New Strategy Needed For American Homes

By NORMAN KEMPSTER
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government's top metropolitan planner says the United States can never hope to solve its housing and other urban problems if it continues to fragment its efforts into separate campaigns for city and suburb.

Industrial Age In Housing Production Here

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary George Romney of Housing and Urban Development predicts that by the end of the current decade, two-thirds of all new homes in the United States will be prefabricated on factory assembly lines.

HUD is helping to promote research into industrialized housing methods through its Operation Breakthrough. The program involves construction of 22 experimental "housing systems" on eight sites throughout the nation.

Harold B. Finger, assistant HUD secretary for research, predicts that construction of the breakthrough homes should be completed before the end of this year.

"I believe the decade ahead is going to see a revolution in housing construction unmatched since men came out of caves and started building dwellings with their hands," Romney said.

Friday, Feb. 5, '71: How Will It Be Recorded?

Today, Feb. 5, 1971 could become an historic date which would take its place in time as the watershed when decisive action had defined it as a day when man slid deeper into the morass of war or gloriously soared to the heights of peacetime glory.

Raising our eyes and our thoughts to the moon and Apollo 14's brave, skillful and able astronauts, there shines an example of man's ability to look ahead, see a goal of tremendous importance, and reach it.

Signs of multiplying that the new Seminole County Commission has new life, new vision and new energy. That there are booby-traps ahead for it, we are sure. But that the impetus of these early days will persist and harden into an effective policy of action, we are hopeful.

At the level of local government in Sanford, the motion is at a low level. Its profile has never been high. Yet there are signs which will be definable before too long that the leadership has established goals, not only for this year but for the foreseeable future.

Familiar Ring

President Ferdinand Marcos of the Philippines seemed to be reading from a familiar script when he announced that his republic plans to seek new trade and diplomatic agreements with the Soviet Union and other Communist countries.

We have heard this from our allies before—just as negotiations are getting under way on the terms for keeping U.S. military bases on their soil.

President Marcos knows that U.S. bases in the Philippines are vital to security in the Western Pacific. He also knows they are vital to the economy of his own country.

He should not have to raise the threat of an invitation to the Russians to assure that satisfactory new agreements are reached to extend the life of these bases.

The Filipino government is caught in a cross-fire of public sentiment over its relations with the United States of America. Nationalists on one extreme are raising the perennial cry of "Yankee go home," while others with equal vigor are urging the Yankee to stay.

The scheduled closing this year of the U.S. Naval Base at Sangley Point, for instance, is threatening a massive unemployment problem in nearby Cavite City.

President Marcos should look toward internal political and economic reforms to quiet unrest in his country and relieve chronic unemployment and poverty. American bases are already spending about $180 million a year in the Philippines.

It is hard to see how the U.S. presence can be made the source of any greater benefit to the country.

This is essential. Without goals, all plans are fated for the "fill-and-forget" treatment. With goals the probability of action is increased and the possibility of achievement ceases to be a "false dawn."

Feb. 5, 1971. This is a day to remember. It is a time for concerned citizens to keep up their vigilance here in Sanford, up there in Tallahassee and—above all — in Washington!

Nixon Doctrine Is Economic

By RAY CROMLEY

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — It now seems clear President Nixon is extending the Nixon Doctrine to American economic strategy.

In foreign aid, as in foreign military alliances the U.S. profile will be lowered.

More assistance will be channeled through regional and worldwide organizations — the Asian Development Bank, Inter-American Development Bank, World Bank, International Development Association, Inter-American Social Development Institute.

A prerequisite for aid where feasible will be the willingness of the country seeking help to do what it can for itself with the resources it has.

This includes a willingness to assess and collect taxes and step down hard on evaders, a readiness to cut government corruption to manageable levels, a program for bringing inflation under control and willingness to eliminate unnecessary government spending.

That is, it sometimes will require very tough domestic measures.

More of the economic aid planning for countries and regions will be done by local planners, less by Americans.

The second objective, of course, is to make the American dollar go for more. Obviously, the United States can't give each underdeveloped country all the aid it requires.

More countries will be encouraged to give more aid. The theory here is that even undeveloped lands have some specialists who can pass expert knowledge along to others.

And many countries are rich enough to do more than they're now doing.

The new Nixon emphasis shows up in his fiscal 1971 supplementary requests to Congress, in his 1972 budget bill, and in programs being discussed at the White House, the State Department and the Agency for International Development.

One objective is to keep the United States out of the internal politics of foreign countries, a program for bringing inflation under control and willingness to eliminate unnecessary government spending.

That is, it sometimes will require very tough domestic measures.

More of the economic aid planning for countries and regions will be done by local planners, less by Americans.

Washington Window

Great Open Spaces Beckon

By LOUIS CASSELLS

UPI Senior Editor

WASHINGTON (UPI) — America's worst urban problem is not crime, or traffic, or money.

It's people. Too many people living too close together.

The 1970 census showed that about two-thirds of the U.S. population now is bunched together in urban areas comprising less than 2 per cent of the nation's land area.

Overcrowding either causes or compounds virtually all of the other difficulties involved in the present urban crisis — traffic congestion, housing shortages, racial tensions, crime, air pollution, inadequate municipal services.

It also contributes to the rapid deterioration of manners — the disappearance of ordinary decency — from human relationships in big cities.

Psychological tests have demonstrated that rats, when placed in an overcrowded cage, become feral. Excessive proximity seems to have the same psychological effect on human beings.

While two out of three Americans are struggling with the increasingly inhospitable environment of urban life, 88 per cent of the nation's land area, including many of the most beautiful sections, remains underpopulated.

In this vast expanse of lawn and country America, life is less stressful, the air is more leisurely, the pace is cleaner, the cost of living is lower, and it's still possible not only to know your neighbor, but to love him.

Clearly the time has come for a reversal of the flow of population into urban centers. And there are encouraging signs that such a reversal may be in the making.

Between 1950 and 1960, so many people moved into cities that their population grew about 50 per cent faster than the nation as a whole. But during the decade 1960 to 1970, the growth rate of metropolitan areas was only slightly greater than that of the total population.

This indicates a significant slowdown in urbanization. All that's needed to start population flowing in the opposite direction, many experts believe, is for the federal government to offer some inducement for people to quit the overcrowded cities and start life anew in the great open spaces.

Sen. Mike Mansfield said, "The operation, Mansfield said, 'seems to indicate a penetration into the hands of Laos.' While House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said massing U.S. and South Vietnamese troops near the Laotian border is only the first phase of the operation."

He declined to elaborate. "I'm not going to project what future troop movements on the part of the South Vietnamese will be."

Ziegler and other administration spokesmen repeated the unqualified statement they had made since the operation began: No U.S. soldier has crossed the border into Laos and none will.

Beyond that statement, however, there was little to abate a sense of confusion and uncertainty that had spread through Congress—and to American admitted to hourly news reports about the war—since the men.

"The fact that there was no loss of lives in this operation in itself justifies the judgment of this commander," Ziegler declared, to protect U.S. servicemen. First word of the embargo operations contained in the MACV (Military Assistance Command, Vietnam) release comes today: Your cooperation constitutes part of the embargo and is not for publication.

Dance Studio Dream Comes True For Rye Sisters

By DORIS WILLIAMS

After a highly successful dancing career, the sparkle in the eyes of Miriam Rye and Valerie Rye Weld is not stardust these days ... but the exhilaration of a dream come true.

Studio of Dance Arts, which is also the home of Ballet Guild of Sanford-Seminole, is not just a modern new edifice to instruct dancing in, but a way of life for the two dedicated young women.

Their object is far more than just teaching dancing ... their aims are set toward dance art, poise, grace and charm.

The odds were slim when the Rye sisters arrived in Sanford that they would "stick it out" here. Today, six years later, the success story tells itself.

Ballet Guild of Sanford-Seminole is the brainchild and work-child of Miriam and Valerie. Composed of 25 advanced dancers, the group performs with par excellence. They recently danced in the Winter Concert at Jacksonville's Civic Auditorium where they were heralded as "best in show."

In 1966, the old studio suddenly became too small for adequate instruction. At this time, the sisters began scouting for a larger building with the idea of re-modeling to suit their needs ... no such luck ... so the only feasible solution was to build a new home for their 200 artists.

Making decisions for the new home has not been a simple detail for the busy instructors with a full schedule all day every day and into the night.

decisions, decisions ... colors

Studio Of Dance Arts Sets Open House

By DORIS WILLIAMS

Bouncy! Bubbly! Beloved!

Who? ... Miriam Rye and Valerie Rye Weld, the most unique sister team to be found anywhere. Not only are the vivacious sisters talented dancers and songbirds, but also they deserve a good citizenship award for their accomplishments in the community.

Arriving in Sanford in 1965 with only a handful of dancing pupils, today the ultra-modern Studio of Dance Arts is carpeted with over 200 wall-to-wall dancers, most of whom began their training as shy little moppets and today have acquired the finesse of prima donnas and graceful ballerinas.

Dancing their way to the hearts of appreciative audiences for 20 years, the talented duo received training under New York's finest dance masters and performed in brilliant extravaganzas but missed the good old Southern hospitality at home ... Jacksonville.

The only children of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rye, who also now proudly call Sanford home, Miriam and Valerie decided to give teaching a whirl ... so here they are ... sharing their extensive knowledge of the dance arts with the entire area.

So it is that the two capable instructors cordially invite everyone to open house Sunday, Feb. 7, from 3-5 p.m. at 2560 South Elm Avenue, to explore the sparkling new facilities of Studio of Dance Arts.

Oh yes, refreshments will be served!

THE THEME SONG of Miriam Rye, left, and Valerie Rye Weld these days is, "everybody's cordially invited to come visit with us in our studio Sunday". The luxurious new structure swings its doors open from 3-5 p.m. for the entire public to view.

DONNA LOU ASKEW

Everybody's Invited To Sweetheart Luncheon For Donna Lou Askew

Florida's First Lady, Mrs. Reubin (Donna Lou) Askew, of Sanford, and wives of the executive Cabinet of the State of Florida will be honored guests at a Sweetheart Luncheon, Friday, Feb. 12, at 12 noon in the Eola Room at the mezzanine of Robert Meyer Motor Inn, Orlando.

Sponsored by the Democratic Women's Club of Winter Park, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Fred Oakes, the luncheon is open to the public, and is not by invitation.

Local reservations chairman is Seminole County Democratic Women's Club president, Mrs. John (Stella) Woodhouse, 222-0487. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Woodhouse before Monday, Feb. 8.

Speaker during the luncheon will be Hon. Jon C. Moyle, State Democratic chairman.

Kay Merritt Speaks Out Women's Club Enlightened On Beauty

By MARILYN GORDON
Are you as beautiful as you can be? You can be... so the members of the Casselberry Women's Club were told as they turned the program over to Kay Merritt at their monthly meeting Feb. 2 at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Merritt studied the science of cosmetics with a distributor academy in Atlanta. Before our very eyes she transformed club member model Jo Knoechel from a before look to an after vision.

Mrs. Merritt, in a stunning double knit white pantsuit, had many professional secrets of facial care which she passed on to the club members. Cleanser, moisturizer and toner are the most important cosmetics a woman can buy. They should be one brand as they are always coordinated by the manufacturer.

Sun, wind, heat in the winter and air conditioning in the summer take their toll on a woman's skin. Makeup is to face what a frame is to a picture. Your base should be one shade darker than your skin in the winter and two shades darker in the summer.

Always finish with a translucent powder as this will set your makeup and give it a lasting effect. 1971 will see eye makeup lighter and lipstick darker. Mrs. Merritt predicted.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. Ben Evans, chairman, Mrs. Elwood Heiss, Mrs. Robert Lormann, Mrs. J. Laird, Mrs. Don Wilson, and Mrs. William Wilson. They were responsible for the luncheon.

DAUGHTERS CLASS afternoon with Mrs. Clarence Pursell, Mrs. Roy Tillis and Mrs. J. J. Boyette serving as hostesses. On arrival of the 26 members attending, they served cookies and coffee.

Mrs. T. J. Taylor, class president, presided over the business session. Mrs. D. M. Paul read verses from St. Mark, using the word "Touch" as her theme. This was followed by prayer.

Mrs. Taylor read an appropriate prayer in memory of two departed members of the class, Mrs. Eva Hickson and Mrs. Mamie Mahan.

Mrs. C. M. Flowers, Mrs. G. B. Hudson and Mrs. A. B. Stevens were asked to write Resolutions in memory of these two women. A sum was also donated to the Building Fund of the Church in their honor.

Mrs. Roy Tillis and Mrs. Thomas Cain made donations to the birthday cake. Routine reports were given by all committee chairmen.

Courtesy chairman mailed seven cards to the sick and shut-ins along with making visits. Mrs. S. G. Harriman and Mrs. Taylor made six visits to the sick.

On Mrs. A. D. Zachary's 90th birthday several members of the class gave her a birthday party at Lake View Nursing Home where she is a resident. Boxes of candy were among her most welcome gifts for she gets great pleasure in sharing with others.

Orlando may have its Disneyworld... but, Sanford has its Florida Power & Light Company power plant!

The analogy is in cost, dollars and value to each of the respective areas — not to the number of tourists who'll gawk at the electrical power being generated locally.

At a cost of upwards of $100 million, construction is under way on two conventional 119,000 kw additions to the present Sanford facilities. Ultimately, more than one million kws will be generated here. And fed into the statewide network of stations.

There are more than 300 heavy equipment/construction workers presently on the projects and will continue to be employed steadily for the next two or three years.

Total FPL's expansion planned for the five-year period 1970-74, will exceed $1 billion — the greatest construction program in the history of Florida's utility industry.

Every precaution is being exercised not to disturb the ecology of this area, nor in any way to adversely affect the surrounding terrain. A self-contained drainage canal for the cooling system of these two powerful generators is being constructed on property owned by the utility company, and will not enter into any of the nearby creeks, streams or river.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am an only child - if you can call a woman of 24 a "child." I want to have an apartment with a very nice girl friend of mine, but every time I mention it, my mother hits the ceiling. She keeps telling me I am her "whole life." Yes, my father is living, but he and Mom never had much of a marriage. They never go anywhere together and they have no friends.

DEAR ABBY: A couple of months ago I was celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary and they are entitled to a life of their own, and under the present circumstances you'll never see them. The free room and board, laundry, housekeeping, etc., are extensions of the umbilical cord.

DEAR ABBY: Shirley (made up name) and I were having our domestic problems so we went to a marriage counselor whom we saw twice. Things seemed to be getting better when this counselor's assistant asked Shirley some questions about our sex life.

DEAR MRS. S.: People who have "everything" certainly must have charity in their hearts. Make a contribution in their honor to some worthwhile cause. I promise you that you will be one gift they will appreciate, and will give you a great deal of satisfaction.

SHIRLEY'S PATIENT HUSBAND: Tell Shirley that a professional counselor, like a doctor, assumes a strictly clinical and impersonal attitude toward those he counsels. Assume her that all humans behave pretty much the same and she has nothing to be ashamed of, so the sooner she sheds those prudish notions, the happier she'll be.

TOO MUCH MOTHER DEAR TOO: You answered your own question. ("I know that all humans behave pretty much the same and she has nothing to be ashamed of, so the sooner she sheds those prudish notions, the happier she'll be.")

A letter from Janerville, Wisconsin reads in part: "Playing at four spades is the most of one trick in each suit. West opened the 10 of hearts. I played low king and returned a club to his partner's ace. I know that if West held the king of hearts I would have made my contract, but I had some high-card response and would expect to have a sure thing after my partner's jump to four spades. Didn't he overbid?"

must lose a diamond trick in addition to a trump trick that is an optical illusion. The winning line of play is to start by cashing dummy's spades, queen of clubs and ace of spades. Then he should lead a spade to his king and cash his good heart and club in order to discard two diamonds from dummy. Then he plays out dummy's two high diamonds and a third round of trumps.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — For the first time in many years, Gov. Reubin Askew has been spending a special session away from the legislative chamber.

But the former state senator from Pensacola, who's been attending to executive chores on the first floor of the Capitol while the Legislature deliberated on his tax proposals on the second floor, had to be exactly where he was.

In addition to having a steady stream of legislators down to see him, Askew's been monitoring the floor debates on a squawk box in his office.

"When I went down to see him, he told me to be quiet a moment so he could hear a debate on an amendment of his tax bill in the Senate," one senator related.

And, at one time Senate President Jerry Thomas, noticing his absence in the chamber, declared: "I know the governor has a monitor on this microphone in his office. So if any senators are down there, governor, we need them to go here."

'TV Star'
Newly-elected Insurance Commissioner Tom O'Malley hasn't abandoned one practice of his predecessor, Broward Williams — having an employe scurrying around Cabinet meetings shooting pictures of him in action.

No other Cabinet member, including Gov. Reubin Askew, yet has assigned a personal photographer to these weekly meetings.

But O'Malley appointee Willie Ragsdale — who also appears on a Tallahassee TV station as "Willie the Weatherman" — was busy with his camera last week.

He said he shot some 40 frames and planned to use them "for television."

Snubs Offer
Elmer Rouns, Gov. Reubin Askew's campaign manager, has turned down a couple of prime lobbying offers since he formed a public relations firm here with G. Harold Cartwell's brother-in-law, Jack Simmons Jr.

Auto rental companies wanted to hire him to fight brewing legislation to take away the sales tax exemption they now enjoy on purchase of new cars, and supermarket people wanted him to fight a similar move to take away the rebate they and other retailers get for collecting the state sales tax.

Askew proposed removal of both tax breaks in his campaign. "It's just money," said Rouns.

Interested Eye
Former Senate President Jack Matthews of Jacksonville has been roaming legislative halls this week as a registered lobbyist for State Farm Insurance Co., but apparently has been also keeping an interested eye on the corporate profits tax.

Matthews, in addition to his job with the automobile insurance firm, has served as attorney for Associated Industries of Florida Inc. — one of the most vocal lobbying groups against Gov. Askew's proposed corporate tax.

The former gubernatorial candidate says he isn't in Tallahassee for Associated Industries — even though he has been sitting in on some heated Senate debates over the tax amendment.

At a committee meeting last week Sen. Richard Fincher, D-Miami, an opponent of the tax, read a statement citing the inequity of the corporate tax. The statement, said Fincher, had come from none other than Jack Matthews, who the Miami lawmaker said gave it to Senate President Jerry Thomas.

Govt. In Sunshine
The new emphasis on "government in the sunshine" brings with it some peculiar twists. On Jan. 13, Secretary of State Richard Stone had the doors on his office removed to throw more light on the workings of his office. On Jan. 28, Stone proposed the assignment of a State Highway Patrol trooper to his office and other Cabinet agencies for security's sake.

High Hazard
Look for Circuit Judge to ask Atty. Gen. Robert Shevin if they qualify for the "high-hazard" retirement pay which police and firemen now enjoy.

If his recent extension of the higher-pay benefits to state attorneys is any sign, Shevin will say yes.

The key phrase in that opinion was: "Note must also be taken of the recent episode of courtroom shooting involving prosecutions for criminal offenses."

Planned Development Deferred By Village

By MARION BETHA
NORTH ORLANDO—An ordinance creating planned unit development in the Village has been deferred until the next meeting of council. The matter has been under consideration for some time, with Council understandably cautious following experience with the long gone Gulf American Corporation. However, on the other side of the coin, officials of Florida Land Corporation, who are requesting this zoning, wish to proceed with their development.

At a recent meeting they were heard to comment "beginning to think GAC was right, and we're wrong."

The matter required considerable discussion at a workshop meeting and it was the consensus that adoption of the resolution would establish a new zoning per se. Nevertheless, it was stated that the PUD ordinance would in no way detract from the present subdivision ordinance. City Engineer B. C. Conklin has expressed that he "would like to see more engineering details prior to approval."

Mayor David Tilson questioned the density outlined by the developers was ambiguous. Tilson said that it would appear to him that Conklin would utilize large areas of land with the strict restrictions of a subdivision, and that five zoning classifications would be allowed under PUD.

Mayor Tilson contended that "I am going to be cautious because what we're doing will have a long term effect on the city."

Councilman Charles Kelley favored action in which "we write an ordinance to suit the best interests of the Village. Kelley intimated that developers should receive secondary consideration.

Mayor Tilson explained that the situation involved "whether we create PUD or not." Freeman then noted that PUD would utilize large areas of land with the strict restrictions of a subdivision, and that five zoning classifications would be allowed under PUD.

INJURED when the above car struck a parked truck with trailer while traveling Park Avenue near 18th Street was Mark L. Raborn, 214 West 15th Street, Sanford. The owner of the truck is listed as Gerald E. Staples, Orlando, but the rig was unoccupied at the time of the accident on Wednesday.

Hankins Falls By Judges' Vote In Main Event

Vic Perez Winner By Decision

By GARY TAYLOR
Herald Sports Editor

Sanford's Victor Perez decisively Clyde Hankins of Altamonte Springs, 69-56, 39-38, 59-58 to win the main event at the boxing matches staged at the Sanford Armory last night.

The fight was very conservative, with very little action until the final two rounds. Perez made the break on the bell at the start of the fifth round and both fighters stepped back. Both boys hit well in the final two rounds. Perez was staggered by a hard blow some 10 seconds before the bell to end the final round, but had accumulated enough points in the other five rounds to take the win.

The opening match of the night had to be the most exciting one on the card. Scott Clark of Casselberry, defeated Johnny Perkins of Sanford on a unanimous decision.

Both boys "came out fighting, but Clark was really 'lugging' leather" and landed several hard punches. Scott showed signs of tiring in the second and third rounds, taking several punches while his guard was down. But he retaliated with some real hard blows to win the decision.

Brett Ratliff of Altamonte Springs took a unanimous decision over Bob Barfield of Altamonte Springs, 30-27, 30-27, 30-28. The first round was rather slow, with action picking up in the final two periods.

Kip Braden won on a TKO over Chris Prey of New York City, when referee Kenny Hinson disqualified Prey for falling in all three rounds as he showed he was in better condition and had more experience in the ring.

Mac Davis scored a second round TKO over Herb Prey with the round 1:33 left. Prey was showing signs of being tired in the first round, and just couldn't make it to the bell in the second round.

Allen Dalton took a split decision over Delmar Prey, 30-28, 28-30, 30-27. Both boys are from Orlando. Dalton battered Prey in all three rounds as he showed he was in better condition and had more experience in the ring.

The first round was only 35 seconds old when Mike Burgenio took a TKO over Gary Blair of St. Petersburg. Burgenio is from Casselberry. Burgenio came out swinging from the start and soon had Blair staggering.

Charles Sweet took a unanimous decision over Jack Bruce of St. Petersburg, 30-27, 30-27, 30-27. Sweet showed good conditioning and controlled the action throughout the entire bout. Bruce landed very few good punches as Sweet was using good foot work to help ward off the blows.

Sanford's Wayne Carter and Sylvester Jordan of St. Petersburg met in heavyweight action. The first round didn't have a lot of action. Carter got in the best punches of the fight, but Jordan showed his speed and agility. As the second round got underway, the two boxers really started throwing some blows. Carter was hitting well until he was suddenly hit by a flurry of punches with 1:45 elapsed in the second round, and three in the last.

Zak Hammon took a unanimous decision over Paul Dudley, 30-28, 30-29, 30-27. Hammon was in better shape and came out hitting hard from the beginning. Hammon started firing just a little in the second round, and Dudley attacked him with a series of punches just before the bell sounded. They fought a pretty even final round, with both boys landing a fair share of punches.

On what could have been Leon Elly's final amateur fight, he defeated Bruce Harris of St. Petersburg, 29-27, 30-26, 30-27. The first round was a wild flurry of action. Elly broke through Harris' defense to land several hard punches in the second round. Elly combined some key punches with his fancy foot work to win the final round.

Seminole Junior College Treks To Lake City Gym

By JIM RICKENBACHER
Herald Sports Editor

Seminole Junior College packs up its offensive machinery and journeys north tonight. Two and a half hours later they will arrive in Lake City, home of the defending State JuCo Champs.

The mission the Raiders are undertaking isn't impossible, but truly formidable. It is simple to destroy the basketball team of Lake City, a team that has defeated SJC on the last four visits to the North Florida town.

SJC leads the series, however, as they have responded with five victories on their home floor. The game is immensely important for both squads. Why?

Number one is the immediate future. A berth in the state tournament being held in Panama City. A Raider victory would most assuredly give them this top spot. Lets examine closer these two contenders and see what makes them tick.

First is the home team, Lake City. Although not as powerful as last year's team which finished nationally, the Timberwolves are a definite threat especially in their own lair. For two years, Donald Jackson and Bernard Collier led Lake City to one state title, while remaining in tact in the win column at home.

Both superstars are now gone to Joe Williams and Furman, but they have two new stars that are fast coming over the horizon of greatness. One such star is Perry Warbington, a 6-foot-2 forward out of Price High School in Atlanta. Equally as tough is George Anderson, another 6-foot-2 forward from Atlanta.

This dynamic duo of Warbington and Anderson has given the Timberwolves a potent attack from the field. Lake City will surely miss the awesome presence of 6-foot-4 Alecio Perry, who was lost before the opening of the season. The opponents of Lake City will tremble with the absence of the giant highest man from New Jersey.

The Raiders, on the other hand, are coming on strongly as the season progresses. SJC has a victory over Jacksonville last Saturday night, which many feel was the best all-around game in the short history of the school.

So strong was the Raider attack that the home forces out-rebounded JU and 5-foot Dave Brent, 69-33. It was an overall team effort that won the tension packed tie. The SJC depth continues to play a big role on the march to victory.

Two of last year's starters, Harry Lee and Larry Ward, are now on the bench except for occasional starts.

These two threats, plus Ron Nicholson, the 6'7" center who slashed the Dolphins last weekend, gave Coach Joe Sterling one of the most powerful winning combinations in the State.

Keeping this in mind, tonight's game should be another tightly fought contest. Lake City has the edge with the home court and memories of a 20 point slugfest a few weeks back. The Raiders have depth and a district title within reach. Victory number 18 would be sweet.

Elford, whose triumphs include the 24-hour race at Daytona and Lemans, France, is a regular driver for the Porsche team in endurance racing. Schultz is coming over as a representative of NASCAR - Germany.

Pistone announced today that England's Vic Elford will drive his Ford Torino in the Feb. 14 Daytona 500. America's most prestigious event for stock sedans.

The two front row spots in the $200,000 classic will be at stake. Meanwhile, drivers began to improve slightly in their speed around the 2.5-mile oval. Two Dodge drivers, Bobby Isaac and Buddy Baker, topped the 177 m.p.h. mark for the first time. LeRoy Yarborough, the 1970 Daytona winner, and Pete Hamilton, victorious last year, cleared 176. Richard Petty did 174.344 in a Plymouth—his best time in two days of practice.

Pistone, 41, won more than 300 races mostly on short ovals in the south and midwest, and particularly around his native Chicago, before turning to car building several years ago. The Mustang Schults will drive in the Citrus 250 won a 250-mile race at Talladega, Ala., last summer with an unknown name Bill Ward at the wheel. Ward was making only his third start in a racing machine, and Pistone takes all of the credit. "Just shows what a good teacher I am," he laughed. "The guy was a natural, though, and he drove the car flat-out—just as I told him to."

Elford isn't exactly without experience in stock cars. He wrecked one at Daytona last year trying to qualify for the 500 mile race. Pistone, who quit driving about two years ago, says he plans to return to the wheel for several NASCAR races this year. "They'll be short track events, none of these high speed, big track stuff."

Fighting Seminoles Home For Saturday Night Tilt

By GARY TAYLOR
Herald Sports Editor

The Fighting Seminoles of Seminole High entertain Lake City Beach tomorrow night, look for a push to pull ahead on the winning side of the won-lost state for the first time in several weeks. The Seminoles are currently 10-10 on the season. Game time is 8 p.m., with junior varsity action slated to begin with a 6:30 p.m. tipoff.

This will be the second meeting this season between these two clubs. Sanford won the first tilt 69-34 as Satellite had not won a game at the time. Satellite Beach was led by Mike Mercer with 15 points.

The big man for Sanford in that contest was Tommy Barks. He threw in 23 points, with 22 of them coming from the floor. Ricky Grant was also in double figures with 15 points.

Sanford scored a 67-51 win over DeLand on the road in their last outing. Grant and Clifford Martin were the key figures with 19 points each. When the Seminoles first met Satellite it was before Martin had earned a role as a starter. He scored only six points throughout the entire tilt. He should make the Seminoles even stronger as they meet tonight.

Smith and Barks will start at the guard positions tonight. The two forwards will be Mitchell and Grant, with Martin starting at center.

The Seminoles have three more games before participating in the district tournament, to be hosted in Sanford. The Seminoles will meet DeLand at 9:30 on February 25. Other opening round action will pit Seabreeze against Lake City at 6 p.m. and Lynn against Gainesville at 7:45 p.m. Main land has drawn a bye from the opening night action.

This Tuesday night the Seminoles close out their regular season home, as they host Seabreeze. The game will be played earlier than scheduled due to a Seminole Junior College scheduling error. The Junior varsity game will start at 6 p.m., with the varsity game at approximately 7:45 p.m. The Junior college game would follow the prep action.

The season finale comes next Saturday night as the Seminoles travel to New Smyrna Beach, looking for their second win of the season over the Barrauco. Sloan was one of the top rebounders and scorers for each team. Frank Sloan has been brought Darwin Boothe's Baby Seminoles from the junior varsity for inlines.

No floppy hair or floppy socks were in sight Thursday night when South Carolina's John Roche went on a scoring binge which left him holding a new single game scoring total by an Atlantic Coast Conference player.

Roche's 56 points led the seventh-ranked Gamecocks to a 118-81 victory over Furman. He hit 21-of-40 field goals and 14-of-15 free throws in breaking the 16-year-old record of 53 points set by Ron Shavik of North Carolina State against William and Mary.

The victory gives South Carolina a 12-4 record. The team has suffered some embarrassing defeats this season at the hands of ACC rivals North Carolina, Maryland, Duke and Virginia. The losses plummeted the Gamecocks from the No. 2 slot in The Associated Press Top Ten.

Jacksonville, ranked sixth, pushed its season mark to 14-2 with a 102-83 victory over South Alabama. Artis Gilmore, the nation's top rebounder, added 17 to his total but South Alabama's 6-foot-8 Wally Prescott gave him a battle and got 13 of his own.

Two other ranked teams, North Carolina, No. 16, and Houston, No. 18, also were in action.

The Tar Heels had little trouble disposing of Wake Forest, 93-75, in an ACC game. George Karl and Dennis Wakeck each scored 22 points. It was conference-leading North Carolina's first victory over the Deacons since 1969. Although UNC built up as much as a 17-point margin during the second half, Wake Forest's Charlie Davis gave the Tar Heels a scare when he cut their lead to seven with eight straight points. Davis finished the contest with 33 points.

Houston struggled to a 81-75 victory over Long Island University in the second game of a doubleheader at Madison Square Garden. The winners shot a heady 63 per cent from the floor but trailed 68-29 at the half. Steve Newsome called his team out with 15 of his 18 points in the second half. Dwight Davis was top for Houston with 21 points but Ron Williams of LIU led all scorers with 29 points.

This Tuesday night the Seminoles close out their regular season home, as they host Seabreeze. The game will be played earlier than scheduled due to a Seminole Junior College scheduling error. # Roche Scores 56 In Gamecock Win

on Frosty's Fairway

by Ron Frost

The big news at Mayfair last week was the Mayfair Open which was won by twenty-five year old Dave Oakley. Oakley birdied the first hole in a sudden death play-off with veteran pro J. C. Goosie. It was an exciting tournament which saw the lead with another veteran, Earl Pennell, for most of the final day. At five under par in the end of the event, Pennell had only to par in to gain an entry in the playoff. However, he bogied the last two holes and had to settle for a tie for second place. There were 2,000 members of the club who could have finished at five under, but fell at the closing holes. We talked with quite a few of the pros, and very few complaints were heard. Most mentioned that the course itself was in excellent shape and very challenging.

The ladies at Mayfair played the first round of the Kader Tournament, which is sponsored by Kader Jewellers. Three rounds will be played using full handicap. Ruth Herron leads after the first round with a net total of 68. In second place is Mary Anderson with a 70. The second round will be played next week with the final scheduled in two weeks.

The regular weekly event of the Mayfair Women's Golf Association was held Tuesday, in which the ladies posted scores on the even numbered holes and were allowed half their handicap. In "A" Flight, there was a tie for first place between Vivian Conklin and L.H. Robertson. They both posted a 36. "B" Flight was won by Jane McKibbin with a 26. "C" Flight was taken by Bea Taylor with a 20. Betty Kurmak captured first place in "D" flight with a score of 27.

Land-O-Lakes
The well known golf trick shot artist Paul Han, Jr. will hold an exhibition at the Land-O-Lakes Golf and Country Club today, starting at 4 p.m. The exhibition is expected to last at least an hour and a half, so if you hurry, you can still see some of the wizardry. In other words, put this paper down and go.

There was a hole-in-one recorded at L. O. L. last week. Hank Hardy aced the seventh hole, which measures 160 yards. Hank used a seven iron.

Valley Forge
Bill Bowen won first place in the senior men's weekly dog-fight. Art Lund took second place, while Jack Smith and Herb Noyse tied for third.

The Valley Forge Women's Golf Association played their weekly event Tuesday, which consisted of a blind foursome, full handicap tournament. Taking first place with a net total of 88 was the team of Nancy Len Schwanz, Shirley Connor, Pottie Lukas and Goldie Tudor. Mrs. Tudor, by the way, is the publicity chairman for the Association. In second place at 90 were Millie Burch, Julia Bartos, Margaret Morwood and Bobbie Newell, wife of the club pro, Joe Newell. Winning third place with a net total of 94 were Virginia Smith, Erna Wiseman, Helen Cram and Peg King.

Mid-Florida
Mid-Florida's weekly dog-fight was won by the team of Joe Roberts and C. O. Duty. Scoring on the point system, they finished with a plus 11.

John Crisman aced the 18th hole last week when he holed out an eight iron. The 18th is a par four.

The Mid-Florida Men's Golf Association members are in the midst of qualifying rounds for the club championships. In his qualifying round, Frank Christian recorded a hole-in-one at the par three sixteenth hole, which measures 115 yards. Frank used a three iron.

Rolling Hills
Billy Gordon is the new Club champion at Rolling Hills. He defeated Eddie Miller last weekend in a thirty six hole match play. Billy is on the Seminole Jr. College golf team. One of the better amateurs in this area, Billy led the amateur division of the Mayfair Open last week turning in a fine one under par 71. He found the course much different the next day, as he kicked to almost an 80.

Last Saturday the R. H. Men's Golf Association held its monthly breakfast mixer. The tournament was played using the point system. In individual honors, Lou Munger took first place with a plus 16. Dick Corrado was second with a plus 12. Dick Copeland won third place with a plus 11, and Walt Conable took fourth with a plus 8.

In team play Ken Hudson, Bob Feagin, Walt Conable and Lou Munger won first place money with a plus 26. Winning second place with a plus nine were Webster Halvax, Dick Corrado, Jim Coleman and Jack Taylor. Third place was taken by R. N. Johnson, M. N. Jensen, Doug Ballantyne and Travis Messer with a plus seven. There was a tie for fourth place between the teams of Paul Gerstade, Charles Quailie, Frank Stuart and John Stillwell and the team of Roy Gilbreath, Jim Woodward, Bill Howers, Sr. and Dick Copeland.

There were three fellows landing in the eagles nest last week. Curley Blair made a three at the number 30 hole by using a driver, a two iron and holing out a wedge. Glen Williams made a three at the number six hole, as he toiled out a short wedge shot. Bob Tanler scored a three at the number four hole by chipping in his third shot.

Laura Evans won the President's Cup Tournament at Rolling Hills this week. For the two day total, Laura posted rounds of 106-96, and after applying her 27 handicap, netted out a 144. Her 96 was also her first time in breaking 100.

Squires Stop Floridians In Double Overtime Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It was easy for the Virginia Squires once they got the knack—five periods after the start of the American Basketball Association game against the Floridians.
The Floridians' Ira Harge sent the game into overtime at 16:10 Thursday night with a 12-12 tie, with another overtime, 12-12, with a goal at the buzzer.
The Virginians ripped off nine straight points and went on to a 18-12 victory. Barrett and Neil Johnson scored 25 points each for the Squires. Larry Jones hit for 38 and Mack Calvin for 30 for the Floridians.

Lyman Still Looking For First Metro Win

By JIM DRIESE
Herald Sports Staff

What can you say when a basketball squad has dropped its last 10 encounters? What can you say when that very same team has yet to notch a victory in the one month old season of 1971? Lyman basketball coach, Bill Moore, is wondering what he can possibly do, rather than say, to live in his ball club and improve on an already disastrous record of only four wins and 23 losses. Tonight at 8 p.m. another strong Metro foe will enter the halls of Lyman High School, as the Oak Ridge Pioneers will test the Greyhounds for the second time this season. Hopefully for Lyman, the initial pairing of these same two teams will not prove to be an omen as the Greyhounds suffered one of their worst defeats. Throughout a single season most cagers experience a few heart-breaking defeats but it could have easily gone the other way. Not so with the Lyman team. Time and time again the Blue and Gold has found themselves on the short end. This, the Hounds' initiation year in the Metro Conference, has come at a time when no less than three of its members have appeared in the state's weekly "Top 20".

Maybe The 'Fix' Is On For Hawaiian Open Golf

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Writer

HONOLULU (AP)—Somebody suggested, jokingly, that the fix was in on the first round of the $200,000 Hawaiian Open golf tournament, one of the richest events on the pro tour which is co-sponsored by United Airlines.

"I sure as hell hope it is," replied Arnold Palmer, who has a contract with the airline. Palmer, the fading charger who hasn't won in more than 70 years, had just fashioned a live-under-par 47 for a share of second place. The stroke of the pace, in Thursday's first round.

He trailed John Schlee, a 31-year-old tour regular who is seeking his first triumph. Schlee had a 66 including six birdies and no bogeys in the bright, warm sunshine that sent temperatures to the 80-degree mark.

Palmer, now 41 and the game's all-time leading money winner, was tied with Californian Cesar Samudio, a happy-go-lucky guy who scored his only victory in the Azalea Open last year. He hasn't qualified for the final two rounds of any tour.

Green of Kentucky in the 60-yard dash. The pair again are expected to be 1-2 here.

Besides Lenoir, five other defending champs are on hand including Olympian Leon Cole man, Boston School teacher in the 60-yard hurdles; Andy O'Reilly, Art Dulong, former Holy Cross ace, two-mile; Eric Howard, Morgan State, high jumper; and Ron Kulik, NYAC, one-mile walk.

FORT WORTH (AP)—The Fort Worth Cowboys Indoor Games get underway tonight and officials are already $300 richer thanks to a decision made by world record holder shot put king Randy Matson. "I'll be the coaches will be glad to hear I'm using an indoor shot," Matson chuckled.

Both the Mills boys have unofficially tied the world indoor mark of 5.9 in workouts. Dick Fasbury, Olympic high jump champion, also is scheduled to make an appearance.

TORONTO (AP)—Debbie Brill, 17-year-old sensation from Haney, B.C., should feel at home when she competes tonight in the Telegram Maple Leaf Indoor Games, hoping to equal the world record in the high jump.

For it was at last year's Games here that she became the first North American woman to jump six feet. Since then, the lanky brunette has cleared six feet on seven different occasions.

Tonight, she will be aiming for 6.2, the world record. Highly rated international stars are competing in the ninth annual Games at Maple Leaf Gardens, starting at 8 p.m. EST.

An oddity will see Rocky Thompson, top draft pick of the New York Giants of the National Football League, competing in the sprints.

A highlight should be the mile event which will match Polish star Henry Szordykowski and Chuck Lambert of Los Angeles. The pole vault will feature Bob Seagren of Los Angeles.

Two U.S. high jumpers are Tim Heikilla of the University of Minnesota, who has cleared 7.1, and Mike Bowers of Ann Arbor, Mich., with 7.0. Among the European athletes will be Joseph Phlych of Czechoslovakia, an 800 meters entrant. His chief competition will come from Tom Von Ruden of the United States. Ruden, record holder at 1:39 and 800 yards.

In 1,000 Yard Event Liquori Running Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—Marty Liquori, Villanova's talented Olympian and one of America's premier milers, runs tonight in the 1,000-yard run tonight at the 32nd annual Knights of Columbus indoor track meet.

Liquori will be looking for his third straight victory in this event over the 11-lap banked Ellipse at Madison Square Garden and his 12th consecutive victory on his favorite track.

In another feature, Dr. Delano Meriwether, the indoor sprint sensation of the season will be looking for his first triumph in the Garden.

Last week the hematologist at the Baltimore Cancer Research Center, who took up track less than a year ago at the advanced age of 27, was second to Jim shot. "I haven't picked up an outdoor shot this year."

Matson has used an outdoor shot in the past and it punches holes in the center track where sprinters and hurdlers run. Repair costs usually run about $300.

Matson said the indoor shot is "bigger and softer."

The Pampa, Tex., native and former star at Texas A&M continues his head-on duel with Al Feuerbach, an Iowan now living in Los Angeles.

Matson defeated Feuerbach at Albuquerque last weekend.

Another feature event of the two-night card is the 60-yard dash featuring the Mills brothers, star of Texas A&M—Marvin and Curtis—and the Puncny twins of Southern Methodist—Gene and Joe.

Both the Mills boys have unofficially tied the world indoor mark of 5.9 in workouts. Dick Fasbury, Olympic high jump champion, also is scheduled to make an appearance.

Oviedo Streak On The Line; Meeting Taylor And 'Cudas

By LARRY NEELY
Herald Sports Staff

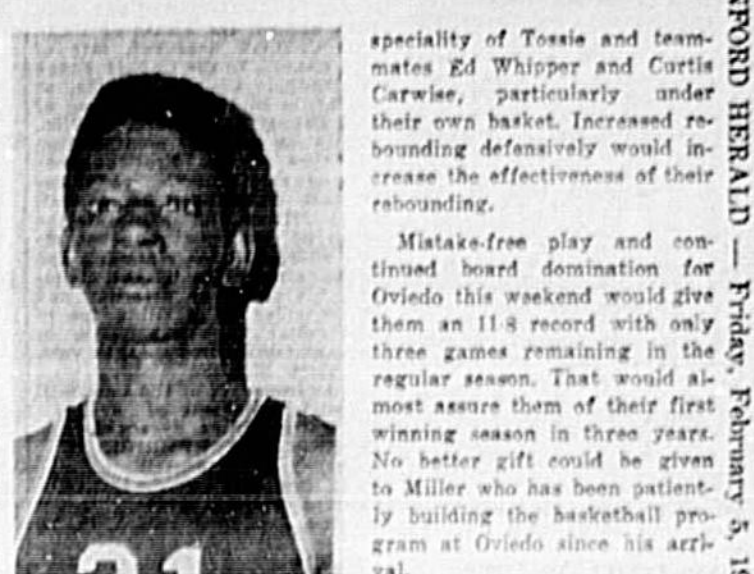

A four game winning streak is on the line for Oviedo this weekend and in all probability it will be a long game streak by late tonight. This evening the Lions, currently 9-8 for the season, will trek to Pearson to take on the Taylor High Wildcats for the second time this season. Tomorrow night Oviedo will meet the number two team in the Orange Belt Conference, New Smyrna Beach.

Oviedo has defeated both teams once before this season. Both the differences in the two victories were marked. The Lion put out a superb performance to trounce the New Smyrna Beach Buccaneers, but their game quality left much to be desired against Taylor.

Floor mistakes have been the biggest problem that Oviedo coaches Dave Miller and Charlie Walsh have had to contend with this season. Most frustrating to them has been the fact that the Lion quit can and does on occasion play good ball with few turnovers, but it is not often enough.

If Oviedo can get by the Buccaneers tomorrow night they will definitely be in the running for the OBC title. The only hurdle which may prove difficult for the Lions is the Appoka Blue Darters who are currently leading the OBC with a 5-1 conference lead followed by New Smyrna Beach with a 4-2 record. Appoka and Oviedo are the only two teams to defeat the Buccaneers and Appoka suffered their lone setback against Ocoee. Ocoee has had very personnel problems resulting in the loss of most of the varsity starters.

The key to success for a victory over the New Smyrna Five will be in controlling Roger E Hogden. Hogden has a good eye from the outside and has been averaging over 20 points per contest. The Lions held him to half his average in their previous meeting and it will be necessary for them to repeat that tomorrow night.

Oviedo's offensive efforts will center around David Tove. The 6-foot-5 junior has been averaging nearly 20 points per contest with performances on several occasions that have equaled or approached the 40 point mark.

The biggest and most colorful feather in the Lions' cap will be their rebounding capability. Domination of the boards is the

MacGregor Plays Former Team

By LARRY PALAHINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — Bruce

MacGregor walked across unopposed on the side door of Olympia Stadium, past packs of hockey fans jammed outside the Detroit dressing room seeking autographs of their favorite Red Wings.

Arm and arm with his wife Audrey they walked slowly on the icy pavement towards the dark, slush-filled parking lot.

It was a somewhat sad moment for anyone aware of its meaning. Bruce MacGregor was going home to Windsor, Ont., across the Detroit River as he had done more than 300 times before during his 11 years in the National Hockey League—all with the Red Wings.

But he was not going home as a Red Wing.

Suddenly he was a New York Ranger who only moments earlier was staking hands with his former teammates and doing his best to harass them in a 4-4 victory.

On the ice he was wearing a blue and red uniform instead of a red and white one.

Always, he showered in the uncramped, small dressing room, two rest rooms and an office away from the large, carpeted floor where he showered a few days before.

"I felt very strange," he muttered, buttoning his pale orange shirt. "I was very nervous on the ice... My stomach was in my throat for a while."

MacGregor decided to join the Rangers that very morning after saying Monday he "needed a few days to think things over." Monday he was traded by new general manager, Ned Harkness, to New York along with defenseman Larry Brown. In return Detroit got defenseman Arnie Brown and Mike Robitaille plus center Tom Miller.

DiMaggio Is Surprised By Crowd's Response

By BOB ORTMAN
Copley News Service

It's been 20 years since Joe DiMaggio swung a bat, but a packed gallery cheered lustily when he swung his golf club in a recent pro-am tourney.

"I couldn't believe it," said the graying but still trim Yankee Clipper. He is especially surprised when youngsters who never even saw "DiM'gio, C" in a box score indicate by their applause and requests for autographs that they know his name and fame.

And the guy who used to hit game-winning home runs before 50,000 fans with the aplomb of a fellow sweating a fly confessed that he has a little difficulty swallowing when he addresses a golf ball in front of 1,000 spectators.

"There was a tenseness in baseball," he recalled. "But I was in control of myself at all times. Here there is a little nervousness. They expect to see me hit a big long one, so they don't want to hit one of those little snubbers. But you know, they're all pulling for

JOE FRAZIER, former heavyweight boxing champion, aspires to reach the top of the sport recently completed an engagement in a Catakiki hotel. He is vocalist for a group called, "Joe Frazier and the Knockouts."

Attend Church This Sunday

"I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me, even if he die, shall live; and whoever lives and believes in me, shall never die."
John 11:25-26

If ever a man's job became obsolete, it was this fellow's. And what a job it was. He learned everything first, then imparted the news to others. If he had a good memory, he was usually the best-informed man in town. Who else read every release and then shouted it all over town? He also was the principal advertising medium for the tradespeople and shopkeepers. He announced their products, services and special sales.

And in most communities the town crier reminded men of the approach of the Sabbath, urging them to be present for worship at the appointed hour in the churches of the community.

The newspaper made the town crier a has-been. It has taken over all his functions and performed them more efficiently. That includes reminding men of the day of worship, and, through advertisements such as this, urging us to worship.

You see one thing hasn't changed. Man's need for God.

ENTERTAINMENT GUIDE

TV Previews

By JACK GAVER

NEW YORK (UPI) — The three television networks' scheduling for 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 9 has this unanimous feeling: Live coverage of the splashdown of the Apollo 14 moon aspening in the Pacific. The new work is on the meager side in the matter of special programs. NBC has an Abraham Lincoln Assassination documentary Friday, and Bob Hope's annual golf tourney on Saturday. CBS airs a Mojave Desert special Saturday. ABC offers a musical special on Tuesday.

FRIDAY
NBC preempts "The High Chaparral" at 7:30 for a one-hour special, "Wildfire", documentary about those who fight forest fires. Lorne Greene is narrator.

"The Name Of The Game" on NBC at 8:30 has regular Robert Stack in the top spot of a drama dealing with the mysterious death of a noted scientist in a company town. Guest players are Left Erikson, Forest Tucker, Susan Oliver, John McGiver and John Vernon.

The CBS movie at 9 screens 1967's "First To Fight," starring Chad Everett as U.S. Marine whose greatest test of heroism comes after he has won the Congressional Medal of Honor.

SATURDAY
ABC's "Wide World of Sports" at 5 covers the world of 2-man bobsled championship in Cervina, Italy, and the world cup Alpine skiing championship in Kitzbuhel, Austria.

ABC at 6:30 provides the third round of the Hawaiian Open Invitational Tourney at Honolulu.

Andy Williams guests on his NBC show at 7:30 are Raymond Burr, the Lennon Sisters, Bobby Sherman and Jerry Lee Lewis.

NBC's movie at 8:30 screens 1967's "The Night of The Igloos," starring Richard Burton, Ava Gardner and Deborah Kerr.

SUNDAY
"The American Sportsman," ABC, 4-15; Curt Gowdy, Wes Favelton seeking baracuda off Florida; a pictorial documentary on four major American bear types; singer Jimmy Dean investigates the state of the wild mustang along the Montana Wyoming border.

"CBS Children's Film Festival" 4-25; "Hobnob" story of a boy who befriends an escaped circus lion.

"NBC Experiment in Television" at 5 has "Backminister Feller on Space Ship Earth," a look at the career of this architect, engineer and inventor.

ABC at 5 begins a two-hour live telecast of play on the final round of Hawaiian Open golf in Honolulu.

NBC's Disney hour at 7:30 has the first half of a two-part adventure drama, "Bayou Boy" in which a youth seeks a silver

BEVERLY HARRIS, AS 'SHOW QUEEN,' IS SKIPPER OF THE 1971 MIAMI INTERNATIONAL BOAT SHOW, FEB. 19-24. SHE'S 24 AND 36 25-37.

Chapel In Batik

NELSON, B. C., Canada (AP) — When the sun rises over the mountains in this West Kootenay community, its light streams through the glowing colors of 16 batik panels framed in the east windows of the chapel of Notre Dame University.

Depicting scenes from the life of Christ, the panels are designed and executed by Mary Baravalle, wife of E. D. Baravalle, registrar of the university. "I tried to emulate the colors of old stained glass, using mostly strong primary colors," said Mrs. Baravalle.

Wartime Flyers Score At Plaza

Bob Newhart had a laconic description of Guaymas, Mexico, where he was before the cameras for a Mike Nichols Film starring Alan Arkin, "Catch 22."

Newhart, who plays Major Major in the motion picture based on the novel by Joseph Heller, says, "I thought I might go down to the local library, but the book was out."

Presented by Paramount Pictures in association with Filmways, Inc., "Catch 22," now at the Plaza Theatre, was directed by Mike Nichols in Technicolor and Panavision from a screenplay by Buck Henry. The film stars Arkin, Martin Balsam, Richard Benjamin, Arthur Garfunkel, Jack Gilford, Buck Henry, Newhart, Anthony Perkins, Paula Prentiss, Martin Sheen, Jon Voight and Orson Welles as Dreedle, John Calley and Martin Ransohoff produced "Catch 22."

"Catch 22" is the tale of a small group of flyers on a tight little island community in the Mediterranean. The year is 1944. The theme is timeless.

There are the winners, the losers, the opportunists, the survivors. Separately and together they are nervous, frightened, often profane and sometimes pathetic. Almost all are a little crazy. And some are just very young. One gets blown to pieces. Another coolly flies himself into a mountain. Yet another turns the Mediterranean into a gigantic market place. One is chopped in half by a passing friend. A fifth just disappears. A quiet one turns rapist and murderer, quietly. The Doctor, pronounced officially dead, wanders the base like an accusing zombie. One flyer doggedly paddles his life raft into the future, a full 16-week trip.

It is a mixture of administrative mayhem on the grand scale. And private perversity.

ARTHUR Garfunkel and Alan Arkin in a hilarious scene from "Catch-22," now playing through Tuesday at Sanford Plaza Theatre.

BARBARA Anderson, as "Officer Whitfield," is suspect in next Thursday night's "Ironside," over Channel 2, WESH-TV.

'The Hawaiians' Play The Ritz

James A. Michener described his novel "Hawaii" as "a love story between me and a bunch of islands." "The Hawaiians," the film based on the second half of that phenomenal best seller, continues the affair.

The Mirisch Production Company's epic drama stars Charlton Heston as Whip Hoxworth, grandson of the towering Kater of "Hawaii," with Geraldine Chaplin as his wife, Purity, John Philip Law as their son and the Japanese Academy Award nominee Mako, as the leper Mun Ki.

Also starred are Tina Chen as Nyuk Tsin and Alec McCowen as Micah Hale, and like "Hawaii" the film reaches the screen through United Artists, entertainment subsidiary of Transamerica Corporation. Produced by Walter Mirisch and directed by Tom Gries, it opens Sunday at the old Ritz Theatre in Panavision and Color by DeLuxe. Henry Mancini wrote its music and James R. Webb prepared the Michener original for the screen.

The present story carries the islands from its era as a missionary settlement into a thriving, prosperous twentieth century state as a background for its epochal family drama.

Elvis Hit At Drivein

They call her "Shanty Tramp," young men fight to date her. The story of a "bad girl" filmed in the back swamp country where it happened, is "Shanty Tramp" opening Sunday at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre for a four day showing.

Companion feature is "The Big Bounce" in color and starring Leigh Taylor Young. This program has the "R" code rating. Another popular triple feature program is in store for avid movie fans. Playing Thursday through Saturday, Feb. 11-13 will be an outstanding program heading the program is Elvis Presley in his latest movie, "That's The Way It Is," filmed in color. Companion features are "Hellboats," in color starring James Franciscus, and for racing fans Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward are seen in "Winning," also filmed in color. This program has the "GP" code rating.

Pamper yourself, more than just a little, and head for MICHAEL'S, the current talk of the town where the very finest of food is your dining pleasure. Choose your entree from the tempting list on the bill of fare, help yourself from the bountiful salad bar and top your meal with one of the luscious desserts featured here.

Shades of the frontier days are reflected daily and nightly at LAKE MONROE INN, the historical landmark which has captured the hearts of patrons for nearly 40 years. Food here is the finest, drinks are great and the nightly entertainment is packed with action. They all keep returning to absorb the excellent feature of the inviting inn.

BETTY AND BILL HART are still serving the high-quality food at the REMLEY FAMILY RESTAURANT, during the luncheon and dinner hours, from 11 a. m. to 8 p. m. Monday through Friday. Closed on Saturday. The Remley swings open its doors on Sunday from 12 p. m. Prepare with a home-cooked flair, all food items are delicious!

Discover distinctive dining to day, if you haven't already at either of the four dining spots operated under HOUSE OF BEEF chain. You'll further discover plush surroundings, excellent cuisine and super service at popular prices.

Live it up before it's too late at Sanford's HOLIDAY INN where the HOUSE OF STEAK offers fine dining facilities seven days a week. Also the cozy lounge is open seven days and during the daily cocktail hour, hors d'oeuvres are served free. Just in case you need catering services, Holiday Inn is your host with the most.

An evening at SEBASTIAN'S DINNER THEATER is just what the doctor ordered. Here you'll eat, drink and be merry in high fashion and be treated to a highly entertaining one-act play, straight from Broadway. Reservations are necessary and currently appearing is a smash comedy, "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?"

Now if you really are in the mood for the full uptown treatment, then THE UNROOM at TOP O' CITIZENS was designed just for you. Monday through Friday nights, DANNY'S OPERA, featuring DANNY PATTISHALL, holds the revelers captive. This is where it's all at . . . food, entertainment and atmosphere.

You just haven't lived until you've sampled some of the fine cooking at PINECREST INN. Take advantage of the specials on Monday and Friday nights . . . good old Southern fried chicken and crisp fish and chips. In the event you're having dessert problems for any occasion, just call baker, RAY GROOME, who will gladly come to your rescue.

Lots of going on at THE LUI CLUB, Sanford's most complete night spot. Your favorite beverages are expertly blended here and Tuesday-Saturday nights, LONNIE BROWN, a swinging, singing guitarist takes the limelight. He also appears during the Friday cocktail hour.

For years, FREDDIE'S has kept packing 'em in . . . the beautiful people, that is. Having the reputation as Central Florida's oldest and finest steak house, the popular spot is also renowned for chicken and seafood. Deluxe entertainment is featured nightly in the Lamplighter Lounge.

OUR SIDE OF THE GAP

By KATHY NIBLACK
I tried to think of something better to start off with this week besides "Hello, I hope you've had a good week." Well, I failed! So I just won't say anything!!!

Either things are pretty dull around here these days or I'm not hearing about the excitement. Is anyone anyone alive out there in that big world of newspaper readers?

The pledges of the Gamma Tau Omega fraternity at

SEMINOLE JUNIOR COLLEGE will be holding a car wash tomorrow beginning at 9 a.m. at the Burger Chef across from Seminole Plaza in Casselberry. Why don't you stop by and let them wash your car?

The Raiders are facing an important basketball game against Lake City this weekend. I hope that a lot of their fans will go along to give them some good support.

Dr. William Wharrie of North Florida, Jacksonville, scheduled to open September

1972, will be on campus of Seminole Junior College, Feb. 5, to talk to interested students regarding the state's newest two-year upper division university and brochures will be available. For appointments call SJC Guidance Office. The university will cater mostly to junior college graduates.

Students at LYMAN HIGH are preparing now for four one-act plays to be presented next month. Casting has just been completed—it involves approximately 55 students! Two plays, "The Frongs," and "The Importance of Being Earnest," will be directed by Mrs. Nancy Harrison, intern from FTU. Mrs. Barbara Kuhn, speech teacher at Lyman, will be directing "Cyrano de Bergerac" and "The Leadon Casket" (which she wrote herself.) Student directors include Sheryl Hull, Donna Millanovich, and Jon Waddell.

The big news on campus at FLORIDA TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY is the Board of Regents and the first Homecoming. The Board of Regents met on campus on Monday, and voted a raise in the cost of housing at FTU. (That means that dorm students have to pay more!) They also considered a raise in tuition, but as far as we know right now that wasn't approved. (Thank goodness—a lot of people are breathing easier these days!)

Plans are coming right along for the Homecoming festivities which will begin on February 11 (that's next week! I'll give you more details on that in next week's column.

The campus cafeteria (which is usually pretty gloomy) was brightened up last week by an appearance by "Him, He and Me" — a popular folk trio. The trio is composed of Bob Sanders, Curt Walters, and Mike Hartsolf. They are currently appearing at the Clearwater Point Hilton Inn, and will soon be touring other college campuses. This is their second visit to the FTU campus.

Students are reminded to hurry up and make your deposit on your Pegasus yearbook. Only 1,000 copies will be printed, so there is a limited supply.

A representative of the Orlando chapter of the March of Dimes was on campus Tuesday to encourage students to "Walk a Mile for the Life of a Child." A 20-mile march is being organized for March 6 by the March of Dimes to raise money for birth defect research. Money will be raised through sponsors who agree to pay a certain amount of money for every mile a volunteer walks. The walk will begin at the Fla. National Bank on Orange Ave. and will continue to Colonial Drive, SR 436, and back to the bank.

Elizabeth Anne Brandt of Sanford has received mid term recognition from Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Tex., for having completed requirements for a Ph. D. degree in anthropology. She will be among some

1,800 degree recipients from SMU's three graduating classes of the 1970-71 academic year who will be invited to participate in public commencement exercises on May 23.

Ingrid Burton of Sanford is on the dean's academic honors list at Florida Southern College, Lakeland, having compiled a "B" plus average during the first semester.

She is a junior, majoring in Spanish, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Burton, 1106 Locust Ave.

Another blow in the never-ending battle against pollution . . . The Senior High UMYF of Grace United Methodist Church collected approximately 5000 aluminum cans which they added to the Boy Scout's bin at Zayre's in Casselberry. Participating were Wayne Peters, Denise Arenett, Jeanne Noll, Arnon Rossman, Danny Lykens, and Robbie Thompson.

The Seminole County Business School (adult-vocational business school) has moved from its former location to the Vocational - Technical Building on the SEMINOLE JR. COLLEGE Campus. The school offers training in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, office machines, filing, business English, business law, and IBM key-punch. Registration for the second semester begins Feb. 1. Students may enroll anytime in classes except Shorthand 1. Students interested in this course should enroll the week of Feb. 1. Registration fee is $10.00. The student must buy his own books.

The Division of Extended Services of SEMINOLE JUNIOR COLLEGE provides additional opportunities for young people and adults to pursue their program of education through the establishment of Central Adult High School. The program is designed for people who are employed on a full-time or part-time basis, who are unable to attend a regular public school day program. Adult education programs offered by SJC are: Central Adult High School, Business School, Area Vocational School, Community Service courses, reading laboratory, workshops and seminars, and Adult Basic Education.

Farewell for this week. It was nice writing to you. Hope you enjoyed it! ## YOUTH BEAT

THE NATIONAL REPORT ON WHAT'S HAPPENING

By ROGER DOUGHTY

PLAYING GAMES — While John Lennon destroys the wholesome Beatle image in the pages of a current edition of Rolling Stone by saying, among other things, that their tours in the states in the early '60s involved all kinds of wildness in various hotel suites, the ex-musical director of the ex-Beatles recounts another side of the coin. In New York recently to attend a concert by Sea Train, his latest group, George Martin told Youth Beat of a ski trip to St. Moritz. "Everyone in the hotel lobby was wondering what orgies were going on upstairs," says George, "while all the time we were simply playing Monopoly." Memo to John: Go directly to jail, do not pass Go, do not collect $200.

THE GAME OF THE NAME — O.K., all you experts in rock trivia, here's a challenge. One of the biggest stars on the rock scene these days uses a phony name (which most folks don't do these days). His real name is Reginald Dwight. Can you tell us who is doing the masquerading? Send those cards and letters to us, care of your local paper. The first dozen or so correct answers that we get will be rewarded with something or other, which we'll think up during the next few days. Here's a piece of free advice — it isn't Joe Cocker.

NEWS NOTES — NBC's magazine news show, First Tuesday, is putting together a segment on "Pearl," the final Janis Joplin album . . . The movie made during Joe Cocker's tour with his Mad Dogs and Englishmen is previewing in Hollywood. The rest of the world will see it soon . . . The Moody Blues are working on a new album to be released this spring when they tour the United States again . . . Mrs. Steve Madaio (he's the trumpet blower for Paul Butterfield's fine group) just presented Steve with a baby girl, Dani.

BOOK NOOK — If you dig acting and/or actors and their roles (and stuff like that) pick up on "Broadway," a new book by Brooks Atkinson, who was drama critic for the New York Times for 30 years. Give a lot of insight into some great plays and actors of all time. If you're thinking about trying out for the drama club, it's a must.

DEALER IN REAL ESTATE that's not for real is George Harrison, one of the Beatles who rode high on the record lists when this photo was taken in 1964.

BREAKING EGGS — Should everyone go to college? Was a time when most people thought so, but a lot of people are beginning to wonder. Seems like vocational schools may be the answer for kids who can't go the college route and, according to Irving Goldstein, president of Charron-Williams Systems, there are some good ones around to choose from if you're interested in being a secretary, junior accountant, medical assistant, technician, data processor or something like that. We can fill you in if you're interested in more details.

Job Seeking Needs Planning

By ERNIE HOOD

Harry A. of Tacoma, Wash., writes: "I will be getting out of school this year and plan to start looking for a job but I'm not sure how to go about it. Do you have any hints?"

Dear Harry: You want a job. And you feel that somewhere some employer has precisely the job you want—one that fully utilizes your knowledge and abilities and provides challenges and opportunities for advancement.

To find that job especially in the kind of tight job market we have today, you need to carry out a well-planned job search. You have a product to sell—your knowledge, skills and experience. What you need to know is how to market it effectively.

For example—Self-Appraisal—As the first step in merchandising your talents, you should decide exactly what your qualifications are. You need a detailed inventory of your background and experience so that you know exactly what assets you have to offer an employer.

If you are marketing your skills for a professional or office position, the inventory will contain the information you need to prepare your resume. If you are looking for work in a skilled trade or other field in which resumes are not expected, your inventory will help you decide how to present your qualifications at a job interview and be your source for the facts, dates and other information you will need to give an employer.

Preparing a Resume—If you are seeking a professional, technical, administrative or managerial job, you will need a resume. One is also needed in applying for many clerical and sales positions.

An effective resume gets your foot in the door. It often leads to personal interviews you might not otherwise have.

Letter of Application — In many fields of work, writing a letter of application is the customary way to ask for a personal interview. This is particularly true in the following cases: 1. When the employer you wish to contact lives in another city or town; 2. As a cover letter when you are mailing resumes; 3. When you are answering a want ad.

Sources of Job Information—Your first source of job information will be friends, neighbors and relatives. Through their work or social and business contacts, they may know of opportunities not listed by regular sources.

At the same time you consult personal sources, you will want to explore the usual channels of job information. From many sources you will select those most appropriate for you. Which ones they are will depend on the type of job you want, where you live and want to work, and the demand in your field.

Planning Your Time — Even if you are under no economic pressure to find a job quickly, starting your search promptly is a wise policy. Delays may hurt your chances of finding the job you want. Job Interview — A job interview is your showcase for merchandising your talents. During the interview an employer judges your qualifications, appearance and general fitness for his job opening. It is your opportunity to convince him that you can make a real contribution to his firm.

GLENN JONES of Sanford will be a featured soloist with Florida Southern College Concert Band Feb. 11 at 8 p.m. at the Sanford Civic Center to benefit the Good Samaritan Home. Glenn, a sophomore music education major, will perform Mozart's "Concerto for French Horn KKV 447". He is president of the concert band.

Public Service Careers Opened To 100 In Miami

Careers in education, recreation, community relations and social service have been opened to 100 poor and unemployed adults in the Miami, Florida area under the U.S. Department of Labor's Public Service Careers (New Careers) programs.

The Labor Department's Regional Manpower Administrator William U. Norwood of Atlanta said today that Federal funds in the amount of $344,680 have been approved for the project, sponsored by Dade County. (PN N-1175-12)

Public Service Careers seeks to relieve critical national shortages of professional service personnel in health, education, and public welfare by opening up jobs with built-in advancement opportunities to unemployed adults. These persons are trained as aides to libraries, teachers, nurses, medical technicians, social workers, and police officers.

They free professionals from performing tasks that do not challenge their full professional capabilities. At the same time the New Careerists receive the training and education they need to enable them to move up a "career ladder" to positions which demand greater skill and pay higher wages. To be eligible, an individual must be at least 22 years old, unemployed, and generally come from a family whose annual income is below the poverty line as defined by the Manpower Administration.

OUR SIDE OF THE GAP

By KATHY NIBLACK
I tried to think of something better to start off with this week besides "Hello, I hope you've had a good week." Well, I failed! So I just won't say anything!!!

Either things are pretty dull around here these days or I'm not hearing about the excitement. Is anyone anyone alive out there in that big world of newspaper readers?

The pledges of the Gamma Tau Omega fraternity at

SEMINOLE JUNIOR COLLEGE will be holding a car wash tomorrow beginning at 9 a.m. at the Burger Chef across from Seminole Plaza in Casselberry. Why don't you stop by and let them wash your car?

The Raiders are facing an important basketball game against Lake City this weekend. I hope that a lot of their fans will go along to give them some good support.

Dr. William Whartia of North Florida, Jacksonville, scheduled to open September

1972, will be on campus of Seminole Junior College, Feb. 8, to talk to interested students regarding the state's newest two-year upper division university and brochures will be available. For appointments call SJC Guidance Office. The university will cater mostly to junior college graduates.

Students at LYMAN HIGH are preparing now for four one-act plays to be presented next month. Casting has just been completed—it involves approximately 55 students! Two plays, "The Frongs," and "The Importance of Being Earnest," will be directed by Mrs. Nancy Harrison, intern from FTU. Mrs. Barbara Kuhn, speech teacher at Lyman, will be directing "Cyrano de Bergerac" and "The Leadon Casket" (which she wrote herself). Student directors include Sheryl Hull, Donna Millanovich, and Jon Waddell.

The big news on campus at FLORIDA TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY is the Board of Regents and the first Homecoming. The Board of Regents met on campus on Monday, and voted a raise in the cost of housing at FTU. (That means that dorm students have to pay more!) They also considered a raise in tuition, but as far as we know right now that wasn't approved (Thank goodness—a lot of people are breathing easier these days!). Plans are coming right along for the Homecoming festivities which will begin on February 11 (that's next week! I'll give you more details on that in next week's column).

The campus cafeteria (which is usually pretty gloomy) was brightened up last week by an appearance by "Him, He and Me" — a popular folk trio. The trio is composed of Bob Sanders, Curt Walters, and Mike Hartsoff. They are currently appearing at the Clearwater Point Hilton Inn, and will soon be touring other college campuses. This is their second visit to the FTU campus.

Students are reminded to hurry up and make your deposit on your Pegasus yearbook. Only 1,000 copies will be printed, so there is a limited supply.

A representative for the Orlando chapter of the March of Dimes was on campus Tuesday to encourage students to "Walk a Mile for the Life of a Child." A 20-mile march is being organized for March 6 by the March of Dimes to raise money for birth defect research. Money will be raised through sponsors who agree to pay a certain amount of money for every mile a volunteer walks. The walk will begin at the Fla. National Bank on Orange Ave. and will continue to Colonial Drive, SE 436, and back to the bank.

Elizabeth Anne Brandt of Sanford has received mid-term recognition from Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Tex., for having completed requirements for a Ph. D. degree in anthropology.

She will be among some

1,800 degree recipients from SMU's three graduating classes of the 1970-71 academic year who will be invited to participate in public commencement exercises on May 23.

Ingrid Burton of Sanford is on the dean's academic honors list at Florida Southern College, Lakeland, having compiled a "B" plus average during the first semester.

She is a junior, majoring in Spanish, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Burton, 1105 Locust Ave.

Another blow in the never-ending battle against pollution . . . The Senior High UMYF of Grace United Methodist Church collected approximately 5000 aluminum cans which they added to the Boy Scout's bin at Zayre's in Casselberry. Participating were Wayne Peters, Denise Arenett, Jeanne Noll, Armon Rossman, Danny Lykens, and Robie Thompson.

The Seminole County Business School (adult-vocational business school) has moved from its former location to the Vocational - Technical Building on the SEMINOLE JR. COLLEGE Campus. The school offers training in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, office machines, filing, business English, business law, and IBM key-punch. Registration for the second semester begins Feb. 1. Students may enroll anytime in classes except Shorthand I. Students interested in this course should enroll the week of Feb. 1. Registration fee is $10.00. The student must buy his own books.

The Division of Extended Services of SEMINOLE JUNIOR COLLEGE provides additional opportunities for young people and adults to pursue their program of education through the establishment of Central Adult High School. The program is designed for people who are employed on a full-time or part-time basis, who are unable to attend a regular public school day program. # Farm Property Selling Rules Are Tightened

JACKSONVILLE (Sp.)—The sale of most farm property will still result in favorable capital gain tax treatment, but, under the Tax Reform Act of 1969, part of the profit from sale of farm land might be ordinary income. R. J. O'Donnell Jr., district director for Florida, said today.

The law allows a current deduction for soil and water conservation expenses and land clearing costs. But any gain arising from the sale of farm land within five years after it was acquired must be reported as ordinary income of tax returns to the extent of soil or water conservation expenditures and land clearing costs deducted for tax years after 1967.

No ordinary income need be reported to the extent of these expenditures if the land is held 18 months or more. O'Donnell said, but part must be reported if the land is sold during the sixth to ninth year after it was acquired.

The new rule applies only to the sale of land after 1968. Other changes in the law pertain to the sale of livestock. O'Donnell said. For the sale of cattle and horses held for draft, breeding, or dairy purposes to qualify as a capital gain, they must be held for at least two years instead of one year, as was the case under previous law. The new rule applies only to animals acquired after 1969.

Additional information on sales of farmland and livestock is contained in IRS Publication 225, "Farmer's Tax Guide," available free from county agricultural agents or by mailing a post card to District Director, Internal Revenue Service, 400 W. Bay Street, Jacksonville, Florida 32202.

Now Is Time To Serve Pork

By LOUISE L. GILL, Home Economics Agent

NOW IS THE TIME for pork in your family meals. The tempting aroma of crisp bacon fills the air. A succulent baked ham sets the mood for the holiday evening board. Butterflied pork chops (boneless double chops) offer an attractive tasty treat for guests. Sounds good, doesn't it? If you haven't had pork on your menu lately, you may wonder why not. It's a good time to buy pork. Besides — you should think twice about pork because it is high in nutritive value and is an especially rich source of thiamin (vitamin B1) according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It also supplies other B vitamins and iron — and is a good source of protein too. Even calorie watchers can include pork in their meals because a three ounce serving of roast pork contains 130 calories, and a fat trimmed off) contains approximately 205 calories.

To aid in selecting and enjoying your favorite cut of pork, a Home and Garden Bulletin called "Pork in Family Meals" may be ordered free from the Office of Information, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. 20250.

MEDITERRANEAN PORK

6 servings, 3/4 cup each

1 lb. margarine
1 lb. Onion, finely chopped
1/2 cup celery, chopped
10-ounce package French-style green beans, frozen
2 cups pork, cooked, diced
2 cans (16 1/2 ounces each) condensed cream of mushroom soup
1/2 tsp oregano
pepper (as desired)
1 tsp. (if desired) Pimento, chopped
1/2 cup roasted peanut halves
Melt fat in a large saucepan. Add onion, celery, and beans. Cover and place over low heat to thaw beans.

Simmer, stirring occasionally, for about 15 minutes until beans are tender. Add remaining ingredients, except nuts. Simmer 10 minutes longer to blend flavors. Stir in peanuts before serving.

Raiders Clinch Go At State Tourney

By GARY TAYLOR, Herald Sports Editor

LAKE CITY — "Panama City — here we come."

That was the cry heard from the Seminole Junior College dressing room Friday night after the Raiders stopped the Lake City Timberwolves 84-78, clinching a berth in their fourth state tournament in five years of play. They came out as state champs on one of the three occasions, winning the crown in the 1968-69 season.

The Raiders are now 5-0 in the division with Lake City 5-3, having completed their division slate. The Raiders have three division games, all at home, against St. Johns, Florida Junior College and Central Florida Junior College. The Raiders already have defeated each of these teams on the road this season and, on top of that, haven't lost a home tilt in some three years.

One win in these three games will give the Raiders the division championship. It would place them against the division 4 second place team, either Indian River or Broward. On the other hand, the Timberwolves, as the second place team in division 2, would be forced to meet pre-tournament favorite Brevard, the state's no. 1 team, in the opening round.

The Raiders will carry the most balanced squad ever into the state tournament. In the past, the team was paced by the individual efforts of players such as Vernell Ellzy and Simon Harper.

This season there have been no individual stars game after game. Game honors have been split between several outstanding players. The bench also has been strong and could prove a key factor in the state tournament, set for Feb. 25-27 in Panama City. The winner advances to the regional tournament, with that winner going to the nationals.

By JOHN A. SPOLSKI

By now you know... our tip of Friday... regarding Attorney Tom Freeman's selection as one of the Outstanding Five Young Men of Florida. We're all proud.

However, don't overlook the excellent resume prepared by John Morris, president of the Sanford Seminoles Jaycees. One of the best I've ever read... and certainly an important part in helping the judges make their decision.

Let's put those "rumor mongers" to bed... once and for all. Look, don't call and tell me that they're getting ready to close Cuba Boats, etc., and that the new management is only of a temporary nature, etc.

For your information... all of their hourly employees who've been there for at least 60 days are now going to receive an immediate 8 per cent cost of living boost.

Newly appointed President Dick Dunning impresses me as one who is in the know, and as further, a gentleman who could contribute greatly to all of Seminole County with his time and talents.

SOUNDS SIMPLE ENOUGH... if they have so many persons incarcerated in the state's jails, then why don't they utilize them and help the ecological bit at the same time?

Used to be a time when we'd see the prisoners cutting the grass along the roads, etc. Why not have 'em picking up the cans and bottles?

All those who attended the annual meeting/banquet of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce Friday evening enjoyed hearing Commissioner L. J. Andolsek - U. S. Civil Service Commission. Especially that part dealing with the noisy minority....

"They have managed to learn every four-letter word at an early age... that is, every four-letter word except two of the most important, namely: W.O.B.K. and S.O.A.P."

"Let's supplement the sex education with some education in four-letter words featuring those two. This could make all the difference."

Hatred is not diminished by hatred at any time. Hatred is diminished by love — this is the eternal law. — the Dhammapadam

Apollo 14 To Land Tuesday

(Detailed Story On Page 1B)

For Traffic In Altamonte

Signal Resolution Seen

By MARION BETHIA, ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — Mayor Lawrence Swofford's home of contention against the Seminole County Commission relative to solid state versus conventional traffic signals at SR 436 and Longwood Avenue, may find resolution at tomorrow's meeting of the County Commission.

Swofford has contended that the Commission is "willfully holding up installation for six to eight months, but insisting on solid state controls instead of conventional controls."

Listed upon the agenda tomorrow is a discussion regarding solid state versus vacuum tube traffic signals.

Another issue which Mayor Swofford, as well as a barrage of distraught mothers of the Altamonte Elementary School children, has charged the Commission, will be reported by County Engineer William Bush. Bush had been requested by the Commission to ascertain the traffic conditions at SR 436 and Hattaway Drive, as well as to recommend temporary solutions to alleviate the problem. These would include lengthening the school zone, installing manually controlled signals, and possibly placing an additional crossing guard. Bush will give a resume of his recommendations tomorrow.

Road department hiring practices is listed upon the agenda, and a matter relating to this item was placed before the commission two weeks ago when a letter was received from a group of citizens alleging discriminatory practices in this department, in that blacks were relegated to positions of menial responsibility. The county personnel board will report upon hiring practices.

An annexation bill which Chairman Greg Drummond has proposed for resolution to the Orange-Seminole legislative delegation will be resolved with a decision tomorrow. Drummond stressed last week that a model bill had been introduced in the state legislature last year, outlining annexation practices which were equitable, but was defeated due to encompassing the entire state. Drummond suggests that this same bill be introduced relating only to Seminole County.

There will be a discussion relative to improved regular maintenance of the road program for unimproved roads.

Haoli Smith will appear before the board with a request from the Sports Car Club of America for use of the Osceola Airfield. The airfield is currently being utilized as the county's central sanitary landfill.

There will be a decision regarding repairs to the Agricultural Building.

Chief Sanitarian Val Robbins will report relative to allegations of the county polluting of the Wekiva River and Cranes Roost. This allegation stems from Mayor Swofford who contends that the pollution is emanating from the Hi Acres plant.

There will be a discussion of platting of Winter Woods Units.

4 and 5. Only one public hearing is scheduled at 11 a.m. This is a continued appeal against a decision of the Board of Adjustment in granting a special exception to park a trailer in an M-1 zone.

There will be a bid opening at 11 a.m. upon one compact four-door sedan with no trade-in.

Freeman Wins High JC Honors

By JANE CASSELLBERRY

A graduate of the University of Florida law school, he is a partner in the law firm of Stenstrom, Davis and McIntosh, and a member of the American and Federal Bar Associations. He is a 32nd degree Mason and an active member of First Presbyterian Church of Sanford. He and his wife, Beverly, have two daughters.

Thomas G. Freeman Jr., Sanford attorney and Casselberry resident, was honored Saturday by the Florida Jaycees in Gainesville when he was chosen as one of the top five Outstanding Young Men of 1970 in the state.

He was nominated for the honor by the Sanford Seminoles Jaycees, of which he is a member, because of his many outstanding accomplishments both in his chosen profession and civic endeavors.

Only 33 years old, Freeman has distinguished himself in the few years he has lived in the county. He has served as municipal judge for Casselberry and North Orlando and is president of the Florida Municipal Judges Association.

He is past president of the Sanford Lions Club, Legal Counsel, Florida Jaycees, treasurer of the Seminole Hospital Eye Bank Association, president of United Cerebral Palsy of Central Florida, past president Little Red School House, on board of directors Children's Home Society, chairman legislative and national affairs committee and projects committee for the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce, and is on the board of governors for the Florida Bar, young lawyers section.

He was the recipient of the Distinguished Service Award from the Sanford Seminoles Jaycees, was listed in the 1970 edition of both Outstanding Young Men of America and Personalities of the South.

Homecoming Set At FTU

By KATHY NIBLACK

FTU's first Homecoming committee.

FTU's student government is sponsoring the first homecoming, which will consist of activities such as selection of the first Homecoming Queen, a fun road rally, skits, booths or tents manned by FTU groups, and "knights contests."

The tentative schedule is as follows:

Thursday — Queen elections; queen candidate presentation; showing of the movie "True Grit."

Friday — Queen elections; luncheon concert; "Nite of Knights" (skits, wrestling meet and street dance); medieval festival (booths or tents).

Saturday — Open House; medieval festival; fun road rally; basketball game; homecoming dance; coronation of the Homecoming Queen.

"Naturally, we are all looking forward eagerly to this our first Homecoming. We would like to invite all interested area residents to attend any of the events if they so desire," said Dr. Eric Brown, vice president for student affairs.

TOM FREEMAN... Outstanding

On the agenda at the Casselberry Council meeting at 7:30 p.m. today will be the annexation of the Habbitt and Grayson properties; Florida Power franchise; salary for firefighter; and appointments to the Park and Recreation Boards.

Shade Trees Popular In Population Shift

By DAVID DEVOLL, Extension Agent

TREES

With the shift to a greater urban population in Florida, there is a much greater demand for shade trees in new "subdivided" subdivisions and on city streets generally.

Many cities are beginning to realize the long-term community values of a municipal program for the control and development of street trees. A growing number of cities are establishing carefully planned forestry programs.

Some of the benefits cities derive from trees are:

1. Trees relieve the drabness of the economic value of street trees hardly can be ignored. Streets, often hiding unattractive buildings.
2. Trees provide cooling shade, greatly improving living conditions.
3. Trees help to reduce traffic noises, deflect glare and heat, and cut down wind velocities.
4. Trees purify the air by trapping dust, absorbing carbon dioxide, and releasing oxygen and moisture into the atmosphere.
5. Trees help to develop a sense of mental well-being, comfort and civic pride.

No better illustration can be had than a personal comparison of a beautiful tree-lined street with a street that is barren.

Mother Nature Levels Insect Populations

By FRANK J. JASA, County Agricultural Agent

Very often things that could happen provide a more interesting story than things that do happen. For instance, insects sometimes multiply at a really fantastic rate. Yet Mother Nature takes into account from the very beginning that more than 95% of the offspring will die an unnatural death; they are devoured by natural enemies, or fall victim to diseases and "accidents". Yet the number left over is often more than large enough to inflict injury upon humans, domestic animals and crops. Recently an entomologist worked out how many offspring a pair of house flies would produce if there were no natural losses. He arrived at a most astonishing result. Assuming that each female lays 120 eggs, which in fact it does on average, and that the house fly has 7 generations a year, which it does in many areas, by the end of the year the "forebears" would be able to boast a progeny of no less than 5,308,720,960,000. As in other words after 14 generations, the total weight of these offspring would be more than 78,000 tons. This becomes even more fantastic on working out the number of offspring produced after 2 years in other words after 14 generations. It would then amount to 15.67 quadrillions, and would weigh 219 million million tons.

3 Orlando Youths Jailed On B & E Felony Charges

By BILL SCOTT

Three Orlando youths, including a 16-year-old juvenile, are in Seminole County jail on breaking and entering to commit a felony charge brought after Casselberry police stopped the trio's car near Maitland.

According to the report filed by Sgt. H. L. Smith, county sheriff's department, the three, including William Curtis Hitchcock, 17, Gary Ray Gibson, 18, and the juvenile were jailed after Gilbert Hughson and John E. Hendy, Casselberry police, stopped a car and discovered several guns taken in a burglary of Land and Water Sports Center at Fern Park.

Sergeant Smith was subsequently called to the scene by the officers and took custody of the trio, who were removed to jail in lieu of $10,000 bonds each.

Approximately $3,000 in home furnishings, including TV, stereo, watches and clothing were removed Saturday night from the Altamonte Springs home of Christine Bush.

Deputy Hirschel Gilbert investigated the entry at the woman's 415 Magnolia Street home.

TORNADO-ALERT hung over Central Florida for hours Sunday afternoon as residents heard reports of damage at Gulf Breeze (page 7A) and hail "the size of baseballs" at DeLand. Rainfall measured officially 3.16 inches at Sanford. This photo by Associate Editor John A. Spolski was taken at 4 p.m. Sunday looking north from State Road 46 toward DeLand. Notice the making of a tornado hanging down from the clouds at the right center of the photo.
