THE TOWN SPIRIT

There is everything in the town spirit and by your spirit are you known to the stranger within your gates. If the resident of a city is imbued with hore and optimism it is no difficult matter to convince the stranger that you have a good town because you believe in it yourself, but having no faith in your town boil can you expect the visitor to have any?

There are people in Sanford and Inchily they are very few who would actually induce a stranger to locate elsewhere by rutting on their pensimistic face and airing their perpetual grouch upon all occassions. These groundes are against the government, against the successful business men, against good men in office, against the newspaper and against anything and everythirg and usually the world looks upon them in the same manner once they are uncovered, but the stranger has no means of identification and takes them for men of prominence in their community. The following from the New Smyrna News describes this breed accurately in the following:

"There is one thing about our people that has impressed me disagreeably, and that is this: They are not proud enough of their own town. Many of them not only fail to boost-they actually knock. Now, this is a very ditressing state of affairs to me. We have, in reality, a splendid city-one of the fine t in the south! Why can't we realize this and talk up for the town, instrud of running it down?"

These plain' words were uttered at a meeting, of the board of trade of a principent southern city a few nights ago by a leading merchant. What be said be felt very deeply. The occision was a good one for such heart-toheart talks. The only objection was that the town knockers were not there and rould not hear the speaker's honest and carried words, grouches, as a rule, do not attend the meetings of commereizh bodies, where progressive citiz na rida, three days, is wideawake and prospering, and its people believe tr. It. Very few of them are actually at a standstill, and even the majority of these lacking in town spill are in reality, making steady progress.

The average city in Florida has town characterized by anti-published, surbounded faith in their community, that the visitor is quickly and profoundly impressed. These are the cities that are growing faster than their neighbors and will continue to grow faster. That is the kind of a town to tie to

The enterprising liftle city of Palatka is working vigorously through its Board of Trade to make a success of the approaching Mississippi to Atlantic Inland Waterway Convention to be held in that city Nov. 17-18. . The way we neglect our inland waterway facilities and fail to use them for transportation purposes at an immense annual saving in money is something amezing. To improve those waterways and make them navigable, for small boats would be to largely release the Florida farmer from depencence upon the railroads for the transportation of wild ducks and there is no foundation his produce, and as Secretary Folsom, of the Palatka Board of Trade says, of the Florida press to the effect that it would give a man with row boat, a actor boat or a steamboat a ffee right of way to tout his own goods to

Two dollars deposited weekly with this bank from the time your child enters the Primary School until he or she graduates from the High School will provide the necessary means to insure their support through the four college years at any of the larger universities.

The Peoples Bank of Sanford is an absolutely safe institution and as such extends to you all its facilities for the proper encouragement in saving your money for future purposes.

It is quite another thing to make them so that they are always better than all other soda crackers, always of unvarying goodness.

SIML OF TWO THOUSAND DOL LARS WILL BE RAISED AY SPECIAL PINANCE COMMITTEE

One of the largest and most enthuslastic meetings of the Sanford Commercial Club that has been held since county division became a fact, was held in the city hall last Tuesday night. The meeting was called to order by president Lake who stated that the full work of the club would be taken up and advertising being the main theme for discussion the matter was discussed thoroughly. Many good talks were made on the growth and prosperity of the city and it was the sense of those present that the city should be advertised by the printing of booklets and in various ways that seem good to the committee on advertising and the club. The members present agreed to raise a sum of $2000 for publicity work and the following special committee on financing and with power to raise this sum was named by President Lake as follows: J. N. FREE TRANSPORTATION Merchants of Sanford May Take Means of Assisting Out of town Shoppers every live merchant has or ought to have and in this respect Sanford merchants are always to the fore. Since moving the union station from the center of the city there are many out of town customers who would appreciate a cheaper fare to and from the depot. especially the customers who formerly traded here when the depot was in the center of business and one could step from the trains and be in the shopping

In order to obviate the paying of fare to and from the depot it has been suggested that the merchants put on a busline that would give the out of town shoppers a free ride, provided they purchase a given amount of goods. Such a plan has been in vogue in other cities and in many cities where the country roads are good the merchants have free bus lines starting from neighboring towns each day, going to the city and return the same night, giving the country people. a free trip and all day to do their shopping. Some of these transportation lines bring in patrons from a distance of twelve or more unles and the idea has stimulated trade in the cities that have tried it. The idea here would be to This committee will go after this sum transport the people to and from the and if any business man or any citizen depot and would place Sanford in the station was moved from the shopping
