

ROD AND GUN CLUB WILL BE ORGANIZED AND CLUB HOUSE TO BE BUILT

Plans Have All Been Laid By
"13" Club
ON THE LAKE FRONT

WHEN ONE HUNDRED MEMBERS HAVE BEEN SECURED NEW CLUB WILL BE ORGANIZED

(From Wednesday's Daily)

The "13" Club of Sanford organized about three months ago and made up of live members of the Chamber of Commerce have been doing things since their organization and not wishing to ask for donations for carrying out their plans for building a bigger Sanford have been giving a series of dances and entertainments the proceeds of which are to be used in building a suitable home for the new Rod and Gun Club that will be organized here in the next few weeks. The Rod and Gun Club will be a rendezvous not only for the yachtsmen, the tourist and the visitors of all kinds to the city but it will also be a place for general recreation, an assembly hall, a place for dances and other amusements. The "13" club has already taken an option on a fine location on the lake front near the home of John Russell in one of the prettiest parts of the city and will take steps to immediately erect a fine club house and have a basin for boats and regular amusement place for the many winter visitors—a place where they will enjoy the lake and the river in boating and fishing and hunting.

The club some time ago put on a big day in Sanford and gave the proceeds to the hospital and when the Rod and Gun Club is started on the way the Club will devote its time and money to other enterprises and will keep several good things going all the time for the upbuilding of the city. They are also putting on entertainments of all kinds and hold a dance each month and are considering a fine Chautauqua for the month of April thus giving the city something in the way of amusements all the time and keeping the city filled with new people.

Their next dance will be given on Friday night at the Valdez Hotel and on the night of the 31st of December they will give a big dance in honor of the winter visitors and the girls and boys who have been away to school and will make this dance a big get-together dance for everyone in the city who wants an evening of enjoyment and a chance to meet old and new people in Sanford.

In fact the "13" Club has many big enterprises on the way that cannot be made public at present but they mean much to the city and will be put over for the members feel that the city has lost enough time over certain projects and should now be up and doing.

LAKE MONROE

Agricultural conditions in our section never looked so flattering. The crops are beautiful and moving at a fancy price. Some farmers have been fortunate enough to sell on the field, thereby realizing a nice profit and freedom from anxiety attending shipments. The next two weeks will probably sweep our fields clear of lettuce, but following is the celery, escarole beets, cabbage, etc. All have doffed their hats to Mr. Little, our dairyman, and expert agriculturist, who banged the market right between the eyes with his cars of lettuce and broke all previous records.

Thanksgiving passed off very quietly at Monroe. Many enjoyed a feast of wild turkey, while others partook of the delicacy of deer, four having been slain by the Hawkins' boys. Not to be outdone by his neighbors, Chas. Bell went forth and brought back 50 fat squirrels which he distributed to his many friends gratis. Mr. Bell is an advocate of big numbers as displayed in the sale of his lettuce patch, two and one-half acres for $1,850.

The hospitable doors of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bell were thrown wide open Friday night, while nearly the whole population of our little town, quaintly and ridiculously attired in out-of-date costumes, trooped in, and with jest and merriment while away the glad hours in an old fashioned tackey party. Games were played and a nice program of music rendered and cake and lemonade were abundantly supplied. Miss Sadie Blackman was awarded the first prize a big stick of candy. George Cain carried off the gentleman's prize, a pipe. All enjoyed the evening very much and every one left feeling happier after the jolly occasion.

Mrs. Barney Lyons entertained on Sunday with one of her splendid dinners. Only a few friends were present to enjoy the bounteous repast.

The Lake Monroe school gave a short Thanksgiving entertainment the night of the 31st. The decorations were most supplied by the children and consisted of the autumn treasures: pumpkin, fodder, sugar cane, corn, grasses, vegetables, etc. Many nice drawings and Thanksgiving suggestions were also gotten up by the children. The program consisted of songs, readings, dialogues, and the dramatizing of the story of the Pilgrims. The children carried out their various parts well and the audience seemed to enjoy the afternoon very much.

Preparations are being made for the installation of the Delco lighting system at the Lake Monroe school. The wiring was placed when the building was erected so the fixtures only have to be adjusted and the motor arranged when the system will be complete. The Delco system is of course, the best illumination that can be procured in country places and it will be a great improvement to our already handsome school building. Another lighting system that is attracting a good deal of attention among rural people is the Colt's system. Mr. Wallace, the traveling salesman, has visited nearly every home in our community and many have made arrangements to have this system. It is certainly one of the most splendid things for the money that can be had.

Mrs. Hattie Wynne has returned home after a pleasant visit to Clara, Fla. Mrs. Ella Holloway, of Tennessee, is a pleasant guest of her sister, Mrs. George Cain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jacobs spent Thanksgiving at their home at Chuluota.

Miss Clara Phillips and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, of Geneva, visited friends here Sunday.

A. L. Kaiserman has purchased a home on Sanford Heights and will remove to the same after the arrival of Mrs. Kaiserman from Cleveland, O.

Mrs. Kate Keeley, of Simpsonville, Ky., will arrive soon to be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. John Seeber and son Charles, of Indiana, stopped over on Sunday at Monroe enroute to southern Florida.

Robert Maunn and wife entertained very pleasantly with a pound party Friday.

Hariff Swaggerty and family have moved from the J. E. Conley property to the Potter place.

Lige Rogers and family have moved to Sanford.

Florida is sleeping while California gets the plums.

This state certainly needs to wake up and get busy with railroad rates and shipping problems.

And the greatest object in life with Sanford people should be the Inland Waterways through Florida.

Winter Park Woman's Club will build a $30,000 club house. Sanford women should do the same or better.

It will mean better freight rates and hundreds of tourists with their yachts tied up here several weeks in the winter.

O, for the touch of a millionaire's hand and the sound of the voice that means money, buildings, progress, going forward.

Now is the time to arrange for your holiday advertising. Only a few more weeks till Christmas and your advertising will cause them to shop early and help everybody all around.

That spirit of "letting George do it" should be left with that spirit of thinking the town is good enough—in the discard—and we should all begin to work for a better city and work toward some real end.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Edie Wedelmann, of the Mt. Dora Topics in the recent death of her mother. They were great friends and the loss of mother will be in the daughter's heart for many years to come.

St. Petersburg is the "Sunshine City" and now comes Clearwater in the same fashion. Palm Beach county and says it is the "Sunset City" and we are awaiting with acented breath the announcement of some other city in Pinellas to be named the "Moonshine City."

We note by many of the papers in and around St. Petersburg articles written by "Rube Allyn Himself." This is entirely superfluous. Rube Allyn is "himself" all the time unless maybe the few times in his life when his shirt was out or he went to sleep in the bath tub.

The Herald predicts that this will be one of the most prosperous seasons that the Sanford section has ever experienced. The growers of fruits and vegetables will get as much or more than they did last season and the merchants will have a much larger trade. And after the first of the year there will be big things happen here in the building line and Sanford will forge ahead as never before. But it will take real work by the real men of Sanford.

The Fernald-Laughton Hospital continues to get small donations from time to time and is getting by, all of which reminds us that the people generally should remember the hospital and give what they can when they can. The association feels that every one knows the hospital is there and that they need not be reminded of this fact by drives for money every two or three months. But remember that the hospital is there for you and yours and if you can donate anything at any time it will be gratefully received and placed where it will do the most good.

The city officials are preparing a permanent auto camp south of the city and the suitable arrangements can be made for this land for a certain period that would justify the expense they will make this a real camping ground for all time. All other camps are only temporary arrangements being made to take care of the many tourists who want to stay in Sanford and are unable to do so on account of the dearth of houses. Other cities are making arrangements to take care of the hundreds of people coming to Florida and Sanford should be meeting the new comers half way and locate them for the winter.

BETTER ENTERTAINMENT

The Woman's Club is to be congratulated upon bringing to Sanford the Million Dollar Band that will give two concerts here next Wednesday. The Woman's Club will sell tags for the concert and may make enough to come out all right if they may not but they do not have to guarantee the band any stipulated amount and the ladies are game to have the band whether they make anything or not. They are actuated with the spirit of giving Sanford a better class of music and a better class of entertainment and they will endeavor to have several high class attractions here this winter. The people should show their appreciation of their efforts by giving the band a most liberal patronage for the band is a good one and the Woman's Club should be assisted in their efforts.

NOW COMES THE HOMES

The Herald usually gets what it goes after and though it may take years to accomplish the purpose the people finally tumble and fall in and take up the propositions that mean much to the city of Sanford. We have been talking some about houses in Sanford. We have been talking it ever since the editor came back from the transport service where he visited many countries and many home ports and saw everywhere the great interest people were taking in Florida and saw that this season would find more people here than ever before. This paper has dinged it into the heads of the people here for the past two years that we needed more hotels and more apartment houses and more homes and while the people who could have built houses stood aloof and scoffed at the idea of anyone building, but others came in who were not hide bound and they are coming in every day now and they are seeing the opportunities where others could not see them and they are building houses and soon there will be houses everywhere and the vacant lots that have lain dormant so long will be sold and have homes on them. It is just the natural growth of the city and as the city grows there will be more business houses built and more new people coming in and old ideas will give way to new. The march of progress takes place and Sanford will be that city of the future. People in this part of the state are just a little bit of behind in their home building and lack of feeling what has kept the city from being the greatest city in this part of Florida.

FLORIDA YACHTING

Many methods of travel are employed to bring the millions of people to Florida each winter season, but it is probable that those who come in private yachts by the trip from the frozen north to the smiling, sun-kissed seas of the South, more than any of the others.

As travel by train has increased several hundred per cent in the past decade and travel by automobile has multiplied so rapidly that definite statistics are unavailable, so has the number of private yachts increased in a most surprising manner.

For the next four months every harbor in Florida will be crowded with the greyhounds of the Atlantic coast, carrying the flags of the principal yacht clubs and providing comfort and pleasure for the owners and their friends. Mingling with guests of the great hotels, entertaining and being entertained, the yachtsmen form an interesting coterie, adding zest to the brilliance of the season and putting into circulation hundreds of thousands of dollars.

With the opening up of cross-state waterways, so that many of the interior beauty spots can be reached by boats, it is safe to predict that the number of private yachts to visit Florida waters each year will be many times as great as this year and the atmosphere created by these pretty, modern ships, as they glide gracefully through our rivers and canals, and over the bosom of our placid lakes, will lend color and life to our rapidly expanding resort features.—Times-Union.

And when it comes to yachting through Florida they will find the St. John's river and the Upper St. Johns river the greatest spots in the state for fine boating, fishing, and hunting and they will find a basin for their yachts and the Rod and Gurr Club ready with a nice building and all the comforts of a home ready to receive them and make their stay in the city pleasant. All of these things are coming and it only takes a united pull from the business men of Sanford to get these improvements. And then it takes the united efforts of the business men of Sanford working through the Chamber of Commerce to get the St. Johns river made into the Inland Waterway through Florida which will mean that hundreds of pleasure craft will be tied up at our wharf every day during the winter season and spending their good money in this city.

What a wonderful thing it will be when the time comes that people can see a trifle farther than their nose.

NEWSPAPERS ARE INDEX OF CITY LOYALTY

"Show me the newspapers of a city and I'll tell whether its people are progressive," said Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, many years ago.

In every town and city in the United States today that situation exists; in fact, there is greater stress laid upon the local paper as an index of prosperity and loyalty and faith than ever before.

The first thing any fairly-conservative man does—if he is contemplating a change of location—is to send for a "sample copy" of the papers published in the several communities under consideration. The town sending out a poorly-printed, ignorantly-edited, and slackly-madeup sheet—one lacking the patronage of the merchants—or evidencing such light patronage that the reader can easily see there is a state of lethargy existing about the place—carries to the man of business the impression that the town is an excellent place to avoid.

The man who knows of the world realizes full well that the one-lawyer, one-physician, one-merchant, one-drug store town is merely a spot on the map; that there is no real inducement there for any enterprise. If the place was a good one, he reasons, there would be more institutions there. In some instances he may be in error—for there may be a thriving community; at the same time if there is not a good showing made of the place through the newspapers the usual run of men will avoid the outlay of time and money in making an investigation.

These are some of the reasons—outside of any personal desire to make a profit through legitimate publicity upon the part of those in business—why every institution in a community should be represented in every issue of the local paper. The cost of judicious publicity should not be placed on the books of any business concern or any professional occupation as an expense. It should be placed on the head of "investment." Good advertising is just as much of an investment as are the goods carried in stock, whether that stock is on the shelves or in the mental stockhouse.

When the going out to all sections of the country of a publication bearing the impress of good support and carrying the cards and announcements of all who have the present good and the future prosperity of the community at heart, creates an impression of the importance of the town or city, and act as an incentive to drive other people of other professions and other callings to the locality. It acts as a wheel within a wheel—where every cog perfectly meshes—and where every desire is for smooth action and perfect results.

Show me the newspapers of a city and I'll tell whether its people are progressive.—Kissimmee Gazette

THE ANSWER IS HERE

When will the price of papers and advertising rates be reduced to a pre-war basis? was the question asked recently by a local merchant at an association dinner of a representative of The Tribune.

Here is the answer—leaving out the part that newspaper is still playing, at prices double and triple the pre-war cost.

Editor and Publisher, a New York journal for editor and publishers, has prepared a table showing the price paid in 1914 and the price paid in 1920 for newspaper labor. It is an interesting one. It divides the United States into five great sections, and taxes six to twenty leading newspaper cities from each section, and gives the scale paid to typographical, admen, pressmen, stereotypers and photo engravers.

In the South Atlantic section, which includes Florida, it is shown the increase for typographical workers is the greatest for any part of the United States, the average increase being 101 per cent. The next highest increase shown is in the North Atlantic states, containing Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other great newspaper centers, where the average is 80.1 per cent.

Going carefully over the figures in all the tables, the employing printers of Tampa are found to be paying a higher wage to typographical operators, pressmen and stereotypers than nearly any other city in the country outside of New York.

The newspapers of this state made but slight increase in rates for circulation and advertising when faced with the enormous cost of paper and the steadily increasing cost of labor—less than 10 per cent, while facing 100 per cent increase in both paper and labor. Did any business other than the newspaper publishing business try to get across the financial chasm on a percentage of increase less than 10 per cent?—Tampa Tribune.

BUSINESS SENSE.

For many weeks people have been declining to buy because they have been waiting for lower prices. The movement has had its effect and demand has fallen off to such an extent that wholesale prices of practically all commodities are down to pre-war levels. Trade reports from day to day report the phrase, "lowest price in five years."

This slackening of demand has been a good thing in many ways. It has, of course, forced the decline in prices, although there have been other contributing factors.

But the cessation of buying can be carried too far. Retail merchants have cut their prices to such an extent that the paper losses which they were forced to take several weeks ago have become real losses and today much merchandise in Pensacola is selling at less than its original cost.

Of course, wise merchants have not been forced to take all of the losses. The far-sighted man saw that there must be a return to normal and a cessation of war-time extravagance. Accordingly last spring many of them unloaded their stocks and kept them as low as possible and still give service and retain their customers. When the wholesalers began price-cutting these merchants bought short supplies and a week to a week they have taken advantage of the falling market. This is technically known as "equalizing the costs" and is the same system a stock buyer follows when he buys stocks at a high price and the market falls. Instead of selling at the low price he buys more stocks, thus reducing the average cost of his holdings. If the market advances even slightly he stands a good chance to profit on his transactions.

This situation now faces the merchants and almost as directly, the consumers. Unless there is a resumption of buying the demand will continue to fall off. Production will naturally cease, and many men will be thrown out of work. Just as soon as one industry is thus disrupted others become affected and in time the entire economic structure of the nation is in upheaval.

It would, therefore, be the part of wisdom for the buying public to satisfy the needs they now have at current prices in order that they may hold their jobs and maintain their present wage scales.—Pensacola Journal.

The automobile camp supplied by the city of Eustis had a population of Monday of about fifty, mostly from Michigan," says the Eustis Lake Region. "The tents and automobiles showed a rather prosperous class of visitors, who are greatly pleased with the situation on the shores of Lake Eustis." These automobile camps are now springing up in a night, almost all over the state, and the travelers who have come a long way in their cars, seem delighted with the places set apart for their pleasure and comfort. No doubt hundreds of those who camp for a while will later decide to move into hotels and apartments, and many will buy or build and become regular winter or all-the-year-residents. The camp, however, gives them a chance to look around, and is proving highly popular.—Times-Union.

There are hundreds of fine yachts tied at the wharfs on the east coast that would be plying the St. Johns river if we had that outlet to the Indian river.

GOVERNORS OF STATES ATTEMPT A SOLUTION OF FARMERS TROUBLES

Financial Situation the Cause For Gravest Concern

LIBERAL INDULGENCE

AND RENEWALS SHOULD BE GRANTED BY MANUFACTURERS.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 4.—Governors of the United States, assembled in annual conference Thursday adopted the following report urging the Federal government to create a financial corporation to relieve the critical situation confronting the nation's farmers and advising a liberal credit policy in all lines of business.

The financial situation in the whole country is cause for the gravest concern but not for despair. All lines of business are realizing heavy losses but the swift decline of prices of farm commodities to far below the cost of production threatens a national disaster. The situation demands infinite patience and forbearance and supreme wisdom and courage. Nothing but evil can result from anger or fear.

"We believe that the tenseness of the situation can be relieved in several ways:

"1.—Let every individual do all he can to help and encourage his neighbor. Let there be a complete mobilization of the financial and spiritual assets of every community. Neither God nor the government ought to be asked to help those who do not first make every effort possible to help themselves. There ought to be a united effort in every community to keep any good man from being destroyed because he cannot immediately meet his obligations. Under existing conditions it would be the acme of inhumanity and of unwisdom to force any debtor into bankruptcy, if by the most liberal indulgence he would be ultimately able to pay. Business failures do more than wreck business; they oft-times destroy men.

"Liberal indulgences and renewals should be granted by the manufacturers to the jobbers, by the jobbers to the merchants, by the merchants to the individuals. It is no time for a creditor to seize his debtor by the throat and savagely say: 'pay me what thou owest.'

"2.—Let the Federal government create a finance corporation of some sort that will enable the people of other lands to obtain from us the commodities they so greatly need but for which they are not able to make immediate payment. We believe such a corporation to be entirely feasible and that its mere creation would substantially help the situation.

"3.—The Federal Reserve Board should be urged and authorized to advise all banks to adopt a liberal policy of renewals. The law authorizing six months' credit on foreign paper should be liberally construed and renewals for a like period should be freely granted wherever consistent with other solvency. The real wealth of the country is unimpaired. It would be a suicidal policy to destroy this wealth by a pre-emptory call of loans.

"If necessary, the congress should act at once to amend the Federal Reserve law so as to temporarily supply additional currency and afford more time to debtors in distress.

"We believe that the general adoption by individuals and by the government of the policies herein suggested would not only afford material aid but would at once supplant the gloom and the fear of the present with that confidence so vital to wholesome and successful business."

Financial Situation the Cause For Gravest Concern

Despite all that has been written and the testimony that come out in the preliminary hearing in the Check case, Victor Check and his wife, Belle Check, have been exonerated by the coroner's jury in the preliminary hearing in Phoenix, Arizona. They were on trial for the alleged charge of killing the father, T. J. Check, and according to the telegram received here they have been cleared of the charge and discharged from custody and it remains to be seen whether the case will be dropped and the estate settled out of court or just what will happen.

It was alleged that Victor Check and his wife Belle Check had used the father badly, witnesses testifying that they had heard them berating him and even hitting him and the old man told them he was being abused and all of these charges caused the arrest of the younger Check and his wife after the death of the elder Check but it seems there was insufficient evidence to hold them and they are now free as far as the coroner's jury is concerned.

METHODIST NOTES

(From Friday's Daily)

Miss Ella Switzer, of Orlando, District Secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society was here Tuesday and presided at the ladies meeting. She was here in the interest of relief for one of our Cuban ministers in Ybor City and of the "Near East." The ladies responded heartily to the call and will soon help these deserving people.

PLAIN OLD PLODDER

(Phil Armstrong in Times-Union)

Sing a song of the plodder, the plain old plodder, Who works like the dickens but brings home the fodder, He works for the joy of working that's all; He aspires not for heights for he fears he might fall. Yet he doesn't stay down at the foot of the bunch, For he pegs away hard—never thinks of a hunch. And little as he may believe it that's what Puts him over each day and puts meat in his pot. He never sits watching the clock on the wall Nor catches at bubbles nor heeds pleasure's call. He's prompt on the dot at the working day's start And he never has yet failed to do well his part. He salts a few bones of his salary away In his old woolen sock for that rainy day. He's naught but a plodder and works like the deuce But keeps the wheels going and turns on the juice.

The paving of the National Highway between Crystal Springs and Knights is rapidly nearing completion much to the joy of the traveling public. The pavement is now laid to within a mile of the Pasco-Hillsborough county line.

Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Walker cordially invite all members of the church and all the friends to a reception at the parsonage tonight, Friday, December 3rd to rejoice with them and the Methodists over the completion of the remodeling of the parsonage, both inside and out and incidentally to see how nice it looks.

BURGLARS VISITED
M. E. PARSONAGE

HEARD NEW HOME HAD BEEN OPENED AND WANTED TO SEE IT

From Monday's Daily

Burglars, or a burglar, reading the notice in Saturday's Herald about the new Methodist parsonage being opened, probably thought there had been a shower of silverware and other presents and he proceeded to break into the parsonage Saturday night with the idea of lifting all the new presents. Luckily Dr. Walker did not have his silverware in his home but the burglar made away with three fine watches, one of them highly prized as the gift of an Elks lodge in West Virginia and a stick pin and several other articles of jewelry and all the money he could find. He was the real article and made his entry without waking any of the family. Mrs. Blount, daughter of Dr. Walker, of Ft. Myers, who is visiting the family, had been awake at intervals with her baby and was giving it medicine and awakened about three in the morning to look at her watch and see the time when she discovered the watch missing. Calling to her father and asking for the time Dr. Walker found his watch missing and upon awakening the family the loss of many other articles was noted. The burglar must have taken off one of the screen windows on the lower front floor, broke into the house, searched the entire premises and made his escape all in about one hour's time and no amateur could have accomplished this and escaped.

The police department was immediately notified but no clue has yet been discovered that would lead to the identity of the thief and if any one is caught in the state trying to dispose of several watches, one of them engraved by the Elks' lodge or any articles of jewelry they will be conferring a great favor upon Dr. Walker and family and will also be instrumental in catching a slick second-story man, a professional burglar and one who should be apprehended.

THE COMMUNITY SPIRIT
BUILDS AUTO CAMPS

GAINESVILLE, Dec. 4.—The Gainesville Community Camp, built by volunteer labor, which was yesterday an uncertainty, is today a reality. The people of this city are to be highly commended for the spirit with which they entered upon this project and still more for the manner in which they succeeded.

Everyone seemed to have a desire to work their hardest when the signal started for work at 8 a. m., and this same spirit kept the work at top notch all day. At noon the house which is to provide shelter for the travel-worn tourist had its foundation laid and its timber erected, and was well on the way toward completion. Sewer pipes were laid and the entire plot of ground had been cleared. At noon a feast was spread by the women of the city and it was a most excellent meal and highly relished by the workers.

The University of Florida band furnished music for the occasion and the rhythm of the music was echoed in the pounding of the hammers. On the whole it was a glorious victory for the pride of the citizens of Gainesville in their town and the camp site will bear lasting evidence to their willingness to do a good turn for their fellow countrymen. The Boy Scouts were excused from school for the day and they made up the white-washing brigade, white-washing the fence and all trees which were left to shade the grounds.

Memorial Services
Held Yesterday

SANFORD LODGE NO. 1241 B. P. O. E. HELD ANNUAL MEMORIAL

(From Monday's Daily)

The annual memorial services of Sanford Lodge No. 1241, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks was held in the Methodist church yesterday and attended by a large crowd, the fact that the services were held in a church instead of the theatre attracting many who would not have walked down town. The services this year were unusually good, the musical numbers of Dr. McCallin on the piano and the ladies quartette composed of Miss Mabel Bowler and Mrs. Roumillat, Daiger and Housholder and the vocal numbers of Mrs. A. W. Lee and Miss Mabel Bowler all being especially appreciated by the people present.

The male quartette composed of Messrs. Parker, Bates, Stone and Don Whitcomb were very good.

The address this year was delivered by Hon. W. W. Phillips, of Lake City, and one of the members of the Florida legislature and it was one of the best that has ever been delivered here at any memorial services. Mr. Phillips took his theme on fraternalism and the Elks as builders of the community and the spirit of this lodge in helping one another in every worthy enterprise and gave the audience something to think about regarding Elksdom in particular and fraternities in general.

There is nothing in Elksdom more impressive or more noble than that part of the ritual which gives homage and honor to the departed brother. This ceremony at the mystic hour of eleven wherever Elks may be gathered, and more elaborately once each year on the first Sunday in December; and again when the burial service is pronounced at the grave of a departed brother—this ceremony in form and spirit typifies the highest degree of Elksdom. It shows the world and each other that we, as an order, are not unmindful of our greatest blessing—the fellowship, the companionship and the love of our brother.

More than that, it brings before us so vividly that we measure a man by the imprint he has left upon us rather than by his mere physical presence. Some departed ones have left so vivid an imprint upon our characters and our lives that they are with us even now to a greater degree than some who are living. And so it shall always be. The memory of our brothers shall stay with us always.

After all, one consolation is left to Elks in the fact that while body returns to earth from whence it came, the spirit goes back to Him who gave it, the remembrance of these absent brothers is ours and remains with us and cannot be taken away.

The eulogies were delivered by Hon. W. E. Shelley and Hon. Forest Lake and they were given in a manner that came straight from the heart of each of them. The only members of Sanford lodge deceased during the year were W. H. Peters and Joe DeMont, both of them greatly beloved by their brother Elks and both of them having been staunch members of Sanford Lodge during their lifetime.

The exercises were impressive and very beautiful as the memorial exercises of the Elks are the world over and the Methodist church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion and lent itself admirably for the purpose.

WHY THAT LAME BACK?

That morning lameness—those sharp pains when bending or lifting, make work a burden and rest impossible. Don't be handicapped by a bad back—look to your kidneys. You will make no mistake by following this Sanford resident's example.

Mrs. W. A. Tillis, 1100 Elm Ave., says: "I am just as strong for Doan's Kidney Pills now as when I endorsed them before. I used them some few years ago. At that time I had a sore and lame back and found it difficult to bend over. My kidneys didn't act as they should, either. I used a box of Doan's and they regulated my kidneys and rid me of the pains in my back. I have great faith in Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 60 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Tillis had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

VERY DISTRACTING

Whenever a conscientious editor goes to church on Sunday evening the chances are some girl will come in and sit down in front of him, wearing those large puffs over her ears, and he'll sit there trying to appear interested in the sermon, while thinking how much the back of that girl's head looks like the ace of clubs.

AN APPRECIATION

On Monday morning, November 1 1920, was laid to rest in beautiful Forest Hill cemetery, all that was mortal of Mrs. Eva A. Curtis, who died October 28, in Sanford, Florida, where she had lived during the past 14 years. It seems fitting that something more than the bare announcement of death and burial should be said by some one who knew her well, as it had been my good fortune to have known her for four decades.

Madison had been her home for more than half a century. Born in the state of New York, she came here in the Fifties with her husband, Mr. E. R. Curtis, who was Madison's chief photographer for many years. Past four score and entrenched in body she yet took a keen interest in all that made life beautiful. Her mind was alert, and she maintained to the last a fine appreciation of the glorious world in which she lived. She was a true Christian, and always took an active interest in the moral and spiritual welfare of the community. She labored for the building up of the kingdom when laborers were few, she generously gave and sacrificed when there was little to give but love and tears. Thus she nobly helped to lay the foundations of our religious and civic life. We do well to remember and honor her along with others who toiled together in her day to make our city morally and spiritually beautiful. Nor can we let them sail away from our earthly vision without flashing them our loving salute, "Hail and Farewell!"

Kind Nature gave this excellent woman many rare qualities. She was reverent; optimistic, full of faith, courageous, with an unusual talent for doing things. She called herself a Martha in the household of faith. Endowed with fine qualities for leadership, she was ever a power for good in the church to which she belonged and in the community in which she lived. There is much tender pathos in the reflection that when the other day, she returned in old age, with closed eyes and silent lips, to the city she had loved so long so few were left of the old friends with whom she had been associated in the earlier life of the city,—just a few who reverently accompanied her to the "silent city." But there is great joy in the belief that those who knew her best and loved her most will through the shores and shout her welcome home, when her boat shall cast anchor where the signal lights are swinging, where the waters are still and the storms never beat.

Love for the beautiful was a passion of her soul, and she sought to give it expression in many exquisite works of art. And that delightful occupation held her passionate interest almost to the very hour of her translation. She was ever striving to make the canvas tell you what things she saw in this glorious world. Thus forest and lake, fields and hills, flowers and fruit, sunset and dawn, all charmed her soul, and it is wonderful how they stole so many delightful hours out of her busy life. Though the painter has gone, she has left our city enriched by one of the rarest treasures of her art—the beautiful painting of the city of Madison as seen from the south shore of Lake Monona. This treasure adorns the walls of the Young Women's Christian Association building on State street. And when you look upon it, remember the noble woman and cherish the memory of Mrs. Eva A. Curtis.—E. L. Eaton, in the Wisconsin State Journal, Madison, Nov. 6.

Work on the jetties near Fort Pierce has been proceeding slowly during the last week or two, owing to the rough weather which has interfered with the placing of the rock, and the fact that the jetty now reaches the breakers and it is possible to work only at low tide.

GOVERNMENT EXPENSES ON PEACE TIME PROGRAM WILL TOTAL FIVE BILLION

War Costs Will Have To Be Figured FOR YEARS TO COME

ARMY AND NAVY ASK FOR BIG SUM IF LEAGUE FAILS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Another peace time estimate of nearly $5,000,000,000 for the government's expenses during the fiscal year 1922 faced congress when it reassembled today. The exact figures as transmitted by Secretary Houston were $4,653,866,759, an increase of nearly one billion over the appropriation for the current year but $211,000,000 less than estimates submitted a year ago.

Continuing war costs were directly reflected throughout the estimate, indicating that the government might be on a four billion dollar basis for some years to come, as compared with the one billion maximum preceding the war. The single item of interest on the public debt was almost the pre-war maximum of all appropriations, this total being $922,650,000. In addition there was an estimate of $265,754,804 for the war debt sinking fund.

Of the individual departments, the army and navy, as usual, asked for the greatest amounts, the estimate for the military establishment being $699,275,502; for the naval establishment, $658,522,231. The total estimates as given by Mr. Houston follow:

- Legislative (congress) $9,324,040.
- Executive (White House and government departments) $125,448,370.
- Judicial (supreme court) $1,680,215.
- Department of agriculture, $11,989,379.
- Foreign intercourse, $11,983,848.
- Indian affairs, $11,989,703.
- Pensions, $265,100,000.
- Panama Canal, $16,187,255.
- Public works, $250,928,194.
- Postal service, $685,406,302.
- Miscellaneous, $75,154,741.
- Permanent annual appropriations, $1,300,776,291.

These estimates prepared by the Democratic administration for the operation of the government during the first fiscal year of the new Republican administration. Republican leaders in the senate and house already have forecast a sharp cut in the total and within the week the house committee will begin the work of shaping the bills which will carry the sums for the various departments. The estimate for the postal service will not actually figure in governmental expenditures, since the postal revenues practically cover the cost of operations.

Included in the estimate for the army and navy is a total of $95,000,000 for development and maintenance of the air service in the two defensive branches of the government. The navy asks for $35,000,000 and the army seeks $60,000,000.

Chief among the estimates for the navy is one of $184,000,000 to continue the 1916 three-year building program. Pay for the navy personnel exceeds it by $923,910.

The army's greatest single item is $215,659,830 for the pay and mileage of officers and men. Subsistence costs for the force is estimated at $64,490,895. An appropriation of $74,808,000 is postponed for the national guard.

Expenditures on public works suggested under the war department total $185,134,428, of which $68,097,865 goes to river and harbor improvement. For improvement and maintenance of military posts, fortifications and other works of defense the army lists $117,463,014.

The results of the election were as follows:

W. T. Wheelless, S. W.

The lodge has enjoyed a very prosperous year under the able leadership of Jno. D. Jinkins, Master.

Constitutionality Of Law to Be Tested

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The constitutionality of the 1917 state law putting all county officials on a graduated commission fee system instead of the present system of allowing the county officials to have all the fees collected from their respective offices as salaries, will be tested in the courts, and the first meeting will be by the sheriffs of the state, who will hold their annual meeting in the Circuit Court chambers Wednesday at 11 a. m.

The legislature of 1917 passed a bill, which was drawn up by Judge Ion Farris of Jacksonville, putting all the county officials of the state on a graduated scale, allowing them a certain percentage on all fees collected from their offices, none to receive more than $6,000 a year as salary, instead of allowing the officials all the fees collected by their respective offices.

The county judges will hold a meeting in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday morning for the purpose of discussing what action to take in regard to proposed changes in the law, and also to discuss the proposition of testing the law in the courts while the county tax assessors, circuit court clerks and other officials affected by the bill will hold a meeting in January to take up the subject.

Many of the county officials in the larger counties of the state receive from $15,000 to $30,000 a year under the present system and a few years ago it was not unusual for many to receive from $20,000 to $60,000 a year as fees, but in recent years about $30,000 has been the limit received by any, it is stated.

Under the new law no official will receive more than $5,000 with the exception of L. D. Howell, county solicitor, who will receive a salary of $6,100 under the new law, regardless of whether or not his office receives the necessary amount of fees to make up that amount. This was by a special legislative enactment of 1910.

Many prominent members of the profession claim that the 1917 law is so full of loopholes and flaws that they believe that the law will never stand a test of the courts and that therefore the county officials may be able to still collect their salaries under the old fee system, regardless of a court decision, until the incoming legislature which meets in April, passes new laws.

Local county officials stated Monday that all of the county officials of the state whose salaries are affected by the law will hold meetings to discuss the situation created by the law and to hire attorneys and instruct them to test the law in the courts.

In addition, these officials assert that they will also make a strong fight before the new legislature to have the law repealed or else modified, in the event the courts decide against them. The officials further asserted that they intended to go ahead and collect their salaries under the old system until a court decision had been rendered or until new legislation strengthens the law or else modifies or repeals it altogether.

The meeting of the sheriffs was called by P. G. Ramsey of Gainesville, president of the Florida Sheriffs Association. In the letter received by Sheriff W. H. Dowling on Monday, J. R. S. Houston, secretary and treasurer, stated that in addition to discussing the new fee system and discussing legal methods of testing the law in the courts the sheriffs would elect officers to serve for the ensuing year.

The sheriffs association was organized in 1913 by Sheriff Dowling who was elected the first president—Jacksonville Metropolis.

MONTEZUMA HOTEL OPENS TOMORROW

ANOTHER FINE HOTEL FOR SANFORD OPENS ITS DOORS.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Another fine hotel is added to Sanford's growing list today and the Montezuma will open for dinner tomorrow and take care of the home people and the tourists from this time forward. The Montezuma has been in course of construction for the past year, Capt. K. R. Murrell buying the property and spending considerable money on making it one of the finest hotels in this section of the state.

The Montezuma has forty rooms and is arranged with the sole idea of giving the guests that atmosphere of solid comfort and home appearances that goes straight to the heart of the stranger in our midst. The rooms are all arranged with everything in the way of modern conveniences and with the comfortable rooms and the excellent cuisine the Montezuma will take its place among the best hotels of the state.

Mr. Murrell was fortunate in securing Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McLendon to take charge of the Montezuma. Mr. McLendon is a hotel man of many years experience and came here from Winter Haven where he has been residing for some time but seeing the possibilities of Sanford in the hotel line was persuaded to come here and take this fine new hotel. The Montezuma will be welcomed into the field. With the present remarkable growth of Sanford and the demand for hotel accommodations the field cannot be covered with half a dozen good hotels and all of them mean more people for Sanford.

TEMPORARY QUARTERS FOR THE MANY VISITORS WHO ARE TRAVELING

(From Wednesday's Daily)

J. D. Hood and Secretary Poorman, of the Chamber of Commerce, went out yesterday morning and collected over one hundred dollars for a fund to put up a first class camp somewhere near Sanford where not only campers but others who are unable to find a house can live this winter and if a suitable tract of land can be purchased the camp idea will expand into something tangible.

It has been suggested that the city or some of the organizations of the city take the matter in hand, secure the land, put in streets and water and other necessities and divide the land into lots and rent the ground space to any and all who would desire a place to stay during the winter or the summer months.

This idea is taking root among the cities of the world today on account of the dearth of houses everywhere. The tract of land could be purchased outright and made very desirable and kept up in good shape and made into a miniature city of its own with all the modern improvements. There is no one wanting to camp out who would not be willing to pay a small ground rent or who would not be willing to buy a small tract of land for a temporary home with the idea that a permanent home could be built at any time. As there are carpenters and other artisans among the tourists they could easily make arrangements to build temporary quarters this season and take care of all those who would care to take up quarters here for the winter.

The auto camp offers one of the big problems facing every Florida city and arrangements should be made now looking to the future and arrangements that would be satisfactory to all parties concerned.

TODD & SELLERS DID IT.

In the write up of the Methodist parsonage last week no mention was made of the work of the different artisans and artists on the home and Todd & Sellers, who painted the parsonage want the world to know that they were the men behind the paint brush. We saw the work and it was O. K. in every particular and Todd & Sellers are not only artists in painting and decorating and wall paper jobs but they believe in advertising and are using the Herald to let the people know about them and we take pleasure in announcing that not only the Methodist parsonage is one of their jobs but many more around Sanford and their work speaks for itself. If you have any work of this kind look up Todd & Sellers, they are the boys to do it and do it right.

DANCE AT PARISH HOUSE

The Social Department of the Woman's Club have been very fortunate in securing the Million Dollar Band for a dance Wednesday evening.

After the evening concert down town the band will go to the Parish House and it will be a rare treat to Sanford to have such music to dance by.

There is, of course, a charge for the evening, the regular price for all the dances that have been given lately and the Social Department not only expects to share a good time with the Sanford public at large but hopes to realize quite a neat sum.

FIGURES ON FLORIDA

FRUIT CROP

George R. Williams, special agent of Chase & Co., of Jacksonville, who is making headquarters here, stopping at the Hotel Thelma, furnishes us the following figures on citrus shipments this season:

Up to December 3, there had been 3,257 cars of grapefruit shipped from Florida, equivalent to 1,143,000 boxes.

At the same date there had been shipped 1,192 cars of oranges, equivalent to 1,500,000 boxes.

The crop of citrus fruit for the year is estimated at 13,000,000 boxes. There has been more fruit shipped up to this time than to the same date last year.

Mr. Williams states that while the price of fruit just now is somewhat lower than it has been—oranges bringing about $2.65—he looks for an improvement after the holidays and believes satisfactory prices will prevail later.—Lakeland Telegram.

That Fitzgerald case at Daytona is developing many interesting features and from the daily reports of the Daytona papers somebody is going to jail right soon. SANFORD AUTO CAMP WILL BE ESTABLISHED ON THE LAKE FRONT

Will Have Sewerage and Water Connections

AN IDEAL LOCATION

AND ONE OF THE BEST IN THE
ENTIRE STATE, BEING IN HEART OF THE CITY

(From Tuesday's Daily)
All things come from what at first seems insurmountable difficulties and the Auto Camps that have been talked about for many months now seem to have come to the point where Sanford will have the best location in the state—right in the heart of the city.

The temporary camp established on Sanford Heights has outgrown its usefulness and has been a source of annoyance to the city officials as the residents on the Heights objected to making it a large camp and the city never intended it for a permanent camp but had made no provisions for another camp and as the city had invited the campers to come in and take a place they availed themselves of the opportunity and came in such large numbers that the camp grounds were soon filled with tourists and if the grounds became unsanitary as is charged the city is to blame for it and not the tourists. It is up to the city to see that the camp is in first class sanitary condition and that is the prime reason for having it well within the city limits where a better sewerage system can be arranged and where the sanitary and police departments can have supervision over the camp just as they have over the citizens of Sanford who are living in houses. The camp grounds are no different from regular residences and should be under the same regulations.

Yesterday without any warning the city officials gave the campers 24 hours notice to move and while City Manager Ryan had fixed up a temporary place farther out on the Heights for the campers it was not what they desired and they were preparing to leave for other points when J. D. Hood came to the rescue and told them to camp on the bulkhead as soon as he could have the city level off the ground and place sewerage connections thereon, but J. D. Hood could not wait for that and this morning carried a petition around among the business men of the city and collected an amount sufficient to make these improvements and if the camp can be made on the grounds just across from the old hotel property instead of farther down the lake front Sanford will have one of the finest camping grounds in the state and one that will have all the modern conveniences, and that will hold 500 families very comfortably.

This camp should be established at once and then the city advertise for the people to come here and make Sanford their home for the remainder of the season. Other cities are spending big sums on the camping grounds and making them permanent institutions for it will be years before the house shortage can be met and these camps are giving Florida cities more advertising than any improvements that have ever been made. These campers are good people who are seeing America first and come to Florida to get first hand information. They like Sanford and many of them have bought property or will buy property before they leave and become regular winter visitors. Sanford owes them a good camping ground but it should be on the lake front with the best of sewerage systems and everything absolutely sanitary.

NEWMAN CATCHES THIEF WHO WAS IN STORE PROVES TO BE CONVICT

(From Wednesday's Daily)
This is the season of the year when the burglars are abroad in the land and it behooves everyone to be on their guard and this thought dominated R. A. Newman when he came down town last night for he slipped a flashlight and a gun in his pocket, something that he never had thought of before until the burglar reports became prevalent. As he stepped into the Hill Hardware Co. store to attend to some office work he noticed that a steel singletree had been pushed through the iron doors leading from the warehouse into the main store and immediately knew that someone had either tried to get in or was getting in then. He slipped around to the back of the warehouse, in the alley after locking the front of the store and called upon the intruder to come out but as he was not coming out he called to a passerby to come and help search for him and the passerby seeing the gun in Bob's hand thought it was a hold-up and started up the steps into Dutton's office. About that time the back door opened and the burglar ran out and Bob cracked down on him twice.

This was alarm enough and in a few minutes there was a crowd of policemen and deputies and Sheriff Brady and Chief Speer and a number of volunteers came to the place next to the Hill Hardware Co., store and in the rear of the Sanford Shoe & Clothing Co., where Mr. Newman knew he had cornered the thief. After a search the thief was discovered hiding behind a water tank and was taken to the jail. He was a lean negro who had just served a two year sentence on the roads and had his discharge in his pocket and from his composure and general demeanor is no doubt a professional thief. He may or may not be the one who broke into the Methodist parsonage Saturday night, but at any rate he is better penned up than running loose upon the community.

And again it is well for everybody to be on their guard in leaving their houses unprotected and also watch their store buildings for holiday time is burglar time and winter time is burglar time in Florida.

CHAMBER COMMERCE COMMITTEES MEET

Co-operation of all interested parties is necessary in order to eliminate present bad conditions and to prevent future repetition of same. It is the intention of this committee to recommend to the Board of Governors whatever action they consider necessary to bring immediate relief to shippers.

Committee questionnaires recently sent to the members of the Chamber of Commerce should be returned to the secretary promptly in order that committee assignments can be made, and the important work before the organization be started without further delay.

Convictions For Failure to Screen

SIX BUSINESS HOUSES IN COURT FOR NOT HAVING SCREEN DOORS

(From Tuesday's Daily)

There were six convictions for violation of the screen ordinance yesterday in Judge Housholder's court. The violators were among the merchants of the city who were probably unaware of the law but this did not save them and they were put under suspended sentence and made to pay the costs of the court proceedings. The state inspector, Julian Denazaree swore out the warrants and the county was represented by County Attorney Schelle Maines. The law requires that all places that offer food of any kind for sale shall be screened and where there are no screen doors to these establishments the proprietors will be arrested and fined. If there are any other places in the city that are not screened the owners of the same should get busy and have screen doors put up immediately as the inspectors are active and intend to enforce the law in every particular.

Executing the plan he evolved and announced last winter, Capt. Ben McCoy, of the Everglades boat line, has brought to West Palm Beach a large bus which he will operate in connection with the boat line. By the use of the bus the time required for the trip between that city and south on Lake Okechobee will be shortened.

He is a wise weather prophet who knows when to borrow an umbrella.

TRADE MARK

THE Ford Motor Company have just issued a book called "The Fordson at Work." This book is given free. Call in and get one. If you cannot call, write and we will mail you one without charge. It is not what the Ford Motor Company says about the Fordson Tractor but what the army of users have to say. This book voices the hardest kind of practical experience. It shows in illustration the Fordson Tractor at actual work along some ninety different lines of activity. It shows in these illustrations the wonderful versatility and utility of the Fordson Tractors. Shows it to be, beyond all question, the one bit of machinery that is a necessity, not only on the farm but along many lines of commercial business; especially does it show up the Fordson as a valuable servant on the farm. With it the farmer is relieved of the hard work; because he can take advantage of the weather in preparing his seed bed; he can do it at the right time; the same is true when it comes to harvesting. It solves, to a great extent, the problem of scarcity of labor.

With its wonderful, reliable power, it brings to the farm home all the conveniences, in the way of running water in the house, electric lights, operation of the washing machine, churning, separating the cream from the milk; it assumes and takes to itself the drudgery of farm life both in the field and in the house and it is only a matter of a few years until it will be as universal in its service on the farm as is the farmer himself. It will become a part of farm life; a beneficial part; a profitable part. Get order in for there's a rush coming.

METHODIST FINISH RE-MODELLING THEIR PARSONAGE

MADE INTO ONE OF THE MOST COMFORTABLE HOMES IN THE CITY

(From Saturday's Daily) Preachers, as a rule, do not have real houses in which to live especially if they are Methodist preachers and have to move into a new home every one, two, three or four years. Constant moving into and out of a home soon tears the home to pieces and this was true of the Methodist parsonage of this city. When Dr. Walker came here to live he decided that it was time to have a better home for the preacher and in this laudable enterprise he had the cooperation and support of his entire congregation. The stewards of the church told Dr. Walker to go as far as he liked in improving the place and they also added that it would be up to the ladies of the church to pay for it which is the general and accepted rule of all churches—the ladies are supposed to rustle for the money to fix up the church and parsonage, hence the abundance of bazaars and church socials, etc.

But nevertheless the Methodists, men and women, went to work with a vim and Dr. Walker knowing just what he wanted proceeded to get it and the finished result was shown to the public last night when an informal reception was held at the parsonage to let the public see what a nice home a preacher really can have when his congregation get wakened up to the fact that preachers are human and do not eat hay. From the living room with its new and comfortable furniture to the sleeping porch in the rear the new parsonage is all that could be desired and is not only comfortable but is right up to the minute in every detail. If anything has been overlooked in the reconstruction of the old parsonage it is unnoticeable to the casual observer and even a new house has been erected to add to the comfort and convenience of the pastor. The home is now one of the most commodious and convenient in the city and has been re-furnished throughout with everything needed to make it a real home.

The guests were met at the door by Dr. and Mrs. Walker, Miss Annette Walker and sister, Mrs. Blount, and escorted to the house and then met in the parlor to sip delightful punch and congratulate Dr. Walker and his family and the stewards and the ladies of the church upon their beautiful parsonage. Some one last night was congratulating Dr. Walker upon his good fortune in having the new home and upon being able to stay three years longer and he immediately replied that the rule of the church had been changed and he expected to live in Sanford the rest of his life and he can rest assured that his congregation and those of his many friends in other churches and those who do not belong to any church would be delighted here for the balance of their lives. A fine church, a beautiful parsonage and a good minister have happily met with a large and active congregation in Sanford. May they all live long and prosper exceedingly in the wish of The Herald.

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE

The Krell and Bertleson babies are still under the doctor's care. There are a good many bad colds about, though the weather is beautiful.

Two more large rattlers were killed lately and little Raymond Lundquist narrowly escaped being bitten, stepping over a large one that afterwards got away.

The oranges are moving rapidly now, out this way. Mr. Betts has been carrying from his grove for a couple of weeks and now Chase & Co. are taking them from the Haines grove, Belair and the DeForest groves. They are prettily colored up.

We are all sorry to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. Leonard Viklen from what is feared to be blood poisoning caused from a sand spur in her finger, which has been very painful. She has been under the doctor's care for some time. Her daughter, Miss Olga, is home caring for her.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lundquist and mother, Mrs. Swanson, were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Beck recently. Miss Eunice Tyner has been with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Nash Fray at the Isleworth grove for a month and will remain for the packing season.

Mrs. Ed. Randall and Mrs. Campbell and children are spending the day (Wednesday) with their friend, Mrs. Volle Williams. Upsala Sunday School, of which Alfred Ericson is superintendent, and which meets at 3:00 every Sunday afternoon, responded to the call for the starting little ones of European descent $3 to the Near East fund. We are hoping to have with us Rev. Albertson again next Sunday, his friend, Dr. Conway, will preach in the morning at Lake Mary. Come out for both services.

Mrs. Emil Magnusson was a dinner guest of her sister, Mrs. John Borrell. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Collier, of Sanford, and their sister, Mrs. Jennie Gleason and son, Clyde of Canton, N. Y., were our guests for the day. Mr. Collier spent some of the morning hours on the St. Johns treating us to a share of his game. Mr. and Mrs. John Lundquist also kept Thanksgiving at home and about 20 of their children and grandchildren sat down with them for a feast of good things for dinner and supper.

Mr. and Mrs. August Swanson and son, Archie, were also present as was also Mrs. Magnusson at the supper. Mr. and Mrs. Volle Williams entertained a number of friends from Orlando for the day. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lundquist and son, Raymond, Clarence Berquist and John Henry Lundquist spent a pleasant Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Berquist at Tiger Bay, calling also on their brother, Hilmer. They returned home Sunday evening in their car. Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Westdick, Frankie Woodruff, Judge Benton and family of Maitland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Beck. Judge Benton and George, Jr., and the girls, Alice and Helen, of Rochester, N. Y., arrived at Maitland safely, coming through in their Chandler car, making the trip in 11 days. They had a good deal of trouble. George, Jr., drove and he will return soon to finish his studies at Cornell. He was one of our boys "over there" in a department of the airplane service. The whole family are delighted with Florida.

Having revoted $250,000 for roads a few weeks ago, Dade county is preparing to vote $75,000 more, the latter issue being to finish the Tamiami Trail. Palm Beach county will probably vote half a million dollars for a cross-state road. It isn't often frankly acknowledged, but Dade and Palm Beach counties are in a race to see which can first get a hard-surfaced road to the West Coast.

DIVERSIFICATION THE KEY. NOTE TO SUCCESS

Diversity, including the raising of livestock, is without doubt the keynote to successful farming. Any one crop, choose what you may, is sure to fail in the long run. The man with a variety of crops is almost certain of a substantial income, says Professor J. M. Scott, of the Florida Experiment Station. With the one-crop man the same thing is not true. If the one crop fails or if the market for it is poor, much is lost. A farmer of the one-crop type must depend on the bank or fertilizer company to carry him through another year when he strikes a bad year. If he had diversified, his chances would have been more numerous. He would have had hogs and cattle to sell. He would have had eggs and poultry to sell. He would have had corn, potatoes, etc. All of these things would help to tide over the bad year.

The farmer who grows a variety of crops and has livestock on his farm will be able to convert much of his crops into meat and milk and eggs and at the same time turn back to the soil valuable plant food for future crops. This is a practice general farmers must follow if they want to live at home and board at the same place. The farm that gets a large portion of its food, food for man and beast and soil, from elsewhere can hardly be called a real farm.

In order to carry stock through periods when pastures are scant, ample provision must be made for storing feed. Corn cribs, potato houses, hay mows, or sheds, and silos are necessary. The silo is possibly the most economical saver of feed for cattle. In it the entire nutritive value of feed can be saved. Silage is succulent, furnishing green feed through the winter months. It might take the place of the pasture in summer during the droughts.

MANY VARIETIES OF HOGS

We are accumulating a surprising array of hogs in these days. There are the so-called on-foot hogs, the familiar road hog, the expectation hog, and now comes a new species in an exchange—the runt hog. Presumably this latest is someone who has something to do with the attitude of rents in crowded cities. Same paper suggests that a hog is never cured until it is dead.—Miami Metropolis.

Urging that immediate steps be taken by the county commissioners to expediate the completion of the Tamiami trail, directors of the Miami chamber of commerce recently addressed an appeal to the Dade County board recommending that the balance of unexpended money from the bond issue voted to build the trail, be used in meeting the actual payrolls of the J. B. McCrory Co. in the construction work now under progress.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried everything I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her. "I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. I am sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life." For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments. If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. B 85.

EDITORS TO BE IN FLORIDA IN MARCH

The National Editorial Association is to begin its tour of Florida at Pensacola. It is to spend March 10, 11 and 12, the dates of the annual convention, at St. Augustine. The tour of the state, as arranged by the committees representing the newspapers, boards of trade, chambers of commerce and other organizations of Florida, is to include the following cities:

Pensacola, Panama City, Quincy, Tallahassee, Jacksonville, St. Augustine—a three days stop—Palatka, Gainesville, Ocala, Lake county, Lakeland, Bradentown, Tampa, Clearwater, St. Petersburg, Fort Myers, Arcadia, Wauchula, Bartow, Kissimmee, Orlando.

Railroad officials of the Seaboard Air Line and the Atlantic Coast Line have outlined a tentative itinerary to be followed on the trip, but this schedule has not been definitely adopted by the committee from the National Editorial Association arranging for the tour.

At Orlando the special train is to be dropped and the visitors are to be taken in automobiles for visits to Sanford, DeLand, Daytona, Cocoa, Fort Pierce, Palm Beach, Fort Lauderdale, and Miami.

Those who desire to visit Cuba will be given an opportunity, but the trip to the Queen of the Antilles is not included in the itinerary.

The Florida Press Association have undertaken the raising of a fund of $50,000 to defray the expenses of entertaining the visiting newspapermen.

Of this amount, Miami, whose quota is $3,500, already has raised $10,000 for the entertainment of the visiting newspapermen.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

Immediate improvement of the East Coast section of the Dixie Highway is assured by the action of the new organized State Road Department.

Fall Fertilizing Fertilizer applied to citrus trees in November is one of the greatest factors in securing a heavy crop the following season, for it is during the seemingly dormant period that incipient fruit buds are formed. In addition to this, fall fertilizer induces a larger, stronger root system which is of great benefit to the tree in developing growth, holding fruit, and withstanding droughts. Fall fertilizing in great measure prevents the usual "off year" following heavy yields. For best results, use one of the following brands: SEMINOLE FRUIT MANURE 3 p. c. Am., 8 p. c. A. P. A., 5 p. c. (From Friday's Daily) Sanford will soon have houses for the hundreds of people who are here...

THE SIXTY-SIXTH ANNUAL MEET OF FLORIDA BAPTISTS

KISSIMMEE IS THE SCENE OF A GREAT GATHERING OF BAPTISTS.

KISSIMMEE, Dec. 8.—Enthusiasm marked the opening of the 66th annual session of the Baptists' state convention here yesterday.

Monday the Florida Baptist Laymen's association met in their annual convention prior to the opening of the convention properly.

The morning session was opened by a Scriptural reading by J. Ollie Edmunds, of Jacksonville.

Mr. Dorner announces that George Wright, one of the best in the business will be here today and will perform for several days at the field and over the city and will also take up passengers and on Sunday will do some stunt flying such as wing walking...

Since we have such a fine aviation field it might just as well be used and Albert Dorner thinks he can revive the sport sufficiently to get many of the visiting aviators here for the season.

George Wright will reopen the field by stunt flying Sunday.

Today's Program 9:20.—Opening devotional services, conducted by Rev. Roger L. Clark, Bradentown.

10:30.—Convention called to order. Enrollment of messengers and organization.

11:00.—The annual sermon, Rev. S. B. Cole, Madison; alternate, Rev. H. S. Rightmire, Daytona.

12:30.—Adjournment. Afternoon 2:30.—Devotional service, Rev. C. S. Thomas, Phoenix.

2:45.—The report on state missions and the report of the State Board of Missions, Dr. C. W. Duke, Tampa; Dr. S. B. Rogers, corresponding secretary and treasurer, Jacksonville.

7:30.—Devotional service, Rev. B. G. Smith, Monticello.

7:45.—Report on woman's work, Mrs. H. C. Peelman, corresponding secretary and treasurer, Jacksonville.

8:15.—Address, Mrs. W. C. James, president Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention, Birmingham.

Address, Dr. S. B. Rogers, corresponding secretary and treasurer, of Jacksonville.

One of the first things expected to develop in the convention will be the fight over the location of the Baptist hospital, as a number of cities have sent delegations to the convention with that end in view.

Mr. Pete Wing of Hawk Point, Mo., made a lot of money out of his hogs. He says: "I fed them Dr. LeGear's Hog Prescription. It has given wonderful results in putting gains on them with less feed. They were on heavy feed for only a month; averaged a gain of 2 1/2 pounds daily, and were only 7 months, 10 days old, when sold."

It makes no difference what ailment is prevalent among your stock or poultry, it is money in your pocket to get the proper Dr. LeGear Remedy from your dealer, on a satisfaction or money back offer.

AVIATORS WILL VISIT SANFORD

ALBERT DORNER SECURES GEO. WRIGHT FOR STUNT FLYING ON SUNDAY

(From Wednesday's Daily) Albert (Peggy) Dorner has succeeded in reopening the aviation field and expects to bring several good flyers here during the season.

Mr. Dorner has done much to keep aviation alive in Sanford and spent much time and money on the Sanford field. He has now renamed the field here Airport and wants to revive the spirit of aviation in order that when this sport becomes as popular as it is destined to be Sanford will always have a landing field and this city already marked on the government aerial map routes will be on the government aerial mail route.

Mr. Dorner announces that George Wright, one of the best in the business will be here today and will perform for several days at the field and over the city and will also take up passengers and on Sunday will do some stunt flying such as wing walking, change of planes, stand on head on top of the wings, loop three times stunting on top of the wing and trapeze work. The stunt flying will take an hour or more and be full of thrills.

Albert has interested the county commissioners and Engineer Fred Williams has secured some lime rock and the white cross that marks all aviation fields has been fixed at the Airport field here and everything is now in readiness again for the visit of all the aviators who might be coming this way during the winter.

Since we have such a fine aviation field it might just as well be used and Albert Dorner thinks he can revive the sport sufficiently to get many of the visiting aviators here for the season.

George Wright will reopen the field by stunt flying Sunday.
