address the delegates to the Atlantic Deep Waterways Convention, at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, on Friday, September 15, and it is expected that he will point out at that time the strategic value of these waterways as the country's most important means of defense in time of possible war.

Hon. Josephus Daniels.

an enthusiastic supporter of the Deeper Waterways movement from a commercial standpoint. On numerous occasions he has publicly declared himself as believing that the development of the Atlantic intracoastal waterway system will very materially help every industry along the coast, and especially be of the greatest benefit to all the coast States and their cities.

FOUR CITIES WANT THE WATERWAYS 1917 CONVENTION

Both North and South Working Hard For the Honor.

With four cities already contending for the 1917 Convention of the Atlantic Deep Waterways Association and several as yet to be heard from, indications point to a long drawn out fight before the matter is finally settled when the Ninth Annual Convention goes into session at Philadelphia, September 12 to 15, inclusive.

Office in Herald Building Telephone No. 148

The Sanford Herald, talking about the new postoffice building that is soon to be erected in Sanford, urges the commercial organizations to keep right busy with the preliminaries and make every effort to get an additional appropriation. The government is collecting the necessary information concerning the site and it is thought that work may begin on the building before very long. There is now only $70,000 available for the new postoffice but The Herald believes that united effort will secure a greater sum. Naturally Sanford people are anxious to have a handsome, commodious federal building.—Times-Union.

Sanford Herald heads a wedding notice "Butt-Sligh." There you go again. It would lead the reader to believe the groom was attractive—but sly; or that the wedding was all to the good—but sly; or one of a lot of different things—but sly. Still, I hope that it's not as bad as that. There are three things about a wedding notice that to me are the height of silliness: "A quiet wedding;" "groom dogged out in the conventional black;" and the "two-in-one" heading. Seriously, they are all silly, aren't they?

Not as silly as you are, you ancient landmark of a prehistoric age. But when you was married you were no more human than the present day species. Have a heart and let them get married. People who are past the age have no business to "horn in" anyhow. A fountain pen for you.

PROMPT ACTION NEEDED

Already persons are returning from the north in considerable numbers, and already the school board has taken action to cooperate with the health board to protect the town against the possible infection of infantile paralysis.

It would be well to take reasonable precautions. Such action should be definite and not delayed. It would be a fearful thing to have the disease started here; it would work untold misery and uneasiness and would injure the town more than can be readily imagined. To adopt proper restrictions regarding those returning from infected areas may work some inconvenience upon the few, but the welfare of the many should be conducted first.

To all interested we recommend the reading of an article in the last issue of the Saturday Evening Post by a victim of disease.—Reporter-Star.

Quality Shop Matinee Party

Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Parrish and Mrs. I. D. Pearson, the ladies of Sanford were the guests at a theatre party at the Lyric yesterday afternoon, the regular weekly fashion film featuring the occasion. The announcement was made that under the management of Mrs. Pearson, the Quality Shop will open its doors to the public September 15th in the Lyric building. At this time will be held the fall and winter millinery opening when the modish hats pictured on the screen will be displayed in the newest fads and fancies of the milliners' art. The stock will include the leading styles in headgear for women and children, as well as the dainty and attractive trimmings that make a millinery opening so dear to the heart of the woman of fashion.

The room at the right of the entrance to the Lyric Theatre is being remodeled for the Quality Shop and when completed will be an attractive addition to Sanford's business enterprises.

Mrs. Parrish and Mrs. Pearson cordially invite the ladies of Sanford to visit their store upon the day of the opening.

BIG FAVORITE IN MILWAUKEE

Roger Bresnahan Has Good Reasons for Love of Cream City—Made Record for Slugging.

Roger Bresnahan, former pilot of the Cubs and now the head of the Toledo ball club in the American association, is a great favorite in Milwaukee, and every time he visits the city of brew it brings back fond memories to him.

The duke once established a world's record for hitting there. It was in 1901, when Bresnahan was with Baltimore, in the year the American league was born.

Connie Mack was manager of the Brewers that year, the Athletics not being in existence.

The occasion of the record performance was during a double-header. Mack used Pigk Hawley in the first game and Billy Reidy in the second, and Bresnahan enjoyed a batting matinee.

In the first game, Roger cracked out three home runs and three triples at the expense of Hawley, and in the second he rapped Reidy for two doubles and three singles—a total of 28 bases.

Although it is 16 years since Roger performed so valiantly, there are fans at every game here who talk about that afternoon, and who live in the hope that they will again see the Iron duke duplicate his feat.

Features at Opening Game.

One feature of the opening game of the season at Portland was the release of several hundred pigeons on the ball yard, making a beautiful sight as they flew away. Another feature was the hitting of two home runs by Bunny Brief of Salt Lake, which was not near so beautiful to Portland fans. Brief got three other hits besides his homers in five times at bat.

Self-Torture.

We pity the misguided devotees who put stones in their shoes for a pilgrimage, or who walk over thorny paths to "make merit," but many of us have days when we walk our life road in much the same way, and with no such worthy end in view. We translate the careless speech into intentional offense, the little neglect into deliberate unkindness, the common duty into harshness, and press them in upon our hearts until the whole spirit is sore and bruised self-torture.

Noticed the Extra Light.

My neighbor was giving a dinner party for some friends, and, after careful advice concerning his behavior, allowed her young son to sit at the table with the guests. She was looking at him proudly as he stood at his place awaiting the proper time to be seated, when he glanced up at the lighting fixture and said, "Hub, two-gases tonight!"—Chicago Tribune.

More Common Sense Needed.

Before our children draw their first breath we start closing in upon them with every kind of theory. Theories to the right of them, theories to the left of them, they are often victims, as ready as were the immortal six hundred, to the fact that "some one has blundered." In taking our children conscientiously, why must we let our idea of duty ride rough-shod over common sense?—From the Atlantic.

Street Car Strike

New York, Sept. 8.—A million or more residents of New York left their homes today, not knowing whether they would ride to work or walk. The first test of the strike, declared last night by the union employees of the elevated and subway railways, came with the morning rush hours on these main arteries of travel between the two ends of Manhattan island.

If the carmen can carry their threats to halt surface as well as subway and elevated traffic, New York faces the biggest and most vital strike in its history. The geographical formation of Manhattan Island—long and narrow—the wide distribution of population of the greater city and the concentration of the business, make New York peculiarly susceptible to any interruption of street car traffic.

Dade County Truck

Miami, Sept. 8.—Truckers report that there will be a greater acreage of vegetables in Dade county this fall and winter than ever before. They have already prepared their seed beds for eggplant and bell peppers while very extensive acreage is being prepared for beans. The early fall crop of vegetables is expected to be a large one. The big tomato season will not come on until about the first of December. All indications of the coming season point to heavy shipments to the northern markets by the Christmas holidays. The larger tomato growers are preparing for a busy season as there will be hundreds of acres to be put in readiness and while there will be just as much acreage in tomatoes, it is expected that the number of people engaged in the industry will increase this fall and while the fall shipment of tomatoes will not be as heavy as the early spring, a splendid season is predicted.

BREAD GOES UP

Sanford Bakers Obligated to Raise Price on Staff of Life

Sanford is always up to date and now that the bakers of all the large cities are raising the price and talking of making only ten cent loaves of bread our own bakers have decided that they must have five cents straight for every loaf.

This is made necessary by the recent sky rocket price of flour and there are rumors that the staff of life will go higher before the winter is over. Shortage of flour and potatoes all over the country is responsible for the high price of bread. Many of the bakers of other cities have decided that only ten cent loaves can now be made but Sanford bakers will make five cent loaves for some time yet, only there will be no discount on the price as formerly when the capitalist could buy six loaves for twenty five cents. The following press dispatch shows that the bread question will soon trouble the housewives all over the country:

Three propositions to meet the advance in flour prices with which bakers say they are confronted were discussed at a meeting at Chicago this week of the executive committee of the National Association of Master Bakers. The propositions are:

Confining bread production to the ten cent loaf of weight consistent with present price of flour and wheat about twenty-one ounces.

Increase of price of the five cent loaf to a profitable point of six or seven cents.

Reduction of the weight of the five cent loaf to a profitable point, about nine ounces.

According to members of the committee, the propositions are favored by the bakers in the order in which they are stated.

It is expected action will be taken on the proposals at the meeting tomorrow of the executive committee and also on a resolution submitted today asking congress to place an embargo on wheat.

IN THE SPORTING WORLD

By "RED" DAVIS

The Herald has been giving the Sanford Base Ball Association for the last three months a whole solid page for Sports. And the paper through the high price of the paper and for want of advertising has sacrificed this page to the ball club. The writer of The Herald has not been able to go to these games for the simple reason of provision not being made for him. There is not a city or town in the world that does not look after the writer of their sport pages. The writer feels as if it is up to the association to look out for the Sporting Editor to get to these games. If there is a paper in Florida that is devoting more space to a local club than The Herald is we would like to know it. Now the page will have to be discontinued if provisions cannot be made for the writer to get to these games. We don't think it is up to the paper to get the writer to these games; it is up to the base ball association.

Then again, unless you attend these games it is a matter of impossibility to be able to give the readers a good sketch of the game.

We know the season is soon coming to a close BUT NEXT YEAR the club will be looking for their Sport page again and they will find

Again we call to your attention the advertising on the Sport Page this summer has not been enough to pay for the ink. It is not up to the paper to get the sport writer to these games. It is up to the base ball association. The editor of the paper is giving his page as a favor to create more interest in the game. And in the long run the Base Ball Association benefits by it.

BOSTON BRAVES IS VERY LUCKY

If any one can answer the following story for The Herald please send it in to the Sporting Editor for publication:

How can the Boston Braves be in the lead in the National League with such a record? In the first place there is not a regular player on the Braves club that is hitting over .265. Here are a few figures on the Braves: Connelly is hitting .271. J. Smith .265. Konetchey .261. Snodgrass .252. Gowdy .245. Blackburn .242. S. Magee .235. Marshall .227. Wilhoit .216. Evers .216. This gives them a team batting average of .232, the lowest in the National League. Now for the pitching record. Only three men have ever won ten games. Hughes has won 13, lost 3. Rudolf won 15, lost 8. Tyler won 11, lost 7. Ragan won 8, lost 4. Nehf won 5, lost 4. Rheulbach 4, lost 4. Allen won 7, lost 2. And with all of this they manage to lead the league or rather led for a day, then to lose out in favor of Brooklyn or Philadelphia. A reward is offered for the best answer as to why Boston manages to keep in the race.

TY COBB STILL RULES SUPREME

Scribes around the country seem to think that because Ty Cobb has stolen so many bases this season he is slowing up, and that Father Time will soon catch the famous Georgian. Well, all of that BULL is written for the main object of letting the people know that because Cobb has only stolen fifty bases so far this season is their main idea of why the JEWEL OF GEORGIA is on his last leg.

In the first place, Cobb while not up to his last year's stolen base record is showing up no sign of him slowing up while some of those KNOW IT ALL SPORT WRITERS use valuable space in their newspapers and also expensive typeset writer ribbons to tell the people about the famous Georgian. What in the Hell does Cobb want to run himself to death for a stolen base record? when as a matter of fact Cobb is trying to lead the American League for his tenth straight year in batting. He will never as long as he lives lead in batting unless he slows down a little on the bases. The writer doesn't mean that Cobb is not trying for his stolen bases but he is simply trying to get his hits to the outfield, where as a matter of fact for the past nine years Cobb has been beating out many balls that have been hit to the infielders, depending mostly on his valuable legs. This season Cobb has hit more singles to the outfield than in any other season of his career. This is why the scribes say he is slowing up. Well, if these writers would go over to Cleveland and then over to Chicago and ask a couple of gentlemen by the names of Speaker and Jackson whether they thought Cobb was slowing up they would get the negative reply. Any way from the looks of the three men of late, in their batting averages we find the Tiger Star giving them all a battle of their lives. Don't worry, fans, this is natural for Sporting Editors to do. If any of them lived in Detroit and were employed to write for the Detroit dailies they would change their tune or else look for another job somewhere else. But these KNOCKERS don't live in Detroit, they happen to be writing for some other dailies and they see fit to say such things. We are well aware of the fact that Cobb has to slow up sooner or later, but the same bunch have been saying the same thing about Hal Chase and Hans Wagner and these two players alone have shown them up. COBB MAY SLOW UP, but you can look for him to give them all a battle for the next five years at the least. Some writers say can (SPEAKER-TY COBB), no, he can't even TY HIM.

EMERY BALL PITCHER GETS AWAY PRETTY WELL YESTERDAY

RUSSELL FORD, in the year of 1910 burnt up the AMERICAN LEAGUE with what was generally known as the EMERY BALL. Ford was successful with this ball that he was able to lead the AMERICAN LEAGUE pitchers. For using this EMERY BALL Ford received $7,500, but Bah Johnson abolished this so called EMERY BALL from being used in the American League. Then Russell Ford lost his reputation as a pitcher. He never led the league again and in one year's time he fell to the bottom of the ladder. Now BURMEISTER is trying to follow in his footsteps, and trying to go to the big leagues. In League ball BURMEISTER tries to get away with the same class of pitching but every once in awhile they call him down. This Emery Ball can be worked by some of the fielders as well as Burmy himself. So much for that.

Orlando defeated Sanford in the first game by a score of 3 to 0. The Emery Ball Pitcher was pitted against "Rube" Zellars and outside of the first inning little Rube had them guessing all the way. He was well supported by his teammates and only allowed five scattered hits, while Sanford managed to get seven off of the Famous Emery Ball pitcher. The Sanford club failed to bunt their hits and necessarily were unable to score on the Peerless Burmy, but that old ball will work down to Orlando, but when Burmy comes to Sanford he will have to find some other class of ball to pitch, for the boys are all laying for him to try and get away with his Emery Ball up here. Gooch's three bagger in the first inning scored two runs and it proved to be enough to win the old game. Below is the box score:

FULTON AND FILLIGIM ENGAGE IN PITCHERS BATTLE

The second game was a pitchers' battle between two of the best pitchers in the South American League. Fulton and Filligim both pitched airtight ball. Fulton gave up two hits while our boys were only able to connect with only one, Filligim's to go into safe territory. Only one time in the game did Orlando get a man as far as third base and he died a natural death.

In the sixth inning the Sanford club had three men on the bases but the hit that was needed was not there. Filligim had the boys guessing most all through the game for he had no less than thirteen strikes out to his credit. He seemed to have just as much as he has ever had, only one man received a pass from the ex-Charleston pitcher, Fulton's control was perfect no man being passed. The feature of the game was the playing of Engman on second for Sanford. This boy made two stops that were way above the ordinary. The whole Sanford club played well behind Fulton and especially the infielders. The local infield looked mighty good. Outside of a low throw by Bell the game would have been an errorless game. Below is the box score:

Long on Caution.
