continuing investigation today into an accident late Sunday afternoon near New Smyrna Beach in which two women were killed and five persons injured, two of them from San-Dead are Mrs. Thelma Armsstrong, of Edgewater, and Mrs. Lottie Sloan, of New Smyrna. The injured are Robert Poloski. 19, and Susan Ruth Nelson, 20, both of Sanford, and Mrs. Armsstrong's three grandchildren, Michael, Tammy and Michele, Poloski, who suffered leg lac erations, possible chest injuries and facial cuts, and Miss Nelson, who sustained severe facia cuts, were treated at Fish Memorial Hospital in New Smyrna and released. The three children were taken to Halifax Hospital in Daytona with injuries listed as "serious." According to report from Trooper F. T. Gotcher, investigating officer, the accident oc-
