BUDGET OF OPINION "JUST BETWEEN YOU AND ME."

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A CHIEF IS AMONG YE TAKING NOTES AND FAITH. "HE'LL PRENT 'EM"—SO SAYS SAUNTERER.

Men seem to think the styles for women this season are very, very funny and one hears a great deal of sport made of the clothes women wear. We must confess that the styles when carried to the extreme do look ridiculous and it is just possible that women, in trying to be stylish, are over doing it. As I understand the prevailing fashion it is based on styles that were in vogue many years ago and that simplicity and quaintness should be striking characteristics. But a few days ago I saw a young woman on the street who, in my opinion, was one of the best dressed women I have seen this year. Her costume was inexpensive and no doubt home made. The black dress with its ruffles and tucks, the lace about the neck, and the little black hat with the jaunty tilt, made her look as if she had just stepped out of an old picture. There was a naturalness about the young woman and her costume and although she may have envied the exaggerations that she passed on the street she was, indeed, a well dressed woman. In my judgment—as if an old married man had any judgment in the matter—the woman who exaggerates and misinterprets the fashion of the day by adding artificialities, is a poor dresser.

The difference between what a man would like to do and what a man ought to do is the problem that bothers a host of men just now who are enlisted in the national guard. To leave a family and a job just now when there are enough idle men on the street of the 10 great American cities to whip the whole universe, seems rather foolish. Still, there is a moral obligation that most men like to fulfill and will not fulfill if possible. It is keeping a lot of men awake these nights that are especially made for sleeping.

The fuss and feathers and crash of arms reminds us. Whatever because of the "Shafter." And that in turn reminds us to urge the War Department to start early this time and accept no generals who have the gut. And what about embalmers? This is a good time in a way to find that out!

The great Confederate reunion on Florida soil was one of the best meetings of the old boys that has ever been held and they have departed for their homes many of them having taken leave of their comrades for the last time. This brings to my mind again the deplorable fact that Sanford never shows any interest in the Confederates. There is no chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy here and the Confederate Memorial Day comes and passes and you never hear of it. Every other city in Florida had some observance of this great day and it would seem that Sanford with all the veterans and slaughter and sons could organize camps and chapters and keep green the memory of those gallant men who fought for the cause that to them was the right although it was the lost cause. The Florida Secession Congress or convention held at Tallahassee for the purpose of discussing the advisability of seceding from the Union had as a member, William Woodruff, father of Hon. Frank Woodruff and Mrs. C. C. Woodruff of this city. There are many others here who fought in the Florida companies, in the Georgia, Alabama, Virginia and other southern states armies and it is sad indeed that our city so strong in southern sentiments is not strong enough to organize and observe the southern memorial days. My old friend Hetherington of the Lakeland Telegram made a memorial address the other day at Bartow and while on this line I wish to reproduce it for the benefit of the old boys of the stars and bars. Since we could not honor their memory on memorial day I will at least give them Hetherington's beautiful tribute:

"And while today we sing the song of the vanquished of the heroes who went down in defeat, there is dominant a note of triumph. There are defeats which are more glorious than an opponent's victory—so-called failures, more splendid than the thing which the world worships as a success. No life was ever lived to better purpose than that which was devoted to the defense and upholding of honest conviction, or which was sacrificed for the sake of principle. And so, as we deck these graves with flowers of loving memory, we have pride in the record and the deeds of these heroes of the South, who with fortitude bore the cross, and whom we therefore honor equally with those who wore the crown. Aye, I had rather sleep the sleep of one of those who lie in the obscure grave of an honored Confederate soldier, and have children come in the glad springtime and raise their sweet voices in prayer and song and lay flowers upon my dreamless dust; to have gentle women come some time where I sleep and softly say, 'He was a true man and I fought for those he loved and the things he believed to be right; to have old men, wearing the cross of bronze upon their breasts, to pause at my graveside, and bare their heads and call me 'Comrade'—I had rather be such an one than to lie with a covering shaft of marble above my dust, inscribed with the name of the mightiest conqueror who ever brought sorrow and desolation upon the earth. Such a soldier, whether the end came amid the battle's crash, or after he had taken up the task of repairing the ravages of war, might well envy the sleep that knows no waking as one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies him down to pleasant dreams."

Important Motto.

His Opinion.
"It seems to me," ventured the skippy little Mr. Henpeck, "that Professor Peekhead's article advising men to be very careful in their choice of wives lacks—er—well, verisimilitude, or—ah!—some such word. As far as I have ever known the man had no more to do with choosing his wife than he has with getting his photograph taken—he just keeps still, looks as pleasant as he can and accepts whatever is given him."—Judge.

Not What He Was Looking For.
"I never robbed a man but once," said the honest tramp, "and then I was starved. He would not give me a penny, and I couldn't stand the gnawings in my stomach any longer. So I knocked him down and went through his pockets. What kind of a haul did I make? Just one little bottle, which read on the label: 'Popin'—for that full feeling after eating.'"

Control.
I would have nobody to control me; I would be absolute; and, who but I? Now, he that is absolute can do what he likes; he that can do what he likes can take his pleasure; he that can take his pleasure can be content; and he that can be content has no more to desire. So the matter's over; and come what will come, I am satisfied.—Cervantes.

One Man Benefited.
Jukes—"Who was the best man at the wedding?"
Jenkins—"Well, I'm not sure. The bride's father got all the hills to pay, the bridesroom had to buy diamond brooches for the bridesmaids, the guests had to give handsome presents; upon my word, I think the best man was the clergyman—he was the only one who made anything out of it."

Minuteness of Molecules.
If we try to count the number of molecules contained in one cubic millimeter of hydrogen gas, first arranging them in groups of a billion each, it would take a thousand years to count these groups. So writes M. B. Holl, a French physicist, illustrating the powerlessness of figures.

Really Had Provocation.

Killing at East

East, May 14. N. F. Blackwell, member of the First State Bank of this city, shot and instantly killed Ernest Hampton at the latter's home Monday night about eight o'clock. It is alleged that Blackwell had been paying attention to Hampton's wife, which were resented by Hampton. A quarrel ensued.

Previous to the tragedy, Blackwell had attempted to borrow a gun from a neighbor, but was unsuccessful and went to the store to purchase a gun. He secured a shotgun. Going back to the Hampton home he met Hampton in the yard and shot him.

Immediately after the murder Blackwell ran to his boarding house and was taken into custody there. He was brought to the county jail at Tallahassee and held there for safekeeping.

THE SANFORD HERALD

Published Every Tuesday and Friday Morning by THE HERALD PRINTING COMPANY

R. J. MULLY, Editor W. M. HAYNES, Business Manager

Subscription Price, $2.00 a Year in Advance

Delivered in the City by carrier $2.00 per year in advance or 20c per month.

Entered as second-class mail matter August 22nd 1908, at the Postoffice at Sanford, Florida under Act of March 3rd, 1879.

Office in Herald Building Telephone No. 142

If the Sanford Herald will just play "Dixie" again, the editor of The Herald will go to Pensacola and kill one of those Mexican seals.

C. W. Post, the Battle Creek Postum man committed suicide a few days ago. "There must have been a reason."

The President refused to leave the White House for a minute, even to throw the first ball at the ball park. This, gentlemen, is war with all its hallish trimmings!

The special State Vehicle for the dissemination of the views of the candidates is out and it is a frost of the worst kind. If this was pulled off by Senator Bryan it is enough to defeat him.

The hulkheading is coming and no crowding will eliminate it. The hulk will be built and no hammers will stop it. And while on this subject would it not be a good time to throw away your hammers and get a horn?

"Writing," says Ambassador Page, "is an absurd career and a foolish, foolhardy business, and no man has a right to take it up who can avoid it." Paste that on your thesis, Sanford graduates!

Article in Tampa Tribune states that eating paper will cure many ills but mainly constipation. There are a number of old fossils that we could enumerate that ought to eat a year's issue of The Herald. May be then we could raise enough money to build a hotel.

The big meeting of newspaper men will be held in Orlando on July 1st. The Lake Region Press Club will meet there and all are expecting a jolly time because Orlando is well, it is Orlando and that is sufficient and it will be like coming home to the president of the club.

At the meeting of medicine in Orlando this week Dr. C. R. Christ read a paper "Sandpaper in the Larynx and how to remove it." Now that is all right from a medical standpoint but will you please tell us about a sandpaper in a silk stocking and how to remove it?

If Editor Holt of the Sanford Herald will go to this office we will gladly distribute enough free copies of this issue, may be read the last was to allow that the youngest eyes could not tell it from a blank sheet of paper.

While John Stockton was speaking in Ocala the other night an alarm of fire was given and the speech maker was broken up. This was undoubtedly the work of some dandy fireman who had come from nearby town to see the speech and get a good view of the speaker.

Inadvertently we credited an article to the Orlando Sentinel the other day when it really went to the Citizen. It was something about the outfit of The Herald but those they don't care about.

The committee are anxious to have done by the Herald special of May 26th because they will not hold many meetings and they want to result the people. There will be no better way than through the columns of that issue for it will go into every home in Seminole county. Remember the date and that the time for getting up copy is limited.

Tax Assessor Bates has filed on the tax books of Seminole county about $750,000 more than the books formerly contained. This increase is from property that has never been assessed at the true value and will give the county approximately $110,000 in money for 1914. This the taxes have been equalized instead of being raised. The money is on the books and no one is hurt and the county officials have made good their promise that equal taxes would prevail but every tax payer would pay taxes and there would be no doing.

JUST SO

Candidates for county offices—especially those aspiring to the positions of Representative and county commissioner—should let the people know what they stand for. We heard one candidate remark that "candidates should not be tied up by pledging themselves—they should be left to do what they think is right." We do not agree with him. Those who fill public offices are public servants, and they should take their instructions from their employers. If there are certain things the people want done, then the candidates should not be averse to stating their position on these things. If a candidate stands for anything, he ought not to hesitate to state what he stands for. Let us hear from you, boys; come out on the stump and take the voters into your confidence. GETTING BETTER

Some of the state's best newspapers—notably the Miami Herald and the Orlando Sentinel—are commenting on the ridiculous habit some editors are addicted to of harping on their poverty. Generally these references to a poverty stricken condition are intended as a joke on themselves by the editors, but the joke is a sorry one, and the effect on the dignity and respectability of the profession is undesirable. There is no more dignified or honorable calling in the world than that of journalism, and under proper conditions it is not unremunerative. If an editor makes the poverty stricken plea in earnest, he is either a misfit or he had better change his environment. Any man who has shown that he can edit a newspaper with ability can command a first class salary at any time—for the field is not over-crowded with those who have that peculiar ability. A newspaper is a business institution, in every way as respectable as the banks of its city. Usually it is fully abreast of all other lines of business in its community, and frequently a little in advance. The days of the boom fighting poverty stricken editor and the cockroach infested newspaper office have passed, and given place to an entirely different order of things. Lakeland Telegram.

Florida Crop Notes

A. O. Andreu has returned from Williston, where he spent a couple of days. He says the cucumber growers feel decidedly blue over the present outlook for the cucumber yield. A few weeks ago it was believed that the yield would be a record breaker, but the drought has cut it more than half, doing, by estimation, $150,000 damage. Even the tractors which are equipped for irrigation are feeling the effects of the dry weather.

About 25 cars were loaded at Williston Tuesday. Most growers ship direct to the market, hence buyers are few there now. The prices range between $2.25 and $2.75 (Gainesville Sun).

The Plant City Courier says 24,000 crates of cucumbers, potatoes and tomatoes, at about 70 cars, have been shipped to northern markets from Plant City in the past six days, netting the local growers approximately $42,000.

The report comes from Sorrento that all the garden and fruit trees in that section are missing the blossoms. Leaves of the orange and tangerine are curling up and falling and the set fruits are dropping off in such quantities that it is feared the coming crop will be less than the last one, in spite of the record bloom in the early spring.

A car of tomatoes shipped to New York on the 2nd inst. brought in 10 cents, the highest price of Florida, and $1.02 per bushel. Another car was shipped a few days later, but the price received has not been learned. Mr. T. J. ... has probably the largest tract of land under irrigation in the state, which 150 has the Shuman system of overhead irrigation. He raised from three to five crops per year from the same land and a recent published statement over his signature gave the information that from the 100 acres under the Shuman system of overhead irrigation he netted $50,000 last year. Bartow Note.

Meeting of Stockholders The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Southern Produce Company, a corporation of the state of Florida, and having an office in New York City, N. Y., will be held on June 5th, 1914, at 2 p. m., at Room 31, 49, 4th Avenue, New York City, to elect officers and to act upon amendments to the Articles of Incorporation and on an increase of the capitalization. By order of the president, F. A. SWARTZ, Secretary.

Is Fenole a Household Necessity?

This question can best be answered by any one of the thousands of housewives in Tampa and elsewhere who have been using Fenole exclusively as an insecticide and disinfectant in their homes. They have found it to be most economical, safe, effective and convenient preparation that they have ever used. Fenole is economical to use, because distributed as it is with a spray pump there is absolutely no waste; it goes farther and kills more insects to the gallon than any other preparation on the market. It is safe to use anywhere and everywhere; insects killed with Fenole will not be around as a menace to the lives of your pets or stock; it does its work quickly, and then evaporates completely. It can be sprayed all over the furniture, carpets and clothing, and will neither stain nor injure the most delicate fabrics. Fenole is very effective in its work. You can not only kill all the insects in sight, but the fine vapor penetrates the smallest cracks and crevices, destroying the nests and eggs completely. It is always ready to use; you can "shoot" the troublesome pests on sight, or, suspicious, without hesitation or preparation. As a disinfectant, Fenole is invaluable. The fine vapor from the sprayer seeps out and kills germs and microbes in the air, on the floors and walls; its use around the kitchen sink, in the toilet, around the garbage can, etc., will immediately dissipate odors and germs and will quickly evaporate, leaving everything clean and odorless. Sometimes a person buying Fenole for the first time, will ask: "Is it dangerous to breathe the vapor or odor of Fenole in one's lungs?" The answer is: No, POSITIVELY NO. Its powerful antiseptic composition makes it absolutely beneficial to breathe. In fact, the free use of Fenole around the house will go a long way toward preventing the contraction of contagious diseases, especially those which affect throat and lungs. We put Fenole ready to use. You will discover its uses and one uses for it, and be more than pleased with the good results obtained. You will then agree with thousands of others that FENOLE IS A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY. Sold by Terminal Hardware Co., FENOLE CHEMICAL CO., Tampa, Fla.

Some Potato Raiser. L. J. Hancock, who lives in the Silver Lake district holds the championship for raising Irish potatoes. His easy planting and not materialize as he thought it should and he planted later potatoes in the field wherever he found the first crop deficient. The result was that the first crop was ready for market on March 1st and the second crop came on May 1st. He has a total of 10 barrels of potatoes better than 10 barrels to the acre and the potatoes are of the best quality, bringing a top price at the local grocery stores. Mr. Hancock states that it is no more difficult to raise Irish potatoes in this country than to raise sweet potatoes and every one knows that raising sweet potatoes in Florida requires nothing but the ground and the plants and some one to stick the plants in the ground.

Might be Larger. He says you call them prize entries. My father once raised a calf that was 100 lbs.

Attendant. I see he did say, but they always attend to their own business.

Growth Of The Seminole County Bank. It is a matter of congratulation to Sanford and her people, that the financial condition of their city has so improved in the past year. The fact that the city is supporting a third bank, and that the growth of THIS BANK has been very rapid, is a most certain evidence that Sanford has at last begun to reap the reward she has long deserved. The Seminole County Bank has been of great assistance in bringing this change about, and the fact that the deposits of this institution have increased in the past six months from $42,916.05 to $185,975.85, shows the desire of HOME PEOPLE to support a HOME INSTITUTION. GENEVA ITEMS

Mrs. G. R. Nicholson has been called to Osteen on account of the illness of her daughter-in-law. Herbert Spier has accepted a position with J. P. Musselwhite. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pitts left last Friday for Griffin, Ga., where they expect to spend the summer. Mrs. Graham and grand daughter, Miss Myrtle Sheldon are spending a while in Daytona, where the latter is taking violin lessons.

These moonlight nights are so very pleasant and Lake Harney, so inviting that hardly a night passes that there is not some party or picnic there.

On account of ill health Bert Paternal was compelled to give up his studies in New York and return home to Geneva.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker spent last Saturday shopping in Sanford. Mrs. M. E. Dooley entertained Miss Crawford and Miss Margie Kilbee at supper last Thursday evening.

Mrs. C. A. Raulerson visited Daytona last week.

Mrs. Hand from Titusville was in Geneva last Friday giving painting lessons. She has quite a good size class.

Mesdames Wicks and Culpepper visited Sanford last Thursday.

A party of our citizens visited DeLand last week in the interest of the auto road.

Our postmaster, J. M. Riehlender, has received his commission and has officially taken charge. A new building has been erected near the depot.

A negro was found to be violently insane at the turpentine mill last week and was carried to the asylum.

The many friends of young John Huddleston will be interested to know that he is studying medicine in Washington, D. C. All wish for him much success, for in no other profession is the scope quite so wide to be found of material and spiritual good to the human race.

The school at Geneva will close next Friday and on Saturday there will be a big picnic on Lake Harney, to which every one is invited. The teachers, Miss Crawford, Mrs. W. L. Sieg and Miss Margie Kilbee deserve much credit for their splendid management this term.

The wood is gathered and seasoned on the banks of the barbecue pit on Lake Harney, in anticipation of that proposed candidate barbecue, but somehow nothing but the wood seems to be ready. Where are the anxious candidates?

Woodland Park Notes

Down the puffin. The city council could not say it plainer than by refusing to provide shelter on the city dock for the growing crowd of pleasure seekers who throng the city dock every Sunday trying to get at Woodland Park. They simply cannot wait for boats to return for them on that unprotected city dock. Every Sunday from 10 to 12 people fail to get passage. The park has been crowded every fair Sunday since the opening of the season. This week the Special City Council should consider the matter. Mrs. J. C. G. and Mrs. J. C. G. have leased the park for their picnic and next week the Monroe school will monopolize it one day. The Eagles have leased the grounds for a big blow out on the 25th. They will have a fish fry and it is a puzzle how they can give a round trip ticket, admission to the park and fifty cents' worth of fish, etc., for twenty-five cents. There will also be a stag (evening) party one day this week. Other affairs are spoken of also, so Woodland Park seems to be very much in demand this season. WOODSMAN.

Victor Starbuck Poet

Writing in the Tampa Tribune today, C. H. B. Floyd says in Part: Did you know that Florida had a great poet? His name is Victor Starbuck; he practices law in Orlando, Florida. Read his poem in the April Lippincott's on God; and his poem in May Scribner's in which he paints a square yard of Practising Law in Orlando and hangs it on the wall in the temple of art.

When I read his poem in the April Lippincott's I sent him my verse on God. I thought he was a weird prince who lives next door to Maxfield Parrish and looked like Shelley and slept all day and watched the moon rise and the stars set all night. I sent my letter in care of Lippincott's and received an answer from Orlando, Florida.

TRICE'S TRUMPETER

(Articles Published under this heading furnished by M. P. A. Bureau, Jacksonville)

The thousands of Florida visitors to Jacksonville last week went away feeling proud of the metropolis of their great state, and they have a right to feel proud of it. It is so small undulating for a city whose normal capacity for entertainment does not exceed 35,000, to care for and amuse for three days and nights a sudden influx of some three hundred thousand. But the Jacksonville spirit long since discarded the word "failure" from its vocabulary, and rises majestically supreme to every tax laid upon her energy.

In 1888 the yellow fever plague hovered vulture-like over the environs of Jacksonville. The death spectre stalked forth by day and night, without respect to person or condition in life. Consternation seized the people. Out of the general chaos came forth heroes with hearts of iron and volunteered to cope with the monster of disease. By order of the authorities these lucky enough to escape with contamination scattered by these four winds until the monster could be throttled. When the wires flashed the glad tidings that yellow fever had been banished, the authorities did not forget the men who had saved the city. The volunteers of the fever and Jacksonville once more took up its determined fight for commercial and civic supremacy. A few years later a tiny curl of

The treatment accorded visitors during reunion week has emphasized the Jacksonville spirit of never fail as nothing else has during the past few years. Nor did the visitors find the seething cauldron of vice and intemperance, which certain agitators delight in portraying as a part of Jacksonville life, because Duval county refuses to adopt their peculiar political views. Tampa Stomach Sufferer Gains Weight After Wonderful Remedy

Alex. George Defeats Dyspepsia After Suffering Stomach Ills for Years. Alex. George of 401 Hampton Avenue, Tampa, Fla., after years of suffering with indigestion and other stomach ills, took a dose of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy "just to try it." He got swift relief and in a short time found himself gaining in weight. In a letter he wrote: "I took your sample treatment after suffering for years with various stomach troubles, pains and heaviness after eating, less on the stomach, sour stomach and all the forms of dyspepsia. The first treatment relieved me and I sent for three bottles more. Now I feel so free from my old complaints I hardly know how to express my gratitude. I can eat anything I want and have gained flesh and strength." That letter from Mr. George is typical. Thousands have taken Mayr's Wonder

A Man-to-Man Statement By the Florida Citrus Exchange

The citrus fruit growers of Florida this year probably will produce the largest crop of oranges and grapefruit in the history of the state.

Whether or not this large crop of fruit will mean corresponding income and profit to the growers depends almost entirely upon the way in which it is put into the markets of the North.

The Florida Citrus Exchange is just closing the fifth and most successful year of its history. It has made good for its members to a degree not heretofore equalled by any cooperative marketing organization.

It has introduced and secured the adoption of methods of packing and packing which insure that the fruit at hand is ready for the market in good condition and in such abundance as to attract the favorable attention of buyers.

It has carried the message of the superiority of Florida oranges and grapefruit to the court of last resort—the ultimate consumer through effective advertising, with the result that many markets in which formerly there was little or no sale for fruit grown in this state now demand it.

On the threshold of its sixth year, the Florida Citrus Exchange comes to the growers of Florida, proud of its record and confident of its future, asking that in the coming season of promised great production, it be given the handling of a larger proportion of the crop—because this is done, not only can it maintain but increase the efficiency of its work and do even more for the citrus growers, whose prosperity is so important to the state.

PAUL'S POINTS
 Mrs. J. A. Rane left for her home in Brockville, Ont., on the 2nd, making the entire trip by water. Mrs. Lane was much benefited in health by her winter at "The Turtle," one of the most attractive places in this vicinity and owned by Mr. Frank Brown, brother of Mrs. Lane. There is a thrifty fifteen year old orange grove of some five acres, on level ground back of the bungalow, which stands on the crest of a high bluff overlooking the lake. The bungalow is a model of cozy comfort with its prettily furnished rooms, and big breezy veranda, nicely screened from any wandering insect life, adorned with many flags and pennants, and furnished with couches and seats that make one feel lazy to even look at. The steep slope to the clear waters of lovely "Banks" Lake is shaded by a grove of pine saplings, and will be further beautified when the numerous shade trees that have been planted grow larger. At the foot of the hill, a regular Indian canoe waits ready to give aquatic sport to those inclined that way. A conspicuous ornament of the grounds is the "Union Jack" always flying to the breeze. Mr. Brown has a fine little library to which he is constantly adding, and to which his friends are always welcome. With the exception of a yellow cat, who patrols the grounds, the place is free from all animal life. No pests are to be seen, as its master desires to be sure free in that respect, and at liberty to run away for a holiday whenever he chooses.

C. M. Cleveland has gone to Waukegan on business and may not return until fall. Mr. and Mrs. Kreslin of New York are visiting Mrs. Cleveland and will assist her in the management of "Echo Lodge" during the summer.

Mrs. Bridge is entertaining as well as instructing the children of Paola with a "Sunday school" class at her home every Sunday morning. This is surely a good work, and is no doubt much appreciated.

C. D. Pearson went to Jacksonville during the recent reunion, where he enjoyed himself immensely and says the crowd was something worth seeing.

Jack Booth also spent a couple of days in the metropolis, and reports a good natured and orderly crowd, fine decorations, good music, big parades and pretty girls as thick as huckleberries and twice as sweet. Something blew up or broke down at the Zachary saw mill the other day, and made things lively there for awhile. But for the prompt courage of a colored employee, they say the trouble might have been more serious.

O. E. Walker of Topeka, Kans., is here for a short time. Mr. Walker's cousin, J. D. Taylor of Kankakee City, Mo., is personally supervising the work of growing 50 acres of potatoes on a portion of Mr. Walker's ground. The first 5 acres to be dug gave a yield of 100 bushels per acre, one field comprised 4 acres.

The signal towers of this dread condition, which some call malaria are coated tongue, lack of energy, dull eyes, constipation, sallow complexion.

Taken with regularity this proven scientific liquid vegetable medicine in the form of Caswell's Liver-Aid will prevent or promptly relieve all liver troubles.

FOUR CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS SPOKE IN SANFORD

MEETING NOT ADVERTISED TO DRAW CROWD

BUT THEY WERE GIVEN VERY CLOSE ATTENTION

THE MAIN CONVERSATION ABOUT PRESENT INCUMBENT AND HIS INSANILITY

The candidates flocked to Sanford on Saturday and before any one was aware of their intentions they had captured the place in its entirety. They were the candidates who think they can snatch the Congressional toga from the shoulders of Claude L'Engle and wear it with more grace than the present incumbent. Claude was not in the bunch but Joseph Sear, of Kissimmee, W. H. Malone of Key West, Albert Williamson of Jacksonville and St. Regis Orie, Abosta of Jacksonville, were all here in their glory and they related the streets in the afternoon and at night spoke to the people at the corner of First street and Park avenue. They had a large crowd and were listened to with attention. Space will not permit an extended account of the speeches of the candidates but most of the efforts were directed at Claude L'Engle and the fact that he was sick and unable to answer roll call was the burden of their speeches.

They are all good fellows and Joe Sear especially appeals to the people of this county as he comes from the interior. Billy Malone will also poll many votes here as will Williamson and Acosta as they all have their personal friends but if the meeting on Saturday changed any votes it was not apparent, although it was the consensus of opinion that Sear made the most telling speech since he did not say that he would get the people everything in the calendar but that he would do his best. The boys were very tired from their long campaign down the East Coast and their arrival was not heralded in advance, consequently they did not have the crowd from the country that would have attended and their talks were not as spirited as they would have been earlier in the campaign.

L'Engle was not represented by any one at the meeting as his friends here are confident that he will be elected on June 2nd, but those four contestants are certainly turning some and shaking every bush.

Travelling together to meet in joint debate brings to minds of the older voters the early days when this was a common practice and the people wanted to hear from all of them. It is a good thing for the voter to see all the candidates in action, hear them, talk to them and make up your mind accordingly. Congressman L'Engle is able to make the campaign over the state he will probably do so but at present he is engaged with the affairs of the nation at Washington and being crippled up with rheumatism cannot get around in an active campaign.

The fight in the Fourth will be full of life and it is about the only one that has awakened much enthusiasm and some of the candidates have promised to come back and make another trial before the campaign is ended.

They will always be welcome.

Another Puzzle

What to do with $100 which has been turned over by the various candidates for office in Seminole county is puzzling the members of the County Democratic Committee. The law says that each candidate shall pay five per cent of his annual salary as a primary fee. Of the three per cent goes to the county commissioners and is to be used in holding the primary. Two per cent goes to the county committee but the law does not say for what purpose this money shall be used or how it shall be expended. The county commissioners have about $1,000, which is more than enough to hold the primary. The Democratic Committee met in Clearwater yesterday to arrange for the primary. After talking over the political situation, the committee returned to their homes without having accomplished anything by going to Clearwater.

DIKTATOR WILL RESIGN JOB IF NECESSARY

GREEKS ARE FARMERS

Raising Vegetables and Silk Worms in Leon County

Tallahassee, May 19.—In January four Greeks, associated under the name of D. Barkis & Co., came to Tallahassee from Michigan, bought 105 acres of land two miles northeast of the city and immediately began to improve it for truck farming. The place was without houses, in a badly neglected condition, and they have had a great deal of work to do. But despite this they are now harvesting Irish potatoes, beans, onions, squash, cucumbers, cabbages and things of the market in this city. They have some vegetables and tomatoes coming on for a succession throughout the summer. Within a few weeks they will be supplying the market with cantaloupes and watermelons, their crop of each being very promising. They also have crops of corn, peanuts, sweet potatoes. They believe in variety and are seeking to introduce several new vegetables from their native country. They have also set out a large bed of asparagus, which one vegetable the True Democrat has often asserted can be made to make Tallahassee as famous as Sanford is for its celery.

Another industry to which they are giving particular attention is the growing of silk worms. They are adept in this business, having been regularly engaged in it in their native country. They claim that silk can be produced here within thirty days, where it takes forty-five days in Greece, and the earlier the production the more valuable. They have hundreds of worms farrowed out on the mulberry trees of their neighbors and are setting many mulberry trees themselves as if they mean business. They say that a few worms bring in from $30 to $100 to thousands of individuals in their country.

Their work is a great interest in beautifying their surroundings and flowers and shrubbery. They say they are greatly pleased with conditions here and that several other Greeks will join them here in the fall.

They will grow vegetables largely next season for shipment. They are also experts in poultry raising and machine incubation.

Killed by Lightning

Kissimmee, May 18.—During an exceedingly heavy electrical storm which passed over this section late Saturday afternoon, lightning struck Andrew Simmons, a prominent farmer residing near Fish Lake, about four miles southeast of Kissimmee, killing him instantly. Mr. Simmons was at work on his farm when the storm arose and before he had time to reach safety the bolt struck him. He was a man of middle age, industrious and well known in the vicinity and leaves behind him a family of six children.

One Thing to Remember

When you go to the polls Tuesday June 2 remember that in place of marking your ballot at the left of the name as you heretofore have done, the cross must be made at the right of the name of the person for whom you wish to vote. While there is no extra effort required to do this it is expected that there will be many a vote lost by the change among those who have been used to voting in this state.

Made Trip by Auto

Dr. J. N. Robson, R. R. Middleidge and Gregory left Wednesday for Richmond, Va. They will make the trip by auto. Mr. Eldridge returned to his home in Dillwyn, Va., after spending the winter in Sanford representing E. G. Miles & Co. His many friends hope to see Dr. and Mrs. Eldridge next winter. W. Harold Lopez will represent his home during his absence. Miss Mabel Bowler of Jacksonville is receiving many social favors during her stay in the city.

NEW FEATURE NOW CONFRONTS MEDITATORS

HUERTA IS PREPARED TO STEP DOWN AND OUT AT ANY TIME

Washington, May 19.—General Huerta has authorized the Mexican mediation delegates to submit his resignation in case such a course is necessary to a settlement in peace negotiations. This was stated positively in dispatches today from a thoroughly competent diplomatic source in Mexico City. As one of the foreign representatives here, and confirms intimations given by friends of the delegates here yesterday. According to this information from Mexico City, Huerta at first authorized the delegates to discuss only the question of the Tampico conflict leading to the American occupation of Vera Cruz. Later the Mexican dictator, it is explained, came to recognize the necessity of a broader settlement, and then conveyed to the delegates assurances that he was prepared to step down should this course be found necessary by them.

The problem causing chief concern to diplomats in Mexico City now is that of the form of administration during the interim, before a constitutionally elected president could assume office. No intimations concerning the name of a possible successor to Huerta were contained in the dispatch, this subject being one in which it would be necessary to consult opinion of Constitutionalists and other leaders in Mexico.

While the stage was being set in Niagara Falls today for the next act in the Mexican mediation drama, officials in diplomatic and administration circles eagerly discussed the extent to which the peace conference might go in attempting a settlement of the southern republic's ill. Reported optimism of the Huerta delegation over chances for mediation found reflection in the capital.

Members of the Mexican federal mission were in New York today. Minister Naon of Argentina, was in Niagara Falls to arrange for the beginning of the conference next Wednesday. Ambassador De Gama, of Brazil, was in New York, whence to leave for the Canada border town; Minister Suarez of Chile was to leave here today and members of the American mission were to depart direct for Niagara Falls to reach there Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning about the time the Huerta representatives arrive from New York.

Theoretically, the Huerta delegates face an international issue, but they are declared to have privately admitted that the real problem confronting them is the pacification of their country. At the same time persons in the confidence of the Washington government assert the question for mediation is larger in the Tampico flag incident and the numerous affronts to the honor of the United States, but the broad question of settling the troubled republic's ill. It is said that General Funston's troops never will be withdrawn from Vera Cruz until a firm government is established or assured in Mexico City.

Two incidents, among several which beclouded the mediation skies during the past week today remain unsettled. One was the fate of the Samuel Parks, an American infantry reported to have been executed after he had ridden into federal lines outside of Vera Cruz. The other was the detention of John R. Silliman, American vice consul at Saltillo, Silliman had not yet reached Mexico City, as had been promised but it was presumed the reason for delay was broken rail communication.

OVER MILLION TIRES

Takes This Many to Supply the Ford Factory

Detroit, Mich., May 19.—One million two hundred fifty thousand tires for this year's production of Ford cars is the estimate made by officials at the Ford factory in Highland Park, Mich.

This immense quantity will be supplied by four leading American tire companies. The tires arrive in daily shipments of sufficient quantities to keep pace with the production of the Ford factory. Each year contains about 400 sets of tires to take during the months of January, February, March and April when the factory production is around eleven hundred cars daily, approximately three hundred are very required for each day's production.

With 400 sets of tires to a freight car it will require approximately 351 cars, or a train approximately five and one half miles long to bring the year's tire supply to the Ford factory.

The tires are all shipped less valve caps and fittings, the inner tubes being in the cases. Upon their arrival at the factory the tires are assembled on wheels, innards, the fittings attached and sent down to the car assembly, where they are left as parts of completed cars. The department where this is assembled on wheels is an interesting one from a spectator's point of view. Here the big men of the factory, the Abyssinians, and its Hackenschmidt, keep their mauls in shape. The record for assembling tires on wheels was made by a pole who weighed something near 250 pounds. He assembled three hundred tires on wheels in a day and kept up the pace for days at a time. That is a completely new record and one of the fastest ever made.

One of the visitors at the factory recently figured out that if every tire received at the Ford factory this year travels in the course of its lifetime five thousand miles, and this is a conservative estimate of the life of a tire on a Ford, the year's supply of tires will have travelled a total distance of 6,250,000,000 miles, or 250,000 times around the world before the last one is scrapped.

EXCURSIONS TO CORONADO

Roads Will Make Cheap Rates During the Summer

That New Smyrna and Coronado will entertain hundreds of people at least several Sundays and perhaps every Sunday during the mid-summer season, is practically assured by a program being made in a movement to run Sunday excursions from Orlando and Sanford to this city.

The plan is to have the excursion train leave Orlando early in the morning Sunday, arriving here in the middle of the forenoon, and starting back in the late afternoon, giving the visitors several hours for sun bathing and amusements on the beach and getting them home before night.

It is understood that the plan is being favorably considered by the Atlantic Coast Line and Florida East Coast railroads, the two roads to work together in handling the excursion train. The trains will be taken from Orlando to Orange City Junction over the Atlantic Coast Line road, and there transferred to the Florida East Coast branch road for the run to this city.

The plan is to sell excursion tickets for the trip good from the starting station to the beach, a coupon for the ride to the beach being attached to each railroad ticket. Arrangements will be made with bus line, ferry and automobile lines to take the coupon in payment for the ride to the beach. A return coupon will also be attached to the return railroad ticket.

It is probable the plan will be tried out next month, as soon as possible after the building of the new pavilion at the beach has been finished, and the first experiment will be run as an experiment. If it proves successful an effort will be made to induce the railroad companies to continue the excursions every Sunday during the remainder of the summer season.

It is estimated that several hundred people, living in the interior towns will avail themselves of such an opportunity to spend several hours at the beach, and plans are now being talked and considered to furnish amusement and entertainment for the visitors when they arrive.

As yet plans have not been fully made, but it is practically certain the railroads will try out the experiment in the near future.—New Smyrna News.

THE GREAT NATIONAL GAME

Sanford Will Have Baseball This Summer Sure

A very successful meeting of baseball fans was held last Tuesday evening. After full discussion it was decided to place in the field an amateur team composed of local boys. Those present were able to ascertain from reliable sources of information that we have in our midst extra good material for one of the best teams in this section of the state.

All the boys ask is that they have the support of every person in Sanford who desires to have baseball in Sanford during the summer months. Mr. H. R. Stevens was elected to be manager of the team, for the coming year, and we all know from past baseball history in Sanford that if we support Mr. Stevens we will have a good team and good baseball in Sanford this year.

Mr. E. F. Lane was elected to fill the position of secretary and treasurer, and his office will be open to the voice of the people.

The finance committee, a very essential part of the success or failure of baseball is composed of the following men: Felix Frank, Chas. H. Dinger and E. P. Housholder. These men will call on you and state their purpose and it is hoped that every man in Sanford will heed the call for baseball in Sanford this year.

Let us all pull together and we will have a good team and good baseball. Teams in the field and open for games might be mentioned: Palatka, Loughman, The Phosphate League, Tampa, Eustis, Haines, East Coast towns, and of course if old Orlando desires to try and come back again we can take care of her, or we will give them the chance at least. Give us your support and we will give you baseball.

Have No Opposition

Tallahassee, May 18.—According to the provision of the new primary law, a candidate who has no opposition for the office he seeks, is already declared the nominee for that office, and his name will not appear on the ballot to be voted for in the primary election. Under the old arrangement the ballot was unnecessarily encumbered with the names of such candidates.

R. Hudson Burr and Newton A. Blitch, candidates for re-election to the office of a railroad commissioner, find themselves in a most enviable and commendable position in that they have no opposition and under the new law are already declared the nominees without the necessity of their names appearing on the ballot to be voted for.

The fact that they have no opposition is considered a most complimentary recognition of their services in the office which they have filled for the last several years.

Notice to Baseball Players

Every afternoon at 4:30 baseball practice begins. Come out, your assistance is needed. We cannot have a good team without players. The team will be a good one and a berth on there will be an honor. It is purely local. Come out whether you play or not and encourage the boys who are working for baseball. Come.

GENEVA PEOPLE HAVE BIG PICNIC CANDIDATES THERE

HAD A BIG TAKEAWAY FROM ALL OF THEM

MADE MANY FRIENDS IN EAST SEMINOLE

WELL FILLED LUNCH BASKETS WERE DEPLETED BY THE HUNGRY CROWD

There was a quail crowd attended the school picnic at Geneva last Saturday for Geneva has a reputation for hospitality that cannot be discounted. There were about twenty candidates and camp followers from this city that journeyed thither by boat and auto and when they lined-up at the table they did not leave anything that would bother the people by carrying it back home.

The people did not gather at the grounds until about eleven but the candidates were right on the job bright and early and worked every known dodge and artifice for the votes. At noon all the good people of Geneva had gathered all the good things to eat in the beautiful pavilion on the shores of Lake Harney and there the hungry ones fell to and devoured the chicken pie, fried chicken and all the good things that those Geneva ladies know how to make. After dinner the candidates were called upon to earn their dinner by speaking and all of them took their turn and told the people why they expected to be elected and gave an excuse for wanting their votes. That is all the candidates spoke that could be found. Some of them hid out, but Hon. Forrest Lake who presided managed to corral D. L. Thrasher, C. L. Polk candidates for Supt. of Public Instruction, E. A. Douglas candidate for Clerk, S. L. McBride and L. P. Hagan, County Commissioners, E. E. Brady and C. M. Haud for Sheriff, W. B. Hapley for Treasurer, T. K. Bates for Assessor, Geo. G. Herring and L. G. Strickfellow candidates for County Judge and several others. The day was greatly enjoyed by every one and there is no more beautiful spot in the county for a picnic or more generous hearted people to serve you than the people of Geneva and vicinity. Some of the candidates want to give the people of Geneva a fish fry before the campaign is over just so they can visit them again.
