Passage Of Truman Housing Bill Is Seen By Political Leaders

Republican Joins Democrats In Predicting Passage Of President's Bill

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—Rep. Javits, a New York Republican, broke with his party's leadership and predicted in the House today that President Truman's big housing program will pass.

Some folks "are going to be surprised" by the number of votes the bill gets "on both sides of the aisle," Javits declared.

The House GOP policy committee has come out solidly against the housing bill, and many Republicans are attacking it as "socialism" and a threat to federal financial solvency.

But Javits supported the Administration measure, saying "private enterprise is not doing the job" that needs to be done in housing.

House leaders claimed a margin of 30 votes for President Truman's hotly contested housing bill, one of the major domestic points of his "fair deal" legislative program.

Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) told reporters the Administration is sure to win.

However, lawmakers spearheading an opposition team of Republicans and Southern Democrats insisted the issue is still in doubt.

Rep. Hatcher (R-Ill.) said the bill is a substitute ready when voting begins, probably tomorrow.

The opposition appeared split over whether to make an all-out fight to kill housing legislation for this year, or offer a substitute. One suggested compromise would take out of the bill all authority for the government to finance publicly-owned homes that low-income families could rent.

Scientist Says More Can Be Told About Atom Bomb

BERKELEY, Calif., June 23 (AP)—There could be more "candor" about the prospects for atomic power without endangering national security, says Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer.

"It seems to me that we never will find whether atomic energy for civilian use would be a good about what can and cannot be expected of it," the famed nuclear physicist said.

His comment was in answer to questions of reporters who called yesterday at his cubbyhole office at the University of California, where he is teaching a short special summer course. Oppenheimer is director of the institute for advanced study at Princeton University.

On the issue of disclosing the number of atom bombs possessed by the United States, Oppenheimer said it was "primarily a matter of political wisdom." He said (Continued on Page Two)

The woman was Hillsborough county's 18th fatality of the year, Sheriff Culbreath said.

Coplon Slaps Trial Method Of Prosecutor

Says She Is Kept In Straightjacket And Can't Defend Self; Denies Being Spy

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—Judith Coplon complained in hysterical tones today that the government is not giving her full freedom to defend herself against espionage charges.

"I feel that I'm kept in a straightjacket," she shouted at John M. Kelley, Jr., government prosecutor. "I would like for the jury to see the kind of work I did."

Federal Judge Albert I. Rosen has ruled repeatedly that the government need not produce Miss Coplon's Justice Department "assignment sheet" showing the work she performed.

Miss Coplon said she wanted the jury to see all the reports that she ever wrote because "I want the people to understand."

She also protested that Kelley kept asking her questions that she could not answer "yes" or "no." That was in explanation of why she made long speeches after almost every question.

Her outburst capped long hours of question in which Kelley developed that she considered visiting Russia in the spring of 1948. Miss Coplon said that was true, but that she dropped the idea without trying to do anything about it.

2. Kelley to show that she and Valentine A. Gubitchev, a Russian engineer, used a habitual Soviet spy technique to time a meeting they had in New York Feb. 18. Miss Coplon denied she even knew of the technique which is to scatter and meet one hour later whenever an anticipated meeting is frustrated for some reason.

Negro Soldiers Swim In White Pools In Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 23 (AP)—Negro soldiers at Maxwell Field have been admitted to an airman's club and swimming pool previously restricted to whites.

Col. Leslie G. Muters, commanding officer, said the policy of "equality of treatment" conforms with President Truman's white starlet last Friday night at an airman's club. Before that, negroes used a separate club for their own race.

Several negro soldiers were permitted to swim in a pool previously limited to white officers and enlisted men and their wives. In addition, Col. Muters said one negro has asked for admission to the club for the purpose of remaining with a group composed of members of his race.

The transfer will be approved, the commanding officer said.

The four negroes admitted to the white club Friday night were permitted to use its facilities, but none danced with white girls.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., June 23 (AP)—Racial conflict forced the closing of one of Youngstown's six city-operated swimming pools yesterday. The pool commission members said all of the pools will be placed in operation again today.

Detective Lieutenant Glen Cowan identified the pair as Luther J. Masters, 31, of Atlanta and Ester Anderson, 25, of Acworth.

More Than 60 New Homes Built In Orange City In Last 2 Years

By WILLARD CONNOLLY

More than 60 new homes valued in excess of $300,000 have been built in Orange City during the past two years, E. F. Abel, head of the building committee of the Orange City Town Council declared this week.

Located on the Sanford-DeLand highway only eight miles north of the Monitor Bridge, and 12 miles from downtown Sanford, Orange City is a town of unusual beauty with its concrete paved streets overshadowed by tall oaks, and its beautiful homes, parks and gardens.

Prior to the big freeze of 1898-99, Orange City was a famous citrus shipping center; but with its groves destroyed, this industry ceased. Its major industry now is its exceedingly pure water supply, which won it a gold medal at the St. Louis exposition and which is shipped away in bottles and tank cars. The late John D. Rockefeller is reported to have had his drinking water supply sent from Orange City.

The quiet beauty and charm of Orange City, plus the hospitality of its citizens and civic leaders, have made it a mecca for tourists. Its population in 1945 was listed as 700, and is estimated to be nearly double that during the winter season. Its largest hotel is the Orange City Hotel which is noted for its homelike atmosphere.

Many motorists stop to get a drink of Orange City water from the well at the edge of the beautiful little park from the opposite side of the hall when Edward Dickinson Public Library face each other.

Of colonial architecture, the town hall, which was built in 1928 from a design by Elton Houghton, East of Washington, is a two-story brick building of unusual beauty and a charming reminder of town halls in New England.

Many of the citizens of Orange City are from Connecticut, and the dedication of the hall when Edward B. Alling was mayor, was made in true Yankee tradition.

The office of Arthur Brockley, town clerk, is located on the main floor at the west end of the building, and on the same floor is the council chamber. Edward Webb, a long time resident, is mayor. Rodney B. Thurby is president of the council which includes E. B. Alling, president of the Florida

Two Leading Bishops Are Reported To Have Been Tortured

VATICAN CITY, June 23 (AP)—A Vatican source said today that two leading bishops of the outlawed Uniate Church in Romania have been put to torture by Communist officials in an effort to break their allegiance to Pope Pius XII.

The Uniate Church is a Roman Catholic branch of the Roman Catholic faith. It was dissolved by the Romanian government last December.

The source said the Communist regime in Romania is bent upon "winning out the two branches of the Roman Catholic faith from the ground up, and with the use of every means of terror, oppression, and pressure."

This Vatican informant said the Communists demanded the Uniate Church leaders return to the orthodox Roman faith. Six bishops refused. They were led by Monsignor Imre Szepey, papal representative of the Metropolitan see of Fagaras and Alba Julia, the source said.

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, June 23 (AP)—Catholic priests and laymen today said the Czechoslovak Communist government approached them, succeeded in clamping a seal of silence around Archbishop Josef Benig.

The Archbishop is in semi-seclusion to win his palace in Prague. The informant said all their contacts with him had been broken off since last weekend.

Vatican informants and informants of diplomatic sources here expressed the belief Archbishop Benig might be formally arrested at any time. The Communist regime has accused him of instigating agitation. He has resisted the Communists' campaign to bring the church under state control and to crush the influence of the Vatican in Czechoslovakia.

McKinley Hall Cornerstone To Be Laid By Methodists On Sunday

Laying of the cornerstone of McKinley Hall, new youth center of the First Methodist Church, will take place Sunday morning immediately following the church service, the Rev. J. E. McKinley announced today.

The special service Sunday will be conducted by Dr. Paul A. Fletcher, superintendent of the Orlando district of the Methodist Church. He will be assisted by the Rev. McKinley and by the building committee of which A. E. Shinnholser is chairman and which includes J. C. Davis, W. P. Chapman, Frank B. Adams and L. P. Hagan. E. C. "Ned" Smith is chairman of finance.

A one story building of colonial style, concrete block construction and with brick veneer facing to match the church building, the new addition is expected to be completely finished by November. Its cost is estimated at $55,000.

With approximately 9,000 feet of floor space, the building will provide ample room to house the youth and children's divisions and part of the adult division of the Sunday School.

The youth center hall, measuring 81 by 81 feet will provide a place for recreation, banquet hall and will serve as a little theater for dramas and showing of motion pictures and as a meeting place for boys scouts.

The youth center room will also be used for a chapel for small weddings and for small or special worship services, said Rev. McKinley.

Separating the youth center room from the main church building is an open patio which will be landscaped. This open space affords lighting during daytime for the youth room and class rooms adjoining it in the front and back of the building. Loggia lead to the patio from both the Park Avenue and from Fifth Street behind the church building.

The new building was designed by George A. Spohn, Winter Park architect; masonry work was by J. T. Pope and carpenter work by Frank Ashdown.

About Two-Thirds Of Proposed Hike Recovered In Taxes

The Army Chief of Staff spoke of the present pay system, which dates back in 1909, as a relic of the "horse-trail" and "log-light" era.

He told the Senate Armed Services committee that the Army, Navy and Air Force must have every incentive to attract future leaders.

"Because the Marshall Plan has been a success, we must have a program that will attract the best talent," he said.

Sanford Plays In Gainesville Tonite; Clubs Here Friday

Ed Barry, Rookie 1st Baseman Reports; Twin Bill Slated With A's Tuesday

The game between the Sanford Giants and the Orlando Senators, scheduled to be played at the Municipal Park last night, was rained out by a steady downpour, which started about 7:00 o'clock.

Tonight the Giants invade Gainesville for a tilt with the high flying G-Men, and the two teams return to the Municipal Park tomorrow evening for the second of the two-game series.

"I have so many pitchers ready to go that I will probably wait until I get to Gainesville to decide who will pitch," Manager Hal Gruber declared in the clubhouse last night. However, it is thought that he will use his two left-handers against the University City aggregation, but the order in which they will pitch will be decided late today.

Ed Barry, rookie first baseman, signed by President John Clark and Manager Hal Gruber of the Bristol Twins of the Appalachian League reported to Manager Hal Gruber yesterday to replace Fred Weber, who is out with a broken ankle.

Barry, left handed all the way, is a tall, well built 18 year old youth, whose home is in St. Louis, Mo. He played semi-pro baseball after graduating from high school last year, and signed to play professionally with the Johnson City, N. C. Cards of the Appalachian League this year. He was released by Johnson City at his request after playing over 40 games in the young 1949 season. He had a .200 batting average for the year.

"Garity, who managed Palatka part of last year, says the boy looks mighty good at first base and at the plate. Garity must have thought Barry was pretty good to have signed him and to have carried him on the roster when he had no need for a first baseman. You know, managers in Class D just don't carry extra first basemen on their squads," Gruber declared.

Barry is slated to start for the Giants tonight.

The rained out game last night gives Sanford three home games, which have been postponed and one out of town tilt delayed by rain.

Manager Gruber announced last night that the first of these twin bills to make up washed out contests will be played at the Municipal Park on Tuesday evening, when the Palatka Axons come to town. Sanford will meet Orlando in Orlando on July 1 in a twin attraction and will face the Senators here on July 14 in a dual affair. Sanford will leave Gainesville on the night of July 30.

JERRY SILVERMAN
We received a letter last week from Jerry Silverman, former Sanford Celery Field baseball player, and the little leaguer included a clipping from the Vidalia paper telling of the good work of Lloyd Swain, former Seminole High School pitcher, who is now with the Vidalia on-try in the Georgia State League. Jerry has been hitting well, batting at a .333 clip for the Vidalia Twins.

"Swain has a 3-3 record and has been pitching good ball. Managers of all the other teams say they wish they had him."

"Give my best wishes to the folks at Sanford and to the folks at the office," he asserted.

ALL STAR PICKS
The people of Sanford and Seminole county will get an opportunity to vote for the Florida League's All-Star team on Friday night, the night the Sanford Giants meet the Gainesville G-Men at the local park.

Top selections of the fans will take the field July 27 against the team leading the league as of midnight June 27. Competition figures to be tough for all positions, especially pitchers. Normally the pick would be for two right-handers and two left-handers, but since only six pitchers are on the official rosters, fans will name three who throw right-handed and one lefty.

But even with a choice of three right-handers the cash customers will have trouble narrowing the list. Not only will trouble be faced in making selections for the mound positions, but also in every other spot on the field.

In the event that a player is selected on the All-Star team and is on the team leading the league on the night of June 27, the second high man in his position will be named to the All-Star combine.

As for the bats, the best of the crop: Buckie Mayer of Palatka with a .319 batting average; Ed Barry, hitting .320; Ed Jones, hitting .300 and Jim Bruening of Deland, sporting a .318 batting ticket.

Again we say that the picking selection will be difficult, but we think St. Augustine's Brian Karpinak (.315), Sanford's Ed Barry (.320) and Jim Bruening of Deland (.318) are the long route for the first time they are getting breaks. Restful Popover, Mild Man, Griss and Gravy and OB's Honey Bird tonight's fifth race will be a split over the future course.

1st Race 7:15 Mile (at Half Daily Double)

Missouri Dasher Gets Chance To Notch 2nd Win

DATONA BEACH, June 23 (Special)—Missouri Dasher, Keith Dasher's greyhound ace, gets a chance to chalk up his second win when he runs tonight in the feature ninth race at the Volusia County Kennel Club in Daytona Beach. This 21 pound brindle is a son of the famous Australian import, Askalon, and he galloped his way to glory in Miami last winter, winning five races in a row and annexing the rich Flagler Nursery stake. The Dasher scored his first victory here Saturday night when he defeated a celebrity pack, including Poverty Pride and Virical Mile.

Opposing the Dasher tonight will be such talented speedsters as OB's Shorecross, Karlock, Monon, Poverty Parade, River's Edge, and Little Acre. River's Edge finished first in Tuesday's feature, while Little Acre came home ahead of the pack in the tenth race the same night. Both greyhounds are handle owned. Monon, noted for her sensational finishes, has had to be content with a second and third in recent races. But tonight she may bring home the bacon.

This 21 pound brindle is a son of the famous Australian import, Askalon, and he galloped his way to glory in Miami last winter, winning five races in a row and annexing the rich Flagler Nursery stake. The Dasher scored his first victory here Saturday night when he defeated a celebrity pack, including Poverty Pride and Virical Mile.

Opposing the Dasher tonight will be such talented speedsters as OB's Shorecross, Karlock, Monon, Poverty Parade, River's Edge, and Little Acre. River's Edge finished first in Tuesday's feature, while Little Acre came home ahead of the pack in the tenth race the same night. Both greyhounds are handle owned. Monon, noted for her sensational finishes, has had to be content with a second and third in recent races. But tonight she may bring home the bacon.

Columbus Cards Win Sally Tilt From Greenville

The loop-leading Columbus Cardinals were the only first division club to win in the South Atlantic League last night.

The Cards took their fifth consecutive victory by pasting Greenville's Spinners, 9 to 1, behind the nine-hit hurling by Jack Fasolo. Columbus converted eight safeties and 15 bases on balls into their third straight triumph over the Spinners. The finale of the series will be played tonight.

The game between the Sanford Giants and the Orlando Senators, scheduled to be played at the Municipal Park last night, was rained out by a steady downpour, which started about 7:00 o'clock.

Tonight the Giants invade Gainesville for a tilt with the high flying G-Men, and the two teams return to the Municipal Park tomorrow evening for the second of the two-game series.

"I have so many pitchers ready to go that I will probably wait until I get to Gainesville to decide who will pitch," Manager Hal Gruber declared in the clubhouse last night. However, it is thought that he will use his two left-handers against the University City aggregation, but the order in which they will pitch will be decided late today.

Ed Barry, rookie first baseman, signed by President John Clark and Manager Hal Gruber of the Bristol Twins of the Appalachian League reported to Manager Hal Gruber yesterday to replace Fred Weber, who is out with a broken ankle.

Barry, left handed all the way, is a tall, well built 18 year old youth, whose home is in St. Louis, Mo. He played semi-pro baseball after graduating from high school last year, and signed to play professionally with the Johnson City, N. C. Cards of the Appalachian League this year. He was released by Johnson City at his request after playing over 40 games in the young 1949 season. He had a .200 batting average for the year.

"Garity, who managed Palatka part of last year, says the boy looks mighty good at first base and at the plate. Garity must have thought Barry was pretty good to have signed him and to have carried him on the roster when he had no need for a first baseman. You know, managers in Class D just don't carry extra first basemen on their squads," Gruber declared.

Barry is slated to start for the Giants tonight.

The rained out game last night gives Sanford three home games, which have been postponed and one out of town tilt delayed by rain.

Manager Gruber announced last night that the first of these twin bills to make up washed out contests will be played at the Municipal Park on Tuesday evening, when the Palatka Axons come to town. Sanford will meet Orlando in Orlando on July 1 in a twin attraction and will face the Senators here on July 14 in a dual affair. Sanford will leave Gainesville on the night of July 30.

Tickets sold before the game last night for benefit of the Seminole County Boy Scouts will be covering

A Princess Would Envy Star's Dresses

By GLORIA YARBROUGH

AP Newsfeature
HOLLYWOOD—Even a princess would envy movie star Elizabeth Taylor. A peek into Elizabeth's wardrobe, with all its chiffon and lace, is like a trip through Alice's looking glass.

The 17-year-old beauty has just had a closet full of peplums, tunics, and long skirts designed for her by Cecil Chapman, a New York designer.

There are strapless wraps of white chiffon and tulle, black lace and net gowns with fitted décolleté tops and swirls of skirt, daytime suits of cotton and silk. One pink silk suit has a cut out neckline and hobble skirt.

To carry on the fairy tale atmosphere, Elizabeth's array of brilliantly-colored scarves. There are over 100 of them in every color imaginable. Collecting them has become a hobby for Elizabeth, some were brought home with her from her recent trip to Paris.

Colored shoes are her pet delight. She has pink, blue, red, white, and straw to go with her new clothes. I asked her if she wore ballerina slippers. "I like them, but I can't wear them. I'm too short," she says.

Elizabeth was wearing black high-heeled sandals with a bright maroon two-piece dress. The dress was made of tulle and taffeta that looked like quilting from a distance. She carried a huge black drawing bag with her initials in gold on the side. She wore a gold chain necklace and a bracelet from which hung a gold starrock.

For sports, Elizabeth has a one-piece pedal pusher outfit in white. The legs are fitted just under the knee and have a fringe. A matching cap that can be worn over the strapless bodice, has the same fringe.

A bathing suit, instead of shorts, is preferred by Elizabeth for sunbathing. For swimming, her favorite suit is a white one-piece, sans bathing cap.

Because her natural coloring is so vivid, she uses a minimum of makeup usually pink lipstick; and for dates, pink nail polish which are enough to highlight Elizabeth's olive skin and brilliant-blue eyes.

She is currently wearing her dark hair in a short bob and likes to change the style every month or so. Wisfully she said, "I wish I could wear it long one day, short the next."

Asked if she had any fashion advice for teen-agers, Elizabeth smiled: "Just one thing. Clothes should be comfortable."

If you want corn to taste its freshest don't husk it until you are ready to cook it, and store it in the refrigerator after buying or picking it until the moment it is to be prepared. If any corn is left over, cut the kernels from the cobs and use in corn fritters. Serve them with maple syrup as an accompaniment to fried chicken or baked ham. Or use the leftover corn (again cut from the cobs) in a vegetable soup.

When fresh tomatoes are plentiful stew some of them to serve along with meat or fish. Remove the skins first by immersing them in hot water, then quarter them and simmer in a deep skillet (without water) until they are quite soft. Season them with butter or margarine, salt, freshly-ground pepper. If desired celery salt and a dash of all-spice also may be added as well as a little sugar.

Cheese will be hard to tough if it is cooked too long or at too high a temperature. When a dish containing cheese is baked in the oven it's a good idea to keep the temperature moderate. When a cheese combination is cooked on top of the range it should be put in a heavy saucepan and the heat kept very low, or put in a double boiler over hot, not boiling water.

Average meat consumption by Americans in 1930 was 126 pounds, about 10 pounds less than in 1948.

CONSERVATIONIST URGES WALKING WATER

TOKYO—(AP)—An American conservationist suggests this slogan for Japan: "Make the water walk off the mountains, don't let it run."
Arthur R. Spillers, chief of the Co-operative Forest Management Branch of the U. S. Forest Service, says Japan "is confronted with a tremendous job of reforestation and erosion control on its mountain slopes."
As a conservation consultant at General MacArthur's headquarters, Spillers has made both aerial and ground surveys of Japan. With its high population, mountainous Japan, must use every available inch of soil for food.

Manhunt Is On For Killers Of Union Organizer

Fugitives Described As Strong Arm Men With No Occupation

NEW YORK, June 23 (AP)—A nationwide manhunt was on today for the accused killers of garment union organizer William Lury.

Authorities describe the fugitives as "strong-arm men" with no known occupation.

A 48-state alarm for their arrest was broadcast yesterday shortly after they were indicted in first-degree murder charges.

The two named are John Glusto, 31-year-old paroled convict, and Benedict Macri, 36, both of New York City.

Their indictment climaxed one of the most intensive homicide investigations in recent city police annals.

More than 100 crack detectives sifted clues, questioned hundreds of persons and combed the city's teeming garment district day and night for six weeks.

Lury, special organizer for the AFL International Ladies garment Workers Union, was stabbed to death May 9 in a telephone booth in the lobby of a garment district building.

The union, thousands of whose members turned out to demonstrate at Lury's funeral, offered a $25,000 reward for capture of the slayers. It linked them to "non-union sweat shop employers."

District Attorney Frank S. Hogan said "we have a very good idea of the motive, but it would not be a good idea for me to delineate it at this time."

He praised police work on the case as "the most intense and intelligent I have seen in the 14 years I have been associated with law enforcement."

Top police officers, he said, "abandoned their desks and worked the streets of the garment area day and night."

Some detectives masqueraded as garment laborers, and mingled with workers, seeking leads.

A grand jury returned the indictment a little more than an hour after evidence was submitted to it.

The district attorney said Glusto is on parole from a five to 10 year prison term for armed robbery. He was scheduled to appear last Monday for his monthly parole report, but did not appear, Hogan said.

Macri has no previous record, he is reported to have removed his two or three children from school shortly before the end of the spring term, and left with his wife from a Greenwich Village address, Hogan said.

Hogan said neither fugitive has been seen in New York since about June 1.

The attack on Lury came while he was on an afternoon organizing tour. As he stepped into a telephone booth to make a call two men set upon him without warning, stabbed him to death and fled.

Five persons have been held in high bail as material witnesses.

Beauty Contest To Be Staged At Sanlando

Local civic, fraternal and business groups have been invited to enter contestants in a "Jungle Queen" beauty contest to be staged at Sanlando Springs, on the afternoon of July 4. E. Stone, manager of the springs, announced today.

More than 20 Central Florida beauties are slated to vie for the jungle queen beauty crown and all will wear sarongs of the Dorothy Lamour style. Miss Lamour has sent one of her original sarongs to be featured in the show, said Mr. Stone.

This sarong will be awarded to the winner with Miss Lamour's compliments. A complete $100 fashion wardrobe will be offered to the winner. Other valuable prizes will also be offered for second and third place winners. A jungle throne, draped in leopard skin, will be prepared for the "Queen" to occupy during the colorful ceremony.

Amateur photographers are invited to take pictures of the contestants and prizes will be awarded for the best pictures submitted, Mr. Stone stated.

Other feature attractions of the day will include music, outdoor picnics, dancing and swimming in the clear water of the springs which is located west of Longwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton were the very gracious hosts Wednesday afternoon at their home in Fern Park, where they entertained the Community Woman's Club. During the first part of the afternoon, Mr. Merrill lectured on the history of art from the earliest times up to the present. He explained the differences between modern art and other schools of art, the importance of the circle and the triangle in art and how art should not be a subject for artists alone, but could be a fundamental part of every home.

After the lecture the club members participated in a very interesting open forum led by Mr. Merrill. He exhibited many of his works and told of the places in America, France, Mexico and other places where the subjects were to be found. Mrs. Merrill, assisted by Mrs. Marjorie Hattaway and Mrs. Elizabeth Bevan, served refreshments.

Children's Quarrels Can Be Prevented

By DAVID TAYLOR MARRS AP Newswriter

"Give it to me!" "I won't; it's mine!" "It isn't; I had it first!"

Five-year-old Mary snatched the toy from her younger brother; hot to be outdoors, he began to pummel her with powerful little fists, and she returned the blows with equal vigor. Two-and-a-half-year-old Nancy played her part by delivering the wood-grain lumps on each of her heads, alternately, with a long wooden spoon, while Baby Jim, from his cot, joined in the rumpus, by contributing repeated shrieks.

What can mothers do to prevent these distressing quarrels that many of us know so well? Let us look for the causes, solutions and the National Kindergarten Association.

A well-fed, rested and happy child, says the Association, can seldom be provoked to fight. He is merry—content—with the children, but children, like adults, are not always in this happy state; it is then that quarrels arise so easily, usually in another cause of friction.

Very often we find an elder child displacing a younger one. We are afraid to leave them in a room alone for fear that the elder will harm the younger child.

In such cases, says the Association, "it may be the elder child feels that you are giving more attention to the younger one, especially if the elder had been a great pet before the arrival of the latter. The fact that the younger child needs more attention is something the elder must be made to understand. Perhaps, if she were taken into a 'partnership' in bringing up the baby, she could be made to understand the baby's need, and then she will feel proud and important in helping mother care for him."

Where no such efforts to bring about understanding is made, both children will pass a stormy childhood, continually scrapping, says the Association.

Children's quarrels often arise on account of their possessions. Each member of the family should have a spot—a shelf or drawer—where treasures can be kept free from interference. Respect for another's property is not born but must be taught. With their innate sense of justice, very young children soon learn this lesson—a lesson large in its significance in every later undertaking.

In many groups there is a bully who grabs all he can—beats the swing, the wagon, or the car longer than his turn, knowing others are not able to take anything from him. One good way to deal with this fellow, says the Association, is to give him responsibility, as seeing that little ones have share of opportunities and play things. This appeals to his self-importance.

Quarrels have a wonderful sense of rightness, of fairness, and when evenly matched in age and size, can usually settle differences without help. So, when cries set nerves tingling, parents urge to rush in and deal punishment; first investigate fully. This truly requires the wisdom of Solomon.

Nursery quarrels cannot be wholly swept away, says the Association, human nature being what it is. But after seeing the Child in Los Angeles on a charge of snatching $3,278 from a jeweler who employed her as a bookkeeper. Mary Jane Cruser, 27, of Orange, N. J., was identified by her fingerprints as the girl police were seeking as an innocent victim. She denied having snatched, declaring she changed her name to Diana L. Hunter when she came to the West Coast and that she lost the jeweler's money betting on horses, according to police. (International) our charges are physically well, let us discover and remove any reason for a feeling of unfairness. Teach the boys and girls respect for another's property, and always allow time for them to settle their differences themselves. Above all, concludes the Association, let us, their parents, show them a continuous example of harmonious living.

SUMMER CAMPS

Before sending your children to a summer camp there are a few things to be checked. You should investigate the leadership of the camp, the activity program, health provisions and medical facilities, purity of the water, food to be served and by whom, bedding arrangements and sleeping hours, and safety measures in camp activities and especially in water sports.

Animal's Marrow Is Taste Thrill For Noted Painter

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK. —(AP)— Tired of eating the same old things? Want a new flavor thrill? Then why not try some tasty marrow from a woolly mammoth aged for 10,000 years in nature's northern icebox? You'll never get it.

Charles R. Knight has remembered the sensation for 25 years. He is an artist famous for his pioneering paintings of prehistoric life.

"About a quarter of a century ago the American Museum of Natural history got some bones and flesh from a woolly mammoth trapped in the Alaskan ice perhaps 10,000 years before," he recalled.

"We were curious as to what it would taste like, so we tried some of the marrow. It tasted exactly like rancid grease."

Nobody asked for a second helping. Knight feels he was luckier than some Russian scientists who dined on the flesh of another woolly mammoth caught long ago in the Siberian deep freeze.

"They got awfully sick," he said.

All the world's a graveyard to this 74-year old artist who perhaps as much as any one man has helped the past come alive. Since 1894 he has specialized in painting prehistoric men and animals, and he was the first to do so scientifically—based on reconstructed fossils.

His large-scale murals hang in a dozen well-known natural history museums across the country, and his work was collected by such nature lovers as the late J. P. Morgan, Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania, and historian Charles A. Beard. His fifth book, "prehistoric man," soon will be published.

His 65-year study of the earth as it was in the days of the dinosaurs has convinced him modern man doesn't have too much to brag about.

"Ancestral man has existed for perhaps a million years," said Knight, "but he didn't assume his present manlike shape until the cro-magnon man of Europe, some 30,000 years ago.

"And the cro-magnon was just as good a man as we are, mentally and physically. The cro-magnons averaged 5 feet 9 inches tall, but some were 6 feet 3 or 4 inches.

"You could bring a cro-magnon man to New York City today and after you had shown him a few wonders, he'd be able to get along all right."

He'd be able to appreciate television as well as the next cliff dweller.

Knight is convinced that mankind's biggest defeat is his failure to develop spiritually.

"With all our advantages we haven't advanced spiritually, as we can and should and must," he said. "I don't think that spiritually we are better than cro-magnon."

"Confucius, Christ, Mohammed—these and other messiahs have told us a thousand times what to do. We know what to do—but we don't do it.

"I don't know what to make of modern man. He throws away his possibilities. He is a deliberate fool—the worst kind of a fool."

But Knight thinks there is little use for man to trust that nature will bail him out of the trouble he is getting himself into.

"He will destroy himself unless he returns to more spiritual ways. He's a goner."

"Nature never helped any animal out of a hole. She won't help man out either. And he has problems just like any other animal."

Orange Nog
Mix 1 1/2 cups chilled orange juice, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, and 3 tablespoons sugar. Stir mixture slowly into 2 cups chilled milk.

Mix thoroughly and serve at once. Makes 4 servings of about 1 cup each.

For Orange Egg Nog: Add fruit juice mixture gradually to 2 well-beaten eggs, then stir into diluted milk and mix as directed for Orange Nog. Makes 4 servings of about 1 cup each.

Spiced Milk

Coplon Cries "Frameup" At Prosecutor

Ex-Justice Department Employee Denies She Ever Been A Communist

WASHINGTON, June 24 (AP)—Judith Coplon screamed "I've been framed" over and over today at the end of cross-examination in her espionage trial.

When Prosecutor John M. Kelley, Jr., finally said "that's all," Miss Coplon remained seated on the witness stand. Then for nearly ten minutes she shouted that she had been "entrapped" and "framed."

"This case is so smelly that it smells to high heaven," she cried in hysterical tones.

Earlier, in another emotional outburst, she had shouted that "I'm not a Communist and I've never been a Communist."

John M. Kelley, Jr., prosecutor in her espionage trial, was seeking to show sketches she wrote about three acquaintances included just the information the Russians wanted to know about possible espionage recruits.

The biographical sketches were found in Miss Coplon's pocketbook when the 28-year-old government worker was arrested last March and accused of pilfering FBI secrets to pass to the Russians.

In one, Miss Coplon had written that Lawrence E. Miller, Hubert Grigori, who was recently named "Why did she remember you as" (Continued on Page Two)

Barbecue Is Given By Elks Lodge For Hospital Benefit

About 850 persons enjoyed the barbecue given last night by the Elks Lodge at their grounds on East First Street as a means of raising funds for the Florida State Hospital.

Carl Williams and Joe Corley had charge of the barbecuing and were assisted by A. Menendez, Leo Butner, John Probat and Mr. Lodge.

A short meeting followed the barbecue after which dancing was enjoyed at the lodge. A delegation from Cocoa was present, headed by District Deputy Grand Excelsior Fernald, Hubert Grigori, who was recently named by Governor Warren as assistant state attorney in this district.

Bill Bunning, past vice-president of the Florida State Elks Association, was present with an Orlando delegation.

Several afternoon showers failed to halt the preparation of the barbecue which included 300 half chickens, 50 pounds of pork ribs and 35 pounds of spare ribs. Also on the menu were baked beans, slow and potato salad.

A number of firms contributed food for the barbecue, said Mr. Lodge. These included the Bell Baking Co. of Daytona Beach which contributed the bread; Wright Bros. Grocery, which gave 12 pounds of coffee and Central Florida Foods, Inc. which provided material for the barbecue sauce.

WASHINGTON, June 24 (AP)—President Truman today recommended legislation aimed at removing postmaster appointments from politics.

In a special message to Congress he urged enactment of a law to authorize the postmaster general to appoint all postmasters subject only to provisions of the Civil Service and Classification Act.

This would mean that the time-honored custom of the President appointing first, second and third class postmasters—of whom there are some 21,000—would be abandoned. Senate confirmation of the presidential choices likewise would no longer be a part of the routine.

Postmasters theoretically have been under the civil service system for some time. But legislators frequently had a hand in picking one of the first three passing the examination and, furthermore, the Senate for years has had the final say on confirming them. Fourth class postmasters are appointed by the postmaster general and do not have to be confirmed. These are the smaller offices.

The new legislation requested by Mr. Truman is in line with a recommendation of the Government Reorganization Commission headed by former President Hoover.

Senate Group Approves Hike In Low Wages

Pepper Explains Increase To 75 Cents An Hour Would Affect 1,250,000 Men

WASHINGTON, June 24 (AP)—The Senate Labor Committee today unanimously approved a bill to increase the present minimum wage of 40 cents an hour to 75 cents.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla.), a committee member, said the Labor Department figures that if the bill becomes law, it will mean pay raises for about 1,250,000 workers who in interstate commerce now make less than 75 cents an hour.

The committee did not go along with the idea that the law should be broadened to include many workers not covered by it now.

Pepper said the bill had been broadened so that it included only an additional 90,000 non-farm workers. These, he said, are engaged in processing agriculture products in so-called "cold storage" plants.

"Farmers still will have the exemptions they now have," Pepper said. And he added, "I think we have a bill which can get through both the Senate and the House."

The House Labor Committee also approved a 75-cent minimum wage bill. But the House bill would cover more workers than does the Senate version.

The Senate bill provides that in case of violation, the government could step in and use the employees on behalf of the employer. The Senate bill also would prohibit the employer from firing any worker who complains.

Other recommendations made by the President also in line with the Government Reorganization Commission report include placing the Postal Department under the government with a business type budget, audit and accounting procedures as prescribed by that act.

As a corollary, he added, the legislature should give the department "the same degree of financial and operating flexibility as is now possessed by most federal service organizations."

"Such legislation," the President said, "is essential if the postal service is to be conducted on a business basis."

Mr. Truman pointed out that under the existing system, the postal service operates under 58 separate appropriation items. Each of these must be justified independently, approved by Congress, and appropriated for each month by the Budget Bureau.

On the subject of postmaster appointments, Mr. Truman said, "It is more important than that of selecting the personnel who are to operate the business. It is the responsibility of the postmaster general to appoint postmasters and other postal employees, subject only to the provisions of the Civil Service Act."

R.F. Moule Replenishes Garden Soil By Raising Worms As Hobby

Among Sanford bookkeepers who indulge in creative hobbies in spare time is R. F. Moule, bookkeeper for the Chase Investment Co., whose hobby is raising earthworms which replenish garden soil and which are prized by anglers.

The 2,000 odd varieties of worms are one of many kinds created by Moule, he said. They would be much less fertile, Mr. Moule pointed out.

Becoming interested in the subject of worm raising several years ago, he secured 500 worms of a "large" and "medium-sized" variety which do not leave their holes and migrate. This was in August, 1947. On the first of the following year he got 400 more specimens.

Since that time he has raised thousands of worms in compost beds and in boxes at his home at 2444 Myrtle Avenue, has disposed of numbers of worms to gardeners and fishermen, and still has on hand an estimated worm population of about 10,000.

Large numbers of the worms live and breed in a compost bed made of a large bottomless box placed inside a shed. Smaller units are in soil and compost fill of feet high. More worms are propagated in a large compost pile in which rotting leaves and vegetable waste are used.

Replenishing in nature, each worm is potential "manure of paper," and every five to eight days lays a small lemon-colored capsule containing three to 17 eggs, which hatch within three weeks time.

Mr. Moule, bookkeeper, is shown with one of the worms which he has successfully bred by the thousands. He has found that worms are of much value to his garden at 2444 Myrtle Avenue and has made an art of raising them in his home.
