

Resources For Development Of Area Discussed

Five kinds of resources were listed as pertinent to an area's industrial development, by Byihel Warrell, General Industrial Agent for the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, speaking to members of the Rotary Club, Monday.

The resources which must be good to interest potential industry include natural, industrial, trade, social and financial.

"Often the decision to locate in a community can hinge on unfavorable aspects concerning such things as cost of living, recreation, schools, trade areas or lack of civic organization, or other factors affecting the mental stimulation and development of the plant personnel," said Warrell.

Transportation facilities, electrical power, water, waste disposal, tax structures, climate, insurance rates, all affect favorable or unfavorable decisions to locate in a community, Warrell noted.

He praised the Chambers of Commerce for their help and cooperation in supplying pertinent information, and noted that the railroad's industrial development division employs geologists, agriculturists, chemists, civil engineers and forestry experts to guide them in their planning for future developments.

Warrell also emphasized the importance of dealing with prospective clients on a confidential basis, and cautioned those interested in industrial development not to overlook the possibility of the expansion of existing industry.

He noted the importance of providing jobs for young people, so that they need not leave the community or the area in order to find employment.

Next week, Rotarians will install new officers and will hear Kenneth Wacker, of Winter Park, former Lt. Governor of Rotary.

County Requests Larger Ad Fund

At the suggestion of Chairman James Avery, the County Commission today unanimously directed County Attorney Harold Johnson to prepare a bill for presentation to the county's legislative delegation which would permit an increase of Seminole's advertising fund from $25,000 to as much as $50,000.

The bill, if approved by the delegation, would be submitted to the 1965 session of the state legislature for its action.

Avery pointed out that if no action were taken at this time and no measure was presented to the 1965 session of the legislature, the county would have to await the 1967 session and, as he put it, "that would mean we could not increase this budget item until the 1967-68 fiscal year."

Avery said in making his proposal that the county could not wait that long for an increase in view of the growth and development of Seminole.

Lawmakers Will Go To Hearing

State Sen. Mack Cleveland and Rep. Joe Davis, both of Seminole, will be in Jacksonville Friday for the fifth in a series of public hearings by an interim special commission established by the 1963 session of the Legislature to study the abolition of the death penalty in capital cases.

Cleveland is one of three senators and Davis one of five representatives on the commission which has held previous hearings in Miami, West Palm Beach, Tampa and Winter Park.

Neither Cleveland nor Davis today would comment on the hearings except to say that the 15-man commission, which has seven non-legislative members, agreed that no public statements would be made until its report and recommendations, if any, are made to the 1965 session of the Legislature.

VOL. 56 United Press Leased Wire Established 1908 THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 1964 SANFORD, FLORIDA NO. 220

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Bisline, beloved couple of Longwood, who are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary. They will observe the occasion "quietly" at home, since Adeline's illness will prevent their "stepping out," John says. Their attractive home on the newly widened road between "Mobley Corner" and Longwood (right at the curve rounding the lake) has been the delivery point of many and many a card from well-wishing friends — of which John and Adeline have scores. May happiness abound for them today and forever.

The election of Art Beckwith, Seminole county clerk, as secretary of the State Association of Court Clerks gives Central Florida three of the top positions in this organization. Frank Owens of neighboring Lake County is president of the association and Curtis Barnes of Brevard, another neighbor, is treasurer.

Some citizens couldn't understand how the extension of 25th Street would tie in to Country Club Road. County Engineer Bill Bush explains that after leaving 20th Street Country Club Road curves southward enough so that 25th Street's extension will join it at an angle just west of the Lundquist place, or right at the entrance to Loch Arbor.

First steps to organize a Ladies Auxiliary for the Westside Volunteer Fire Department will be taken at a meeting of the group to be held at 8 p.m. today in the Lake Monroe Community Building. Interested women of the area are urged to attend.

Three of Sanford's "most famous" people will be celebrating birthdays Saturday—Dottie Austin, John Krider and George Stine. In honor of the occasion, City Hall will be closed all day and the Chamber of Commerce and the Sanford Herald will close at noon.

Brack Perkins, local haberdasher, says that "it's not a blow for a man when his wife strikes him agreeably."

During the first four months of this year 494 persons died in traffic accidents on Florida's streets and highways. In addition to the loss of loved ones killed in these mishaps, there was an estimated economic loss to everyone amounting to $90 million. "What a price to pay for carelessness," says Col. H. N. Kirkman, director of Florida's Highway Patrol.

For front line reports on Florida's war against poverty, call your Seminole County welfare office for a speaker. State Welfare Department programs are available for club meetings or discussion groups. For more information contact Florida's Department of Public Welfare, 227 Park Street, Jacksonville.

In Monday's Clock we reported that total sales by the Deltona Corporation for the first four months of 1964 amounted to $3,939,570. Actually, it was $4,939,570. A million dollar mistake probably doesn't mean much to you and us. But oh, boy, what it would have meant to the Macle Brothers. Whew!

Assistant County Agricultural Agent Ernie Lundberg reminds local growers of the Citrus Irrigation meeting to be held at 7:30 tonight at the Home Demonstration Center, 401 West 25th St.

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The Air Force has awarded Pan American World Airways a $110 million contract to operate the Atlantic missile range for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Viet Nam Talks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor began a series of consultations with State Department officials Wednesday in preparation for his new post as ambassador to South Viet Nam.

Bryant Won't Go

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Farris Bryant is expected to ignore a summons to a federal court contempt hearing in Jacksonville Friday, and will send his attorney instead.

Latins Tour UF

GAINESVILLE (UPI) — A delegation of Colombian officials toured the sprawling University of Florida Thursday and were briefed on the various Latin American programs offered at the school.

Eclipse Clouded

NEW YORK (UPI) — Inclement weather kept much of the East Coast from witnessing Wednesday night's total eclipse of the moon, but a partial eclipse was seen throughout the Midwest and part of the West.

Actors To Wed

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Ernest Borgnine, television skipper of "Mellale's Navy," and Broadway's Ethel Merman filled out a marriage license Wednesday in nearby Burbank. They listed his age as 47 and hers as 35.

Judy In Denmark

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, (UPI) — American singer Judy Garland and actor Mark Herron arrived by plane from Tokyo today for an overnight stay en route to London where Miss Garland plans to see her children, Lorna and Joseph.

Case Pushed

CHICAGO (UPI) — The government planned to press ahead with its fraud case against Teamster President James R. Hoffa and seven associates today despite a judge's vow to throw out two counts of a 28-count indictment.

Scranton Would Arm Exiles

MIAMI (UPI) — Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania took his campaign for Republican convention votes to Ohio today after outlining a Cuba policy here that calls for guerrilla warfare against Fidel Castro.

Scranton, accompanied by his wife and three of their children, left Miami aboard a chartered airline at 7:39 a.m. (EST). He was scheduled to arrive in Cleveland shortly after 11 a.m. (EST).

Fathers Host Sons At Kiwanis Luncheon

Over 100 men and boys and one little girl gathered at the Civic Center Wednesday for the annual Kiwanis Father and Son luncheon.

Kiwanians who had sons of their own, played host to them, and those who did not were hosts to the members of the Kiwanis Junior League luncheon team. There were 36 youngsters and six other guests present.

The lone girl-child was Sandy Eyck, granddaughter of Kiwanian Floyd Palmer, who said she was a "tomboy," who has "climbed all the trees on the place, even the palm trees."

Four generations of the family of Mayor A. L. Wilson were present, including the Mayor's father, the Rev. W. J. Wilson of Fitzgerald, Ga., his son, Fred Wilson and his grandson, Matt.

President John Darby had as his guests, three generations including his stepfather, Rev. W. J. Ashworth of Lakeland and his son, Johnny.

The father with the most sons present was Frank Dunn with sons Frank Jr., Roy and Bill.

Bert Hollingsworth, program chairman read a poem written by the late Gen.

Cigarette Firms Look To Courts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The cigarette industry declared today it would go to court "if necessary" to block a new government requirement that cigarette packages and advertisements carry warnings that smoking can be fatal.

The statement underscored the possibility that it may be four years or more before the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) ruling goes into effect — if ever.

A spokesman for most of the nation's cigarette manufacturers told a congressional committee today that the FTC "acted unlawfully" when it issued its ruling Wednesday.

Rosenbergs Now Heroes In Cuba

MIAMI (UPI) — Executed Russian spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg have been added to the list of "political heroes" in Communist Cuba.

Havana Radio reported Wednesday that ceremonies "commemorating the memory" of the Rosenbergs, who died in the Sing Sing prison electric chair in 1953, were held in the Cuban Foreign Ministry.

"The Rosenbergs were victims of American McCarthyist persecution," the Cuban broadcast monitored here said.

Area Searched For Bodies Of Missing Trio

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson has ordered 200 Marines, assisted by eight helicopters, to join in the search for three civil rights workers missing in Mississippi, the White House announced today.

The Marines have begun arriving in Mississippi to help the FBI, Mississippi state troops and others who are in the third day of the search for two white and one Negro civil rights volunteers, the White House said shortly after 12:30 p. m. EDT.

Johnson conferred this morning on the Mississippi racial situation with FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and with Asst. Atty. Gen. Burke Marshall, head of the Justice Department's Civil Rights Division.

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (UPI) — State and federal authorities broadened their search area today and began dragging farm ponds in the hunt for three civil rights workers missing since Sunday night.

Civil rights leaders expressed doubts that the three would be found alive, but authorities would not venture a prediction.

"We're broadening the search area," a spokesman for the state highway patrol said.

A door-to-door search was begun within the city limits of this east Mississippi town, and the spokesman said it would extend far into surrounding rural area, including going back over some territory covered Tuesday and Wednesday.

Fish That Walks On All Fours Gets Pickled

SIoux CITY, Iowa (UPI) — The case of the reluctant fish remained unsolved today.

Kenneth Wright got the surprise of his life Sunday when he pulled the six-inch fish from the waters of Horseshoe Lake, near Jefferson, S. D.

He flipped the fish onto the bank and the thing started running back toward the lake. Wright bounced on it and discovered the fish—which looked like an ordinary bullhead—had four legs.

The fish has five "fingers" on the back legs and four on its front legs. Wright put the creature on display in a Sioux City barbershop in a jar of formaldehyde.

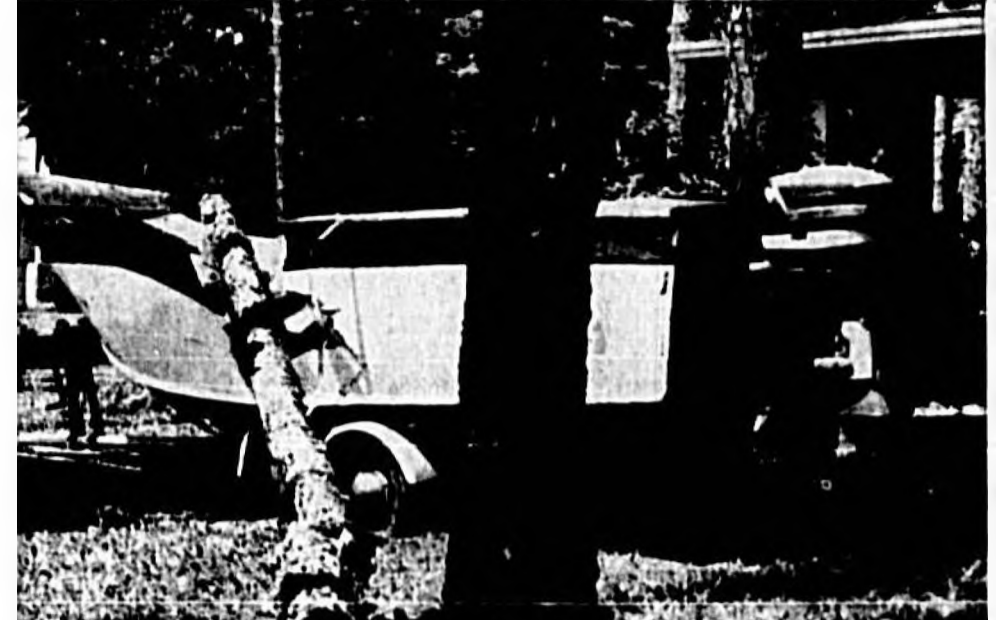

Toni Second In Pee Wee Golf

Sanford's junior golfing ace, seven-year-old Toni Osborne, captured second place in the 10th annual Pee Wee Golf Championships for girls in the 6-7 age division.

Toni fired a 121 for 10 holes. The division winner was Cara Cormiean, six, of Orlando, who posted an 89.

An Absurdity

OXELOESUND, Sweden (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, carelessly pointing out that he is an atheist, said today he was "invoking the aid of the Lord" to help Sweden produce more pipe for his gas pipelines.

House Panel Rejects Big Cut In Foreign Aid Fund

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Appropriations Committee lined up behind President Johnson today to beat off a major cut in the administration's $3.5 billion foreign aid program.

The lawmakers rejected a $315 million cut in economic aid demanded by Rep. Otto E. Passman, (D-Ia.), chairman of the foreign aid appropriations subcommittee and a long time critic of the program.

Instead, the full committee voted to cut $200 million from the bill—a reduction Passman brushed off as merely a token slash which would cause no real inconvenience to the administration.

Passman said he would take his battle to the House floor, where he conceivably could turn his defeat into a victory.

This time, however, he will be opposed by Rep. George H. Mahon, (D-Tex.), the new chairman of the powerful appropriations committee, and even a majority of his own foreign aid subcommittee.

Aid supporters disputed Passman's claim that the proposed $200 million reduction was only a token cut, but they said the administration won an important victory in keeping the reduction that low.

The committee cut $140 million from the administration's $823 million request for development loans to help America's poorer Allies and friends abroad improve their economies.

The lawmakers also whittled $10 million off the $330 million Alliance for Progress program for Latin America.

A $20 million reduction was ordered in the $224 million request for development grants, the old "Point Four" program, which includes technical cooperation.

In addition, the committee voted a 10 million cut in the Peace Corps budget. The

Suit Aimed At Treasure Hunt

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A suit was filed in Leon Circuit Court Wednesday seeking to prevent the state from granting a Vero Beach firm exclusive rights to salvage an old Spanish treasure ship off Fort Pierce.

Oscar Ewing of Carrabelle claims the state trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund Director, William Kidd, agreed to let his firm search the wreckage lying within 500 feet from shore in the Atlantic Ocean.

But Kidd said Real Eight Salvage Co. of Vero Beach has held a lease in the area for years, with the right to get an exclusive permit when it made a find.

Smith Defeated On Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Removal of a major House roadblock appeared today to assure final congressional action next week on the most sweeping civil rights bill since Reconstruction.

Chairman Howard W. Smith, D-Va., forced to the wall by rebellious Rules Committee members, reluctantly announced Wednesday that the bill would be cleared through his committee Tuesday.

Indian Chief's Smoke Bomb Gives Astronauts The Signal

Space Men Get First Taste Of Life (Snake Meat) In Jungle

BALBOA, C. Z. (UPI) — The jungle lunch of roasted snake and green bananas was done fine, until an Indian chief clad in loincloth and Texas tie touched off a smelly smoke bomb near the table.

That was the bizarre climax this week to the first taste of life in the tropical wilderness for 14 American astronauts.

The spacemen, who came to Panama to learn how to get along in case their spaceship makes a crash-landing in the jungle, included Edwin Aldrin, William Anders, Charles Bassett II, Alan Bean, Roger Chaffee, Eugene Cernan, Michael Collins, R. Walter Cunningham, Donn Eisele, Theodore Freeman, Richard Gordon, Russell Schweickart, David Scott and Clifton Williams.

With fellow astronaut Charles (Pete) Conrad, who made the trip before, the fledglings set out with survival kit in hand Wednesday to spend three days living off the fat of the Panama Canal Zone's steaming swamplands.

An Air Force helicopter ferried them three at a time from Gabon's sixth hole fairway to a dense stretch of jungle five miles away — and their first encounter with a wiry Choco Indian chieftain and his family, who had set up home in a clear, circular patch of land a few hundred feet from the banks of Panama's Chagres River.

His Spanish name was Antonio Zaro, and he presented a weird sight. Aside from the loincloth and black face paint, he wore bright strings of beads around his shoulders.

Conrad stepped up with a gift — a Texas string tie, with silver tips, to add to the collection.

The Zaros and school instructors, alerted for the visitors, already had lunch laid out — a feast of box constrictor (snake), iguana (lizard), cooked large bananas, paca (a green rodent), bamboo shoots and other goodies that stranded spacemen might expect to find in jungles.

Toward the end of the meal, Zaro presented Conrad with the gift of a small, hand-carved turtle — and then suddenly pulled the fuse on a small smoke bomb that is normally a part of the survival kit.

While Zaro laughed merrily, the scald red smoke billowed over the cleared area, engulfing the food table and sending the startled astronauts scattering for cover.

Gen. Johnson Youngest Chief Of Staff Since MacArthur

Army Assured Of Youthful Leadership

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson reached far down the Army's seniority ranks to select 52-year-old Lt. Gen. Harold K. Johnson as the Army's new chief of staff.

The President assured the Army of youthful leadership Wednesday when he nominated Gen. Johnson for the top post and chose Lt. Gen. Creighton Abrams Jr., 49, for the job of deputy chief of staff.

Gen. Johnson will be the youngest Army chief of staff since the late General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, who was named to the post in 1930 at the age of 50.

Gen. Johnson was 32nd in seniority on the Army's list of three-star officers. He was 43rd on the list of three- and four-star generals eligible to succeed Gen. Earl G. Wheeler, who was named chairman of the Joint Chief of Staff on Tuesday.

The new Army chief has been a lieutenant general only since last July 1, and has been serving as deputy chief of staff for operations.

Until his appointment Wednesday he was junior to 31 other three-star officers as well as to 12 four-star generals who were eligible to be named to the Army's No. 1 post.

A slightly built, scholarly man, Johnson is a survivor of the Bataan death march and 8 1/2 years in Japanese prison camps.

Johnson, born Feb. 23, 1912, at Bowsmont, N. D., was graduated from West Point in 1935.

Abrams, a 1936 graduate of West Point, served with Gen. George S. Patton Jr.'s 4th Armored Division in Europe during World War I.

Tshombe Will Try To Unify Congo Factions

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — Exiled Katanga leader Moise Tshombe may be the man to unify the Congo's fighting factions and could become the troubled country's premier, informed sources said today.

Tshombe, who fled the Congo 18 months ago as a defeated provincial politician, said in Brussels he was returning today to Leopoldville to attempt a "general reconciliation."

He said he was returning at the invitation of Premier Cyrille Adoula's central government, but officials here refused to confirm or deny this.

The former president of Katanga Province arrived Wednesday in Brussels from Madrid where he had spent most of his time since he went into exile after his secessionist movement collapsed before the United Nations force in January, 1963.

The last of the U.N. troops, which came here in 1960, are due to leave June 30 even though leftist-led rebellions are spreading through three of the Congo's provinces.

Parts of the revolt movement are in territory which formerly made up mineral-rich Katanga Province and are inhabited by tribes over influence.

The announcement that Tshombe was returning brought celebrations among the residents of Elisabethville, Tshombe's old capital, and a public holiday was declared.

Informed sources said Tshombe, once the symbol of division in the Congo, could return as the agent of unity. They said his return could pave the way for a round table conference from which he could emerge as premier under a strongman president.

Longwood C Of C Approves Election Of New Directors

By Donna Estes
The Longwood Area Chamber of Commerce unanimously elected eight directors as recommended by the board at a special meeting of the group Tuesday evening.

New directors named were J. V. Hughes, Paul Maloney, Ralph Hickok, William Bryant and R. O. Lowder. Respected were E. P. Richards, William Baumholser and Mauricia Rudolph.

Directors who will begin the second year of their two year term are Donald Brown, C. H. Johnson, John Reams, Bud Scott, Mark Bullock and E. E. Anzalone. Mrs. James Hughes was appointed secretary.

Mayor A. R. Lormann, who was present for the meeting, was questioned concerning action taken by the city government toward elimination of hazardous railroad crossings. He reported that both he and the city attorney have contacted ACL officials, many times, asking that the conditions be corrected and that "they have offered to cooperate with the city in seeking removal of the old station house at the Church Street crossing which is owned by Railway Express."

Lormann said also that he had reaffirmed his "demands that track elevations be lowered at the crossings to street levels" and that he still "recommends that speed limits be set for trains through the city."

In other business L. L. Cox accepted the request to be in charge of the C of C's float to be entered in the July 4th parade in Longwood. The meeting was conducted by William Baumholser, president, and Mrs. Cox served as acting secretary.

Following the business session, refreshments of coffee and donuts were served by Mrs. E. P. Richards, Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Rudolph.

7 Soldiers Killed In Crash Of Troop Carrier; 24 Injured

PORT JACKSON, S. C. (UPI) — An Army troop carrier plane crashed and burned shortly before midnight while taking off from a farm field during a war maneuver, killing seven soldiers and injuring 24.

The Public Information Office at Fort Jackson said the plane crashed five miles north-east of Ridgeway, S. C., near a long manmade lake known as the Wateree Pond.

Other planes were on the field, a spokesman said, and personnel quickly reached the stricken CV2 Caribou and began removing the dead and injured.

The spokesman said the twin-engine craft, the Army's largest fixed wing plane, burned when it crashed but some of the survivors escaped without suffering burns.

The injured and dead were rushed by helicopter to Fort Jackson, about 20 miles south of the crash scene.

All the men aboard the plane were assigned to the 11th Air Assault Division in Fort Benning, Ga.

Identification of the dead was withheld pending notification of next of kin. There was no immediate report from the Fort Jackson hospital on the condition of the injured.

A team of officers was sent to the crash scene to investigate the accident.

Film Shows How To Drive Safely On Expressways

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Farris Bryant and other state officials viewed a 15-minute movie Wednesday that will be used to teach youngsters how to drive on modern expressways.

Bryant said urban expressways present the biggest safety problem among the various types of highways and before long, there won't be a major city without an expressway system.

The film, called "Expressways Can Be Safeways," was produced by the road department and department of public safety. It will be shown in driver training courses.

Judges for the "Miss Flame of Seminole County" contest to be held during the Longwood Volunteer Fire Department's annual Fourth of July Fiesta were named today by Carl Lommler, contest chairman.

Judging the contestants on poise, beauty and personality will be Richard Blankenbecker of Orlando, second vice president of the Florida State Firemen's Association; Jim Davis of Mt. Dora, district six vice president and Mrs. Jim Smith, past president and current vice president of the Orlando Auxiliary.

DeBary Bridge Club Plays 12 Tables

Twelve tables, directed by Miss Ethel Johnson, were in play at this week's Tuesday afternoon session of the DeBary Duplicate Bridge Club.

Winners were, NS, first, Mrs. Frank Austin and Mrs. A. G. Besom; second, Miss Johnson and Mrs. Robert Nichols; third, William Woodlock and Mrs. Doyle Driver and fourth, Mrs. Faye Hindery and Mrs. J. J. Vanderschaaf.

EW, first, Mrs. Louise Middleton and Mrs. Loris Weeks; second, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hinkle; third, Mrs. Arthur Willgoose and Mrs. Elsa Unles and fourth, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wheatley.

83rd Division Plans Reunion

The famed Thunderbolt Division of World War II, the 83rd Infantry Division, is planning its 18th annual reunion at Providence, R.I., Aug. 20-22.

All former members of the 83rd are asked to contact the national secretary, Harry Lockwood, 43 Oakland Ave., Jersey City, N.J., to make plans to attend the meeting. Lockwood says about 30,000 former members are on the 83rd's association roster.

Several members of VFW Post 10050 of Caselberry and the Auxiliary attended the Department Convention held recently in Cocoa Beach.

The Ramada Inn served as headquarters for the men and the ladies met at Schraff's Carriage House.

George Howard, outgoing commander of the Caselberry post, was named membership chairman for the eighth district by the newly elected department commander.

Those attending, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Howard, were Commander and Mrs. Hollis Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Poteranak and Cliff Overman.

The post received a national citation for its press book. Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Howard worked at the cancer table at the convention selling gifts donated by the auxiliaries with approximately $400 being raised for the department's cancer fund.

NFL-AFL Title Tilt May Come In 2,000 Years

By Murray Olderman
Sports Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
The clamor for a championship game between the American Football League and the National Football League comes up every time Joe Foss lands in a new town. Since the commissioner of the AFL logs around 250 trips a year, that's a lot of noise.

In the furor, Commissioner Pete Rozelle of the NFL has been forced to say "No" almost as often as Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania. The subject of a title game between pro football's big wheels has become academic—in fact, ridiculous, because it will never come off under the present structure of both leagues.

It has nothing to do with Rozelle's tired disclaimer that you don't do business with a league that sues you for $10 million. You do business with anybody that can make you money.

NFL-AFL rapprochement was fed recently by the National Broadcasting Company's bid to donate $500,000 to the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library if it could telecast an all-star game between the two leagues.

"What a grandstand play by NBC," muttered Rozelle, who turned it down. He then revealed that the NBC bid also contained a clause which said, "This offer is conditioned by our customary right to select the sponsors."

The significance is that NBC could have used the All-Star game, an admittedly attractive package, to blackjack sponsors into line for its huge investment in regular season AFL games ($36 million for five years, starting in '65).

An equally compelling, more realistic reason for the NFL's snub is that the younger league isn't ready for the competition. I'm not talking about the ability of a team like the San Diego Chargers to play football. To the NFL, it sounds heretical, but they could probably beat a half dozen of the established teams.

The simple mathematics of pro football shows 14 teams in the NFL, eight in the AFL. With a head start of 40 years, the former is bigger and, for the moment, better. Recognition of the upstart AFL doesn't make sense—that is, as presently aligned.

Now suppose you took the 22 pro football teams, added two under natural expansion and lumped them all together. Re-arrange them into four divisions of six teams each with natural geographic rivalries (the Baltimore wouldn't be "East" and Dallas wouldn't be "West"), with inter-division playoffs, you'd lead into a big title game that would satisfy everybody and produce a genuine world champion—or maybe you haven't seen the Charger blubs that proclaim their heroes as "world champions." 2,000 years."

Fulmer's Decision To Hang Up Gloves Ends Colorful Career

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)—Former middleweight champion Gene Fulmer and manager Mary Jenson, one of boxing's most enduring partnerships, made their farewell to the fight game a joint venture. Fighter Fulmer and manager Jenson announced they were retiring from active participation in professional boxing. Hammer-stated Fulmer, fighter of the year in 1961, was the first to make his announcement. It was expected because the ex-champ had been inactive since last August and his family had been pressuring him to quit.

Minutes later Jenson, active in boxing since the early 1930s—both as a fighter and later a trainer—rose to tell the group "This is the time for me to retire also." His announcement came as a surprise.

Thus came to end a partnership that produced Utah's first native-born world champion and put the state on the boxing map.

Fulmer participated in 64 bouts, winning 55, losing six and three ended in a draw. Fulmer, 32, had his greatest moment in the ring in 1957 when he dethroned Sugar Ray Robinson in New York in 15 rounds to win the 160-pound division title. He lost the title back to Robinson in May of the same year but regained the championship in 1959 in an elimination bout with Carmen Basilio. He lost the title to Dick Tiger in a bloody battle in San Francisco in 1962.

The man, who asked to remain anonymous, held the only winning ticket to the Monday night twin double at the Flagger track. To date he has won $2,644 and $255 at Tropical horse racing doubles, $632 at a Gulfstream twin double and $1,510 and $679 at Flagger dog track.

Peace will even cut down the expense of telegrams, which seem to be the main avenue of communication between the combatants. When the idea of an inter-league title game first started to ripple, and the late Pope was still alive, Sid Gillman, the coach and general manager of the Chargers, wired Rozelle: "Pope John was a great man. He recognized the other league."

"Yes," fired back the NFL commissioner, "but it took 2,000 years."

Ed Fitzgerald Fires No-Hitter At Casselberry

Ed Fitzgerald entered the charmed circle Wednesday night at Sanford's Memorial Stadium when the youngster hurled a no-hit shutout over Casselberry in Sixth District American Legion Junior Baseball play.

Fitzgerald was as hot as a $2 pistol last night when he completely blanked the Casselberry nine. He whiffed 14 but walked two. Nobody got past second base on Fitzgerald who permitted only one ball to be hit out of the field.

Larry Five paced Sanford at the plate with a pair of bingles, a single and a double. Sanford opened the scoring with a single run in the first frame on a pair of singles and a walk. In the fourth the locals wound it up with three markers pushed over on two walks and a pair of safeties. Sanford collected seven hits.

Sanford 100 300 X-4 7 0

Sam Huff Signs Redskins Pact; Gets Pay Hike

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sam Huff will return to the violent world he knows best this year, but in strange and unfamiliar surroundings.

Huff, for years the most celebrated middle linebacker in the National Football League while with the New York Giants, finally signed a contract with the Washington Redskins Wednesday after months of prolonged negotiations.

The heavily publicized defenceman from West Virginia received an estimated $16,000—approximately $2,000 more than he made with the Giants—and a "no trade" clause from Redskins head coach and General Manager Bill McPeak.

Huff had contemplated quitting after the four-player deal last April which sent him to Washington, and was ready to retire as late as Tuesday night.

But he changed his mind when a proposed radio-television network contract as a fulltime sports commentator fell through and he agreed to terms with McPeak after their sixth meeting.

Friend Beats Mets 12th Straight Time

United Press International
Bob Friend of the Pittsburgh Pirates continued his mastery over the New York Mets Wednesday when he defeated the last-place team, 8-1, for his 12th straight victory over the Mets since their formation in 1962.

For Friend, who has never lost to the Mets, it was his fourth victory of the year over New York. He has won

Builders Grab 13th Straight; Down Longwood

The Kingswood Builders made it 13 wins in a row Wednesday night, scoring a 18 to 12 victory over the Longwood entry in the City Recreation Department's Men's Slo-Pitch Softball League.

The loss snapped Longwood's five-game winning streak but they aren't the first ball club to have a winning skid broken by the Builders this season.

Bud Moncrief got credit for the pitching victory last night, notching his 11th win in 12 decisions. John Emerson and Don Carter had two hits apiece to lead the Builders' attack. Emerson's safeties included a triple with the sacks full.

In another Men's loop tilt last night, it was McRaney all the way as they trounced Chase and Company by a score of 20 to 4. Frank Williams, who now has a record of 14 wins and eight losses, was the winning pitcher.

Perry Stewart had a grand slam home run for the Painters, his second circuit clout of the season. Ray Johnson chipped in with three hits. The victory left McRaney tied with Longwood for second place in the league's standings, three full games behind the loop-leading Builders.

Indians, Twins Divide; White Sox Rip Boston

By MILTON RICHMAN
Hank Bauer is a hard man. When he says something today, he isn't likely to turn around and say something entirely different tomorrow.

Now he's stuck with a mouthful he uttered four months ago and he refuses to backtrack even though it's beginning to look as if he may be wrong.

Back in March, Bauer predicted his Baltimore Orioles would finish third behind the New York Yankees and Chicago White Sox.

"I made that statement in spring training," Bauer said grimly after the Orioles bowled over the Yankees for the second straight time Wednesday night, 7-4, to widen their American League to 1 1/2 games. "Come back on October third. I'll tell you what I think then."

Yankee pitcher Stan Williams did all he could to make Bauer a bum prophet with a pair of errors that enabled the Orioles to score three unearned runs in the eighth inning.

Whitey Ford started for the Yankees and tried for his 10th in a row but it wasn't his night. He was rocked for seven hits and four runs in two innings, including a two-run homer by Jackie Brandt. Williams was the loser, however.

Elsewhere in the American League, the White Sox ripped the Red Sox, 8-1, Detroit downed Kansas City, 9-5, Cleveland mauled Minnesota, 12-3, in the first of two but lost the nightcap, 3-2, and the Los Angeles Angels beat the Washington Senators, 9-5.

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

By Julian Stenstrom

Harry Smith, manager of Lake Mary's minor team in what we've been calling the South Seminole Little League Association, called Wednesday to inquire as to why The Herald used the words "South Seminole" in referring to the leagues in that section of the county.

"Except for the Sanford area," he said, "this organization is a Seminole group."

When the organization was created it was called South Seminole. We believe the printed programs for the dedication of the lighted ball park carried the words "South Seminole." We have referred to the leagues as "South Seminole" ever since they began playing night ball at Cooper Field in Casselberry Recreation Center.

We asked Smith to check with League President Bill Livingston about the name. He did. We discovered that about a month ago the league's charter was changed to eliminate the word "south" and it is now known as the Seminole Little League Association, Inc. We'll carry it as such from now on.

It's true that the organization has had its ups and downs. But there's one thing that can be said. A lot was accomplished by a lot of people in doing what some people did not believe could be done.

If we had any suggestions to make it would be that the league set up a program of good public relations — keeping the public informed of schedule changes, rule changes and operating changes.

As we understand it the directors of the association are the officers and the managers. Yet we hear reports that the directors meet and make decisions, that the managers meet and make decisions and the executive committee — if that is the proper name for it, comprised of the officers and two managers — meets and makes decisions. The problem is — we've learned from several sources — is that decisions are not properly conveyed from one group to the other.

But this is really the first year of operations under the auspices of the Little League and we're confident — as many of the league officials and managers are — that these problems can and will be eliminated. After all, it takes a bit of time for an organization like this to get its feet solidly planted and its program free of the kinks.

And, of course, managers and league officials must be a bit tolerant with each other. After all, this is the first year and prior to this very few of the people involved had had much experience in the operation and management of such a vast program.

Maybe all the towns involved in the association's program should get together and employ a full time recreation director to handle these and many other programs. We say this after observing how efficiently the recreational program in Sanford is handled by the City Recreation Department director, Jim Jernigan.

One thing is sure. There's an awful lot of youngsters in Seminole — outside of the general Sanford area — who deserve good recreation programs. Most of the towns are doing the best they can. Perhaps on a joint basis it could be correlated into a very effective program.

Angels Set To Flee Dodger Park In '66

By Harry Grayson
NEW YORK (NEA) —Talk has major league baseball franchises being moved around like chessmen, but one switch is for sure.

The Angels are getting the blues out of Los Angeles and Dodger Stadium and the usual reason—too much rent—is not the only one. The American League Club is fleeing to nearby Anaheim and booming Orange County to establish its own identity and build its own audience.

Its principal owners, Gene Autry and Robert O. Reynolds, and general manager, Fred Haney, can't see any immediate future playing the part of poor relations at Chavez Ravine. They must build a contender and have found that their young stars playing in the shadow of the established world champions is bad business.

So, you see, there is vastly more to the story than the squeeze imposed upon the Angels by President Walter Francis O'Malley of the Dodgers.

One of the more significant things about this newest change in baseball scenery is that it will cost the Dodgers $1.6 million a year. That in itself is a pretty fair return on the National League club's $20 million-plus investment.

The transfer will be made in the spring of 1966, the current contract calling for the Angels to remain at Dodger Stadium through '65.

On the strength of a letter of intent the City of Anaheim already has put out $2 million for acreage two miles from Disneyland. A contract is expected to be signed within two weeks. A San Francisco firm will sell the bonds. The stadium will be built by the Del E. Webb Construction Co. of which the co-owner of the New York Yankees is president.

Mayor Chuck Chandler, City Manager Keith Murdoch and Councilmen Calvin Pebley and Fred Klein of Anaheim and their wives were guests of Webb during the series being played in the shadow of the Yankee Stadium.

"If we can break ground by the end of July, we can have the stadium ready for opening day of 1966," said Webb.

Anaheim is 28 miles or 30 minutes by automobile southeast of Los Angeles. Orange County, where orange groves gave way to industry headed by airplane factories, is the second fastest growing suburban area in the United States.

"Five different surveys have shown that Anaheim will be the population center of southern California in 10 years," Fred Haney told us as we watched young Dean Chance shut out the Yankees with three hits in a game being televised in Los Angeles. There are 2 million people within easy access of the new park now.

"The new deal will put our club on a much sounder business basis. We pay O'Malley at least $1.6 million a year. The rent is an excessive flat with a percentage privilege. O'Malley gets half our concessions and the same split on what we get for televising 20 games. Even though we get no part of the parking receipts, he wanted us to pay the attendants when we were home."

I asked Haney if the name of the club would be changed.

"We'll just be the Angels," replied the little man who played third base for Ty Cobb in Detroit. "Just have an A on the uniform. That will stand for Angels as well as Anaheim."

Fred Haney insists there is room for two big league teams in southern California, but agrees that another American League club must be based on the Pacific Coast to make the trip profitable for visiting outfits.

"I wouldn't be surprised if Gabe Paul moved the Cleveland club to Seattle," he concluded, perhaps wishfully. There's always something new.

Senkarik Hurls One-Hitter To Defeat Chase

Sanford's candidate for Little League All-America, Skipper Senkarik, "hit 'n hurled" Hunt's Lincoln-Mercury to the City Recreation Department's Little National League championship Wednesday night as the Comets breezed past Chase by a score of 12 to 1.

Senkarik yielded only one hit, whiffed 14 and issued only one walk while racking up his 10th win of the season without a single setback. The 14 strikeouts brought his total to 138 in 65 innings. He has been stingy in the free pass department, giving up only nine walks. As far as hits are concerned, his record is almost unbelievable. Skip has been nicked for only 13 hits over that span of 10 tilts.

Aside from his feats on the mound, Senkarik has been just as outstanding at the plate. Last night he clouted two more home runs, his eighth and ninth of the season, to give him the Little League lead in that phase of play. Buck Hurt also had a round tripper for the Comets.

This now sets the stage for the Little League city series between the Comets and the Navy nine, winners of the Little American League title. The first game of the best two-out-of-three series will start at 7:30 p.m. Monday night at Fort Mellon Park.

Over in the Little American yesterday, Florida's Hankers closed out their 1964 season on a winning note. They took their competitors, Sanford Atlantic National Bank, by a score of 6 to 2. Joe Pauline was cited for his outstanding play — getting both the mound decision plus a pair of timely hits for his club.

Frank Williams added two hits to the winning cause. The win assured Florida State of at least a tie for second place in the loop's standings. The Locomotive Engineers, Idle Wednesday, clinched second place in the Little National.

200 Golfers Tee Off In State Open

LEHIGH ACRES (UPI)—Defending champion J.C. Goosie heads a field of about 200 golfers who teed off Thursday in the first round of the 23rd annual Florida State Open.

The 72-hole match is being played over the 6,615-yard, par 71 Lehigh Acres country club course.

In a pro-am warmup match Wednesday, John Morgan of Vero Beach teamed up with Fort Myers amateur Robert Rosch to top the field with a 63.

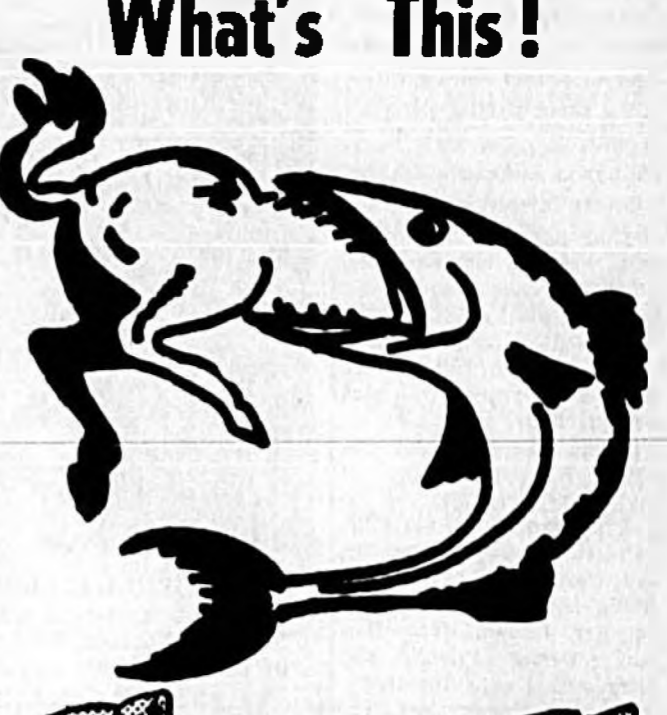

Three golfers were tied with 69 for the low pro score in yesterday's warmup. They were Andrew Moseary of Largo, Bob Grant of Boca Raton and Augie Boyd.

Shower Fetes Miss Chambers

By Donna Estes
Miss Jill Forsyth and Miss Barbara Ferrell were co-hostesses to a recent miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Miss Lorell Chambers, bride-elect of James Harold Dicks, at the home of Miss Forsyth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Phillips in Altamonte Springs. Guests enjoyed chatting and playing party games before being served mints, nuts, punch and cake from a table centered with a bride, umbrella and an arrangement of pink glads. The white frosted cake was decorated with pink wedding bells.

Invited guests included Mrs. Louise Ritchison, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. W. T. Phillips, and the Misses Gilda Pettinatti, Carla Lommier, Jan Westmark, Cheryl Eddy, Dottie Sewell, Linda Tucker, Jennifer Jordan, Carol Dorothy, Donna Friend, Kay Moon and Margo Reams.

MISS LORELL CHAMBERS, bride-elect of James H. Dicks, was guest of honor at a recent miscellaneous shower. From the left are Miss Jill Forsyth, hostess, Miss Chambers, honoree, Mrs. Louise Ritchison, mother of the bride-elect and Miss Barbara Ferrell, hostess.

The Theo Tices Enjoy A Vacation With Family

By Donna Estes
Mr. and Mrs. Theo Tice have returned to their Longwood home following a three weeks vacation in Tennessee.

The Tices visited with their daughter and her family Mrs. Emily Warren, in Nashville and attended the commencement exercises of Scarriett College, where Mrs. Warren is secretary to the president, Dr. Holt.

They also attended the graduation exercises of West End High School, of which their grandson, Ben Warren, was a member. Ben has enrolled in the September class of Florida Southern College at Lakeland.

Mr. and Mrs. Tice enjoyed a pleasant visit with their daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ellis at Donelson, Tenn.

En route home the Tices toured Knoxville, Chimney Rock and Rock Hill, S.C. They were joined in Rock Hill by Mr. Tice's sister and brother, Miss Ruth Tice and Fletcher Tice of Roanoke, Va.

Sanford Personals

Mrs. Paul B. Wells, the former Carol Skinner, of Stamford, Conn. is currently visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Skinner at their Magnolia Avenue home.

Mrs. Wells will be in attendance at the wedding of her sister, Miss Susan (Sunny) Skinner to Walter Neal this Saturday.

Sanford Story League Installs Officers

By Mrs. Clarence Snyder
The final meeting of the Sanford Story League before the summer vacation was held Monday evening at the Episcopal Parish House.

Mrs. Fred Robb, president, presided during the short business meeting. Thank you letters were read from the Geneva School or the donation of books to the school library by the Sanford Story League and also from Mrs. Sarah King for the book presented to the Sanford Library as a memorial for her mother, Mrs. R. C. Maxwell, a Story League member.

A letter was also read from Mrs. Geneva Parks thanking the League for the dinner given in her honor and also for naming her "Sanford Mother of the Year."

During the program Mrs. Robb told a beautiful story with a civil war setting, "The Benediction", by Adelaide Keffer. Miss Judy Robb then told a delightful story, "Denise and the Was Man That Had Lived So Long", by Dorothy Allen Brutsche.

The installation of officers followed with Mrs. Robb as installing officer. Mrs. Robb presented each officer with a pair of miniature shoes, admonishing them to fill the shoes well and have them well worn at the close of the year.

Installed were Mrs. Betty Snyder, president; Mrs. Clarence Snyder, first vice president; Mrs. Irene Watt, second vice president; Mrs. Earl Evans, third vice president; Mrs. W. L. Roche, recording secretary; Mrs. R. W. Trench, corresponding secretary; Mrs. K. J. Mykkanen, treasurer; Mrs. Eva Williams, historian and Mrs. E. C. Williams, parliamentarian.

Refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with an arrangement of Coral Vine. Hostesses were Mrs. Vivien Welsh and Mrs. Eva Williams. Members, other than those mentioned attending were: R. C. Long; Mrs. V. G. Hasty, Mrs. R. F. Moule, Mrs. Ann Hardie, Mrs.

Visitors were Mrs. I. E. Armstrong, Mrs. Effie Mielke, Mrs. R. S. Gustafson, Miss Phyllis Hopper, Jack Juras and John Snyder.

Couple Enjoys Anniversary

By Donna Estrada
Mr. and Mrs. William Lycans of Longwood, observed their 50th wedding anniversary on June 16, 1964 quietly at home with both stating if given the choice they would repeat the same vows of 50 years ago.

The Lycans came to Florida ten years ago from West Virginia, where they were both reared, and where Mr. Lycans was employed as a coal miner for 45 years. Mr. Lycans is very active for his 80 years and Mrs. Lycans does all her work.

For diversion, the Lycans enjoy fishing and television and just sitting in their spacious yard enjoying their pet squirrel, Billy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lycans have nine children, ten grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Homemakers Corner

Someone sent in this recipe for Creole Corn Muffins but did not sign her name. They sound very good and I want to try them real soon.

CREOLE CORN MUFFINS
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
3 tps. baking powder
1 tps. salt
2 tps. sugar
1/2 cup corn meal
1 egg, well beaten
1 cup milk
1/2 cup shortening, melted
1 tps. green pepper, chopped
1 tps. onion, chopped fine
1/4 cup grated cheese

Sift flour with baking powder, salt and sugar, add corn meal and mix. Combine beat-an egg, milk and melted shortening. Turn liquids into dry ingredients and stir vigorously until all flour is dampened. Add green pepper, onion and cheese. Pour batter into muffin pans that have been greased. Bake in hot oven, 400 degrees, 25 to 30 minutes. Makes 12 muffins.

Marilyn Hamilton's CITRUS CAKE
4 eggs, separated
1/2 cup cooking oil
1/2 cup apricot nectar
1 pkg. yellow cake mix
3 tps. lemon extract
2 cups sugar (powdered)
10 tps. lemon juice
2 tps. grated lemon rind
2 tps. grated orange rind
Beat egg whites until stiff.

In a separate bowl, combine egg yolks, cooking oil and fruit juice, beat in cake mix, mix well. Add lemon extract and fold stiffly beaten egg whites into above mixture. Pour into oiled stem pan. Bake at 325 degrees for 45 minutes to one hour. Cool in pan 5 minutes, then remove from pan. While hot, punch holes all through cake (use an ice pick for this). Spoon over the cake a mixture of lemon juice, powdered sugar and citrus rind. Allow to soak in for several hours. This cake will serve around 12 to 16 servings.

VANILLA WAFER DESSERT
1 cup unsweetened orange juice
1/2 cup unsweetened pineapple juice
1/4 tps. salt
1/4 pkg. orange jello
24 marshmallows, quartered
1 cup cream, whipped
1 lb. vanilla wafers, crushed

Combine fruit juices, salt and bring to a boil. Add quartered marshmallows and jello. Stir until melted. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in whipped cream. Spread 1/2 of crushed wafers in bottom of 8 by 8 cake pan. Gently smooth gelatin cream mixture over wafers. Sprinkle remaining wafers on top. Chill until firm. Cut into squares.

Here are some spreads for sandwiches that will be easy to prepare for picnics, etc.

RAISIN CARROT SPREAD
Combine in a bowl:
1/2 cup chopped raisins
1/2 cup raw carrots, shredded
1/2 cup cottage cheese
2 tps. mayonnaise or salad dressing
dash of salt
Mix well. Spread on rye or bread.

FRANKFURTER CHEESE SPREAD
Combine in top of double boiler:
1/2 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
1/2 cup milk
Stir over medium heat until cheese is melted. Remove from heat and add:
3 frankfurters, chopped
1 tps. mustard
1 tps. mayonnaise
salt to taste and pepper
Mix well. Makes about 1 1/2 cups.

CORNED BEEF SPREAD

Mrs LBJ Helps Inaugurate 'Picture Phone'

Detroit (UPI) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson Wednesday helped inaugurate "picture-phones," a super-science device that employs the elements of both the telephone and television for person-to-person communication.

But today it's back to the horse and buggy for the nation's First Lady.

After a 14-hour work day that ended with the greeting of more than 3,000 women in a reception line at the 55th convention of the American Home Economics Association, Mrs. Johnson was to start a 26-hour vacation today on Michigan's historic Mackinac Island.

While on the island she'll find herself almost totally removed from the fast-moving realities of the 20th century.

Though no "pocket of poverty," Mrs. Johnson will find the island has only two industries — tourism and fudge, the latter being the main commodity sold to the former during the vacation season, which runs just four months.

Just to get to the island Mrs. Johnson, who will be accompanied by her press secretary, Lis Carpenter, and several Secret Service men, had to hop a small, commercial airliner and land at Pellston, a town of 428 people 20 miles south of the Straits of Mackinac, the five-mile wide waterway connecting Lakes Michigan and Huron.

Once on the island Mrs. Johnson will find that in some ways it is little changed from pre-Revolutionary days when first the French and then the British governed it. For one thing, the auto is a total stranger to Mackinac Island. The horse and buggy and bicycle constitute the available forms of transportation.

Host to Mrs. Johnson will be W. Stewart Woodfill, the antique-loving owner of the famous Grand Hotel.

Freedom Just Fleeting Thing

A city jail prisoner had a few hours of freedom Wednesday afternoon but is now back in his cell.

Police said Clint Murphy was helping collect coins from the parking meters yesterday morning and was returned to the jail about noon. Someone called headquarters later asking if Murphy was supposed to be out. The caller said he had been seen on a downtown street.

Officers checked the jail, couldn't find Murphy, and began a search. He was located on Myrtle Avenue and returned to his cell charged with escape and larceny of city clothes.

Car Damaged

Mrs. Robert Stapleton of 518 Oak Ave. reported to police Wednesday someone had damaged her car parked near her home Tuesday night. The aerial was torn loose, the body was scratched and soap and bleach was tossed on the floor of the car.

Lodge's Role: To KO Barry On Foreign Policy Views

WASHINGTON (UPI) — "Lodge will be helpful to Seranton. A lot depends on just how far he goes. At the least, I expect him to speak out in criticism of some of Barry's statements about international affairs."

Wedging Lodge into the already crowded convention program is going to be a problem for party planners. One logical method would be to put him on just ahead of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, his 1960 running mate, on Tuesday night, July 14.

But the convention already is scheduled to receive committee reports; hear its permanent chairman, Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky.; act on its platform, and listen to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower at that session.

On Monday the convention will hear from its keynote, Oregon Gov. Mark O. Hatfield, and others; on Wednesday the presidential nominating speeches are scheduled, and on Thursday delegates are to ballot for the nomination. Friday there will be the vice presidential nominating speeches and balloting, and acceptance speeches by both nominees.

Seminole Leads Bond Purchases

Seminole County led all of Central Florida in the purchase of Series E and H savings bonds for the first five months of this year with a whopping increase of 116.9 per cent over a corresponding period of 1963.

The 16-county Central Florida area showed a combined drop of 1.7 per cent during that period, according to information received from the "News and Views of Savings Bonds."

Seminole County residents, during the first five months of 1963, purchased a total of $118,404 worth of bonds as compared with $256,802 in the same period this year.

The nearest county to match Seminole was Citrus County with an increase in sales of 66.1 per cent.

Lodge Packing To Shift Into Political War

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI) — U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge was getting ready today for his departure for the United States and the new American military commander in Viet Nam promised U. S. forces a rigorous new deal.

Lodge has resigned to campaign for Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton for the Republican presidential nomination. He will be replaced by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and original advocate of American support for the anti-Communist war in South Viet Nam.

Lodge plans to leave Sunday. Gen. Paul D. Harkins has already been replaced by Lt. Gen. William C. Westmoreland as commanding officer of the 16,000 American servicemen in Viet Nam.

The general Wednesday night elaborated "my leadership philosophy" in his first press conference since taking command. He said his men are going to work longer, fight harder, play harder and win more medals than ever before.

Westmoreland, a much-decorated paratrooper in World War I and the Korean War, said he would step up the information program for the troops because "if they know the 'why' they are going to be more effective."

Malapportioned House Stymies Georgia Code

ATLANTA (UPI) — The Georgia legislature was expected to end its costly eight-week special session today on a note of frustration.

The session, which has cost more than $11 million, was convened by Gov. Carl Sanders to write a new state Constitution and draw up a state election code.

The code was signed into law by the governor Wednesday but the Constitution ran into a federal court roadblock.

A three-judge court said the proposal could not be put before the voters in the November general election because it was drawn up by a malapportioned House of Representatives.

Wednesday's ruling made permanent a decree of last Friday that Georgia's House must be reapportioned at the next regular session on a population basis.

Blue Jacket Of Month Named

Harold R. Wildeman, aviation metallurgy third class, has been selected as "Blue Jacket of the Month" for April in Heavy Attack Squadron 7.

He was commended by the commanding officer and presented an engraved squadron lighter during ceremonies aboard the USS Enterprise, which is presently deployed with the Sixth Fleet. In addition, he will have his name engraved on a plaque which is permanently retained by the squadron.

Wildeman was chosen for his outstanding performance of duty as an A-5A Vigilante automatic flight control technician; thereby, contributing to the squadron's high state of readiness maintained during April. The quality of his work on the squadron's aircraft has been described as nothing less than outstanding.

Wildeman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wildeman of Park, Kansas, and was graduated from Park High School in 1955. Married to the former Miss Patricia J. Gobel of Park Ridge, Ill., Wildeman resides with his wife and daughter at 2406 Orange Ave., Sanford. He has been assigned to Heavy Attack Squadron 7 since January, 1963.

Mad Russian Fish Attacks

MOSCOW (UPI) — A 65-pound catfish attacked a peasant and was killed with a sickle, Radio Moscow claimed today.

The official radio said Uzbek peasant Makharib Madrasimov was cutting reeds in a lake near the central Asian town of Urgench when the sheatfish (Silurus Glanis), a species of catfish, bowled him over and seized one of his legs.

The brave peasant subdued him in a 15-minute battle, radio Moscow said.

CHIEF HARLEN WOLFE receives commendations from RVAH-3 commanding officer George W. Kimmons and Florida Highway Patrol Sgt. Jim McKinnon. The citation was given for Wolfe's outstanding performance of his duties. (Official U. S. Navy Photograph)

Chief Honored For NAS Work

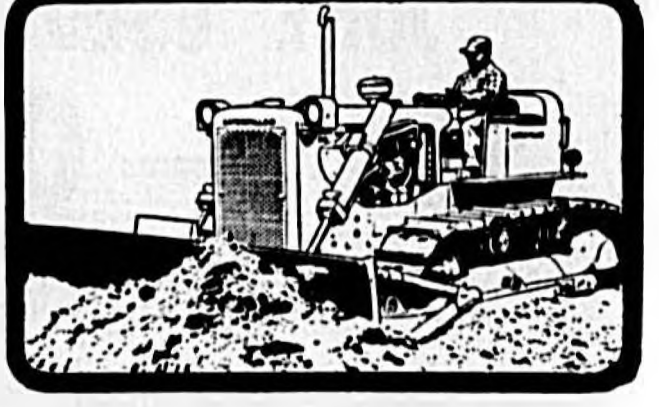

The career counselor and recruitment supervisor for Reconnaissance Attack Squadron 3 at Sanford Naval Air Station, Chief Harlen Wolfe, has received two commendations for the "outstanding manner in the performance of the demanding requirements of his duties."

As unit counselor for RVAH-3, Chief Wolfe was specifically cited by Commanding Officer, George W. Kimmons in conducting individual and group counseling sessions, supervising the command's indoctrination program, and creating an "outstanding recruitment record." "Certainly the response you have given to the needs of the individual Navyman of this squadron and to his family, have been most effective and rewarding to all concerned."

Chief Wolfe, a local resident of the Sanford area for over three years and training officer for the Explorer Scouts Post 502, was also presented a citation from the Florida Department of Public Safety Division of Florida Highway Patrol. The presentation given in recognition of the Chief's efforts in publicizing Driver Safety and Education and cooperation with Florida Highway Patrol's campaign for safe driving.

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, our drug called ODRINEX. You must lose ugly fat or your money back. No strenuous exercise, laxatives, massage or taking of so-called reducing candies, crackers or cookies, or chewing gum. ODRINEX is a tiny tablet and easily swallowed. When you take ODRINEX, you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like, but you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food. Your weight must come down, because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. ODRINEX costs $3.99 and is sold on the GUARANTEE. If not satisfied for any reason just return the package to your druggist and get your full money back. Questions asked. ODRINEX is sold with this guarantee by: McTeynolds Drug Store — Sanford—Mail Orders Filled.

When it comes to clearing—go to Cat-built tractors

You are better off for land clearing if you look to the man in your area who operates Caterpillar-built machines.

First, Caterpillar-built equipment is designed to work harder and more economically. No matter what the job, Cat-built tractors have the ability to do the best job for you... in rooting, stumping, ditching, cutting off the high spots, filling in low areas, or just cleaning up.

Second, you know the man who runs his Caterpillar-built machines depends on them for his living. He can do the best, most honest job... just like his machinery.

And third, you can depend on Rozier to back up the machine and man for service that will keep them on the job.

This combination of machine, man and Rozier is unbeatable — try them.

I-4 Signs Needed Now

Sen. Mack Cleveland's request that the State Road Department Board give immediate consideration to erecting a new sign at the intersection of U.S. 17-92 and Interstate 4 should not go unheeded.

Sen. Cleveland addressed his request to Max Brewer, this district's member of the Road Department board who was appointed to his post by Governor Bryant.

It seems that when I-4 was opened between here and Daytona Beach that traffic from Daytona approaching this intersection found only one sign. It indicated only the route to Orlando. Nothing indicated the routes to DeLand or Sanford, county seats of Volusia and Seminole, respectively.

Sen. Cleveland was not the only official to call this to Brewer's attention. He was also informed of the "omission" by Gerald Frierison, an official of the DeLand Chamber of Commerce. He also asked Brewer to take steps to correct the situation and arrange for the Road Department to erect a sign which would include Sanford and DeLand as well as Orlando.

In all probability Brewer did not realize that Sanford and DeLand were from signs placed at this intersection west of Daytona Beach. Perhaps it isn't even his particular responsibility.

However, since the oversight has been called to his attention, and since he is the member on the SRD from this district, it now becomes his responsibility to see that appropriate action is taken as soon as it is practical to do so.

We can't help but wonder what reaction might have come from Orlando officials had the sign read "Tampa" instead of "Orlando."

Deafening Silence

Remember when the nation's prestige, if not its ultimate survival, depended upon a little 3 1/4-pound ball atop the nose of a Vanguard rocket one day in December 1957?

Well, Vanguard went phit! But the United States didn't.

The latest launching of the Saturn-I—more than 40 times more powerful than the Vanguard and larger than anything the Russians are known to have—flawlessly orbited a 17,000-pound dummy Apollo moon vehicle.

Counting the second stage of the Saturn, which also went into orbit, the total payload was 37,300 pounds. A far cry from the grapefruit-sized Vanguard.

So far, in fact, that the feat has apparently failed to register on anyone.

First, we're a bunch of chumps who have had it as a nation and everybody and his uncle jumps on the knock-the-U.S. wagon. Now that we're champs, the silence is deafening.

Thought For Today

And you will have confidence, because there is hope; you will be protected and take your rest in safety. — Job 11:18.

Hope, child, tomorrow and tomorrow still,
And every morrow hope; trust while you live,
Hope, each time the dawn doth heaven fill,
Be there to ask as God is there to give.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

CASE T-405: Eva G., aged 32, is the worried wife mentioned yesterday whose marriage was "on the rocks."
"Dr. Crane," she added, "although we had been married for 12 years, we still failed to understand each other."
"And it wasn't until your column outlined some cases similar to ours, that I finally found out why my husband was so jealous and caustic and critical, even of our children."
"Please keep on giving us actual office cases that show us how to avoid divorce."
"My husband is wonderful to me now, and I am sure we'll sail along happily till our Golden Wedding Day."
An occasional elderly spinster may go "Tch, Tch, that" awful Dr. Crane," and even write to her editor to have this column deleted from the newspaper.

A Chicago editor thus was scared by a prominent society leader who made such a protest on a swanky letterhead.
But I reminded the editor to check into the case more fully. So he found that this was an old maid, postulating about concrete marriage problems of which she had no medical or psychological personal knowledge whatsoever!
Father Kinney was delegated by his Bishop in Iowa to conduct a clinic for the special training of Catholic Priests in operating their splendid Canna Conferences. And Father Kinney asked

Who Needs The Platforms

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Skepticism, but not cynicism, is probably the right word in the exercise in verbosity that goes into the writing of our party platforms.

Maybe you could call it a periodic mythology, and not go wrong. Every four years, men and women, with a lot more important things to do, get to blabbering with incoherence about what "planks" will be inserted under the feet of Democratic and Republican candidates. But if the Policy (platform) committees of each party went pub-crawling in San Francisco or skin-diving at Atlantic City, their candidates would hardly know the difference.

It isn't possible for the Democratic platformers to write in sturdy protestations of honesty which will make people forget Bobby Baker. No amount of rhetoric in San Francisco will disguise the Republican rift between its Eastern and Western factions any more than the circumlocutions at Atlantic City will cover the chasm between the Northern and Southern Democrats.

It was not always so. There used to be planks that mattered. The Annexation of Texas and the Free (from slavery) Soil issues mattered a great deal in the anti-slavery party platforms. Sound money planks, which Bryan couldn't match, three times defeated the Democrats. The League of Nations matter probably gave us Harding instead of Cox in 1920. A call for repeal of Prohibition certainly helped Roosevelt to defeat Hoover.

All this is manifest to the press, and yet a lot of ink is being expended on the thesis that the Republican platform may possibly be constructed with a trap-door which will cause Senator Goldwater to do a disappearing act. Since the GOP platform committee will have two delegates from each state, it will hardly be loaded with persons who are out to stop Barry. Since the platform must be adopted by the convention, where Goldwater will be the strongest single contestant, the Senator is not very likely to be purged by that assembly.

Replican in Congress have had, since 1962, a Declaration of Principle and Policy, put together by a Joint Senate-House Committee. It was written and endorsed at a time when Goldwater was in the Senate and Scranton in the House. Cut down to the bare bones of its enunciation, here is what the Declaration says:

Furthermore, when she shows such concern for the moral tutelage of "those innocent little ones who will read Dr. Crane's column," she is giving me an undeserved compliment.

As a rule, it isn't till children reach the middle of Senior High that they dip into anything in a newspaper beyond the Comic Page.

Partisan posture: "Repulbicans of a free competitive economy. The present Administration does not."

No, for the critics usually make violent attacks, whereas one's friends say nothing (as was true of 9 of the 10 Lepers healed by Jesus).

No platform planks called upon Mr. Truman to delight whistle-stop audiences by denouncing that "no-good," but nothing 80th Congress. Nothing in all the locuquy of the 1952 GOP platform dictated Richard Nixon's lachrymose soliloquy about Checkers, his WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The reason the United States doesn't give the men in South Viet Nam better planes for their guerrilla fighting is simple: We don't have them.

The United States has developed some pretty hot fighters, cargo planes and bombers. These are sophisticated types for conventional or nuclear wars. Defense men say they're not suited for South Viet Nam.

Air Force strategists say privately they're not sure what the air role is. So Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara's planners are not certain what kind of a plane they want.

Nevertheless, development of a compromise guerrilla-war plane is now proceeding. Defense strategists specify the aircraft must be suitable generally for areas of Asia, Africa and Latin America where guerrilla wars may be likely.

The plane must be one native troops in backward countries could quickly learn to operate and repair. It must be able to take off on short, relatively unimproved runways, be highly maneuverable and able to fly at 50 miles an hour and at 3,000 ft. It should be usable for reconnaissance, ground support, bombing and for transporting six to eight soldiers to some hot spot.

McNamara's men are working on two approaches to the plane problem. They're experimenting with modifications of two types of training plane which already have a number of the good qualities sought—simplicity, versatility, ability to use short runways. These planes are being fitted with better engines and capsules or "pods" which can be attached to the wings for a particular mission, then detached when the plane is assigned another task. One pod would carry photo and other reconnaissance equipment; other pods would contain rockets, cannon or machine guns.

The hot new planes are too complicated for South Vietnamese to maintain. They land too fast and require super runways not generally available in guerrilla territory. They're too specialized for all-round guerrilla war requirements.

It should have two propellers and two pilots; if one propeller or one pilot is knocked out the other can bring the

If one of these training plane modifications works out, the guerrilla version could be ready in some quantity in 18 to 24 months.

Curfew Warns Of Trouble

UPI Foreign News Analyst Each evening at 8 o'clock from the fort across the Sarawak River from the center of Kuching, a cannon sounds an ancient curfew.

In sleepy Kuching it marks the passage of time and stands as a symbol of Sarawak's colonial past under three generations of white rajahs before it passed formally to Britain in 1946 and last September became a part of the new federation of Malaysia.

force must patrol a border 800 miles long, and some military experts estimate that in guerrilla warfare defenders must outnumber attackers by 20 to 1.

But in the skies above Kuching, jets of the royal air force scream notice of their passing and machine guns and radar ring Kuching's airport warning of new, grim times.

Kuching, a city of 50,000 is the capital of Malaysia's Sarawak state and is close to the front lines of the "confrontation" by which Indonesia's President Sukarno has vowed to crush the new fed-

It has been the United States' hope that this was one Asian quarrel which Asian leaders themselves could settle. And last week in Tokyo Sukarno and Prime Minister Abdul Rahman of Malaysia came together in a long-awaited summit meeting, along with President Diosdado Macapagal of the Philippines.

Domestic position: "We believe that Government should do for the people only the things they cannot do for themselves."

Foreign policy: "The overriding national goal must be victory over communism. . . . means understand the workings of a free competitive economy. The present Administration does not."

Defending Malaysia's borders are some 5,000 Malaysians, 2,000 British and 3,000 Gurkhas, the natives of Nepal who are among the best and toughest of the British fighting units in the Far East. It is a drain of Britain's military strength and a serious drain on Malaysia's economy.

Horoscope Forecast

Friday, June 25, 1964
GENERAL TENDENCIES:
 Hold steady to accepted and acceptable modes of procedure and resist that insistent temptation to go off on some tangent or to make some dramatic changes, for both good and adverse aspects now occur, bringing proven principles to the fore to be of service to you, but negating any possible benefits by erraticism.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Be steady and follow through on work assigned to you, instead of using strong will to go off on some tangent with others. Plans are being worked out. Do your part conscientiously.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Inspirational ideas can be put into operation, provided that you do not invest more than you can truly afford. Keep your promises tonight where recreation is concerned.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Your judgment is not very good today so be sure you listen to higher-ups, advisors. Don't rush heading into things because you feel restless. You could jeopardize present security.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) If you feel frustrated at home, take advantage of some opportunity for pleasure that presents itself. Then you can return to making out reports, etc., with vigor. Don't mope.

LEO (July 22 to August 23) Let your arrangements have a greater income if you avoid those pals who gossip and waste your time. Business experts will be a willing advisor. Be sure you understand all details.

VIRGO (August 24 to September 23) Better avoid higher-ups today who want someone on whom to vent ire or pile extra work upon. Accomplish much that has been left undone in the past.

LIBRA (September 24 to October 23) Concentrate upon whatever has to be done in order to get on with things. Don't go out trying to find a new job or outlets unknown to you. Do some studying for later for such.

SCORPIO (October 24 to November 21) Isn't it about time you contacted that clever person who has been such a help in the past? Don't rely on your intuition so much now. Good friends have answers you need.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Go directly to employer and ask for a raise, without first hashing things over with associate or angry mate. Then you succeed. Handle civic duties well, too.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20) Any course of action that is appealing is fine since it means advancement, but forget dull routines. Do only what is absolutely important. Then off to the new.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 18) You can now accomplish a great deal and yet lend a helping hand to those in trouble as well. Forget recreation for time being. This could make quite a hole in your pocket.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Come to better understanding with partners by sitting down and talking over any current problems quietly. Don't discuss anything with kin. Maintain harmony, be happy.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, you will soon find you have to teach to control a naturally volatile temper, since the willpower as well as the intellect here is considerable and much success is possible, provided that this one bad habit is curbed. Teach not to jump into things quickly, too. Early religious training is a must here.

The Stars Impel, that you do not compel. What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

The story involves a group of sophisticates at sex and homicidal plays on the Riviera. The acting is outstanding and the cast is headed by Gig Young, Nina Foch, the late Peter Lorre and Katherine Crawford. Scripter Luther Davis, incidentally, is also responsible for the film, "Lady in a Cage," which isn't likely to win any awards.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a highly respected professional man. My problem is his secretary. When I telephone my husband at his office, she always gives me some fresh answer, such as, "Yes, I'm sure he's here because I am sitting on his lap."

Once when I asked to speak to my husband, she said she would see if he was in condition to talk after chasing her around her desk all morning. I have never given this woman the impression that I like this sort of thing, and I am always too embarrassed to think of anything to say to her. I want to be considered a good sport but I do not wish to put up with any more of this. How should I handle it?

DEAR PUZZLED: Tell your husband exactly what his secretary has said to you. And if she isn't shipped out—or shaped up in one big hurry—your problem is a lot more serious than you think it is.

DEAR ABBY: I have been going steady with this girl for 14 months and I have kissed her only 11 times. Do you think this is good? Anyone else does that in ten minutes. I am 16 and she is 18. She doesn't have any reason to be afraid of me because I am not rough or anything like that. She told me over the phone last night that she wanted to break up with me. I started to cry on the phone and I told her that I loved only one girl, and she was her. Should I let her go and look for someone else? I can't make up my mind.

DEAR LOSING OUT: Perhaps you are still a little too young to go "steady" with anyone. Why not play the field and date several girls and make comparisons?

DEAR ABBY: Is it or is it not in good taste to apply make-up at the table after dining in public? I once sat at a table with a young woman who took out jars and tubes of creams and paints, as well as an assortment of paint brushes. Then she proceeded to outline her eyes and paint her lips as an artist would apply paint to a canvas. Your answer is desperately needed in this city.

The main test of a good partnership is its ability to bid slams successfully.

Thus, there are any number of ways to get to six spades with today's hand.

One way is for North to take off and bid six the moment his partner responds to his opening club bid. This time it would work. Next time South might hold the king-queen of diamonds instead of hearts and there would be no reasonable play for the slam against any opening lead.

Another way: North might open with a very sound two bid, whereupon South could take full charge.

Or there is the very nice

The key bid was Mrs. Hawes five hearts. She was very happy at four spades, but felt that John had to have very good spades to warrant his strong bidding and that there might conceivably be a slam in the hand.

It didn't take much courage on John's part to bid the slam once his partner showed heart strength.

Looking at the North-South cards only, there is no guarantee that the slam will make, but it certainly is a fine contract to be in and, since trumps broke 2-2, Mrs. Hawes was able to ruff her two losing diamonds in dummy.

"I was always proud of how well I got along with the men with whom I worked," writes a career woman.

"I thought it was a lot of nonsense about men resenting women in business."

"But after a few years I realized I wasn't on as good terms with them as I had once been, and I tried to figure out why."

"It finally dawned on me that in the beginning I didn't strive to impress a man with how smart I was. But gradually, as I took on more responsibility, I became eager to have men respect my brains."

"In trying to make them respect my mind I forgot it was even more important to show them how much I respected their opinions and ideas. Since then, I've noticed a lot of other career women making the same mistake. Maybe you could show them how wrong they are."

There doesn't need to be much added to that letter. The writer has made her own point.

Once a woman gets to thinking that she has a pretty good mind and wants to be sure that every man she meets recognizes the fact, she is well on the way to losing her femininity. She is repelling rather than attracting the men she meets socially.

Men don't really want to admire a woman's brains. If forced to acknowledge that a woman has a goodly supply of them, they'll do so — reluctantly.

That's why it is such a poor idea for a woman to force a man to acknowledge how smart she is.

Be pleasant and charming. The clue is to let a man realize, himself, how capable you are. He'll be so smug about his discovery that he won't resent you at all.

Little Mongolia Bone Of Red Contention

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.—(NEA)—It is no coincidence that Red China is stepping up hostilities against Russia's Asian satellite, Mongolia, while world attention is focused on Laos and Viet Nam.

"Never get tired of deception in war," is a cardinal tenet of Mao Tse-tung's military strategy. As he wrote in his book on war, "Feint at east and strike at west is the surest method to lead the enemy into a wrong estimate of the situation."

The "People's Republic of Mongolia," lodged in the heart of Asia between Russia and China, has long been a bone of contention between the two Red giants. It is the only one of Asia's three Communist states—the other two are North Viet Nam and North Korea—which has so far managed to keep free of direct domination by Red China.

But to escape the clutches of the Chinese dragon, little "independent" Outer Mongolia had to become a satellite of the Russian bear.

This is a situation that Mao Tse-tung is not likely to tolerate. Mongolia's frontier with China is nearly 4,000 miles long. It is a strategic area for potential Russian attacks on key industrial centers in North China and Manchuria. United Nations observers familiar with Moscow's war industry and transportation system believe that the Russians are preparing to use the country as a base in their confrontation with Red China.

Long a "protectorate" of Russia's czars, Mongolia is, for the present at least, in the grip of Russia's commissars. It is the sole Asian member of COMECON, Moscow's version of the European Common Market. It is largely due to Soviet aid that the Mongols have been able to build power stations, cement plants, leather and shoe factories, radio stations and some prefabricated housing.

Russia's East European satellites are pitching in to keep their Mongolian "ally" from thinking too fondly of the Chinese "blood brothers" to the south.

Ulan Bator, Mongolia's capital, is a city of formidable contrasts. A majority of its 120,000 inhabitants—one-tenth of the country's scarce population—still lives in mud huts and yurt tents which can be dismantled in a half-hour. But the Communist officials, Mongolia's new aristocracy, drive Soviet automobiles and inhabit modern housing projects built by the Russians.

No wonder the party bureaucrats side with Nikita Khrushchev in his quarrel with Mao Tse-tung. Mongolia's Russian-trained "prime minister," Yumshagin Tsedenbal, has been busy lately denouncing the "Chinese comrades" and fighting against the upsurge of "nationalistic tendencies."

The famous historian Tumor-Ochir was ousted from the Communist party for sponsoring a celebration on the occasion of the 800th anniversary of the birth of Genghis Khan, the great Mongolian ruler who once conquered China and Russia.

However, Red China warmly commemorated the Asian conqueror, who reached the banks of the Dnieper River in what now is Soviet Ukraine.

Nationalistic Mongolians obviously see the Russian-Chinese conflict as a chance to advance their drive for independence by playing with Peking. Tsedenbal complained recently that Chinese conspiracies in Ulan Bator were aimed at overthrowing his regime. In a strong note to Peking, he even threatened to break diplomatic relations with Red China.

Thus, Mongolia may yet be Khrushchev's Achilles' heel. Should it fall into Peking's clutches, the rest of Russia's so-called Asian republics will be open to Chinese subversion and eventual domination.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) has decided to require that cigarette advertising and labeling include a warning to the public of possible health hazards, it was announced today.

FTC Chairman Rand Dixon made the announcement during a congressional hearing on the controversy surrounding the effects of smoking on health.

Dixon did not specify what the regulation will contain. Nor did he say what type of label cigarette manufacturers would be required to carry on packages.

The FTC held hearings on proposed advertising and labeling regulations and since May 15 has been considering whether to adopt them and, if so, precisely in what form.

Tax Law May Go To High Court

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Next stop for Florida's controversial new law taxing sporting goods probably will be the state Supreme Court, but Circuit Judge Hugh Taylor provided some guidance Tuesday on what is taxable and what isn't.

Taylor upheld the 1963 law in a Leon County Circuit Court ruling. The tax amounts to five per cent at the wholesale level, and Judge Taylor said it should be collected on all items primarily designed and customarily used for hunting, fishing, camping, swimming or diving.

Hardware, sporting goods and bathing suit firms challenging the law are almost sure to appeal the case to the Supreme Court. Meanwhile tax collections are suffering because some firms are waiting to impose the tax until the matter is cleared up legally.

The tax is designed to finance a proposed $50 million bond issue to pay for new recreational lands in the state.

FTC To Require Smoke Warning

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) has decided to require that cigarette advertising and labeling include a warning to the public of possible health hazards, it was announced today.

FTC Chairman Rand Dixon made the announcement during a congressional hearing on the controversy surrounding the effects of smoking on health.

Bryant, Kynes Have Orders

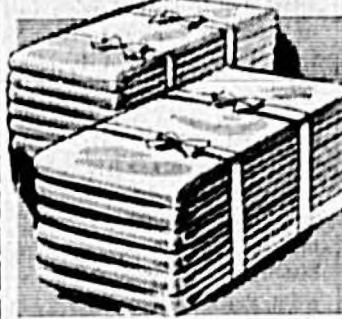

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Gov. Farris Bryant and Atty. Gen. James Kynes were ordered to appear in federal court in Jacksonville Friday to show cause why they should not be held in contempt of court.

The orders were delivered to Bryant and Kynes by a deputy federal marshal Tuesday. Judge Bryan Simpson issued the show cause orders after Bryant ordered a stop to night-time racial demonstrations in St. Augustine last Saturday. The judge had refused such a ban earlier and ordered police not to interfere with marchers in the troubled city.

Citrus Growers Hear Talk On Irrigation

The use of irrigation to supplement rainfall, practiced for years in Florida, was discussed Thursday night at a Home Demonstration Center meeting for area citrus grove owners.

The principal speaker for the session conducted by Seminole County Extension Service was Dr. R. C. J. Koo, assistant horticulturist at the Citrus Experiment Station.

Dr. Koo noted that the knowledge of soil and plant irrigation has not developed as rapidly as the engineering aspects of the problem and research at the experiment station is directed toward getting information about plant and soil moisture. This is done, he added, so irrigation can be more efficiently practiced.

The speaker discussed surface evaporation and methods to combat it through irrigation, loss of moisture as trees absorb it in roots and emit it in the form of vapor from leaves. These two items, he said, account for about 75 per cent of the water lost.

Surface runoff is not considered a problem due to the sandy soil, the horticulturist noted.

Irrigation tends to increase the size of fruit although it has little effect on the juice content, growers were told. However, irrigation does help considerably (about 15-20 per cent more) during prolonged drought.

Dr. Koo also discussed the timing of irrigation noting that fall and winter irrigation should be avoided because of a tendency to lower the fruit quality. "Frequent fall irrigation," he said, "is justified to hasten fruit maturity and to meet specific fruit size varieties for fresh market."

He added that "trees should not be allowed to go into permanent wilt any time of the year for good production practices."

"A weakened tree will not produce or stand cold as well as a healthy tree," he concluded.

City Picks Up 54 Tagless Dogs

The City Manager's office reported today that 54 dogs have been picked up in the city limits since the crackdown began one week ago.

Only one dog has been reclaimed by the owner and the others will soon be nearing the end of the line, as dogs picked up by the dog catcher are only held ten days and then are humanely destroyed.

Babies and license tags for dogs inside the city limits was June 18 and since that time, the dog catcher has been working full time to clear streets and yards of strays and untagged, unlicensed animals.

Fire Auxiliary Plans Delayed

Plans to organize a Women's Auxiliary for the newly formed Westside Volunteer Fire Department were temporarily postponed Thursday night upon agreement of some 30 residents attending the weekly meeting at the Lake Monroe Community Building.

In other business, presiding president George Bell appointed Nathan Stripling to take over the office of treasurer upon the resignation of Claude Hawkins. Appointed to the legal committee were Roy Brown and L. B. Legg who takes over for Drew Warren who also resigned.

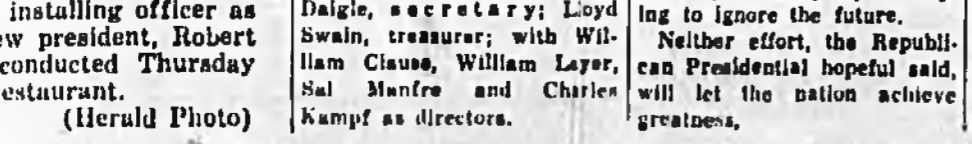

A special meeting of the board of directors was set for 7:30 p.m. Monday at which time maps of boundary lines will be prepared and decisions on needed equipment will be made. Reports will be made at the next general meeting which will be held at 8 p.m. July 1 at Wilson School in Paola.

Scranton Raps LBJ And Barry

DETROIT (UPI)—Gov. William Scranton hit out at the Johnson administration today for not believing in the future and at the Goldwater wing of the Republican party for trying to ignore the future.

Neither effort, the Republican Presidential hopeful said, will let the nation achieve greatness.

46 In Sanford, 427 And 436 Are Included

Seminole County's share of the $191 million State Road Department budget adopted Tuesday in Tallahassee amounts to $14 million and includes $200,000 in primary funds for the four-lane construction of SR 46 (25th Street) from French Avenue east to Mellonville Avenue in Sanford.

Also $300,000 was budgeted for the grading, paving and construction of 2.1 miles of SR 436 from the Orange County Line to Lake Howell.

No provision was made from primary funds for the construction of an interchange at the intersection of I-4 and Lake Mary Boulevard. According to County Engineer William Bush, it is unlikely that funds will be budgeted for such a project until Lake Mary Boulevard is paved.

Nor were funds appropriated for several other requested primary projects such as the two-lane construction of SR 426 from Goldenrod to SR 46 at Geneva, four-lane SR 48 from Mellonville Avenue in Sanford to the proposed Osteen Bridge, the four-lane SR 46 from I-4 west to the Lake County line, and slightly more than 13 miles of road from the intersection of S-425 and S-427 south across Lake Jessup, via Oviedo, to S-520 at the Orange County line.

Other primary funds were included for the paving of 1.32 miles of SR 415 from SR 15 east to the city limits of Sanford.

Secondary funds were approved for two-lane right-of-way and construction of 427 from SR 436 north to 434; acquiring right-of-way for the four-lane SR 46 from French to Mellonville Avenues, construction and right-of-way acquisition for two-lane 427 from 434 two miles north to ACL tracks at Gen. Hutchinson Parkway and 5.5 miles from that point north to 425 at Glendeville.

Also included were funds for two-lane right of way and construction of 4.1 miles of 426 from Goldenrod north to Oviedo to eliminate dangerous curves, to acquire right-of-way for 2.1 miles of 436 from Lake Howell south to the Orange County line, and the construction of railroad crossing signals on S-15 near Lake Mary, West 25th Street in Sanford, on O'Brien Road near Altamonte Springs, and on 427 northeast of Altamonte Springs.

Included in the budget are funds for the four-lane construction of 2.2 miles of SR 436 from U. S. 17-92 west to I-4. This project is already under contract.

The state board also budgeted $400,000 for preliminary county wide engineering on five other secondary road projects.

Disturbance Spotted East Of Barbados

MIAMI (UPI) — A strong weather disturbance 11h wind gusts up to 50 miles an hour has been discovered in the Atlantic, about 400 miles east of Barbados, the weather bureau said today.

"Conditions are considered favorable for intensification," the Miami Weather Bureau reported.

Forecasters predicted the disturbance probably would affect the Lesser Antilles Islands at the southeastern corner of the Caribbean tonight.

A hurricane hunter plane was en route to the scene and the San Juan, P. R., weather bureau was preparing a weather bulletin on the disturbance.

If the disturbance develops sustained circulatory winds of 39 miles per hour or greater it would become the first tropical storm of the 1964 season and be named Abby.

ETV Engineer To Be Employed By Board

Seminole County's Board of Public Instruction voted Thursday to retain an engineer to prepare plans for the installation of central antenna systems at various schools for the conversion of the new ETV station's UHF signals to VHF so that some 190 sets now in Seminole schools can get proper reception.

Two representatives of the Brandon Electric Co., DeLand, appeared before the board and confirmed earlier engineering reports that the central antenna system would be the most practical for schools in this system.

The board was faced with the choice of converting each of the present VHF sets or establishing central antenna and converting systems. When the engineer is retained and specifications are prepared, the project, estimated to cost in the neighborhood of $20,000 to $25,000, will be awarded to the low bidder.

In other action Thursday the board awarded the purchase of paints to the Glidden Paint Company for the 1964-65 school year. The firm will provide paints through the Gator Lumber Company of Sanford.

It also opened bids from seven firms to provide gasoline, oil, fuel oil and kerosene and referred them to Administrative Assistant Walter Teague. He was directed to review them and make recommendations to the board. Teague was asked to do the same on bids for supplying school furniture, audio visual equipment, adding machines and typewriters. Sewing machines will be provided by the Sanford Sewing Center, the only bidder on this item.

Members of the board also decided to proceed with the construction of the music department at Crooms High School without making possible changes suggested by the State Board of Education, directed principals to promptly report to the school system's office any items of furniture or equipment stolen or missing, retained architect John Burton III on an hourly basis to prepare plans for the student driving range at Seminole High School, called for bids on industrial arts and supplies and renewed its agreement with Lester E. Levy of the Office Equipment Exchange for maintenance and repair of machines.

Youth Named To House Job

Ronnie Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall, of 2300 Elliot Ave. has received an appointment from Congressman Syd Herlong to serve as a page in the House during the remainder of the present session of Congress.

Hall will leave by train Monday for the nation's capital and begin his duties July 1. While in Washington, he will board in a home near the Capitol along with several other pages.

A senior at Seminole High School next year, Hall is a member of the Student Council, the National Honor Society and the Science Club.

"This is quite an honor and I am happy to have the privilege of serving as a page this summer," said Hall.

After graduation next year, he plans to enroll at the University of Florida as a pre-med student.

Snoozing Boy Awakens Alone

No matter how good a movie is, when an eight-year-old boy gets sleepy, he sleeps.

That's what happened to Scott Comfort of Fifth Street and French Avenue Thursday night. And when he woke up at the Ritz Theater he was all alone.

Scott let out a few yelps; he was heard by patrolling police, let out of the theater and taken home. The police report shows this was 1:14 a. m., long past any eight-year-old's bedtime.

Two Quakes Hit New Hampshire

LACONIA, N. H. (UPI) — Two dish-rattling earthquakes about 50 minutes apart shook central New Hampshire today.

The tremors were the second earth shocks in the area in three months.

"It sounded like a train roaring through the valley," said a Claremont man who lives on a hilltop.

Brevard Orders

ORLANDO (UPI) — Federal Judge George C. Young has ordered Brevard County officials to file a stepped-up school desegregation plan with the court by July 21.

DOUBLE BUBBLE GUM TROUBLE is experienced by Brenda Patterson as she demonstrates the technique she used to win the Pinecrest School bubble gum blowing contest. The Herald's photographer, Bill Vincent, says Brenda excused the smallness of the bubble because she didn't have time to work up a good mixture before offering the demonstration. Brenda chewed away as fast as she could—inhaled deeply, let go—and came up with this sticky problem. (Herald Photo)

Bubble, Bubble, The Biggest—No Trouble

Grand champion bubble blower at Pinecrest is Brenda Patterson.

Brenda blew the biggest bubble gum bubble at the contest which climaxed the week's activities last week.

Blowing the biggest bubbles were Kenneth Smith in the five year old group; Christine Walraven, six year olds; Curtis Hawks, seven year olds; Donna Smith, eight year olds; Cheryl Black, nine year olds; Barbara Robinson, ten year olds; Bobby Collins, 11 year olds; Andy Rufus, 12 year olds; Dale Hancock, 13 and 14 year olds.

Brenda Patterson won a prize for blowing a double bubble.

Approximately 250 children were registered last week at the school. Some of the varied activities enjoyed during the week included softball games, gymnastics, track events and small group games.

Supervisors are Tom Leonard, Bud Long and Jim Barnes.

Mrs. Margaret Lear, arts and crafts instructor assisted the children with plaster molding, braiding, coloring, painting and making cards.

A dance program, under the direction of Mrs. Doris Duxbury, schedules a different type of activity each day.

Special events for the week included softball games, track events, football, soccer, kick ball and ping pong.

Youth Killed

BARTOW (UPI) — Donald Grady Lewis, 22, Bartow, was killed late Thursday night when his motorcycle crashed into a bicycle inside the city limits during a high-speed chase by police.

Youth Named To House Job

Ronnie Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall, of 2300 Elliot Ave. has received an appointment from Congressman Syd Herlong to serve as a page in the House during the remainder of the present session of Congress.

Hall will leave by train Monday for the nation's capital and begin his duties July 1. While in Washington, he will board in a home near the Capitol along with several other pages.

A senior at Seminole High School next year, Hall is a member of the Student Council, the National Honor Society and the Science Club.

"This is quite an honor and I am happy to have the privilege of serving as a page this summer," said Hall.

After graduation next year, he plans to enroll at the University of Florida as a pre-med student.
