Farmers Lobbying To Win

Reversal Of Grain Sale Halt WASHINGTON (AP) - A major farm organization, saying President Ford disregarded the farmer's interest in suspending grain sales to the Soviet Union, is trying to get the President to end the suspension. William J. Kuhfuss, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, was scheduled to meet with Ford today. Federation leaders last week angrily accused Ford of "capitulation to political blackmail" when he announced that no further sales would be made before mid-

Kuhfuss, reached by telephone Sunday at his farm near Mackinaw, Ill., said, "farmers are real disturbed" over Ford's actions on the grain issue. They are angry over Ford's exclusion of them in his dealings with AFL-CIO President George Meany and other labor leaders as well as over the administration's talks with the Russians, he

"Capitulation to labor is what it amounted to," Kuhfuss said of Ford's suspension of the grain sales. "As we view it, these are political activities going here with the election coming on next year."

Election Turns Bitter

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) - Bitter personal hostility between Democrat John A. Durkin and Republican Louis C. Wyman is marking the last days of New Hampshire's Senate campaign as the year-long rivals battle for advantage in a Tuesday runoff both hope will be decisive. The antagonism between Durkin and Wyman flared Sunday, both on and off the air, as they participated in a pair of television interview programs to climax the campaign made necessary when the Senate was unable to decide who won their first race last November.

Durkin accused Wyman of engaging in Watergate-style tactics, while the GOP candidate claimed his opponent had lied repeatedly, as they clashed over a Republican letter to New Hampshire hunters that accused the Democrat of favoring gun control.

Spending Mandate Voted

ORLANDO (AP) - The Appalachian Regional Commission has voted to impose a "spend-it-or-lose-it" mandate on its 13 states to combat Congressional criticism that the ARC isn't using all its money. The commission, which met Sunday at Walt Disney World in conjunction with the Southern Governor's Conference, also voted to seek a $336-million appropriation from Congress for the 1976-77 fiscal year - a $42.5-million hike over the 1975-76 year. Satellite Launch Postponed

CAPE CANAVERAL (AP) - The launch of a West German satellite has been postponed because a fire destroyed some vital equipment during the Sept. 9 launch of the Viking II mission to Mars, space officials say. The second Helios, a German-made, sun-circling satelite, had been tentatively scheduled for launch by a Titan-Centaur rocket Dec. 8 but will probably not be launched

"It would have been a tight schedule even if the second mission to Mars had gone on Aug. 22 as originally planned," said John Neilon, director of launch operations at the Kennedy Space Center.

Better Postal Service Pledged

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Postal Service says that starting next month it will give at least as good service for a 10-cent stamp as it now does for a 13-cent airmail stamp. Under the program that takes effect Oct. 11, first-class mail will receive service "equal to or better than air-mail," the Postal Service said Sunday. "For the mailing public, the practical effect of the firstclass improvement program is that domestic first-class postage will purchase the level of service that previously only airmail could buy," a Postal Service announcement over the weekend.

Outlook Grim

For Farmworkers

ORLANDO (AP) — "It's probably going to be the roughest season we've had," an official says of the economic outlook for more than 100,000 workers who will be harvesting Florida farm crops this winter. Fred Staff, coordinator of the Migrant Labor Program of the State Division of Community Services, made the comment over the weekend at the close of an Orlando conference on farm workers. According to reports at the conference, poor summer crops up north will send migrant workers south earlier than usual and they'll arrive without any way of making a living until Florida's crops start coming in. Then, Staff added, the migrants will have to compete with foreign workers and a greater number of year-round residents for farm jobs decreasing in number because of

Shark Victim Returns Home

DAYTONA BEACH (AP) - A 20-year-old Beloit Wis., man has returned home after spending 32 days in a Daytona Beach hospital recovering from a shark attack. Henry Peterson's right leg was amputated below the knee after he was mauled by a shark Aug. 12 off a local

Peterson said he plans to reenter the University of Wisconsin this January to begin his junior year. "And once the leg is fully healed, I'll be going to Northwestern University Medical Center for a prosthetic," he said Saturday before boarding a plane. "I don't think I'll have much trouble getting used to it." Shortly after the attack, a group of local businessmen raised $2,000 to help pay for Peterson's education. The

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - An investigator and a prosecutor have been called before the Cabinet to dispute the claim of convict Curtis Adams Jr. that he - not Freddie Pitts and Wilbert Lee - killed two service stations attendants 12 years ago. The testimony today of S.R. "Speedy" DeWitt and State Atty. Leo Jones of Panama City is a potential roadblock in a move to pardon Pitts and Lee. Gov. Reubin Askew, Atty. Gen. Robert Shevin and Insurance Commissioner Phil Ashler have signed a full pardon. But one more Cabinet member must sign to free Pitts and Lee on schedule Friday.

Women's Group Blasts Law

JENSEN BEACH (AP) - Florida's unemployment compensation law is under attack by the state branch of the National Organization for Women (NOW). Some 200 men and women at the feminist group's third state conference voted Sunday to authorize legal action aimed at allowing pregnant women to receive unemployment benefits.

Women are not eligible for benefits if they quit work because of pregnancy but workers do qualify if they leave jobs for other medical reasons. "This practice is blatantly sexist and a form of economic discrimination against women," said state Rep. Karen Coolman, D-Fort Lauderdale,

Seven Killed In Accidents

By The Associated Press At least seven persons were killed in weekend traffic accidents in Florida, including a mother and daughter who died when their car skidded out of control during a thunderstorm, the Highway Patrol says.

Barbara Mann Roe, 33, lost control of her car Saturday on a rain-slicked road in Interlachen and crashed head-on into another vehicle, troopers said. Mrs. Roe and her mother, Loca P. Mann, both of St. Augustine, were killed. George D. Welsch, 23, was killed Sunday near his home in Gainesville when another car went through a stop sign and crashed into his car. Welsch was ejected from his

Masked Robbers Hit Center

TAMPA (AP) - Two masked men bound six women employes of a convalescent center here with tape during the night and made off with narcotics and money, police said. The women, two nurses and four nuurses aides, were able to free themselves after about two hours and call police. They were unharmed. Authorities said the men were wearing stockings over their faces when they entered the Cambridge Convalescent Center, which serves mostly elderly persons, in the early morning hours.

Panel To Study Medicaid

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - A task force designed to cut red tape in the Medicaid program will also search for persons abusing the health-care plan, a state official says. William J. Page, Health and Rehabilitative Services secretary, has announced formation of a department task force to study Medicaid problems and recommend solutions within 90 days.

The $180 million program, which gets 58 per cent of its funds from the federal government, serves about 400,000 elderly, blind, disabled and poor persons in Florida. "We feel we owe it to the taxpayers and the clients to make sure funds are spent in the most efficient manner possible while assuring the best health care available to those who are eligible," Page said.

Survey: Sentences Differ

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - The chairman of the Senate Judiciary-Criminal Committee says a survey proves what he has been saying all along: There is a wide difference in sentences handed down by judges in different counties for the same offense. Sen. Dan Scarborough, DJacksonville, said the panel's

Ullman Tax Plan Needs More Study

As chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, Rep. Al Ullman lights the fuse on most tax issues in Congress. He has now done so to start debate on what may be the dominant fiscal question in Washington this fall - whether the tax cuts voted by Congress early this year to help lift the economy out of recession should be continued for another year or even beyond.

Rep. Ullman is suggesting that the one-time deductions and credits which are reducing individual income taxes by $7.7 billion this year be made permanent. He also would extend a $2.5 billion cut in corporate tax rates through 1976, and continue through 1977 a $3.3 billion increase in the investment tax credit which is due to expire at the end of next year. That adds up to another $13.5 billion in federal pump-priming of the economy

The latest word from the Administration on this subject is that it is too early to say whether the economy needs this kind of treatment. President Ford has indicated he will wait until October before assessing the economic outlook for the coming Another couple of months of wait and see is surely in order. The index of leading economic indicators has just registered its fifth consecutive monthly gain, the longest sustained upward movement since 1973. This is still further confirmation that the turnaround from recession is well under way even if the unemployment rate stubbornly refuses to come down.

We hope that Rep. Ullman and Congress do not succumb to the notion that if one big tax break helped the economy another would help it even more. This ignores the rest of the economic statistics, which show an ominous rise in prices and lead some economists to predict another period of double-digit inflation. If that's in the cards, this summer's recovery could wither with the autumn

Before members of Congress begin committing themselves to election-year tax breaks they should fill in all pieces of the picture, particularly the outlook for the federal budget. This year's tax rebates and refunds were brought at the expense of a federal deficit that could barely be defended as responsible even at the $60 billion limit the President tried to impose. Government borrowing to cover its deficits, for instance, could cancel out the stimulating effects of the tax breaks for business which Rep. Ullman wants to renew and which may still be justified.

Almost a year has passed since President Ford embarked on a brief campaign urging the nation to Whip Inflation Now. The steep slide into recession prompted him to put the anti-inflation campaign on the shelf. The worst of the recession seems to be behind us, and inflation is anything but whipped. It was the wise American who didn't throw his WIN button away.

Meany Has Crust

The AFL-CIO says George Meany's mail has been running 20 to 1 in favor of the threat by longshoremen to refuse to load ships carrying U.S. grain to Russia. This would bear out that many Americans are worried about the impact of the latest grain sales on the price of food.

The Administration already has put a halt to further grain shipments until it becomes clear whether the U.S. harvest will be large enough to cover the Russian shipments without creating a shortage driving up prices at home. That should satisfy most of the criticism, but it has not satisfied Mr. Meany. The reason is that what labor is really after is more protection from foreign competition for our shipping industry and maritime unions. This would entail bigger government subsidies to make shipping rates by U.S. carriers more competitive, and U.S. demands that less of the grain be carried aboard Soviet and other foreign ships. The flap over the grain shipments boils down to another skirmish in labor's effort to get the U.S. government to abandon the principles of free trade in favor of protectionism.

In this corner on Friday, we noted that auditions for the community-wide production of "1776" would be staged on Sunday and Monday. However, we failed to mention that these auditions would be Sunday Sept. 21 and Monday Sept. 22. For this oversight, we humbly apologize.

The Sept. 21 auditions will be held from 2-6 p.m. and again from 7:30 p.m. until completion. The Sept. 22 auditions will start at 7 p.m. and all auditions will be held in Rooms T1 and T2, Music Portable, Seminole Community College. The Music Portable is located north of the Vocational-Technical buildings on the campus and can most easily be reached by entering the college from U.S. 17-92.

Act Three is a Sanford group that has formed to produce "1776", which will be staged in December. The show will have a three-day run in Altamonte Springs starting Dec. 3, and will move to Sanford the following weekend (Dec. 12-14) for another good prizes for the bingo games.

George DeMattio and Carlos Raines are the chefs for the dinner and, according to Dr. Richard Doughterty of the Lions, you haven't eaten good spaghetti until you tried that turned out by these Practically everyone knows that the Lions Club is a service club which specializes in helping to fight for the conservation of sight. Sanford's organization, by the way, will celebrate its 50th birthday come Friday, Oct. 31.

Throughout the latter part of September and in all of October, the Lions Club will once again be selling Halloween Candy to raise money for its many sight projects.

Jot the date of Oct. 4, in your little reservations book so that you can enjoy an evening of fine spaghetti, games of bingo, good fellowship and most of all - help in the Lions' Fight For Sight. You won't go away hungry!

Most States Cleaning Up Grass Roots

Most states, and numbers of counties and cities, are far ahead of the United States government in laws attacking conflicts of interest and corruption among office holders. At least 30 states now have such laws. So do a fist-full of local governments. But in all too many cases, even the wellwritten laws go unenforced. Most state and local prosecutors ignore corruption - if it's political. To act would involve prosecuting friends and

Ethics committees, appointed to watch dog state legislatures, likewise have been snail-like in enforcing the rules governing financial disclosure and financial conduct for state

Sometimes, federal officers move in when locals fail to act. As in New Jersey and in Baltimore County, Maryland. But these cases are few and far between. And the federal officers, of course, cannot by any stretch of power, enforce state laws. Federal law, what there is of it, is filled with loopholes.

But who then will enforce federal corrupt practices, financial disclosure and conflict of interest laws? That is, if Congress ever stops its dilly dallying and comes up with adequate rules governing the ethics and the financial disclosure of Washington lawmakers, officials of the executive departments, and the military. The answer is probably appallingly simple.

Even if the laws are written with care and precision - and there is no evidence of this to date in the bills now before Congress - they will not be enforced, except in rare instances. The record of the Department of Justice has not been good in political crimes. Busing May Mean More White Flight

The future course of efforts to eliminate racial segregation in the public schools of America by means of busing may well be determined this U fall. For the first time in the 21 years since the U.S. Supreme Court handed down its landmark decision in Brown vs. Board of Education, significant attempts to implement that decision in cities outside the deep South are being un-

As events in Louisville have demonstrated, the strife that accompanied large-scale busing in Boston last year was not the North's first and last stand, as Little Rock was the South's in 1957. Yet even if busing plans were to proceed smoothly in Detroit, Baltimore, Indianapolis Dallas and other cities facing varying degrees of desegregation effort for the first time, the ultimate result could be only greater segregation in the form of accelerated white flight from the cities to the suburbs. One who fears this eventuality is University of Chicago sociologist James S. Coleman, His research shows that in those large cities that were undergoing some desegregation during 1968-73 there was considerably greater loss of children from the school systems than would be expected from the rate of loss of white children from non - desegregating systems.

The loss was especially great in a few cities undergoing significant desegregation. For example, Atlanta, whose segregation between 1970 and 1973 was reduced by almost half, lost 51 per cent of its white population. Memphis, where segregation was reduced by two-thirds, lost 47

Palestinians Occupy Embassy, Arab League Office In Madrid

IN BRIEF

MADRID, Spain (AP) - Palestinian guerrillas occupied the Egyptian Embassy and the Arab League office in Madrid today and demanded that Egypt denounce its new Sinai agreement with Israel, local news agencies

The guerrillas were reported holding Egyptian Ambassador Abdel Gafar, his press attache and a consul hostage in the embassy, and the Egyptian representative of the Arab League office, Abdel Rahman al Tuhami, in

Strike Averted In Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) - Palestinian mediation averted a potentially explosive antigovernment strike planned by leftist Moslems today, but Christian-Moslem fighting spread to Beirut.

At least 20 more persons were reported killed in machine-gun battles Saturday night and Sunday in the northern city of Tripoli, the hills around it and several Beirut suburbs. This increased the casualty toll since Sept. 3 to nearly 150 killed and twice that many wounded.

Moslem leftists had called a nationwide general strike to protest the use of the army as a buffer force between warring Christians and Moslems in northern Lebanon. Premier Rashid Karami, a Moslem, asked Palestinian guerrilla chief Yasir Arafat to intercede with the leftists, and he arranged a meeting between Karami and Socialist bloc leader Kamal Jumblatt.

Toughest Sport?

Name the best all-around athlete you know, and I'll give you a game he can't play - without years of practice.

Golf can be an exacting sport. There's grip, swing, followthrough and all those other factors. Frisbee throwing can be picked up in a relatively short time. Sports like football, basketball and baseball require certain skills, but most American athletes are already tuned in on the basics.

We're talking about jai-alai. It's the toughest sport in the world. Tough to learn, tough to play and even tough to watch. To start with, I dare that all-everything athlete to walk out on the court, strap a cesta on his arm and try and hit the front wall, even on the first bounce. And I don't mean from the backcourt. Put him at the underserve line and the novice still can't hit the wall - 60 feet high and 55 feet wide, a mere stone's throw in front Joe Morgan, second baseman of the Cincinnati Reds, tried it in Las Vegas and failed. Only after an hour's tutoring was he able to weakly lob the ball to the wall. This week jai-alai opens at Fern Park with a 41-man roster, great expectations and promise of providing the most intense athletic competition Seminole County will see this year.

of jai-alai are many, he has a tough job.

Exhibition night is Tuesday and the season gets under way Tuesday's 8 p.m. performance is a significant one in respect to Central Florida sports fans who are only vaguely familiar with the three-walled game in which a goatskin-covered pelota is flung Murua, Mencha II and Rene.

His idea is to convey explanations to fans, so that they will understand jai-alai. That's all he has to do - explain. Once a person understands and watches, according to Ison, he qualifies instantly as an afectionado — one who loves it.

By JIM HAYNES

Ison issues a challenge to the sports fan tired of sitting on his hands through baseball season, and who seeks continuous action which excels even the rapid pace of pro football.

It does little good to describe short, powerfully built athletes hurling himself to the concrete floor with full force. Ditto for the Daytona Beach and Barre was Alah in West Palm. dozen incredible shots made during virtually any performance of

This year's roster is basically the same at last year's. Four new players - Barre, Celaya, Echave and Okoki - replace Tain, Guess offseason, and if I were a betting man, I'd certainly consider them That's because they get more wrist action into the throw."

Short, powerfully built athletes climb a wall to catch a goatskin-covered ball 12 feet in the air. They hurl themselves to a concrete floor in three-walled game of jai-alai, where ball is flung back and forth at speeds of 125 m.p.h. with a wicker-type basket strapped to the wrist. Don't blink or you will miss the Fermin, Maruri and Azpi played in France. Fermin tore them up, using his carom to good advantage. Javi, Larrea and Sanchez played at Barcelona and all had good seasons.

Javi, in fact, is predicting a wins championship for himself. Veteran jai-alai followers must agree that Javi has a good crack at it, but the feeling here is that either Chucho or Maruri will take home the big trophy at the end of the season.

The big three in the backcourt are Larrea, Ramon and Muguerza. Larrea is on the verge of stardom. He's only 19, alented and showing a future like few in the sport.

As for Chucho, the year-around Seminole County resident is still looking for his first super season. He possesses superb physical tools for jai-alai and has the best forehand on the roster. A combination of bad luck and injuries has slowed him in the last three years. He has his fingers crossed this year.

Of four rookies, three of them are not rookies. Celaya is a ball climbing a wall to catch a ball 12 feet in the air. Or a player taking of fire frontcourter and formerly played in Miami, the mecca of the ball off the back wall, executing the difficult robote shot by the jai-alai world. IN BRIEF

Strike Sympathy Abounds

For Patriots, NFL Plight

Sympathy abounds among National Football League players for the New England Patriots' lonely strike stance. Whether it can be turned into real support in the next 48 hours will likely determine the outcome of the players' latest rebellion.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Patriots, in a show of solidarity, voted to strike and forced the cancellation of their Sunday exhibition against the New York Jets in the belief that others would follow their demand that NFL owners and the players' union reach agreement on a new labor contract.

The followers did not materialize over the weekend and now the Patriots face a lockout by management if they attempt to resume practice Tuesday for this weekend's NFL opener against Houston.

Dolphins: 'We're Happy'

MIAMI (AP) - The Miami Dolphins have no plans to join other National Football League teams in a strike if the players' dissention grows, according to alternate player representative Ed Newman. "I can only speak for this club. Unless our toes are really stepped on, we're happy," Newman said after the Dolphins beat the New York Giants 31-13 Saturday night in a game Giants' players tried to delay for a half hour. "We voted earlier this year ... we would not strike for freedom issues," said Newman, who has taken over the duties of injured player representative Dick Anderson.

Garlits Still Big Daddy

BRADENTON (AP) - Ron "Big Daddy" Garlits has captured top fuel honors in drag races held at DeSoto Memorial Raceway.

Garlits, of nearby Tampa, had a winning elapsed time of 6.59 seconds and speed of 222.77 m.p.h. In the funny-car division, Paul Smith of Warner Robbins, Ga., won with 214.28 m.p.h. in an elapsed tim of 6.33 seconds, beating Dennis Lockaby, also of Warner Robbins.
