The report shows also that 52.6 per cent of first children born to black mothers in 1969 were illegitimate, compared to 10.1 per cent of first babies born to white mothers. The survey also shows that illegitimate first babies increased in recent years among blacks but remained nearly stable among whites. About 18 per cent of black women between the ages of 45 to 50 reported having their first child out of wedlock. Of black women 25 to 30 years old, 38.2 per cent reported illegitimate first births.

Among white women in the 45 to 50 age group, 5.7 per cent reported having their first child while single. The figure was 6.4 per cent for white women of the younger 25to-30-year-old generation.

say that economic, social and cultural differences, and the availability of birth control methods explain differences in premarital child conception among races.

Mrs. Joy Dryfoos of a Planned Parenthood's research group, the Alan Guttmacher Institute in New York, said that illegitimacy rates will drop as birth control becomes more widespread.

"The conventional wisdom is that the black culture is more accepting of illegitimacy than the white culture," she said. "I would also suggest that the differences are related to the availability of birth control, abortion and sex education. I would expect a decline in black illegitimacy in the next report because our studies show that blacks are using abortion services more than we

Florida's venereal disease rate, one of the highest in the nation in 1975, dropped sharply during the first half of 1976, state health officials reported today. The report said the number of infectious syphilis cases dropped 23.4 per cent, compared to the first half of last year. Gonorrhea cases dropped by 15 per cent. The drop in the venereal disease rate was greater than that in any other state and was the sharpest since the decline following WW II, of-

NEW YORK (AP) - The oil industry has bid $1.13 billion — nearly twice what the Interior Department expected — to search for oil and natural gas off the Atlantic Coast for the first time. Interior Department officials had estimated the Atlantic Coast tracts would bring between $400 million and $600 million in bids. The oil industry has been waiting for years to search beneath Atlantic Coast waters. The bidding was to have started at 10 a.m. Tuesday, but had to wait until 6 p.m. when Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall denied a request to block the sale.

Mine Victim's Wife Waits

CUMBERLAND, Ky. (AP) - Kathy Hackworth, widowed at 27, plans to take her 10nonth-old son out of the coal country and go home to Ohio - just as soon as her husband gets "a proper, decent burial." But it has been five months since her husband died and she despairs of knowing when that burial will be. Her husband was one of 11 men whose bodies have been entombed since an explosion March 11 in Scotia Coal Co.'s No. 1 mine at Oven Fork. A recovery operation is underway and the company says it will bring the bodies out next month.

Housing Industry In Tailspin

WASHINGTON (AP) - The housing industry has taken a midyear tailspin and one expert thinks it is now virtually impossible for the industry to mount a solid recovery this year. The Commerce Department reported Tuesday that the number of new housing unit starts in July fell by 9.2 per cent to an annual rate of 1.387 million after seasonal adjustment. The July figure was 14.9 per cent above a year earlier, but only half the 30 per cent rise the Ford administration had predicted the industry would attain in 1976.

Judge Bars Popsicle Tax

BOSTON (AP) - A Superior Court judge has decreed what parents have told youngsters for years — a Popsicle is not a meal. The ruling came Tuesday from Judge Joseph S. Mitchell Jr., whose decision means that the Commonwealth of Massachusetts cannot slap its 8 per cent meals tax on the frozen treats. The legal fight erupted because a 17-year-old Newton ice cream truck driver decided he did not want to start charging his customers extra for Popsicles.

CIA Analyzes Soviet Economy

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Soviet Union's current five-year plan is called "unusually restrained and realistic" in a Central Intelligence Agency analysis that also says the plan could lead to serious economic problems in the 1980s. The newly released study estimates that during 1976-80 the Soviet gross national product - the total value of goods and services - will grow at an annual rate of about 4 per cent, lower than the 5 per cent growth rate projected by the Kremlin.

Fields On Mars?

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) - New pictures of Mars' northern regions reveal mysterious patterns resembling contour plowing on the planet's red surface, and scientists say they are hard pressed to find a natural explanation. "We're getting some strange things. It's very puzzling," said Michael Carr, a member of the team interpreting pictures of Mars taken by the orbiting Viking 2. The lander of Viking 2 is due to touch down Sept. 4 in the Carr said Tuesday that the newest pictures of the target zone showed huge, striped patterns that resemble an aerial photograph of a farmer's field after plowing. It is "hard to think of a natural cause, because the stripes are so regular," he said.

The geologist said there are some stripe-like patterns in the Sahara desert, caused by the wind creating rows of dunes that are very regular and evenly spaced.
"But generally, these dunes don't change directions like the ones we're seeing on Mars," Carr said. Meanwhile, life-searching experiments aboard Viking 1 continued the second-phase of testing, repeating earlier

Election Inspectors Checking

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) - State election inspectors are making random, spot checks of candidates' offices to check the way campaign funds are being handled, Secretary of State Bruce Smathers said Tuesday that the spot checks are to insure that elections laws are being followed, to help the candidates and to develop recommendations for the legislature on improving the complex laws.

Aftorney Conflict Cited

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - The chairman of the House Standards and Conduct Committee doubts the propriety of an attorney's working half-time for the House and part-time for a state board. "If I were Mr. Barrett, I would not do that," said Rep. Tom McPherson, D-Fort Lauderdale. "If there is not a conflict of interest, there is at least a potential for conflict."

Lawyers Get Pay Hike

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - Lawyers teaching in public schools should be in the same payroll category as persons with doctorate degrees, the state Cabinet says. The Cabinet voted 4-0 Tuesday to direct the Education Department to bring back new certification regulations that would make that change, thus raising the lawyers' salaries.

BARTOW (AP) - A Polk County grand jury has indicted Sheriff Monroe Brannen, a deputy, a former deputy and another man on charges of conspiring to smear one of Brannen's election opponents and then lying about the alleged plot.

Brannen said he would ask Gov. Reubin Askew today what he wants to do about the indictment. Askew has the power to suspend the sheriff until the matter is cleared up. Brannen, Sgt. John A. Baggett and former vice-squad Capt. Milton E. Godwin - now a candidate for Pasco County sheriff - were arrested, booked and released on their own recognizance after the grand jury issued the indictment late Tuesday.

A Bad Case Of Non-Action

Fourth District Rep. Bill Chappell, in an exclusive interview with The Evening Herald this week, gave his first real, definitive explanation for his non-vote on the recent censure motion in the House of Representatives against fellow emocrat, Bob Sikes of Crestview.

His explanation was followed by a call from one of his Democratic primary opponents, Tommy Boney, for a House Ethics committee investigation of Mr. Chappell's refusal to vote on the motion.

In effect, Chappell's defense for voting present" on the motion— that is, not taking a stand — was that Sikes is a fellow Floridian serving in that august body. Therefore, he decided not to go on the record either way out of loyalty and, presumably, compassion for the dean of the

They are isions and issues that affect not only his particular governing body — but often the nation as well. Some may be less than desirable — even lownright unpleasant. But he must be willing to stand up and be counted. That's a basic part of his ity - and of public office. It comes with

In this case, it probably would even have been the fairer thing to do for Mr. Sikes — whichever way Mr. Chappel's conscience directed him to vote. At least Mr. Sikes and the state and nation would know where Mr. Chappell stood. And it would serve to clear the air for the long haul. As it turned out, Ar. Sikes was handed an overwhelming rebuke, 381 3. And he was duly chastised

If we were to accept Mr. Chappell's reasoning would mean that any member of any profession be it private, social or political — when faced with the unpleasant task of judging the behavior of fellow charged with misconduct, malfeasance or nfeasance — could be excused from such

Where is the line drawn on the responsibilities a public official to act decisively on the issues of the day in the public interest? Is he allowed to shirk that responsibility - in effect, to cop out - when the accused is from the same state? From the same ountry club? The same bridge club? The same

Suppose a member of the Florida Bar Association were accused of wrongdoing? Would that mean that his colleagues in the F.B.A. would be allowed to abstain from judging the case because the accused was a member of the association? If so, no wrongdoer in the F.B.A. or any organization would ever be held accountable for his misjudgments and errors.

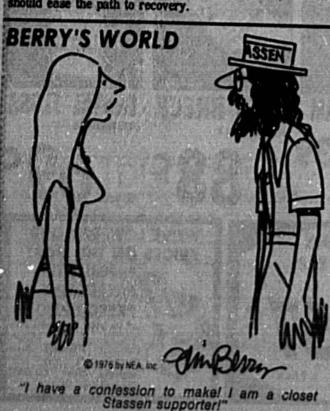

The acceptance of responsibility is not lective process. The good comes with the bad.

Guest Editorial Biting The Bullet

In the face of bitter opposition from its left wing and the trade unions, Britain's Labor government has taken a daring step to achieve economic recovery. Chancellor of the Exchequer Denis Healey has announced cuts in public spending for next year of $1.78 billion — many in areas such as housing, health, education, and unemployment benefits that have long been at the heart of the Labor party program.

With unemployment at a post-war peak of 1.3 million, it required rare political courage for Healey and Prime Minister Callaghan to decree further deflationary moves for 1977. Lacking an overall House of Commons majority, the government will be risking its existence in the fight for the enabling Britain has a long way to go to achieve economic stability with growth. Healey's cuts unquestionably mean hardship for many Britons, especially those hit by the even higher unemployment that the government concedes will be a short-run result. But in Britain's peculiarly difficult situation, this action uld ease the path to recovery.

found that this is the most enthusiastic bunch of boys have ever coached. But, they didn't know how to work. We had to show them how. They'd stay out until dark, but might not accomplish much. They are learning. "We have strength in numbers, but in those numbers you also have to have a few football players to have a good team. Well, I think we have a few of those."

Last spring, shortly after Raley came from Ocala Forest where he had a major role as defensive coach on that state aship squad from each of the last two seasons, Lake Brantley players took a curious look at their new coach. He was well groomed, hair trimmed just over the ears. He newed tabacco, didn't cuss and kept a well-worn copy of the On their own, players decided to give the coach a sign of their faith in him and staged a hair-cutting party in the hall outside the football office.

Back in the spring, even before he came to the Forest City high school, a few of his friends advised him against it. "You don't want go go there . . . why they don't have any all-white school.

"Winning football spirit is like the measles, it has to catch and pread," Raley asserts. The turnout at Lake Brantley was so overwhelming - 275 for varsity, junior varsity and freshmen teams - that Raley had to o some quick dividing. A few sophomores have moved into the area since last spring, and according to Raley, "they will play some for us." They are likely the result of a community effort. Realtors include the chool's modern facilities and football program in a film resentation aimed at attracting families to the Forest City area.

In short, the Raley football philosophy is that the pros play for noney, colleges for bread and high school football is for fun. "When it ceases to be fun, interest wanders," Raley adds. 'Coaching is a business where your success depends on 15, 16 and 7-year-olds. That can be scarey. The real test is when it is fourth and one, and the kid is in the huddle thinking to himself 'what has Which is one of the truths of football, coach.

'We Did It,' Cries Florida Delegate

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Florida delegates have played a key role in the defeat of Ronald Reagan's attempt to force President Ford to name his running mate, thereby boosting Ford's prospects of winning the Republican presidential nomination

Tuesday night as Republican National Convention delegates rejected a Reagan-backed bid that would have required Ford to The Fiorida vote was 26 for the proposal and 38 against. The group is officially divided into 43 Ford delegates and 23 Reagan delegates for the first two nominating ballots.

lizing that their votes had killed the proposal, Ford's Florida backers leaped on their seats and chanted "Ford! Ford!

"That takes care of the whole thing," chimed in Rep. Lou Frey, Ford's presidential primary campaign manager in Florida.

A dissappointed L.E. "Tommy" Thomas, Reagan's Florida delegation chairman, refused to admit defeat. But he conceded that the Ford victory Tuesday night stacked the odds against Reagan in tonight's presidential nomination sweeptakes.

"I don't think it's the ball game," he said. "It's a setback. There's not much we can do in Florida. Sen. Schweiker and John Sears had better pull a rabbit out of their hats." Schweiker, of Pennsylvania, is the running mate Reagan named in hopes of spiriting northeastern delegates away from Ford. Sears manages Reagan's campaign and masterminded the attempt to force Ford to name a running mate in the hopes that Ford's choice would alienate some of the President's backers. Florida delegates are required by state law to vote for the andidates to whom they are committed for at least two ballots. Cook Of The Week-She Follows Natural Way To Health

By JEAN PATTESON Women's Editor

If Winifred Taylor's clear eyes, fresh skin and controlled energy are anything to go by, then "health" foods are well named. The owner of Taylor's Natural Foods in the Sanford Plaza is a fine example of that old adage - you are what you eat. Hard to believe Mrs. Taylor is over 50!

Right out of high school, she joined the telephone company in Jackson, Mich., where she soon found herself teaching health classes to the company employes. "I've always been interested in health and proper eating,"

Mrs. Taylor and her husband, Fred, (they have two married sons) moved to Florida (Casselberry) in 1968. After completing her degree at Rollins, Mrs. Taylor taught English for but then decided she would like to get a business of her own. Coincidentally. Sanford's only health food Gerald Rudolph Ford, everybody's friend and, it seemed, nobody's hero, had heard it all before. Heard it from that moment of trauma, noon, Aug. 9,1974, in the East Room of the White House, to the moment of magic, 12:26 a.m., Aug. 18, 1976, in the hot, shrieking swirl of a hockey arena.

Now, at least, he had some kind of a mandate. Until then, it seemed, he might have been Cloomed to go down in history as a genial, innocuous caretaker between real Presidents. It was as if the numbered sequence would have to be fractionalized. Richard Nixon was the 37th President. Jimmy Carter or Ronald Reagan would be the 38th. And, oh yes, there was that nice guy Ford, the 37th

He might still end up that way in the history primers but last night he turned at least half a corner. He became a President with a Republican constituency beyond the fifth congressional district of Grand Rapids, Mich., beyond the sole annointment of Richard Nixon.

To get there, Gerald Ford had to scramble for the and cheer him. People who know they are going to Republican nomination like an alderman who had just been redistricted into a neighborhood of hostile
