Cost Of Florida Government Hits New Peak In '37

Receipts At Close Of Fiscal Year Were Nearly 50 Million

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Jan. 31.—(AP)—Florida's state government did a business of nearly $50,000,000 in the past fiscal year.

The figure, a record total, is shown in the annual report of state comptroller J. M. Lee.

Receipts for the fiscal year which ended last June 30 were $49,857,878.80. All payments for old age assistance were not included in the totals because the pensions did not start until after July 1.

In the prior fiscal year, which ended June 30, 1936, receipts were $47,754,470 and disbursements $48,281,652.50. The highest previous disbursements was $44,513,120.75 in 1927.

Immediately upon collecting it, the state turned back to the 67 counties $22,079,288.87 of the total receipts. This went for public schools, for retiring highway bonds and for other county purposes not including public health, courts and other state functions carried on in the counties.

Disbursements for education, including public schools which received $11,126,165.52, totaled $14,100,593.83 and represented the biggest payment of funds. Next came the $10,953,123.34 in gasoline tax collections returned to the counties for road bonds and the race track tax receipts divided equally among the counties.

Highway maintenance and construction cost $9,754,470 and general governmental expenses amounted to $5,540,170, an increase of nearly $2,000,000 caused by the $1,600,000 state building program and the $328,000 cost of a legislative session.

Principal revenue sources were excise taxes, including gasoline and beverage levies, $26,281,946; license taxes $11,237,801; United States government grants and subventions $2,751,484; transfers of money from one fund to another $1,975,328 which included $400,000 from the estate tax escrow expense fund to the general revenue fund.

In the 1936 fiscal year, receipts from excise taxes totaled $22,000,000, nearly $1,000,000 under the 1937 total. That year license taxes brought in $2,816,402 or $2,721,000 under the 1937 figure.

General property taxes produced $2,202,855 in the 1937 fiscal year, against $2,749,851 during the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1936.

In transmitting his report to Governor Fred P. Cone, Comptroller Lee said operating disbursements exceeded the revenue receipts by $142,230 on June 30 the general revenue fund had a balance of $336,903.44.

Now, six months later, the state's general revenue fund is about $1,200,000 behind in paying operating bills.

Today Is Last Day To Get New License

With today the last day for operating motor vehicles in this State without 1938 auto license tags, Seminole County Tax Collector, Jno. D. Jenkins reported today that only 3,000 licenses had been sold to date as compared with a total of 5,577 licenses sold during 1937.

With this announcement came a warning from local law enforcement officers that if no extension of time was granted, motorists operating vehicles without the new tags will be liable to arrest.

Gov. Fred P. Cone has granted one extension from Jan. 15 but has indicated that there would not be another. Only the Governor has authority to declare another extension.

The local Tax Collector, however, expects tags sales to increase rapidly as belated purchasers crowd into his office this afternoon and tomorrow.

Size Of U. S. Warships May Be Increased

Admiral Leahy Tells House Group Plan Hinges On What Other Nations Do

World Conditions Called Dangerous

Expansion Program Seen As Essential To National Defense

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The Navy's top ranking officer told Congress today that the United States would build battleships larger than the 35,000 ton limit fixed by the 1936 London Treaty if other powers disregard the limitation.

"It is almost certain," Admiral William D. Leahy said, "that treaty nations would invoke the escape clause and build larger ships if it were determined that other countries were doing so."

The Chief of Naval operations made the statement to the House Naval Committee during the second day of hearings on the legislation to carry out $300,000,000 naval expansion program proposed in response to President Roosevelt's recommendation for a flat 20 percent increase in the size of the fleet.

Emphasizing the need for immediate expansion of the Navy because of "anomalous increases" in world political conditions are "far more threatening than at any time since 1918 and there is no improvement in sight."

The construction program, estimated to cost about $300,000,000, would provide 47 additional combatant warships and 22 auxiliary vessels. Chairman Vinson (D. Ga.) of the Naval Committee said the ships would require 1200 more officers and about 20,000 enlisted men.

Leahy declared the proposed increase would make the fleet "largely adequate to protect us against attack" and emphatically denied it would permit an aggressive foreign war.

For a war of aggression, Leahy said, the Navy would require an expansion three times the size of the one proposed.

Contrasting the Navy's strength with that of major foreign powers, Leahy said completion of the proposed program would give the United States 21 capital ships—battleships or battle cruisers—compared with Great Britain's 25, Japan's 14, France's 11, Germany's 8 and Italy's 8.

Gov. Fred P. Oke made no further extension of the time to acquire the bills, but previously advanced the expiration date of the 1937 plan to January 15 to February 1, 1938, had legal authority to extend the time as late as February 15. He was away from the Capitol today, and there was no notice to the Tax Commission to other agencies about any extension.

The Motor Vehicle Committee reported its committee to new Monday night (2:00-3:00 p.m.) session. The committee will come to a final vote on the bill during the next session and will be held in the Senate on Feb. 15.

Chairman McCall, Kansas Democrat, said he would be glad to be included in the subcommittee to make recommendations to the Senate on the bill. He also said he would be glad to be included in the subcommittee to make recommendations to the Senate on the bill.

The dinner is open to the public and reservations may be made at either the Woman's Club or the Chamber of Commerce.

Japs And Chinese Clash In Struggle For Vital Terrain

SHANGHAI, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Chinese and Japanese armies clashed hand to hand in a struggle for a 190 mile wide corridor separating the areas which the Japanese have conquered in nearly seven months of unrelenting warfare.

Chinese and Japanese reports of the battle were at odds, both sides asserting they had taken a heavy toll of enemy lives. Independent reports indicated the Chinese were holding their own along the main railroad line which is the center of the battle zone.

Chinese forces, throwing all at the spearhead of the Japanese attack, yesterday smashed new advance near Mingwang, slaughtering more than 1000 Japanese according to Chinese reports.

Severe Cold Still Holds U.S. In Grip

Colder Weather Predicted For Central Florida Tonight; No Frost Is Expected

By Associated Press Extreme cold weather continuing over most of the country with heavy snow and rains in the northwest and temperatures of 20 below zero in the northern states. The severe storm that held the Pacific coast in its grip for 48 hours had abated.

Heavy snow and rains fell in northern California, Washington, and Oregon but the rains that menaced shipping off the Pacific coast subsided. Additional snow was forecast in the vicinity of Pinecrest, Calif., where 37 persons were snowbound in the mountains.

Shifting of winds to the northeast prevented temperatures from falling to below freezing in several sections of the southeast.

A drop to zero weather stopped the breaking up of ice in the Niagara River and halted the plunge of "honeymoon brides" into the river. The ice jam knocked the bridge into the gorge on to the ice last Thursday.

While slightly colder weather was predicted for Central Florida tonight, there apparently was no danger of frost. Scattered frost in the northwest portion of the state was expected, with occasional showers throughout the central and south portions of the peninsula.

Italians Accused Of Furnishing Flotilla To Spanish Rebels

LONDON, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The British admiralty rushed four destroyers today armed with depth charges in search of the mysterious marauding submarine which sank the British merchantman Endymion off the southeastern Spanish coast yesterday with a loss of 11 lives.

The Spanish Government, through its ambassador in London, charged Italy had assigned four destroyers and two submarines to the Spanish insurgent fleet and said an Italian submarine sank the Endymion.

The British destroyers, each 1375 tons, were under orders without hesitation to drop depth charges if the attacking submarine were sighted and attempted to resist capture.

The Nyon Accord against "piracy," signed last Sept. 14, established that any such submarine be "counter-attacked and, if possible, destroyed."

The destroyers' flotilla entered its patrol about the Cape Verde area where the Endymion was following the submarine which may have signalled a rare recurrence of such so-called "piratical attacks," which disrupted Mediterranean merchant shipping in the summer of 1937.

Second Passenger Of Wrecked Car Dies

Ruby Lee Barry, negro, one of the occupants of the auto that turned over Sunday at the Altamonte Springs Road on the Orlando Highway, died in the local hospital yesterday from injuries sustained when the Chrysler coupe in which the five Winter Park negroes were riding turned over, killing William McDowell instantly as he was slung from the car's front end.

John Jones, driver of the auto, was also injured but has been lodged in the County Jail on charges of reckless driving. It was intimated, however, that more severe charges may be preferred against the negro who is responsible for the death of two of the passengers of the auto which he was driving according to County Sheriff C. E. Hand, too fast to make the attempted turn into the glide road.

Florida's Gardens

This is camellia and azalea blooming time in Florida and thousands of beautiful red, white, pink, saffron and lavender plants throughout Central Florida are in full bloom, a great joy and pride to our year-around residents and attracting thousands of visitors from other parts of the state.

During the past few years more Sanford residents, perhaps taking the cue from our neighbor on the South, have become more keenly aware of the beauties of these particular shrubs and have begun to improve their gardens with them, until today there are some garden spots in this city as beautiful as any to be found anywhere in the state. And incidentally at the Sanford Country Club is one of the oldest camellia bushes to be found in Central Florida.

Inasmuch as Sanford is soon to have a new public park, appropriately designated "Fort Mellon Park" by the City Commission, it might well be worth the while of some of our Garden Club members and other citizens interested in beautification plans, who have not already done so, to make an opportunity during the next few weeks, to visit some of the new and more outstanding gardens in neighboring cities which have been created during the past few years.

If you have not yet visited the Ravine Gardens at Palatka, you should not let this season pass without making the trip. You will agree with us afterward that it was well worth all the time and trouble. And you should plan to spend the day, for you cannot do justice to the beauty of the place in a single afternoon after allowing for travel time from here.

Nearer at hand, if you cannot find time for the trip to Palatka, are the Venetian Gardens at Leesburg. Constructed among a series of islands, they are quite different from the Ravine Gardens, but they have all the varieties of shrubs and all the beautiful blooms at this time of year which characterize its more widely publicized rival. It has the added interest too of including extensive recreational facilities.

Down at Winter Haven is one of the choicest spots in Florida. The Cypress Gardens there are really something to see. The azalea and camellia shrubs especially seem to be a little larger and a little more substantial if anything than those seen in some of the other gardens in the state, while one particular part of it, where a group of some thirty or forty camellia bushes are collected near an old "wishing tree," is one of the most beautiful places imaginable.

It is well worth any Sanfordin's time to see what some of these other Florida cities are doing in the realm of beautification.

The Same Old Remedy

Considerable pressure is being exerted on the Administration these days to enlarge the spending program and end the "recession" by having the federal government take over the burden of financing prosperity. While the parade of industrial leaders, labor leaders, and little business men (down to the million-dollar-a-year class) continues, the rest of us citizens need hardly hold our breath until we see what is going to happen next.

John L. Lewis, lord of the CIO, has spoken. "The Administration has taken upon itself this obligation (to furnish WPA jobs to all unemployed)," he says, "and the workers of America expect it to fulfill its promise." Urging an immediate appropriation of three billion dollars for unemployment relief, Mr. Lewis insists that the WPA open its rolls to at least three million unemployed persons.

And Gov. Earle, polo-playing governor of Pennsylvania, who was one of the very first to propose President Roosevelt for a third term, puts it even stronger. A week ago he declared, "We will have to resume government spending at the rate of two billion dollars a year for the next fifteen years"; and yesterday he said that the recession was produced because we stopped priming the pump too soon.

The President established the WPA, the PWA, the CCC and so forth, Gov. Earle declares, and, by giving the masses of the people "temporary purchasing power," prosperity returned; but then "we were told the country must balance its budget." When we stopped priming the pump, purchasing power fell off, business slumped, and workmen lost their jobs. Clearly the way for the country to get out of the economic doldrums, he says, is for the government to spend more money. After all, our national debt is only 38 billion.

And so it becomes increasingly apparent to the little taxpayer, who has not yet been summoned to Washington to express his views, that that is exactly what is going to be done. All those who cannot find jobs in private industry will be given jobs by the government. There will be bigger and better WPA projects in the future than ever before. Billions of dollars will be spent on a new battle fleet and millions more on arsenals, munitions of war and an enlarged standing army.

The budget which hasn't been balanced since the depression began will remain unbalanced. The national debt will mount higher and higher, while taxes trail along behind, not enough to meet expenses but sufficient to bear down heavier and heavier on the people to follow. As long as the mass purchasing power is thus stimulated by the government, there will be buyers in our stores; a semblance of prosperity will continue, postponing again and again the evil day of reckoning.

The national debt, which in 1930 was 18 billion, is now 38 billion, and will continue to rise higher and higher into the dizzy altitudes far above the clouds.

WEEKLY NEWS COLUMN

By JOE HERDECKER

COMPENSATION: Since I have been in Congress I have been called an attaché, secretary to a Congressman, and most everything but a member, however. If he has any compensation, just after Senator Claude Pepper completed his filibuster on the anti-lynching bill, I happened to be sitting in his chair on the Senate floor listening to Senator Dick Russell carry on. The graceful and delightful Senator Ham Lewis passed by me, tapped me on the shoulder and said: "Senator I hope you can get some rest after this."

TAX COLLECTORS: As strange as it may seem filling station men are one of the Federal Government's most important classes of "tax collectors." Revenue from gasoline taxes and other levies on the petroleum industry amount to 11 percent of all taxes collected by Federal, State and local governments, according to figures compiled by the American Petroleum Institute.

NATIONAL DEFENSE: There will probably be a great deal of opposition by pacifists to the increase in the budget for the purpose of national defense. Although the budget calls for an appropriation of approximately one billion dollars for national defense during the next fiscal year, relatively this country spends less for arms than any other great power. Total arms expenditures throughout the world are estimated to have increased from five billion dollars in 1932 to eleven billion dollars in 1933.

STILL FIGHTING: The Majority Leader of the Senate and Senator Wagner have played what I believe to be their trump card in bringing Southerners to their knees on the anti-lynching bill. Their maneuvers have been of course without success to the present moment. On Monday, night session of the Senate were inaugurated, but there are no signs of weakening on the part of those participating in the filibuster. The Southern bloc was victorious in the second maneuver. The Senate has just voted on the rules to close the debate and the vote was 87 yeas and 61 nays. It requires two-thirds of the Senate to carry this rule which would be 64 votes. This move having failed, it is my prediction that the anti-lynching bill will be shelved within a short while and the Senate will move forward on other legislation.

ANIMATED CORPSES: On occasion I have been flabbed about the Townsend Plan, say kind friends suggesting that it was dead as a door nail. For the information of those who are so completely misinformed, I might say that recently when Senator Ham Lewis proposed what would vitally change the General Welfare Act, H. R. 4199, I asked for the recitation of the club members in the Fifth District and daily bundles of letters, telegrams, and postcards are arriving protesting any change. A greater interest has been evidenced in any issue, including the controversial Euphrates Court Bill and the wage-hour bill, since I have been in Congress. I have literally hundreds of telegrams, letters and cards protesting any change, representing thousands of Townsdenites. Those who assume that the Townsend Plan is dead in the Fifth District are liable to face a most animated corpse.

JOIN THE AIR SERVICE: For the information of young men in my District, I quote the following article:

"The War Department advised young college graduates today that they were missing the knock of opportunity at their door. There are still 232 unfilled vacancies for the March flying cadet class at the Army Air Corps training center, Randolph Field, Texas. Plans had been made to admit 244, but only 112 have qualified thus far.

"The vacancies are open to men between 21 and 26 with two years' college education or the ability to pass an examination requiring its equivalent, and who can pass the necessary physical examination."

For further details and applications write to the War Department, Washington, D. C.

WPA PROJECTS: We have received word of approval of the following projects by the President's Project No. 20420 to complete the Venetian Gardens Municipal Park in Leesburg, Florida, allotment $25,770; Project No. 20421 to make improvements to football field in Ocala, allotment $4,185; and Project No. 20430 for improvement recreational center at Cocoa, allotment $4,473.

VISITORS: The Honorable Obe P. Goode, Hon. Hiram Fayer, and Hon. John Verzagari of St. Augustine; Dr. M. C. Isler of Ocala; and Hon. W. Wright Each of Daytona Beach were visitors to my office this week.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS: We announce the following Civil Service Examinations: Electrician's helper at United States Naval Air Station, Panama City, at $239.244, $30 per diem; and Elevator Conductor, at $1,000 a year. For further details inquire at your nearest first class post office.

WORLD VERSE FOR TODAY

Have all things hold fast to that which is good.—1 Thess. 5:11

TO THE WORLD'S EDGE

I will take my pipe and go for the bees upon the wing
 All singing of the summer that is coming from the stars
 I will take my pipe and go for the little mountain hill
 In speaking with the bagpipes in modern croonies bars.
 I will go o'er hills and valleys, and through fields of ripening
 And the least and the thistle and the bittern in the sedge
 Will head their throats and lift the first long road of all
 On that ends at the world's edge.

I will take my pipe and go now for the sandflower on the dune
 A weary of the sobbing of the misty white sea,
 In making for the pipe the beautiful of these
 In the merry lulling that all hearts free.

I will take my pipe and go now and God go with you all
 And keep all sorrow from you, and the dark heart's load
 I will take my pipe and go now, for I hear the summer call
 And you'll hear the pipe playing as I pass along the road.

AT JERUSALEM

I stood by the Holy City
 Without the Damascus Gate,
 While the wind blew soft from the distant sea.
 And the day was wearing late,
 And swept its wide horizon
 With reverent lingering gaze
 From the rolling uplands of the west
 That slope a hundred ways.

Size Of U. S. Warships May Be Increased

Expansion Program Seen As Essential To National Defense

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The Navy's top ranking officer told Congress today that the United States would build battleships larger than the 35,000 ton limit fixed by the 1936 London Treaty if other powers disregard the limitation.

"It is almost certain," Admiral William D. Leahy said, "that treaty nations would build larger ships if it were determined that other countries were doing so."

The Chief of Naval operations made the statement to the House Naval Committee during the second day of hearings on the legislation to carry out $900,000,000 naval expansion program proposed in response to President Roosevelt's recommendation for a flat 50 percent increase in the size of the fleet.

Emphasizing the need for immediate expansion of the Navy recently undertaken by Japan and Great Britain, Leahy asserted world political conditions are "far more threatening than at any time since 1918, and there is no improvement in sight."

The construction program, estimated to cost about $800,000,000, would provide 47 additional combatant warships and 23 auxiliary vessels. Chairman Vinson (D. Ga.) of the Naval Committee said the ships would require 1500 more officers and about 25,000 enlisted men.

Leahy declared the proposed increase would make the fleet "heavily adequate to protect us against attack" and emphatically denied it would permit an aggressive foreign war.

For a war of aggression, Leahy said, the Navy would require an expansion three times the size of the one proposed.

Deadline Expires For Purchase Of New Auto License

The green and white automobile license tag you've used for a year isn't valid any more. Its last life expired last midnight.

You should have had a new canopy yellow and blue plate when you drove your car into the street this morning. That's the color scheme for 1938.

Her. Fred H. Gage made no further statement of the time to receive license tags. He previously advanced the expiration date of the 1937 plates from January 15 to February 1. He had the law amended to extend the time as late as February 1. He was away from the Capitol today, and there was no session in the Capitol today.

The Motor Vehicle Commission reported it received 12,000 applications for license tags. Some $2,000,000 in license tags will come in from the public during the next few days.

Fort Mellon Park To Be Dedicated On Tuesday, Feb. 8

Ceremonies Will Be One Of Highlights Of Founders' Day

The official dedication of Fort Mellon Park, Sanford's newest park for which a $10,000 WPA improvement project was recently approved, will be held Tuesday, Feb. 8 at 4:30 P. M. and the ceremonies will be one of the highlights of the Founders' Day program scheduled for the day, according to officials of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce who are in charge of the arrangements.

All city and county officials, local W. P. A. officials and the public are cordially invited to attend the ceremonies to be held on the new premises at the corner of Sanford Avenue and 1st Street.

This park, the building of which will in a sense mark a new era for the city of Sanford, is being named in honor of no one person, either living or dead," stated T. R. Simpson, president of the local trade body, "in honor of the name, Fort Mellon Park, shall perpetuate the important significance of the historical fort and the early settlement which developed into Sanford today."

Dedication of the park to the 100th Anniversary of the founding of the City of Sanford is a part of the annual Founder's Day activities to be climaxed with a dinner in the Woman's Club Building in the evening. The Annual Founder's Day was inaugurated last year by the Founder's Day Committee of the Belle Harrison Chapter, D. A. R. of which Mrs. H. J. Lehman is General Chairman in celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the City's founding.

The dinner is open to the public and reservations may be made at either the Woman's Club or the Chamber of Commerce.

State To Stock Up On Institution Supplies

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Feb. 1.—(AP)—Bids for a six month supply of dry goods, clothing, shoes and notions for state institutions will be received Feb. 7.

Because the Senate chamber here will be occupied that day, the state cabinet authorized merchants and jobbers to make their displays of wares at the State Hospital for the insane at Chattahoochee.

Representatives of the state institution will examine the supplies, including bids and make recommendations to Governor Fred F. Gage and the cabinet about purchasing the supplies.

The annual bulk purchase total about $24,000.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

The Sanford Township Club will hold its regular weekly meeting in the Yvelde Building Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock. Instead of Friday night as heretofore, President W. H. Thomas said today.

James Stewart yesterday was granted permission to erect a new store at Myrtle Avenue between Eighth and Ninth Streets by local building Inspector G. P. Paxton.

Japs And Chinese Clash In Struggle For Vital Terrain

SHANGHAI, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Chinese and Japanese armies clashed hand to hand in a struggle for a 190 mile wide corridor separating the areas which the Japanese have conquered in nearly seven months of unrelenting warfare.

Chinese and Japanese reports of the battle were at odds, both sides asserting they had taken a heavy toll of enemy lives.

Chinese were holding their own along the main railroad line which is the center of the battle zone.

Chinese forces, throwing all at the spearhead of the Japanese attack, yesterday smashed new advance near Mingwang, slaughtering more than 1000 Japs according to Chinese reports.

Clearing Of Remaining Nine Holes In Begun By Convicts

Bert Fort, manager of the Sanford Country Club today reported one of the best weeks in recent years at the Municipal golf course. In spite of the extreme cold most of the week, over 100 Sanfordites and out of town enthusiasts made the course one or more times, he said.

Following a meeting of officials of the Country Club with the City Commissioners last Tuesday regarding opening of the other nine holes at the course because of the crowded conditions which have existed recently, initial steps for opening the remainder of the course have been taken during the past week. Convict labor is being used to clear the fairways and greens of the nine holes that have not been used in a number of years.

Mr. Fort reported that 50 persons played the course Sunday. Roy Holler, prominent Sanford golfer, had the best score for the week with one above par for the nine holes. Mr. Holler made the course using only 38 strokes.

The players during the week were as follows: A. W. Epps, Ben Cantwell, Hob Axt, Fred Holly, Phil Gashoff, E. J. Toll, Otto Caldwell, Joe Masters, Geo. Thurston, Roy Symes, Jr., Henry Watson, Roy Holler, R. A. King, C. C. Whittington, H. M. Grinnell, Harry Grinnell, Jr., Johnny Morgan, Arthur Williams, B. L. ## Drunken Drivers Draw Heavy Fines In Judge Frank Miller's City Court Drunken drivers were shown no mercy by city Judge Frank J. Miller in a session of the Municipal Court at the Police Station yesterday afternoon.

Harry Mooney was given a fine of $50 or 30 days for driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor; $5 or 10 days on a second charge; $10 or 20 days for refusing an officer; and $5 or 10 days for using an auto without the owner's permission. Maxwell Stewart in a special court session Saturday was also sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or serve 30 days in jail after pleading guilty to charges of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and reckless driving.

C. D. Davis, negro, charged with keeping a disorderly place was fined $25 or 50 days by the Municipal Judge and Donnie Mather, negro, charged for a similar offense, was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 or serve 70 days in jail when the Judge learned he was an old offender.

Laura Bennett, negro, was sentenced on a charge of keeping a disorderly place, but was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or serve 30 days for refusal to file

Colder Weather Predicted For Central Florida Tonight; No Frost Is Expected

By Associated Press

Extreme cold weather continued over most of the country with heavy snows and rains in the northwest and temperatures of 30 below zero in the northern states. The severe storm that held the Pacific coast in its grip for 48 hours had abated.

Heavy snows and rains fell in northern California, Washington, and Oregon but the rain that nudged shipping off the Pacific coast subsided. Additional snow was forecast in the vicinity of Pinacrest, Calif., where 21 persons were snowbound in the mountains.

Shifting of winds to the northwest prevented temperatures from falling to below freezing in several sections of the south-east.

A drop to zero weather stopped the breaking up of ice in the Niagara River and halted the plunge of "honeymoon brides" into the river. The ice jam knocked the bridge into the gorge on in the ice last Thursday.

While slightly colder weather was predicted for Central Florida tonight, there apparently was no danger of frost. Scattered frost in the northwest portion of the state was expected, with occasional showers throughout the central and south portions of the peninsula.

County Judge Fines Drunken Driver $100

Those arraigned before County Judge H. W. Ware on charges of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor need not expect leniency from the head of the county tribunal.

In short order yesterday, he sentenced Sam Hill to pay a fine of $100 and costs or serve 60 days in jail when he pleaded guilty to a drunken driving charge.

U. S. Accepts Nippon Apology For Slapping

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The United States accepted yesterday Japan's expressions of regret for the slapping last Wednesday at Nanking of John M. Allison, the third secretary in charge of the embassy there, by a Japanese sentry.

The State Department, making this announcement, made public a report from Allison which said the Japanese planned to court-martial the commanding officer in the incident.

Japan's apology was oral, in response to oral representations made Saturday at Tokyo by Ambassador Grew.

Second Passenger Of Wrecked Car Dies

Ruby Lee Barry, negro, one of the occupants of the auto that turned over Sunday at the Altamonte Springs Road on the Orlando Highway, died in the local hospital yesterday from injuries sustained when the Chrysler coupe in which the five Winter Park negroes were riding turned over, killing William McDowell instantly as he was flung from the careening auto.

John Jones, driver of the auto, was also injured but has been lodged in the County Jail on charges of reckless driving. It was intimated, however, that more severe charges may be preferred against the negro who is responsible for the death of two of the passengers of the auto which he was driving, according to County Sheriff C. McLeod, too fast to make the attempted turn into the side road.

Florida's Gardens

This is camellia and azalea blooming time in Florida and thousands of beautiful red, white, pink, saffron and lavender plants throughout Central Florida are in full bloom, a great joy and pride to our year-around residents and attracting thousands of visitors from other parts of the state.

During the past few years more Sanford residents, perhaps taking the cue from our neighbor on the South, have become more keenly aware of the beauties of these particular shrubs and have begun to improve their gardens with them, until today there are some garden spots in this city as beautiful as any to be found anywhere in the state.

Incidentally at the Sanford Country Club is one of the oldest camellia bushes to be found in Central Florida, as much as Sanford is soon to have a new public park appropriately designated "Fort Mellon Park" by the mission, it might well be worth the while for our Garden Club members and other citizens beautification plans, who have not already taken an opportunity during the next few years of the new and more outstanding blooming cities which have been created.

Not yet visited the Ravine Gardens at Leesburg, Fla. at this season pass without making a trip to the day, for you cannot do justice to the place in a single afternoon after allowing time from here.

At hand, if you cannot find time for the trip, are the Venetian Gardens at Leesburg. Considered among a series of islands, they are quite different from the Ravine Gardens, but they have all the varieties of shrubs and all the beautiful blooms at this time of year which characterize its more widely publicized rival. It has the added interest too of including extensive recreational facilities.

Down at Winter Haven is one of the choicest spots in Florida. The Cypress Gardens there are really something to see. The azalea and camellia shrubs especially seem to be a little larger and a little more substantial if anything than those seen in some of the other gardens in the state, while one particular part of it, where a group of some thirty or forty camellia bushes are collected near an old "wishing tree," is one of the most beautiful places imaginable.

It is well worth any Sanfordinite's time to see what some of these other Florida cities are doing in the realm of beautification.

The Same Old Remedy

Considerable pressure is being exerted on the Administration these days to enlarge the spending program and end the "recession" by having the federal government take over the burden of financing prosperity. While the trade of industrial leaders, labor leaders, and little business men (down to the million-dollar-a-year class) continues, the rest of us citizens need hardly hold our breath until we see what is going to happen next.

John Z. Lewis, lord of the CIO, has spoken. "The Administration has taken upon itself this obligation (to furnish WPA jobs to all unemployed)", he says, "and the workers of America expect it to fulfill its promise." Urging an immediate appropriation of three billion dollars for unemployment relief, Mr. Lewis insists that the WPA open its rolls to at least three million unemployed persons.

And Gov. Earle, polo-playing governor of Pennsylvania, who was one of the very first to propose President Roosevelt for a third term, puts it even stronger. A week ago he declared, "We will have to resume government spending at the rate of two billion dollars a year for the next fifteen years"; and yesterday he said that the recession was produced because we stopped priming the pump too soon.

The President established the WPA, the FWA, the CCC and so forth, Gov. Earle declares, and, by giving the masses of the people "temporary purchasing power," prosperity returned; but then, "we were told the country must balance its budget." When we stopped priming the pump, purchasing power fell off, business slumped, and workingmen lost their jobs. Clearly the way for the country to get out of the economic doldrums, he says, is for the government to spend more money. After all, our national debt is only 38 billion.

And so it becomes increasingly apparent to the little taxpayer, who has not yet been summoned to Washington to express his views, that that is exactly what is going to be done. All those who cannot find jobs in private industry will be given jobs by the government. There will be bigger and better WPA projects in the future than ever before. Billions of dollars will be spent on a new battle fleet and millions more on armaments, munitions of war and an enlarged standing army.

The budget which hasn't been balanced since the depression began will remain unbalanced. The national debt will mount higher and higher, while taxes trail along behind, not enough to meet expenses but sufficient to bear down heavier and heavier on the little fellow. As long as the mass purchasing power is thus stimulated by the government, there will be buyers in our stores; a semblance of prosperity will continue, postponing again and again the evil day of reckoning.

The national debt, which in 1930 was 18 billion, is now 38 billion and will continue to rise higher and higher into the stratosphere far above the clouds.

WEEKLY NEWS COLUMN

By JOE HENDRICKS

COMPENSATION: Since I have been in Congress I have been called an attack, secretary to a Congressman, and most everything but a member, however, he has his compensation. Just after Senator Claude Pepper completed his filibuster on the anti-lynching bill, I happened to be sitting in his chair on the Senate floor listening to Senator Dick Russell carry on. The gracious and delightful Senator Dick Russell passed by me, placed his hand on my shoulder and said: "Senator I hope you can get some rest after this."

TAX COLLECTORS: As strange as it may seem filling station men are one of the Federal Government's most important classes of tax collectors. Revenue from gasoline taxes and other levies on the petroleum industry amount to 11 percent of all taxes collected by Federal, State and local governments, according to figures compiled by the American Petroleum Institute.

NATIONAL DEFENSE: There will probably be a great deal of opposition by pacifists to the increase in the budget for the purpose of national defense. Although the budget calls for an appropriation of approximately one billion dollars for national defense during the next fiscal year, relatively this country spends less for arms than any other great power. Total arms expenditures throughout the world are estimated to have increased from five billion dollars in 1932 to eleven billion dollars in 1936.

STILL FIGHTING: The Majority Leader of the Senate and Senator Wagner have played what I believe to be their trump card in only 112 have qualified thus far. The vacancies are open to men of the anti-lynching bill. Their college education or the ability without access to the present moment. On Monday, night sessions of the Senate were inaugurated, but there are no signs of weakening on the part of those participating in the filibuster. The Southern block was victorious in the second maneuver. The Senate has just voted on the rules to close the debate and the vote was 87 yeas and 61 nays. It requires two-thirds of the Senate to carry forward on other legislation. This rule which would be 64 votes. This move having failed, it is my prediction that the anti-lynching bill will be shelved within a short while and the Senate will move forward on other legislation.

ANIMATED CORPSE: On occasion I have been ribbed about the Townsend Plan, my kind friends suggesting that it was dead as a door nail. For the information of those who are so completely misinformed, I might say that recently when some men were proposed which would vitally change the General Welfare Act, H. R. 1189, I asked for the reaction of the club members in the Fifth District and daily batches of letters, telegrams, and postcards are arriving protesting any change. A greater interest has not been evidenced in any issue, including the controversial Supreme Court Bill and the wage-hour bill, since I have been in Congress. I have literally hundreds of telegrams, letters and cards protesting any change, representing thousands of Townsdenites. Those who suggest that the Townsend Plan is dead in the Fifth District are liable to face a most animated corpse.

JOIN THE AIR SERVICE: For the information of young men in my District, I quote the following article: "The War Department advised young college graduates today that they were missing the knock of opportunity at their door. There are still 232 unfilled vacancies for the Army Air Corps training center, Randolph Field, Texas. Plans had been made to admit 344, but only 112 have qualified thus far. ## Feds Lose Bit To Leesburg By 32 To 23 Margin

Failure to handle the ball with their usual prowess and poor shooting were credited by Coach McClucas as the reasons for the loss to the Leesburg Yellow Jackets by a 32-to-23 margin in the "hard fought fray" on the local court, last night.

Although leading by a score of 7 to 4 at the close of the first quarter, the Feds, lost their form in the second and at the half the Jackets were leading by a 17 to 11 margin and the Feds were unable to overcome the lead.

In a previous encounter the Celery Feds took a 29 to 27 defeat from the Leesburg quintet in an overtime game and the local cagers were hoped to take a larger decision from the visitors last night.

Coch McClucas reported that his

Big Tree Is Given Wide Publicity By Editor R. L. Glenn

Former Resident Puts Picture And Editorial In His Magazine

Invaluable publicity was given Sanford and Seminole County by R. L. Glenn, former resident who recently was made editor and manager of the official publication of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers in the February issue of the periodical.

A photograph of Seminole County's giant cypress occupies the entire front page of the current issue of the magazine which has a circulation of over 87,000 subscribers in the United States and Canada.

The "Giant Cypress" also received an editorial from the pen of Editor Glenn, entitled "The Subject of Our Frontispiece."

"Big trees look like saplings and adults like dolls when viewed in the same perspective with the giant cypress which stands just off the Orlando Highway between Sanford and Longwood in Seminole County, Florida.

"Believed the oldest and largest of its kind in the United States, the 'Big Tree,' Florida's rival to the California redwoods, is 125 feet in height, and 47 feet around, with a diameter of 17-1/2 feet.

"It is called 'The Senator' in honor of former Senator M. O. Overstreet, who presented it and the surrounding land to Seminole County for park purposes.

"Cypress is widely known as one of the most durable woods especially when in contact with moisture. Specimens have been known to remain for centuries in an excellent state of preservation. Approximately forty percent of the cypress lumber in the United States is cut in Florida."

The photograph of the tree was furnished by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

Also appearing in periodical is the first advertisement of the Railway Employees Retirement Committee of the Chamber of Commerce which points out Sanford and Seminole County as railroad employees as ideal location to spend their retiring years. Activities of this committee are under the chairmanship of J. L. Ingley.

Although the Falkland islands have been held by Great Britain since 1834, Argentina still claims them.
