The New Automobile Models

Reports emanating from New York City where the National Automobile Show is now being held indicate that designers and manufacturers have spared neither money nor ingenuity this year in presenting motor cars which are radically different in lines, comfort, and general performance, from anything ever seen on four wheels before. It seems that the makers have vied with each other in perfecting cars which will render those of only a year or two ago absolutely obsolete.

The fashion czars of women's styles have learned long ago that if they are to help the dress manufacturers and retailers, they must change the styles of wearing apparel as radically from year to year that anyone wearing a last year's model will look terribly out of date. So that is what they do. If a person is going to be fashionable, she must throw away last year's frocks, regardless of how little they may be worn, and replenish her wardrobe with the new models.

It looks as if the automobile makers have taken a hint from the fashion czars. Though last year witnessed a decided jump in automobile sales from the depression low, nevertheless the big guns of the motor industry know only too well that many a car, long since slated for the junk yard, is still serving a useful purpose for its driver. The highways are literally covered with models of five or ten years ago. The motor magnates have evidently decided to bring out a car which will emphasize this antiquity.

For the new automobiles scarcely look like automobiles at all. Streamlining has been so developed and extended that "airflow" has taken its place. Now "airflow" in case you hadn't heard, is what they are calling the new lines of automobiles which are designed to overcome all wind resistance. Everything is rounded and curved and sloped and tapered, until the whole car looks like a giant raindrop rapidly going west. The "airflow" principal not only overcomes the roar of the wind against the car but also facilitates perfect ventilation within.

Another radical departure, about which we expect to hear a great deal during the next year or two, is what is called individual front wheel suspension. These "knees," on which each of the front wheels operates separately from the other, enable the driver to negotiate bumpy roads without the annoyance of the "shimmy" and the inconvenience of tossing. Each wheel follows its own road contour, and takes its own bumps without communicating the shock to the other wheel or to the car and passengers.

Increased speed and power are of course other features commonly emphasized. The length of most of the cars, particularly in the low priced fields, has also been increased, an inch in the front, giving more room for the driver's legs, and two or three inches in the back. The engine generally is a little farther forward making the back seat ride more comfortably, while the new complete automatic starting device is an especially popular feature.

All in all the new cars are something of which the designers can well be proud. They undoubtedly contain as much selling power as floating power. The new year augurs well for the motor industry.

Unemployment Figures

The United States is leading the world in the elimination of unemployment, according to statistics compiled by the International Labor Office. A comparison between the last quarter of 1933 and that of the previous year shows a decline in unemployment in thirteen leading nations of the world: the United States, Canada, Chile, Germany, England, Hungary, Australia, Belgium, Finland, Yugoslavia, Rumania, Denmark and the Irish Free State.

With 1929 taken as the base year, with the index of employment marked at 100 as normal, the International Labor Office finds that the rise in the United States from October of 1932 to October of 1933 was from 59.8 to 73.5. In England the index rose from 91.6 to 97.5. While unemployment in England is not nearly so acute as it is in this country, it should be noted that the degree of improvement has been greater here than abroad.

Figures for November of 1932 and 1933 indicate an increase of the index in Canada from 71.1 to 76.6. In Japan the index rose from 81.8 in August of 1932 to 90 in August of 1933. In Italy the index for October, 1932, was 70.5 while for the same month of 1933 it was 78.5.

The communique of the I. L. O. also pointed out while 11,586,000 persons were unemployed in the United States in October of 1932, that figure had been reduced to 10,076,000 by October of 1933. It is estimated that it has been further reduced by approximately four million since that time. The number of unemployed in Germany in December of 1933 was given as 3,714,107 compared with 5,355,428 in December, 1932.

LIQUOR TAX BILL COMMER SAYS HEADS LIST SET TO KING GEORGE BEFORE SOLONS

Legislation That May Be Enacted By 73rd Congress Outlined

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Here is a partial list of legislation that probably will be enacted by the 73rd congress before the close of its present session: A liquor tax bill, placing a levy of $2 a gallon on spirits, designed to raise more than $500,000,000 in revenue; A general tax measure revising the income tax law and tightening loopholes, estimated to produce $70,000,000 annually;

Additional legislation probably will be debated, some of which is almost certain of enactment, includes:

- Ratification of the St. Lawrence waterway treaty;
- Revision of the existing banking legislation, including bank deposit guarantee provisions;
- Authorizations to the president to declare arms embargoes in cooperation with other nations;
- Regulation of the stock exchange, and;
- Regulation of the communications systems.

Jury Selected For Service In Wynkoop Trial

Her hands in the new black gloves harmonizing with her black dress and black caracul coat, rested quietly on the arms of her chair drawn up at the council table.

As the hours passed she shifted slightly in her seat and showed the weariness of illness. A fearless enigma in black—not quite emotionless.

One slim foot in new shiny patent leather strapped slipper that protruded from beneath her long coat was an index of inner stress. Six prospective jurors gave their names, their addresses her foot tapped, tapped, gently.

Any scruples against inflicting the death penalty. Her foot was stilled—tense.

Dr. Wynkoop during the day seldom spoke to her attorneys or to the two members of her family, her older son, Walker and her daughter, Dr. Catherine Wynkoop, 24. The young man and his attractive sister sitting near her were likewise uncommunicative; their faces gaunt.

Occasionally, she slowly turned her head and looked out over the spectators.

Among those in the courtroom were friends and neighbors, including Miss Ehid Hennessey, the school teacher-roomer in the Wynkoop home.

When court adjourned Dr. Wynkoop described herself as so tired she could cry.

"I am in every bone," she said in her calm cultured voice. At that moment her daughter, Catherine interposed, seeking to silence her mother.

"Come on, mother, come on. Mother come on get up," she said quickly almost impatiently and taking hold of the weary elderly woman's shoulder.

Naval Flight Over Pacific Gives U. S. New Air Prestige

(Continued From Page One) planes in the air was 25 hours and 11 minutes, but the flying time for formation from the Golden Gate across the perilous stretch of the Pacific to Pearl Harbor was 24 hours and 45 minutes, official time.

The first plane, carrying Lieut. Comm. Kniffler McGinnis in charge of the flight, halted the glassy waters of Pearl Harbor at 8:30 P. M. Eastern Standard Time, and came to rest one minute later. At 6:01 P. M. plane number 2 landed. Thus they came down with the military rhythm of a squad of Annapolis midshipmen on parade.

And it was not their first swift victory over distance. A few months ago they flew in formation from Norfolk, Va., to Coco Solo, Panama, and thence to San Diego, Calif.

A quick move to San Francisco preceded their epochal flight to Hawaii, where they will be stationed permanently.

In many respects this aerial odyssey differed from the overseas flights of the past. Outstanding was the virtual absence of fear for the safety of the 30 men participating.

The success of the adventure rest Nov. 29 on the accusation that he wrote letters to the monarch asserting his kinship and asking a $3,000 annual income "with enough ready money to start a modern boarding house."

replied Dr. Wynkoop quietly and waited for assistance to be wheeled back to the county jail.

There were no expressions of anxiety from relatives; no speculation as to whether the genuine question would hold out; no fear that the navigators would abort with of their goal.

Of Cyprian hills regimen to the light
Most tyrannously naked, and a god
Derisive and calamitously bright.

By this be known the Creeper's wry deceit,

Commingles now with all the ancient sweet,

That now her lover, going down to sleep,

Well, well, well, doggone it they didn't get old Lady mixed up in some of those security deals. It seems that some air transportation company gave him $250,000 worth of stock for "services rendered" or something like that. That puts him in a class with Al Smith, Bill McAdoo, W. H. Woodin, and some of the other "preferred customers" of J. P. Morgan & Co. Well, if anybody's not to have that much money as a gift, we're glad it's Lindbergh, and we hope his stock hasn't gone as sour on him as most of the rest of it did.

Farm mortgage bonds and home loan bonds already enjoy the distinction of having their interest guaranteed by the United States government, but even so, investors and cautious investors are afraid of them. Some of the bonds have been selling as low as 85 shortly after they were issued. It is for that reason that it is now proposed to have the federal government guarantee the principal as well as the interest. Then they would have the same credit standing as any other government securities. It is expected that this measure will aid greatly in facilitating the refinancing of homes and farms.

The difficulty of collecting taxes which are excessive is illustrated by the suit of the government against the estate of the first Thomas Astor, which just now, twenty years after his death in London from the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. It will be many more years very likely before the Supreme Court of the United States has rendered its decision. Following his death in 1910 Thomas Astor's estate, amounting to millions of dollars, were apportioned to United States government bonds, the estate of this man, which owned nearly one-third of New York City. The government sued the estate and the suit is now pending in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

Wigwam Of Hall Would Cease To Exist As Political Symbol

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The wigwam of Tammany Hall would be given another name if the plans of a group believed to have the ear of the administration are successful.

Word came recently from several political leaders well known in the capital that a determined effort would be made to oust John F. Curry as Tammany chief. If successful it was said the next step of the plan would be to drop the name Tammany Hall in reorganizing the Democratic party in New York City.

Proponents of the plan, pointing out that the victory of Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia in last fall's elections left Tammany but a few borough and county offices, said the next move would be an anti-Tammany drive in upstate New York as well as in the boroughs comprising New York City. The aim of the campaign would be to "box in" on Manhattan Island such control as Curry has left.

Both Curry and his Brooklyn aide, John H. McCooney, refused to climb aboard the Roosevelt nomination movement at the Chicago Democratic convention, and Postmaster General Farley has made no secret of denying Curry a share in federal patronage in New York.

Political observers pointed out that McCooney was a White House visitor last week and there was speculation that his wing of the New York Democratic group might be brought into harmony with what is known as the Roosevelt-Farley faction.

Behind the entire movement was said to be a desire to remove any possible "Tammany" stamp from Democratic candidates in New York. Leaders of the movement were known to feel that such a label might hinder the chances of their candidates both in the state and congressional elections next fall and in future New York City contests.

Dingfelder as sponsor for the Literature Department and Mrs. Arthur Ragan and Mrs. A. M. Phillips as sponsors for the Music Department. Mrs. J. T. Newby was hostess for the afternoon and Dr. Elizabeth Tracy presided over a short business session of the Literature Department.

The program opened with a review by Mrs. E. D. Browlee of an article by Frank Simon on the general world condition which appeared in a recent issue of the Atlantic. Mrs. Browlee quoted Mr. Simon as considering a war in Europe imminent.

In her talk on Stalin, Mrs. S. O. Shenahor emphasized the best features of his personality and plead for more sympathy and a better understanding of what is going on in Russia, especially since that country has been recognized by the United States.

A comprehensive and interesting talk on Mussolini, his background, achievements, and aims, was given by Mrs. J. B. Root after which Mrs. C. R. Mason gave a short address on Hitler.

President Roosevelt's character and personality were described by Dr. Elizabeth Tracy who gave a short discourse in which she used a number of anecdotes about him.

Musical numbers during the afternoon included three popular songs in keeping with the program, "Marching Along Together," "The Open Road," and "There's a Little White House."

Mrs. Brannan presided at the piano while her daughter, Miss Lillian Brannan furnished the vocal accompaniment.

The club was decorated for the occasion with quantities of roses and other garden flowers arranged in vases and bowls.

Will Rogers Tops His Career In "Dr. Ball"

"Doctor Ball," the Fox Film production of the famous novel, "The Last Adam," by James Gould Cozzens, opens Sunday at the Midget Theater and is scheduled to continue for an engagement of two weeks. It presents Will Rogers with what is reported as the outstanding role of his career.

The production of the Cozzens novel culminated an extensive search by the Fox company for a story that would afford Rogers a worthy successor to his appreciable role in "State Fair." It will be remembered in the volume recently released with selection by the Sanford News-Club, and has already sold over a quarter of a million copies.

In "Doctor Ball," the new title having been chosen by the star himself, Rogers is given a country doctor. He plays the role of a specially skilled philosopher who links together a changing village and who views with disquiet the conditions that have his home from a "town to live in" to a "town on the highway."

The principal feminine role opposite Rogers is portrayed by Ann Allen, recruited from the New York stage specialty for this picture. The supporting cast includes such prominent figures of the screen as Marion Nixon, Harold Lloyd, Barton Churchill, Lon Chaney, Andy Devine, Roscoe Ates, Tompkins, Peggy O'Ryan, Veda Bond, Edith Egan, and Helen Brown.

Mrs. E. E. Curren, Mrs. W. C. Hill, Mrs. G. E. Bishop, Mrs. S. E. Frazier, Mrs. E. J. Wright, Mrs. James C. Shown, Mrs. James A. Wright, Miss Margaret Butler, and Miss Mable Bowler, etc.

Mrs. B. C. Moore Entertains At Bridge

In honor of the members of her bridge club, Mrs. B. C. Moore entertained with a bridge party last night at her home in Pinehurst. A profusion of poinsettias, was used to adorn the rooms where the tables were spread for play.

After several progressions of bridge high score prize, a pottery vase, was awarded to Mrs. O. M. Harrison while cut prize, a pottery bowl, was presented to Mrs. E. C. Harper. Mrs. W. W. Warner collected the scores and assisted the hostess in serving refreshments late in the evening.

Those present were: Mrs. Pearl E. Habbitt, Mrs. G. E. McKay, Mrs. W. W. Warner, Mrs. H. F. Kent, Mrs. O. M. Harrison, Mrs. Stewart Dutton, Mrs. E. C. Harper, and Mrs. J. E. Courier.

FORKS AT WORK TO BRING END TO TAMMANY REIGN

Wigwam Of Hall Would Cease To Exist As Political Symbol

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The wigwam of Tammany Hall would be given another name if the plans of a group believed to have the ear of the administration are successful.

Word came recently from several political leaders well known in the capital that a determined effort would be made to oust John F. Curry as Tammany chief. If successful it was said the next step of the plan would be to drop the name Tammany Hall in reorganizing the Democratic party in New York City.

Proponents of the plan, pointing out that the victory of Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia in last fall's elections left Tammany but a few borough and county offices, said the next move would be an anti-Tammany drive in upstate New York as well as in the boroughs comprising New York City. The aim of the campaign would be to "box in" on Manhattan Island such control as Curry has left.

Both Curry and his Brooklyn aide, John H. McCooney, refused to climb aboard the Roosevelt nomination movement at the Chicago Democratic convention, and Postmaster General Farley has made no secret of denying Curry a share in federal patronage in New York.

Political observers pointed out that McCooney was a White House visitor last week and there was speculation that his wing of the New York Democratic group might be brought into harmony with what is known as the Roosevelt-Farley faction.

Behind the entire movement was said to be a desire to remove any possible "Tammany" stamp from Democratic candidates in New York. Leaders of the movement were known to feel that such a label might hinder the chances of their candidates both in the state and congressional elections next fall and in future New York City contests.

Mrs. Marvin Milam presided over the meeting and turned in her resignation as president. After a committee was appointed to select a new president the meeting adjourned for a social hour when refreshments were served and games were enjoyed.

Those present were: Mrs. John D. Abrahams, teacher, Mrs. Marvin Milam, and the Misses Ruth Cummings, Pauline Bellamy, Evelyn Nipper, Virginia Lawson, Jennette Borland, Florence Mandon, Florence Hardy, Eva Cunningham, Blanche Cunningham, Hazel Trw, Kathryn Kelly, Aline Bellamy, and Julia Wells.

Graham, pastor of the Lake Mary Nazarene Church, to conduct revival services at his church for a short period of time, beginning on Sunday, Jan. 14. The Rev. Melton has been pastoring some of the Nazarene churches in the Florida district for a number of years and has many friends here.

1ST TEST OF STRENGTH WON BY ROOSEVELT

There may be an attempt to prevent its passage in protest against the economy rider.

Republicans who have only 114 members to the Democrat's 318, were so surprised by the anti-economy showing that they cheered vociferously when the vote was announced. The Democrats, more surprised, sat silent.

The thing that made it especially surprising was the Democratic chiefs that they had said flatly that President Roosevelt wanted the legislation and had approved the procedure under which it was being considered.

Chairman Buchanan of the appropriations committee read a letter from the President expressing "hope the Congress will enact the legislative economy provision referred to in my budget message."

And just before the vote, Representative Byrnes of Tennessee, the Democratic leader, took the floor and said to his party:

"It isn't over but we are in the middle of a winning march against depression. I for one am not going to desert my leader in the midst of the fight. This is a part of his recovery program."

Then came the roll. Not a single Republican or farm-labor member voted with the President. Democrats providing all of the winning 107 ballots.

But 84 Democrats joined with 103 Republicans and the five farm-laborites to pile up the unexpected total against the proposition.

Actually, the vote was on what many members called a "rag rule." It waived parliamentary laws so that the economy provisions might be attached to the appropriations bill supplying funds to run 16 governmental independent offices in the next fiscal year; it forbade any amendments to those economy provisions and any amendments to subsequent appropriation bills which would conflict with the extended economy law.

The economy legislation yesterday did not touch the veterans, either to extend the cuts or restore them. The veterans' cuts are part of basic law.

Benefit Party Given For Woman's Club

The first group, Mrs. E. M. Galloway and Mrs. James G. Sharon, from the 20 members of the Woman's Club who are to give "vanishing" parties for the benefit of the building fund of the club, entertained with a contract bridge party last night at the home of Mrs. Sharon on West Tenth Street.

Contract bridge games were enjoyed until a late hour when scores were added and prizes awarded. High score prizes were given to Mrs. John L. Galloway and Fletcher H. Bailey while Mrs. R. R. Deas and Mr. Galloway were presented with low score prizes. Mrs. Galloway was given a bowl of gerbera daisies, Mrs. Deas received a blue vase of Columbia roses, Mr. Bailey a silver money clip and Mr. Galloway a deck of playing cards. Mrs. W. C. Hill was lucky in cutting and was the recipient of a large bouquet of gladioli.

The rooms where the guests were entertained were decorated for the occasion with a profusion of Etoile De Hollande roses, bright colored gladioli, and other garden flowers. Refreshments were served at a late hour by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. W. J. Thigpen, Mrs. Samuel Puleston, and Mrs. R. A. Newman.

It was announced at the conclusion of the party that Mrs. R. A. Newman and Miss Mable Bowler will have the next "vanishing" party, with two tables of guests, before Mar. 1.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Papworth, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Puleston, Mrs. R. A. Newman, Mrs. H. B. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. Norman S. DeForest, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hill, Judge and Mrs. E. F. Housholder, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Deas, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thigpen, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher H. Bailey, Miss Mabel Bowler, T. L. Dumas, L. H. Deas of Charleston, S. C., and Judge James G. Sharon.

SIGN POSTS

IMAGINE yourself on an unfamiliar highway at night in the country. You want to go to Allison. You come to a forked road. No signs! Which way? You turn left and come to a crossroad. No signs. You turn right. You come to a town. It proves to be Liberty. You go back to the fork and turn left. A mile or so farther on you come to another crossroad. A sign pointing right says "Allison three miles."

But for that sign-post you might have traveled miles—spent hours, and come short of your destination.

Imagine yourself in need of hosiery, clothing, breakfast foods or anything else, and this newspaper without advertisements! Think of the number of stores you would have to visit, qualities and prices to check, reliabilities to consider.

Advertisements are sign-posts. They are information. They save you from wandering aimlessly from store to store. They keep you advised of the newest products; of the latest values. They save you time, and put greater buying power in your dollars. They assure you of quality and service in merchandise, for only honest goods honestly advertised can stand the spotlight of publicity.

DEAN DEE SAYS U.S. PLANNED TO BATTLE ENGLAND

Gloomy Prelate Tells Of War Time Moves In His Latest Book
LONDON, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Dean Dee, who will retire this year as head of St. Paul's Cathedral, declares in the new edition of his book "England" that "the American government seriously contemplated taking action against us in the early part of the war."

PAUL BONNER IS SIGNED FOR TRY WITH ATHLETICS

Flashy Sanford Shortstop Of 1932 Gets Chance Of Lifetime
Paul Bonner, Pensacola boy who was a member of the Sanford team in the Central Florida Baseball League last year, has signed a contract with the Philadelphia Athletics, and will report at the spring training camp at Fort Myers on Mar. 1, it was stated in Pensacola newspapers this week.

Flashy Sanford Shortstop Of 1932 Gets Chance Of Lifetime

The youngster, who left here with the reputation of being the finest shortstop ever to play on a Sanford team, will be given a trial at second base and shortstop, the press reports state. He will attempt to beat Eric McNair and Rabbit Warfield out of the shortstop positions, and failing in that try, he will try to shove Dib Williams into oblivion at second base.

A Musical Comedy Bird!

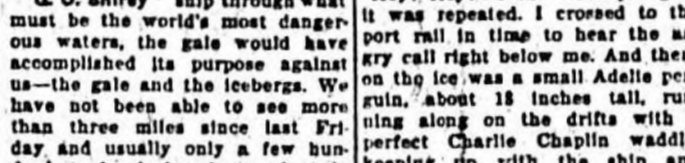

ON BOARD THE BYRD FLAGSHIP, JACOB RUPPERT, (Via Mackay Radio). "Today your lives were in the hands of God and the engine room. If either had failed, you would all be dead tonight!"

"This is what Commodore Ojertsen told us at dinner tonight (December 28) and it made me realize more than anything that has happened since this trip began, what deadly realities we are up against.

For four days we have drifted around in the fog, half the time with a howling northwest gale trying to destroy us.

It is getting cold as the deuce. And if we had anybody here experienced and cautious than Commodore Ojertsen, a small but amazingly forceful Norwegian ice expert, and Captain Verleger, a Medical Officer leading our great G. O. Shires ship through what must be the world's most dangerous waters, the gale would have accomplished its purpose against us—the gale and the icebergs. We have not been able to see more than three miles since last Friday and usually only a few hundred yards. And we've made only 56 miles since noon Saturday. Thousands of icebergs go plunging past us in the gloom—some of them five miles long, two or three miles wide and estimated at 1,000 feet or more from high tip to submerged bottom. If we ran our 11,000 ton ship into one of them or run over the submerged part of it—well, the Titanic did that, you know. Or if one of them rushes at us out of the invisible distance and crashes into the side of our ship, it will be just too bad. But our wise and able skippers know their stuff and are performing miracles of judgment and seamanship every minute every day.

This morning, however, they met an enemy they hadn't counted on—water—in the oil. In the midst of our work of dodging these moving ice mountains, stopping to let them drift by, or dashing out of their way, the engine room reported that some water which had leaked into the starboard tank had risen through the oil, had been pumped under pressure to the burner nozzles and had extinguished the flames which keep us going by making our steam. By the time Chief Engineer Queen had switched to the port tank and had begun to revive our lost steam pressure, our ship had lost practically all of her head way and for more than an hour we drifted in a 50-mile gale almost equal to the best set in the Central Florida League as well as the Georgia-Florida League.

Medical Officer leading our great G. O. Shires ship through what must be the world's most dangerous waters, the gale would have accomplished its purpose against us—the gale and the icebergs.

...and in the 1932 post-season series between Cairo and Thomasville he led both clubs at bat. In 1931, his first season in pro baseball, he played with Chattanooga in the Georgia-Florida League, hitting above .300 in that loop.

His best asset is speed, as was demonstrated during his stay at Sanford. His stolen base records in 1931 and 1932 were 12 and 13, respectively, and he has stolen 12 bases in the Central Florida League as well as the Georgia-Florida League.

EMMA GOLDMAN HAS PRAISE FOR U. S. PRESIDENT

Roosevelt Is First To Recognize Right of Masses, She Says

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 12.—Emma Goldman, fiery-tongued apostle of anarchism who will be permitted to re-enter the United States after an exile of 14 years, has said that Franklin D. Roosevelt is the first president of the United States to recognize that the masses have a right at the table of life. "He has made definite steps to better their condition," she said, "and he is only just begun. It would not be fair to judge the results yet."

Miss Goldman, who rose from a hitherto obscure life as a Rochester clothing factory to become known as "the queen of the anarchists," does not think it is "in the brain work of capitalists to make such improvement for the masses, but the United States has done a great many things to surprise the world."

ROOSEVELT HAS VIEWS AIMED AT AIDING CARRIERS

Says Mortgage Debts Should Be Paid With Sinking Fund Cash

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—President Roosevelt strongly favors the establishment by the roads and utility companies of sinking funds to pay off their mortgage indebtedness. The President feels that if the carriers had been reducing their bonded indebtedness they would have avoided the serious threat of bankruptcy which forced some major lines last spring.

Light Cars To Cost More In 1934, New Price List Reveals

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—If your taste or your pocketbook leads you to cars in the lower price brackets, you'll be paying more for this year's models than last, on the basis of prices announced at the Auto Show. But if you prefer the swankier middle-priced or higher priced cars, you'll find the new debuts generally lower in price than those offered by the same manufacturer in 1933.

SEMINOLE
READY FOR FIGHT WITH ORLANDO

Always Tough Tigers
Expected To Prove Hard Foes Tonight

Late this afternoon, Coach Leonard McLeans will head for Orlando with his 1934 Seminole High School basketball team which tonight must face probably the strongest team it will meet this season—the Orlando Tigers.

The Tigers are always tough, but this year they are to be twice as hard to handle for they are almost a veteran outfit which has seen action as a unit for three past seasons.

A pair of maroon-less, inexperienced forwards have yet to show their ability, but the Orlando guards and center Bayburn are said to be on a par with the best in the state. The Tigers swamped Ocoee and Tavares by lopsided scores, but they were stopped cold upon meeting Spauld, taking out a one-point victory after a stubborn battle against a pair of brilliant guards.

Coach McLeans is depending upon the same first team which accounted for victories over St. Augustine and Daytona Beach, to come through to another victory tonight. Despite the fact that the opposition is that of the Big Ten Conference.

Quillen Jordan and Stinson Kinlaw, forward and guard respectively, are the principal cogs in the 1934 machine. That goes without question, and it is evidenced whenever either has the ball. Oliver Miller's ability at center grows with each tilt and practice session, while in forward Bobbie Knight and guard Jack Hughes, Coach McLeans has a pair of capable veterans.

The second teams of both schools will play an opening game at 7:30 o'clock, with the varsity tilt scheduled to start at 8:15 o'clock. The spacious hardwood floor of the Orlando Coliseum will be the scene of both games.

Tomorrow night, Seminole High is to meet the DeLand Bulldogs on the Seminole High court. The Bulldogs are playing the sensational Leesburg Yellow jackets in DeLand tonight, and if they can surmount that obstacle in the path of any basketball team, they will give Seminole a hard battle tomorrow night.

Lindbergh Accused Of Spying On Japan During 1931 Flight

Nipponese Vice-Admiral Says U. S. Policy Of Encircling Island Indicates War Move

TOKYO, Jan. 12.—(A.P.)—Japan is preparing to defend herself against what appears to be America's policy of hostility encircling Japan by every possible means, said a published statement yesterday by Vice Admiral Nobunama Suetsugu, commander of the navy's combined fleets.

The statement was made in an interview published in a widely-circulated magazine.

Instances of encirclement, the admiral cited, were: Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's leisurely flight along the Kuriles in the summer of 1931 and Harold Bromley's abortive attempt to fly the Pacific in 1930.

"I may be mistaken, but I think it is possible they were spying in those islands," the admiral was quoted as saying.

"Sometime ago, an American lieutenant hopped off from Japan on an alleged trans-Pacific flight attempt and turned back after flying we don't know where. I think the failure was purposeful."

(This reference obviously was in the Bromley-Gatty attempt of Sept. 14, 1930.)

"Then Lindbergh stayed in the Kuriles over a week on excuse of bad weather. The length of his stay is grounds for suspicion.

"Today, Americans are surveying the Aleutian Islands on a great scale — using cutters, airplanes, and the telegraph corps.

"I think this means an American policy to surround Japan with every possible means in the event of war before the slash of the main fleet."

The admiral referred to the resumption of Russo-American relations and the soviet's "perfection of armaments in the Far East, where they have stationed a strong army and a powerful air force."

"In the event of an emergency," he continued, "Russia will attack Japan through the air from three directions—north, west and south—while a powerful hostile fleet with a strong air force will attack from the Pacific."

"The American navy was not mentioned in this connection."

General Wholesale, Distribution Trade Code Is Approved

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt today approved a code to cover the general wholesale and distribution trade.

Among the provisions of the code was a grant of power to code authorities to vary distributors' code authorities to fix after proper hearings, and, with the consent of the administration, differential prices to cover sales of manufacturers who deal both through wholesalers and direct to retailers.

AUTO INDUSTRY SHARES FORD'S VIEWS FOR 1934

Prediction Made That 1934 Business Will Exceed That Of 1933 By Fully 75 Percent

DETROIT, Jan. 12.—(A.P.)—The statement of Edsel Ford in Washington yesterday that business conditions at present "look very, very good," is shared by many other leaders of the automobile industry, who believe the combination of increased purchasing power, improved general conditions and an accumulated replacement demand is beginning to be felt in growing degree.

Ford, in his statement, given after he had concluded his testimony before the Senate banking committee, said that his company expects a 75 percent pickup over 1933. This is the general hope of the motor car industry.

Last year the industry produced in the United States and Canada 2,101,000 passenger cars and trucks. As in 1932 and 1931 the bulk of this output was for what has been termed "absolutely necessary" replacement.

In this connection a recent statement by Alvan McCauley, president of the national automotive union, predicted that the industry's heads expect 1934 production to top 3,500,000 units.

The state directors include: Florida, Walter Hawkins, Jacksonville, with state offices in that city.

Aside from compliance, the directors will aid in the creation of consumers' councils where necessary to set up information bureaus for the guidance of the public, and will abolish or create local volunteer committees to replace some of the volunteer recovery committees now in existence.

NRA will finance the new set-up at a cost roughly estimated by Walker at $1,250,000. Each director will take over the compliance work at once, merging the new organization in with the old. For NRA compliance, the director will be responsible to Recovery Administrator Johnson.

Experience, Walker said, will be the guide as to the future activities of the directors beyond those now outlined. While they will not participate in the state administration of public or civil works, the Federal Home Owners Loan Corporation, or other special agencies, they will answer inquiries on these agencies, and where complaints are made about them the council directors will refer such complaints to the proper source. Complaints will not, however, be solicited.

Asked by reporters what were the political affiliations of the new directors, Walker replied that he didn't know in many cases, and that he was trying "to keep politics out of the set-up."

The salaries of the directors will range from $4000 to $6000, depending on the amount of work required. At present skeleton staffs will include a legal advisor, a labor advisor, an office manager and a clerical force. Experience will dictate further expansion. Local officers will be chosen by the state directors.

Auto Owners Aided In Service Offered By Local Tag Agent

As announced yesterday, County Tax Collector and Tag Agent Jno. D. Jinks and his staff will remain at the Court House tonight until 9:00 o'clock for the purpose of selling 1934 automobile license tags.

Sales today and all this week have been brisk, with almost all persons apparently anxious to beat the dead-line which comes Monday afternoon.

There was no indication at the Court House today that Governor Sholtz will order an extension of time for the purchase of 1934 tags, and Sheriff J. F. McClelland is holding his staff in readiness to carry out the state law in respect to auto owners driving without proper tags.

J. M. Leonard, who is equipped to weigh all trucks and trailers, stated again today that he will be at the Court House tonight until 9:00 o'clock and on Sunday from 9:00 o'clock in the morning until 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon. Trucks and trailers must be weighed and the weight certified on all license application blanks this year.

VOICE OF 'TWO BLACK CROWS,' Favorite U. S. Comedians For 16 Years, Is Stilled By Death snatched a partner from him. Jack Nolan, associate of Moran 18 years ago, was killed in an automobile accident in Texas.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Jan. 12.—(A.P.)—The voice of "the two black crows," who for years spouted comedy from stage and screen, was stilled yesterday by the death of Charles Mack, 46, partner in the famous team of Moran and Mack, in an automobile accident at Mesa, Ariz.

Injured in the same accident was Mack Bennett, erstwhile king of movie comedy producers and originator of the bathing beauty motif in the celluloid.

George Moran, the other half of "the two black crows," Mrs. Mack; Mrs. Bennett and Mary Jane Mack, 18-year-old daughter of the Macks, were slightly injured. Mrs. Mack was driving when a tire blew out Thursday night and the car rolled over three times on the Apache trail six miles east of Mesa. Mack died in a Mesa hospital.

It was the second time in Moran's career that death had

DENUNCIATION OF PRIVATE POWER INDUSTRY HEARD

Spokesman For Ickes Scores Proponents Of Proposed Code

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—(A.P.)—A denunciation of the private power industry and its ruling elite today included work on their special problems, preparing to swing next week more fully into their winter work on recovery, and other regular legislative programs. It was the first time in days that there was no procession of conferences at the White House, allowing those there time for dollar devaluation intricacies. The Senate and the House were in recess today.

The important spirit of revolt expressed Tuesday, cuttally disrupted early last night and the House, without even a roll call vote, passed the appropriation bill carrying the economy law extension asked by President Roosevelt.

Passage was agreed to, however, only after Republicans and independent Democrats were roundly rebuffed in a number of attempts to block the economy extension and to increase funds for payments to veterans.

There were no bills like that late Thursday in which a 194-192 vote assured that the economic provisions, unchanged, would be in the independent office appropriation bill when it left the House for the Senate.

Daily Market Service To Be Resumed Monday

Daily market news covering arriving celery and vegetable movement and prices from all large centers will be resumed on Monday and continue through the week.

Stacks of letters from farmers and shippers who wish copies of the daily reports through the week are yet to be opened. Mr. Butts stated, but from all indications the daily mailing list will equal or probably exceed that of previous years.

Mr. Butts has been with the Department for the past six years. He is connected with the Philadelphia office and this is his first visit to Florida other than a hurried one-day stop at Jacksonville some time ago. He will reside in the Mahoney Apartments, 1000 Park Avenue, during his stay in Sanford, or until late in April, he stated today.

DEPOSITORS IN DETROIT BANK TO GET RELIEF

RFC Loan Guarantees Full Re-Payment To Over 350,000 Guardian Union Customers

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—(A.P.)—The Reconstruction Corporation yesterday made it possible for 135,000 depositors in Detroit's Guardian Union National Bank to receive payment in full, while the same banking committee was receiving charges that a White House order kept the treasury from acting upon reports of bad banking in Detroit during the Hoover administration.

Alfred P. Leyburn, a chief national bank examiner, told the committee he was "not guessing" when he asserted the controller of the currency was given "a higher command not to rock the boat" and "not to have any more bank failures."

Relief to the Guardian Union's depositors was made possible by a $1,000,000 RFC loan, the second advance to the institution's liquidating agent in recent weeks. A re-examination of a set of gains was continued on Page Four.

Intricacies Of Dollar Devaluation Being Probed By President

Col. Lindbergh's Income Tax Record Is Being Checked

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—(A.P.)—An income tax study touching Col. Charles Lindbergh and a host of other past and present names in the air mail field today was revealed as going forward under the direction of a Senate committee.

Members of the Senate air mail investigating committee who already have caused one sensation in the capital this week, disclosed that they had ordered income tax checks also on Walter F. Brown, former postmaster general, others in his administration, and Herbert Hoover, Jr., son of the former president.

Investigators explained they had sent about 200 questionnaires to men prominent in companies carrying air mail and those who took part in making contracts for this work during the last administration.

As the information requested came back to the committee, they said the Treasury was asked to check income tax reports of the men concerned for any contrary statements.

Here's News Many Have Been Awaiting

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 12.—(A.P.)—Governor Sholtz today announced an extension of time for obtaining new automobile license tags from Jan. 15 to Feb. 1st. The extension is ordered, he said, because of a delay in sending out tags from the state farm at Raiford.

1934 TRADE BODY DRIVE FOR FUNDS GETS GOOD START

Reassuring news that augurs well for the success of the annual Seminole County Chamber of Commerce membership drive came from the busy community of Fern Park this morning when Gordon J. Barnett and Capt. Clement Hallet announced that the towns quota of 10 memberships already had been subscribed.

County towns have in the past vied with each other in being the first to report, but this is the first time that a community has "jumped the gun" 72 hours before the actual drive for members was begun.

Plans for the drive were considered completed today. That the "kick off" breakfast which is to be staged at the Parish House next Tuesday morning at 8:00 o'clock will be the most elaborate ever presented was assured with the announcement that men prominent in the life of Central Florida be on hand to see how Seminole County spirit and enthusiasm for a worthy cause manifest itself.

The 22 membership drive army captains are expected to gather at the city hall Monday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock for the purpose of selecting names of the prospects they and their teams believe they can contact with success.

When the captains, lieutenants, and heads of the army gather at the Tuesday morning breakfast, the prospect cards, plus membership buttons, membership cards, and general instructions will be placed in the hands of workers.

After being given a final word of encouragement by Army General R. A. Newman, who has headed the drive for the past three years, the group of nearly 100 men and women workers will set out to seek 800 memberships by Thursday night, when at 6:00 o'clock, all will gather again at a banquet.

Insurance Head Backs Soundness Of Dollar

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 12.—(A.P.)—Thomas A. Backus, president of the New York Life Insurance Company, local branch office here yesterday, said he "hoped and expected" that the currency will continue to be based on gold, but in any event there was no cause for worry because the dollar, "as it always has been and always will continue to be sound."

Approximately 200 insurance officials and agents from all parts of the United States joined their company chief at the annual convention of their organization.

"The dollar," Backus said, "will in the future, as it has in the past, buy the things we need and want at reasonable prices. It is not money we offer by such changes as our government may make."

Man Who Started Fire In Woods Gets 60 Days

PERRY, Jan. 12.—County Judge L. W. Blanton sentenced John Patnell to spend 60 days in the Taylor county jail when Patnell pleaded guilty to intentionally setting fire in the woods.

Patnell was apprehended after charges were brought under a new Florida law by District Forester B. Kooztz, of the Florida Forest Service.

Kooztz states that burning of any wild forest, woods, land, or marshes in the state by anyone other than the owner or lessee, is punishable under state law by a fine not to exceed $1,000 or by imprisonment not to exceed one year, or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

U. S. SAFE FROM INFLATION IS FARLEY'S VIEW

Cabinet Officer Says Roosevelt's Course Of Action Will Not Endanger Recovery

CLEVELAND, Jan. 12.—(A.P.)—Postmaster General Farley predicted today that "Spread his sails before the inflation gale with all the perils that beset such a course."

The Democratic national chairman asserted in a speech before the Cleveland Automobile Association that "Neither will the President sacrifice the advantages which have occurred in commodity prices by taking the views of international bankers. For my own part I do not pretend to be an authority on the subject. I know the President is such an authority, and he is not likely to go wrong in this particular field where he has been right so often."

Farley praised Congress for its cooperation with the President in last year's special session, and he expressed confidence that the current session would be helpful.

Meanwhile, at Washington President Roosevelt asserted his right to take over the gold of the federal reserve system yesterday but smilingly waved aside questions asking whether he would do this or make any other immediate move in his monetary program.

"The President let the wave of speculation over his monetary program effort, which was revived by Thursday's financial conference, take its own course and maintained his usual guarded secrecy over his complex program."

It is believed he will call in the $3,600,000,000 in gold held by the federal reserve banks before he moves the devalued price of the dollar to insure the treasury obtaining the benefit of the increased value of the gold.

It is also believed he has some new monetary steps in contemplation, including action on silver, but he is saying nothing to advance about it to avert the success of the move which would.

He described Thursday's talks with Secretary Morgenthau, Attorney General Cummings and Governor Black of the Federal Reserve Board as a continuation of the usual consultation, including up on the program of the new monetary policy.

The White House today in particular interest in the hearings to begin Monday before the House currency committee, where the advocates of sound money, inflation, will be heard.

There is no doubt that the Treasury department is to keep its own grip on its monetary program, and make his own moves in the monetary field to obtain higher commodity prices and a more stable medium of exchange. Thus, he said he felt it to be the authority from Congress, already to take over the gold of the federal reserve system, as well as all other gold. Attorney General Cummings had earlier given him an opinion on this point.

There is still some speculation whether he would or not nevertheless put the proposal up to Congress for formal approval in the event he does this.
